THESE ARE PUBLICITY HOUNDS

Danny and Jeff, shown here with headgear, are real publicity hounds who are willing to help remind residents here that tomorrow is Straw Hat Day. But the two-dogs, who actually are 'coon hounds, would pose for the picture only under one condition—that we tell residents here that they will be competing early in May in a big 'coon hunt at Lake Thomas. The dogs' owner, Garland Taylor of 1401 Eighteenth Street, said the date for the hunt will be set by the West Texas 'Coon Hunters Association here in the near future. (Lee Watson photograph)

Thousands Of Reds Moved Up For Big Indochina Push

Old Wildcat In Borden County Is Re-opened

Alamo Corp. of Lubbock is to re-enter, deepen and test an abandoned wildcat in southeast Borden County.

The project will be carried by Alamo as the No. 1 H. D. Beal and others. It was originally drilled by the British-American Oil Producing Co. as the No. 1 Beal. British-American drilled it to 8,096 feet in Pennsylvanian lime and abandoned it after it made only slight shows of possible production in a test a 7709-767 feet.

Alamo proposes to clean out to deepen the hole to 8,100 feet. Tests are to be made of any and all zones which offer any shows of possible production. Work is to start immediately.

The project is 1,980 feet from south and 2,180 feet from west lines of section 4-30-t3n-T&P, about 11¼ miles southeast of Gail and two miles northwest of the recently opened Pancho-Mag Canyon reef field.

NOLAN WILDCATS

Three Cambrian wildcats, two to be drilled by Woodley Petroleum, have been staked is Nolan County.

Woodley No. 1 Ina McDonald is a one-half mile east outpost to a recently completed Ellenburger or Cambrian discovery in southeast Nolan. Operator has staked the drillsite 467 feet from north and west lines of Nathan Brookshire survey No. 473, east of Neville G. Penrose No. 1 Kirk, an unnamed discovery. Projected depth is 6,500 feet.

The other Woodley test will be the No. 1 Zilla Collins, 330 feet from south and west lines of section 50-20-T&P, one location northeast of Skelly Oil No. 5-B Boyd, a recently completed Cambrian well in the North Dora multipay field of northeast Nolan County. The No. 1 Collins will drill to 6,250 feet.

United Smelting, Refining and Mining will drill the No. 3-A TXL as a 6,500-foot rotary project one location south of Woodley No. 1 Collins. Location has been made 472 feet from north and 330 feet from west lines of section 59-20-T&P.

BORDEN STRIKE

Cosden Petroleum Corp. and H. L. Hawkins, Jr., No. 1 T. L. Griffin has been completed as a small pumping discovery from the Wolfcamp of the lower Permian in southeast Borden County.

The No. 1 Griffin is 18 miles southeast of Gail and three-quarters of a mile north of the nearest

SHIVERS NOT IN SENATE RACE

AUSTIN (AP)—Gov. Allan Shivers eliminated himself as a possible candidate for U.S. Senator today and said he would announce next week whether or not he will ask reelection to a third term as governor.

He told reporters today he wanted to study the question further from a personal and public service standpoint before deciding what he would do.

Shivers promised to make his announcement before the middle of next week.

Shivers said Texas still has many problems that he would like to help solve, but that he also felt an obligation to be able to give more time to his family.

Two years ago when Shivers decided not to run for U.S. Senator he said it was because he did not want to have to take his family to Washington.

But today he gave no hint as to what his decision would be. Shivers said he would weigh both personal and public obligations in making his decision.

The governor said there were "many reasons why I would not care to be a candidate for reelection again as governor" and the chief of them was family consideration.

Others, he told reporters at a news conference, "include the fact that the people of Texas have honored me beyond expectation."

But, said the governor, there were economic problems, problems of water conservation and drouth, the handling of crime and the unfortunates in state hospitals that he was deeply interested in and "would like to see Texans solve in a Texas way."

Shivers said he planned to be at home at Sharyland with his family this weekend and will make his decision for announcement early next week: "Not later than the middle of the week."

Shivers said he had no other office, or appointment, in mind. He made it clear he was talking about whether or not he would run again for governor.

Tickets Will Be Issued Cars Not Inspected

Today is the first day for law enforcement officers to look out for drivers who have not yet had their vehicles inspected under the state motor vehicle inspection law.

Highway patrolmen, police, and officers of the sheriff's department had not reported any tickets issued for violators of the inspection law by late this morning.

Bill Zimmerman, highway patrolman here, said those who do not have the 1954 inspection stickers on their vehicles will be stopped. If they have a legitimate excuse for not having the inspection, they will be asked to get the inspection immediately, Zimmerman said. But the highway patrolman warned that those without legitimate reasons will be issued tickets.

Failure to have the car inspected is punishable as any other misdemeanor. The maximum fine is $200 and court costs.

All three departments have stopped several violators of the vehicle registration deadline, which passed took weeks ago. Tickets have been issued to several drivers here who still had their 1953 car license tags after the deadline and were driving their cars.

One motorist had California tags on his car, and the tags had expired three months ago.

Inspection stations in Snyder have been rushed during the past few days by motorists who waited until the last days to get their cars inspected.

Atom Strike Still Threatens

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. (AP)—Federal mediators today abandoned efforts to try to settle a threatened strike of 9,000 atomic production workers at three plants here and one at Paducah, Ky.

Clyde M. Mills, assistant director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, said at 10:45 a. m., EST, that negotiations had been broken off.

"It is a hopeless deadlock and I have so notified my superiors in Washington," Mills told a reporter.

Mills said union and management negotiators failed in all-night bargaining sessions last night to reach agreement on CIO and AFL demands for a "substantial" wage increase.

The strike deadline was extended to midnight tonight after the negotiations continued into the early morning hours today.

Ike Assures French Of Yanks In Europe

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower pledged today that a "fair share" of American troops will be maintained in Europe as long as a threat to the security of the Western nations exists.

In a six-point message to the prime ministers of six Western European countries, the President sought to assure French ratification of the European Defense Community (EDC) project by promising in effect that rearmament of West Germany would not be permitted to endanger France.

France long has sought such formal assurances before joining in the creation of a six-nation army designed as a bulwark against any Russian aggression. The proposed EDC has been ratified by Belgium, West Germany, Luxembourg and the Netherlands. Only Italy and France have yet to act.

The President also pledged continuation of efforts to provide for sharing with U. S. allies more information about the use and the effects of the hydrogen bomb and atomic weapons on military and civilian personnel.

In an administration statement of policy, he messaged all six nations from his vacation headquarters here that:

1. The United States will continue to maintain in Europe, including West Germany, such American troops "as may be necessary.

2. The United States will consult with fellow signatories to the North Atlantic Treaty and with the EDC nations "on questions of mutual concern," including the armed forces strength to be placed at the disposal of the supreme commander in Europe, Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther.

3. The United States will encourage the closest possible integration between EDC forces on the one hand, and U. S. and North Atlantic Treaty forces on the other.

4. The United States will continue, "in conformity with my recommendations to Congress, to seek means of extending to the Atlantic community increased security by sharing in greater measure information with respect to the military utilization of new weapons and techniques for the improvement of the collective defense."

Nude Prowler Caught, Beaten By Dallas Men

DALLAS (AP)—A bank official, an airline pilot and a building contractor ran down and severely beat a nude prowler here yesterday after the naked man chased the pilot's wife into her home.

The 24-year-old 190-pound prowler identified himself as a former Houston resident who was honorably discharged from the Navy in January. He was in city jail last night with a broken jaw, fractured nose and several teeth missing.

The incident occurred about 4:45 p.m. in the same general area where Mrs. H. C. Parker, 30-year-old dime store clerk was raped, robbed and fatally stabbed in September 1952. A 19-year-old Negro, Tommy Lee Walker, is under death sentence for the Parker slaying.

R. L. Dauterman, asst. vice president of the Mercantile National Bank here, said the pilot's wife—Mrs. Frank Harnden—was in her back yard when the nude man walked toward her from a row of trees back of the house.

Mrs. Harnden screamed and ran toward the house where her husband was writing a letter. Harnden, 33, saw the man chasing his wife and met the husky, red-headed former sailor just outside.

The flier gave chase as the nude man turned and ran for some open country behind the row of houses where the pilot lives. Tom J. Sneed, the builder, contributed a flying block as the man ran through Harnden's next-door neighbor's yard, and Harnden caught the fleeing man with a flying tackle as he was knocked off balance.

"He begged us to let him go," Dauterman said. "He told us he would never do anything like that again if we'd only let him go.

This Indochina map locates the northern sector (pointer and cross) of Dien Bien Phu's main airstrip, where Communist-led Vietminh besiegers were reported firmly entrenched Thursday. The vital airstrip of the beleaguered French fortress is only 2,400 feet from the heart of the bastion.

Thought Waiting For Geneva Meet

HANOI, Indochina (AP)—The Vitminh shoved tens of thousands of fresh troops into attack positions around Dien Bien Phu today. The third round of the savage battle for the French Union stronghold appeared to be days or even hours away.

Reliable sources said rebel Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap had rushed up at least 40,000 unbloodied regulars to bolster his badly battered force in the low hills encircling the fortified plain and along its fringes.

