Mayor Receives State Insurance Board Report

Mayor Hollis E. Collum has received the State Board of Insurance report on fire protection in Rockport. The report, signed by Hugh W. Heflin, Assistant Chief Engineer of the engineering section, property division of the Board, said:

"We were pleased to learn that the present waterworks improvement is nearly complete, putting the city's waterworks system in good shape. Please notify this office when the new 500,000 gallon elevated tank is placed in service.

"At the present time the auxiliary power is on one booster pump. We recommend that two of the wells that pump into Station No. 2 be equipped with auxiliary power so if the electric power fails, you will be able to operate for quite a while on auxiliary power.

"The fire department is doing better. We recommend they continue to drill and report all drills as required.

"At the time of inspection the fire department did not have the required amount of reserve 2½-inch hose. However we understand that bids were taken on some new hose. Please notify this office on how much hose is received and when it is placed in service. This is important, since a one cent charge is now in order in the key rate.

"We also recommend that your city purchase a new triple combination 500 gallon-per-minute pumper as soon as possible. Charges totalling three cents may be eliminated if such new pumper is purchased.

"We were pleased to see your city had two firemen and the Fire Marshal at the Firemen's Training School in July."

Chas. McEntire To Hold Open House

Charles R. McEntire, veteran land developer and home builder from Portland, recently purchased 17 lots in Little Bay Shores, all that remained in the No. 2 section of this popular edition, and is building homes for sale on these lots.

The price range will be from $12,000 to $16,000, McEntire says, and he will build to the customer's plans or to his own.

He has been in the land development and home building business since 1952 and has built homes in Clarkson's Addition at Refugio; Bel Air, Bayberry and Caribbean Place Additions in Corpus Christi; in Little Bay Shores No. 2 in Rockport; and Portland Place Addition in Portland.

QUARTERBACK CLUB ELECTS DIRECTORS

The Aransas County Quarterback Club elected directors at its regular meeting Monday night. Elected to serve with co-captains Floyd "Blackie" Rouquette and Ben Howard, and secretary Bob Morrison, were directors: Richard Ballou, Hugh Morrison, Ray Longino, Lou Tuer, and Charles Roe. They will serve as lieutenants during pre-game line ups and carry on the formal business of the club. The big event for the Quarterback Club is the football banquet held at the end of the football season each year.

The main function of the club is to boost and give moral support to the Fighting Pirate football team. Presently, 68 men and women have pledged support by paying the one dollar dues. Captain Rouquette urged that all parents and friends of the Fighting Pirate team, unite to support the Quarterback Club. Rouquette said, "individually we do not make much noise, but united we can sound like thunder."

Remember, game time this year is 7:30 p.m. Members cards and badges will again be sold at the gates, Go-o-o Pirates! Beat Mathis!

Choice of Fire Marshall Delayed By City Council

Carl Leonhard, who has had many years of police work in San Antonio and elsewhere through the state, has applied to the City Council for the position of fire marshal, citing references from Col. Homer Garrison of the Texas Department of Public Safety and the Federal Bureau of Investigation as to his background.

Leonhard, who has been instrumental in setting up police departments in a number of Texas towns, after his retirement from the San Antonio police force, retired here some 18 months ago.

He told councilmen before whom he appeared that due to this, he would be satisfied with a small salary, but would be glad to take on duties of the fire marshal, and was capable of handling other inspections jobs and police work, and would be glad to do so, if necessary.

Gary Smith then presented names of three men recommended by the fire department for the positions left open recently when Carl Osborn and Elva Mullinax resigned recently in the midst of a hassle over fire department funds.

The council, faced with a multiplicity of choices, took none. However, council members did decide in the future that one fire marshal would be adequate.

During the discussion, Mayor Hollis Collum asked Smith who had asked the fire department to make such recommendations, and Smith said that he understood that this had been done by various councilmen.

He and T. E. Minyard had been asked by the fire department to submit the names, but under the circumstances, and in the absence of Minyard, he took it upon himself to withdraw any fire department recommendations, as it was apparently unwanted.

