Pirates to Scrimmage Bloomington Friday

By BOB CRAWFORD

Ending the third week of football practice, the Rockport Pirates will scrimmage the Bloomington Bobcats this Friday night in Bloomington, with game time about 6:30. The Pirates scrimmaged the Woodsboro Eagles last week and allowed only one score, and that to Woodsboro's super quarterback Leonard Avery. Avery, who is a very gifted runner, looped around and ran wide most of the night, but the Pirate defense held him to less than 50 net yards. The Pirate defense was impressive for this early in the season.

The offensive crew of the Pirates was able to move the ball on only a few occasions against the tough Eagle defense, but the offense is still in the molding state, and should come on in the next two weeks.

The Pirate JV scored once on the Woodsboro JV to take a 1-0 session over the Eagles.

Woodsboro's freshmen scored twice while shutting out Rockport, both as results of long pass completions setting them up.

A good crowd watched the scrimmage last Friday, about half and half of our fans and Woodsboro fans, but those who were there knew who was for Woodsboro. Bloomington may be a few miles away, but it goes without saying, our teams need folks to support them now and let them hear about it. Pack supper and head toward Bloomington this Friday night. Watch the young Pirates as they seek to become an ever improving unit.

The hunt is open to all archers, the only requirements being a valid state hunting license and payment of the refuge's daily entrance fee of $1 per car.

The Laguna Atascosa hunts will be Oct. 6 - 8, 13 - 15, 20 - 22 and 27 - 29. Gates will open at noon on Friday and one hour before sunrise on succeeding days.

The bag limit on the Laguna Atascosa Refuge, located 20 miles east of Harlingen, is one deer, either sex, per hunter. No other form of wildlife may be hunted.

Hunters on both refuges are expected to know and obey state and federal hunting regulations.

No camping is permitted on either refuge.

TV Commentator Speaker at Rotary

Operations of a television station news department were described by Ken Cessna, newscaster of Station KZTV, Channel 10, Corpus Christi, at a luncheon meeting of Rotary Club August 23, at Corky's restaurant.

Cessna said there are approximately 120,000 television sets, 60 per cent of them color, in the Corpus Christi viewing area, adding that this relatively new means of communication represented a serious public obligation on television newscasters to present the news accurately and objectively.

In response to later questions, Cessna agreed that some newscasters did not meet this responsibility but permitted their personal views or the views of the station's management to color their broadcasts.

He asserted that the tendency of some television stations to play up violence and dissent instead of constructive news happenings was in response to what station managers and program directors believed was of greater public interest. He added that the trend among stations is away from extreme violence in motion pictures selected for showing.

Cessna, who frequently discusses weather on Station KZTV, said he did not like this assignment because many of his viewers think the predictions are his and blame him if they prove inaccurate. He pointed out that all weather information comes to the station from the U.S. Weather Bureau.

He said Station KZTV has a news department of nine persons, three newscasters and six news gatherers, writers and photographers. Several have additional assignments, he added.

WHITEWING FORECAST LOOKS GOOD

MCALLEN--As the result of a lot of billing and cooling, this year's whitewing crop looks better than it has in a long time.

According to Phil Evans of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, there were some 477,000 breeding white-winged doves at the beginning of the summer.

That is actually a nine percent decrease from the 1971 population but each pair of adults is producing a pair of young this summer. Evans feels that the increased reproduction will more than make up for the small decrease in returning adults.

"There has been a surge of late nesting," said Evans, "possibly because of recent rains."

Evans and his crew have found the birds to be nesting for the most part in the Valley's citrus trees. There are 304,000 doves in the citrus and 173,000 in native brush such as ebony and huisache.

The dependence on orange and grapefruit trees for nesting is a dangerous thing, especially in the event of an unusually hard freeze. Cold temperatures destroy the fragile citrus trees, and farmers must start anew with little trees which require years of growth before they are suitable for nesting.

Funds obtained from the sale of the three-dollar White-winged Dove Stamp will go in part to the acquisition of native brushland.

Square Dance Friday Night

The Paws and Taws Square Dance Club regular weekly dances will begin again this Friday night, after a summer break. Square dancing will begin at 8:00 p.m. with Caller R.E. "Blackie" Hardy at the mike.

Couples interested in learning to square dance are also cordially invited to attend this Friday night session. For great fun, come out and join in this wholesome recreation.

Remember the date - Friday, September 1. And place - Paws and Taws Square Dance Hall on Fulton Beach Road.

School Enrollment Down First Day

The public schools of Aransas County opened on Monday, August 28th, with a total of 2,079 students enrolled according to Superintendent of Schools, J.D. Gray. Gray stated that on the first day last year a total of 2,135 students were enrolled. As in the past, it is anticipated that some students will enroll late, at least until after Labor Day, so peak enrollment will come later.

The first day enrollment in the High School this year was 563 students as compared to 566 students last year. The Junior High School enrollment on the first day this year was 556 while last year it was 571. The first day enrollment in the elementary schools this year was 960 as compared to 998 students last year.

Labor Day Art Sale

It's time again for the Rockport Art Association's annual Labor Day art sale Saturday, Sept. 2, and Sunday, Sept. 3, featuring work of local and area artists.

This end-of-the-summer sale has grown steadily since the early days at the old Thompson Spa Building. At this season the participating artists are not charged any commission by the Gallery; therefore many reduced prices are available to patrons.

This is another way the Rockport Art Association shows its appreciation for another great year and for the support of the community.

Major Guy Smith, D. P. S. Commander for the North Central and North East Texas region, advised that D. P. S. patrolmen will be out in full force and along with local law enforcement agencies will be doing everything within their power to keep traffic deaths to a minimum.

