Searchers Find 22 Bodies After Mine Explosion

SIXTEEN OTHER VICTIMS OF BLAST ARE BEING SOUGHT BY RESCUE CREWS IN RELAYS TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

POCAHONTAS, Va., Feb. 29.—With 22 bodies recovered, searchers delved into the inner passages of the Boissevain coal mine today for 16 other men believed to have been killed in an explosion early Saturday.

Working in relays, rescue crews pushed their way through earth, splintered timbers and slate to recover the first burned and mutilated bodies last night. Eight were immediately brought to the surface to the improvised morgue. The rest reposed at the bottom of the shaft until time when they could be cared for.

Six of the men, Burton Brooks, Charles Yates, J. L. Phipps, Clayton Hodge, Sam White and Ed Saunders, a negro, were identified.

Cold and the treacherous mass of debris hindered speed in pushing through the underground passages but hope was held for recovery of all bodies today. Only when exhaustion forced them to quit did the searchers come to the surface.

Worn out by their long vigil, a majority of the widows and children of the missing returned to their homes at midnight but were back at the roped-off inclosure at the mine shaft entrance today. No demonstration was made as the bodies were placed in the hoisting house after their recovery.

No decision as to the cause of the blast had been reached today although the general belief was that a powder explosion might have occurred. The mine, which is operated by the Pocahontas Coal company, is non-gaseous.

There were 50 men at work at the time of the explosion but a dozen escaped.

LOCAL NEGRO IS MURDERED

SON-IN-LAW HELD FOR FATAL SHOOTING SUNDAY NIGHT

Shot through the right lung, Will Morrison, a Lubbock negro about 40 years old, died late Sunday night at the door of a hospital here, and his 22-year-old son-in-law was arrested early this morning at Brownfield and taken to the Lubbock county jail to face a murder charge.

In a signed statement this morning to Burton S. Burks, assistant district attorney, Joe Stapleton said Morrison drew a knife in a dispute growing out of allegations that Stapleton had circulated untruths about a sister-in-law. Stapleton said he pulled his gun from his shirt-front and as Morrison fled, he thought he was going after a gun. The shooting occurr at a cafe in the 1700-block of Avenue A, in The Flats, local negro quarter, about 11 o'clock last night. Police Chief John Lemond said indications were the fatal gun-play was the outgrowth of a family argument.

The accused man's statement was: A sister of Mrs. Stapleton's charged Stapleton with lying about her in saying she had been seeking the affections of certain men. Stapleton denied circulating the tale. Later, his sister-in-law returned from church and demanded that Morrison relate what he had told her he had heard Stapleton say. The older man complied. The two men called each other liars and Morrison threatened Stapleton. Morrison knocked him down.

Police reported Stapleton fired a .38 caliber revolver five times at Morrison, the fifth bullet hitting the older man. Calvin Quigley, negro undertaker, reported Morrison's right lung was punctured and hemorrhages caused his death. Morrison is survived by a widow and several daughters. He was a member of the negro Masonic lodge. The body possibly will be sent to Dallas for burial. Morrison was employed at a local garage.

On being notified by Lubbock police, the Terry county sheriff's department arrested Stapleton at Brownfield, his home. He did not resist. Police Chief Lemond and Deputy Sheriff Will Earnest returned him to Lubbock.

A negro doctor, J. P. Oliver, and several other negroes took the dying man to West Texas hospital. He was not taken inside, as he died near the door.

CONTRACTS TO BE AWARDED

ABOUT TWO MILLION IN NEW CONSTRUCTION IS TO BE LET TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Feb. 29—The Texas highway commission met today to award contracts for approximately 247 miles of new construction costing about $2,000,000. Thirteen projects were set for consideration today and 18 tomorrow.

About 78 miles of concrete paving were included, other projects covering 22 miles of grading and drainage structures, nine and one-half miles of bridges, 106.9 miles of miscellaneous surfacing and about 21 miles of surfacing under maintenance.

COMMISSIONER IN LYNN IS CHARGED

TAHOKA, Feb. 29.—(Special)—Walter Z. Florence, former Lynn county commissioner, whose whereabouts have been unknown for the past two months, has been charged with misappropriation of public funds by a Lynn county grand jury, according to District Attorney T. L. Price. Amount of funds alleged to have been taken by Florence was not made known. Florence was serving his second term as commissioner when he disappeared.

Several days ago, Mrs. Lois Florence, his wife was appointed commissioner when the office held by Walter Florence was declared vacant. Mrs. Florence is said to be the only woman county commissioner in the State.

Charges Are Made In Cuba Election

HAVANA, Feb. 29. (AP)—Officials today began the count of ballots cast in yesterday's election, which was described as "more orderly than usual," although one person was killed and several wounded in clashes throughout the country.

It was followed today with charges of fraud, coercion and ballot buying from various sources. Definite announcement of results of balloting was not expected for two or three days.

Throughout the island the liberals, conservatives and populars elected delegates to municipal assemblies. These will nominate candidates for local officers and choose members of provincial assemblies which will elect delegates to a national convention preliminary to next November's election when governors, provincial officials and members of the legislature will be chosen.

WIFE OF NAVY MAN VICTIM OF ATTACK

CHINESE IS HELD BUT JAPANESE BELIEVED RESPONSIBLE

(By The Associated Press)

HONOLULU, Feb. 29.—Tense excitement which gripped Honolulu in recent months because of attacks on women and an attendant lynching, was revived today by an assault on the wife of an enlisted man of the United States navy.

The victim, Mrs. Kethleen Hope, wife of John H. Hope, machinist on the submarine S28 now en route to San Diego, Calif., was the second naval wife assaulted here in recent months.

Her attacker, who she thought was a Japanese, entered her home with a pistol Saturday night, bound her to a bed with stockings, gagged her, assaulted her and then calmly helped himself to cigars on a table.

Threatened To Return

Before he left he threatened to return and "get her" if she reported the crime to police. Mrs. Hope caught but a single glimpse of her assailant's face when his mask slipped off.

He also terrorized Mrs. D. W. Curry, wife of another enlisted man on submarine duty, in an adjoining home. Neither of the women possessed a telephone.

Officers arrested Edward Wong, 23, Chinese, when Mrs. Hope picked his photograph from a police gallery but renewed the search when she was unable to positively identify Wong and said she believed her attacker to be a Japanese.

Charges Renewed

The attack brought renewal of charges that local authorities could not cope with the situation and a plea that the federal government intervene.

The charges were made by Mrs. Harry Kluegel, president of the citizens' organization for good government, who termed the series of reform bills passed by the recent special legislative session "a sop to an aroused public."

They recalled widespread criticism of local law enforcement which followed the assault last September on Mrs. Thomas H. Massie, wife of a naval lieutenant—the first of a series of crimes climaxed in the lynching of one of her alleged attackers, the calling of the legislative session and a department of justice investigation now under way.

The attack on Mrs. Hope came scarcely ten days before the scheduled trial of Lieut. Massie, Mrs. Granville Fortescue, mother of Mrs. Massie, and two naval enlisted men accused of the second degree murder of Joseph Kahahawai, young Hawaiian and suspected attacker of Mrs. Massie.

LUBBOCK MAN IS HURT IN MISHAP

Helpless when the steering gear of his automobile failed to function, J. D. Rudder, about 20, of 715 Third street was injured in a headon collision at about 12:10 o'clock this afternoon in the 1000-block of Main street. An ambulance took Rudder, unconscious, to West Texas hospital. The attending physician 20 minutes later reported Rudder had regained consciousness and was suffering from contusions over the body and possibly internal injuries.

The driver of the automobile colliding with Rudder's was W. T. Finney, 2413 Third street, police reported. They said the accident evidently had occurred as a result of a disconnection which permitted the steering wheel to roll off. Finney was not hurt.

Rudder underwent x-ray photography.

FREDERICKSBURG, Feb. 29.—(AP)—Physicians held hope for the recovery of Albert Koennecke, former president of the bank of Fredericksburg, recently closed. He as found Saturday slashed on the wrists and chest.

MASS MEETING PLANNED IN CAMPAIGN

ANTI-HOARDING DRIVE TO BE LAUNCHED IN LUBBOCK TUESDAY

A mass meeting at Tech gymnasium Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock has been scheduled as Lubbock's part in the anti-hoarding campaign and the state air tour being conducted by A. P. Barrett, chairman of the state committee, who is making a four-day tour of Texas this week. Mr. Barrett is scheduled to arrive here by plane tomorrow afternoon at 2:45.

"Lubbock wants to do her part in putting hidden money in circulation and for that reason we're trying to have as big a gathering here as possible," Sam C. Arnett, president of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, said today as he directed plans for the meeting. Delegations from South Plains towns will be invited to the meeting to hear Mr. Barrett. Business men and citizens and Tech students will be in attendance.

Band To Parade

The Tech band will stage a parade through the downtown streets shortly after 2:15 and then will march back to the gymnasium for the meeting.

The local meeting is expected to be one of the largest in the state. Mr. Barrett plans to visit Wichita Falls, Amarillo, Lubbock and Big Spring Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday will find him making a swing of 1,920 miles by air over Texas.

Members of the Tech faculty, chamber of commerce officials and the Lubbock Loyalty Council will meet Mr. Barrett at the municipal airport and escort him to the college for the meeting.

"We feel that this campaign of anti-hoarding is just as much a work of the Lubbock Loyalty Council as anything we might do locally," J. O. Jones, president, said today. "We want to put it over in a big way so far as Lubbock is concerned.

"The college authorities plan the utmost cooperation in the campaign and will endeavor to carry out its practices at all times," Dean J. M. Gordon said.

Treasure Of Over Million Is Claimed

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 29 (AP)—Oaxaca state has claimed a treasure worth upward of $1,000,000 discovered recently in the ancient Monte Alban tombs.

It cited to the supreme court a state law decreeing that all archaeological relics found within the state are its property.

