Six Speeches Scheduled By Demo Leader

Crowd Of 20,000 Greets President At Grand Rapids

(By The Associated Press)

President Truman formally began his campaign today by again blaming the Republican-controlled 80th Congress for his prices and housing shortages.

Mr. Truman told an estimated crowd of 20,000 in Grand Rapids, Mich., that Congress had failed to act in the people's interest. The speech drew scattered applause. It was the first of six which Mr. Truman planned for the Labor day start of his campaign for a new term.

The President said he could stop the rise in prices now if the 80th Congress had given him the authority he requested.

He also lashed at the legislators for failure to act on lowcost housing. He said the "real estate lobby" didn't want low rent housing and GOP leaders had blocked a house vote on the Taft-Ellender-Wagner long range housing bill.

Taft Accused Of Run Out

Mr. Truman coupled this with a charge that Senator Taft (R-O), one of the sponsors of the housing measure, "ran out on his own bill." the Democratic party rolled up most of its big guns for a drum-fire attack on the Taft-Hartley act in particular and the Republicans in general.

Mr. Truman's schedule calls for five speeches before nightfall in the native state of his GOP opponent, New York's Gov. Thomas Dewey. A sixth is on tap tonight at Toledo, in the home state of Senator Robert A. Taft, co-author of the year-old labor-management relations law.

The Republicans generally held their fire today.

Harold E. Stassen has been picked to deliver the party's official "answer" to the President tomorrow night. He will speak from Detroit, the same city Mr. Truman chose for his major kick-off address.

Plug Made For Labor Vote

At least four cabinet officers, an assistant secretary and several Democratic Senators, among them National Chairman J. Howard McGrath of Rhode Island, were lined up to plug for labor's support at the polls in November.

The President heard a pledge of that kind of backing when his special train stopped briefly at Har-

Speed Record Again Sought

CLEVELAND, Sept. 6. (AP)—The Air Force crossed its fingers, rubbed a rabbit's foot on the nose of an F-86, and started out again today for a new world speed record.

It looked like all the tough luck in the world had intervened on the first big try, when Maj. Richard L. Johnson buzzed the course six times at an average of around 670 miles an hour yesterday.

The average—clocked unofficially by one of several timing methods used in checking records—was roughly 20 miles an hour faster than the present record, held by a navy research plane.

New Record Expected

But Johnson's mark will not go into the books until he does it again. And Johnson said he was ready to try whenever the weather is good enough.

Three of the six passes over the 1.86 miles course were disqualified yesterday: One because the timing cameras were turned on for the wrong airplane, one because Johnson flew off course, and one because a camera jammed.

Four passes in matching upwind and downwind pairs are needed.

Johnson, his flying suit sweat-marked after the 30 minutes of rough flying, said there is no doubt about the North American F-86 swept-wing fighter being able to better the 650.796 mph record. Or for that matter, going faster than it was clocked unofficially yesterday.

The speed run was scheduled for the third time as a feature of the National Air Races, which wind up today with the Thompson

Communists Stage Rioting In Berlin

City Hall Windows Smashed In Attempt To Force Anti-Reds From Power In Germany

By RICHARD KASISCHKE
Associated Press Staff Writer

BERLIN, Sept. 6—Communist-led demonstrators smashed into Berlin's city hall today, using battering rams and breaking windows.

Two American correspondents were injured in fist fights during rioting inside the building. The camera of a third American was smashed.

The disorder, the third of its kind in 10 days, was apparently intended to force the anti-Communist government from power.

Soviet-controlled police made no attempt to halt the Communist assault. There were indications the riots were a prelude to a Communist attempt to set up an "action committee" government over the dissension-torn and blockaded city.

The rioting took place as the four military governors prepared to meet a mile or two away in an attempt to solve the crisis brought on by the Soviet blockade of the city since late June.

A shock unit of 50 to 60 youths smashed the outer gate to spearhead the demonstrators. They broke windows to the inner building and poured through to overcome resistance by unarmed city hall guards.

Although the demonstrators asserted they wanted only "to be heard," their apparent aim was to keep the anti-Communist city government from meeting.

The rioters, singing the "Internationale" and shouting Communist slogans, took over the city hall assembly room.

The Americans manhandled were Associated Press Photographer Henry Burroughs, whose camera was smashed, and Ernest Leiser, overseas news agency correspondent, who was slugged. The demonstrators yanked a telephone out of my hands and ripped out the telephone plugs.

The demonstrators beat up Leis-

VOLCANO THREATENS FILIPINOS

Rescue Speeded As Poison Gas Feared

(By The Associated Press)

MANILA, Sept. 6.—Rescue efforts on Camiguin Island in the southern Philippines were spurred today by a warning that fiery Mt. Hibokhibok—erupting lava for the sixth day—may spew poison gases.

Nearly 35,000 of the small, fertile islands' estimated 45,000 population have fled by sea since the volcano rumbled to life Sept. 1 after 77 years of inactivity. Two villages have been buried by the lava flow; five others are threatened.

The Philippine constabulary reported five persons buried alive under the scalding ash and molten rock. A sixth escaped with severe burns.

Deadly Gas Danger

However, the government was warned of an even greater menace to the estimated 10,000 Filipinos huddling under the sulphurous smoke on Camiguin's coast. Dr. H. Otley Beyer of the University of the Philippines said the volcano might soon generate deadly chlorine gas.

Dr. Beyer was an eye-witness to the disastrous eruption of the Lake Taal volcano, 30 miles south of Manila, in 1911. He recalled that chlorine gas was repsonsible for 1,300 deaths at that time.

Studying records of the eruption of Mt. Hibkhibok on April 30, 1871, Dr. Beyer said the present signs of reactivation indicated the volcano might repeat its performance of 77 years ago. At that time, it poured out lava, then discharged gases, mud and stones.

The volcano was incandescent at the top from 1871 to 1876.

New Activity Reported

Camiguin is Y-shaped, its base lying to the southeast. It is in the Mindanao Sea, only 12 miles from the coast of Mindanao—second largest island in the Philippines. Camiguin is only 92 square miles in area.

Search Pushed For Escaped Convicts

McALESTER, Okla., Sept. 6 (U.P.)—Oklahoma officers took no holiday today as they pushed a search for the last three of six convicts who escaped from the state penitentiary here by digging under a wall with their bare hands.

Three of the escapees were recaptured yesterday as they slept in a thicket southeast of Muskogee, in the hills of eastern Oklahoma.

The trio, placed in solitary confinement at the penitentiary, included Plutarcho C. Hill, 24, Oklahoma City robber and murderer under a life sentence; Luther (Red) Goad, 23, life-termer for murder in Pittsburgh county, and Howard McKinley, 25, serving 10 years for robbery with firearms in Grady county.

Still at large today were Bill Van Houtan, 23, his brother, Mike Van Houtan, 22, both of Guthrie, Okla., and serving serms for automobile larceny, and Ray Story, 20, Marietta, Okla., under 99-year sentence for first degree rape.

Germany Governors Hold Sixth Meeting

BERLIN, Sept. 6. (AP)—The four military governors of Germany met for the sixth time today on the Berlin blockade and related problems. The session at the Allied Control Authority buiulding started at 2 p. m. (8 a. m. CST).

After their fifth meeting Saturday, an official spokesman said the generals representing the U. S., Russia, Britain and France had not yet reached any agreement.

Soviet Spy Charge Branded Frame-Up

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6 (AP)—The United States today labeled as a plain frame-up Bulgaria's ouster of an American diplomat on a charge of spying.

A "transparently fabricated maneuver" was the way the State department officially described the second incident of its kind behind the iron curtain of eastern Europe. The central figure this time was Donald F. Ewing, vice consul of the American legation at Sofia.

The Bulgarian radio said yesterday that Ewing's immediate recall was arranged after his arrest in July while "getting important written espionage information from two Bulgarians."

Sailor Killed By His Wife

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6. (AP)—Detective Sgt. Samuel Riccardi said a 26-year old sailor's wife shot and killed her husband yesterday because she thought he had molested her 18-year-old sister.

Chief Pharmacist's Mate Leslie Reeves, 29, was shot as he stepped into the kitchen of his home after returning with Peggy Mills from a movie they had attended at the Philedelphia naval base hospital, the detective said.

Riccardi said Mrs. Dorothy Elizabeth Reeves, mother of two small children, was charged with murder after signing a statement saying:

"I'm sorry I killed him. I guess I should have given him a chance to explain, but at the time I thought only of what had happened to my sister."

Fears Said Unfounded

Detectives said her fears were unfounded.

Mrs. Reeves, whose parents live in Nashville, Tenn., was arrested at the hospital, where she handed detectives the .32 caliber Luger pistol which she had wrapped in a newspaper before leaving her home in a race to reach her husband's side before he died.

The sailor, shot once through the left chest, died less than a half hour after being admitted to the naval base hospital.

Riccardi said the young Mills girl came east with her parents to visit her sister, at that time a hospital patient, and remained on to help her with her two children.

Wolfforth Resident Injured In Mishap

WOLFFORTH, Sept. 6 (Special)—R. D. Lawson, 28, of Wolfforth, suffered a fractured right leg and possible other injuries shortly before 8 o'clock this morning when a school bus rolled over, or against his leg, according to a preliminary report issued by officials of Lubbock Memorial hospital, where he was taken by a Sanders Funeral home ambulance.

According to the hospital report, Lawson was aiding a group of others in efforts to start the bus. It was towed by another vehicle, and once started, Lawson apparently was underneath the bus untying the chains, when the bus accidentally rolled against, or over, his leg.

Industries Crippled By Strikes

Both Coasts Hard Hit As 58,000 Idle

Communism And Wages Are Issues In Major Disputes

(By The Associated Press)

Some 58,000 men were idle today in crippling strikes as the nation marked Labor day, 1948.

This was the situation by industries:

Maritime—28,000 West Coast maritime workers were on strike. The CIO Marine Engineers union accused the shipowners of turning the strike into a lockout, but the owners said "the industry has been struck in every port on the coast. We couldn't run ships if we wanted to."

Operators Withdraw Offers

A major issue in the strike—which has passed all requirements of the Taft-Hartley law—appeared to be signing of non-Communist affidavits by officers of the CIO longshoremen and the CIO marine cooks and stewards. The operators withdrew all offers until this issue is settled.

The owners told strikers: " . . . No offers will be made unless the officers of your union first sign the non-Communist affidavit as any real American should be proud to do." But the Army planned to ask strikers to move military supplies.

Oil—A creeping 5-state paralysis stemming from the strike of 16,000 refinery workers threatened the West Coast.