With these reinforcements and replacements for the thousands killed by murderous French fire in the past five weeks came 5,000 or more youthful rebels just out of traning camps.

It appeared certain here the Vitminh in their next all-out assault would outnumber the defenders at least 6 or 8 to 1.

The Communist-led reinforcements went into forward trenches to relieve units of the four divisions which have spearheaded the hard fighting around the fortress since the first Vitminh push March 13.

The veterans fell back a short distance, presumably to rest up for the next anticipated massive charge.

The stoutly defended French fortifications faced more critical moments today as the garrison force tried to drive out Vitminh troops entrenched on the northern section of the main Dien Bien Phu air strip. The French, lunging at the infiltrated units with bayonets, grenades and machine guns, routed them yesterday from about half the trenches they had dug and blasted with high explosives on the pocked field.

But the rebels still clung to dugouts only 2,400 feet from the heart of the French bastion. These split the east-to-west network of defense communications on the north and posed the most serious threat to the fortified plain since the Vitminh first struck.

The foothold on the airstrip was won this week after Vietminh night raiders blasted craters with nitroglycerine. Rebel troops then rushed in and furiously hacked out a system of connecting trenches.

The Vietminh also kept up their steady digging around the outskirts of the Dien Bien Phu plain today, relentlessly pushing their web of trenches and foxholes closer to the French barbed wire barricades.

Giap was believed to have rounded up his reinforcements by beating the jungles throughout northern Indochina. Apparently he even drew on the regulars who have been fanning out in repeated scattered attacks against the French and their Vietnamese allies in the vital Red River delta, about 150 miles to the east.

The French gave no information on the numbers of defenders they still have at Dien Bien Phu after the five weeks of pounding. The high command here said only that none of the fortress' six main defense positions had suffered any food or ammunition shortages.

All supplies and reinforcements for the garrison of several thousand men must be parachuted in. The remote fortress is completely surrounded by the enemy, and constant artillery bombardment makes its two airstrips unusable, even for removal of wounded.

Cracked Windshields Causing Concern For Many Motorists

SEATTLE (AP)—Superbomb, supernatural or superstition, there was no doubt about it today, the one million people in the Puget Sound country were stirred up by the case of the pockmarked windshields. Some were even blaming H-bombs.

And the mayor of this city of 500,000 was trying to stir up the President of the United States. The mayor, Allan Pomeroy, apparently was among the believers that something, rather than someone, is damaging thousands of automobile windshields with an unknown substance.

The mayor asked the President to "instruct appropriate federal agencies to cooperate with local authorities on an emergency basis."

There are doubters, too, who think an awful lot of people are victims of mass hysteria, suddenly conscious of something that may have happened days, weeks or months ago.

"Tommyrot," exploded Dr. D. M. Ritter, assigned by the chemistry department of the University of Washington to assist authorities seeking an answer to the riddle. "There isn't anything I know of that could be causing unusual breaks in windshields," he said after examining several and residue found on the cars.

"These people must be dreaming!"

One thing is certain: the claims of damaged windshields are mounting into the thousands. And one thing else appears certain: no other glass objects seem to be suffering, not even side windows of cars.

The description of the damage varies from actual holes to pit marks covering every known shape. Chips, scratches, mars, pits, holes, crumbling, blemishes, blurs, blots and cracks. Some people even claim the damage has happened before their eyes.

Law enforcement officials are convinced that some vandalism was involved in cases reported at Bellingham. Some, but not all, believe the vandalism spread.

Then, this week, other communities south of Bellingham said they had suffered an outbreak of the trouble. Wednesday night it broke out in Seattle. The police switchboard couldn't handle the complaints; neither could the newspapers.

Some police officers said it even happened to them. Others took the Dr. Ritter attitude. A state patrol official, who asked not to be named because "so many high officials appear to have been taken in," said he hadn't found one actual case outside of Bellingham that couldn't be laid to normal travel damage.

He pointed out that winter, with its heavily sanded streets, has just passed. Windshields were dirty, the atmosphere dark and murky. Blemishes didn't show up then.

"It's clearer, brighter, now," he said. "And with this wave of hysteria, people are inspecting their windshields closely and finding spots they never knew were there before."

On the other side, persons not known to be the hysterical type reported their autos had been hit. Some said a graphite-like substance had been found on the cars and that it reacted in a magnetic fashion.

Meanwhile, rumors were thick that teen-agers had been rounded up and had signed confessions of responsibility for the Bellingham depredations. The cops are just waiting to round up the rest of the gang, the rumors went.

But police in Seattle said the reported cases of damage are too widespread to have been done by a person or persons.

Some of them, and many of the persons who claimed damage, blamed it on a reaction from explosion of the hydrogen bomb. Others said it was "a manifestation of God's wrath."

At Widbey Island Naval Air Station, where a number of marked windshields were discovered, Geiger counters showed there was no radioactivity present.

Governors Of Dust States Get Invitation

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower today invited the governors of Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, New Mexico and Colorado to a White House conference April 26 to discuss dust storm and drouth relief for the Southwest.

Expressing deep concern about the situation, the President sent this telegram from his vacation headquarters to each of the five governors:

"I am deeply concerned about the consequences of the dust storms which have afflicted your state and others in the southwestern part of the United States, coming as they have upon the heel of a serious and extended drouth.

"This concern extends not only to measures to alleviate suffering and protect property, but to measures which will meet the problem on a longer run basis. This involves all the levels of government in working out a cooperative program for improved land utilization and soil conservation.

"You are invited, along with the governors of other seriously affected states, to attend in the Cabinet room of the White House a conference to discuss this problem at 2:30 p.m. April 26, 1954. I am hopeful that you will find it possible to be present."

The President's invitation went to Govs. Allan Shivers of Texas, Johnston Murray of Oklahoma, Edward F. Arn of Kansas, Edwin L. Meachem of New Mexico, and Dan Thornton of Colorado.

Young Woman Killed In Hit-And-Run Car Accident Last Night

BELTON, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. John I. Griffith, 23-year-old school teacher of Austin, was killed shortly before midnight when a car or truck plowed into the rear of a car being driven by her husband.

A statewide pickup order was broadcast for the hit-and-run driver.

Griffith was treated at a Belton hospital, but his injuries were described as not serious.

Griffith told officers his car was struck from behind near the Belton overpass. The car was knocked 70 feet and plunged over an embankment.

The couple was en route to Dallas.

Mundt Pushes For Thursday Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Mundt (R-SD) pushed ahead today with scheduled plans for a televised probe of the McCarthy-Army row in the face of demands from the McCarthy camp for another investigation before the public hearings get under way.

Mundt, acting chairman of the Senate investigations subcommittee during the inquiry, professed hope the public hearings would start next Thursday as planned despite those demands and reports the Army would be asked to rework its case.

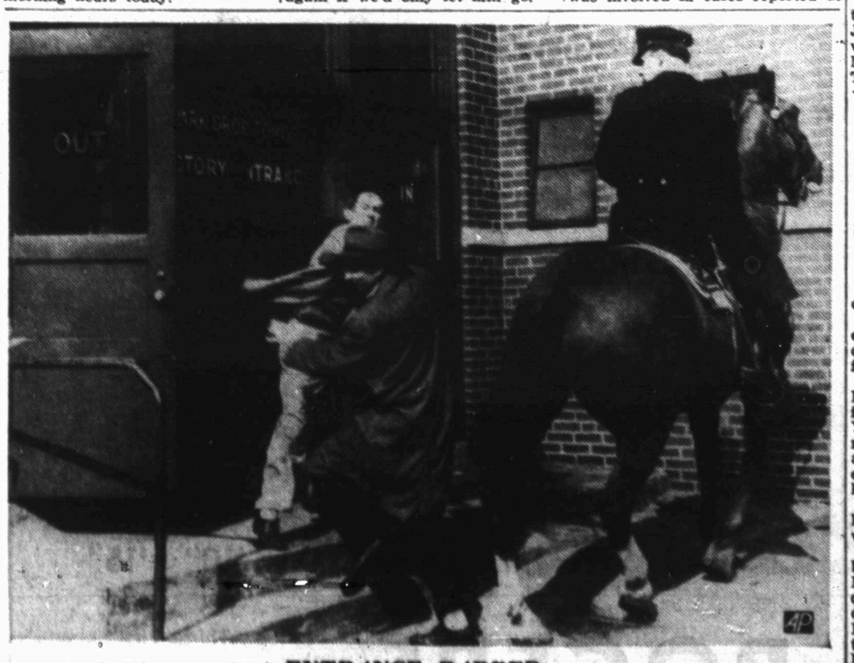

The call for a pre-investigation came from Chairman McCarthy (R-Wis) and Roy M. Cohn, the subcommittee's regular counsel, following the release yesterday of the Army's 29-point "bill of particulars" against the senator and his aides.

Cohn telegraphed from New York for an "immediate investigation" to find out who violated an earlier subcommittee decision not to make public the Army charges until McCarthy's accusations against the Army also had been submitted and could be made public.

Cohn made clear he was not referring to Sen. Symington (D-Mo), the subcommittee member who gave out the Army list of charges. Symington said he did so because of previous "piecemeal leaks" to newsmen about the Army document.