Councilmen suggested that fire department personnel talk the matter over with Leonhard, and that the department, after such discussion, recommend one man only for the place.

Those recommended and withdrawn by Smith, on behalf of the department were Elva Mullinax, former assistant marshal; J. C. Gurley, presently assistant fire chief and city employee; and Eugene Carter.

Smith left the meeting after withdrawing the names, and later returned with Minyard, who had been unable to be present when the council meeting started at 4:30 p.m. instead of 7:30 p.m.

Minyard and Smith then told the council they would return to the firemen and convey the council's wishes — that only one recommendation be made. The two firemen said they would return to the council meeting on Sept. 28 to discuss the matter again.

Council Receives Complaint On Dogs

The mayor and city council were presented with a petition this week concerning the large number of dogs running loose in the south end of town.

The petition asked that something be done to remedy the situation, and was signed by Mr. and Mrs. Shannon Bridges, Mr. and Mrs. Joe S. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Guerra, Frazier Cantrell, F. C. Armintrout, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Johnson, and John J. Kieffer.

C of C Asks For Emblem On Water Tank

A delegation from the Chamber of Commerce appeared before the City Council at its regular meeting to request that the organization's emblem, a fish with a champagne glass, and its slogan "The Toast of the Coast" be painted upon the new 500,000 gallon water tank in the north end of town.

The delegation was headed by Miss Lola L. Bonner, president of the chamber, and she was accompanied by James Kautz, chairman of the industrial committee and Mrs. Kay Bergel, chairman of the advertising committee.

Miss Bonner told the councilmen that Mrs. Bergel had offered to furnish the paint, if arrangements could be made with Chicago Bridge and Iron workmen now putting the finishing touches to the big tank, which is part of a $400,000 construction program on water and sewer systems now nearing its end.

W. W. McClendon, consulting engineer for the city on the program, told the Chamber of Commerce delegation that it might be possible to grant their request, but that this would require a change order on the work, in which city, contractor and the Federal agency furnishing half the money would have to concur.

McClendon said the tank would be finished next week, if all went well, and painted inside and out. It would be filled for the first time about Sept. 23, he stated, and the emblem and slogan would have to be painted before then. To do this, he said, it would probably be necessary to move the location of the words "City of Rockport" which would also be on the tank.

WILLIAM DOUGLAS COMPLAINS TO CITY COUNCIL

William Douglas, formerly of Austin, who purchased a $16,000 house here some time ago in which to retire, appeared before the City Council Monday night to complain about the noise of the blower in the city's new water treatment plant No. 1.

Douglas told councilmen that the blower started early every morning and ran until late at night, and that the noise was almost insupportable.

He also complained that the noise of the city fire siren in the same area also disturbed him, although the city has moved it once on his insistence.

W. W. McClendon, the city's consulting engineer, told Douglas that the noise of which he complained was an inherent in the type of plant installed.

Despite Douglas' statement that nothing had been done about the noise, McClendon said, he and the city water department personnel had been aware of it, and had taken the matter up with the manufacturer in an effore to quieten the operation. The manufacturer had told them, McClendon said, that such a plant had to operate in this way, and that efforts to muffle the fan noise elsewhere had proved ineffectual. However, the engineer said, efforts would continue hoping to find some solution for the Douglas' complaint.

When Douglas complained of the noise of the siren, a fireman who happened to be present told him that if he came home and found his house burned down because no one had heard the siren, he might have some just cause for his complaints.

ACHS Whips Bloomington, 26-0

The ACHS Pirates outplayed the Bloomington Bobcats here Friday night and bottled up all attempts by the Bobcat backfield to take a 26-0 victory.

The Pirates scored three times on end sweeps and then recovered a touchdown fumble in the fourth quarter.

Left halfback Horace Lawrence scored in the first quarter on a 37-yard run. The next score did not come until after the half, when the Pirates' Martin Garcia scored once on a two-yard plunge. His touchdown was followed by another made by Hugh Morrison, after a 35-yard gallop. The extra two points in this quarter came when Charles Picton flicked a pass to Gary Stryker.

