911 service to be installed this year

The City Council of Colorado City, the Mitchell County Commissioners' Court, along with Bill Reese and Catarino Martinez, mayors respectively of Westbrook and Loraine, had a joint meeting on Monday night, February 25, to discuss the upcoming 911 installation.

Sue Smith, 911 coordinator for the West Central Texas Council of Governments, said the system will be ready to be installed between June and August of this year, and is targeted to be completely operational by some time in January, 1992.

Ms. Smith said that the new equipment is much more compact than previously available equipment.

The MAARS equipment, or Modular ANI/ALI Retrieval System, offers, in a compact format, automatic identification of the telephone number and location of any caller.

The system offers volume control for both the caller's and the call giver's voices, and offers a telephone device for the deaf as well.

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, in this area, will take care of updating the system, once it is operational, any time a party changes residence, according to Bill Gilliland, Southwestern Bell representative from Abilene who spoke at the meeting.

The change will be logged into the computer within no more than 72 hours, he explained, and local entities will not have to be concerned with this responsibility.

Ms. Smith suggested many methods for the extensive address identifying of every household which is necessary prior to beginning the operations.

She said census takers and rural mail carriers, who were already familiar with every household, had volunteered in many communities to accompany and assist those responsible for the addressing process.

Ms. Smith also said that Mitchell County is fortunate enough to be one of only six counties in the entire area she represents which will have the enhanced system, ANI/ALI system.

She suggested a "hot test" period, to take place sometime after the system is put into operation, and before it is fully operational, which would allow residents to call and ensure that their names and addresses appear correctly on the computer.

Those present discussed the eventual location of the system, and Colorado City Police Chief Bobby

Alternate plan heard at Board meeting

Members of the Mitchell County Hospital Board at their regular meeting on Tuesday night heard an alternative to the workers' compensation program currently in effect for hospital employees.

Jim Marten, an Austin attorney, discussed the alternative plan, which he predicted would save the hospital 80 to 90 percent of the amount of its workers' compensation premiums.

Workers' compensation, he said, is a no-fault program, and that fact leads to some serious abuses among some employees, and even among some doctors and lawyers.

Insurance companies, he said, are often willing to settle rather than fight a workers' compensation claim, and are happy when they can do so for less than the doctor originally asked. They seldom have the inclination to investigate, Marten said, because it usually costs less to adjust and settle.

The employer has no control over the system.

Under workers' compensation, employees are granted up to one year to file their claims, which essentially eliminates the possibility of locating witnesses.

McAnally opens offices

Dr. Royce McAnally has opened his offices at 505 Chestnut, and has officially begun seeing patients.

McAnally, Colorado City's newest physician, moved here this month from Bandera, along with his wife, Sharan, and their daughter Audra.

All three say they are really enjoying Colorado City so far.

McAnally and his wife have known each other all their lives. They grew up together in Azle, just outside Fort Worth.

He attended Texas A&M University after high school graduation in 1970, and then went on to North Texas State University, where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in biology and one in chemistry.

He attended medical school at Texas College of Osteopathic Medicine in Fort Worth, did his American Medical Association residency at Louisiana State University, studied trauma medicine at Charity Hospital in New Orleans, and completed the remainder of his residency at LSU Medical Center in Shreveport, Louisiana.

The entire community of Mitchell County joins together in welcoming the McAnally family to our area.

Wide array of topics covered at town meeting

A town meeting with State Representative Robert Junell was held on Friday night, February 22, at the Colorado Middle School cafeteria.

Among the topics discussed were Junell's intention to vote against the state lottery, which he said was not the way he wanted to see the state run.

Among other things, he said he did not think a lottery presented a good example.

On Monday, the lottery bill was defeated in the House by a vote of 90 in favor to 56 opposed.

The amendment to the state constitution which would be required to initiate a lottery would require a two-thirds majority of the 150-member House, and the vote fell short of achieving that requirement. Junell also voiced his concern about a matter before the State Supreme Court having to do with funding for schools. He said that his fear was that schools could become mediocre.

He advised everyone present to read the March issue of the "Texas Monthly Magazine" for an in-depth

Motel tax meeting set March 12

At 7 p.m. on Tuesday, March 12, a public hearing will be held at Colorado City's City Hall for the purpose of discussing municipal hotel tax expenditures.

At the meeting, those who received benefits from last year's tax, commonly referred to as the "motel tax," are required to present documentation proving that their expenditures were justified according to the rules set down by Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes.

Those wishing to request funds from this year's tax revenues will also have the opportunity to do so at the meeting. $26,891.98 in taxes were collected in fiscal year 1990.

The regulations governing the use of the motel tax have changed a great deal recently, and those changes which pertain to Colorado City will be explained at the March 12 meeting by Interim City Manager Glenna Garrett.

New baseball field dedicated Saturday

Colorado City's newly renovated baseball field was dedicated on Saturday, February 23, and baseball fans young and old were there to usher in the first season of high school baseball since 1965.

Two members of the 1965 team, Randy Phillips and Charles Watlington, were present for the festivities, as was A. W. Phillips, who, along with Homer Hart, built the original field in 1960 and 1961.