But in his call for an investigation of the matter, McCarthy said in Houston, Tex., that he was "very surprised that Symington violated the Senate rule." And he said any Pentagon officials who "leaked" parts of the report earlier should be cited for contempt.

The Army report, sent to the subcommittee as a basis for its case in the public inquiry, alleged that McCarthy and his aides "sought by improper means" and by "threats" against Army people to win favored treatment of a draftee, Pvt. G. David Schine, formerly an unpaid subcommittee investigator. Except for pointing up McCarthy's reported role in the affair, the new bill of particulars was generally similar to the charges contained in the lengthier document made public in mid-March.

A non-striker who tries to enter the plant of the Park Drop Forge Co. in Cleveland is forcibly restrained by a striking employe Wednesday. More than 3,000 members and officials of the CIO-United Auto Workers massed around the entrances of the firm.

Clouds Swept From State As Severe Weather Hits Valley

By The Associated Press

An Easter season norther swept clouds from Texas skies Friday.

Amid stormy weather along the Rio Grande Thursday a tornado formed late in the afternoon at San Ygnacio, 30 miles southeast of Laredo, and damaged several houses and buildings. Trees were uprooted, and four miles of power lines knocked down.

The fast-moving stormy weather brought 1¼ inches of rain between McAllen and Mission, 1 inch to a dry and section in southwest Hidalgo County, .4 of an inch to Pharr, and .7 to Edinburg and then moved east. There apparently was no general rain. More thunderstorms were predicted for Friday.

The norther took just 24 hours to cross Texas and reach the gulf.

Skies cleared back of the front and even before daybreak Friday West Texas was virtually cloudless. Overcasts in other parts of the state were breaking up.

Beaumont, the only point reporting precipitation, had a light rain shower as the sun came up.

Ominous wind clouds that built up late Thursday night in East Texas and South Texas failed to produce feared tornadoes. But some damaging winds struck near Houston, at Longview is Northeast Texas, and north of the Orange vicinity in Southeast Texas.

The Highway Patrol reported tornado clouds sighted in the vicinities of San Marcos and Seguin. But apparently neither of the funnels ever touched the ground.

Meanwhile, the Rio Grande Valley was still having some flood trouble. Judge Milton B. Richardson of Hidalgo County sent a telegram late Thursday asking Gov. Allan Shivers to declare the county an emergency flood area. Richardson said he acted at the request of Dr. Carl H. Miller, Hidalgo County health officer, who said water pollution caused the emergency status to be necessary.

A declaration by Shivers would make available to the county the personnel, special equipment and insectides of the U.S. Public Health Service. Dr. Miller said septic tanks and open ditch toilets in the flood area have overflowed and created a serious health problem.

An American Red Cross field supervisor made an aerial survey Thursday of the Hidalgo County flood area. He said 386 homes in 10 communities were affected but that not all of them were in distress.

The supervisor, Doug Trites, said the Red Cross and some 500 to 700 volunteers had the situation in hand.

Typhoid inoculations continued in the Rio Grande flood areas where authorities feared outbreak of a typhoid epidemic. The State Health Department sent doctors, nurses and serum to the 150-square-mile danger area. The cities of Edinburg, Weslaco, Elsa, and McAllen bound the area.

Critic's Praise For Claramae Turner's Performance Here

(Editor's note: Mrs. R. B. Fulcher was guest reviewer for the Snyder Civic Music Association at last night's final concert of the season.)

The second season of the Civic Music Association was climaxed last night in the high school auditorium with a memorable performance by Claramae Turner, contralto. A native Californian, the glamorous blonde artist has attained success in opera and concert as well as on the stage, radio and television without a European detour. Miss Turner's rich voice and delightful manner won for her immediate acclaim as her versatility and varied program selection found wide appeal with the audience.

Opening with the well-known and high-spirited "Come to the Fair," Miss Turner projected her warm personality and friendliness. Following a haunting Caroline folk song and the tender "Jesus, Jesus, Rest Your Head," she received enthusiastic applause for the flippant American folk song "Soldier, Soldier, Will You Marry Me?"

The second series, a group of German songs of Brahms, Schubert, Wagner and Wolf, were well received, language being no barrier as the artist's interpretation conveyed radiance, tenderness, sadness or humor. This group was probably the most difficult for general audience appreciation. Her sensitive rendition of Brahms overshadowed the Schubert number which perhaps lacked only the degree of warmth that a Lottee Lehman would have achieved with this particular type of song.

True to the Spanish style, the group of de Falla and Obradors was colorful and exciting. In one number Miss Turner dazzled her audience with technical skill in imitating a drum, guitar and bugle.

The climax of the evening came with a presentation of an aria from "The Medium" by Gian Carlo Menotti which displayed the artist's dramatic talent and wide vocal range. Miss Turner was chosen by the composer to create the title role of this opera in the premier performance in New York in 1946 and she includes this terrifying monologue in almost all her recital appearances.

The concluding selections featured a nursery rhyme with the musical setting a satire on the style of Handel and a Negro spiritual which underlined her perfection in stage mannerisms. Throughout the evening, Keith Mixon, professor of music at TCU, contributed to the brilliant performance with his piano accompaniment.

Although previous concerts have featured groups of artists of great talent, it was significant that the membership received Miss Turner with such spontaneous ovations. She graciously acknowledged with four encores. These offered sharp contrasts in mood, as did the program, and included the artist's version of the Habanera from Carmen, a combination of the traditional French and Carmen Jones, as well as a moving final number, "The Lord's Prayer."

The Civic Music membership this season afforded music lovers an intimate piano performance by Robert MacDowell; versatile instrumental brilliance of the Reginald Kell Players; semi-classical variety with the Immortal Musicals, given by a cast of 18 including Lanny Ross and Irra Petina, a chorus and duo-piano team, and the rich contralto voice of Miss Turner.

Singing Convention Set In San Angelo

The Tom Green County Singing Convention has invited singers from Scurry County to attend a meeting Sunday afternoon in San Angelo.

The program is to begin at 1:30 in the Assembly of God Church at 1002 North Oakes. All visitors will be welcome, S. H. Shelton, secretary of the convention, said.

Bad Check Charge Is Filed Here Yesterday

A charge of swindling by worthless check was filed in county court yesterday afternoon against Marvin Lee Garden, 33, Snyder, now being held in jail in lieu of $1,000 bond on a felony complaint of theft.

Garden had not been brought before the court on the misdemeanor charge by noon today. The other charge alleges he stole more than $50 from Wade Miller.

The county court charge against Garden alleges he gave a worthless check for $10 to Hughes Service Station on March 30.

DWI Charge Filed Here

Ray Carlton Owen, 29, Electra, was charged in county court this morning with driving while intoxicated. He was arrested by city police at 7:30 o'clock last night.

Bond was set at $250 when Owen pleaded innocent before the court today. He was still in jail at noon in lieu of bond.

OIL NEWS

It was drilled to a bottom of 7,055 feet in the Canyon, where it made only water. Operator then plugged back to 6,484 feet after cementing five and one-half-inch casing at 6,515 feet. That pipe was perforated at 6,305-320 feet in the Wolfcamp and treated with 500 gallons of acid.

On the completion test the well pumped 29 barrels of 36.6-gravity oil with no water in 24 hours.

The well is 1,342 feet from north and 1,303 feet from west lines of section 60-25-H&TC, M. T. (Rosy) Stalliter of Midland worked up the deal which resulted in the drilling of the well. He has an interest in the project. It has been suggested the new well be named the opener of th Griffin-Wolfcamp field. There is no other Wolfcamp production in the area adjacent to the well.

SCURRY DRILLING

Bright & Schiff No. 1 S. E. Clawson, two miles north of Fluvanna in Northwest Scurry County, has temporarily suspended operations after drilling to 300 feet. It is understood that operations will be resumed upon completion of Bright & Schiff No. 1 E. P. Ainsworth, which is now drilling in lime and shale below 2,510 feet. Eight and five-eighth-inch casing has been set at 2,255 feet.

Taylor Oil & Gas No. 2 Winston Brothers, Central Scurry wildcat, is at total depth of 6,877 feet and drillstem testing. In Southwest Scurry, Sun No. 2 J. W. Layne is drilling in shale below 6,815 feet.

Fred Goodstein No. 1 Browning, outpost to a Strawn discovery in Northwest Scurry County, is at total depth of 7,808 feet and drillstem testing from 7,750-808 feet. Gas surfaced in one minute after the tool was opened. Top of the Strawn is at 7,748 feet, minus 5,020 feet.

Woodson Oil No. 1 G. H. Marley, wildcat four miles north of Fluvanna, is drillstem testing in the Strawn from 7,880-890 feet. Total depth is 7,890 feet. Top of the Strawn was at 7,877 feet, minus 5,044 feet.

Also in Northwest Scurry, Mayfield No. 1 Jordan is at total depth of 2,508 feet and waiting for cement to cure. Woodson No. 1 Noel is drilling in shale below 7,274 feet.

