

Evening Classes Start For Adults

Adults who want a better basic education and who want to learn more of the English language will have a second chance beginning next week.

Registration for evening classes in Adult Basic Education has been announced for next Tuesday, Oct. 8, in the foyer at Colorado High School, between 7 p.m. and 9 p.m.

Lloyd McKee, assistant superintendent of Colorado Independent Schools, also announced that classes will begin Tuesday, Oct. 15, at 7 p.m. in the high school building.

Classes will include reading, arithmetic, writing, and speaking in the English language.

"Purpose of the program," said McKee, "is to provide the elementary level of education useful in adult life, to persons 18 years old or older."

McKee, who will direct the Adult Basic Education program here, also stressed the fact that classes are free. "There is absolutely no cost to anyone who attends," he said.

Funds for the ABE classes are provided under Title 3 of the Elementary & Secondary Education Act, passed by the National Congress in 1966.

Funds are administered through the Texas State Education Agency for 90 percent of the program. Remaining 10 percent of the cost is paid by Colorado Independent School District.

Two teachers and two teacher aids will be instructors for the various courses.

Miss Ann Carville, who teaches English in Colorado High School, and Mrs. Orin Feaster, sixth grade teacher at Wallace Elementary School, will be teachers with Mrs. Simon Herrera and Miss Adelita Ornelas as teacher aids.

Adult Basic Education advisory committee members are Sister Agusta of St. Ann's Catholic Church, Mrs. Kenneth Cowan, Trevelyn Kelley, T. P. Fowler, John Russell, Arlene Morris, Porter Richardson, Mrs. Dessie Lynch, Eulalia Ornelas, Larry Kharr, Mrs. Simon Herrera, McKee and James G. McMahon, superintendent of Colorado Independent Schools.

Classes are held two nights each week.

First classes held under the Adult Basic Education program here attracted a total of 78 enrollees. Forty-two of that number successfully completed the ABE course. A number of the original 78 who did not complete the prescribed courses will enroll again this term, said McKee.

Public graduation exercises for the 42 adults who completed the 100 hours of ABE were held and diplomas presented in Colorado High School auditorium late in March.

All interested citizens and school patrons are asked by the administration office of public schools to assist the advisory committee in publicizing the registration time next Tuesday.

Additional details may be had by calling RA 8-4581.

Parham Is Wounded Cloud Back On Duty In Vietnam

Sp-4 Jesse Wayne Parham, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Gene Parham of 1004 East 6th St., was slightly wounded in Vietnam, Friday, Sept. 27, according to word received here late Saturday.

Sp-4 Parham has been stationed with the 199th Light Infantry Brigade, Saigon. In Vietnam since February, he had previously been on combat duty in the Long Binh area.

News of his wound gave few details other than to qualify the message with "slightly wounded by fragments from friendly mortar fire directed at a hostile enemy force."

Letters to his parents have related that his recent duty has been to help guard bridges and important buildings in Saigon, capital of the Republic of South Vietnam.

He is currently under treatment in a hospital in Vietnam.

Back on duty in Vietnam is another Colorado City soldier, Sp-4 Clarence E. Cloud, Jr., son of Clarence E. Cloud, Sr.

According to Mrs. Bonnie Burt, executive secretary of Mitchell County Red Cross, Cloud was wounded in his left wrist, Sept. 17.

Casualty Branch at Washington, D. C. reports Cloud back on duty after recovering from his wounds.

Wayland Webb Funeral Held

Wayland G. Webb, 58, died in Abilene at 10:20 p.m. Thursday after a four year illness.

Webb received severe head injuries when he fell from a ladder while painting at the local oil mill, August 3, 1964. He had been an invalid since and never fully regained consciousness.

He was a patient at Methodist Hospital at Lubbock for a year and had spent the last three years as a patient in Williamsburg Nursing Home at Abilene.