Phillips is still active in renovations on the field which bears his name, having recently added the metal seats on the bleachers. He remembers when the bleachers, and even the backstop, were made of wood.

As preparations continued for the dedication ceremony and the intra squad scrimmage which followed, Mike Rictor of Sign Works of Longview was busy installing the scoreboard sign, which was donated by City National Bank.

Rictor's firm handles installations of most athletic field signs purchased, as this one was, from the firm of Gossett and Associates in Grapevine.

Jeff Gossett, the current punter for the L.A. Raiders, is the "Gossett" referred to in the name of the firm, and was the speaker at Colorado City's recent football banquet.

CISD Superintendent Don Nimmo had high praise for the work of the Baseball Booster Club, and for everyone who worked to get the field ready for the baseball season, and worked to make the dedication ceremonies a success.

He said he was grateful to City National Bank for the donation of the new scoreboard, which greatly enhances the facilities.

Nimmo said he is looking forward, along with all Colorado City baseball fans, to a great first year.

...And then someone said, "Play Ball!" In the intrasquad scrimmage which followed Saturday's dedication ceremonies of the new CHS baseball field, Robbie Smith pitches to Kevin Green while Greg Parker anticipates a drive. George Ramsey, catcher, is ready for a strike, and Alex Rocha, umpire, will call it as he sees it.

HOSPITAL

In the alternative outlined by Marten, however, injuries must be reported within as short a period as possible, the employer can begin investigation immediately, and can reach witnesses at once.

The employer, Marten said, is quite likely more than willing to take care of a legitimately injured employee...to pay medical expenses and to offer a continuous salary, for example.

Lawyers, he said, do not play a part in this plan, because potential clients reject the unknown aspect of a suit for the solid security and care from the benevolent employer.

In the case of a hospital employer, of course, Marten pointed out, all of the care needed can be provided by that employer.

He said his plan tends to raise the quality of employee, because those who would file a fraudulent claim are not the sort an employer would want anyway, and are not the sort who will stay with the employer if workers' compensation is dropped.

Marten said his plan makes for a safer workplace, too. There is a strict pre-employment interview which requires information, for example, about physical conditions which might be worsened by the type of work involved, and there are safeguards for the workplace and safety training for employer and employees alike.

He said he could implement the entire program for the hospital as well as Valley Fair Lodge within four or five weeks, from A to Z, for a one-time fee of $10,000.

study of the potential problems.

The House was scheduled to consider school finance reform on Wednesday.

Asked his opinion about the moratorium Governor Ann Richards has placed on new hazardous waste disposal units, Junell said that, to be honest, it had taken a lot of pressure off of him.

He said he is aware of how divided the community is on this question, and that the moratorium will give both sides an opportunity for further study of the matter.

He mentioned that he has filed a bill, the purpose of which would be to call for every state regulation to be "sundowned" every four years.

In that way, regulations on the books would not be forgotten, but would have to be reinstated periodically in order to remain law.

In other business, Junell presented those in attendance at Friday's meeting with a toll-free number, 1-800-256-9693, which they can call to learn the progress of bills which are of interest to them.

Junell has presented a House Resolution, H.R. 80, which was unanimously adopted by a rising vote of the Texas House of Representatives on February 7, 1991.

The resolution, signed by House Speaker Gib Lewis and Chief Clerk of the House Betty Murray, reads as follows:

WHEREAS, the citizens of Colorado City lost a valued friend and much-admired civic leader with the death of Margaret Baum on June 22, 1990, at the age of 59; and

WHEREAS, a native of Dallas, she was born on October 29, 1930, and was a lifelong resident of the state; and

WHEREAS, as a young woman, Mrs. Baum was graduated from the Texas State College for Women where she served as president of the student body during her senior year; and

WHEREAS, a resident of Colorado City since 1980, Mrs. Baum owned and operated local

The Board agreed to consider Marten's proposal.

In other business the Board discussed less expensive alternatives to the hospital's present pharmacy management plan, and agreed to consider them further.

Members heard the medical staff report from Dr. McAnally, and heard the Valley Fair Lodge report from Marsha Rickard.

Ms. Rickard reported that the Lodge had received favorable reports from a recent audit and a recent review of 17 patients and their charts.

Board members discussed the possibility of making the rates at the Lodge more dependent on the actual care required, and agreed to consider that at a later meeting.

Members renewed the contract of the physical therapists, and gave Alford the authority to hire a respiratory therapy trainee.

It was announced that an election will be held on May 4 to fill the Board positions held by Marion Bassham, Walter E. Smith Jr., Sybil Stevens, and Jay Craddock, whose terms are expiring.

It was also announced that a committee is currently accepting applications, from those wishing to enter the health care profession, for funds from the Jane McCarley Memorial Trust Scholarship.

