MILK PLANT LOOMS FOR CITY

PAVING BONDS WILL ASSURE NEW INDUSTRY

ALL-YEAR HIGHWAYS ONE CONDITION OF ENTRY INTO CITY

Locating of a $100,000 milk plant in Lubbock in the event the $2,004,000 county-wide road bond issue passes here tomorrow, was announced to the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce this morning by a telegram from F. H. Douthitt Engineering company.

All year roads and a sufficient volume of milk daily are the only requirements necessary to be met by the establishment of the plant. Mr. Douthitt stated in his telegram, representative of the Douthitt company, which has extensive milk plant holdings throughout the nation, was in Lubbock about six months in the interest of the proposed plant here, and Mr. Douthitt was here about two months ago.

Should the proposed plant be located here it will be the second of the company in Texas. A $200,000 milk plant was recently opened at Amarillo, and another is being located at Amarillo.

The products named and several others would be manufactured in Lubbock if the establishment of

Family Of Six Die From Gas Poisoning

STOCKPORT, Cheshire, England, Nov. 30 (AP)—A family of six, named Baker, and consisting of a father and mother, and four children, died during the night from gas poisoning. The disaster was attributed to a leakage of gas from main pipes in the street. Eleven persons in adjoining houses were removed to a hospital suffering from gas poisoning.

Steamer Grounded; Fear Total Wreck

LONDON, Nov. 30 (AP)—A dispatch to Lloyd's from Yokohama today said that the steamer Hokuto Maru, bound from Okinawa for Yokohama, ran aground on November 28 off Fukuyama, and probably would be a total wreck. A gale stirred up tremendous seas and drove the vessel on the beach.

COPS THANKFUL ITS ALL OVER

Each with a Thanksgiving "hang-over," five inebriates of last night were still sobering up in the city jail this morning as a result of too much "fire-water."

Local peace enforcement officers report the quietest Thanksgiving for many years and they are unanimous in being thankful for one thing: that Thanksgiving is over.

Most of the officers report little excitement and lots of turkey. No arrests were made by the sheriff's department and none by Constable J. C. Roberts over the holiday. Only six arrests—one for fighting and the others for drunkenness—were made by members of the city police force.

The fighter paid off and was turned loose this morning and Chief of Police John Lemond said that the drunks would be released sometime today.

THEIR ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED

JOHN COOLIDGE AND FLORENCE TRUMBULL

Formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Florence Trumbull to John Coolidge, son of President and Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, has been made by the young lady's parents, Governor and Mrs. John H. Trumbull, of Connecticut. No date, however, has been set for the nuptials which will climax a romance of several years.

SNOW COVERS WEST STATES

ROCKY MOUNTAIN AREA DIGGING OUT FIRM UNDER DEEP FALL

DENVER, Nov. 30 (AP)—Residents of six snowbound Rocky Mountain states turned from Thanksgiving feasting today to dig out from under a heavy snow that ended about the same time as the feasting did yesterday.

The almost continuous 32-hour fall left the entire region blanketed with from one to two feet of snow, which aside from impairing transportation and communication systems, caused remarkably little damage, as moderate temperature prevailed.

The heavy fall called forth real Thanksgiving in the farming areas, as it brought needed moisture without causing suffering to livestock. Six hundred Denver laborers found holiday employment in clearing streets and digging out stalled automobiles. Ten inches of snow fell here, while 17 inches was reported at Lander, Wyo. Pike's Peak lay under a 22-inch covering today.

Many of the better known mountain passes appeared definitely closed to motorists for the winter.

Warning Against Illegal Parking

"Persons who persist in parking in the center of the street will be fined," Chief of Police John Lemond warned this morning. He stated that on Texas Avenue between 13th and 14th streets various violations of this kind had been noticed recently, and that members of the force had been advised to tag everyone parking in the center of the street.

PROGRESSIVE NOTE IS SOUNDED IN SPEECH OF NEW PRESIDENT

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 30.—Emilio Portes Gil took the oath as provisional president of the Mexico, and pledged his administration to a continuance of the policies of the Obregon and Calles governments, especially in regard to friendship with the United States.

Immediately after being sworn in the new president read a brief message outlining the policies his government will pursue. Approximately 25,000 persons were in the national stadium to see the inauguration.

Regarding foreign relations, Portes Gil mentioned especially those with the United States. He said that as long as the American government continued to show a desire to respect Mexican sovereignty the American people would have no cause to complain about their southern neighbor. But he warned that sovereignty "is a point on which Mexico cannot recede or make concessions despite the magnitude of sacrifices that might become necessary."

HORN NOMINATES TEACHER LEADER

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 30 (AP)—A state leader for the 20,000 members of the Texas State Teachers' association for next year will be chosen today by delegates of the association in a session which will be held here from noon and 8 p. m. J. C. Cochran, Del Rio superintendent of schools, was nominated from the floor by Dr. Paul W. Horn, president of the Texas Technological college Thursday night.

The only other nomination was that of Rush Caldwell, Dallas. Technical discussions marked thirty eight sectional meetings held by various groups of teachers Friday.

Bandit Victimized Rail Ticket Agents

SAN ANGELO, Nov. 30 (AP)—Police are looking for a bandit who has been victimizing railroad ticket offices in this vicinity.

Last night a bandit secreted himself in the woman's waiting room of the Orient depot, held up the agent, T. E. Hardin as he was closing up, and obtained slightly more than $1,000. A few nights ago the same thing happened at Coleman, the bandit obtaining $114 in the Santa Fe depot.

Expected Trouble Comes To Chicagoan

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 30 (AP)—Henry Elmore told the police yesterday that he "expected trouble."

Last night it came: A bullet that killed him instantly during a brawl the soft drink place he operated. His slayer escaped.

BOND ISSUE TO FACE TEST OF COUNTY VOTES

LARGE TURN-OUT HERE IS EXPECTED FOR BOND ELECTION

The voters of Lubbock county will decide at the polls tomorrow whether or not this county will have a $4,000,000 paving system by voting or rejecting the $2,004,000 road bond issue.

Result of the election will end a campaign of many months for the paved highway system. Officials of the proponents of the issue, the Lubbock County Good Roads association, and of the opposition organization, "The Tax Payers" this morning expressed predictions of victory.

A record vote for a bond election is predicted and both organizations are going to exert all efforts to get as many voters as possible to the polls. County Clerk Amos Howard this morning predicted that the vote would total more than 4,500. Boxes have already been distributed and everything is in readiness for the election. Voting will be held in the regular places in the 32 precincts of the county, the same as in the general and primary elections.

C. E. Maedgen, chairman of the organization in opposition to the issue, said this morning "We have an organization with sufficient control of the country, and with strong enough influence and authority to beat the bond issue, without outside help."

Leasing Rampant In Terry, Yoakum

BROWNFIELD, Nov. 30.—Leasing of land for mineral development continues to be very active in both Terry and Yoakum counties and abstract companies are putting in extra hours in order to keep even with the demand, but it is not thought that any drilling operations are in immediate prospect. Companies will not promise to begin operations at any given period and the opinion of local people is that they are only paying out surplus funds prior to annual reports.

Seek Golfer For Double Slaying

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 30 (AP)—On the coincidence that two women were shot, one fatally, Wednesday with 22 calibre rifle bullets, police and sheriff's deputies today were striving to connect Joseph "Coat" Miller, well known amateur golfer of this city, who admits wounding one woman, with the mysterious slaying of attractive 24-year-old Inez Smead.

From early last evening, when he was brought back from Buffalo hospital after a suicide attempt in his cell at Williamsville, until sunrise today, Miller, in whose machine a .22 calibre rifle was found, was questioned by police.

Chicago Livestock Show Inaugurated

CHICAGO, Nov. 30 (AP)—Youth raised the curtain on the annual International Livestock Exposition today with the non-collegiate judging contests for juniors serving a prologue to the official opening of the exposition tomorrow.

Farm boys and girls from 18 states took part in the junior livestock judging events although this year is the first in which girls have matched their judgment with boys in those contests.

The official opening of the show tomorrow will find the largest exhibition of livestock in the history of the annual event. B. H. Heide, general manager, said today there were 11,750 head of cattle, horses, swine and sheep entered.

