Homecomings! Westbrook exes gather

By Tom Jay Goss II

"It's west of the brook—we'll call it—we'll call it, Westbrook!"

That may not be the way it happened in real life, but that's the way it happened in the clever skit by Charles Parnell, put on by Westbrook students for the Westbrook Homecoming.

The brook was the Colorado River and the questioner was a Texas & Pacific official, who wondered what the place was.

The Homecoming program came after the noon meal (where they fed 550 people) and played before a capacity crowd. The little auditorium was full, the aisles were full, a space behind the seats was elbow to elbow with standees and the lobby was full.

In terms of people, the Homecoming was a huge success. The old school building, the gym and the auditorium were crowded with old grads.

Registration began Friday and continued Saturday. Following visiting and class reunions, a catered noon barbecue meal was served to a crowd of more than 550 people in the school gym on Saturday.

The program started with the singing of the National Anthem, led by former student, Dwayne Clawson of Coahoma, and accompanied by Mrs. Charles Ranne. Invocation was given by Raymond Hollis, principal of the Westbrook School. L. M. Dawson, superintendent, gave the welcome. Master of ceremonies was Trey Smith, former student.

A highlight of the entertainment was the original skit, "Westbrook, the Name," written by a former teacher, Charles Parnell, about the naming of Westbrook. Indians, pioneers, businessmen, and railroaders all liked the spot "west of the brook" and so the town was named, according to the skit. Students taking part were Narrator-Scooter Hines; Indian No. 1-Cary Pierce; Indian No. 2-Jeran Ware; Indian Boy-Jeff Hill; Male Pioneer-Jeffrey Conway; Female Pioneer-Shana Smith;

Baptists hold reunion

About 300 people attended the homecoming service held at the First Baptist Church of Westbrook on Sunday. This year marked the 95th anniversary of the church. A former pastor, the Rev. S. L. Yeilding, of Wellington, delivered the sermon.

A catered lunch was served to guests in the high school gym following the special service.

Four former pastors and their wives were recognized, along with former and current deacons, church officers, and teachers. The former pastors included the Rev. Yeilding and his wife, the Rev. and Mrs. Frank Hodnett and family of Carlsbad, N.M., the Rev. and Mrs. L. B.

Edwards of Odessa, and the Rev. and Mrs. David Crow of Melrose, N.M.

After the prelude, played by Mrs. W. D. Whitesides, the pastor, the Rev. Bob Manning, welcomed the guests.

Mrs. Rex McKinney of Westbrook gave the church history, and Mrs. Opal (Wilson) Powell of Sweetwater played a piano selection.

Special music was presented by Mrs. Sue (Bell) Sengstock of Fullerton, Calif., and Tommy Sloane, La Feria, both former members of the church.

Also presenting special music were Wayne and Sue Pierce of Westbrook.

The choir, under the direction of Wayne Pierce, sang a patriotic medley. Accompanists were Mrs. W. D. Whitesides, organist, and Mrs. Charles Ranne, pianist.

The Clawson family, consisting of C. E. Clawson of Corpus Christi, Mrs. Louise Miller of Oklahoma City, Okla., Mrs. LaRue Findeisen of Corpus Christi, and Laverl Sullivan of Odessa, all former members, presented vocal selections.

Eddie Ranne, also a former member of the church, now living in Lewisville, presented vocal selections. He was accompanied on one solo by his mother, Mrs. Charles Ranne.

Council fires city secretary

By Ray Mayo
Editor

The Colorado City Council, during a called meeting Tuesday night, voted unanimously to fire city secretary Rita Espinoza because of misuse of funds and insubordination.

The council action came following a pre-termination hearing in which Mrs. Espinoza was present although she did not respond to the charges at the advice of her attorney.

City Manager Brenda Tarter recommended terminating the employment of Mrs. Espinoza. Mrs. Tarter said that the misuse of funds violated both Mrs. Espinoza's bond and oath of office. Specific instances cited by Mrs. Tarter during the hearing included:

—"Check No. 105 for $100—Dora Campos written to Rita Espinoza, cashed at city hall and twice returned by the bank marked not sufficient funds. Rita was allowing her sister to make partial payments for restitution. $25 remains unpaid."

—"Check No. 1202 for $40—Rita wrote made out to no one with an attached note of 'hold till 6-21-85' and initialed 'R'. It is not the policy of this office to hold checks for future payment."

—"Check No. 900 for $60—Signed by James Goss, a brother-in-law, made out to no one with an attached note of 'hold till 6-19-85'."

There were six specific items concerning the insubordination charges, explained Mrs. Tarter. Those included:

—"Rita failed to report to work or to contact her supervisor on March 19, 20, 21, 22, 25, 1985."

