Wolfpack Opens District

Face Defending Champs Here Friday

Trying to turn from a disbointing pre-district campgn that socked 'em with 3 aight losses, Colorado High lves face defending champ bbock Estacado here Friday ht before the home folks in ir 3-AAA District opener.

They may need an ambulance get a line - up onto the ld.

Coach Truman Nix checking s starting line-up Wednesy counted three backfield regars as doubtful or definitely t.

With 'em all in top shape, s team still would be underigs against Estacado, winner one and loser of two in nondistrict.

Quarterback Steve Vest heads the list of offensive doubtfuls.

"We will not know until Friday for sure whether he will be able to play," Nix said Wednesday.

The mentor had just returned from a trip to Midland where he had carried his quarterback passer-punter-runner to a professional athletic trainer. He already had made trips to doctors and is scheduled for examtors and is scheduled for additional examination by a medical specialist.

"Verdict will come from the specialist," explained Nix.

If the senior can't play, then little Dewaine Nix, a 145-pound junior, will be at the quarterback post.

Nix's problem centers in the area of the tendon at the ankle bone.

Definitely on the sideline Friday will be Wayne Banks, 155-pound back, who was one of the Wolves' two top ground gainers against Odessa Ector last week. He left the Ector contest with a badly sprained ankle after making a sideline tackle and stepping into an old jumping pit.

Skip Maines, another junior runner, was held out of the Odessa game until Banks because of a leg injury. His condition has been improving, but his status still is not definite.

If Vest can't play and Maines, too, is on the sidelines with Banks, then Nix plans to start an offensive backfield that will have Larry Dearen at fullback, who sparkled against Ector; Stanley Bracy at running back instead of flanker, and Big Carl Devorce at fullback. Moving to flanker will be Glenn Chalker.

Out of school Wednesday with illness was tri-captain Joe Kirschbaum, senior center. Gene Hunt left workouts Tuesday because of illness.

To help fill-in the ranks, Coach Nix moved David Matthews and Tim Stansel up from the B-team.

Estacado, a state stalwart in recent years, comes to town with a new head coach, Pete Murray, who fills the spot left open by Jimmie Keeling's move to Andrews.

The Matadors aren't the power they were in winning 9, losing 1 last season. They have only 5 of 27 lettermen from '69.

But heading the vets are speedster tailback Jessie Lethridge, who dueled all the way to Austin with Colorado City's Stan Bracy in track last spring; Quarterback Daniel Johnson, 6-1 and an accurate thrower; and big Porter Jaushlin, 6-1 and 221-pound tackle.

While the Wolves were dropping their openers to state rated Monahans, Coahoma and last week 0-12 to Odessa Ector, Estacado was defeating Plainview, then falling to Monahans and last week to Lubbock Coronado, 14 to 15.

Moving into 3-AAA action also this week are Brownfield, 3-0, against Lake View; Lubbock Dunbar, 1-2, against Lamesa, 3-0; and Snyder, 1-2, against Sweetwater, 2-1.

They'll Lead Alliance

185 Draft Top

Board May Go Up To 195

No. 185 is the highest lottery selection number yet reached in 1970 for Local Draft Board No. 71, which includes Mitchell County.

However, it may be necessary for the board up sequence number 195 to meet the remaining 1970 draft calls.

That is the information from Mrs. Roselle A. Coates, executive secretary for Board No. 71.

No. 195 is the maximum sequence number announced by Dr. Curtis W. Tarr, National Selective Service Director, to satisfy the nation's remaining 1970 draft calls.

Mrs. Coats said that in compliance with the White House Executive order announced recently, all registrants of Local Board No. 71 (including Mitchell County) who hold the highest reached number or numbers below the highest reached number, and who have not been issued orders for induction due to any circumstances, will be considered for carryover into the extended priority selection group if they are classified 1-A of Dec. 31, 1970.

These young men will have their liability for military induction extended for the first three months of 1971, she said.

Mrs. Coates said the White House executive order states that registrants who held numbers above the highest reached number of Board No. 71 and are classified 1-A on Dec. 31, 1970, will be placed in a lower draft priority group Jan. 1.

Bush Jr. Due Here At Noon

George Bush Jr. personally brings to Colorado City Thursday his dad's campaign for U. S. Senator.

The 24-year-old Yale University graduate's appearance here will be the first major political action locally in the final state of campaigning for Nov. 3 General Election.

Two major Democratic Party candidates--Governor Preston Smith and Senate hopeful Lloyd Bentson--recently visited other cities in the area but passed by Colorado City without stopping.

So, the Republican Bush will be a first, so to speak.

