More Summer Rain Brings All-Time Record Moisture

18.4 Inches Rain Here Since May 1

By PAULINE CORNUTT
Record Staff Writer

Continued rains today (Thursday) in Mitchell County brought an unprecedented mid-summer moisture total—heaviest in this area in the past 41 years.

New rainfall over the county added more soil seasoning for row crops—and was reported splendid for already fine pasture conditions.

However, cotton growth is being slowed by continued moisture and cool temperature.

City rain gauge showed 1.37 at noon Thursday.

One area in particular, China Grove community, reported almost 3 inches of rainfall Thursday and most severe cotton damage in the county. Young cotton in that area, which was planted in June, was already suffering from heavy rainfalls during the last 2 months.

Rain beginning in the early Thursday morning hours and continuing until mid-morning brought the total amount of July rainfall to 2.23 inches here in Colorado City with 8.82 inches recorded in May and 7.39 inches in June, the total summer rainfall now stands at 18.44 inches. Yearly total for the county is 22.14 inches—with April being the only month in which no moisture was recorded.

May, June and July totals for 1961 already outstrip the same 3-month period for at least 41 years dating back before 1920. Nearest to the 1961 3-month moisture were May-June-July in 1941, 1935 and 1927.

Hard rains totaling 1.6 inches caused no damage to the crops in the Loraine area. Rain started about 6 a. m. and had eased to a slow-drizzle around noon.

In the Westbrook Community, 1.75 inches fell with little or no crop damage. Rain started about 3 a. m. and stopped around 10:30 a. m.

Around 2 1/2 inches fell in the Cuthbert community but no terrace-breakage was reported in the area, which had damage with hard June rains.

A light shower around noon ended rains for the morning in the Love Community.

GOLF CHAMPION

Craig Wins Third Hometown Trophy

Bill Craig, the TESCO engineer, outlasted young Bobby Lockett of San Angelo Sunday to capture his third Colorado City Invitational golf tournament.

A par 4 on the 21st hole turned back Lockett's challenge and earned the championship for the veteran Colorado City shotmaker, 1-up.

It was the second West Texas title this summer for Craig, who earlier won the Sweetwater Invitational championship.

His previous winning years here at his home club were 1956 and 1957.

The title match, although marred somewhat by light rain and subsequent erratic play, climaxed the finest Colorado City tournament in a decade. A record field of 123 contestants competed seven flights.

Craig defeated Jerry Dixon of Andrews 1-up in the semi-finals Sunday and Lockett beat Charles Hopkins of Post, 1-up on 20, in the same round.

The Colorado City golfer also played the final 2 holes of his quarter-final match Sunday morning, trimming Johnny South of Abilene, 2 and 1.

The quarter-final match was halted Saturday by darkness.

The teenage Lockett beat Red Alston of Sweetwater, 3-2, in his quarter-final contest.

Jimmy Patterson of Big Spring defeated Dan Lewis, another Big Spring golfer, for the championship flight consolation title.

Winning the first flight was Tom Wilson of Lubbock, who beat Charles Bailey of Big Spring, 5-4, in the finals. First flight consolation honors went to John Byers of Lubbock, who bested James Pritchett of Midland, 1-up.

Jimmy Newson of Big Spring won the second flight, beating Dr. John Sloan of Big Spring, 5 and 4. Consolation winner was Colorado City's Sandy McSpadden, who won 2 and 1 over Cecil McClatchy of Midland.

Winkle Wardlaw of San Angelo defeated Colorado City's Ray Mize, 1-up on 19, for third flight honors. Consolation honors were won by Jack Simpson of Abilene with a 4-3 victory over George Allison of Sweetwater.

Other winners were:

Fourth Flight—O. K. Fletcher of Snyder, who defeated Bob Rutherford of Big Spring, 4-3, in the finals. George Smith of Colorado City, 4 to 2, over Doyle House of Odessa for consolation.

Fifth Flight—A. G. Furlow Jr. of Loraine, who beat William Crocker of Big Spring, 4 and 3, in the finals. Ben Sparks of Colorado City beat Cholly Howard of Snyder, 1-up for consolation.

Sixth Flight—Joe Maddox

Armed Pair Abducts Man

Two Latin-Americans robbed and abducted a Colorado City man at pistol point Saturday in the downtown area and held him captive for 6 hours.

The victim, Joselito Ramirez, jumped from the car after midnight and fled into the Police Station as he and his captors drove by City Hall.

Both abductors rode away from City Hall in Ramirez's 1959 Ford sedan.

Officers found the car abandoned later in a residential area.

Sheriff Lewis Claxton reported Thursday there had been no trace of the 2 men who took $3 from their victim.

Ramirez, an employe of Lucian Maddip, told officers that the bold abduction happened after he had left Pick & Pay Super Market Friday evening at about 5:30 p. m.

