Rogers To Push UN Aid

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON AP — Secretary of State William P. Rogers plans to go to the United Nations personally to push for a more energetic international relief effort for East Pakistaini refugees.

Aides said Rogers intends to meet Monday with U.N. relief officials and others about the international undertaking which U.S. authorities regard as too slow and too little.

President Nixon, at an impromptu news conference Wednesday, noted the $70 million already supplied by the United States for East Pakistani refugees in India is more than all other countries of the world have contributed.

Nixon also hit at a House-passed ban on U.S. aid to Pakistan. The restriction would cut out $118 million in economic-development assistance and $5 million in arms help earmarked for Pakistan in the administration's new foreign-aid bill.

Authors of the ban protest the Pakistani central government's drive to stamp out a rebellion in East Pakistan. They say holding back the funds would pressure the Pakistani government, led by West Pakistanis, to improve its treatment of the Eastern provinces.

Disputing this, Nixon said stopping aid to Pakistan would hurt the government's ability to distribute food in hungry East Pakistan. He said continuing U.S. assistance would allow Washington to influence the course of events better while "public pressure on the government of West Pakistan would be totally counterproductive."

At about the time Nixon was speaking, 14 members of the Pakistani embassy in Washington resigned, pledged loyalty to the independence movement in the Eastern province and asked for political asylum in the United States.

The defectors included one ranking minister and three counselors.

"We have decided to join the suffering millions of Bangla Desh who are resisting with their lives the barbarity of the West Pakistan army who are determined to reduce East Pakistan to a colony," said Sayyed A. Karim, Pakistan's No. 2 representative at the United States.

Worden Takes Space Walk

Retrieves Cannisters

By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aerospace Writer

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Astronaut Alfred M. Worden took man's first walk in deep space today, floating like a feather nearly 200,000 miles from the earth as he retrieved two film canisters from the rear of the striking Apollo 15 spacecraft.

A television camera relayed clear pictures to earth as Worden, bundled in a stiff pressure suit and attached to a 25-foot lifeline, made three 15-foot-trips to the camera bay, twice to extract the film and once to inspect equipment.

He stepped through the open hatch at 11:40 a.m. EDT and was back inside the cabin just 18 minutes later, the 10th man to take a walk in space, and the first to do so that far from his home planet.

With the hatch open, the entire cabin was exposed to the vacuum of space, so David R. Scott and James B. Irwin also wore protective spacesuits.

Irwin poked the upper part of his body out of the hatch to guide Worden's life support hose, to photograph him and to help him move the film canisters into the cabin.

"It's remarkable," Worden exclaimed of the breathtaking vista of sun, stars, sky and moon around him. He was about 197,000 miles from earth and 48,000 from the moon.

He looked back at Irwin, silhouetted against the fast-receding moon and said: "You look absolutely fantatstic against that moon back there. That is really the most unbelievable, remarkable thing."

The television pictures showed him obviously enjoying the stroll, at times kicking himself off the side of the craft and spinning completely around in his silent, weightless world.

The command ship Endeavour was streaking toward home at more than 2,000 miles an hour after six days of lunar exploration.

Worden took only a few seconds to move along handrails to the camera bay. He first removed a 23-pound cassette from a mapping camera, returned to the hatch and handed it to Irwin.

On the second trip to the bay he called a "rest stop" and inspected a scientific experiment boom and a camera sensor which had been giving them some trouble. He reported a cover jammed on the boom and could discover nothing wrong with the sensor.

At the request of Mission Control, Worden made a third trip to inspect the camera bay for anything unusual. He reported nothing.

The television camera showed the space walker moving rather clumsily at first as he moved outside.

NEW PROCEDURE — For the first time in history Scurry County will now use a jury wheel in the selecting of jurors. The 5,800 names on the county voter registration list went into the container Wednesday. From left to right are Wayland G. Holt, district judge; Eloise Morgan, deputy county tax assessor-collector; Beverly Ainsworth, county clerk, Keith Collier, sheriff, and Alta Bavousette, deputy district clerk.

Ky Didn't Qualify

SAIGON (AP) — The Supreme Court ruled today that Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky did not qualify as a candidate for the Oct. 3 presidential election.

The court ruled that there were only two qualified candidates—President Nguyen Van Thieu and retired Gen. Duong Van "Big" Minh.

A communique from the court said it rejected Ky's petition because 39 of his 102 endorsements from provincial and municipal councilmen duplicated endorsements already given to Thieu and thus were invalid. A total of 100 certified signatures from councilmen, or 40 from members of the National Assembly, were required to qualify as a candidate.

The court said Thieu qualified with signatures of 452 councilmen and 104 endorsements from the National Assembly—15 senators and 89 lower house deputies.

Minh's petition carried the names of 27 deputies and 17 senators.

Art Exhibit Scheduled At WTC

An introductory art exhibition will be held Aug. 10, from 6 to 9 p.m. at the Western Texas College offices, and C. Warren Cullar, instructor in art, announces that it will be open to the public and to those persons interested in learning about what will be offered in the Art Dept. this year.

Art work shown in the introductory exhibit will include such diverse elements as watercolors, lithographs, drawings, macrame, weavings, batik, cast silver jewelry and ceramics.

Some of the collection exhibited will be made up of art work produced by Carol Cullar, instructor of art, the past summer. During the summer Mrs. Cullar was finishing work on her masters degree at the Instituto Allende in San Miguel de Allende, Guanajuato, Mexico.

According to Cullar, four courses in the Art Dept. will be offered the first semester. He will teach Art Appreciation and Freehand Drawing, and Mrs. Cullar will teach Freehand Drawing and a course in Crafts that will cover batik, macrame and weaving.

He said that the public is cordially invited to visit the introductory exhibit, and that members of the WTC faculty and staff will be on hand to answer questions about class work. Coffee and refreshments will be available.

WITH DRAFT IN LIMBO

Lottery Numbers Drawn

WASHINGTON (AP) — No. 1 in today's draft lottery of men turning 19 years old this year was assigned to men born on Dec. 4, making them first in line for call-up next year.

No. 2 went to those born Jan. 25.

The low numbers in this year's draft lottery were slow in falling with No. 1 coming on the 310th draw of capsules from the two plexiglass drums. No. 2 was drawn on the 209th pluck.

With the size of draft calls dropping, under the call-up expected next year—assuming Congress passes legislation to extend the President's authority to resume drafting men—men are not expected to be called beyond the No. 190 limit set for this year. Most officials expect it to be far lower.

There were 366 numbers in the yellow capsules and the Leap Year baby born Feb. 29, 1952 drew a safe 305.

Those born on Christmas Day got a medium No. 135 but those born on New Year's Day had 207. Men born on Independence Day, July 4, were assigned 142.

The highest number was assigned to men born on Nov. 1.

Job Bill Sails Through House

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $1-billion bill to find jobs in a hurry primarily for Vietnam veterans was poised today for a quick trip from the Senate to the White House.

It sailed through the House Wednesday by a roll-call vote of 321 to 78 and was expected to get an equally fast shuffle through the Senate.

The bill has support of Democratic leaders. Since President Nixon requested the money he is expected to approve the measure even though he vetoed a broader and most costly bill last year.