Extensive use will be made of radar, vascar and the breathalizers. Excessive speed and the drunk driver will be the major contributing causes in fatal traffic accidents. Major Smith, strongly urged all citizens to assist in preventing these useless and tragic deaths from occurring.

"We need the help of everyone, so remind a friend to be responsible when upon the streets and highways of Texas during this Labor Day weekend," concluded the Major.

CLOSED LABOR DAY

Postmaster M.A. Rowan says that the post office will be closed Monday, September 4 (Labor Day). There will be no mail received and none delivered.

Editorial

The opening of school is an important milestone in the life of every child.

For the beginner it is his first major break in homelife routine. For the first time he leaves the protective atmosphere he has known since birth and begins a career on his own.

For the older student, the start of school is not new, but it marks the renewal of a challenge which has become an important part of his life, one which will continue as long as he lives.

There never is an end to life's learning process, and the discipline of school training sets the tone and establishes the pattern.

In Aransas County we are unusually fortunate to have a superior school system with teachers, administrators and a Board of Education dedicated to the goal of making sure our children get the best possible education. However, the dedicated efforts of these people responsible for operating our schools can be successful only if they have the full support of parents.

First of all, it is essential that parents make a conscientious and continuing effort to impress their children with the importance of a good education, and how essential it is for them to stay in school until high school graduation.

Next, parents must cooperate actively in supporting teachers and school administrators in their efforts to instill good habits of learning and discipline in their offspring. Without this support at home, the teacher's role often becomes frustrating and meaningless.

Finally, for very practical reasons, parents should make certain their school children get well-balanced meals, plenty of sleep and that they spend sufficient time on their assigned homework.

Education of the young is probably the most important task an adult faces. On its success depends the success and happiness of the oncoming generation.

standing amounted to $375,000. Principal and $214,012.50 Interest for a total of $589,012.50. The estimated reserve balance as of September 30, 1972 was $4,100.00.

A budget of $691,109.00 was discussed and approved with the following amounts designated to various accounts and funds: General Fund, $136,082.00; General Obligation Bonds, $38,888.00; Street Maintenance and drainage Fund, $86,346.00; Water and Sewer Revenue Account, $375,223.00 and Sanitation Account, $54,570.00.

Melton Pearson, owner of Pearson Garden Center reported on the condition of the Zachary Taylor Oak Tree. He said that he had contacted a pathologist at A & M who took samples of various oak trees in this area. This gentleman said that apparently the Taylor oak was suffering from Live Oak Decline which is not a new tree disease. He said that recent hurricanes had probably weakened the resistance of the tree and that the length of life remaining would vary from two months to over two years.

In other action the council appointed R. D. Mosler, Jr. to make the yearly audit for the city, approved ordinances adopting the Budget for 1972-73; Levy of Taxes for 1972; Fixing Time and Manner Paying Ad Valorem Taxes; and providing discounts on Ad Valorem Taxes paid in advance.

The council also approved the purchase of a 1969 GMC Pickup from Strand Pontiac Co., of Corpus Christi, for $1,250.00.

The 20 per cent increase due October 3 will up the rate to over $218,000 a month. Cleveland pointed out. This compares to $153,000 a month being paid to residents of Aransas County at the close of 1970. The total number of residents receiving benefits continues to increase, also.

Art Guild Gatherings

By JAN WENDELL

Summer's over! Or hadn't you noticed? The young have vacated the beach and the whirling of outboards is no longer heard in our land; you can drive out from any side street onto Highway 35 without taking your life in your hands and having to wait 5 minutes; and the weather—well, it doesn't know school has started and the vacationers have left, so it is still hot! Hopefully, the weather will catch on soon to the coming of autumn.

This brings us up to the Annual End-of-Summer Sale that the Rockport Art Ass'n, sponsors each year. There must be something about the dog days that must make artists want to finish and sell paintings at very reduced prices. I don't know and can't judge. But, anyway, I suppose that just working with them through the winter, spring and summer does make one a bit tired of looking at your own paintings. I know I get tired of looking at mine; but, then, mine look tired from start to finish.

So, this Saturday and Sunday, at the Rockport Art Ass'n. Gallery, the artists will be selling and showing paintings at reduced prices. The Ass'n. has garnered quite a few new members lately and some are quite prolific. There are many new things to be seen and many in new and different style and media.

If you are looking for something to do besides hitting the beach one more time this week-

White-Winged Dove Refuge Changes

AUSTIN - Saturday, Sept. 2 is the big day for White-winged hunters.

The season on the South Texas birds is open for three days from Sept. 2 through Sept. 4. Hunting hours are from 12 noon to sunset.

Daily bag limit is 10 and the possession limit is 20.

The most important difference between this season and last year's is the area off limits to hunters.

An area south of a line extending along U. S. Highway 281 between the city limits of Hidalgo and Brownsville is closed to hunting during the concurrent white-winged and mourning dove season.

Hunters must retain one fully feathered wing on dressed doves in counties having a white-winged and mourning dove season. This requirement also applies when doves are imported from Mexico or any foreign country.

end, drop in and take a peek. You'll probably get a free cup of coffee or soft drink and maybe, if the Good Fairy comes, some cookies.

Labor Day

The first man to suggest a day be set aside in honor of labor—the working man and the spirit of industry in the nation—was probably Peter McGuire. He was President of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America in 1882 when his suggestion was adopted by the Central Labor Union in New York.

The first Labor Day, then, was observed in 1882. In 1884 the Federation of Organized Trades and Labor Unions, which later became the American Federation of Labor, adopted the suggestion and states (Oregon was the first) began to declare the first Monday in September a holiday. McGuire had chosen September because it was about midway between July 4th and Thanksgiving.

