Central Dawson Test Heads Spraberry Oil

Fred M. Manning, Inc. and Bay Petroleum Corporation No. 1 D. Huddle, Central Dawson County wildcat, swabbed down to 8900 feet and kicked off after six swabbing runs were made. The prospective Spraberry discovery started heading at 10:30 p.m. Tuesday and headed the rest of the night, 10 to 30 minutes between heads.

Fluid level in the hole is at 8200 feet. The section being tested is between 7,824 and 8,050 feet. It had been shot with 310 quarts of nitroglycerin and operators had cleaned out to the plugged back bottom, which is at 8,050 feet in Spraberry sand.

No gauge on the oil has been reported. Operator is letting the project flow by heads to clean so that a gauge can be made.

Location of the No. 1 Huddle is 1,980 feet from north and west lines of section 11, block 36, T-5-N, T&P survey. That makes it one and one-half miles southwest of Lamesa.

Inman Stakes C-N Pecos Prospector

Curtis R. Inman of Midland has staked his No. 1 Unsicker as a wildcat 10 miles southwest of Imperial in Central-North Pecos County.

It will be drilled to 1,800 feet with combination cable and rotary tools.

The new prospector is located 990 feet from northwest and 2,130 feet from northeast lines of east quarter of section 15, block 10, H&GN survey.

More Pay Is Found In Howard Wildcat

Operator cored from 9,480-9,779 feet in Pennsylvania line at Brinkerhoff Drilling Company No. 1 Jones, indicated discovery in North-west Howard County.

Recovery was 10 feet of porous lime, which was well saturated with oil. Operator is now taking electric log surveys and will then run casing and make production tests.

On a drillstem test taken in the Pennsylvania line at 9,480-9,779 feet was 7,290 feet of oil and no water.

With tool open three hours, gas surfaced in 89 minutes. No fluid surfaced while the tool was open. After one dry stand of drill pipe had been pulled, the well started unloading the 1,800-foot water blanket and some oil.

When 38 stands of pipe was left in the hole, the project started unloading again. It continued to unload the rest of the way out of the hole.

The No. 1 Jones is 690 feet from north and east lines of the northeast quarter of section 18, block 34, T-2-N, T&P survey.

Offset In Terry Is Low To Discovery

Anderson-Prichard Oil Corporation No. 2 H. C. Bevers, west offset to that company's No. 1 Bevers, discovery of reef production in South-Central Terry County, topped the lime reef tentatively at 9,955 feet, 225 feet low to the top of the reef in the No. 1 Bevers.

Operator took a drillstem test at 9,950-90 feet. With tool open two hours, recovery was 1,880 feet of subpar water. The project is now drilling ahead to test the Silurian.

The No. 1 Bevers is the only producing well in the Wellman field. The No. 2 Bevers is 660 feet from north and west lines of the northeast quarter of section 39, block DD, John H. Gibson survey and 10 miles southwest of Brownfield.

Pennsylvanian Is Topped In Dawson

Seaboard Oil Corporation of Delaware and Southern Minerals Corporation No. 1 W. O. Jones, wildcat in Central Dawson County, topped the Pennsylvanian lime reef at 8,954 feet, elevation 2,942 feet. That gives it a datum of minus 6,012 feet.

Operator recovered 1,062 feet of drilling mud and 300 feet of salt water with no shows of oil or gas on a two hour drillstem test at 8,954-90 feet.

Location of the venture is 660 feet from east and north lines of section 26, block 35, T-5-N, T&P survey. That makes it five miles southeast of Lamesa and six and one-half miles northwest of the Spraberry pool.

Salt Water Developed In Dawson Spraberry

Standard Oil Company of Texas No. 1 M.V.A. Smith, wildcat in Central-North Dawson County, is drilling ahead below 7,185 feet after taking a drillstem test in the Spraberry from 7,070 feet to 7,127 feet.

City Council Maps New Water, Sewer Extension Policies

By DALMON McNAIR

The Midland City Council Tuesday night passed on first reading an amendment to the water and sewer ordinance changing the city's policy in extending water and sewer lines to new sections of the city.

The old ordinance required developers of new city additions to post a deposit covering the full cost of water and sewer extensions of 150 feet or more. Under the amendment, the developer will be required to post his pro rata cost only.

Mayor William B. Neely presided at the regular council session. Councilmen W. F. Hejl and F. N. Shriver were absent.

City Manager W. H. Oswald, who recommended the ordinance amendment, said under the old ordinance subdividers have been handicapped by having to post the full cost of the extensions. Under the old policy, the developers were refunded their deposit as new connections were made to the line. They now will post only the pro rata cost.

The council also voted to begin immediately to clear the slate on all pending pro rata costs, refunding approximately $20,000 to developers who already have posted deposits. The city manager said the city now is in a position to go on a pay as it goes basis.

Hike Water, Sewer Rates
The council also passed an ordinance hiking the city's water and sewer rates, to become effective November 1. The ordinance was passed on one vote after an emergency had been voted by the councilmen. The new rates are those which were recommended by the city during the recent city bond election. Financing of $3,000,000 in (Continued On Page Nine)

Easy-Term Home Credit Is Near End

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Home buyers had their last chance Wednesday to try for easy-term mortgages before drastic new government controls force bigger cash down payments and faster payoff terms.

From Thursday on:
1. Minimum cash down payments for non-veterans will range from 10 per cent on houses costing under $5,000 to 50 per cent on houses priced above $24,250. Down payments for veterans will run from five to 45 per cent.

2. Mortgages will have to be paid off within 20 years, except for the few present day houses valued at $7,000 or less, where 25 years will be allowed. That will mean higher monthly payments.

The new terms, announced Tuesday night, apply to everyone—buyers, lenders, builders—so far as new houses are concerned.

Prices May Drop
The new curbs on home credit brought hope of one consolation to prospective home buyers—prices of houses may drop somewhat.

Raymond E. Foley, head of the Housing and Home Finance Agency (HHFA), predicted the controls will bring prices down by cutting down the number of buyers and easing competition among builders for labor and materials, thus lowering costs.

But on mortgage terms, buyers could do better Wednesday—if they could conclude a deal with a bank or other private lender, or get in mortgage-aid applications to an office of the Federal Housing Administration.

The VA's expiring terms require only a five per cent down payment from veterans, regardless of the house's price. Those of the FHA require a 10 to 25 per cent down payment. Either would allow up to 30 years to pay off.

No Down Payment
The new curbs on home credit, never before subjected to government regulation—not even in World War II—heretofore could be as easy as they (Continued On Page Nine)

Texas Enjoys Balmly Early Fall Weather

By The Associated Press

Texas was clear almost everywhere Wednesday while the rest of the nation generally was buckling down to colder atmospheres.

Variable wind systems crested Texas with the Rio Grande to the Panhandle.

No rain was in sight, and none was reported during the 24-hour period ended at 6:30 a.m. Wednesday.

The highest reported temperature Tuesday was 93 at Amk; the lowest maximum, 75, at Amarillo.

Two New School Buildings Called Midland 'Must'

By TANNER LAINE

The school board of the Midland Independent School District, ever confronted with the problem of a growing city, Tuesday night studied the already bulging 1950-51 attendance at city schools and the estimated increases for 1951-52-53 and came up with this solution-proposal—two more buildings to be ready by the opening of school next year.

These buildings would be a new elementary school in the growing northwest sector and enlargement of the Latin American school, including its present structure.

The board points out the 1950-51 enrollment in Midland schools stands at 4,941 and will go over 5,000. This is compared with 3,950 at this time last year. Estimates are that 3,401 students will be enrolled in 1951-52 and 5,887 in 1952-53.

The two "musts," a new elementary school and the Latin American enlargement, would be financed partially by money from the budget and partially by bonds, which the board would ask the citizens to vote. The board reports it can obtain $100,000 from the future budget and already has saved $100,000.

The proposed bond issue probably would be in the amount of $350,000. A 20-room elementary school probably would cost $350,000. It would be located on school property near Memorial Stadium. It would serve 600 students. Ten rooms would be added to the Latin American school and use would be made of the present structure. Estimated (Continued On Page Nine)

Council Sanctions Purchase Of New Trucks, Automobiles

Seventeen new articles of automotive equipment will be purchased by the City of Midland.

The City Council Tuesday night voted to accept the low bid of the Murray-Young Motors, Ltd., for delivery of the following: four-door sedans to be used as police cars, $3,114.50; six new one-half ton pickups for $7,988.80; one new three-quarter ton pickup, $1,330.75; two new two-ton trucks with dump bodies, $4,660; three new one and one-half ton long wheel base chassis, $4,743; and one new two-ton short wheelbase chassis, $1,550.

Eight bids were received from firms for delivery of the vehicles. Murray-Young was low bidder on all items.

The Council also authorized the city manager to complete negotiations for another four-door sedan to be used as a police patrol car. The new automobiles will give the police department a total of five automobiles, four of which will be used as squad cars, the city manager said.

40,000 To Be Drafted In December

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The military gave its Army expansion program another boost Wednesday with a new call for 40,000 more draftees.

The new draft call, issued Tuesday night, is for 40,000 inductees during December. It raises the total of calls since the defense program started to 210,000.

Added to men already in the Army or brought in under federalization of National Guard units and call up of reservists, this indicates the Army has or will have within a few months more than 970,000 men. That does not include an unspecified but presumably substantial number of men in reserve units brought into active duty during the last three months.

Nearing Objective
The Army's reported objective, under the 3,000,000 man armed force proposed by President Truman, is between 1,300,000 and 1,500,000 men.

Thus it seems probable the objective can be reached, perhaps by next Spring—if training facilities and other physical limitations on the speed of expansion permit.

In manpower quantity, the Army probably already is close to double the size it was when the Korean war started. It had about 591,000 men last June 25. But a large part of the added manpower needs training and organizing into effective units.

War In Korea Far From Over, Declare Pentagon Officials

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A Defense Department spokesman said Wednesday the war in Korea "is far from over" and "there is plenty of fighting ahead."

That estimate was given at the Pentagon's regular briefing for newsmen on the situation in Korea.

The spokesman said the nation should not be lulled into any false sense of optimism by the successes of the United Nations forces.

The Pentagon spokesman said there had been "no indication" of any mass surrender by the Korean Reds although some good sized groups—up to several hundred men—have thrown down their arms.

Carrier Joins Fleet
He also pointed out that North Korea is larger than South Korea and is more mountainous and rugged, affording good cover for guerrilla operations.

The Navy announced meanwhile that the aircraft carrier Leyte has joined Task Force 77 off the Korean coast. This brings to four the number of carriers of the 27,000-ton Essex class which the United States now has in Korean waters.

A spokesman said 118 sea mines have been destroyed to date. He added that a new field of 85 mines has been located on the coast in the Wonsan area, bringing to 186 the number of known mines in that district.