Born January 30, 1910, in Eastland County, he was married to the former Miss Georgie Pearl Weeks, June 1, 1934. Mr. Webb was employed by Firestone Co. for 17 years and later was manager of a cotton gin in Colorado City.

Steakley Doubtful Wolves Crippled For Lamesa

Coach Truman Nix looked like a guy about to go into the hospital business Wednesday instead of a coach prepping his club for 3-AAA encounter.

His medical bulletins indicated all-stater Dan Steakley a doubtful starter and four other standout performers nursing serious wounds.

The bad news from sickbay came as the Wolves, hopeful of staying in the district championship race, prepared for its Friday evening encounter here in Colorado City against Lamesa Tornado.

Lamesa is the big, fast club, which lost to pre-season favorite Sweetwater, 6-12, in a district opener and then walloped Slaton, 34-0 before falling to potent co-leader Lubbock Estacado.

Kickoff time for this decisive encounter, which will either bolster or just about kayo C-City's title bid, will be 7:30 o'clock at Wolf Stadium.

The Wolves, fresh from a 35-13 triumph against San Angelo Lake View, are in the thick of the district championship competition after stepping up to the big AAA district from AA.

They whacked Levelland 32-0 in their opener, then stumbled 14-15 to Brownfield in a game the Wolves should have won for a 2-1 record.

So, they face each game down the long 10-contest district campaign knowing that one more loss will leave Estacado, Sweetwater and Lubbock Dunbar up at the top battling all alone.

At the same time, just as the injury list becomes more serious, the Wolves know they must battle through the campaign with thin line of proven talent - a reserve list that is not nearly so hefty as the larger 3-AAA clubs.

Here is the latest chart on Coach Nix's hurt list:

Steakley - Jogging practice (out of all major drills) trying to bring a severely injured ankle into shape. It sent him into the sidelines last week after he carried the ball one time in the second half.

"I will not play him if he is not absolutely ready Friday night," Nix said. "We are not going to aggravate the injury."

"I'm not saying he will not play, but he is not in condition now and he will have to show much improvement."

Grubbs - The heady quarterback who engineers the Wolf attack, does the kicking, passing and a share of the running, likely to see only limited duty. He has been out of rough work in practice after a thigh muscle

Griffith Wins First

Randy Griffith, 903 Rusk St., won first prize, $10 cash, in last week's Colorado City Record football guessing contest.

Griffith missed eight winners, a tie with two other contestants, but came closest to the key game score giving Colorado City 35 points, Lakeview 6. Actual score was 35-13.

Dave Sanders, winner of second prize of $8, also missed eight winners, guessing the game of the week score at 35-0, Colorado City, Mrs. Dave Sanders, 421 Walnut, placed third to win the $5 cash prize. Her key game guess was 30-0, Colorado City.

Parker Plows Toward Pay Dirt

Carrying ball at right, is Randy Parker, halfback for the Colorado Wolves, who accounted for 8 points against Lake View Friday night in San Angelo. Parker scored on a pass from Keaton Grubbs, quarterback, then tossed a pass himself to add the two extra points. Parker was a standout on both offense and defense. At left are Larry Parham, guard, Sammy Majors, guard, with David Garcia, halfback, in the back-ground.

Ezell Music, Supply Opens For Business

Opening of Ezell Music and Supply was announced this week by W. H. Ezell, owner and operator of the new Colorado City business.

The new business is now located in Sanderson Jewelry at 135 East Second Street.

The two businesses plan to move across the street to a remodeled building at 140 East Second Street about Oct. 15.

Ezell Music and Supply has Fender guitars, including the 12 string guitar; amplifiers, picks and accessories; Rogers drums, several used guitars and a large stock of Timex watches.

In announcing his Fender line of instruments, Ezell said, "Fender instruments are American made and the easiest instruments played. The Fender line is owned by Columbia Broadcasting System."

Ezell also emphasized that he will special order any Fender instrument not carried in stock.