VOTE FOR ROAD BONDS TOMORROW

On tomorrow another election will be held—an election which bears more importantly upon the future of Lubbock county than any election of recent years and perhaps in its history.

Citizens of Lubbock county are called upon to pass judgment upon a business proposal—a business proposal which offers for the county's expenditure of $2,004,000 an adequate, correlated and connected system of hard-surface highways which, with the addition of state and federal funds, will cost in the neighborhood of $4,000,000.

Four million dollars worth of needed hard-surface highways for a $2,004,000 cost to this county is no offer to be lightly regarded. Lubbock county NEEDS a system of hard-surface highways. Even the majority of those opposing the present plan admit that fact. The question in tomorrow's election is not the need of the highways but instead is whether they should be laid only on the state and federal designated routes to largely benefit the tourist, or whether they should be extended to a few of the heavily travelled county roads to benefit the citizenship of the county in general and the farmers of the county in particular.

The Daily Journal favors the passage of the bond issue—favors it because the proposed plan will strengthen Lubbock as a marketing center, because it will serve the farmer as well as the city dweller and because it is FAIR, not only to Lubbock but to the balance of the county as well.

Figures which everyone has had the opportunity of checking, prove that Lubbock county can not only afford the passage of the bond but that it is essential to the future of the county that they be passed. There is no keen-sighted business man who will not admit that the railroad age has given way to the highway age and that the city which fails to place itself upon the strategic trade routes is doomed.

The momentous question demands the united voice of Lubbock county tomorrow. It demands participation at the polls of every man and woman who has an interest in the future of this county. Go to the polls tomorrow and cast your vote for fairness and for progress. Lubbock county will continue to prosper if you do!

LESTER TRIAL IS POSTPONED

CHIEF WITNESS FAILS IN FURNISHING OF IDENTIFICATION

Because of failure of the state's principal witness, Howard Cline, former motorcycle officer of the city police department, to furnish positive identification of the defendant, the case of the state of Texas against R. B. (Blackie) Lester on a charge of violation of the prohibition laws, was postponed indefinitely in the 99th district court this morning.

Cline told District Attorney Durwood Bradley in the latter's office this morning that the three purchases of liquor were made at night, and it was impossible for him to identify the man who sold the whisky, the district attorney said.

One other case charging violation of the prohibition laws, the state of Texas against S. D. Buchanan, scheduled to come to trial before Judge Clark M. Mulliken in the 99th district court this morning, is to be transferred to the Lubbock division of the federal court for trial.

With the criminal docket of the week disposed of, the jury was dismissed this morning by Judge Mulliken. The civil docket will receive the attention of the court next week.

POST MEN NOT IN JAIL BREAK

PAIR REPORTED FROM FORT STOCKTON WERE IN GARZA CITY

POST, Nov. 30.—Two men reported to have participated in a jail break at Fort Stockton yesterday have been in Post for the last week, Leon O. Moses, county attorney, said today.

J. P. Bridges and Howard Savage, who were under $7,000 bond on charges of cattle theft, were extremely surprised to learn that they had taken part in a jail break at more to my knowledge, and the first they knew of the jail break was when they read it of it.

Moses said Van Finchum was the only Post man who had been in jail at Fort Stockton at the time of the break. Finchum was reported to have escaped.

The Daily Journal received a telephone call from J. P. Bridges this morning calling attention to error in the Fort Stockton story, carried on the state news wires yesterday. His report tallied exactly with the report of Mr. Moses, given above, and neither he or Howard Savage were connected with the Fort Stockton jail break.

Sharp Reaction On New York Exchange

NEW YORK, Nov. 30 (AP)—Ten per cent call money, making its first appearance since October 1, coupled with a bad break in Canadian Marconi on the New York curb market, forced a sharp reaction in prices on the New York stock exchange this afternoon after an early outburst of bullish enthusiasm had carried more than a dozen issues to new high records. Early gains, which ran from $5 to $15 a share in a number of issues, were cut down, or wiped out, and in several instances replaced by losses which ranged from $5 to nearly $20 a share.

Brakeman Becomes Belated Rail Hero

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 30 (AP)—A railroad brakeman, suffering from a broken collar bone, who saved the Panama Limited, the Illinois Central's fast Chicago-New Orleans train, from disaster, was a belated hero here today.

W. C. Lightfoot, the brakeman, suffered the injury when a string of freight cars piled up along the right of way of the Illinois Central, Wednesday night, near Polk, Tenn., and blocked the passage of the fast passenger train, which was to follow in a few minutes, railroad officials were informed.

Lightfoot despite his injury, staggered up the railroad tracks and with the aid of a lantern, succeeded in flagging the Limited, which was enroute from Chicago to a standstill.

SOLONS HEAR TESTIMONY ON BALLOT SCRAP

REPUBLICAN DECLARES CORRECT COUNT WILL SHOW HIM VICTOR

(By Associated Press) SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 30.—Bexar County Judge Augustus J. McCloskey, democrat, denied on the witness stand before the congressional house campaign expenditures committee today that there had been any alteration in returns canvassed by his commissioners court, giving him a 309 vote victory over Republican Congressman Harry M. Wurzbach in the 14th Texas district race.

McCloskey was questioned by Wurzbach, and at times refused to answer questions in the way Wurzbach put them. Wurzbach laid a written statement before the committee, challenging the reported count in 17 precincts.

Ed Englehart, presiding judge of precinct 20, testified that Fritz Rust, his superior in the school system, came to his home, got the precinct returns, and returned them some 24 hours later with McCloskey's vote of 288 changed to 228. A subpoena has been issued for Rust, but he could not be found.

The committee refused to permit John Bickett, Jr., McCloskey's counsel, to cross-examine witnesses, but after Bickett had objected to the procedure as "novel," Chairman Fred Lehbach of New Jersey, reposed Bickett's questions to McCloskey.

MURDER FARM OWNER MAKES A CONFESSION

ADMITS TO KILLING OF MEXICAN BOY AND BURYING BODY

BAKERSFIELD, Calif., Nov. 30. Deputy District Attorney Earle Redwine of Riverside county today announced that Gordon Stewart Northcott had made a complete confession to the slaying of an unidentified Mexican youth on the Northcott ranch near Riverside.

Northcott was said to have told the officers that Sanford Clark, his 18-year-old nephew and principal adviser, aided him in the murder. He then told how he had burned the head of the ranch and had taken the body to Puente, Cal., where he buried it. Northcott previously admitted mistreating the Mexican youth.

"I am happy now that I have told it," Northcott was quoted as having said.

Came By Degrees. The confession came by degrees as officers were returning Northcott from British Columbia, where he was captured several months ago.

His captors failed to shake from him any admission that he slew three other youths named in murder indictments returned against him and Mrs. Sarah Louise Northcott, who is said to be his mother, Alberta, pending extradition.

At one time, officers said, Northcott voiced an inclination to "take all the blame." In the past he has said to have expressed fear over the fate of Mrs. Northcott, who he generally refers to as "my dear little mother." Officers have attempted also to get him to admit that Mrs. Northcott is not his mother, but thus far they have been unsuccessful.

Northcott intimated he had knowledge of the existence of the other three boys named as his victims: Walter Collins of Los Angeles, and Louis and Nelson Winslow of Pomona, all of whom disappeared many months ago. The "Ape Man" as he has been called by his relatives, told the officers he feared Collins never would return alive but that he felt the Winslow boys were safe.

It was the revelation of Young Clark, who told authorities that the Northcott ranch in Riverside county was a "murder farm," that led to Northcott's arrest.

Young Clark told investigators that Mrs. Northcott and her son forced him to take part in the slaying of one of the boys. Bones and bits of clothing uncovered at the ranch convinced investigators that the end quick time had been used to destroy bodies of the victims.

A CRACK END

One of Bob Zupke's young men at Illinois who is getting quite a lot of praise this season is Walter "Bud" Jolley, an 18-year-old.

Jolley's work has caused many rival coaches to praise him in the highest terms and also has placed him in the running for All-Western honors this year. He has another year of play after this one.