The $1 billion is for the first half of a two-year program authorized earlier this year.

It is designed to provide quick jobs for up to 173,000 unemployed persons in public-service posts including police and fire departments, health and sanitation activities. Priority goes to Vietnam veterans.

The pay would average $6,000 a year, with a limited number of $12,000 professional positions for persons displaced by cutbacks in defense and other industries.

The federal government would pay 90 per cent of the wages with state and individual area governments paying the rest.

Under the bill $600 million would be distributed to states according to a formula comparing total unemployment and unemployment over 4.5 per cent over a three-month period with national figures. No state would get less than $1.5 million.

Another $250 million would be distributed by the Labor Department to areas of acute unemployment of 6 per cent or more, with $100 million being held in reserve for emergency use. The remaining $50 million would be for administrative expenses.

Attempts to change the formuls so some states would get more and to prevent governors or other state officials from handling the aid claims of smaller areas were defeated by the House.

POW's Flight Report Denied

STOCKHOLM (AP) — The Scandinavian airline said today a report that American military officials had asked the airline to fly 187 American prisoners of war from Laos to Europe was incorrect.

The earlier report had brought a flood of official denials from American and North Vietnamese officials.

The airline said today its office in West Germany had been approached in mid-July by a "private individual" who wanted to arrange a charter flight from Laos to Rome "for 187 passengers."

"It was never mentioned that the category of passengers was military personnel," SAS said in a statement released today.

The airline said it made preliminary arrangements and was ready to sign a contract, but this "has been called off by the private contact of SAS in Germany."

The "private individual" was not identified by name or nationality.

The report of a prospective POW flight was first published Wednesday night in Sweden's biggest newspaper, Dagens Nyheter, which said the flight would be on Aug. 12.

This was followed by an announcement from an SAS spokesman that U.S. military authorities in West Germany had asked to charter a DC8 to airlift 187 POWs from Vientiane, the Laotian capital, to Rome by way of Bangkok.

Dagens Nyheter charged SAS with "giving way to political pressure to soft pedal the whole thing."

Editor in Chief Boerje Dahlqvist maintained the newspaper's reported, attributed to "sources," was "wholly correct as it stands," but refused to identify his sources. He did not specify what "political pressure" he claimed had been applied.

SAS spokesman Jack Herbert said: "Nuts to Dagens Nyheter. I can't give any explanation about this whole thing other than to say that a lot of people were unavailable when this story broke and that we could not sort things out until now."

Dallas Okays School Budget

DALLAS (AP) — Dalias school board trustees voted Wednesday to approve a $3.5 million budget to buy 220 school buses, and portable classrooms needed to implement a court-ordered desegregation plan.

Trustees indicated no new buses would be available before March.

Some 15,000 pupils will be bused under the plan ordered Monday by U.S. Dist. Judge William Taylor.

Wholesale Prices Mixed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Wholesale food prices dropped in July, but a broad range of industrial raw materials and manufactured products posted the biggest seasonnally adjusted cost increase in 15 years, the government said today.

The mixed report on wholesale prices came one day after President Nixon, challenged Constructure of a wage-price review board without binding the economy in a straightjacket of controls.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics said the prices of farm products and processed foods declined three-tenths of one per cent in July, the largest drop in eight months, and were down one per cent on a seasonal basis for the largest such drop in more than a year.

However, sharply higher prices for lumber and steel products resulted in a rise of five-tenths of one per cent, sharpest in 10 months. The increase for industrial products on a seasonal basis was six-tenths, highest since August of 1956, the bureau said.

The over-all result was an increase of three-tenths of 1 per cent in the government's wholesale price index, the smallest rise in four months. On a seasonal basis, the rise was two-tenths, smallest in five months.

The July increase pushed the wholesale index to 114.6 of its 1967 base of 100. This means wholesale goods worth $100 four years ago now cost $114.60.

The index was 3.3 per cent above a year earlier, the smallest annual spread in four months.

Hooked hubby should pay wife for her 'services'

By Abigail Van Buren

(© 1971 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.)

DEAR ABBY: I read the letter signed "WEAK AND TEMPTED" from the man who was hooked on prostitutes. He claimed he was happily married and his wife lacked nothing in that department.

I agree with you, he needs a head doctor, but I have a better solution that could solve his problem and save his marriage. If he gets pleasure out of paying for his sex life, tell him to hand his wife the usual fee. She will be happy and he will be satisfied. Some people don't place any value on something unless they pay for it.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA. READER

DEAR READER: That might solve HIS problem, but what if his wife prefers to maintain her amateur standing?

DEAR ABBY: Why are you so fair in everything else, but when it comes to the subject of OBESITY, you are completely without mercy!

A mother wrote she was "heartsick" because her 21-year-old son brought his 20-year-old fiancee home, and she was fat!

Why didn't you tell that mother to encourage her son to stick with pride by the girl he loved, no matter what, even if she had one eye in the middle of her head? Instead, you recommended the mother get her son aside and instruct him to tell the girl she should do something about her weight while she was still young.

If I were that young man, I would be more concerned about my mamma's set of values than my girl's bulk.

DISAPPOINTED IN YOU

DEAR DISAPPOINTED: Aw, come on, now. No one can help being born with one eye in the middle of his head, but a girl who is so fat she can hardly fit into the largest chair in the room, and then eats as if there's no tomorrow has a problem. And someone who loves her should encourage her to solve it.

DEAR ABBY: This is for the heartsick mother whose son brought home a fat fiancee. Some men prefer fat women. To them fat is beautiful.

Mamma should leave her son alone. Some of the happiest marriages I know are those of thin men and fat, jolly wives. Heartsick mother should rejoice. Her son is getting at least twice as much woman!

CECILE

DEAR ABBY: Why didn't you tell "HEARTSICK MOM" to mind her own business when her son brought home a fat girl and introduced her as his fiancee?

That's the trouble with everybody today. All they care about is what a person looks like on the outside. So what if she didn't have a nice shape, maybe she's a wonderful person with a good heart. Besides, fat girls make the best wives. They are usually the best cooks, and they know they can't get by on their looks so they try harder.

Ministers Oppose 'Superstar'

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — Five ministers and laymen took advertising space in the Abilene Reporter-News today to protest the Junior Chamber of Commerce production of the rock opera "Jesus Christ Superstar", scheduled for Saturday night.

"Production it is, Christian it is not" the advertisement reads. The advertisement seeks "to set the record straight" about the opera, calling Superstar "a grotesque corruption of Jesus and his followers."

The protesters do not object to the opera's contemporary form, but they feel it emphasises the humanity of Jesus to the exclusion of his deity.

"This is just a group of interested individuals," the Rev. T. Gerald Cates, pastor of Highland Park Baptist Church, said of the producers. "We wanted to inform the public that if they think they are going to something true to the scriptures, they're mistaken."

Besides Cates, those who signed the protest were attorney Jack Yates, who drew up its text, Dr. Joe Temple, pastor of the Bible Center, the Rev. Howard Ingram, pastor of Trinity Baptist Church, and Bernard Smith, owner of the Bible Bookstore.

Unchanged By Fortune

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — James M. Weichering was on the job Wednesday night, driving his forklift for a local wholesale grocery firm.

