Jester promised that "improvement in the physical establishment and administrative organization of the prison system could be anticipated during the next two years," noting that the appropriation for running the system during the next fiscal year provides a $721,406 increase over the current fiscal year.

"This increase will include one-half million dollars for new buildings and improvements and over $200,000 for increases in salaries of administrative personnel, guards and picket men," he said.

The Governor said he had no objection to Saturday's meeting being "open to the public" if that met with the board's satisfaction.

Housing Probe Is Continued

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—A federal grand jury which already has indicted two real estate organizations on anti-trust charges was called back into session today to dig deeper into the national housing price situation.

The national association of real estate boards and the Washington real estate board were accused of conspiring to fix commission rates on property deals in the district of Columbia.

Word that the investigation is far broader, however, came from H. Clifford Bangs, former president of the Washington board. After appearing before the grand jury as a witness, he said transactions in such places as Chicago and California also are under study.

The grand jury investigation began after Attorney General Clark ordered his anti-trust division to act against any conspiracies to boost housing, clothing and food prices. Commenting on the first indictments, Clark said in a statement:

"Our inquiry into the housing field indicates that artificial restraints on competition, such as those involved in this matter, bear a definite relation to present high housing costs."

The indictment charges the national association's code of ethics requires members of local boards to charge commissions set by the local. It alleges that since February, 1943, brokers' commissions on sales of houses here have gone up uniformly 25 to 50 per cent, depending on the price classification.

Red Cross Wants Permanent Home

Representatives of the Howard-Glasscock chapter of the American Red Cross started search Thursday for possible sites for a home for the agency, after a meeting Wednesday evening at which it was decided permanent quarters should be a goal.

A general moving of county agencies may result in demand by the county for the Red Cross quarters on Fourth street, and members of the chapter expressed the view that if a move is necessary, the ARC should endeavor to locate a site under a long-lease or purditional quarters soon for the exchange arrangement.

The staff is due to provide ad-panded county of the state highway patrol here, and officials plan on locating this office where the county library is now located. This would necessitate moving the library, and the Red Cross office has been considered for that agency.

No definite decision has been made. County Judge Walton Morrison has announced, but arrangements must be completed by early next month.

Public assistance in locating headquarters was asked by the Red Cross, and anyone with helpful suggestions is asked to call A. V. Karcher, chairman of the chapter.

WALL STREET
NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—A few stock market leaders edged forward today although many issues continued to suffer from lack of worthwhile bids.

The approach of the lengthy holiday inspired caution. Doubts regarding international problems, exports and domestic business persisted as selling arguments. Some buying activity was based on the idea that the list was in technical shape to register a good fall rally. Another batch of pleasing dividends boosted scattered stocks but was ignored by others.

Dealings slackened after a fairly active opening and mild irregularity rule near midday.

London Times Protests Labor Regime's Scattered Policies

LONDON, Aug. 28. (AP) — The independent and nationally influential London Times declared today that "the time has arrived for protest" against the labor government's failure to embark on a positive program to whip Britain's economic crisis.

"The positive side of the program remains as undecided as it was last February," said an editorial in the Times, which usually has supported the labor government since it came to power slightly more than two years ago.

"Never has a ministry fallen so far short of pent-up expectations in so many successive occasions as Mr. Attlee's government."

Like most other London newspapers, the Times did not complain about the ration cuts in food and gasoline and other restrictions announced last night in the government's new program of austerity aimed at bringing imports in closer balance with exports.

"Yesterday's announcements," the Times declared, "have all the air of another postponement of critical decisions. x x x

"This bit-by-bit approach to the heads of policy proclaimed by the Prime Minister three weeks ago simply means that the good will of the people is dissipated."

"For a second time, at least," the newspaper added, "the people of Britain were prepared yesterday for the most rigorous demand for sacrifices during the lean winter months ahead. Instead they have again been given a confused account of the several restraints which cannot be avoided, without any calculation of the net effect upon the standard of life of this reckoning, but for the positive program for industrial recovery they must wait."

The pro-government Daily Herald said "this harsh news should act as a fresh summons to hard work and patriotic action in every field of our national life."

The communist Daily Worker attributed the nation's economic plight to the government's foreign policy:

"Instead of concentrating every available worker on reconstruction the government chose to pursue a foreign policy which necessitated the maintenance of armed forces much greater in proportion to our population than those of the U. S. x x x x"

The Financial Times called the government's new austerity announcement "a bewildering document."

Ted Schroeder All For Pro Net Business

by HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.
NEW YORK, Aug. 28. (AP) — No one would suspect Ted Schroeder of shilling for pro tennis, even though it is generally expected that he is pro, Jack Kramer, will turn pro before another season. Ted is so amateur that he plans to hurry home after the Davis Cup matches this week-end without waiting for the national singles championships. He has his registration business, a family and a couple of tickets for the Rams-Ledskins football exhibition all waiting in California. Nevertheless Schroeder figures now is the time for the pros to get set on a sound basis. "The basis of really good tennis is international competition and there hasn't been any for several years," Ted explains. "Follows like Jake and myself are getting older and most of the younger players coming along haven't had the benefit of national play. This would be the time for the pros to stop deprecating amateur tennis and to show how well they can play. They ought to realize that they depend on the amateur game for new players."

Soon after the Detroit Lions pitched their training camp at Alma, Mich., Coach Gus Dorais decided to check up on observance of his eleven p. m. lights out rule. He tip-toed around and found everything quiet and dark until he reached his own room. Gus flicked a switch and curfew really began to ring, with bells clanging, buzzers sounding and the floor reverberating as 250-pound tackles fell from their bunks. Seems Gus had touched off the fire alarm instead of the lights.

Lobos Stopped By Hubs, 9-3

Albuquerque's Dukes were fairly secure today in the first division of the West Texas-New Mexico league as the clubs battled down the stretch for spots in the playoffs.

The Dukes beat Amarillo 3-1 last night while Pampa, which has been jockeying with Albuquerque for fourth place, took a 16-15 drubbing from Abilene in a 10-inning struggle.

Albuquerque now is two full games ahead of Pampa and is seriously threatening third-place Lamesa which lost to Lubbock 9-3. Lamesa is only a half-game ahead.

Leading Lubbock and Amarillo are cinches to be in the playoff. Clovis edged Borger 6-5 in the other game of the night.

The Abilene-Pampa game was a corker. It required three hours and thirty-three minutes to play it. Pampa got 19 bases on balls and Abilene 12. The clubs bashed out 39 hits and Pampa had 22 men left on the bases. Bob Bailey, Pampa first baseman, was walked six times.

South Texas Ranges Are In Good Condition

LAREDO, Aug. 28. (AP) — The ranges of south Texas ranches, especially in Webb, Zapata, Jim Hogg, Starr, LaSalle, Duval and other counties are in the best condition at this season in many years past, according to reports from ranchmen arriving in Laredo who say their cattle, sheep, goats, and other livestock are taking on weight rapidly.

The copious rainfall that has visited this section of the state since beginning the latter part of July and continuing throughout the month of August, have carpeted the ranges with growths of nutritious young grasses and various wild growth upon which livestock subsist.

The heavy rains also have filled to capacity many big tanks and watering places on the ranches of this section, assuring livestock a supply of water for the coming fall and winter seasons.

Doctors Say Middle-Agers Of Today Make Health Gains

AUSTIN, Aug. 28. (AP) — Today's middle-aged people—the "life - begins - at - 40" group—face some tough foes from a health standpoint, Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, said today.

Here's the line-up which most often takes a swing at the man or woman past 40: heart disease, cancer, kidney disease, high blood pressure, hardening of the arteries, apoplexy, diabetes and arthritis.

But middle-aged people of today are healthier than were those of preceding generations, and the present generation should enjoy even better health than their parents of today when they reach middle age, Dr. Cox said.

The health officer advised regular health examinations and quick attention to illness.

