Home run or strike out for girls' softball?

Concerned parents ask school board for girl's softball program

"It's about time Colorado City had a girls' softball program," said a parent-spokesperson for more than a dozen parents attending Monday night's school board meeting.

Parents and coaches for the girls' summer softball team filled the boardroom in the Colorado Independent School District administration building during the board's regular monthly meeting.

Leslie Scott, Donna Boyd and Jeff Sharp spoke to the board, presenting reasons for the need for a softball team and anticipating possible objections from the board, such as cost and facilities.

More than 100 local girls, from five to 16 years old, played for the American Softball Association teams last summer, the board was told. Girls on the team for 15 and 16-year-olds have between four and seven years experience playing softball. Last year the youngest Pixie Division of girls from five to eight years old took second in the state and two girls were picked up by Snyder to go to the state tournament. "The talent is there. I think we can hit the top quick," said Jeff Sharp, a volunteer coach for the ASA team.

Leslie Scott, the parent of a daughter who has played softball for 12 years, said there would be enough teams for the girls to play. Area schools with girls' softball teams, such as Kermit, Greenwood and Coahoma, would welcome Colorado City into the district. Coahoma's starting budget of $5,000 included building facilities. The city might provide the field so the initial cost could be $1,000, she said.

Donna Boyd, a parent, said that parents had asked the board for a softball program several years ago but the head coach at that time "had been negative because he didn't have the coaches."

School Board President Larry Blasingame said that when it was brought to the board

DEDICATION OF MADDIN PRAIRIE: Native Prairies Association secretary Lee Stone of Austin looks on as Bunky Girvin (left) and his son, Bob Girvin, plant prairie grass during a dedication ceremony. More than a thousand acres of land south of Colorado City was donated. Bob Girvin will maintain the land for the association.

Maddin donates over 1,000 acres to group

"Grass as far as the eye could see and as tall as a cow's back," was the way one government agent described this area in 1867, a speaker said during last week's conference here on native prairies.

Around 25 people attended the conference held by the Native Prairies Association of Texas Friday and Saturday in the C. C. Thompson room.

The Native Prairies Association of Texas is dedicated to promoting awareness of native prairies and supporting the conservation, management and study of prairie remnants. The two-day event was highlighted by a dedication Saturday morning at the Maddin Ranch.

Over a thousand acres of land seven miles south of Colorado City were donated to the association by Alfred E. Maddin, who now lives in Houston. His donation was made in memory of his parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A.L. Maddin and A. E. Maddin.

The land will be allowed to return to its original prairie grasses. Almost a dozen different varieties of grasses native to this area were planted during the dedication ceremony.

Rev. Travis Monday gave the invocation before the ceremony. "Dear Lord, we thank and praise You for the native vegetation of the prairie land," began Rev. Monday.

After asking forgiveness for mismanagement of this resource, he said, "We ask, Lord, that You

Board will seek new hospital administrator

The Mitchell County Hospital District Board of Directors will be seeking a new hospital administrator with the resignation of Wendell Alford last week.

Alford's resignation will be effective November 1. He served as administrator and pharmacist for the hospital since October 1990.

Methodist Hospital, who has a contract to provide the hospital district with an administrator, will send an interim administrator until a permanent one is hired, according to Board President Fred Thompson.

Truman Sweeney, who is familiar with Mitchell County Hospital because he's filled in for Alford in the past, is expected to be named the interim administrator.

Thompson said the board will

Street repairs estimated to cost over 1 million

A major street repair project will probably cost over a million dollars, City Manager Steve Shutt told the city council during the October meeting.

With the water and sewer projects nearing completion, the city council is looking at what would be involved in taking on street repairs as the next major project.

Shutt, who has begun the process of gathering information on repairing the streets, told the council, "when you have the water and sewer projects, you are not finished until you fix the streets."

The city manager estimated that at least 400 blocks of streets would need to be repaired if the city did 60 to 70 percent of the streets that need work.

"A cursory estimate of the number of blocks that would need to be done to put a major dent on these rotten streets is over a million dollars," said Shutt.

Sky will be full of balloons next Monday

Around a thousand balloons released into the sky over Colorado Middle School will kick off Red Ribbon Week activities Monday morning, Oct. 21.

Colorado Independent School District will be promoting Red Ribbon Week October 21 to 25. The Middle School will host the kick-off ceremony which will begin at 8:40 a.m. Monday. John Barton from the Department of Public Safety will be the featured speaker.

Students from all the CISD campuses will be on hand for the assembly and balloon release. The community is invited.

See schedule, page 6

CISD classes will include lessons on drug prevention this week and teachers throughout the district have planned contests relating to the Red Ribbon campaign.

The campaign, sponsored by the Texans' War on Drugs, is the district's effort to raise awareness and educate the community in drug prevention.

Red ribbons are the symbol behind the nation's war against drugs. The purpose of the Texas Red Ribbon Campaign is

Loraine faces Westbrook

...in homecoming fete

The Loraine Bulldogs and the Westbrook Wildcats game this Friday night in Loraine will not be your ordinary neighborhood rivalry.

The two teams are not only fighting for local bragging rights for another year, they are both fighting for the six-man District 6 title and a shot at the playoffs. But there is nothing wrong with a little friendly competition, right, coaches?

"This is our biggest rivalry every year," said Westbrook Head Coach Jim Hill. "Our kids want to win this game as much as any other."

"It's always been a bad rivalry," said Loraine Head Coach Rick Cooper. "In every sport, this is one of the biggest games of the year."

Loraine (2-4, 0-1) is coming off a rough loss to Borden County, but Coach Cooper isn't about to write this game off yet. "I won't make any predictions, but if we play our best, anything can happen."

The Bulldogs have been getting solid production from quarterback Richard Cooper, and have a legitimate defensive threat in Raymond Limones.

Westbrook (6-0, 1-0) counters with quarterback Justin Hill, who has thrown over 20 touchdown passes, and wideout Casey Hill, who is usually on the receiving end of these passes. The Wildcats' defense is led by George Rincones.

"Loraine has a different type of team this year," said Coach Hill. "We expect a physical, good, hard-nosed ballgame."

You can make a difference on Make a Difference Day

Mitchell County will participate in Make A Difference Day on Saturday, October 26 for the first time this year.

Make A Difference Day has been set aside as one special day for doing good. Individuals and groups, young and old, volunteer to do something that will make life a little better for someone else with the idea that we all can do something to make the world a better place in which to live. It can be as simple as reading to a child or as big as reclaiming a neighborhood.

Hundreds of projects will receive coverage in USA Weekend magazine and 10 outstanding projects will be honored at a ceremony in Washington, D.C. in April. Last year, Abilene received recognition for the many projects that were done around the city.

Charities will receive $120,000 that has been donated by Paul Newman, the founder, and USA Weekend magazine.

If Mitchell County were to win one of the $2,000 donations that will be made to 60 projects, it will be used for the Christmas In April project to repair houses in our county, said Jan Lemons.

Lemons sent for information about how our county could participate after hearing about it from Kay McCarley.

"Anyone can participate—a child, an individual, a family, a school class or a group such as a church or organization," said Lemons. "It's on a volunteer basis."

The project has to be done on Saturday, October 26. After the project is complete, call Jan Lemons, 728-3678, by October 29. Lemons will record all the projects that have been done and send the info to Make A Difference Day headquarters.

Individuals or groups decide for themselves what they'd like to do. It can involve an hour or a full day of doing good on the 26th.

Look around for someone or some cause you can help. Your project can be a new, one-time event or an extra push for your ongoing volunteer activity. One Colorado City man said that since he hired someone to care for his yard, he was going to do yardwork for someone else that day.

Another local woman said she planned to help a neighbor with house repairs and bake something for someone else.

Another woman whose children are grown said she misses reading to small children. She plans to read a book to the neighborhood children.

There's no end to the good ideas that can make a difference.

THIS 'n' THAT

By Sheila Plagens

Greetings to everyone!

I saw Nelda and Robert Hill digging in their front yard last week. Come to find out, they were trying to remove a tree root that had grown into their water meter, reducing the water pressure. Robert finally chiseled it all out, Nelda was supervising!

Plans are underway for this year's Christmas parade. It will be held Saturday, November 23—that's the Saturday before Thanksgiving. The theme this year will be "Pilgrim's First Christmas."

After the parade, the courthouse lighting will take place and chamber officials are looking for entertainment for that event. If you would like to participate, please call the chamber.

Don't forget the beans and cornbread supper this Friday night. It's a benefit to help defray the cost of two local girls traveling abroad. Wendy Sullivan and Jamie Ellis will represent Colorado City and Mitchell County in China and London, but they need our help. For more information, see the Briefly column in today's Record.

Some of you may have noticed (I think quite a few) that Earl picked Greenwood to win last week—not because he thought they would, but to see if anyone reads Pigskin Pick 'em. He found out, so I don't imagine he will be doing that again.

A group of inmates from the Wallace Unit participated in the services at Emmanuel Baptist Church this past weekend to give their testimony and sing. The entire church is grateful to Chaplain Riley and the group for taking time to do this.

Local businesses will be handing out candy again this Halloween. Trick or treating will be held October 31 from 3-6 p.m. Watch the Record for details.

Speaking of Halloween... start getting those costumes ready. The Cinco de Mayo committee is sponsoring a Halloween dance on Nov. 2 at the Civic Center. Prizes will be awarded for the best costume, so put your thinking caps on and come up with a good costume.

Some employees of the Wallace

Unit will be holding a bake sale at 8 a.m., Sat., October 19 at Fuller Foods. A car wash will also be held starting at 10 a.m. at First National Bank.

From the pages of the Record, 30 years ago...

Colorado city council approves spending $470,000 to pave 125 blocks of streets... Ann Nobles is elected treasurer of Zeta Delta Study Club ... there were 502 farms in Mitchell County, according to a 1964 census ... junior high cafeteria open ... 5 channels were available on the new color TV on display in the lobby of City National Bank ... battery booster cables were only 99¢ at Western Auto and 14 oz. bottles of Del Monte catsup were 5 for 99¢.

Eight candidates attend local club's meeting

The Colorado City Business and Professional Women's Club held their regular meeting Tuesday, October 8 at 6 p.m. in the civic center. Virginia Dearen and Earline Sellier of the Legislative Committee hosted.

Anna Staats, president, presided over the business meeting. Minutes were read and approved and the treasurer's report was read and filed for audit.

Pauline Light, finance chair, reported that the club would accept donations for a bread machine to be given away in December.

Shirley DeLaney, told the group that October 21-25 is National Business Women's Week.

The board recommended that the club support Christine Cooley as state nominating committee alternate and Virginia Dearen as district treasurer at the district conference.