Young Bush will arrive here at 12 noon, stopping first at Root Memorial Hospital for a quick tour of the hopeful and Root Valley Fair Lodge, according to Mrs. Weldon Hardegree, Mitchell County campaign chairman for Congressman Bush.

Sun Oil Company's district production office will be the next stop, probably about 12:30 noon.

"His time is limited, of course," said Mrs. Hardegree, "but he will visit as much as he can."

Bush will be in Snyder before coming to Colorado City and will hurry from here to Sweetwater.

The Bush - Bentsen Senate race is one of the warmest in the state.

Boys Club Talk

Possibilities of organizing a Boys Club in Colorado City will be discussed Thursday (tonight) by representatives of civic, community and government agencies.

Heading the meeting will be Gene L. Lehnen of Dallas, assistant regional director for Boys Club of America.

A film explaining the Boys Club program will highlight the 7 p.m. session.

Ted Burgoon will be local director for the informational meet.

Brief Retirement

Clerk To Complete Full Term

It was a short retirement for County Clerk Gilbert Leach.

He is back at his Courthouse desk after going home last Wednesday and notifying Commissioners Court he was resigning.

Commissioners took no immediate action on the resignation and, after a discussion with them, the veteran official decided to complete his 21st year in office before retiring.

He will continue in the office through Dec. 31.

Leach's chief deputy clerk Mrs. Marie Bassham, is the newly-elected county clerk beginning Jan. 1. She was successful candidate for the office when Leach revealed he would not be a candidate for re-election.

Before he made his decision to return to office after a two-day retirement, Leach had requested that commissioners appoint Mrs. Bassham to serve out the remaining three months of his term.

* * *

Commissioners Court must appoint election judges for two of the county's voting boxes before the Nov. 3 General Election.

The new judges will be for absentee voting and voting box No. 7 in Commissioner Precinct 2.

Max Caswell and Floyd Lee Ritchey have notified commissioners they cannot continue to serve as judges for No. 7 at Oak Street Baptist Church. J. S. (Jay) Craddock Jr., business manager for Colorado City public schools, also has delivered a similiar notice to the court.

Previously named judges and their voting boxes are:

Box 1, Comm. Precinct 1 (Courthouse)-O. B. Trulock and George Witten; Box 3, Comm. Precinct 3 (Civic House) - R. B. Baker and Gene Parker; Box 4, Comm. Precinct 4 (Loraine) - Willie Taylor and Ted Lefevre; Box 5, Comm Precinct 1 (Buford) - T. T. Smith and Murrell Blassingame; Box 6, Comm. Precinct 2 (Cuthbert - Fairview) - Mrs. J. C. Womack and R. E. McMillan; Box 2, Comm. Precinct 2 (Westbrook) - Doug Barber and Willie Bell.

Commissioners Wednesday voted to advertise for sealed bids for three pieces of major equipment.

Bids will be opened Oct. 20 at 2 p.m. for the county's purchase of a new front-end loader and two trucks.

The county plans to trade a 1944 model loader and a 1961 Ford truck in the two separate deals. Specifications are available at the office of the county auditor.

Youths Slow To Register

Eighteen, 19 and 20-year-olds in Mitchell County are in no rush to register for their first voting opportunity.

Only two of the below-21 age group had registered Wednesday, according to County Tax Assessor - Collector Monte Hardegree.

Because the constitutionality of the new lower voting age is still in doubt may be a contributing factor the slow sign-up of 18, 19 and 21-agers.

Congress has lowered the minimum age for voting from 21 to 18 years. However, the new age limit will not be finalized until the U. S. Supreme Court rules whether Congress can lower the voting age or the cation must result from amendment to the U. S. Constitution.

General registration of voters is moving ahead in the tax office with 450 on the polling list Wednesday. Voter registration will continue Jan. 31 as usual.

Start of absentee voting for the November General Election is only six days away in the office of Mitchell County Clerk Gilbert Leach. Absentees will have from Oct. 14 to Oct. 30 to cast ballots.

In addition to state and district races, the Nov. 3 General Election ballot will include seven proposed amendments to Texas Constitution.

The proposed amendments are related to (1) censure and removal of judges, (2) authority for mixed alcoholic beverage law, (3) assessment of farm, ranch and forest lands for tax purposes, (4) reconstitute State Building Commission, (5) county road bonds and assessed valuation, (6) increase value of homestead exemption from forced sale, (7) authority to consolidate functions of government.

Dinner Tickets Ready

Historical Event Here

Only one week remains for persons to purchase tickets for Colorado City's annual old timers' reunion luncheon.

The luncheon Saturday, Oct. 17, in Civic House will be one of four highlight events for the day.

Other features are the reunion, dedication of the official Texas historical marker for arrival of the railroad and dedication of the new Colorado City Museum.