By 1894, when Congress declared the day a holiday in all federal offices and territories, some thirty states had acted to make Labor Day a legal holiday. After Oregon, Colorado, Massachusetts, New Jersey and New York were the next to declare the holiday.

One good feature of Labor Day, the traditional last weekend of summer in many areas, is that it always falls on a Monday, thus creating a long weekend.

This year Labor Day is on the 4th. As on other holidays, there will be many accidents; in observing it this year take care to see that you live to observe other Labor Days.

Bremer & TV

The more one reads from the publicized diary of Arthur Bremer the more he sounds like a product of U.S. commercial television's shock and violence fare.

The 21-year-old, judged sane by the court which tried him for shooting Alabama Governor George Wallace, was out to kill to make a name for himself!

He first sought to kill President Nixon, then thought of killing secret service men. He wrote in his diary that he had to kill someone and wanted to make it glamorous!

In short, Bremer sounds very much like so many unreal, sadist killers of U.S. commercial television, who take it so lightly. At 21, he is of the first television generation.

Experts having often testified before Congress that excessive violence, sadism and shock on television comprise one of the causes of today's rising crime rate among impressionable youngsters. The Bremer case should prod Congress and the overly-timid Federal Communications Commission to insist U.S. commercial television finally be cleaned up.

Apollo 17

The Apollo 17 spacecraft is now less than 100 days from lift-off at Cape Kennedy. December 6th is launch day.

The Apollo program in general, however, has been an outstanding scientific and technical success. Though publicity, hero-making and too much cheap commercialism have marred the Apollo image, the world will always record the success of this American project as one of the great explorations and accomplishments in the history of our civilization.

Johnny Jackson Is at the Top Of Texas A&I Football Roster

TOP GPA — Johnny Jackson, junior defensive tackle from Rockport-Fulton High School, has the best grade point average on the Texas A&I University football team. Jackson has a 3.659 GPA after three years of college work. He is a general business major.

KINGSVILLE - Johnny Jackson ranks at the top of the A & I University football roster in one category which isn't listed in the Javelina record book and can't be found on the team's statistical charts.

Jackson, 6-2, 205-pound junior from Rockport-Fulton, has the squad's best scholastic standing, or grade point average.

The defensive tackle, who is a letterman and a top contender for a starting berth on the defensive line this fall, has a 3.659 GPA after three years of college work.

During his freshman year, Jackson compiled 28 hours of all A's. He's been on the Dean's List twice and Honor Roll once. Jackson is a general business major at A & I.

The Javelina tackle was red-shirted his freshman season, but earned a letter in 1970. Last season he was sidelined most of the campaign with an injury.

Jackson is a member of Alpha Chi honorary society at A & I, and was in the National Honor Society at Rockport-Fulton High School.

The Javelina letterman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Jackson of Rockport, and is married to the former Darla Rae Doble of Mathis.

Information On Proposed Amendments

Continuing its analysis of the proposed amendments which will be voted on Nov. 7, the Pilot offers the following information regarding Amendment No. 5.

The proposed amendment to Article VII, Section 2, would permit the legislature to grant property tax exemptions to disabled veterans and to their surviving spouses and surviving minor children. This proposal is permissive in that it does not itself grant a tax exemption but gives this authority to the legislature should it choose to do so. The tax exemption proposed would be available to veterans classified as disabled by the Veterans' Administration or the branch of military service in which served on a scale corresponding to the degree of disability. Those with a disability rating of less than 10 percent, would not be entitled to an exemption. With a disability rating of 10 through 30 percent, veterans could be granted an exemption from taxation on property valued up to $1,500. From 30 through 50 percent, they could be granted an exemption to cover property valued up to $2,000; and for those with a disability rating of more than 50 percent but not more than 70 percent an exemption could be granted for property valued up to $2,500.

A MOST UNUSUAL grave marker in Prairie du Chien, Wis., came from an ancient sea. Onetime organic matter turned to stone. Some of the softer material eroded away, leaving a perforated block which was dug out of Thomas Toberman's farm and used as a marker.

500. A veteran whose disability rating is more than 70 percent or who has a disability rating of at least 10 percent and has attained the age of 65, or any veteran, regardless of disability rating, whose disability consists of the loss of one or more limbs, total blindness in one or both eyes, or paraplegia, could be granted the maximum exemption for property valued up to $3,000. Further, the surviving spouse or minor children of a person who lost his life while on active duty with the military could be granted an exemption on property valued up to $2,500, while the surviving spouse or minor children of a disabled veteran could be granted an exemption from taxation equal to the exemption to which the veteran was entitled when he died.

Background: Because present provisions in Article VII, Section 2, of the Texas Constitution require that taxes be "equal and uniform," a constitutional amendment such as that proposed by Amendment No. 5 would be necessary to give the legislature authority to grant exemptions in taxation for veterans and spouses or minor children of deceased veterans. The original Article VII, Section 2, authorized the legislature, by general laws, to exempt from taxation "public property used for public purposes; actual places or (of) religious worship, also any property owned by a church or by a strictly religious society for the exclusive use as a dwelling place for the ministry of such church or religious society for the exclusive use as a dwelling place for the ministry of such church or religious society, . . ." Exemption of the endowment funds of public institutions was added in 1907, and in 1928 an amendment was adopted which included the proviso that tax exemption could be extended to "property used exclusively and reasonably necessary in conducting any association engaged in promoting the religious, educational and physical development of boys, girls, young men or young women operating under a State or National organization of like character."