—"A problem with inability to pay an invoice from a designated account in the amount of $29,768.55 was reported to me after she had openly discussed it with other office personnel and city staff."

—"On 1-9-85 I issued a directive to daily account and balance the Corporation Court fine money because of a shortage problem we had encountered. This directive was ignored."

—"No reports of office procedures were given."

—"Failure to report missing records, namely Ken Farrow's (former police chief) payroll records."

WTC scholarship honors Mahons

SNYDER—A scholarship program honoring George and Helen Mahon of Colorado City has been established at Western Texas College.

An area family established the program with an anonymous gift of $1,000. Additional gifts have raised the fund to almost $3,000—before public announcement of the program.

"Helen and I are pleased and humbled by this scholarship program begun in our honor," observed Mahon, who served in state and national public offices for some 52 years, including 44 years as a United States congressman.

Proceeds of the program will be used to provide tuition scholarships for graduates of Colorado High School, Loraine High School and Westbrook High School. Other residents of Mitchell County also will be eligible.

"Western Texas College can never expect a higher honor than to have the Mahons' endorsement of a scholarship program," observed Dr. Don Newbury, WTC president.

Mahon was guest speaker at the ground-breaking ceremony for Western Texas College in November, 1970, and was principal speaker for the dedication of the college in April, 1972.

As a congressman, Mahon was a member of the U.S. House of Representatives from November, 1934, when he was elected to the 74th Congress, until his retirement in 1978.

Now residing in Colorado City, Mahon was one of the most powerful and most influential members of the House of Representatives. When he retired, he was dean of Congress, with only six persons having served longer.

Mahon represented the 19th Congressional District (it was created in 1934)—sprawling from the New Mexico border to Haskell County—and consisting of Andrews, Borden, Cochran, Crosby, Dawson, Floyd, Gaines, Garza, Hockley, Lubbock, Lynn,

Juneteenth celebrated

Mitchell County's official Juneteenth Celebration ended Sunday about 5 p.m., although some of the unofficial part spilled over through Monday.

Howard Nelson of Colorado City, who was one of those to make the Celebration a success, said that the musical program planned for Sunday included individual and group singing and ended at 5 p.m.

On Saturday morning, Gladys Gerst, a member of the Sweetwater City Commission and head of the organization, People for Progress, Inc., was the principal speaker. Ms. Gerst was notified last week that PPI had received a grant of $672,863 for public transportation for Sweetwater and the surrounding area.

The grant is from the Depart-

County eyes JP reduction

County Commissioners met at 8 a.m. Monday to discuss the offices of Justice of the Peace and Constables and although no positive action was taken, the consensus of opinion was to reduce the number of both.

Commissioners are thinking of one JP precinct, embracing the whole county, with two places, Place 1 and Place 2, and one constable. All three positions would be elective.

The consolidation would save money for the taxpayers. The four JPs in office will cost the taxpayers $55,160, this year if salaries stay the same. They handled 430 cases last month.

Commissioners feel that two JPs can handle the load at a considerable savings in salaries.

Judge Bill Carter had some questions to ask the Texas Attorney General before final action is taken.

Martin, Midland, Motley, Scurry, Terry, and Yoakum counties.

Mahon became a member of the House Appropriations Committee in 1939 and began his service on the War Department Subcommittee in 1940. In 1949 all defense appropriations were consolidated into one Defense Appropriations Bill, and Mahon became chairman of the Subcommittee.

Chairman of the Joint Senate-House Committee on Reduction of Federal Expenditures, he also served on the President's Commission on Budget Concepts in 1968. He was a member of the Board of Regents of the Smithsonian Institution of Washington, D.C., one of the foremost scientific organizations in the world.

In May, 1964, Representative Mahon was elected to the position of chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, one of the important posts in government. As chairman of the Appropriations Committee for 14 years, Mahon practiced the art of compromise. His colleagues acknowledged that the congressman was adept at making compromises and wielded his power wisely.

Mahon was born on September 22, 1900, at Mahon, La., and was one of eight children of John Kirkpatrick and Lola Brown Mahon. In 1908 the family moved to a farm near Loraine.

He was graduated from Loraine High School in 1918 and continued his education at Simmons College, now Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene and the University of Texas Law School in Austin.

—"Repeatedly late for work." Mrs. Tarter explained to the council that "I had conferences with Rita on two different dates within the last six months requesting her to do her job. Better office management, improved accounting methods and tardiness were discussed."

