Triumphant Ike Heads Northward

Adlai Swings West For Five Key Addresses

SPRINGFIELD, ILL.—(AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson Thursday laid out a program of five major speeches, starting with a reply in Denver Friday to the Republican slogan, "It's time for a change."

The Democratic presidential nominee announced through his campaign manager, Wilson Wyatt, that in the five speeches he will deal with the independent vote, GOP "catch phrases," and lay down a farm program in Kasson, Minn., Saturday.

Wyatt said that at Seattle, September 8, the Illinois governor will give his views on conservation and public power. Stevenson will speak September 9 in San Francisco on foreign policy. The top topic for a fifth major speech in Los Angeles, September 11, has not been finally fixed, Wyatt said.

Continuing a policy of ignoring the activities of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Republican presidential nominee, Wyatt declined to comment on charges Eisenhower has leveled at the Democrats in the southern trip the GOP nominee just completed.

Not Worried About Ike
Stevenson's manager was asked if the governor's camp was "worried" by the interest and large crowds Eisenhower had had in the South.

"It was interesting but it hasn't worried us," Wyatt said. "Why should it? He had had large crowds but that doesn't necessarily mean anything."

"I remember that four years ago in Louisville, Ky., Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York—who might be called one of Eisenhower's Eastern managers—had a terrific crowd. Dewey greeted this crowd by saying they couldn't all be Republicans. As it turned out, he was right on election day."

Wyatt noted that President Truman carried Kentucky in 1948 by a substantial margin.

Wyatt announced details of a nine-day Western trip covering nine states which starts Friday with Stevenson's appearance in Denver. He said the Kasson, Minn., farm speech Saturday had been drafted after consultation with "20 or 30" farm leaders, including Secretary of Agriculture Brannan. He declined to forecast what stand the governor will take on the farm issues.

Warmer Weather Trails Cool Front As Drouth Goes On

By The Associated Press
Texas basked in the luxury of fall-like weather Thursday but a gradual warm-up threatened more days of 100-degree-plus temperatures.

Clear skies, furnishing bright moonlight and a burning sun, stretched the lengthening drouth another day. The Weather Bureau still could offer no relief.

Light rains were reported Wednesday at Victoria, Palacios and Corpus Christi, where they weren't needed so badly as in other sections of the dry, parched state.

The highest temperature Wednesday was a sizzling 108 at Presidio. Only two other points reported temperatures at the century mark or higher. They were Edinburg with 109 and Laredo with an even 100.

Fort Worth Blast To Upset Production Of War Aircraft

FORT WORTH—(AP)—Helicopter production for the Korean War theater will be "materially hurt" by a fire and explosion which injured 10 persons at Bell Aircraft Corporation's plant here Wednesday, company officials said Thursday.

The warehouse blaze, which touched off a thunderous blast after water was sprayed on burning magnesium at 5:45 p.m., damaged or destroyed an undetermined number of complicated, hand-tooled gears and castings in storage there, a spokesman explained.

They are irreplaceable immediately, and will slow down the company's turnout of helicopters, a majority of which have been going to Korea.

The injured, none of whom was hurt seriously, were members of the Saginaw Volunteer Fire Dept.

BETTER GET THOSE FOOTBALL TICKETS—Long, weaving lines formed Wednesday as Midland Bulldog football tickets went on sale for the six home games. The 1952 ducats may be purchased Thursday and Friday in the foyer of the Midland High School Auditorium. Good seats still were available Thursday.

Optimistic Reports Improve Business Prospects For Fall

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK—(AP)—Business headed toward its expected fall pickup with an abundance of optimistic reports Thursday to wave it on.

There was bad news, too, of course: warnings of lower profits, fears of over-building industrial capacity, and the international monetary fund report that world financial conditions are on the down-grade because some countries are trying to live beyond their incomes.

But here is Thursday's quota of good news within the United States: Joblessness has dropped to around its lowest point since the end of World War II. The Department of Commerce predicts this condition will last at least until November.

Industrial production has rebounded quickly after its tumble in mid-Summer due to the steel strike and the vacation periods.

Steel production this week will be back to 100 per cent of capacity, for the first time since the end of

School Enrollment Hits High Of 7,320

Reaching an all-time high, enrollment was 7,320 in Midland Public Schools at the close of school Wednesday afternoon, Supt. Frank Monroe announced Thursday.

The 7,320 enrollment represented an increase of 1,361 above the same day of school last year, Monroe said. To keep the teacher-pupil ratio at an even keel, a number of bus students have been shifted between schools, the superintendent said.

As a result of transfers, Crockett Elementary School will have no bus students in attendance, he said.

Enrollment by schools follows: high school, 923; Cowden Junior High, 748; Sam Jacinto Junior High, 780; Crockett, 659; De Zavala, 524; Lanar, 489; North, 414; Sam Houston, 398; South, 1,032; Terminal, 956; West, 408, and Carver, 691.

FRIDAY INJURY 'NOT SO BAD'

Midland football fans received good news Thursday afternoon. Building Quarterback Larry Friday was released from Midland Memorial Hospital after X-rays showed no left knee fractures. He had been hospitalized Tuesday afternoon. The knee was only twisted.

Coach Tugboat Jones commented that it is "not as bad as first expected." He expects Friday to be ready for the opening game against Lamesa here.

The signal caller will not work out this week.

Two Fatally Hurt When Hit By Car

ODESSA—Two pedestrians were fatally injured Wednesday when they were struck by a car driven by William Stanley Coleman, 25, of Odessa.

The two men who died enroute to an Odessa hospital, were identified as Harry Erwin, about 55, and Ray Parker, 45.

Coleman was being held by Odessa police for questioning. Discharged from the service recently, he told police he did not see the two men.

Aides Cheered By Nominee's Dixie Crusade

NEW YORK—(AP)—Dwight D. Eisenhower formally opens his presidential drive in Philadelphia Thursday night with a brand new fighting personality won in two days of campaigning below the Mason-Dixon Line.

The Southern invasion wiped out the jitters in the Eisenhower camp. It put smiles back on the faces of Eisenhower lieutenants. And it set the stage for the next phase of the big push with the GOP nominee now in the role of a two-fisted fighter.

Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire, one of Eisenhower's top advisers, told reporters: "From this moment on, the campaign will be as hard-hitting and vigorous as any campaign ever waged in your memory or mine."

Eisenhower himself apparently was well pleased with the results of the Southern tour—the first concerted Dixieland stumping ever done by a GOP presidential nominee.

"Do you think you made a dent in the Solid South?" a newsmen asked as Eisenhower stepped from his plane here Wednesday night and flung up his hands in a gesture of happiness.

Made Lots Of Friends
"I made a lot of friends," the general replied with a smile.

Eisenhower will outline his views on foreign policy Thursday night before Pennsylvania Republicans—and a nation-wide NBC television and radio audience. He is expected to turn heavy criticism on the Truman Administration's conduct of foreign affairs.

From Philadelphia he will push on to Chicago Friday, and then on Saturday to Kansas, Minn., where his path will cross that of Democratic presidential nominee Adlai Stevenson.

It seemed almost certain that Eisenhower will hammer away in the days to come at what has now become the favorite GOP phrase—"that mess in Washington." This was the big gun in his artillery in the South.

It was just two days ago that Eisenhower headed south from New York on a plane trip that some suspected was merely a "warm-up" for the other tours ahead—and not to be taken too seriously. Some of his advisers were not sure it was a wise move to risk a poor showing in Dixie before the formal campaign opening.

But 48 hours and six speeches later, Eisenhower had emerged as a bare-knuckle campaigner with a "give 'em hell" delivery and a crowd-appeal that startled even the general himself.

Eisenhower's Southern audiences cheered when he turned loose on the Administration and called for a change. There were shouts of "Pour it on!" and "Give 'em hell, Ike!" whenever he attacked the Administration.

Water Consumption Sets Mark For City
Midland used a record-breaking amount of water during August.

Henry Nunn, city water and sewer engineer, reported Thursday that 295,140,000 gallons of water were pumped during the month from the city's well fields at Cloverdale, Rose-dale and Wadley.

The daily average was 9,520,000, the highest average in the city's history.

★ LATE NEWS FLASHES ★

MIAMI, FLA.—(AP)—Two Navy hurricane-hunting planes developed mechanical trouble Thursday, leaving unanswered at noon the question of whether the raging Hurricane Baker will continue its course toward the United States or veer northward over open water in the Atlantic.

GALVESTON—(AP)—A re-check of vote totals on Galveston County's automatic voting machines was under way here Thursday in connection with the Ninth District runoff campaign between incumbent Congressman Clark W. Thompson of Galveston and T. W. (Buckshot) Lane, Wharton sheriff.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Senate Internal Security subcommittee Thursday described the Distributive, Processing and Office Workers of America as a union "under the control of agents of the Kremlin" and urged perjury action against its officers who signed non-Communist affidavits.

Midland Residence Badly Damaged By Flames In Kitchen

The kitchen in the home of Mrs. Tommie Groves, 728 West Louisiana Street, was badly damaged when fire broke out shortly before noon Thursday.

Mrs. Groves told Detective Lt. Dick Hemingway that she was in another part of the house when she smelled smoke and rushed into her kitchen to find it ablaze.

The flames were extinguished by the Midland Fire Department.

Two Ellenburger Wildcats Will Be Drilled In Upton

Two Ellenburger wildcats have been slated for immediate drilling in Central-South Upton County.

J. C. Barnes and Basin Petroleum Company of Midland will drill the deeper of the pair, a 2,700-foot project two miles west of the shallow Crockett field.

It is No. 1 Ross Clark Thrash and is located 660 feet from south and west lines of section 5, OC&SF survey, certificate 3590.

Two and one-quarter miles east of the Crockett field, Cities Service Oil Company, Sinclair Oil & Gas Company and Shively Oil Company spotted their No. 2 E. F. Noelke.

Northwest Of Failure
Drill site is in the center of the "cheat quarter" of the northwest quarter of section 4, block A, MK&T survey.

It is also three-quarters of a mile northeast of the firm's No. 1 Noelke, a 6,815-foot Ellenburger failure in the southwest corner of section 4.

The No. 2 Noelke was originally staked 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 4, but this location was abandoned when the No. 1 Noelke was plugged.

Devonian Topped High Showing Oil In Andrews Tester

One-half mile north of the discovery well of the Maguire (Ellenburger) field of Central-East Andrews County, Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1-36991 University of Texas, topped the Devonian nine feet high to the same formation in discovery well which flowed oil on that formation.

Operator cored from 12,810 to 13,840 feet. Recovery was 33 feet of Woodford shale and seven feet of Devonian lime. That seven feet of lime had good signs of possible production. Operator was preparing to core deeper. A drillstem test will be run after that core is cut.

The Devonian top by samples is at 12,832 feet on a datum of minus 9,458 feet.

Location is 660 feet from north and west lines of the southwest quarter of section 8, block 8, University Lands survey.