He was in the store when 2 men approached him and asked that he take them home in his car.

He refused and the pair left the store.

But they were in Ramirez's

AT LAKE COLORADO CITY

Cool Weather Keeps Fishing Luck Warm

Fishing luck remains fine at Lake Colorado City with continued cool weather.

Good catches of bass, crappie and catfish were reported during the last week.

Fishermen hooked fine bass—some weighing up to 6 pounds.

Trotlines were yielding yellow cats above the 20-pound mark in some instances.

Other fishermen were having even more fun with large hauls of crappie.

Bernie Grable, Dwight Tomb, Caldo Matthews, Arnel Smith and Carl Gary were among the local "regulars" who smiled with good bass fishing.

Upswing in luck was reported for most all fishermen by Earl Richardson, owner of Lake View Camp, and Bill Cooper, owner of Cooper's Cove. Yellow cat, bass and channel cat still are feeding and ranging near the lake shore since temperature hasn't been warm enough to send them to deeper water.

Grable and Matthews, the Colorado High basketball coach, both hooked 2 six-pound bass. They landed other bass ranging from 1.5 pounds to 3 pounds also with Herb's Dilly lure.

Tomb, the band director, and Gary in one outing hauled in 4 bass totaling 10 pounds. The largest was just over 4 pounds. They used Dragnet and Herb's Dilly lures.

John P. Dooley took a 4 1/2 pound bass off a trotline baited with waterdogs and Smith, using mostly a Bushwacker lure, took a bass weighing a total of 11 pounds.

V. C. Henderson and R. F. Henderson, boys from Houston and Franklin City, caught a channel cat on one pole within a hour, according to Henderson of Lake View.

At the Fisharama, located at Cooper's Cove, Mrs. Retta Ratliff of Odessa caught more than 60 channel cat while Mrs. J. L. Underwood and R. L. Underwood of Big Spring caught more than 75.

Mildred Brooks of Snyder and Ruth Scott of Dunn took 75 crappie from the lake at Fisharama.

A 26-pound yellow cat was taken by Archie Mixon of Colorado City, Glyn C. Byrd and O. E. Jackson, both of Fort Bliss, El Paso. The line was baited with perch.

Also hauling in a 26-pound yellow cat was Harvey Jones. His trotline was baited with perch and shad.

Among other catches during the last week were:

Smokey Kinman, yellow cat on trotline; Paul H. Meyers of Midland, 2 1/2 pound bass using rod and reel with minnows; Mr. and Mrs. James Owensby of Lubbock, 34 channel cat ranging from half pound to 6 pounds on trotline baited with water dogs and stink; John Cloud of Brownfield, 3 channel cat on trotline and rod and reel; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Morris, 1 pound bass and 21 channel cat averaging 2 1/2 pounds with minnows; W. T. Denison of Roscoe, 10 bass totaling 37 1/2 pounds with Charlie's Bass Bug; Richard C. Auble and Charles Hood of Big Spring, 13 yellow and channel cat ranging from 1 to 4 pounds; Ed Speed, 3 pound channel cat with three live minnows; Jerry Lee, 2 pound channel cat; J. H. McClinton and Bill Henderson of Lake View, 21 channel cat averaging 2 1/2 pounds.

BY GOVERNOR'S MEMO

The World's Capitol — For Tumbleweeds

It's official now—by government decree.

Colorado City has been proclaimed the Tumbleweed Capitol of the World. State Senator David W. Ratliff applied the trademark while serving as Acting Governor of Texas June 30, in Austin.

Ratliff, Stamford senator representing the 24th District which includes Mitchell County, forwarded a copy of the official memorandum, complete with state seal, to Mayor Bob Robinson.

The official memorandum, signed by the acting Governor, states:

Whereas the tumbleweed has played a fascinating part in the history of the West giving rise to songs, poetry and folklore and

Whereas in 1959 a new and commercial use was discovered for this herb's plant seed, rolling across the prairie by millions of tourists and

Whereas a tumbleweed factory is built by Colorado City, Mitchell

County), Texas, which converts the tumbleweed into colorful and artistic arrangements which have been used as centerpieces for tables and for store decorations all over Texas and throughout the United States, and

Whereas there is an annual celebration in the spring of the year which commemorates the discovery and use of the tumbleweed, highlighted by a parade with floats decorated with thousands of tumbleweed, and by the coronation of a queen, and

Whereas the development of this industry has proved to be a tremendous economic lift for Mitchell County,

Therefore, I, as Acting Governor of Texas, do hereby recognize Colorado City the TUMBLEWEED CAPITAL OF THE WORLD and proclaim that due recognition be given to the resourceful and creative people of Mitchell County.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 13th day of July, 1961.

HOME TOWN

Talk

By PEGGY BELVIN

The summer months are always termed as the laziest months of the year. Summer officially is the season for boating, fishing, skiing, swimming and all the other activities that make summer so enjoyable.