Mrs. Espinoza asked for a post-termination hearing. That hearing, the time and date to be agreed upon by the city attorney and her attorney will be heard by the city council. At that meeting, the city as well as Mrs. Espinoza will have a right to call witnesses and admit evidence as well as have attorneys present.

mons College, now Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene and the University of Texas Law School in Austin.

On December 21, 1923, Mahon was married to his high school sweetheart, Helen Stevenson. Mahon has a married daughter, Daphne (Mrs. Duncan) Holt, of Dallas, and three grandchildren.

Mahon emphasizes that Helen has been a vital team member during their more than 50 years in public service. She was graduated in the same senior class at Loraine High School in 1918, and she attended Southwest Texas Normal College (now Southwest Texas State University) in San Marcos, and College of Industrial Arts (now Texas Woman's University) in Denton. She is one of five children of the late Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Stevenson of Loraine. She taught public school five years, including posts at Aransas Pass and Tahoka. Mrs. Mahon has shared many honors with her husband. In 1958, she was asked to christen the launching of the U.S.S. Skipjack, an early nuclear-powered submarine.

In 1924, Mahon earned his bachelor's degree from Simmons College and in 1925 received a law degree for the UT Law School.

Mahon began law practice in Colorado City in 1925. His career in public life began in 1926 when he was elected county attorney of Mitchell County. A year later he was appointed district attorney for the 32nd Judicial District and was subsequently elected to that office three times.

Mahon has received honorary degrees from Waynesburg College, Pennsylvania; Wayland Baptist University, Plainview, Texas; Texas Tech University, Lubbock; Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene; and Pepperdine College, Los Angeles. In 1963 he was presented with the Congressional Distinguished Service Award of the American Political Science Association at the annual meeting of the organization in New York City, and in 1969 received the George Washington Award of the American Good Government Society.

The George Mahon Elementary School in Lubbock was named in his honor in 1973. The George and Helen Mahon Library, Lubbock, was named in honor of him and his wife in 1974.

Mahon served with eight presidents—Franklin Roosevelt, Harry Truman, Dwight D. Eisenhower, John Kennedy, Lyndon Johnson, Gerald Ford, Richard Nixon, and Jimmy Carter.

Mahon pointed out that one of the few disappointments of his career was that he was unable to do more to curb government spending. His reputation was always one of fiscal conservative, and throughout his career he preached fiscal responsibility.

"As college tuition continues to increase, scholarships will become more and more essential for many students," said Charles Uselton, Superintendent of Colorado Independent School District. "The establishment of this scholarship program is indeed good news for graduates of Colorado High School and residents of Mitchell County."

It is hoped that scholarships from this program will be available, effective with the 1986-87 school year.

"Helen and I have been closely identified with WTC since its beginning, and we predict continued growth and development of the institution," Mahon observed. "We are delighted with the college's progress to date."

Persons desiring to contribute to the scholarship fund should make checks payable to Western Texas College. Additional information is available by calling 915-572-8511, ext. 309.

Pipeline applications OK'd

AUSTIN—Railroad Commission Chairman Buddy Temple has announced that 12 permits to operate new pipelines in Texas were granted by the RRC in May. In April, the Commission also approved 12 permits.

Nine of the new permits were for gathering pipelines, two were for trunk transmission lines, and one was for a gas plant line.

Gathering lines bring oil and gas from production leases, while a trunk transmission line is a larger diameter line into which smaller lines connect. At gas plants, natural gas is stripped of the liquid hydrocarbons usually present in gas as it is produced from a well.

In May, two permits each were granted to operate pipelines in Southeast Texas (District 3), East Texas (District 6), and the Panhandle (District 10); and one each was granted for deep South Texas (District 4), East Central Texas (District 5), West Central Texas (District 7B), the San Angelo area (District 7C), the Midland area (District 8), and the Lubbock area (District 8A).

Gathering lines approved: Mineral Projects, Inc., Houston, gas, Webb County; Tex-Western Pipeline Inc., Pampa, gas, Moore County; A. B. Hobbs, Inc., San Angelo, gas, Coke and Tom Green counties; Cubano Enterprises, Inc., Houston, gas, Fayette County; Cokinis Natural Gas Co., Houston, gas, Polk County; M & P Pipeline, Inc., Henderson, gas, Rusk County; Walls Energy & Gas Transmission, Pampa, gas, Moore County; Southern Petroleum Co., Elhart, gas, Navarro County; Richey & Co., Inc., Fort Worth, gas, Eastland County.

Trunk transmission lines approved: Esperanza Pipeline Corp., Dallas, gas, Sterling County; Cibola Oil & Gas Corp., Temple, gas, Harrison County.

Gas plant line approved: JUSTCO, Big Spring, gas, Scurry and Mitchell counties.