The federal government countered by citing a 1902 law which says all archaeological discoveries are the property of the nation. Oaxaca claimed the 1917 constitution supersedes that.

Oaxaca is trying to build up a state museum. Some of the richest archaeological sites in Mexico are located there.

AURORA AWAKES TODAY UNDER RULE OF THE POWDER PUFF AS SIXTEEN BACHELOR GIRLS ASSUME CONTROL

BY RUTH COWAN

AURORA, Ill., Feb. 29. (AP)—This city of 50,000 awoke leap year day to be ruled by the powder puff.

Sixteen bachelor girls headed by madam the mayor—Miss Mildred Pratt—were showing the men how to run the municipal government.

A hundred women eased the masterly males out of their managerial seats in the banks, the newspaper office, stores, hotels and all marts of trade.

Stenographers quit their desks and dishes loitered in the kitchen sinks awaiting another day—where the husbands didn't do them.

Whether they liked it or not, early risers found—

Two score fair but determined traffic cops with orders from Police Chief Dorothy Ward to give "tickets that stick."

Police Magistrate Florence Atkins ready to help suppress any crime wave—and who would dare start one?—and administer justice.

Warden Milred McDowell all set to hand out bread and water at the city lockup.

Over at fire headquarters, Ruth Cole, 23, and "Miss Illinois" at the Atlantic City beauty pageant three years ago, tucked her blonde curls into the fire chief's hat and with her

TAX BILL ONLY HARMONIZER

OTHER MEASURES ARE LIKELY TO CAUSE CONTROVERSIES

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29.—Congress starts this week in the thick of controversial proposals and with but one bill in prospect for the rest of the session which definitely appeals to inter-party harmony.

This is the new revenue act, designed to add a billion and a quarter to the treasury's receipts, which is due to be brought to the house for action a week hence, March 7. There is tacit agreement among leaders—most all of the harmony get-together has been more or less unspoken—to act co-operatively to put that particular bill through.

Parties At Odds

Otherwise leaders of the Democrats and Republicans have come to the parting of ways, each backing a different set of measures even where the general purpose may be the same. There is a substantially no prospect of the "same spirit of co-operation" cited by President Hoover Saturday in expressing hopes for rigid economy in expenditures, aid to depositors in closed banks and railway regulation reform.

The senate has a splendid opportunity for a party clash as soon as the pending Norris anti-injunction bill is acted on, with Democrats determined to bring up the party tariff measure and the Republicans lining up for a large naval building authorization.

In the house, tempers are running short. The Democrats used their narrow majority successfully in sending to the senate a big unemployment-aid highway construc-

Farmlands Covered By Flood Waters

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 29 (AP)—Hundreds of acres of farmlands in the lower Snohomish and Skagit river valleys were covered today by flood waters which have drowned some livestock and driven scores of farm families to higher ground.

Muddy waters of the Snohomish, an aerial observer reported, stretched across an area 14 miles in length and two miles in width from the mouth.

THREE PLACES ARE ENTERED

MAIL IN BROWNFIELD POSTOFFICE OPENED; TWO STORES ROBBED

(Special To The Journal)

BROWNFIELD, Feb. 29—The postoffice, Murphy Bros. grocery, and the Rialto theater were entered early Sunday and at least two of the places were looted. The Terry county sheriff's department this morning reported no arrests had been made in the burglaries. An attempt to obtain fingerprints was made.

Outgoing mail was opened and rural carriers' cash boxes forced open in the postoffice. What was obtained from the postal quarters had not been determined. The sheriff's department reported no money order blanks were believed to have been stolen.

Guns Are Taken

A rifle and a revolver were taken from the grocery and three old-style government revolvers and an automatic pistol from the postoffice. Groceries and the stock of cigarets also were taken from the grocery. Value of the loot from the store was undetermined.

Although the theater was believed to have been entered, nothing was discovered missing, the sheriff's department reported. Entrance to the grocery was gained by breaking glass in a door, making an opening large enough for passage of a hand to push off a bar inside. Bars were pried off a window to break into the postoffice.

Three men were believed to have executed the robberies.

Cattlemen Arrive For Amarillo Meet

AMARILLO, Feb. 29 (AP)—Cattlemen arriving in Amarillo today from all sections of the southwest brought reports of good range conditions and a shortage of cattle, especially steers, and that cattle had come through the winter in excellent shape.

The cattlemen were gathering here for the sixteenth annual convention of the Panhandle Livestock association and the Amarillo Fat Stock show. They met this morning in their only business session of the three days.

GARNER-MOSES OUTBREAK IS THE CLIMAX

CONNALLY SCORES GOP LEADERS FOR ATTACK ON THE SPEAKER

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29.—Senator Connally (D., Tex.) carried to the senate floor today the week-end political outbreak between Speaker Garner and Senator Moses (R., N. H.) and gave notice it heralded the end of the national political truce.

Denouncing Moses for his "savage attack" on the speaker, Senator Connally reiterated the Garner declaration that President Hoover was responsible for the depression in part.

GARNER BOOSTED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29. (AP)—In a statement pleading to the Democratic party to select a presidential nominee who can win, Representative McDuffie of Alabama today suggested Speaker Garner as the man.

"I assume," he said, "now that the administration has secured cooperation in enactment of the program in which it was particularly interested, it will now open up its guns in an effort to destroy the speaker or any one else who becomes prominent in the Democratic party as a possible candidate for president.

Harmony Is Over

"When in 1930 the people repudiated the Republicans at the polls and put the Democrats in control of the house, the president raised the flag of truce and asked for peace and harmony. So we did the cooperating and the Republicans the operating. Now that period is past."

Connally read the Moses statement of yesterday replying to Speaker Garner with the suggestion that Garner blame President Hoover for all world ills as well as the depression.

"I would not take notice of this savage attack upon the speaker," Connally told the senate, "except it is well known the intimate contact which the senator from New Hampshire has with the president, except for his own prominence, except for the fact the senator is regarded generally as the spokesman for the White House.

"I don't know what the speaker said. But I will say that as far as

LOAN MEETING TO BE HELD MARCH 9

STAMFORD, Feb. 29. (AP)—Farmers of 130 counties of West Texas will be organized next month for participation in loans from the $50,000,000 appropriation under the recently enacted reconstruction finance act for agricultural production, it was announced today by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Owen W. Sherrill, administrative officer under the act for Texas and other states in the southwest, has asked the West Texas chamber to organize a series of three region-wide conferences of farmers and others interested, which Sherrill will address, Sherrill fixed the itinerary as follows:

Abilene, Tuesday, March 8; Lubbock, Wednesday, March 9; Amarillo, Thursday, March 10.

Success Seen Today In Proposed Merger

INDEPENDENCE, Kas., Feb. 29.—Reports from the general offices of the Prairie Pipeline and the Prairie Oil and Gas companies today gave indications of success in proposed plans for merger of the two firms with the Sinclair Consolidated Oil corporation.

The matter will be put to a vote here tomorrow at the annual meeting of stockholders.

PROPOSAL FOR CONFERENCE ACCEPTED

PLAN CALLS FOR END OF SHANGHAI WAR; SUPPORT PLEDGED

(By The Associated Press)

GENEVA, Switzerland, Feb. 29.—Japan's representative on the League of Nations council tonight provisionally accepted a proposal for a conference at Shanghai to restore peace between Japan and China.

This conference would bring together not only the two belligerents, but also the United States, Great Britain and the other neutral powers directly concerned.

U. S. Support Pledged

Sir John Simon, the British foreign secretary, said he had been authorized to pledge the full support of the United States to this concerted move for peace.

The plan calls for an immediate end of the armed conflict in the Shanghai area and the simultaneous withdrawal of both the Chinese and Japanese armies. Thereafter the conference would take place, but if the fighting is not stopped there would be no such conference, said Sir John.

OPTIMISTIC FEELING HITS SHANGHAI

SHANGHAI, Tuesday, March 1. (AP)—There was a feeling amounting almost to optimism in Shanghai today despite the roar of an artillery battle which went along the Chapei front all last (Monday) night.

Both sides were exchanging opinions through the medium of American and other neutral authorities with a view to putting an end to the conflict in which neither China nor Japan has gained any material advantage in many days of heavy fighting.

Progress Reported

The Chinese agreed "some progress" had been made and the Japanese, although they were rather non-committal, said they would participate in further negotiations this (Tuesday) afternoon.

The Japanese seemed to expect that when General Shirakawa gets here to take over as commander-in-chief there will be important developments in the peace parleys although the general himself may not take an active hand in the open negotiations.

The Chinese battle line, fighting fiercely on a new front at Chapei, wavered and fell back slightly Monday under a thunderous artillery bombardment, in the midst of negotiations for peace and declarations for more widespread hostilities around Shanghai.

After a terrific battle which lasted throughout the day, the Japanese, aided for the first time in more than a week by the big guns on the warships in the river, claimed they smashed the Chinese defenses, captured a cemetery west of Hong-

ONE JUROR NAMED IN GRAVES TRIAL

One juror had been selected at noon today in the retrial of Alvin Graves for murder before Judge Homer L. Pharr in 72nd district court. He was R. E. Fielding.

Only 86 of the special venire of 120 men were present when the trial was opened this morning at 10 o'clock.

Graves, local man, is charged with the murder of Horace L. Smith on the night of January 11, 1931. He was convicted of the charge on March 19 and in an appeal to the court of criminal appeals at Austin he won a reversal and a new trial.

Smith and Robert Averett, 22, were victims of the shooting which took place at a dance at a residence here.

Graves has been confined since his arrest at Post the next day, bond, having been denied him. His face showed little palor of the confinement. He smoked cigarets incessantly during the questioning of veniremen this morning.

To Try To Rescue Body From River

WEST COLUMBIA, Feb. 29. (AP)—Residents along the Brazos river ten miles north of here planned an attempt today to recover from the swollen stream the body of an unidentified man.