One new member, Mary Beth Love, joined.

The program was "Meet Your Candidates," in which candidates running for office this year discussed their platforms. Taking part in person or represented were Beverly Collier for Troy Fraser; Rudy Izzard, U.S. Congress; Carl Guelker, county commissioner; Mark Piland, county attorney; Faye Lee, tax assessor-collector; Debby Carlock, county clerk; Patrick Toombs, sheriff; and Kay Richmond, Justice of the Peace for Precincts 2 and 3.

Members present were Faye Spivey, Christine Cooley, Donna Laurens, Anna Staats, Pauline Light, Virginia Dearen, Earline Sellier, Glenna Garrett, Nancy Crow, Lovess Curlee, Shirley DeLaney, Mildred Free, Molly Bruce, Phyllis Lane and Sue Womack. Guests were Beverly Collier and Mary Beth Love.

Local B&PW Club hosts conference

The Colorado City Business and Professional Women's Club hosted the Fall Conference of Districts 7 and 8 on Saturday, October 12. Colorado City is in District 7, which has five clubs. District 8 has four clubs. Pauline Light of Colorado City is district chair for District 7 and Nell Maddux of Pecos is district chair for District 8.

The theme for the conference was unity, "Building Bridges Together—Districts 7 and 8". Doris McClellan was the guest speaker. Her presentation was on wildflowers and included slides of native flowers and grasses, interesting ideas on how to plant and care for them, and how some of them have been used for medicinal purposes.

Barbie Hernandez, state BPW president of the San Antonio BPW spoke to the club. A hospitality hour was held from 8-9 a.m. in the Heart of West Texas Museum. Junior Girl Scout Troop #39 of Colorado City led the Pledge of Allegiance. Connie Chambers and Donna Boyd are the group leaders.

Windi Fuller, manager of the Colorado City Chamber of Commerce, welcomed the group to Colorado City. Glenna Haskell of Midland gave the response.

Pauline Light and Nell Maddux presided over the business session.

The First Assembly of God Church of Colorado City catered the noon luncheon. Angels, flower seed packets and grapevines made up the place settings. Workshops were held after lunch.

Each district held its own business session and a message was heard from the state president.

Ann Burmeister of San Angelo was elected district director for District 7 next year.

Thirty-eight members were present, one state and national officer, three state/national committee members, eight past district officers, six first-timers and three guests.

After the conference closing, Gwen Wistrand presided over high tea in the Heart of West Texas Museum.

Hospital auxiliary meets

The Mitchell County Hospital Auxiliary met October 8 at the Wallace Center.

Gloria Erwin, president, called the meeting to order and introduced Mark Potter, who spoke about a new stretcher bed for the ambulance service. The group voted in favor of buying the bed.

Lily Funderburg and Friday Moore gave a talk about how to present the immunization packet to new mothers.

Present were Estella Rivera, Bessie Cooper, Bertha Fay Snyder, Gloria Erwin, Maxine Pierson, Frances Cooper, Ann Brown, Lena Bullard, Bonnie Farrar, Anea Hardcastle, Geneva Killian, Billie Dannheim, Sibyl Walding, Mary Ellis, Faye Spivey, Friday Moore, Lily Funderburg and Mark Potter.

Retired teachers met October 8

The Mitchell County Retired Teachers Association met October 8 at the Wallace Center for a dutch treat luncheon.

After lunch, Earline Sellier called the meeting to order and introduced Bob Reily. Woody Anderson spoke about political views and a discussion followed.

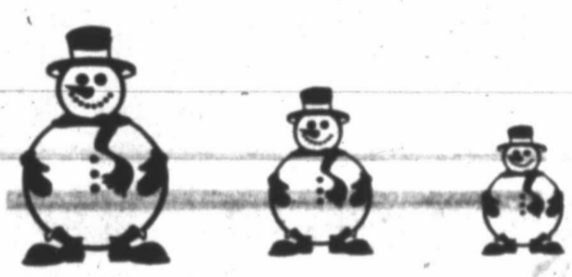

Attending were Ann Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Moore, Mamie Lou New, Betsy Lee Aycock, Fanny Fay Feaster, Mabel Merritt, Frances Godwin, Marian Craddock, Elaine McMichael, Ralston Bruce, Frances Cooper, Earlene Sellier, Mary Bowen, Aleabeth Ratliff, Trula Richardson, James Merrell, Bob Reily and Woody Anderson.

COOK'S CORNER

Lula Leach

Lula Leach was 13 years old when she learned to cook. She was living with her grandmother—learning by watching and helping when her grandmother became ill. So as a young girl of 13, Lula took over all the household responsibilities, including the cooking. She's been cooking now for over 50 years.

Ms. Leach has cooked in several restaurants over the years, such as Wyatt's in Abilene and Trucktown Cafe locally.

One of the things that Lula is most proud of is that she can make authentic Mexican food. All cooks have little secrets that make certain things turn out right. Lula's secret to fluffy Mexican rice is to use enough water so you don't have to stir it and to spice it with plenty of garlic. Lula enjoys the vegetables from her fall garden this time of year. She grows green beans, radishes, different types of greens and peppers. She recently entered some of her vegetables in the Mitchell County Fair and won in several divisions. Her radishes won a first and third place ribbon. Lula's mustard greens and homemade salsa also won first in their divisions.

Lula grows and freezes both pimentos and red jalapenos—which led to a big mistake awhile back. Three years ago at Thanksgiving, she mistakenly used red jalapenos in her sweet pea salad instead of pimentos. The salad was very hot! Lula takes responsibility for the mix-up because she forgot to label the peppers before freezing them.

When asked about favorites, Lula's son Cliff said that he likes just about everything his mother cooks. Lula likes steak, but doesn't eat it very often due to her diabetes. Living with this disease has taught Lula a lot about healthy eating. She shared another tip with us for those who are cutting down on their sugar intake. When canning fruit, concentrated apple juice may be used for sweetener instead of sugar.

Lula was born and grew up in east Tennessee. She has five children, three sons and two daughters. She also has nine grandchildren and one great granddaughter. Ms. Leach has lived in Colorado City for 21 years and currently works for Outreach Health Services.

We hope you enjoy the recipe for Lula's ribbon-winning salsa along with the others she submitted.

Chicken or Turkey Casserole

- 2 cups cooked chicken
- 3/4 cup onions, chopped
- 3/4 cup celery, chopped
- 3/4 cup bell pepper, chopped
- 1 can cream of mushroom soup
- 4 cups cooked spaghetti
- 2 cups cheddar cheese, grated
- 1/2 stick margarine

Cook spaghetti. Saute onions, celery and bell peppers in margarine. Layer ingredients in baking dish sprayed with Pam. First layer spaghetti, one layer chicken, one layer vegetables, one layer cheese. Mix soup with one-half can water, pour half of this over layers. Repeat layers, except cheese. Cover with foil and bake at 350° for 45 minutes. Take off foil and add top layer of cheese. Bake just until cheese melts. Serves 8.

Per serving: 301 Calories; 13g Fat (39% calories from fat); 22g Protein; 24g Carbohydrate; 60mg Cholesterol; 400mg Sodium

Million Dollar Pound Cake

- 1 pound butter, softened
- 3 cups sugar
- 6 each eggs
- 4 cups all-purpose flour
- 3/4 cup milk
- 1 teaspoon almond extract
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Cream butter in a large mixing bowl, gradually add sugar, beating well at medium speed. Add eggs, one at a time, beating after each addition. Add flour to creamed mixture alternately with milk. Stir in flavorings. Mix about three minutes. Pour batter into a 10-inch bundt or tube pan that has been sprayed well with Pam. Bake at 300° for 1 hour, 40 minutes. Serves 12.

Per serving: 658 Calories; 34g Fat (46% calories from fat); 8g Protein; 83g Carbohydrate; 175mg Cholesterol; 348mg Sodium

Salsa

- 2 cups jalapeno, chopped
- 4 cups onion, chopped
- 4 cups bell pepper, chopped
- 2 cloves garlic, chopped
- 1 gallon tomatoes, chopped

Cook for 30 minutes. Put in jars and put in pressure cooker and pressure for about 10 minutes, or you can just hot water bath.

Hazard-free yard makes for much happier haunting

Many parents get spooked when pint-sized ghosts and goblins begin their Halloween trick-or-treating expeditions. The evening can pose special hazards for young tricksters and scare the daylight out of parents.

If you expect a gaggle of cowboys and princesses to haunt your neighborhood on Halloween night, make sure your yard is free of hazards.

- Remove obstacles in the yard, such as hoses, sprinklers, lawn furniture and potted plants. Turn your porch light on to let children know they're welcome.
- Pets, especially dogs, may become agitated with so many visitors. Keep your pets indoors or out of harm's way for a few hours.
- Treats don't have to be full of sugar and fat. Consider giving healthy treats such as boxes of raisins, pre-packaged granola bars and sugar-free bubble gum. Some families give away pencils and colorful erasers for school.

CHIEF LONE WOLF

By Jim Baum

Our Chamber of Commerce doesn't brag about it, but we really have a lot of skunks in Colorado City. 'Course, that's not the type thing a community does go about beatin' its chest. We've been bothered by these little black and white critters off and on for a long time, so the current invasion is really nothing new.

Matter of fact, over the years we've been overrun with everything from rattlesnakes, rabbits and rats to crows, grasshoppers and boll weevils. Rattlesnake roundups were old stuff to the cowboys on the Spade Ranch going way back. (The county was paying a .10 cent per head bounty in 1936. See Lone Wolf, July 23, 1992.)

Going back even further, just after the turn of the century, a bounty was paid on jackrabbits. The late Louise Guisenberger remembered visiting her Grandfather Wulfjen's ranch in Mitchell County.

"I had a .22 rifle and the jackrabbits were just running all over the country. There were thousands of them. So the county commissioners established a bounty of .5 cents an ear and I killed a lot of jackrabbits."

Mrs. Guisenberger said she would just put the rabbit ears in a tow sack in the back of her buggy.... "course it was just a bloody mess".... And every time she got in the buggy with her granddad she said she'd kill rabbits just as fast as she could load her .22.

"Then I'd take a knife and cut their ears off and throw them in the back. When that ended, I had $250 in the bank for jackrabbit ears!"

Hmmm, let's see now. $250 divided by a nickel per ear.... Wow, that's 5,000 ears!! Enough for jackrabbits, let's move along. We mentioned crows. There used to be crow hunts in Mitchell County. Hunters would line up with their weapons, then move across fields blasting crows as they took off. The Kiwanis Club even sponsored a crow hunt in 1969. (See Lone Wolf August 12, 1993.)