Mr. and Mrs. Olen Lee went to Quanah Friday and spent the night and accompanied her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Young and attended the reunion.

Blood drive set June 26

The community of Colorado City is being asked to join in June 26 to help their fellowman by donating a pint of blood. The blood drive will be held at the Housing Authority Building, 439 Oak Street, between 1 p.m. and 6 p.m.

The body is constantly producing new blood cells. In a blood donation, a little less than a pint of blood is taken. That equals about 10 percent of the blood in an average person. The body can easily lose a pint of blood with no ill effects, say Ben Bell and Barbara Geiger of the Root Memorial Hospital.

Pharmacy Footnotes

by Eddie Piland, R.Ph.

The "New Pill"

The Pill has changed. Today's version is made with only a fraction of the estrogen and progestin found in the original. That dosage drop is crucial to safety. Studies show that high hormone levels caused a large increase in cardiovascular problems. Reports so far on the low-dose combination Pill used since 1979 indicate that it does not duplicate the former problems. Low-dose Pills contain 50 micrograms or less of estrogen and one milligram or less of progestin. Research continues and, in the last year, two new types have become available. They are biphase and triphasic Pills. They differ from the standard combination Pill by varying hormones doses once or twice with each monthly cycle. The idea is to adjust the estrogen and progestin to normal hormonal fluctuations.

Loraine B&PW installs officers

The Loraine B&PW Club met in regular meeting at the Lions Club Monday night. Officers for the new year were installed and resume of the club year given. Eighteen were present.

Bertha Faye Snyder led in the collect.

In giving the summary of club work for the year, Billie Ruth Tarrt reported the membership was equalized for the year. Some of the speakers for the year were Superintendent Glen Sanders reporting on the new school bill; the club sponsored the purchase of a new air conditioner for the Lions Club, which terminated when the United Methodist Church gave the Lions one, and the club drive collected enough to have it installed.

Also Judge Carter, Joan Merket, Fay Lee and Ann Hallmark, spoke on politics of the county and duties of their individual offices. Several members attended the district meeting in San Angelo. The club gave a Christmas tree to the Loraine Rest Home and they gave a welcome package to 13 new residents in Loraine. Rodney and Ann Hallmark gave a new sign for the Loraine City Park. Bobby Graham had met with the club at one of their meetings and gave a demonstration on how to fix a flat tire and other tips on driving a car.

The club gave a party for the Loraine senior girls and their mothers in the home of Dorothy Johnson and gave a scholarship to the outstanding girl of the class.

Completing this report, Dorothy Johnson installed the following officers for the new year: Sally Compton, president; Ann Hallmark, vice president; Juanice Butler, treasurer and Iris Preston, secretary.

Hostesses for the meeting were Bertha Fay Snyder, Ann Hallmark and Lolay Faye Bennett. Two guests were welcomed, Christine Britton and Jeanine Rundell.

Texas Farmer Union proud of productive year

AUSTIN—Citing victories over a variety of big money, special interest groups, the Texas Farmers Union has closed the books on one of their most productive legislative sessions ever. The major battle of the 69th Texas Legislature for family farmers was the efforts of some lenders to do away with the century-old provision of the Texas constitution that protects a family's homestead from seizure if they fail to pay a debt, according to Joe Rankin, President of Texas Farmers Union.

"Another legislative session has passed, and the big money lenders that would like to be able to mortgage your homestead for a vacation or appliance loan have failed again," says Rankin.

"The idea has always been bad legislation, and the years haven't changed anything. Current Texas law prevents any citizen from losing his home, except for failure to pay his taxes or original mortgage. The changes that lenders would like to see would allow you to go down to the pawn shop and sign away your home for a small loan. The coalition of groups that TFU worked with included older citizens, labor, and consumer organizations; all of these plus family farmers helped prevent the passage of bad legislation."

In addition, Rankin claimed victory with the passage of state Representative Pete Patterson's Farmers Land Program, a similar program to the Veterans Land Program which is administered by the General Land Office under Land Commissioner Garry Mauro. The farm land program would help farmers purchase land at low interest rates, but is contingent upon voter approval this November.

"Through the diligent efforts of Rep. Patterson, we have a chance to provide direct, low-interest loans to farmers so that they can buy land; this is particularly beneficial for young farmers just starting out. But we can't emphasize enough the need for voter approval in November; without that, there can be no financing of the program," says Rankin.

In the same area, TFU was instrumental in passing legislation sponsored by Senator Ted Lyon and state Representative Steve Carriker that provide more realistic eligibility requirements for the Family Farm and Ranch Finance Program, administered by Texas Department of Agriculture.

