GOVERNMENT TRIES TO CAPTURE REYES

TROOPS ARE NOW ON WAY TO SURROUND HIM IN HIS MOUNTAIN HOME.

REPORT NOW CONFIRMED

Rumor That He Has Left His Ranch For Parts Unknown, Is Not Authentic.

Texas News Service Special.

Monterey, Mex., Aug. 26.—Despite the denial that Gen. Reyes is being pursued by a large number of Mexican troops who will endeavor to surround him at his mountain ranch, it is positively known here that such are the plans. The facts became known today.

It is the intention of the government to surround Reyes and effectually cut off his retreat. It is learned here that Reyes sought an interview with President Diaz, but the latter refused. This indicates a complete severance of all relations between them.

There is another rumor current, that Reyes has left Falena, and that his present whereabouts are unknown.

The removal of officers friendly to Reyes continues, among the latest being Juan Castillion, Mayor of Torreon, who has been replaced by Luis Garcia Letonia.

TWO NEW HOUSES.

Frank Keil Tells of Building Boom in Missouri.

During a recent daylight trip through about three hundred miles of the best part of Missouri, Frank Keil states that he saw but two new buildings of any kind under construction. Both of these were in the same town, which is doubtless experiencing a boom. When it is remembered that one can scarcely walk a block in any direction in Wichita Falls without seeing new dwellings, the difference between Missouri and Texas is marked.

FARMERSVILLE WINS BY HER SUPERIOR FIELDING

Farmersville 5' Wichita Falls 3.

In baseball, as in most other things, there is nothing like a good start, and that was just what Wichita didn't have yesterday. Eight errors, most of them in the first three innings, contributed largely to the above score and the hitting rally which began in the seventh was not strong enough to overcome the visitors' lead. The local's fielding was something fierce. Green, usually so steady and sure, made several wicked bobbles and he had plenty of company.

Lindy Wray pitched for Farmersville and Wichita landed on him at every turn. Usually the ball found its way to some fielders' hands but strikeouts were much fewer than in the talking pitchers previous performances. Collier allowed seven hits, Wray eight.

The score was five to nothing when Wichita came to bat in the seventh. A hit by Connor, and a three bagger by Carson brought in one run, soon followed by another on infield hit. In the seventh, eighth and ninth, there were several times when a safe hit would have won the game, but the visitors fielders got in the away of the ball like veterans. Anderson's catch of Moore's long drive to center field was one of the stellar features of the game. When Guthrie came to bat in the ninth, two were out and runners on second and third only needed a hit to tie the score, but an infield fly retired the side and ended the game.

Eight games have now been played by these two teams and each has won four. While today's game will decide the series, the nines are too closely matched for the question of superiority to be decided by any one game and neither team can afford to loaf. Farree for Wichita and Wingo Anderson for the visitors will probably be the opposing pitchers and a game for blood is looked for.

The Score:—				R	H	E
Farmersville	022	000	100	5	7	1
Wichita Falls	000	000	210	3	8	8

AUTO FIRE ENGINE.

Big Springs Buys One Which Stands the Test.

A special to the Times today from Big Springs announces that that city has just tested the automobile fire engine she recently purchased, and found it satisfactory.

This is interesting, from the fact that Wichita Falls has delayed the purchase of her auto engine until some other Texas city should purchase and test one. If other tests prove equally satisfactory, the purchase of one for this city is a strong possibility.

FIRST BALE IS DUE TO ARRIVE SHORTLY

WICHIATA'S FIRST COTTON OF SEASON LOOKED FOR BY SEPTEMBER 1st.

CROP OUTLOOK IS GOOD

Believe Average Country Yield Will Be More Than a Third To the Acre.

The first bale of Wichita county is expected to make its appearance in this city sometime next week and local cotton men anticipate its arrival before the first of next month. The crop in this county is late this year and most of the neighboring counties have already received their first bales, though Wichita's is yet to come in.

Reports from over the county are that cotton is opening slowly but that it will average up a good yield. The government experts a week or two ago found some cotton that would make as good as a bale to the acre, but one-third will be a very fair average for the county as a whole. The irrigated tracts will make the best crops as a rule, and yet where the plowing has been carefully done, the unirrigated farms will do almost as good.

The Chamber of Commerce intends to follow its plan inaugurated last year, of cash bonuses each week for cotton brought in, and it is believed that this will serve to increase Wichita's receipts. Owing to the lightness of the crop, good prices will prevail this year and the outlook for Wichita county in particular, is considered excellent.