Getting back to the rabbits, there was a time when boys played in fields and amused themselves by 'twisting' the longeared animals out of their holes. Odis Cranfill was one who did just that.

"Well, you have to get you a barbed wire 'bout 10-12 feet long. You fix a handle on it, then you have to go to a prairie dog town to find the rabbits."

Next, Cranfill told us, you have to see which hole the rabbit scampered into. "I've twisted out a lot of 'em. The barbed wire gets tangled up in their fur and hide and you just pull 'em out," he added.

At various times there's also been all out war against prairie dogs, but Cranfill said they couldn't be twisted out like rabbits.

"Their skin was too tight. The twister just wouldn't hang on." And that's when poison had to be dropped in the prairie dogs' habitats.

We've also been plagued with grasshoppers in West Texas. One veteran of the grasshopper was Erwin Jones. Although his campaign was waged in Callahan County, it is noteworthy because of the strategy.

"Well, I made a nickel a hundred," he told us. He killed the grasshoppers with a stick and he just wailed everything in sight as he waded into the fields. It was probably more fun to keep score than it was to fight the battle.

"We had a little piece of paper," he continued, "and every time we killed five, we'd put it down. Now that was a good job." Jones said he worked primarily in cotton fields and earned .10 to .15 cents a day. And he had a pretty good aim.

Let's see, that covers skunks, rattlesnakes, grasshoppers and crows. That brings us to the epic struggle known as Rallying Against Rats. It happened right here in Colorado City sometime in the 1930s. The star of this story is Charles Earnest Porter.

"I was a U.S. Biological Specialist," he claimed. He was also 11 years old and apparently quite impressed with titles. But, we interrupted.

"My function was to go around and put rat traps in a lot of businesses and try to catch these rats," the Pied Piper of Colorado related.

Local sources say the young entrepreneur was rather successful at his unique trade. (He was paid .3 per rat!)

"I had to cut their tails off. So I had a maize-header, which is a knife, and I would cut their tails off." And talk about successful! "I worked my way out of a job, we caught so many."

And that brings us to the bo weevil. The fight continues. Some of the aforementioned methods of eradication are probably archaic and/or have been replaced by more modern and honorable ways of killing.

It's hard to imagine Louise Guisenberger out shooting weevils with a .22... or Erwin Jones killing 'em with a stick. Twistin' 'em out is surely out of the question. So are traps, and besides, how do you cut off the ears or tails of a bo weevil?

Come to think about it, there probably aren't too many people willing to put in a day's work out in a hot field for three cents or a nickel per kill. So, we'll just have to wait, and see if current tactics do the job.

Just hope we don't get in trouble with some Insect Rights Group for trying to starve out the poor little bo weevil.

Lifestyles

Russell and Candi Blair

Baker, Blair united in August ceremony

Candi Nicole Baker, daughter of T.J. and Vanessa Baker of Colorado City, and Russell "Rusty" Blair, son of Ronnie and Debbie Blair of Colorado City were married August 24 in Jesus Name United Pentecostal Church, Colorado City.

James Manley, the bride's uncle, officiated the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of candlelight brocade satin made by her mother-in-law.

Kimberly Baker was maid of honor for her sister-in-law. Bubble girls were Briana Ortiz, niece of the groom and Emmy Snowden, cousin of the bride.

Best man was Jeffrey Stockton.

The bride is currently attending nursing school and the groom is an August graduate of Texas State Technical College, Sweetwater.

The couple makes their home in Colorado City.

Bill Sims Day planned Oct. 19 in Paint Rock

Saturday, October 19 has been designated Bill Sims Day in Paint Rock in honor of a native son on the eve of his retirement after 14 years in the Texas senate.

The event was organized through the combined efforts of the senator's friends, local agriculture-related organizations, Concho County and the cities of Paint Rock and Eden under the leadership of State Representative Bob Turner

An all-services honor guard from Goodfellow will open the festivities at 10 a.m. on the grounds of the Concho County Courthouse. Sims will receive awards, both lighthearted and serious, including local presentations and several honors from state organizations.

The Concho 4-H clubs will provide drinks at a refreshment stand. At noon a fundraising barbecue lunch will be served in the county show barn by members of the Concho County Junior Livestock Show Association.

The 4-H clubs will sponsor a special stamp cancellation

Diabetes seminar is Nov. 9

November is National Diabetes Month and the San Angelo/Concho Valley Chapter of the American Diabetes Association will present a seminar on Saturday, November 9 from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. at First Christian Church, 29 N. Oakes, San Angelo. The seminar is free and open to the public.

Sponsored by Shannon Health System, the seminar will include such topics as GI manifestations and treatments, foot complications, current diet therapies and heart attacks and strokes, among others.

For more information contact Debora Kilborn at 659-7558.

Grandson to perform at Euro Disney in Paris

Chris Cooper, a 1991 graduate of New Deal High School, recently signed a one-year contract with the Disney Corporation. He is the son of Mickey and Nancy Cooper of New Deal and the grandson of Bessie Cooper and Lorene Callaway, both of Colorado City.

Cooper will perform in a daily live production of "The Pony Express Ride," which is part of the Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show for Euro Disney. This European branch of Disneyland is located approximately 20 miles from Paris, France. The facility seats 1,000 people and Chris will perform two shows seven days a week.

Since April of 1992, Euro Disney has been visited by over two million people with the production seating a full house for each performance.

The actors and actresses in the show have had rodeo or other similar experience. The audience is treated to a Texas-style barbecue from a chuck wagon and entertained with music before the show.

Chris was a member of the Texas Tech University Rodeo Team, the High Plains Junior Rodeo Association for 10 years and the American Junior Rodeo Association.

While in high school, he participated in calf roping and team roping and was active in drama. He began steer wrestling while at student at Texas Tech. He graduated from Tech in 1995 with a degree in agricultural studies in animal production.

Chris feels that his involvement in the New Deal chapter of 4-H and its training in public speaking has helped him to get his job with Disney.

His family plans to travel to France to see him next summer.

"I want to tell you a few things about my friend Rick Rhodes."

With my retirement, it's so important we send a strong, bipartisan and conservative leader to the Texas Senate from District 24—someone who lives and works in the district and understands the people and their vision for a better Texas.

Rick with Senator Bill Sims

Rick RHODES
Texas Senate

Rick lives and works in the district and has for the past 23 years. His opponent from Big Spring recently moved into the district to run for my seat.

Rick's a conservative, small businessman and former, four-term mayor of Sweetwater. My wife, Sue, and I strongly support him for the Texas Senate.

We hope you will, too.

Rick will work hard to protect private property rights, champion small business, promote quality education, fight crime and guard against excessive government regulations. He'll serve our district and the state in a conservative, non-partisan manner.

Let's elect Rick and send him to Austin. He'll protect your concerns and continue our work for a better Texas.

Sincerely,

Bill Sims

Letter to the Editor:

The Tumbleweed Lioness Club would like to thank everyone who donated blood at our blood drive on October 2, 1996, which was a replacement drive for Dylan Slater. There were 43 units obtained. Not only will they help defray the expense for Dylan but will help several other people in our area.

A big thanks to the Record and KVMC-KAUM for advertising the drive for us.

Thank you again, Colorado City, for coming together when there is a need.

Letter to the Editor:

On behalf of the Native Prairies Association of Texas, we wish to express our most sincere appreciation to the good people of Colorado City and Mitchell County for the development and presentation of the Native Prairie restoration conference and the dedication of the Maddin Prairie Preserve.

We especially want to thank the Natural Resource Conservation Service for technical consultation and many hours of preparation to make this event a success. Other very accommodating persons were Earl Plagens of the Colorado City Record and Jim Baum, mayor and radio station owner. The ladies of the Chamber of Commerce, The City National Bank and the Heart of West Texas Museum were most helpful.

With people like you, we will try to return a small portion of God's creation to its original vegetation, habitat for wildlife, and a living laboratory for would give us wisdom to know, to appreciate, to care for and to live in harmony with all the plants and animals of the prairie land."

Those present included association members and representatives from state and federal natural resource-related agencies who had spoken at the conference. Topics ranged from soils, grasses and wildlife to water resources and prairieland maintenance.

A banquet was held at the Heart of West Texas Museum Friday evening. Local people attending the banquet or speaking during the conference included Lee Rodriguez, with the Natural Resource Conservation Service (NRCS) in Colorado City; Steve Shrode with NRCS; Peggy Maddox, Sweetwater teacher and feature speaker at the banquet; Dalton and Gretchen Maddox; Gilian Johnson who grew up here and now lives in Dallas; Denise Agends, part-time employee at the Colorado City State Park; and Bunk and Bob Girvin who lived on the Maddin Ranch. Bob Girvin is managing the Maddin land.

Five Colorado High School students, two FFA officers and three from the advanced biology class, attended the conference with their teachers Ray Ellis and Joanne Sanderson. Colorado High students will be doing research and taking soil samples at the prairie preserve.

"One of the goals is to use this land for further teaching—what it is now, what it will be like in the years to come and what we can do to restore it to its natural state," said Dr. Barron S. Rector, Extension Range Specialist from Texas A&M.

"It will be up to the youth to monitor and evaluate the changes that occur to this land in the future," said Dr. Rector. Awareness of the natural state of the land and land management will help prepare young people to solve future problems in managing our natural resources, he said.

"That's the reason all these agency people are here. They're looking for man to be involved in preserving our resources," Dr Rector said.

in the past, the board had asked for numbers.

He explained that the group would need to get a petition and the board could consider the request as an action item on next month's board agenda.

Superintendent Russell Merket said that the first step was a survey at the high school to determine whether there was enough interest. The survey could be done this week he said.

Merket also listed a number of factors that had to be considered—a cost analysis; the playing facility; facilities for girls like dressing rooms, paperwork of petitioning the UIL, a full time employee on staff to be a coach; a budget amendment since the expense to start a program had not been figured into this year's budget.

"These are questions that need to be answered before the next board meeting," said Merket. Parents in the group offered to help with the funding of the program through donations if necessary and if it was allowed. They also said that softball would not hinder the basketball and track programs, saying that there were enough girls for the sports or the girls could do more than one sport at a time.

Noting the girls' talent for the game and the softball scholarships available to girls from colleges, "the girls should have a chance," said Scott.

MARKET REPORT

Colorado City Livestock Market sold 737 cattle Saturday, October 12. The market was very active on all classes of feeder steers, stocker yearlings and heifers, and was $1-4 cwt. higher than the previous week. There was good demand and a slightly higher market on bred cows and pairs. Packer cows and bulls were steady with a slightly lower undertone.