Gas-Distillate Well Testing To Complete In NW Lea Sector

The Texas Company No. 1-BJ unit is testing to complete as the first Pennsylvania gas-distillate producer in the Moore (Devonian) area of Northwest Lea County.

After acidizing perforations from 9,736 to 9,840 feet with 500 gallons of mud acid, the well kicked off and flowed out all load oil and residue. During the last 10 hours of flowing through a 24 1/4-inch tubing choke it made 63 barrels of distillate and a gas volume of 2,510,000 cubic feet daily.

Operator was still testing the project, which is at plugged back total depth of 9,890 feet.

Gas-oil ratio during the above 10-hour flow was 22,200-1.

Location is 660 feet from north and east lines of section 26-11s-32e. It is the location west of the discovery well of the Moore (Devonian) field.

Anderson-Prichard Will Drill Wildcat In SE Lea Region

Seven and one-half miles west and slightly south of the multipay East Doharidge area of Southeast Lea County, N. M., Anderson-Prichard Oil Corporation spotted location for a 2,500-foot rotary location to test San Andres.

It will be drilled as No. 1 Buffington, 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from west lines of section 19-32s-36e.

CSOC Completes East Extension To Aldwell Pool

Cities Service Oil Company No. 1-19 Merchant has been completed as a one and one-half mile east extension to lower Spraberry production in the Aldwell field of Northwest Reagan County.

It gauged 362 barrels of oil and 292 barrels of basic sediment and water per day through a one-half inch choke and perforations from (Continued On Page 16)

GI Twins Start Homeward After Skin Graft Succeeds

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—Pfc. Leo Kijowski left for home Thursday after skin grafted from his twin brother's body enabled him to walk again.

The 24-year-old Army veteran of Korea left with his twin, Leonard, from Kelly Air Force Base to fly home to Fort City, Pa. Their return trip ended the story that began when Leo was burned severely over more than 40 per cent of his body in an explosion of an enemy white phosphorus shell on the Korean front lines last October 7. After emergency treatment in Korea and Japan, he was sent to Brooke Army Hospital here for treatment.

Burn specialists worked to save his life and later learned Leo had an identical twin in Korea. They had Leonard flown here for the careful, skin-grafting operations.

The major operation, on June 21, required four and a half hours. Leo slowly recovered and only recently gained strength which allowed him to walk again.

'GEE, IT'S TOUGH GETTIN' EDUCATED'—That's what the glum expression of the young cowboy to the left seems to say. The future cowpuncher is Billy Connery, son of Mr. and Mrs. David B. Connery, 2000 West Ohio Street. To his right are two young misses who seem to find school more to their liking. They are: Vicki Thams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thams, 1400 West Louisiana; and Vicky Lee Dill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Dill, 1902 West Tennessee Street. All three are students at Sam Houston Elementary School in Midland.

★ JOHNSON IN HOLLYWOOD ★

It Pays In Movies, All Right; Yes, It Pays To Be Ignorant

By VANESSA BROWN

HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)—There's a young, imaginative talent agent in New York whom I have offended by my reaction to his proposal that I make a small fortune by becoming a permanent member of a television quiz show.

"You're perfect for it," he reasoned. "You're an ex-Quiz Kid. You're brilliant and witty."

"That's true," I modestly rejoined. "But does Marilyn Monroe, say, sit in on information panel shows?" That stumped him. So I went on:

"Haven't you heard that I've rewritten my life completely and it contains not one reference to my ever having been a Quiz Kid?"

"Nope," I told the agent, "call me when there's an opening on 'It Pays to Be Ignorant.'"

This is my one-woman losing battle against three national magazines who carried recent stories on the Quiz Kid who became a Glamour Queen.

Now, I don't want to lose the friendship and confidence of this particular agent, so I owe him further explanation; Can't Risk It

For all I know, he is still looking for the movie actress reckless enough to blurt out the answer to a question concerning the birthplace of the Queen of Sheba or to distinguish between measures of Mozart and Hindemith.

But I can't risk showing my brains any longer.

For years I let the studio go ahead and exaggerate. "Yes, Vanessa speaks 15 languages." . . . "Why, yes, Einstein wrote her for the answer to a certain geometry problem." . . . "No, we're sorry, Vanessa wouldn't have the time. She has to finish her plate."

If I had to do it all over again, I'd tell the publicity boys on that first interview after signing my studio contract:

"I've never read anything but pulp magazines. I never went beyond the third grade in school. A talent scout found me in the Georgia swamp talking gibberish and wearing a byrlap bag. I sign 'X' to my contracts."

Maybe it's because early Hollywood was built on beauties discovered in drug stores, laundries and beauty parlors, but there's no personal excitement about an actress with star of "halls of ivy" clinging to her.

Producers don't credit her with sex appeal and they skip her when a part calling for physical allure comes along.

Friends Failed Me

Newspapermen ask her dull questions and she gives dull answers. Her legs may be as shapely as Betty Grable's and her chest as rounded as Jane Russell's, but she's never asked to pose for cheesecake pictures by the press agents.

My best friends wouldn't tell me, but I finally learned—the hard way—that I was caught like a rat in the trap of my own I. Q.

Now I'm as dumb as Irma around producers and directors.

I wear plunging necklines and slits in my skirts.

And I'm getting the colorful, arresting parts that never came my way when I was a walking encyclopedia.

I had a scare a few months ago when I read that Marilyn Monroe was an omnivorous reader—classics, mind you, not best-sellers—and that she was addicted to reading the poems of Rainer Maria Rilke at odd moments.

Has Hollywood changed, I wondered?

Then I talked to a press agent who sputtered at the idea that Marilyn was a literary woman and accused someone of trying to sabotage his work on her behalf.

"Maybe," he roared, "she goes around with a copy of Rilke, but there are copies of the latest comic books hidden under the covers."

The metal known as "tungsten" in the United States is called "wolfram" in many other nations.

In a ceremony at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday in the First Presbyterian Church, Ada May Secor became the bride of James Eckford Miller.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Secor, 2407 West Ohio Street, and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Ulla E. Miller of Aberdeen, Miss. Officiating for the double ring ceremony was Dr. R. Matthew Lynn, church pastor.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Preston Lee played a group of organ selections, including "Jesus Priceless Treasure," "To God On High Be Praise," "God's Time Is Best" and "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring," all by Bach, "Adagio" by Peeters and "Autumn Song" by Elmore. Mrs. Lee also played the wedding marches and accompanied Allan Johnson, who sang "Because."

The wedding party stood before an altar banked with baskets of white gladiolus and white asters, woodwardia trees and white cathedral tapers burning in floor candelabra. Honor attendants for the couple were Mrs. Paul H. Lavery, Jr., sister of the bride, and Pat Wheaton of Milwaukee, Wis. Ushers included Donald Boswell of Dallas, Charles Bailey of Ballinger and Paul H. Lavery.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her in marriage. She was gowned in French hand-clipped lace and tulle. Lace covered the fitted bodice, with applique motifs forming an off-the-shoulder effect. The bodice had long sleeves ending in petal points over the hands and the bouffant lace overskirt cascaded into a demi-train.

The bride's tiered veil of imported illusion fell from a matching calot with motifs of lace dotted with tiny pearls. She carried a white orchid with stephanotis and white carnation showers atop a white Bible.

Dress for the matron of honor was a delectable blue nylon net over tulle. Her cascade bouquet was of pink carnations with pink satin leaves and maline. Assisting the couple in receiving guests at the reception in the church parlor were the bride's parents and the matron of honor. Leila McGeath presided at the punch bowl and Mary Doherty of Fort Worth served the wedding cake. Guests were registered by Mary Jane Potter. Also in the houseparty were Jane Me-

Ex-Hitler Soldier Addresses Church Group In Midland

A former member of the Hitler Youth in Germany, Goldfried Reichel, who once hated Americans for what they did to his country, spoke Wednesday night at the Church of Christ, 600 West Tennessee Street.

Reichel, who is attending Harding College at Searcy, Ark., spoke on missionary work in Laim, a suburb of Munich, Germany, where he hopes to return after his preparation here for a career in the ministry.

An American sergeant, Carl Wilson McDaniel, largely was responsible for the "reformation" of Reichel. McDaniel was stationed in Germany with his family, and he took the boy in to live with him when his own relatives would not offer him a home. He introduced him to Otis Gatewood, who is with the Church of Christ in Lubbock, and this contact was effective in turning Reichel to a life of service in the church. Sergeant McDaniel was raised in an orphan's home, which gave him an understanding of the lost feeling of the homeless boy.

Reichel was sent to France during the last World War to dig tank traps for the German army. He said that his group, hardly more than children, were under constant attack by American planes. They had no choice in the matter of service in Hitler's war machine, and had to undergo whatever the Nazi bigwigs planned for them.

Inspired by Americans Reichel says that his religious career was inspired by the Christian example set for him by Americans. He believes that only through Christian brotherhood will the world find peace. He was impressed by the fact that America was not destroyed by the war, and he says that Americans seem to be more "full of life" than Germans.

It is his impression that the Germans live in fear of the Russians, and he has had personal contact with this problem, since he escaped from the Russian zone in Germany in 1948. He says that the children of Germany are more serious than those in this country, which is probably due to the terrible privations they had to endure after the war.

Reichel sees what he has seen of America, and he has found the Americans to be friendly. He could recall no incident wherein they had treated him unkindly because of his background as a former enemy.

Mrs. W. P. Beckers Will Narrate Stories

Truce Chiefs Meet Briefly, Call Recess

MUNSAN, KOREA—(AP)—Korean armistice negotiators Thursday ended one recess and called another after the UN Command suggested that the Communists really don't want to end the fighting.

The delegates met for 51 minutes at Panmunjom in their first session since August 27. No progress was reported. The Reds agreed to a UN request for a recess until September 12, the sixth straight recess in the on-again, off-again talks.

Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison, senior Allied negotiator, told the Communists, "There is a widely held suspicion that you do not desire an armistice and that your negotiations are mere camouflage to conceal your real purpose to continue the conflict."

New Fair Department Store Opens To Serve Midlanders

A formal opening is planned Friday morning for the Fair Department Store at 118-20 South Main Street, Midland's latest retail unit.

At 9:30 a. m. Mayor Perry Pickett will cut a ribbon on the doors, symbolically opening the store for business. The event will mark the beginning of a three day sale, with many bargains available to customers.

Each woman entering the store on Friday will be presented a free or-child. Balloons, gum drops, and whistles will be passed out as favors for the kiddies.

Store offers suits, furnishings, a complete line of work clothing and shoes. The women will find a varied assortment of dresses, coats, hats, lingerie, sportswear, purses, and a large variety of piece goods. The same items listed are found for children, both boys and girls.

R. A. Kayal, owner of the store, has been in the dry goods business since 1924, having started in Lamesa, his headquarters. The unit in Midland is his tenth store in the West Texas area. Others stores are in Monahans, Odessa, Baytown, Brownfield, Peecos, Seagraves, Levelland, Snyder, and Lamesa.

