Midland C. of C. Manager To Be Principal Speaker Here At First Banquet November 20

With the annual event one week from tonight, ticket sales and other preparations for the first annual C of C banquet are taking on an increased interest, as announcement is made today that Delbert Downing of Midland has been engaged as principal speaker for the event.

Local manager C. H. Wright reports that ticket sales have been very satisfactory; 250 of the tickets have been distributed among members and it is expected that 200 of them will be sold for the event which will be staged in the main room of the Memorial building.

The Speaker

Delbert Downing, who has accepted the invitation to be speaker for the occasion, is one of the leading civic figures in West Texas and is manager of the Midland chamber of commerce.

Born on a farm in Stephens county, Midland became his home in 1938 when he moved there to become manager of a national chain grocery. He was an overseas field director for the American Red Cross during World War II, after which he returned to Midland.

An insight into his varied activities can be gained by a visit to his office, and a glance at the plaques and citations which adorn its walls. The Boy Scouts honored him with a plaque which says he was chairman of a campaign that added 77 new units in the Council in one year. Another bronzed appreciation comes from the Chamber of Commerce Managers Association of West Texas for his leadership as president.

Unfortunately there is nothing to show that he teaches the largest Sunday School Class in Midland, or that he talks to teacher groups all over the southwest.

Manager Wright says that anyone who misses this opportunity to hear Mr. Downing "will miss it."

Legion Post Planning Annual Christmas Party

At their meeting last Thursday night, local Legionnaires made preliminary plans for their annual Christmas party for Schleicher county children.

The event will be held in front of the Memorial Building on Friday, December 19th, between the hours of 5:30 and 6:30. Eldorado's famous Santa Claus will be on hand to help Legionnaires distribute candy and fruit to the children.

The age range for the children has been set as those in the 8th grade, and younger.

The party will in general be conducted like those of past years. Mrs. Oliver Teele will again have charge of the program.

Committees will be announced in December.

A. T. Wright Is Now 82

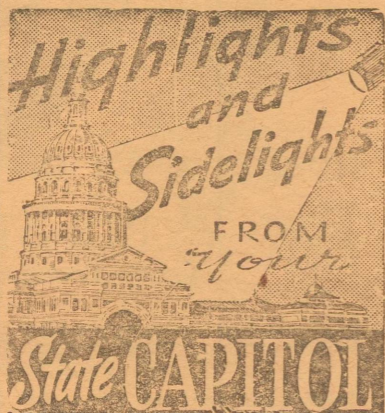

A. T. WRIGHT

Observing his 82nd birthday Nov. 6th was A. T. Wright, who is still actively running his store here in Eldorado.

For the occasion all of Mr. and Mrs. Wright's children, with the exception of a son, Taylor Wright, were home: Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Barber, Mrs. Agnes Crosby, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Montgomery.

Grandchildren present were Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Barber and two children Von and Scotty and Kit Doose, all of San Angelo.

The celebration was a family dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wright.

Austin.—It would be hard to find a Texan who hasn't been involved in a lively discussion recently as to whether the next Legislature should or should not pass a state sales tax or income tax next year. Most folks are pretty strongly pro or con—no lukewarm feelings.

Property taxes are another matter. People may gripe about them, but they don't often get stirred up about them. But the latest report by the Texas State Tax Study commission underscores the importance of this levy. It is Texas' biggest money-maker for state and local government. In 1953 property taxes will bring in an estimated $629,000,000 to the state and all the various local taxing units.

More interesting, the Tax Commission's study of assessment and collection practices and problems indicates that this figure is probably only a fraction of what is legally due. Shortage of personnel plus the mountainous difficulties of locating and evaluating all the items involved add up to inequalities and haphazard methods.

Under Texas law, individuals and businesses are supposed, to pay property taxes on all real estate—land and buildings. In addition, both businesses and individuals are liable for taxes on all "tangible personal property"—cars, airplanes, boats, furniture, jewelry, business equipment, fixtures, inventories, etc. Also, on all "intangible personal property"—money, bonds, stocks, mortgages, etc.

In practice, many of these are just plain ignored by officials and citizens alike. Many cities make no effort to collect property on cars. As to money, the Commission report observes, "If money in the bank were taxed on January 1, relatively few persons or businesses would have any money on deposit that day."