Steer Calves and Feeder Yearlings: 200-300 lbs., $68-81 cwt.; 300-400 lbs., $62-$77;

400-500 lbs., $61-$72; 500-600, $56-$65; 600-750 lbs., $55-$62.50.

Heifers: 200-300 lbs., $52-$85 cwt.; 300-400 lbs., $50-$61.25; 400-500, $48-$63; 500-600 lbs., $50-$62.50; 600-750 lbs., $49-$63.

Bred Cows: Young, 6-8 mos. bred, $320-$460 per head.

Pairs: Good young pairs, with 200-300 lb. calves, $400-$675 per pair.

Packer Cows: $25-$36.50 cwt.; packer bulls, $37.50-$44.25.

Shutt also recommended that the council incorporate storm drainage into the overall plans.

Here are some suggestions:

- repair a neighbor's house;
- collect food for a food bank;
- clean up your neighborhood;
- take flowers to a senior citizen;
- do yardwork or house cleaning for the elderly or disabled;
- deliver food to someone;
- adopt a grandmother/grandfather at a home for the elderly;
- take a senior citizen to the grocery store, Ruddick Park, or just for a ride;
- ask a local agency what they need and do all you can to provide it;
- start a friendship with a shut-in;
- hold a garage sale with your neighbors to raise money for a cause;
- bake treats for seniors and deliver them with a song.

Rep. Johnson announces Izzard support

Mitchell County needs someone from the majority party representing them in Congress, a Republican congressman from Dallas said Monday.

U.S. Rep. Sam Johnson announced his support of 17th Congressional candidate Rudy Izzard during a press conference in Colorado City. He and Izzard visited San Angelo, Big Spring, lunched in Sweetwater and spoke at the VFW Post in Abilene during Monday's campaign tour.

Johnson predicted that Republicans would gain ten to 15 seats in Congress after the Nov. 5 election.

"Dole will probably take the gloves off Wednesday," said Johnson. "I think you're going to see a hard shot at winning the presidency."

Johnson, a former Vietnam prisoner of war and Air Force pilot, said that Izzard has been promised a seat on the Armed Services Committee if elected.

Izzard, a dentist, rancher and former city councilman in San Angelo, said that the seat would put him in a "key position to represent the military interests in this district." During Monday's press conference, he also repeated his interest in the Agriculture Committee and the importance of agricultural issues to people in this area.

Hunter appreciation dinner is Nov. 2nd

The 5th Annual Hunters Appreciation Dinner will be held at the Railhead Building Saturday, November 2.

The all-you-can-eat buffet dinner will begin at 7 p.m. Door prizes and a grand prize drawing will be held during the dinner.

Tickets are $4. Call the Chamber of Commerce for more information, 728-3403.

Stenholm makes campaign stop

U.S. Congressman Charles Stenholm visited with voters in Colorado City last Thursday in his campaign for a 10th term representing the 17th District.

Stenholm, a Stamford Democrat, serves as a senior member on the House Budget Committee and the Agriculture Committee. During last week's stop here, Stenholm said that the balanced budget is the number one issue now. He discussed the importance of "a common sense budget plan that would balance the federal budget by the year 2002."

Stenholm authored the Balanced Budget Amendment that passed the House in January 1995 and was one of the group of 21 conservative House Democrats, called "The Coalition" who proposed the Coalition budget last year.

"The Coalition budget puts spending cuts ahead of tax cuts," said Stenholm. "The Coalition is dedicated to developing non-partisan proposals on a host of issues which, we believe, do a better job than either extreme in presenting the values of the greatest majority of Americans."

Stenholm said that healthcare will continue to be important issues in Congress, addressing the needs of both today's and tomorrow's seniors. His advice is, "let's be careful about cuts in programs like Medicare."

Agriculture remains a high priority, he said. If re-elected, Stenholm is expected to be the top Democrat on the Agriculture Committee with the announced retirement of former Chairman Kika de la Garza. He is also currently a Ranking Member on the General Farm Commodities subcommittee.

Sales tax rebates running ahead of last year

State Comptroller John Sharp recently issued over $30,000 in sales tax rebates to towns in Mitchell County.

"It's yet another indication of the strength of the Texas economy that the year-to-date returns are running about 8.5 percent ahead of the total for the first 10 months of last year," Sharp said.

Colorado City received $29,751.87, a 20.9 percent increase over the $24,608.51 paid last year at this time. Payments made to date in 1996 to Colorado City total $318,937.42.

The city of Loraine saw a drop of nearly 20 percent from the rebate payment they received last year. Loraine was paid $292.87 in sales tax rebates this year as compared to $363.44 last year. The community has received $6,063.36 so far in 1996.

The $712.79 paid to Westbrook was also a decrease from the payment they received last year during this pay period. The town received $23.11 less than the $927.14 sent last year. Westbrook has received $8,227.81 this year to date.

The sales tax rebate payment made to Mitchell County totaled $12,875.07, a 20.18 jump over the $10,712.54 paid to the county last year at this time. The county has received $134,082.81 this year.

This month's payments to Texas cities and counties include taxes collected on August sales.

Colorado High School lists accomplishments during last two years

A recent "State of the District Report" highlighted the many accomplishments and changes there have been in the Colorado Independent School District during the last two years.

At Colorado High School, horticulture and health care science programs were started and anatomy, physiology and a third year Spanish class were added to the curriculum.

Other accomplishments at CHS have included:
 • implemented TAAS classes for low-performing students;
 • TAAS scores have improved each year;
 • received $5,000 in 1994 for recognized status for TAAS scores;
 • began an academic banquet to honor outstanding students;
 • participation in UIL events has increased;
 • band won sweepstakes for the first time in many years;
 • established Tech Prep agreements with Western Texas

College, Texas State Technical College and Sul Ross State University in horticulture, nursing and agriculture;

• increased technology—purchased 17 Windows '95 Pentium processors; added a third lab; automated the library; purchased 12 computers to be used in math and science classes; upgraded the server with windows; upgraded secretaries' computers; purchased computers for yearbook staff; acquired satellite dish for distance learning;
 • UIL competition successes: one act play advanced to area, state champion in computer technology, third in prose and third overall in district;
 • Athletic successes: district and bi-district champions in football; girls' basketball district and bi-district champions; boys' runner-up in basketball; boys' second place in track; boys' champion in golf; boys' and girls' regional champions in power lifting.

More isn't always better—especially with vitamins

More is not always better, especially when it comes to supplementing children's diets with vitamins.

Over-the-counter supplements can be potentially toxic and megadoses can be harmful, warns Dr. Kathleen J. Motil, at the USDA's Children's Nutrition Research Center. "Too much iron can be fatal, and there are cases where excess vitamin A and D can damage the kidneys, heart and brain." Motil is an assistant professor of pediatrics at Baylor College of Medicine.

Vitamins are available in two forms, fat soluble and water soluble. Fat soluble vitamins include A, D, E and K. Water solubles include B-1, B-2, niacin, B-6, B-12 and vitamin C.

Water soluble vitamins are easily absorbed by the intestinal tract and flushed out of the body during urination if not needed, Motil explained. Fat solubles, on the other hand, are more difficult to absorb and tend to be stored in the body.

"The fat soluble vitamins are the worry," Motil said. "Reactions vary from person to person. Some people are more sensitive to fat soluble vitamins."

In general, Motil believes that vitamins are unnecessary if a child is healthy and consumes a well-balanced diet.

She suggests the USDA's food guide pyramid as a reference. The pyramid recommends two to three servings a day from the milk group, two to three servings of meat, poultry, fish or eggs, three to five servings of vegetables, two to four servings of fruit and six to 11 servings from the bread/cereal group.

"Even the most finicky eater will get enough vitamins and minerals with a varied diet including meat, dairy products, grains and fruits and vegetables," Motil said.

There are exceptions, however. Motil believes supplements are appropriate for premature infants, children on restrictive diets including vegetarian diets, and for children under the care of a physician for specific medical reasons such as a chronic illness, teen pregnancy or eating disorders.

A pediatrician may also recommend a flouride supplement, available alone and in combination with vitamins, if there is insufficient flouride in the drinking water.

Motil urges parents to consult their pediatrician or a registered dietitian who specializes in children's nutrition if they are concerned about their child's eating habits.

LISD names student council

Loraine ISD's student council members for 1996-97 have been named.

Senior members are Teresa Rico, J.G. Munoz, Jesse Limones and Eliza DeLoera.

Council members from the junior class are Dee Givens, Elizabeth DeLoera and Laura Rosas.

CISD teachers honored by ex-students

One hundred twenty thousand American teachers are being honored by their toughest critics, their former students, in the fourth edition of Who's Who Among America's Teachers. The students themselves are currently listed in Who's Who Among American High School Students or The National Dean's List, publications which recognize five percent of American high school and college students, respectively.

Marcy Claxton of Colorado High School, Teresa Lemonds of Kelley Elementary School, Joan Lemons of Colorado High School, Linda Mathis of Colorado High School and Fern Reeves, a former substitute teacher, were all named for making a difference in their students' lives.

Students were asked to nominate teachers who helped shape their values, inspired interest in a particular subject and/or challenged them to strive for excellence. Many of the students commented about the enthusiasm and knowledge their teachers demonstrated in the classroom, and many praised their teachers for their ability to relate to youngsters on a personal as well as professional level.

Defensive driving to be held

A defensive driving class is scheduled for Saturday, October 19 from 8 a.m.-3 p.m. in room 6 of the Wallace Community Education Center. The class is sponsored by the National Traffic Safety Institute and Charles Watlington is the instructor.

The classroom session offers pointers in preventing accidents in spite of the incorrect actions of others and adverse driving conditions.

Films and other visual aids will be used to demonstrate driving skills. There will be a one-hour lunch break.

Those who complete the course will be eligible for possible ticket removal from their driving records.

Each student must bring to the class an approval letter from the judge. The fee for the course is $30. Registration must be completed by Friday, October 18.

For more information, call the Wallace Community Education Center at 728-2392.

Pain may be eliminated for millions

(SPECIAL) -- A drug that is exciting researchers in the treatment of pain has been formulated into a new product known as "Arthur Itis," and is being called a "Medical Miracle" by some, in the treatment of debilitating conditions such as arthritis, bursitis, rheumatism, painful muscle aches, joint aches, simple backache, bruises, and more. Although the mechanism of action is unclear, experiments indicate that Arthur Itis, relieves pain by first selectively attracting, and then destroying the messenger chemical which carries pain sensations to the brain, thus eliminating pain in the affected area. Arthur Itis, is an odorless, greaseless, non-staining cream and is available immediately without a prescription and is guaranteed to work or your money back.