Warren Takes Action

Gov. Warren of California ordered a special survey of fuel stocks and said the state "will do everything possible to help maintain adequate fuel supplies for essential industries." But talk of local rationing of supplies appeared. Intercity bus lines reported they had virtually no stored gasoline on hand. Some filling stations reported their supplies exhausted as motorists took to the road for the holiday.

San Francisco tabulated about 25 days supply on hand. Los Angeles had about 15 days, if spread out.

The strike of CIO oil workers is over wages. Neither side was reported as inclined to resume negotiations until after the holiday.

Trucks—In New York City the strike of 10,000 AFL teamsters spread into New Jersey where 4,300 more in Newark went out. Negotiations in the wage dispute will resume Tuesday. Issue is wages.

Milk Supplies Dwindle

Meantime the strike was slowly drying up New York's supply channels. Grocery shelves were gradually emptying. The flow of raw milk into the city was subsiding. A halt to construction work within a week was threatened.

In other developments, national

British Union Group Backs U.S. Policy

MARGATE, Eng., Sept. 6. (AP)—Britain's all-powerful trades union congress, which in the last analysis retermines the policy of the labor government, endorsed United States policy in Europe today, and repudiated Russian assertions that the U. S. is preparing for war.

Voicing the solid backing of Britain's working class for U. S. policy, Miss Florence Hancock, 55, first woman president of the TUC, told the opening plenary session of the annual congress here that it is "a wicked and dangerous fansehood" that either American or British policy is aimed at provoking a third world war.

Juliana Takes Dutch Throne Before Gathering Of Royalty

(By The Associated Press)

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 6 — Julianna Van Orange-Nassau formally ascended the throne of The Netherlands today by taking an oath of fidelity to the constitution.

The new queen, who replaced her 68-year-old mother, Wilhelmina, on Saturday when the weary ruler of the Dutch empire abdicated, was ceremoniously inaugurated in Nieuwe Kirk (new church), historic church of worship for Dutch royalty.

Royalty On Hand

The oath was admistered by Dr. R. Kraneberg, president of the states-general, the Dutch congress, before the greatest gathering of European royalty since the wedding of Princess Elizabeth of Great Britain last year.

Juliana wore a blue sapphire gown under the same robes which Wilhelmina wore when she ascended the throne as a girl of 18 fifty years ago.

She walked from the palace to the church across the street under a trellis of fish-netting, with trumpeting and heraldry all about. She was accompanied by Prince Consort Bernhard, now prince of The Netherlands on the special request of Wilhelmina, who now is dowager princess of the Netherlands.

A Brilliant Display

It was a display of lustre and brillance, in which the velvet and jewels accentuated the solemn character of the ceremony.

The enthronement took place in a simple armchair with the crown and sceptre laid out beside it. Wilhelmina was present.

Also on hand were the 39-year old queen's two oldest daughters, 10-year-old Beatrix, the heiress

Parade, Barbecue And Dance Feature Labor Day Program

The working man had his day in Lubbock today in the annual Labor day observance that was marked by a giant parade at 10 o'clock, a barbecue for workers and their guests at noon, and a dance tonight to climax the day.

The parade, with several score of vehicles and decorated floats, brought the unanimous decision from judges placing the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary float as first place winner in general competition.

Judged on the basis of craft representation in one division and auxiliaries in another, judges announced the winners:

Crafts—United Brotherhood of Carpenters, first; I.W.E.W., local 850, second; and Roofers Local No. 214, third.

Auxiliary—Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary, first; Carpenters auxiliary, second; and I.T.U. (Internaitonal Typographical union), third.

Judges were Hop Halsey, Parker Prouty, and G. Granville Johnston.

It was announced that the Central Labor council float, one of the more attractive in the parade, was not competing in the judging.

The parade, with police escort, was led by a military escort with the colors, followed by city officials, and part of the Westerner band.

As they appeared in the line of

Johnson Will Talk Tonight

DALLAS, Sept. 6. (AP)—Lyndon Johnson, who claims victory in the U. S. senatorial race, promised to tell the people "what has been going on" in his 7:30 p. m. broadcast tonight.

Johnson led his opponent Coke Stevenson, by 162 votes in the latest Texas election bureau report. The last tabulation by the unofficial vote reporting agency was made Saturday at 9 p. m. Bob Johnson, bureau manager, said no further reports would be made unless there was an unusual change in the vote.

At the last report, the election bureau reported on 163 counties which had made certified reports of the vote and 91 counties where the certified voted had not been reported to the bureau.

Investigation Considered

The court Saturday was Johnson 494,158 and Stevenson 493,996.

Johnson, in announcing tonight's broadcast, refused to elaborate further on what he would say.

Stevenson said he had no statement to make yesterday. But last week he said he would not accept as final any unofficial tabulation of the votes. The official count will

Daredevil Trapped In Whirlpool For Hours

Riverman's Journey Through Niagara Rapids Plenty Rough

(By The United Press)

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Sept. 6.—William (Red) Hill, Jr., veterans riverman said today his journey through the whirlpool rapids of Niagara Falls in a barrel yesterday was "10 times worse than my first trip."

Hill, 37, was fished out of the water just before dark last night, four and one-half hours after he started his dangerous journey. He wasn't even scratched, but he admitted he took a beating during the three hours his 1,000-pound barrel was trapped in the vortex of a whirlpool at a sharp bend in the river.

A crowd estimated at between 75,000 and 100,000 persons watched the barrel bob atop the foamy waters of the rapids. Collectors passed through the crowd accepting money from spectators. Hill said he would use the money to build a monument to his father, even more famous than his son for his daredevil feats along the Niagara.

Hill closed the hatch on his barrel at 3:40 p. m. and

Fair, Hot Weather Greets Texas Today

(By The United Press)

Fair skies and high temperatures greeted Texas for today's holiday outings.

Skies were clear throughout the state and summer-like temperatures were the vogue, although the Panhandle was expected to get slightly lower readings this afternoon.

Maximums yesterday ranged well above 100 degrees with Fort Stockton reporting 108, Presidio 107, Wink 105 and Salt Flat, Marfa and Van Horn 104. Galveston's 87 was the lowest maximum recorded.

Minimums today ranged from 65 at Amarillo to 80 at Galveston.

Only rainfall reported was .03 at Galveston.

Justin Tudor Is Victim Of Car Accident

Seventeen Persons Claimed In Texas During Weekend

(Special To The Journal)

SEMINOLE, Sept. 6 — Justin Bartes Tudor, 35-year-old owner of the Drillers club here, was killed almost instantly about 3 a. m. Sunday when he lost control of his car and overturned on highway 180 about 11¼ miles west of here.

Tudor, driving alone, apparently had gone to sleep, according to Highway Patrolman Tom O. LeBleu of the Seminole patrol office, who investigated the accident. LeBleu said that physical evidence of the wreck showed that the car had veered gradually from the right lane, across and off the highway, where the tire imprints then turned sharply back toward the highway.

In attempting to regain the roadway, LeBleu deduced, Tudor had turned too sharply and lost control of his car, believed to be a 1941 Packard, spinning off the right gravelled shoulder of the black-top roadway and overturning.

A passer-by, unnamed on the official patrol report, took Tudor to Tombs hospital here, where he was announced dead on arrival.

The body was taken to Alpha Funeral home here, where funeral services will be held probably Wednesday, LeBleu said.

NATION'S TOLL 227

(By The Associated Press)

California and North Carolina led the fatality list today as the nation's death toll for the Labor day weekend swelled to 227.

Of the total, 171 deaths were caused by traffic as record crowds took to the highways. 30 by drowning, and 26 by miscellaneous causes connected with the holiday.

California reported 20 traffic fatalities and one drowning. North Carolina logged a total of 17 deaths—three traffic, six drowning, and eight miscellaneous. Pennsylvania, with 13 traffic deaths and one miscellaneous, was third on the grim list.

SEVENTEEN PERSONS KILLED IN TEXAS

(By The Associated Press)

Texas' violent death toll was at least seventeen as the Labor day holiday entered its third day today.

Only ten of the deaths could be attributed to the holiday. Five died in traffic accidents, three in a plane crash, one by drowning and one was fatally injured when thrown from a horse.

Three others were shot to death

Four Hurt In Assault Cases

Three instances of violence — the first, police said, since a wave of vagrancy arrests touched off Aug. 19—were reported over the weekend. All traced to assaults in the negro section. Four persons were injured.

David Crockett Roy, a negro, was stabbed; Minnie Bee Stewart, a negro woman, suffered a knife wound in the throat; and Dorothy Munson, a negro woman, suffered a broken jaw.

Was Slightly Cut

A negro man, identified in reports as Willie Campbell, was slightly cut in connection with the wounding of the Stewart woman, investigators said.

Police and the sheriff's department said none of the victims was seriously injured.

Charges probably will be filed to reflect the assaults, it was indicated.

Thefts and burglaries were under investigation of both the police and the sheriff's department. A $72 watch was reported stolen from O. R. Gideon's residence at Lubbock Army Air field.

A $50 watch was reported stolen from a woman identified by police only as a Mrs. Roberts.

$18 Reported Taken

H. C. Poindexter of 3408 Adams said $18 in currency was taken in a burglary of his residence. A screen was slit over a window.

Homer A. Gardner of 1716 Twenty-fifth found nothing taken from his residence after a screen had been removed.

The Lamesa sheriff's department said property there had been burglarized and the following taken: a blanket, two bed sheets, two pillows, and pillow slips, a mattress, a gas heater, a hot plate, two chairs, a bedspread, a mirror, a towel and a rubber sheet.

Youth Is Held

The sheriff's department held a 16-year-old Lubbock youth for investigator into attempts to break into a residence in 2400-block Ave. U. A woman living at the address allegedly identified the suspect.

S. D. Hipp of 1007 Ave. G reported theft of a 1947 James light motorcycle, license YJ 1606 from

Orchestra Leader Dies In Car Crash

MILLIS, Mass., Sept. 6. (AP)—Jack Marshard, who with his brother was agent and part-owner of many nationally-known orchestras, was killed early Sunday morning when his automobile crashed into a tree.

Marshard died en route to a hospital shortly after his car crashed. He was on his way home after directing one of the many Marshard brothers' bands in Manchester.

The 38-year-old orchestra leader and his brother Harry partly-owned such dance bands as those led by Vaughn Munroe, Larry Green, Jack Edwards, and Ranny Weeks. The two brothers also either owned or were part owners of many night clubs in the east.

Their orchestra played at many society engagements. On several occasions Jack led one of the bands at functions in the White House while Franklin D. Roosevelt was president.

As youths, Jack and Harry, the sons of an orchestra leader and composer, played in a band which included pianist Eddie Duchin and Rudy Vallee.

Both entered the army at the start of World War II and were discharged as majors.