To look at him you couldn't tell he'd just inherited $575,000, stocks, bonds, a ranch, 220 head of cattle and three oil wells.

And that's just the way he wants it.

Weichering, it was announced Wednesday, had inherited his fortune from a maternal grandfather, John C. Sperry, of Longview, Tex.

"It won't change our standard of living," he said. "We already have a pretty nice home there in Midwest City, an Oklahoma City suburb) now.

"I have a good job here and a good future, and I plan to stay on until I retire."

Weichering is 38. He and his wife Marie have four married children and three grandchildren.

He was in Longview for the reading of the will but had to return before his vacation ran out—at the request of his employer. He said he didn't want to miss any work.

Activities Planned For Boy Scouts

Scoutmasters and Cub leaders are urged to have their troops and packs take part in activities planned for this week-end.

The district swimming meet for all boy scouts will be staged Friday, August 6 at 6:30 p.m. at the Ruddick Park Pool in Colorado City, Texas.

There will be competition in two divisions, for those from 11-13 years of age and those 14 years and older.

The events in each division will be free style, breast stroke, side stroke, back stroke, individual medley, medley relay and free style relay. Individual ribbons will go to the first three places in each event.

On Saturday, August 7, Cub Day will be observed with a play day with games, contests, and swimming at the Towle Park in Snyder from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

The Lone Buffalo District Order of the Arrow Dance Team will dance at 1 PM for the Cubs.

Smile May Hurt

By LEE BYRD
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Brushing with some commercial toothpastes may brighten your sex appeal, but what if it hurts to smile?

Several popular brands may cause painful soreness and swelling of the gums, according to an unpublished Pentagon study released today by Sen. Claiborne Pell, D-R.I.

The condition, known as gingival stomatitisn was found among users of Colgate, Crest, McLean's, Plus White, Ultra-Brite, Vote and Gleem.

Colgate-Palmolive Co. issued a statement questioning the scientific validity of the study, and Sen. Pell himself conceded it may not be conclusive. "But I believe the American consumer deserves to be informed completely on the findings of tax-supported consumer research," Pell said.

Researchers for the Army Institute of Dental Research conclude that clinical and laboratory findings "indicate strongly that some commercially available dentifrices may cause painful gingival responses in the user."

The conclusion is based on two clinical surveys involving a total of 1,057 patients and laboratory tests with 30 hamsters.

The clinical surveys showed users of Crest and Colgate suffered gingival stomatitis less frequently than those brushing with McLean's, Ultra-Brite, Gleem, Plus White and Vote.

The laboratory tests showed minimal harmful effects to the hamsters exposed to Crest and Plus White, but those treated with McLean, Ultra-Brite and Vote showed "rather severe chronic inflammatory reaction."

Nixon Plans Northeast Trip

MANCHESTER, N.H. (AP) — President Nixon and his family fly to the Northeast Friday, with a brief stopover in New Hampshire and then a weekend of relaxation at a private island in Maine's Penobscot Bay.

Nixon's trip coincides with the appearance in New Hampshire, site of the nation's first Wednesday night, attached no presidential primary next year, of three potential Democratic presidential nominees and a challenger for the GOP nomination.

But the White House, in announcing the Nixon trip Wednesday night, attached no political significance to it.

Accompanying the President will be his wife, Pat, and the Nixons' younger daughter and son-in-law, David and Julie Eisenhower.

The White House said the President will stop in Manchester and go to Nashua to visit a quadraplegic, Dick Chaput, who was named by the Jaycees in 1966 as one of the nation's 10 most outstanding young men.

Nixon will return to Manchester, fly to Bangor, Maine, and then continue by helicopter to tiny Minot Island, owned by Jack J. Dreyfus Jr., senior partner in the New York investment house of Dreyfus & Co.

On the island are an eight-bedroom house, two cottages, a caretaker's house, a tennis court and a putting green.

The President and his family will return to Washington Sunday evening.

New Hampshire Democrats have scheduled a picnic at Hollis Sunday which will draw Sens. Henry Jackson of Washington, Birch Bayh of Indiana and George S. McGovern of South Dakota.

Another Democratic presidential hopeful, Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, will be represented by Gov. Kenneth L. Curtis of Maine.

Rep. Paul N. McCloskey Jr. of California, who has split with the administration over the Vietnam war issue, is scheduled to open his campaign headquarters for the March 7 presidential primary Monday in Concord.

Nixon's press secretary, Ronald L. Ziegler, replied "totally," when asked if the President's visit were "inconsequential" to McCloskey's schedule.

REFRESHING PIE — Fresh Melon pie combines cubed honeydew, watermelon, cantaloupe in a lemon gelatin with creamy base for a spectacular dessert. Complete this summer meal with Ham and Chicken Salad and iced tea tanged with fresh lemon.

Pie To Refresh Your Family Made With 3 Fresh Melons

When summer seems like a hot, heavy blanket over the whole land, look to the lovely, fresh melons in the market for a refreshing change.

They're here now in good supply, the United Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Association advise. Honeydew melons await you with their pale green flesh full of juice. The rosy watermelon presides at many an outdoor feast. And the cantaloupe, webbed outside and glowing orange within, has all sorts of joys to add to summer's eating.

Would you ever think though, of combining all three of these delicious fruits in a pie? That's our suggestion for dealing with the heavy, hot weather blues. What a dessert! The three melons are cut up and cubed, drained well, and combined in a lemon gelatin and whipped cream mixture to chill until firm in a baked pie shell. This pie is so delectable, you're sure to make it your summer special — come company or just family.

A delightful summer meal is composed of the appetizing, nutritious yet light Ham and Chicken Salad sparked with crisp, fresh celery and onion, served with fresh sliced cucumbers, and the exciting Fresh Melon Pie for dessert. Both recipes are included.

It's helpful to have buying tips for melons. Mature melons give you signals. For instance, honey dews that are mature have a creamy outer color and a waxy feel to the surface.

With cantaloupes, when the webbing stands out distinctly from the melon, it's a ripeness signal. Watermelons that are mature are likely to have a bloom over the surface of the rind, giving a somewhat velvety appearance.

Do give melons an honored place in many meals for their juicy refreshment, their coolness, delicious flavors, and the nourishment they add with their important vitamins and minerals. The honeydews are delicious, eaten "as is" with just a squeeze of fresh lemon or lime juice. Watermelons need no urging to persuade the summer cook to use them as both snacks and easiest-of-all summer desserts. Cantaloupes can start a hot day in a refreshing way at breakfast with no trouble to the cook.

FRESH MELON PIE

1 package (3 ounces) lemon flavored gleatin
½ cup heavy cream, whipped
1 cup cubed honeydew melon, well drained
1 cup cubed cantaloupe, well drained
1 cup cubed watermelon, well drained
9-inch baked pastry shell

Prepare gelatin according to package directions, using only 1 ½ cups water. Chill until mixture is slightly thickened. Fold in whipped cream and melons. Turn into pastry shell. Chill several hours or until firm. Makes: 6 servings.

HAM AND CHICKEN SALAD

1 ½ cups cubed cooked chicken
1 ½ cups cubed cooked ham
1 cup chopped celery
½ cup mayonnaise
1 tablespoon minced fresh onion
½ teaspoon salt
Few grains pepper

Combine chicken, ham and celery in a bowl. Mix together remaining ingredients. Lightly mix with meat mixture. Serve with sliced cucumbers. Makes: 6 servings.