Dick Campbell, who recently moved here to 108 West Pecan Street with his wife and two children, will manage the Midland outlet for Kayal. Campbell has had many years of capable experience in the dry goods business, including 15 years with Montgomery Ward as a store manager.

Entering the Fair Department Store, one finds a spacious interior, measuring 80 by 110 feet. It is divided into two areas, one side for women's merchandise and the other devoted to articles for men. There are no obstructions to limit the view of the customer. A complete shoe department extends across the back of the store.

The Fair store has been remodeled entirely. Two former units were consolidated into one by removing an intervening wall. The interior fixtures are manufactured of light oak by the Rutledge Fixtures Company. Two air conditioning units and two large heaters provide regulated temperature at all times. Lighting is furnished by continuous chains of five-foot daylight neon tubes.

Kayal said that he intends to follow out his favorite business theory, "buy it right and sell it right," in his relations with customers in the Midland area.

Leonard Fire Razes Two Store Buildings

LEONARD—(AP)—Two store buildings were destroyed and two others damaged Wednesday night when fire broke out on the city square here.

Fireman L. O. Hill, 36, was slightly injured in fighting the blaze. Defective wiring, firemen said, caused the fire.

TRACTOR KILLS YOUTH
HOOKS—(AP)—A tractor lever slipped Wednesday, killing 17-year-old Richard Smith with a head blow. Hooks is a community near Texarkana.

One Merchant Never Advertised—Until he advertised: "For Sale . . ."

Louisiana Senator, U. S. Envoy Swim Strait Of Bosphorus

ISTANBUL, TURKEY—(AP)—An American ambassador and a senator can tell the home folk they swam from Europe to Asia—but they can't claim any distance record. They picked a spot on the Bosphorus Strait, where the continents are a half mile apart.

The currents there are swift and tricky, however. So it was something of a feat for Ambassador George McGhee and Senator Russell B. Long (D-La.).

Others paddling along were Mrs. McGhee, two McGhee children, Marcia, 12, and George, 10, and Mrs. Martha Hunt of Washington, D. C., the ambassador's private secretary. A rowboat accompanied each swimmer.

They made the crossing near McGhee's summer home.

Mexican Cattle Still Stay At Home

LAREDO—(AP)—Fresh meat—but no live cattle—has crossed from Mexico into the United States since the Agriculture Department's ban on shipments has lifted three days ago.

Fresh cabrito (young goat) meat was brought across the border into Laredo Wednesday. It was the first shipment in six years.

But customs officers said they knew of no cattle ready to be moved into the U. S. anywhere from Brownsville to Del Rio.

India Spurns 'Gift' As Communist Trap

NEW DELHI—(AP)—India Thursday returned Red China's famine relief donation of 400,000 rupees ($84,000) because it had political strings attached. The government acted to head off a similar gift from the Soviet Union.

A foreign office spokesman said the Chinese presented the gift 10 weeks ago to the Indian Red Cross society with the kicker that the funds should be distributed through the Communist-sponsored "Famine Relief Committee" in Andhra region, Madras state, a Communist stronghold.

The government thus rebuffed what was tantamount to Peiping's underwriting of a political movement seeking to overthrow Prime Minister Nehru's regime.

FINGER TREATED
Henry Drier, 1410-R South Big Spring Street, suffered a compound fracture of a finger while working Wednesday. Emergency treatment was given at Western Clinic-Hospital.

Odessa Treated

A. A. Morgan, Odessa, tool dresser for Clayball Drilling Company, suffered a lacerated lip when he slipped and fell while working Wednesday. He was treated at Western Clinic-Hospital.

New Lamesa Station

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Communications Commission Wednesday issued grants for a new standard radio station, Citizens Broadcasting Company, Lamesa, Texas, 1200 kilocycles, one kilowatt, daytime only.

Dixie-Lasses Lead Miss America Show

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—(AP)—Two belles from below the Mason-Dixon Line and a charmer from California led a parade of pulchritude toward the Miss America 1953 title Thursday.

Iris Anne Fitch of Washington, D. C., Miss District of Columbia, Gwen Harmon of Birmingham, Ala., Miss California, won all-important preliminary contests Wednesday night.

The 19-year-old capital queen scored in the opening talent prelim with her soprano rendition of "With a Song in My Heart."

Earlier, Miss Harmon, 19, and Miss Shores, 20, tied for first place in the swim suit preliminaries.

WORLD WAR II NOT OVER YET

TOKYO—(AP)—The Japanese government will send a surrender mission to the Philippines to urge three Imperial Japanese Army holdouts to call off the war.

For seven years, the trio have resisted all inducements to surrender.

The surrender mission will distribute leaflets, newspapers, letters and photographs from families of the three. They also will play tape recordings from the families telling the holdouts the war is over—come home.

Oilers Regain Win Column, Down Colts

ODESSA —(P)—Odessa's faltering Oilers moved back into the win column Wednesday night with a booming, 16 to 10 victory over San Angelo.

The win kept Odessa in second place by half a game. The Oilers were pushed out of the lead Tuesday with their fifth straight loss to Big Spring.

Little Wes Ortiz went all the way for Odessa, scattering six hits in the first eight innings before tiring and allowing six more in the top of the ninth.

Colt Manager Mark Christianman paraded four pitchers to the mound in an effort to stop the big Oiler bats which had kept the Odessans on top of the Longhorn League until Tuesday night.

Starter and loser for San Angelo was Lefty Parks Thomas, who allowed seven runs in the first one and one-third innings. Following him were Dick Palmer who failed to retire a man; Clarence Tinkler, who stayed in until the end of the third, and Cotton Russell, who left first base to pitch three-hit ball in the last five frames.

Ken Kowalik, Glen Burns and Russell hit homers for the Colts. Burns with none on in the seventh, Russell with none on in the eighth and Kowalik with the bases empty in the ninth.

Odessa's big inning was the second, in which Bob Martin's Oilers scored eight runs off eight hits.

San Angelo scored seven runs off six hits and four Odessa errors in a ninth inning rally.

The score: H H E
San Angelo 100 000 117—10 12 4
Odessa 483 100 000—18 17 8

Amarillo Gold Sox Take Tighter Hold On Spot in Playoffs

By The Associated Press
Fastballer Jack Venable outduelled one of the top West Texas-New Mexico League pitchers and the leading team Wednesday night to give Amarillo working room in its playoff bid.

Venable led the Gold Sox by Clovis, 3-1.

That decision, plus Lamesa's loss, placed Amarillo two games over the fifth-place Lobbs.

Don Moore homered for Pampa with the bases loaded in the first inning and the Oilers went on to subdue Lamesa, 11-7.

Borger maintained third place on a 2-1 triumph over Albuquerque. Fred Schmidt capped his tenth win as Abilene nosed Lubbock, 4-2, in a 10-inning game between second-division clubs.

First Injuries Hit Southwest Elevens

By The Associated Press
Injuries cropped up Wednesday as Southwest Conference football squads held their third day of Fall practice.

Billy Ed Daniels, varsity left halfback for Rice Institute's Owls, suffered a dislocated left shoulder and will be lost to the team at least three weeks.

At College Station, the first casualty of the season occurred Tuesday when Guard Marshall Rush of the Texas Aggies sustained a fractured bone in his face.

And at Austin, X-rays were to be taken to determine the extent of injuries received by Bob Glenn, promising University of Texas sophomore guard who received an injured knee.

Feille Reappointed

WICHITA, KAN. —(P)—The National Baseball Congress Thursday announced the reappointment of Jerry Feille of Dallas as 1953 Texas State Commissioner of non-professional baseball.

Steeds Shade Tribe, 3 To 2

BIG SPRING —(P)—Aramis Arenibia betted Israel Ten in a mound duel and Big Spring shaded Midland, 3-2, before a near-capacity house here Wednesday night.

The win enabled the Steeds to hold onto first place in Longhorn League standings, a place they won only Tuesday.

Midland outlived the Broncs but blew a fine scoring opportunity in the first inning and never was able to do much with Arenibia's offerings thereafter.

Arenibia walked Bill Brown with the sacks jammed in the first round, forcing in Earl Bosensberry. He forced Gahlen Dinkel to hit a ground ball to Witty Quintana at third to end the threat, however.

The Steeds struck for three runs in the second, after Scooter Hughes missed a double-play ground ball.

The Cayuses batted completely around in that inning. Juan Visteur and Buddy Grimes opened the round by working Ten for walks. Al Costa singled and Al Valdes forced with a scratch single to plate two runs. Arenibia sacrificed both runners around and Rick Gonzales was walked intentionally to load them up again. Ossia Alvarez then dispatched a grounder to Hughes but the usually-reliable Scooter let it get away from him for the third run.

Manny Temes blasted one of Arenibia's pitches over the left field wall for Midland's second run in the sixth but the Big Spring right-hander was straight after that.

Bosensberry got a free ticket to first in the seventh but was eliminated in the midst of a double play.

In the eighth, Julio de la Torre singled with one away but died at first base.

Popular Bert Baes will pitch against Midland Thursday night in the finale of the two-game series in Big Spring. The Veteran Longhorn Leaguer is to seek his twelfth victory for the season.

Faced with a riddled hurling corps, Tribe Manager Jay Haney may call on Rightfielder Glen Selbo for mound duty. His choice might be Eddie Jacome.

Roswell Registers 4 To 1 Triumph

SWEETWATER —(P)—Milton Hain and Bob Weaver of Roswell combined pitching talents for a 4-1 victory over Sweetwater here Wednesday night.

Ralat, who had to leave the game in the fifth inning when a line drive injured his pitching arm; received for his seventh triumph.

Weaver preserved the win for Ralat by blanking the Braves on four hits during the final four and one-third innings.

Roswell took advantage of Sweetwater's leaky defense to score twice in the third, then added single runs off Rolando Rodriguez in the fourth and seventh by virtue of two extra base wallops.

Vernon Wins First Game In Last Six

VERNON —(P)—Winning their first game out of the last six starts, the Vernon Dusters stopped the first-division Artesia Drillers here Wednesday night, 9-4.

The Dusters took the lead in the first cantp and never were headed from that point on.

Wally Hanna hit a two-run circuit smash over the right center barriers in the fourth inning for the first Artesia tallies. Rudy Briner, who had singled, rested on the sacks at the time of Hanna's blow.

With two down in the seventh, Alonso tripled and scored when Bill Haley was safe on an error by Vernon's hot corner man, Goldy Gholson.

A double off the bat of Joe Niedson scored Vernon's two runs in the first inning. Bill McElveys and Ed Bucynski were on the sacks at that time. Both had walked.

Niedson Homers
Niedson's homer with a mate aboard sparked the three-run third inning for the Dusters. A hit batter, base on a ball, two singles and Piteher Al Richardson's triple brought in the four runs of the fourth set.

The two clubs will ring down the curtain on Vernon's professional baseball in the Longhorn League for the home front with a doubleheader Thursday night.