Wholesale Food Prices Drop Again

NEW YORK — (AP) — The Dun & Bradstreet wholesale food price index this week declined for the fourth week in a row, easing two cents to 66.48.

Thus the index has been rolled back approximately to the level of July 25, from the year's peak of 66.99 reached on August 29.

Reds Beaten, Says Ranking U. S. General

By RELMAN MORIN

TOKYO — (AP) — U. S. and British Commonwealth troops Wednesday were at least 10 miles inside North Korea and were fighting 75 miles south of the Red capital of Pyongyang, a field dispatch reported.

They were reported steadily closing a pincers on the strategic road and rail center of Kumchon, 11 air miles north of the 38th parallel. Kumchon is on the main road to Pyongyang.

The size of the U. S., British and Australian force which was grinding northward was not given. AP Correspondent Don Whitehead said only that the troops were moving up "in force."

Four South Korean divisions, also beyond the parallel, were driving steadily against Red forces fighting a bitter no-surrender battle ordered by the Communist commander-in-chief.

The highest ranking American on the fighting front Maj. Gen. Hobart R. Gay of the First Cavalry Division, said the Red forces were doomed and the taking of Pyongyang was only a matter of time.

"These cookies are beaten," Gay told war correspondents at cavalry headquarters.

UN Ultimatum Spurned
Red Premier Kim Il Sung told the 10,000,000 citizens of North Korea in a broadcast message they could not surrender.

He ordered his scattered troops to "fight until the final day of victory . . . overcoming all difficulties."

Kim's message obviously was an answer to General MacArthur's second and "last time" surrender ultimatum of last Sunday.

This was the frontline situation in Red Korea:

On the east, two ROK divisions were mopping up small holdout forces in the strategic east coast industrial port of Wonsan, 95 air line miles east of Pyongyang.

City Appropriates $183,700 For Water, Sewer Improvements

The Midland City Council Tuesday night voted to appropriate $183,700 in revenue bond funds for extensive water and sewer improvement projects in several areas.

A total of $97,100 was voted by the council for water main construction in the Midland Heights and Haley Heights additions in Southwest Midland. The new mains would serve 202 households not now being furnished city water.

The council authorized City Manager W. H. Oswald to prepare plans and specifications and advertise for bids for the project.

New Water Mains
An appropriation of $47,100 was made for the construction of water mains in advance of the new C and D paving program in the College Heights and West End additions. The new mains will provide adequate water pressure and sufficient fire protection in the areas.

The Council also appropriated $16,300 for water main extensions into portions of the Gardens, Ranchland and Krestview additions and $23,200 for sewer extensions into those areas. Contracts already have been let with the M and N Construction Company for the projects and the work is expected to begin immediately.

The city manager informed the council a public sale of $2,225,000 in revenue and tax bonds will be held in the council chamber October 17.

High Court Will Review Decision In Wage Rate Case

AUSTIN — (AP) — The Supreme Court Wednesday agreed to review a wage dispute between the Texas Highway Commission and the El Paso Building and Construction Trades Council.

The high court granted the commission's application for a writ of error on the contention the Third Court of Civil Appeal erred in holding the trial court had jurisdiction of the case.

The Trades Council claims prevailing minimum wage rates for highway work in El Paso County range from 95 cents to $2.50 per hour. The Commission says 75 cents to $1.65 is the true scale.

A district court judgment had held the labor organization was without power to sue. The appeals court reversed that judgment.

Burglaries Reported By Midland Firms

Burglaries of two Midland business firms were reported to police early Wednesday.

Burglars Tuesday night entered the Ponca Wholesale Grocery Company and escaped with approximately $300 in cash and an undetermined number of cigarettes.

Police said the burglars gained entrance to the building by opening a side window. Police officials said the building was closed at 10 p.m. Tuesday. The burglary was discovered at 7:10 a.m. Wednesday.

Wholesale Food Prices Drop Again

NEW YORK — (AP) — The Dun & Bradstreet wholesale food price index this week declined for the fourth week in a row, easing two cents to 66.48.

Thus the index has been rolled back approximately to the level of July 25, from the year's peak of 66.99 reached on August 29.

We will use an exercise for relaxation given to us by an Occidental Ashram member who spends most of her time in a city school system teaching children and parents to relax.

- Stand with arms over head, palms flat, and push hard against the ceiling, going up on tiptoe as far as you can. Then let arms go to side, limp. Repeat.
- Sit in chair. Raise right arm, every muscle tight, the arm is very, very heavy. Let go, limp, to side. Repeat. Same with left arm.
- Raise right leg, knee bent, every muscle tight—make it as heavy as possible. Let go, limp. Repeat. Same with left leg.

Young Working Wife Must Set Date To Retire To Her Home

By RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

Her parents think she hasn't any business marrying him until he can support her. But he and she both think it's silly for them to wait until they could be married now if she got a job, too.

Who is right? Well, you can't blame parents for wanting to know that a man is able to support their daughter without any help. For parents are old enough to know that the unforeseen can come along to spoil the best laid plans.

Suppose she should have a baby and have to quit her job? Suppose she should find out that combining a job and housekeeping puts too great a strain on her—as many women have found? Suppose this man she is about to marry gets so used to having his wife help earn the living that he comes to expect it as a permanent arrangement?

Those are the questions that pop into parents' minds—and you can't blame them for being concerned.

But thousands of young couples have proved that it is often better to marry young, even though it means that both husband and wife will have to work, than to wait until the young man is able to support a wife.

It seems to me any young couple today has a perfect right to try the experiment.

A Word of Warning

One word of warning, though. They should set a definite time limit on how long the wife is to continue working. Whether it is for one year, or for two or three—that should be understood and agreed upon when they marry.

Otherwise they are likely to set a pattern of living that is dependent on both holding jobs. And while that is all right, so long as it is understood that it is temporary, it isn't good over a long term period.

Why? Because a couple keeps putting off starting a family. A man gets used to the idea of having help with the job of earning a living. A woman gets worn out trying to hold down two jobs. And a couple geared to living on two salaries acquire a lot of wants they consider necessities and think they couldn't get along without.

Decisive Action Urged

It's good news that the foreign ministers of the 12 North Atlantic Pact nations have moved closer to building an integrated armed force for the defense of Western Europe.

Deputies will gather in London October 15 to consider overall political, economic and military aspects of the joint defense effort.

Only when the force is a reality, and no date has been set for its creation, will a supreme commander be named.

The ministers in New York urged that "all available man-power and productive resources should be fully utilized" for Western Europe's defense.

France is, of course, the chief stumbling block on the German issue. The French want more time to study the matter.

When the defense ministers leave Washington this November, we should know one way or another whether there is to be a German armed force.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

(Copyright, 1950, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: G. I.'s wait two hours on parade ground for General Collins; Tells them he believes in "prestige of rank"; Kaiser proves private enterprise is not dead; Taft's press relations.

WASHINGTON — With manpower the most precious thing in the armed forces, some of the brass hats still don't seem to realize that the G.I.'s time is valuable.

While he was speaking, two congressmen also happened to drop in at Camp Pickett—Democrats Wayne Hays of Ohio and John McGuire of Connecticut.

"What's to prevent us from going over?" asked Congressman Hays. "We're all busy," mumbled the lieutenant colonel.

Note — What General Collins was driving at when he emphasized the importance of rank was that every enlisted man has a chance to be promoted, and that junior officers and non-coms are the backbone of the Army.

Private enterprise, according to some people, is dead. But the other day, Henry Kaiser proved that it isn't.

Back up the early stages of World War II, Kaiser, then building ships at breakneck speed, was frequently short of steel.

They argued that the West was too sparsely populated to support a steel industry of its own.

But even farther West, and without government subsidy, Kaiser erected the Fontana Steel Mill, wholly owned by himself though financed with a wartime loan of $123,805,000.

After the war, when competitors expected Fontana to close down, Kaiser expanded. He has paid $21,000,000 to the RFC on interest alone, expanded his plant with $80,000,000 of private funds, and the other day arranged to repay all the money borrowed from the government.

Kaiser's gamble in private enterprise is in contrast to various other private steel companies which wait-ed for the government to set up its

Today, 26 years after Dr. Underwood started his drive, Mississippi has launched a medical and nursing scholarship and hospital building program which the U. S. Public Health Service praises to the skies.

Thanks to this far-seeing physician by the Lions, Kiwanis, Rotary clubs with the Farm Bureau, Mississippi now.

1. Offers $5,000 medical scholarships to young men who pledge to practice in rural communities of 5,000 people or less for a minimum of two years.

2. Offers $3,000 graduate scholarships to nurses who promise to return to Mississippi and teach nursing at least one year.

3. Set aside $40,000,000 of state and local funds to build 63 new hospitals and 30 health centers.

4. Authorized a four-year medical school and hospital at Jackson. This last step was taken by the legislature at the request of Governor Fielding Wright this year.

So They Say

Most of the fuzzy economic thinking in this country today can be traced to an adult generation which includes millions who have not had the advantage of a complete public school education.

I showed my appreciation of my native land in the usual Irish way — by getting out of it.

A great many people throw bricks at the people who have to carry on the government's operations.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

By DOUGLAS LARSEN NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—From now on, as never before in the peacetime history of this country, the average U. S. citizen will find the military moving in on his private life.

Taxes are going up to finance the mobilization. The draft has become an integral part of every young man's life. All kinds of consumer goods will go up in price and be in short supply as the services stock up on this and that item.

The degree to which defense officials can keep this encroachment of the military palatable to the civilian population will determine the nation's patience and ability to maintain an adequate defense against the threat of Russian aggression.

Just two years of this kind of strategic waiting by the Comrades probably would be ample time to have the populace screaming for military budget cuts, and put the country again on the high road to military unpreparedness.

This is why the experience of Louis Johnson is a vital influence on our military future. Unfortunately, there are too many high brass in the Pentagon who feel that Johnson's rude ouster is a complete repudiation of everything he did while in office.

No matter how obnoxious Johnson might seem to have been right now as secretary of Defense, his big goal in practically everything he did was to make the military more palatable to the taxpayer.

Nevertheless, as anyone knows who has been close to his turbulent stay in the Pentagon, he accomplished plenty of good there. He made the people who handle the money dollar-conscious for the first time in 10 years.

Under Johnson the services got together on a unified budget, an extremely important tool in promoting efficiency. His now-ridiculous claim of cutting out fat and leaving muscle has saved a lot of lives in Korea.

For example, one of his most criticized "hatchet jobs" was cutting out half-filled military hospitals around the country.

This particular economy was a special barb in the sides of many congressmen. A military hospital is a nice plum for a community. But the hundreds of doctors who were freed from this wasteful duty in empty hospitals now are giving the men in Korea better medical

Edie pulled herself together. "Wrong!" her eyes were shining. "No, Mr. Cutler, you didn't do wrong. Quite the reverse. You've done me a very great favor. But"—she had to ask it, Reagan or no Reagan—"where has Mr. Summerfield gone?"