Survivors include his widow and two children, one three and a half years old and the other only two weeks.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday.

Fire On Ship Fatal To Chinese General

MOSCOW, Sept. 6. (AP) — The death of Gen. Feng Yu-Hsiang, 67, China's "Christian general," in a fire aboard a Russian ship, was announced in the Moscow press yesterday.

The chunky ex-war lord and a daughter were among the victims of a fire aboard the Russian motorship Pobeda en route from New York to Odessa. The newspaper Pravda and Izvestia said the fire resulted from careless handling of motion picture film.

Jews Report Arabs Attack Settlement

JERUSALEM, Sept. 6 (AP)—An official Israeli source said Arabs opened fire today on the Ramath Rachel settlement, adjacent to the newly demilitarized Red Cross zone at the south of Jerusalem.

The Jewish settlement was reported attacked with three inch mortars and light and heavy machinegun fire. No casualty was reported. Ramath Rachel was heavily contested in the pre-truce days and changed hands between Jews and Arabs several times.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL . . .

Girl Is Torn Between Love Of Her Fiance And Desire To Pursue Career; What To Do?

DEAR MARY HAYWORTH: I am a girl 19; I've had a good family life, two years of college and everything within reason that I've ever wanted. Now my first real problem has appeared and I am very much bewildered.

Several months ago I met Dave, with whom I fell in love, and now we are engaged to be married. Until recently I was very happy in the thought of being his wife, but now I have strong doubts as to whether I should marry him.

An opportunity has presented itself for me to go to California to live and make a career for myself. This appeals to me greatly, except for the fact that I would have to give up Dave to accept it. I believe I love Dave as much as I am capable of being in love, and I know that I couldn't find a man who would be a better husband.

IS SHE ROMANTIC OR TOO PRACTICAL?

DAVE HAS good character, good looks, a steady job and is ambitious. He would do anything in the world for me; but I don't see life through rose-colored glasses, and in fact am so practical about him and myself that I wonder if I could make him really happy and be happy with him.

My life hasn't been average so far, and I don't want an "average" marriage. I feel that Dave and I are compatible; but not that he is the only man in the world for me. I've always wanted a man who has all his sterling qualities, but with perhaps a bit more imagination and glamour.

Am I being a romanticist to think I could find such a person? Or am I not really in love, to consider leaving Dave thousands of miles behind and starting a life without him? I have a strong feeling for him and would miss him very much; but is that love? I must make a decision soon, so please advise. Signed N. E.

UNREALIZED QUEST FOR INDEPENDENCE

DEAR N. E.: The real meaning of your bewilderment is that you don't know what you want, beyond a desire to escape the tedium of living at home, subordinate to parents, and/or grinding away at getting an education in the higher brackets of learning.

That's why you are hovering between a choice of marrying Dave or taking a flyer at having a career in California. Both opportunities have an escapist appeal for you at present, when weighed against the humdrum prospect of plugging away at a college course until it's completed, two years hence.

In my opinion you are a very adolescent 19, which is to say, less mature and more vacillating even than your age would warrant, and possibly you've been "babied" by parents to a degree that can't be remedied unless and until you leave home to undertake adult-type responsibilities without their first-hand aid or interference.

NEEDS FRAMEWORK FOR FINDING SELF

NOW THAT I think of it, you make no mention of your parents' views when stating your "problem," which suggests that you and they may be subjectively at war about your urgent striving to attain adult prerogatives; and if such is the case, my advice to the whole family is to settle on a reasonable compromise.

Rather than marry Dave in the immediate future, on the risky basis of a few months' acquaintance, and rather than abort your education to try your luck at earning endeavors, it were more prudent, I think, to continue your schooling at some good college across the country where, as a resident student, you will gain experience in managing your affairs without infantile reliance upon, or subjection to, parental dictates

POOR PALEFACED POLLY!

*Maybe her paleness comes from a Borderline Anemia

Girls who look pale and unhealthy are usually more pitied than popular. And their energy and their dispositions seem to suffer, right along with their looks.

That's true—but did you know that faded red blood cells are often the cause of fading color and vigor? If you're too pale and tired, you may have a Borderline Anemia, due to a ferro-nutritional blood deficiency. Medical studies reveal that up to 68% of women—many men and children—have this tiring blood condition.

Weariness and pallor have many causes—always consult your doctor regularly. But if you have this Borderline Anemia, remember: Ironized Yeast Tablets can help you reclaim your vitality and healthy good looks. They are specially formulated to help build up faded, shrunken and fagged-out blood cells. To feel better—to look better—to act more alert and alive—try IRONIZED YEAST TABLETS!

*Due to a ferro-nutritional blood deficiency, a condition for which Ironized Yeast is specially formulated.

Money For Wing To Hospital Raised By Spectacular Show

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 6. (AP)—Movieland's most spectacular benefit performance was a jumbled memory today of peanut shells, aerialists, jugglers, film star barkers, and Greer Garson on an elephant.

It united 209 performing film folk with regular acts of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey circus Saturday night before a sellout crowd of 10,000.

Danny Kaye scampered across the backs of four elephants. Gary Cooper was Robinson Crusoe, and Edgar Bergen got his baldish pate kissed by a giraffe.

Hospital Wing Planned

A spokesman said between $200,000 and $250,000 was raised to build a 100-bed wing on St. John's hospital at Santa Monica.

Barry Fitzgerald landed safely in the dirt in a buggy mishap. A rein snapped, he said, and he "half jumped, half fell."

The movie stars performed free and obviously had a good time. Keenan Wynn was barker for Gargantua the gorilla. Keenan's dad, Ed Wynn, was a clown. So were Ronald Colman, Frank Sinatra, Bing Crosby, Jack Carson, Dennis O'Keefe, Buster Keaton and Van Johnson.

Decorating floats were Betty Grable, Virginia Bruce, Elizabeth Taylor, Dianna Lynn, Audrey Totter, Lizabeth Scott, June Havoc, and Ann Blyth in a mermaid's tail.

Powells Play Punch And Judy

The William Powells played Punch and Judy. Virginia Mayo and Lucille Ball rode bareback horses. Those elephant-borne included Celeste Holm, Margaret O'Brien, Sabu, Ann Miller, Maureen O'Sullivan, Lex (Tarzan) Barker, Esther Williams, Robert Cummings and Rhonda Fleming.

Carmen Miranda, with a two-foot pile of artificial fruit on her head, pranced along with a clown costumed like her. Bob Hope was valet to "Gorgeous George," comedy wrestler, in a bout with Burt Lancast r. A "Dixie" spectacle had Glenn Ford, Alan Ladd, Dorothy Lamour, Loretta Young, Peter Lawford and Irene Dunne in horse-drawn vehicles and Claudette Colbert and Barbara Stanwyck riding sidesaddle.

13 Spectators Hurt In Stunt Car Crash

STONEBORO, Pa., Sept. 6. (AP)—A "thrill driver's" car crashed into a guard rail at the Stoneboro fair yesterday, injuring 13 spectators, four of them seriously.

W. B. Parker, secretary of the fair association, said the driver of the car was not hurt. All the injured were Pennsylvanians. They were taken to three hospitals in several ambulances.

Honest Taxi Driver Gets Greater Reward

NEW YORK, Sept. 6. (AP)—Taxi driver Max Findling got an additional reward of $70 today from the man whose wallet containing $5335 in cash and travellers checks he wound in his cab.

He handed it over to police who returned it to its owner, Edward David Mitchell, of Beverly Hills, Calif., board chairman of the Beneficial Standard Life Insurance company.

Mitchell gave Findling $30 reward after commenting:

"I didn't think it possible in a city like New York that I would get the money back."

Today Mitchell summoned Findling, father of three children, to his hotel suite and presented the cabbie the extra $70.

Crues Ties Home Run Record; Hubbers, Gassers Split Pair

Between . . . The Lines

— By JOE KELLY —

The last Hubber home game of the regular 1948 baseball season brought out several curious twists for the superstitious—and we'll bet the rabbit foot believers, Shamrock carriers, and other devotees of mysticism go for it like a hot potato.

In their last game, the Hubbers won 11-0. They had 11 assists. Roy Larue, the winning hurler, won his fifth game of the year. He allowed five hits. He struckout five men. The Loboes left five men stranded. If the numbers people don't lap that up like a cat going after milk, we miss our guess!

Saturday night, along about 10 bells, we called Bill Ward at KFYO to find out how the Hubber-Borger game was progressing. Bill's answer stunned us. He said that the game was called on account of darkness! A little more prodding and we found out why. And the answer certainly raised an interesting question. What would have happened had Jackie Wilcox just hit the ball into the outfield when the lights went out? It's not as complicated as it sounds. Jackie would be robbed of a hit and would have to bat over again, if the lights could be put in working order.

The other day we were playing golf with Paul Jones, Dr. Doug Douglas, Jack Trammel and, Dick Stalcup at Meadowbrook. We mentioned, after one of the players had had his putt hang on the lip of the cup, that we had read of where a man had caused his shadow to fall on the ball, the shade wilting the grass and letting the ball fall in without another stroke penalty. That started an argument as to whether it could be done in tournament play. One said that after a reasonable length of time, the second player could go on and leave the green, taking credit for winning the hole.

Another player said that if a player left the green before the other man finished putting, it would cost him the hole. Paul took exception to this and the argument raged. No one settled it for sure, but the general feeling was that it couldn't be done legally. Personally, we'd gladly cast a shadow on some of our putts if it would help, but on that type you have to get closer to the hole than we usually do on our first and, sometimes, our second.

Texas Tech followers will be cheered to know that Roland "Tuffy" Nabors apparently has clinched a second string berth for himself with the New York Yankees professional football team. Mrs. Nabors called relatives in Lubbock Saturday and said that Tuffy had played 25 minutes against the Brooklyn Dodgers, intercepted one pass and made it look like old times on defense. Further proof that he seems to be assured of a job is the fact that the Yanks have sent last year's second string pivot man home.

Slaton football fans have organized a Touchdown club, getting the jump on several other communities, including Lubbock. The Tigers open their high school grid season this Friday and the club will be their biggest boosters. Lewis Hollingsworth is president, with Bland Tomlinson vice president and S. J. Maxey secretary-treasurer. They'll meet each Thursday night and membership cards have been printed. The Touchdown club is always a good idea in a community and, under proper guidance, can be a powerful influence. We'd like to see the same thing happen again in Lubbock.

Incidentally, we don't write this column for the hole intention of having, or getting, the public to agree with us. If it happens, it's sheer coincidence. Opinions expressed are those of this writer and his alone. We write what we believe and if you agree, fine. If you don't, we're sorry, but we're not going to stay up nights worrying. There's too much work to be done. At the same time, if you have something to get off your chest, nasty or pleasant, don't hesitate. We enjoy all correspondence except the type that is unsigned.