A spring graduate of Colorado High School, Ezell has studied music approximately 10 years and has played professional for the past eight years.

He will instruct private guitar and drum lessons at $1.50 per 30 minutes study.

Ezell was reared in Colorado City and lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Ezell, at 1143 Chestnut Street.

John Paul Matthews, the senior 199-pound dual center—ready to play but only with a special knee brace. He has a Carl Devorce, the huge 236-pound sophomore who shoved into the starting line up as the other dual center, is nursing a swollen ankle which was kicked again in practice this week.

"He will play and we hope he'll be close to full speed," said Nix.

Kenney Key, the fine senior end—out two days this week with flu. He also will be back on the front line Friday night, but not at full strength.

If Steakley is confined to the sidelines, the Wolves will be without the speedy muscle that ripped opponents for 327 yards and five touchdowns in three games.

His shoes will be filled by junior David Garcia, 160-pounder who has been impressive in relief. He scored one touchdown and averaged 3.4 yards per carry in the last half against Lake View.

Taking over at quarterback when Grubbs goes to the sidelines will be Alfred Guerrero, another junior who showers before tipping the scales at 140.

He can run and pass, too, but of course does not have the experience of the senior quarterback.

The Wolves must not only put up a sturdy ground defense, but its best pass defense if it is successful against Lamesa.

Coach Donald Jay's Golden Tornado traveled for 225 yards in their losing effort against Estacado and 165 of the distance was on passes tossed by the rangy quarterback, Terry Kinard.

Kinard peppered Estacado's defense with 25 throws, completing nine for 105 yards.

Before they encountered the brutal swiftness of Estacado, the state's No. 10 ranked team, the Tornado defense gave up only 300 yards, all total, against Sweetwater and Slaton.

Larry Harris, who relieves

Kinard in the passing department, tossed five completions for 60 yards.

Their favorite target is Steve Burdett.

Gifts for Community Kindergarten

Mrs. Dick Wistrand, coordinator for city recreational activities, and Mrs. Don Fite of Zeta Delta Study Club look over play equipment made by the club and presented to kindergarten Monday morning. Kindergarten children already making use of the new equipment are Sterling Braswell and Lisa Drake, playing with the blocks in foreground; Brent Fite at the puppet stage and Jana Bassinger, playing in the Grocery Store. Mrs. Fite was project chairman for Zeta Delta.

Zeta Delta Club Gives Play Equipment to Kindergarten

Kindergarten students at the Community Center now have several pieces of new play equipment.

The equipment was donated to the Center Monday by members of Zeta Delta Study Club who made the playthings as a project to begin their new club year.

Donated were building blocks, large dominoes, a puppet stage complete with hand puppets and a grocery store.

Mrs. Don Fite was chairman of the project.

During a meeting of the club last Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Eddie Braswell it was announced that Mrs. D. W. Houston won a painting, given by the club at the recent Mitchell County Fair.

Mrs. Dave Sanders, new club president, will represent the group at a Mesquite District of Texas Federation of Women's Club workshop Oct. 19 in Merkel.

It was announced that the club had donated stuffed animals, made by Mrs. Mary Lee Moore, to West Texas Rehabilitation Center in Abilene.

Plans for a special Americanism Day program set for next Thursday were made during the evening. Mrs. Hubert Bassinger will review the book, "Presidential Elections" by Nelson W. Polsey and Aaron B. Wildavsky beginning at 7:30 p.m. in Medallion Room of Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative building.

Program for the last meeting was "Birds-eye View of HemisFair", presented by Mrs. Mike Wadlington including projection slides, pamphlets, booklets and lecture.

Mrs. Wadlington explained that the idea of HemisFair was conceived 10 years ago by a San Antonio businessman whose purpose was to stimulate trade with Latin America, particularly Mexico.

The businessman purposed permanent buildings erected on fair grounds that emphasized cultural, scientific, religious and industrial developments between this country and Latin America.