"Medical care in middle life has two important phases," he declared. "The first is going to the doctor at regular intervals for a complete checkup, whether or not there have been symptoms that suggest the need for medical attention.

"The second is prompt attention to any illness, since this may mean the difference between complete recovery and prolonged invalidism. It is difficult to say which of these phases is the more important."

During the same period the number of men employees increased from 1,081,700 to 1,835,100.

Newspaperman Writes All Day, Then Buries Self Behind Paper At Night

(Fifth in a series of six articles in which wives give a tongue-in-cheek sketch of the influence their husbands' occupations exert over the household—Ed note).

By Leatrice Ross

THE NEWSPAPERMAN
A pronounced example of the husband who never gets away from his work is the newspaperman, who after plodding pavements and beating a typewriter all day, comes straight into the house and retreats behind the pages of the evening paper. Mrs. Wacil McNair has contacted her husband's fear of errors on the news sheet and can no longer read the paper for information alone. Nor can she expect a calm ordinary evening out—finding herself sometimes following leads after fire engines and police cars. A newspaper reporter has regular hours every day, but often must "cover" an event after hours. This Mrs. McNair never finds disagreeable, for she often gains gratis entrance to the finest seat in the house along with her husband. Too, a person associated with the newspaper is well acquainted with many people. Mrs. McNair never finds herself lonely whenever they go out. "Mac," like all others in his profession, reads a great many different newspapers. He is familiar with all major events of the nation and world, and he is an avid sports fan. Few newspaper men go in for athletics, but they understand and appreciate practically every sport. A staggered routine keeps the reporter from becoming exhausted after his day's work, and his countless contacts keep him for the most part in an agreeable mood. Tomorrow: THE STUDENT. To Mrs. McNair being married Mrs. Winsett Nance speaks.

Secretaries Handle Duties Of Vacant Congressional Posts

WASHINGTON, (U.P.)—Two Texas Congressional districts have been without representatives for weeks, but in both situations veteran congressional secretaries are on hand to carry on the duties of office.

Since Congress is not now in session, they can handle about all of the problems that face a legislator in recess periods. Their work primarily is in the submission of various district matters to governmental departments. Contacts are made through phone calls, letters and personal visits to the numerous agencies.

Affairs of the Galveston district of the late J. J. Mansfield of Columbus are tended by Jules Leverett, 51-year-old native Galvestonian.

The El Paso area, which lost its congressman when Ewing Thomson resigned as a lawmaker to go on the Federal bench in the West Texas district, has its interests served by Mrs. Kate George. She has served congressmen from that district for almost 25 years.

The great Galveston flood of 1900 is one of Leverett's earliest and most vivid memories. He recalls seeing scores of bodies swept by the tides across the beaches near his boyhood home. His family, incidentally, has resided on Galveston Island since the days of pirate Jean Lafitte.

After two years in the Navy during World War One, Leverett went to work on Capitol Hill in 1919 with the then Congressman Claystone Briggs. He, too, has served continuously with the member representing his home district.

Both Leverett and Mrs. George are watching the outcome of the special elections of Aug. 23 which will determine who will serve as congressmen for their respective districts until the next regular elections. Both are willing to continue serving the new congressmen. Both are attending to their business and taking no hand in the pre-election campaigning.

Phenomena May Be Optical Illusion

Mysterious 'Canals' Of Mars Dodge Camera Of Scientist

AP Newfeatures
SAN FRANCISCO, (U.P.)—The mysterious "canals" on Mars have a tricky way of appearing and disappearing in a few seconds, Dr. Edison Pettit of Mt. Wilson observatory has noticed in a series of weird experiences while observing the strange markings on the red planet.

He thinks this phantom-like quality may be the reason some experts believe the Martian canals are only an optical illusion. For 70 years they have been a puzzle to astronomers. Only a few keen-eyed observers have reported seeing them. Of all the photographs taken of the planet not one indisputably shows canals.

Along with a lot of other astronomers, Dr. Pettit would like to have photographs actually showing the mysterious markings. He made a series of observations in an attempt to determine what would have to be done to catch the lines on a photographic plate.

With one eye at a small telescope and with sketch book and pencil in hands Dr. Pettit spent many nights making drawings of the planet's face. He didn't have much hope of seeing the canals but thought he might get an idea for using a camera.

That was back in 1939 when Mars was in a favorable position for observation, but the uncanny things he saw were reported only recently in the Publications of the Astronomical Society of the Pacific.

One morning about 1:30 o'clock when optical conditions were nearly ideal he saw a dark line shoot northward from a point near the Martian equator, starting like a wriggling bolt of lightning and steadying as it progressed, to a spot not far from the planet's north pole. The length of the streak appeared to be about 2,500 miles and it made the jump in less than a second.

Almost simultaneously a second dark line shot from another point south of the equator to the same spot near the north pole. A third one appeared almost as quickly. The three of them made a pattern something like the prongs of a pitchfork. A short time later a fourth line appeared.

Through a larger telescope Dr. Pettit later detected additional lines, some of which crossed, forming intersections which suggested oases in a desert. Some of the lines were twins, running parallel and close to each other.

He also noted that with the advance of the Martian season the large shaded areas of the planet's surface turned from green to brown. As the color changed new lines appeared against the brown background.

To photograph the pattern, Dr. Pettit said, exposures of not more than one second will have to be made. In terms of star photography that is unheard-of speed. Astronomical photographs require exposures sometimes lasting hours.

Dr. Pettit and an associate, Dr. Edwin P. Hubble, who will be in charge of the 200-inch telescope now nearing completion on Palomar Mountain, believe the huge instrument will produce the first photographs to show conclusively whether there are canals on Mars. They also think the Palomar giant will indicate whether Mars is inhabited by intelligent beings.

Rayburn Says U. S. Can't Escape War Anytime In Future

BONHAM, Aug. 28. (AP)—Rep. Sam Rayburn believes the nations of the world live so close together now that it would be impossible for the U. S. to escape participation in any future war.
In a talk before the Rotary club, he said that Americans should be patient, work and pray for the return of peace.
Rayburn said he saw no prospects of a depression for several years unless the people get scared and create one themselves.
He defended Truman's veto of the tax reduction bill and approved the loans to Greece and Turkey.

Soviets Warn Germans Against Fascist Acts

BERLIN Aug. 28. (AP)—The Soviet military administration, through its official newspaper, today sharply warned the Germans that several disorderly incidents in Berlin represented a resurgence of Nazism which "must be put down by the Germans or it will be done again by foreign powers."
The newspaper, Tagliche Rundschau, cited such recent incidents as the smashing of a monument to the victims of Nazi concentration camps, the desecration of Jewish cemeteries, the tearing down of placards posted by the communist-controlled socialist party and a demonstration at which a group of Germans reportedly sang the "Horst Wessel" song.
"This is no joke," the paper observed, "and it would be fundamentally false to try to pass these incidents off as thoughtless high-links x x x."
"It is the task of the Germans themselves to nip in the bud this new fascist threat. It would be the greatest misfortune for Germany if foreign powers were required to do the job again."

Colorado City Plans Expansion Of Fire Dept.

COLORADO CITY, Aug. 28.—In a meeting here this week police and fire committeemen of Colorado City's official board discussed again expansion of the police and fire departments. Aldermen R. H. Barber, Earl Bibbey, Bill Craddock, Mayor Peter Martin, and volunteer fire chief, Leonard Henderson in the meeting discussed the hiring of two new full-time fire truck drivers. Their addition, they pointed out in the meeting, will give the town credits toward lower fire insurance rates.
The new $7,500 fire truck is expected to arrive "just any day." City Secretary Ford Merritt reported, in discussing fire department expansion. Additional fire hydrants were included in the town's water, street, and sewer improvement master plan.
Arrangements for the employment of a desk man for the police force were also discussed by the aldermen in charge of that phase of city government. Further police force equipment is on the "expected any day" list. The force received new uniforms—their first—last week. Two-way communication systems between city hall police headquarters and cruising police cars are next on the ways and means calendar for the committee, members said.