For the information, again, of all high school area coaches, superintendents, or persons who are going to call in high school football games this fall, there are two phones in the sports department. 4345 and 4347. If both of those are busy, call 4343. Don't hesitate to make the call collect if it's important news, or a game. And the sooner we can get it, the better space you'll have on the sports page. Your cooperation will work to mutual advantages and we want you with us, not against us.

FURR FOOD WINS

Furr Food's softball nine won the area championship from El Paso Thursday night with a 25-5 victory. Albert "Porky" Jones held the losers to three scattered hits, while Lubbock garnered 18 safeties off two El Paso chuckers.

Bob Crues, slugging outfielder of the Amarillo Gold Sox, yesterday afternoon tied the minor league home run record when he drove his 68th and 69th circuit clouts out of the park in Amarillo.

Despite the two blows, the Pampa Oilers won the game 13-12.

The Borger Gassers finally stopped the Lubbock Hubber win streak at 11 straight in taking the first game of a twin bill 12-9, but the Hubbers stormed back in the second tilt for an easy 22-3 victory.

In other games Albuquerque defeated Lamesa 7-5, and Clovis downed Abilene 13-11.

Lee Zamora was married to Miss Stella Navarro in a home plate ceremony at Albuquerque, then pitched the Dukes to victory.

Four Abilene errors helped Clovis to three runs in the eighth and that was good enough to win.

Lubbock's split left them one game behind Amarillo in the West Texas-New Mexico League standings, with the two teams due to meet in Amarillo in a season-ending doubleheader. The first game will begin at 6 p. m. and a large crowd from Lubbock is expected to make the trip.

Pampa, with two games on the schedule lost, because they did not make them up, cannot possibly tie the Hubbers for third, even if the Lubbock nine lost both games to the Gold Sox. On the other hand, the Hubbers could go a full game ahead of the Amarillo nine by sweeping both games and such action would mean that the Shaughnessy playoffs would open at Rosenthal Field Wednesday. Otherwise, the first two games will be played in Amarillo.

Albuquerque and Pampa will meet in the games between the first and fourth place teams, the best four out of seven game series opening Wednesday in Albuquerque.

HUBBERS DREW 106,674

The Lubbock Hubbers drew 106,674 fans to Rosenthal Field for the 70 regular home games on the schedule this year in the West Texas-New Mexico League.

The Hubbers closed their regular season Friday night with Lamesa and the 1,000 plus crowd sent the total over the 100,000 mark for the second year in a row.

In breaking down the figures, Mrs. Sam Rosenthal said that there were 102,482 regular paid admissions during the season. In addition, there were five Ladies and Children's Nights and they added another 6,222 persons. There also were the usual number of free admissions.

The total admissions averaged down to 1,552 fans at each Hubber home game. Comparison with 1947 figures show that the Hubbers of that year outdrew this year's team by only the slim margin of 14,000. And Larry Larsen, general manager, said that the drop off in attendance at the Lubbock-Amarillo series over the course of this season had accounted for that difference.

Would Be Conflict

If the Hubbers do not move into second place tonight, Mrs. Sam Rosenthal said that they would try to persuade the Gold Sox management to move the scheduled Friday and Saturday night games in Lubbock back to Saturday and Sunday, since the Odessa-Lubbock high school football game will be played here Friday night.

Yesterday it was a case of jinx, so far as the Hubbers were concerned. The local nine once before this season had run a winning streak out, reaching 10 games, when Borger snapped it. And yesterday the Gassers split it again, this time at 11 straight.

Neither Chris Haskins for Lubbock nor Bob Glass for Borger were too effective in the first game and the teams traded three-run first innings. The Hubbers took a lead in the second, when five runs dented the platter, but Borger came back with four in the third. And four more runs in the fourth finished the game for the Hubbers. Manager Eddie Carnett and Gordon Nell each had perfect days at the plate, four for four, while Leon Mitchell drove in seven runs on two homers.

Chick Fowler's 25th home run of the year and Frank McAlexander's eighth were the two biggest Hubber blows, as Fred Pollock and Colton Russell failed to pull the game out of the fire.

Second Tilt Different

But the second tilt was different. The Hubbers were blanked in the first inning and after that they ran wild, with even Floyd Walker stealing a base, his first of the year. Two seven-run innings turned any resemblance of a game into a rout and Royce Mills shalked up his 16th win against three losses, elbowing a neat five-hitter.

Don Moore was the big stick in the Hubber lineup with five hits in six trips. He had a single, a double and three home runs to drive eight runs across the plate. Chick Fowler drove in six runs on two home runs, his 26th and 27th, and a single, and every man in the batting order got at least one hit. McAlexander drove in four runs on two home runs to run his season's total to 10.

So tonight the Hubbers go against Amarillo in a twin bill in Gold Sox park and the probable starting pitchers will be Roland Miller (4-0) and Bob Clodfelter (12-8) against Jack Schumacher, Joe Budny or Jim Heller.

Pressmen Defeat Printers 27 To 13

In Sunday's top sports event in Lubbock, the Pressmen's Devils of the Avalanche-Journal trounched the Printers 27-13 in a baseball game at Rosenthal Field.

The Printers rolled up a long lead in the second inning behind the able hurling of Charles Ferguson, manager and pitcher, and the heavy hitting of the entire nine. But the Pressmen's Devils roared back to go into a long lead in the fourth inning, when the side batted around almost twice.

Jack Williamson, southpaw hurler, was the winning pitcher, with Dorrance Guy his battery mate. No home runs were hit, but several extra base blows were recorded.

The losers immediately challengered the winners to a "grudge" match two weeks from yesterday, and it was accepted.

Boston, Yanks Seek Pennant

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

It becomes more apparent every day that the eight home-stretch games between the Boston Red Sox and New York Yankees will decide the American league pennant.

Should either the front-running Red Sox or the runner-up Yankees capture six or seven games, they would come close to clinching the flag. On the other hand, a split in the eight games could conceivably enable the third place Cleveland Indians to take the bunting.

Schedule Favors Indians

Of the three contenders, the Indians are favored most by the schedule since they play only six or their 25 games on the road. The Indians re booked for only one more game each with the Red Sox and Yankees, both at home.

The schedule gives the Yankees the worst of it, in addition to three games with Boston, the Yankees play only two of their remaining 25 games at home. Both are against the fourth place Philadelphia Athletics today. The Red Sox play 11 of their remaining 26 games at home.

The Red Sox went 10 innings yesterday to defeat the Athletics, 4-3 to retain their half game edge over the Yankees. The Yanks kept pace with the Sox, whipping the Washington Senators, 5-3.

Braves Keep Lead

Rain caused postponement of the Indian-Browns game at St. Louis. The Tribe trails the Red Sox by three and a half games. In the remaining American league game, the Chicago White Sox nipped the Detroit Tigers, 4-3, on Luke Appling's ninth inning single.

The Boston Braves maintained their two-game advantage over the second place Brooklyn Dodgers in the equally tight National league race defeating the Philadelphia Phils, 5-1, while the Dodgers nipped the New York Giants, 4-3, in a 12-inning thriller.

The third place St. Louis Cardinals trounced the Reds in Cincinnati, 5-1. The fourth place Pittsburgh Pirates divided a doubleheader with Chicago, winning the opener, 7-3, but losing the nightcap, 11-3. The Bucs lost ground to trail by four and a half games.

Dodgers Stage Rally

Ted Williams' fourth hit, a double, and a single by Wally Moses in the 10th, won for the Red Sox.

Joe Dimaggio was the big gun in the Yankees' triumph. He slammed his 33rd home run and started a two-run sixth inning rally with a two-out double.

George Shuba's pinch hit double with two out and the bases loaded in the 12th climaxed a three-run winning Dodger rally. The Giants had taken a 3-1 advantage in the top of the 12th on Johnny Mize's second home run of the game with one on.

Big Attendance Seen For Games Tonight

(By The Associated Press)

Yesterday's results left the way open for some smashed attendance records in Texas League Labor day doubleheaders tonight.

Most of the host clubs provided fans an incentive to turn out for the twin bills.

Fort Worth plays host to arch rival Dallas, smarting under a double licking by the Rebels last night, 8-7, 8-5.

Beaumont climbed within half game of seventh place by knocking off Houston, 9-1, and San Antonio ousted Shreveport from fourth with an 8-1 decision over the Sports.

Oklahoma City and Tulsa split. The Indians won the opener, 8-3, and Tulsa the second game, 6-3.

Player Has Reason To Remember Date

Bud Henderson, Texas Tech football center, knew what Saturday was.

Bud was 23 years old Sept. 4 and he had reason to remember the date. He entered the Merchant Marine on Sept. 4, 1943. He was mustered out of the Merchant Marine on Sept. 4, 1946. And Sept. 4, 1948. Bud registered for the peacetime draft.

Yankees Upset In Pro Game

(By The United Press)

Rival players in the All-America conference chide Yelberton Abraham Tittle considerably about his strange monicker but they all agreed today that there is nothing funny about the young man when he steps on to a football field.

The ex-Louisiana State university flash, who is referred to as simple "Y. A." in the field program, made an astounding entry into the pro ranks yesterday when he pitched the Baltimore Colts to a 45 to 28 upset victory over the New York Yankees.

Passing Game Feature

A crowd of 31,800 at Baltimore stadium was treated to one of the greatest passing exhibitions in the history of the young league as Tittle completed 11 out of 21 aerials—and had a hand in every Colt touchdown. Tittle's bullseyes rolled up a total of 346 yards—wiping out the league record of 325 yards, set last year by Otto Graham of the champion Cleveland Browns.

In the only other league game, San Francisco's Forty-Niners roared to their second straight victory as they swamped the Brooklyn Dodgers, 36 to 20, before 32,606 fans at San Francisco.

This game also featured an exhibition of passing prowess as the veteran Frankie Alberts pitched for three touchdowns which erased an early 7 to 0 Brooklyn advantage.

Black Hubbers Win Over Wolves 5 To 3

Lubbock's Black Hubbers bested the Central Texas Vocational college Wolves 5 to 3 at Sam Rosenthal field here Sunday afternoon, and the two teams play again tonight in a game to be preceded by the shadow ball act.

The stunt act starts at 7:45 o'clock, it was announced by James Roy Lewis, Black Hubber manager, and the game starts at 8 o'clock.

Fast baseball marked Sunday's game, which was finished in one hour and 45 minutes.

In tonight's game James (Good Daddy) Brown is scheduled to pitch for the Wolves, and Lewis said the Black Hubbers probably will start either Hutchinson or Childress.