Arguments: For: 1) Persons disabled in the military service of the United States deserve to be compensated for their sacrifice, and the tax exemptions proposed by Amendment No. 5 would be a token appreciation from the people of Texas.

2) The tax relief which may be granted under the proposed amendment is subject to strict limitations. Only property taxes are affected, and in no case may the value of property exempted exceed $3,000. Thus any decrease in property tax revenues collected by the taxing authority would be negligible.

3) The proposed amendment is permissive, leaving the necessary details of administration to be spelled out by the legislature, which could also revoke the exemptions granted should the need arise.

Against: 1) The compensation of disabled veterans is a federal rather than a state responsibility. Generous benefits are already available to disabled veterans, and the state should not be deprived of income necessary to provide state services to all Texas citizens just to benefit a few.

2) School districts and local governments depend heavily on property taxes for revenue, and granting the tax exemptions proposed to disabled veterans

NEVER-FAIL MAYONNAISE

1/2 tsp. sugar
1/2 tsp. dry mustard
1/4 tsp. salt
Pinch of red pepper
1 egg white
1 cup corn oil
4 1/2 tps. vinegar

Combine sugar, mustard, salt and pepper in bowl. Add egg white; beat well with rotary beater. Continue beating and add corn oil, a little at a time, until 1/2-cup is used. Add 2 teaspoons vinegar, continue beating, adding remaining corn oil a little at a time. Beat in last 2 1/2 teaspoons vinegar. Store in covered jar in refrigerator. Makes about 1 1/4 cups.

would further dry up the source of income.

3) Granting tax exemptions to individuals as proposed by Amendment No. 5 would establish a bad precedent. Adoption of the proposed amendment could be but the beginning of continuing attempts from taxation in direct conflict with the intent of "equal and uniform" taxation.

Increase In Grants For Wheelchair Homes

A boost of $5,000 in grants for the purchase of "wheelchair homes by eligible disabled veterans is the second hike in this program in three years, A. A. Hunter, Veterans Administration regional director, reported today.

Effective July 10, when it was signed by the President, Public Law 92-341 authorized VA to pay fifty percent of the cost - up to a limit of $17,500 - toward the purchase of homes for veterans whose service connected disabilities cause them to need wheelchair ramps, hand rails or other special features especially adapted to their needs.

The grants were limited to $10,000 when the program was started in 1948, and were raised to $12,500 in June 1969.

More than 12,000 veterans have received grants under the program during its 24 year history, for a total of $121 million. During fiscal year 1972, 564 grants were made for a total of $6.9 million.

Hunter explained that the grants are provided to pay part of the costs of the construction, purchase or remodeling of homes for these veterans.

Not all disabled veterans are eligible for the grants, Hunter explained. One example of a qualifying disability would be the loss of - or the loss of use of - legs, making it difficult for the veteran to move around without braces, crutches canes or a wheelchair. Hunter noted the disability must be total and permanent and must be connected with military service.

Additional information on the "Wheelchair home" grants is available at all VA offices and from veterans service organizations.

The reason hard work kills so few people is because there are so few people who work hard.

Fix-It Tip

If necessary, get rid of humidity in the house by heating the house for a short time, then open doors and windows to let the moisture-laden air out. An exhaust fan is helpful in forcing it out.

To dry the air in closets and other small areas, try burning an electric light continuously. Heat from the light will be sufficient to prevent mildew if the space is not too large. But be sure to place the bulb far enough from clothing to avoid the hazard of fire.

For good lawn care, in addition to a mower you will need a broom lawn rake and hand trimming shears. An edger makes for a neater lawn but you can slice the edge of the turf fairly well with the edge of your square spade.

Vets Urged to Apply Early for G.I. Benefits

The Veterans Administration today reminded college bound veterans that they should contact VA as soon as possible to avoid unnecessary delay in their monthly education allowance checks.

A. A. Hunter, Director of the Houston VA Regional Office, offered these additional tips for veterans looking forward to getting started in college:

"The first thing a veteran should do," Hunter explained, "is to decide on an educational objective. He should then choose a school and apply for admission as soon as possible. "The veteran then should request a certificate of eligibility from the nearest VA office. VA will send two copies of the certificate, which must be submitted to the school. The school will endorse one copy and forward it to the VA regional office, he said.

The VA official strongly suggested that the veteran check back with the school to make certain the certificate has been forwarded. This is to help insure that the veteran starts receiving monthly educational allowance checks promptly.

Veterans returning to the same school need not get another certificate. Those who plan to change schools or educational objectives within the same school, however, must get VA approval.

To be eligible for educational benefits, a veteran or serviceman must have served at least 181 days of continuous active duty, any part of it after January 31, 1955. Or, he must have been separated from service because of a service-connected disability without regard to length of service.

Veterans were urged to contact their nearest VA office or their local veterans service organization representatives if further information on educational benefits is desired.

BURGLAR NEEDS HELP

Boston — Chester Robinson, bartender in the Mission Hill section, investigated muffled cries and discovered they were coming from inside the chimney of a food store next door. Seven hours later, the police arrested Robert Flowers, 23, charging him with attempted breaking and entering in the nighttime and possession of burglarious tools.

Bounty System Losing Popularity

AUSTIN — Bounties on coyotes and other "varmints" are losing popularity in most Texas counties.

According to a study by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, the number of Texas counties offering bounties has decreased from 45 of the state's 254 counties in 1970 to 38 in 1972.

Coyotes accounted for 90 percent of total bounties and bobcats eight percent.

The Parks and Wildlife Department has received several letters from concerned Texans protesting the bounty system. Fears are that it destroys large numbers of animals including endangered species.