Mitchell County 4-H Girls Will Attend A&M Meet

COLORADO CITY, Aug. 28.—Two 15-year-old Mitchell county 4-H club girls will attend the Texas 4-H Roundup at College Station, Sept. 4 and 5. Mrs. Mary K. Drummond, county home demonstration agent, has announced. The girls are Jolene Campbell and Winona Springfield. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Raymond McGee, club sponsor for Buford, and by Ronny Fee and Kenneth Dockrey, 4-H club boys who will also be delegates.

Jolene, a sixth year 4-H'er, began 4-H club work in the 5th grade as garden demonstrator and recreation leader. Since that time she has held office as vice-president, secretary-treasurer, and was this year club president. She has been demonstrator for garden, poultry, sewing, and bedroom improvement projects. She fed and fitted a calf two seasons and cleared $85.00 and $96.00 on her calf demonstration. This year she took first place in the county dress revue with a yellow linen suit, a pique hat and bag which she made. Her current main project is clothing.

Winona was recently chosen Gold-Star 4-H girl by the H. D. Council. Her selection was based on all-around achievement in all 4-H club work—clothing, gardening, poultry, recreation, camping. She is in her fifth year of 4-H work.

Operations Of Black Market In Europe Confuse Food Survey

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28. (AP)—Black market operations make it "difficult, if not impossible," for European nations to survey their food resources accurately, an agriculture department report contends.

The document, bearing a "confidential" label, was prepared for a congressional investigating committee yesterday to make a first-hand study of foreign needs.

A copy of the 97-page report was made available to a reporter. It provides a country-by-country summary of food and agriculture conditions throughout western Europe based on "the latest information available."

The foreword, however, says the report has been classified as confidential because "the production figures x x x for some countries will not agree with the official estimates supplied by the minister of agriculture."

No countries in this category were listed by name. But the report itself says that throughout Europe "government intervention is general" in the production, collection and distribution of most agricultural products.

"This intervention has been linked with a system of compulsory farm collections and fixed prices to farmers x x x."

"Because of the shortages of food, this system of distribution has made it profitable for farmers in most countries to market surplus products through black markets. Even the figures submitted to the international emergency food council (IEFC) probably are inaccurate in some cases, the report declares.

Only 200 copies of the report were printed, and each was numbered in an effort to preserve the secrecy.

The study did not cover countries in the so-called Russian sphere of influence and the report itself makes few references to political conditions.

Likes To Go Places

Beauford Jester Is Flyingist Governor

AP Newsfeatures

AUSTIN, Tex.—Texas Governor Beauford H. Jester likes to go places and do things—if he can ride in an airplane.

Jester, the amiable gentleman-farmer and lawyer who took office as governor of the Lone Star state in January, flew more than 15,000 miles during his first six months in office.

That probably makes him the flyingest governor in the nation. Certainly he is the flyingest governor Texas ever had.

He even took a helicopter ride to celebrate Army Air Forces day after flying over the state capitol in an Army transport to swear in a rookie—all the same day.

Jester flew in an Army plane to the national governor's conference at Salt Lake City and he made an air jaunt to Guatemala for his vacation.

If he holds to this rate, he will have flown 60,000 miles before his two-year term is up.

"If something is going on, I like to be there," he explained. "I want to see for myself what the situation is. A governor ought to know first hand what's going on. Texas is so big, the only way to do it and keep my desk at the capitol clear, is to fly."

In April Texas was torn by two major disasters—a tornado in Panhandle, and the Texas City explosion. Both times Jester went swiftly to the scene—by air.

A World War I experience gave him confidence in airplanes. He was a company commander in the 90th infantry division and was assigned as a liaison officer between his ground outfit and the 90th air squadron.

He made one traffic study flight in the Biercourt-Verdun region. That was the day after a dinner in which he admits he had said some things about air superiority that rankled the fliers. The same day, a group of grim-looking young pilots asked if he wanted to go for a spin over the German lines.

"All I could say was 'yes,'" Jester related. "They put me in a single-engine Sampson and the pilot was the daredevil of the outfit. We got through the anti-aircraft fire all right, then we spotted three Fokkers coming in fast.

"We took a 2,000 foot steep dive and hedge-hopped home. After we shook the Fokkers, this pilot went back up and put us through every trick in the bag. When we got back to the base, I had decided that airplanes were safe. I still think so."

The Canadian census of 1941 showed 372,000 more males than females in the country.

Youth Can't Stand Brooklyn

NEW YORK, Aug. 28. (AP)—Leonard Giordano, 13, would rather sleep back of a billboard in the Bronx, which reminds him of "the fields and trees in Maryland," than live with his parents in Brooklyn.

Moreover, the boy did just that for more than three weeks, said police who found the runaway last night. He had built a shelter behind a billboard, made a little money running errands, and spent a lot of time in the movies.

"I just want to get out of Brooklyn," young Giordano told police. "I can't get used to it. The only thing I like about it is the Dodgers."

Fred Giordano, Brooklyn carpenter, reported his son missing Aug. 5 and told police he might show up in the Capitol Heights section of Maryland, where the family lived until four years ago.

Detectives asked the boy if he liked the Bronx.

"It's much nicer than Brooklyn," Leonard said. "But I'd like Maryland better."

Game Wardens Gird For Dove Season

AUSTIN, Aug. 28. (AP)—No extra game wardens will be added during the mourning dove season, which begins next Monday in the Northern zone, executive secretary Howard Dodgen of the Game Commission said today.

However, wardens will be concentrated in the white dove zone during the three-day season—Sept. 13, 15, and 17—in the Valley country near the border, Dodgen added.

Approximately ten men will probably be shifted in that area to help enforce the 4 p. m. to sunset hunting regulations. This will nearly double the usual number of game wardens in the Valley area, Dodgen said.

He believed there was little need for more wardens in the mourning dove zones because "the hunting seasons there are plenty long to give everybody a chance to get some birds."

MONTGOMERY DOESN'T BELIEVE MODERN NATION NEEDS BIG ARMY

PARIS, Aug. 28. (AP)—Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery chief of Britain's imperial general staff, says he does not believe a modern power needs a big army.

"Many countries believe that the only solution is to have a strong army," Montgomery said at a dinner last night concluding the first day of a visit here as guest of Paris.

"I am not of that advice. It is necessary, in the first place, to develop national character and that is a question of education."

Montgomery added:

"If you want to estimate the strength of a nation, it is by the dispersal of its industrial potential that you can evaluate the possibilities of this nation to make war."

Storm Didn't Ruin All Of Rice Crop

GALVESTON, Aug. 28. (AP)—What is left of the rice crop in the Alvin area after suffering heavy storm damage still may be saved if weather favors the harvesting.

Nearly 90,000 acres of rice are in the area and only a small percentage was harvested before Sunday's tropical storm paid the crop a visit, causing thousands of dollars damage.

Farmers said that in all probability rice in the milk stage would be blighted and a complete loss, although many said they were optimistic at prospects of saving the ripened grain knocked down.

Citrus growers said they suffered heavy losses on an already predicted small crop.

Rainstorm Blamed For Plane Crash

EMORY, Aug. 28. (AP)—A blinding rainstorm was blamed today for the death of two Atlanta, Ga., men who were killed yesterday when their plane crashed in a heavily wooded area nine miles west of here.

The men were identified by Joe Hood, Emory undertaker, as J. R. Banks, Jr., 23, and Wesley Studdard, 24, both employes of the Southern Airways.

Hood said the plane apparently was caught in a wind and rain storm and was hurled into the ground. It was demolished.

The men, returning to Atlanta after a flight to Dallas, were married and each was the father of one child. Their bodies were to be returned to Atlanta.

Hunters Should Guard Against Shooting Poles

With 2500 telephone wires shot out of commission last year, the Southwestern Bell Telephone company today urged hunters to use care in shooting at or near its pole lines in the coming hunting season.

