NEWS RUNS BEST AD IN UNITED STATES

First prize for the best public utility institutional advertising in the United States has been awarded to the advertising department of the Lone Star Gas System, but the Public Utilities Advertising Association. More than 100 companies in the United States and Canada with several thousand ads were entered in the contest. The company also won honorable mention for an ad entitled "A Timely Reminder" which urged preparation for winter heating.

The winning ad appeared in this newspaper and other Texas newspapers last fall and was titled "Your Gas Dollar—What Becomes of It?" The advertisement displayed a large dollar divided into various sections, showing that 93 cents of each gas dollar stays in Texas, being spent for materials, supplies, gas, taxes and wages. Taxes alone, according to the company, amount to 54 cents per month for each customer on the system. The theme of the ad was that most of the money paid out by customers for gas is put right back into the state to maintain a dependable and uninterrupted gas supply, and also to develop the gas system for future needs.

Both ads were written by Willard G. Wiegell, assistant advertising manager for the Lone Star. Art work on the winning ad was done by Hugh Cargot, commercial artist of Dallas. Type setting, mats and

24 People Taking Rabies Treatment

Early Griffith, 20 year old man of the Conaway community, died July 18' from the effects of rabies. He was bitten by a dog in February and suffered no ill effects for some time. At first the doctor thought he was suffering from a heart ailment, but it was known that at the time the dog bit him he whipped him off and the dog had the appearance of being sick.

Twenty-four people from Colorado and the Conaway community are in Austin taking treatment for rabies. They were exposed in different ways, some by smoking Early's pipe, and handling him while he was sick. Those who are in Austin taking the treatment are: Dell Barber, Lee Carter, Leonard Spoons, Noel Griffith, and family of 7, Lee Monn and family of 5, Mrs. Edna Riggfield and 4 children, Mr. and Mrs. Hance McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Ritch. Mitchell County assisted all but the first three by furnishing transportation and the treatment.

Kinnison is leading the singing. We appreciate the earnest prayers and cooperation of all Christian people. Our only purpose and hearts desire is to lead the lost to Christ, who is able and willing to save.

We have been having fine crowds and much interest has been manifest. If you have not been attending this meeting, come and hear Rev. Hardin's gospel messages. You cannot doubt him being a man called of God to preach His Word.

We are having many visitors from nearby communities. We are always glad to have them worship with us.

Mr. G. B. Tartt donated and distributed fans for our comfort during the revival. Many thanks.