In other areas where more vigorous efforts at collection are made, results are spotty. Researchers found that the same piece of property would net widely varying tax bills in different counties. On one example the range was from $616 in Harris County to $1,132 in Travis County. They also found that some people claim homestead exemptions for more than one house. At $3,000 each, these add up to unknown thousands in untaxed value.

Exemptions plus low assessments take a big bite from theoretically possible tax collections. In a study of 3,037 house sales, the Commission's research staff found the legal tax due to be $95,019. Actual taxes levied were $2,706, only 3 percent of what strict application of the law would have produced.

Even though many tax offices are undermanned, Texas has 1,500 assessor-collectors. Sometimes a county, city and school district each will have an official doing the same job in the same area. Result: total cost of property tax administration in Texas exceeds $15 million a year.

Post Script

As we go to press this week there seems to have been a challenge by Loraine to the Eldorado Eagles' eligibility to represent District 6-B as champions. This should all be ironed out at tonight's meeting of 6-B officials in Loraine.

Ministerial Alliance Sets Thanksgiving Service For November 26th

The Eldorado Ministerial Alliance met on Monday morning at the Mexican Baptist mission, with the Rev. Jose Orena as host. After refreshments were served in the new annex, the president of the alliance, Rev. James Sharp, presided at the monthly business session. George Reesor attended for the first time.

The "Trick or Treat" clothing drive for CROP, sponsored by the P-TA, was discussed, as well as the current RIAL (Religion In American Life) program. The Urban Renewal Plan and its part in slum clearance in Eldorado was discussed. Plans were made for the annual community Thanksgiving service. The Thanksgiving service will be held Wednesday evening, November 26, at 7:30. Rev. James Sharp will conduct the service. It will be held at the First Baptist Church again this year because it is the only church in town that will be large enough to accommodate the people, if the attendance is as large as last year.

The next meeting of the alliance will be a breakfast meeting at 7:00 a. m. in the educational building of the First Methodist Church on Monday, December 1. All ordained ministers of Schleicher County are invited.

Better Jury Facilities Proposed To Com. Court

At their meeting Monday, the Commissioners Court of Schleicher county received a recommendation from the Grand Jury that action be taken to establish facilities for housing juries during trial of felony cases.

It was suggested that the balcony of the Schleicher County court room could be converted into dormitories with toilet and bathing facilities. C. H. Trigg was foreman of the grand jury.

It was ordered by the Court that the problem be tabled and presented again at the first regular meeting of the Court in February of 1959.

At the same meeting the Court employed Mrs. Helen Carlman for one week to assist the County Agent in office work, at $50 per week.

Also returns from the General Election were canvassed. (These returns were run in last week's Success.)

Eagles District Co-Champions . . . To Represent District In Play-Offs

Friday night the Eldorado Eagles scored three touchdowns early to roll over the big Hermleigh ball club 38-14, and win a share of the district championship. Loraine was defeating Robert Lee 20-6 on the same night to gain their share of the title.

The Eagles continued their offensive display of the past Friday night, rolling up 331 yards on the ground, and 152 yards passing for a total of 483 yards. Starting early, the Eagles scored the second, third and fourth times they gained possession of the ball. The first score came on a 47-yard run and pass play from Farris Nixon to Robbye Waldron. Carl Parker ran over the extra points to make the score 8-0. Eldorado held the Cardinals following the kick-off and Mike Jurecek broke through to block a 4th down punt.

Soon after this Dan Mittel broke over left tackle for 24 yards and a touchdown. In the first of the second quarter Mittel broke loose for 30 yards on the same play. The point after failed in both cases and the score was 20-0. Later in the second quarter Carl Parker went over left tackle for 20 yards to run the score to 26-0.

Following the kick-off, the Cardinal Quarterback Orville Paty threw a pass to Jimmy Roemisch who raced 57 yards for a touchdown. This play made the only first down of the first half for Hermleigh and marked the only time the ball was out of Cardinal territory during the first half.

Soon after the kick-off, Farris Nixon hit Dan Mittel with a pass on play that covered 52 yards and rang up Mittel's third touchdown of the night. The half ended with the Eagles leading 32 to 6.

In the third quarter Farris Nixon capped off a 60-yard drive when he ran the ball over from the 1-yard line. This finished the Eagle scoring and the Eagle second team offense played the remainder of the game.