Combine a can of apple sauce with crushed pineapple, strained or pureed apricots (or other canned fruit of your choice). Place in a refrigerator tray and chill until ice crystals begin to form. Serve in paper cups with a drizzle of a fruit sauce poured over.

Hostesses for the occasion were: Claud Nixon, Pearl Watts, J. P. Sandufer, Dale Hess, Forrest Hess, Bertha Holdridge, Helen Meeks, Roy Collier, Boyce Jones, Grant Groves, Mac Warren, Alton Barfoot, Ocie Vest and Miss Donnie Anderson.

Greater supplies of the already large supply of beef are expected this summer and fall as additional cattle are marketed from the nation's feedlots, according to the National Live Stock and Meat Board. There have been larger numbers of cattle on feed this year than in the same periods of last year. This is partially due to the drouth in the Southwest where unfavorable range conditions caused cattlemen to move their beef animals into feedlots sooner and in larger numbers.

CURLS GOOD FOR SUMMER — Curls, curls and more curls is hair fashion for summer. And Alexandre and Jacques Dessange are the curl kings of Paris. French women are taking to this softer look for hair styles in contrast to the wide shoulders and tailored suite of the couture designers.

Economists Use Fancy Term To Liven Subject

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — In an effort to enliven what is said to be a dull subject, or perhaps only to be gaining popularity to clarify it, economists have resorted to a dictionary of fanciful terms that often seem to say more than they really do.

Runaway or galloping inflation has never been precisely defined but the term is used again and again. And just what is a rolling readjustment or a post-peak erosion? What is a soggy or sluggish economy?

Two new terms now appear to be gaining popularity among those who must describe economic: Profitless prosperity and, one of the most curious of all, growth recession. Both appear to be contradictions.

Profitless prosperity is what an increasing number of businessmen are complaining about. They maintain that even though their sales rise they can't make profits because costs are rising faster.

Profitless prosperity implies a great amount of activity without great progress.

Some retailers continue to show higher sales, but the quality of those sales may not be as good as before, for example.

The commoner complaint, however, is that pay raises are exceeding productivity. If higher wages are related to increases in output per manhour both employer and employe benefit. If pay raises exceed productivity increases then the boss gets gypped.

The term growth recession was born in an attempts to describe a situation in which the economic indicators seems to be pointing in different directions at the same time.

Many of the indicators point upward but polls show that businessmen and consumers remain unconvinced.

Gross National Product and industrial output may be growing, they say, but people are out of work, inflation doesn't seem to be abating, interest rates are rising, stock prices are falling.

Which led Pierre Rinfret, the perceptive proprietor of Rinfret Boston Associates, a consulting firm, to tell his clients recently:

"It seems to us fair to say that the United States may be entering a growth recession soon after recovering from a classical recession."

And what does Rinfret mean? As the term suggests, there would be elements of both recession and growth at the same time.

In a growth recession, says Rinfret, the Gross National Product, or the total of all goods and services reproduced, continues to grow. But the gap between the potential GNP and the actual GNP also grows.

It means that the economy fails to live up to its possibilities. While it does grow some, its potential grows even faster. The gap widens.

As the originator of the term, Rinfret has the right to define it further and he does. The widening gap must occur over a period of more than a few months, he says.

While he isn't prepared as yet to say that we are in the midst of a growth recession, he does not eliminate that possibility. The gap has been widening.

Based on constant dollars, the actual GNP has fallen behind the potential GNP by these amounts over the past six quarters: $27 billion, $33 billion, $39 billion, $55 billion, $49 billion and $51 billion.

Junior Editors Quiz on MIRAGES

QUESTION: Why do men seem to imagine things while on a desert?

ANSWER: People who are travelling through the desert are weary of the endless sun and sand and are usually looking for a place to rest and a watering spot where they can bathe and quench their thirst. Frequently, in the distance they see a cool lake or a pool of water, only to discover nothing but wastes of sand when they draw near. The ancients knew about this situation and called it a mirage, a derivation of the Latin word mirare, meaning to look at.

First, it was thought that travellers in the desert were afflicted from a delirium brought about by the heat, such as is experienced by people with a high fever. Also, it was thought that this was an hallucination, that under stress the mind was playing tricks with the weary men tramping through the desert. It was thought to be a mental response to the overpowering desire for water. Mirages were not scientifically explained until the 18th century, when Tobias Gruber showed that they were caused by the bending of light waves in the atmosphere.

Mirages, according to scientists, are caused by hot air near the surface of the earth which reflects light rays from the sky toward our eyes. Some mirages are very striking. While they are associated with the desert, they have frequently been seen on highways and also at sea. 8-5

Victoria In Good Spot

Victoria, Tex. (AP) — Victoria is destined to be one of the top industrial growth areas of the future, Victoria area business and government leaders were told in a special report.

The report, contracted by the Victoria Navigation District, said that Victoria, with the help of the 35-mile barge canal, had joined an important industrial community within the circle bounded by Houston, Austin, San Antonio and Corpus Christi. "This geographic location will preserve its vitality as a commercial center," said the report. "By virtue of its dominant position in the area and its larger population, it is the only city within 80 miles which can furnish labor to staff a new large industrial facility."

Frank Buhler, chairman of the Victoria County Navigation District, said the results of the study would be used to attract new industry along the barge canal.

Natalie Wood Files For Divorce

SANTA MONICAN Calif. (AP) — Actress Natalie Wood has filed suit for divorce from her husband of two years, Richard Gregson.

Things We Could Do Without

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things we could all do without:

"Bring Back Hoover" buttons.

Queasy hors doeuvres at cocktail parties, such as honeyed Burmese bees and chocolate-covered ants.

Oddball campaigns for the presidency next year by nonenties who simply want to get attention.

Baby sitters who dope their charges with tranquilizers so they won't be any trouble.

Any pet apartment house dog that weighs more than half as much as its owner or takes up the space of two or more people in an elevator-including tail.

Mothers who use their baby buggies as weapons in pedestrian traffic.

Grandmothers who brag they've tried smoking pot but didn't get a kick out of it unless they'd had a Martini first.

Ninety-nine out of 100 envelopes with windows in them. The 100th just might contain a check instead of a bill.

Hunters who are kind to members of their families but like to shoot bald eagles from airplanes with guns or bows and arrows.

Legislators so chicken they vote like little lambs for any lobbyists seeking to beef up a new pork barrel project.

Insects in western vacation lodges, including some owners who charge $40 or more a day for a room the size of a country jail cell and moonlight on the side as rain gods for the local Indians.

The worst sound on earth-screeching tires on a street where children are playing.

Novels so long that only receptionists have the time to read them.

An expired fly entombed in the dead center of a piece of dried up apple pie served by a frumpy waitress with dyed blonde hair in a roadside diner with a great big hole in its front door screen and a grease-stained sign over its battered cash register saying, "In God We Trust—All Others Cash," and a sign next to that one saying, "Eat Here and Keep Your Wife for a Pet."

Finding two small lifeless mice in a kitchen trap set out to catch and kill a big rat.