About one-third of all cases of trouble on open wire long distance telephone lines last year was traced to gunshot damage, D. N. Gaither, telephone company manager, said.

"Even good shots miss occasionally," Gaither said, "and a shot at a bird on a telephone line, or flying in front of it, may cut a wire and interrupt telephone service between towns until we can get men out there to repair it. Some important messages could be delayed."

Admitting that it might take a lot of will power to pass up a "fat" shot, Gaither said, "care and thoughtfulness on the part of hunters now will go a long way toward protecting the community's vital telephone service."

San Antonio Man Scales Mexican Peak

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 28. (AP)—The name of Donald Skaggs, San Antonio hotel owner, was on the list today of persons who have scaled the Popocatepetl volcano, 40 miles from here.

The peak is 10,300 feet above the level of Mexico City.

Skaggs, an amateur photographer, said the climb was "one of the most interesting adventures of my life."

Large Crowd Watches Nelson

A large gallery was expected at the Munny golf course this afternoon for a special exhibition in which Byron Nelson, top money winner in 1945 tournaments, was to be the chief figure.

Nelson was to tee off around 2:30 p. m. in a foursome which also included Billy Maxwell, Abilene, Texas Junior Champion, Foy Fanning, local Munny pro, and Jake Morgan, Big Spring city champion.

Morgan was to team with Nelson in the event. The exhibition was booked to precede the annual Big Spring Invitational Tournament, which gets underway tomorrow.

Local Team Awaits Trophy Skirmish At Country Club

Bob Satterwhite Wins 8th Spot

Bob Satterwhite won the eighth spot on the Big Spring Hall and Bennett trophy team in a swiftest with J. R. Farmer and Bill Crook at the country club Wednesday.

Satterwhite fired a three-over-par 75 to beat out Farmer by two strokes while Crook finished with a 78.

Other members of the Big Spring contingent, in addition to Captain Jimmy Moon, are Obie Erlow, Bill "Red" Roden, Jake Morgan, Charley Watson, Dub Prescott and Champ Rainwater.

The octet will meet a team of out-of-town niblick wielders led by E. C. Nix of Colorado City, Seminole, in a series of low-ball and low-total matches starting at 1:30 p. m. Nix has not yet announced his lineup but indicated last week it would include Raymond Marshall of Lubbock, the Big Spring Invitational golf tournament's defending champion, and Billy Maxwell of Abilene, the reigning State Junior champion.

The locals will be seeking to regain the huge mug won last year by a foreign contingent masterminded by Iverson Martin of Fort Worth.

In eight previous cup tests, the locals have succeeded in winning four times as have the visitors.

The Big Springers will probably be the under-dogs this time out, since Nix is bringing a powerful contingent into town.

Nix will be allowed to keep the big trophy for a year in event his team should win it.

OPPOSING CAPTAINS — E. C. Nix (above) of Seminole and Jimmy Moon (left) of Big Spring will serve as captains of the teams for the Hall and Bennett trophy matches, which will be played at the country club starting at 1:30 Friday afternoon. In eight previous tries, the home club has succeeded in winning four times and will be out to gain the edge in the series this time. (Photo by Jack M. Haynes).

DeVaney, Wash Show Up Well In Practice

Coaches Guests At Luncheon

Elvin Mathis' District Seven gridgers, who meet the best District Three has to offer in an All-Star Six-Man football game at Fort-San Friday night, engaged in their initial scrimmage Tuesday night in Sterling City and in the words of Coach Mathis, "all went well."

Wayne DeVaney, the speedy Comaha back and a unanimous All-District performer in 1946, and Gene Cope of Water Valley looked to advantage carrying the ball.

Bobby Wash and Charles Long, both of Forsan, and Billy Verne Davis of Sterling City, were the defensive standouts, while Dick Miers, Water Valley, and Harry Calverly, Garden City, clicked smoothly in the passing department.

Their principal target was Oscar Dorsey, who played a whale of a game for Mathis' Water Valley team last fall.

Mathis planned to have his youngsters working out every night this week and they should be in fair physical trim by the time they run into the District Three aces.

L. S. Sasser of Whiteface, the District Three mentor, has been working his charges regularly at home. The crew is scheduled to show up here for the American Business Club's coaching school Friday morning and converge on the Forsan field Friday afternoon for a limbering-up exercise.

Game time of the first annual classic is 8:15 p. m.

Lions' Grid Game Moved Up A Day

COMMERCE, Aug. 28. (P)—The East Texas State college Lions will play Sam Houston at Huntsville Oct. 31 instead of Nov. 1. Coach Bob Berry said here yesterday.

Other East Texas games are: Hardin College at Commerce, Sept. 20; Northwestern Louisiana at Natchitoches, La., Sept. 27; Howard Payne at Brownwood, Oct. 4; Stephen F. Austin at Commerce, Oct. 11; University of Houston at Houston, Oct. 18; Austin College at Commerce, Oct. 25; Southwest Texas at San Marcos, Nov. 8; Trinity University at Commerce, Nov. 15; and Northwest Texas at Commerce, Nov. 22.

Two-Day Grid Clinic Gets Underway At 9 A. M. Friday

Coaches Guests At Luncheon

Big Spring's second annual Six-Man Coaching school, sponsored by the American Business club, gets underway in the Settles hotel at 9 a. m. Friday and continues through Saturday noon.

Officials of the school, among them Chairman Walker, Bailey, are still predicting that a record turnout of both coaches and officials is in the making. Whereas, 43 grid instructors and arbiters registered in 1946, something like 60 persons from throughout the state are due in this weekend.

Something new has been added to the clinic—an All-Star football game between stars of Districts Three and Seven. The Forsan athletic field will be the scene of the struggle, which takes place at 8:15 Friday night.

All class-room work will be conducted in Room Four at the Settles hotel. Friday morning's study will be confined to a lesson on offensive football by Tom Talley, Prairie Lee, and a lecture on rules interpretation by Chesney McDonald, Sterling City.

The school will be adjourned at noon for the annual football luncheon, which will be held at the Crawford hotel. All persons registering for the course will be guests.

The afternoon class, which gets underway at 2 p. m. will be centered around a lecture on defensive football by L. S. Sasser, Whiteface and another discussion of the rules by McDonald.

A motion picture on the Texas-Oklahoma university game of 1946 will also be shown the gathering during the afternoon.

The school will re-convene Saturday morning for lectures by Talley, Bailey and McDonald before breaking up at noon.

The clinic is one of the few of its kind in the United States.

Del Toro's Gallop In Sixth Gives Steeds 3-2 Triumph

Cindan Records 23rd Hill Win

Lefty Chester Zara, who had been a 'cousin' to the Big Spring Broncs most of the season, turned up tough as a boot Wednesday night at Steer park when he handcuffed the league leaders with three hits but the Hosses eked out a 3-2 victory, thanks to some daring base running on the part of Gaspar Del Toro.

Del Toro was passed as the leadoff man in the sixth round. He stole second, much to the chagrin of Catcher Ray Sanders who, in trying to nip him, fired the ball into center field. Del Toro churned on into third and then caught the Sports flat footed by continuing non-stop to the dish.

Center Fielder Ronald Murphy saw what was happening after retrieving the ball but his throw-in was erratic and Del Toro slid in safely.

The Hosses never got a smell off Zara's tricky slants after that but it was all they needed. Jose Cindan, on the hill for the Steeds for the first time since he suffered a thumb injury in a game at Odessa last week, pitched carefully and brilliantly the remainder of the way to earn his 23rd victory of the year.

Zara struck out 15 Big Spring batters, walked but five. Two of the blows were authorized by Manager Pat Stasey, whose first a two-baser down third base way—drove home Orlando Moreno and Jake McClain in the initial round. Stasey's second safety was a blooper that dropped into no man's land in the third heat.