Hermleigh scored in the fourth quarter as Joe Paty ran over from the 2 and his brother, Orville, scored the extra points to make the final score 38-14.

On the last play of the game Freshman Jim Runge threw a 24-yard pass to another freshman, Jim Cheek.

The Eagle offense and defense both were great all through the game. Halfback Dan Mittel and Fullback Carl Parker had their second fine game in a row. Mittel racked up 188 yards against Bronte and 153 yards against Hermleigh while Parker had 138 yards against Bronte and 71 yards while playing only half of the Hermleigh game. Both boys readily share the credit with the Eagle line which has done a fine job opening holes.

The Eagles have a week off while they wait to find out who they play in Bi-District.

GIN TOTAL APPROACHES 3,000 MARK

Cotton ginning in Eldorado had totaled 2844 bales yesterday as compared with 2220 bales on Wednesday a week ago.

This would indicate that the crop had been coming in at a rate of about 100 bales a day during the past week, but Gin Owner Geo. Mikeska said it was beginning to slow down.

One experienced cotton man said he believed the county would have a season's total of 4,000 bales; another was of the opinion it would not quite reach that figure.

That's only 1155 bales to go. A lot will depend on the weather.

"The democracy that forgets God is a democracy that is through. I am not saying that religion is good because it helps democracy. That would be like saying, it is good because it helps business. I am saying that religion—our relationship with God as individuals and as a nation—is of first importance"—Conrad Hilton.

Runge-Moore Wedding Saturday

In a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening at 6:00 in St. Mary's Episcopal church in Eldorado, Miss Anita Runge became the bride of Jene Willet Moore.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Forrest Runge, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lawrence Moore and the late Mr. Moore.

Mrs. Moore graduated from San Angelo high school, San Angelo college, and the University of Texas. While in Austin she was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority and the Cotillion club. She studied sculpture in Rome and was a home economist. Until a few months ago she was employed by a firm in New York City.

Her husband received a degree from Texas A&M college after graduation from San Angelo High school. He was in service in the Army, and is engaged in ranching and farming.

Miss Mary Bain Spence was organist for the wedding in St. Mary's Episcopal church. Ceremony was performed by the Rt. Rev. Everett H. Jones, bishop of West Texas, and the Rev. Alanson Brown, vicar of St. Mary's.

Mr. Runge gave his daughter in marriage.

Her tailored formal gown of white moire faille was fashioned on princess lines. The V-shaped neckline was rounded in front and back, and elbow-length sleeves were complemented by long kid gloves. The gored dress was designed with a tiny train. The hemline, accented with a moire faille bow, was higher in front, revealing the bride's lace shoes.

Her fingertip-length veil of Spanish lace fell in scallops around her face. She carried a spray bouquet of spider chrysanthemums.

Miss May Runge of Dallas was maid of honor for her sister.

Matron of honor was Mrs. David Edwin Brown of Corpus Christi, while Miss Margaret Scarbrough of Austin was bridesmaid, and Celeste Moore of Brownfield, the bridegroom's niece, was junior bridesmaid. Acolyte was James F. Runge, brother of the bride.

The bridegroom's brother, Jack Ousley Moore of Brownfield, was best man, and groomsmen were Mort L. Mertz of Big Lake and Rod R. Richardson of Iraan.

Guests were seated by the bride's brother, Richard S. Runge of College Station, and Elmer F. Smith

MRS. JENE WILLET MOORE

of Eldorado.

Following the wedding ceremony the wedding party and guests went to the Runge ranch for dinner, which was served buffet from the dining room table. Guests were also served the tiered wedding cake.

Gifts were on display in the upstairs rooms, and the yard around the house was adorned with candle lanterns.

Following a trip to Merida Yucatan, Mexico, the Moores will be at home here in Schleicher county.

In July of 1953 he was promoted to manager of the Southern division with headquarters in Baytown.

Fifty Years Of Livestock Improvement Observed

College Station.—A half century of scientific improvement in the livestock industry will be observed during National Animal Science Week in Texas, December 1-6.

Governor Price Daniel has signed a proclamation designating the observance as a part of the 50th anniversary of the American Society of Animal Production, an organization of some 3,000 professional workers in the field of animal production.