Confident Durocher Signs New Contract, Looks To Next Year

NEW YORK —(P)—Leo Durocher bravely proclaims in public that his New York Giants can overhaul the runaway Brooklyn Dodgers.

Privately, however, the dapper little manager, who Wednesday signed to lead the Giants again in 1953, is looking forward to next year.

"We have not given up by a long shot," he insists, "not until they can show me in black and white that we're mathematically eliminated."

Leo, however, knows that only a miracle, even "bigger than the one that brought the National League flag to the Giants last year, is needed. And he is not counting on it. He knows his team, handicapped by injuries to Monte Irvin and Sal Maglie and the loss of Willie Mays to the service, is not good enough to pull off another miracle. So he is resigned to "wait until next year."

Finch To Preside At Baseball Meet

ABILENE —(P)—Robert L. (Bob) Finch, public relations director for the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, will preside at joint sessions of a six-league convention here Sunday.

Suggestions for realignment involving at least four of the six southwestern circuits will be submitted and studied in a series of meetings beginning Saturday night.

At least two leagues, the West Texas-New Mexico and the Longhorn, will hold separate meetings Saturday night, and all leagues are expected to caucus between joint sessions Sunday.

First of the joint sessions begin at 10 a.m. Sunday. All meetings are scheduled in the Wooten Hotel here.

Hal Sayles, Longhorn League president and host president of the weekend meetings, said Wednesday he was "fairly certain" some form of club and league realignment would result from the meetings.

It appears definite that a few, if not several, changes in league membership, involving probably four and possibly five leagues, will be consummated, Sayles said.

Presidents and club owners—the latter designated as league directors—of the Big State, Gulf Coast, West Texas-New Mexico, Longhorn, Arizona-Texas and Southwest International leagues have been summoned to the meeting by National Association President George M. Trautman. The joint session was recommended by league presidents in a closed meeting here August 27. That meeting also had been requested by Trautman who, in a telegram to Sayles Wednesday, expressed regret that he could not attend and named Finch as the presiding officer representing the national association.

Sayles earlier had said the league presidents had agreed on a realignment plan which would be presented to league directors at the Sunday session. He said they also agreed not to make public their recommendation prior to the meeting.

Ace Bulldog Quarterback Larry Friday Hospitalized With Major Knee Injury

The big question mark remains as to the caliber of football team the Midland High School Indians will field when they enter the 1952 season against Lamesa here, September 19.

Coch Thurmon L. (Tugboat) Jones could shed little light on the subject in an address on season prospects to the Midland Lions Club Wednesday night at the high school cafeteria.

"We don't know what we've got yet," the amiable coach declared. Jones said "we've got just as good a chance as any other team, and we're not going to consider ourselves beat until the game is played."

Spit's Commended

While the coach took an optimistic attitude regarding season prospects, he said that about the only bright spot in the picture since practice sessions opened September 1, was "fine spirit" of the team.

Jones, who is starting his fourth season as Midland mentor, said the spirit of the boys was the best he had seen here. He announced that the team had a meeting on their own initiative Tuesday night and laid the law down to each other on keeping training rules during the season.

For the balance of Jones' talk, the "old crying towel" came in for a liberal soaking.

First on his list of woes, the coach announced that his ace player, starting quarterback Larry Friday had been hospitalized that afternoon with a knee injury and might be sidelined for a major portion of the season.

Friday twisted a knee in a fall while horseback riding this summer, and suffered a recurrence of the injury in Wednesday's practice. Jones said that the 190-pound senior was his "best defensive boy."

A triple-threat man, Friday was equally adept at quarterback, fullback or blocking back. He also was the team's punter and extra point kicker.

The Indians lost a lot of beef and experience by graduation this Spring and will be short on experienced reserves this season, Jones said. He pointed out that the B team numbers only 24 players.

By next season, Jones anticipates better reserves with Midland having two junior high schools this year.

The coach expects 100 boys to report out for the junior high teams this season, and out of that group 50 should report out for high school football in 1953.

"We just can't get the kids out for football," Jones said. "If you can get some of them to do anything, we want to know about it."

"By the time they reach high school age, they are getting the use of the family car and other privileges and just don't care for the hard work involved in football," he said.

"Then, too, we have a lot of three-day wonders," he said. "The boy reports out for three days and wonders what he is doing out there."

Passer Hunted

From his group of hopefuls, Jones said he had been unable to find a suitable passer. The middle of the line remains in doubt as the coach has found none outstanding in those slots.

To top this, the Indians will be entering the super 1-AAAA Conference for the first time this year without a soft touch on the schedule, Jones said.

The coach anticipates a light, quick backfield with the serial game his big problem.

A returning back is Roy Kimsey, a 175-pound speedster who has yet to reach his potential as a runner. A left-handed passer, Kimsey may figure in an aerial attack from a single wing-left formation.

Dick Spencer, 150-pounder who plays both fullback and halfback; M. A. Rose, a shifty little 150-pound halfback; Jesse Hatfield, 140-pound halfback; Bill Erskine, 150-pound quarterback; Darrell Spivey, a 175-pound junior moved from the line to fullback, and Rusty Rutledge, a 160-pound halfback who led the Midland B team scoring last year, round out the backfield material.

Jones had special praise for Spivey, a 175-pound stocky fullback that he described as "the toughest boy I ever saw."

The coach expects to be the strongest in the line at the end positions where he has a pair of seasoned performers in 160-pound Robert Keeling and 175-pound Bill Mims. Paul Davis, up from the B team, is expected to round into a top end also.

Cast Loose Weight

In the center of the line, where Jones expects to be the weakest, returning veterans may fill the gap left by graduation. As tackle post he will have 180-pound Bobby (Red) East, a regular on last year's team and captain, who has been sick all summer and lost a lot of weight, and 170-pound Keys Curry.

Bill Leonard, 165-pound regular defensive starter last year, will play both offensively and defensively this year at a guard position. Lighter men are battling it out for the other guard slot, including 150-pound Terry Fuglaar, 150-pound Jimmy Mashburn, and 170-pound Kenneth Shrum.

Another problem facing the coach is the center position. Milton Jones, a 170-pound junior, seems to have the edge over three other candidates.

They include Don Evans, a 150-pound sophomore up from the B team, 160-pound Charlie Crites and 160-pound Clinton Hamlin.

BLOW CHANCE TO GAIN ON YANKS— Lowly Tigers Continue Jinx, Ruin Cleveland Opportunity

By RALPH BODEN
AP Sports Writer

There's a growing fear in the hearts of Cleveland's baseball fans that history is about to repeat.

Last year, Cleveland won 17 games and lost only five to Detroit's fifth-place Tigers—but three of those defeats came late in September and knocked the Indians out of pennant contention.

The Tigers are worse off this year, they appear a cinch to finish last for the first time in their American League history but when the Indians furnish the opposition the Tigers eat ferocious.

Win Early Games

Cleveland started off by winning its first four meetings from the Tigers but since then they have managed to take only five out of 11 from Fred Hutchinson's charges.

They bit the dust again Wednesday night, 11-8, blowing a chance to cut the New York Yankees' three and one-half game lead. The Yanks were stymied, 3-6, behind the one-hit pitching of Philadelphia's Harry Byrd. In other games, Washington smeared the visiting Boston Red Sox, 9-2, and Chicago edged St. Louis, 1-0.

Brooklyn kept its cozy, eight-game National League edge over the New York Giants, nipping Boston, 6-4, while New York nosed out Philadelphia, 4-3, in 10 innings. St. Louis brushed by Chicago, 4-1, and Cincinnati downed Pittsburgh, 1-0, in remaining games.

Don Kolloway, 24-year-old utility infielder, ruined the Indians Wednesday night. Kolloway whacked a pinch-hit grand-slam home run off Lou Brissie in the sixth to wipe out an 8-6 Cleveland lead.

Byrd walked two and fanned four in hanging up his fourteenth victory for the A's. Irv Noren spoiled his no-hit bid with a blop double in the second inning.

The Senators shoved six runs across the plate in the second inning and beat Dizzy Trout and the Red Sox with ease.

The Dodgers overcame a 5-0 deficit in beating the Braves for the fourteenth time without a loss. The Brooks tied the score with five runs in a fourth-inning rally and won out in the eighth when Duke Snider squeezed Jackie Robinson home.

RIDING THE WEST TEXAS SPORTS BEACON— Fans Snatch Ump's Pajamas

A lot of old-timers, who still thought up to Tuesday night that they were pretty hot stuff on the baseball diamond, had little to show Thursday for their efforts except sore muscles.

The old boys, all of whom were over 40, played a short exhibition game Tuesday prior to the Midland-San Angelo baseball game and, just for the record, it wound up in a 4-4 tie.

Marvin Beauchamp, the fire department captain, accounted for one home run and Kenneth Johnson another. It was Johnson who captained the Whites while Johnny Hechtel skippered the Reds.

The real loser was Col. J. B. Wright, the umpire, who lost his bright striped pajamas and a beret after the game. The beret, incidentally, was borrowed from Charles Hughes, who had brought it back from Germany as a souvenir. The colonel apparently left them in a sack in the stands.

Longhorn League record for hitting in consecutive games, Scribe Tommy Hart recalls in a recent column. Moreno knocked out at least one hit in 43 consecutive games that year.

Mitchell Williamson, father of the Williamson system for selecting football champions, has bad news for the Midland Bulldogs. Williamson chooses Lubbock to repeat as state scholboy champion. Odessa is labeled as the District 1-AAAA runnerup.

Ol Guerra, right-handed ace of the Big Spring Broncs, will be showered with gifts during a pregame ceremony of the Midland-Broncs game Thursday night.

The Steed school has won more ball games in the course of a single season than any Broncs in history.

Colorful Frank Bridges, the Detroit scout, has just completed another junket around the Longhorn League. He watched one of the Indian-Vernon games in Midland.

Bridges continues to keep a close watch on John Visteur, the fast Big Spring center fielder. No doubt, he has paid some attention to Broncs ace Ol Guerra, too.

Hugh Welch, former San Angelo sports writer and widely known in West Texas newspaper circles, visited in Midland Wednesday. Welch now is executive secretary of the West Texas chapter of Associated General Contractors of America with offices in Abilene.

Maybe Johnny Taroan, San Angelo third baseman, is superstitious. He acts the part anyway.

Each time Taroan comes up, he crosses the plate in X fashion with his bat. Several Midland fans have been checking him for years and he hasn't failed in the practice a single time.

A sizable delegation of Midlanders followed the Tribe by Big Spring Wednesday night. And it could be heard among the near-capacity crowd in Steer Park.

Eager Eagles Again Flub Chance To Cinch Bunting

By The Associated Press

Dallas Eagles stand on the threshold of the Texas League crown room and can't huff, puff or bluff their way in.

Fort Worth's Cats won't get off the welcome mat.

The Eagles already own half the flag and Wednesday night had their claws all over the bunting when they nabbed a second-inning, four-run lead.