WE SUPPORT RED RIBBON WEEK OCTOBER 21ST THROUGH 25TH

Red Ribbon Week 1996 is a project that links, via red ribbons, millions of Texans who are convinced that the war on drugs is winnable. The campaign is a grass roots effort which is designed to change attitudes about drug abuse and to promote a standard of NO USE OF ILLEGAL DRUGS AND NO ILLEGAL USE OF LEGAL DRUGS. Since 1985, red ribbons have symbolized the nation's effort to reduce the demand for drugs and to save our coming generation from the perils of drug involvement.

10 Steps to Help Your Child Say "NO"

1. TALK with your child about alcohol and other drugs.
2. LEARN to really listen to your child.
3. HELP you child feel good about themself.
4. HELP your child develop strong values.
5. BE a good role model or example.
6. HELP your child deal with peer pressure.
7. MAKE family rules.
8. ENCOURAGE healthy, creative activities.
9. TEAM UP with other parents.
10. KNOW what to do if you suspect a problem.

Over the years, the experience of drug educators and the evidence supported by research have identified some activities and actions that should be avoided when conducting drug use prevention education. These red flags include:

Trivializing drug use prevention.

Drug use prevention must be treated as a valued course of study, not as supplemental subject matter. ESR II activities should be integrated into regular lesson plans and included as a part of graded activities.

Using guest speakers who are recovering addicts.

Students should be exposed to successful adults who do not use, or have not used drugs. Speeches by former addicts and pushers may make a strong antidrug impression on adults, but students often receive totally opposite messages. For example, students may be impressed with the idea that a person can use drugs and still be perceived as a successful --even famous-- adult. The only time recovering users should be invited to assist with a drug prevention effort is in working with students who themselves are recovering users. Do involve healthy role models in the program at every opportunity.

Engaging in teacher self-disclosure.

Personal revelation by teachers or students should not be encouraged as a means of stimulating classroom discussion. Honest dialogue is an important aspect of prevention education, and student should be encouraged to strengthen their thinking skills by considering real-life dilemmas they will face. However, asking for personal revelations by students and teachers puts many students in situations for which they are not prepared.

Grouping students according to drug use behavior.

When conducting group activities, randomly select members for each group. Research indicates that students who associate with drug users tend to use drugs. Therefore, allowing students to choose their own groups may inadvertently promote drug use.

Teaching how to use drugs under the guise of informing about drugs.

Discussions of how drugs, make people feel may stimulate curiosity and encourage experimentation. Likewise, demonstrating drug paraphernalia serves no prevention purpose.

Sensationalizing the drug epidemic.

Consider your students' ability to handle the information you are presenting. While scare tactics may generate attention, such tactics are not a useful prevention strategy. Young people usually do not internalize sensational messages.

By CASEY EAGAN
The Colorado City Wolves overcame a 14-point fourth quarter deficit in spectacular fashion to shock the Greenwood Rangers 25-21 last Friday night in Greenwood. The Wolves, who were playing their first district game of the season, were dominated through much of the first three quarters by an opportunistic Ranger team, which held the powerful Wolves' rushing attack in until Arian Emerson and his three long touchdown runs in a seven-minute span of the fourth quarter brought back the Wolves from what would have been a devastating loss.

"We were pretty nervous," said Wolves Head Coach Bill Grissom. "I think we all felt that this game might get away from us."
The Wolves opened the game with a solid drive, paced by a 28-yard run by Chris Fambro. On fourth down and one at the Greenwood 19 yard line, Wolves runningback Arian Emerson was stopped at the line of scrimmage, turning the ball over to Greenwood.

The Rangers got their first big break of the game from their special teams. The Wolves attempted to punt on fourth down, but the snap sailed over punter Adam Wood's head, giving Greenwood first down and goal at the Wolves' five yard line. The Rangers scored a touchdown on the next play to go ahead 7-0 with 5:14 to play in the first quarter. The Wolves got right back in the game. Wolves quarterback Lance Dockrey hit Adam Wood with a 35-yard pass to midfield. Fambro broke through with a 40-yard run and Emerson capped off the drive with a five-yard touchdown run. Wolves kicker Chris Ramirez kicked the extra point to even the score at seven with 16 seconds left in the first quarter.

Greenwood's special teams again made an impact in the second quarter when the Wolves' Terry Green fumbled a Greenwood punt, with the Rangers recovering at the Wolves 47 yard line. Rangers quarterback Michael Otho led Greenwood downfield and put the Rangers back on top 14-7 with a five-yard touchdown run just before the half.

Greenwood opened the second half with another solid drive. Aided by a personal foul penalty on the Wolves, the Rangers again scored on a 14-yard touchdown pass to put the Wolves in a 21-7 hole with 8:28 to play in the third period.

Wolves quarterback Lance Dockrey completed five of 12 passes for 89 yards, but was hounded all night by the Rangers' defense, which sacked Dockrey twice. The Wolves' defense began to buckle down as well, with Blake Oden recovering a fumble and Jeremiah Munoz and Joe Ross Jameson making big tackles. Nevertheless, the Wolves' faithful were nervous as Colorado City went into the fourth quarter trailing 21-7. Emerson, who entered the game with nearly 900 yards rushing for the season, was zeroed in by the Ranger defense and was held to under four yards per carry through the first three quarters. The fourth quarter turned out to be a different story and may go down in Wolves history as one of their greatest comebacks.

After a third down pass interference call against Greenwood gave the Wolves a first down on the Wolves' 25th yard line, Emerson finally saw some daylight and raced 75 yards for the touchdown. Despite missing the extra point, the touchdown seemed to breathe new life into the Wolves as they narrowed the gap to 21-13 with 10:14 left in the game.

The Wolves' defense kept the offense within striking distance as Fambro and John Erwin came through in the clutch, forcing Greenwood to punt. Emerson wasted little time, receiving punishing blocks from his offensive line on the way to a 30-yard touchdown run to make it 21-19 Rangers. The Wolves went for the two-point conversion and failed, but they had turned the game around with 7:24 to play.

Greenwood was able to move the ball into Wolves territory, but were forced into a fourth down play at the Wolves 32 yard line. Jeremiah Munoz, who had a sensational game for the Wolves defense, came through again by recovering a fumble to give Colorado City one last chance with 3:30 left in the game. It took all of one play.

Big district game... Wolves face Crane

The Colorado City Wolves' celebration of last week's come-from-behind victory against Greenwood will have to be short-lived as they prepare for an even stricter test against Crane this Friday night at 7:30 p.m. at Wolf Stadium. Crane, like the Wolves, is 5-1 and 1-0 in district. First year Head Coach Alan Cherry has the Golden Cranes soaring, with victories over Alpine, McCamey, Brownfield and Lamesa, and are coming off a huge 25-13 district win over Sonora last week. Coach Cherry is no stranger to winning, having led the Hamlin Pied Pipers to the Class 2A playoffs a year ago. "We expected Crane to be much better this year and they have been," said Wolves Head Coach Bill Grissom. "Beating Sonora was a big win for them."

Crane has the most explosive offense in the district, averaging 37 points per game. The Wolves will counter with a defense that has allowed only 14 points per game. "Our defense will have to play a great game," Wolves Defensive Coordinator Gerald James said. "They have a strong running attack with an outstanding tailback. We've got our work cut out for us," he said.

Offensively, the Wolves sputtered for three quarters last week against a less talented Greenwood team, a team the Wolves clobbered last year. It took a fourth quarter blitz for the Wolves to pull out their first district win against a Ranger team that played its game of the year. "When Greenwood went up

See Crane, page 14

Emerson squeezed through another hole and bolted 61 yards for the touchdown, putting the Wolves ahead for the first time in front of a completely stunned Greenwood crowd. The Wolves again missed the two-point conversion, leaving them with a 25-21 lead with 3:20 to go in the game.

The game now rested in the hands of the fired-up Wolves defense. Erwin and Danny Scott combined on a bone-crushing tackle, but Greenwood was able to bring the ball inside the Wolves 30 yard line. The Wolves held strong, however, and on fourth down with 1:14 to play, Wolves defensive back Junior Molina intercepted the Greenwood pass to seal the 25-21 victory. It was the second time this year the Wolves have erased a 14-point or more deficit and Coach Grissom knows how important this comeback was. "With Crane and Sonora both playing so well, we can't afford to lose," he said. "We feel like we have to win every game in district."

Arian Emerson finished the game with 218 yards rushing and four touchdowns. An amazing 166 of those yards came in the fourth quarter. Chris Fambro added 89 yards rushing and Adam Wood had 53 yards receiving. On defense, Jeremiah Munoz, John Erwin and Danny Scott made big plays to keep the Wolves in the game.

The 5-1 Wolves, 1-0 in district play, will be at Wolf Stadium this Friday night at 7:30 p.m. against Crane. Crane upset Sonora last week and a victory over the Wolves would put them in the driver's seat for the district title.

"If Crane wins this Friday, they could roll through the rest of the schedule to the district title," he said. "We will have to step it up a notch."

Loraine Bulldogs beaten by Borden County, 56-8

The Loraine Bulldogs' district season opened with a tough blow, falling to Borden County 56-8 last Friday night in Gail.

The Bulldogs came into the game winners of two of their last three games, and expected to give Borden County a tough game. Things went downhill in a hurry for Loraine, however, much to the chagrin of Bulldogs Head Coach Rick Cooper.

"It was honestly our worst game of the year," said Coach Cooper. "We just didn't play well."

The Bulldogs junior high team nearly pulled out a victory, losing to Borden County 24-22. Coach Cooper is impressed with the younger Bulldogs, who are 2-2 for the season.

"They are playing very well," said Coach Cooper, "especially considering we only have two starters back from last year."

The varsity Bulldogs, 2-4, 0-1 have an even tougher challenge this week as they play undefeated Westbrook in the Bulldogs' homecoming game this Friday night at 7:30 p.m. in Loraine. Coach Cooper believes his team will be a little more settled this week.

"We were a little uptight, I guess, because of district," said Coach Cooper. "It was a bad case of nerves."

Lady Wolves cross country team competes in Abilene

The Lady Wolves cross country team, despite some nagging injuries, posted solid times in a meet in Abilene last Saturday.

The Lady Wolves were only to run one team member in the high school division due to the injury of top runner Wendy Sullivan and because of volleyball commitments of the rest of the team.

The Lady Wolves' Shandra Ross finished a minute and a half ahead of her time on the same course she ran earlier in the year. "She has continued to improve her times all year," said Lady Wolves Coach Darrin Leverton.

In the junior high division, Mindy Sullivan finished in second place, about 10 seconds ahead of her previous time.