Husband Kills One And Wounds Others

PENSACOLA, Fla., Nov. 30 (AP)—One person was dead and three others were believed dying today from gunshot injuries received yesterday when a husband, who had been absent two years, suddenly appeared at the home of his mother-in-law at Molino, near here yesterday, and attempted to slay members of his family and himself.

Mrs. L. E. Gorder, died from her wound before reaching a hospital, while her mother, Mrs. Meade, her sister, and her husband, are not expected to recover.

Two Held For Death Of York, Pa., Farmer

YORK, Pa., Nov. 30 (AP)—Accused of killing Nelson D. Rehmeier, 59-year-old farmer of North Hopewell, Pa., and setting his body afire, John Blymire, 32, and John Curry, 14, were arrested today. Both have confessed to the slaying according to police. Blymire implicated a third party who has not been apprehended.

Motive for the murder has not been definitely established, but authorities said they had learned Rehmeier and Blymire both believed in witchcraft.

SHIPS RUSH TO AID OF VESSEL

BRITISH FREIGHTER IS SLOWLY SINKING OFF CANADIAN COAST

(By Associated Press) PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 30.—A message from the Japanese steamer Montreal Maru, timed 5 a. m. Pacific time, and relayed to the Mackay-Federal Radio and Telegraph company here, said the ship still was 52 miles from the distressed British freighter Chief Maquila. The message said the rescue ship expected to reach the Chief Maquila between 9 and 10 a. m.

The steamship Atlantic City, another of the seven vessels which rushed to the aid of the Chief Maquila, reported it would arrive at the scene at 9 a. m. Pacific time. The Atlantic City reported it was unable to locate the Japanese ship Yogen Maru, which previously was reported standing by the Chief Maquila.

With eight British officers and a crew of 32 Chinese, the Chief Maquila, a 9,500-ton craft, left British Columbia ports November 17 for Shanghai. She carried no passengers. Local agents of the Canadian-American Shipping company owners of the ship, said she probably got into trouble when her cargo shifted.

Reports last night were that the Chief Maquila was listing 15 degrees; that there was 13 feet of water in her engine room, her deck load of lumber washed away, starboard bunker hatches stove in and her starboard lifeboats gone.

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 30 (AP)—Judges of three of the 17 Bexar county precincts involved in Republican Congressman Harry M. Wurzbach's dispute of the officially announced election of his democratic opponent, Augustus J. McCloskey, were warned summarily today to produce their copies of general election returns within 24 hours or "hear from Washington."

called to the stand said he was in the room when returns were being canvassed.

Wurzbach showed that the correct count would show him the winner by at least 250 votes.

McCloskey was asked by Bickett through Chairman Leibach whether he had altered any of the returns.

"No," McCloskey emphasized. He said he did not have his hands on the returns until a week after the canvass began. He said he neither saw nor knew of any one making alterations.

Wurzbach brought out that McCloskey has visited Ralph Moglia, Judge of the 16th precinct, and asked for the congressional returns. Moglia said he had the figures at home. McCloskey testified. Precinct 16 is one of those questioned.

of Iowa today. Sheets of snow at Des Moines, Ia., were blamed for the death of Mrs. Jonathan Thomas, 75, killed when two automobiles collided.

In Western Nebraska snow choked the highways, but nowhere was transportation seriously affected.

Absence of winds, which would have drifted snow across railroads and thoroughfares, kept damage to a negligible figure.

Cold came with the snow, although the weather prediction today was for warmer weather. In Omaha downtown traffic was suspended for some time early last night until tractors had cleared the streets.

The state was covered, the storm starting in the western sections last Wednesday. Some roads in western Nebraska and Wyoming were almost impassable, reports said.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Silk, once the material from which only the "best" dresses were made, now fashions every-day frocks for the housewife, business woman and college girl. Here in New York, while woollens of different kinds are worn on the street and for sports and the smartest coats of wool and fur conceal simple or more elaborate silk dresses.

Cravat silk as a material for the simple daytime frock finds expression here in a dress of shades of soft blue. Tucking in the bodice and box pleats in the skirt make the only trimming.

ASSASSIN

(Continued from page 1) ed he had killed Zena Bey because he believed the minister intended to betray Albania to Jugoslavia. The slain diplomat belonged to one of the most prominent of Albanian noble families and was known as an advocate to "the Balkans for the Balkan people." He was generally credited with seeking to promote closer relations between his country, Jugoslavia and Czechoslovakia.

The assassin, who is 32, opened fire just as Bebe was relating how and why he had assassinated Zena Bey. Bebe told the court he belonged to an Albanian terrorist organization in Jugoslavia which ordered him to destroy Zena Bey under penalty of being shot himself. He declared he was provided with money and munitions by this organization.

At this juncture, the Italian newspaper man whose name was given as Adrian Belvechio, asked the interpreter to instruct the witness to speak louder so he could record his evidence clearly.

While this was going on, the assassin pushed his way through the crowded-court room, brandishing a revolver and fired point blank at Bebe who fell dead. Belvechio and the interpreter, being in the line of fire, were wounded.

"I have avenged my master's brother in true Albanian fashion," shouted the assassin as the spectators fled in terror.

Misses Coleta Baker, Frances Snyder Holiday Hostesses With Large Dance

Thanksgiving evening was a festive occasion for the younger set who danced at the Country Club as guests of Misses Frances Snyder and Coleta Baker, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. Norton Baker.

Wax-colored balloons and red streamers decked the club halls lending a spirit of gaiety to the scene and whistles were distributed during a grand march which opened the evening's entertainment. An orchestra played for the dancing.

Late in the evening lime ice and ginger ale were served to the guests and the hostesses were assisted by their mothers and Mrs. Cecil Horne.

Those attended were Misses Frances Snyder, Coleta Baker, Dorothy Giffith, Mrs. Tom Simmons, Denver Davis, Ode Davis, Evelyn Rethford, Patty Hopping, Sue Michie, Beba Wayne Williams, Evelyn Wilson, Frances Gunn, Margaret Connor, Nancy Collier, Virginia Ruth Smallwood, Louise Garrison, Lucy Gene Cook, Helen Stahl, Ada Ruth May, John Anna Boyd, Cecile Horne, Rosemary Leaverton, Frances Ford, Grace Weaver, R. of Lamona, Anne and Mary Snyder, Kate Boyd and Lucille Morley and Harmon Jenkins, Carl Frank Alverson, W. ## Quintet To Give Musical Contest

The Smith-Spring-Holmes orchestral quintet is giving a concert at the high school auditorium this evening at 8 o'clock as a part of the program sponsored by the parent-teacher associations of the city.

The company consists of Clay Smith, solo trombonist of wide experience and a composer of musical ballads; G. E. Holmes, flute soloist and composer of military marches for bands and orchestras; Miss Corry, soprano; Miss Lotis F. Spring, alto soloist; Miss Katherine Donald, violinist.

The program to be given is said to be a popular one of extreme versatility, trombone, cello, violin, saxophone and vocal solos; also saxophone, trombone and cornet duets with various trio arrangements. The ensemble instrumentation consists of violin, cello, bass horn or alto, clarinet and piano.

This group is said to be one of the most popular quintets in the district world.

Living and Loving

THROW OUT OLD IDEAS AS YOU WOULD DISCARD OLD CLOTHES

Just as you clear out your trunks and cupboards once in awhile and throw away the things you no longer need, so you should overhaul your mind and discard ideas that are passed. And I'm not addressing only the older people. A lot of you youngsters are toting around medieval ideas that you might well get rid of. In spite of the fact that you pride yourselves on being so modern. Who, by the way, object to most to mother bobbing her hair and being comfortable, not Father, if I remember. Here's a letter from a young man whose ideas need a thorough housecleaning.