Then the Cats wore out eight of nine lives scoring in one big frame. That got Fort Worth by 8-4, a second straight win. The Cats will have to win four of four remaining while Dallas goes into reserve the same amount if the bunting is to be divided.

Meanwhile, Oklahoma City's Bill Greason outdueled Tulsa's Johnny Vandermeer for a 2-1 nightcap victory in their doubleheader. The Oilers scored twice in the tenth for a 6-4 afternoon victory.

Shreveport, already a cinch play-off club, fell before Houston, 6-2. Al Pappal taking the mound honors.

Beaumont clubbed San Antonio 4-2 in a squabble of also-rans.

Humble Completes Flowing Discovery In Tom Green Palo Pinto

Humble Oil & Refining Company has completed a flowing discovery from the Palo Pinto line of the upper Pennsylvanian at its No. 1-B Mary B. Hall, in Northeast Tom Green County.

That projected reported a full 24-hour flowing potential of 242 barrels of 41.3 gravity oil. The production was natural and was flowing through a 20/64th inch tubing choke.

From Perforated Section
The oil came from perforated section at 4,336-52 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 1,100-1. Flowing tubing pressure was 330 pounds. There was a packer on the casing and therefore there was no casing pressure.

There was no water in the oil which was produced on the completion test.

This discovery is one-quarter of a mile northeast of the nearest production in the Harriett (Strawn) field.

It drilled to a total depth of 4,964 feet. Tests were run on various zones from the bottom back up through the entire Strawn and Canyon sections.

Some of those tests developed some oil, but they also had water. Operator finally plugged back and completed from the Palo Pinto.

There is no other production from that pay in the Harriett field.

Location is 580 feet from south and 1,320 feet from west lines of the south half of the north half of section 23, Washington County Railway survey. It is 11 miles northeast of San Angelo.

Union No. 1 Loggie, in Northwest Borden County, 15 miles northwest of Gail took a drillstem test at 8,786-8,809 feet. The tool was open one hour.

Had Salt Water
Recovery was 1,300 feet of drilling mud and 690 feet of salt water. No shows of oil or gas were reported.

Operator was taking electric logs and will probably follow by plugging and abandoning.

Location was 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 9, block 32, EL&RR survey.

Union No. 1 Jones, 12 miles southwest of San Angelo, in the central-west sector of Tom Green County took a drillstem test in the Pennsylvanian line at 5,674-5,818 feet.

More Water Found
The tool was open one hour. Recovery was 300 feet of salty drilling mud and 4,918 feet of salty, sulphur water. The test did not develop any shows of oil or gas.

It has been plugged and abandoned. Location was 660 feet from north and east lines of section 756, German Emigration survey.

On the drillstem test, tool was open two hours. Sweet gas surfaced in one hour and 16 minutes. Recovery was the 2,500-foot water blanket used which was heavily oil and gas-cut, 75 feet of heavy oil and gas-cut mud and 3,600 feet of 40.1-gravity oil.

Ben Osborn Joins SCS Staff Here

Ben Osborn, formerly of San Angelo, assumed duties this week as conservationist for the Midland Soil Conservation Service, after attending the sixth International Grassland Conference from August 17-23 at Pennsylvania State College.

Osborn presented a paper at the conference on "Effectiveness of Surface Cover in Preventing Soil and Water Losses." His paper was based on a study of conditions in Texas, Oklahoma and the Midland area.

Approximately 1,500 persons—representing 58 countries—attended the session. Simultaneous translations were given at the conference for benefit of those speaking foreign languages.

Grasslands Studied
Purpose of the conference was to assemble latest information on grazing lands with an emphasis in the use of grass on cultivated lands. Benefits of grasslands to livestock and soil fertility were stressed.

One section of the conference was devoted to native grazing lands—similar to the West Texas area—with other nations outlining drought problems that are common to this area.

Another Texas speaker at the conference was B. W. Allred of Fort Worth, chief of the SCS range division, who spoke on "Brush Problems on Native Ranges."

Osborn announced plans to increase the SCS staff to three men, including Cal Boykin, Jr., who has been assigned to this district the past year.

The Midland district includes Midland, Martin, Howard and North Glasscock Counties. Offices are maintained in the Midland County Courthouse.

School For Gifted Children To Open In Santa Fe, N. M.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.—A new type of school for gifted children will open September 15 near Santa Fe, N. M. It is the Seton Village School operated by Mrs. Ernest Thompson Seton, author and world lecturer.

Enrollment will be limited to 10 students of junior and early senior high school levels. Next year, Mrs. Seton said, it is hoped to broaden the scope to include children from the first grade up through the college level. Enrollment, however, will remain small since individual instruction will be stressed.

All Forms of Art
All forms of art, music and dancing will be taught and an intensive course in horsemanship is to be offered. Archaeological trips will take the place of much classroom work. All this, Mrs. Seton said, will be in addition to everything which accredited institutions teach.

Educational director is to be Dr. H. C. Gosard, former president of Highlands University in Las Vegas, N. M. The staff also will include Clare Dieman, painter and sculptor, and Dr. Alma S. Whittin, former consultant in the education department of the American Museum of Natural History in New York.

Mrs. Dieman will head the art department and Dr. Whittin will teach Spanish and world history.

NEW 'LEVEL' IN USE

A new hydrolevel, for use by construction men in such jobs as setting a level line for a bricklayer, is a development of a simple water level. It has a 40-foot hose of transparent material attached to a water reservoir at one end and to a reading gauge at the other.

Many U. S. Farmers Have Extra Incomes
NEW YORK—(AP)—Almost a third of all U. S. farms are run by persons who have another job from which they derive their basic livelihood, reports the Institute of Life Insurance.
The principal income of this group comes from a job, business or profession in a town or city. The group also includes those whose main income is from pensions or invested savings.
This trend, which has almost doubled in the last 10 years, is attributed by the Institute to greater use of the automobile and the speed of modern transportation.

Youth Center Chatter

By NANCY LOU KLINGLER
Here is your weekly Youth Center Chatter reporter reporting to you the latest news in and around the Youth Center.

"Myrt" is back and we are all very glad to see him. Fern did a very good job of keeping the Youth Center while he was gone. By the way "Myrt," what happened to your hair????

Evelyn Hubbard is not going to attend Midland High School this year. She is going away to a girls' school, in Austin—St. Ann's. We surely will miss you, Evelyn, but we are sure we will see you later on when you get a holiday.

Another Midlander is going away to school. Ann Ashby is going to Mt. Vernon Girls' School in Washington, D. C. There are two other former Midlanders going to school there—Nancy Warren and Margie Hensley. Ann that sure is a long way off. We hope you don't get homesick.

Back To School
Well, dear old school has started once again in Midland. Some were glad that it started and others sure did hate to see it start, but it did anyhow so there was nothing that anyone could do about it except go, or stay home.

Then Senior Board of the Youth Center met last Tuesday night. We don't know the result of the meeting but it was one of the longest they have had in a long time, so something important must have gone on. Those attending were Paxton Howard, president; Mrs. J. T. Klingler, Sr., secretary; Mrs. R. W. Hamilton, Mrs. Stanley Brinkins, Don Nichols, F. A. Forest, George McInnis and "Myrt."

Well the new benches are here. They are to be treated as benches, too.

High School had an assembly right off the bat Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Michener led the group in singing "School Days" and then Mr. Michener, Mr. MacInnis, Mr. Mitchell, and Coach Jones all gave short talks.

We want to again invite the new Midlanders of the right age to be sure and come to the Youth Center. There always is something going on and if there isn't, all you have to do is to start something and it will go with a bang. So, all of you teen-agers be sure and come by. That means the freshmen who are in junior high schools, too.

Seems as though Paxton Howard, Jr., has acquired another nickname. The new one is "Pogo." Now we don't quite understand where he got this name, but he has it just the same. Very cute?????

Those helping behind the snack bar at dinner time are "Fli" Fryer, Paxton Howard and Bobby Hudson. Now, those who eat over there are requested to go all the way through the line and to pay L. C. The helpers are back there to assist you, so be sure that you have your mind made up by the time you get there so the line can move faster.

Don't forget the Friday night dances at the Youth Center. It will be a semi-formal dance. Now, to those of you who think this is a "stag or drag" dance, it isn't. Everybody be sure and come for there will be fun for everyone.

The Seniors are very anxious to get their long-awaited Senior rings. We believe the Seniors were the ones who wanted school to start the most. We don't really know why, but they were, just the same.

Barbara Whitson informed us that Don Hudson will not be going out of town for quite some time now. We sure do thank you for the information, Barbara.

Don Ingham is back from the ranch in Andrews County where she has been all Summer. When we asked did she have a good time, she said "sorta half and half." By the way, she came back because her dear old "alma mater" is starting again. Glad to have you back, Don. The Exes loved it.

Already the exes have been visiting us at high school. It was very nice of you to come and see us on the very first day. You just don't know how much we appreciate it???

Congratulations to Roane Pueti. Roane was the medalist in the Big Spring Invitational Golf Tournament held last week. There were others who entered, including Bill Franklin, Doyle Patton, Mike Patton and Paul Patton. Looks like the whole Patton family went over for that one, doesn't it?????

Many, many Midlanders attended the pro football game in Odessa last Friday night. Mary Jane Miller has added one more dear year to her life. Yes, Mary Jane is 17 years old or young, whichever you prefer. A surprise party was given for her, but Mary Jane "snuck" around and found out about it.

Congratulations to the newlyweds—Sue Corser and Robert Richardson. They were married in Clovis, N. M.

Youth Center Hours
Now, here is something very important, so be sure and read the following, which concerns the new Youth Center hours.

The YC will be open on week days during both lunch periods. Then it will be open from 4 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. On week nights, the Center will be open from 7 to 9 p.m. On Saturday afternoons, it will be open from 3 until 8:30, and at night from 7 until 11 or 12, depending upon whether there is a dance. The YC will be open Sunday afternoons as usual (2 to 8:30 p.m.), but it will NOT be open Sunday nights.

Football dances will be scheduled during the season.

Earl Chapman, John Klingler, Jr., and Jimmy McClatchy went fishing for two or three days—destination unknown, but perhaps Possum Kingdom or Texoma. Surely hope you have a good time, boys.

Well, that just about winds it up for now, so until next week excuse us while we gather the news for you. Bye...

Communist Roster Shows Fewer Names

CANBERRA, AUSTRALIA—(AP)—The Australian government claims membership of the Australian Communist Party today is about half what it was in 1949. In 1949 Communist Party membership was believed to be about 12,000.

Labor Minister Harold Holt says the Liberal-Country Party government had made a well-planned penetration of Communist ranks since it gained power in 1949.

Communists have lost control of some trade unions since the government introduced secret ballots, supervised by Arbitration Court, for positions as union executives.

Not New But Growing

There erupted onto page one of the nation's newspapers the other day two stories which never should have gotten that big a play. The fact that they did is due to one thing—secrecy.

In one story the Federal Trade Commission charged that an international oil cartel—five American and two foreign companies—controlled the amount of production and the prices of most of the world's oil.