WHEREAS, a faithful member of the First United Methodist Church as well, she served as the church's choir director and organist; and

WHEREAS, this exceptional woman will long be remembered by all who were privileged to know her; though her presence is gone from us now, her unique spirit will live on in the hearts of the many people whose lives she touched; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the House of Representatives of the 72nd Legislature of the State of Texas hereby pay tribute to the life of Margaret Baum and extend sympathy to the members of her family; to her husband, Jim Baum of Colorado City; to her children, Laura Baum of Lubbock, Douglas Baum of Waco, Jim S. Robert Lemons, Junell's aide, presented copies of the resolution to Mayor Jim Baum, and to the Colorado City Record.

Baum, visibly touched by the gesture, said he intended to frame his copy of the resolution.

Arrests made from indictments

Mitchell County Sheriff Wendell Bryant has reported to the Colorado City Record that his office has made three arrests thus far from the sealed indictments handed down during Friday night's grand jury session.

Henry Lanier Williams, 64, of Colorado City, was arrested on Saturday, February 23, on two charges of delivery of marijuana. He was released on bond the same day.

Cynthia Gayle Richardson, 38, of Colorado City, was arrested on 23 February on a charge of delivery of a controlled substance, and released on bond the same day.

Ernest Diaz, 29, of Colorado City, was arrested on 23 February on a charge of delivery of marijuana, and was released on bond the same day.

Bryant also informed the Record of an incident which occurred on Sunday, February 24, at approximately 2 p.m. in the Mitchell County Jail.

According to Bryant, Jeffrey Thomas Guthrie, 28, of Snyder, who was lodged in the jail, broke apart a disposable shaving razor and extracted the blade, which he subsequently used to cut his left wrist.

A Mitchell County ambulance was summoned, which transported Guthrie to Mitchell County Hospital.

After treatment, Guthrie was transferred to Big Spring State Hospital, according to Bryant.

Sparks said that the police department would be able to handle the added responsibility, and that many of the calls come there now.

He also requested that, should the police department be designated as the 911 headquarters, the dispatchers who would handle it might be provided with some increase in salary.

Ms. Smith informed those present that they would be advised within a few weeks of the required specifications for the room which will house the system.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

At a time when the men and women in our armed forces are facing their greatest test, we at home are facing a test as well. Our test is to maintain our unity and resolve, as our troops are doing in the Persian Gulf.

We don't want Saddam Hussein to take this country's tolerance for anti-war demonstrators as a signal he should wait out our resolve in a long and bloody war.

I'm outraged at the brutal treatment of our POW's. And I'm saddened to see the media give so much attention to the small number of anti-war protesters who have sprung into action. It seems that every time a few protesters pick up their signs, the cameras swarm around them, and they end up on the news.

Our soldiers have said that they have a job to do and are going to get it done. I feel I have a job to do, too. And that's to stand up in strong support of our troops.

I want them to know that I and the American people are very proud of them. We are all inspired by their bravery.

I hope that you'll print my letter, and others like it, in the days ahead. Thousands of local American newspapers are reaching our men and women in uniform every day. Your newspaper may be one of them. I want the troops to know that we hold them in our thoughts and prayers every day.

Sincerely,
Joe H. Morren

Christian retreat was fun experience

A mid-winter Christian spiritual retreat was held in the mountains of New Mexico, sponsored by the Big Spring District United Methodist Youth. The event was entitled "Sacred Moments with Jesus in the Sacramento Mountains" and was held January 18-20 at Sacramento Methodist Assembly, near Cloudcroft, New Mexico.

St. Luke Methodist Pastor Jon Farris served as the director of the unique experience. "We had a wonderful time in the Lord, and every weather prayer was answered; we had snow, but the roads were clear--warming sunshine by day and brilliant starlight by night."

Friday night's first activity following everyone's arrival was a Midnight Starlight Chapel, with a candlelight procession tromping through the snow up the mountain to the outdoor "Chapel in the Sky." A blazing fireplace awaited the young worshippers upon their return to the Laity Lodge, along with cups of heart-warming hot chocolate.

Saturday morning before breakfast, the hardy group attended a Monk's Morning Meditational Moment at an outdoor chapel overlooking a sun-baked forested mountainside. Being reminded to "be still and know that I am God," the faithful multitude left the "Point of Silence" Chapel without a word spoken and ate a Monk's Morning Meal. During the meal, small groups formed and each demonstrated their excitement and enthusiasm in total silence in the most bizarre fashion.

Amid morning sunshine and an occasional thrown snowball, each small group competed in the "Build-In-Your-Own-Image Snowman-Building Contest," followed by a morning session on the subject of human shortcoming, incompleteness, and need for God in everyone's individual life.

Afternoon was a time to roam through the woods, followed by a session on the spiritual disciplines of prayer and meditation. Darkness fell and so did the snowballs with great rapidity. A luminaria lined trail led the young seekers to the log-structured bishops Chapel for a worship time with a sermon on how Jesus helps us to defeat the Giant Goliaths of our lives. Saturday's activities were concluded with a Christian toga skate party, with all participants dressed in Bible times garb.

Sunday morning brought a time for an hour of solitude for the retreat participants to have a period of reflection and prayer, and to practice the Christian discipline of journaling. A concluding commissioning service was filled with music, praise and worship, along with many moving testimonies of the Spirit of God. As a special kind of family in one spirit, the group concluded with sharing the Lord's Supper in a communion service.