"Dear Mrs. Lee: I read your column almost every day. But I did happen to miss the letter sent in by 'A Bad Loser.' I read the one from 'Lonesome Girl' that was sympathizing with 'Bad Loser.' Well, I am a man old enough to be married, and would be now if something hadn't happened. We were engaged and had our plans pretty well made regarding our future. She took a trip with her parents, visiting relatives, and our plans were to marry a month or six weeks after their return. In the fore part of her trip she wrote me very nice letters, stating how she missed my company, etc., but as the trip rolled on something exploded to cause her to gradually reverse things so that when she did arrive she didn't tell me for about a week, and then sent me a letter stating that she didn't want to get married. She gave two reasons. The first, that she doesn't want to move in with my mother or pull me away from my mother, and the second is religion. We both belong to Protestant churches of different denominations. In planning to get married she had agreed to come into my church, which I think is right for two reasons: First, that I have lived in this community practically all my life and attended the one church, and she has been here a little over two years. Now, if we are making this community our home, wouldn't it be more proper for her to fall into my church than for me to walk out of mine into hers? Second, regarding religion, I think that the man is usually considered the head of the household, and for that reason the wife should go his way.

"Now, what am I going to do? I will never be able to remain here and listen to the teasing and insults that people will throw up to me.

"HUMAN"

The idea that the man is the head of the household is an old notion, if you plan to marry a modern girl. Human. She won't expect to tyrannize over you, and you should not expect her to give in to you always. Marriage is just like a business partnership in that way. You talk things over and decide what is best for all. Maybe your letters revealed a side of you that your girl friend had never seen before, and she didn't like it. I advise you to look yourself over thoroughly and see what traits you have that might make a girl unhappy. If you will love her and want her, go to her, then, and try unselfishly to win her, thinking more of her happiness than of your own. If not,

Children Removed From Flood Region

BRUSSELS, Nov. 30 (AP)—Evacuation of children from flooded Belgian villages has been decided upon by authorities because of the appearance of whooping cough. Some of the villages probably will not be cleared of water for two to three weeks. It is possible that after the children have been taken out, adults will be evacuated.

There was a cessation of bad weather today and danger of further flooding of the lowland.

Liners Hobble To Harbor, Crippled

NEW YORK, Nov. 30 (AP)—The sales which swept the North Atlantic and the European coast this week sent the British liner Homeric into port here with fifteen feet of her forecastle head ralling torn away and caused passengers on the Leviathan to miss Thanksgiving day dinners ashore.

The Homeric, which docked 24 hours behind schedule, also had 14 glass ports on the promenade deck broken. The Leviathan bore no outward signs of the storm but 12 hours she lost on her schedule testified to its fury.

Elimination Of Church Ban Asked

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 30 (AP)—Bishop Miguel De La Mora of San Luis Potosi, today made a plea through the columns of the newspaper El Universal for the government to withdraw religious restrictions. The bishop, who has been in hiding since the religious dispute broke out, explained that he did not represent any other priests but was speaking entirely on his own responsibility.

Bishop De La Mora said that to separate the people from the clergy was practically to separate them from their religion and to convert them into atheists.

He explained that the clergy and the Catholics in general believed that they cannot comply with certain laws without transgressing the sacred rights of the church. He said this was the reason the clergy had left the churches two years ago.

COAST GUARD FIGHT FATAL

INVESTIGATION INTO SHOOTING DURING RAID IS MADE

(By Associated Press)

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 30—Federal and county officials today were investigating a fatal shooting by the coast guard.

The cabin cruiser Bug, was captured in Lake Ontario, near the mouth of the Niagara River, yesterday, Carl Anderson, 38, of Lewiston, one of the Bug crew, was shot to death and Edmund Sahr, 34, of Niagara Falls, the other member, seriously wounded.

Coast guardsmen assert the shooting was justified. They said the boat, a suspected run runner, failed to heave to when ordered.

The Bug lay on the beach near Lewiston today, bullet holes in it man marksmanship. The boat was detected running with lights after the CG-2304, a federal chaser, had been ordered to watch out for it. Reports had been received that it had been fetching beer and ale from Canada.

A machine gun raked it with bullets and when finally it was boarded, Anderson was found lifeless and his companion suffering from wounds.

There was no liquor aboard, but from the pockets of the dead man according to the guardsmen, were taken clearance papers for ale and a bill of lading dated November 28 for a consignment of 200 cases of ale to C. Anderson, Wilson, via Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ont.

Niagara customs authorities said that the Bug cleared from Niagara-on-the-Lake Wednesday night with 200 cases of ale aboard. It is the belief of authorities that the cruiser had landed its ale and was returning to port when it encountered the CG-2304.

Floating Lines Contrast Chic Simplicity

By MADELON

New York Fashion Observer for Central Press and the Journal

NEW YORK, Nov. 30—Women's dress styles run the gamut, today, from vivacious, floating lines and many ruffles, to the utmost simplicity, the ultimate in tailoring. The "well-dressed" woman in any walk of life is known, infallibly, by her sense of fitness of her apparel for the particular occasion.

The business or college girl may dress in the simplest of tailored lines during the day, but outside of business she succumbs to the charm of the strictly feminine ruffles and panels. This is illustrated in the frock, left. Grace of line, and freedom of design, are expressed in this navy blue and beige cravat silk slouther design, a tiered skirt and collar, the latter given an unusual treatment, being its chief feature.

The smart New York business girl is never more chic than in a severely plain little frock like the one pictured center, which is made of a novelty check silk.

For sports and travel the trim coat of check woolen, right, with fox shawl collar and novelty patch pockets, is correct.

SCOUT COURT FOR TONIGHT

BETWEEN 35 AND 40 TO BE CANDIDATES FOR PROMOTION HERE

Between thirty-five and forty local Boy Scouts will be up for advancement at the November Boy Scout Court of Honor to be held at the 9th district courtroom at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

Judge Clark M. Mullican will preside at the monthly meeting and certificates of advancement will be presented by the Rev. L. G. H. Williams, local Scout commissioner.

Boards of review were held Tuesday and Wednesday nights in preparation for the Court of Honor tonight. The program will begin with songs and recitations under the direction of Rev. Williams. After the meeting is called to order and the invocation given, the Scouts will recite the Boy Scout oath.

"The Spirit of Thanksgiving" will be the subject of an address to be delivered by the Rev. W. P. Jennings. Following the presentation of advancement in rank certificates, a business session will be held and several matters of importance are scheduled to be taken up. K. N. Mapp will be in charge of a knot tying contest among the Scouts. This will conclude the session.

Dakota Man Held In Wife's Death

RAPID CITY, S. D., Nov. 29 (AP)—Words of a small boy that "papa was here" has resulted in the arrest of Ruben Helmark, 32, for the slaying of his divorced wife. Police said he had confessed.

Following a clue to the woman's abduction, police questioned her two children. When one of them said his father had been there Wednesday afternoon, poses were organized. Helmark was captured late yesterday.

The body of Mrs. Helmark, her throat slashed, was found at her ranch home near here by her brother.

disturb and created a mutual understanding which, with all my heart, I desire may continue."

Portes Gil pledged his government to combat war, "even thoughts of war." He said he would make sure that history would be taught in the schools of Mexico from a pacifist viewpoint. In this connection he remarked: "It would not be thinkable to go against a general program (evidently a reference to the peace program) especially regarding a powerful neighbor."

The incoming president said that Mexico was proud of her hospitality and generosity which had been demonstrated for more than a century, and also proud of her independence. She would not change her policy of allowing foreign workers and capital to come and share the advantage of the land. He also promised that no prohibited duties would be placed on foreign manufactured articles that did not compete with Mexican industries.

Will Meet Obligations

In regard to financial obligations he said the administration would endeavor to comply strictly with them whether they were internal or foreign.

Turning to domestic affairs, Portes Gil said that there would be strict fulfillment of the revolutionary program and a continuance of the work of the Obregon and Calles administrations.

Portes Gil said President Calles did his part in opening a path to a moralization of the administration by introducing a plan of economy, founding the bank of Mexico, building roads, and furthering irrigation projects. "It would be a task of his administration, he said, to strive to approach even nearer to protection."

Portes Gil said he would not consider personal friendship in appointing assistants.

Mexia Postmaster Slain By Carrier

GAINESVILLE, Nov. 30 (AP)—Bond for Allen Teague, mail carrier, charged with slaying W. A. Hoskins, postmaster of Myra, 12 miles west of here, was set at $10,000 here today.

Defense counsel filed a motion for a writ of habeas corpus in an effort to have the bond reduced. Hoskins died last Sunday from a gunshot wound.