Summer has a tendency to bring with it all sorts of plans for vacations, fairs, rodeos and just plain loafing. In such a civilization as ours, families tend to drift apart as children grow older, and the American way of getting a family back together is a family reunion. Such has taken place in this writer's household the past week.

It seems that each year our family doubles. As the family membership stood at 10 to start with, you can understand what havoc is created.

Most family reunions are staged either beside some lovely little lake or in some secluded picnic spot... not so our family reunions. Undoubtedly the reason they are staged at home is the fact that no matter where it was, someone would inevitably get left behind.

So home it is, not that it could be recognized. The drive resembles a public parking lot, the living room a hotel lobby, and the entirety resembles an overcrowded school house.

The thing family reunions are famous for is undoubtedly food. Such food can not be found any other place. It's a marvel the amount of delicious food one little grandmother can turn out. But, the delicacy is wasted. For after three shifts of hungry youngsters, whose appetite is strong enough to consume the gravy Junior spilled his coke in, or the cake someone's precious daughter scraped the icing from?

But all in all, the family reunion is one American custom which should never say die. It is one thing which can bring families the closeness so many of them miss. And there is no closer closeness than fifty people crowded into a 7 room house!

This writer was in DALLAS during the buyers convention at the new TRADE MART. Most Colorado City citizens will be glad to know that the tumbleweed decorations on display there received some very favorable comments from Dallas citizens and were mentioned on some television newscasts.

Our place of business has taken on an old look this week, as our editor, the SHADOW, or RICK TAYLOR, is on vacation. Once again JOE BELL, publisher of our RECORD, has taken over duties of editor, publisher, layout art, and the hundreds of other odd jobs that must be completed before our paper can go to press.

But, I must be forced to admit that it is strangely quiet without the red-headed shadow's constant haggling. Did you notice that it wasn't enough that he should go on vacation and leave the rest of us working, he had to write his TAYLOR-MADE in anticipation of his leisurely vacation days... only to torment the rest of us.

IN CIVIC HOUSE

Dress Revue To Be Conducted Friday

Mitchell County Dress Revue will be conducted July 14 at 8 p. m. in the Civic House, according to Mrs. Cricket B. Taylor, Mitchell County Home Demonstration Agent.

Home Demonstration Club women and 4-H girls will model dresses that were completed as a result of their clothing projects this year. Dresses of the 4-H girls will be entered in competition. Women will be modeling dresses made in a workshop conducted this summer by Mrs. Taylor.

One of the highlights of the program will be a mock style show presented by home demonstration clubs in the county. This is an added attraction which the clubs have not had in any of their previous shows, a yearly feature of the 4-H girls, who must model their dresses before receiving a credit in their clothing project.

Garments will be modeled for the judges at 9 a. m. Friday in Civic House. Clothing records for 4-H girls will be scored in the agent's office on the same day.

Garments will be entered in 3 divisions with 9 and 10 year-old girls in 1 division; 11, 12 and 13 year-old girls in another; and a division for adults who participated in the clothing workshop in May of this year.

First-place winners in the first and second divisions will receive prizes. The first-place winner in the second division will enter the District Dress Revue in Lubbock July 25.

Upper 10% of participants in the county dress revue will receive dress revue medals.

Mrs. O. L. Simpson and Mrs. Arnel Smith will be narrators for the revue and music will be presented by Mrs. J. E. Payne.

Judges will be Mrs. Kathryn Crawford, Howard County H. D. agent; Mrs. Caddo Matthews, Colorado Jr. High home economics teacher; and Mrs. Charles Maughon of Colorado City, who taught home economics in the Lubbock school system the past 2 years.

Admission to the show will be free, Mrs. Taylor said.

If you haven't heard the word "magenta" . . . ladies . . . you're way behind time.

Because, that will be the color you will find most abundant when you start choosing your fall and winter clothing . . . most of which has already arrived at the local stores . . . LANDAU'S, EVA'S, PENNEYS, ANTHONY'S AND MAX BERMAN'S.

You may find it quite surprising to walk into some of our stores to buy something like a pair of bermuda shorts and walk face to face with a wool sweater, coats of all descriptions and dresses all ready for fall and winter wear.

You men will be in for a big surprise, too!

Instead of the same fashions which you have become accustomed to, year after year, you are going to find new banlon slip-over shirts and sweaters and tee shirts with the emblem and pocket . . . with full-fashioned sleeve. All-the-go this year in men's wear is going to be a new style of cotton slacks which come in shades of black, green and tan that can be worn for semi-dress or casual wear. Sport shirts in plaid and check are going to take the fall and winter scene.

As I said before . . . Magenta, a color not quite as bright as fuchsia . . . is the new color rage . . . replacing the lavenders and purples of last year.

Kelley green, royal prealla (a deep blue) and orange and gold will be the leading colors during the winter months. In fact, bright colors of any description will be popular this year.