The expression, "Well, I swan!" It is usually uttered by elderly rural people as an exclamation of surprise. But what does it mean?

Having to climb out of a comfortable reclining chair and go to the door and tell the wistful little girl down the hall that your own small daughter has gone to the playground with a young male imp both the girls are courting.

Being asked to give a toast at a nudists' picnic and finding yourself unable to think of anything else to say except, "Bottoms Up!"

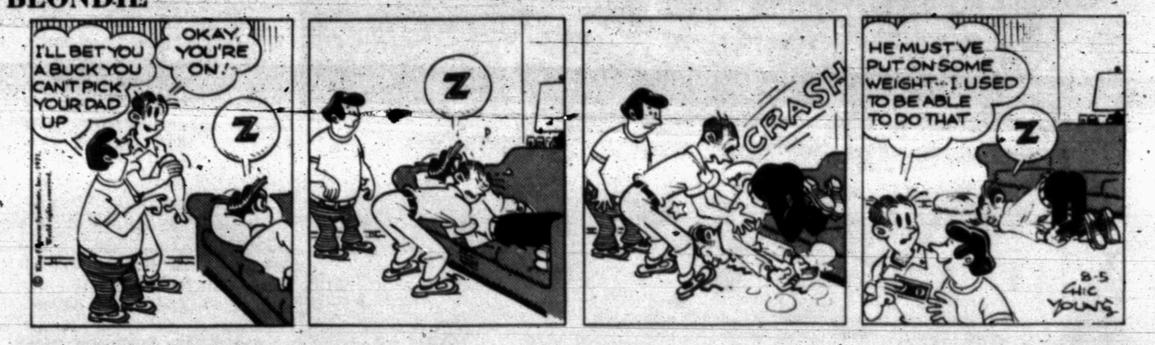

Listening to a traveler undressing in the hotel room above yours drop three heavy shoes to the floor—thump, thump thump!!!—and then spending the rest of the night wondering what he must look like in person.

From these vexations and other disturbances of aplomb, deliver us, Amen.

North Whips South 100-99

By DENNIS FREEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

FORT WORTH (AP) — Carl Jones is only 6 feet 2 inches, but he outshone the taller giants in the Texas High School Coaches Association All Star basketball game Wednesday night.

Jones, of Wichita Falls Hirschie, was the guiding force in leading the North to an exciting 100-99 victory over the South. A five foot jump shot by Cederick Joseph of Fort Worth Arlington Heights with 15 seconds to play was the victory margin.

But it was the inspired play of Jones, a fiesty guard who plans to attend West Texas State, that rattled the surging South which had built up a 54-48 halftime lead.

Jones scored 23 points, 17 of them in the last half and nine in the crucial fourth quarter.

"Carl was just tremendous," said a beaming North coach Glenn Stevens.

'He made it go."

Teammate Jimmy Murphy, who had 20 points and is bound for Southern Methodist, said Jones took the pressure off of us. They spent most of the time worrying about him and it left us more open."

Jones was voted the most valuable player in the game, getting 32 of 37 ballots.

The North now leads the all-time series 13-12.

The crowd of 9,500 in Tarrant County Convention Center was treated to some stirring play in the final moments.

The south actually had a chance to win the game with six seconds to play when Murphy stepped out of bounds in his own back court.

However, Maurice Pregley of Houston Davis, who had 20 points for the night, missed a long jumper with two seconds to play and Joseph captured the rebound.

The North shot a sizzling 54.4 per cent from the field, compared to 47.6 per cent for the South coached by Bill Kruger of Clear Creek. Jones was fantastic from the field hitting 11 of 15 attempts.

The South out rebounded the Northerners 50-46 and had a better free throw percentage—70 per cent to 63.6 per cent.

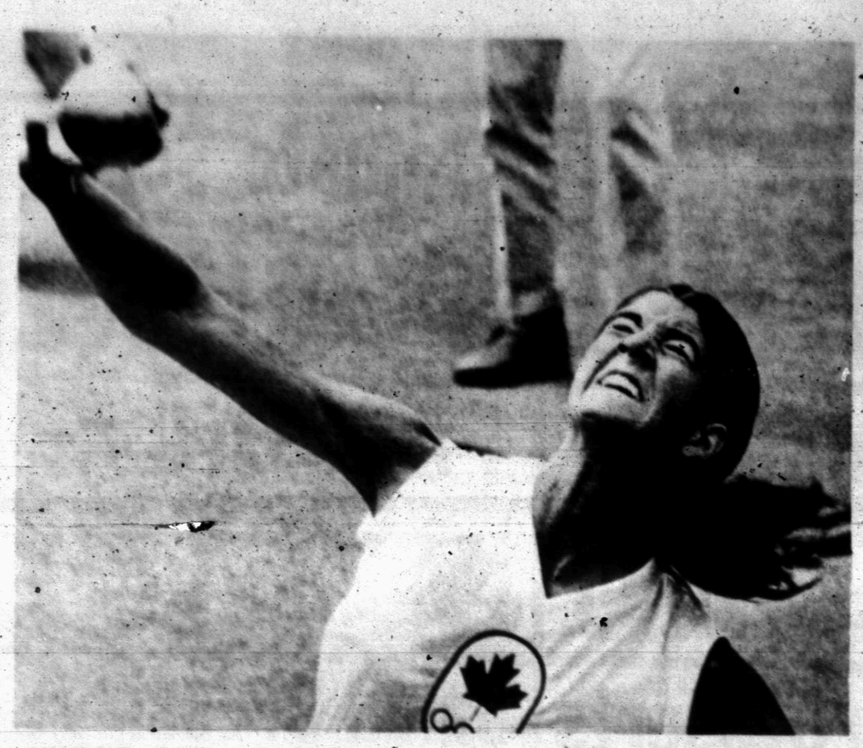

Presley, who had 20 points for the game tied with Joseph in rebounds at 13 each.

Other high scorers for the North included Edwin Lynum of El Paso Bel Air who had 15, and Joseph, Ray Roberts of Garland, and Larry Beasley of Hawley, who had 12 apiece.

William Johnson of Houston Yates made 19 points and Gerrald Taylor of Houston Lincoln scored 18 points for the South.

The North-South football game at 8:30 p.m. tonight in Amon Carter Stadium wraps up the coaching school for 1971.

A crowd of 25,000 is expected with the North a slight favorite.

Duane Thomas To Return To Dallas

By EARL GERHEIM
Associated Press Sports Writer

Controversial running back Duane Thomas, the fleet-footed ace who led the Dallas Cowboys in rushing last season, has covered a lot of ground this past week but doesn't seem to have made any headway.

Thomas was traded by the Cowboys to the New England Patriots last weekend after he tossed several verbal barbs at Dallas management and requested that he be swapped. Under terms of the transaction, New England sent halfback Carl Garrett and the Patriots' No. 1 draft pick next year to Dallas and also received lineman Halvor Hagen and wide receiver Honor Jackson from the Cowboys.

Dallas President Tex Schramm, who has been a target of Thomas' fiery criticism, announced Wednesday that part of the deal had been cancelled. Thomas was coming back to Dallas, Garrett was returning to the Patriots and New England could keep Hagen and Johnson in exchange for two undisclosed draft choices, he said.