Artist, Despondent Over Work, Suicides

CARMEL, Calif., Nov. 30 (AP)—Mrs. Remsen, 51, painter and playwright, who styled himself a "successful failure" is dead—a suicide presumably because of despondency over the rejection of his play "Inchlings," by New York producers.

The body was found, encircled by his paintings and manuscripts, by a Thanksgiving dinner guest who suspected something amiss when Remsen failed to answer his doorbell yesterday. He had shot himself through the breast, after laying on top of the manuscripts his will, which left his $3,000 estate to his brother, Dr. Charles M. Remsen of New York city.

Friends said Remsen called himself a "successful failure."

It is the aim of the Bell System that anyone anywhere in the country can pick up a telephone and talk to anyone anywhere else clearly and without delay. That is the meaning of universal service. To provide it, the means of telephoning must be uniformly good. This company, for example, has full access to all the improvements and methods that are continually being made.

There are 5000 workers on the Bell staffs whose sole occupation is to develop constantly improving methods and equipment for the 350,000 employees of the Bell System to use in serving the public. The results of the efforts are evident, not only in the extension of telephone service across the Atlantic, but in the constantly improving local and long distance service at home.

The Bell System accepts its responsibility for a nationwide telephone service as a public trust.

GRIDIRON GUNS ARE SILENCED IN HOT CHASE

SMASHING VICTORIES IN TURKEY DAY BATTLES CLIMAX SEASON

Gridiron guns that have wrecked the peace of the Southwest for three months were stilled today and the battle flag of the Texas University Longhorns floated over the citadel. For the first time in eight years the Orange and White found itself in possession of the conference title. A smashing 19 to 0 victory over their dearest rivals, the Texas Aggies, before 45,000 fans, booted the men of Littlefield into undisputed possession of first place.

For the first time since the season opened, the Orange machine came into full possession of its powers yesterday. For two quarters it was frustrated by the fighting Farmers. Then, as if realizing its strength, it crashed its way to three touchdowns.

Razorbacks Finish Second

The Arkansas Razorbacks, who finished second, were soundly trounced by the Longhorns early in the season. Any hopes the Southern Methodist University Mustangs might have entertained of establishing a claim on the crown were obliterated by their unexpected, but thorough rout by the Texas Christian Horned Frogs, 15 to 6.

By upsetting the Mustangs the Frogs finished in a tie with Baylor University for third place. Baylor's youthful team closed its campaign with a 28 to 14 win over the Rice Institute Owls, whose record of five straight conference losses stands unrivaled.

Outside of the courageous up-hill battle waged by the Longhorns to give Coach Clyde Littlefield a title in his second year as head coach of the capital city, the outstanding development of the season was the demoralization of the splendid Southern Methodist University team in the closing weeks of the marathon.

Ponies Whipped Steers

The Mustangs apparently shot their bolt when they lipped the Longhorns, 6 to 2, the only defeat administered the champions by a conference team. The best they could do after that was a 19-19 tie with the Aggies. Then they caught successive thumpings from Baylor and T. C. U. The fact that their ace, Redman Hume, was on the sidelines was generally regarded as the reason for their puny display against the Aggies and Baylor, but they did not do much better with Hume in the line-up yesterday.

Coach Matty Bell's Christiana electrified the stands by throwing a touchdown into the Ponies in the opening minutes of play and from then on the outcome was more or less obvious. Instead of playing the defensive game they were expected to, the Frogs dived in with both feet to sew up the decision before the half was over.

Strangely enough, the Mustangs compiled 18 first downs to five for the Horned Frogs, proving that figures can be fib.

The Arkansas Razorbacks closed their books with a 73 to 0 rout of Southwestern University at Memphis.

New Mexico Cadets Claim State Title

ROSWELL, New Mexico, Nov. 30.—The New Mexico Military Institute Broncos hammered home their claim as college football champions of New Mexico by piling up a 43 to 0 score over the New Mexico Aggies and laid claim with the University of Arizona to the championship of the Southwest. The Broncos quit the season undefeated by home state teams, and the Thanksgiving battle put the University of New Mexico into runner-up position, while the Aggies dropped to third position.

On condition that he lead a moral life for 12 years, a young man has been left $12,000,000. Pretty hard job—even at a million a year.

Cheap Tubing

Many of the accidents attending the use of gas heating appliances reported each winter are due to cheap, unfit tubing.

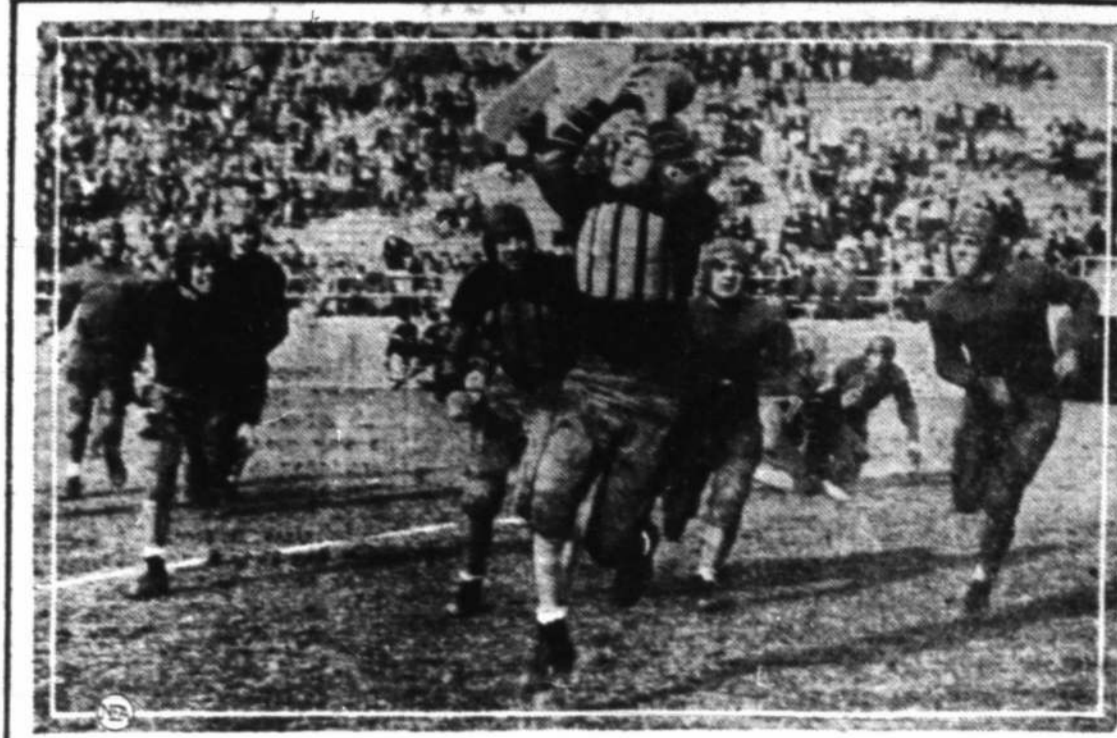

Cheap tubing is a false and dangerous economy. To save a few pennies, the careless purchaser deliberately forfeits the protection of all those safeguards in the use of gas which have taken years of study and experience to perfect.

Rubber tubing should not be used wherever it is possible to use iron piping.

A leap into the air, fingertips clutching at the sailing pigskin, and "Swede" Hansen, star halfback of the Temple University gridsters, was off for a 30-yard gain through the Geneva line. Arkansas' avalanche of touchdowns which gave her a 73 to 0 victory over Southwestern university at Memphis yesterday gave the table of individual scores in the conference as big a shaking up as it has had all year. Beavers of Arkansas moved to the top of the column where he is tied with Redman Hume of Southern Methodist university with 48 points. The Arkansas fallback is the only man who has ever shared the top of the column with Hume in the three years that Hume has been manufacturing touchdowns. Miller of Arkansas is in third place and Dale of Arkansas is fourth.

Dale's ranking is due largely to his skill with his toe, as he kicked five points after touchdowns yesterday and has kicked 17 altogether this year, the best showing made in the kicking end of the game by anyone in the conference.

Only One Field Goal

The season ended with only one man, Potter of Baylor, achieving a field goal.

Arkansas' topheavy score also revised the standing of the teams on the basis of total points for the season. Southern Methodist university which has led all season slipping into second place.