The body was discovered a week ago and was lassoed to a tree. The swift current snapped the heavy twine and swept the body two miles down stream where it again was found and made fast. A trapper came here to get a coroner for an inquest but by the time the coroner reached the scene the river had become so high that the body could not be recovered.

Today's Natal Anniversary Of Leap Year Babies

BORN IN 1848, MAN THINKS HE IS OLD ENOUGH TO VOTE

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Feb. 29.—Today's the natal anniversary of that select company, the leap year babies.

For instance, there is Arthur Kline, retired merchant of San Francisco, born Feb. 29, 1848.

"That makes this my twenty-first birthday," he said today. "Now I'm old enough to vote, after all these years. I'm glad. I want to cast my ballot for John Garner."

Kline explained he always had been a Democrat and had lived 35 years in Texas—two circumstances which make Garner, the Texas Democrat, his sentimental favorite.

The joke, unfortunately, is on Mr. Kline. Today is only his twentieth birthday anniversary. The year 1900 didn't count, for reasons best known to the cal-

PARTY PLANNED HERE TODAY FOR 16 BORN ON FEBRUARY 29

Children and adults of the Lubbock vicinity, who were born February 29 and technically have a birthday only once each four years, weer to attend a leap year birthday party at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the Lindsey theater. The affair was arranged by the Avalanche-Journal. The feature picture is "The Shanghai Express."

Monday morning's mail and telephone calls revealed that three more South Plains residents had been born February 29, bringing the known total for the area to 16.

Those last reported are: Frances Lenore Ellington, 8 years old today, Meadow; Nelson Boyd Fortner, 8, of O'Donnell; and L. E. Bigham, a telegraph messenger boy, 16, of 1613 Seventh street.

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D.

YOUNGSTERS AIDED

IF A Neighbor's boy twelve years old or over is a bully toward your children who are younger and weaker than he is, you have no easy problem. However much you would like to discipline that bully you will not, if you are wise, try to do so. Neither will you tell his parents how he should be disciplined. You will be more practical and adroit. Without approaching the matter at a time just after the boy has annoyed your children, without connecting the suggestion with the boy's behavior, tell his parents of the opportunity he has to join the Boy Scouts, what good fun the Scouts afford a boy and what useful things a Boy Scout can learn.

Some girls, too, are bullies. Girl Scouts for them, or the Camp Fire Girls. In some communities there are such organizations as the Cubs for younger boys and The Bluebirds for younger girls. Also there are clubs particularly for boys run by the Young Men's Christian Association, Young Men's Hebrew Association, and the Knights of Columbus. In addition are other similar clubs for boys and for girls by local churches.

Of course the bully may be your boy or mine, though we parents are not very likely to recognize the fact.

Scouts and similar organizations not only offer an opportunity to salvage the bully but, better still, to keep boys and girls from becoming bullies.

Any activity which assembles a number of these boys or girls, for common purposes in terms of lofty, useful ideals, leads them to desire to be likeable social creatures. They learn that selfishness is disapproved by the group, that the spirit of "after you" is approved, and that reasonable humility and consideration for the rights of others wins favor for a Scout. Sportsmanship, which is the opposite of bullying, is put foremost.

I can testify to the splendid influence scouting had on my oldest boy now in college, who along with scouting had been a club member in the Y. M. C. A. His younger brother is impatiently awaiting the time when he also can be a Boy Scout.

A little while ago while lecturing in Wilmington, Del., I visited the Y. M. C. A. building there and discovered that whereas most such buildings are planned for men, this one was made especially for boys from 9 to 14; that, moreover, the whole program put boys first. I believe the Wilmington Y is on the right track. What do you think about it?

Virginia James Is Honored At Belton

BELTON, Feb. 29 — (Special)— Miss Virginia James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. James, has recently been chosen one of the fourteen favorites of the Historical-Phila Literary society of Baylor College. Her picture will appear in the Blue Bonnet, college year book, as one of the jewels of the society pin which will introduce the Historical-Phila section.

Miss James recently sang "Ave Maria" at the third of the fine arts student recitals sponsored by the Fine Arts conservatory. These recitals are held throughout the year in Presser Hall, new fine arts building.

Miss James is president of Historical-Phila Literary Society, a member of the Scholarship Societies of the South and is a candidate for the bachelor of music and bachelor of arts degrees in June.

Federation Meets Today; Baptists To Start Training School; Others Meet

Several church affairs are prominent on the calendar of events for today in Lubbock.

The Church Women's Federation is meeting for the first time during 1932 at St. Paul's Episcopal church this afternoon at 3 o'clock. This is the largest organization of church women in Lubbock since it is composed of the majority of the Protestant societies. Meetings are conducted regularly on fifth Mondays of the months.

In keeping with the Washington Bicentennial movement, today's principal talk is to be on "Washington as a Christian." Judge Clark M. Mullican is to speak.

Go To Ropesville

Seven women from First Methodist church are in Ropesville this afternoon attending a group missionary meeting. These are Mesdames C. A. Bickley, A. N. Gamble, H. W. Wylie, J. Frank Potts, Otis Copeland, Ed O'Sullivan and George Wolfforth.

About 75 or 80 are expected to attend a dinner at First Methodist church this evening, according to Fiske Miles, student director. This meal is for leaders in all departments of the church. Guest speakers will be Rev. W. H. Wallace, jr., pastor of the Lamesa Methodist church, and Rev. J. W. Watson, conference superintendent of Christian education.

200 Expected

About 200 are expected to enroll this evening in the annual training school for teachers at First Baptist church, it was stated at the church office this morning.

Classes are to open at 7 o'clock to continue for 45 minutes. There will be a 30-minute intermission for games and a general social hour. Classes will be resumed at 8:15 o'clock to continue until 9 o'clock. This program will be followed each evening through Friday with the exception of Wednesday evening when the 30-minute interval will be devoted to regular weekly prayer services.

The courses to be taught are as follows: "Modern B. Y. P. U. Methods for Adults", M. E. Witt; "Methods for Seniors", Miss Pearl Jackson; "Our Lord and Ours", Rev. R. C. Campbell; "Intermediate Officers and Their Work", Mrs. Susie Dalton; "Messengers of Light", Miss Ruby Atwood; "Junior B. Y. P. U. Manual", Miss Willie B. Cloninger; "Primary Story Hour", Miss Mary Alice Scott; "Primary Union Manual", Mrs. F. B. Malone; "Leaders' and Sponsors' Manual", Miss Pauline Wright; "Records", Mrs. Jesse McIlhaney.

Fourteen People Are At Sanders Meet

There were 14 in attendance Sunday afternoon at the Sanders Young Peoples' union in a meeting at the Stephen A. Claye residence. The program was on "Revelations" and parts were taken by Misses Mozelle Crain, Evelyn Bull and Elma Bailey. A contest between men and women was started to last four Sundays. The winners will be entertained by the losers.

WARNED IN THE NICK OF TIME . . . . by ALBERT DORNE

"B.O." A REAL DANGER

WE'RE fooling ourselves — and nobody else — when we say, "I'm not worried about 'B.O.'—body odor!" Even as we say it, we may be guilty! For it's always others who notice "B.O."— not the offender, whose sense of smell has become used to an ever-present odor. Why risk unpopularity? Wash and bathe with Lifebuoy. Its rich, creamy lather purifies and disinfects pores — ends all danger of offending. Helps protect health by removing germs from hands.

Complexions grow radiant

Lifebuoy's pure, bland, deep-cleansing lather gently frees pores of clogged impurities—freshens dull skins till they glow with new youthful radiance. Its pleasant hygienic scent, that vanishes as you rinse, tells you Lifebuoy purifies! Adopt Lifebuoy today.

ACTIVITY INCREASED AROUND MAJOR LEAGUE TRAINING CAMPS

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

Time flies. Another baseball season is just around the next corner. The offocial basketball season is not yet concluded; it seems only yesterday that Southern Cal beat Tulane, that Tech beat Simmons, that Lubbock lost to Abilene on various gridirons; only a few days ago, if you follow the hectic sports world, that the Cards took the final victory in the World Series. Yes, tempus certainly does fugit.

Maybe it was because 1931 was such a red letter year for sports that it is so easily remembered. Nineteen thirty-two must do some fast stepping to prove a worthy successor, yet it's pretty well on its way. Basketball held its own as the first sport activity of the year. Already track records of last year and former years are being blasted. Already the world's speed records on land and water have been shattered. Already some fairly decent golf scores have been recorded. And the baseball season, in major and minor leagues alike, promises to be one of the best. Locally, prospects for a banner year are fair, particularly at Texas Tech.

Sir Malcolm Campbell of England has already done a good year's work. He came over with his Bluebird and set five new speed records in three days—records that are likely to stand until Sir Malcolm returns next year. He got it over in a hurry, that year's work, but see if you can drive an auto 254 miles per hour, even if you try every day this year. Gar Wood split the waters at the rate of 110 miles per hour in a motor boat, but he's likely to work another day or so this year.

Going further into detail in regard to the accomplishments allgard to the accomplishments alwhere Gene Venzke, a collegian, residence Pottstown, Pa., ripped off 1,500 metres in 3 minutes, 52 2-5 seconds, in a foot race against time and other collegians, beating Ray Conger's 3:55 and Loyd Hahn's 3:58 4-5. Then there were the new records made at Lake Placid at the Winter Olympics—bobsled racing ski-jumping and skating.

Looking ahead we see a great coaching school and a great football team to make Texas Tech stick its head a little higher. High school prospects could be brighter, but that's what we thought this time last year. And 1932 has the grand Olympic games in California to help it along. It ought to be a pretty fair year, at home and abroad.

But we started out to make a few advance notes about baseball, particularly in the major leagues. The hot stove league season, now practically in full swing, is one of the liveliest of all time. Increased interest on the part of players and fans—those fans who are fortunate enough to look forward to seeing actual contests and those fans who see their baseball through the newspapers and radio; those players actually concerned and those who need a job worse than holdout publicity—is one of the noticeable features so far.

