"YOUR HOME COUNTY PAPER"

VOLUME NUMBER 54 — SNYDER, TEXAS, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 2 NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FORTY — ISSUE NUMBER 18

Entertainers for Products Show Urged to Contact Committeemen

Entertainers of all kinds, including fiddlers, musicians, quartets and duets are needed immediately!

So stated Hilton Lambert, C. M. Kiker and E. O. Wedgeworth Wednesday, after the trio mapped initial plans for furnishing a triple-day program of free entertainment during Scurry County's Products Show October 16, 17 and 18.

The three persons named above have a pretty big job on their hands—finding enough local and county talent to provide afternoon and night shows for folks of this area during the Products Show. The shows will begin at 2:00 and 8:00 p. m. each day.

As everyone knows, formal opening of the county's 1941 Products Show will be staged Thursday evening, October 16, at 8:00 o'clock.

From the time the show gets underway, the job of giving attendants this trade area continuous and free entertainment will be the job of Wedgeworth, Lambert and Kiker. Wedgeworth and Lambert are veterans at the game, and the newcomer, Kiker, has already gained a reputation of getting the job done.

Not only will entertainers be needed who can provide music, novelty numbers and group renditions, but those who can perform dance specialty acts, sing or offer other types of entertainment will be in keen demand.

Time is slipping away, however, and the committee members in charge of the forthcoming show's entertainment program want county entertainers to contact them immediately. A contact now would mean a "spot" on the three-day program, whereas delay in arranging to be on the program might mean not getting to perform at all.

Another Raid at Chicken Green's Nets More Spirits

In a surprise raid last Thursday afternoon, 4:00 o'clock, on C. W. (Chicken Green) at his place in East Snyder, J. G. (Pop) Galyean, Tom DeShazo and liquor control board officers from Big Spring took in tow another "haul" of illegal spirits.

Galyean, DeShazo and the liquor control officers obtained three gallons of wine and between 70 and 80 pints and half-pints of assorted liquors in the raid.

Green was charged, as on previous occasions, members of the sheriff's department point out, with possession of intoxicants in a dry area for the purpose of sale.

According to Pop Galyean and Tom DeShazo, Green was released Friday afternoon on a bond of $300.

Green, it will be recalled, was meted out a six-month jail sentence in county court week before last on a liquor charge, and a six-month jail sentence on a liquor charge September 11.

Wife of Sharon Field Worker Hurt in Crash

Mrs. L. R. Schoopman, wife of an employee in the Sharon Ridge oil field, and another woman were returning from Roby last Thursday afternoon, when a left front tire blew out on the 1940 model Chevrolet coupe Mrs. Schoopman was driving, with the result the automobile was virtually demolished.

The accident occurred near the Guy E. Casey farm just east of Midway on Highway 15. Brought to a local hospital, Mrs. Schoopman complained of a bruised knee and leg injuries. The other woman was suffering from shock and slight injuries. Hospital attendants report both women were released last Thursday night.

Final Foundation Concrete on NYA Shop Completed

Final batch of foundation concrete for Snyder's new NYA work center just south of the city waterworks was poured Tuesday afternoon, Harry Lee, who is in charge of directing foundation work, reported Tuesday night.

Despite the light mist that fell throughout the morning Wednesday, the concrete had dried to such an extent Wednesday afternoon that work was started preparatory to removing the forms.

Lee, James A. Cowan, local NYA foreman, and John E. Spelce, assistant, reported Wednesday that everything is now in readiness for the construction crew with International Derrick Company to arrive and start erecting the steel and sheet metal structure.

Foundation for the new NYA work center is 40 by 140 feet in size, and had dried sufficiently to allow erection crew members to start work as soon as they arrive.

The new home for NYA enrollees will be built of pre-fabricated sheet metal that will arrive here ready for placing together in sections.

The trio of county draftees left by train late Monday afternoon for Sweetwater, and were sent on to El Paso Tuesday morning.

H. J. Brice, J. C. Dorward and E. L. Farr, members of the local draft board, stated Tuesday afternoon that 10 Scurry County registrants will be called to report to the city hall Sunday afternoon, October 12, preparatory to being sent to an army induction station.

List of the 10 draftees due to report October 12, and other details concerning the October call will be found in next week's issue of The Times.

GROUNDS FOR '42 RODEO MAY BE ENLARGED

Stockholders Called to Meeting for Deciding on Expansion Program For Bigger, Better Show

Interest over plans for the county's 1942 rodeo reached a new level Monday evening at a meeting of Scurry County Rodeo Association directors.

Discussions, in view of the outstanding rodeo staged here August 8 and 9, ranged from ways and means of making next year's show bigger and better to ways of obtaining more room for staging the 1942 boots and saddle round-up.

Following Monday evening's gathering, directors announced that a called meeting of all stockholders in the Scurry County Rodeo Association has been set for Wednesday evening, October 8, at 7:30 o'clock.

"We want to urge each and every stockholder to attend the October 8 meeting in the county courtroom," association directors pointed out Tuesday morning. "This meeting will probably be one of the most important held here within many months, and a meeting that will vitally interest every shareholder in the association.

"Not only will plans for next year's show be discussed, but means of finding more room to stage the 1942 rodeo will be brought up for attention of stockholders. By getting an early start on the forthcoming rodeo, we feel that we can put on a show unequalled in county rodeo history."

Financial Drive For Scouts Begins Next Wednesday

J. E. Blakey, finance chairman for Snyder's Boy Scout District, announced this week that the annual financial drive of the Snyder District will get underway Wednesday, October 8.

So far as advancement and active Boy Scout troops are concerned, the Snyder District is in the best shape it has been in several years. Seven Boy Scouts came up Tuesday evening, officials point out, for award of Life Scout at the district's regular monthly court of honor.

Snyder now has two active Boy Scout troops—Fluvanna, Pyron, Dermott, Dunn, Hermleigh and Hobbs an active troop each, with new members reported for the past quarter of activity.

Blakey and H. L. Wren, chairman of the Snyder District, state members of the financial drive committee will be announced early next week, and that the "kickoff" campaign for donors will be pushed along the lines of an over-the-top theme.

The Snyder District has been right up at the front in previous years on financial assistance in carrying on work of the Buffalo Trail Council, and is expected to set a new mark this year in view of the greatly intensified effort being made to carry Scout work forward.

Judy McDonnell of Snyder Places First In Cowgirl Contest

Judy McDonnell is the proud owner of a lovely pinto presented her by officials of the West Texas Fair in Abilene, after she was judged the best cowgirl among 13 entries. Judy and her mother, Mrs. T. J. McDonnell, were in Abilene from Sunday through Tuesday for the fair.

Judy won first place in the cutting horse contest as she rode her prize Palomino, "Little Sissy," and she won third place in the flag race for cowgirls. "Little Sissy" was awarded third place in the halter class for Palomino horses.

More than 200 Palomino horses were entered in the Abilene fair, and the entire show was described by the local attenders as "wonderful." While in Abilene, Judy received a personal invitation from a San Angelo Palomino committee to attend their horseshow soon.

Judy has represented Snyder and the ZT Ranch in a number of cowgirl contests, and she is a member of the Texas Palomino Association. She completed her schooling in the local high school last year with the determination of making the raising of Palomino horses her career.