The fourth quarter fumble was made by Jesse Stowe, Bloomington quarterback. The entire personnel of both teams appeared to try for recovery. The ball traveled 25 yards to wind up behind the Bloomington goal line, where Rockport's Thomas Lewis fell on it for the score.

Heldenfels Urged To Drop Copano Dredge Request

Austin — A plea to Heldenfels Brothers, Corpus Christi contracting firm, to withdraw an application for permit to dredge oyster shells from reefs in Copano Bay was made Monday by Rep. Paul B. Haring of the 24th District, which embraces Refugio, Bee, Goliad and Live Oak Counties.

Haring sent a telegram to the firm and followed up with a protest to Weldon Watson, executive director of the Parks and Wildlife Commission.

That agency has received an application from Heldenfels Brothers for permits to dredge shell from eight tracts of varying size.

Haring said he understood that about 2,560 acres are involved.

Haring said that he had been told the firm wanted to dredge about 100,000 cubic yards of shell. Watson said he had heard "by the grapevine" that they needed about that much to complete a road in the Corpus Christi area.

Before further action is taken by the commission, Watson said he would direct that a survey be made to determine the merits and demerits of the proposed dredging operation.

Expressing shock at the "proposed dredging to devastate these reefs which nature has expended countless years in building up," Haring added a warning that "every administrative and-or judicial remedy will be invoked."

In his telegram Haring also compared the proposed dredging in Copano Bay to past operations in Nueces Bay which he described as an example of "wanton destruction."

Square Dance Club Requests Building Site

The Paws and Taws Square Dance Club representatives have requested the Navigation Board for permission to erect a 50x110-foot square dance building somewhere on the Rockport waterfront, at a site to be picked by the members of the board.

Eddie Drummond, president of the club, says the club now has 128 members, including four squares of youngsters, and is still growing.

Drummond, who was accompanied by Charles Vermillion and H. H. Dick when he made the request, told the board that the club had been dancing in one end of the hanger at Aransas County Airport, but had outgrown the room available, and wanted to build its own building.

This would be of cedar siding, and would contain, besides the dance floor, storage rooms, sanitary facilities, and a kitchen that would make it an excellent meeting place for other organizations besides the Square Dance Club.

However, the dance club spoksmen said, they would expect to reserve it Friday nights, for meetings of the club.

They pointed out to the board that this would help fill the need for a community building in which to hold small conventions until such a time as a community building could be built.

Deer Hunting On Refuge Possible

Sportsmen's Ass'n Asks Parks and Wildlife Dept. For Controlled Hunt on 14,000 Acres

If plans advanced by the Rockport Sportsmen's Conservation Association bear fruit, controlled deer hunting on the Aransas Wildlife Refuge may be a reality in the fall of 1965.

Early in August the local sportsmen's group, aware of the great deer population on the Refuge, which has approached the point where the stock will be weakened and may die off due to overcrowding, requested the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department to throw the Refuge open in certain parts, and to allow such a hunt.

In a letter from J. Weldon Watson, executive director of the department, he says:

"We have been aware for several months of the desirability of some arrangement which would permit the havesting of a substantial number of deer from the Refuge lands by Texas hunters. As indicated in your letter, the deer were held down to a degree in past years by an intensive trapping program carried out by this department to secure deer for restocking in many areas of Texas."

"The need for restocking has dropped sharply," Watson

FOR THE INVESTOR

1. SOLD to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ingersoll, Rockport, Texas, 200 feet waterfront on Copano Bay at the total price of $20,000.00, $3,000.00 down with balance payable in 8½ years at 6% interest. We have several more of these tracts available at this time. At $100.00 per front foot this property is priced at about one half of the price $200.00 per front foot that waterfront on Aransas Bay is bringing for similarly situated property. We have been asked, How high do you think that the price of waterfront will go? We do not know. On the West Coast waterfront property with no greater depth has been sold to builders for as high as four thousand dollars ($4,000.00) per front foot. In Nassau in the Bahamas waterfront for business purposes has sold for as much as eight thousand four hundred dollars ($8,400.00) per front foot.