Across the line in Northeast Borden County, Gibson No. 1 Patterson is at total depth of 8,238 feet in Mississippian. Five and one-half-inch casing has been cemented at 8,203 feet. Operator is preparing to acidize open hole and test for completion.

In Northeast Scurry County, Union and Lone Star No. 1 Boone is drilling in lime and shale beow 2,410 feet.

BORDEN COUNTY

On last report the project was making 11 barrels of fluid hourly through a choke of unreported size. The fluid was oil, water and basic sediment with no breakdown reported. Production is from perforations at 9,034-044 feet. The project is bottomed at 9,050 feet in Pennsylvanian reef lime which was topped at 9,028 feet.

Texas Pacific No. 1 Johnson is at total depth of 3,050 feet and preparing to run eight and five-eighth-inch casing.

Rowan Oil No. 1 Long, eight miles south of Gail, is drilling in lime and shale below 7,255 feet.

Phillips No. 1-B Clayton is drilling in lime and shale below 6,860 feet. Superior No. 14-535 Jones is at total depth of 8,175 feet and preparing to core. Texas Crude No. 1-44 A. D. Brown is still shutin to wait for tank room. Falcon Seaboard No. 1-A Clayton and Johnson is drilling in black shale below 8,126 feet. Great Western No. 1 Beal is drilling in lime and shale below 7,678 feet.

Hit-And-Run Accident Reported Thursday

A hit-and-run accident involving a car which was said to have hit a motor scooter was investigated yesterday afternoon by police, but there were no apprehensions, Johnny Claybrook, desk dispatcher, said.

Claybrook said that James Williams, 2807 Avenue B, a newspaper carrier boy, reported that a car struck the motor scooter he was riding at the intersection of Avenue U and Twenty-fifth Street about 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, then the car sped from the scene.

The news boy was not injured and damage to the motor scooter was not serious.

Man Returned Here

J. Lowell Gillispie, about 25, of Lubbock, was released on bond yesterday afternoon shortly after he was returned here on a county court charge of swindling by worthless check. The bond was made by his attorney of Lubbock.

Gillispie is charged with stopping payment on a $31 check to Lamb Chevrolet Co. He was returned here by Howard Gibbons, deputy sheriff.

Political Science To Be Required Course

LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Students at state-supported colleges in Michigan will be required to take a course in political science before graduating.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams signed into law yesterday a bill passed by the legislature requiring at least three semester hours of political science, public administration or government.

WOMEN

Shown in rehearsal before the concert last night is Miss Clara-mae Turner, who likes to sing a variety of music such as opera, popular and American Folk tunes. She concluded her program last night with a selection of popular songs. At the piano is her accompanist, Keith Mixon, professor of music at Texas Christian University. (Lee Watson photograph)

SOCIETY SCRIBBLINGS

By VIVIAN KILPATRICK

Next to music, women's fashions are the interests of Miss CLARA-MAE TURNER, contralto who was presented in a concert last night by the Civic Music Association at the high school.

In addition to being named by a famous hat designer as the woman who showed her hats to best advantage, Miss Turner recently received an award as the best dressed woman in opera.

She designs her own costumes for opera, she said, although someone else makes them.

Since mid-September she has been on tour, traveling mainly by car, and making over seventy appearances so far. She likes singing on tour as well as making opera appearances, she said.

Her husband sometimes accompanies her on tours, but his business interests usually keep him in New York. They make arrangements to be together whenever possible when she is traveling.

During her present tour, Miss Turner had an offer to sing in Vienna, but she was booked too solid to accept.

Negotiations are now in progress for her debut at Las Calla Opera House in Milan, and arrangements are pending for appearances in Berlin and Vienna. In Europe she would have to re-learn some German operas, but otherwise there would be no time for study, she said.

Miss Turner likes to sing in the language of her audience so that she can be understood. She understands what she is singing in any language, she explained, although she is fluent in English and Italian only. Miss Turner also favors the singing in English of operas to an American audience. She has sung three translations of Carmen and the original, too.

Her studies began in public schools, where she had very good teachers, she said. It was there she began her studies of French and German.

"Study."

This includes music, dramatics and languages and all that goes with it, she expanded. And:

"Keep on studying."

That Easter ham is deserving of a special dessert and here it is — individual tarts filled with lemon flavored cream cheese and topped with pineapple slices.

GLAZED PINEAPPLE TARTS

1 number 2½ can pineapple slices (8 slices)
1 8-ounce package cream cheese
4 eggs
1 cup sugar
½ cup lemon juice
2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
8 4-inch baked tart shells
8 maraschino cherries

Place pineapple slices on absorbent paper to drain. Set aside pineapple syrup for glaze. Let cream cheese soften at room temperature in a mixing bowl. Beat eggs in top of double boiler until thick and fluffy. Gradually beat in sugar, lemon juice and lemon rind. Cook over hot water, stirring constantly, until custard is thick and smooth. Cool. Beat softened cream cheese until smooth and creamy. Gradually blend in cooled custard. Divide mixture among tart shells. Top each with a pineapple slice and place a maraschino cherry, cut into thirds, in the center of each.

For glaze: Blend one tablespoon cornstarch and two tablespoons cold water in a saucepan. Slowly add the pineapple syrup (about one and one-third cups). Cook, stirring constantly, until clear and thickened. While warm, pour over pineapple slices in tarts.

To make tart shells: Use a packaged pastry mix or a standard pastry recipe for a two-crust nine-inch pie. Chill the dough thoroughly before rolling out to one - eighth inch thickness. Cut pastry into rounds one inch larger than tart pans. Fit pastry into pans. Flute edges and prick sides and bottoms to prevent puffing. Chill pastry on pans before baking. Place on baking sheet and bake in a very hot (475 degrees F.) oven eight to ten minutes.

An eight-inch cook's knife, sometimes called a French Cook's or Chef's knife, is efficient in a kitchen for carving hot roasts and mincing small quantities of onion, parsley, celery or green pepper. For mincing, hold the tip of the knife on the slicing board and rock back and forth.

NEWS FROM HERMLEIGH

By MRS. W. C. FARGASON

The women's Bible class of the Church of Christ presented a Spring ensemble as a surprise gift to Mrs. Ralph Aycock, the wife of the minister of the church.

Mr. Aycock was made a similiar gift, money for a new suit, on his forty-fourth birthday. A surprise party was arranged for him on that day. Among those present for the birthday celebration were the couples' daughters, Clara Bell Aycock and Mrs. Bill Wood, Mr. Wood and two children, all of Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Aycock have another son-in-law, whose first name is also Bill. He and his wife and two children are in Holland doing missionary work.

Mr. and Mrs. Aycock, natives of Springfield, Mo., came to this church Jan. 1, 1953. They are planning to enter the home mission field sometime this summer, but have not definitely decided just where they will serve, according to a member of the church.

DOUBLE-TALK EXPERT

Bevo's Coach Says They'll Be In Clover By Cage Season

By DAVID L. DILES

RIO GRANDE, Ohio (AP)—Newt Oliver, the volatile little ringmaster of Rio Grande's basketball circus, came out of hiding today and announced he and star performer Bevo Francis are considering offers "that would put each of us in the five-figure salary bracket."

The Rio coach, who boasts openly that he personally put over one of the biggest basketball buildups in the history of the game, had successfully evaded reporters nearly a week.

Since last Monday's expulsion of Francis, one of the most prolific scorers the game has ever known, Oliver's whereabouts have been a dark secret. His traveling signals even had his family and college faculty friends confused.

But late last night, Oliver called the Associated Press, and said when he was asked where he had been: "Just shoppin'."

Despite a myriad of double-talk, he got the idea across it had been a successful trip to market.

The conversation went this way:

Question: "Have you and Bevo decided on any offers?"

Answer: "We have two, good, solid offers—and either one of them would put each of us in the five-figure salary bracket."

Q: "What are they?"

A: "—Can't say. In fact, I can't even give you a hint. But there's just the slightest chance we'll stay at Rio Grande. If we don't form our own team, we'll go pro. Nothing's definite yet, but it's going to be a hard decision to make."

Q: "Were you really in Cincinnati, or somewhere else?"

A: "I was in Cincinnati last night to see the Harlem Globetrotters and the College All-Stars."

Q: "Did you talk to Saperstein (Abe Saperstein, owner of the Globetrotters)?"

A: "I can't say who I talked to. But you don't think I went down there for my health, do you?"

Q: "What about that 'slight' chance you and Bevo will be back at Rio Grande next year? Are you two going to be together or not?"

A: "When the college dropped Bevo, they busted the biggest publicity bubble in basketball history. But if he doesn't come back, it's just as certain as the sun comin' up in the morning that I won't be back here either. Bevo'll be playing basketball somewhere next season, and you can bet your life I'll be right there on the bench. We'll be together no matter what happens."

Cardinal Pitchers Having Bad Time Getting Season Started

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Manager Eddie Stanky of the St. Louis Cardinals must be wondering today whether all that peerless preseason pitching by his Big Three was only an early spring night's dream.

It was only a few weeks ago that Harvey Haddix, Vic Raschi and Gerry Staley were racking up goose eggs all over the lot.