Texas Christian university qualifies as the best defensive team, having yielded only 23 points to her opponents all season, in spite of two defeats. Texas Tech, winning the championship did almost as well, limiting her foes to 33 points.

Every team in the conference succeeded in scoring more points than it yielded with the exception of Rice Institute, which scored 83 points while opposing teams were making

FAVORITES IN STATE CLINCH LOCAL HONORS

CLEBURNE, A MARILLO, ABILENE, MARSHALL ARE TRIUMPHANT

(By Associated Press)

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 30.—With five of the eight high school football district championships determined, the race for the state prep gridiron title will be ready to enter the bi-district flight next week.

Amarillo, Abilene, Cleburne, Marshall and Main Avenue High school of San Antonio already have clinched their district titles. In district No. 3 Sunset High school of Dallas seems assured of the title, although the Sunset team must beat Woodrow Wilson High school of Dallas Saturday.

The district No. 5 title now lies between Sherman and Greenville, neither of these two teams having been defeated. The playoff for the title is scheduled for Saturday, at which time Jeff Davis High school of Houston will play Port Arthur High school for the district 7 title.

SLATON NOSES OUT FLOYDADA, 13-12

(Special To The Journal)

FLOYDADA, Nov. 30.—The time honored rivals for football supremacy of the South Plains clashed on the gridiron here yesterday in a thrilling Turkey Day encounter and after the game had ended the Purple of Slaton High was waving in victory after a hard fought game. The dazzling speed of Woolver and Austin, Slaton backs, was the deciding factor in the 13 to 12 win for the Tigers.

Wibourne, Floydada fallback, was the outstanding star for the losers and his furious attack all but turned the tide.

A four-coach special train carried approximately 600 Slaton boosters to the scene of the battle, swelling the crowd to 2,500 spectators.

Olton Triumphs Over Littlefield

(Special To The Journal)

OLTON, Nov. 29.—Scoring a touch down in the closing minutes of play, the Olton high school eleven downed their bitter rivals, Littlefield high school, by a score of 6 to 0.

The light and inexperienced Olton team battled the heavier Littlefield aggregation to a standstill in the second meeting of the two teams. A cool defense set for the Littlefield overhead game frustrated the strong threat of the losers.

This victory gave Coach Carter's team a season's record of eight victories and one defeat, having lost to Littlefield earlier in the season by an 18 to 0 score.

GEORGIA TECH TO PLAY COAST TEAM

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 30.—Georgia Tech's athletic board today set about the formality of obtaining permission of the faculty and the Southern conference for participation in the annual Rose Bowl classic at Pasadena, California, previously selected as western representative and the Rose Bowl committee.

Georgia Tech has won six conference games and turned back Notre Dame. Victims of the Tornado include Vanderbilt which conquered Colgate in the east and Texas in the southwest, and the University of Alabama, whose crimson tide has twice invaded the Rose Bowl in recent years.

FIVE OF SEVEN MAJOR TITLES NOW SETTLED

ONLY EAST AND SOUTH LEADERS REMAIN IN MYSTERY

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Five of the country's seven major football championships have been decided. Only the East and South still are in the doubtful stage and the chances are that both will remain that way even after all the returns are in.

Illinois captured the Western Conference title last Saturday on the same day that Southern California won the crown on the Pacific Coast but the other three conference winners waited until Thanksgiving Day to make their titles clear.

A driving snowstorm at Lincoln, Neb., made good football next to impossible but the Cornhuskers of the University of Nebraska took advantage of what breaks they were to score an 8 to 0 victory over the Kansas Aggies and walk away with the "Big Six" championship. Nebraska finished its conference scheduled undefeated. By turning back Missouri, 14 to 0, Oklahoma finished in a tie for runner-up position with the Tigers.

Showing a surprising reversal of form, the Utah Redskins clinched the Rocky Mountain conference title by defeating the Utah Aggies, 20 to 8.

Forty-five thousand persons, the largest crowd that ever saw a football game in Texas, watched the Texas University Longhorns win the Southwestern Conference championship by defeating Texas A. and M., 19 to 0.

THE PLAINSMAN

That Girl on Broadway says money may be the root of all evil but if the truth were admitted most of us get a secret joy of being bad!

Fifty bandits engaged in a robbery of a Chicago creamery the other day and all they got was $7,000.

The trouble with crime and a criminal career is the evil-doer never realizes that the game is a dead one and he is just another case of "too bad."

Even legitimate callings and professions have their dreary days and it is not "in the book" for lawlessness to be any better than the lawful practice of living-making.

We, who should have had sense enough to know better, have permitted a few misguided playwrights, authors and scenario mechanics to present the life outside the law as one of milk and honey.

Just as we are paying for our own short-sightedness and monkey business, those who are misguided into lives of crime are going to pay sooner or later.

That Man on Avenue Q says his best friend got both eyes blacked when a fellow gave him a pair of socks on his birthday.

This world of ours was never enriched by folks who say "Well I'll be switched!"

Bishop John H. Moore of Dallas, who presides over the destinies of a great part of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, has reached a hand into the pocket of the Lord's treasure chest and has plucked a rare rose.

These lines are not being typed with any idea of criticizing Bishop Moore in the transferring of the Rev. Mr. White. They are presented only with the end in view of lamenting upon the fact that the aburn-haired parson, known almost universally as "Red" and loved as well as being loathed to the city.

A successful pastor - the growth of the church and its property here attest mutely to that - an important cog in the civic workings of the Lubbock-Kiwanis club and a friend of scores of people in addition to the hundreds in his congregation, the place left vacant here by "Red" White is going to be a hard one to fill.

It has been the pleasure of this man that the surest way for England to lose this country's good will is to indulge in militaristic gestures like the recent military arrival accord with France, which provoked President Coolidge's speech. No Englishman should be surprised that that has evoked a storm of criticism in the United States.

Upwards of 50,000 deer hunters are expected to visit the upper peninsula of Michigan during the next few weeks. An earlier party had been put into service at the Straits of Mackinac to serve them, and the wild land of the peninsula is being dotted with camps.

Yet, despite the influx of hunters, which was paralleled last year and the year before, the deer population in Michigan is said to be more plentiful in many years. Furthermore, state game wardens believe they will be even more plentiful next year.

The answer of course is the fact that Michigan is carrying forward a sane, far-sighted program of conservation. The woods are well patrolled by game wardens, regulations are rigidly enforced, and the wolves that used to decimate the wild herds are being exterminated.

Sportsmen are satisfied, yet wild life is on the increase. Michigan can be proud of this achievement.

To The Editor:—In Friday's Avalanche appeared an article signed "Robert Hutchinson" against the road bonds. I do not know any other one by that name here and I do not want my friends to think that I am against the road bonds.

It seems to me that every voter in Lubbock county should be glad of the opportunity to secure this fine system of highways and to keep Lubbock in the forefront in West Texas. The cost will be nominal compared with the benefits to be secured.

Let's all go to the polls tomorrow, Saturday, and vote for the good roads bonds.

Yours truly, R. B. HUTCHINSON.

In New York

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—This is, if you don't mind, the success story of a flea.

But for the grace of Professor Heckler, the flea trainer, La Castilina might have perished on a lady's stocking from a single blow of a delicate palm.

La Castilina is, one might say, mistress of the ballet at the "flea circus" in Hubert's museum.

She is, if she happens to be a she, a Spanish dancer who Spanish dances as only a flea can Spanish dance.

To the credit of La Castilina, let it be said that she came out of something considerably less than obscurity and has wound up with something considerably more than fame.

Which is more than a great many Spanish dancers can boast.

If you are inclined to believe those masterpieces of invention that issue from side-show splinters, then you must believe that the madom Professor Heckler, in his inexhaustible search for talent, came upon her in the Pyrenees.

Let the Pyrenees Chamber of Commerce protest that all the fleas are in San Francisco, still and notwithstanding, Professor Heckler is firm—La Castilina is a Spanish flea—and some other. He will tell you that he found her in an Italian flea market, somewhat less than humble. Had it been otherwise there would have been no flea there—and La Castilina would never have had her chance.