Smith Says Labor Is Menace to America

John Lee Smith, senator of the 24th District, of which Scurry County is a part, declared this week that the greatest internal menace to American democracy is a labor dictatorship.

Senator Smith, author of the anti-violence bill, declares the government is not keeping faith with people by allowing workmen in airplace factories and other industrial plants to "sit down on the job, while production falls woefully behind."

Early Frost?

Now that night are becoming cooler, several county cotton producers and landowners are beginning to discuss dates of the earliest killing frost on record in Scurry County.

J. B. Adams, resident of the Union community, states the earliest killing frost he recalls came here on the night of September 29, 1907—one of the earliest killing frosts that has been reported to The Times.

Adams reports that intermittent rains throughout most of the month, with crops sappy and green, caused the September 29 frost to bring severe damage to both cotton and feed crops.

Cotton in 1904 was late anyhow, Adams declares, and when the early frost hit, it reduced the cotton crop almost 90 per cent, with some farms requiring up to 30 acres of harvesting to produce one bale.

CRIES FROM PIT TOILET LEAD TO NEW-BORN GIRL

Abandoned Baby Recovered From Place in East Snyder—Several Seek to Adopt Foundling

Plaintive cries, coming from a pit toilet in East Snyder, led city officers last Thursday afternoon to the discovery of a newly born and abandoned baby girl.

Simon Best, city marshal, and others got the infant out of the pit full of refuse and rushed it to a local hospital, where emergency aid was administered and the baby girl put in an even tempered room.

Dr. H. E. Rosser, county health officer, was notified of the incident, Best states, as was P. E. Davenport, justice of the peace.

When found in the pit of slimy waste, the infant was reported to be covered over, with the exception of mouth and nose. The baby was wrapped carefully in a blanket before being carried to the hospital.

Due to the fact, Best states, the baby had been in the pit for some time, it was numb and cold when wrapped. It was feared last Thursday night that pneumonia might develop, but reports Wednesday afternoon revealed that the tot was resting well. It weighed five pounds and four ounces.

Davenport reported Wednesday that several applications have been placed for possible adoption of the baby girl, but so far no action has been taken.

Son of Ex-Snyder People Lubbock Stabbing Victim

A negro who stabbed Oran Wilson Jr., 20 year-old Texas Tech student at Lubbock and nephew of Mrs. W. P. King, was arraigned Monday night, officials of the Lubbock Police Department report. The stabbing occurred Saturday night.

Young Wilson and his companion, Yvonne Westmoreland, also a Tech student, were forced out of their parked car Saturday night by the negro in the 2500 block of Van Buren Avenue. During an ensuing scuffle between Wilson and the negro Miss Westmoreland escaped.

The Texas Tech student is a grandson of Mrs. Nettie Wilson and Mrs. N. B. Moore. His father, Oran Wilson, is a former Snyder business man, and his mother is the former Merle Moore.

Wilson, who lives with his parents at 1919 Fifteenth Street, Lubbock, was resting well in Lubbock Sanitarium late Wednesday. He was suffering from a chest wound more serious than thought at first, and a cut on the right leg.

Oscar Beachem, 37, the negro, confessed the stabbing in a statement dictated to Victor H. Lindsey, assistant district attorney. A charge of armed robbery has been filed against the negro, and his bond set at $10,000.

Home Town Speaker To Be Chosen Soon

A. W. Arnold, local Chamber of Commerce president, reported Tuesday that a considerable amount of interest is already being shown in the "My Home Town" speaker's contest that will be sponsored by the local civic organization in conjunction with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention at Midland November 3 and 4.

"My Home Town" speaking contests will be sponsored by Snyder and other affiliated towns holding membership in the WTCC.

Harrie Winston, local WTCC director, states that prospective candidates in the contest can secure detailed information on the contest at the local Chamber of Commerce office. Subject for this year's talks will be "My Home Town and Defense."

PAT BULLOCK TAKES IRVIN'S POST MONDAY

Former Superintendent Appointed By Incumbent as Temporary Administrator for Schools

Effective Monday, A. A. (Pat) Bullock, representative of the 118th District, becomes acting superintendent of Scurry County schools. Bullock was asked this week by Roy O. Irvin, present superintendent, to serve temporarily in his absence.

Mrs. Roy O. Irvin, attache at the county superintendent's office, will leave this week-end to join Lieutenant Irvin, and will remain with him for some time. Bullock has been asked to temporarily serve as county superintendent until Roy or Mrs. Irvin come back to serve the remainder of Irvin's elective term.

Under the ruling of the Supreme Court of Texas in the case of Jefferson County, and also in the case of various other state officials who were National Guard members and had to enter the service, the court held that no elected official, called to service from the ranks of the National Guard, would be required to resign but appoint an assistant as acting county superintendent, railroad commissioner, or what-not.

On the basis of the Supreme Court ruling, Bullock was named acting superintendent this week by Irvin, and will serve only temporarily in this capacity.

Members of the county board state Bullock's appointment as acting county superintendent is entirely satisfactory to the entire board.

Members of the county board have nothing to do with the selection of the acting superintendent, but have unanimously given their approval to the person named by Irvin. Under the Supreme Court ruling, it was necessary that Irvin made the appointment on his own personal choice.

Bullock is due to arrive here Sunday, and has been in Austin the past few days as chairman of a subcommittee of the Joint Legislative Advisory Rural Aid Committee to pass on all maps of Texas counties showing the various school bus routes.

Under a new law, there must not be a duplication of bus service in any school district without approval of the legislative committee.

Nearly Two Inches Of Rain Falls Within Hour Here Tuesday

A heavy downpour of rainfall that started Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock and lasted until 5:30 o'clock gave Snyder 1.85 inches of precipitation that sent feeder streams into Dry and Deep Creeks out of bank.

Tuesday afternoon's rain was one of the hardest that has hit the town in several months. It was one of the most unusual, too, for communities like Camp Springs, Dunn, Inadale and Hermleigh reported only light sprinkles.

Going west from Snyder, however, the fall seemed to continue at about the same level as in town. Residents of the Union community reported 1.75 inches of precipitation, and the Canyon community reported a good rain.

County farmers and ranchers expressed the hope Wednesday morning that pretty weather will prevail for the next 30 days, in view of the fact that crop harvesting operations have already been considerably damaged by inclement weather the past two weeks.

Soil Conservation Work Plan Given Approval in Area

District supervisors of the Upper Colorado Soil Conservation District, comprising all of Scurry and Borden Counties except that portion of Scurry County lying south of the Colorado River, this week tentatively approved the program and plan of work, according to Pat Johnston, chairman.

Preparation of the program and plan of work is necessary before signing a "Basic Memorandum of Understanding" with the U. S. Department of Agriculture and a "Supplemental Memorandum of Understanding" with the Soil Conservation Service.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture and the Soil Conservation Service will act as basic agencies in furnishing trained personnel such as range surveyors, farm planners and engineers to assist farm and ranch owners in planning and installing soil and water conservation practices on their lands, Johnston pointed out.

Plans will be outlined within the near future for holding meetings in this soil conservation district to discuss plans of action with farm and ranch people. The chairman urges all interested parties to watch The Times for announcement of meeting places and dates, and arrange to attend at least one of the meetings.