But in successive starts since the regular season began, Haddix and Raschi were pounded off the hill before they could even draw a deep breath. Haddix got his lumps opening day, pounded for five hits and four runs in less than three innings by the Chicago Cubs.

Raschi made his National League debut in Milwaukee yesterday and the former Yankee ace fared even worse. He was pulled in the second inning after he had been slugged for four hits and as many runs.

The Cards fought back to tie the game with a run in the eighth and three more in the ninth but Billy Bruton walked in the 11th and raced all the way home with the winning run on Danny O'Connell's single to right and Rip Repulski's bobble. The 7—6 defeat was charged to reliever Haddix, his second in two games. A record crowd of 39,963 saw southpaw Warren Spahn go all the way for Milwaukee.

Staley, the third member of the big trio, is due to make his 1953 bow in Chicago tomorrow.

The only other winless club in the majors are the Chicago White Sox, who dropped their third in a row as Baltimore celebrated its first American League home opener since 1902 with a 3—1 victory before 46,354 wildly cheering fans. Bob Turley, the sophomore speedballer, permitted seven hits and struck out nine for the Orioles. Home runs by Clint Courtney and Vern Stephens sent Virgil Trucks down to defeat.

Cincinnati's hard-hitting Redlegs remained the majors' only unbeaten team, pounding out an 11—5 decision over the Cubs for their second straight. Jimmy Greengrass, who tied a record with four doubles on opening day, added a fifth two-bagger and walloped a bases-loaded home run to highlight a six-run seventh for Cincinnati.

A slim gathering of 12,498 hardy souls braved the wintry blasts at Ebbets Field and were rewarded by a 7—4 Brooklyn victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates. Three Dodger home runs, all off loser Max Surkont, accounted for six runs. Roy Campanella hit his third of the season with two on, Junior Gilliam hit his second and Jackie Robinson his first with a runner on base. Russ Meyer was the winner but he needed help from Jim Hughes in the eighth.

Veteran Murry Dickson got the better of a pitching duel with young Johnny Antonelli as the Philadelphia Phils blanked the New York Giants 2—0 in a game cut to 6½ innings because of rain. Antonelli yielded only three hits but two of them were damaging drag bunts. One was made by Ted Kazanski, who took second on Antonelli's wild throw, third on a passed ball and scored on a fly in the fifth. The second was made by slugger Del Ennis, who squeezed Willie Jones home with two out in the sixth.

Four teams were tied for first place in the American League with 2—1 records. Detroit handed Cleveland the first defeat of the season 3—2, scoring the winning run in the ninth on two walks, an infield single by Bill Tuttle and an infield out by Matt Batts. Reliefer Ralph Branca was the winner and Mike Garcia the loser.

The New York Yankees joined Cleveland, Detroit and Baltimore at the top, defeating the Philadelphia Athletics 3—0 on Tom Morgan's eight-hitter. Eighth - inning home runs by Hank Bauer and rookie Bill Skowron off loser Alex Kellner broke up a close hurling duel.

Catcher Sammy White drove in three runs with a home run, double and two singles in four times at bat to lead the Boston Red Sox to a 6—1 victory over Washington. Lefty Bill Henry hurled a three-hitter.

Workouts For Jr. Baseball Teams Start

More than 70 Snyder boys trying out for places in baseball leagues here reported for workouts yesterday, according to officials of the leagues.

There were 34 boys out for Pony League workouts, while 39 were in Little League drills.

Those out for Pony League were 13 and 14 years old, the two ages covered in that league. Of the 34 out, 25 were 13-year-olds and nine of them 14. League officials expected about 10 additional boys in today's workouts.

All the Little League aspirants out yesterday were 12-year-olds. Added to the 54 boys 11 years old who were in workouts the day before, that totals 93 boys so far trying for places on Little League teams.

Both leagues will hold workouts at 5 o'clock this afternoon. On the practice field near the high school baseball field the Pony League will continue its drills for 13 and 14-year-old boys. On the field south of Fortieth Street and west of the Big Spring Highway the Little League will have workouts for boys 10 years old and under. Those working out in both leagues are only boys who are not now on league teams.

The two leagues will continue the workouts for several days and then choose boys to fill vacancies on the teams from those now trying out. Each league has some 30 vacancies this season.

Both leagues require that the boy have a birth certificate or its equivalent before he can be chosen to a team. League ages are determined by the boys' ages on Aug. 1.

The Pony League will hold a meeting Monday night to decide other workout dates. The Little League has set up three days of next week for drills, with 12-year-olds to report on Monday, 11-year-olds on Wednesday, and 10-year-olds and under on Friday.

No Conference Games Slated

By The Associated Press

Southwest Conference baseball teams have four games scheduled Friday and Saturday, but all are exhibition contests with non-conference opponents.

The next conference game does not come around until April 21 when the Texas Aggies meet Texas Christian at Fort Worth.

In non-conference settos Thursday, the Southwest's pace-setters—Texas—split a doubleheader with the University of Nebraska Cornhuskers. The Longhorns won the nine-inning opening game 10-5 only to lose 4-0 in the nightcap.

Brooke Army Medical Center's Comets defeated Texas A&M 3-1 in the other game.

Rice Institute was to invade San Antonio for a two-game series with the Comets Friday and Saturday. Texas Christian was to play a similar series with Sul Ross State College at Alpine.

Shreveport Is Farther Out In Front Of Pack

By CLAYTON HICKERSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

Shreveport's amazing Sports had a 2½-game Texas League lead Friday after humbling defending champion Dallas 10-4 in the Eagles' home-park opener.

The Eagles had a miserable night in getting only eight hits, committing four errors and watching four of their hurlers blasted from the mound.

It was the eighth straight victory for the Sports against no defeats for the season.

In other Texas League games: Bill Pilgrim limited the Oklahoma City Indians to three hits to pitch the San Antonio Missions to a 9-2 victory.

Tulsa used a story-book finish for its home opener to edge Houston 4-3.

The Beaumont Exporters—playing before the biggest Fort Worth opening day crowd since 1930—thrashed the Cats 9-3 on Joe Kuncl's sterling four-hit pitching.

All the Cat runs at Fort Worth came on home runs. Pitcher Tom Bigham got a two-run round-tripper while Cal Felix contributed the other to the Cat cause.

The crowd of 12,128 gave Fort Worth the President's Cup which goes each year to the city with the largest opening day attendance. Dallas had the second largest crowd, 8,812.

Oklahoma City's opening night crowd amounted to only 1,422 chilly fans who watched the Indians lose their seventh game against one victory for the young season. Van Durham slammed out a three-run home run for the Missions while Howie Boles knocked a one-run homer off winner Pilgrim.

A crowd of 4,367 watched the thriller at Tulsa. Utility outfielder Jeff Williams singled in a pinch-hit role to drive in two runs and tie the game at 3-3 in the ninth. Then the former Kansas City Monarch player scored the winning tally on a single by Jim Bolger.

Beaumont was a half-game back of second-place Dallas and a half-game ahead of fourth-place San Antonio when the night's playing was over. Tulsa and Fort Worth, five games back, were tied for fifth and sixth places, followed by Houston and Oklahoma City in that order.

Only three games were on tap for Friday night: Beaumont at Fort Worth, Shreveport at Dallas, and San Antonio at Oklahoma City. Tulsa and Houston, observing Good Friday, were to take the day off, but set a Saturday doubleheader.

HERITAGE DAYS NO. 41

Battle Nears, Houston Says; Texans Seek Out Santa Anna

The Texan army marched toward destiny on April 16 and 17, 1836, with Sam Houston riding along the lines to explain that the day of battle neared. Admitting he had been blamed for not meeting the enemy sooner, the commander expounded his plan that "as soon as circumstances would permit it to be done to advantage, we should have it to our satisfaction."

Refugee families struggled along with the army in a downpour of rain that morning. Capts. Baker and Martin feared Houston planned to continue his retreat. They vowed to oust the leader and name a new commander if he veered from the road to Harrisburg.

The decision came where the road forked. Houston directed the refugees to take the road up the Trinity, with Cap. Martin and his company as escort. To his cheering soldiers, Houston ordered a march to Harrisburg.

The Texan army, for the first time since its retreat began at Gonzales, was making an advance rather than a withdrawal. Captain Karnes and trusted Deaf Smith, skillful spies, reconnoitred in advance to keep Houson informed as to what his army faced.

The plodding march through heavy mud was halted for a night's rest, only to be resumed the morning of April 17 — a day that saw the Texans bog through 18 miles of mud that brought them to a point six miles north of Harrisburg.

Santa Anna, having already arrived at the one-time capital, had burned Harrisburg to the ground.

Mexican scouts were sent out to determine Houston's line of march, and Col. Juan Almonte returned to advise Santa Anna that the Texans were retreating toward the Trinity. Santa Anna moved quickly, ordering General Cos, at Old Fort with 500 infrantrymen, to join him at Lynchburg.

Santa Anna, starting his march to Lynchburg, camped the night of April 17 at Vince's Bayou.

A "Texian Loan," used to finance the revolution in 1836 is reproduced above. Negotiated in New Orleans, is called for repayment in five years, at eight per cent interest. In lieu of cash, it provided that "land may be taken at the rate of 50 cents per acre." Along the right side of the loan are the words "Six hundred and forty acres of land."