Figures from the department survey tend to discount this belief.

In 1971, an adjusted total of 5,303 coyotes and 272 bobcats were killed for bounty.

Biologists consider this to be a very small percentage of the coyote and bobcat populations in Texas since some areas in the state contain as many as four coyotes and one bobcat per square mile.

It is questionable if any mountain lions were killed in 1971.

Bounties are no longer paid in counties which harbor the endangered red wolf population.

Recent action by the Federal Government has limited the use of chemical controls such as "coyote getters" and poisoned baits to kill predators.

Bounties are set by the county commissioners' courts.

The adjusted total paid out by the counties in 1971 was over $31,000.00. The average bounty per coyote was $5.36 and a little over $10.00 for a bobcat.

ON MOB VIOLENCE

San Francisco — Atty. Gen. Richard G. Kleindienst told a gathering of the nation's lawyers recently the Nixon administration has effectively curbed "mob violence" in the country. This was accomplished by "firmness in the public defense" and people realizing that change can be brought about in a peaceful way.

G.I. Bill Benefits Are Explained

Minutes spent on completing application forms fully and accurately can speed up veterans' benefits by days and weeks, a Veterans Administration official advised today.

A. A. Hunter, Director, Houston VA Regional Office, said the advice is aimed primarily at veterans who will be entering school under the G. I. Bill this fall.

Hunter cited VA's "package" plan for applying for education or training benefits as one example of how veterans can contribute to faster VA service.

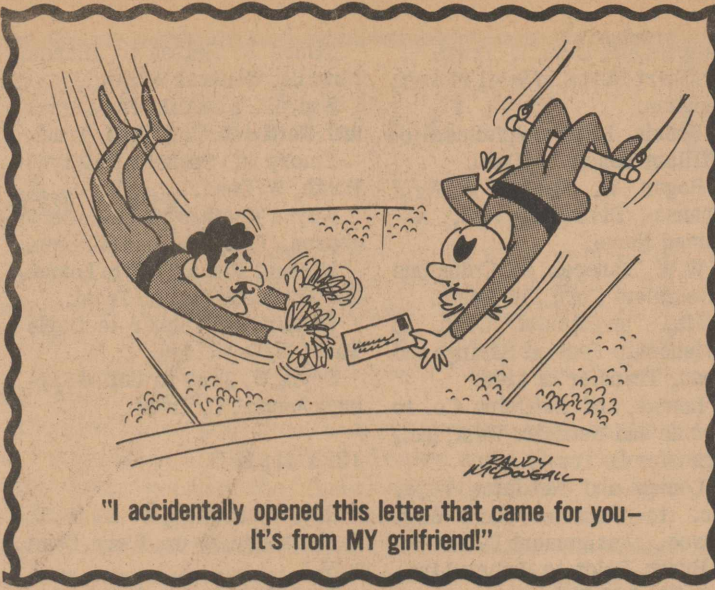

Under this plan, the veteran brings his separation document and proof of dependency to VA and at the same time completes an application for education benefits, prior to enrollment. All the necessary forms are available at all VA offices.

If the veteran enrolls in school before applying for G. I. Bill benefits, he completes the forms and asks the school to forward them to VA in one "package" when the school certifies his enrollment.

He should check later with his school to make sure his forms and certification have been forwarded to VA.

"The 'package' plan cuts delay and permits VA to send the veteran his first education allowance check sooner," Hunter explained, and added, "usually it's just a matter of promptly providing the required information for a particular benefit."

"Information on veterans benefits is available at all VA offices and from local representatives of veterans service organizations," he said.

Youngsters Account For Most Drownings

AUSTIN — Texas has the second largest amount of inland water in the U.S.

You would think with all that water just about everyone would know how to conduct themselves safely when away from dry land.

According to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials, 454 Texans have died from water-oriented accidents in the first seven months of this year.

Of that already tragic figure, the saddest of all is that persons under 20 accounted for over half the drownings.

Each year the state adds to its lakes and increases the recreational potential for all Texans. Each year we lose more of our youngsters who cannot swim 50 feet to safety.

Perhaps a water survival program in the athletic departments of our schools would reduce the waste of young life.

Adults are the victims when it comes to boating accidents.

Boaters between 26 and 50 accounted for most of this year's 166 accidents. These boating Texans lost over $100,000 in damages and 43 lives.

I realize that as I try in my humble way to fill in for John R. Kinsey during his vacation in Hendersonville, N.C., I am undertaking an enormous task to try and satisfy the many readers of his sapid column. As a guest writer I would be abhorrent to attempt to sate the appetite of his readers that has been whetted by his many years as a writer, but I will try to do my best to appease the demands of his readers.

Before John and his wife, Bernita, left Friday afternoon he called me and in his most loquacious manner described the trip they had planned, enplaning at Corpus Christi for Hendersonville, N.C., via Atlanta and Asheville. After his vivid discourse on the many attractions they would observe, I felt that I, too, was taking the trip to the Smokey Mountains of the Eastern Seaboard.

on him and give a daily report on his silhouette which I honestly believe is changing just a little.

I am a person who believes in giving bouquets to the living instead of waiting until it is too late for them to enjoy them. He is a kind, gentle man who would not knowingly hurt a person or thing. As a matter of fact the kindness of both John and his wife to animals has put them in the cat business. I know that after taking in a 'poor little hungry kitty' there have been at least two occasions when John has been trying to find a nice home for some cute little kitties.