Local salesman seem to think that several styles are on their way out . . . such as stiff can cans, leotards whose sales were already declining last year; and the full, full skirts.

Most of the stores have received a shipment of soft can cans which do not stand out near as much as the older styles but seem to be popular with the younger crowd.

Suits are going to be in box and fitted styles with fur trim in shades of black, brown and beige.

Looks like the long coat will outshine the shorter styles this year . . . and they are going to have the new stand-up collar line. Shipments here include the new surf coat . . . molar on the same line as the car coat.

Women's hats have changed greatly . . . as they do every year. Of course, most of the women will . . . as popular custom goes . . . be imitating the style which the first lady introduced to the fashion world this January . . . the pill box.

Headpieces will be in all shapes . . . and be made from wool felt, fur fiber, rayon velvet and shaggy knit . . . and again in all bright colors.

By the way . . . there's one thing in the world of fashions which is going to stay pretty much the same this year . . . and that's shoes.

The pointed toe is going to be popular again, says our shoe salesmen, and so is the small heel.

Black leather will be the leading shoe and flats will remain popular. New merchandise includes some square toed shoes . . . but the style has not thus far proved its popularity.

LIGHT UP... OUT DOORS!

FOR PLEASURE . . .

You'll have more hours for family fun with proper outdoor lighting. You can enjoy lawn games, outdoor dining or just plain relaxing long after the sun goes down. And you'll find yard work is easier when you can do it in the glow of the evening.

FOR BEAUTY . . .

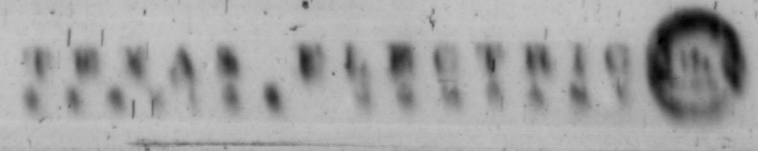

With outdoor lighting, you can enjoy the beauty of your flowers in the evening, too. Over-all low level yard lighting is recommended for a well-lit picture, plus lights in each flower bed to provide attractive "spotlight" effects.

FOR SAFETY . . .

Outdoor lighting along steps and walks helps prevent dangerous slips and falls. Flood lights, properly placed, discourage prowlers and permit you to do after-dark chores with daytime ease.

Your dealer will gladly show you how to light your yard for beauty, safety and convenience. Use his own, or visit our office.

ATTEND KIWANIS CONVENTION

Weavers, Bermans Returning From Toronto, Ontario

Martin Weaver, local club president and H. I. Berman, immediate past lieutenant governor, and their wives, all Kiwanians of Colorado City, are returning from the 46th annual convention of Kiwanis International in Toronto, Ontario, July 26.

They joined some 17,000 other Kiwanians, their wives and families, in what was one of the largest conventions in the organization's history — and the first in Canada since World War II. Convention sessions were held in the city's famed Maple Leaf Gardens.

Work accomplished at the convention included election of officers for 1961-62 — a president, president-elect, treasurer and six trustees — recognition of top clubs throughout the United States and Canada for contributions to their individual communities and the adoption of resolutions upon which the organization's 1961-62 community service program was based. J. O. Tally Jr., young Fayetteville, N. C., attorney, and president of Kiwanis International, presided.

Principal speakers on the program, in addition to Tally, included John G. Diefenbaker, Prime Minister of Canada; Brooks Hays, Assistant Secretary, U. S. Department of State; Charles B. Shuman, President of the American Farm Bureau Federation; and Lieutenant General Roscoe C. Wilson, United States Air Force, Deputy Chief of Staff for Development.

Also on the convention roster were presidents of the 2 youth organizations which Kiwanis sponsor — Steven D. Coppel, Ft. Yuma, Ariz., special acts were presented during the convention period. Some of these were composed of Kiwanis members; some of Teachers of the course, "The Meaning of Suffering," are Miss Barbara Summerville, Lubbock, director of youth for the Northwest Texas Conference for the past 5 years; Dr. John Harden Hicks, professor emeritus of Old Testament at Southern Methodist University; the Rev. H. Doyle Ragle, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Vernon.

Other activities for convention goers included a series of sight-seeing trips for youngsters, and a fashion show and Vice Regal Garden Party, on the grounds of the University of Toronto, for the women.

Kiwanis-sponsored youth and adult groups. Professional entertainment was under the supervision of Toronto impresario, Dr. Leslie Bell, one of Canada's leading musical figures.

Brotherhood Roundup Ends Encampment

Concluding Royal Ambassador Camp for boys which was conducted last week in Stanton, approximately 1,000 Baptist laymen and boys met Friday evening at the district encampment grounds for the annual Brotherhood Roundup.