"Ted Lyon and Steve Carriker did yeoman duty passing that bill; and it was valuable legislation. Original language for eligibility in the loan program was too restrictive—now, thanks to the efforts of Lyon and Carriker, many more farmers can receive those guaranteed loans," says Rankin.

Additional legislative success for the state's largest family farmer group was in the passage of a budget for the Senior Texans Employment Program, the passage of a state-wide water plan for all aspects of Texas business and industry, and the defeat of all legislation designed to limit the growth of the fledgling ethanol industry in Texas.

Cotton improvements continue

Long-term changes in weather patterns played no part in preventing U.S. cotton yield improvements during the past 20 years, according to a special Cotton Foundation yield and productivity study.

Interim findings indicate that even though there have been reports of changing rainfall patterns, slightly lower temperatures, and a shorter growing season in some areas of the Cotton Belt since the mid-1960's, the effects did not significantly hamper cotton yields.

The study was prompted by the concern that even though growers generally have been using better management practices and improved cotton varieties on better soils, yield trends over the past 20 years have not improved though there are wide year-to-year variations. Prior to the mid-1960's, there was a steady annual improvement in yields.

"At this stage of the analysis, weather cannot be implicated for this long term of static yields," said Dr. Andy Jordan, director of technical services for the National Cotton Council. "Other factors will have to be considered."

The Council is overseeing the study, which was initiated in the spring of 1984 to find out why cotton yields have not improved and to systematically sort out factors thought to contribute to the yield plateaus. Project sponsors are Deere & Company, FMC Corporation, and Shell Chemical Company.

The study's approach is unique in that it uses a computer program to simulate the growth processes of cotton. Since about four crops can be "grown" to maturity in about an hour, scientists can quickly vary inputs such as rainfall, solar radiation, or soil compaction, and thus observe the simulated effect on the crop.

"The cotton plant is so complex from a mathematical standpoint that the human brain simply can't keep track of the thousands of calculations needed to predict effects of inputs to the crop," said Dr. Don Baker, research leader for USDA's Crop Simulation Lab at Mississippi State University.

Baker was instrumental in developing the crop simulation computer program being used in this study.

"This will really accelerate testing," said Bob Wismer of Deere & Company. "You've got to know what the problem is before you can fix it. After we get clues as to what is cutting yields, Deere's real interest is what can we do to turn the situation around."

"Our primary reason for participating in this study is our desire that the U.S. cotton producer regain his ability to compete for fiber markets worldwide," said FMC Corporation's Dr. Susan Wendler. "FMC is an important supplier of chemicals for growing cotton, and we all have a stake in a healthy future for cotton."

Dr. Virgil Cunningham, Shell Chemical Company, agrees.

"By participating in programs such as this, we are helping to assure a sound future for the cotton industry. Increasing productivity is truly a competitive necessity for cotton's long-term viability and Shell wants to be part of assuring that success," he said.

Data used in the study was gathered during the past 22 years from annual cotton-yield trials across the Cotton Belt including the Mississippi Delta, the Brazos district of Texas, the Texas High Plains, Arizona, California's San Joaquin Valley, and the Southeast.

The study was prompted by numerous discussions among experts. In meetings over the years, many have said that weather has changed significantly during the growing season. Some claim progressively heavier equipment is a major limiting factor to needed yield increases while others feel the buildup of herbicides and changing insect pest management strategies are the culprits.

Most cotton scientists do agree that cotton yields have not improved due to a complex interaction of these environmental and management factors.

Jordan said many people have speculated that one of the causes has been the long-term buildup of pre-plant incorporated grass herbicides in the soils. The preliminary report, however, gives no evidence this has had negative effects on yield. In fact, a bad grass infestation would hurt yields a lot worse than the herbicide effects being simulated in the study, he said.

"That's not to say, though, if a producer doesn't follow the recommendations for herbicide application, it won't hurt his crop," Jordan said. "Based on assumptions used in our study, applying dinitroaniline pre-plant herbicides at high rates and deeper than the recommended level would cause 'root pruning' of the cotton plant. Decreasing the number of lateral roots reduces the plant's capabilities for nutrient and water uptake, thus stunting its yield potential."