"Mr. Summerfield returned to Bermuda yesterday," said Mr. Cutler and bowed himself out of her office.

For a moment Edie sat quite still, staring at the pieces of paper. Then, very slowly, she gathered them up, put them in her handbag and got to her feet. Reagan watched her curiously.

"Was it important?" he asked. Edie drew a breath. "Just about the most important thing that's ever happened to me, Edie. Dan told me that you wanted to carry on here?"

"I did," said Reagan, wonderingly. Edie was almost running toward the door. Hand on knob, she stopped and turned to him. "Okay," she said. "The job's yours."

What's RIGHT? Your child, in your hearing, says something important to a grownup. WRONG: Ignore it. RIGHT: Correct the child and if it is something that calls for an apology, ask him to apologize.

The FORMER MISS FREY By Edwin Rutt Copyright 1950 by NEA Service, Inc.

XXXIII "LOOK," said Dan Reagan, his big jaw thrust out. "I know when I'm licked." It was three days after Edie's first interview about the Northcott deal.

"Go on, Dan!" Edie's face was a little grim, reflecting perfectly her mood of the last three days.

"Well," Reagan spoke with an effort, "I've been thinking things over and I was wrong, that's all. I let myself get carried away. And it was rotten of me even to consider any offer, after everything your father did for me."

Edie said nothing. "And so I'm asking you to forget it," Reagan went on. "As much as you can, I want to—to go on here, doing just what I've always done, as if all this hadn't happened. I know it's a lot to expect but... well, that's the way I want it."

Edie tapped her knuckles with a pencil. She was thinking of something her father had said about Reagan, something to the effect that Reagan was the best man in the agency, valuable. It seemed in the light of what had happened, a cold calculating reason for granting Reagan's request. Then, suddenly, she shrugged. Business, no matter how you looked at it, was a cold proposition.

"Well," she began, and at that point the telephone on her desk shrilled. It was the girl at the reception desk. A Mr. Cutler desired to see Miss Frey.

and I can't get him to go away." "Oh, well," said Edie, "perhaps I'd better see him. Send him in." "I'll go," Reagan offered.

"No," said Edie. "I'd rather you'd stay. I don't know what this is, but it can't be anything much." She was entirely wrong.

THE man who entered her office was vaguely familiar. But it took Edie a second or two to place him. Then she remembered. He was Gil Summerfield's manservant.

She remembered him from that afternoon when she had faced Gil with the knowledge that he had been working with Northcott to buy Frey & Company.

"Mr. Cutler bowed politely. "Miss Frey?" he said inquiringly. "Yes," Edie stiffened a little. If this was to be an overture from Gil, she'd get rid of his emissary in a hurry. "What is it?"

Mr. Cutler glanced doubtfully at Reagan. "It's all right," Edie said impatiently. "You can say whatever you've got to say."

Apparently satisfied, Mr. Cutler drew two pieces of paper from his inside pocket.

The foot is a size 12-12 1/2 and is part of a 70-foot-high granite statue of Pharaoh Rameses II. It is rumored that when the statue developed a bunion, the ancient Egyptians called in a local dynamiter, thus accounting for the missing toes.

Arrest Of 10,000 Anti-Communists In Shanghai Told

TAIPEI —(AP)—Newspapers Wednesday quoted an unidentified arrival from Shanghai as saying 10,000 persons had been arrested there by Chinese Communists since September 15.

The traveler said Shanghai's famous Ward Road jail—one of the largest in the world—was jammed with 4,000 prisoners.

Following the triumph of United Nations arms in Korea, the traveler said, anti-Communists in Shanghai took heart. He said the wholesale arrests followed.

Locked up were former Shanghai members of the municipal government, members of the families of Nationalist government officials in Formosa, and the heads of hundreds of Chinese family groups.

Airborne Objects Are Caught On Film But Identity Stays Secret

DAYTON, OHIO —(AP)—No one will ever know if those airborne objects photographed by a Great Falls, Mont., baseball manager were "flying saucers."

The Air Force, which Manager Nick Mariana said confiscated pictures he took, reported the color film was "too dark to distinguish any recognizable objects."

The film was viewed Tuesday at nearby Wright-Patterson Air Force Base.

Mariana said that last August 15 he photographed two objects which flew over the Great Falls Ball Park. Later, he said, an Air Force intelligence officer took the film and told him not to talk about it.

Many Cancer Patients Saved By Successful Removal Of Lung

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

In 1933 Dr. Everts Graham of St. Louis removed a lung from a fellow physician who had a cancer. The patient was cured and has remained in active practice ever since. The next year a 31/2-year-old girl had a lung tumor removed in Baltimore. This child recovered without difficulty and lived to be eight years old when she died of an accident but without any trouble from the tumor.

Since that time many, many people with cancer or other tumors of the lung have undergone this operation. The results are astonishingly good. In one group of patients for whom this operation was done, more than one-third were alive, well and leading active lives months or years later. Because cancer of the lung is always fatal, unless it is removed, the operation is well worthwhile.

The most important factor in the treatment of cancer of the lung—like that of cancer elsewhere—is time. Delay is not only serious but often fatal. For this reason a person who has a chronic cough, the cause of which cannot be readily explained, should not put off going to the physician. Fortunately, an X-ray of the lung is of great help in making an early diagnosis.

Other Instruments Help

Also an instrument equipped with lights and mirrors called a bronchoscope is invaluable. This instrument can be passed down the windpipe to that part of the lung which is shown to be suspicious by the X-ray. Then a tiny bit of tissue can be removed, pulled out through the

Progress—
THROUGH FREE RESEARCH

Let's keep politics out of American medicine, out of American health.

Each new medical discovery comes as the result of free, competitive scientific research. The advance made by the medical sciences during the past seventy years is unequalled in all previous history. Only under a completely free system could such progress have been made.

Through healthy competition, and the will to serve, American medicine has created the finest system of medical care in the world.

Who Runs America?

the Congress? the President?

OR YOU AND THE MAN NEXT DOOR?

RUNNING AMERICA is the joint job of 150,000,000 people. It's the biggest job in the world today—keeping it running for liberty and for freedom. And the whole world's watching to see whether Americans can do it!

IN MUCH OF THE WORLD today, the people have resigned from running their own countries. Others have been quick to step in—first with promises of "security"—and then with whips and guns—to run things their way. The evidence is on every front page in the world, every day.

FREEDOM COMES UNDER ATTACK. The reality of war has made every American think hard about the things he's willing to work and fight for—and freedom leads the list.

But that freedom has been attacked here recently—just as it has been attacked in other parts of the world. One of the most serious threats to individual freedom has been the threat of Government-dominated Compulsory Health Insurance, falsely presented as a new guarantee of health "security" for everybody.

THE PEOPLE WEIGH THE FACTS. In the American manner, the people studied the case for Socialized Medicine—and the case against it.

They found that Government domination of the people's medical affairs under Compulsory Health Insurance means lower standards of medical care, higher payroll taxes, loss of incentive, damage to research, penalties for the provident, rewards for the improvident.

They found that no country on earth can surpass America's leadership in medical care and progress. They found that able doctors, teachers, nurses and scientists—working in laboratories where Science, not Politics, is master—are blazing dramatic new trails to health for Americans—and for the world.

THE "GRASS ROOTS" SIGNALS CONGRESS. In every community in the Nation, people stood up to be counted on this important issue. Thousands of local women's clubs, civic groups, farm, business, religious, taxpayer, medical, educational and patriotic organizations spoke out—giving the great United States Congress its unmistakable Grass Roots signal from home!

And ever watchful, ever sensitive to an alert people, The Congress saw that signal, and heard the people speak out, loud and plain. That's democracy in action. That's the American way!

Today among the 10,000 great organizations on militant public record against "Compulsory Health Insurance" are:

General Federation of Women's Clubs	American Legion
American Farm Bureau Federation	National Association of Small Business Men
National Grange	United States Chamber of Commerce
Veterans of Foreign Wars	National Association of Retail Grocers
National Conference of Catholic Charities	National Retail Dry Goods Association
American Protestant Hospital Association	American Bar Association

• Doctors of this Nation are grateful that the people refused to be wooed by the fantastic promises of this un-American excursion into State Socialism. • Doctors of America are dedicated to serve their fellow citizens at home and their comrades in uniform, wherever service to this Nation may take them. • And the thing they stand ready to fight for—to sacrifice for—to die for—is not the alien way of life of Socialism, but the prideful security of a free and self-reliant people!

THE VOLUNTARY WAY IS THE AMERICAN WAY!

• Throughout the Nation, free men and women, working and planning together, are finding the American answer to every question of medical service, care and cost. Hundreds of Voluntary Health Insurance Plans are in healthy competition—sponsored by doctors, insurance companies, hospitals, fraternal organizations—by industry, agriculture and labor. • Today in America—70 million people are protected by Voluntary Health Insurance! • Throughout the Nation, families are insuring themselves against the major costs of illness—at reasonable, budget-basis prices. Voluntary Health Insurance takes the economic shock out of illness. Protect your family now. • For information, ask your doctor—or your insurance man.

An American's greatest heritage is the right to learn the facts—and to speak his mind. Maintained with honor and used with sincerity—that right will guarantee forever that *in you—

in ourselves—
in America—*

We believe that most Americans are capable of paying their own bills, planning their own budgets and mapping their own futures.

that most Americans resent having politicians or bureaucrats tell them what they need, where to get it and how to pay for it.

that most Americans prefer to solve their problems—medical or otherwise—by means of self-reliance, free choice and voluntary methods.

that most Americans will work and fight to preserve freedom, both at home and abroad.

The menace from abroad is Communist tyranny. The menace at home is creeping Socialism.

THE DOCTOR—by Sir Luke Fildes

IN THE NATIONAL GALLERY, LONDON

Keep Politics Out of This Picture

- When the life—or health—of a loved one is at stake, hope lies in the devoted service of your Doctor.
- Would you change this picture?
- Compulsory health insurance is political medicine.
- It would bring a third party—a politician—between you and your doctor. It would bind up your family's health in red tape.
- Political medicine would result in heavy payroll taxes—and inferior medical care for you and your family.
- Don't let that happen here! You have a right to prepaid medical care—of your own choice.
- Ask your Doctor, or your insurance man, about budget-basis health protection.
- Under voluntary health insurance, your health is your own business. Keep it that way!

America is the healthiest great Nation in the world. Americans live more abundantly than any people in the world.....why?

Not because somebody passed a law. But because the founding fathers were WISE. Because they turned away from dependence on Government. Because they believed that real security is based on individual initiative.

Americans today believe that, too. That is why America is the symbol of human Freedom... the bulwark of world liberty! The strength of America is the product of creative, free initiative. America's health is the best in the world. A FREE MEDICAL PROFESSION will KEEP it so.