Guard Armory Not Approved By Board Yet

No official word has yet been received from the state armory board as to whether the National Guard unit here will have a new armory built, according to Cap. Weldon Kincaid, commander of the local unit.

Kincaid said the local unit is maintaining contact with the board but that the board has not yet met to render any decision as to whether Snyder will get an armory.

The board awarded an architectural contract to the firm of Cool & Steely of Midland, Kincaid said. This firm will draw up plans for a foundation for the armory, providing it is built here. Plans for the actual building are already made up, the same as those for similar units. The Midland architects will only make plans for a foundation for such a building as the federal government designates, with the foundation suited to the location. The contract was awarded conditionally, Kincaid said, adding that the firm does not yet know whether any actual work will be done here.

The county commissioners court has designated land on the south side of Towle Memorial Park and west of the county stock barn for the proposed armory.

Representatives of the court told the board in a hearing last month that it would provide the land for an armory.

Japs Finding New Radiation

TOKYO (AP)—The Japan Fishery Board said today it feared that U. S. hydrogen bomb tests have contaminated the Pacific with radioactivity for 3,000 miles east and west of Bikini Atoll.

It said Japanese fishing boats 2200 miles southwest and 1,000 miles northeast of the Bikini Atoll test site had become radioactive.

In all, 20 fishing boats including three whalers from the antarctic showed radioactivity, the board said.

The government planned to send a survey boat out next month to check a 2,000-square-mile area outside the Bikini danger zone.

A spokesman said the survey was badly needed "to remove fears held by the Japanese people about fish being brought back from the south Pacific.

Meanwhile, two areas on the main island of Honshu reported a fall of radioactive rain in the past few days.

Prof. Yashshi Nishiwaki of Osaka University said Japan could expect more contaminated rainfalls and expressed fear that they would affect vegetables and livestock.

"Continuation of the hydrogen bomb tests," he said, "could threaten all the food of the Japanese people."

Refuses To Believe Japan Was Defeated

HONOLULU (AP) — A Japanese farmer, indicted on a charge of violating the immigration law, says Japan won World War II "and you can't make me believe otherwise."

The farmer, Kametoku Tomei, 64, was accused of refusing to file an annual alien address report and the U. S. attorney's office said he insisted that Hawaii is part of Japan.

"Hawaii is a part of Japan," Tomei told a reporter yesterday. "Everything else is a pack of lies."

Tomei's children, all born here and U. S. citizens, left home several years ago. They were angered and embarrassed, said the eldest son, Shigemichi Tomei.

"We tried everything to explain the true situation to him," Shigemichi said. "He wouldn't believe us. I even offered him money to take a trip to Japan to see for himself but he refused, saying the time had not come to visit Japan yet."

Asked why U. S. law was in effect if Hawaii is part of Japan, Tomei replied: "It takes time to set up a new administration but the Japanese administration will come within this year."

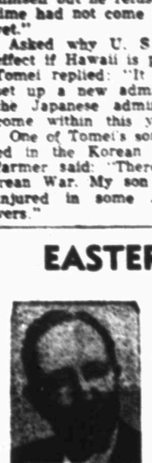

One of Tomei's sons was wounded in the Korean War, but the farmer said: "There was no Korean War. My son probably was injured in some Army maneuvers."

Tomei said he would believe Japan lost the war "if the Emperor sent a representative" but added "The Emperor would not do such a thing."

Dr. Andrew W. Lind, professor of sociology at the University of Hawaii, said Tomei's attitude was the result of an "emotional crisis at VJ Day which drove some older generation Japanese to seek questionable mental security in delusions of Japanese victory."

EASTER, IS IT SCRIPTURAL?

Ted Norton

THE NEW TESTAMENT SCRIPTURES ARE AS SILENT AS THE TOMB on such subjects as Lent, Palm Sunday, Good Friday, Easter, or Christmas. One must look to other sources for such terms or days. THE ENCYCLOPEDIA AMERICANA, 1950 Ed., on the subject, "Easter" says that Easter is a convergence of three traditions: Pagan, Hebrew, and Christian. Note, the author says "three traditions." But Paul warns Christians about traditions by writing, "Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, . . . and not after Christ." (Col.2:8).

EASTER IS NOT JEWISH AS IS EVIDENT FROM THE FOLLOWING: If Easter were a continuation of the Jewish Passover, as some claim, it would always fall on the 14th of Nisan (the time of the Passover), but this is the very thing which it does not do! It is very rare indeed to find Easter and the Passover coming at the same date. The year 1825 was the last time and some who study such things claim that the year 2000 will be the next time the dates coincide.

EASTER IS NOT CHRISTIAN IN ORIGIN for if it were there would be evidence of it in the New Testament scriptures. On the contrary, the apostle Paul rebuked the churches of Galatia, "Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years. I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labor in vain." (Gal.4:10,11). To the Colossians he declared, "Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of a holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: . . ." (Col.2:16-23). Such practices would "beguile" the Christian of his reward. Clearer statements exposing Lent, Palm Sunday, Good Friday, Easter or Christmas as being Christian Holydays could hardly be found.

EASTER IS PAGAN IN ITS ORIGIN. The word "Easter" is the anglicized form of the name of the Teutonic goddess, Eastre or Ostern (the word "east" is from the same derivative) who was the goddess of Spring, and the dawn. She was welcomed in a festival of celebration on her annual return, reclothing the earth with greenery and flowers. Ancients had this celebration of Easter long before Christ ever came to the world!

IS EASTER TAUGHT IN THE BIBLE? The uninformed will argue that the word "Easter" is found one time in the Bible—Acts 12:4. This is true in the King James Version only. Let the reader check any commentator and he will say that the word in the original is the same word elsewhere translated "Passover."

SHOULD CHRISTIANS CELEBRATE THE RESURRECTION OF CHRIST? Certainly they should. But let them do it as the New Testament directs. From the beginning of the church on pentecost after the resurrection of Christ, Christians have observed the Lord's supper in memory of His death and it was done on the first day of the week—His resurrection day. The first day of the week has special significance to Christians for it is "the Lord's day"—the resurrection day of our Lord Jesus Christ. The following references will enlighten the reader: Acts 20:7-12; 1Cor.16:16,17; 11:23-30; Heb.10:23-25. The Lord's supper is in memory of His death and it is observed on the Lord's day—His resurrection day (John 20:1,19). Which Lord's day should Christians eat the Lord's supper? When the first day comes—every week has its first day; just as under the law of Moses every week had its sabbath day (Exodus 20:8-11).

NINETEEN hundred years ago the church of Christ was established! Today, she has the same name, worship, organization, doctrine and life. The reader can learn all about the church of Christ by studying the New Testament.

Handy Button Stops Traffic For News Vendor In St. Louis

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Adolph Schwartzkopf, a news vendor, appeared before City Judge Robert G. Dowd yesterday on charges of blocking traffic by running into the street to sell papers to motorists.

Said Schwartzkopf:

"I don't weave in and out of traffic. I push that button and stop the traffic." He told the court a traffic signal at the corner has a manually-controlled "walk" light.

Judge Dowd asked: "You mean you stop this traffic every time you want to run out and sell a paper?"

The news vendor replied: "Sure. How else am I going to get into the street if I don't?"

Judge Dowd fined Schwartzkopf $25, but stopped payment on this condition:

"You stay out of the street and don't be pushing that button any more."

Suzan Ball And Hubby Back From Honeymoon

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Back from a wedding trip, Suzan Ball says it will take her and Richard Long at least a month to answer all the congratulatory letters that awaited them.

The film couple, married in Santa Barbara last Sunday, returned to their North Hollywood home yesterday from Ojai and Carmel, Calif. There were gifts and messages from all over the world.

Miss Ball, 21, underwent a leg amputation three months ago to stave off cancer. Universal-International says a script will be waiting for her when she returns to the studio.

Russia Has Done Good Job Of Preventing Feared EDC Pact

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russia dislikes and fears NATO and EDC more than anything else in the close relationship between the United States and its Western friends.

They've tried to destroy both of them: NATO, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, and EDC, the European Defense Community. The two go together. Nato is five years old. EDC doesn't actually exist.

EDC was intended to be the heart of NATO, a shell without it. Time drags on. EDC is still in the future. Here is the story:

NATO—

It's a military alliance between 14 nations which agreed to help one another in case any one of them is attacked. All 14 pool their plans for defense of western and southern Europe under a joint command and planning staff.

But each of the 14 has its own separate armed forces, although the joint staff plans how to use all of them if attack comes.

The 14 NATO members are the United States, Britain, France, the Netherlands, Belgium, Luxembourg, Portugal, Denmark, Norway, Iceland, Canada, Italy, Greece and Turkey. The first 12 joined NATO April 4, 1949. Greece and Turkey came in later.

EDC—

It's sometimes called the 'single European army.'' It's supposed to have six members: France, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg — all members of NATO — and West Germany.

Under EDC West Germany could rearm. All six nations would give up having individual armies and merge them in a single army. Their troops, wearing the same uniforms and using the same weapons, would be under a single command of their own choosing, tried to wreck both by persuasion and propaganda. They've played on French fears by emphasizing the danger of letting West Germany rearm at all.