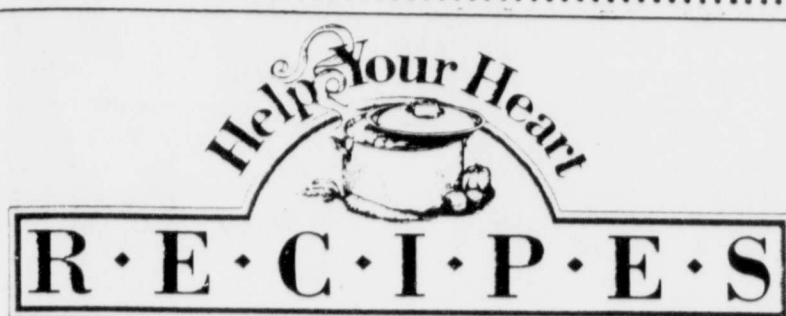

"However, in some climatic and moisture scenarios, root pruning in the upper layer actually boosted yields," Jordan said. "That's one good reason why we need the computer simulation...so we can predict more precisely what affects the cotton plant under a given set of conditions."

The yield and productivity study also is gathering data on insect damage, air pollution, and tillage practices in an effort to unravel the mystery of the static yields.

"In similar analyses, deep soil compaction has been shown to decrease yields," said Dr. Frank Whisler, a Mississippi State University soil scientist.

A "hard-pan" or layer of compacted soil can be formed on some soils in just a few years by the pressure of heavy farm equipment. This can present a barrier to root penetration and reduce the plant's nutrient and water uptake capacity, he said. During a wet year, compaction may not be a factor, but during a dry year breaking up the compacted layer could mean the difference between a profit or a loss.

Jordan emphasized data collection was the primary goal of the first half of the study, and all findings to date are preliminary. A final analysis of the yield and productivity study will be completed in the latter half of 1986.

First Baptist upsets St. Ann's No. 1

Headlining Mitchell County Church League softball play Monday night was an 11-10 upset loss by St. Ann's No. 1 to third place First Baptist.

St. Ann's entered the contest in first place with a 12-2 record but the loss knocked the Catholics into second and a half game behind the Calvary Baptist Scrubs, who won in another Monday night game to move to 12-2.

The St. Ann's vs. First Baptist game saw the lead change hands several times before the Baptist came up with a three run last bat to take the victory.

St. Ann's led 3-1 after one inning, then tied the game at 4-4 in the bottom of the second. St. Ann's added another run the next inning and the 5-4 score held until First Baptist struck for four fifth inning scores after the first two batters had been put out.

St. Ann's got one of the runs back in the bottom of the inning and retook the lead with four runs scored in the bottom of the sixth.

With the score 10-8 in St. Ann's favor, the First Baptist Saints came up with three in the seventh then held St. Ann's scoreless in the bottom of the inning to secure the victory.

The victory gave First Baptist a 9-5 record and sole possession of third place.

Danny Biggs reached base on all four at-bats to lead First Baptist while Marvin Mayfield and Pete Parham went three for four.

Dennis Rivera and Jimmy Mendoza reached base every-time at bat as did Joe Fraco while To's Reyes and Israel Franco went three for four.

Taking advantage of St. Ann's falter were the Calvary Baptist Scrubs, who defeated Christian Temple 13-3 to take over first place.

The Scrubs never trailed in the contest, but the game wasn't decided until the top of the sixth inning when the Scrubs extended a 6-3 lead to 13-3.

Dawayne Iglehart batted three for four with an infield homerun to lead the Scrubs while Jarly and Yardy Powell also hit three for four.