His 91-year-old dad who lives in California, flies in about twice a year to visit them and the tenderness and loving attention both the Kinseys show him, while here, is wonderful. He is devoted to The Pilot and does his very best to give the readers all of the news that can be printed. (If we printed everything, we may have to shoot our way out!) The Pilot is indeed fortunate to have an editor of his qualifications. He has spent many years as a member of the Fourth Estate, as a reporter on a Chicago daily for years, feature writer for a national magazine, handled public relations work for Wesley Hospital in Chicago for many years and had the same job with Spohn Hospital in Corpus Christi before deciding to coast a little and so the Kinseys moved to Rockport, finally moving to a subdivision west of the city where he became the "Squire of Peninsula Oaks." I know he will enjoy his visit in Hendersonville. He plans on playing plenty of golf while there. It would be a real boost to his morale if he could get some pointers from his friends while there so when he returns home he can try to reach the goal he has set for himself, "Beat Rogero playing Golf".

The Rockport Pilot
Rockport, Texas 78382

Dear Sir:

The Texas Employment Commission looks on newspaper articles about its services as a primary vehicle in getting information about our agency and its services over to the many people our operations touch.

On behalf of the Texas Employment Commission, may I thank you for publishing in The Rockport Pilot the information about our programs and operations. You have been most generous and cooperative in this respect. Since we are not funded for paid advertising, we must utilize the good will of public service-oriented organizations such as yours to communicate with the citizenry.

We do appreciate your co-operation and ask for your continued support.

Sincerely,
Donald W. Hawkins

LOUISA'S LETTER

Dear Louisa,
I am a single woman and I live alone in a corner house left to me by my parents who are dead. I enjoy gardening and take a pride in keeping my lawn and garden in good shape but during the past few months I have been upset by some children who have moved into a new apartment house near-by.

These children cut across my lawn, ride bicycles over it and step on my flower beds. One Sunday when I stayed home from church, I heard a commotion outside and discovered about a dozen boys having a fight in the middle of my front yard. What is the answer to such a situation? I have asked them to stay off the grass but it has no effect whatsoever. There is a playground in the neighborhood so there is really no excuse for them to use my yard as a playground.

Disgusted—N.J.

Answer:

The fault lies with parents who fail to teach their children not to trespass on other people's property.

When my boys were small I allowed them to use my yard as a playground as I thought it more important than having a beautiful lawn but after they grew up I had a great deal of difficulty with children who had careless parents.

The only answer seems to be a fence or a hedge.

Louisa.

Rockport Firemen's Auxiliary Met

The Rockport Firemen's Auxiliary met August 22, 1972 for their monthly social.

The treasure chest furnished by Mrs. Teet Mullinax was won by Mrs. Pat Brasher. This consisted of a beautiful yellow blanket.

The program was presented by Ivalie Hinz, vice president. She introduced the speakers for the evening, Bob Hewes and Joe Williams. Joe Williams, Deputy for Bob Hewes presented an interesting talk on narcotics and dangerous drugs. He told of his experience with drugs in being with the law enforcement. He showed the auxiliary different forms of drugs, a live marijuana plant and posters showing the ways narcotics are being passed, what narcotics are, decisions children and adults should make when approached by someone to take drugs. Symptoms of different drugs were discussed. After the interesting talk, a question and answer session followed.

Guests present were Kenneth Howland, Ronnie Hinz, Lou Harrelson, Peggy Davis, John and Pat Brasher, Sherrie, Rex and Mike Johnson, Billy Howland, Janice and Debbie Bell, Pam Hill and Ken Ormand.

Members present were Judy Johnson, Dorris Hill, Ivalie Hinz, Gwynne Howland, Velma Malchar, Mona McNutt, Teet Mullinax, Sarah Belle Smith, Cleo Truelove, Joan Truelove, Kathy Ratliff, Sadie Smith, Evalon Redden and Joyce Hill.

Refreshments were furnished by Judy Johnson and Gwynne Howland.

Scott Davis and Billy Miller of West Terrace have returned home after an extended visit to Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama.

Europe's largest waterfall is near the medieval town of Schaffhausen, Switzerland. Here the Rhine River cascades down 80 feet, then continues on to Basel.

The alter was illuminated by candlelight as the wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Kathryn Jo Davenport and Robert Gary Miller on Saturday evening, August 26, at the First Baptist Church in Rockport. Dr. Bill Glover of Austin performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L.R. Davenport of Rockport. The groom is the son of Mrs. Charlotte Miller of Dallas and the late George Ben Miller.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Norman McLead. "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee" and "The Wedding Prayer" was sung by Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Dickerson of Austin.

The alter was beautifully decorated with pedal baskets of white gladioli backgrounded by two tree candelabras entwined with lavender satin ribbons. In front of the baptismal was a white wrought iron arch decorated with white carnations, laurel leaf and lavender bows. Markers for the pews were single lavender carnations caught by white satin ribbons and streamers.

The register table in the entrance hall of the church which held the bride's book was decorated in lavender slipper satin covered with a lavender net overlay illuminated by a crystal candelabra that held three green taper candles. It was attended by Kay Davenport, sister-in-law of the bride.

The bride, presented in marriage by her father, wore an A-line empire gown of white satin with french chantilly lace appliques heavily accented with tiny seed pearls. An organza rose petal headpiece applied with iridescent crystals and pearls held her illusion veil.

Her colonial bouquet consisted of a center white catalpa orchid with accenting white carnations which was carried on a white Bible. On her way to the alter, the bride presented her mother with a long stemmed red rose and upon leaving she gave the groom's mother a red rose.