At the same time the Russians have tried to wreck NATO by maneuvers that ranged from demands it be abolished to the suggestion that maybe Russia would be willing to join it, although NATO is an alliance against Russia.

The French have talked of wanting assurances the United States will not withdraw its troops from Europe — it has the equivalent of six divisions in Europe — and that Britain will join EDC.

This unified EDC army doesn't mean troops from all six countries would stand shoulder to shoulder in the same squads and platoons. They would not be merged below the division level. Men from each country would be in separate divisions. All the divisions would be under a single, unified command.

This would be EDC's value: it would be part of NATO but this single army, if Russia attacked, could swing into action immediately, giving the other NATO members time to bring up their forces.

The French first suggested EDC. They looked into the future, fearing the day when a revitalized West Germany might rearm and start on a rampage again. They looked on the EDC idea as protection against that.

The reasoning was that if rearmed Germany had its troops merged in a single EDC army, it couldn't plan war on its own. As time passed, many French began to dread the thought of West Germany's rearming at all.

So the French Parliament has stalled on approving EDC. So has the Italian Parliament. Approval has been given by the parliaments of West Germany, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. A French showdown is expected in June.

Russia, knowing NATO will be a cripple unless EDC is created, has

CHURCH NEWS

REV. JIMMY BURLESON
. . . new Hermleigh pastor

New Minister In Hermleigh

HERMLEIGH — The Rev. Jimmy Burleson, formerly of Colorado City, has begun his work as pastor of the Central Baptist Church here. He replaced the Rev. Don Hanson, who resigned to accept the pastorate of the Greenwood Baptist Church near Midland.

Mr. Burleson will preach for a Spring revival beginning at the church Sunday. Morning services will begin at 10:30, with evening services at 8 o'clock. Prayer services will begin at 7:30 each night. An all-night prayer service is to be held in the church tomorrow night preceding the opening of the revival Sunday.

Mr. Burleson, a native of Coleman, attended Hardin - Simmons University. He was pastor of the Fairview Baptist Church before coming here, and has been a preacher for more than two years.

"I like to tell about my salvation— I'm happy about it," Mr. Burleson said. He was converted at 4 o'clock one morning in his home at Andrews where he was a theater manager. He called the pastor of the Baptist Church, the Rev. Eugene Brand, who came and read to him the third chapter of John. Eight months later Mr. Burleson entered the ministry.

He is the brother of the evangelist Evans I. Burleson who is said to have been instrumental in the conversion of Sandra Peterson in 1950 after she had been convicted of murder.

Mr. and Mrs. Burleson and their three daughters are now living here.

R. J. Wesson Resigns Post

Ralph J. Wesson, music and education director at the First Baptist Church, has resigned his office effective June 1.

Wesson said in his letter of resignation to the church that he will remain in Snyder and enter private music teaching.

The director has been with the church since Oct. 1, 1950, when he came here from the First Baptist Church at Borger, where he performed similar duties.

Wesson, his wife, and two sons and a daughter live at 1600 Twenty-fifth Street.

A native of Oklahoma, Wesson is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma. Before World War II he taught public school music in Kinta, Okla. During the war he was a chaplains's assistant.

The church has not yet named a replacement for Wesson.

Twenty-five Attend Luncheon For Class

Twenty-five class members attended the monthly covered dish luncheon of the Victory Bible class of the First Methodist Church Wednesday.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. W. H. Cauble, Mrs. A. M. Curry, Mrs. Ada Henderson, and Mrs. J. C. Dorward. Guests were the Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Adcock, the Rev. M. W. Clark, T. G. Deffebach and Mrs. Frank Storm.

Following the luncheon, class members quilted a quilt and pieced enough blocks to make another quilt top. Class activity reports showed 112 visits made, 16 trays delivered, 144 cards mailed, 13 bouquets delivered, 87 magazines taken to invalids and shutins and 15 garments made.

It was voted to place a handrail on the east side of the steps leading to the sanctuary.

The class will hold its next luncheon May 12.

Area President Here

Mrs. Frank Travis of Abilene, president of the Abilene Presbyterial, will be a guest of the Presbyterian Women's Organization here Tuesday.

The meeting is to begin at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon in the church. Mrs. Giles Bowers will be in charge of the program.

SERMON TOPICS

A sunrise service at the new Calvary Baptist Church, 2300 Thirty-fifth Street, will begin worship services for the church Sunday. The sunrise service will begin at 7 o'clock when the pastor, the Rev. T. Gerald Cates, will speak briefly on "He Arose." At the 11 o'clock service, Mr. Cates will speak on "The Prime Importance of Christ's Resurrection." "The Christ of the 40 Days" will be his address on the 8:30 Word of Life broadcast and "The Six Miracles of Calvary" will be his subject at the 8 o'clock service Sunday night.

• • •

A three-act play, "The Road to Emmaus," will be presented by young people of the Apostolic Faith Church at the 8 o'clock service Sunday night in keeping with the Easter theme. Sunday morning the pastor, the Rev. Jacob C. Regier, will speak on "Easter—All the Year," for the Saturday night service, he will take as his topic, "The Living, Not the Dead."

• • •

"The Resurrection of Christ" will be the subject of Ted Norton, minister of the Twenty-fifth Street Church of Christ, at the 10:45 service of the church Sunday morning. "The Returning of Christ" is to be his topic at 7:30 Sunday night. Bible classes begin at the church at 9:45, with training classes at 6:30 Sunday night.

• • •

The Rev. Glenn Ricketts, pastor of the First Christian Church, will take as his topic Sunday morning "The Power of the Resurrection." A devotional vesper service is planned for the church at 7:30 Sunday night.

• • •

"While It Was Yet Dark" is the theme of the sermon to be delivered by the Rev. B. W. Lewis, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church, Sunday morning. A special Easter service will be presented at the church Sunday night.

• • •

"Today Is Easter" will be the sermon of Warder K. Novak, minister of the Thirty-seventh Street Church of Christ, at the 10:45 service Sunday morning. At 7:30 Sunday night, he will speak on "The Origin of the Church of Christ." Bible study classes meet at 9:45 Sunday morning at the church.

• • •

"The Meaning of Easter" will be the sermon of the Rev. Woodrow W. Adcock at the 9:45 and 10:55 Sunday morning services of the First Methodist Church. Sunday night at 8 o'clock his subject will be "The Living Christ." Infants will be dedicated and new members received at all services. The junior choir, the chancel choir and the youth choir will sing for Sunday services in that order.

Special Easter TV Program On Sunday

A special Easter story will replace the usual story of the Fisher family on Sunday's TV broadcast of "This Is the Life."

The program, the only TV series sponsored by a religious organization to win an award from the Freedoms Foundation in 1953, is filmed by the Lutheran Church-Missouri, for broadcast. It is carried by KDUB in Lubbock at 2 o'clock and by KRBC in Abilene at 4 o'clock.

The story Sunday centers around Thomas, the apostle who at first doubted Christ's resurrection. More than 200 stations will carry the program.

Trinity Youth To Meet

A business meeting and program rehearsal for the Methodist Youth Fellowship of the Trinity Methodist Church will be held at 6 o'clock Sunday night. All members are urged to attend, Mrs. E. B. Boone, director, said.

REV. WILLIAM BOYD
. . . Episcopalian vicar

Vicar Named At St. John's

The Rev. William D. Boyd of Big Spring has been appointed vicar of St. John's Episcopal Church here. Mr. Boyd, appointed by the Right Reverend George H. Quarterman, bishop of the North Texas Episcopal District, is also the rector of St. Mary's parish in Big Spring.

His assignment here is in addition to his duties as rector of the church in Big Spring and vicar of the church in Lamesa.

Mr. Boyd has served the church in Big Spring the last four years, coming to West Texas from the diocese of Oklahoma where he served more than three years. He is a graduate of Baylor University and the Church Divinity School in Berkeley, Cal. He served four and a half years on active duty with the Navy during World War II.

Mr. Boyd began his duties with the church here last Sunday. He will celebrate the Holy Communion at the church at 8 o'clock this Sunday night.

Young Couples Sunday School Class To Start

A new Sunday school class for young couples will be started at the First Methodist Church at 9:45 Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Aycock, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mobley and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pitzer are planning the program for the first class session. Haskell Beard will serve as teacher until the class can complete its organizational work. All young couples who are not attending another Sunday school class are invited to attend this one, the Rev. Woodrow W. Adcock, pastor of the church, said.

Sunrise Service In Abilene Set Sunday

The second annual Easter sunrise service at the Crescent Drive-in Theater in Abilene will begin at 6:30 Sunday morning.

The Rev. Herman E. Baumann, pastor of Our Savior Lutheran Church in Abilene, who has made arrangements for the service, will serve as liturgist. The audience, seated in the automobiles in which they come, will hear the speakers over the theater speakers. The Rev. O. H. Horn, pastor of the Zion Lutheran Church, will bring the Easter message.

Good Friday Services Set

Good Friday will be observed at services in several Snyder churches tonight.