Result of R.S.&P. Hearing Will Not Be Known Soon

Roscoe, Snyder & Pacific Railroad Company officials, including H. O. Weeten of Abilene, line president, delegations of people from Fluvanna and other parts of the county were attracted Friday to the R. S. & P. rail abandonment hearing, conducted at the courthouse.

Friday's hearing was conducted by J. C. Lyle, examiner for the Interstate Commerce Commission, and other representatives of the ICC.

Those who participated in the hearing included several local attorneys, County Judge Sterling Williams and others, who went at length into detail on the proposed abandonment of the Snyder-Fluvanna R. S. & P. run—a line 17.77 miles in length.

Results of Friday's hearing will not be known until the Interstate Commerce Commission has time to study all testimony presented in the case of the Snyder-Fluvanna line abandonment, and makes a decision from the evidence given by those present at the hearing.

Hicks Changes Locations.

James Ralph Hicks, who has been operating a service station just north of H. G. Towle Jewelry, announces removal this week to the former Bushy Hedges station just east of the Deep Creek bridge on 25th Street. Hicks is handling Texaco gasoline and oils, and is local dealer for Hudson automobiles.

County Ginnings Near 200 Bales as Cotton Drags In Exact figures on Scurry County cotton ginnings to date for the 1941 season were not available late Wednesday afternoon, but a partial check by The Times reveals that ginnings so far have mounted to 189 bales.

Lateness of cotton the county over, with exceptions of "early patches," plus continued damp weather were given Wednesday afternoon as reason for slowness of the new cotton crop in moving to market.

County cotton producers report that cotton is opening now at a satisfactory rate, but that it will still be several days before the fleecy staple is ready to gin in large quantities.

County ginners and agricultural observers believe that it will be mid-October before this year's cotton crop starts moving to the gins in "peak" volume. Much of the cotton opening is still reported "green," and about 10 days of sunshine is necessary before bolling can get underway at a stead clip.

Work on Highway West of City Halted By Rainy Weather

Inclement weather that set in Tuesday has virtually brought Highway 15 work west of town to a standstill, engineers of the State Highway Department reported Wednesday afternoon.

The oil-surface treatment that has recently been applied to the 14.72 mile strip of road from the Borden County line eastward to Snyder has become well "set," engineers state, and will shortly be ready for hot topping.

Prior to application of hot topping, with the exception of the two mile strip just this side of the Borden line that has already been asphalted, a second coat of oil surfacing will probably be applied to the roadbed and a coating of fine sand. This will provide the flexible base highway department engineers find so necessary to withstand heavy traffic.

Baptist Young Folks To Sponsor Service

Officers of the Snyder First Baptist Church's Young People's Auxiliary announce that "Harvest Time in Texas" will be the theme of their meeting Sunday evening; 7:30 o'clock.

Following a number by the junior young women's quartet and a talk from the junior young women's auxiliary counselor, and offertory will be featured along the lines of "Take My Life and Let It Be." The big chief of all the auxiliaries will conclude the program.

Goolsby will be associated at Perryton with Superintendent C. Wedgeworth and several other former Scurry County teachers.

York Murphy and Coleman Girl Say Marriage Vows at Eden Saturday

Marriage of Catherine Schulz and York Murphy of Coleman, son of Alex O. Murphy of Snyder, was solemnized in an autumn setting of deep-toned fall flowers and greenery at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Schulz, in Eden Saturday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock.

The Rev. Father G. A. Bloeckman of Olfen read the ring ceremony, and Mrs. Buster McKee, pianist, played the wedding music. The bridegroom's father was among the 40 wedding guests.

The bridal party stood before the fireplace, where palms and mosses formed the background for baskets of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums and magenta gladioli. Burning white tapers in wrought iron candelabra were at each side of the improvised altar.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose for her wedding costume a frock of icy blue, fashioned with full skirt, bishop sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. Her accessories were brown, and she wore a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace worn by her grandmother as a bride.

Attending the couple were the bride's brother, Milton Schulz, and Mrs. Schulz of Eden.

Mrs. Murphy, who has visited in Snyder several times, is known to a number of local people. Graduate of Eden High School, she completed her junior year at the University of Texas last year. Seven of her university girl friends attended the wedding.

Murphy, a life-long resident of this section, graduated from Snyder High School and John Tarleton Agricultural College, Stephenville, before going to Texas A. & M. College, where he took his degree. His intense interest in flying began several years ago, and his training in that field was begun in A. & M. and was later completed for instructor work at Love Field, Dallas. He is now an instructor at the Coleman Air Field.

The bride's parents were hosts at a reception honoring the couple immediately following their marriage. The three-tiered wedding cake with rosebud decorations was served with other refreshments. An attractive arrangement of autumn flowers centered the tea table.

When the couple left for their wedding trip, Mrs. Murphy was wearing a two-piece suit of brown tweed with harmonizing accessories. The couple will make their home at Coleman.

Century Group in Tuesday Study.

Twentieth Century Club continued its study of "The American Way of Life" Tuesday afternoon under direction of Mrs. R. W. Cunningham. The meeting was hostessed by Mrs. H. M. Blackard at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wayne Williams. "Know Your Materials" was subject for the program.

Following roll call, answered with "How I Buy Wisely," Mmes. Cunningham, Allen Warren, I. W. Boren and P. C. Chenault spoke, respectively, on cottons, woolens, synthetics and footwear.

Mmes. W. G. Williams and Wayne Williams were guests, and the following other members attended: Mmes. B. M. West, J. Nelson Dunn, W. J. Ely, John R. Covey, Joe Strayhorn, J. E. LeMond and Hubert Travis.

Zinnias centered the dining table, and other flowers were arranged in entertaining rooms for the meeting. A refreshment plate of cheese sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, dessert and coffee was passed to those present.

Report of the club's library committee was made by Mrs. J. Nelson Dunn. The one and a half year old county library has served numbers of Scurry County people in its present location on the second floor of the county courthouse, southeast corner. Recent addition to the library is a complete set of Washington Irving's works and other new books. Another book order will be mailed soon, Mrs. Dunn said.

The club reports NYA girls back in the library after a lapse of several weeks, and the library will be open to the reading public from 2:00 to 5:00 o'clock each afternoon.

Geneva Glasscock, who is teaching at Roby, spent the week-end here with her mother, Mrs. J. O. Temple.

Bride of Former Snyder Man

Mrs. E. York Murphy, shown above, is the former Catherine Schulz of Eden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Schulz. Marriage of the Eden girl to Murphy, who is the son of Alex O. Murphy, took place at the home of her parents in Eden Saturday afternoon. The couple will live in Coleman, where Murphy is an instructor in the government air school.

New Pledges for Thespian Club at S-H-S Inducted

Eleven pledges were formally inducted and iniated into the local high school chapter of the Thespians, national dramatic organization, last Wednesday night at the chapter's second meeting, held in the home of Rose Marie Clawson, sponsor. The nine students pledged in an impressive candle light ceremonial with white-robed attendants.

Thespian motif, a "T" overshadowing the two masques of drama—comedy and tragedy—formed the keynote for decorations and other party details at the meeting. Blue and amber, the two colors that are most used in stage lighting and that form the color theme of the organization, were employed in decorations for the house.