2. A package deal which is a new listing. Lots to the north of Rockport, lots to the west of Rockport, and lots to the south of Rockport. (The bay is to the east of Rockport). The price of this package deal is $6,000.00. We are sure that terms can be arranged.

3. It is true now and has been for a very long time that there is room for any new business as long as it is larger and better than those existing here. One of those business opportunities that so far has been overlooked is a mobile home trailer park of a deluxe nature. Key Allegro is setting the pace for real estate development in Aransas County. Last week a business concern that operates on a national scale and who is contemplating buying some land for development purposes in Calhoun County flew in to the Aransas County Airport a group of prospective investors mainly so they could be shown Key Allegro. There is an opening here for a mobile home park here that would correspond to Key Allegro in the vacation home field. (Key Allegro is paying for no part of this ad). We have several ideal sites for such mobile home park.

BOWLING NEWS

The Friday morning Ladies Early Bird League has been formed for the year 1964-1965 with the following officers having been elected:

President, Willie Mae Elliot; vice president, Naomi Roy; sergeant at arms, Frances Thornton; secretary, Jonelle Billman; treasurer, Sissy Bowen; rules, Ida Armstrong, June Ford, Eva Howard; scheduling, Naomi Roy, Doris Saint; prizes, Loy Kellar, Betty Pruitt, Lucy Dube.

The Falstaff professional team came to Aransas Pass last Wednesday and put on a talent show that thrilled many spectators.

A crowd of about 150 local and out-lying area viewers witnessed some bowling that will never be matched for many years to come in Aransas Pass. The greatest thrill of them all was the match game between the bowling champion Dick Hoover and our own local girl from Rockport, Joyce Passmore.

Dick bowled a tough 213 game but Joyce bowled an even tougher 239 to defeat Dick by 26 pins. Congratulations go out to Joyce, proving that little towns can be as tough, if not tougher, than the big ones.

With Dick Hoover, Andy Marzich, Glenn Allison, and Jim St. John was the ailing Billy Welu who was unable to bowl due to an out of place vertebrae. However, his appearance was as delightful as his bowling.

Dick Hoover bowled the highest series, a 648, followed by Andy Marzich's 599, Jim St. John 583 and Glenn Allison's 548. The local bowlers scores were as follows:

Joyce Passmore 239, Ed Harris 194, Ruby Boatright 183, Orville Downs 177, Tommy Westbrook 175, Ernie Falgout 171, June Ford 167, Terry Brooks 159, W. J. Sullinger 154, Herschel Ford 150, Dave Taschener 145, Ed Setterbo 142.

Each local bowler bowled one game against each pro, to give more locals a chance to feel what it was like to beat a pro—if they could. A good time was had by all and again congratulations to Joyce Passmore for some beautiful bowling at the right time.

TRUCKS FOR '65!

More models, more engines, more Chevy workpower!

The long strong line of Chevy trucks for '65 is rolling in with miles of new working equipment. Like that handsome Fleetside pickup that leads the pack . . . one of the 18 pickup models in the line this year.

Further along, you'll find economical Chevy-Vans, a wide selection of walk-in vans, a bigger choice of big trucks, more job-tailored components—trucks built to fit your business and budget.

And under those hoods you'll find the best in 4- and 6-cylinder, V8 and diesel power, 18 tough truck engines in all including 4 new lower cost diesels. Here's the huskiest bunch of haulers that ever came looking for work!

Our word for all this is workpower. That's the stuff that makes a truck a real truck. A hard-nosed money-saver. Yes, workpower's here and Chevy's got it, in such a variety of types and sizes that picking the best truck for your job will be easier than it's ever been before. If you're in the market, just get in touch with your dealer.

Letter to the Editor . . .

Rockport Texas
Sept. 15th, '64

To the editor and citizens of this area and the State of Texas:

There is a letter to the Park and Wildlife Commissioners that has 600 signatures, lots of them belong to the Sportsman's Association that don't agree with Mr. M. W. Cochran that our bays should be opened to dredging, to become another mud hole like Nueces Bay, and like Galveston Bay will become in the future.

Doesn't Mr. Cochran realize that the towns and community depend on the tourists trade for their future?