Professor Heckler will not admit, as will so many other Broadway producers, that he immediately recognized latent talent. Ask George White, who, like Ziegfeld, had Earl Carroll—and they'll all admit, unblushingly, that they have seen talent where all others were blind.

With Professor Heckler it was different. This was so far as he was concerned, just another flea. But another flea to flea trainer is always a potentiality. And he has still to learn what latent talents may be found in a Spanish flea. So La Castilina came to Broadway!

There she found, already imaged in their glass arena, such products of the San Francisco dunes as Red Orange, who kicks a microscopic football; Henry, who juggles something that might be dust grains; Marcus, the charlatan, and Waterloo, who shoots a midget cannon.

The show had long needed sex appeal. And this, if you believe the professor, she provides.

It was not long before La Castilina was queen of her own particular circus; the ballarina of Hubert's museum.

Today her name looms in bright lights and her more-or-less photographs adorn the advertisements "La Castilina is a hit!"

FRIENDS CAST GLOOM ON JOY OF THIS EXPECTANT MOTHER. God could not be everywhere; therefore he made mothers. —Jewish proverb.

Answers to I-there: "I am a married woman, past 35, and have a boy of 18. I have prayed for other children all these years, and have been denied. Now it seems my prayers have been answered and I am so happy. But my friends tell me that my age is against me and that it will mean death for me if I go through with it. They also say that as my boy is so big and manly it is disgraced and that my respect for my boy would allow herself to continue pregnant."

"Dr. Peters, if you knew the longing in my heart all these years, and then to have such a beautiful baby, it aches put upon me! My boy is a good boy, but he does not like to be babied. Won't you please give me some advice? Do you think it wrong for me to go on, on account of my age, and is there as much danger as my friends say?" MRS. M.

Dear Mrs. M., you have your baby. You have shown by having one child that you are able to bear children, and there is no more danger now than there ever was, so long as you have the right care.

The fact that our big boy does not want to be babied now (by you!) shows that he is a normal boy.

If he has not already had normal sex instruction, you certainly cannot have a more favorable opportunity than now to see that he gets it; if you or his father are not capable of giving this, then through the family physician or some good textbooks.

If he has a right conception of parenthood, he will be happy to know that he is going to have a little brother or sister. Now put away your fears and don't allow your friends' distorted and really obscure ideas to affect you. They show plainly the lack of proper sex instruction in their youth; otherwise they would have a more wholesome attitude towards, and a prouder respect for, parenthood.

We have an article on the diet during pregnancy and nursing, and a list of books recommended to mothers, which you may have by following column rules.

Children's Sleeping Hours "How many hours should a child of two years sleep each day? My little girl used to sleep 12 hours at night and two after dinner, but during the last two weeks has cut her sleeping hours to ten at night and one hour after dinner. Is she getting enough sleep? She is losing weight." MRS. R.

The following table will show you how many hours of sleep are required by children of different ages:

Table with 4 columns: Age, Hrs., Age, Hrs. Row 1: Under 6 yrs., 12, Under 12 yrs., 11. Row 2: Under 7 yrs., 12 1/2, Under 13 yrs., 10 1/2. Row 3: Under 8 yrs., 12, Under 14 yrs., 10. Row 4: Under 9 yrs., 11 1/2, Under 15 yrs., 9 1/2.

You see, your baby is not getting enough sleep. Mrs. R., as she is underweight, it may be possible that she is not getting sufficient nourishment and is hungry, or that she has some physical derangement. In either case, you must take her to a children's specialist or to a baby clinic for a check-up.

We have a list of modern books on child care and health, of children, which you may have.

Editor's Note.—Dr. Peters cannot diagnose, nor give personal advice. Your questions, if of general interest, will be answered in the column, in turn. Requests for articles must be accompanied by a fully self-addressed, stamped envelope and 3 cents in coin for each article, to cover cost of printing and handling. For the pamphlet, on reducing and gaining 10 cents in coin, with fully self-addressed, stamped envelope must be enclosed. Address Dr. Peters in care of this paper.

The World And All

BY CHARLES B. DRISCOLL

Times Have Changed Victoria Woodhull died in 1927 at the age of 87. She had done something of this very interesting woman. She was born in Homer, O., in poverty and in her childhood she knew squalor and unhappy home life.

She was a broker in Wall Street when a woman in a dress was a great novelty as an exponent in a balloon. She was an advocate of socialism, free love, magnetic healing and many kinds of quackery during her earlier years.

She was the first woman to receive an official hearing before a congressional committee, when she presented a memorial about woman suffrage. She was a fanatic, a fortune-teller, a seeker after vulgar publicity, and a very close friend of Commodore Vanderbilt, founder of the fortune that makes Vanderbilts of today.

Emanie Sicha tells the story of Victoria and her interesting relatives and friends in a book recently published by Harper's, "The Terrible Siren." It is an amazing story, apparently all true and well verified.

Victoria Woodhull's family ran a "cancer cure" sanitarium, where poor cancer victims were duped and done to death in an Ohio city. Victoria (whose father's name was Clafin) married "Dr." Woodhull when she was sixteen years old, and divorced him 11 years later. She had four marriages and almost-marriages, and she made monkeys of a good many rich men in New York and elsewhere.

Yet she died the respected widow of a rich English banker, and was mourned by many.

She and her sister, Tennessee Clafin, ran a weekly newspaper in New York, by means of which they apparently blackmailed some of the city boys who would not contribute willingly to the high estate of these adventuresses. Anthony Comstock suppressed the paper because of stories it printed about the private affairs of Henry Ward Beecher.

Times have changed, and not altogether for the worse. Such characters as Victoria and her family couldn't happen to run a newspaper in a big American city today. They couldn't attract much attention by the methods pursued by these fair damsels of the seventies. They wouldn't be permitted to indulge in such cancer quackery and their blackmaling of the rich states-would have to be done much more skillfully than it was done by Victoria and Tennessee. Women in business and at the polls are no longer novelties. Maybe times are so bad as they once were.

"Two Gun Bob" From West May Be Star

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 30.—New York's cowboy attorney general, C. Dow, is reported here to have taken Hollywood screen tests last week with the intention of posing for the motion pictures.

His mother, Mrs. Mary Dow, said last night after her son had taken tests and "maybe he will or maybe he won't go in the movies."

Dow, who was dubbed "Two-Gun Bob" by political opponents in his recent unsuccessful campaign for governor of New Mexico, was reared on a ranch in the southwestern part of that state.

His father, a pioneer sheriff, was shot down by outlaws. Dow has frequently competed in calf and steer roping rodeos.

It is this Congress was persuaded at its last session to triple the corporation's capital in order that it might correspondingly increase its service.

And these bare legs, Mr. Dunn insists with an angry glance at the nation's powerful array of "practical Socialists," are competing with the railroads.

In other words, business men and politicians are co-operating to tread on the toes of High Priest Dunn and his friends.

The only wonder is that the Right Honorable Mr. Dunn doesn't demand that these Bolsheviks be deported back to Russia.

Announcement

I wish to announce that I have opened offices in Lubbock, Texas, on the main floor of the Myrick Building with Dr. Millard F. Swart, and I am now ready for active practice not only of my specialty on diseases and surgery of Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat and Electro Therapy, but will devote some time to general practice, and I have added the latest equipment for treating all ailments in which Electrical treatments are indicated.

ADVOCATES OF PROGRESS

In 1900 there were 293 people in Lubbock County. In 1910 there were 3,624 people in the city of Lubbock. In 1920 there were 4,051 people in Lubbock. Today there are approximately 20,000 people here.

These people have come to Lubbock because they are Advocates of Progress, because of the wonderful possibilities of this great section, because they are pioneer people, because they are forward looking, because they are progressive, because they were not satisfied with the lack of progress and development in their former homes, because they were not content to set back and do without the future this magnificent section offers.

The large majority of these people are still Advocates of Progress, are still ambitious, are fair and square with their neighbors. The majority of them have vision, have faith in the future of Lubbock and the South Plains. The large majority know that we must be up and doing if we are to keep Lubbock "The Hub of the Plains," if we are to maintain our supremacy in this section.