Thomas deserted the Patriots training camp Monday.

Schramm said the cancellation had been prompted by questions raised about Thomas' condition by the New England team physician.

The Patriots issued a statement which said:

"The Patriot team physician, in the course of his physical examination of Duane Thomas when he arrived at training camp, developed certain questions concerning Thomas' general condition." The team neglected to elaborate but said, "These concerns were confirmed in the brief practice that followed. Mr. Thomas has since withdrawn from training camp after declining to complete his physical examination."

Elsewhere in the NFL, the Philadelphia Eagles retreated under a threatened lawsuit and recalled waivers on defensive back Ron Medved. The veteran player was placed on waivers Monday and charged the Eagles had dealt with him in bad faith because he was waived while waiting for an injured ankle to heal.

Eagles General Manager Pete Retzlaff rejected Medved's contention and said a doctor had pronounced the player physically fit.

Wide receiver Jerry LeVias, traded to the San Diego Chargers by the Houston Oilers, has not appeared in camp and is being fined.

The San Francisco 49ers, gearing for their upcoming exhibition opener against Cleveland, put the wraps on their workouts and retired indoors Wednesday. Coach Dick Nolan trimmed the practice schedule from two workouts a day to one and limited contact work.

Rookies Joe Profit and Willie Belton registered long touchdown runs as the Atlanta Falcons conducted a 30-minute rushing scrimmage.

The coaching staff of the Pittsburgh Steelers came away from a goal line offense drill and remarked their team showed improvement over their 1970 performances in that area.

The Cincinnati Bengals had their practice curtailed as heavy downpours turned the practice field into a soggy slippery mess.

The cutting ax continued to swing at several pro football camps as teams battled the midnight deadline for a 60-player limit. The Kansas City Chief made the biggest cut, trimming 11 players from their roster.

Defense back Richard Petitbone joined the growing list of Rams traded to the Redskins since former Los Angeles Coach George Allen assumed the reins in Washington.

Allen called Petibone "one of the great strong safeties in football. He knows our system and he is a winner." Petibone was acquired for undisclosed draft picks.

The Redskins also traded defensive end Bruce Anderson to New Orleans in exchange for running back Tom Barrington.

Cali Fans Will Cheer For Mejias

By HUBERT MIZELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CALI, Colombia (AP) — Adored distance runner Alvaro Mejias can light a fuse to ignite all of Colombia today, no matter if U.S. track and field heroes virtually have cinched the Pan American Games for Uncle Sam.

"Alvaro, Alvaro," the voices of Cali will chant as the lithe, 145-pound Mejias strains to win the gruelling Pan Am marathon for the host country.

Mejias whipped a thundering herd of 887 runners in April to win the fabled Boston Marathon and excite his countrymen for today's grind for a Pan Am gold medal.

The 5-foot-10 Mejias, a man of 30 with mustache and rippling muscles, is married to former USA Olympic swimmer Terri Stickles.

While Alvaro runs for Colombia, the talent-deep Americans are continuing to jam their war chest with gold medals with swimming—a Yankee favorite—ready to begin Friday.

The USA has 36 golds, 26 silver medals and 16 bronze for a total of 78 medals. Cuba's red tide was beginning to be stemmed as Castro's troops hit 50 medallions including 12 golds, 26 silvers and 12 bronze.

Canada is a distant third with 5-5-15 for an aggregate of 25 medals.

Track and field ends today and with only a few events on schedule the United States had won 16 of 18 men's tests, setting nine Pan Am records.

USA girls have three golds in nine events including two records. Lynn Graham, a 230-pound Fresno, Calif., giant, heaved the shot put an incredible 51-8-½ Wednesday night.

Women's gymnastics continue to be a major medal-maker for the United States, cute 16-year-old Roxanne Pierce of Kensington, Md., winning four golds to lead a Yankee sweep.

The old-timers are doing their part, led by 41-year-old Al Hall of Charlton City, Mass., who sailed the hammer a record 216 feet Wednesday night.

Jan Johnson, a University of Alabama pole vaulter from Chicago Heights, Ill., gave the crowd of 40,000 a charge by clearing 17-5-¾ to better still another Pan-Am mark.

Muscular minister Russ Knipp of Fullertonn Calif., lifted a record total of 990 pounds in the middleweight class to bag three gold medals.

USA fencers swashbuckled their way to men's and women's foil team crowns and U.S. deadeyes outshot the Cubans to take away four golds and a silver in skeet and small bore rifle firing from a prone position.

Fishing Expert To Speak Tonight

Dee Wilson of the Creme Lure Company will speak on bass cover, depth finders and temperature gauging at a meeting of the Snyder Bass Club to be held at 8 p.m. today in the county barn in Towle Park.

He also will talk about the art of worm fishing with a worm that floats. Dee has fished in national tournament competition.

There is no charge for the meeting, and everyone is invited to attend. The Snyder Bass Club is co-sponsoring Dee's appearance here.

Tom Walker Sets Records

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Dallas-Fort Worth Spurs pitcher Tom Walker hurled 15 innings of brilliant baseball Wednesday night, shutting out Albuquerque 1-0 in a no-hitter and breaking two records.

Dallas-Fort Worth scored in the 15th inning with two out when Mike Reinbach walked and Enos Cabell doubled to left field.

Amarillo's Eddie Figueroa pitched a three-hitter as he blanked San Antonio 2-0.

In other games, Memphis defeated Montgomery 4-2 in 10 innings, Birmingham beat Columbus 5-2 and Charlotte lost to Savannah 4-3.

Jacksonville at Shreveport and Asheville at Arkansas doubled headers were postponed because of rain.

The records broken by Walker were set in the Texas League in the early 1900s. John Lower of Waco, Tex. pitched 14 hitless innings in 1905 and Grover Brandt of Beaumont, Tex., pitched 12 no-hit innings in 1912.

Felons Help

HOLSOM, Calif. (AP) — Two area baseball Little Leagues which have financial difficulties have split a $562.31 donation from prisoners at Folxom Prison.

An inmate committee collected the money from men whose wages vary from 2 to 24 cents a hour.

Julie Heldman Wins Match

HOUSTON (AP) — Julie Heldman, ranked No. 7 in the world, used a steady baseline game for a 2-6, 6-4, 6-2 victory over Christina Sandberg of Sweden in the $40,000 Virginia Slims International Tennis Tournament Wednesday night.

Miss Sandberg won the first set and took the first game of the second set before Miss Heldman scrambled back with deft placements and top-spin lobs for the first round triumph.

Miss Heldman is fifth seeded here behind Billie Jean King, Rosemary Casals, Francoise Durr and Nancy Richey Gunter.

Sixth seed Judy Dalton of Australia defeated Peaches Bartkowicz of Hamtramck, Mich., 6-0, 6-3. Miss Bartkowicz appeared rusty after a two-month layoff.

The tournament continues through Sunday.

Scuba Diving Class Planned

What's it like under water, enscrouded by nothing but sea and silence? "A complete mental rest." It's about the best mental therapy a person can have. "When you're down there, you're just not conscious of the everyday world."