A charter was granted the local organization to become affiliated with the National Dramatic Honorary Society in April, 1940, as one of the few schools of its size to be granted a Thespian charter. Purpose of the organization is to foster and encourage dramatics and the presentation of better plays in secondary schools.

Pledges attending were: Cecil White, Burgess Wilson, Kieran Townsend, Gene Hickey, Herschel Crosby, Landis Crosby, Bernie Berry, Patsy Snodgrass, Faydean Norred, Vivian Bullard and Sally Dodson.

Seven charter members—E. A. Birdwell, Kathrine Lynch, Doyle Stokes, Ray Martin, Lloyd McGlaun, Katherine Smith and Billy Joe Stinson—attended the meeting; as did three alumni members, Charlie Dunn, Carolyn Henderson and LaVerne Hardin, and one transfer member, Elizabeth Parker, who was a member of the Lamesa chapter.

Doyle Stokes was elected president of the local organization, and the other new officers are: Landis Crosby, vice president; Kathrine Lynch, secretary; Elizabeth Parker, treasurer. Yearbook committee is composed of Kathrine, Billy Joe and Ray Martin. Social committee members are Patsy and Landis Crosby, and Herschel Crosby will be chairman of the committee for constitution and rules.

A salad course was passed late in the evening with Thespian insignia badges as favors.

Elected Members of Cowgirls,

Nell Verna LeMond and Elsie Murphree of Snyder, both sophomore students, were recently elected to membership in the Cowgirls' organization at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene. Also among the new members is Elree McMillan of Hermleigh. All three were pledged last week and are attending rush activities this week.

The program brought out the fact that more than 4,000 missions have been orphaned in the war-torn areas of the world and are being given all assistance possible by Methodist Churches of America.

A warm welcome awaits the Monday attendants and any others who will attend next Monday's meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. Study will center on "The Economical Movement and World Order."

Scrap Aluminum Drive Nets Less Than U. S. Goal

Remember back several weeks ago when Scurry County, as the object of the drive of the local Will Fayne American Legion Post No. 181, contributed 1,600 pounds of scrap aluminum to aid the nation's defense drive?

Officials of the Office of Production Management announced this week in Washington that the nation-wide drive Scurry County people helped in had resulted in the collection of 11,835,139 pounds of the scrap metal—a total equivalent to the amount needed in the construction of 1,900 fighter airplanes.

The campaign, however, fell below officials' expectations, for OPM attaches hoped that from 15,000,000 to 20,000,000 pounds of scrap aluminum would be collected in the drive.

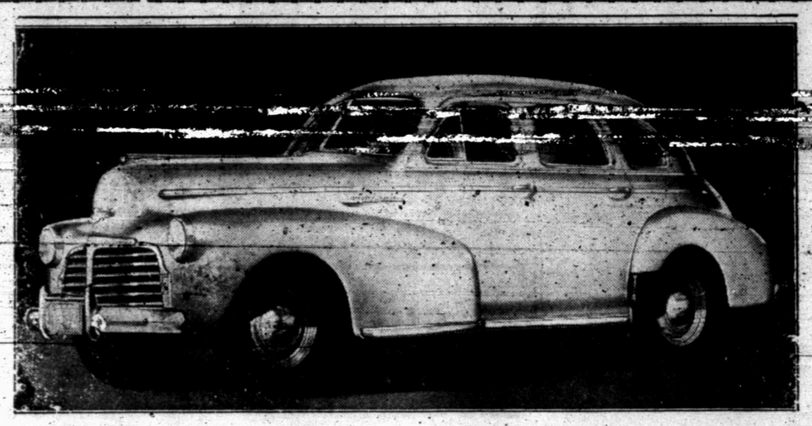

Experts estimated that the net yield of aluminum from scrap would be about 7,000,000 pounds. The remainder of the weight represented other materials, primarily iron and steel, which were attached to the aluminum articles.

All but 310,000 pounds of the scrap has been allocated already to smelters having defense preference ratings.

The aluminum was sold to the smelters by the government and the funds derived went into the treasury. Officials did not disclose how much was received for the scrap.

Intellectually, as well as politically, the direction of all true progress is toward greater freedom and along an endless succession of ideas. —Bovee.

Hermleigh Girl Shows Top Horse At Fisher Show

Opal Etheredge of Hermleigh, sponsor in a number of cowgirl sponsor contests this summer in this territory, exhibited the best reined horse Friday in the annual Fisher County Jack and Stallion Show at Rotan, and copped first place in the class for saddle horses with lady mounts.

Wade Winston, local Domino Return Hereford breeder, and W. T. Magee of Albany judged the show, which attracted entries from Fisher, Nolan, Scurry, Mitchell and Stonewall Counties.

The champion Fisher County jack was exhibited by Lee Williams, prominent stock farmer of the Hobbs community, who also showed the best mule colt and the champion get of sire jack.

Ray Smith of Longworth, superintendent of this year's show and breeder of Percheron horses, showed the grand champion draft stallion of the jack and stallion exposition.

Andrew Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Williams, who copped major places in last year's Scurry County Products Show with entries in the mule division, placed third with entries in mule colts over one year, and first and fourth with mule colts over one year and under two years. The Hobbs FFA member, copped first place with a team of draft horses under 1,200 pounds. His father, Lee, placed fourth with a team of draft horses over 1,200 pounds.

Winston reported at the conclusion of the eighth annual Fisher County exposition that the number of entries fell below the number entered last year, but that quality of all animals shown was the best in history of the county show.

Lee Williams, county stock farmers will be interested in learning, won the jack championship with a big brown, white-nosed mammoth jack that had all the earmarks of the famous Missouri mules. One of the jack's colts was champion of the show and his get of sire entry, as previously mentioned, won first place.

Cotton Belt Will Produce Smallest Crop Since 1935

Highlights from the September 20 crop report of the United States Department of Agriculture, Agricultural Marketing Service, will prove of interest to Times readers, especially in view of the fact this year's cotton crop is one of the most important grown in over a decade.

Excerpts from the September 20 report follow:

"First of all, our cotton crop this year is going to be the smallest we have had since 1935. It will total around 10,750,000 bales. There are some reasons for this small crop. The weevils have been very severe in many parts of the Cotton Belt, probably because the weather has been moist and that's the weather weevils love. Weather, besides being good for weevil growth, has not been good for cotton raising. Then we did not plant as many acres in cotton as we have in the last few years. All these things have gone together to give us a small crop this year.

The cotton crop in Texas will be almost 3,000,000 bales this year. That is the largest of any state. Good weather in August has helped the crop along in Texas, however, it is a little late this year. Weevils did considerable damage in Arkansas and Mississippi. Weevils also injured the crop in Georgia, Alabama, South Carolina and Louisiana, and these states will have a smaller cotton crop than they had last year.

"Our cotton crop this year will be produced from 22,500,000 acres. That is less than we planted last year and the smallest cotton acreage we have had since back in 1895. Our cotton yield will be close to 227 pounds to the acre, which is a lower yield than last year.

"Cotton prices recently hit a new high for the season. For the week ending September 6 cotton was bringing over 17 cents a pound. Prices are the highest they have been since 1929," the report concluded.