Below are the names and addresses of the 31 members of the Midland Medical Association, as well as the two physicians at Stanton. These physicians are your friends and neighbors and are at your beck and call any time, day or night. When you or a loved one is ill you don't have to call a government agency and wait for them to make provision for your care, or have to stand in line at a government bureau office to present your case. In FREE America you merely call the doctor of your choice and he immediately administers to your needs. This is the freedom your fathers and forefathers fought for, and what your son, husband and brother is fighting for today! It's OUR task to protect this freedom on the HOMEFRONT. Make your wishes known to your lawmakers at every opportunity; phone or write your physician today and let him know how much you appreciate his services and that you are wholeheartedly against socialized medicine in free America.

Latin American Youth Center Is Chest Agency

By JAMES LEE
 "Shoot to kill!" A voice broke the stillness of an Autumn night. Somewhere an automatic whispered, stammered then broke into a frenzied volley of deadly language. The figure of a man tried gamely to rise, then crumpled into the dust. It was an old story for Don Juarez—policemen, arrests, questions. But this was somewhat different; this was death. This was the justice of a chronic lawbreaker who learned his trade from a prejudiced, haughty society.

The above is not a true story; yet with slight variations it has been told in every section of this country. It is told every day.

For every result there is a cause and there are numerous groups constantly attempting to eliminate the causes of crime in our country. But they are helpless without the wholehearted support of the American public.

One such group, comparatively new in Midland, is the Latin American Youth Center. This is one place in the Latin American area where the young people can gather in a wholesome atmosphere. The various recreational facilities there help supplement the grossly inadequate public playgrounds in Midland. So far, the young people there have given ready acceptance to the club as a substitute for the bars and alleys.

Between 75 and 150 youngsters regularly attend the activities of the youth center. For inside entertainment there is ping pong, darts, checker games, reading material, crafts and music. Outside facilities include baseball, basketball, horse-shoes, croquet, sandboxes, and volleyball. Edward Murray is temporary director of the center.

The financing of the club recently has been brought under the auspices of the Community Chest of Midland, which will sponsor a drive for funds with which to operate for another year. Ninety-seven per cent of all money contributed to this organization will be spent here in Midland. The chest is asking for "one donation for six organizations." The organizations include the Latin American Youth Center, Midland Youth Center, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Goodfellows and the Salvation Army.

All of these groups stand ready to lend help in their own department whenever they can. They are giving their time and talent, but they need your dollars. The amount you give will determine the good they can do. An investment in others is a contribution to self. Today the destiny of our youth is in our hands; tomorrow ours may be in theirs. So dig brother, dig. Give-Give Enough! Give one day's pay, it's the American way.

NO MORE SAD SACKS— 'New Army's' Plan Makes Happy GI's, Says Top Tankman

FORT KNOX, KY. —(AP)—"Now you fellows got to realize," the sergeant said, "these things are not play-toys. These are tanks. You can knock out the enemy with 'em—or you can get knocked out yourself. It's up to you."

Round-eyed, the recruits listened. One of them, Pvt. Lee R. Young, shook his head in slow bewilderment. Back in East Lynn, W. Va., he'd heard of the fabulous Sgt. Life Pool. But he never expected he'd be getting the word on tank-jockeying from the old sarge himself.

Pool is a leathery, limping, one-man Army from Kerrville, Texas. His tank led Gen. George S. Patton, Jr.'s, columns in 21 full-scale attacks. Pool's guns killed more than 1,000 Germans, destroyed more than 250 enemy vehicles.

"Course they did some shooting back," drawled the sergeant. "Shot three tanks out from under me before they finally got me in the leg. Spent four years in hospitals, got fixed up with this mechanical leg. It don't compare with the old one, but I get around."

Now Pool is one of many combat veterans making soldiers out of civilians at Fort Knox, safe deposit box for most of the world's gold and—more important, to a tankman—the Army's training center for armor.

Hills Eliminated
 Walk around Knox's 106,000 acres and you'll get a pretty good idea what goes on in a training camp these days of partial mobilization—what will happen to you or to your son or the neighbor's boy when Uncle Sam beckons.

Brig. Gen. Thomas L. Harrold, post commander, will give you the general idea.

"Before Korea, we took 14 weeks to give these young civilians their basic training. Now we cut out the frills and squeeze it into six weeks. That leaves eight weeks for specialized training. The men learn to drive tanks, handle bazookas.

"They get battle conditioning, learn what shell fire sounds like. They are toughened, mentally and physically, for combat. It's a rough 14 weeks. But it's better training than we had before. It's far more real and concrete."

Rugged, And Yet—
 You won't see much attention paid to such things as push-ups and diamond drill in this kind of training. You will see grim young soldiers learning to handle the M-1 rifle, skulking through the Autumn darkness in patrols, creeping on their bellies under barbed wire.

Rugged? Sure. And yet:
 It's a safe bet that eight out of 10 recruits like the Army better than their older brothers like the "Old Army" of World War II.

For the "New Army" isn't just a pipe dream. It's here. Your new GI is no dogface or sad sack. He's a human being, a free American, and he's treated like one in spite of the demands of military discipline.

Still Plenty Of Gripping
 There's plenty of gripping among Fort Knox trainees—a soldier wouldn't be a soldier if he didn't moan and groan.

But there's also a sense of purpose and accomplishment. The men know what they are doing. And General Harrold tells them what they may be doing in the future if the world doesn't settle down.

"We have not yet reached that state of civilization when we can definitely say there will be no more wars. And we who serve in the ground forces know, with a certainty rooted in personal experience, that the ultimate test of our national strength will be centered in the Army of the United States."

Canadian Force Due To Sail For Okinawa

OTTAWA —(AP)—Canada's special 10,000-men force recruited for service with the United Nations troops in Korea tentatively is scheduled to sail for Okinawa next month aboard U. S. transports, it was learned Wednesday.

Cabinet circles here feel, however, that with the end of fighting possibly in sight, the troops may not be going to Korea—at least not all of them.

Informed quarters here said the UN may want at least a token occupation force from Canada. But it has not said so yet officially.

Meantime the Army is sticking to the original plan of a month's final training for the force in Okinawa. Present plans call for the troops to sail from the West Coast after November 15.

The Canadian cabinet meets Thursday for another look at the situation.

Popcorn Praised As Economical Packing Substitute

PHILADELPHIA —(AP)—Popcorn is a pretty good substitute for excelsior—saving as much as 75 in packing expense and 30 per cent in mailing costs—says a New York shipper.

The idea of using popcorn in packages won an award Tuesday for Harold Frick at the Society of Industrial Packaging and Materials Handling Exposition.

Frick is a 33-year-old shipper for Winthrop Stearns, Inc., Rensselaer, N. Y., pharmaceutical firm.

Say Idea Works
 Spokesmen for the exposition said the popcorn idea really works. A package wrapped with shredded paper that weighs nine pounds would tip the scales at only six if packed with popcorn.

The fact is, they said, that "one pound of popcorn can do the work of five pounds of shredded paper." In addition, the spokesman said, there is less chance of breakage. Frick's wife reported when her husband was overseas, she shipped him a package of popcorn-bound cookies—and not one cookie was broken when received.

Permian Basin Oil And Gas Log-

 The southeast side of the Von Roder field of Central-East Borden County.

Sulphur Water Found In Garza Prospector

Cities Service Oil Company No. 1 Stoker, Ellenburger wildcat in Central Garza County, ran a drill-stem test in the top of the Ellenburger at 8,369-8,450 feet.
 Recovery on the two-hour test was 2,900 feet of salty-sulphur water with no shows of oil or gas.
 There was a good blow of air throughout the test.
 The tested formation was topped at 8,292 feet. Elevation is not available. This project has had no shows in any formation drilled.
 Location is 1,980 feet from north and west lines of section 71, block 5, GH&H survey. Drill-site is two miles northeast of Post.

NE Howard Wildcat Is To Plug, Abandon

Burdell Oil Company No. 1 Hodnett, Northeast Howard County wildcat, two miles northwest of Vincent is preparing to plug and abandon as a dry hole.
 This prospector, located 660 feet from north and east lines of the southeast quarter of section 31, block 25, H&TC survey, bottomed at 7,468 feet in Pennsylvanian lime.
 Top of that formation was at 7,453 feet, which was on a datum of minus 5,117 feet. That horizon made sulphur water and had no shows of oil or gas.
 Operator then plugged back to 4,135 feet and cemented 5 1/2-inch casing at 4,020 feet to test the Clear Fork lime of the Permian, where some slight shows of oil and gas had been logged.
 That zone was tested for a considerable period and the recovery was mostly salt water with slight shows of oil or gas. A plastic plug was set above 4,135 feet in an effort to eliminate the water, but it did not accomplish that purpose.

Explorer Is Quit In Sterling Area

A wildcat failure in Central Sterling County has been abandoned by Republic Natural Gas Company at total depth of 2,044 feet in Clear Fork.
 The dry hole is the No. 1 E. F. McEntire, 330 feet from north and west lines of southwest quarter of section 3, block T, T&P survey and four miles southwest of Sterling City.
 Failure is plugged in SE Reeves Region.

Failure Is Plugged In SE Reeves Region

Gulf Oil Corporation and Jack Frost No. 1-A G. C. Fraser, et al. S. east Reeves County wildcat, about 15 miles southeast of Sargent, and 330 feet from south and west lines of section 19, block 50, T&P survey, T-3 has been abandoned as a failure at total depth of 5,300 feet in barren Delaware sand.
 It found only slight shows of gas in the Delaware.
 This prospector is about 20 miles southeast of the City of Peecos.

Amerada Schedules C-E Borden Project

Amerada Petroleum Corporation spotted No. 7 Cora E. Weathers on the southeast side of the Von Roder field of Central-East Borden County.
 It is located 1,958 feet from east and 2,002 feet from south lines of section 94, block 25, H&TC survey. That makes it five miles west of Knapp.
 It is scheduled to drill to 7,500 feet with rotary tools, beginning immediately.

C-E Midland Field Gets New Oil Well

John Rosenthal has completed No. 1-10 B. W. Floyd estate as a new oil well in the Tex-Harvey field of Central-East Midland County.
 It flowed 24 hours through an 8/16th-inch choke to make an initial potential of 190.71 barrels of 34.8-gravity oil. Gas-oil ratio was 580-1. Two per cent of the total fluid recovered was water.
 Pay was topped at 7,100 feet and total depth is 7,420 feet. Point at which casing was set was not reported.
 Pay section had been shot with 778 gallons of nitro glycerin.
 This new producer is located 660 feet from north and 668.7 feet from west lines of section 10, block 37, T-3-S, T&P survey, and 15 miles southeast of Midland.

Three Tests Staked In Pegasus In Upton

Three 13,300-foot rotary tests have been staked in the Pegasus-Ellenburger field in Northwest Upton County by Magnolia Petroleum Company. All the projects are scheduled to begin by October 12.
 No. 2 Virgil Powell will be 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of section 48, block 41, T-4-S, T&P survey.
 Location for No. 4-36 Dr. Roy Glass is 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 36, block 41, T-4-S, T&P survey.
 Magnolia No. 5 Dr. Roy Glass is 1,980 feet from north and east lines of section 30, block 40, T-4-S, T&P survey.