Sunday's line score:

Waco	000	001	020—3 7 1
Lubbock	210	110	00x—5 9 2

Brazzle and Parks, Moore; Johns, Childress and Huatchinson, Bracey.

North Texas State college, 1 up in 18 holes and Rogers beat Grady Prin, 2 up in first round play.

Semi-Finals In Golf Tourney Open Today

SHERMAN, Sept. 6. (AP)—Capt. Bob Thompson of Perrin air force base, Boyd Huff, Greenville, Bill Rogers, Fort Worth, and John Foster, Fort Worth, make up the semi-finals of the Red River Valley Invitation Golf tournament today.

Thompson will meet Rogers and Foster tackles Huff.

Huff, defending champion, defeated Arthur Corbin, Dallas, 1 up in 19 holes yesterday.

Thompson advanced with a 4-3 win over L. F. Bridges.

Foster ousted Palmer Lawrence,

Ben Hogan Leading In Reno Open Play

RENO, Nev. Sept. 6. (AP)—It was the same old story in a different setting today as crackshots teed off for the final round of the 72-hole Reno Open golf tournament. Ben Hogan, the man they always have to beat, was leading the field.

His 201 for 54 holes was twelve strokes under par. The U. S. Open champion, as well as Western Open and PGA title holder, held a three shot advantage over Lloyd Mangrum of Niles, Ill., a former National Open kingpin.

The pace setter jumped into the substantial lead with a third round 65, seven under par for the 6,611 yard Washoe Country club course.

Metz Is Third

Dick Metz of Virginia Beach, Va., was in third place as the stretch run started, with 205.

Still farther off the pace but assured of part of the prize money were Ellsworth Vines, Iowa City, Ia., with 206, George Fazio, Conshohocken, Pa., 207, Vic Ghezzi, Englewood, N. J., and George Schneiter, Ogden, Utah, 208.

Tied at 209 as the final round opened were Ky Laffon of Chicago, Cary Middlecoff, Memphis, and Clayton Heafner, Charlotte, N. C.

It looked like Hogan in a runaway for the top prize of $3500. The little fellow with the big golf shots won seven tournaments in a row before losing out in the Salt Lake City Open last week.

Sundown Wins First Playoff With Slaton

SLATON, Sept. 6. (Special) — Sundown took the edge on the south end playoff in the Oil Belt league, defeating Slaton on the local diamond Sunday afternoon 14 to 8 in the first game of the playoff series.

Going into the ninth inning with the score tied, the visitors turned on the power and before the side could be retired had scored six runs which Slaton could not match in their turn at the plate.

Slaton's pitchers proved potent with the bat. Banks lashed out a home run and two doubles, and Altman, who started the game, hit a homer. Joiner, Sundown pitcher, was credited with three hits in four trips.

Slaton plays at Sundown next Sunday.

The line score:

Sundown	035	000	006— 14 12 4
Slaton	031	300	010— 8 15 6

Brown, Wright, Joiner and Carpenter; Altman, Banks and Dill.

MOHAWKS WIN 17-1

The Lubbock Mohawks won a 17-1 game from the Hubber Juniors Saturday behind the one-hit hurling of Donald Dunagan. The game was filled with home runs at Jumbo Webster Field. Pitcher James Beck got the only hit off Dunagan.

TODAY'S POME

I like a lawyer; even more
I'm fond of my physician.
But I'll admit I'd die before
I'd send for a mortician!

EVERY time a Mothers Day, or Fathers Day, rolls around, there is some wisecracking at our house. Grinning, with tongue in cheek, one kid or the other will appear with his package and then remark: "I think it's about time there was a Childrens day."

This same thing no doubt happens in every home where there are children older than the coddling age and younger than 30. It's probably happened a million times in the last year or two.

The idea, of course, isn't a bad one.

Even though most kids have "field days" when Christmas and their birthdays, or graduations, come around, they don't have a "day" of their own, like Mom'n Pop.

And when they see the Old Man's ties, sport shirts and lounging robes on Fathers Day, and Mom's lingerie, bath salts and perfumes on her day, the young'uns quite naturally yearn for a day when they, too, will get skates and baseballs, cute sox, bicycles, candy, dolls, etc.

Come next January, when Congress goes into a brand new session, there will be offered a resolution setting forth an annual Childrens Day.

Congressmen being congressmen, there's not a Chinaman's chance of the resolution failing to pass. In fact, if there's a vote against it, it will be a miracle.

So get set, mothers, fathers and kids. The year 1949 undoubtedly will bring something new and different to the home front.

THE Childrens Day plan got its impetus in a Minneapolis hotel lobby one cold March day of this year.

A tired, worn young mother came in with two obstreperous youngsters and a bawling babe in arms. She showed she was near the end of her strength.

In the lobby were a man and his wife, name of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Groth, who quickly sized up the situation, having two youngsters of their own. So Mr. Groth went over to the mother, took charge of the two older children and kept them occupied until the father came along, 40 minutes later. The father thanked Mr. Groth, and the party broke up.

A few minutes later, an elderly man who had watched the whole proceeding, walked up to Groth.

"You must like children," said the elderly man, without introducing himself, or asking Groth's name.

"I do," said Groth. "I think they are the most important people in the world."

The stranger reached into his wallet, extracted four $100 bills and pressed them upon Groth.

"Take this money," he said, "and do something for some children."

GROTH, who makes enough money to support himself and his family in respectable fashion, refused the money, with thanks. He and his wife, then, left the hotel.

But sometime later, the editor of the Minneapolis Star and Tribune, received a letter, its writing carefully disguised and without signature.

In the letter were figures from the Groth automobile license plates—AND four $100 bills.

"Find the owner of this car, please," the letter said, "and give him this money."

The editor did.

So E. P. Groth, who long had felt the need of an annual Childrens Day, took the $400, added some of his own, and went to Washington.

There he talked to some senators and representatives and finally to the Attorney General, Tom Clark.

"I guess I'm a lobbyist," Groth says, "but, anyhow, I've got a promise that a Childrens Day resolution will be offered at the next regular session of the Congress. I'll be up there to 'lobby' it through."

Meanwhile, somewhere in the Midwest, if not in Minneapolis, an elderly man who loves children sits in careful anonymity, awaiting the action of Congress.

Nobody knows who he is—but his $400 started something which likely will go down the years.

OF course, there will be a few dissenters to the idea of Childrens Day. They will be the ones who will brand it as "just another commercial venture." They will be the ones who say that modern children have too much as it is; that "every day is Childrens Day for our spoiled brats."

They will not be the ones, though, who get a lot of joy and satisfaction out of every sort of an event built on, of, by and around the home.

They will not be the ones who realize that with all the outside entertainment and amusement competition, every effort should be made to strengthen home life and family ties.

And they won't be the ones who can have more fun with their own family than with any other people; who have a home more attractive than any theater, night club or stadium.

Another kind of badly needed flood control is one to stem the flood of bills on the first of every month.

* * *

THE wife of a friend of ours noticed her husband dashing around the house the other evening, an hour or so before dinner.

"What in the world are you doing?" she asked.

"I'm looking for my coat," he answered, breathlessly.

"What do you want with your coat?"

"Well, Joe Doakes, across the street, just phoned and wanted to borrow my corkscrew and I'm going to take it over to him."

"Good heavens!" returned the wife. "You don't have to go to all the trouble of putting on a coat and taking the corkscrew to him. Just send one of the children over with it."

"My dear," said the husband, "your last remarks sum up the whole reason why women can't lead armies, control nations, or take more than a subordinate part in the affairs of the world!"

BY ROBERT S. ALLEN: LEWIS IS REPORTED AS READY TO RETIRE AS MINERS' CHIEF

Phil Murray Cracked Down On Wallace Supporters

(ED. NOTE—While Drew Pearson is on a brief vacation, the Washington Merry-Go-Round is being written by his old partner, Robert S. Allen.)

WASHINGTON—John L. Lewis intimates are whispering a startling report about him.

They say he is seriously considering retiring as president of the United Mine Workers at the union's October 2 convention in Cincinnati.

Poor health is given as Lewis's reason.

The 68-year-old miner czar has had a number of sick spells in the last few years. He is suffering from a circulatory ailment that affects the heart. The past two months Lewis was in seclusion at a Montana health resort, on the advice of his doctors.

If Lewis does quit, his successor will be UMW vice-president, Tom Kennedy. Short, quiet-mannered, soft-spoken and friendly, he is the direct antithesis to the turbulent and melodramatic Lewis. But the two men are very close. They grew up together in the union, and Kennedy always has been intensely loyal to Lewis.

When Phil Murray broke with Lewis and threw up the UMW vice-presidency to become CIO boss, Murray asked Kennedy to come with him. Kennedy stayed with Lewis.

Lewis's retirement plan, according to intimates, does not include complete separation from the UMW. He will retain an active hold on its affairs. As a sort of president emeritus, drawing his $25,000 salary as a life pension, Lewis will continue a member of the union's multimillion-dollar welfare fund.

If Lewis steps down, he will do so at the peak of his power and with his union larger and more prosperous than at any time in its stormy history. Miners are drawing more pay than ever before, receive bigger pensions, and the UMW treasury bulges with over $10,000,000 in government securities.

Told Off

Phil Murray did some harsh talking to Wallace backers at the CIO executive board meeting that voted to support President Truman for re-election.

The leftists tried to block this, but were voted down overwhelmingly. Murray made no bones about his resentment at them.

"Union leaders who do a lot of yammering about civil rights aren't helping us very much in our own fight for civil rights in the South," he declared. "The CIO is the only organization which permits white men and black men to join the same union and to share equally in the benefits both are fighting for. Let those who clamor about the plight of the negro and labor in the South show whether they are doing as much as we are.

"Empty talk is one thing, and doing something is another. The CIO is really doing something about civil rights, and that's a lot more than can be said for certain elements doing a lot of loud bleating. The CIO is not going to permit itself to be stultified by any ideological splinter group."

Albert Fitzgerald, head of the leftist-controlled United Electrical workers, had vigorously opposed the Truman endorsement. But after Murray's scorching blast, Fitzgerald kept silent.

WALTER REUTHER is certain of overwhelming re-election as head of the powerful United Auto Workers. The attempt of Richard Leonard, former vice-president, to stage a comeback against Reuther is getting nowhere . . . The AFL's press relations section, long one of the most ineffectual in Washington, has sunk to a new low. Capital newsmen completely disregard it . . . One surprise at the CIO executive board meeting was the disclosure that Lee Pressman, former general counsel who was recently accused of being a Communist before the House un-American activities committee, and an associate lawyer had charged the union $84,000 to fight a court case against the Taft-Hartley act . . . When George Meany, AFL secretary-treasurer, was asked if he would support Governor Dewey, the reply was, "I have never voted the Republican ticket in my life and I don't intend to do so this year." . . . James Carey, whip-smart young CIO secretary, so far has traveled over 50,000 miles this year, chiefly by plane . . . Labor chiefs make no secret of their intention to seek a fourth round of pay increases if the labor market remains tight next spring and prices continue high.