NORMAL DECISION LOOKED FOR SOON

INSPECTION TOUR OF COMMITTEE ENDS TO-DAY WITH SAN ANGELO VISIT.

TOWNS ARE IN SUSPENSE

Believed That Committee Will Announce Decision Before End of Week.

The Normal Committe wound up its labors today with the inspection of San Angelo's site and environments and it is believed that a decision will be made within a few days. While no announcement has been made as to when the committee will make its decision it is believed that they will wish to do so at once so as to get the matter off their hands, as well as to relieve the suspense of the contesting towns.

The normal locaters have been traveling in West Teas for nearly two weeks inspecting, with a few exceptions, all of the towns that made applications.

The receptions accorded the committee have varied little. That tendered them by Wichita Falls, which was without bombast, noise, excitement or barn-storming, was without doubt the quietest they received. Just how it compared for effectiveness with the long speeches, cannon salutes, brass band parades, banquets and barbecues at other places remains to be seen.

The time put in by Gov. Davidson and Speaker Marshall is entirely gratuitous and that spent by Prof. Cousins is at the loss of his departmental duties, so it is believed the committee will not care to devote any further time to the matter, but will render a decision shortly. The first announcement of this will doubtless be made through the press, followed by an official notification of the lucky town.

Wichita is still hopeful and optimistic and there is every reason to believe that there will be cause for jubilation when the decision comes trickling over the wires.

LETTER FROM BULLOCK.

Prohibition Arguments Submitted By Chairman of County.

Editor Times:

From November the 9th, 1907 to August 9th, 1908, or a period of twenty-one months, the tax payers of Wichita County paid for board of prisoners in the county jail $2,150.85, or an average sum of $102.40 per month. The last nine months of this time the average amount was $115.64 per month.

While the item is large it is not a drop in the bucket to compare with the expense of prosecuting parties charged with crime during that time.

Do we want to save from one half to two thirds of all this expense? Vote out the saloons and enforce the law and it is done. The records in counties lie Ellis, Collin, Denton, Taylor, Young Wilbarger and many other prove that this is true. Every man interviewed in Fort Worth the last few days says the saloons are largely responsible for the awful crimes committed in the red light district of that city. The liquor business pays the state about $700,000 per year in revenue, yet it has cost the tax payers of Texas as much as $784,000 per year to maintain its insane, 60 to 75 per cent of whom according to Doctors Graves and Worsham are the products of alcoholism. Instead of the saloon contributing to the support of the state the people of Texas are being taxed hundreds of thousands of dollars to maintain the saloon and what it produces. The tax payers of Wichita county are paying heavy tribute to the saloon, a large part of which we can save by prohibition.

It ought to be easy to enforce the local option law anywhere in our state. The running of blind tigers and bootlegging is now a felony punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for from two to five years, while frosty joints have been taxed out of existence.

Not a single dry county has gone wet in the last two years while Limestone county which was wet is now dry, and the pro majority has increased in every county and the wet majority decreased in every wet county where an election has been held during that time. The people who try local option in Texas are always pleased with it. Do we want it in Wichita County?

Respectfully,
W. J. BULLOCK.

ODD ARCTIC PEOPLE.

Stefansson Hears of Persons Who Are Not Eskimos.

THEIR HAIR IS NOT BLACK.

Hint That Mystery of Sir John Franklin's Missing Men or of a Vanished Icelandic Colony May Be Solved—Ill Effects of Civilization Were Found on All Sides.

A letter from V. Stefansson, the arctic explorer, received the other day by a friend who lives in Pleasantville, N. Y., hints at a possible unraveling either of the mystery which for more than sixty years has enveloped the fate of Sir John Franklin's two ships' companies or of the greater mystery concerning colonies of Icelanders who long ago migrated to Greenland and then disappeared.

Stefansson's letter, dated "Barrow, Alaska, Feb. 12," and postmarked "Nome, Alaska, April 5," in transit, says:

"Here I am, farther west than you probably expected me to go in winter. This is a whaling station, the most northerly one in America, the most easterly one of those whose egress is by the Pacific ocean. There is here also the most northerly postoffice under American control, and it has two outgoing reindeer mails in winter, Nov 1 and Feb. 15, as well as a ship mail in July or August. I am here to write letters and reports to the museum.

"My winter camp is, as planned, on the lower Colville river. I left it about the time the sun went away and have since wandered as far west as Wainwright inlet, about a hundred miles southwest of Point Barrow and 300 from our winter camp, stopping at every Eskimo settlement, an unpleasant thing in many cases, for the habits and diseases of civilization are everywhere evident, unhealthy people crowded into unventilated and uncomfortable houses, a complete contrast to what it was twenty years ago here, I am told, and to what it still is to the eastward, where every house, no matter how crowded, is always warm and well ventilated.