In the other a Senate subcommittee accused the Army of holding back information on this country's scandalously expensive air base program in North Africa.

The 189,000-word report on the oil business originally had been labeled secret by the government. Some of it finally was shaken loose after pressure by members of Congress. But a lot was blue-pencilled and forever will remain secret as far as the public is concerned.

The air base story, which has been smoldering and sputtering for some time, hit page one the other day because the subcommittee said the Army hadn't been telling the public everything there was to know about the fantastic costs of the North African job.

If in both cases—oil and air bases—the public had been kept regularly and adequately informed of the situation, there wouldn't have been enough news left in the stories to warrant putting them on page one.

This secrecy business—as far as the government is concerned—is not a new thing, but it is a growing thing. And it's getting a little frightening.

The bureaucrat's dream—a government which can function free from the annoying light of publicity and consequent public reaction—came a bit closer to reality recently when the President, by executive order, extended military security to all federal departments.

A certain amount of such security is, of course, necessary. But a blanket arrangement covering all departments can make it awfully tough for people to find out what's going on in Washington, where even expert fact-finders easily can get bogged down.

Some of the biggest government scandals in recent years have occurred under the thick, protective blanket of official secrecy that had nothing whatsoever to do with military security.

In the corruption-ridden Reconstruction Finance Corporation, for instance, the public was not allowed to know who was applying for how much of a loan, what the terms of the loan were, and how the RFC members voted on it.

Only after the deal had been made was a brief announcement issued that such-and-such a firm had gotten a loan for so much. The RFC since has taken certain remedial steps, but things there still are hardly an open book.

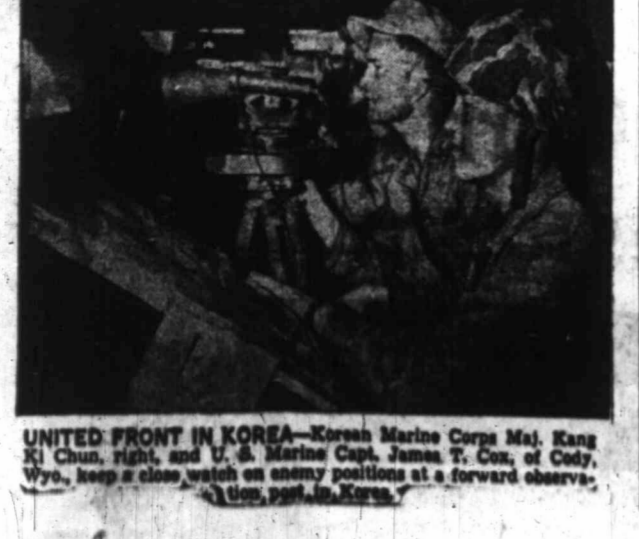

The Internal Revenue Bureau, also rocked by recent revelations of corruption, has its own special secrecy blanket. Under its protection occurred shenanigans which rocked the country.

Why farming should be secret is a little hard to figure, but even the Agriculture Department recently was hauled up for allowing some loan frauds to operate in its bailiwick. And a department official had the gall to say it was an administrative matter in which the public was not interested.

Not interested, our eye! The public is completely interested in what its government is up to. It's only when government operations are so beclouded by secrecy that people can't make head or tail of them that they're liable to lose interest.

And while we're on the subject, let's not forget for one minute whose government this is. It belongs to the people and no one else. And every aspect of it—short of really top-secret military matters—should be on open display for all the people all the time.

It's an honor to have your face printed on American money, but we'd be satisfied to get our hands on some of it.

His Favorite Chef

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Editor's Note: While Drew Pearson is on a brief vacation, the Washington Merry-Go-Round is being written by several distinguished guest columnists, today's being Dr. Leonard A. Scheele, surgeon general, Public Health Service, Federal Security Agency.

Dr. Scheele says: Americans enjoy best health in history; Citizens help speed conquest of disease; Public Health assists university research.

WASHINGTON — As a nation, we Americans are enjoying the best health in our history. Statistics are cold things—but they are revealing.

Our death rate last year was nine and a half persons for every thousand of our population. In 1900—only 17 years ago—it was a little over 20 in every thousand. Twenty odd years ago—in 1925—it was 11.7.

Perhaps even more revealing are the figures on life expectancy. Children born today have a life expectancy of 69 years. In 1900 life expectancy was only 49. We have, in other words, experienced a gain of almost 20 years!

How has this come about? The principal overriding reason is the literally tremendous advance that has been made in medicine and scientific research in the first half of the 20th Century. At no time in man's long struggle against disease have comparable gains been recorded.

Better Understanding Because of our better understanding of medical problems, we have greatly improved the health care of our children and youth. Diseases such as diphtheria, typhoid fever, whooping cough, and diarrhea that used to kill tens of thousands of babies and young children every year have fallen under the attack of medical science and public health practice.

Expectant mothers get much better care during pregnancy and during the birth of their babies than did their mothers and grandmothers. Almost nine in every ten American babies are born in hospitals, where they have a better chance to survive those crucial first days of life.

All the modern equipment and special care is at hand to help many a premature baby pull through who couldn't have made it in earlier years.

'Wonder Drugs' Clean water, safe milk, improved sanitation, immunization, and better knowledge of infant feeding have been in the forefront in reducing death rates and increasing life expectancy. The average American today knows much about the "wonder drugs," penicillin, sulfa, cortisone—all miracles of modern research and medical treatment, but he takes for granted the equally miraculous preventive work of his state and local health departments.

The public health physicians, dentists, nurses, engineers, sanitarians, and their members of the health team in our states and communities are the heroes—often unsung—who play such a big part in making our homes, communities, and our very lives safer and more healthy. They make it possible for us to drink more milk per capita than any other people in the world—because they keep it safe. They guard our water supplies and make it possible for us to eat in restaurants, on trains and planes and other public places without giving a thought for their safety. They stand guard against a host of communicable diseases that once afflicted hundreds of thousands, but today rarely occur.

Every community's small investment in public health work pays enormous dividends. Even the "chills" of malaria—which as recently as 1940 cost our Southern states $500,000,000 in sickness, lost time, and low production—have disappeared under the organized public health attack on mosquitoes.

Because we have conquered so many communicable diseases, we now have more people living to the ages when they are more likely to suffer from such chronic diseases as cancer, arthritis, heart ailments and we need a great deal more research to give us answers to these grave problems.

Our great American philanthropic foundations, endowed by individuals or families, and our voluntary health agencies, supported by generous public subscriptions, have leveled large-scale research attacks on many of the chief killers and cripples of today. The American Cancer Society, for example, is spending more than $3,000,000 a year on research. National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is spending comparable amounts to conquer dread poliomyelitis.

Conquest of Disease The citizens of our country, through Congress, are determined that their government, too, shall help speed up the conquest of disease. In 1950, Congress created the National Institute of Health in the Public Health Service, and in 1951, a National Cancer Institute.

Since 1946, Congress has created five more national institutes—in mental health, dental research, heart disease, arthritis and the metabolic diseases, and in the neurological diseases and blindness. In these institutes, scientists in many fields are studying the major health problems of today. The Public Health Service also has groups of research workers at Atlanta, Cincinnati, in Montana, Alaska and other places.

Through the grants-in-aid of our institutes, the Public Health Service gives financial assistance to thousands of research workers in universities and other institutions throughout the country.

To cope with the shortage of research scientists, large-scale research-training programs are under way in all of the nation's major teaching and research institutions. Many young scientists receive fellowships from the Public Health Service, the Atomic Energy Commission, and the National Science Foundation. Many more personnel—and much more money—are needed to develop our great fund of unexploited research ideas.

To guide the research programs of the Public Health Service and recommend worth-while projects for research grants, the Congress wisely created advisory councils composed of distinguished men and women outside of government. Scientists, physicians, and citizens prominent in public life serve on these councils. They are chosen from all parts of the country. As surgeon general of the Public Health Service, I can award a research grant only on the recommendation of these councils. This teamwork between citizens and government officials is one of America's great strengths.

New Research Center For the last four years, all of us in the Public Health Service have been looking forward to the completion of the new $60-million clinical research center on the grounds of the National Institute of Health. Here, next Spring, in Bethesda, Md., near Washington, D. C., we will add clinical research—the study of patients—to our laboratory work.

While we speak of achievements at home and the challenge of the future, we should remember that in many parts of the world the situation is vastly different. More than half the people of the earth suffer from disease annually. Large areas of the earth are educationally, agriculturally and industrially underdeveloped because their populations are ridden with disease.

Man has the knowledge and he has the world health organization and the Point 4 and other technical-assistance programs the framework for moving toward a world in which the released energies of mankind literally can transform the face of the globe. We work toward that goal through the efforts of world health, in my view one of the greatest challenges of this second half of a notable century.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY Written for NEA Service

I know that there are more optimists than pessimists, because practically everybody mislays the type of hand shown today. The good pessimist always makes the slam contract; a good optimist always passes a crupper.

Wasn't the queen of spades and dummy wins with the ace. The optimist lays down the ace, king, and queen of trumps in the hope of dropping the jack. In this case he has no such luck and the slam is doomed.

Our optimist does his best to recover by cashing the king of diamonds and entering dummy with a club in order to take discards on dummy's top diamonds. West promptly ruffs, however, and is then able to cash two spades to set the slam two tricks.

The pessimist does not hope to capture the jack of hearts. After winning the first trick with dummy's ace of spades, the pessimist immediately finesses the ten of hearts. When this finessing loses to the jack, our pessimist is not a bit surprised. He never expects to win a finesse!

Now, however, West cannot defeat the contract. If West tries to continue spades, dummy's remaining trump will stop the suit. And, of course, South likewise has control of the other suits. South can easily regain the lead, draw the rest of the trumps, and get his discards on dummy's diamonds.

Q—The bidding has been: North 1♠, South 2♠, West 3♠, East 4♠. What do you do? A—Bid two spades. A "reverse" bid by the responder is forcing, so there is no need to make a jump bid of any kind. North is unlikely to have four spades, so he will probably be unable to raise the spades; but the knowledge that you can take care of that suit may enable him to bid or avoid no-trump without guesswork.

TODAY'S QUESTION The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades A-J-10, Hearts 7-5, Diamonds A-K-J-9-4, Clubs 8-6-2. What do you do? Answer Friday

Reborn Eisenhower 'Arrived' By Traveling Middle Road

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — The inside word from General Eisenhower's strategy board is that their man finally has found himself. Up until about August 15, they weren't too sure he was going to click. His advisers were beginning to feel terribly sorry for him.

He was harassed from all sides and confused by all the conflicting advice he was getting, by all the new things he had to learn. He was being born all over again as an adult in a new world he didn't know existed.

The original Eisenhower backers had shuddered considerably when, right after the Chicago convention, all the Old Guard senators like Dirksen of Illinois, Kem of Missouri and Jenner of Indiana started tramping to Denver.