Del Toro found Zara for a single in the eighth, the only other Big Spring hit of the game.

The Sports touched Cindan's offerings for seven safeties, three of them in the second heat but Jose was always there when the heat was on. Billy Haddican banged one in the slot between center and right field for Joe Dotlich's long fly in the first inning.

Sanders doubled to open the fifth, moved up on Zara's lazy can of corn that dropped for a hit into short left and spiked the dish on Murphy's loft to Martin.

The Sports threatened seriously in the eighth when they jammed the sacks but Cindan dispersed the threat by whiffing Kenny Peacock. In that round, Cindan was outvoted and had to issue an intentional pass to Bob Cowser. The Sweetwater slugger hadn't given Jose any trouble to that point and Cindan wanted to pitch to him but the Sports had a man in scoring position and Skipper Stasey agreed that it was good baseball. It developed that it was.

Dotlich dispatched two pinch hitters to the plate in the ninth but to no avail. Each rolled out weakly to the infield.

The triumph added another game to the Bronc lead, which now stands at four lengths. Second-place Midland dropped an abbreviated decision to Ballinger.

Golfers Shoot For Medal In 18th Annual Invitation Meet Friday

The country club's golf course will be as busy as the proverbial beehive all day tomorrow.

Besides the Hall and Bennett cup matches, which start at 1:30 p. m., an army of linksmen will descend upon the layout to shoot for the medal and the premium that goes with it for the 18th annual Big Spring Invitational tournament, which continues through Monday.

A total of 101 golfers have already posted entry fees. Of that number, 73 have already qualified. Many others are due in Friday. The last linksmen must be off the tee by 3 p. m.

Jack Simpson of Abilene fired a 75 Wednesday to tie D. B. McGuire of Big Spring and A. B. Holt, Lubbock, for the low score thus far. Simpson's tally should be good enough to rate the championship flight. Eight others are in the 70's. McGuire and Holt posted their scores last Sunday.

Among out-of-town mashie swingers who registered Wednesday are A. C. January, Dallas; Carroll Baird, James Thaggard, Ernie Vossler, Jim Simpson and Spud Cason, all of Fort Worth; Bob Bean and Jack Hight, both of San Angelo; Billy Maxwell, Abilene; and Roy Howard, Lubbock.

The fastest field in the history of the show is a certainty. Part of the traffic will be routed to the Mundy course.

Panthers Close In On Houston With Twin Win

Shreveport's battle for a spot in the Texas league play-off faded to a dull whisper today while Fort Worth's Cats closed in on Houston in the scrap for first place.

The Cats used Shreveport as a stepping stone, clipping the injury-ridden Sports in a double-header 4-3 and 3-0 while Houston was being tumbled by Oklahoma City 9-3. Today Fort Worth is only a game and a half back of the stumbling leaders.

Meanwhile, Shreveport fell three games away from fourth-place Tulsa, which lost to cellmate San Antonio 11-1.

Dallas and Beaumont fought to a stand-off in a doubleheader, the Rebels taking the first game 6-0 and Beaumont capturing the nightcap 8-7.

Just eleven days remain in the regular season drive.

Irv Noren homered in the last inning to break up the first game for Fort Worth and Clarence Podbielan pitched a steady eight-hitter to skunk Shreveport in the second.

Houston outhit Oklahoma City but Milt Nielsen of the Indians got his fourteenth home run of the season and added a double and triple to drive in three runs, along with three by league-leading batter Al Rosen.

San Antonio slugged 14 hits in trimming Tulsa with Ned Garver holding the Oilers to six blows, only one of them for extra bases.

Floyd Giebell pitched a five-hitter as Dallas triumphed over Beaumont in the first game but Beaumont hammered three Rebel hurlers for a dozen hits in the after-piece to win its first game of the year in Dallas.

Tonight San Antonio plays at Oklahoma City, Beaumont at Fort Worth, Shreveport at Dallas and Houston at Tulsa in a doubleheader.

Almost everybody likes some kind of pickles on a picnic. Pickles are good to zip up all sorts of picnic food. Would you like to know a few new pickle tricks?

First, try taking dill or big sweet pickles to the picnic as is. Also bring sliced cold cuts. When you get ready to eat the picnic food, wrap a cold cut around a pickle, fasten it with a toothpick, and have a plateful of easy-to-eat, appetizing meat specials as the basis of your meal.

Pickle Potato Salad
 7 medium sized potatoes
 1/2 cup diced celery
 2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
 2 hard-cooked eggs, diced

Salt and pepper
 1/2 cup real mayonnaise
 1/4 cup liquor from the sweet pickle jar
 1/2 cup sweet pickle relish
 Cook potatoes in boiling salted water. Cool, peel and cut into cubes. Add celery, onion, eggs. Salt and pepper to taste. Mix mayonnaise, pickle liquor and pickles thoroughly. Combine potatoes and mayonnaise mixture, mixing gently.

Ice the hard-cooked eggs. Add rest of ingredients and mix gently.

Peanut Butter and Pickle Sandwich Filling
 1/2 cup cream cheese
 1/2 cup peanut butter
 2 tablespoons mayonnaise
 1-3 cup sweet pickle relish
 Allow cheese to soften at room temperature. Combine all ingredients, mixing well. Enough for six sandwiches.

Olive Fruit Salad

 1 tablespoon sweet pickle relish
 4 canned cling peach halves (or fresh)

Shredded lettuce
 Paprika
 French dressing
 Cut olives from pits, into small pieces. Blend with cheese, parsley, chives and pickle relish. When you get to the picnic arrange peach halves, cut side up on beds of shredded lettuce. Cover generously with olive and cheese filling, sprinkle with paprika and serve with French dressing, which you have brought in its own separate jar.

Minted Meringue Pears
 (Recipe Serves Four)
 4 Bartlett pear halves
 1 egg white
 1/2 cup mint jelly
 Beat egg white until stiff, but not dry. Add mint jelly and continue beating until well mixed. Cut pears in halves and place mint meringue on cut surface of each pear and place in oven or broiler just long enough for the meringue to become lightly browned. Serve hot with the roast leg of lamb.

 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 cup cream sauce
 2 tablespoons grated cheese
 Paprika

Shell peas. Wash the lettuce well and then tie the head loosely together with a string. Wash and skin the onions. Put peas, lettuce, onions, water, butter or margarine and salt in a saucepan. Bring to a boil. Cover closely and turn heat low. Cook until peas and onions are tender and water absorbed. This will take about seven to ten minutes. Remove string from wilted lettuce. Britain Makes New Ration Cut

LONDON, Aug. 28. (AP)—The British government announced Wednesday drastic new cuts in food, foreign travel, gasoline and other items to reduce the national trade deficit of $2,400,000,000 by more than one third.

The new restrictions, announced in the vacation absence of Prime Minister Attlee, cut the present weekly meat ration of one shilling two pence (about 24 cents) to one shilling (20 cents).

Stewed roses and primroses once were popular continental desserts.

Garrison Explains Right-Of-Way Rule

AUSTIN, Aug. 28. (AP)—Right-of-way rules under the new uniform traffic code which becomes effective Sept. 5 were described Wednesday as "just common sense and courtesy" by Texas Department of Public Safety Director Homer Garrison.

"When two roads or streets cross," he said, "the vehicle that gets into the intersection first has the right-of-way. If they get there at the same time, the vehicle on the left must yield to the one on the right.

"In other words, if the other fellow is to your right, you must let him go ahead. If he is to your left, he is supposed to let you go ahead."

When making a left hand turn at a busy intersection:

"A car that is already in the intersection, coming to meet you, has the right-of-way," Garrison said, "so does the next car behind that one. To cut in front of either one of them would create a hazard. But when you have signalled and taken the proper position to turn, and have let these first couple of cars pass, then you are ready to turn. Others coming to meet you must let you turn."

Summing up, Garrison said: "You must not bust out in front of the other fellow if he is too close to you or if he is coming too fast—you can take the right-of-way from the other fellow, but you can't take it to heaven with you."