"At Point Barrow and west of there 90 per cent of the people have abandoned the warm, semi-excavated house with its door in the floor, the advantages of which are well known to you, for flimsy overground structures imitating white men's houses. The walls of these are so thin that even were they air tight, as they often are (very nearly), enough cold comes in by conduction through the boards to form hoarfrost here and there and ice in the corners and under the beds. Instead of a door and a ventilating chimney always open, these houses have no ventilator, the door is hastily closed whenever opened, and every crack is filled with a rag, tallow or chewing gum.

"A doctor who has been at Barrow seven years, since 1896 (he has had vacations) tells me that the death rate from tuberculosis has more than doubled in ten years, the period of the change (under missionary and other influences) from the 'insanitary, filthy' native houses to the 'tidy, modern' damp cockleshells that are murdering the people.

"This has been a digression. It would take many pages of print to show up thoroughly the effects of civilization at Point Barrow and west of it.

"In three or four days I shall start east for Colville and spend a month or two there at least. Many of the people there had never seen a white man when we arrived, but they have associated for many years with Eskimos who are Christians, etc., and their influence has been marked. They are therefore from my point of view sophisticated.

"On October last we divided our party in two sections. Dr. Anderson, with an Eskimo family, went into the mountains south of Barter island, about seventy-five miles southeast from Flaxman island and 125 from my camp. My party consisted of a man, wife, baby and one man besides. Dr. Anderson was to try to make a living on mountain sheep, river fish and ptarmigan. Our hope was deer, caribou, of which we got fifteen, not nearly enough, though more than any Eskimo hunter of the Colville country.

"As heretofore, the plan is to spend next winter a good way to the eastward, 500 or 600 miles as one travels it east of the Colville near the mouth of the Coppermine river or on Victoria Land. Some Eskimos who saw some of these people last year tell me that in a party of twenty they saw one middle aged man and one woman of about eighteen who had hair as light as mine is and several whose hair was not black. Now, you know a pure blooded Eskimo is as black haired and stiff haired as any Japanese. With the disappearance of Franklin's two ships' companies in that neighborhood and with the lost Icelandic colonies of Greenland in mind, 'the problem has its interesting features.'"

The letter closes with memoranda concerning articles Stefansson has prepared for publication, which are now on their way.

New Holiday Planned.

The Belleville (N. J.) board of trade has inaugurated a movement to set apart a day in August of each year to be known as "business men's day," when all business places that close on legal holidays will be expected to suspend business. John H. Eastwood, president of the board, has named a committee to plan for the observance of the day.

HARRIMAN'S LIVER.

The recent decline in the stock market, particularly in railroad stocks, is fraught with more significance than appears on the suface. The decline was caused by nothing more or less than the condition of E. H. Harriman's liver.

One cannot help thinking that it is a flimsy sort of financial structure that rests upon so frail and so doubtful a foundation as a human liver. No wonder the liver is giving away somewhat under a strain. And yet it is less of a reflection on our financial system that the illness of a leader makes it decline than it would be if his illness made it go up, under the same circumstances.

Harriman is a builder. He constructs, instead of tearing down. He is a positive factor instead of a negative one. If he were a bear instead of a bull, his recalcitrant liver would have the reverse effect of what it is having, for his illness would mean that there would be a cessation of the downward tendencies which a bear exerts.

Gould was a different sort of financier. The Memphis Commercial-Appeal points out that it was his custom to wreck a railroad in order to buy. Not wreck it in a literal sense, of course, but still work havoc with its finances. Such a thing Harriman has not been guilty of.

So we see that while the stock market may be sent tumbling by the condition of one human liver, it is not nearly so ridiculous a condition as the reverse would be. If the financial structure of this country must depend upon one man, as it seems to, it is caus for gratitude that the one man is a progressive, a builder, and an active and positive factor, rather than one whose pathway is strewn with the wrecks of commercial craft.

Those close to Harriman say that he has a heart as well as a liver; that he has built up charitable institutions; that he loves and is loved. The American people may eventually be convinced that he is a human being after all.

The decision of the government engineers, that Lake-to-the-Gulf waterway will not pay because there are not enough people is just about as sensible as the refusal of a man to build a rent house because there are no people on the vacant lot to live in it.

Those who are threatening to defeat Commissioner Mayfield because he refused to be a party to the throttling of the railroads on the cotton rate deal are just about big enough to turn a double somersault on a dime.