Switching and hiring and firing of managers, owners and standout players has been top place news for several weeks, even months, and the general opinion formed upon reading early reports and statements by managers and moguls is that each of the sixteen clubs concerned is a pennant winner. They can't all win but you'd have a hard time locating a self-styled expert who would risk a week's salary on a flag copping prediction. They saw the Athletics set a new winning record last year to cop the American League pennant, then they saw the same A's lose the World Series to the Cards, who had their ups and downs before coming through to the senior loop flag unfurling exercises. What're they going to see this year?

For one thing they're likely to be the Cardinals, aided and abetted by their fine chain-store farm system, sweep through to another National league title, with the Chicago Cubs, Brooklyn Dodgers and Boston Braves fighting for the other first division rungs. This isn't exactly a prediction, more of an observation, but keep your eye on it.

They're touting the New York Yanks to win the American league championship, and the only big league players we've talked with so far, Fred Marberry and Sam West of the Washington Senators, lean strongly toward the Yanks. Cleveland, they say, will be in the running, finishing somewhere below New York, Philadelphia and Washington. The Yanks appear to have the next best balanced club in the junior circuit—next to Philadelphia. Back closer to home, every team in the Texas league is headed for the pennant, judging from news notes, but that is the color of a different horse and this is the end of the rope for today. Tempus must fugit a little longer.

RED CATCHING STAFF AIDED BY VETERAN

NEW YORK YANKEES TO "UNVEIL" ROOKIES; FIELDER BOUGHT

(By The Associated Press)

To bolster their catching staff, the Cincinnati Reds drafted Clyde J. Manion from Milwaukee of the American association last fall and this 35-year-old veteran may do the light-hitting Reds a lot of good.

Manion has been in the big leagues thrice previously, twice with Detroit and once with the St. Louis Browns. He batted .333 with Milwaukee last season.

Manion is a native of St. Louis.

OUTFIELDER BOUGHT

CLEARWATER, Fla., Feb. 29.—(AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers have purchased Carr Smith, an outfielder who played with Norfolk last year, made 192 hits and gave Bruce Caldwell his best run for the league batting championship. Smith probably will go to Hartford of the Eastern league, but he is to come here first.

TO UNVEIL RECRUITS

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. Feb. 29. (AP)—The New York Yankees looked forward today to the "unveiling" of their two star rookies. Frank Frosetti and Jack Saltzgaver, the highly-touted recruits, were to make their first appearance on the field at the same time as Babe Ruth went through the annual ceremony of his first practice session.

Crosetti and Saltzgaver, second baseman and shortstop respectively, are reported to be so good that the Yanks are beginning to count Tony Lazzeri and Lyn Lary out of the running for those positions.

ROOKIE CONFIDENT

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 29.—(AP)—Leonard Koenecke, the high-priced out-fielder the New York Giants bought from Indianapolis, is in camp and a very confident rookie he's turned out to be.

"I ought to make good," says Koenecke. "I hit .353 in the American association and had plenty of triples. None of these cheap home runs for me."

TO BATHE LESS

MINERAL WELLS, Feb. 29. (AP)—No one had an idea, at this stage of training last year, what combination would start the season as the Chicago White Sox infield, but things look different this season.

Lu Blue is regarded as a fixture at first base. Minter Hayes, obtained from Washington, is expected to start at second, with Bill Cissell and Carey Selph at shortstop and third, respectively.

More baseball and less bathing in the mineral springs, will become effective this week.

TO MEET GIANTS

SANTA CATALINA ISLAND, Calif., Feb. 29.—(AP)—With their first game of the exhibition season scheduled for Saturday against the New York Giants, Rogers Hornsby's Cubs were due for added tasks this week.

The veterans have had little chance to get into shape for such competition, but are expected to share the action with the youngsters. Hornsby will give a lot of attention to his outfielders this week.

SCHOLASTIC PLAYER

BRADENTON, Fla. Feb 29 (AP)—Pat Crawford, infield recruit for the Cardinals, is one collegian who is interested in his studies as well as baseball.

Even when offered a chance with the world champions, he didn't throw his textbooks away. And when the Cardinals training camp officially opened for the entire squad today, Crawford was absent. He had asked, and was granted, another week to get his scholastic work in shape at Ohio State university before reporting for training.

ONLY FOUR INCLUDED

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 29.—(AP)—The advance guard of the St. Louis Browns, en route to the training camp at West Palm Beach, included only four players when the train left St. Louis yesterday. Others were to join the contingent at Atlanta and Jacksonville, however.

George Blaeholder and Big Chad Kimsey, pitchers; Lin Storti, recruit infielder of last year, and Jimmy McLaughlin, who is to try out for third base, were the quartet who left with the club officials from St. Louis.

TIGERS START WORK

PALO ALTO, Calif., Feb. 29. (AP)—The Detroit Tigers renew their acquaintanceships with bats and baseballs today in the first workout of the spring training season. Twenty-three players who hardened their muscles at the Richardson Springs conditioning camp came here last night, rounding out a squad of 31.

SENS AFTER PENNANT

BILOXI, Miss., Feb. 29. (AP)—His moundsmen in better than usual condition after the first week of training, Manager Walter Johnson of the Washington Senators has decided not to wait until his entire lot of fielders show up March 6 to get the hurlers into real action. He is fairly obsessed this spring with the idea of developing a winning pennant team and is concentrating on the pitchers.

BURKE WINNER OF TOURNEY

NATIONAL OPEN CHAMP ADDS FLORIDA WEST COAST TITLE

BELLAIR, Fla., Feb. 29 (AP)—Billy Burke, national open golf champion, has added another links title to his list.

Burk, who is the Bellair home pro, clocked off cards of 70-70-72-76—288 to take first money of $750 in the Florida West Coast open from a field of celebrated golfers. Johnny Farrell of St. Augustine took second prize of $500 and Gne Sarazen of Newport Ritchey, Florida, won third of $350.

Paul Runyon of White Plains, N. Y., finished fourth and collected $200 for his play.

Babe Ruth, the Yankee home run slugger, was in a fair way to gather the amateur trophy at the end of 36 holes of the 72-hole tourney, but he blew up on the final 18 and saw Bayard Mitchell of Tampa come through to captpure the prize. Mitchell scored 317 to the Babe's 339. Ruth had a card of 95 for the last round, which is about 20 strokes above his usual game.

Delaney, Leonard To Seek Comeback

NEW YORK, Feb. 29. (AP)—Two great fighters of a few years ago, Jack Delaney and Benny Leonard, hit the comeback trail this week.

Leonard, retired, undefeated lightweight champion, meets Billy McMahon, tough New York welterweight, in a ten round match at the St. Nicholas arena here tonight. Delaney, once holder of the light heavyweight champion, comes back to the ring after a long absence to fight one Phil Johnson, Jersey City heavyweight, at Bridgeport, Conn., Thursday night.

HOWLEY OPTIMISTIC

TAMPA, Fla., Feb. 29. (AP)—Optimistic over the progress of his charges, Manager Dan Howley of the Cincinnati Reds has informed one and all the team looks "100 per cent better than we did at this time last year." Reminded the team last year won 58 league games, and a 100 per cent increase would be 116, equaling the 1903 world record of the Cubs, Howley revamped his statement. What he meant, he said, was that a week's work with batterymen convinced him "the team is going to be much stronger this year."

AHEAD OF SCHEDULE

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 29.—(AP)—Their condition already ahead of schedule, the 16 pitchers in the Cleveland Indian training camp resumed workouts today. Manager Roger Peckinpaugh said most of them will be ready to put plenty of zip on the ball by tomorrow when the main squad of players arrives.

ATHLETICS TRAIN

FORT MYERS, Fla., Feb. 29.—(AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics started their second week of spring training today with a squad complete except for Al Simmons and George Earnshaw, who are conditioning at Hot Springs, and Lefty Grove and Rube Wallberg, who have not signed their contracts.

Arrival of Roger Cramer, outfielder, and Max Bishop, Eric McNair and Dib Williams completed the aggregation.

"TAKE OFF WRAPS"

WINTER HAVEN, Fla., Feb. 29.—(AP)—Manager Burt Shotton of the Philadelphia Nationals told his hopefuls today to take off the wraps. The catchers began to handle fast balls and curves for the first time since training started.

Gerry Nugent announced the club had entered into a working agreement with Durham of the Piedmont league by which the Phils may pick two players a year and send their own prospects there for seasoning.

LAST WEEK IN SOUTHWEST'S CAGE RACE

BAYLOR AND TCU ARE TIED FOR THE LEAD; RECORD BROKEN

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, Feb. 29. (AP)—This is the final week of the Southwest conference basketball race and Texas Christian and Baylor are tied for first place with 9 victories and 2 defeats.

The most interesting phase of last week's conference competition was the record breaking game turned in by Adolph Dietzel, T. C. U. center, against Southern Methodist Saturday night at Fort Worth. Dietzel went into the game with a season total of 151 points. He scored 20 points to shatter by three points his conference scoring record of 168 points. With one more game to play, and that against the weak S. M. U. Dietzel has a chance to score 200 points this season.

Five games will close out the conference program this week. Only the game between Baylor and Southern Methodist Tuesday night at Waco and the Texas Christian and Southern Methodist game here Saturday night will be important.

JAYHAWKS WIN CAGE TITLE

KANSAS STATE DOWNS MISSOURI; TIGERS IN SECOND PLACE

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 29 (AP)—The University of Kansas basketball team won the 1932 Big Six conference championship last week-end with the aid of Kansas State, which prevented Missouri from tying the Jayhawkers for first place.

Dr. F. C. (Phog) Allen, the resourceful Kansas coach, managed to get Bill Johnson, his star center, to Kansas by airplane in time to play against Oklahoma Saturday night and Kansas won, 33 to 29. Johnson attended his father's funeral in Oklahoma, hopped in a plane chartered by a Jayhawk alumnus and flew to Ottawa in 2 1-2 hours, with an Oklahoma airways pilot flying. He was rushed to Lawrence in a motor car.