Miss Donna Woodall of Austin was maid of honor. Matrons of honor were Mrs. Jimmy Tom of Grvin, and Mrs. Wade Martin of Uvalde, cousins of the bride. Bridesmaids were Miss Debra Brisbin of Alvin and Miss Sherri Wester of Dallas. They all wore lavender empire gowns of dotted swiss over lavender taffeta with moss green velvet ribbons. Headpieces of white flower headbands held their illusion veils. Each attendant carried a single white mum accented with lavender streamers.

Robert Westmoreland of Garland was best man. Groomsmen were Norman Anderson of Houston, Steve Peterson of Dallas, Don Cadenhead, Paul Johnson, and Darryl Smith of Austin. Ushers were Dennis Davenport, brother of the bride, Steve Peterson of Dallas, Paul Johnson and Darryl Smith of Austin.

The bride's mother chose a rose patterned double knit with bone accessories. She carried white gloves and wore a white rose corsage. Mrs. Miller, mother of the groom, wore a peach dress with peach chiffon long sleeves. She wore white accessories and carried white gloves and wore a white rose corsage.

The reception was held at the church educational building. A lavender cloth decorated the table that held the rice bags in lavender tulle, tied with moss green ribbon.

A white lace gathered skirt over white satin covered the brides table. Silver streamers held together with white wedding bells and white bows bordered the front of the table. Green punch was served with the brides cake.

The three tiered wedding cake held with white columns, was delicately decorated with lavender flowers. An arch of white flowers held the bride and groom at the top of the cake. A wreath of lavender carnations with green smilax circled the brides cake.

The grooms' table was covered with white net over lavender satin. The cake was decorated with lavender roses and delicate green leaves. The centerpiece was an arrangement of mixed lavender astors and carnations. A crystal candelabra with green tapers and a silver service completed the arrangement of the grooms' table.

Members of the house party were Mrs. D. M. Meador, Mrs. Gary Wester, Dallas, sister of the groom, Mrs. Robert Standard, San Antonio.

The bride chose a powder blue double knit dress with white accessories for the wedding trip. Her going away corsage was the center orchid of her bridal bouquet.

The couple will live in Austin, where the groom works for an architectural firm and the bride will be attending the University of Texas, where she is a senior.

Guests from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Standard and Sandy, San Antonio; Cla Dee Pack, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Joel Meador and Michelle, Austin; Mrs. Jerry Epps, Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brisbin, Alvin; Mr. Pete Peterson, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Wester, Terry, Rusty and Sherry, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Davenport, ConCan; Todd, Lisa, and Kyle Johnson, Corpus Christi; Mrs. Don Cadenhead, Austin; Mr. and Mrs. Darryl Smith, Austin; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Anderson, Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Ron Carlyle, Houston; Mr. David Mossee, Austin; Mr. Jimmy Tom, Grvin; and Mr. Wade Martin and Stephen, Uvalde.

TV COMMENTARY

By John Smiley

GRAVEL - TO-GRAVEL, start-to-finish coverage of political conventions may end with the upcoming Republican event. Selective coverage may replace the marathon telecasting seen in recent years. Networks are finding the conventions unbearably costly. Even with sponsors, it is likely networks will find their pocketbooks flatter by ten to twelve million.

Some of this out-of-pocket money will return as the campaign gets hotter. The new Federal Election Campaign Act allows parties to spend not more than six cents per eligible voter for broadcasting in the campaign. Thus, each ticket will be allowed to spend approximately eight and a half million dollars on radio and television time.

LOOKING at the upcoming TV season, one sees a new Saturday half hour show on CBS called "Bridget Loves Bernie." Bridget and family are wealthy Irish Catholics. Bernie hails from a middle-class Jewish background. The whopping difference between their attitudes and ideas are supposed to sprout comic conflict when the two fall in love and marry.

HEC RAMSEY will be a new 90-minute show on NBC. Seen on Sundays, it will star Richard Boone as a former top gunman who has turned crimefighter.

ABC IS GOING to have a new hospital show, but the difference is this one is a comedy. The series is supposed to look at the humorous side of life in a Washington hospital. The title of the show is "Temperature's Rising."

WEDNESDAY MOVIE OF THE WEEK will be an extension of ABC's "Tuesday Movie of the Week." It is a series of 90-minute original film features encompassing drama, suspense, action-adventure, comedy and Western adventure.

ALSO on a rotating circuit, ABC will produce "Kung Fu" for one hour every fourth Saturday. "Alias Smith and Jones" will be on the remaining three Saturdays. "Kung Fu" is an action-adventure show, a Western which stars a Chinese super-hero.

THE OSCAR-WINNING MOVIE "Patton" will be on TV next season. Since strong language was a part of Patton, the man, it will be interesting to see how the film can be edited for TV and still maintain its integrity.

4-H's Are A Dog's Best Friend

SPECIAL - A dog is a 4-H's best friend to some 117,000 4-H member participants in the national 4-H dog care and training program, sponsored by the Ralston Purina Company. "And if dogs could talk, they might reverse that statement," says T.W. Thompson, assistant director of the National 4-H Service Committee, who has been closely associated with the program for 14 years.

Caring for and training a dog is something that can be done by 4-H members wherever they live in cities, small towns or on the farm. The 4-H members in the dog care and training program come from all of these areas. Club members involved in the program, not only take care of their family dogs, but they raise and train dogs that aid others, notably the blind. Marianne DuBois, of El Centro, California, raised and trained seeing eye guide dogs for the blind. Miss DuBois, who was a national winner last year in the 4-H dog care and training program, also recruited and taught other 4-H's how to raise dogs for the blind.

"You need a love of animals and a love of people to succeed in this project," Miss DuBois says, "I already have learned patience, the ability to use psychology on both dogs and people, and how to be a weight-watcher for a bunch of Labradors."