Eight boys attending the RA Camp from C-City's Oak Street Baptist Church were Gerald Graves, Woody Wilson Jr., Neil Harris, Eldon Davis and Richard Reynolds.

Also Robert Lewis, Danny Rammage, Danny Dossey, Randy Phillips and their counselor H. B. Graves and E. V. Brooks, pastor of the church. This year's rally was timed with the conclusion of the RA Camp. There were business sessions starting at 4:30 p. m., followed by a church wagon dinner at 6:30 p. m. and a final worship at 7:15 p. m. John E. Haggai, Louisville, Ky., evangelist for the Southern Baptist, was Roundup speaker, delivering his first message at 5:30 p. m. and climaxing the gathering with a sermon at 8:35 p. m. Harold Lewallen, Midland, directed a 150-voice men's chorus for the evening services.

Halls Host Indiana Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Howell C. Greenlee and sons, Danny and Tommy, from South Bend, Ind., were recently visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Price Hall.

It was Mrs. Greenlee's first trip to Texas.

Among those on the program were Rev. Frank Pollard, Seagraves, RA leader; A. C. Wimpee, Dallas, Texas Brotherhood; and the association's president. More than 130 churches had men at the rally, according to G. G. Morehead, Big Spring, district president.

Miss Rivera Visits Parents

Miss Corine Rivera, student at Texas Women's University in Denton was home recently for a 4-day visit.

INDIANS SCORE TRIUMPH IN LEAGUE FINAL

A desperate sixth inning rally spelled victory, 15 to 13, for the Indians over the Yankees as the Little League completed their Little League season last Thursday night.
The Indians shoved across 8 runs in the final sixth and then lasted out a 4-run retaliation in the bottom half of the inning.
With the triumph, the Indians climbed into a tie with the Yankees for third place.
Each team concluded league play with 7 wins and 8 losses.

This record placed 'em just a few percentage points ahead of the Giants, who made it virtually a 3-way tie for third with 6 wins and 7 defeats.
Felix Madrid, Joe Stockton and Louis Green hustled the Indians' off to a quick lead with 3 runs in the first half of the initial inning. Mike Hillhouse scored for the Yankees in the bottom of the first to make it, 3 to 1.

The lead was increased to 7 to 3 in the second. Then, for 2 innings, both clubs were held scoreless.

In the fifth, a 6-run rally sent the Yankees into the front, 9 to 7, as Richey Wistrand, David Crawford, Hillhouse, Leroy Parham, Sammy
Parham and Dan Steakley scored.

However, the Indians bounced back in the sixth with every player in the line-up except one scoring.

BEAT TIGERS, 6 TO 3

Dodgers Snare Pennant In Little League Final

The Dodgers hurried from behind Saturday night in Memorial Park to defeat the Tigers, 6 to 3, and earn Colorado City's 1961 Little League championship.

It was a climatic conclusion for the league's exciting season.

For just as the victory hoisted the Dodgers to the 1961 pennant, the subsequent defeat knocked the Tigers from the title.

That's the kind of 1961 pennant race it was. The Dodgers the Tigers had hit a victory swath through their opponents and moved into the season's final tied for the lead.

The number '3' worked like a charm for the Dodgers in this decisive encounter Saturday night. And the fact it was their 13th game of the season didn't mean a thing except, maybe, good luck.

It was in the third inning when the Dodgers moved from behind a 3-run deficit.

They bunched together 3 consecutive base hits, scored 2 runs and branded the Tigers with their third defeat of the season — the saddest loss of 'em all.

For the entire championship contest, the Dodgers worked Tiger pitcher Ronnie Corbell for 9 hits while their own Wayne Russell was limiting the Tigers to 4 safeties.

Mike Garrett and Billy Jones brought joy to the Tigers in the first half of the initial inning, rushing to a 2-0 lead.

The box score:

Score by innings:

TIGERS	210	000	0
DODGERS	022	02x	6

Garrett, the Tiger right fielder, singled for the first hit of the game. Jones, shortstop, walked. After Lynn Barnett fanned for the second out, First Baseman Bill Magee walked and Catcher Butch Wood slammed a double — scoring Garrett and Jones.

Corbell, with a strike-out and 2 infield outs, set the Dodgers down in order in the bottom half of the first inning.

And the Tigers kept up their scoring by adding another tally in the first half of the second. Jim Harrison, after 2 were out, singled and then scored on an outfield error.

However, the Dodgers began to get the championship range in their half of the second frame.

Russell, the pitcher, belted a home run to lead off. Shortstop Jimmy Haggerton walked, then scored when teammate Larry Campbell doubled.

The Tigers still held a 3 to 2 lead as the third inning opened. But that was the end.

Nathan Hoyle and Danny Green, who opened the bottom half of the third with consecutive singles, sent the Dodgers into a 4 to 3 lead as they scored with the aid of Steve White's two-base hit.