The idea was kept alive during the following years by businessmen in San Antonio, the group was told.

Mrs. Wadlington explained that the HemisFair theme is "Confidence of civilization in the Americas". The symbol resembles the concentric circle and it's intention is to represent the converging in the Western Hemisphere of immigration from other parts of the world with a resilient blending of cultures.

The speaker presented a detailed description of the Tower of Americas, pavilions of Texas, United States of America, Women, San Antonio, Convention Center, Organization of American States, Panama, France, Belgium, Mexico, Canada, Switzerland and Spain.

She also pointed out that pavilions were not only sponsored by countries but also by industries including IBM, Coca Cola, Frito-Lay, and AT&T.

In closing her remarks Mrs. Wadlington described Fiesta Island, a playground for the younger set.

Program was closed with the group singing "Texas, Our Texas".

Mrs. Richard Keathley and Mrs. Larry Ivy were guests for the evening.

Members attending were Mrs. Bassinger, Mrs. Fite, Mrs. Rodney James, Mrs. Charles Maughon, Mrs. Eddie Piland, Mrs. Tommy Rees, Mrs. Dave Sanders, Mrs. Doug Simmons, Mrs. Wadlington, Mrs. Dennis Wright and the hostess.

Johnny Baumanns Reside Here After Church Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Baumann are living at 850 East 13th Street following their recent marriage in Lightfoot Street Church of Christ in Loraine.

Mrs. Baumann is the former Nancy Hays, daughter of Mrs. Melvin Walker of Colorado City and Elmer Lee Hays of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Baumann of Loraine are parents of the bridegroom.

The couple was married Sept. 14 in a double ring ceremony read by Jerris Bullard, church minister.

Altar was marked with an arch covered with lemon leaves and white chrysanthemums.

Wedding music was sung by Miss Patrice Baumann of Loraine, sister of the groom, and an a cappella choir from Colorado City under the direction of Don Browne.

The bride, given in marriage by Mr. Walker, wore a floor-length gown of Alencon lace re-embroidered with seed pearls and peau de soie. The wide A-line skirt extended into a chapel train.

Her veil of illusion was attached to a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white orchid surrounded by stephanotis.

Miss Cindy Waldrip of Colorado City was maid of honor. Miss Kim Wilson, also of Colorado City, was bridesmaid. They wore formal gowns of hot pink crepe and carried bouquets of white pom pom chrysanthemums. Terri Nowell, cousin of the bride, was flower girl; Jerry Mason, ring-bearer.

Billy Tasso's of San Antonio served as best man. James Mahon of Abilene was groomsman.

Candles were lighted by Larry Hays, the bride's brother, and Ronnie Lindsey.

Ushering guests were Randy Britton of Loraine and Tommie Lindsey of Fort Worth.

Miss Diana Baumann, sister of the groom, registered wedding guests.

A reception at the church followed the marriage ceremony.

Brewer, who is attending an air control school at the Santa Ana Marine Base, is on a two-week furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Brewer of Dallas.

Mrs. P. E. Clawson was elected president of the Homemakers Class of First Baptist Church Sept. 24 during a meeting in the home of Mrs. B. D. Taylor.

'The Pink Jungle' Coming to Palace

Universal's free-swinging action-comedy, "The Pink Jungle", coming Oct. 13 to the Palace Theatre stars James Garner, George Kennedy, Eva Renzi and Nigel Green.

The movie is based on "Snake Water", a novel by Alan Williams with screenplay by Charles Williams.

The story deals with what happens when two highly sophisticated cosmopolites are thrust into the wilderness of one of the world's most primitive areas.

Sophisticates are Garner, as a highly paid glamor photographer, and Miss Renzi, as a cover girl assigned to pose against the jungle wilds of South America to promote a new line of cosmetics.

While on their assignment they encounter two adversaries, Kennedy and Green, who entrap the transplanted New Yorkers in a mad safari to uncover a lost diamond mine.