Ronald Chavez, of Faxon, Oklahoma, another 1971 national winner, set up his own dog kennel for other dog owners. He now plans to start a dog obedience school, for dogs and their owners.

Besides the satisfaction of caring and training your own dog, or dogs for other people, 4-H members who participate in the dog care and training program can receive other benefits.

Ralston Purina offers four gold medals of honor for outstanding 4-H's in each county. State winners in the program receive a transistor radio. The Cooperative Extension Service selects 18 sectional winners from among the state winners. These members receive an expense-paid trip to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Nov. 26-30. Scholarships of $700 are given to six national winners at the Congress.

Ralston Purina Company also gives educational assistance to the program through offering visuals, record forms and attractive instructional materials on canine care and training. For more information about the 4-H dog care and training program contact the county extension office.

'Pepe' Honored In Reynosa

Mr. and Mrs. Van C. Forshee and their children, Clyde and Felicia Ann stopped by the National Cowboy Hall of Fame and Western Heritage Center while they were in Oklahoma City today.

When asked their comments after they toured the museum, and they wrote that they had a wonderful time. When asked what they liked best, they gave a simple straight-forward one word reply, "Everything".

Alderman Joe "Pepe" Zambrano was honored recently in Reynosa, Mexico and his picture and an article about him was published on page one of the newspaper, El Manana.

The newspaper also carried a large picture inside the publication showing Pepe, his wife, his father and other relatives attending a party held in Zambrano's honor.

The newspaper article paid tribute to Zambrano for winning re-election as an alderman in the City of Rockport.

Young Water Skiers Must Wear Vests

AUSTIN--Water skiers who are 12 years of age or younger must wear U.S. Coast Guard vest-type life preservers to be in compliance with the law, according to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials.

The law states that water skiers are occupants of the boats which are pulling them. Therefore, skiers are subject to the provisions of the Texas Water Safety Act.

This means ski belts are out for the young skiers. It also means that while the older skiers may wear the belts, there must be a Coast Guard approved life-saving device on board the boat for them.

RUSSELL PAINTON RECEIVES DEGREE

Among approximately 130 students receiving the Doctor of Jurisprudence degree from the University of Texas School of Law at the close of the summer session was Russell E. Painton.

MENTAL HEALTH MATTERS

Bertram S. Brown, M.D.
Director
National Institute of Mental Health

RECENT PROGRESS

What has been happening recently along the front of the long struggle against mental illness?

The size and cost of the problem show that it hasn't been conquered; an estimated 20 million afflicted in the U. S. and a yearly cost estimated at $21 billion.

But the picture isn't hopeless. Actually, a great deal of progress has been made in just the past twelve months or so, as the following highlights show.

Alcoholism, now becoming accepted as an illness, has been recognized as a massive public health problem. To provide a comprehensive attack, a new National Institute of Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism has been established in the National Institute of Mental Health.

The attack on drug abuse has been stepped up a great deal. Educational and rehabilitative activities and research and training were accelerated. President Nixon established an office of special action to coordinate and intensify programs, including those of the armed forces.

We have made child mental health a top priority and increased efforts in research, training, and services. Especially encouraging has been the beginning of six major projects for child advocacy in different parts of the country.

Community mental health services and centers to provide them continued to grow and mature. A survey of resources showed some 3,000 facilities in the U. S. providing 17 kinds of mental health services.

The network of comprehensive community mental health centers is prominent in the picture. Supported by federal, state, and community funds, some 450 of these centers are furnishing or getting ready to provide services to a population of 60 million.

Research also progressed. To cite only one of many promising findings, a discovery was made that brings hope of curing or preventing some kinds of mental retardation by infecting patients with a virus.

Overall evidence of progress is available, too. This lies in the concrete fact that there was a sharp drop in 1971 in the continuing decline in numbers of patients in mental hospitals. Not only did the number of such patients go down sizeably (35,392 less than the year before), but also the rate of decline accelerated.

Funeral Services Are Held For John D. McCarthy

The Rosary was recited for John Davis McCarthy, 44, of Rockport, at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Marshall Funeral Chapel here. Funeral services were at 10 a.m. Thursday in Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Rockport with burial in Rockport Cemetery.

McCarthy died at 9:50 p.m. Monday in an Aransas Pass hospital following a long illness.

A native of Minneapolis, Minn., he had lived in Rockport two years, coming to the area as a Small Business Administration attorney following Hurricane Ceila.

Surviving are his wife; four sons, John D. McCarthy, Jr. of Rockport, Stephen McCarthy of Florida, David McCarthy with the Navy and Frederick McCarthy of New Orleans, La.; three daughters, Shelia and Catherine McCarthy, both of Florida, and Mrs. Debbie Cruz of Rockport; his mother, Mrs. Lewis A. McKess of Glencoe, Ill.; and two sisters, Mrs. Cynthia Wagner of Glencoe and Mrs. Mary Lou McKess of Wilmette, Ill.

THE CHURCH OF CHRIST

It must always be remembered that Christianity is that religion founded by Christ and taught by His Apostles.

That Christian religion was in preparation in the Old Testament time, and contained in the prophecy of the Old Testament. But it is in the New Testament that we see completely and clearly that Christian faith, by way of command and example of those first Christians. (Read the books of Acts).

As the Old Testament is that inspired document of Judaism, so the New Testament is that inspired document of Christianity. We see in the O.T. past, the building up of a mass of evidence, so that when Christ came into the world. He could be identified as "The Anointed of God", the Messiah. It is in the New Testament, and it alone, do we find the teachings of Christ for and to His Church. We dare not add to it, nor take away from it. Rev. 22:18, 19.