Missouri collapsed on its road campaign, losing to all conference teams away from home except the last-place Nebraska Cornhuskers. The Tigers wound up in a tie with Oklahoma for second place by losing to Kansas State at Manhattan Saturday night, 22 to 28.

BULLPUPS WIN IN TOURNEY

PLAINVIEW TEAM IS WINNER IN MEET AT SHALLOWATER

SHALLOWATER, Feb. 29.—(Special)—The Plainview Junior High school Bullpups won the Shallowater basketball tournament for junior high school teams by defeating the local club, 24 to 21, in the final contest here Saturday night. The Shallowater girls team won the feminine division by downing Fieldton, 20 to 8, in the final contest.

In the consolation games to determine third place, Hardy defeated Meadow, 22 to 16, in the boys division and the Witharral girls won by default over Hardy.

Brown of Hardy was high point man of the tournament with 68 points.

Out of 25 teams invited, nine boys and six girls teams took part in the joust. Teams from Lubbock, Plainview, Shallowater and Witharral went into the semi-final contests with Lubbock losing to Plainview, 14 to 12, in one of the toughest games of the meet. Shallowater had less trouble in defeating Witharral, 25 to 14.

Thought For Today

That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth that which is past.—Ecclesiastes 3:15.

* * *

The thought of eternity consoles for the shortness of life.—Malesherbes.

Clearing The Way

THE average citizen, who knows practically nothing of the intricacies of high finance and who counts himself wealthy whenever his bank account gets as high as $200, probably finds it hard to get excited about the congressional bill to expand Federal Reserve credit facilities.

He is willing to take it on faith that this is an important measure. But he can't see just how it is going to help him, and now and then he probably feels that the government might well worry more about his individual plight and less about the plight of the banks—which, he thinks, are swollen plutocratic institutions anyhow.

An examination of the things this bill will do, however, might give him a new point of view. In the end it is more likely to put money in his pocket than any other single congressional enactment.

To begin with, the bill would create new credit by making many new kinds of commercial paper eligible for rediscount at Federal Reserve banks. Even more important is the fact that it would permit government securities to be used as a basis for the issuance of new currency.

Under present laws, only gold or commercial paper can be used for that purpose. The depression, by contracting the flow of commercial paper, has operated in a very direct way to cut down the emission of new currency. Under the new law, it will be possible to put around $1,-000,000,000 in new money into circulation—which, in turn, will provide facilities or credit to the extent of at least $10,000,000,000.

It will mean, in short, a change from a period of "tight money," as the homely old expression has it, to a period of "easy money." Banks that today are on the verge of bankruptcy will be able to stay open. Industrialists who are postponing expensive projects will be able to get the money for them. The small business man who has been unable to borrow the money he needs will be able to get it. New orders, new business, new jobs will be the result.

Will this mean an immediate return to prosperity? Perhaps not. But it will clear the way for such a return. It will provide the only possible basis on which such a return can be made.

Passenger 'Chutes

A bill was introduced in Congress the other day which would require all air transport lines to provide parachutes for every passenger, much as steamship lines are required to provide life-preservers; and, as might be expected, it has stirred up a good deal of argument on both sides.

In theory, perhaps, the idea is a good one. Any transport company certainly is under a moral obligation to do everything it can to ensure the safety of its patrons. But, as officials of the transport companies have been pointing out, there are plenty of obstacles in the way of this measure.

In most airplane crashes there would not be time for all the passengers to jump to safety even if they did have parachutes. Novices might operate their chutes correctly, if they did manage to jump in time, and they might not. Besides, the expense of providing parachutes for everybody would put most air transport companies out of business.

If Al Capone could get out, he might pick up a few pointers at the Democratic and Republican conventions when they start kidnaping delegations.

A new society has been formed to abolish prize fighting. Some of our new champions should be given honorary memberships.

Christianity is the easiest thing in the world to understand when properly explained; it's our numerous and conflicting theological theories that are difficult to correlate.

HAPPY birthday, Happy birthday to you folks who only have one birthday every four years and sometimes not that many! The Plainsman is referring to the 14 Lubbock and South Plains people who have written, phoned or called on this writer to tell him that their anniversaries fall on Leap Year Day.

The Plainsman hopes all those good folks took advantage of the kind invitation of C. C. Lindsey, manager of the Palace and Lindsey theaters, to the birthday group. When he found out about 16 Leap Year Day birthday celebrants he opened the doors of the Lindsey to them free this afternoon at 4 o'clock, where Marlene Dietrich is starring in that crackerjack talking film "The Shanghai Express".

If The Plainsman missed any persons whose birthday was today he's sorry, but he did the best he could to find them all.

Here's the list, with this column's best wishes for many, many happy returns of the day:

Arthur B. Mason, 1805 14th street; L. E. Bigham, 1613 7th street; S. J. T. Polk, Route 1; Miss Ardelle Ragland, 2 miles southeast of city; Jack Reaves, jr., 2318 5th street; Miss Frances Gordon, 710-A 4th street; Miss Lillie Frances Hocker, 1311 Avenue Q; Mrs. G. J. Ward, 410 14th street; Mrs. Jim Fulton, 2204 9th street; and O. L. Barrett, Route 3; I. R. Clements, 1412 Avenue E, all of Lubbock; Nelson Boyd Fortner of O'Donnell; Frances Lenore Ellington of Meadow Berlon Lincoln, Brownfield; Mrs. C. Ravens, 240 S. 8th street, Slaton, and W. R. Lovett, 415 W. Lynn street, Slaton.

IT'S springtime—not in the Rockies far away but in West Texas. Of course this doesn't mean that we may not have another cold snap or two because, as Temple Ellis told The Plainsman the other day, "it's liable to be cold as blue blazes in April". But you can count on it that winter's backbone is broken in these parts and warm days will be the general weather offering from here on out.

Down at the beautiful headquarters of the U-Lazy-S ranch, near Post the other day, Mrs. John B. Slaughter showed The Plainsman many buds on her fine shrubs and tulips ready to burst into bloom.

Off the cap in Dickens and Motley counties Sunday afternoon the wild rye, boon to the cowman, was as green as winter wheat and fruit trees had already burst into bloom.

Spring is here. There's no mistaking it.

WHAT is just as authentic as green grass and budding vegetation is the fact that people have started buying spring merchandise which local stores are offering in wide choices.

One Lubbock merchant told The Plainsman this morning that his store was packed Saturday; that his volume was several times as great as it was on the Saturday of 52 weeks ago.

That's good news—and a fine sign of spring.

That Man on Avenue Q says the softest job he can think of is furnishing appetizers to 12 year old boys.

A profitable sideline: selling shinguards to husbands who play bridge with their wives.

THE Plainsman is very, very much indebted to the Rev. Dr. J. Frank Norris for the very fine publicity accorded him last night over the radio. Although too busy snoozing to give time to listening to the Rev. Doctor, The Plainsman is informed by radioing friends that the Fort Worth gent romped over this writer with potency and gusto.

It seems that The Plainsman doesn't agree with the Rev. Doctor Norris on the rights which should be accorded the Rev. Doctor in the recent Tech controversy, so therefore The Plainsman is wrong.

This column can conceive of no better publicity for anybody than to have the Rev. Doctor Norris disagree with him.

* * *

The score, as far as The Plainsman is concerned, is even-stephen. The Rev. Doctor disagrees with The Plainsman and The Plainsman disagrees with him.

What could be fairer?

* * *

THE Plainsman is not the type of writer the Rev. Doctor Norris appreciates and the Rev. Doctor Norris is not the type of preacher The Plainsman appreciates.

If that isn't fifty-fifty, what is?

* * *

A Lubbock youth consulted his physician concerning an old ailment and after the examination the doctor said:

"I'm sorry, my boy, but I can't do anything for you. Your ailment is hereditary."

"Thanks, doctor", the youngster replied. "Since that's the case just send the bill to my father".

Stock Political Argument In This Time Of Depression Is That Conditions Are Much Worse In Other Countries

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29—One of the stock political arguments in this depression period is that voters should not be too much disturbed about conditions around them because things are so much worse in other countries.

Dutcher

This theme seems likely to be used in the 1932 campaigns, during which voters doubtless will be told that they should never be dissatisfied with life as long as they don't live in Harlan or Bell counties, Kentucky.

Incredible Stories

Almost incredible stories of peonage and bloodshed were brought here by the group of writers who were thrown out of Pineville, Ky., when they took food there for relief of striking miners, and who came to Washington to demand a congressional investigation.

That group, which included Mary Heaton Vorse, Edmund Wilson, Waldo Frank and Malcolm Cowley, also brought along Mrs. Christine Baldwin, who told senators how her husband had been murdered by a deputy after he had opened a relief kitchen and caused an especial sensation by nursing her youngest baby at a committee table while sitting between Senator Costigan of Colorado and Governor LaFollette of Wisconsin.

Lived on Beans

Mrs. Baldwin, a plump blond girl of 24 who is attractive though bloated from a lifetime of living on beans, flour and potatoes, was brought to this office. By request, still holding her very white little baby, she reminisced about her old home town—a mining camp in the Kentucky hills.

She offered convincing proof that life in America, except in such places as the Kentucky camps, is by comparison a really happy, lovely thing, after all.

"What the miners get now is 25 cents a ton for the coal they mine and they can bring out two or three tons a day," said Mrs. Baldwin.

"They only get two or three days' work a week. Before the wage cut and the strike my husband got $4 or $5 a week in scrip, but I had four children. They don't have check-weighmen like union miners and the miners know they get cheated in the weight.

Deductions

"The deductions from the pay are $2 a month for company doctor, $1 for hospital fund, 50 cents for tool sharpening, $18 a year for rent, 50 cents for burial fund, so much for church and coal and other things like that.