A Good Friday prayer service is planned at 7:30 tonight in the First Christian Church. Lay leaders of St. John's Episcopal Church will conduct services at 7:30 tonight in the church.

James Rosser will be soloist at a service at 7:30 tonight in the First Presbyterian Church. The traditional candlelight communion service was held in the church last night.

Services at the First Methodist Church will also begin at 7:30 tonight. The Union Methodist Church will begin a service at 7:45. Both the Union and First Methodist churches have marked Holy Week with special services throughout the week.

Choir Arrangement At Baptist Church

A special arrangement of "Were You There" will be sung by the choir of the First Baptist Church at the Sunday morning worship service in observance of Easter.

Dr. Orville Yeager of Plainview, who has been directing a revival meeting at the church, will speak for both services Sunday. Special music for the Sunday night service will be given by the junior choir.

Revival Led By Rev. Hubbard In Post

The Rev. Ronald Hubbard, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, concluded a Holy Week revival at the First Presbyterian Church in Post Wednesday.

Floyd To Lead Songs

John Floyd will lead singing for the meeting at the Primitive Baptist Church at 7:30 tonight. The Rev. S. J. Ellis, pastor of the church, will conduct services at the church at 8 o'clock Saturday night and 11 o'clock Sunday morning.

To Lutheran Meeting

The Rev. Herman E. Baumann of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod has announced that he will attend the thirty-third Texas District Convention of that church body April 19-23 in Austin.

More than 500 professors, pastors, teachers and lay delegates are expected at the convention, to be held at Concordia College. The Rev. Frederick R. Zucker of Zion Lutheran Church in Sagerton will deliver the chief essay.

Brotherhood Speaker

Paul Cates of Lubbock, a lay leader, will be guest speaker for a meeting of the First Methodist Church Men's Brotherhood at 7 o'clock Monday night. Cates is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Giles Bowers, 2506 Thirty-first Street.

20 To District Rally

Twenty young people and adult sponsors attended the Big Spring district youth rally in Lamesa Wednesday night. Dr. George Harper of Nashville, Tenn., was the speaker, with special music by the McMurry College Men's Quartet.

Easter Sunrise Rites Planned By Churches

Nine Snyder churches will cooperate in the sponsorship of a sunrise service on Easter Sunday.

The service will begin at 6 o'clock in the First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. H. C. Thomas, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, will give the devotional message. The Rev. Ronald Hubbard, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will lead the worship service.

Churches cooperating in the service are the First Methodist, Trinity Methodist, Union Methodist, First Baptist, Avenue D Baptist, Apostolic Faith, First Presbyterian, Church of the Nazarene and the First Christian.

EASTER SERVICES
IN THE CHURCH OF OUR CHOICE and SPIRITUALLY FORTIFY AMERICA!

ETERNITY IS BORN

Flowers and trees burst into a symphony of color and beauty. Meadows and woodlands put on bright robes of green. Spring is the symbol of new life. ¶ But as time moves on, nature grows old. Blossoms fade and wither; leaves turn brown and fall. At last, nature buries herself under a blanket of ice and snow. ¶ Is this our fate? Does our existence fit into the same pattern of nature: birth, life, death? Do we spend only a few score years on earth, and then are no more? ¶ In churches all over the world this Easter morning, the cry comes ringing back: "HE IS RISEN! HE IS RISEN!" A new and glorious hope comes from the empty tomb—the hope of everlasting life for all who will believe. ¶ Come to church this Easter morning. Let us thank God that for you and me, eternity is born.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Some Amount Of Suing In Wm. Cagney Family

SANTA ANA, Calif. (AP) — Movie producer William Cagney, 48, was sued yesterday for separate maintenance by his wife Nadine, 29.

Two days earlier the brother, partner and business manager of actor James Cagney filed suit here for divorce.

Cagney alleged his wife had threatened to take their son William Jr., 2, from the court's jurisdiction and asked that she be ordered not to do so.

Mrs. Cagney's action lists as community property a $75,000 Newport Beach home where she is now living, homes in Los Angeles and Beverly Hills, two Cadillacs, real estate, insurance policies and a half interest in Cagney Productions, Inc.

Duck Tails Tied In With Delinquency

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Police Chief James V. Hicks has directed that the youths wearing the so-called duck-tail hair style be given a free haircut when they are booked at Juvenile Hall.

"We find that more and more of the youths we pick up as delinquents wear their hair in this style," he said.

PARK POND FILLED BY RAINS

The picture above shows the pond in Towle Park full of water. W. J. Ramsey, park superintendent, said the pond was flowing over its spillway early Monday morning. Anglers use the pond to practice casting, and some boys have already attempted to go swimming in it this year, Ramsey said. (Lee Watson photograph)

Student Poems Are Published

Poems of sixteen high school students have been chosen to be published in a booklet titled "National High School Poetry Anthology."

A certificate of merit was awarded each student to encourage the development of writing talent, said Mrs. M. M. O'Rear, high school teacher.

The students are Kenneth Lawrence, Joe Devenport, Keith Pitner, Kent Fields, Winfred Evans, Clarence Hough, Bettie Estes, Martha Robbins, Clare Smith, Mary Jim Stinson, Elizabeth Dabbs, Charlotte Colley, Margaret Anger, Jan Stacey and Suzanne Houston.

About one third of the poems submitted were accepted for publication, said Mrs. O'Rear. The poems were judged on the basis of rhythm, quality and thoughts expressed, said Mrs. O'Rear, and were from four to twenty lines long.

The booklets are available by order only and will contain about 300 poems by high school students. Those wishing to order a booklet may do so by calling Mrs. O'Rear at the high school.

"That Thing Called Love," a short poem about school children and their romances, was submitted by Mrs. O'Rear to and accepted by the National Teacher's Poetry Anthology. Of 8,000 poems submitted, only 450 were accepted, she said.

Man Injured By Electricity

Edgar C. Boone, 24, Fortieth Street at Big Spring highway, suffered slight burn when he came in contact with electrical current at the Sportsman Drive Inn, 1912 Avenue S, yesterday afternoon.

He was released from Battenfield Hospital last night after treatment and observation. The accident occurred about 2:30 o'clock.

Boon, a cook at the Sportsman, was mopping the kitchen floor when he contacted the current serving the refrigerator, according to Wade Miller, operator. A fellow employe attempted to pull Boon from the wire but also was shocked and had difficulty loosing himself from Boon, Miller said.

Miller said that he then knocked Boon loose from the wire.

Employer-Employe Banquet Held Tuesday

Approximately 80 persons attended a Vocational Industrial Club Employer-Employe banquet Tuesday night in the high school cafeteria.

The banquet was given by high school students enrolled in industrial cooperative training to honor their employers. It is to be an annual affair.

Garland DeLoach, a club member, served as master of ceremonies. Robert E. Knight, industrial cooperative training coordinator at Lubbock High School, introduced the speaker, M. P. J. Minter, also of Lubbock. Minter is chairman of the advisory committee for ICT in Lubbock.

Collision On NorthHighway

Three persons were taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital for first aid treatment and observation after a two-car collision near the city limits on the Lubbock highway about 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The accident involved a 1953 Chevrolet coach driven by Mrs. Nell Rodgers Coplen, 28, wife of Ray Coplen, Sweetwater, and a 1953 Buick sedan driven by R. W. (Dick) Webb, Shyder attorney.

Both vehicles were traveling south when the Chevrolet struck the rear of the Buick, turning the latter around to face northward. Webb said he slowed to make a right turn off the highway onto a street leading to the West Elementary School when his car was hit.

Webb's wife was taken to the hospital as was also Mrs. Coplen and her four-year-old son, Roger Dee.

E. W. Green, highway patrolman who investigated the accident, said the Chevrolet skidded 91 feet before striking the Buick. He filed a charge of speeding against Mrs. Coplen in justice court.

Green estimated damage to the Chevrolet at $400 and to the Buick at $350.

Snyder Woman's Uncle Dies Of Heart Attack

Funeral services for Clarence E. Hendrix, Fisher County stock farmer, were to be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the Rotan First Methodist Church.

Mr. Hendrix, 61, was the uncle of Mrs. L. C. Gordon of Snyder. He lived in the Grady community about 10 miles west of Rotan. He died Thursday afternoon in Rotan after being stricken with a heart attack there.

Survivors include the wife, the former Jo Gordon of Snyder; two daughters, Rheta Hendrix and Betty Jane Hendrix, and a son, Carl Hendrix, all of the Grady community.

Worthless Check Case Is Dismissed Here

A charge of swindling by worthless check was dismissed in county court yesterday when it was learned the Aspermont bank on which the check was given had closed the defendant's account after the check was given.

The man was returned here from Aspermont yesterday by E. E. Norris, deputy sheriff. Wayland Holt, county attorney, said the complaint was filed after he failed to receive answer to a written notice sent the defendant and after the check had been returned by the bank with notation of "no account." Usually the notation in such cases is "account closed," he said.

Holt said he also learned the defendant had not received the notices sent him regarding the matter. The defendant redeemed the check.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Crank, Andrews Apartments, are parents of a son, born at 3:17 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Cogdell Memorial Hospital. The child weighed six pounds, 10 ounces.