Draft Board Urges Address Changes Be Noted for Draftees

Reiterating previous statements, H. J. Brice, E. L. Farr and J. C. Dorward, members of Scurry County's Selective Service Draft Board appealed to county draftees this week to promptly notify the local board in any change of address, or become liable to severe penalties provided by the Selective Service Act.

"We feel," board members state, "that some registrants have become careless about notifying the local board when they change addresses, and we want to urge that such matters be attended to immediately before stronger action has to be taken."

The Selective Service Act provides that any registrant who violates the law shall be liable to fine and imprisonment, the directors pointed out. This punishment, they said, is specified as "by imprisonment for not more than five years or a fine of more than $10,000, or by both such fine and imprisonment."

It is the policy of the Selective Service System, board members said, and of the Department of Justice which is charged with enforcement of the act, to take action in those cases where there is willful intent to violate the law. Nevertheless, they stressed, investigation of borderline cases is taking up much valuable time of local boards and of Department of Justice agents which should be devoted to urgent work for national defense.

Registrants are, therefore, urged to notify their local boards immediately of any change of address to avoid being reported to the United States district attorney as a delinquent.

Forms for Defense Food Program Will Be Prepared Soon

The county Triple A office is this week the scene of much activity, as attaches speed up the work of preparing forms so Scurry County farmers can have their 1942 allotments by November 1.

During the next four weeks, it was emphasized this week by county AAA attaches, the far mplan, incorporating a survey of food production for 1941 and pledges of food production during 1942, will be presented to county farmers for their consideration.

Ross Williams, chairman of the United States Department of Agriculture Defense Board in the county, states a farm-to-farm canvass will probably be made, showing food production for the current year and pledges for the forthcoming farm year.

Indications at present are that announcement of food production goals will be available by December 1 of this year. Each farmer in the county will be asked to do his part in meeting next year's food needs of this nation and countries fighting aggression.

It is pointed out that allotments of cotton, wheat and other farm crops will be made previous to November 1 so county farmers can best plan how they will aid in the national defense program.

Cotton Picture Is Improved as Loan Parity Ups Price

Near p... prices are being received by Scurry County farmers for their cotton as a result of the ... program, Ross Williams, chairman of the county AAA committee, stated Tuesday.

"The cotton picture still isn't rosy," Williams emphasized, "for we have a tremendous carry-over of cotton, a year's supply over and above this year's production, and foreign markets still shut off by the European war.

"Since the government has guaranteed a minimum price for cotton this year with the 85 per cent parity loan, the Scurry County cotton farmer knows when he takes his bale to market approximately what he will receive and he knows the price will be fair," Williams said.

Members of the county's Triple A committee state they hesitate to think what the current price of cotton would be without the cotton loan. "Farmers realize," they say, "that the price they are getting is based on the government cotton loan, and know that without the full cooperation of the AAA the loan would be impossible."

Scurry County cotton farmers will probably be asked to vote again this year upon cotton marketing quotas as a means of adjusting the cotton supply to the demand. Government loans cannot be offered in any year cotton marketing quotas are rejected by producers.

Counselor Service Is Being Reestablished In County Region

Jennings T. Lewis, area National Youth Administration director, stated this week that a regular itinerant counselor service is now being reestablished in Scurry and the 28 other counties of NYA District 2.

Lewis informed the Times that an NYA counselor will be in Snyder Tuesday of each week, henceforth, for the purpose of discussing the program with youths of the county and other interested parties.

Lewis points out that there are many excellent opportunities now available, through NYA work, to youths from 16 to 24 years of age who are out of school, single and unemployed.

Young men who meet these qualifications and who are interested in NYA employment are urged to get in touch with the counselor on his visit to Snyder each Tuesday. The visiting official will be glad to discuss local, area-wide or state-wide NYA projects which offer valuable work experiences and training.

Details of Bigger Products Show at Snyder Shaping

Scurry County's 1941 Products Show is going to-day, to-morrow (Thursday), as officials speed up details for the two-day exposition that is calculated to attract some 4,000 people from this trade area.

Catalogs for the forthcoming show October 16, 17 and 18 have been mailed to prospective exhibitors and others interested, giving show divisions, prize lists and other vitally important data.

Magnitude of the show can be readily ascertained from the fact there will be 346 events.

Members of the show's central committee were busy this week completing arrangements for exhibit tents that will be needed to house varied products, and in negotiating for city assistance to clear the weeds and vegetation from the city tabernacle lot and grounds one block north of the square.

C. T. McLaughlin, chairman of this year's show, points out that committee members of various show divisions are exceptionally busy working up entries in the various departments, ranging from farm crop exhibits and needlework to dairy cattle and mule entries.

Claude Weathersbee, a student at John Tarleton Agricultural College, Stephenville, spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. E. E. Weathersbee.

Cotton Ginnings in State Show Decline

The Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, made public this week a report showing that 382,551 bales of cotton for the 1941 season, prior to September 16, had been ginned in Texas.

Ginnings in Scurry County before September 16 were so small that no report was made on them, with reports lacking from several other counties in this trade area. Mitchell County was reported to have ginned 217 bales previous to September 16, compared with 1,520 bales up to the same time last year.

County Teachers Begin Signing of Allegiance Oath

Wednesday became a rather important day with superintendents and faculty members of all Scurry County schools, for it marked the day when county teachers started signing the Oath of Allegiance, provided for by the 47th Texas Legislature in Senate Bill No. 38.

A senate bill requires that teachers in Scurry County schools take the same Oath of Allegiance as members of the Texas Legislature and other public officers, as provided in Article GVI, Section 1, of the constitution, as amended November 8, 1939.

Despite the fact a majority of county schools have turned out, temporarily, for cotton picking, the teachers of county schools interviewed expressed the opinion early this week that the Oath of Allegiance is "one of the finest things to which a school teacher could affix his, or her, name."

Members of various county school boards believe the Oath of Allegiance will do much to dispel the theory of "disloyalty that certain fanatics accuse some Texas teachers."

The Oath of Allegiance that every county school teacher will sign reads as follows:

"I, (name), do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the duties of the office of (position) of the state of Texas, and will to the best of my ability defend the constitution and laws of the United States and of this state; and I furthermore solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have not directly or indirectly paid, offered or promised to pay, contributed, nor promised to contribute any money or valuable thing, or promised any public office or employment as a reward for the giving or withholding a vote at the election at which I was elected. So help me God."

SNFLA ANNUAL CONFAB DRAWS MORE THAN 100

Address by Farm Credit Official at Wednesday Gathering Features Forenoon Session

With more than 100 people present, Snyder's National Farm Loan Association held its annual meeting Wednesday in the auditorium of the local First Christian Church.

Hugh Boren, secretary-treasurer of the SNFLA, told the crowd of homeowners that 932 farmers in this immediate trade area are now using the association's long-term, low-interest Federal Land Bank loans to claim farm and ranch ownership, or to refinance existing obligations at lower rates and more desirable terms.

J. A. Merritt, vice president of the SNFLA, presided as chairman of the meeting.

Entertainment features included an address by Judge Byrd E. White, Third District director of the Farm Credit Administration, Houston.