A reception at the church followed the marriage ceremony.

CONVERSATION CORNER

How can any heart stay sober
These heady hours of October
With autumn due to paint the trees—
And pro football... and World Series?

NOTHING in the world so broadens the interests of a woman as being married to a man.

Time was, way back there, when Babe Ruth just meant a candy bar. Plate was either china or pottery. Gloves should be kid, preferably white. Bat was a flying mammal—first and a stick boys knocked a ball around with second.

Cardinals were the most beautiful of all birds in Texas... Tigers were what people went to see at the zoo or in the circus and were also star characters in the story for children, "Little Black Sambo."

Nothing in this world changes a woman's viewpoint like being married to a man.

TIME WAS when passes were what Dorothy Parker said men don't make at girls who wear glasses.

Now, at our house, pass is one of the fine synonyms for Don Meredith, Cowboy quarterback.

Keeps a woman on her toes to remember the difference in a tight end and a wing back.

Time was when offensive meant rude, unpleasant, disgusting. Defense was usually followed by the word mechanism in psychology books.

It is impossible to watch pro football with a man and remain in such ignorance.

Nothing broadens a woman's vocabulary like being married to a man.

PUZZLING thing is how a wife learns the lingo of the masculine spouse. Not why, HOW.

And at the same time how she never can teach the man to pick up her kind of phrases.

It just doesn't seem to work both ways. To a man the beautifully berried pyracantha stays "that bush by the porch."

Stretch slacks are still pants.

Ask him if he thinks the Richard Burton marriage will last and he yawns "Richard who?"

He takes no interest in fashions—except the Miss America pageant, doesn't know a sonnet from a salmon croquette or a chignon from a chocolate éclair.

MOST PECULIAR quirk of all, though, is the man's attitude toward small talk and even the most harmless bits of gossip.

He not only can, he WILL tell his wife the batting averages, the win-loss record of football teams, and who won the Pro-Am tourney year before last. He just can't seem to place a player named Muskie.

Ask him "What do you know?" and he'll say "Nothing much." It's only when the woman tells him something fascinating like who's getting married that he chimes in with "Yeah. Somebody was telling me that last week."

Nothing in life is so educational to a woman as living in a man's world—specially if it's HER man doing the educating.

HEAR TELL our Mrs. L. W. Sandusky is moving to Abilene to share the home of her only daughter Muff Hutchinson, recently widowed.

Hear too, that the jogging trio spotted at Lorraine each evening is made up of George Mahoney, his wife Addie, and their son Nubbin.

And that the array of menus from fancy restaurants on display at the library foyer belong to Mabel (Mrs. Frank) Kelley.

SEEN LATELYS included Mildred Free (Mrs. A. A. Free) on the shopping scene... Loraine Rogers (Mrs. Nathan) in a lovely shade of palest powder blue.

Met for the first time Lloyd McKee, assistant superintendent of schools. He finished high school at Crozier Tech in Dallas before starting his college career at North Texas State University, Denton.

Saw pretty Pearl Northcutt, wife of Jake at the library... Ruth Dozier and Clorene Stewart, wife of A. B., too... chic Naomi Rhode, wife of Dr. Bill, was an office dropout.

FAMILIAR FACES, here and there places, belonged to Bonnie Burt... Billy Wilkinson, that nice Methodist preacher, consuming a lunch counter salad course and thinking out loud about the opportunities of this space age for expanding the knowledge of the race of man.

Chatted a minute with Pat Moore and Carolyn (Mrs. Stan) Clodfelter of the local gas office... Corydon Elliot was on the downtown scene... Eddie Braswell, too.

David Stubblefield, son of Ernestine and C. N., was around selling magazine subscriptions for benefit of the CHS Junior class.

DID you know that our Bob Ratliff is studying piano this fall? Bravo for Bob!

That Mae Fuller fell and sprained an ankle while working in her yard?