After all the fussing, fining and feeling, the Water-Pierce company is coming back to Texas.

The indications are that the gubernatorial campaign next year will have the prohibition and Bailey issue as the leading features. The question of submission of a prohibition amendment should effect only the candidates for the legislature and the Bailey question has no place in the race at all. There are many needed reforms that should be placed above these two apparently leading issues. The automatic tax board in considering the revenues of the state makes an allowance of 20 per cent for delinquencies, errors and expenses of collection. If it is anything near that figure it is time someone remodels and modernizes our collecting machinery. It has been officially ascertained that the system of accounting in the state departments is out of date, some of the state machinery is inefficient and we still have the fee system which is considered an atrocity. Our judicial system is badly out of joint and the cost of litigation is something fearful. Our prison system is out of date and the presenec of lunatics in our jails is evidence that our eleemosynary institutions need improvements. These things are potent to the observing citizen and the list could be easily added to, showing some live questions that should receive the consideration of the people next year. It is time to drop dead issues and personalities and elect a governor on a platform that stands for the things to the best interest of the state.—Wills Point Chronicle.

Wiley Mangum Imboden is being boomed as a candidate for Congress against Martin Dies. The fact that Dies represents the Beaumont district and that Wiley is a citizen of Stamford, is of course, a minor consideration.

Andrew Carnegie is to be less philanthropic in his old age and is tightening up considerably. Maybe he came nearer carying out his "die poor" threat than he intended to.

"Aeroplane neck" is the latest ailment in aviation districts. You can get a modified form of it by watching the workmen on some of Wichita's buildings.

Mother Jones says she does not want Taft to hobnob with a man like Diaz. Recent events, however lead one to believe that Taft can stand it without demoralization if Diaz can.

About fourteen hundred Wichita children are, with heroic effort, managing to stiffle the sorrow they feel at the postponement of the school opening date.

A Baltimore paper wants a day set aside for the extermination of the rats in that city, and just when high coiffures are getting back into style, too.

The state treasurer announces that there is a silver coin famine in Texas. It has been quite noticeable at this desk for some time.

General Reyes of Mexico is a sort of Bascom Thomas. He knows he is right but nobody else will believe him.

Jerome will run again. He ought to have the habit pretty well fixed by this time.

All things come to him who waits, even the street cars in Wichita Falls.

Age Makes Coffee Much Better

That is, if it is aged before roasting. Some of the highest priced coffees on the market get their flavor from the length of time they remain unroasted after being picked—sometimes several years. Age, in some way, mellows the oil in the berry which produces the flavor. Our "Revré" brand is blended from well-aged berries which are selected for their age as well as their quality and their wonderful flavor is fully and perfectly developed by a special roasting process. We have a fresh lot just in.

THE TABERNACLE MEETING.

Increased Attendance Over Night Before—One Addition to the Church.

The crowd at the tabernacle meeting last night was considerably larger than that of the night before and there was one addition to the church, by letter.

Dr. Hamlin's subject was "The Last Prayer of Jesus." "Father forgive them for they know not what they do."—Luke 23-34.

He handled his subject in a masterly way, holding the attention of his large audience throughout the entire discourse.

The music was excellent. Better than for any previous service, for the reason, perhaps, that the large choir is in better training. Professor Dougherty as usual, sang a beautiful solo, "The Dimond in the Rough."

Dr. Hamlin's subject for tonight will be "The Judgement."

On Sunday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock he will deliver a spcial lecture to ladies only.

DENVER ISSUES TARIFF.

Most Voluminous of Any Ever Issued In Country.

The most extensive in volume of any every issed by any railroad company in this country, the new interstate passenger tariffs of the Fort Worth and Denver road becomes effective Tuesday over the lines of that company. The new tariffs are solely interstate and include rates to every station on all lines in the United States, Canada and Mexico. The rates are the result of a series of agreements with other railroad systems, which are said to be the most extensive of any previous contracts which any system has been able to secure in this country.

The completion of these rates results in the conclusion of an effort which has been made for several months, in which it was sought to secure equitable fares which the traffic of the road justified.—Record.

"ENGLAND UNARMED."

Cannon Henson Tells Canadians That Empire Is In Peril.

Addressing the Canadian club of Victoria at a luncheon there, the Rev Canon Henson of Westminster abbey London, strongly urged the clergy of all denominations to preach the gospel of practical patriotism throughout the British empire, inciting sacrifices everywhere in order that Britain may procure as quickly as possible an efficient army and navy capable of contending with the powers massing against her. He regarded the present agitation in England, he said, not as a scare, but rather the prelude to a great national crisis.