Two more runs in the fifth — by White and Haggerton — the score 6 to 3. But the champs didn't really need the additional margin for Russell was working effectively on the mound — allowing only 2 hits in the last 4 innings.

White, with his double and single, was a power in the Dodgers' championship performance. His hefty bat in the winning third-inning rally probably was decisive.

However, Hoyle and Campbell also connected for 2 hits each.

Garrett led the Tigers' attack with 2 hits in 4 trips to the plate.

Local Program Urged For Farm Safety Week

Agricultural organizations in Mitchell County are being urged to make special note of National Farm Safety Week.

The nationwide safety observance is proclaimed for July 23-29 by President John F. Kennedy. Within Texas, Governor Price Daniel designated a special statewide Farm Safety Week — in cooperation with the national event — for the same dates.

County Agent Jack Burkhalter, Soil Conservation Service and other offices here in Mitchell County already are calling attention to the Safety Week and urging local citizens to participate in the observance.

In his official memorandum, the Governor said, "The nation's economy is dependent upon the continued well-being and progress of our state's agricultural population. Accidents from farm work cause needless suffering, distress and loss of life each year among our rural families."

"A vigorous farm accident-prevention education program will be conducted during this week by the Texas Farm Bureau, the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Texas Safety Association. "I urge all Texas farm families to increase their vigilance against needless accidents and further encourage interested organizations and individuals to participate in this program."

President Calvin Pigg of the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council said the council was cooperating with all interested organizations, agencies, groups and individuals to make the week's program as effective as possible.

He added that plans in most counties for the observance of Farm Safety Week have been made and noted an increase in youth participation. This, he said, is especially gratifying since youth are often the victims of farm accidents.

The council is hopeful, Pigg said, that all citizens will cooperate and participate in the local observances, for each is dependent upon agriculture for many of the necessities of life.

REAL CHAMPIONS . . .

A tip 'o' the hat to Bill Craig, Ray Mize, Blackie Hines and all others at Colorado Country Club for their fine golf tournament last weekend.

West Texas hasn't seen a better event of its kind in years. And the championship performance by Craig brought even more attention to our city.

Events like the tourney and the Jaycee convention are good business for our town. The citizens who plan and work for 'em . . . deserve our applause.

A Matter of Two-Way Competition

One of the best and simplest editorials on transportation matters that has yet appeared comes from the Scottsbluff, Nebraska, Star-Herald. Here it is: "James Hoffa of the Teamsters Union calls upon Congress to pass a law to require the Interstate Commerce Commission in fixing freight rates to consider the effect that railroad piggyback methods (carrying truck trailers on flat cars) have on competing forms of transportation. "He argues that the efficiency of trailers on flat cars is taking jobs that belong to trucking employees and he expresses no concern for the consumers who pay the bill. "Railroads lost business and employees when trucks moved goods more efficiently and economically than railroads. The railroads by their own resources are now able to recapture some of that lost business. The consumers will ultimately benefit in terms of the retail prices they must pay. There should never be legislation to hamstring efficiency or the free enterprise system. "One can understand the objection of the truckers to loss of business. But what they should be doing is seeking ways to make their own services more attractive to the shipper — not asking Congress for a law that would give them the traffic whether they deserve it or not on the basis of economy and efficiency. A main reason for competition is to make a profit by giving consumers the best in goods and services at minimum costs. That goes for transportation as well as all other enterprise.

More Consumer Protection for Public

Texas consumers of foods, drugs and cosmetics will come out on the long end of an almost completely new state law which goes into effect late next month. The new law, aimed at consumer protection against adulteration, mislabeling, and false advertising, was passed by the 57th session of the State Legislature with strong support of a major segment of the food, drug, and cosmetics industry. It becomes effective August 28, and represents the first major overhaul of the State's basic food and drug law in more than 50 years. State health authorities say the law is as good as is in force anywhere in the nation. It puts Texas on the side of the proponents of uniformity in state food and drug laws. The old law made no provision for checking on the wholesomeness of cosmetics, whereas the new act requires truthful advertising, complete labeling as to ingredients, forbids the use of harmful ingredients, and requires that products be produced and held under sanitary conditions. The law also brings therapeutic devices under control by outlawing worthless contrivances such as "cancer belts" and "arthritic rings" and similar quack appliances which take advantage of the desperation of afflicted people. Under present Texas law the use of certain additives in food or drink is illegal. But after August 28 it will be permissible to use additives to enhance taste, color, texture or preservative qualities of certain foods. However, the burden of proving the additive is not injurious to human health will be on the manufacturer rather than on the enforcement agency as has been the case heretofore. Advances in food and drink technology over the past several years indicate a definite place in the food industry for chemical additives, according to Joe F. Lakey, director of the State Health Department's food and drug division. The department takes its task of consumer protection seriously. Lakey says division inspectors had supervised the destruction of 997,978 pounds of food as unfit for human use in the period between September 1, 1958 and August 1, 1960. He listed water, fire, rodent and insect damage as some reasons for condemnations. To make the transition from the old law to the new one as smooth as possible, the department has already scheduled training sessions for field inspectors to familiarize them with the documents they will be working with.