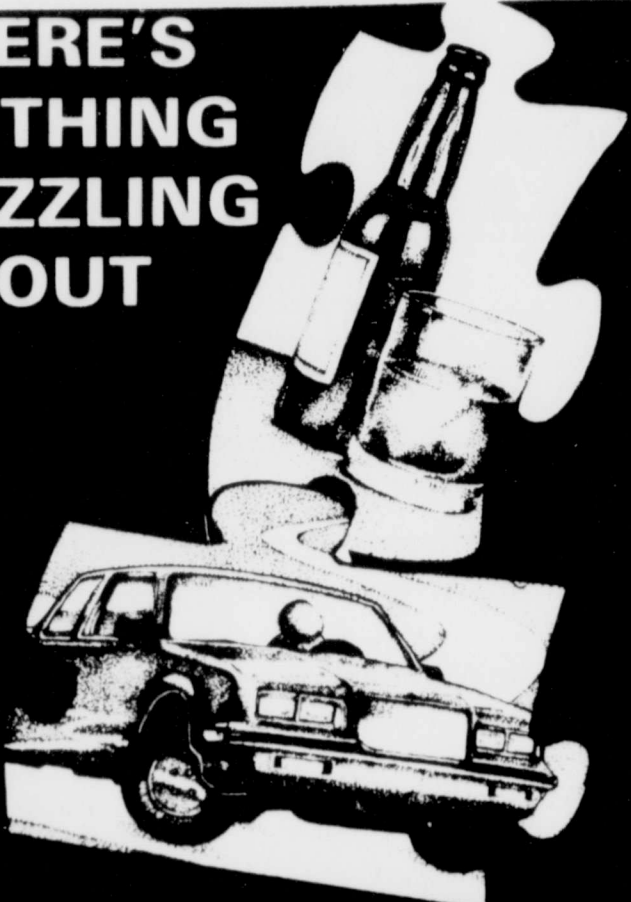

Ending the evening's schedule was a 14-7 First Methodist victory over the St. Ann's Lowriders. The win upped the Methodist's record to 8-5 and into fourth place, a half game behind the 9-5 First Baptist Saints. The Lowriders fell to 8-7 with their fourth consecutive loss.

A big fifth inning made the difference for the Methodists as they scored eight runs to overcome a 7-6 deficit.

Randy Anderson hit a home-run for the Methodist cause while Bill Baum went four for five. Woody Anderson, Wylie Dakan and Joey Wright went three for four.

Benny Arispe went three for three to lead the Lowriders and going two for three were Bobby Arispe and Ernest Aguilar, who included an infield homerun.

THERE'S NOTHING PUZZLING ABOUT IT.

Rangers take 1st in little league

Little League baseball play over the weekend saw a Freshman League scramble that ended with the Rangers taking over first place while the number of undefeated Minor League teams was reduced to two.

The Rangers defeated the 1-5 Dodgers 12-11 in a 6 p.m. game played last Friday night. The win gave the Rangers a first place 4-1 record but three teams are right on their heels.

In second place are the Astros, who were in first place prior to Monday night's 20-11 loss to the Pirates. The loss dropped the Astros to 5-2.

The Pirates are tied for third with a 4-2 record along with the Indians, who defeated the Pirates 5-4 in another Friday night game.

Pitching for the first place Rangers in Friday night's victory over the Dodgers was Avan Ceballos, who also added a homerun.

Ceballos' homerun came in the first inning where the Rangers struck for five runs. The Rangers increased the lead to 7-3 in the bottom of the fourth, but the Dodgers came back to tie it up at 7-7 in the top of the fifth.

In the bottom of the inning, the Rangers scored four to lead 11-7 but again the Dodgers fought back to tie it up at 11-11 in the top of the sixth.

Justin Sullivan brought in a run in the bottom of the sixth to break the tie and win the game.

After the Ranger victory, Rudy Melendez pitched the Indians to a 5-4 win over the Pirates.

The Indians led all the way after collecting one run in the first and two in the third off run scoring hits by Chad Moore and Jason Lawson.

Cade Proctor led the Indians offensively with three for three batting and two runs scored. Moore also batted three for three while Melendez and Frank Briseneno went two for three.

The Pirates made a game of it with three runs in the fifth. Though they fell short, the Pirates made up for it with their 20-11 Monday night victory over the previously first place Astros.

Mark Monroe and Bobby Silva combined their pitching for the victory and leading the offense with four for five batting were Monroe, catcher Gabriel Salazar and Silva, who also hit a homerun.

Losing pitcher was Chris Williams.

White Sox, Colts display power

The VFW Post 9178 White Sox and the Mitchell County Farm Bureau Colts put on a show of power during Texas Junior Teenage League baseball Thursday night.

The White Sox, unbeaten after five games and possibly headed for a return trip to the district tournament, had all but two players reach base enroute to hitting their way to an 8-3 victory over the Noon Lions.

Mark Russell led the White Sox show of power by hitting three for three and scoring two runs. Fellow outfielder Ray Rivera batted two for two while David Garcia hit two for three with two runs scored.

Perfect at the plate were Joe David Rodriguez and Mark Alvidrez. Greg Rodriguez went two for three.

Absorbing the loss was losing pitcher Mark Molina.

Winning pitcher Sam Garcia got into a little trouble himself before giving way to reliever Eddie Benitez, who began the game with a leadoff triple.

The Lions scored all three runs off Garcia in the fourth. After a Watlington single, Garcia gave up two walks then two earned runs on hits by George Rivera and Neal Ginkinger.

Benitez relieved for Garcia in the fifth. After walking the first three batters, Benitez struck out two of the next three to end the game.

Following the Sox victory was a 13-6 Colts victory over the Matlock Farm Supply Braves in which the Colts Ken Norman hit the league's first homerun, which landed in the street past the fence and was hit off losing pitcher Beau Rees.

Pitching for the winners were Ismael and Rene Silva and Norman, who was credited with the win.

The Braves were leading 5-1 going into the fifth inning. It turned out to be the turning point as the Colts batted around the line-up and included Norman's shot off a Rees fastball.