"You get paid in scrip which is no good except at company stores, which cheat the miners and sometimes charge them twice as much for flour and food as they charge outside. If you want a two-cent stamp to mail a letter you have to pay five cents in scrip for it.

"The miners eat corn bread and beans and that's about all anybody gets. The children never know what it is to get milk or nourishing food to eat. Lots of miners don't know what food is good for their children, anyway, but they know what milk is.

Lack Clothes for School

"Half the children don't go to school because they don't have shoes and clothes. They can't buy books, but they usually borrow from the children from the town. They used to try to get school lunches, but the coal operators stopped that.

"A miner's child hasn't got no chance whatever and by the time he is 14 or 15 he is in the mines. I married my husband when I was 16.

Cats Can Come Back

"The mining camps have from 50 to 200 people in them, usually along gulleys. The houses ain't like a house—more like little barns. When you sweep the dust it all goes between the boards. You paste newspapers on the wall to keep the wind out. The houses are black from wind and rain.

"They say nobody ever puts a cat out because the cat can find holes to get back in.

"The National Miners' Union has organized women to go on the picket line and do relief work. After my husband was killed at the relief kitchen the Workers' Relief took me to go around and speak about the miners."

Diet and Health

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D., Author of "THE HUMAN BODY"

EDITOR'S NOTE: Six pamphlets and six articles by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each pamphlet and 2 cents in coin for each article, with a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1438 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Reducing and Gaining," "Diet of the Normal Diet," "List of Books," "The Care of the Hair," "Feminine Hygiene" and "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." The articles are: "Indigestion and Constipation for Mothers," "Bad Wer and Skin," "Infant Feeding," "Postnatal Mother," "Ear Troubles" and "Tuberculosis."

CAUSE OF HEADACHES

"Something must be the matter with me. I have a headache today and I almost never have a headache."

And then the other nine people in the room turn and look at this strange specimen who is not subject to headaches. Then each one begins to tell about his or her headache — that pet headache.

Dr. Clendening

That is about the proportion in which headaches are distributed among us. Nine people have what is called "my" headache, and one person doesn't have headaches and then all of a sudden he has one.

So in the course of time headaches are practically universal experiences of mankind.

Another thing that the scene teaches is that headaches do not indicate anything sufficiently serious to kill. One can carry a headache from the cradle to the grave, and while it may cause a good deal of disability and invalidism, it doesn't shorten life.

The question everyone wants to know is what causes headaches. And equally important is what will cure them.

It is not surprising, considering its anatomy, that the head should ache pretty often. For one thing, the head is for the body something like the bulb of a thermometer. It is the part of the body, more than any other, which makes you feel that you are not hot or cold. It is more plentifully supplied with sweat glands than any other part of the body. Perspiration is thrown out on the face to cool it off because if it is cool the rest of the body will feel cool. In many other ways, the head is the sensitive bulb of the body.

Then, the skull has a peculiar construction in that it is a rigid, bony box. Inside this box is a non-compressible organ, the brain. Between the brain and the skull is a layer of fluid which varies in amount and pressure. And attached to the inside of the skull, keeping the fluid in place, is a membrane—the dura mater of the meninges—which is exquisitely sensitive.

The brain itself does not feel: it has no sensation. But the meninges have. And we know when we draw some of the fluid off by doing a spinal puncture that a severe headache follows. So changes in pressure of this fluid cause headache. There must be many slight changes in pressure due to congestion or other things, which cause headaches more or less endurable.

Lastly, the head is just stuffed with structures which are liable to disease and strain — such as the teeth, the tonsils, and nose and its sinuses, the ears, and last but not least, the eyes.

So with all these things to go wrong or right, the wonder is not that we have headaches, but that we do not have more.

As to the classification of headaches—the kinds or varieties—that is a subject that has been threshed over again and again. We will discuss it tomorrow.

Acreage Reduction Plan Is Endorsed

LAMESA, Feb. 29. —(AP)—Judge J. E. Garland addressed a meeting of Dawson county growers here Saturday on a cotton acreage reduction plan he has offered through the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce to the cotton cooperatives, bankers and the Federal farm board. The meeting unanimously endorsed the plan.

In brief, Judge Garland said "the plan is to let the farm board secure option on all hold over cotton, which is estimated at 7,000,000 bales, and contract same to cotton growers of the south at a price slightly above present levels for fall delivery, upon the agreement they would cultivate three acres for each bale so contracted and plant nothing at all thereon."

The winter Olympics wound up with a deficit. What's the name of that lake—Placid?

Manhattan's Millionaires

NEW YORK, Feb. 29—During a stroll that takes no more than 20 minutes it's possible to pass through the richest district in the world.

Not even those hardy prospecting gents of the gold rush days and the oil booms could dig up as much money as might be found in a relatively small area bounded by 60th to 85th streets and Fifth avenue to the East river in Manhattan.

Just start to walk in any direction through New York's millionaire zone, and at almost any given point you can look up at the house that plenty of jack built.

King's Mansions

There's the famous Frick mansion, with its museum and tiny, alluring square of green garden space, there's the mansion of Thomas Lamont and of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., the home of the George Bakers and most of the other kings of the financial world.

But in this walk, particularly if you wander in a leisurely fashion don't be surprised if suspicious-eyed plain clothesmen stroll not far away for more than a hundred very special detectives can be found in this zone.

Dining Room Yodels

Remember those good old lunch counter and dining room yodels: "Adam and Eve on a raft" . . . "Two steaks in a marathon" . . . Four pairs, sunny side up and two in the dark . . ."?

All those cryptic-sounding, mirth-provoking shouts that echoed through the kitchens!

Well, if you can stand it, messieurs and mesdames, they're being crooned in the larger New York spots today. You heard me—they're being crooned and only the ears of the waitresses can get them.

Recently, for instance, the New Yorker Hotel put in a microphone system, a la broadcast fashion, so that the chef can mute his voice and in Valleesque tones inform the waitresses outside — "Ready on Irish turkey . . . take 'em away . . . two on the double bots up . . . take 'em away. . . So goes the chant in tremuloso.

A Challenge to the Palace

For the first time in many a year, the Palace Theater—the theaterical Everest that vaudevillians seek to climb—is being challenged and it's one of the tid-bits of chatter about the big street.

The Palace, as all theatrical folk know, has been the traditional ace spot of the variety world. But vaudeville threatened to slip, even in New York, and the moguls called for help.

Masters of ceremony came running up with crews of head-liners. Then, one week, a certain Lou Holtz came up dragging behind him a feature bill that ran and ran and broke all records.

Now it's Mona Holtz, quite assured of his prowess as a variety producer, who steps out with his own playhouse — the Hollywood, which was, until recently, a movie house. And now they're all waiting to see what happens.

The TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN PICTURES by JOE KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The snowman walked up to the bunch and said, "I have a happy hunch that you lads are adventurers. Else, why would you come up here? This place is Frozen Isle, you see, and it is run by fat old me. If you expect excitement, you had best move on I fear."

"We are adventurers," said one. "We travel 'round and have much fun. This time we did not know where we were finally going to land. Within a bumbershoot we rode. The Sappydap pulled quite a load. He is the bird who brought us here. He's treated us just grand."

Then Scouty cried, with all his might, "The Sappydap has taken flight. Oh my, he's gone and left us. Now what are we going to do?"

"Don't worry," said the fat snowman, "I'll try and help you, if I can, but ere you leave I have a sight that I will show to you.

"I send the snowflakes down to earth that make the snowstorms. 'Twill be worth your while to watch me do it. Come, wee youngsters, follow me. My snowflakes now are sleeping sound, but they will jump up with a bound. When they are ready for a storm, a funny sight you'll see."

They walked a little ways and then the old snowman cried out again. "Come, snowflakes! We have visitors who want to meet you all. When you have shouted howdy do, I'll gladly let each one of you hop into space and then to earth you'll very softly fall."

The snowflakes made a lot of noise in shouting, loudly, "Hi there, boys." Then to the edge of Frozen Isle they ran with all their might, "Jump off and make a storm below," exclaimed the snowman. "There you go!" And then the snowflakes jumped and shortly floated out of sight.

(Frozen Isle starts to melt in the next story.)

BRAILLE FROM TYPE

PARIS. —A new aid for the blind has been announced which will enable them to read in Braille from an ordinary newspaper or book type. The aid is a machine equipped with a special light. Printed matter is fixed under the light while the blind reader turns a crank. As the crank turns each letter passes under the light and it automatically searches out the duplicate in Braille type and places it where the index finger of the blind person can "read" it.

Other dates over this area for other collectors include, March 7, Spur; March 8, Sweetwater and Albany; March 11, Quanah and Snyder; March 12, Crowell and Hereford and March 14, Vernon.

SINO-JAP PEACE

kew park and occupied positions near the American-owned Southern Baptist Mission hospital.

Notice Is Served

While the battle was in progress, and shortly after a peace conference had ended, Japanese Consul General Kurametsu Murai served notice on Mayor Wu Teh-Chen on Shanghai that unless the Chinese cease bringing in reinforcements, Japanese operations would be extended over a 50-mile area around the city "on a scale not even approached by the hostilities thus far."

The Japanese consul general said in his letter to the mayor that the Japanese would be forced in "self-defense" to destroy the Shanghai-Nanking railway as far west as Soochow, 50 miles away, and the Shanghai-Hangchow railway, as far as Kashing, 50 miles to the southwest.

Such a scale of hostilities would threaten one of the most thickly populated and richest areas in China, inhabited by millions of people, and also would bring serious danger to hundreds of foreign residents, including many Americans.

Peace Parley Held

During the day, Vice Admiral Kelly, British fleet commander here presided over a peace conference aboard his flagship, Kent, which was attended by Vice-Admiral Kickisaburo Nomura, and Rear Admiral Yosuke Matsuoko, representing Japan, and Dr. Wellington Koo, former Chinese foreign minister representing China. The conference adjourned without announcing the result of the deliberations.