NE Runnels To Get 4,800-Foot Venture

Ryan Consolidated Petroleum Company, Dallas, will drill a 4,800-foot wildcat in Northeast Runnels County as its No. 1 E. C. Lindeman.
 Location is 2,311 feet from west and 1,548 feet from north lines of section 527, John J. Eakin survey, A-142.
 Drill-site is two and one-half miles south of the Aldridge pool and four miles northeast of the recently opened Cree-Sykes field. It is on a 150-acre lease.
 Pan American Production farmed out 420 acres to Ryan Consolidated for the test, and Ryan has 250 acres surrounding the acreage farmed out. Pan American retained an over ride.

Shallow Wildcat Is Slated In Crockett

A shallow wildcat has been spotted in Northeast Crockett County 13 miles southeast of Barnhart as C. P. Laubenstein and associates of Fort Worth No. 1-B University.
 Cable tools will be used to drill to 2,000 feet. Operations will begin in the near future.
 Location is 2,389.9 feet from north and 330 feet from west lines of section 13, block 39, University survey.

Cotton
 NEW YORK —(AP)— Wednesday noon cotton prices were $1.50 to $2.90 a bale lower. October 39.17, December 39.15 and March 39.02.

Good Results Listed In NEPH Week Here

John E. Bechtol, director of the Texas Employment Commission office, here, Wednesday, said efforts spent in promoting National Employment Week were effective. Seven men, he said, were referred to potential employers as a result.
 The campaign was promoted by the use of posters, pamphlets, civic and veterans organizations, radio and newspaper publicity and the mayor's proclamation.
 Bechtol added that at present he has calls for stenographers, clerk typists, shoe salesmen, accountants, sales clerks, construction workers and cotton pickers. The need for cotton pickers, he said, is especially great. Farmers he stated, are paying from $1.50 to $1.75 per hundred pounds for this work.

 The proposed resolution, one of 800 dumped into the hopper, was expected to come up in the committee report on foreign affairs.
 The outgoing National Executive Committee has recommended Acheson's dismissal. And National Commander George N. Craig has said the State Department chief should go because the American people have lost confidence in him.
 The proposed resolution, one of 800 dumped into the hopper, was expected to come up in the committee report on foreign affairs.

Lutheran Churches Consider Merger

COLUMBUS, OHIO —(AP)— The American Lutheran Church opened the way Tuesday night for merger of more than 1,500,000 members of three Lutheran groups into one church.
 Delegates to the ALC's national convention approved resolutions creating a nine-member committee to discuss merger with the Evangelical Lutheran Church, which has more than 813,000 members, and the United Evangelical Lutheran Church, with 46,000. The ALC has more than 700,000 members.

Airlines' Hearing Hits Final Stages

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Officials from coast to coast Wednesday agreed to a resolution, an international air route to link the South and the West—while six airlines pleaded for the right to provide the service.
 The big airlines case was in the final public stage before the Civil Aeronautics Board.
 Under study by the board are the applications of the six carriers seeking to effect the service, either through establishment of new routes or extension of old ones.
 National Airlines was given its hearing Wednesday. Counselors for the other airlines in the case were heard Tuesday.

Plans For Civic Music Association Drive Scheduled

A meeting of division chairmen and captains of the Midland Civic Music Association will be held at 7:15 p.m. Thursday in the First Presbyterian Church.
 Edwin L. Stephens, association president, announced that the third annual membership drive will be started with a banquet at 7 p.m. next Monday in Hotel Scharbauer. Robert E. Stripling and Don E. Hopkins will speak and Mrs. Sheila Thompson will sing. All civic music drive workers are invited.
 The membership drive ends October 21.

America Will Not Relax, Says Georgian

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Scoffing at the idea that America will "relax" after the Korean war, Representative Vinson Wednesday said America never will scrap its defenses again.
 The Georgia Democrat, chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, told newsmen he believes the people will be willing to make the sacrifices—in taxes and other burdens—necessary to build the armed forces up to 3,000,000 men.
 The burdens must be borne "for an indefinite period of time," Vinson said.

Minimax Feed Supply Opens For Business

The Minimax Feed Supply Company opened for business Wednesday at 403 East Florida Street. The new firm is owned and operated by W. L. Clark and J. D. Crawford.
 Among the items handled are Armour's fertilizers, Minimax feeds, field, garden and grass seed, veterinarian supplies and baby chicks.
Air Force Reserve Squadron To Meet
 A meeting of the 9816th Volunteer Air Reserve Training Squadron of Midland has been called at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the courthouse.
 Data collected from a conference with 14th Air Force staff members this week will be presented at the meeting.
 All interested airmen are urged to attend.
French Fight To Hold Indochina Footholds
 HANOI, INDOCHINA. —(AP)— The French Army is pushing feverishly work on a web of permanent fortifications to hold 500 square miles of newly-conquered territory north of Hanoi.
 In a 12-day offensive just ended, six battalions—about 4,000 men—cut a swath through a triangular region of flat ricefields 40 miles north of this chief city of North Indochina.
 This action was south of the Cao-bang-Thathe border region where five French battalions were almost completely wiped out during the weekend by Communist-led guerrillas.

Resolution Asking Acheson's Ouster Due To Be Heard

 revenue bonds will be accomplished through the new rates.
 The council, on a motion by H. E. Chiles, Jr., voted to erect five new traffic signals at city intersections. The new lights will be placed at the intersections of Big Spring and Missouri Streets, Wall and Front Streets, East Florida and Terrell Streets, Big Spring and Parker Streets, and Main and Front Streets. The city manager recommended the locations following a report from traffic engineers studying the city's traffic problems.
 On a motion by Chiles, the Council voted to change the zoning classification of two half-block portions of North Big Spring Street from a "B" classification to a "G" zoning. The half blocks are located in the 1800 and 1900 blocks.
 Two service stations and a tourist court currently in the area. Owners of the establishments appeared before the council to recommend the zoning change. Several property owners residing in the area also were present.
 The Council accepted the low bid of $3,327.50, submitted by the J. W. Copeland Construction Company, for water extensions in the Loma Linda addition. W. L. Johnson also had submitted a bid for the project. The council appropriated $3,700 for the project, including sufficient funds to provide pipe for the extensions.
 The Council followed the recommendation of the city manager to reject both bids for water and sewer extension work in the Johnson-Moran addition. The group voted to negotiate with the bidder who can do the work immediately at a price not to exceed the lowest bid submitted. J. W. Copeland had submitted the lowest bid, which included $2,748 for water extensions and $9,676.50 for the sewer work. The city manager said time is of great importance in the project as families now are ready to move into the new addition. The other bid was submitted by W. L. Johnson.
 The Council authorized final payments of $119.75 and $485.68 to the George Tucker Pipe Line Company for certain water and sewer extensions completed in the University Park and Urbandale additions. Payment of $500 to the State Board of Water Engineers for the operation of a chemical quality station on the Colorado River, and the payment of $3,800 to the Forrest and Cotton Company of Dallas for reports on surface water supplies, also were approved.

 The control terms going into effect Thursday won't affect purchases or sales of existing houses—that is, "old" houses—if the mortgage arrangements are made through private lenders without government guarantee.
 As far as private mortgages are concerned, the rules apply only to houses on which construction started since noon on August 3 and not covered by loan commitments made before that time.
 As for FHA or VA mortgages, the rules apply to any house, no matter when it was built or how old it is, if the mortgage application isn't received by an FHA or VA office by Wednesday.
 The controls will apply only to one and two-family size houses—not apartment projects, or store or factory construction, for which other control regulations are being drafted in the government's effort to combat inflation.

Theodore Whitehead Is School Accountant

Theodore Whitehead has been employed as chief accountant for the Midland public schools. He comes here from Ballinger, where he was a public accountant.
 He managed a public accounting business there for eight years. He worked as an auditor at Brooks Field Army Air Base during World War II.
 In addition to his accountant duties, Whitehead will assume the duties of W. D. Pittman, director of business of Midland schools, who was called to military service.
 Whitehead is married and has a 12-year-old son.

 All these figures are estimates. To investigate further.
 The board will meet soon to go further into the plan but the pattern was laid down Tuesday night. The need is that urgent, members say.
 Board members were told at the meeting Tuesday, the tax evaluation of the school district this year is $3,910,565. This is approximately $5,000,000 more than last year.
 The board authorized paving on a street adjoining its property at Memorial Stadium. Four new teachers and employees were hired. They are: T. Whitehead, accountant; Miss Mary Cathrine Rao, South Elementary teacher; John Armstrong, high school; and Bennie Rutherford, junior high. Three resignations were accepted. They were from: Bert Marks, high school teacher; Mrs. Josephine Parr, high school, and Miss Charlene Walker, South Elementary.

 R. W. Hamilton, president of the board, and Frank Monroe, superintendent, reported on a recent trip to Austin to attend a meeting of the Texas Association of School Administrators.
 It was reported an excellent health program is in progress in Midland schools under supervision of the school nurse. Examination of eyes now is in progress. Plans call for examinations of teeth, ears and chests (X-ray).
 The board voted to accept for West Elementary gifts from the P-TA unit of that school. Included are a film projector and educational films and records.
 The board approved routine bills and accounts. It was given a report on the financial status of the Athletic Department of the high school.

Ching Drafted For Wage Board Leader

WASHINGTON —(AP)— President Truman Tuesday night drafted his top labor mediator to head the new Wage Stabilization Board and the White House indicated other key posts in the fight against inflation would be filled promptly.
 Cyrus S. Ching was assigned by Truman to the key job as chairman of the wage board.
 Ching, former director of industrial relations for U. S. Rubber Company, will fill the stabilization spot only through its organizational period, the White House said. That probably would mean at least until January.
 In the meantime, his job as director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service will not be filled. Mediation service in the critical weeks ahead will be kept going by Associate Director James Greenwood, Assistant Director Clyde Mills and General Counsel Peter Seitz.
 Ching may keep an eye on any developing disputes, too, because he might eventually be called on to settle them as a conciliator or as chairman of the

Daddy Ringtail And Strange Doings

Was the Rainmaker angry that Mugwump had touched the machine? Oh no. He had wanted to touch it himself, the rascal, except he had been afraid to do it. Besides, he had wondered what the machine would do, and there the machine had done it. There were two little boxes with the words "QUANTUM CAPSULE" written across the top.

"Yes sir, and yes indeed," said the Rainmaker, "and now let us see what you have inside. Yes indeed." Mugwump opened the boxes while the Rainmaker watched. The Huffens were standing there too, and he is a friendly wolf, you know. Well, there in each of the boxes was a capsule. They looked like the kind that maybe a horse has to swallow when he is sick. But these capsules were never meant for swallowing by a horse or anyone. They were meant to hold in the hand and squeeze. That's

And Mugwump said that he had a feeling like a mighty wall that could stop anything that ran against it. And the Huffens said he had a feeling like a might runner who could run through any wall there ever was. And when they looked in the box at the rest of the writing, there were words which said that Mugwump was right and the Huffens was right.