Sticking

William Green is not quitting his AFL presidency this year—as certain ambitious younger labor chiefs have been hoping he would.

Green, 75 years old, will run for another term at the AFL convention in Cincinnati, November 15. His re-election is certain. It will make his 25th consecutive term.

Not in the best of health, Green has been wavering on retiring for several years. There was considerable inner AFL talk about that last year. But with the stormy John L. Lewis then an AFL vice-President and presumably waiting for an opening to grab Green's place, the latter decided to stick. Subsequently, when Lewis "disaffiliated," talk again rose on the possibility of Green stepping out.

But he has again decided to stay another year. Green feels the inner AFL situation is still too unsettled.

The two most likely prospects as his successor are George Meany, AFL secretary-treasurer, and George Harrison, head of the Railway Clerks brotherhood.

Smart, aggressive, and former head of the New York state federation of labor, Meany has been itching for Green's job a long time. Also able, Harrison is generally more popular than Meany. For Harrison, the $20,000 AFL presidency would mean a $5,000 cut in pay.

THERE was a very good reason for the absence of "Big Bill" Hutcheson, long-time carpenter boss, at the AFL executive board meeting in Chicago that organized a special campaign committee to support President Truman. Hutcheson was not invited.

An ardent Republican, he headed the labor division of the Republican national committee for 1932 to 1944. Hutcheson's opposition to the Taft-Hartley act is credited as the reason for his not holding the same post this year.

Rumor That Arline Judge Is Married Providing Mystery

NO ALFRED Hitchcock picture can be a "sleeper," for this master of melodrama and suspense is one of a handful whose name over a title means an added draw. But "Rope," his newest, has amazed even the astute Harry Brandt, at whose Globe Theater this entry broke house-records during the torrid week-end when half the town was out of town. . . Pocahontas Crowfoot, Indian chorine brought East by Wally Wanger, gets long distance calls from Bob Sterling, Anne Sothern's ex . . . The bookies have taken such a drubbing on New England tracks, many have stopped taking any bets on the off-form results . . . Barbara Stanwyck, one of the most ambulant of actresses, spent three weeks on the set, alone; in bed, talking into a telephone, for her terrific role in "Sorry, Wrong Number," a murder-mystery thriller that can't miss . . . Outlying garages are installing costly FM radio sets, so they can pick up police calls and rush tow cars to accident scenes. . . . The romance that blossomed in Montreal, when pitcher Hank Behrman was with the Royals there and Peggy Wymms, Wally Wanger chorine, played there, is blooming locally, now that she's in town and he's a Dodger.

Despite the deplorable condition of the movie business, in all its branches, the major companies are all showing profits and paying dividends, in many cases beyond similar periods last year . . . This is accounted for by backlogs of finished films and drastic paring of expenses . . . Big studios have even cut down gate-guards, so visitors and people on business there have to walk long distances because some of the entrances are locked . . . Numerous top executives have voluntarily cut their salaries, though under contract . . . With little production during many months, overhead is fantastically reduced by dismissal of stenographers, technicians, press agents, scenery artists, make-up people, etc.

That's Why School Starts Tomorrow

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

THE hostess looked distracted and tired and the enthusiasm with which she greeted her dinner guests seemed a little strained. A discerning guest could almost hear her think, "Well, thank heaven, I've paid off these people."

MILLETT

But her relief will be short-lived, of course. Because the paid-off guests will have to pay her off and in no time at all she'll be indebted again.

So goes the social treadmill, round and round, to which so many women tie themselves.

What a foolish waste of time and energy it is, this business of accepting unwanted invitations and then making a fetish of paying back the hospitality.

Life would be so much simpler for women if they would get off the treadmill. And it would be so easy to do.

DECLINE INVITATION

IF the Smiths bore you, then decline Mrs. Smith's first invitation and her second and third if they are forthcoming. That rules the Smiths out of your life.

But accept that first invitation and you're on the treadmill. For years, perhaps, you'll entertain the Smiths and be entertained by them, simply because neither you nor Mrs. Smith are willing to be indebted to the other.

The reason most women get on a social treadmill and stay there is that they are scared to death to break a rule of etiquette for fear someone will think they don't know better.

And so they wear themselves out entertaining people they don't care a hoot about because they are scared to death of being "obligated."

"Try And Stop Me"

THE seven-year-old hopeful of a fisherman acompanied his father to a stream and wandered off for a walk. A few minutes later the father heard a strange cry of anguish, and found a man hopping on one foot, caressing the other foot, and groaning with pain.

"What's happened?" asked the father.

"I guess it's my fault," said the seven-year-old. "This man told me he hadn't had a bite all morning—so I bit him."

KATHERINE BRUSH once sold a serial story to the Saturday Evening Post. It seems that between instalment one and instalment two, the heroine was compromised. Several readers protested by mail. Editor George Horace Lorrimer calmly answered them, "The Post is not responsible for what the characters in its serials do between instalments."

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Head Of Spy Probers Should See Nation At Work And Play

DENVER—Driving through the west, you get a powerful impression of people at work and at play. In spite of the ordeal of the war, in spite of inflation and the post-war overcrowding, you have the sense of a nation moving forward with vigor and confidence.

Then you read the headlines in the newspapers. They convey the idea that Soviet Russia has this country by the throat; that the nation is in deadly peril from a conspiracy into which many Americans have entered.

CHILDS

That idea is in my opinion, false. To spread such an idea is to do a disservice to the country. It is to spread fear and doubt far beyond any justification.

The moving spirits of the House Un-American Activities committee and the agitators allied with them seem never to have thought how their behavior reflects on the country itself. They behave as though Americans might actually be persuaded in large numbers that Russian Communism was superior to the American system.

Greater Rewards Offered

This is, of course, absurd. Our way of life in this country offers infinitely greater rewards, both on the material and the spiritual and intellectual side, than Russian Communism. And the great mass of the American people have the common sense to know it.

I believe if Chairman J. Parnell Thomas and the other men who seem so frightened would get out into the country, away from the over-heated atmosphere of Washington, they would recognize that fact. They would see America in the full tide of road building, of home building, of work, of play.

Certainly, what has been unfolded so far does not justify this fright. Eccentrics, visionaries, idealists with a childbirth love of conspiracy have gone mysterious and conspiratorial. Apparently this has satisfied some impulse that the ordinary person does not feel.

But if they have given information of any value to the Soviet Union or if they have succeeded in undermining the faith of any substantial number of Americans, then the papers that I have seen have not printed it. It has been on the level of supposition, accusation, rumor and hearsay.

PART of the harm it does, in my opinion, is to undermine belief in the basic American freedoms. When a man can be accused of disloyal action on the statement of a single individual, with apparently no substantiating proof, and the charge proclaimed sensationally to the world, then we are jeopardizing the fundamental guarantees on which the American system rests.

I do not mean by this to doubt that Soviet Russia has an espionage network in this country. But the way to uncover that network is not by sensational hearings that produce sensational headlines and charges and countercharges.

There is an agency authorized by law to protect the country from treason and sabotage. That agency is the Federal Bureau of Investigation under J. Edgar Hoover. Until these lurid so-called hearings began, the FBI had a very high standing in the country. One of the incidental effects of the "investigation" is to make people wonder whether the FBI has been on the job.

A Russian espionage network in Canada was uncovered that had drawn some Canadian citizens into its toils just as some American citizens may have been perverted by Communism on the agents of communism. Canada demonstrated another way to combat the threat to national security represented by the Communist spy ring in Ottawa.

Commission Appointed

A royal commission was appointed. The responsible and respected citizens on that commission held a long, painstaking inquiry in secret. The commission published a long, careful report and where evidence justified it, individuals were prosecuted. The names of those not guilty were not dragged into the record.

If the FBI needs greater powers, then it should be given greater powers and a larger appropriation. Perhaps something like a royal commission is necessary in this country in order to carry out an inquiry throughly and with documentation rather than with movie cameras and headlines.

But I believe a healthy thing would be to get Chairman Thomas and his fellows out into the country. Seeing so many busy, active people, they could not long cling to the illusion that seems to motivate their fears; that is, that Americans are about to fall for Communism.

Solution To Friday's Puzzle

Today's Journal Editorial

FOR ALL THOSE WHO WORK

The misapprehension seems somewhat widespread that Labor Day is a holiday dedicated exclusively to the membership of organized labor. The remark often has been made that the accurate designation of the holiday should be, "Union Labor Day."

It is true that organized labor did play a leading part in having such a holiday designated. Members of labor unions invariably are most active in the observance. They virtually monopolize the celebrating.

But the fact remains that the day is dedicated to all productive labor of all kinds, whether with the minds, or with the hands, wholly without consideration of whether that labor has union affiliation.

This is a day of honor and tribute to all who work and produce. A day of dedication to such people is eminently proper, wholly without distinction between those who may carry a union labor membership card and those who do not.

Romance Approved By Papa After Year

NEW YORK, Sept. 6. —A year ago the romance of Mrs. Beatrice Chilomi and Anthony Lembo was disorderly conduct—as judged by Anthony's father.

But today pretty Mrs. Chilomi, a 25-year-old war widow with a six-year-old daughter, and Anthony, now 19, happily planned for their wedding next Saturday — with papa Lembo's approval.

When the youth's father and Mrs. Chilomi brought into court in June 1947, he said he objected to the love affair because of her age.

But the disorderly conduct, he told the magistrate, was that "she keeps my boy out until 3 or 4 a.m.—it's not good for a boy of his age."

Said the magistrate as he dismissed the complaint: "I can't do anything about two people in love."

Neither could the elder Lembo. So he signed the marriage license for Anthony and plans to be among the wedding guests.

Russia Asks Italy Parley

LONDON, Sept. 6. (AP)—Russia has called for a big four meeting before Sept. 15 to settle the future of Italy's prewar colonies, Moscow radio said today.

The broadcast said a formal request for a session of the foreign ministers of the United States, Russia, Britain and France was submitted in notes delivered Saturday. In Washington, the State department said last night it had not received such a note.

The Italian peace treaty fixes Sept. 15 as the deadline for an agreement among the big four powers on what is to be done about Somaliland, Eritrea and Libia. In the event there is no agreement, the treaty states, the problem goes to the United Nations for settlement. The U. N. assembly meets in Paris Sept. 21.