The society is dedicated to the improvement of livestock and livestock products, said Dr. O. D. Butler, head of the Texas A and M. College system's department of animal husbandry. Its work includes research, teaching and extension of all livestock breeding, feeding and nutrition and marketing products such as meat, wool and mohair.

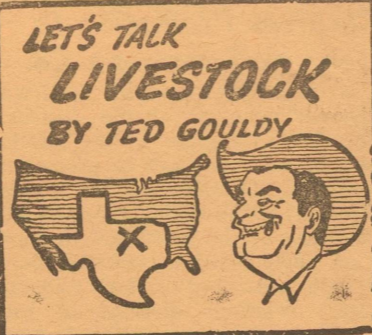

In making the proclamation Governor Daniel said, "Livestock and meat products is a $14 billion industry vital to the nation and especially to Texas.

"As one of the nation's leading producers of livestock and meat, Texas has found the industry increasingly important to the welfare of our agriculture, the health of our people, and the total economy. Responsible for many of the contributions leading to the development of our present livestock and meat industry is the American Society of Animal Production."

Texas A and M has contributed two presidents to the organization which has membership in every state and territory, and many foreign countries. They were Dr. J. C. Miller and D. W. Williams, both former heads of the Department of Animal Husbandry.

The department is preparing an exhibit of "50 years of progress in sheep breeding" as a part of the society's exhibit for the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago, beginning November 29. Dr. Butler also is chairman of the meats phase of the exhibit.

Fred Gunstead drove to Van Horn last Friday and visited with Mr. and Mrs. William Sauer and children, and returned to Eldorado Saturday.

Garden Club Meets In Regular Session

When the Eldorado Garden club met at the Memorial Building on Wednesday morning, 15 members were present. Roll call was answered with a thankful thought. Mrs. Edwin Jackson gave the best thought.

The meeting was opened with the reading of the club creed. A letter was read from the state president of garden clubs and district club notifying that the Eldorado club is now affiliated with these organizations.

Mrs. V. G. Tisdale gave a report for the committee on rules and regulations. Mrs. Christman was appointed to serve on the membership committee. The club voted that instead of exchanging gifts at Christmas time, each member would bring $1.00, the total amount to be used by a committee to bring cheer to aged people and shut-ins. Several members of the club were appointed to serve on the decorating committee for the Chamber of Commerce banquet which is to be at the Memorial building on the evening of November 20th.

Mrs. Kenneth Cheek was leader of the program. Mrs. L. A. Phillips and Mrs. L. W. Steen had charge of decorations which were made up of various kinds of Christmas decorations, foliage branches and berries on a table which was covered with a large red cloth decorated with reindeers and Santas.

Mrs. C. H. Clark gave a very interesting demonstration on how to build terrariums. Many suggestions were offered on garden helps.

The club will have a luncheon at Java Junction on Tuesday, Nov. 13, at 12 Noon. All members wishing to attend the luncheon should contact Mrs. Bascom Hartgraves.

The others have been ordained previously and will be installed along with these three on or about the last Sunday in December.

The King Who Lost His Thumbs

"Be not deceived: God is not mocked, for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap, for he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the spirit shall reap life everlasting." Gal. 6:7-8.

Adoni-Bezek, a great king of the Canaanites, is being repaid for his many acts of cruelties. He is reaping what he sowed.

Be sure that you reap what you sow. If a man sows evil, then he reaps evil. Sow neglect and read heartaches. If a man does right, he can depend upon the presence of God to aid him. Joseph was cast into prison, lied about, hated by evildoers, but he was never forsaken by the Lord. Daniel is another illustration of right living. News From Our Neighbors

Good Deer Prospects

Prospects for a good deer hunting season in Kimble county for 1958 should surpass those of last year, according to Game Warden Robert S. Evins.

"Considering that there were a good number of fawns to survive last year's screw worm infestation, and that there was generally ample cover and food available during the critical winter and spring months, we should expect to see some good-conditioned and good-antlered deer brought in by the sportsmen this year," he said. —The Junction Eagle.

Declares Dividend

About 35 persons attended the annual meeting of the Sonora National Farm Loan Association at the Methodist Church Monday, Nov. 3. Frank P. Bond of Sonora and P. T. Robinson of Ozona were re-elected directors for a three-year term and were also re-named president and vice president, respectively, of the organization.