Ancient Law Book Is Brought To Light

BERLIN—(AP)—For decades clerks have been sitting on an old time-volume in the offices of the Wauson court in the Russian zone. They didn't know what they were sitting on. A curious judge examined the book recently and found that it was a copy of the Sachsenpiegel (Saxon Mirror)—the oldest known German law book printed in 1582.

Chinese Dried Egg Imports Stir Fuss, Demands For Probe

SEATTLE—(AP)—A Seattle waterfront warehouse was jammed with powdered eggs from Communist China Wednesday. The 700 tons are awaiting transportation to New York for distribution to Eastern bakeries.

News stories about the Chinese eggs kicked up an immediate furor. Representative Mitchell (D-Wash) fired telegrams to President Truman and the Department of Agriculture asking an investigation in view of the present United States policy of buying up eggs to support parity prices.

The Packinghouse, Poultry and Egg Workers Union (AFL) called the egg shipments a "blow to American labor" and also prepared telegrams for the President and his Agriculture Department, as well as the Washington State congressional delegation.

A former egg man told the Post-Intelligencer the Chinese eggs could undersell the American surplus variety in this country.

The government has bought up $1,830,043 pounds of surplus U. S. eggs so far this year at 96 cents a pound for the powdered variety, the same price the government would charge domestic ones. For export the powdered U. S. eggs go for 20 cents a pound.

Fat Is Not a Nice Word When Applied to the Body

Don't say it's your thyroid while reaching for the box of chocolates. Possibly one billion people in 100 has some glandular disturbance and that is truly a case for a physician. Never take any treatment for a gland condition without your doctor's advice. But for the other 99 per cent who are trying to fight the "Battle of the Bulge," common sense is the watchword. It is not necessary to over-eat and it is not necessary to go hungry either. Furthermore, it just doesn't make sense to go on a strenuous diet—take off weight and then quickly put it back on again when the diet period is over. For it is obvious that one cannot continue a starvation diet over a protracted period. Within the last year or so, several diet and vitamin "plans" have appeared on the market, which mean cut down on the food intake and fortify with vitamins for hunger distress. But as mentioned above, you can't keep this

Export Quotas For Cotton Set To Halt Upswing In Prices

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Acting to halt advancing cotton prices and to assure the nation of its needs, the government Tuesday night placed rigid limitations on exports.

The Agriculture Department set up export quotas which would restrict shipments to less than 4,000,000 bales for the marketing year ending next August 1. Exports during last season totaled 5,770,000 bales. The action was taken because this year's crop dropped almost 37 per cent below last year's. Increased domestic demands and expected export requirement threatened to reduce the country's supplies to a dangerously low level.

The department set up export quotas totaling 2,000,000 bales for all countries except Canada for the eight-month period ending next March 31. If restrictions should be kept at that level for the full marketing year, exports to all countries except Canada would be 3,000,000 bales. Canada usually buys between 200,000 and 400,000 bales a year.

The export limitations are expected to ease the pressure on cotton prices.

In announcing the action, the department said later in the season it would review the cotton situation and if conditions warranted, it would allow more cotton to move abroad than now is planned.

The department announced last week that production controls will be taken off next year's crop.

Man Steps Into Path Of Truck, Is Killed

WHARTON, TEXAS — (AP)—George Wright, 68, of Lenoir, N.C., was killed Tuesday when he stepped from an automobile in the path of a truck whose driver was blinded by a smoking grass fire.

Fred H. Brown of Wharton was injured seconds later when his car crashed into Wright's automobile.

It definitely stops you from eating more than necessary for the energy you spend. At the same time, it dehydrates and eliminates.

Over two million bottles of this preparation, called Barcentrate, has been sold in Texas in the past five years.

You can get a four-ounce bottle of Barcentrate from any Texas drugist. Mix with the juice of one grapefruit and take just two tablespoonfuls twice a day.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose that ugly fat, the makers agree to refund your money.

Truman-MacArthur Talks To Cover Wide Range Of Critical Eastern Matters

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman and Gen. Douglas MacArthur will meet somewhere in the Pacific this weekend for talks sweeping the whole range of critical Far Eastern problems.

The Chief Executive, with a party of military and diplomatic advisers, planned to leave here Wednesday afternoon on the first leg of the long flight which he will resume at St. Louis Thursday.

The party is due at Honolulu in the Hawaiian Islands Friday, and the two men, with MacArthur coming from Tokyo, will meet over the weekend somewhere west of Hawaii. The exact location, whether it would be on an island or a ship, were not disclosed.

Plans were announced Tuesday without any advance speculation, but White House Secretary Charles G. Ross told reporters, "It is the result of no sudden emergency."

The talks will be the first meeting between the President and MacArthur, who has not been back to the United States since 1937.

Administration officials expect the conference to produce a far better understanding between the two men on some issues, notably Formosa, which have divided them in the past as well as on developments of U. S. Far Eastern policy in the future.

Home-Front Effects
In addition, Truman's home-front position can be expected to be strengthened in two respects by the brief, spectacular meeting:

1. It no longer will be possible for his critics to accuse him of having failed to consult MacArthur on controversial Far Eastern matters—a charge which some Republicans have thrown at the President for a long time.

THERE'S a change of the year for your Buick, too, stalwart as it is! Hot summer driving has taken its toll—in played-out lubricants, spark timing that may have slipped off a notch or two over the many miles, a carburetor that would probably give you better mileage and snap if it were properly adjusted now for fall driving.

Point is—your Buick will feel a lot friskier in the trying days to come if you let your Buick dealer get those summer kinks out of its system now! Just drive in—say you want (1) a fall tune-up and (2) a regular Lubricare—and see how much rewarded you are, for a small fee!

Do it this week, will you? Before the rush, you can be served more promptly.

Alice Bauer Advances In Texan Open

FORT WORTH (AP)—Alice Bauer of Midland and Dot Kietly of Long Beach, Calif., teed off Wednesday in a featured second-round match of the Women's Texas Open Golf Tournament here.

Tuesday, Miss Bauer traveled 14 holes in even men's par to surprise Pro Louise Suggs of Carrollton, Ga., 5 and 4.

Miss Kietly shot even par on the outgoing nine to defeat Jeanie Dobbins of St. Louis 8 and 7.

A top contender for the title, Marjorie Lindsay of Decatur, Ill., fell 4-3 before Mrs. H. C. Reidel of Dallas.

Defending Champion Beverly Hanson of Indio, Calif., won 2-up over Mary Lena Faulk of Birmingham, Ala. Medalist Betsy Rawls of Austin tripped Mrs. George Wilcox of Miami, Fla., 4 and 3. Pro Patty Berg of Minneapolis sidelined Mrs. E. P. Bitterman of Dallas 4 and 3. Helen Detweiler of Indio, Calif., ousted Pat Garner of Midland 4 and 3.

TCU Tailback May Outshine O'Brien In Future, Says Dutch

FORT WORTH (AP)—Coach Dutch Meyer of Texas Christian says Gilbert Bartosh, his sophomore tailback, is further along at this stage of his career than was Davey O'Brien, the Horned Frog immortal of 1938.

Bartosh has rolled up 442 yards running and passing in three games and was the keyman in TCU's victory over Arkansas Saturday night in the opening Southwest Conference game.

"The Granger Ghost" is an academic junior but a football sophomore. On his own decision, he didn't play a down in the 1949 season. As a result, he has two more years of football after this campaign. And indications are he'll be allowed to finish out his string as he is an active Naval Reservist and not due to be called until after he graduates.

Heavier Than Dave

Gilbert, an outstanding star at Granger high in 1947, is built along O'Brien's lines. He's a shade taller at five feet, 11 inches, and his 168 pounds are some 16 more than O'Brien packed in 1938. His legs are sturdier and he's quicker on his feet.

So far, Bartosh has been more impressive as a runner. But his passing is developing rapidly and Meyer is confident he'll become very proficient in that department before he graduates.

Like O'Brien, Bartosh is a close and careful student of the game. He knows the assignment of every player on the team on every play.

Class AA Schoolboy Unbeaten Ranks To Be Thinned Friday

Proud heads will fall in Class AA Texas schoolboy football this week as all of the state's 17 unbeaten teams play and conference warfare blasts open in three districts. In three instances undefeated teams meet each other. The headline game of the week is Texarkana's clash with Longview in a District 9 title struggle. Texarkana is unbeaten and untied. Longview is undefeated but has been tied.

Texan Paul Richards Signs Two-Year Pact As Chisox Manager

CHICAGO (AP)—Paul Richards' first task as the new Chicago White Sox manager—the fifth in five years—will be selection of a coaching staff.

If Richards, from Waxahachie, Texas, reshuffles, one of those who might get the ax is the White Sox perennial Luke Appling. What to do with Luke, who has been with the organization since 1930, may prove to be Richards' most touchy task in debut as pilot.

The 41-year-old Richards apparently is the type who gets what he wants. Appreciating the fact that Sox managers seem to live short lives, Richards demanded and finally received a two-year contract. A two-year pact was not offered him a year ago when the Sox were thinking of luring him away from Seattle in the Pacific Coast League to replace Jack Onslow.

To Have Free Rein

General Manager Frank Lane and Vice President Chuck Comiskey of the Sox emphasized in announcing Richards' appointment Tuesday that the veteran minor league skipper would have free rein.

Richards is quite a versatile gent. He was a big league catcher with the Philadelphia Athletics; Detroit Tigers, New York Giants and had a three-game whirl with the Brooklyn Dodgers before making his first managerial attempt at Atlanta. While there, from 1939 to 1942, his Atlanta club won two Southern Association pennants and one post-season playoff.

Richards piloted Buffalo in 1947-1948 and 1949, taking one International League pennant. Last season his Seattle team landed in sixth place in the PCL.

Other important battles match Pampa with Lubbock and Midland with Sweetwater in classics of the West. Pampa and Midland have unblemished records, Lubbock and Sweetwater have ties against them.

Lubbock and Pampa used to be in the same district but Lubbock now is in district three with Midland. Pampa, meanwhile, remains with Amarillo in the Panhandle District.

All along the line unbeaten teams run into the kind of opposition that can leave shattered hopes. Big Spring could have trouble with San Angelo, and Pasadena, one of the unbeaten though tied eleven, faces Comroe.

Conference Contests

District 4 opens the conference campaign with El Paso playing Ysleta. In District 7, Greenville and Gainesville get together. In District 9, Gladewater swipes at Marshall in addition to the Texarkana-Longview battle.

There are 40 games in the state. The week's schedule by districts includes:

1—Friday: Brownfield at Plainview, Vernon at Amarillo, Lubbock at Pampa.