AMERICA OPPOSES ECONOMIC BOYCOTT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29. (AP)—It is now definitely established that this government is completely opposed to any plan for an economic boycott against Japan and that the major European powers tend to agree with this stand.

The enormous hazards to peace of such a move, plus reaction on domestic industries drawing raw materials from the country being boycotted are considered here sufficient to outweigh the benefits obtainable. The stand of the big foreign countries has been reported by American observers abroad, who indicate the boycott sentiment largely is limited to the smaller nations, which would not be so directly involved in the consequences.

RUSSIA AGREES TO TROOP MOVEMENT

MOSCOW, Feb. 29. (AP)—L. M Karakhan, acting Soviet commissar for foreign affairs, has given Russia's consent for limited Japanese troop transportation on the Chinese Eastern railway in north Manchuria on condition the Japanese promise to respect Soviet rights and interests in the area.

He also called again on Japan for an explanation of a report that Japanese troops were massing along the Russian frontier. He raised the point that use of the railway "for strategical objects" would violate the Portsmouth treaty of 1905 that ended the Russo-Japanese war and asked Japan to state whether it intended to preserve the railroad's neutrality.

The Chinese Eastern railway is jointly owned by Russia. The Japanese military command at Harbin, Manchuria, had requested 17 troop trains to move soldiers from Imienpo to Pogranichni.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS OPEN

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 29. (AP)—With Liverpool cables lower than due, the cotton market today opened easier. First trades showed losses of 4 to 5 points. Some hedge selling helped the decline at the start. Later the market rallied and recovered all the early loss owing to a firmer opening of the stock market which induced more or less short covering. May traded at 7.04, July at 7.21 and Oct. at 7.37, or unchanged to one point up compared with Saturday's close. Near the end of the first hour the market was quiet but steady.

The market continued to improve during the first half of the morning with firmness in stocks. May traded up to 7.06, July to 7.22 and Oct. to 7.40 or 6 to 8 points up from the early lows and 1 to 2 points above Saturday's close.

Later in the morning the market eased off gradually, owing, it was said, to freer offerings of spots and to some reaction in the stock market. May dropped back to 7.00, July to 7.16 and Oct. to 7.33, down 6 to 7 points from the higs and 4 points below yesterday's close.

At noon the market was quiet and tending slightly downward.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Feb. 29. (AP)—Cotton opened easy today at a decline of 5 to 8 points on southern and local selling, influenced by easy cables. May sold at 7.00.

Liverpool was a seller at the start but the southern selling was not a great deal in evidence and the market seemed to attract a somewhat increased trade demand at the decline.

This, combined with covering absorbed the offerings and prices steadied up 4 or 5 points from the lowest, with the market ruling around 7.05 for May and 7.41 for October, or about 2 to 3 points net lower at the end of the first half hour.

Liverpool cables reported hedging combined with continental and Bombay liquidation in that market, but said there was a sustained demand for cotton cloths and that yarns were improving.

The early rally extended to about Saturday's closing quotations, with May selling up to 7.07 and October 7.43. It was encouraged by reports of a steady spot basis in the south, but offerings increased somewhat on the advance and prices at midday showed reactions of 3 to 6 points from the best with May selling around 7.01 and October 7.39.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Feb. 29. (AP)—Contrasting with securities, grain prices went downward early today. Lower quotations on wheat at Liverpool owing to enlarged supplies in Great Britain had a bearish effect.

Opening unchanged to 1-4 off, Chicago wheat futures subsequently receded all around. Corn started at a shade decline to 1-8 to 1-4 advance and afterward sagged.

BICYCLE RECOVERED

A bicycle reported Sunday as stolen from 1614 Eighth street was recovered early today, police reported. Lee Howell Holcomb owned the wheel.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Feb. 29. (AP)—The stock market maintained a fairly firm tone today.

Trading was extremely apathetic and while prices pushed up a point or two in many sections of the list, bulls showed a little inclination to press their advantage. Stocks of companies serving the automobile manufacturers were notably firm, presumably in response to the Ford plans. Rails also stiffened.

Stocks of automobile makers themselves did little, although Auburn pushed up several points. Among issues advancing 1 to 2 points were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, American Can, American Telephone, American Rolling Mill, Electric Autolite, Briggs, Bullard, Borg-Warner, Woolworth, Benney, National Biscuit Borden, Case, American Tobasso "B," Dupont, Allied Chemical and Loews. In the rails, Canadian Pacific, Union Pacific, Santa Fe and Norfolk and Western moved up 1 to 2.

Pennsylvania was heavy, however. McKeesport ran into profit taking.

LEAP YEAR

endar makers.

One of the "leap year babies" who attained his majority today is Rear Admiral Colby Mitchell Chester, born in '44. It was Admiral Chester whose careful calculations in 1909 upset Dr. Frederick Cook's claims to having discovered the north pole.

James Brazell, Oklahoma City oil man and head of Western Airways, Inc., had 15 candles on his birthday cake, despite his 84 actual years. He celebrated in advance last week by making his first solo flight. It was a thrill, he admitted, but nothing like the good old days when he was a cowpuncher.

"Airplanes," he explained, "can't pitch and bawl like old cow horses used to do."

And then there's Pepper Martin, ripsnorter of the baseball yards who came rarin' out of the west last fall to stand the Philadelphia Athletics on their heads. He's just seven today.

Birthdays and wedding anniversaries are few and far between for Mrs. W. L. Ratliff of Gainesville, Texas, although she is 48 years old and has been married 28 years, today she celebrated her eleventh birthday and her seventh wedding anniversary. She was born Feb. 29, 1884, and was married on the day she was 20 years old.

New Poet Laureate Writes First Poem

HOUSTON, Feb. 29 (AP)—The first official poem of Judd Mortimer Lewis, new state poet laureate, written Saturday, in an acknowledgement of the honor accorded him by his appointment.

The poem, entitled "Acknowledgement," follows:

First laureate of the state I love!
Today it seems to me,
With my heart such a mixture of
Pride and humility,
There is no medium—no way—
In which I may express,
In word or deed, my conscious need
Of her great kindliness.

ROOSEVELT IS NOW PHILIPPINE CHIEF

MANILA, P. I., Feb. 29 (AP)—Fulfilling one of his father's cherished ambitions, Theodore Roosevelt today became governor general of the Philippine islands.

Immediately he promised to work for "the well being of the average Filipino." Sidestepping the delicate and perennial subject of Philippine independence in his inaugural address, he urged development of the islands until they are economically independent.

Greeted by an enthusiastic holiday crowd, the new governor general took the oath of office on the family bible on which his father rested his left hand when he was sworn as president of the United States.

The entire economy program has become more or less of a factional fight because of Democratic insistence on disregarding the plans of President Hoover and the more or less open hostility returned by leading Republicans.

Houston Negro Is Slain After Strike

HOUSTON, Feb. 29. (AP)—A negro city employe, George Thompson, 25, was shot and killed today in a disturbance at the Howard street city incinerator during the reinstatement of garbage wagon drivers who had been on a strike.

E. J. Welch, formerly an investigator attached to the police department, made a statement to police saying he fired the shot. He said he opened fire while rocks were being thrown.

Robert Lamont Is Offered Soviet Job

DENVER, Feb. 29 (AP)—Robert P Lamont, jr., son of the secretary of commerce, has been called to take charge of development of the cattle industry of Soviet Russia.

Lamont, now en route to New York, said he would sail for Moscow on "the first boat available" to study the offer, which would give him ocmplete charge of the nation's cattle breeding.

After he completes a preliminary survey, Lamont will return to his 15,000-acre ranch 40 miles south of here. If he decides to accept, Mrs. Lamont will accompany him back to Russia.

Over Four Thousand At Sunday Schools

There was an attendance of 4,368 at ten Sunday schools conducted in Lubbock yesterday morning. The First Baptist church led with an enrollment of 1,220. Others were as follows:

First Methodist, 1,005; Broadway Church of Christ, 566; First Christian, 360; First Presbyterian, 311; Asbury Methodist, 243; Sanders Union, 192; West End Baptist, 143; Church of the Nazarene, 107; Cumberland Presbyterian, 30; Salvation Army, 91.

ARM BROKEN

W. A. Davis, a farmer, living 15 miles east of Lubbock, received treatment at West Texas hospital this morning. He became entangled in lines of harness and was run over by a mule the attending physician understood. Davis suffered a fractured arm.

POLITICS

governmental action had any influence, so far as legislative or executive action may have affected the present situation, the administration and the legislative bodies most certainly are responsible.

"The Republicans have been until now in control of congress and every governmental agency has been at their command.

"If any one led us or backed us into the panic it was the Republican president and the Republican congress."

GARNER IS ATTACKED BY G. O. P. LEADER

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29—The Republican attack on Speaker Garner as a potential Democratic presidential candidate has begun in earnest.

George Moses, the New Hampshire senator, started something lively yesterday with the assertion that while the Democratic head man in the house was blaming President Hoover for starting a panic, he should have piled on the chief executive responsibility for the rest of the world's ills.

"Doubtless," he observed, "these and other charges against Mr. Hoover will be formulated by the speaker as he advances in his campaign for the presidency and as soon as he determines the more pressing question whether he is running as a wet or dry."

Garner Makes Reply

Garner issued a reply. Apparently, he said, Moses had given about as much thought to his utterance as he did before making the now famous remark about the "sons of the wild jackass."

"In fact, the senator's statement will be as usual, quite amusing to the reactionary element in the Republican party."

And that was all.

Looking outside Washington, political observers noted the young tempest unleashed in New York state by Samuel Seabury's attack on Tammany and criticism of Governor Roosevelt. Into it have been read presidential or vice-presidential intentions on the part of the New York graft-charge investigator.