To all these we say:—"Vote for the Road Bonds. Such a vote means continued Progress, continued development, continued prosperity. A vote against the bonds means that we check our development, that we falter in our advancement, that we forfeit our opportunity. Remain an Advocate of Progress."

STEAMER WAS NEAR VESTRIS

TRAMP WITHOUT RADIO WAS IGNORANT OF SHIP'S PERIL

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—An American tramp steamer was only six miles from the steamer Vestris when it was slowly keeling over on the afternoon of Nov. 11 and was only 45 miles away two hours before the Vestris sank on the next day. It was testified at the federal hearing into the Vestris disaster today. Despite its nearness to the scene, however, the tramp steamer did not know of the Vestris' need for assistance as it carried no wireless. George Frederick Harrison, first mate of the American tramp Montoso, was the witness who gave this information. He was put on the stand in an effort to determine if a law whether there should not be a law for forcing ships of such size, 3,100 tons, to be equipped with wireless. After the tramp's first mate was excused United States Attorney Tuttle who is conducting the inquiry, stated that according to wireless reports submitted by Captain Luther Martin Overstreet of the battleship Wyoming, one of the rescue vessels, the Italian steamer Giorgio Olsson, was even nearer to the Vestris at the time of the disaster than the Montoso. It was shown that the Giorgio Olsson, which did carry wireless, was only 23 miles from the Vestris at 10 o'clock, the morning of Nov. 11, picked up the SOS and went to the rescue. The first position given by the Vestris was wrong, however, and the Giorgio Olsson never did locate the true position of the sinking ship.

SON DISINHERITED

Ryan Millions Will Not Go To Estranged Son

NEW YORK, Nov. 30 (AP)—The Evening World says today that the late Thomas Fortune Ryan in his will which probably will be filed for probate tomorrow, disinherits his son, Allan Ryan, and does not leave a dollar to charity. The will of the financier and philanthropist was read to the family last Wednesday, the paper says. Mr. Ryan was estranged from his son Allan after the father had married for a second time. Allan Ryan, a broker, was forced into bankruptcy several years ago following the sensational corner in Stutz Motor stock in Wall Street.

MILLER TO BE FREED BELIEF

FEDERAL BOARD URGES PAROLE FOR FORMER ALIEN CUSTODIAN

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Thomas W. Miller, former alien property custodian convicted in New York on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government, was recommended for a parole today by the federal parole board. The recommendation must be approved by Attorney General Sargent before it becomes effective. Miller was convicted in March, 1927, and sentenced to 18 months in the Atlanta penitentiary. The government had charged Miller with conspiracy to defraud the United States of his honest and unbiased services and with others with whom he was indicted was alleged to have agreed to pass claims for $7,000,000, proceeds of the sale of impounded American Metal company shares seized during the world war. Testimony was introduced to show that Miller's banking accounts disclosed acceptance of a "fee" of $50,000 to effect allowance of the claim. Harry M. Daugherty, former attorney general, the late John T. King, republican national committeeman for Connecticut, and Jess W. Smith, associate of Daugherty, who committed suicide, were indicted with Miller. Daugherty and Miller were tried jointly and the jury disagreed on the former.

HUPP TAKES OVER CHANDLER FIRM

CLEVELAND, Nov. 30 (AP)—Samuel Regar, treasurer of the Chandler-Cleveland Motors Corporation, announced that negotiations for control of the Chandler company by the Hupp Motor Car Corporation were concluded today. Speaking for himself and his associates, including Fred C. Chandler, president, who is abroad, Regar said the deal had been consummated and arrangements made for the transfer of Chandler-Cleveland to Hupp. No statement was issued as to Hupp plans for the Cleveland plants.

Staton Child, At Play, Gets Burns

SLATON, Nov. 30.—While playing in the yard of his home, Robert, three and one half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Edmondson of Slaton was painfully burned as his clothing ignited from a burning pile of trash. His recovery is expected, however. Five day market for all the whole milk they can produce when we can be assured of sufficient volume of milk on all year roads within reasonable hauling distance from Lubbock. You have my figures showing the advantage to your community when the dairymen has a whole milk market instead of having to sell farm separated cream. F. H. DOUTHITT, President Douthitt Engineering Co.

FORMER SKIPPER APPEARS IN QUIZ

NEA New York Bureau Captain William A. Bamhra, who was in command of the S. S. Vestris just before it tumbled on its last tragic voyage, here is pictured as he appeared at the federal investigation at New York and gave testimony concerning the ship's condition and his own conduct as its commander. By inference, he accused the late Captain William Carey of negligence.

TINY POSTERS IN CAMPAIGN

ARE EMPLOYED AS AID TO STATE DRIVE BY SIGNBOARDS

Miniature posters, copies of the big poster board advertisements on display throughout the state of Texas in connection with the "Together for Texas" campaign of the chambers of commerce in this state, are being placed in all of the local business firms as an added step in the campaign. Bill McKinley of the Lubbock Poster company, who is in charge of the local angle of the campaign, is distributing the smaller posters today throughout the business section of the city. There are six of the big poster boards in the city as corresponding to the small advertisements. Space on the poster boards and the cost of the posters, totalling more than $600, was donated by the Lubbock Poster company. Plant owners throughout the state are making similar donations in carrying out the extensive advertising campaign. Purpose of this campaign has been designated to improve the highways, educational facilities, and farm diversification. According to reports received from the officials in charge of the outdoor campaign, many favorable results have already been gained as a result of the poster board advertising.

sociation were equally secure in the belief that the bonds would pass by more than the necessary two-thirds majority. Intensive campaigns, including a number of speakings throughout the county have been held by both organizations. Every property owner of the county will be allowed to vote upon the presentation of a poll tax receipt.

punishment. A battery of photographers with the Hoover party recorded the proceedings for the entertainment of those back home. The high spot of the whole ceremony was the throwing of each candidate into a tank on the forecastle deck after he had been shaved by the royal barber. Before that divers punishments had been meted out, including the swallowing of horrible tasting pills, having the mouth washed out with a bitter tasting liquid, having oil of graphite rubbed in the hair and other forms of discomfort such as appearing in stocks or taking part in a chain gang. While the rollicking show was going on today the Maryland was steaming swiftly southward so as to arrive at Ecuador at 5 a. m. tomorrow. Off the coast of Ecuador the Hoover party will be transferred to the cruiser Cleveland for a 60-mile trip across the Roadstead and up the river to Guayquil where the President-elect will be the guest of President Isidro Ayora. He will be entertained tomorrow afternoon and night at a reception and dinner. This will be the first overnight stop on the good-will tour which started at San Pedro, on November 19.

Sunset Not Planning Protest On Cleburne

DALLAS, Nov. 30 (AP)—John Fouts, director of athletics in Dallas high schools, denied today that Sunset High, ranking city team, was preparing to protest the eligibility of Squires and Taylor, members of the Cleburne high school squad. If Sunset is victorious this week, the eleven will meet Cleburne in a bi-district contest.

MILK PLANT

the plant becomes a reality. Should the road bonds be passed at the bond election tomorrow a survey will be made to determine if there is sufficient volume of milk in this section to justify the proposed plant. It is estimated that the plant will need the products from a minimum of 2,000 cows. Many citizens in various parts of the state are seeking this investment of the Douthitt and officials of the local Chamber of Commerce feel that the passage of the bond issue will virtually insure the establishment of the plant at this place. Figures have been furnished to show the difference of profit to the dairyman to sell whole milk at 50 cents a pound, the price being paid today by the Texas milk products company, of Marshall over the profit of the sale of separated cream. The table of figures is as follows: 5,000 cows producing on an average of 15 lbs. of milk per cow per day per year, with an average of 4% butterfat, and not taking into consideration the loss of fat when the cream is separated on the farm with the ordinary hand-driven separator, would give a total of 1,231,875 lbs. of butterfat. 1,231,875 lbs. of butterfat in whole milk at 58c per lb. $714,587.50 1,231,875 lbs. of butterfat in farm separated cream at $1.10 per lb. 1,355,062.50 Whole Wheat Plant -- 468,112.50 Difference in favor of Whole Milk Plant -- $246,475.00 This is the yearly amount lost by the dairymen when selling farm separated cream, and does not take into consideration the loss of butter fat in the average hand operated farm separator.