The spiritual retreat drew participants from points as far as Abilene, Stamford, Lubbock, Idalou, Lamesa, Seagraves, Big Spring and Colorado City. Participants stated "we had an awesome time in Jesus!"

SS Office to visit C-City

The Big Spring Social Security Office will resume visiting Colorado City on a regular basis beginning in March. Representatives from the Big Spring Social Security Office will be at the Wallace Center on March 13, 1991 from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. and from 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. After the March visit, a representative will visit Colorado City once per quarter. The dates of the visits will be announced in advance.

Local music students win honors in Lubbock

Several Colorado City students who attend Bethel Studio of Music in Snyder won honors recently in the Lubbock Music Teachers' Piano Contest at Texas Tech University.

At the competition, which took place Friday and Saturday, February 15 and 16, Carrie Perkins, 13, a seventh grade student at Colorado Middle School; and Andrea Helm, 15, sophomore, of the Christian Heritage School, received superior ratings and were named first place winners.

A superior rating went to Angela Riggs, 10, a fifth grade student at Christian Liberty Academy; and a superior rating and third place honors went to Nicki Riggs, 12, a sixth grade student at Christian Liberty Academy.

First place winners performed at the Winners' Recital at Hemmle Pecital Hall at Texas Tech University on Sunday.

Competition included 475 students from the West Texas and New Mexico areas in grades one through 12.

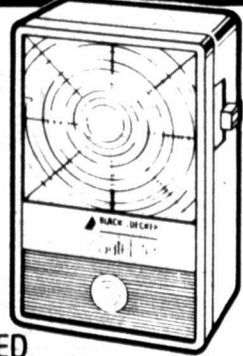

Leigh Ann Erwin, right, Optimist Club representative, presents an award to Jody Dockrey, 16, a sophomore at Colorado High School. Miss Dockrey, daughter of Bruce and Marsha Dockrey of Colorado City, placed first in the recent Mitchell County Optimist Club Essay Competition. Her essay, entitled "Freedom, a Right or a Privilege?" goes now to the North Texas District competition in Dallas. The winner of that competition wins an expense paid trip to the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania for a four day seminar on freedom and leadership, funded by the Optimist International Foundation.

The first American flag with fifty states was unfurled on July 4, 1960 at the Fort McHenry National Monument in Baltimore, Maryland.

Kelly Garrett

The chance of a lifetime awaits Garrett in New York

Chances are, in years to come, when we talk about Kelly Garrett of Colorado City, we will be proud to say, "We knew her when..."

Miss Garrett, 15, is the daughter of Bill and Debbie Garrett, and the sister of Sonia, 13, and Larry, 10.

A sophomore at Colorado High School, she is also a recent graduate of the basic and professional modeling courses offered by the Ruth Ann Malm Modeling School in Abilene, a member of Modeling Association of America International, Inc.

From April 2 through 8, Miss Garrett will be heading to the MAAI, Inc. annual convention in New York for a chance to begin her dream.

Miss Garrett's dream, of course, is to become a model. In fact, she said, since she first realized, in the seventh grade, that that was what she wanted to do, she has been unable to imagine herself doing anything else.

At the convention, which will take place at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel, Miss Garrett will compete for scholarships, trophies, cash, and, most importantly, contracts.

There will be various forms of competition, as well as a parade of models, a fashion show, and a grand awards banquet.

Models will also have the opportunity to attend a Broadway musical and dinner at the Tavern on the Green.

Forty-seven world agencies are expected to be at the convention, along with model agents, TV casting directors, celebrities and soap opera stars.

Miss Garrett will also have the opportunity to attend classes, seminars, and workshops conducted by top professionals.

Classes at the Abilene school are flexible, in order to accommodate the schedules of the students, and Miss Garrett was able to attend classes which met once or twice weekly in the evening until she completed the courses of instruction.

She says she would like to go to college someday, because she enjoys school, but she is not certain what she would study. Actually, she says, she would like to be able to take all of the classes which were of interest to her.

In high school, she says, her Spanish classes are of special interest.

Miss Garrett is hoping to find a local merchant, private citizen, or service organization to act as sponsor for her trip, thereby helping with some of the expenses.

She will be going to New York for the convention no matter what, however, she says. After all, this may be her chance to begin her dream.

He married the former Anita Seagler of Petersburg on August 24, 1957, and the couple have a daughter, Toye Diane, and a son, David Byron.

Baldwin was licensed to ministry by Frio Baptist Church of Hereford in 1956, and was ordained to Gospel Ministry by the First Baptist Church in Connerville, Oklahoma, in 1961.

After graduation from Wellman High School, Baldwin earned a Bachelor of Science degree from West Texas State University in Canyon. He then completed his Master of Divinity degree, along with approximately two-thirds of the requirements for a Master in Religious Education degree, at Southwestern Seminary in Fort Worth.

He completed his Doctor of Ministry degree at Luther Rice Seminary in Jacksonville, Florida in 1980.

Baldwin has served in the ministry for 27 years - 14 as a pastor and 13 as an associate pastor, in churches in Texas and Oklahoma.