Words of appreciation from the audience were heard following Judge White's talk on the service being rendered to farmers and ranchers by the FCA.

Instructive talks were given at the gathering by Estella Rabel, county home demonstration agent, Edward S. Hyman, county agricultural agent, Horace D. Seely, local FSA supervisor, and H. O. Beard, local Soil Conservation Service representative.

Following Wednesday morning's gathering, a barbecue dinner was served by women of the First Christian Church.

W. V. Jones of Camp Springs and A. P. Gannaway of Hermleigh were reelected to three-year terms on the association board, and J. A. Merritt, A. Johnston and W. B. Lemons were named holdover directors.

In his annual report, the secretary-treasurer revealed that Snyder National Farm Loan Association, founded in 1918, now has 710 loans in effect totaling $2,124,980 on its books, in addition to 222 land bank commissioner loans amounting to $382,400.

"The figures given are only important for what they represent," Boren pointed out. "What they stand for is more than 932 farm families owning their homes and living on their land in the county."

Firemen Leaving For Area Confab Today at Merkel

Headed by N. W. Autry, chief of Snyder's Volunteer Fire Department, a delegation of local firemen left early Wednesday morning for the Midwest Fireman's and Fire Marshal's Association convention at Merkel.

Besides Autry, A. L. Jones and J. T. Campbell, delegates to the Midwest convention, Emmitt Butts and Melvin Newton, alternates; Doc Bynum, Buddy Martin, Howell McClinton and James A. Cowan were due to have left this morning for convention headquarters.

Members of the local volunteer fire department are so busy at this time of the year that it was not ascertained late Wednesday just what members would make up Snyder's contest team.

Chief Autry stated Wednesday afternoon, however, that the local department would have a contest team on hand when the traditional Midwest pumper race, hookup race and other events open.

Members of the local fire department met Tuesday evening for practice, and declared that the Snyder boys would be in there "fighting for a slice of the bacon prizes at Merkel."

The Midwest Fireman's and Fire Marshal's Association covers a tefritory of 11 counties, including Scurry. Snyder's volunteer fire department has been in the habit of copping a major share of prizes at previous gatherings, and expects to keep up the tradition at today's gathering.

Bird Victuals

Should the average Scurry County dove unfold his napkin and order tht "chef" to bring him a sample of all the different kinds of food he really likes, he'd have more than 100 dishes around him!

So declare field men of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, who were in town this week checking over the supply of quail in the county, and making sure that county nimrods stay within the game laws when out "scatter gunning."

Doves, like quail, not only feast on sunflower and grass seed, but on seeds from Johnson grass, careless weeds and all noxious plants we have in the county. Due to unusually tall vegetation this year, the birds have had a wide variety of feed seed to select from, game department officials conclude.

Bids on Borden Road Job Will Be Asked This Month

Residents of Scurry and Borden Counties focused attention this week to Highway 15 in Borden County, as engineers for the State Highway Department made final plans for bids that will be asked this month on the East-West roadbed through Borden County.

The State Highway Commission will call this month for bids on State Highway 15 through Borden County. The Borden County project will call for construction of additional drainage structures and surfacing of the 30-mile strip of the East-West Highway through Borden County, beginning at the Dawson County line and coming eastward to the Scurry County line.

Construction of additional drainage structures and surfacing of Highway 15 across Borden County will cost an estimated $300,000. Engineers have made caliche tests in Borden County to ascertain where suitable deposits of select road material can be obtained.

S. J. Treadaway of Abilene, district highway engineer, expresses the opinion that bids on the Borden County stretch of Highway 15 will be called for before mid-October, although an official statement from the State Highway Commission was not available late Wednesday.

J. Langford, manager of the Dallas office of contract distribution, informed The Times Monday.

New Taxes Come To Light as More Defenses Needed

The hidden taxes that will affect nearly every person in Scurry County, one way or the other, began to come out of hiding Wednesday.

Tuesday and Wednesday, as folks lay in a winter's supply of long distance telephone calls, electric light bulbs, commercial washing machines, air conditioners, trucks, radios and playing cards.

Wednesday, these items and almost everything else you can name became taxed to aid in the government's laudable effort to prove that this country has the greatest natural resources in the world.

Long distance telephone calls, beginning Wednesday, are now taxed 10 per cent. The average Scurry County person will now get his, or her, midnight snack out of a taxed ice box, with a taxed light overhead and a taxed phonograph will roll out the tune if one desires music.

The average citizen can now pick up almost any paper and read all about more taxes through optical equipment, light a cigarette with taxed matches, play a game of solitaire with taxed cards and finally fall asleep wondering if the foreign countries now under siege from Germany appreciate what the average person is doing for them.

But why discuss the hidden taxes more that are now coming out of hiding? We shall happily pay them to prove that the American way of life, with its discomforts and toil, is well worth the price and that this system of government, by the people and for them, is the most preferred of any government on the earth today.

Dillards in Dallas To Attend Meeting Of C-C Managers

Accompanied by Mrs. Dillard, R. G. Dillard, local Chamber of Commerce manager, leaves today (Thursday) for Dallas, where he will attend the Texas Chamber of Commerce Managers Association Saturday.

Dillard, a member for several years of the Texas Chamber of Commerce Managers Association, states the program committee of the TCCM is giving particular attention now to the problems confronting Snyder and other communities of the state.

Problems up for discussion at Saturday's meeting will include those concerning trade relations, highways, national defense and the improvements of local enterprise.

Besides membership in the TCCM, Dillard holds membership in the Texas Association of Fairs, South Plains CC Secretary's Association and the WTCC Secretary's Association.

A. W. Arnold, president of the Scurry County Chamber of Commerce, states the TCCM was formed in 1904 at Mineral Wells, and is composed of Chamber of Commerce men who are helping to build a greater community, county and state. While in Dallas, Dillard will be a week-end guest of the State Fair of Texas. He and Mrs. Dillard will return Monday.

Jayton's Class B Gridmen Victors Over Fluvanna

A strong Jayton High School team took the measure of Fluvanna's Bufflaloes last Thursday afternoon on the Fluvanna field, proved the biggest difference between the two teams, scoring in the second period on an off-tackle dash, and again in the last 20 seconds of the game on a long end run. The Buffs drove to the visitors' 15-yard line in the third period but lost the ball on downs.

Hamilton and Thompson looked especially strong in the Jayton backfield and in the forward wall Boling, McDaniel, Montgomery and Davis stood out. For Fluvanna, Noel and Wilson played good ball.

Starting line-ups:

Fluvanna—Creek and Wilson, ends; Johnson and Mariner, tackles; McKnight and Miles, guards; Green, center; Hunnicutt, B. Wilson, Challenger and Noel, backs.

Jayton—Montgomery and Davis, ends; Boling and McDaniel, tackles; Benton and Gallagher, guards; McAteer, center; T. B. Hamilton, Thompson, Drake and Billy Hamilton, backs.

Officials were John Blum and Mutt Herod of Snyder.

The Fluvanna club will go to Lueders tomorrow (Friday) for a clash with the Lueders High School players.

Booklet Shows Fast Increases in Taxes

Illuminating information on taxes, ranging from local and state to federal taxes, is found in a book, Tax Facts and Figures, The Times received this week from the Tax Foundation of New York City.