Deadline for purchase of luncheon tickets is Oct. 15 at Chamber of Commerce.

"It is absolutely necessary that we have the deadline so as to make proper preparation for the crowd attending, said Mrs. A. L. Geer, chairman of Mitchell County Historical Survey Committee.

Olon Owens of Abilene, general agent for Texas & Pacific Railway Company, will be principal speaker for the luncheon program. His topic will be "From Ox Carts To Eagles."

It was the T&P which brought the first train into this West Texas area April 16, 1881--89 years ago. About 350 persons lived here in tents and dugouts then the business included a tarpaulin roof and dirt floor store owned by A. W. Dunn and a few saloons.

Before that date supplies were transported 300 miles by wagon from Round Rock. Then, with the town as a train terminus while the Colorado River bridge was being built and until the late 1880's, Colorado became the shipping point for all the huge plains area.

Mayor C. C.(Mike) Burt will officially welcome the old-timers reunion, which will begin Oct. 17 with registration from 8 to 9:30 a.m. in Civic House.

Miss Gladys Miller will conduct the reunion's memorial ceremony, County Judge Elmer Martin will present awards and Miss Margaret Mathis will conduct a sing-song.

District FFA Officers

Seal Volunteers

Local volunteers stuffing Christmas Seal envelopes for Big Country TB-RD Association in San Angelo last week are, from left, Mrs. A. H. Jackson, Mrs. A. J. Hooks, Mrs. E. T. Tiller and Mrs. Roy Davis Coles.

4 Help In TB-RD Campaign

Four Colorado City volunteers were in San Angelo recently in preparation for Big Country Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association's annual Christmas Seal Campaign.

They were Mrs. A. H. Jackson, member of TB/RD board; Mrs. A. J. Hooks, board of directors vice president; Mrs. E. L. Tiller and Mrs. Roy Davis Coles.

Christmas seals donations go toward supporting an area wide program of education about tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases such as emphysema and chronic bronchitis.

In addition to the annual campaign contributions, the TB/RD finances work with bangle sales, memorials and bequeaths.

Members of Zeta Delta Study Club conducted the bangle campaign during last week end's Mitchell County Fair. Colorado High School girls demonstrated dangers of smoking using "Smoking Sam", a manikin furnished by the Big Country Association.

Cotton Consumer Program Set Oct. 26 in Munday

A consumer information day on cotton will be sponsored Oct. 26 in Munday High School Auditorium.

"Signs of the '70's - Cotton" will be theme for the afternoon program, according to Mrs. Stanley Moore, Mitchell County Home Demonstration Agent.

"A top - notch program is planned which should be of interest to cotton producers, homemakers, dry goods merchants, furniture and carpet dealers," Mrs. Moore said.

"Everyone who is interested in learning more about cotton's versatility as a food and fiber is invited to attend and to spend a profitable afternoon," the agent explained.

Cotton products for human use and consumption will be featured during the program by speakers, Miss Betty Eisenberg, home economist with Texas Agricultural Products, and Miss Joanne Thurber, textiles and clothing specialist.

Program is being sponsored by Family Living Committee of Rolling Plains Economic Program.

Conservation Leaflet At SCS

Conservation education is subject of a new leaflet prepared by the U. S. Soil Conservation Service, State Conservationist, Clyde W. Graham of Temple announced this week.

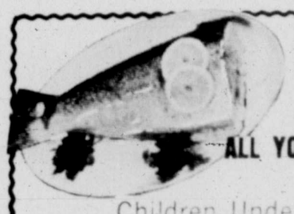

Entitled "SCS and Conservation Education," the leaflet explains importance of teaching conservation to students and tells how Soil Conservation Service employees can help.

"We believe that everyone needs to be informed about the true meaning and importance of conservation," Graham said. "And a good place to start is in school. Students need to learn that conservation means more than merely saving or setting something aside. It means intelligent use, development, restoration, and conservation of natural resources.

"We, of course, are especially interested in land, water, plant, and wildlife resources but oil, gas and other resources are important too."

The leaflet tells how Soil Conservation Service conservationists can help teachers plan out door classrooms or obtain films, publications or other teaching aids. It also suggests how conservation might be taught outdoors if the school does not have an outdoor classroom.

Don Hodges, District Conservationist, reports the pamphlet also suggest ways the teaching of soil, water and wildlife conservation might be ties in with such subjects as biology, chemistry, math, social science, art and other courses.

BEHIND THE SCENES

I'm all for saluting the boys and girls in 4-H as they learn, achieve and work at worthwhile 4-H Club projects. Now is an appropriate time during National 4-H Week.