That Bob and Opal Shepherd of Houston will be here for Old-Timer Reunion?

That Mary and Bruce Hart swung by Las Vegas, Nevada, enroute home from their California vacation?

Did you know the Willie Landaus had as weekend guests Selma's sister Gladys, her husband Dr. Raymond Abrams, and their son, Loryn, senior in Greenhill High School, of Dallas?

And that it is now just eight weeks until Thanksgiving... and 12 weeks until Christmas?

Gutierrez Rites Held

Funeral services for Mrs. Elena Gutierrez, 74, were conducted at 6 p.m. Saturday by Father Francis Arbet in St. Ann's Catholic Church with burial following in Mitchell County cemetery.

Born in Mexico Aug. 18, 1894, she had lived in Colorado City for the past 50 years. Mrs. Gutierrez died at 4:35 p.m. Friday in Root Memorial Hospital. She was a member of St. Ann's Church.

Zetagathian Club Installs Officers at Dinner Meet

New Zetagathian Study Club officers were installed during the group's re-assembly dinner and program last Thursday evening in party room at Villa Inn.

Mrs. L. S. Girvin Jr. was installed as president for the 1968-69 club year.

Mrs. Curtis Latimer took the office of vice president.

Other new officers are Mrs. O. B. Trulock Jr., recording secretary; Mrs. Wallace Price, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Sam L. Majors Jr., treasurer; Mrs. Warren Anderson, parliamentarian; Mrs. Larry Kinard, historian-librarian, and Mrs. W. S. Rhode, reporter.

Mrs. Anderson, retiring president, challenged members to "keep your channels of communication open" and back the new president 100 percent during the new club course of study, "Channels of Communication."

Mrs. Anderson installed new officers using a tree for a symbol for unity. Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Billy Wilkinson sang "Tress" by Joyce Kilmer.

The installing officer compared the president's office to a tree trunk; vice president, the tap root; yearbook committee, tree branches; treasurer, sap of the tree.

Additional officers were compared to the fruit of the trees; the members, the leaves.

In Mrs. Girvin incoming president's address, she said, "Club work is therapy for a lot of women. It gives them something to think about besides how to disguise leftovers or how to remove crayola stains from pockets after they have been through the dryer."

"We all like clubwomen."

"Some of our best friends are clubwomen," she continued. "Of course, we like some better than others—program chairmen, for instance. Program chairmen rate a special place in heaven."

"While the rest of the membership and officers spend a quiet summer, the program chairman and her committee members never sleep. The president spends a few anxious evenings rolling and tossing and making plans to have her appendix removed early in September so she can relinquish the gavel to the vice president.

"But the poor program chairman has no time for all this. She is busy trying to fight the battle of party lines, members on vacation, etc."

The new president advised future club presidents "to be grateful for the honor, be brave as you plan your operation and be gracious when you apply to the telephone company for an unlisted number."

Before concluding her talk, Mrs. Girvin thanked Zetagath-ians for the honor of being their new president.

Hostesses for the evening were members of the yearbook committee—Mrs. R. F. Fee Jr., Mrs. Ann Davis and Mrs. Larry Kinard.

An arrangement of purple and white wild flowers emphasized the color theme. Lavender streamers extending lengths of the tables were marked with clusters of wild flowers. Place cards were in replicas of miniature TV sets carrying out the year's course of study.

Members attending were Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. J. S. Craddock Jr., Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Fee, Mrs. J. R. Fuller, Mrs. Girvin, Mrs. Kinard, Mrs. Latimer, Mrs. Majors, Mrs. John U. Martin.

Also, Mrs. Price, Mrs. Rhode, Mrs. Trulock, Mrs. W. J. Waldrup and Mrs. Wilkinson.

would you believe 26%

Would you believe that the average price per kilowatt-hour of electric energy to our residential customers is 26% less than it was ten years ago?

No? Well, lots of people have questions when we say this because they are paying bigger electric bills and don't fully realize just how much more electricity they are using now than they were a few years ago.