Kidd receives letter from Senator Bentsen

Mrs. Bertie Kidd has received a letter from U.S. Senator Lloyd Bentsen which reads as follows:

Dear Mrs. Kidd:

With our troops in the Persian Gulf facing great danger and hardship, the last thing they should have to worry about is their taxes.

Tax time is coming up. But can you imagine a soldier sitting in a sand bunker trying to remember what the interest payments are on his home mortgage? Or trying to calculate what the family medical bills over the last year amounted to? There simply is no friendly accountant assigned to each bunker.

To address these concerns, I developed legislation, along with bipartisan Congressional leadership, to defer the tax obligations of troops serving in the Persian Gulf region. As Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, which has jurisdiction over taxes, I obtained the unanimous approval of the Committee for this legislation. I am pleased to report that both the Senate and the House have unanimously passed the bill, and that President Bush has signed it into law.

The tax law has for some time allowed armed forces personnel serving in a combat zone to suspend their tax obligations during the period of combat service, including any time they are hospitalized abroad due to combat, plus an additional 180 days. Also, the tax code provides an exemption from Federal income tax for compensation received for active service in a combat zone. Enlisted personnel are allowed to exclude all their pay during service in a combat zone, while officers may exclude $500 per month.

These provisions became effective on January 17, under an executive order of the President designating the Persian Gulf area and surrounding waters as a combat zone. However, it was apparent to me that certain changes in the tax code still needed to be made to ensure that all our service people serving in Operation Desert Shield and Operation Desert Storm can have peace of mind, at least where their taxes are concerned.

The legislation we just enacted accomplishes three main changes in the law:

*First, the bill extends the military service qualifying for deferral of tax obligations to include service in the Persian Gulf in Operation Desert Shield as well as service in a combat zone. That means the deferral period will start on August 2, 1990, rather than on January 17, 1991.

*Second, the bill provides that interest on income tax refunds owed to our soldiers in the Middle East will begin accruing after April 15, 1991, even if the tax return claiming the refund is filed later.

*Finally, the bill continues to defer taxes for those hospitalized in the United States as a result of Desert Shield or Desert Storm service for a period of up to five years.

I am pleased that Congress acted so quickly to approve this legislation and send it to the President for his signature. A number of outstanding questions regarding benefits for our troops remain, however, such as increasing the tax exemption for officers' pay (which has not been adjusted for inflation since the Vietnam War), ensuring bankruptcy protection, and providing assistance with housing, child care, health care and job protection. These problems are more complex and will require more time to address. I am serving on a task force looking at a wide range of proposals to help out the military families who are doing so much for all of us in Operation Desert Shield and Operation Desert Storm. I will do everything I can to speed consideration of proposals in these important areas.

As these discussions continue, please know that I will continue to work to help military families in this time of crisis.

Since it would be extremely difficult to inform everyone who is affected by this legislation, please share this information with any one you know who has a family member serving our nation in Operation Desert Storm.

Sincerely,
Lloyd Bentsen

DOWNTOWN COLORADO CITY

Area loss ends thrilling season for Westbrook Wildcats

STERLING CITY - Since winning their first state play-off basketball game on last Thursday, February 21, the Westbrook Wildcats went for play-off win number two against the highly talented Water Valley Wildcats on Tuesday, February 26. Although fighting long and hard, Westbrook could not hold off the menacing bite of Water Valley as they lost by a staggering score of 77-54.

Not creating any type of offensive threat in the first quarter, Westbrook dug themselves into such a rut, that they could never quite get out as they fell behind, 18-3.

With 5:28 remaining in the half, Westbrook did manage to fill half of the gap as they went on a 12-1 run on W'Valley to cut the lead to 25-17.

Yet, just as Westbrook could get their hopes up, W'Valley had their own run to end the period with a lead of 37-22.

Coming back from the half, the Westbrook Wildcats could only attempt to out score W'Valley in the two remaining quarters for even a slim chance of victory.

In the early stages of the second half, Spencer Cannon got Westbrook on the score board quickly, but to no avail as W'Valley proved to be the aggressor of the two.

Missing inside shots after inside shots, Westbrook could just not find the "hole" as W'Valley was snatching the rebounds which later turned into quality buckets. By periods end, the W'Valley defense had held Westbrook to just 10 points, 56-32.

With the final period left, Westbrook was in a "do-or-die" situation, but W'Valley's almost flawless game was just too much for the proud Westbrook Wildcats as they ended their "Cinderella Season," 77-54.

Scoring unofficially in the contest were Bubba Botts, 18; Chris Majors, 10; Spencer Cannon, 9; Doug Koch, 4; Randall Petty, 4; Jeff Conaway, 4; Michael Martin, 3; and Chris Reeves, 2.

The Wildcats finished the season with a district championship, a bi-district championship, and a 19-11 season.

Rosas takes 2nd place in discus

Rosemary Rosas, a junior at Colorado High School, started the 1991 track season just where she had left off last season with a second place finish at the Fort Stockton Comanche Relays on Saturday, February 23.

Last seasons regional qualifier, Rosas threw the discus 107'8" which was just short of the first place throw by less than a half of a foot.

