Behind many "For Sale" signs there is a sad story: A family borrowed more than they could afford to pay for a home, or payments and interest rates were too high; the home had to be sold, often at a loss. This tragedy could often be avoided if the families would seek help from a home loan specialist, such as our Association.

We work with you to arrange for a loan that's as easy to handle as monthly rent.

Mrs. Lonnie Lee Thomas of Olden.

Born Jan. 13, 1945, in Seguin, he had moved to Olden with his family about 14 years ago. He was a student at Desdemona High School.

Officiating at the funeral were Hillery Motesinger, minister of the Olden Church of Christ, assisted by J. L. Nisbett, minister of the Desdemona Church of Christ. Burial in: Corinth Cemetery was directed by Hamner Funeral Home.

Surviving are his parents; four brothers, Lee of Oklahoma City, Herman of Dallas, Homer of Rome, N. Y., and Emmett of Olden; three sisters, Mrs. Laverne Gordon of Olden, Mrs. Joyce Walker of Midland and Mrs. June Sledge of Abilene; his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Clemmis Thomas of Olden, and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Lillie Davenport of Seguin.

Life Insurance -

The sharp rise in the past year has been attributed, in part, to the setback that occurred in the stock market. Many investors, who had been building up funds there for particular purposes, such as a child's college education, were made more aware of the hazards that were involved.

They began putting more money into insurance and into savings accounts.

Another part of the increase, it is noted, was due to the rapid growth of group life insurance, which is usually job-connected insurance. More than two out of three non-farm workers are now so covered.