Four Divorces Are Granted Here

Four divorces were granted by Judge Cecil C. Collins in 70th district court proceedings Wednesday.

Rosa Allene Huber won marital freedom from G. L. Huber as well as the right to use her maiden name of Churchwell.

Thelmas Firth was granted a decree from T. S. Firth as well as J. A. Harless from Pauline Harless.

Maiden name of Baker was restored to Elsie Lenora Duncan, whose marriage to Claude E. Duncan was dissolved.

Law Enforcement School Slated Here

Law enforcement officers from several neighboring towns are expected here Tuesday to begin a special 10-day school to be conducted by Federal Bureau of Investigation agents in co-operation with the Big Spring police department.

Special invitations have been mailed to sheriff's offices, mayors, city managers and police departments in adjoining counties.

Class will be conducted daily during the course, and instruction will cover at least nine phases of law enforcement work.

U. S. Diplomats Join Paris Talks

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27. (AP)—WASHINGTON, Aug. 28. (AP)—ranking diplomatic policy makers off to the 16-nation Paris economic conference Wednesday for the first American participation in planning European recovery under the Marshall Plan.

They are George Kennan, director of the state department's policy planning board, and Charles Bone-steel, special assistant to under-secretary of State Robert Lovett and former deputy of the strategic and policy group on the war department's general staff.

The state department's announcement of their departure by plane said only that they are going for consultation with Under Secretary of State Will Clayton, Jeffrey Caffery, U. S. ambassador to France, and other American officials "on state department matters, including the problem of European recovery."

However, it is assumed here that two will lay before the conference an appraisal of what help may be expected from this country to put Europe back on its feet. The conference, which is due to finish its report Sept. 1, has asked for such information.

New School Building Ready In Dorn Area

COLORADO CITY, Aug. 28. —A new school building for colored children who attend the Charles C. Thompson rural school for Negro primary and grammar school pupils is being completed, according to Roy Davis Coles, county superintendent. The school, established last year in the Dorn community is the second rural school for Negroes in the county.

The new building is being built of a surplus army building 80 by 20 feet, recently purchased and moved to the site. The teacherage was destroyed by fire and the school teacher Lucy T. Wadley, will occupy the former school building as teacherage. A total of 60 colored children from Dorn farming district attended last term. School will reopen at the Thompson school early in October.

Spain, Argentina Reported Recruiting Ex-German Airmen

FRANKFURT, Aug. 28. (U. S. Army sources said Wednesday there were "several indications" that Germans—particularly former Nazi SS men—were being recruited in occupied Germany for a supposed Spanish foreign legion in Franco's Spain.

These quarters declined to say whether they believed the reported recruiting had the support of the Spanish government.

The Army report lent some weight to the claim of a former German pilot that he would shortly leave American-occupied Germany illegally for Spain to instruct would-be Spanish fliers.

The 26-year old former Luftwaffe fighter pilot said he knew of "dozens" of German aviators who had reached Spain by an "underground railroad" since the end of the war.

Army quarters, asked to comment on the fighter pilot's assertions, replied:

"There are several indications of recruiting activities in the United States zone for a Spanish foreign legion, recruits, chiefly from SS personnel, are reportedly sought for their military expertise rather than for their political convictions."

The former German pilot, who asked that his name not be revealed, said that German aviators were in "much demand" in both Spain and Argentina as instructors.

"Dozens of our old comrades already are outside Germany," he said. "In a year I shall send you a postcard of a photograph showing me in an airplane. How do Germans get to Spain or Argentina? I'll tell you."

A friend of ours manages the whole affair. He is well known among German pilots and was a specialist in the Luftwaffe. He took part in the Dornier-Wal flying boat crossings of the Atlantic and in the long distance Condor flights across the Kirgiz steppes and the Congo before the war."

The excited young German went on:

"This man has a friend who lives in Switzerland, and he has connections with the proper Spanish authorities. From the Swiss we shall receive invitations to visit Switzerland."

"We will apply here for a three months exit visa and shall not come back, of course."

"From Switzerland we shall continue the way to Spain across France. Once there, we shall be received with open arms."

Norwegian skis have been found that are 4,000 years old and their fine workmanship suggests that skiing itself is much older.

New British Plane Enters Trade Race

AP NEWSFEATURES
LONDON — Air Vice-Marshal Donald C. T. Bennett, executive vice-president of British South American Airways, has announced that British aircraft builders, for the first time since the war, had evolved a plane able to compete with American-made Constellations and Skyliners (Douglas DC-6's) in transatlantic service.

The new craft, an improved 32-passenger version of the A. V. Roe Company's four-engine Tudor on a recent 12,000-mile test flight to the Caribbean, Bennett said.

He said a new plane now building would make a "dress rehearsal" flight to Buenos Aires in mid-September, to be followed by the prototype and a third Tudor within a few weeks, and that the only "serious problem" remaining was to increase production.

Livingston Satterthwaite, American civil air attaché in London, described the original 12-passenger Tudor as "a great disappointment" in a report to Washington last July 3 which caused much comment in British aviation circles.

Bennett pictured the improved Tudor as an admitted stop-gap plane, pending development of larger British postwar models in the next two or three years, but said its performance left "not very much to choose" between it and Constellations now in use by British Overseas Airways Corporation on the North Atlantic.

"We have got an aircraft far more spacious than any British craft now in operation, which appears to have no difficulties. Therefore we are making them available for use on our routes as soon as deliveries allow," Bennett said.

Satterthwaite's principal criticism of the original Tudor was that its 12-passenger capacity, gasoline consumption and cruising speed of around 205 miles per hour were uneconomical.

BOAC, which turned it down, objected to two technical faults, swinging on takeoff and "tail buffeting" in the air.

Bennett said both these faults had been corrected and no others of serious nature had been noted, although some changes were found necessary in the pressurization system.

He said the new version, six feet longer than the original, which was 78 feet, six inches, and completely redesigned inside, would cruise at around 250 mph, and while its 32-passenger capacity compared with 44 for Constellations it had room for 3,000 pounds of freight, which he said was more than the American-made craft's capacity.

Overall weight remains unchanged at 80,000 pounds for take-off, Bennett said, adding that while he could not disclose cost

Postoffice Gets Data On Dog Psychology

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (U. S. Assistant Postmaster George Forbes says he has learned a lot about dogs during his years with the mail service—in fact he's almost a dog psychiatrist.

He says there's no middle ground about a dog's interest in the postman—the dog either loves him or hates him. If he loves him he'll follow the postman along the route so faithfully that residents frequently complain. If he hates the postman he'll usually try to bite him.

Either way it's tough on postal substitutes. When a sub covers a route—particularly in an area usually covered by a "loved" postman—the dogs resent the newcomer, thinking he's an intruder, and start nipping.

figures, that for the Tudor was "a fraction" of the Constellation's because of a tubular fuselage easier to produce than the shaped body of the other plane and also a mass produced wing.

Satterthwaite is now in the United States on leave and his office said he had not yet prepared a report on the new Tudor.

Stork Beats 'Goose' In Hospital Race

NASSAU, B. W. I. (U. S. A race between a stork and a "goose" ended here with the stork making its delivery before the "goose" could land.

The "Goose," a six-passenger amphibian of that name operated by the Bahamas Airways, Ltd., was rushing Hazel Rolle from the tiny outlying island of Andros to a Nassau hospital. On the thirty-minute flight, the stork overtook the plane, delivering Margaret Rolle, Margaret Stalker, an English nursing sister, officiated.

Capt. Leonard Thompson summed it up, "It was a close race. Our Goose was fast, but the stork—probably aided by favorable winds—beat us by a few minutes."

Diapers On Line At High School

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb. (U. S. Diapers hanging from a line outside the high school building have had passers-by pulling short for a second look this summer. But they'll soon disappear.