Minor league Cubs remain undefeated

In Minor League play Saturday, the Cubs remained undefeated with a 19-2 win over the Mets.

Zack Findley and Daniel Silva pitched for the win while Josh Franco scored in all three times at bat.

In another Saturday Minor League game, the Blue Sox also remained undefeated by handing the Colts their first loss with a 10-9 score.

The Colts were trailing 10-3 but fell one run short with a last inning rally.

Juan Ybarra and Adrian Martinez pitched for the victory while Adrian Garcia took the loss.

Library to show films

The Mitchell County Public Library will be showing several films on Saturday June 22, starting at 2 p.m.

"Mickey's Trailer," an eight-minute Disney film, features Mickey Mouse, Donald Duck and Goofy as they go for a holiday in Mickey's trailer with Goofy driving. But when Mickey announces breakfast is ready, Goofy leaves the car driverless. After a series of hair-raising near misses, road, car and trailer hook up again.

"Curious George Goes to the Hospital" is a 15-minute color film. Curious George, alas, swallows a jigsaw puzzle piece. In the course of its removal, he makes friends in the children's ward and learns much about hospitals. The film is based on the book by M. and H.A. Rey.

"The Merry-Go-Round Horse," an 18-minute color film, is a gentle told story without dialogue or narration. A small French ragamuffin falls in love with a beautiful merry-go-round horse and steals a waiter's tip for just one ride. But the horse is sold to a fleamarket, then bought by a wealthy boy who abuses it. The waif rescues his wooden friend and through his tender care, it magically comes to life.

ACU is offering family ministry course

ABILENE—The Marriage and Family Institute at Abilene Christian University will offer a "Family Ministry" course Aug. 12-16 taught by Dr. Royce Money, associate professor of the institute.

"Family Ministry" is especially designed for those interested in beginning or improving a ministry to families in their congregation. Areas covered will include family enrichment in the church and community; meeting family needs in a modern world; and motivation, training and utilization of church volunteers.

The course may be taken for credit or audited. The cost for auditing will be $142.50. If taken for credit, the cost will be $282.

On-campus housing will be available in Sikes Dormitory and the approximate cost of the rooms will be $5.75 per day per person.

Nix selected as pageant contestant

Kaci Daye Nix, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randy Nix of Midland and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Smith of Colorado City, has been selected to be a contestant in the 1985 West Texas Little Star Pageant to be held at the Midland Center July 19-20. Each contestant will be judged on poise, personality, appearance and interview.

The winner of the West Texas Little Star Pageant will receive a cash award, tiara, banner, a specially designed winner's plaque, an official portrait from the pageant photographer and numerous other prizes. The West Texas winner will advance to the Texas State Little Star Pageant to be held at the Registry Hotel in Dallas, on August 16-17. Winners from all 50 states plus the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico will be presented at the 1985 National Little Star Pageant held in October in Orlando, Fla.

The National Little Star Pageant is affiliated with the Miss National Teen-Ager Pageant, now celebrating its 14th year as the oldest teen pageant of its kind in the country. In total, the amount of cash awards, prizes and U.S. Savings Bonds given at the regional, state and national level for 1985 will be in excess of $150,000.

Kaci Daye is being sponsored by the Athletic Dept. Inc.

Other grandparents include Mr. and Mrs. Truman Nix of Waco, former Colorado City residents.

Findley attends workshop

Geneva Findley, business manager of the Colorado Independent School District, was among those attending the budget planning workshop in Austin in June.

More than 250 school districts sent representatives to the workshop to learn more about the newly mandated changes brought on by House Bill 72.

Mrs. Findley reports that taxpayers are notified that 15 percent penalty will be added to all 1984 taxes that are still delinquent July 1st. This is in addition to the regular penalty and interest currently being figured on these taxes.

High school students invited to attend camp

ABILENE—About 200 high school students will attend the fourth annual Camp Kadesh at Abilene Christian University beginning July 28.

Camp Kadesh, directed by Bob Strader, will be in session through Aug. 3. Kadesh is a Christian camp designed to be a time for teenagers to make a turning point in their lives. The camp offers leadership training programs in spiritual areas, art, music, drama and sports.

The daily camp schedule includes a variety of classes, group discussions and activities, devotionals, entertainment and "Kadesh Olympics."

A fee of $125 per person provides lodging for six nights, meals in the ACU cafeteria, medical insurance and the use of campus facilities, including those recreational activities.

Enrollment is not limited, and there is no entry deadline. For further information, interested persons should contact ACU's Kadesh office at 677-1911 Ext. 2412.