Visiting Business

Jaycees used $2 bills last week to emphasize how money spent by convention visitors quickly gets around. The gimmick, so to speak, was effective as almost 250 persons from West and Central Texas participated in the tri-regional convention. However, we shouldn't need a gimmick to make us realize that visitors are good business . . . that we should seek every convention and meeting possible.

ON STATE TAX QUESTION

Same Song, Second Stanza For Embattled Legislators

By VERN SANFORD Texas Press Association Texas legislators, like students who failed to complete their work in the long term and have to come back to summer school, return to Austin this week to "get it over with." Goal is the passage of a two-year appropriations bill expected to run around $2,600,000,000. To pay for it, they will need to find some $350,000,000 more in tax money than now provided on the law books. But if money is short, advice is not. At least three committees have a word or two for the lawmakers. Two are unofficial. They are the Citizens for a Sales Tax, whose name explains its purpose, and the Citizens for Fair Taxation, which is pushing Gov. Price Daniel's plan for additional selective sales taxes, plus more business taxes, higher taxes on alcoholic beverages and others. A third committee, appointed by the Governor, avoided a single, specific recommendation but pinpointed some sort of retail sales tax as the most likely source for the amount of state welfare and educational agencies. Committee suggested that either the retail sales tax passed by the Senate last session (a "general" sales tax with exemptions for food, farm supplies, medicine) or a "Pennsylvania-type" tax which affects only the items listed in the bill or a combination of the two might be the answer. All of which leaves the Legislature just about where it was — with at least some support, and some opposition, for any course it might take. AUTO INSURANCE RAISED — Beginning August 1, Texas motorists will pay higher premiums for automobile insurance. How high the premium goes will depend on the county in which the motorist lives and its accident record. In general, the big city counties have higher accident rates and insurance pre-

TEXAS AGRICULTURE

'Haywire Market Hurts Poultrymen

By JOHN C. WHITE Agriculture Commissioner There is something haywire somewhere when chicken is cheaper than dog food. Less than ten years ago, fried chicken was an honored guest at the family dinner table, usually reserved for the Sunday feast. Today, it is an economy meat beyond even desire — of the budget-conscious housewife; so cheap, in fact, as to often make the shopper turn it down in favor of something "better" for the family. And there's nothing better than chicken. Live broiler prices recently hit an all-time low of 11 cents a pound in Texas, and ready-to-cook prices have been correspondingly cheap — as low as 19 cents per pound in some supermarkets. Except in products which are in short, limited or controlled supply, pricing is generally done from the top downward — especially on a commodity that must be marketed at a certain stage of maturity. In other words, a "buyer's market" exists. The principle buyers of food products for retail in America today are supermarkets. When development of the commercial broiler industry proved that chickens can be grown efficiently, low in cost and of excellent quality, broilers became a "lead item" with the supermarkets. Chickens for years have been advertised at stores as week-end specials — which ready-to-cook prices have been correspondingly cheap — as low as 19 cents per pound in some supermarkets. The first trouble appeared when the broiler became treated as a step-child in the chain stores. They sold it at low or no profit, they cut prices to such an extent that the live market became gradually and progressively depressed — and they did it without demand or even expectation of the consumer. Why? How can this singular poultry price depression (which extends as well to turkeys and eggs) exist in an economy where other food items have remained stable or even risen contrastingly during recent years when poultry products have been in trouble? Can any-

LOCAL BUSINESS

Grocer Points to New Benefits

By MADGE BELL Record Staff Writer "There is no such thing as 'prime space' in newspapers. "Every advertiser benefits from everything in the newspaper. He buys the support of the whole newspaper. In contrast, he certainly can't draw benefit from a full day's run on radio or TV," comments one of the nation's leading food-store merchants. The grocer was speaking to a group of small retailers. He explained that everything in the newspaper lends some attraction to even the smallest advertisement. "We know that when the newspaper has good local coverage, good feature articles, or an interesting editorial page the content is part of our supporting program. "As a matter of policy our stores use full page displays, but we are aware that smaller advertisers get the same support we get," he said. "Ten, twenty, or thirty dollars, depending upon your local rates will buy you the attention value commanded by a whole newspaper. This makes every effective consumer in your community a potential reader of any newspaper ad. "What could you get with the same money in other media? An accidental audience of limited quantity? It could buy a few pieces of direct mail or circulars of even more questionable value. But some merchants continue to pour money down free running drains." The grocer added: "I challenge any smaller retailer to use a two inch newspaper ad consistently for two months. If you are convinced of its comparative superiority at the end of that time, I stand branded as a public liar."