The Lady Wolves travel to Levelland this Saturday and Coach Leverton expects most of his team back.

"Wendy's shin splints are much better," he said. "It will be good to have our team together, to get our team unity back before the district meet."

Wolves Booster Club holds weekly meeting

The Wolves Booster Club held its weekly meeting last Thursday at Collum's Restaurant.

In addition to the weekly treasurer's report, Wolves Head Football Coach Bill Grissom showed a film of the Wolves' win over Lamesa and gave a report on the team's progress.

Lady Wolves Volleyball Coach Jessica Lacy also was on hand to give a report on her team. The Lady Wolves began district play last week.

Club President Randy Erwin would like to encourage anyone interested in Wolves athletics to attend the next meeting, scheduled for Thursday at noon at Collum's Restaurant.

For more information, please call Randy Erwin at 728-3408.

SPORTS NOTES

Offensive Player of the Week

Runningback Arian Emerson was named Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against Greenwood last Friday night. Emerson exploded for 166 of his 218 rushing yards in the fourth quarter to help bring the Wolves back from a 14-point deficit to win 25-21.

Defensive Player of the Week

Defensive back Jeremiah Munoz was named Defensive Player of the Week. He made many big tackles, most of them on third down, and made a fumble recovery late in the game that led to the Wolves' go-ahead touchdown.

JV Wolves defeat Greenwood 34-22

The Wolves junior varsity football team received a stellar effort from runningback Frank Martinez and a great defensive effort to defeat Greenwood 34-22 last Thursday night at Wolf Stadium.

Martinez ran for 178 yards and two touchdowns and threw for another score to lead the Wolves to their second straight victory after starting the season 0-4.

"This was a total team effort. The kids played extremely hard," said Wolves JV Coach Phillip Ritchey. "Our defense shutting Greenwood out in the third quarter was the key to the game."

Wolves quarterback Armando Rocha completed four of five passes for 57 yards and a touchdown, and ran for 53 yards and another score for the Wolves. Jessie Rios caught an 18-yard touchdown pass for Colorado City, who must go back on the road this Thursday night at 7 p.m. against Crane.

"We're playing with more confidence and intensity," said Coach Ritchey. "It will take another good effort to beat Crane this week."

9th grade Wolves hold on for win

The ninth grade Wolves football team scored 22 unanswered points in the first half, but had to hold off a spirited Greenwood challenge for a 22-16 win.

Wolves runningback John McSpaddin led the way with 135 yards and Jamarr Smith added 42 to give the Wolves their third win of the season.

"We started the game with high intensity, but we let Greenwood get back in the game," said ninth grade Wolves Coach Doug Boone. "It wasn't pretty, but we got the win."

McSpaddin and Smith also had fine games on defense for the Wolves, along with Drew Potter and Jacob Ryan, to help the ninth grade team rebound from a 48-0 loss to Lamesa a week earlier.

The 3-3 Wolves next face district rival Crane Thursday night at 5:30 p.m. in Crane.

8th grade Wolves clobber Rangers

The eighth grade Wolves picked up their second consecutive victory with a 38-0 wipeout of Greenwood last Thursday night in Greenwood.

The 3-2 Wolves broke the game open early as runningback Tony Leanos raced 77 yards for a touchdown. Nick Rodriguez later scored on a 60-yard run, and the Wolves defense shut down any chance the Rangers had of scoring.

"This was the best ballgame we've played all year," said eighth grade Wolves Coach Jerold Epperson. "Our three linebackers and ends played great defense and the corners played very well."

The Wolves seemed to have turned their season around and will look for their third straight win this Thursday night at 5:30 p.m. at Wolf Stadium against Crane.

7th grade Wolves fall to Greenwood

The seventh grade Wolves' struggles continued despite a solid defensive effort, falling to Greenwood 8-0 last Thursday night in Greenwood.

The Wolves, 1-4, failed to score for the third straight week despite another strong game from Wolves' runningback Adan Leanos. The seventh grade Wolves have dropped four straight after opening the season with a win.

"It was a lack of effort. We didn't execute," said seventh grade Wolves Coach Jerold Epperson. "Hopefully this will be a wake-up call."

The Wolves' defense played solidly but were unable to make a big play to turn the game around. The Wolves will need a strong team effort this week as they take on Crane Thursday night at 5:30 p.m. at Wolf Stadium.

"We've lost to teams we could have beaten," said Wolves Assistant Coach Yardy Powell. "I think our kids can play much better."

Westbrook Wildcats scratch Ira 50-0

The Westbrook Wildcats remained undefeated as they easily pounded the Ira Bulldogs 50-0 last Friday night in Westbrook.

The Wildcats (6-0, 1-0) were heavy favorites and were able to rest their starters and use some of their JV players for much of the game. JV players Roland Mayes and Brad Hill each scored a touchdown for Westbrook, who is ranked as high as number four in the state six-man polls.

"We felt like we could get our JV kids some work today," said Wildcats Head Coach Jim Hill. "We could need them later in the year."

Westbrook starting quarterback Justin Hill threw three touchdown passes in limited action, one of them to his brother Casey Hill. David Daniels scored twice and George Rincones once in the rout.

Westbrook renews its annual district rivalry this week against Loraine Friday night at 7:30 p.m. in Loraine.

Taking money from people who work to give to people who don't sends the wrong message.

I want welfare to be a hand up, not a hand out, for those in need. As your new State Senator, I'll work for:

- ✓ No benefits for able bodied recipients unless they work.
- ✓ Tougher laws that limit able bodied to two years on welfare.
- ✓ Making unwed fathers of welfare children pay child support.
- ✓ Making welfare recipients agree to stay off drugs and keep their children in school and immunized.

Loraine homecoming activities began this week

Loraine High School's homecoming week began Monday and continues through Friday, October 18.

A pep rally will be held at the school gym Thursday around 8:30 or 9 p.m. following the Loraine Junior High football game. The pep rally will be followed by a bonfire which will be held behind the baseball field.

The homecoming parade will be held Friday starting at 2:30 p.m. from the school horseshoe. Activities are planned during every day of homecoming week. Monday was pajama day. Tuesday was hat and cap day. Wednesday is Nike day and Thursday will be mismatch day. On Friday, everyone will be wearing the school colors of black and gold.

Homecoming candidates for 1996-97 are: freshman class-Mike Rico and Leslie Garcia; sophomore-Leonard Williams and Amy Garcia, junior-Marcus Garcia and Laura Rosas and senior class-Raymond Limones and Eliza DeLoera.

Mr. and Miss Sparks candidates are: freshman class-Pablo Alfaro and Bea Lopez; sophomore-T.J. Aguilar and Andi Chavez; junior-Dee Givens and Misty Bailey and senior class-Kyle Moore and Norma Maldonado.

Loraine Exes have also planned to gather in conjunction with homecoming. On Saturday, October 19, exes will register at the school cafeteria at 10 a.m. A turkey and dressing lunch will be served followed by a business meeting. The Class of 1965 will have a program.

Panthers, Cougars tie; Jaguars defeat Tigers

The Panthers and the Cougars fought to their second draw of the season, a defensive battle that ended in a 0-0 tie.

In the other game, the Jaguars remained undefeated with a 62-0 win over the Tigers.

With one week left in the regular season, the Jaguars led the standings with a 5-0 record. The Panthers are 2-1-2, the Cougars 1-2-2 and the Tigers 0-5.

This week will pit the Tigers versus the Cougars at 2 p.m. and the Jaguars against the Panthers at 3:30 p.m. Both games will be played at Wolf Stadium. In the event of rain, the games will be moved to the practice field.

Ball bounces to victory

Phil Ball was the winner of this week's Jackpot Football contest.

Ball correctly picked 22 of 24 winners to win for the third time this year. His prize is $50 worth of football bucks to be redeemed with participating merchants.

The football contest appears each Thursday in the Record during football season.

Lady Wolves eye district title

The Lady Wolves volleyball team began district play last week and the competition is beginning to heat up.

The varsity team entered district play with a 14-9 all-around record, and needed to use all of their experience to win their opening match against Crane 8-15, 15-13, 15-11, in Crane last Tuesday night.

The JV team, which has lost many games at the wire, fell to Crane 17-15, 7-15, 12-15. Crane also defeated the Lady Wolves freshman team 15-5, 19-17.

"We didn't wake up until the second game," said Lady Wolves Coach Jessica Lacy of her varsity team. "We played great after that."

The next match on Saturday against Greenwood in Colorado City didn't go quite as well for the Lady Wolves, as they lost all three matches. The varsity team fell to 1-1 in the district with a 13-15, 4-15 loss to Greenwood.

The JV team lost its match 11-15, 5-15 and the freshmen fell 4-15, 10-15, but Coach Lacy hasn't lost any confidence in her team.

cate well against Greenwood," she said. "It will be a different match next time."

The Lady Wolves continue their district schedule at home this week against Kermit on Tuesday at 5 p.m. and a rematch against Crane on Saturday at 2 p.m.

Jr. High Lady Wolves compete in tournament

The Lady Wolves junior high volleyball team competed in Sweetwater last Saturday for a tournament and found the competition level very high.

The Lady Wolves eighth grade A and B teams and the seventh grade A and B teams were all denied victories, despite coming very close in several matches.

The eighth grade A team nearly held off Big Spring only to fall 15-13, 12-15, 15-5. Earlier they had lost to Snyder 15-0, 15-2. Bethany Taylor led the Lady Wolves in scoring.

The eighth grade B team lost both of its matches to Snyder's A and B teams despite a fine performance in the first match by Amy DeLoera.

The seventh grade A team lost its matches to Goliad and Greenwood. Kristen Ritchey scored seven points in the first match for the Lady Wolves.

The seventh grade B team lost two very tight matches to Sweetwater's A and B teams. The Wolves got eight points from Danielle Arellano in game two of the first match.

The junior high Lady Wolves will finish their season this week with matches against Tahoka Saturday in Tahoka, and Big Spring Monday in Colorado City.

"Some of the things we've done as far as strategy have hurt us, but it will help us in the long run," said Lady Wolves Coach Linda Mathis. "But we've definitely improved over the year."

Commissioners decide Premium list mailed to stock show exhibitors to update computers

During Monday's Mitchell County Commissioners Court meeting, commissioners took steps to update the county's computer equipment and signed resolutions concerning lottery sales and diminishing highway construction funds.

Commissioners approved advertising for bids to replace the 11-year-old computer main frame used by the county offices. The specifications also include updating the system in the justices of the peace and tax offices.

Bids will be opened Nov. 12 at 2 p.m.

In other business, commissioners signed a resolution supporting Senator Tom Haywood's proposed bill requiring the Texas Lottery Commission to return five cents of every lottery sales dollar to the city or county where the sales were transacted.