Also competing at the meet was senior Jason Lawson. Lawson participated in the discus field event and placed fifth with heave of 125'1" which is also a competitive throw in the early season.

Bulldogs lose last heartbreaker, 68-61

The Loraine Bulldogs closed out their 1990-91 basketball season on Friday, February 22, with a heartbreaking loss to the Roby Lions in Bi-District play by a score of 68-61 in Snyder.

In the first half of play, neither team dominated one another, but going into the half, the Bulldogs trailed by only four points, 32-36.

Moving into the second half, the third period was by far the most exciting part of the game.

As Loraine kept pursuing the lead with a little less than 3:00 minutes remaining, senior Anthony Williams stole the ball from a Roby offender, and raced down the court where he was able to get the easy two which cut the lead to just one point, 41-40.

Just as the relentless Bulldogs ignited their much needed spark, the "kings" of the jungle extinguished the growing blaze quickly as they went inside the paint to increase the lead by quarters end, 48-54.

With one period remaining, Williams got into foul trouble and fouled out. If that weren't enough, the Bulldogs also lost their other "big man" Ruben Vasquez, but sophomore Chris Phillips did a fine job filling in as he would finish the game with 15 points in which most of his efforts came in the last period.

Unable to muster a stronger offensive threat, the Bulldogs fell just short of reaching the next step in the state play-offs as they were defeated, 68-61.

Those scoring in the evening were Williams, 22; Phillips, 15; Vasquez, 9; David Lopez, 9; James Lopez, 6; and Fabian Alvarez, 5.

"I think we proved everybody wrong Friday night," commented head coach Bob Loy. "no one thought that we could contend for a play-off spot coming out of football, but we ended the district with an 8-2 record which is not too shabby."

"We never back down during the season," Loy added, "and I feel we made Roby beat us."

With the basketball season coming to a halt, Coach Loy is also well pleased with his three seniors, Anthony Williams, Ruben Vasquez, and David Lopez, "Our leadership was there. They're just a great bunch of kids to coach!"

Sarles installed as pastor at 1st Presbyterian

The Reverend Sharon Sarles was installed as the new pastor of Colorado City's First Presbyterian Church on Sunday, February 24 at 4 p.m.

The installation, attended by nearly one hundred persons, including Presbyterians as well as clergy and members of other churches from throughout the area, was conducted in the main sanctuary of the church.

Conducting the ceremony were an equal number of clergy and elders from the Presbytery of Palo Duro, of which Colorado City is a part.

Clergy members included: the Reverend Allan Guthrie, currently of Coahoma, retired pastor of Sweetwater's First Presbyterian Church; the Reverend Mark Spence, current pastor of Sweetwater's First Presbyterian Church; the Reverend Steve Smith, pastor of Snyder's First Presbyterian Church; and the Reverend Dr. Lynn Williamson, associate minister at Union Presbyterian Church in Brownwood.

Elders included: Patricia "Boo" Nemir, of Sweetwater's First Presbyterian Church; Billie Hartsfield, of Snyder's First Presbyterian Church; Dorothy Lundy, of Brownwood's Union Presbyterian Church; and Fielding "Rusty" Lee, of Colorado City's First Presbyterian Church.

Other guests included: Lewis Wilkins of Lubbock, the general presbyter of Palo Duro Presbytery; and Keith Ross, the minister of music of First Presbyterian Church of Big Spring.

Ross played the organ, and led the choir from his church in an anthem.

Guthrie presented the sermon, "On Going Forward," and the charge to the minister and congregation was given by Ms. Williamson.

Scripture lessons were from Revelations 21:1-5, and Exodus 14:10-18.

Access to the sanctuary was provided by the elevator, which was operated by A.W. Rowe.

Flowers in the sanctuary were provided by Ms. Sarles' grandmother, Elizabeth Sarles, in memory of the latter's husband Blake Sarles. The Sarles have always been very active in the Union Presbyterian Church in Brownwood.

Ms. Sarles said she wished to thank everyone for making her installation a wonderful occasion, and she said the entire congregation was grateful for all the community support.

She said that she thanked the ladies of the church for the reception, and the men for all of the preparations and help they provided.

She also said she wished to thank Gene Rowe and Fanny Fay Feaster for the flowers in the fellowship hall and the managing of the kitchen.

Loraine Personals

By Lois Phillips

Billie Schroeder came by Monday to tell me her grandson, Jay Knott had been called back into service and has already gone back overseas. He has already served his hitch but his bosses decided they needed him again so he received a demanding invitation to return, so here he went.

I feel sorry for Schroeder and Billie and family for having to let him go twice. May God Bless all of you Carolyn Sue and family. We love you.

Lela Bowles spent part of last week with her mother, Lula Lefevre, then she called back to tell her that Bill was being sent to Tennessee and was told to take his wife with him. Of course that pleased her. Let's have fun, guys!!

Welcome to Mitchell County

Shanna, we are glad you are going to be this close to us. Jim Bo and Jennifer, also Christopher. Hello to you.

We were told that Mrs. Mary Miles died early this morning at the Loraine Nursing Center where she has been a patient for several years. She was married to the late E.D.