SHINNERY PHILOSOPHER

Whose Footsteps Leading to Debt?

Editor's note: The Shinnery Flats Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Bone Hollow Creek discusses finances this week, personal and national. Dear editor: There are many things I don't understand about Washington, and I guess this is balanced out by the fact there are many things Washington doesn't understand about me, but when it comes to financial matters, Washington is pretty much in step with the rest of the country. I know it's customary to complain, if not yell and scream, about the amount of money Washington spends, but when you get right down to it Washington pretty well reflects the rest of us. For example, I was trying to scrape up enough money to buy a new picture tube for my television set — I could get along without television, everybody did fifteen years ago, but who does? — and it was straining my budget and to test my mind and cheer in ahead for a proper decision on this matter, I picked up a newspaper and ran across an article that made my decision easy. According to it, someone has a permanent debt ceiling for the country, back in 1944 Congress decided on a limit with spending but it

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

By VERN SANFORD

Texas' Gulf Coast is gaining quite a reputation for its fine ling fishing.

The ling, or cobia (which is the proper common name for the fish), is highly prized both for its fighting ability and its edibility.

On some sections of the Gulf Coast, the fish is known as the lemonfish. But let me tell you here and now the ling is no "lemon."

Little ones of 10 to 11 pounds will give you fits on light tackle, and the big 50 and 60 pounders can only be handled on heavy gear.

The world record for this fish is 102 pounds. But most ling caught in Texas waters will run around 30 to 40 pounds. Some 60 and 70 pounders are taken around the banks, far off shore.

Ling reach Texas waters late in the spring and hang around for the entire summer. It's interesting to note how they show up. It's always suddenly.

Usually the runs take place around the ends of piers and jetties. Little ling, those in the 10 to 15 pound class, arrive first. Big ones follow the "youngsters" by a week or two.

Early season runs actually never last very long. Once schools break up, you have to search for the fish.

Ling like to hang around buoys, boats, oil rigs and floating objects. When the coast has big invasion of seaweed, ling fishing is great. Outboarders can score well simply by running from one patch of seaweed to another.

"Fish around the patches and if there is a ling lurking in the shadows he'll come up to investigate your bait," say the old-time Gulf fishermen.

Actually you don't need to search out big floating objects. Often there will be a ling under so small an object as an old fruit box, a piece of lumber or a log.

The thing that makes ling fishing so exciting is the fact that quite often you can see the fish coming up to hit the bait. Tyro anglers on observing his long black torpedo shape in the water, usually will shout: "Shark!" But nine times out of 10 those "sharks" turn out to be ling.

Elishermen miss a lot of ling simply because they can see the fish moving in on the bait. They become excited and try to set the hook too soon. Actually they just snatch the bait away from the fish.

But if that should happen to you, don't worry. Just let the bait sink back into the water, for the ling will still be around. In fact, that ling will hang around until you catch him or he tears up your tackle.

Best practice to follow is to give the fish plenty of time to get the bait into his mouth before setting the hook. But be ready when you do bed that hook.

The bite of a hook in the ling's mouth creates the same reaction as opening the throttle of a jet engine. The fish will take off in a mighty run.

Be sure to have plenty of line on the reel to take care of a 60 or 70 yard run.

After the initial run, the ling will sulk. Then about the time you think the battle is won, or the fish sees your boat, it's off to the races again.

If the fish is a 50 or 60 pounder, be prepared for at least an hour-long battle.

Boats obviously hold no fears for ling. Engine noises won't spook the fish. And if you stomp on the bottom, you won't frighten the fish. Some commercial fishermen claim that "noise actually attracts the fish."

Sometimes ling can be mighty particular about taking a bait. I've seen them around partyboats. They nose bait after bait before taking one.

Best baits are shrimp, squid and small fish. Ling will hit artificial lures, but it usually takes a lot of teasing. To begin with you have to work the lure slow and in a very erratic manner.

At times however, the floating diving lures are deadly.

Cast out the lure, and allow it to remain motionless on top of the water for 10 or 15 seconds. Then jerk and reel fast so it will dive three or four feet deep. Stop and allow it to wiggle back to the surface. Keep this up all the way to the boat.

Your ling strike will usually come when the lure is slowly wiggling back to the surface. And a good many of your strikes will come within 15 or 20 feet of the boat.

Ling don't have sharp enough teeth to cut a leader. But all the same, use a wire leader for quite often when you're fishing for ling, you'll get kingfish. In addition to being an excellent game fish, the ling is choice eating. Big ling can be cut up into steaks, and there are many who claim ling steaks are far superior to the famous and expensive swordfish steaks.

If you haven't tried fishing for ling, don't pass up a chance this summer. Just fish around the buoys, lighthouses, oil rigs — any floating flot-sam and jemsam you can find.

And — remember — when you see that black torpedo near your boat, don't mistake it for a shark. It's more than likely a ling.