Robert Kahler and his family will be moving out soon so the schoolhouse "home" can revert to the home economics rooms for which they were intended.

The Kahler's their eight-months old daughter and five-year-old son, unable to find quarters, lived in the school rooms while Kahler managed a swimming pool during the summer.

Plan good eating for Labor Day weekend

by Carol Drake

Nothing quite like good food, especially good that is, to give the Labor Day weekend a holiday air.

WHOLE KERNEL CORN FOLDED INTO SCRAMBLED EGGS with some chopped chives or parsley is a sunny surprise! (Sure, leftover roasting ears can be dekerneled for corn, but who ever has any left over?)

TAFFY ROLL UPS—the tasty finale. Roll biscuit dough 1/4-inch thick. Spread with butter, cinnamon, sugar and raisins. Roll jelly roll style; slice. Bake at 400° F. 15 minutes; remove from oven; spoon on Taffy Syrup: 1/2 cup molasses, 1/2 cup water and 1 tablespoon butter cooked to softball stage (236° F.).

CHOCOLATE MINT WAFERS—Nice for bidding farewells and closing cottages, lunch boxes or tea. Make chocolate ice box cookie dough. Shape rolls about 60-cent piece size; wrap in waxed paper; chill several hours. Slice thin and bake. Put together sandwich-style with minted green powdered sugar frosting.

SPEAKING OF SANDWICHES, Carol Drake has a free Tea Sandwich leaflet, suggesting ways of filling and cutting sandwiches. Write P. O. Box 2110 Dept. TS, San Francisco 26, Calif.

A LABOR SAVING WAY WITH SPARERIBS—APPROPRIATE TO THE DAY. Simmer spareribs until tender, about 1 hour. Remove bones (they practically fall out) and cut in serving-size pieces—we use 4 ribs per person. Refrigerate until 15 minutes before eating time in barbecue sauce—ready bottled or your own special tomato paste-cayenne-vinegar-brown sugar version. Remove from sauce; broil, basting frequently with the barbecue sauce. Ribless ribs mean easy eating.

Plan A Steak-Cooking Picnic For Labor Day

By CHARLOTTE ADAMS
Associated Press Food Editor

Even if meat is astronomically expensive, we all have to have treats sometimes. So I suggest that you save up for a steak-cooking picnic on Labor Day. Steak cooked on an open fire, whether in the woods or on an apartment terrace, is a treat in anybody's language.

Broiled Steak
You may belong to the salt school, which makes a paste of salt and water and spreads it liberally over the steak before cooking. However you may react to that suggestion, let me assure you that it does not make the steak salty. It just makes a back crust on the outside and great juiciness inside. Some people (did you know?) do the same thing with sugar!

My husband belongs to the more-flavor-than-that school and he certainly turns out a delicious steak over charcoal. I have watched him carefully enough to give you a good idea of how it's done. Try it and make your own deviations.

Steak Seasoning
1-2 cup olive oil
1 cut clove garlic
3 tablespoons wine vinegar
1 teaspoon salt
Pepper
1-4 teaspoon curry powder
1-2 teaspoon paprika

Let the garlic stand in the rest of the ingredients mixed together for at least an hour. Half an hour before cooking the steak, brush one side generously with the mixture. (You can use a pastry brush or "massage" it on with your hand.) After searing the first side of the steak, brush the other side before turning.

The Actual Cooking
There mustn't be a flame in sight, and the coals you've made (this takes at least an hour) must be very hot and glowing. Sear one side of steak rapidly, then turn and sear the other, then sealing in the juices. I hope you have your steaks cut at least two inches thick. It will take you from ten to 15 minutes to a side to do a steak of this thickness. Test it by cutting into it. The chances are it is better done than you think, so the great precaution should be not to overcook it. Long, thin slices are most convenient to eat in rolls.

With steak serve beefsteak tomatoes, if you can buy them. Cora on the cob is another good accompaniment. If your fireplace is not in your back yard, you can still make a fine big, oven-proof dish full of scalloped potatoes, take them to the picnic wrapped in heavy cloths, and then put them at the back of the fire to reheat. Scalloped Potatoes

8 medium-sized potatoes
4 cups scalded milk
2 onions
1-2 cup flour
2 tablespoons butter of margarine
Salt and pepper

Place a layer of sliced raw potatoes in a buttered oven-proof dish. Sprinkle with seasoned flour. Add a layer of thinly sliced onions. Continue layering until all potatoes are used. Add butter or margarine to the milk and pour over the potatoes. Bake covered at 300 to 325 degrees for an hour. Uncover and bake ten to 15 minutes longer or until top is lightly browned.

Soviet Getting Prefab Houses From Germany

AP Newsfeatures
BERLIN—Among reparations going to Russia from the Soviet occupation zone of Germany are thousands of prefabricated houses, according to the American military government's official German newspaper, the Neue Zeitung.

The newspaper—which recently reported that the Russians had transported out of their zone more than eleven thousand railroad carloads of reparations products in a single month—said that extraordinarily heavy cuttings were being made in the zone's rich forests, with top priority going to reparations.

The Neue Zeitung, reporting that the Germans were also producing ships and railroad ties for the Russians, said the zone had reparations orders for 4,000 pre-fabricated houses to be produced for shipment to the Soviet union during 1947. It said that the houses were ordered equipped with central heating and sanitation facilities and electric wiring. Assembly line construction has been arranged, it added.

Drives Target
FORT GEORGE G. MEADE, Md.—When it comes to being shot at in the line of peacetime duty, officers at this Army post believe T-5 Raymond Sanders is the man who knows most about it.

The other day—a routine day, too—Sanders was under fire of 30 machine guns blasting away with 2,400 rounds of ammunition. Sanders drives an especially prepared tank which serves as the moving target in target practice. He does it almost every day. "I'm not yet used to that feeling of being under a tin roof in a hall storm," says Sanders.

Chilean Gift To Hamburg Is Bird
VALPARAISO, Chile (AP)—Three big turtles of the Galapagos variety and a collection of Chilean birds are on their way to the war-stricken Hamburg zoo.

They are being sent as a gift by German Riegel, a resident of Valparaiso, aboard the Chilean naval transport "Presidente Errazuriz."

It's All Peaches And Cream Now

It's all peaches and cream just now—the PEACH crop is about at its peak. It is said that there are over two thousand varieties of peaches—not to mention the fuzzle-less nectarines! We generally think of peaches as "clings" or "freestones" and know them best as South Havens, Elbertas, Belle of Georgia or the Rochesters. We can thank the Spaniards for this delicious fruit. From Mexican trees—with their gorgeous blooms and downy fruit—we have our United States crop which is now valued well into the millions.

This is the time to stock our pantry shelves with peach preserves and canned peaches. (Make a few extras for the last minute gifts. There's nothing more acceptable than a jar of homemade preserves.)

If you can remember Eugene Fields' "Little Peach," it may amuse you to recite it as you try one or all of these peach portions!

Peach Blush Pie
1 Bran Pastry Shell
3 cups sweetened cooked or canned peached
2 cups peach juice
1 1/2 pkgs. (3 1/4 oz.) cherry gelatin
dessert powder
1-4 teaspoon almond extract.

Prepare pastry shell; prick lightly with a fork. Bake in hot oven (450 F.) 8 to 10 minutes. Drain peaches. Add water to juice, if necessary, to make 2 cups. Heat juice to boiling point; remove from heat. Add gelatin and stir until dissolved; add flavoring. Chill until mixture begins to thicken. Arrange peach slices in pastry shell; pour gelatin mixture over peaches. Chill until firm.

Yield: One 9-inch pie.
Bran Pastry Shell
1-4 cup bran
1 1/2 cups sifted flour
4 tablespoons cold water (more or less)

1-2 teaspoon salt
1-2 cup shortening
Crush bran into fine crumbs; mix with flour and salt. Add water, a little at a time, until dough is moist enough to hold together. Roll out on lightly floured board to about one-eighth inch in thickness. Fit into pie pan; trim edges.