Miles and they raised their five children in our town and they were a big part of it at school where they were in band, played football and so on. Johnnie Miles was always acclaimed the toughest line man Loraine Bulldogs ever had. Ask Eddie Galvan, he played by his side their football days and were best friends.

I am sure if you are Baptist, then Mary Miles helped raise your kids. She was in charge of our nursery for years, always there, always on time with the crackers in hand. She was always faithful and we loved Mary. Her husband served on our Fire Department for years and worked for Mitchell County Precinct 4.

News from...

Loraine Sr. Citizens Center

Although February is supposed to be the short month, there have been many activities at the Loraine Senior Citizens Center.

The "seniors" started with a movie on Friday, February 1. Mondays always bring a good round of Bingo led by Laura Lewis and Arlene Claxton.

A new board of directors was elected on Tuesday, February 19. They are: Harris Hamilton, president; Presley Powell, vice president; Bertha Faye Snyder, secretary; and Sue Dinkford, treasurer. Three new board members were also voted in. They are Presley Powell, Effie Wheeler and Margaret Brame. All were installed by Dorothy Johnson on February 20.

Commodities were distributed, blood pressure was taken by nurses from Home Health Care and an enlightening nutrition program was brought by Dana Davenport on February 16.

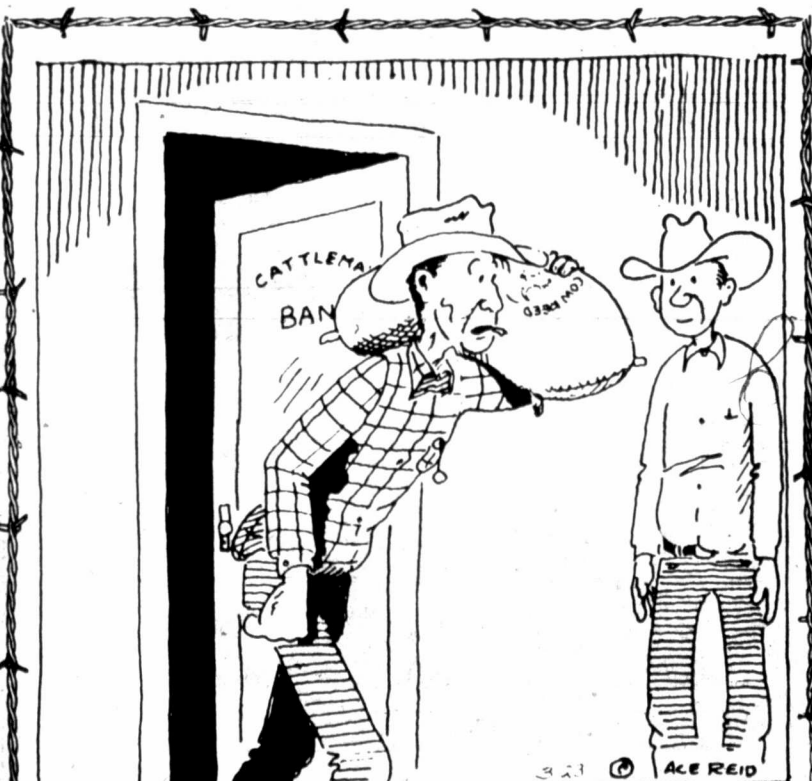

Veida Gage cooked the birthday cake for February. Those enjoying February birthdays were: Nannie Lou Miles, Pauline Smiley, Mattie Neeley, Arlene Claxton, Edmond Hestand, Homer Richburg, Bennie Black, Lester Richburg, Ralph Gage, Mary Coffee, Mildred Rose, Vertie Owens, Bros. Thomas Taylor, Maxene Compton, Hubert Feaster, Nellie Smith, Presley Compton.

John Hayslips and family of Midland visited his mother-in-law on Friday night and left on Saturday morning to go to Wichita Falls. They came back by Sunday after to visit before going home.

Pat Carter has just left to go home. If you don't know her you should meet her. She is really a nice gal.

Grady and Elnora Mitchell and her mother, Mrs. Herman Miles, went to a funeral Sunday in Lockney for Mrs. Miles double first cousin. They got to Floydada at church on time and found that their son-in-law was filling in for the pastor in the morning. They enjoyed visiting the Grace Fellowship Baptist, as Raynard and Judy Nacha now live in Floydada. Elnora also said that David Mitchell, some of the Butlers and Russell Burt all passed the gift and if we have missed a name in the pig division. Elnora and I will both apologize.

The Mitchells came back to Mitchell County after the funeral.

CHIEF LONE WOLF

Movies such as Streets of Laredo, High Noon and Shoot-out at O. K. Corral have nothing on early day Colorado City, Texas. The town's first newspaper, the Clipper, tells in its edition of April 9, 1892, of a gunfight which took place in our downtown district. When the lead quit flying, town Marshall W. D. Gooch was dead.

"Just a few minutes before the whistle of the electric light plant sounded, which was given a few minutes after 12 o'clock, the city was thrown into a turmoil of excitement by a perfect volley of pistol shots, which sounded on the clear still night air like a discharge of musketry," the Clipper noted.