2—Friday: Woodrow Wilson (Dallas) at Quanah.

3—Friday: San Angelo at Big Spring, Abilene at Odessa.

4—Thursday: Marfa at Jefferson (El Paso); Friday: El Paso High at Ysleta (conference); Saturday: Borger at Austin (El Paso).

5—Friday: Midland at Sweetwater.

6—Friday: Lamesa at Mineral Wells, Waxahachie at Weatherford, Brownwood at Stephenville, Breckenridge at Crozier Tech (Dallas).

Boston University and Purdue will appear on the Penn State football schedule for the first time in 1951.

We talked to Jack Mashburn while at the Bulldog workout Tuesday. Mashburn scouted the Sweetwater team three times—against Stephenville, Lubbock and Odessa.

"They aren't bothered by another team scoring a touchdown," Jack told us. "Sweetwater was behind Odessa by 13-0 at the half, and then came back to score 14 points in the last half and win the ball game."

"Lubbock scored on the opening kickoff," Mashburn continued, "but Sweetwater fought back harder than ever."

Mashburn referred to the 89-yard scoring jaunt Halfback Mack Patterson of Lubbock sprang on the Mustangs.

It's tough to beat a ball club that will bounce back. Remember that, Bulldogs.

—KR—

Sweetwater has been dead as a pickoff pass thrown by the opposition this year—and Midland well will remember the seven that were sacked in by the Mustang last year in the Bulldog-Sweetwater tilt.

Top hand in grabbing off these enemy aerials is Douglas Claybrook, large and lightning-like back of the Mustangs. Only last week Claybrook started the Mustang touchdown parade by grabbing an El Paso toss and scooting 60 yards to dirt. The big boy can get up and go, once he gets his hands on the ball.

—KR—

Midland ball clubs have racked up seven wins, been tagged with four defeats and fought to two ties in outside competition thus far in the year. The varsity Bulldogs pace the pack with three wins and no losses. A run-down of the teams looks thusly:

since Midland will have its hands full against Sweetwater this week. But Big Spring is being boomed as quite a ball club, too.

Tommy Hart, sports scribe of the Big Spring Herald, announces that Ysleta reaped high praise from El Paso sports writers after its game against the Steers. It seems that Bob Ingram, an El Paso sports writer, said "Ysleta played far and away its best ball of the season against Big Spring."

And another scribe referred to the Steers as a "talent-packed ball club."

Which means, Bulldogs, that you must be sharp not only this week, but every week.

—KR—

Brad Rowland, McMurry's little All-America, ran up 211 yards rushing against Mississippi Southern last week . . . It was his high rushing net in his career . . . although his total 246 total net for offense was not his highest . . . Let's rope a Mustang . . . The end of the Row!

Bulldogs 3 0 0
Bullpups (seventh) 1 0 1
"C" Team 1 1 1
Bullpups (eighth) 1 1 0
"B" Team 1 2 0

The "B" Bulldogs, tutored by Coaches John Higdon and Keith Bobo, might have a better record had they not stepped into varsity competition. The Bees dropped games to the Big Lake and Grandfalls varsity elevens. In their only start in their own class, the Midland boys trampled Lamesa "B" 52-0.

And, Coach Bob Cochran's Eighth Grade team lost to a combined eighth-ninth grade outfit from Kermit. Fact is, Kermit started no less than nine ninth grade boys. Midland's Bullpups play only eighth grade boys.

Don Powers' Seventh Grade Bullpups tied Stanton 0-0, and the Stanton team was composed of both seventh and eighth grad boys. Midland has done pretty well on the gridiron this season. We only hope it can continue.

Casey Won't Stand Pat On Yankees

NEW YORK (AP)—Casey Stengel, set for two years with the best manager's pay in baseball, will not stand pat with his world champion New York Yankees.

Boston, Cleveland and Detroit are respected by Stengel. So is Washington, which he regards as a potential first division club.

Stengel peered ahead into 1951 Wednesday after signing a new two-year contract to manage the Yankees. Old Case can get as high as $75,000 to $85,000 a year under a bonus arrangement. The basic pay is believed to be $65,000.

Boston Needs Pitching

"That Boston club should be very good," he said. "That young pitcher (Willard) Nixon looked like he should make it. And they have two or three others who ought to make their pitching better. If they do, then they can keep (Ellis) Kinder on relief. Yes sir, they're very good. When you consider they had that big guy (Ted Williams) out half the year with a broken arm, they did pretty good, too."

"Detroit is another good club. They got a very good infield with maybe a little more strength, needed around first base. And they'll be helping themselves during the winter."

"Cleveland, they can knock your brains out. That big fellow on first base (Luke Easter) can knock the ball over the fence. And the fellow on third base (Al Rosen) has power, though he did bog down toward the end."

"And Washington. The way they played against me, they can do anything. I think he (Bucky Harris) might move into fourth."

Stengel generalized about his own club's plans for next season.

"I have openings on this club," he said.

Hoople Gets Upsets With Dr. Zlobotny's Laws Of Inter-Stellar Contrapuntalism

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE
Grid Seer Without Peer

Read! Innate modesty forbids my mentioning the name of the football forecaster whose name tops all the rest as far as upsets are concerned. The initials of this peerless prognosticator, however, are A. B. H., just the same as my own—hah-hah!

Indeed, I deem it proper to crow a bit, even though I did receive a scurrilous letter from a reader charging that the reason I picked so many upsets was because I was ignorant. Imagine that!

It was Hoople who gave you Southern Methodist to beat a six-point favorite in Ohio State, who gave you Iowa to surprise Southern California, Yale to overcome Brown, and Alabama to smother the champs from Tulane.

The week's most juicy morsels are Texas to nose out Oklahoma, Michigan to set Army back on its heels, Iowa to puncture Wisconsin's bubble and Syracuse to clout Penn State right between the eyes. Pay no attention to other selectors with their endless, jumped charts of statistics. Get on the bandwagon

Blood Laboratory On Wheels Unveiled

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. —(AP)—A 32-foot, refrigerated truck that will process human blood for medical uses was given its first showing Wednesday at the National Academy of Sciences meeting, held at the General Electric Company's new research laboratory.

The truck is the beginning of a new, national blood program. It will be driven directly to donors' homes. In it, their fresh blood will be processed by new automatic machines that extract every vital substance. Only salt water is left when the robots finish.

Kermit-Andrews Heads 5-A Tilts

That muttering of unrest you hear is the combined voices of District 5-A coaches casting a wary eye toward Coach F. O. Scroggins and his Monahans Lobos. The Lobos last week served notice they are very much in the 5-A title picture by clobbering previously unbeaten Wink 39-13. And they did it with ease.

The Lobos should continue their unbeaten streak this week, playing the Denver City Wildcats at home. The Wildcats haven't shown much more power than tabby cats thus far, and Scroggins reserves should get a good workout. The Lobos to win by three or four touchdowns.

Top Billing
Top billing of the week, however, will go to the Kermit-Andrews clash, to be unreeled in the Yellow Jackets' nest. Andrews was a pre-season title favorite in 5-A, but the lack of reserves and failure of the team to produce as expected finds the Mustangs with a 2-2 record in conference play. This could be the week Andrews will "find" itself—especially if Kermit has a let-down. But from here, it looks like Rick Spinks, Wayne Culvahouse, and the rest of the Yellow Jackets all the way. Kermit by two touchdowns.

Seminole and Wink go together in the only other game carded this week. Seminole has three wins in four starts and a 2-1 conference record. Wink has four wins in five starts and a 3-1 record in district games. Wink should bounce back from the Monahans defeat and claw the Indians. But Guinn Hood, Jackie Sparko and Wayne Gohard could engineer a Seminole upset. We'll pick Wink by about 26-20. It could be much closer.

Pecos, McCamey Idle
Pecos and McCamey will rest this week, as will Crane and Fort Stockton. Pecos nudged McCamey 20-14 last week. Crane and Fort Stockton took their weekly beatings. Crane fell to Kermit 35-0, and Seminole whipped Fort Stockton 19-0.

The 5-A District standings:

Team	W	L	T	Pts.	Op.
Kermit	4	0	0	133	19
Monahans	3	0	0	93	38
Pecos	3	1	0	96	67
Wink	2	1	0	57	59
Seminole	2	1	0	60	47
Andrews	2	2	0	66	71

BURNED IN EXPLOSION
Edward L. Herron of Odessa was given treatment for first and second degree burns Tuesday night at Midland Memorial Hospital. Herron was burned in a butane gas explosion.

Carver Hornets To Meet Hobbs Tigers
The unbeaten Carver High School Hornets will tangle with the Hobbs Tigers in Memorial Stadium at 8 p.m. Thursday.

Because of the Hornets' open date last week, Coach Johnny Williams is sending the team through long drill sessions. Much stress is being centered on the Tigers' passing offense. Carver must stop it to win. The Hornets are brushing up on their own ground game.

The game probably will be an aerial circus between Carver Quarterback Phillips and Hobbs QB Mitchell. Hobbs will run from the single wing. The Hornets are a "T" team.

Both teams expect to be at full strength for the clash. The Hornets hold an early season 24-6 win over Hobbs. The other Carver wins have been over Odessa 20-6 and 13-0. The latter was a conference game.

Bulldogs Work: They Can Win

By LARRY KING

The Bulldogs can win!
They can beat Sweetwater Friday night. They can put an end to 10 successive years of Mustang gridiron domination over Midland. They can win one for Tugboat Jones. They can remain unbeaten.

They can do all these things, if they will play rough, tough, rock 'em, sock 'em, football. If they will go into the game confident they are as good as the Sweetwater team and play accordingly, they have themselves a ball game.

Surprising, you say? Not at all. Just why can't Midland beat Sweetwater, we ask you? Sweetwater's High School enrollment is not as large as Midland's—by a long shot. Sweetwater's population is not as large as Midland's. And there is no coaching in high school ranks superior to that of T. L. (Tugboat) Jones, Audrey Gill, and F. D. (Red) Rutledge.

Then why can't the Bulldogs win? As They Did

We think they can. We think they will. Especially if the Purple lads work as they did Tuesday afternoon.

Coach Tugboat Jones and the Bulldogs hit the practice field at 2 p.m. Tuesday. They worked and drilled until 6 p.m. And they worked on every phase of the game of football.

Midland sharpened its own aerial attack. Ralph Brooks tossed some passes, and he found the mark with some. And Midland's heavy line men opened holes for the husky Purple backs to grind through for yard after yard. Not a department was overlooked.

And Coaches Tugboat Jones and Red Rutledge got into the drill also. Jones tossed Sweetwater-type passes to Rutledge—and the combination clicked seven successive times. That did it. Midland worked long and hard at stopping the Sweetwater passes, and the running attack. The Purple looked good at times, but at others it couldn't cope with the Mustang offense.

But all in all, the scrimmage session didn't look too bad. Midland has some huskies who want to beat Sweetwater. And they were working.