Separate Plans Stated

The foreign ministers considered the problem at length last year and then referred it to their deputies. The deputies sent fact-finding commissions to Africa and held many meetings but finally gave up and handed the whole question back to their chiefs, without agreement, on Aug. 31.

Their final report set out some conclusions, among which were reported to be the following:

Russia wanted Somaliland, Eritrea and Libia returned to Italy under a United Nations trusteeship.

Britain called for incorporation of Eritrea into Ethiopia; division of Libia into three provinces of Tripolitania, the Fezzan and Cirenaica, with independence for Cirenaica after a period of British trusteeship.

Russians Accuse Italy

France asked for the Fezzan and was reported to have been given British support.

United States views have remained secret.

In Moscow, Soviet newspapers yesterday published a Tass dispatch from Rome accusing the Italian government of trying to evade fulfillment of ship deliveries to Russia under the Italian peace treaty.

The dispatch said ships due the Soviet Union had not been delivered although Russia had agreed to make her own repairs on 33 of the 45 due under the treaty. It said France had received ships due her and charged that the Italians were being supported by France, Britain and the United States in their alleged violations.

Informed Italian sources denied any treaty violations. They said Italy was doing her best to deliver the 33 ships in question and was paying for the repair work needed.

Texas Deaths

and four burned to death.

Other Deaths Expected

The Department of Public Safety estimated that more than 25 persons would die in traffic accidents before the end of the holiday tonight.

Thirty persons were injured in two accidents.

Nineteen members of a negro baseball team and their friends were injured yesterday afternoon at Dallas when the truck in which they were riding overturned. Police said there were 38 persons on the truck.

Eleven persons were injured in a two-car crash at Alto, near Tyler. They were Ray Rinker, Carl Maynard, Morris Muckelry, Kerry Collier, and H. C. Harrington, all of Nacogdoches, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Seymour and a four-year-old son, Mrs. Vera Smith and child and Mrs. Bernice Hearne, all of Wells.

Thrown From Horse

Arlest Lightfoot, 40, was fatally injured when thrown from a horse yesterday at Houston.

Motorcycle Officer W. E. Stafford, 25, was killed at Dallas when struck by an automobile as he stood talking to another motorist.

Robert E. Barnes, 23, and Mrs. Mary Ethel Oden, 23, were shot to death at Texarkana early Sunday morning. Witnesses told District Attorney Maxwell Welch that Barnes entered a room where Mrs. Oden and a number of other people were sitting. Mrs. Oden ordered Barnes from the room and they walked toward the front door together. Both were shot there. A .45-caliber revolver was found beside Barnes.

Gerald Glenn Berry, 18, of Quanah, was killed in an auto-truck crash Saturday near Claude.

Pedestrian Is Killed

Perry Randolph Clark, 36, a pedestrian was killed when struck by an automobile at the Gregg-Smith county line at 1:30 a. m. Sunday.

Kenneth Pierce, 19, of Slaton was drowned while on a swimming party near San Angelo Friday night.

Sylvia Lopez, 2, was burned to death when fire destroyed her parents' home near Lamesa Friday.

Three persons burned to death Saturday in a rooming house fire at Wichita Falls. They were Mrs. Opal Duncan, 46, Albert Jackson Conway, 50, and Joe Duard Castleberry, 31.

Three persons were killed when a light plane crashed in San Antonio Sunday. The dead were listed by police as Dick Armstrong, 55, Mrs. Armstrong, 28, and Lucy Ruiz, 17.

Odell Branham, 25, of Tyler was shot to death early this morning at Bullard, near Tyler. Officers were holding a negro.

Susan Ruth Lovoi, 5 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Lovoi of Houston, died in Galveston of traffic injuries suffered Sunday near Webster. The mother was injured.

Revealed Saturday was the death of another person who had drowned earlier in the week. The victim was Felipe Camacho, 22, of Port Isabel, who disappeared from a shrimp boat Wednesday. His body was found at Aransas Pass.

HIGH PRANCING AT SUDAN—Muleshoe High School's high-stepping band, leads the parade at Sudan's third annual Fall Festival celebration Saturday. The drum major is Waneen Beller, and the five other drum majorettes are Joyce Blackburn, Melba Bryant, Dorothy Waggoner, Gay Sanders and Marion Davis. The Muleshoe band was adjudged the winner of a band contest among area high school bands as a highlight of the final program of the two-day festival. A crowd of 2,500 witnessed the parade, a high point in the festival. In the bottom picture, are shown some officials of the affair. Left to right they are Ernest C. Minyard, Sudan jeweler who was chairman of the festival; Glenn Truax of Canyon, band judge; Bob Gray, Sudan grade school principal and band director, band and floats judge; Carl Macon, superintendent of schools at Morton, floats judge; and H. A. Owens, principal and band director at Muleshoe High school, floats judge. (Staff Photo).

Miss America Show On At Atlantic City

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 6 (U.P.)—Whistles and wolfcalls are always in season at this seashore resort during the warm months, but today they start getting longer and louder.

The week-long Miss America pageant opened officially today with the registration of 55 lovely lassies—the cream of the crop from the United States, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and Canada.

The beauties won't be doing much this Labor day so far as shooting for the 1948 Miss America crown goes. The watchword is smile, look pretty, and keep circulating—for the benefit of the spectators.

The real round of activities begins tomorrow. It will take the beauty queen hopefuls on a whirlwind schedule of rehearsals, picture-taking, recitations, songs, dance routines, gown modeling and, of course, bathing suit appearances. There will even be breakfast with the judges—to demonstrate poise.

The crowd gets its first chance to size up the curvesome lovelies with the traditional boardwalk parade tomorrow. Some 70 floats, most of them carrying contestants poising in bathing suits or gowns, and 20 bands will be in the line of march.

Berlin Rioting

er who went to Burroughs' aid. Joseph Evans, Wall Street Journal correspondent, who went to Leiser's aid, was thrown down a flight of stairs and knocked unconscious. Evans said he was attacked by the Soviet-controlled police.

The demonstrators were quickly engaged by the small force of civilian guards when they first entered the building but quickly subdued these unarmed city employes in a flurry of fistfights.

Leaders of the demonstrators stood on the balcony of the assembly hall and shouted to the milling crowd below to clear the lower floor "so the city parliament cannot blame us for preventing their meeting."

Three Russian liaison officers sitting in the balcony watched impassively as the crowd churned about. One of the Soviet-controlled policemen, asked why he did not stop the demonstrators, said:

"We have no authority here. The city government wanted its own guards in the building." The police, like several other city government agencies, are split between West and East control because Russia refused to recognize city orders.

The Communist-dominated Socialist Unity party (SER) announced it would call a "parliament" meeting later in the afternoon. It was not immediately apparent whether the SED is attempting to set up a rump city administration of their own members.

Man Pestered Into Second-Floor Fall

BALTIMORE, Sept. 6. (AP)—Adam Collins, 43, came off second best early today in a bout with mosquitoes.

Police found him lying on the sidewalk in front of his home with a broken leg and possible internal injuries.

Collins said he was pestered by mosquitoes, got up about 2:30 to put a screen in his second floor bedroom window, and fell out.

In the championship flight Pete Felton defeated Dexter Walthall 1 up; Jack Trammel and J. F. Nicholson will play their match this afternoon; and A. B. Holton defeated Truman Hutson 6-4.

In the first flight play, Houston Trammel defeated J. C. Crawford 5-3; Jeff Jefferies defeated U. D. Gregory 4-3; Lonnie Felton won over Sam Cobb by default; and Jim Stahl Took Sam McMillan 4-3.

Second flight matches saw G. B. Hutchings wil over Woodrow DeBusk 2-1; Jim Black over W. A. Hutson 2-1; Don Nichols over Dick Stalcup 4-3; Monroe DeBusk over Sled Allen by default.

In the third flight Ronald Canaday, M. N. Davidson, and Sloan Fortenberry drew byes and Buck Perry defeated Hugh Odom 6-5.

In the second round Felton will meet Nail and Jack Trammel will meet Nicholson, and the winner of the latter match will play A. B. Holton. In the first flight Houston Trammel-Jefferies and Lonnie Felton-Stahl matches are slated for this week. In the second flight Hutchings-Black and Nichols-Monroe DeBusk matches are scheduled. Davidson-Canaday and Perry-Fortenberry matches are set for the third flight.

Truman Speech

risburg, Pa., last night.

As he stepped down to greet a delegation of 29 Pennsylvania union leaders, one of the group called out: "Labor's for you, Mr. President."

With a broad grin, the President replied:

"I may be egotistical but I think they ought to be—look at the record."

Secretary of Labor Tobin read off what he called the "record of achievement" of the Roosevelt-Truman administrations in a speech prepared for an Akron rally ahead of the President's appearance.

No Prodding Needed

Of the Republican-controlled 80th Congress Tobin said it "scarcely needed the prodding it received from the National Association of Manufacturers to turn their big guns on the 61,600,000 wage earners in this country."

In another speech prepared for the same Labor day rally in Akron's Summit park, AFL President William Green said his organization "has resisted and repulsed all efforts by the Communists to capture control of our unions."

AFL leaders have agreed to set up a committee to work for the Truman-Barkley ticket. Green made no reference to this in his speech. But he called upon wage earners to register and vote so "we can elect a new Congress and give it a clear mandate for progress."

Brannan In Minnesota

The administration didn't confine its vote drive strictly to the labor element today. It sent Secretary of Agriculture Brannan to Fairbault, Minn., with a contention that the 80th Congress "has had no inclination to legislate in the interests of either the farmer or the laboring man."

Brannan said agriculture and labor are "so interdependent that neither of us could prosper without the other."

Turning to the Communists-in-government issue, Brannan said:

"I can't help wondering why our Republican friends don't do more of their searching for Communists in New York and California, where statistics show most of them are located."

The Republicans predicted over the weekend that "thousands of southern voters are ready to vote for Dewey and Warren and for the establishment of a real two-party system in the South."

French Fight High Prices

PARIS, Sept. 6. (AP)—France finally got a new government today and millions of Frenchmen got a pay bonus of 2,500 france ($8.33) as a result.

The first act of the new coalition cabinet organized by Premier Robert Schuman yesterday was to order immediate payment of a cost of living bonus of 2,500 francs. Civil service employes and farm laborers were excluded. There were reports that further bonuses or wage increases might be forthcoming.

Premier Resigned In July

Schuman, a Popular Republican (MRP), took over the reins of government after France had been without a cabinet for eight days. It was his second turn in the post and his first actions gave many Frenchmen a feeling that "this is where we came in."

When he took office the first time, last November, the government ordered a wage increase of about 17 per cent. His cabinet finally fell last July as the cost of living spiralled upward while the cabinet resisted further wage hikes.