But there is more to 4-H program than the youths it best benefits.

Working diligently are adult leaders who give of their time and interest and service voluntarily to be sure the program moves ahead. Naturally, our county agents---Bobby Lemons, Janet Moore---are in the forefront of this week.

All along though from work to play in 4-H there are thoughtful and earnest adults who advise, assist, plan and help. They deserve our thanks for a splendid contribution to our youth and countywide community.

New Oldsmobile At Jay's

Oldsmobile's 1971 full size cars, now on display and available at Jay Adams Chevrolet and Oldsmobile, are completely new in appearance. New style designs are accented by the increased curve of the body side surface, the contour of which is complemented by flush-mounted glass. Included in the 1971 series is a Delta 88 Hardtop Coupe (shown above) and a new convertable.

SCS Advises Farm Fire Prevention

This week is National Fire Prevention Week. Most of us usually associate this activity with School. It is always emphasized with posters, themes, lectures, and fire drills at school.

"This is all well and good," says Nolen Bird with the Soil Conservation Service, "but we should also associate it with real life and realize that fires can and do happen.

"We should place the same emphasis on fire prevention during our daily living as we do at school. This is especially true of families who live on farms."

Under any circumstances, fires are bad. But in the city there is at least access to plenty of water and Fire Departments with fire fighting equipment. When fires occur in the country, it is a pathetic picture we usually see, of a few people splashing water from buckets on a blazing inferno. So it is plainly evident that the only assurance we can have for the least amount of damage from fires on the farm is to stop them before they ever start.

A few common sense precautions named by Bird include frequent inspections of all electrical wiring in our homes and other buildings on the place, to make sure there are no frayed insulations, be sure wire is of sufficient size to carry the load of electricity safely without overheating, be sure all breakers and fuses are working properly.

All heating and cooking equipment should be kept in safe condition. Make sure that all fittings and connections to gas heaters and cooking ranges are tight. "These should be tested frequently and especially on the first odor of escaping gas. This should never be tested with a match," he advised, "but with soapy water."

Fire - safe housekeeping should be practiced at all times, says Bird. Dispose of all flammable rubbish regularly. Keep only the minimum and necessary quantities of combustible material on hand such as paint, varish, and cleaning fluid. These should be stored in a fire proof metal compartment.

All grass, weeds, and other vegetation around buildings can become a fire hazard, so they should be removed before they become flamable. Trash should be buried if possible but if it is necessary to burn it, it should be burned in a covered incinerators at a safe distance from all buildings and other flamable material.

Of course during late summer and fall, pastures and range become dead and dry. Extra precautions should be taken during this season to prevent grass and brush fires. All pastures and range should be protected by fire breaks as much as possible.

"Of course," reminds Bird, "the main concern in any fire protection plan is the prevention of injury or the loss of life.

Each member of the family should know this and be prepared to carry it out. They shold know the safest means of exit from the house of other farm buildings. Make sure all doors and windows are in working order. If doors are kept locked at night, the lock should be one which will unlock easily and quickly. Windows should raise easily with no danger of jamming. "There should be no thought of heroics except to help another person.

There is no piece of property in a house worth the risk of serious injury of loss of life," he continued.

So if there was ever any truth to the old addage "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure" it should apply to fire prevention on the farm.

This should hold true not only this week, but through the entire year.

'Pledge of Allegiance' Marks Club Program

Presentation of Pledge of Allegiance as interpreted by Red Skelton highlighted a citizenship program for Self Culture Club Friday in home of Mrs. R. M. Reed.

The article, read by Mrs. Homan Posey, emphasized "freedom is everybody's job."

She quoted Skelton as saying, "Old Glory, a symbol of freedom. . .where ever she waves there is respect because your loyalty has given her dignity that shouts freedom is everybody's job."

Mrs. Willie Whitmore discussed various ways of making Colorado City a better retirement place.

She emphasized better upkeep of lawns, keeping pets up and refuse containers covered.

Mrs. Wilford Fox continued discussion of community improvement on a county basis.

"We owe our fellowman improvement of rivers, lakes and forests," she said. "Man should strive to keep his pride, responsibilities and guard against decline in competance.

"Mutual concern and cooperation are adhesives of society. Without them, no society can solve its problems nor build a healthy future, nor gain respect of it's young-indeed survive.

Organizations recognized by Mrs. Fox as helping in local community improvement included, Community Action Program, Wallace Neighborhood Center, Well Baby Clinic, adult basis education, Community center kindergarten, and bilingual kindergarten.

She concluded, "The boys and girls who attend the bilingual school will be better students and better citizens by having attended the kindergarten.

During a business session club members voted a cash contribution to be used in purchasing snacks for bilingual students.