The book relates with graphically state, local and especially federal taxes have increased during the past decade and what percentage of tax revenue is required to operate the federal government.

For instance, the rise of federal taxation is shown from 1800, when $10,000,000 was required to operate the federal government, to 1941, when federal tax collections are estimated to total $5,700,000,000 or more. The book is crammed with facts that will prove valuable to those concerned with taxes from any angle.

SCOUT SUPPER DRAWS CROWD DESPITE RAIN

Buffalo Trail Council Officials Take Part In County-Wide Gathering Tuesday at Gymnasium

"The Boy Scout movement, during its 32 years of existence, has touched the lives of almost 10,000,000 boys," Charles E. Paxton of Sweetwater, president of the Buffalo Trail Council, declared Tuesday evening at Snyder School gymnasium.

The occasion Tuesday evening was the regular monthly court of honor for Boy Scouts of the Snyder District, and a potluck supper in which members of the local Lions Club participated.

"Very few people realize that it costs $500 per year to keep a boy in the reformatory, but like to gripe when called upon to contribute $5 annually to keep a boy in scouting," Paxton emphasized.

The Buffalo Trail Council president declared that the council now has more Boy Scouts than any other unit in Region 9—a region composed of Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

Scouts, their parents and members of the local Lions Club declared the potluck supper to be one of the entire program highlights.

Following a pledge of allegiance to the flag, directed by Hobbs Troop No. 75, Lion Vernon F. Shaw gave the invocation. H. L. Wren spoke on "Appreciation of Scoutmasters."

S. P. Gaskin, executive of the Buffalo Trail Council, directed court of honor proceedings, and awarded second class badges to Dono Campbell and Lynn Bavousett of Hobbs Troop No. 75. He also presented training certificates to L. H. Butler, Wayne Boren, E. L. Farr, Jesse Clements, H. L. Wren and Herman Darby.

Our Boy Scout Friends

J. E. Blakey, financial chairman for Snyder's Boy Scout district, and other district officials announced this week that the annual financial drive for the Snyder District will get underway Wednesday, October 8.

For the sake of our Boy Scout friends, and of this country, a shining example of just what strides are being made in district Scouting was evidenced Tuesday evening at the regular court of honor and pot-luck supper held in Snyder School gymnasium.

If ever there was a time in the history of the United States when Scouting deserves your unqualified support, that time is right now—now when your contributions and efforts will help carry the cause of Scouting to new levels of achievement and make the youth of the district fit subjects to become the men and leaders of tomorrow.

Once we get into the swing of this year's financial drive, it is felt that Snyder and Scurry County will go over the top to aid our Boy Scout friends. It is felt that citizens will respond to the campaign as never before because citizens in all walks of life appreciate this land of freedom, with no dirty military youth organizations to spoil the picture we have of democratic functioning in its zenith of personal liberty.

Snyder's Boy Scout District has made rapid gains in Scouting during the past 12 months, as evidenced by the fact seven Life Scout awards were presented Tuesday evening, in addition to the merit badges and other awards made.

In the Snyder District, Snyder now has two active Boy Scout troops, Fluvanna, Pyron, Hermleigh and Hobbs each one active troop. It is high time, if we intend to keep the Boy Scout movement forging ahead, to lay down our every-day tasks long enough to put this year's financial drive, beginning Wednesday, over the top. It is high time we quit saying that Scouts are a fine set of boys, and show them we really mean such compliments by attending the monthly courts of honor here and assisting our Boy Scouts to become valuable assets to community and county.

Had you ever stopped to think that the Boy Scout movement is the least costly youth movement in the entire country? If it is, then, why not put your shoulder to the wheel in the forthcoming financial drive, and put the movement over in the real old-fashioned American way?

Thrift at Home

Homemakers of Scurry, Borden, Fisher and nearby counties have responded wholeheartedly to recent appeals for being frugal with aluminum, tin cans and other household equipment made of materials needed for the national defense program, Louise Bryant, Texas Extension Service specialist in home management, reported Monday.

Today, home and family thrift is fast becoming a basic step in the nationwide movement to conserve all of this country's resources, including articles that are becoming scarce with the passing of the early fall weeks.

Wise shoppers are not only making a list of needed items now at the grocery stores, Miss Bryant points out, but are learning they can stop waste by studying labels on packaged products and knowing government needs. Homemakers of Scurry and adjacent counties are also urged to be "scale checkers." It's thrifty, Miss Bryant declares, to be sure the butcher puts in all the fat trimmings with meat cuts that can be utilized in general cooking.

There is also plenty of opportunity for waste in the cooking and serving of food. Many throw away the outside leaves of lettuce or cabbage, but this is considered a very wise policy in view of the handling such vegetables go through before reaching the table. Food wastes should be stopped at the source, county housekeepers are informed, to keep the family grocery bill at the lowest possible level consistent with adequate nutrition.

Thrift can also be shown in the home, Louise Bryant concludes, by purchasing low cost meats and thoroughly cooking them before serving. Some of the lower cost roasts and cuts of pork products, with thorough cooking and addition of suitable condiments, are not only wholesome, but served in moderation are valuable contributions to the daily diet.

Which reminds us of the fact, in the face of rising grocery prices and the generally higher cost of living, that thrift, like charity, begins at home. Thrift, like other virtues, has to be carefully cultivated, and is not a quality of character one can reach up on the shelf and put over one's shoulder at a moment's notice.

Editorial of the Week

NEUTRALITY REPEAL?

"The Congress shall have power: To define and punish piracies and felonies committed on the high seas, and offenses against the law of nations. To declare war, grant letters of marque and reprisal, and make rules concerning captures on land and water. To raise and support armies. . . . To provide and maintain a navy. To make rules for the government and regulation of the land and naval forces."—Constitution of the United States.

The president's proposal for modification or repeal of the neutrality law raises two issues. One is the preservation of constitutional government by returning to Congress the responsibility for decisions involving peace or war. We are for that 100 per cent.

The other is whether Congress should now give the go sign for further intervention. We hope Congress will prevent the further intervention, at least until the United States is adequately armed to fight Hitler and our Pacific defenses are secure—unless this hemisphere should be attacked before.

But regardless of whether Congress agrees with the non-intervention hope of an apparently overwhelming majority of Americans, it is far better for Congress to decide than to permit acts of war by executive order.

Only so long as our democracy is strong and functioning as intended, can we be united, despite the differences of the moment on any given question. United, we can arm and if necessary we can fight and fight victoriously.

President Roosevelt by announcing he will ask Congress to reconsider the neutrality law follows, in this matter, the constitutional way. And the decision of Congress is binding on all of us, from the president to the lowliest American.—Fort Worth Press.

Current Comment

By LEON GUINN

Editor's Note—Expressions or opinions contained in this column are those of the writer and do not necessarily reflect the opinions or policies of The Times. Current Comment is merely carried as a feature column.

Summing up 1941 dairy activities throughout the state, A. J. Riddle of Denison, president of the Texas Dairy Products Association, expressed the belief this week that dairying interest reached a new all-time high during the first eight months of this year. . . . Indicative of the interest, Riddle pointed out that approximately 2,500 dairy meetings or dairy days were attended or participated in by Texas A. & M. College extension workers. . . . In addition to these regularly scheduled meetings, there were innumerable meetings held by Chambers of Commerce, civic bodies and breeding organizations.