"A large crowd soon gathered in front of the Senate Saloon (probably Walnut Street), and a horrible spectacle was before their eyes. Lying upon the pavement in front of the saloon, in a perfect river of his own blood, lay the body of Dr. W. D. Gooch, City Marshall, with a bullet hole through his heart, another through his neck and yet two more through his body."

Fred Lancaster, Colorado constable, had arrived on the scene just in time to see George E. Bell fire the final shot. The suspect was immediately placed under arrest.

"There are different accounts of the causes which led to the killing. One of those is that Gooch, who was drinking, was involved in a quarrel with a character known as 'Happy Jack,' who works for Tom Powers when Powers came upon the scene and started off in the direction of his saloon with Jack in tow, when Gooch pulled his pistol and shot Jack through the lower part of the left leg.

It is said that George Bell called upon Gooch to throw up his hands, which Gooch did not do, but turned his pistol on Bell when Bell shot him; and he also kept his gun going in Powers' and Happy Jack's direction, and that Powers also returned the fire."

The other version of the gunfight was that Gooch really shot at Happy Jack and according to the Clipper, "and that it was a pre-arranged affair. There are many rumors in circulation and it is quite difficult to get at the facts in the case."

One fact was obvious in the aftermath of the shooting. The bullets had really been flying. Gooch had managed to blast off four shots while Bell also fired four rounds and Powers' pistol had five empty chambers.

"The front of the saloon, Bertner's Barber Shop and the post office building across the street, all bear bullet marks and show they were fired from different directions."

The Clipper noted that eventually it would be up to the Mitchell County grand jury to decide the suspects' fate. ("The Clipper has no desire to manufacture a verdict against the men charged with the killing. If they were justifiable in their terrible deed, they should and will be acquitted. If, on the other hand, a pre-arranged and deliberate murder is developed, they should be punished as they deserve").

The newspaper also noted that Gooch had announced plans to run for re-election. And George E. Bell, who just happened to be a deputy marshal, was running against Gooch for city marshal. Additionally, the three men had gotten into a row about two weeks before the shooting, during an argument in Power's Favorite Saloon.

The Clipper deplored "the terrible occurrence" and offered "condolence to the stricken widow and orphans of the dead marshal."

Tom Powers was acquitted of killing Gooch. George Bell was found guilty and sentenced to 33 years in the penitentiary. That verdict was later overturned by an appellate court.

Lee D. Parks was elected city marshal.
W. D. Gooch is buried in the Colorado City Cemetery.

Mitchell Co. Spelling Bee to be held Tuesday

Tuesday, March 5 will be a very big day in some Mitchell County student's life.

That's the day the best spellers from Colorado City, Lorraine, and Westbrook schools will compete in the Mitchell County Spelling Bee.

The spelling bee, sponsored by the Colorado City Record, will begin at 5:30 p.m. on that evening, in the C.C. Thompson Room of City National Bank, and will continue until the competition has been narrowed to a first and a second place winner.

The first place winner will go on to compete in the Regional Spelling Bee in Lubbock on April 6 at 1 p.m. in Monterey High School.

The winner of that contest will win a free trip to Washington, DC for the National Spelling Bee.

C-City Fire Department receives check

The Colorado City Volunteer Fire Department received a check for $150.00 recently from Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies as an expression of thanks for the department's work on the property of Paul Wright.

The money will be used for their loss prevention program.

The Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies pay fire departments this amount when the department works at a fire in rural areas, involving property insured by them.

The Insurance Company believes fire departments have contributed to reduce the amount of loss involved by fire and more importantly, to prevent fires. It is their hope this money will help the fire department in their program.

Schroeder hosts Loraine Homemakers

The regular meeting of the North Loraine Extension Homemaker Club was held February 20 at 2 p.m. at the Loraine Senior Citizens Center. Billie Schroeder acted as hostess.

Brenda Casey of the Fairview Club brought a very timely program on recycling and conservation. Her presentation stressed the 3 R's-Reduce, Recycle, Reuse. She pointed out we have become a "throw-away" society, generating an average of five pounds of garbage per person daily. Mrs. Casey named many items in daily use which we can change back to more durable goods or can recycle. She stressed "buy durable - not disposable." For more information regarding recycling, interested parties can call 1-800-CLEAN TX.

The business meeting was called to order by President Margaret Brame. Club prayer and creed were recited in unison. Recreation was brought by Elaine McMichael. Since February is Black Heritage month, Mrs. McMichael presented the club with several samples of Black Cultures - music, art and literature.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Communications were read.

Billie Schroeder gave the treasury report. She also reported the greeting card order was in.

Margaret Brame requested that Jimmie Jacks put together a club history, to be turned in to Council by May 1st.

Refreshments were served to Margaret Brame, Billie Schroeder, Effie Wheeler, Blondie Hamilton, Eva Wells, Nina Meadows, Darlene Hamrich, Jimmie Jacks, Bertha Faye Snyder, Elaine McMichael, Mildred Rose and two guests, Brenda Casey and Fern Coone.