During 1995, sales in Mitchell County totaled $1,611,771. The proposed bill would have returned $80,589 to the local cities and county.

Commissioners also signed a resolution concerning the Texas Transportation Commission's request that the 75th Legislature take action to assure sufficient funds for Texas highways and bridges.

The Texas Department of Transportation has reported that 78 percent of Texas roadways are in need of repair or modernization and that more than half of the needed road and bridge projects will not be funded over the next three years.

According to TxDOT, some $2.5 billion have been taken from the highway fund over the past ten years and spent on non-highway programs.

Premium lists for the 1997 Southwestern Exposition and Livestock Show, scheduled for January 17 through February 2 in Fort Worth, have been mailed to 7,000 potential exhibitors, according to W.R. Watt Jr., president/manager.

"Having completed a very successful centennial year, we are looking forward to beginning a new century of outstanding opportunities for the great livestock industry as well as being a vehicle for prime entertainment," Watt said.

"Stock Show 101 will reflect total premiums and prize money for our livestock exhibition and rodeo of over $750,000," he added, noting that the show will host four national cattle events.

The 74th annual National Polled Hereford Show is a two-day event, January 24 and 25, with $20,000 in premiums. The National Hereford Show, honoring Don C. King, retired executive secretary of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, is scheduled for January 27 with $10,000 in premiums.

January 23 is the show date for the National Piedmontese Show with $4,000 in premiums. Santa Gertrudis Breeders International will hold its national show January 24, featuring $13,000 in premiums.

These national events will be coupled with other major shows for beef and dairy cattle, swine, sheep, goats, horses, mules, donkeys, llamas, poultry, pigeons and rabbits. Junior show entry deadlines will be December 1, while open show entries have until December 10. Pigeon exhibitors must enter by January 5 and poultry and rabbit exhibitors by January 10.

The stock show annually hosts several purebred and commercial sales. Auction events this year will include the Southwest Region Chianina Cattle Sale, Piedmontese Cattle Classic Sale, Cowtown Classic Shorthorn Cattle Sale, National Polled Hereford Cattle Sale, Maine-Anjou Cattle Sale, Commercial Hereford Sale and Invitational Commercial Heifer Sale.

Additional sales include the Invitational Ranch Horse Show/Sale, the American Quarter Horse offering and consignments of llamas, miniature horses and rabbits, and the sale of champion steers, lambs, barrows and wether goats from the junior show.

Special awards ranging from custom-made trophy saddles to specially designed belt buckles will be presented in 17 youth exhibitor categories in divisions for draft and western type horses, donkeys and mules. These awards are being made possible through the generous support of area businesses and individuals as an encouragement to young stock show exhibitors.

Premiums in the draft horse six-horse hitch class have been doubled to $2,000 as an incentive for activity in this qualifying class for the North American Six-Horse Classic Six Series championship show in Toronto, Canada later this year. The stock show will again host the Paint-O-Rama, a four-judge show, along with other multi-judge horse show events.

Prize money in the open divisions for cattle, sheep and swine have increased by over $23,000. Junior show premiums climbed almost $5,000. Purse money for the 30 performances of the World's Original Indoor Rodeo should exceed $300,000 with a turnout of over 750 champion cowboys and challengers.

Premium lists and rodeo tickets are available at the Stock Show Office, P.O. Box 150, Fort Worth, TX 76101-0150. Tickets for Friday nights and all weekend rodeo performances are $16 each, while Monday through Friday matinees and Monday through Thursday nights are priced at $14 each. Each mail order should include $3 extra per order for postage and handling. The box office in the Will Rogers Coliseum lobby will be open December 2 for window sales.

CRANE

21-7 in the third quarter, things were looking pretty dim," said Coach Grissom.

But junior runningback Arian Emerson scored three quick touchdowns in the fourth quarter enabling the Wolves to pull out a 25-21 victory. Emerson has had a sensational year, rushing for 1,108 yards and 13 touchdowns so far this season.

Chris Fambro and Tony Walthall provide depth to the running game, and the blocking led by Zack Love, Marcus Sanchez and Brandon Atkins, has made the Wolves' rushing attack its most potent weapon.

Quarterback Lance Dockrey has thrown seven touchdown passes, without an interception this season, relying on Fambro and tight end Adam Wood for four of those scores.

The Wolves will have to do without Wood, however, for the rest of the season. Wood broke two bones in his left hand in the game against Greenwood and will undergo surgery this week. Wood will be replaced by Brett Hoyle at tight end.

"We know we can come back any week if we have to," said Wolves Assistant Coach Hayden Merket. "When Arian made that first touchdown run last week, we believed we would come back to win."

The Wolves' defense has come through in the crunch, because of the consistent play of Fambro, John Erwin, Junior Molina and Joe Ross Jameson. The defense may be the key to the Wolves' title hopes.

Friday night's matchup should be exciting, as both teams try to get a leg up early in district play. The winner should be in the driver's seat; however, a victory by Crane will give them two wins over the toughest teams in the district.

Dentists advise chocolate candy for Halloween

Dentists realize that a Halloween without candy can be a frightening thought to youngsters, so they offer advice on how children can indulge without putting that costly orthodontic work at risk.

Most orthodontists would rate plain chocolate candy as the sweetest choice for Halloween treats, as long as snackers brush afterwards.

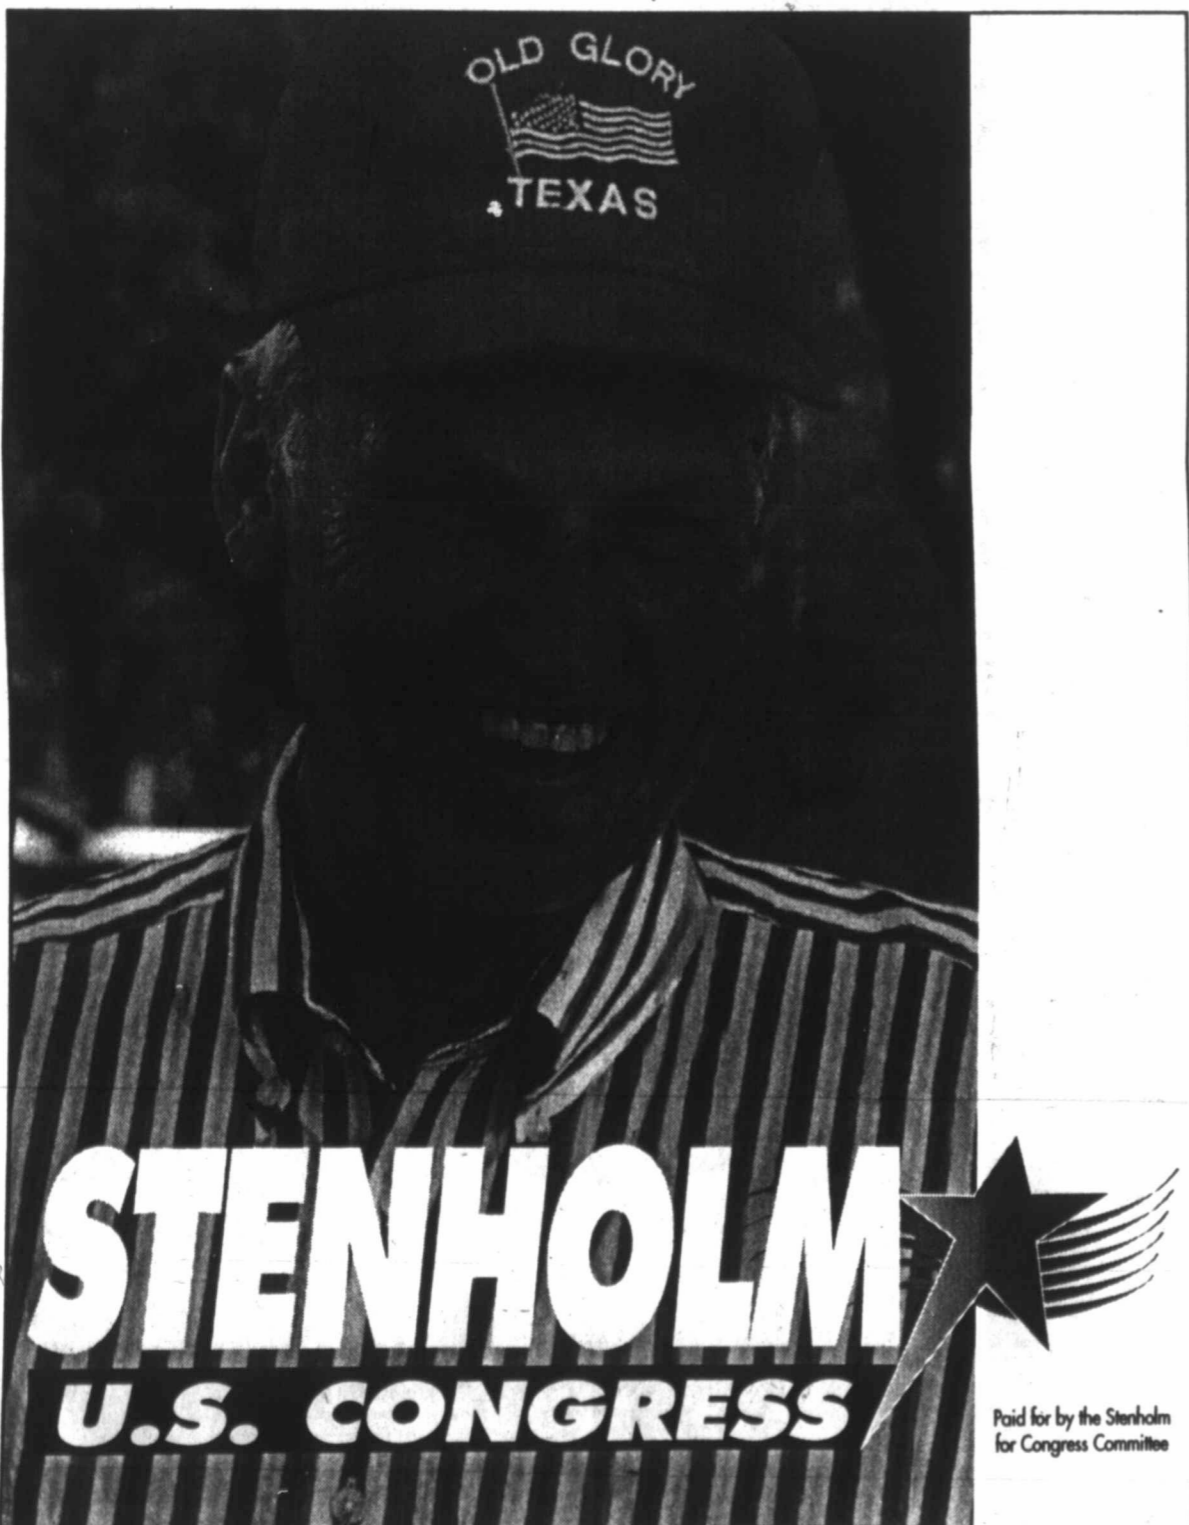

Dr. Patricia Simon, assistant professor of oral surgery at UT Southwestern Medical Center at Dallas, says people who wear retainers should remove them before eating hard, crunchy or chewy candy or foods.