Other officers include A. E. Prugel, secretary - treasurer, Mrs. Lillian Hamby, office manager, and Charles E. Davidson, Ozona, and James Williams and B. E. Moore, Eldorado, directors.

It was announced that a dividend of five per cent will be paid on all stock in the association as of Nov. 30.—Devils River News.

219 Votes for Edwin Mayer

Sutton County voters went to the polls Tuesday, November 4, to join with the national trend of casting votes for Democratic party candidates. In the race for governor, Edwin S. Mayer, Sutton county Republican candidate, polled 219 votes as compared to Democrat Price Daniel's 307.—Devils River News.

Separate Tax Office

Coke county voters have approved the proposition to separate the sheriff and tax office. The issue was decided by a vote of 406 to 240 on a separate ballot submitted at Tuesday's general election.

It means that effective Jan. 1, 1961, a county tax assessor-collector will take over his duties, and that the sheriff will cease to be ex-officio tax assessor-collector.

Candidates for both offices will be elected in 1960. Paul Good, present sheriff and tax assessor-collector, will continue in his same capacity during the remainder of his four-year term which expires Dec. 31, 1960.—Robert Lee Observer.

Where They Found Him

David Boleyn lost a valuable Border Collie several weeks ago, and placed an ad in the paper. Nothing happened. Last Friday a hand working for Sol Kelley saw the dog in the Schoenfeld field on the river. It was very dead, with its face jammed in an irrigation pipe. The dog evidently had chased a rabbit into the pipe and his head had become wedged at the entrance. He couldn't withdraw it.—Mason County News.

Home Demonstration Agent's Column

By MRS. VIDA KREKLOW

November club meetings will be taken up with a long look at the world of fabrics. Today one must be careful in buying either yard goods or ready made clothes for things are not what they seem. A casual shopper would take for granted that a suit was all wool, that a blouse was all cotton, or a length of dress material all silk or all linen. Not true. The man made fibers have flourished the past few years and every area of the clothing world has been touched.

Rayon was the first of the synthetics. I can remember when a rayon garment was so weak when wet that care had to be taken in washing. Now there is no danger in tearing a garment up when washing and judging from the strength of rayon fibers used in tires, it has certainly been made stronger.

Nylon came next. About May, 1940, I remember the rush on a department store in the town where I lived when it was noised about that nylon hose were on sale there. Nylon is a made up name. It doesn't refer to anything. The manufacturers wanted something short, easy to say and remember, and that had a similar sound to rayon. If a steel wire the same size as a nylon thread, and the nylon thread are placed in a stretcher, the steel will break first.

Nylon got a bad break in its early day. It came out at the beginning of the war and many of its uses were ill-advised and many materials improperly used. Such as parachute materials being used in the manufacture of clothing. Nylon takes care of itself now.

The discussion could go on and on for an almost continuous procession of the new fibers goes on.

Our chief concern will be to learn what we are dealing with. What about the vague term of, "wash and wear"? It doesn't mean much. Virtually everything is washed and then worn. The inference, of course, is that no ironing takes place between the process of washing and wearing.

Untreated or pure cotton must be ironed. But cotton mixed with dacron may be worn for a half dozen times with no ironing and after that only a slight pressing will do. Some cottons are treated with resins which prevent wrinkling and eliminate much ironing.

Nylon and orlon are made from such elements as carbon, air and water.

Dacron is made of petroleum, air and water. And speaking of dacron reminds me that we have been pronouncing the word incorrectly. According to the manufacturers, the proper way to call it is Day-kron. Long a and the accent on the word day.

850 County Extension workers had a wonderful week together at A&M college week before last. Our guest speakers included directors of Extension in Minnesota, Indiana, and Director Ferguson of Washington, D. C., head of all the United States Extension Service.

The recurring theme of the whole conference was, "Meeting The Challenge of a Changing Agriculture." We were reminded over and over again that we, as agents, are teachers and educators.

One interesting session afforded a thorough discussion on the learning process. That's a mighty big subject for any group, but it is always an interesting one for a teacher. For instance, these are some of the reasons which were given as to why people want to continue to learn—even after they are out of school.