GOP National Committee Chairman Arthur Summerfield's sounding off on how he was going to run everything didn't help any. The general impression was that the Old Guard had taken over and still was in full control.

But the "For-Eisenhower-Before-Chicago" faction now admits that these moves were necessary to bring in the Taft camp and reunite the party. The list of people that General Eisenhower has taken into his headquarters staff is cited to prove that the Old Guard is not in control.

There is no one incident which is said to mark the turning point for General Eisenhower to indicate when he began to find himself.

But along about the time he discovered that Social Security was here to stay, that "peace" was the big issue and that he would follow a "middle-of-the-road" course, his original backers again took hope. They're counting on it that he will be himself from now on and that he will run the campaign.

Main battlegrounds of the 1952 presidential campaign are the states which were won or lost in 1948 by a margin of five per cent or less of the total vote. There are 34 of these five per cent states. The Republicans won 14 of them and the Democrats 20.

Switches in these states might mean the difference between victory and defeat for this year's candidates.

This is the way they line up, with their 1952 electoral votes and the percentages by which they were won in 1948:

Q—Why has there been such wide interest in the Antarctic in the last few years? A—The purpose of the numerous expeditions to this region was geography, weather conditions and potential mineral resources of the continent. Deposits of uranium, the key ingredient of atomic energy, may lie beneath its ice sheet.

Q—Is the name "Adlai" of Biblical origin? A—Yes. It means "The Just."

believe what had happened, and then I walked over and picked up a piece of it, and Bobo handed it to me and says, "Come on, baby, let's go out and have a beer somewhere all this punk calms down." And when they got in the hall one of them said something in a low voice and they both started laughing, and they laughed all the way down the stairs.

"So I run out on the landing and hollered to her, "I'm leaving, do you hear, leaving!" And Brodsky opens his door a crack and says, "Well, just go out quietly." And Bobo and Ida laugh harder than ever, and I hear them go out the door downstairs.

"I went back inside and picked up my camera and put it in a box, and then I sat down and just held the box awhile. I thought maybe I was going to be sick. I knew I couldn't spend another night under that roof; I had to leave. So I got a big cardboard box and put my stuff in it. Just my good clothes, mostly, and some pictures and the camera.

"GOING out the door I remembered the turkey, and I went back and got it, even though it was pretty heavy with the box and all. I got on a street car and went downtown. I didn't know what to do. It was terrible cold, snow blowing, slush underfoot. I'd have gone to a hotel, but I didn't want that turkey to spoil. I went up to a guy on the street and asked him if he'd like a 25-pound turkey, already stuffed, and he musta thought I was drunk or crazy or something. He just said, "Merry Christmas, yourself," and walked off.

"So I got on another street car and came out to your house, but when I got here the windows were dark. I stood around on the sidewalk for a long time; I didn't have any idea what time it was, I couldn't phone you. Finally I got so cold, I couldn't hardly stand it—I went ahead and rang the bell." He fell silent. We sat for awhile watching the orange flames.

Presently I spoke. "David, I'm to blame for this. I've made a mess of your life."

"No!" he protested. "Don't you see, before you started teaching me and helping me improve myself, I didn't have anything to fall back on. I just went around in a fog, like, wondering how I'd ever be able to stand living the rest of my life. I grabbed a hold of everything that would make me forget who I was and what I was. Now I know which way I'm going. Now I wanta learn more about everything. Because the more you know, seems like, the more you enjoy."

HE paused, as though to let the significance of this sink in. Then he continued. "Now, things can't ever get me down again to the point where I wanta die. Because no matter what happens, I've got something up here." He tapped his temple with one calloused finger.

"But look," I insisted, "I stuck my nose in, and, as a result, your marriage is wrecked."

"It was a wreck long before that. Fact is, I was a wreck too. Now I can start living all over again. I hope she divorces me quick. Probably she will, so she can marry Bobo."

"Where will you live?" "Oh, I'll have to look around for a room, I guess. He sighed and leaned his head back against his clasped hands.

"One of my students is leaving January 1 to take a job," I said. "He lives a block the other side of the Museum. Nice room. Landlady lets him have a hot plate. If it hasn't been rented already, I'll do some telephoning tomorrow."

"Well, say, got any crackers or anything? I haven't had a thing since lunch, and here it is—why—it's midnight! Merry Christmas!"

I put the Corelli Christmas concerto on the record player and spread a checkered Mexican tablecloth over the coffee table in front of the fire.

Football Emphasis Put Men On Spot At Army's Citadel

(Editor's note: This is the fourth of seven Reporter-Telegram dispatches from NEA Staff Correspondent Murray Olderman on what has happened to 90 West Point cadets since their inglorious dismissal a year ago in the cribbing scandal.)

By MURRAY OLDERMAN
The prize pick of the West Pointers dismissed for cribbing would have been Al Pollard, the yearling fullback who rampaged through the 1950 season. But he went pro instead and is now with the Philadelphia Eagles.

He never should have gone to the Academy. Eloquent and personable, Al nonetheless was not what you'd call West Point timber. Before he reached West Point Al already was a much ballyhooed athlete, the most touted high schooler in the land, diligently wooed by a flock of colleges.

He chose Loyola in his home town, Los Angeles, and lasted a dismal two years. His one varsity season was plagued by injuries, his abilities overshadowed by another sophomore fullback named George Musasco. Ejected Al came ripe for the plucking by West Point.

West Point Pressure
His recruitment emphasized the distorted importance of Army football. Academics at West Point are

New Midland Shop To Hold Opening Friday Afternoon

Formal opening of The Treasure Shop, 307 West Illinois Street, will be held from 3 to 9 p.m. Friday. It was announced by the owners, Margaret Hanley and Grace Savage.

Top labels in lingerie will be featured, and graceful mannequins will don lovely pastel negligees and television robes.

The quaint little shop with its floral garden and hand-painted wallpaper, is indeed smart. The color tones of interior decoration—soft shades of green with large, swirling Siamese Pink, wild roses. Side walls are of soft pink. The carpeting is of rose beige.

Fixtures are of South American pine, built especially for The Treasure Shop. Natural beauty of the wood is brought out by a clear rub-down finish. A circular blond table center, the rooms and blends in with the comfortable chairs.

While the owners are into the business section of Midland, they are well known. Miss Hanley, formerly buyer and department manager of the White House Department Store in El Paso the last 30 years, is well-acquainted with some of the young Midland married set, having, she says, sold their mothers' layette's at their birth.

Mrs. Savage, formerly connected with the Meadows Drug Store at Deming, N. M., and Small's Specialty Shop in El Paso, has numerous Midland friends.

The public is invited to visit The Treasure Shop during its formal opening.

New Liquid Kills Roaches and Ants

New Way to Kill Pests Discovered by Scientists
ROACHES and ants are the most difficult household pests to control, and they can be brought into the home at any time. Science has just come forth with a new discovery, a colorless coating that kills cockroaches and ants, and that stays effective for months. It is called Johnston's NO-ROACH.

It's just as simple and easy to use as it looks. You paint the coating on surfaces frequented by roaches and ants, woodwork near the sink, baseboards, garbage pails, window and door sills. When these crawling pests come in contact with this invisible, odorless, stainless coating they slowly become paralyzed, turn over on their backs with legs waving in the air, and die. Then the coating stays effective for months to kill any strays that get into the home and that walk over it.

Effective for Months
Science has seen to it too, that this product contains no DDT, no sodium fluoride, and no phosphorus. Johnston's NO-ROACH is not a contaminating spray or a messy powder. It is colorless, and may be brushed just where you want it, without having to move all your dishes and pots and pans. Guard against crawling insects this modern NO-ROACH way.

Prices are 8 oz. for 80¢, pint for $1.69, and a quart for $2.98.

as rugged as football. Through no fault of his own Pollard constituted a drag on his teammates scholastically.

His West Point roommate, Gil Reich of Kansas, admitted as much when he wrote in a Harrisburg, Pa., newspaper: "Al wasn't concerned where he stood in the class. It didn't make any difference to him whether he was first or fiftieth. He needed help, and all the fellows helped one another because no one wanted to see a boy leave the Academy."

"Loyalty to my friends meant a great deal. . . You naturally help your own roommate. He's your buddy."

Combat Veterans
Vic Pollard, now with the Pittsburgh Steelers, was a different case. Some football players, it has been claimed, go to West Point in lieu of being drafted. Not Vic—he went into the Air Corps at 17 and served two years as a gunner, credited with 75 missions and a host of decorations.

He was 22 when he entered West Point—older, more subdued than his teammates. The mass dismissal hit him hard. He was within nine months of a life's career.

"I didn't return to college last year," said Vic, a native of Linfield, Pa., "because I couldn't afford to. That's why I've turned pro. Maybe I can earn a few bucks. I'd like to finish college."

During the past year he worked in the drafting department of Bethlehem Steel, and this past June he was married, "which was more than I could do at West Point," quipped Vic.

'Lack Of Interest' Closes TV Station

BASEL, SWITZERLAND—(AP)—Experimental television programs in Basel have been suspended because of a "lack of public interest," the Swiss Broadcasting Corporation announced.

The Basel cantonal government last year authorized the establishment of an experimental television station with public funds, but this decision was subsequently reversed by a cantonal referendum. The station was nevertheless set up, with private financial support, and for two months this summer it broadcast two-hour programs three times a week.

Television sets were put up in various parts of the canton where the public could view the experimental programs free of charge.

Safeway President Cites Record Sales

OAKLAND, CALIF.—Lingan A. Warren, president of Safeway Stores, in his semi-annual report released Thursday told stockholders that discriminatory O.P.B. ceilings seriously had affected company profits for the first 24 weeks of 1952, despite the largest sales in history. Profits also were affected by the prolonged slow-down and later shut-down of the company's distribution center at Kearney, N. J., according to Warren.

Total sales for the entire Safeway operation were reported at $781,004,186 for the 34 weeks ending June 14, 1952, compared with $640,903,978 in 1951. This is an increase of 13.38 per cent.

SURGICAL PATIENT
Mrs. Bessie Penn, 728 West Kansas Street, is a surgical patient at Midland Memorial Hospital.

The position of court jester was filled last in England during the reign of the first Queen Elizabeth, says the National Geographic Society.

In the Steelers' camp at Olean, N. Y., the 170-pounder made an early impression as a quick-starting halfback with lots of savvy.

The cribbing scandal also produced a coach—Chuck Shira of Mississippi State. The same age as Pollock, 24, Shira also was an overseas veteran of World War II.

At West Point he was a regular defensive tackle. He completed his undergraduate work last year at Tennessee, ineligible for football.

The big Texan (Hamlin is his home) is studying for a master's degree in engineering at Mississippi State while serving as line coach under head Murray Warmath, a former member of the West Point coaching staff.

One of his former teammates, tackle Hardy Stone II, is slated to be one of his disciples. Friday: Who says "Athletic Bums" liars.