What have we to offer but our beautiful bay, and fishing is the main attraction here?

Does he think that when our bays become mud holes, that it will attract more business to this area? Also take into consideration the silt and mud that drifts with the tide over the reefs and oyster beds that will soon be destroyed.

Mr. Cochran states there is no law closing these bays to dredging shell.

I can't find any law in our statute books that states our bays and reefs should be destroyed to benefit a few. If allowed to remain as they are they will be enjoyed by a generation that follow us.

Sure, we know our local fish and game personnel would like to go along with us to protect our bays for the future of this area, but they have to go along with what big boss recommends.

We know there has been thousands of dollars spent on our bayfronts this year, to attract visitors, why then offset all of this by making mud holes out of our bays.

Hollis Collum,
Mayor, City of Rockport

DEER HUNTING—

said, "as most of the suitable deer range in the state now has at least brood stocks of deer.

"With termination of the trapping," he goes on to say, "the deer herd has increased to the point where the range is apparently saturated."

The executive secretary said that efforts were initiated several months ago to arrive at an agreement with the Bureau of Sports Fisheries and Wildlife, of the Department of the Interior, on a feasible plan for hunting a portion of the Refuge.

"These negotiations have been slow and difficult," he said, "because of the many problems involved. At this time we are awaiting the reaction of the Bureau to a proposal for a hunt on the Refuge, which was made in early June this year."

Basically, Watson said, the major difference of opinion is on the selection of hunting dates and problems of legal responsibility. The regulatory power bill passed a couple of years ago, gives the Parks and Wildlife Department power to set seasons and limits withing Aransas County, where the Refuge lies. But the Department has no such authority in Refugio County, where a small portion of the Refuge lies. Hence, the county line would have to be marked.

Watson says that it is the firm belief of the Parks and Wildlife Department that a properly supervised deer hunt on the Refuge during the regular deer season from Nov. 14 through Dec. 31 would not endanger whooping cranes if the area to be hunted is properly marked.

"Deer, turkey, quail and waterfowl hunting have been carried out on Matagorda Island adjacent to the area where the whoopers spend much of their time in the winter," he said, "and we have no knowledge that any whooper has been killed."

Watson says that in the course of managed deer hunts in recent years, "we have found that properly supervised hunting does not scare the deer from the area being hunted."

An adequate harvest on even the 14,000-acre portion of the Refuge outlined on a map the Sportsman's Association included with their request can be obtained through proper handling of hunters, the executive secretary said. Such control cannot be obtained, however, if hunters are allowed to wander at will. Blind shooting from strategic locations can obtain the desired results.

"We are well aware," he says, "of the interest in whooping cranes, but we feel strongly that the surplus deer on the Refuge can be harvested during the regular deer season without endangering the cranes."

The early season proposed by the Sportsmen's Association from Sept. 15 through Oct. 15 — would present a number of problems, the executive secretary stated.

"It would be the earliest in the state and Refuge officials would be swamped with requests to hunt.

"Because of heat, spoilage of game is expected to be great during such an early season, because proper storage facilities are probably not available in the immediate vicinity of the Refuge.

"Rattlesnakes are prevalent on the Refuge in late September and early October, posing a hazard to hunters.

Moreover, Watson said, "it is expected that some problems would arise if the early season should be adopted, because adjacent landowners could not hunt if the season applied only to the Refuge.

"If applied to Aransas County, repercussions from other landowners can be expected. No hunting in Refugio County can be allowed until Nov. 16, and the season in Aransas County proper until Nov. 14, under present regulations."

Watson said negoiations are continuing with the Bureau of Sports Fisheries and Wildlife, but it is doubtful if arrangements can be made which will permit a hunt this fall.

Every effort is being made, he said to arrive at an understanding which will permit Texas hunters to take the surplus deer on the Refuge under conditions which will afford adequate protection to the whooping cranes, yet, at the same time, provide an apportunity to hunters to hunt with comparative safety at a time when meat and trophies can be preserved.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Warwick of Houston spent the weekend with Mrs. Lillian Gray and Mrs. G. C. Mullinax.