They want to gain: health, time, money, popularity, improved appearance, comfort, leisure, self confidence and personal prestige.

They want to be: good parents, social and hospitable, creative, up to date, influential, gregarious, efficient and recognized as an authority.

They want to do: express their personalities, resist domination of others, satisfy their curiosity, appreciate beauty, collect things, win others' affection, improve themselves as a human being.

They want to save: time, money, work, discomfort, worry, doubts, risks and personal embarrassment.

Every one of these reasons for wanting to learn is valid. Personal improvement is an admirable thing. To be associated, in any way, with the whole process, makes me thankful for my privilege of working with people who want to learn.

It's easy for the girl who knows shorthand to get a good job with good pay nowadays. But with lunches and shoes and shower presents so expensive, it's harder than ever for her to save.

That's why so many working girls are investing in Savings Bonds on the Payroll Savings Plan. Once you tell your pay office how much you want to save each payday, you can relax and know that your saving is being done for you. Automatically your money will go into safe and sure U. S. Series E Savings Bonds.

And now every U. S. Series E Bond bought since February 1, 1957 pays a new, higher interest — 3 1/4% when held to maturity! It matures faster, too, in only 8 years and 11 months. And redemption values are higher, especially in the earlier years.

Is your boss a handsome bachelor? Is he considerate? Have a sense of humor? If so, marry him quick. If not, it makes good sense to invest your hard-earned dollars in Savings Bonds. Then you can make a lot of good things come your way. Like a trip to Europe. Or a car of your own. (And if a man happens along, too — so much the better. You'll need extra money then for things like feminine frills and frying pans.)

So start investing today in Savings Bonds — either on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work or regularly where you bank.

How much drop in price can we take between feeder calves and finished beef and still make a profit out of a cattle feeding operation? This is a question that has been asked over and over during this period of high feeder cattle prices. A rule of thumb guide has been used by cattle buyers: If slaughter prices are $28 per hundred, then you can pay $30 per hundred for feeder calves up to 500 pounds or less, and expect to make a reasonable profit. During years when feed prices are about normal in relation to meat prices as this year, the rule of thumb varies and you can pay a little more. However, $34 per hundred for calves under 500 and sell at $28 per hundred for slaughter—an extra good job of feeding and marketing is a must to show a profit.

Roses may be planted now—fall planting is preferred by many in Texas.

Aim for quality and you may get quantity. A few chosen varieties will produce as many flowers and give far more pleasure than too many poorly attended plants.

Essentials for success with roses are: proper planting, a sunny location and a well drained soil. Start with No. 1 grade plants and have the ground ready when the plants arrive.

Sheep numbers are expected to be up about two million head on January 1, 1959 over January 1, 1958. By January sheep and lamb numbers are likely to total about 33½ million head. This will be our largest inventory since 1949. Texas alone will account for over one-third of this increase. This increase is due primarily to two reasons. The 1958 lamb crop showed about a four per cent increase over 1957 or an addition of about one million head, whereas, the number slaughtered in 1958 was down about one million over the previous year. Lamb prices are expected to hold up well for the next few months. However, the impact of larger supplies of meat, especially pork, will likely cause a decline in lamb prices during the second half of 1959.

Gerald Hartgraves, Howard Derrick, Robert Martin and Bob Sykes attended an animal health program, sponsored by some 34 representatives of the various breeds of livestock in the state of Texas, with the Livestock Sanitary Commission. The problem of brucellosis was discussed and the serious situation confronting cattlemen and all livestock men in the state. Proposed legislation was reviewed; all livestock committees and livestock producers were asked to support the proposed legislation.

The local committee is assisting the Livestock sanitary commission on a state wide basis for enactment of state laws in order that all producers and counties that desire to test and eliminate brucellosis on a county or area basis will be protected.

agents are nearing completion. These plans came from the people of the county through your county planning board, who through various sub-committees, studied the county situation, set up objectives and goals and studied with agents means of reaching these goals, using all the techniques available in a practical educational and action program to make your life the fullest and most rounded—solid financially—getting the most out of life.

No, your county extension program comes from the people and not from Washington down. If a better county is to be had to live in, you will have to help build.

The situation in agriculture today is so sensitive that a one per cent reduction in production can increase prices two or three per cent; and a one per cent increase in production can decrease prices as much as five per cent.