"England today is practically unarmed and defenseless," said Canon Henson. "Why should we alone among the nations believe we can go on forever enjoying undisturbed the heritage our fathers won for us? The empire must for its continued existence be sustained by a new patriotism.

"We have seen Russia with all her mighty power collapse before what hitherto had been thought to be a small and unimportant nation. England has watched with growing anxiety the sharp and brutal methods of diplomacy applied to Russia and France by a powerful state in Europe. It is upon these grounds that the people of Britain are thinking of the pressing urgency of this great question of imperial defense."

MOUNTAIN BROOK ON HOTEL.

Also Woodland of Five Hundred Trees For a New York Roof Garden.

With the intention of having the roof garden of the Hotel Astor in New York ready to open on the night of July 1, W. C. Muschenheim, the proprietor, put 500 men to work up there the other day to complete the elaborate plans made for it.

"The roof garden will be the largest in the world," said Mr. Muschenheim recently. "There will be three full orchestras, one in the Belvedere, or restaurant de luxe, one in the rose garden and one in the palm garden. I have called in the best landscape artists that I could find.

"At the lower end of the garden a mountain brook of ice water will be seen plunging down the side of a rocky promontory into a woodland pool, in which goldfish and the smaller species of wild duck will be swimming. More than 500 trees and flowering plants have already been set out, and there will be more of them.

"Another feature will be a large white flag blown out from the top of a sixty foot pole by a motor fan. A searchlight stereopticon will flash on this banner the flag of the United States, except at such times as a foreign ambassador or minister may be stopping at the hotel. Then it will flash the flag of his country.

"The scheme was tried the other night, when the New York state flag was flashed on the white banner. It worked very successfully."

Long Wagon Trip For a Family.

Professor J. T. Forrest of the Bellingham (Wash.) State Normal school is planning an overland trip in a wagon covering thousands of miles through the states of Washington, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, Oregon and California. He will leave Bellingham about July 20, taking with him his three children, two boys and a girl. Mr. Forrest anticipates the trip will consume fourteen months, and he is having an especially constructed wagon built for the purpose. A complete outfit, including rifles, cameras, field-glasses, camp stove, cots, etc., will be taken along. The professor states the trip is for educational purposes and recreation combined.

Will Open Up Again.

WOMAN'S WOES

A Certain Cure for Female Trouble and That Tired, Nervous, Depressed Feeling That Makes Household Work a Dreary Burden.

Work, work;
Nothing but work;
Tiresome drudgery!

Work used to be a pleasure, but now a few minutes effort leaves you weak, discouraged and irritable with a feeling that everything has gone wrong.

The liver and bowels are responsible for this.

The symptoms are, heart palpitation, faintness, suppressed, excessive or irregular periods, bad digestion, bearing down pains in the side and back, nervous weakness, poor appetite, costiveness.

Prickly Ash Bitters sweeps away these troubles like magic, because it strikes at the root of the disease—the stomach, liver and bowels.

Women who take medicine for female troubles that does not benefit these organs are wasting money and valuable time. The liver is diseased because the stomach is unhealthy, and both have produced a constipated habit. This stoppage of healthy action in the liver and bowels has filled the system with impurities which have brought on irregularity in the female organs; it follows therefore, that a medicine which will correct the liver, strengthen the stomach and promote healthy bowel operations is the remedy for menstrual difficulties.

The poor, tired, discouraged woman who has suffered silently and so long with the ailments of her sex soon feels the strengthening and exhilarating influence of Prickly Ash Bitters. It does its work thoroughly, beginning with the stomach and extending its purifying and stimulating influence to the liver and bowels. When the stomach, liver and bowels are active and working in harmony, there must be health and regularity in the female organs. As a result of this improved condition the patient takes a renewed interest in her household duties. Appetite and strength return, the eyes are brighter, the complexion clears, and before long she is transformed into a bright, happy woman with rosy cheeks and cheerful spirits.

"I suffered much from indigestion and constipation. I had a drowsy tired feeling and nervous headaches all the time. I began using Prickly Ash Bitters and it has helped me wonderfully. I now have a good appetite, sleep well and can do a greater amount of work than ever before."

It's Very Important

When buying lumber, it is very important that you examine it closely and see that it is well manufactured. The mere fact that there are not many knots and cracks in it, is not enough. Mill work is of even greater importance, because if each board is of different thickness and different width, you're going to have no end of trouble.

The easiest way to assure yourself that you will get well-manufactured lumber, is to buy from us. We sell the best-manufactured lumber in this part of the state.