Daddy Ringtail

Daddy Ringtail And Eleven-Teen Forty-Five

Mose Morose (happy fellow!) had come for a visit to Great Forest. With him came all his children. Big children, little children, fat children, and skinny ones. Noses big, noses small, some with freckles, or none at all.

Each child had a mouth, and every mouth was open with loud cries and shouts of joy. How happy everyone was to visit now in the Great Forest! Here they came.

"Children, whoa!" shouted Mose Morose, running out in front to stop them. "Children, whoa!"

The children stopped very still where they stood along the Elephant Path. "Have to be sure I don't have any of the neighbor's children," Mose Morose explained to Daddy Ringtail.

"Mercy me!" said Daddy Ringtail. Mose Morose began to count: "Two, four, six, twelve, twenty, thirty, forty, sixty..."

"Mercy me!" said Daddy Ringtail again. My, my, my, he had never seen as many children in his life. "Mose Morose," said Daddy Ring-tail, "how many children do you have?"

"Shhh!" said Mose Morose, and then he hurried on with his counting. "Six hundred, seven hundred, eight hundred..."

Daddy Ringtail knew that Mose Morose had said the "shhh!" Daddy Ringtail please to wait until the counting was finished. There! Mose big, noses small, some with freckles, or none at all.

Mose Morose was finishing now. Mose Morose was saying: "Eleven-teen forty-four, eleven-teen forty-five. I knew it! Eleven-teen forty-six!"

Aha! Mose Morose had counted eleven-teen forty-six children where there ought to be only eleven-teen forty-five.

"I knew it!" said Mose Morose. "One of the neighbor's children came along for our happy vacation. Yeah, I'll have to send him home."

"Wait!" said Daddy Ringtail. Daddy Ringtail said they could phone the boy's mother and ask if he could stay, and they did, and he could. Why, if someone has eleven-teen forty-five children anyway, one more doesn't matter. Eleven-teen forty-six is quite all right, I am happy to say. Happy Day!

The beautiful home they built for themselves and their children two years ago is being offered as a bargain for a quick sale.

Reason: divorce.

Outsiders rarely know the whole story behind the break-up of a home. They don't know it in this case either.

But even outsiders can guess why the home they built with such care to include all the things they had long wanted in a house failed to make this family happy.

They started out with too big ideas. The house itself was really beyond their means.

IF YOU LIKE TO USE BOTTLED STARCH

You can make your own for 1¢ a quart (save about 25¢ a quart)

A RECIPE FOR BOTTLED STARCH

- Put 1 quart of water in a 2-quart pan and bring to a rolling boil.
- Mix 1/2 cup (4 tablespoons) Faultless Starch with 1/2 cup of cold water, until the thickness of hot cream.
- Slowly pour this mixture into the boiling water while stirring. Don't stir. This is important—keep the starch from separating.
- Add 1 quart of hot faucet water and stir well. This keeps a seam from forming.
- Pour into jars that can be tightly closed. Quart cooking jars are ideal.
- Allow to cool to room temperature, then place in the refrigerator. Will keep sweet and fresh for at least 10 days. Shake well before using.
- Use "1/2" for a medium-heavy starch. Dilute to suit with water from hot water faucet for lighter finish.

Better Bottled Starch Use FAULTLESS STARCH

Perfect for regular OR bottled starch

- Contains leavening aids to make-baking smooth and easy
- No preservatives to turn yellow after heating
- Why pay around 25¢ a quart for a bottled starch when you can make your own, right at home, for a penny a quart?

Deer Roam Free Near Center Of Industry

HAMDEN, CONN.—(NEA)—Just seven miles away, the industrial city of New Haven sprawled in urban stone and steel. But here white-tailed deer roamed in the thickets just off the road. Baby ring-neck pheasants tried their wings in a timothy field and mallard ducks cruised peacefully on a quiet pond.

This was Paradise, an appropriately-named parcel of 600 rolling acres that the industrial expansion of Southwestern Connecticut some-how by-passed. It's the private game preserve of A. C. Gilbert, himself an industrialist. It's one of the largest and best-stocked private game preserves in America, and it's very existence, virtually surrounded by thickly-settled areas, is amazing.

Gilbert steered his Cadillac down the dirt roads that sliced through the woods, oblivious to the low branches that slapped the windshield. His English gamekeeper, Alfred James (the third or fourth generation James to keep game) rode beside him.

"Running a game preserve," James was saying, "is a matter of management. Everything must be planned and arranged just so, or you won't have any birds or fish or deer. That's why I'm called a game-keeper, not a game-warden; my job is to keep the game here."

It's not easy. The temptation for neighboring hunters is tremendous. There's a big fence all around Paradise, but once a hunter shot a deer through the fence, then cut a hole in it to haul the deer out. Gilbert maintains a watchful patrol during the hunting and fishing seasons. James' job, and that of his staff of seven, runs the gamut from teaching ducks to fly to conducting an unofficial deer census. The ducks are raised in brooders, so they don't have a mother to teach them the facts of life, such as that wings are for flying.

So James and his crew drive the ground-lubber ducks up a big wooden ramp on the side of a hill. They reach the edge and go off—and they lie there or fall.

Counting wary deer is difficult. Generally, they just try to make an estimate of the fawns in the Spring, and that gives them a rough idea. James figures the 600 acres of Paradise can support about 80 deer, and the herd usually runs around 100. Gilbert and his guests knock off the others in the Fall.

The area that now is called Paradise is an irregular-shaped slice of Connecticut hills and fields that used to belong to stubborn Yankee farmers. They wouldn't sell. The industrial and residential expansion spread out and around the area, which had been called Little Egypt for reasons nobody now knows.

Twenty-five years ago, Gilbert went there to get some mountain laurel, the pink and white Spring-flowering trees that cover the hills.

An experienced outdoorsman, he recognized that here was an ideal game preserve. He bought it.

Over the years, he's done much to improve it. He built a handsome lodge, with a trophy room full of mounted animals and birds. He augmented the deer with new ones brought in from Virginia. He even brought in two elk from Yellowstone Park, but when they began to eat the beloved dogwood, they had to go. He built trails and shooting blinds and roads.

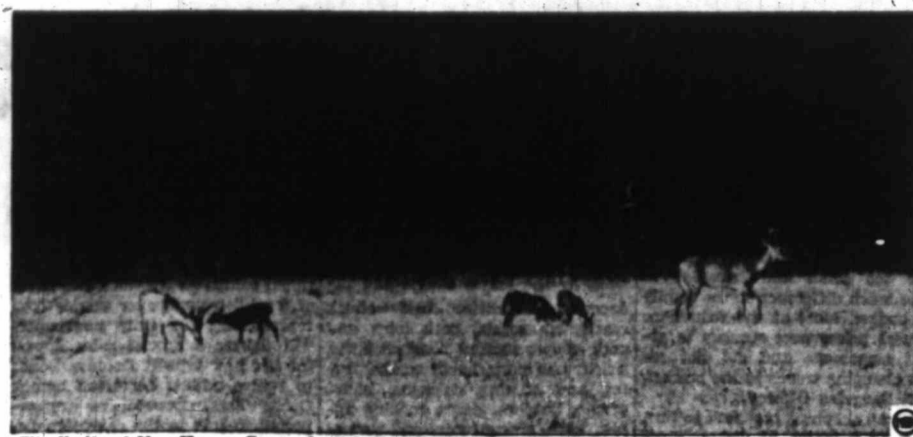

Every year, about 2,500 pheasants and 2,500 ducks are raised in Paradise. Some of them fly away, some are shot, some killed by vermin, but about half of each year's crop survive.

James keeps most of them by scientific feeding; each night, he'll head for a certain field and whistle shrilly and the birds head in from miles around to eat. Most of them find living easy in Paradise.

At first, James had trouble with snakes, particularly blacksnakes. Once, he found nine baby blacksnakes inside one dead blacksnake. One hot Spring day, he took his shotgun and went snake hunting. Coiled around the branches of a big tree, he saw a collection of snakes basking in the sun.

He fired three times, and killed 27 snakes.

"That broke the back of it," he says. "They've never been so bad since."

City limits of New Haven, Conn., don't bother these deer, roaming unheeded in their own 600-acre park called Paradise, a privately-owned preserve.

Milk, bombarded by sound waves too high-pitched to be heard by human ears, is homogenized so that the cream cannot separate.

Batista Cracks Down On Housing In Cuba

HAVANA—(P)—The revolutionary government of President Batista is revolutionizing the picturesque bohio, a thatched hut in which thousands of Cubans live in rural areas.

The government has set up a special commission to inspect rural housing to bring it up to minimum standards. The bohio, made of the thin pliable leaves and the thick, stout fronds of the royal palm tree, must have a concrete floor, a good supply of good water and adequate toilet facilities, says Batista.

If the owner fails to meet these standards, the government will step in and do the work at the owner's expense. A check made by an army agency shows that only 6,000 of Cuba's 80,000 bohios meet minimum requirements.

Natural Gas Firms Set Spending Mark

NEW YORK—(P)—Despite pipe and materials shortages, the natural gas industry spent a record $1,461,599,999 for new facilities in 1951. This, say the American Gas Association, exceeded the previous peak established in 1930 by 22 per cent.

The association said the nation's gas distribution and pipeline industry expects to spend $5,899,000,000 during the next four and a half years for construction of new facilities and plant expansion.

Retail Prices Of Food Drop As Production Aids Grocers

By The Associated Press
 Prices of top grade eggs, beef chuck roasts, some pork cuts and a handful of fresh vegetables were a little lower this week in many retail food stores.
 Eggs dropped as much as six cents a dozen in some places as receipts of the medium and small sizes increased. Dealers said retail prices were still high in relation to recently-reduced wholesale quotations, however, and more price cutting in stores could be expected.

 Otherwise, food price changes were too small and irregular to make much difference to the family food budget. Most of the reductions in meat prices were specials to attract customers, and did not reflect changing trends in the market.
Meat Bargains Offered
 Careful shopping promised to turn up some bargains in meats. However, a spot check in some major cities showed specials like this being offered: a reduction of 26 cents a pound on sirloin and porterhouse steak, 16 cents a pound for beef rib roast, 10 cents a pound for frying chickens.

On the produce counters, most types of squash were lower and selling at close to break-even levels for handlers, according to Agriculture Department sources. Growers in some sections were reported dumping squash.
 The sweet potato season was getting underway in a rush and prices fell sharply. White potatoes were lower, too. Rains over the weekend kept corn huskers out of the fields in some sections and then when corn began flooding the market, again prices eased. The rains lowered the quality of snap beans and cauliflower in many areas, too, undermining their prices.
Fruits Plentiful
 Slightly higher were lima beans, cucumbers, tomatoes, eggplant, lettuce, onions and peppers.
 Peaches, pears, plums and prunes were reported to be the best buys in fruits this week, along with Thompson seedless grapes which the Agriculture Department called a most-plentiful food for thrifty shoppers. Canteloupes were a little higher in most places, honeydew melons a little lower.

The Newspaperboy Day promotion for October 4 to aid the Defense Bond Program is being directed by Howard W.