The Abilene School of Skindiving is sponsoring a nationally-recognized, certified scuba course. The course is to be held here in Snyder at the Towle Park swimming pool. At the end of the program, divers will have had 12 hours of classroom training and 12 hours of diving instruction at the pool. A lake checkout will be made at one of the nearby clear lakes. Instruction teaches you basic fundamentals. It teaches you how to cope with any type of hazard that might develop while you are diving.

The course is open to anyone 15 years of age or older. It is not an endurance test to see if you can swim the length of the pool 30 times or do 50 push-ups. Anyone who is in good physical condition and has the disire to learn will find this sport the most interesting thing he has ever done. The scuba diver has many things to choose from: spearfishing, photography, exploration, salt water aquariums, and for the gourmet, a bountiful supply of seafood.

Scuba is fast becoming a number one sport and hobby throughout the world, however, certification through instruction is your passport to purchase or rent from your professional diving shops and schools throughout the nation.

Register now at the Towle Park pool. The probable beginning date is 7 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 10. Classes will meet from 7 to 9 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays. For more information, call 573-9192.

Fire Hits Tijuana Race Track

TIJUANA, Mexico (AP) — Flames streaked through the main building and grandstand at the Agua Caliente Race Track before dawn today destroying the structures.

One fire official said some prize race horses were trapped. Another sources said horses, housed in stables a mile away, escaped uninjured.

A short in the electrical system in the 3½-block long grandstand structure was blamed. The fire was battled by 62 firemen, 10 trucks and hundreds of volunteers.

"Man's Best Friend" Is Deserving Of The Title

A stout-hearted German shorthaired pointer from Kemp, Texas, who swam through high waves in a storm on Lake Whitney to bring rescuers to two men clinging to a floating tree, today was named as one of the five finalists in the competition for the Ken-L-Ration gold medal, to be awarded to America's Dog Hero of the Year for 1971. The winner will be named September 2.

The dog, Scott, had accompained its master, Kellan Warren, and his friend, Fred Thurman, when the two were fishing one evening last May. A violent storm caused their boat to capsize, and they swam to a half-submerged tree, the men holding on for dear life and attempting to keep Scott's head above the water at the same time.

After about an hour, Scott suddenly swam away, and as he disappeared into the high waves, Warren remarked sadly to Thurman, "I guess I've lost my dog."

But the pointer, who had lost the use of one leg after being hit by an automobile, nevertheless managed to cross two miles of water and reach the Warren home. Reasoning that the dog would not have returned had an emergency not existed, Mrs. Warren organized a search party and the men were found about 2 a.m., and brought to safety.

Also in the running is Trixie, a mixed breed from Lynn, Mass., who brought rescuers to where her two-year-old master, Richard Sherry, was drowning in a pond near his home. Hours later, a team of physicians at Lynn Hospital managed to revive the child, who eventually recovered with no physical or mental damage.

Another is Champ, a German shepherd from Texarkana, Arkansas, who drove off a vicious hog that had attacked six-year-old Denise Stacks. Champ seized the animal by the ear and pulled it away from the girl, who is now recovering after lengthy surgery on her arms and legs.

Also among the finalists is Morgan, a golden retriever from Chagrin Falls, Ohio, who for once refused an automobile ride. Instead, he raced into a nearby field and circled about in the tall grass, barking continuously. His mistress left the car and went to the spot, there to find the unconscious form of a neighbor, William Akers, a diabetic, who had collapsed. Had he not been discovered, he would probably have gone into deep and perhaps fatal shock.

The fifth finalist is Shane, a German shepherd from Peoria, Illinois. When a speeding truck, with its driver being chased by police, roared through the alley where Shane's 17-months-old master, Donald Doran, was playing, Shane ran to the tot, seized him by his shirt, and pulled him to safety a split second before the truck arrived.

The winner, to be named September 2, will receive the Ken-Ration gold medal, and he and his owners will be honored at a dinner in the Warwick Hotel in Houston September 9. In addition to the gold medal, the winner will receive a gold-plated lead and collar, a gold plaque, a custom-made dog blanket, and a year's supply of dog food. His owners also will be presented with a $1,000 U.S. bond.

Planes Collide

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A 707 jetliner with 96 persons aboard and a light plane collided Wednesday night seven miles east of International Airport, authorities said.

The Continental Airlines jet, en route from Hilo, Hawaii, landed safely and none aboard was injured, a Federal Aviation Administration spokesman said. The small plane crashed into a former city dump injuring its two occupants, apparently not seriously.

Arthur Wright, 25, Compton, Calif., pilot of the single-engine Cessna 150, told newsmen at Harbor General Hospital he permitted his passenger to take over controls of the craft just before the collision.

Wright said the passenger, Leo Hopp, 23, Granada Hills, was not a pilot and had asked to "hold" the plane for a few minutes.

Wright said he told Hopp to put the small plane into a "wide right turn" and Hopp complied.

"I was making a right turn when I saw a white flash," said Hopp. "Before I could do anything we were hit by a jet. I turned the controls over to Art and prayed," Hopp said. Both men were hospitalized in good condition.

Authorities said the smaller craft clipped a wing of the jetliner. They said the right wing tip and leading edge were damaged.

The pilot of the 707, Capt. Hall Ross, told newsmen he saw the light plane "only a second before and after the collision."

Most passengers aboard the Boeing aircraft told newsmen at the airport they were unaware a collision had occurred.

The FAA said the jetliner was Continental's flight 712 from Hilo, carrying a crew of nine and 87 passengers.

FAA spokesman at Palmdale, the Southern California air traffic control center, and at International Airport, declined comment on the cause of the collision or whether the two planes had been sighted by radar controllers.

Last June 6 a Hughes Air West DC9 and a Marine fighter bomber aircraft collided over the San Gabriel Mountains 25 miles east of Los Angeles, killing 50 persons.

Como Is Improved

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A spokesman at Sunrise Hospital says singer Perry Como is in excellent condition after treatment for relief of a kidney stone ailment.

Como was admitted to the hospital Monday and was described as being in considerable pain.

After the nonsurgical treatment Wednesday, the hospital said he would be able to leave soon.

Como was appearing at a Las Vegas Strip hotel when he was stricken. The balance of his engagement was canceled and comedian Bill Cosby was called in as a replacement for the singer, now in his 50s.

Johnny Unitas of the Baltimore Colts has thrown 280 touchdown passes in his 15 years in the National Football League.

Rangers Hunting Documents

AUSTIN (AP) — The disappearance of historical documents worth maybe hundreds of thousands of dollars from the state archives has touched off an investigation ranging from here to Waco to Port Arthur.

Texas Ranger George Brakefield went to Port Arthur, and another ranger and Archives Director John Kinney went to Waco on the case.

The probe began following the arrest Monday of a Port Arthur man in connection with the theft of maps from the Austin Public Library and the University of Texas Library.

City police said it appeared there was a large-scale scheme to steal historical documents from nearly a dozen libraries across the state.

Brakefield said late Tuesday there were reports of other thefts, but that he could not elaborate.

Still being held in Travis County jail in lieu of $6,000 in bond on two counts of felony theft is William Gerald Gray, 21, of Port Arthur.

Police said he was arrested and charged in connection with the theft of an 1840 Texas map from the Austin-Travis county collection of the city library and theft of five maps from the documents collection from the UT library.