Down in Alabama a movement was started to elect an unpledged delegation to the national convention in place of a straight pro-Roosevelt slate. Its backers disclaimed any intention to "stop" Roosevelt but made no mention of supporting any other candidate, seeing merely a free hand. Local politics apparently had a bearing on the development.

A Montana authority, J. Bruce Kremer, national committeeman delivered his opinion in New York that the far western states would be virtually solid for Governor Roosevelt.

Three Negroes Are Held For Gambling

Three negroes appeared before Judge E. L. Pitts in county court this morning on charges of gaming and their bonds were fived at $150 each, calling for appearance of the negroes in the court next Monday. The three were arrested by the sheriff's department Sunday.

Pete Crawford was assessed a fine and costs totaling $14.15 in Justice of the Peace H. K. Porter's court Sunday for possession of stolen goods, including a hot-plate and a teakettle. Authorities said he attended Texas Technological college.

Thomas R. Harrison, jr., 3-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Harrison of Littlefield, died of pneumonia last night. The baby contracted pneumonia after suffering from whooping cough. The body was sent to Beaumont by Rix Funeral home for burial.

corps of a dozen firewomen relieved the male night shift in time for breakfast.

Mayor Pratt—38, efficient, good looking, snappy and resolute—was on the job with dawn and her first official act was to convene the city council and proclaim the Leap Year day.

Privileges for the males? They were permitted to sign the meat checks at the Elks' club luncheon in honor of the ruling Eves and the eligibles who would accept proposals during the day could get the ceremony performed for nothing by the justices of the peace.

There were malcontents. They gathered about the soft drink parlor—those who dared—which alone of all places in the city jumped the traces and voiced its protest in chalk mark on the window.

GERMAN REMEDY STOPS 30-YEAR CONSTIPATION
"For 30 years I had a bad stomach and constipation. Souring food from stomach choked me. Since taking Adlerika I am a new woman. Constipation is thing of the past."—Alice Burns.
Most remedies reach only lower bowel. That is why you must take them often. But this simple German remedy Adlerika washes out BOTH upper and lower bowel. It brings out all gas and rids you of poison you would never believe was in your system. Even the FIRST dose will surprise you. City Drug, Mark Halsey Drug, Wylie-Jarrett Drug Co.—Adv.

Dog Watches Over His Dead Master

WEST COLUMBIA, Tex., Feb. 29—(AP)—When the body of J. H. Lonis, aged recluse, was found on a river bank near here he had been dead two days but his hound still watched over him.

The body was discovered by neighbors who had missed him from about his shanty near the river. The hungry hound threatened the searchers and they weren't able to get near the old man's body until after they had pacified the dog with food.

A coroner said Lonis died of a heart attack.

Regret Expressed In Resolution Here

A resolution expressing regret at the death of John D. Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Cooper, living near town, was adopted by the resolutions committee of the Lubbock County Farm Bureau federation Saturday, H. J. Bower, chairman, announced. Mr. Cooper has long been active in the federation and served last year as president.

"We of the resolutions committee of the Lubbock County Farm Bureau federation, extend our sympathy and regrets to the family of George C. Cooper on the loss of his son and loved one, whose inspiration and promise will be long remembered.

The resolution was signed by Mr. Bower, W. M. Ross and Douglas Pounds, members.

Morse Injured But Will Direct Team

DALLAS, Feb. 29 (AP)—Happ Morse, manager of the Dallas baseball club, will be in bed several days and probably will be on crutches two weeks but he plans to be in charge of his team's first workout a week from today.

The ligaments in Morse's right ankle were torn when he fell while officiating the S. M. U.-T. C. U. basketball game at Fort Worth Saturday night.

NOW IT'S THE NO-ARMED AIR PILOT

DAVID RUSE TAKES OFF, MAKES COMPLETE HOP AND LANDS WITHOUT USING CONTROL STICK

BY VESTEL LOTT
Journal News Editor

It used to be the one-armed or the back-seat automobile driver. Now it is the no-armed airplane pilot.

It isn't that David C. Ruse hasn't two perfectly good arms or that his new monoplane hasn't a control stick, but that neither the arms nor the stick were used.

With this writer as the only witness, Ruse took off, made complete flight, banking the monoplane gracefully, and then landed without so much as touching the control stick. The demonstration was made yesterday at the Lubbock Municipal airport to show the safety of the new Nicholas-Beazley parasol-type plane.

Ruse was encouraging as the ship left the ground. "Don't get excited," he warned me. "I haven't practiced this stunt much but I am sure that it can be done."

Nosing into a south wind the plane rose easily and gained altitude quickly. It made a wide circle. The landing furnished the only excitement of the flight. Because he was unable to guide it as accurately as he could have with the stick, Ruse had to bring the ship down on the west end and rougher part of the landing field. Due to lack of control over the ship, it was necessary for the pilot to land at a high speed. We hit terra firma making more than eighty miles an hour, and, while somewhat bumpy, the landing was without mishap. The ship was manipulated by the rudder control only.

The plane is owned by the New Way School of Flying of which Ruse is director. The ship is being used as a trainer for student pilots. It weighs only 725 pounds, carries a load of 480 pounds, and is powered by a 80 horse power five-cylinder motor. It has a maximum speed of 110 miles an hour and a cruising rate of 90 miles for about four and a half hours.

According to Ruse, no one can make the ship spin more than one turn: "It's so safe you don't even need a pilot," he said. But you can use your own judgment about that.

Wilmer Allison Is Winner Of Tourney

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 29 (AP)—His own consistent game and the unsteadiness of his opponent gave Wilmer Allison of Austin, Tex., the singles championship of the second annual Pan-American tennis tournament here yesterday.

Allison defeated George Lott of Chicago, defending champion, in three straight sets, 6-2, 7-5, 6-4.

Marcel Rainville, Canadian champion, outshone the other players as he and Lott won the doubles championship, 7-5, 6-4, 6-1, from Allison and J. Gilbert Hall of East Orange, N. J.

In the code S. O. S. is three dots, three dashes, three dots.

Three Fire Alarms Received Yesterday

The Lubbock fire department received three alarms Sunday, although apparatus never left headquarters on one, as the department was notified fire at 1508 Avenue K had been extinguished. That alarm was received at 12:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The first, as a result of an automobile catching fire at 1105 Avenue G, came at 11 o'clock in the morning. Damage was negligible.

A fire at a vacant house in the 1000-block of Fourteenth street was attributed to smoking. The alarm was received at 3:10 o'clock in the afternoon. The fire was under the house and a hole was burned in the floor before the conflagration was extinguished, firemen reported. Damage was slight, they said.

TWINS' LANGUAGE

LONDON.— At a recent sessions of the Educational Association here, Dr. William Moodin, of the child Guidance Clinic, told of a strange language developed by twins. The two children were shut off from other children and, as a result, developed a language of their own that could not be understood by anyone else.

SWEDISH PRINCE WHO GAVE UP ROYAL PREROGATIVES TO MARRY COMMONER WILL BECOME FARMER; TELLS PLANS

(Editor's Note—Prince Lennart of Sweden, who gave his royal prerogatives to marry Karin Nissvandt, a commoner, wrote the following account of his plans and hopes especially for The Associated Press. The marriage is scheduled to take place shortly in London.)

BY PRINCE LENNART
Of Sweden

LONDON, Feb. 29. (AP)—People ask me what my future plans are as a commoner. What I mean to do first is to make a home for myself and my wife—which is what every man in the world wants to do.

I do not plan a gay and dashing life but rather a quiet and serious one—and to work.

My father is not interested in farming and is delighted to have me take charge of the castle and estate at Lake Constance. This is a lovely piece of the old world at its most charming. The outside of the castle is old but it is modern for living.

We will have our radio and our movies and will generally be in close contact with the modern world, at the same time having a paradise of our own.

I will take direct charge of the farming which I have studied in Germany and elsewhere and of the whole business of the place.

In the winter we will travel some, perhaps to see friends in Sweden. Later I should like to see America, especially the great Mississippi river valley farming section, but our first job is to get our own home well started—I have never really had a home of my own before and always wanted one.

The kind of work I will be doing makes one feel he is doing something much more important than laying cornerstones and opening fairs.

The First Hundred Years Are Hardest

PROCTORVILLE, O., Feb. 29—(AP)— They say the first hundred years are the hardest, and in the case of Proctorville's aged mayor that seems to be true, for his unknown enemies told him on his eighty-seventh birthday that "your troubles have just started."

The mayor, John A. Bowen, a veteran of the civil war, has waged war during his six two-year terms against law violators. Some weeks ago enemies threw a dynamite bomb against his home. The residence was damaged and the mayor and his wife shaken up by the blast.

A hay stacker and grain shock loader that can be operated by a farm tractor has been invented.

"B. C." Relieves Head Cold Pains In Three Minutes

A simple head cold often produces intense suffering from headache, neuralgia, etc., and you can get soothing relief in three minutes with "B.C.", a reliable, pleasant acting remedy.

"B.C." is prepared by a registered pharmacist, compounded on a different principle from most relief-giving agencies in that it contains several ingredients, used by many physicians so blended and proportioned as to accomplish in a few minutes what we believe no one drug formula can do in so short a time.

"B.C." should also be used for the relief of muscular aches and pains, reducing fever, and quieting a distressed nervous system without opiates, narcotics or such habit forming drugs. Get "B.C." wherever drugs are sold in 10c and 25c packages. (Adv.)

Muscular-Rheumatic Aches and Pains

DRAW them out with a "counter-irritant." Distressing muscular lumbago, soreness and stiffness—generally respond pleasantly to good old Musterole. Doctors call it a "counter-irritant," because it gets action and is not just a salve. Musterole helps bring soreness and pain to the surface, and thus gives natural relief. You can feel how its warming action penetrates and stimulates blood circulation. But do not stop with one application. Apply this soothing, cooling, healing ointment generously to the affected area once every hour for five hours. Used by millions for over 20 years. Recommended by many doctors and nurses.

Keep Musterole handy; jars and tubes.

To Mothers—Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)