Kitchen Storage Space
Arrange kitchen shelves so that you can see what you want at a glance and get it in one motion. Store heavy dishes at counter height with the lighter ones above and below. To keep down fatigue, try to keep work where it can be done with the finger, wrist and forearm muscles. Plan carefully what to do in order to keep down excess motions.

Bake Fruited Ham Loaf

(Recipes Serve Four)
1 tablespoon salt
3 quarts boiling water
1 package medium noodles
1 1/2 cups applesauce
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1/2 cup orange juice
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
1 tablespoon brown sugar
1 cup cooked ham, cubed
Add one tablespoon salt to boiling water. Gradually add the noodles and boil until tender, about six to eight minutes. Drain and rinse. Combine with remaining ingredients. Mix well. Pour into a greased loaf pan. Cover and bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees, for 25 minutes.

Record Wedding Popular
Sentimental records as well as photograph albums are popular today among British brides and bridegrooms who are having their "I do's" placed on disks. One London photographer attends three or four weddings a week with microphones and a recording van is as much a part of his equipment as his trusty camera.

Old Fashioned Apple Dumplings For Dessert

1 1/2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1-3 cup butter or margarine
1-3 cup milk (about)
4 tart apples, pared and cored
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/4 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
Make a soft but not sticky dough. Roll out on a floured board one quarter inch in thickness. Cut four squares. Place an apple on each. Mix butter or margarine, sugar, and cinnamon and fill center of fruit. Bring opposite corners of squares together over top. Pinch together. Bake at 350 degrees for 20 minutes. Pour cup of boiling water around dumplings and bake 40 minutes longer.

An era of great mechanical inventions was started by the invention of the shuttle by John Kay in 1734.

Snap Shoulder Pads

To save time and trouble with shoulder pads, suggests the U. S. Department of Agriculture, attach them with small size snaps instead of sewing them into clothes. Snaps do not show if hidden under seams. Pads are difficult to wash because the filling is likely to become lumpy or out of shape. Keeping them clean is much easier than cleaning them. Tack a piece of washable material over the side of the pad that goes next to the skin. When this becomes soiled, it is easy to wash.

Term Is Distorted, Thrown Around
U. S. Is Confused
About Communism

By The Associated Press

Somebody ought to rewrite the communist bible, says the elderly Irish playwright, George Bernard Shaw.

The book which he would have revamped is "Das Kapital," penned about a century ago by a German named Karl Marx.

Shaw says the communist bible is "obsolete," but his explanation, if any, isn't reported.

It is clear, however, that he is thinking about British readers rather than American. In this country you would have to do some A-B-C stuff and make clear distinctions first between communism, what passes itself off as communism, and what is called communism in order to discredit it.

Communism is a world problem, yet in America this can happen: your bus lurches, and you sway into a stout housewife who turns and glares at you. "Communist!" she hisses, and you clinch the case by brazenly refusing to shrivel and die.

The trouble with making communism a cussword is that it further confuses Americans thinking about communism. Americans tend to ignore time-honored terms of ancestral slander and use "communist" to condemn anyone they happen to hate, fear, or perhaps momentarily dislike—for reasons which may have nothing to do with real (or fancied) communism.

Marx wrote of communism as a state so balanced that practically no government would be needed. Obviously, what goes on in Russia is not that kind of communism.

Russia has a kind of socialism, where everything is controlled by the state, but that is not the kind of socialism England aims for.

In England, socialism was voted into power. In Russia, socialism arrived in a bloody revolution, was set up by communists and because of internal and external stresses has grown totalitarian in nature.

Totalitarianism is old stuff in Russia, but new in England, where it remains to be seen what will happen to socialism.

There's another important thing about what the Russians call communism. Geography and fate have helped them enter a phase of action which resembles the imperialism for which they condemn capitalism.

To protect long frontiers, they have reached out again to take back former Czarist-held areas.

What about Russian whatever-it-is and German fascism? Is there no difference, as some claim? There is this much, certainly:

Fascism was partly the product of a monopolistic capitalism (Krupp, I. G. Farben, etc. which was too big for its German breeches.

In Russia the "communist" state has developed its own monopolies to keep itself in power.

History still holds the answer to whether Russia can ever turn back to Karl Marx, who still is something of a saint there despite brighter candles burning in front of newer ikons.

'WRECKLESS' HOLIDAY URGED

AUSTIN, Aug. 28. —If you are killed in an automobile accident during the coming Labor Day holidays this weekend the economic loss caused by your death will equal $50,000.

That's the value place on each life by actuaries, George Clarke of the Texas Safety Association said yesterday as he issued a plea for Texas motorists to stay alive through the three-day holiday.

Use courtesy and common sense to make this a "wreckless" (not reckless) holiday, the safety group's managing director advised.

Many Leave Restraint At Home
Vacationers Should Avoid Fire Hazards

AP Newsfeatures

NEW YORK — It is a common suspicion among fire prevention authorities that vacationists leave their common sense at home.

Every summer, many people are killed or injured, hundreds of summer cottages are destroyed, and millions of dollars worth of damage result from fires which, say the experts, are mostly caused by carelessness.

July and August have their own brand of fire hazards, authorities say, because the vacationist, in his spirit of abandon, leaves restraint at home; cottages frequently are furnished with worn and old hand-me-downs from city homes; resort areas often are far from organized fire departments, and finally, because the weather is dry.

For the vacationist, who is headed for a small cottage or camp, here are some things to watch out for, as suggested by engineers of the National Board of Fire Underwriters:

1. On arrival, inspect the premises for fire hazards. The roofs, gutters and eaves of a building should be kept free of needles or leaves. Keep the grounds and house clear of such fire-consuming debris as paper, boxes and old clothes.
2. No fireworks, especially where there are any trees.
3. Be careful of stoves, especially makeshift ones. Learn how to use them. Stoves should be placed at least 18 inches from walls. Smoke pipes, unless suitably insulated, should be at least 12 inches from walls or ceilings. Don't use kerosene or gasoline for starting or quickening fires.
4. Gasoline, kerosene and oil should be stored well away from dwellings and in small quantities.
5. Gasoline and kerosene lamps should be placed a safe distance from walls, ceilings, curtains, drapes, etc.
6. Have approved fire extinguishers on hand. Make sure they work and learn how to use them.
7. Outdoor fireplaces should be well away from buildings and overhanging trees.
8. Don't wait until it's too late to learn how to contact the nearest fire warden or fire department.
9. And don't be lazy about putting out cigarettes and matches. Make certain they are completely extinguished.

Sikhs Kill 15
Mohammedans
Aboard Train

LAHORE, Pakistan, Aug. 28. (AP) —The U. S. state department employees said Wednesday a Sikh mob held up the train on which they were riding, killed 15 Mohammedan passengers and twice attempted to force a way into the Americans' compartment.

Lt. Col. Charles Caple of Little Rock, Ark., air attache to the U. S. embassy in New Delhi, and Miss Jane Loranger of Sacramento, Calif., U. S. information service employe at New Delhi, said their train was stopped Sunday at the village of Muir.

The Americans said the Sikhs smashed their compartment window and attempted to break in their door. They forced the adjoining compartment and slaughtered three men and a woman.

Villagers watched from rooftops and the wall surrounding Muir.

Caple said troops at the junction city of Bhatinda removed 11 bodies from the train and left about five injured, four of whom died before the train reached Ferozepore, where a military guard of 20 troops was put on.

The Americans, who had been on vacation trips to Kashmir, booked passage back to New Delhi by plane.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 28. —Mrs. Estelle Breene—almost completely paralyzed by poliomyelitis for two years—has given birth to a daughter at Nazareth hospital.

Mrs. Breene, mother of two other children born before she was attacked by infantile paralysis, spent six months in an iron lung at her home and has been unable to leave her bed since then. She was taken to the hospital in an ambulance shortly before the baby was born Monday.