Three maps and two land grants still are missing from the city collection, with 12 posters and public notices dating from the Republic of Texas period (1836-1845) missing from the state archives.

Kinney said the state documents were worth possibly as much as $20,000 to $50,000 per document.

Sentinel Details Put On Record

DALLAS (AP) — Court documents showed Wednesdav that former Texas Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr helped organize Sentinel Airlines, Inc., but resigned as a director prior to the period covered by a stock fraud suit against that Dallas firm.

The Securities and Exchange Commission filed the federal court suit Tuesday. It alleges that the market for Sentinel stock was "artificially created and maintained" after James G. McCollom and others gained control of the company last October.

McCollom, president and treasurer of Sentinel who is a defendant in the suit, told federal agents in an investigative transcript filed with the court that his mother's sister is the stepmother of Carr's wife.

These further details were placed on record with the court:

Carr was a director of Sentinel from the time it was formed in October of 1968 and also special counsel of the firm until he resigned last fall.

McCollom told the SEC, however, that he was not aware Carr helped organize Sentinel last Oct. 14 when McCollom was elected president and treasurer —the same day Carr's resignation was disclosed.

James C. Shepard of Dallas, one of the owners of Astro Printing Corp., said McCollom told him Sentinel was "started primarialy by Waggoner Carr and has some real influential people in it, had a lot of money and they were going to put other companies like us (Astro) into it and build a conglomerate."

Their conversation occurred shortly after McCollom's election as president of Sentinel, and Shepard said McCollom told him Carr was not connected with the company.

"He said Waggoner Carr had resigned and that's how he got the position," Shepard informed SEC investigatorsm

The SEC says there are about 725,000 shares of Sentinel stock outstanding, all unregistered, and these are held by about 90 shareholders.

In the two years Sentinel existed before McCollom took over, the SEC says about 310,000 shares of its stock were issued to- "numerous stockholders spread throughout the state."

Carr is not among the six defendants in the suit naming Sentinel and McCollom along with Albert Lee Woolard, James W. Marchbanks, Sy Yoakum Guthrie and Alexander Alexander, all of Dallas, and Armand Mucci of Mentor, Ohio.

An earlier SEC suit alleging stock fraud and manipulation in insurance stock dealings lists Carr among the 28 individual and corporate defendants. This case is set for trial Aug. 30.

Congress Challenged On Wage-Price Board

WASHINGTON (AP) — Switching his tactics, President Nixon has challenged Congress to structure a wage-price review board without binding the economy in a straitjacket of controls.

Welcoming a full-scale debate in Congress on the wage-price board proposal, Nixon said Wednesday he is now open-minded about the idea but still skeptical it would ever work or should even be tried. In the past he had rejected such a move outright.

Nixon's new flexibility on the anti-inflation proposal was coupled with a pledge to move more vigorously against big wage and price increases in the economy on a case-by-case basis.

As Congress pondered his words, the Labor Department prepared a fresh reading on inflationary trends in the economy with a report on July wholesale-price movements.

Nixon's challenge to Congress on a wage-price board was delivered in a roundabout way. He said he would consider such an idea favorably only if hearings convince him it could be done without stifling the economy.

He said he would reject any proposal that would impose a new bureaucracy with enormous criminal powers to fasten itself on the American economy. That, I think, would do far more harm than good."

But, if a wage-price board proposal concerned itself with only voluntary guidelines, he said, that would never work, either. Voluntary compliance with guidelines may work for only three or four months before leading to a new wage-price spiral, he said.

Federal Reserve Board Chairman Arthur F. Burns has suggested a board without enforcement powers to monitor and investigate big wage and price increases. Some Democrats have suggested a board with strong enforcement powers.

Legislation introduced by 13 Republican senators Wednesday, a move triggering Nixon's response, would set up a board to establish wage-price guidelines and enforce them through government procurement policies or a wage-price freeze.

Although Nixon's statement against "a new bureaucracy" appeared to rule out support for the senators' plan, he added in referring to congressional proposals:

"As far as we are concerned, we have an open mind in terms of examining the various proposals to see if there is a new approach which we may not have thought of.

"I have serious doubts that they will find such a new approach, but I do want to indicate that we will examine it because we all agree that the wage-price spiral is a significant danger to this expanding economy. The question is what we do about it, without going all the way to a totally controlled economy."

Sun Oil Plans Major Changes

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 2 — Sun Oil Co. has announced a plan to reorganize its marketing and refining operations and its exploration and production operations into two separate subsidiaries of a new Pennsylvania parent corporation.

Chairman Robert G. Dunlop said the proposed reorganization will bring the legal structure of the corporation into closer conformity with Sun's organizational structure implemented in February, 1970. He said it is designed to effect a more efficient operating structure reflecting separate performance responsibilities and to make tax obligations more consistent with operations actually conducted in different states.

State Hires More Employes

AUSTIN (AP) — The growth of public welfare in Texas is reflected by the growth of the number of state employes who work in that department.

A recent state audit of the Public Welfare Department said as of Aug. 31, 1970, the department employed 4,577 persons, or 1,036 more than two years before.

The audit said 2,289 persons quit the department during the two-year period ending Aug. 31, 1970, for a turnover rate in fiscal 1969 of 29 per cent in fiscal 1970 of 28 per cent.

High Meat Prices Forecast

By DON KENDALL
AP Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — An awesome consumer appetite for red meat, seemingly at any price, is keeping pace with record production and causing headaches for the government's retail-price watchers.

The Agriculture Department says food prices are rising a bit faster than earlier forecast but still expects grocery prices for all of 1971 to gain about 3 per cent, well below the 5.1-per-cent jump last year.

However, farmers have been turning out a record supply of beef and pork with little price benefit to consumers. A super-size pig crop last year caused hog prices paid farmers to plummet last fall and winter.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics says pork chops in June averaged $1.06 per pound at retail stores, compared with about $1.01 last January when the pork surplus was hitting the maket. Last summer, before the farm price break, they were about $1.17 per pound.

Farmers are cutting back on hog production now and the outlook is for their prices to improve, meaning higher pork prices at stores.

Beef prices also are on the way up despite record-large cattle output. In June, hamburger cost 68.7 cents a pound, up more than two cents from a year earlier, the BLS said. Round steak averaged nearly $1.38 per pound, compared with less than $1.30 a year earlier.

Beef and pork account for most of the meat consumed by Americans. And meat takes around 30 per cent of a family's food budget.

The Agriculture Department said in a food-situation report issued Wednesday that supermarket food prices during the first three months of 1971 were up less than 1 per cent. But during April-June they jumped 2.5 per cent above a year earlier.

Looking ahead, the USDA says consumers may spend nearly $120 billion on all food this year, nearly 6 per cent more than in 1970. More people, an increase in per-capita meat consumption and higher prices will account for nearly all the rise.

A major factor in boosting food demand, particularly for meat, is an expected rise this year of around 8 per cent in consumer take-home pay. As paychecks grow larger, family spending for food seems to depend less on prices.

Hazen F. Gale, a food analyst with the Economic Research Service in USDA, said he is optimistic the over-all price rise of food this year would be held to 3.5 per cent including meals eaten away from home.

However, Gale said, consumers probably have seen beef and pork prices the lowest they will be for some time.