At the host of county, community and regional fairs held or to be held this fall, special emphasis is being placed on exhibits of dairy cattle and dairy products. . . . Unusual feed crops throughout Texas this year have served to stimulate interest in dairy products more than ever before. . . . Farmers of Scurry and other counties in this territory, seeking to market their crops to the best advantage, have turned to dairying, Riddle states, as a profitable outlet for their crops. . . . And breeders of dairy cattle, for the first time in the history of the state, have devoted their efforts to increasing dairy cattle herds on a major scale, contending that 10 good dairy cows and offspring are bigger money makers than 40 beef producing cows.

☆

It is interesting to note, in connection with the general dairy herd improvement program underway over the state, that the Farm Security Administration, for example, during the past five years has placed more than 500,000 dairy cows with their clients in Texas and Oklahoma. . . . Increased interest and production has been responsible for the extension of facilities at the Loraine Cooperative Cheese Plant and other dairy manufacturing units over the state. . . . Texas, Riddle concludes, is now in a position to meet any demands made on it, and will be among the national leaders when the nation's defense job is completed.

☆

A 10-year-old doe on the Sid Hyatt Ranch near Johnson City has certainly done her part to maintain Texas' reputation as the best deer hunting state in the nation. . . . During her lifetime, Will J. Tucker, executive secretary of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, says, the doe has borne five sets of triplets and four sets of twins. . . . The last triplets were born in June, and to make matters better, so far as sportsmen are concerned, the majority of the 23 deer this doe has produced were bucks.

☆

Announcement was made this week, although indirectly, that large scale training in the United States of Chinese pilots will get underway within the next three months. . . . It is probable that as many as 500 Chinese fliers, arriving in groups of 50, will come here for advanced training and for basic courses in bombardment, aerial gunnery and advanced photography instruction. . . . The Chinese have found, by experience, that the United States can offer the best advanced training to army pilots of any country in the world, and are anxious to get as many Chinese pilots here for advanced training as possible before winter closes in on the shipping lanes still open to the United States.

☆

"Bondlite" is the name for a new paint, now being introduced, that can be applied over day-old plaster that is still damp without the need of waiting for plaster to dry completely. . . . The new paint is expected to prove particularly valuable where houses for defense workers and important construction projects have to be finished within a given number of working days. . . . A patent was issued several days ago by the U. S. Patent Office on a slot machine that automatically cooks a frankfurter and delivers it to the customer with a hot bun.

In the Clifford Jones collection at West Texas Museum, a British army saddle with 12-inch seat, measuring 16 inches from the front to the back of the cantle, is of particular interest. . . . The saddle, old time cowhands of this area will be interested to learn, was brought to the famous S. M. Swenson & Sons Ranch near Spur many years ago by the English owners. . . . The Spur branding iron, which originated about 1878, and which was registered in many countries, is also on display. . . . This one brand was used from 1885 through 1886 in Dickens County to brand 65,000 head of cattle.

ANSON PROVES TOO MUCH FOR SNYDER CREW

Visitors Swamp Local Tigers Friday Night, 26-7, with Brilliant Game Led by West and Rust

It was too much Anson speed and power for the Snyder High School Tigers at the local stadium Friday night. Final score was 26 to 7, and statistics on the game show that the score is not deceiving. For instance, the Tigers from Anson marked up eight first downs to none for the home team, and gained 313 yards from scrimmage to 21 for Snyder.

The Jones County lads wasted no time in revealing a wealth of deception and power, and before the game was old had a lead of seven points, thanks to a series of off-tackle slants and line smashes which culminated with Fullback Roy McCoy driving over from the two-yard line. Halfback Bill Rust kicked the extra point.

Late in the second period another steady march carried the visitors 70 yards in 11 plays and West, who had substituted for injured Rust, dived through the middle of Snyder's line from the one. Try for point failed.

Coach Frank Weaver's boys took some heart on the next play. Anson kicked to Snyder after their second score, and Fullback Ross Blanchard tucked the ball in on his own 49 and scampered 61 yards through the Jones County boys for Snyder's only touchdown of the game. He got plenty of help from blockers and did some fancy broken-field running for the score. Blanchard then dropped back and kicked extra point as the half ended. Score: 13-7.

It was all Anson during the second half, with West furnishing most of the fireworks. The boy with the peculiar run went off tackle and then cut back through the opposite side of the secondary time after time for good yardage, and added Anson's third touchdown on a 45-yard dash behind perfect interference. Harris dropped back to add ... ished their scoring chores for the night when McCoy crashed through from the five in the last quarter. Extra point failed.

Aside from the kick-off return by Blanchard, the Snyder Tigers made no really serious scoring threats. The passing combination of Crenshaw to Blanchard, which worked so beautifully against Winters the week before, had little effect because of the hard charging Anson line. The passer frequently was rushed badly and completed only one, which came from deep in his own territory and carried 40 yards to midfield. Anson didn't intercept any of the eight passes attempted, however.

For Anson, West and Rust in the backfield and Center Bussie looked good. Blanchard, Right End Owen Dorman and Center Jimmy Burt turned in good performances for Snyder.

Officials were: Tommy Beene (McMurry), referee; Gene Scobee (ACC), head linesman; T. S. Hill, (NTSTC), umpire.

Snyder—Owen Dorman, right end; Forest Bruton, right tackle; Junior Miller, right guard; Jimmy Burt, center; Milton Moore, left guard; William Leftwich, left tackle; Orval Rollins, left end. Bobby Hicks, W. T. Thompson, Ross Blanchard and Howard Crenshaw, backs. Jack Blanchard, Jimmy Randals and J. B. Early also saw service.

Recruiting Officer Visits Here Tuesday

While here Tuesday, Sergeant Troy Gist of the U. S. Army Recruiting Station, Sweetwater, stated that a number of county youths are sending in inquiries regarding enrollment in the U. S. Air Corps and other branches of the nation's armed forces.

"Young men of the county between 20 and 27 years old, single, healthy and with a high school education now have a good chance to become commissioned pilots in the air corps. Those interested in becoming commissioned pilots, and who have only high school educations are urged to contact this office at once," Gist pointed out.

Plenty of Pickers But Weather Won't Let Them Do Stuff

"Who said Scurry County would not have any cotton pickers this fall?"

So said a group of county cotton producers Wednesday, who declare that hands have been dropping into the county the past few days like "[illegible] out of a clear sky."

Hands are needed badly in scattered sectors of the county, it is true, but in most instances farmers are obtaining plenty of help to "get over the first time."

Crop producers are still worrying this week over how to obtain a sufficient number of hands, however, to help gather the bumper feed crop Scurry County is producing this year. Milo maize is reported averaging close to one ton per acre and bundle feed, such as kaffir corn, sorghum, cane and sudan, is said to be average all the way from 800 to 1,000 bundles per acre where cut.

A considerable number of Mexicans and transient laborers from South Texas and Western Arkansas, not to mention Louisiana, are moving into this territory to assist in crop harvesting operations, and are alleviating the labor shortage to a great extent. "What we need isn't such a large number of hands," one farmer stated, "but more pretty days to use the harvest hands already here."
