Moments OF Meditation

By Thomas H. Taylor

"This month shall be unto you the beginning of months: it shall be the first month of the year to you." (Exodus 12:2)

In a couple of days you will start on that new calendar you sent for. It is a beautiful piece of art with its colored picture and its phases of the moon.

On January 1st you will throw your old calendar into the wastebasket and begin on the new one. There are two calendars at this time of the year, and while they may look exactly alike or be very similar--they are nevertheless totally different. The old must be discarded, and the new must be utilized. To live in this new year by the calendar of last year will lead to utter confusion.

The Nation of Israel had been living by an old calendar, most probably the Egyptian, but then the day of redemption came and they stood ready to leave the slavery of Egypt forever. The passover lamb was slain--its blood was sprinkled on the lintel and doorposts, and before morning they would be free and on their way to the promised land. They were leaving Egypt behind forever, and so God says, "Throw Egypt's calendar away and begin a brand new one--make this day of redemption the beginning of a new year. Exchange the old year of bondage for the new year of liberty."

This is the time of year to make those New Year's resolutions and I hope that you will make a few; not just to be broken, but some to stake your life on and try to keep. Place within those resolutions somewhere your spiritual life. Something that would cause you to want to be a better person. Remember, this year has never been lived before, and I can make it better or worse by living in it.

May God bring peace and joy to you in 1972.

We greet the New Year with the hope that it brings you and your family a bountiful share of all life's treasured gifts.

Make Pinatas

Second grade students in Mrs. Ted Averitt's room made two pinatas to help celebrate Christmas.

A pinata is a papier-mache figure that is filled with candy. It hangs from the ceiling and a child covers his eyes, swings with a stick and tries to break the pinata. When the pinata is broken, the candy scatters and the children race to pick it up. The custom comes from Mexico.

The pinatas were made by covering balloons with paper strips dipped in a mixture of white glue and water. After 3 or 4 coats of paper strips, let dry and puncture balloons, cut hole in top and decorate.

The Honorable Bob Price (United States Representative from the 18th District of Texas) was honored today in the Nation's Capital. Congressman Price was presented the Distinguished Service Award by the Board of Trustees of the non-partisan Americans for Constitutional Action.

ACA's Distinguished Service Award is bestowed every two years upon those legislators whose voting records in the Congress of the United States support legislation which serve to strengthen and defend the spirit and principles of the Constitution of the United States.

In presenting the award to Congressman Price, Charles A. McManus, President, stated: "On behalf of our Trustees, I have the pleasure of congratulating you and thanking you for your outstanding record in the Congress and devotion to those fundamental principles of good government which serve to promote individual rights and responsibilities; a sound dollar; a growing economy; and a desire for victory over communist aggression."

"The acceptance of this award does not imply that you are in complete agreement with all of the principles espoused by ACA nor does it imply any commitment for you to support them in the future," emphasized Mr. McManus. MRS. RONALD LOUIS KEY

Wedding Vows Solemnized For Mr. Key-Miss Rodgers

Wedding vows were solemnized at 7 p. m. Tuesday in the First Baptist Church for Miss Sharon Estelle Rodgers and Ronald Louis Key.

Officiating the double ring ceremony was the Rev. C. T. Cunningham, pastor.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rodgers and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Key of Olton.

Vows were recited before an altar set with twin candelabras adorned with purple and yellow bows with translucent poinsettias.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Weldon Davis. She accompanied her husband who sang "Twelfth of Never" and "Hand in Hand".

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of Chantilly lace fashioned with an Empire bodice featuring a Victorian neckline and long sleeves softly gathered at the wrists. A narrow satin band accented the waistline with tiny bows at the neckline and bodice front. Her elbow length veil of silk illusion was held by a lace-petaled headpiece adorned with pearls belonging to her maternal great-great-grandmother.

She carried a bouquet of yellow pom poms with translucent accents atop a white lace covered Bible belonging to her paternal great-grand-

For "something old and borrowed", she wore a 150-year-old locket watch belonging to her maternal grandmother.

Feminine attendants were Laurel Richards of Albuquerque, N. M. and Jertha McClaran of Lubbock, cousin of the bride. They wore formal length gowns of deep purple styled with short circular sleeves and Empire bodices accented with contrasting purple ribbon. They wore a yellow rose in their hair and carried bouquets of yellow pom poms with translucent leaves.

Gregg Smith of Olton was best man. Joe Fincher of Lubbock was groomsman. Candles were lighted and guests seated by John Rodgers and Jim Key, brothers of the bride and groom.

Roy Don Rodgers, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

A reception was held in fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table was laid with a white cloth with purple background and centered with a modern forged five-light centerpiece of intaglio cut bowl with brass holder and purple candles set in yellow dahlias and daisies.

The four-tiered wedding cake was decorated with accents of purple and yellow and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Purple punch was served from a crystal bowl.

Presiding at the table were Gwen McClaran, cousin of the bride and Mrs. R. A. Futrell. Guests were registered by Vicki Newsom.

For a wedding trip to Clovis, N. M., the bride chose a two-piece suit of brown.

The couple will be at home after Jan. 3, 1972 at Westover Air Force Base, Mass.

The bride will graduate from Hart High School in May. The groom is a 1971 graduate of Olton High School and is serving in the U. S. Air Force.

CELEBRATION

A fragrant pine wreath festooned with a big red bow encircles the door knocker, a symbol of hospitality. Inside, the tree blazes with rainbow lights, and there is a tiny creche on the mantel. You light the red candles on the table and serve coffee and sandwiches and cake. The atmosphere is rich with warmth and friendliness.

This is Christ's birthday and we are celebrating, and, in a magical way, it seems to instill in all of us a special feeling of friendship and love for our fellowman. What a wonderful thing it would be if we could keep this Christmas spirit in our hearts all year long!

To do so would be perfection — and that is something none of us can quite attain. But through the Church we CAN keep faith and truth within us from one Christmas to the next. Try it, and see.