It has been possible for us to hold down the price of electricity primarily because: (1) we are selling more electricity to more customers and (2) because of the greater efficiency of new and modern equipment.

But even with these factors, keeping the price low has been increasingly difficult. Like everyone else, we are having to pay more for nearly everything. Interest rates, payroll, fuel costs, materials and equipment prices, and taxes have kept going up.

Keeping the price of electricity down is a constant battle, and we work at it every day because good, economical electric service is so important to everyone.

We want electric service always to be the biggest bargain in your family budget.

Putting-you-firsts:

(A quick tour of some of the thoughtful new features the 1969 Chevrolets offer that other cars in Chevrolet's field don't.)

Headlight washers

You push the windshield washer knob and hold it, and your headlights come clean.

Fluid is diverted to two jet nozzles at each light lens. (Outer lights only on duals.)

The spray removes up to 80% of accumulated dirt.

The feature is standard on 1969 Corvettes. It comes with the hidden headlights available on Camaro, Caprice and Kingswood Estate Wagons. It is available on all other models except Corvair.

Heated glass

In a moment your rear window will self-defrost.

Because we've built onto it a network of tiny ceramic strips capable of heating the entire surface.

Fog and frost disappear quickly and quietly. You just flick a switch.

The heated rear window is available on the 1969 Caprice Coupe and Impala Custom Coupe.

Pushbutton tire chains

You press a button on the instrument panel and the rear tires get a shot of "liquid tire chain."

You spin your wheels once, wait a moment, and you're off—with traction you wouldn't believe possible on slick ice, or packed snow.

Available on all 1969 big Chevrolets.

Steering wheel lock

When you own a car as desirable as the 1969 Chevrolet, you don't take chances.

When you leave it, you lock it.

Not just the doors. You lock the ignition, steering wheel and transmission lever, too.

Our new lock on the steering column takes care of all that.

Standard on all 1969 Chevrolets, Chevelles, Chevy Novas, Camaros and Corvettes.

Sorry, car thieves.

Power steering plus

The 1969 Caprice, Impala and Camaro are available with a new type of power steering.

Variable-ratio power steering.

What it does is give you faster steering with fewer turns of the wheel.

Variable-ratio power steering is particularly helpful in short, full turns.

And parking becomes unbelievably easy. You'll see.

Walk-in wagons

The tailgate swings open like a door on most of our 1969 station wagons.

Which in itself is no big deal. But wait, there's more.

We've built a concealed step into the rear bumper.

You simply step up, over, and in.

(The way we build our wagons, you can do it without bumping your head, and without acrobatics.)

Walk into a wagon soon at your Chevrolet dealer's.

'69 Impala Custom Coupe

Putting you first, keeps us first.

BEEF
meeting more and more competition for the consumers' dollar at the meat counter.

The beef production shortcourse here will deal with methods of producing beef at a lower cost and ways of producing the kind of beef that the homemaker wants to buy. The course will include such important fields as the meat-type steer, selecting bulls and replacement heifers, proper range use, and supplemental winter feeding. The course can be changed to meet the wishes and interests of the farmers and ranchers enrolled.

"Short courses in beef production, as well as in other areas, are now available to farmers throughout the state under the cooperative program between the Texas Education Agency and Texas A & M University," according to Bob Jaska, associate professor, Department of Agricultural Education at Texas A & M University, who coordinates the program for Texas A & M.

IMPRESSIVE

When gents like Farris Lipps retire out at Col-Tex you become impressed again with all the years of work and citizenship which industry has provided our community.

Thirty-five years and 28 days for Farris, alone. Multiply that by all the other "seniors" who have made Col-Tex refining since the 1920's and you quickly count into the hundreds of service years.

All of which should impress upon us, not only the fineness of these industry men, but also the fact that we should evaluate and understand all of our industry as a dynamic community force day-by-day.