Food Costs Mount

Andre Marie then tried for a month, but his cabinet fell, too, because it also held out against bigger paychecks to meet mounting prices. The cost of foodstuffs in France rose almost 10 per cent in August alone.

Schuman's new cabinet, meeting less than 12 hours after it was constituted, met the problem by ordering the bonus. It said it was being paid without prejudice to any future actions it might take. The report is that the 2,500 franc bonus was to be considered retroactive for July and August, with a further increase of about 1,500 francs monthly to be ordered.

Moyers painting contractor; Dean and McPherson; Janes Brothers; Texas Sheet Metal Works; Hamilton Roofing company; Womble Olds; Engineering Service, Inc.; Western Steel Erection company; and Womack's.

Crowds Line Streets

The parade formed on Ave. M north of Main, turned east on Main around the courthouse square, then west on Broadway to Ave. Q.

Crowds lined both sides of the street for much of the distance, but it was estimated that due possibly to a hot sun not so many viewed the parade as in the past.

Judge Kilmer B. Corbin, county judge of Dawson county, and Democratic nominee for state senator from this district, spoke following the barbecue at the pits in Mackenzie park at noon. The barbecue was prepared and dispensed under supervision of the Carpenters local.

Music was furnished by a string band, and W. M. Barton was master of ceremonies for the program that followed the barbecue.

Dance Closes Program

A dance at Lubbock Supper club, starting at 9 o'clock tonight was to climax the day.

Business was at a standstill in some circles. Banks and many public offices were closed for the day, but retail business houses, under agreement for observance of the day as a holiday, opened following the parade to observe regular closing hours. The non-closing for the day was occasioned by the regular September Dollar day, a monthly feature of retail business.

Otherwise the day started off quietly, with no mishaps reported early, and with warnings from all official sources for the driving public to use caution.

free-for-all classic, a 300-mile dash around the 15-mile course.

The fastest racing planes ever assembled in any racing were on the line for the $40,000 race. The top qualifying speed was 418 miles an hour, with the second best qualifier barely a mile behind.

Racing experts looked for a winning average speed of more than 400 miles an hour.

On the lighter side, midget racers were keyed to go in the Goodyear trophy race, with $25,000 in prizes.

Soused Sailor Sleeps While His Body Sought In Channel

HOUSTON, Sept. 6. (AP)—A bunch of the boys were whooping it up in Baytown late last night and early today, seeing the town after many days at sea.

Returning to their tanker at the Humble docks, one of them fell into the ship channel. The others sat down to ponder the situation. After about 30 minutes they decided to spread the alarm.

The sheriff's department answered with a patrol car and others joined the search.

The channel was dragged and boats went out with lights to look for the body.

About two hours later a somewhat bedraggled seaman wandered into the scene of activity and nudged a friend:

"What's all the excitement about, buddy?" he asked.

The bedraggled seaman was the one who had fallen into the water. He explained that he saw a light down the channel about a block or so away, swam to it, pulled himself up on a work barge and slept it off.

Officers Installed By DeMolay Chapter

The E. Y. Lee Chapter of the Order of DeMolay installed as new officers Sunday Dorrance Guy, Master Councilor; Jimmie Kennedy, Senior Councilor; J. Q. Warnick, Junior Councilor; and Tommy Cooper, Sheriff. They succeed Jim Bob Bryan, Jackie Martyn, and John Kallas.

Installed as Chapter Dad was Clyde Gibson, succeeding John Ross Bradford.

The meeting was held in the Masonic Hall.

The new officers will be in charge of their first meeting next Thursday night, at 7:30 o'clock, at First Methodist church.

union leaders, in traditional labor day statements, expressed these urgings:

William Green, AFL president—"The policies instituted by the 80th Congress are sapping the economic strength of our nation . . . Those policies must be reversed."

Philip Murray, CIO president—"Those who foster monopoly and charge extortionate prices" are to blame for the Taft-Hartley act and the "premature death of price control."

Walter Reuther, CIO-UAW president—"The coming together of the great segments of American labor in a united movement for economic and political action" would do more than anything else "to pull us out of our current state of anxiety and uncertainty."

Daniel W. Tracy, president of the AFL International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers—The 80th Congress "and its allies in the state legislatures have furnished the means for destruction of organized labor."

Mrs. Louella Crump Dies After Illness

Mrs. Louella Crump, 46, of 519 Ave. E, died in Lubbock Memorial hospital at 9:30 a. m. Sunday. A resident of Lubbock for the past 4 years, Mrs. Crump had been in the hospital for about three weeks.

Funeral arrangements, in charge of Plains Funeral home, have not been completed pending arrival of relatives.

Survivors include her husband, W. M. Crump, three sons, W. D. Crump of Levelland and R. D. and B. W. Crump of Lubbock; five daughters, Mrs. Catherine Prather and Miss Geneva Grace Crump, both of Lubbock, Mrs. Myrtle Gregston of Levelland, Mrs. Lillie Mae Daukhtry of El Paso and Mrs. Anna Hill of Roswell, N. M.; two brothers, five sisters and seven grandchildren.

Illinois Solon To Advise Gov Warren

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6. (U.P.)—Rep. Everett M. Dirksen, R., Ill., has gone to Sacramento, Cal., to assist and advise Gov. Earl Warren in the election campaign, his office announced today.

Dirksen, an aide said, will help the Republican vice presidential candidate in the preparation of speeches and advise him on agricultural problems.

Later Dirksen will go to Albany, N. Y., where he will serve on Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's campaign staff.

Vasser To Be Tried Today For Assault

BROWNFIELD, Sept. 6 (Special)—A rape indictment charging James Weldon Vasser, 19, of Oklahoma, will be called for trial today before District Judge Louis B. Reed and a 106th district petit jury.

Judge Reed appointed Burton G. Hackney and George W. Neill, Brownfield attorneys, to represent the man, after the prisoner had sworn that he had no funds to employ his own counsel.

Vasser's case, it was said, is first on a docket that includes three drunk driving cases (second offense); three charging theft, and two forgery.

A special venire of 90 men was summonded for the Vasser case.

Vasser, the state will attempt to prove, raped a Brownfield woman Aug. 16 after driving up beside her automobile on the Brownfield-Tahoka highway and tricking her into believing she had a flat tire on her automobile. Investigators said he stole an automobile here after the attack. Highway patrolmen arrested Vasser here several hours later.

Polio Is Fatal To Daughter Of Actor

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 6. — The daughter of actor Reginald Denny, Mrs. Barbara Denny Simmons, 32, became the 57th poliomyelitis victim to die in the current Los Angeles county epidemic.

Mrs. Simmons, wife of James W. Simmons, airline publicist, died yesterday at General hospital, where she had been a patient for two weeks.

She had been suffering from bulbar polio and had been in an iron lung.

Two other prominent infantile paralysis patients, Curtis (Buzzie) Boettiger, 18, grandson of the late President Roosevelt, and Will Fowler, 4, grandson of author Gene Fowler, are improved. Will's mother, Mrs. Beverly Fowler, also is a polio paient and is reported improving.

There have been 1,339 polio cases in the county this year.

Siam Miracle Healer Healing In Hospital

BANGKOK, Siam, Sept. 6. (AP)—Siam's "miracle healer" is in a good old-fashioned hospital today. He tried to drive a jeep by intuition.

The "healer" is Samanen Noi Ratanakosin, 12-year-old novice Buddhist monk. For months, crowds of hundreds daily have been coming to him in the belief his touch healed all wounds and cured sickness.

Enroute in a jeep to use his powers on a bedridden patient, the young monk suddenly announced he felt an "intuitive inspiration" that he could drive a jeep. He'd never driven one before.

The jeep owner, Nai Runsue, gave him the wheel. Samanen ran into a bus. His miraculous powers did not halt the bleeding from scalp wounds. Bystanders took him to a hospital.

Rev. Lambert In Serious Condition

Condition of Rev. Fred Lambert, who suffered critical injuries here Saturday in a car-train collision, was reported by an attending physician at Lubbock Memorial hospital at 9:35 a. m. today as "still critical but somewhat improved." He has not regained consciousness since the collision.

Pastor of the Eastside Baptist church, Lambert underwent a spinal puncture this morning to relieve a contusion of the brain which he suffered along with severe lacerations of the head and face. Results of several X-rays cleared the possibility of a skull fracture, the physician reported.

The injuries were suffered at 1:52 p. m. Saturday when Lambert's car was struck by a freight train at a crossing 75 feet north of Fifteenth street on Avenue A. He was driving alone at time of the accident.

presumptive, and Irene. The two younger daughters, Margriet and 18-month-old Arijke, remained at the palace.

The ceremony was secular but grandiose in a fashion that Europe may see for the last time in the Dutch royal household by prediction of the new queen herself.

Juliana, a handsome auburn-haired woman, ordered salmon pink begonias for the investiture instead of the traditional orange decor of the royal house.

The church was packed with the remnants of European royalty, distinguished foreign visitors and 3,000 of Juliana's subjects. Foremost among the royalty was 18-year-old Princess Margaret of England, who arrived by plane yesterday.

Representatives of Surinam and The Netherlands East and West Indies were at the ceremony but there were no Indonesian nationalists. They are in rebellion against the Dutch crown.

Following the inaugural ceremony Juliana accepted the cheers of hundreds of thousands of her new subjects as she embarked on a tour of the city's flower and flag-bedecked boulevards in the gilt state coach.

Amsterdam's normal population of 800,000 has been nearly doubled by an influx from the provinces of those who wished to catch some glimpse of the colorful processions and ceremonies.

Volcano Threat

at Mambajao—the now abandoned port city. Camiguin's largest—and the other extending to Catarman.

Arturo Alcaraz, weather bureau volcanologist who climbed the mountain's seething slope, reported dangerous new activity from the old crater of 1871. At first, the eruption came from a comparatively small crater—about 3,000 feet in diameter—about 1.8 miles from the old one.

Dysentery was adding to the discomfort of the thousands in evacuee camps along the ashpeited coast. The Philippines naval patrol—equipped with U. S. war surplus vessels—reported that those remaining were being removed as rapidly as possible.

However, a handful of oldtimers insisted upon staying.

Niagara Journey

friends eased it into the water about a mile below the falls. He ended his journey at Queenston, Ont., seven miles farther down stream.

The 10 x 6 foot barrel was trapped in the swirling waters of the whirlpool for 40 minutes before Hill's two brothers, Major and Norman, were able to tow it out into the current with a rowboat.

The barrel then entered a second series of rapids where it got trapped in another whirlpool and whirled around for three hours before it broke loose. It negotiated the remaining distance without incident.

It was the second trip through the rapids for Hill. He ran the rapids before in July, 1945.