Two Are Limping
Guard Pete English still is limping on a lame leg, and isn't yet up to par. It is hoped he will be able to go against Sweetwater. Guard Jerry Culp's pet "charlie horse" has improved. He is expected to be ready at kickoff time.

The two Bulldogs in their new positions, Bob Burks at guard, and Robert Keisling at end, looked good at times. They are working and coming around. Burks formerly was a reserve center, and Keisling has been a halfback.

After the scrimmage, the Bulldogs ran six wind sprints of 100

Future Bulldogs Face Grid Action

The Bulldog "C" team and the Junior High Seventh Grade Bullpups play out of town this weekend, while the Bulldog "B" and the Bullpup eight grade gridders will see action on the home front.

Pat Patterson's "C" team will journey to Big Spring Thursday night to joust with the Big Spring "C" eleven. Kickoff time is 7:30 p.m.

Two New 'Rough' Play Controversies Simmer In SWC

DALLAS —(AP)— Southwest Conference football, noted for its squabbles between coaches, players and fans, had a couple of controversies going Wednesday.

Both were simmering, however. Rumors of strained relations between Rice and Louisiana State developed when LSU reported a long list of injuries from its game at Houston Saturday night.

But Coach Jess Neely of Rice said any differences between Rice and Louisiana State as a result of rough football would not be settled in the newspapers. At Baton Rouge, Coach Gaynell Tinsley of LSU said "We have no comment and no complaint. We were beaten by a better ball club and that's all there is to it." Rice won 35-20.

Meanwhile, Jinx Tucker, veteran sports editor of the Waco News-Tribune, said Mississippi State, which Baylor played Saturday night at Shreveport, was the "dirtiest" team Baylor had played in the last 20 years or more and he hoped the Baylor contract with the Maroons had run out.

Mental Patient Held In Robbery Is Under Medical Observation

SHREVEPORT, LA. —(AP)— Floyd Ray Reed, 20, an escaped mental patient from a Fort Worth hospital who is being held in a $12,000 robbery, is under medical observation here.

He is under the care of Dr. Willis P. Butler, Caddo Parish coroner.

Wyatt Patrick, criminal investigator for the Arkansas State Police, is expected here soon to question Reed concerning a $17,000 bank robbery in Jonesboro, Ark., last May 17.

Reed was arrested here October 4 about nine hours after $12,000 was taken from a Shreveport bank. In his possession was a toy pistol and almost all of the $12,000 taken from the bank.

Officials of the U. S. Public Health Service Hospital in Fort Worth said they had no authority to return Reed to the institution unless officers here determine he is not responsible for his actions.

BOWLING

Last week was full of surprises in the City Major Bowling League. Seventh-place Dunagan Sales Company shocked first-place Houston Hill, taking two out of three games. Hotel Scharbauer defeated Banner Creamery two out of three games to jump into a first-place tie with Houston Hill.

Other results found Blatz-Pearl Distributing Company taking two games from K & K Tire Company, and Periman Mud Service winning two from Willig Machine Company.

Dunagan Sales had the high team game of the evening with a 961, and the high three-game series with a total of 2,745 points.

Copper Daugherty of Houston Hill had the high individual game of the night, posting a 235 score. Day of Periman Mud Service captured high individual series with 568 points.

The standings:

Team	W	L
Houston Hill	9	6
Hotel Scharbauer	9	6
Banner Creamery	8	7
Willig Machine Company	7	8
K & K Tire Company	7	8
Periman Mud Service	7	8
Dunagan Sales Co.	7	8
Blatz-Pearl Dist. Co.	6	9

SMU Officials Say Oklahoma's Aggies Double Tough Foe

DALLAS —(AP)— Southern Methodist University athletic officials said Wednesday Oklahoma A&M was fooling no one with that "Thin Thirty" stuff.

They said they expected all kinds of trouble when the undefeated, untied Methodists play the Sooner Aggies in the Cotton Bowl Saturday night.

Pointing out that the Southwest Conference has lost only four inter-sectional games this season and two of them were to the Oklahoma Aggies, Lester Jordan, business manager of athletics, commented:

"All the year the Aggies have been singing the blues, calling themselves the 'Thin Thirty,' saying they have no reserve strength and that they are just green football players trying to get along. Yet they are the only team in the country that has won two games from Southwest Conference teams — Texas Christian and Arkansas. TCU and Arkansas were rated high in the Southwest Conference until the Oklahoma Aggies got through with them."

And Who Doesn't Fish That Way?

JEFFERSON CITY, MO. —(AP)— Missouri's 1951 fishing regulations will give sportsmen a one-month season to take rough fish by "grabbing or snaring." And just to clear things up grabbing is defined by use of hook, pole and line "manipulated at random."

Dr. G. B. Herndon, state conservation commission fisheries director, said that wasn't exactly clear. Because "that's the way I always do when I go fishing—manipulate at random." And who doesn't?

MEDICAL PATIENT
Paul Boone, 114 East Washington Street, was admitted to Midland Memorial Hospital Tuesday night for medical treatment.

EYE INJURY
Miss Nancy Abbott, 401 South Mineola Street, Tuesday received treatment for an eye injury at Western Clinic-Hospital. She opened the door to an oven at the school cafeteria, where she is employed, and burning grease popped into her eye.

Dallas Streetcar, Bus Fares Boosted

DALLAS —(AP)— Higher bus and streetcar fares go into effect here Thursday.

The City Council Tuesday approved increases of 10 to 12 cents in cash fare on regular lines or six tokens for 65 cents. On express lines fares will increase from 12 to 15 cents for adults.

The Higher He Climbs, The Louder He Warbles

NEW YORK (NEA)—This story opens in 1897 in the small town of Homana, on the Austro-Hungarian border. On both sides of Homana were mountains, and flowing through it was the river Laborec.

A miller harnessed this river to grind grain. In 1897 his labors were happily interrupted by the birth of a son. The lad was christened Michael Porvaznik.

Climbs Mountains
At first he scrambled up the foothills, then the mountains them-

Michael Porvaznik: Mountains, eagles and flagpoles.

Swaying in the wind, he would sip the air, exult in the view, expand in the solitude.

Eagles nested on the highest limbs of the highest trees of the highest peaks. Often this would be an oak whose lowest branches began 70 feet from the base.

Up to this Mike would shinny, digging his fingernails into the rough bark. There always seemed to be a prize at the uppermost reach of his climb.

Cradle in Kerchief
It might be the eagles eggs. Mike would cradle them in a handkerchief, shinny down, edge back down to the valley, and race to put them under one of his father's setting hens. When the eaglets hatched it was fun to see the hen's surprised look, watch her shunt them aside.

But time motorman job and studied rigging. And although it took him five years, Mike Porvaznik became a bridge painter.

Now he is an employee of the New York Department of Public Works. Mike is the man they call whenever a flagpole has to be climbed on public buildings and bridges.

Expands In Solitude
Then swept over him the memory of his boyhood days, the mountains, the peaks, the trees, the eagles' nests. Again he sipped the clean air, exulted in the distant view, expanded in joyous solitude.

"That's for me!" Mike sang to himself. From that day on, he knew he never would rest content until he, too, worked near the sky. So he quite his motorman job and studied rigging. And although it took him five years, Mike Porvaznik became a bridge painter.

Killed In Gunfight
Martin had been sought since his father-in-law, John Haley, 70, was shot to death Monday night in a gunfight at the Haley home near the Red River boundary of Texas and Oklahoma.

Officers said Haley was shot several times with a .22 caliber pistol after a family quarrel. Before he died he emptied a .25 caliber automatic at his slayer.

Walls and woodwork inside the farm house were pitted with stray bullets.

Martin's body was found a quarter of a mile from the house after bloodhounds followed a trail of bloody footprints.

Both Lamsa (Lineas Aereas Mexicanas, a United subsidiary) and the government Department of Communications are expected to bring charges against the youngster. They want to discourage any further such aerial hitchhiking.

Reyes Guerrero told police he clambered aboard the plane's tail when it wheeled around at the end of the Torreon runway and tested engines before taking off. "I was only frightened at the first blast of air from the propellers. I got over that when I realized there was nothing else to do but hang on."

The lad's clothing was ripped to bits as the twin motored plane roared off at 160 miles an hour, then climbed to 12,000 feet. His back was cut and bleeding from the lashing shreds of his shirt. The night temperature was down to within a shade of freezing. His head was protected by a cheap leather helmet and goggles.

For 61 minutes the youngster held on, braced somehow against the tail. Then the pilot, who had felt something wrong in the controls, put the plane back down at the Torreon Airport. Officials spotted him as he clambered, almost naked, from his perilous perch.

Reyes Guerrero said he was brought up on a small communal farm near Torreon. He said that despite his experience he loves airplanes and wants to study to become a pilot.

Hearne Businessman Acquitted On Second Bad Check Indictment

BELTON, TEXAS.—(P)—S. B. Jones, former Hearne business man, was freed late Tuesday night by a jury here on the second of six indictments charging him with giving $81,000 in worthless checks.

The verdict came on the defendant's plea of former jeopardy. The jury was out one hour and 20 minutes.

Jones was convicted on the first indictment in April, 1949, and sentenced to five years in prison.

Before the trial testimony began Monday, defense attorneys entered a prior jeopardy plea. They contended the $9,000 check in the second indictment was merely one of a series of checks passed by Jones in a check-exchange agreement he made with the now defunct First State Bank of Franklin.

At that time District Judge Wesley Dice overruled the plea.

Snyder Says Big Tax Boost Needed In Defense Program

PITTSBURGH.—(P)—Treasury Secretary John W. Snyder says a pay-as-you-go defense program will call for a greater tax increase in 1951 "than most people realize."

Snyder told a group of industrialists and businessmen Tuesday night any effort to pay for defense measures on a spot basis "will require a substantial increase in taxes next year—a greater increase I believe than most people realize."

While high employment and income will help to make the tax burden bearable, Snyder said: "There is no escaping the fact that higher taxes will be necessary if we are to guard the great production potential of this nation from the weakening effects of an inflationary price rise."

Snyder, who came to Pittsburgh to spur savings bond sales, said in a news conference the wave of cashing in savings bonds that followed the Korean war's outbreak has tapered off sharply.

Second Man Is Dead In Family Gun Duel

TEXARKANA, TEXAS.—(P)—A family quarrel which ended in a blazing gun duel brought death to a 70-year-old retired farmer and his son-in-law.

A posse of about 30 Northeast Texas officers, using bloodhounds, found the body of Quinton Martin, 46, late Tuesday in a pasture near Avery, Red River County.

Red River County Sheriff Amos Batteny said Martin apparently died of loss of blood from two bullet wounds, one in the hip and one in the upper arm.

Officers said Haley was shot several times with a .22 caliber pistol after a family quarrel. Before he died he emptied a .25 caliber automatic at his slayer.

Walls and woodwork inside the farm house were pitted with stray bullets.