If candy causes a problem, contact your orthodontist right away. Many problems can be solved without an emergency appointment. For example, Simon says, loose wires can be held in place until the next appointment with orthodontic wax purchased at the drug store.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC BY PEOPLE FOR PROGRESS, INC. INTENT TO REQUEST THE RELEASE OF FUNDS IN CONNECTION WITH THE HOME INVESTMENT PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM

TO ALL INTERESTED AGENCIES, GROUPS AND PERSONS: On or about 15 days after the publication of this notice, the People for Progress, Inc., will request the Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs (TDHCA) to release funds under Title II of the National Affordable Housing Act of 1990 (NAHA) for the following project:

HOME Program Contract Number: 534341.
 Description: Home Rental Housing for Low Income Families to construct five, four bedroom homes. Location: Colorado City, Texas. Lots eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen and fifteen of Block 2 at Nicolasa Drive, J. Dell Subdivision in Colorado City. No 1 out of Section 40, Block 26, T&P Ry. Co. Surveys, Mitchell County, Texas. Total Estimate Cost: $332,000.

HOME Program Contract Number: 534344.
 Description: Owner Occupied Housing Rehabilitation of thirty low to moderate income homes in the Mitchell County area. Location: County-wide. Total Estimate Cost: $301,600.

An Environmental Review Record respecting the within projects has been made by People For Progress, Inc., which documents the environmental review status of the projects. This Environmental Review Record is on file at 301 W Arkansas, Sweetwater, Texas and is available for public examination and copying upon request between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. Comments will be received 15 days following the publication of this notice.

People For Progress, Inc. will undertake the project described above with the HOME Investment Partnership Program funds from the TDHCA under Title II of the NAHA of 1990. PPI is certifying to the TDHCA that PPI and Gladys Gerst in her official capacity as Executive Director, consents to accept the jurisdiction of the Federal courts if an action is brought to enforce responsibilities in relation to environmental assessments, decision-making and action; and that these responsibilities have been satisfied. The legal effect of the certification is that upon its approval, PPI may use HOME Program funds and the TDHCA will have satisfied its responsibilities under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 and 24 CFR Part 58.

The TDHCA will accept an objection to its approval of the release of funds and acceptance of the certification only if it is on one of the following basis:

- (a) that the certification was not in fact executed by the chief executive officer or other certifying officer of the Grantee approved by the TDHCA; or
- (b) that the Grantee's environmental review record for the project indicates omission of a required decision, finding or step applicable to the project in the environmental review required procedures (24 CFR Part 58) and may be addressed to the TDHCA, 811 Barton Springs Road, Austin, Texas.

Objections to the Release of Funds on bases other than those stated above will not be considered by the TDHCA. No objection received after 25 days from the publication of this notice will be considered by the TDHCA.

Lorraine News

By BESSIE ANN VAUGHN
Greetings from Lorraine.

It won't be long until some of us will be walking on thick carpets of fallen leaves and looking at huge bare tree branches.

At first the fallen leaves look pretty, but after walking on them and breaking them into smaller debris to carry indoors on your shoes, all beauty is lost.

I wonder how much a leaf blower would cost?

Dream on. A leaf blower in West Texas? Even I know that would be money wasted. Mother Nature would smile, then blow all the leaves back again.

The only thing left for me to do is to put several signs out in the yard.

"Come get your free leaves for mulch!"

"Get all you want—plenty to go around!"

I was taught to share.

Bill and Ann Preston recently went to a commissioners' seminar for a week's stay in Lajitas, Texas, near the border of Mexico. Ann reported the area was very pretty and green after having had recent rains.

Tharon Henderson's wife and family honored him by having a family birthday party over the weekend.

Coming together for the celebration were Brad and Penny, along with daughters Ashley and Morgan, Jay Henderson from San Angelo, Sug Bynam from Colorado City, Pauline Smiley, and Doris Henderson from Lorraine.

October 14th was Tharon's birthday.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. Truett Butler visited with his sister, Doris Dockey, in Colorado City, Kenneth and Juanice Butler and family in Lorraine. Mrs. Butler also made the school homecoming in Sweetwater, where she attended school.

Truett is a former Lorrainean, as most of you know.

Chrystene Hall and Iris Preston went to the airport Friday afternoon to meet a nephew, Marc Reiter and his small daughter Ryden of Texarkana, Chris Hall and sons Justin and Chase, along with Orvill Mow, Brownwood.

The ladies were taken out to dine and everyone enjoyed visiting and the food.

The family of Eva Wells met in the home of her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Robinson at Lake Fort Phantom for the holiday weekend.

All were present, with the exception of one grandson-in-law, who was on duty at the hospital.

Hometowns represented were San Antonio, Waxahachie, Odessa, Carlsbad, Midland and Lorraine.

Eva reports that yard games, card games, fishing, visiting and too much eating were enjoyed.

Mel's Country Kitchen opened for business Wednesday the 9th in Lorraine. Mel's is located near city hall, fronting Main St.

Melody Moore owns the new business and has really worked long and hard to get the place in operation.

The restaurant will be open seven days a week, 8 a.m.-10 p.m. and on Saturday from 8 a.m.-12 noon. Sunday's hours are from 8 a.m.-2 p.m.

The menu covers breakfast, lunch and dinner (or supper), with the usual West Texas fare including salads, hamburgers and sandwiches at very reasonable prices.

Mel's phone number is 737-2801. You might want to order for takeout.

Melody says your patronage is appreciated.

Visiting in the home of Irene Kidd this past weekend was her brother, M.L. Chandler and his family.

Matt Preston visited with his grandmother, or memaw, Iris Preston, this past weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Young have recently bought the former Johnson home across from Dorothy Johnson.

Mr. Young is employed with the prison system in Colorado City.

The evergreen trees planted at the school yard, ball park and along the highways are looking good and growing after all the good moisture.

The boys are to be thanked for some of this work and maybe all of it.

North Lorraine F.C.E. Club members met at the senior center last Wednesday the 9th with Bertha Fay Snyder as hostess.

After the opening ceremony, the program was turned over to Gloria Erwin, a Pink Lady volunteer from Colorado City. She told us about the group, how and when it started and about some of its accomplishments. The program was well received by all who attended the meeting.

Discussion was made about the tasting spree and about next year's yearbooks. More information about the tasting spree will be forthcoming.

TSCRA volunteer leaders to meet in Abilene Oct. 25 & 26

The volunteer leaders of Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association will meet in Abilene Friday and Saturday, October 25 and 26 to plot a course for industry profitability, according to Chaunce O. Thompson, Jr., president, from Breckenridge. The financial wellbeing of the cattle industry, which has a significant impact on the economy of many rural and semi-rural areas, has not been good in recent years.

The 119-year-old organization has more than 14,000 dues-paying members who control approximately 1.9 million head of cattle on millions of acres of range and pasture land in Texas, Oklahoma and surrounding states.

The first day of the cattle producers meeting will be devoted to committee business and policy development. Topics to be addressed include natural resources, the environment, wildlife, marketing, brand and inspection, animal health, labor, agricultural research and legislative and tax issues important to all cattle producers.

Refreshments were served to Doris Henderson, Millie Rose, Eva Wells, Billie Ruth Abernathy, Wanza Graham, Elaine McMichael, Bessie Ann Vaughn and Bertha Fay Snyder, and our guest speaker, Mrs. Erwin.

Lorraine Manor

In Joetta Hollis' absence, Jan Wooddell reported that residents had been making Halloween ghosts from coffee filters and Bulldog tee-shirts for the pep rallies. Also, they have been working on their float for the homecoming parade.

Saturday the 19th is the Fall Festival, from 6:30-9 p.m. and everyone is invited. Proceeds from the festival will go toward Christmas gifts for the residents.

The staff and residents would appreciate any type of donated baked goods for the festival.

October 28 is birthday party day. Only one resident has a birthday in October, Pauline Russell.

We are saddened to report the death of Alice Tucker. She had resided at Lorraine Manor for many years.

Jan says they need a volunteer to hold a Bible study for a group of residents. If you could take some time to do this it will certainly be appreciated.

Come to see us!

At the Grocery Store "Hi, Weegie. Say, there are some good sales on canned goods this week. What's the matter with you?"

"I'm fed up with Chester and I'm going to ask him to move out."

"You don't mean that, Weegie. You'll soon get over this. You and Chester have been married for 20 years. Don't toss that away without working on it."

"I've worked on it long enough, Wilma."

"Okay, but let me tell you right now. Nannie Sue Morgan's already made the statement at Elsie's Beauty Shop that if Chester is ever free, she will be first to try to catch him."

"You're just making that up, Wilma."

"No, I'm not, Weegie. Besides, Chester is a nice man...clean, hardworking, goes to church, nice looking, fun to be around."

"I know, Wilma, but he makes me so mad."

"Well, you make him mad, too!"

"Did Nannie Sue really say she was first in line for Chester?"

"Yes, Weegie. And Nannie Sue is a good looking gal!"

"Well, she had better watch herself. I've been working out three days a week and I'll show her a thing or two about brute strength!"

"Wilma, put about six of those green apples in a bag for me. I'm going to make a pie for Chester. Apple is his favorite."

"Bye, Wilma. I gotta go."

"Hey wait, Weegie. You didn't get any canned stuff on sale! What's your hurry?"

"I want to stop at the beauty shop on my way home. Bye."

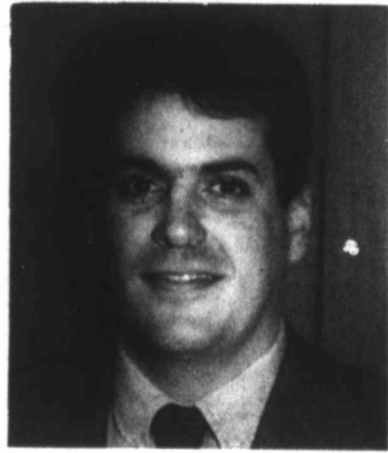

Take care and see you around town.
