

Filing Deadline Passes; Campaigns Set To Begin

Hand shaking, baby kissing and proud hellos are the order of the day as sparring begins in the local political arena.

Filing deadlines for county and district positions were Monday with the Primary Election set for May 3.

Terms of office expire for several positions including County Attorney Pat Barber, County Commissioner, Precinct One Marcus Vest, County Commissioner, Precinct Three Paul Hunter, Tax Assessor-Collector Mike Burt and Sheriff Bill McGuire.

Barber is the only candidate to announce for the office of County Attorney, as is Burt for Tax Assessor-Collector. The race is on for both Commissioner's positions as Vest announced his intentions to retire, leaving Precinct One up for grabs and two heavyweight contenders are competing against Hunter for his slot.

Hubert McKinney, Murrell Blasingame, Paul Logsdon, V.E. (Stoney) Stone and Jackie Joiner have all resolved to try for the Precinct One slot.

Julian Mendoza and Jimmy Harrison are trying to outdistance Hunter and each other for Precinct Three title. The race for Sheriff is quietly building to a low rumble as McGuire tries to fend off contender Jerry Cowin.

Republican County Chairman Bob Rely and Democratic County Chairman Tom Rees both have terms which expire and both are the only candidates for those positions, as are incumbent Precinct Chairman G.D. Foster, Precinct One; G.C. Strange, Precinct Two and Ray Preston, Precinct Four. Precinct Three chairman's position has no candidate.

Absentee ballots may be cast at the office of the County Clerk April 14 through April 29.

District officeholders who have expiring terms include District Attorney Frank Ginzel and District Judge Weldon Kirk.

Ginzel announced his intentions to retire from office and Assistant DA Rusty Carroll is the only candidate stepping forward to fill that vacancy.

Kirk has indicated he will seek re-election to the office he holds.

State Representative Walter Grubbs and United States Representative Charles Stenholm will also appear on the ballot.

Local elections for City Council, School Board and Hospital Board have begun to take shape as filing dates opened Monday to run through March 5.

Colorado City Council terms of office expire for Councilman Loyd Ledbetter, Jesse Munoz and Mayor Marion Bassham.

Mayor Bassham has declined to seek re-election. Munoz has stated he will run and Ledbetter is still undecided at this time.

J.O. Dockrey has signed up with the city secretary for a place on the ballot April 5.

Colorado Independent School District Board terms of office for Eddie Piland, Edward Roach and Fleta Lewis expire this year.

Piland has decided to run for re-election while Mrs. Lewis has announced she will not run. See FILE Page 6

Accidents Caused By Weather

Mitchell County residents again put on their toboggans and overcoats this week as another cold front rolled through the area Thursday night dipping the temperature into the low 20s.

On Friday it was mostly just cold but on Saturday morning area residents woke up to see a more than four inch blanket of snow on the ground. It was by far the heaviest snow of the winter and it made driving on the streets and highways very slick and hazardous.

As of Saturday morning there had been several minor accidents in the area including two which involved 18 wheelers on Interstate 20 sending one truck driver to Root Memorial Hospital for overnight observation.

At 9 a.m. Friday, an eastbound 18 wheeler driven by Audry Taylor of Dallas slid off the road about one and one half miles east of Colo-See WEATHER Page 6

Present for the ceremonies were (left to right) Ambassador Gene Douglas, Ann Nobles, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Carpenter, Wendell Bryant, Bobby Nobles, Ambassadors Vicki Weaver, Shirley Delaney, J.O. Council To Set Priority List On Motel Tax Fund

All persons, organizations or groups interested in obtaining funds from Colorado City under the Motel Occupancy Tax Fund should attend a public hearing Tuesday at 7 p.m. in City Hall.

The hearing will be held in conjunction with the regularly scheduled City Council meeting.

The Motel Occupancy Tax is designed for use in helping to promote tourism to this community and is assessed on individuals using area motel facilities.

In recent years, funds have been allocated to the Chamber of Commerce for use in promoting the rodeo, fly-in and Railroad Roundup. Local service organizations such as the Jaycees have used these funds to promote softball tournaments.

Councilmembers, who were deluged with requests for funding, voted to place requests on a priority list to be considered all at one time. This was done in an effort to stop allocation of funds before they become available and to better utilize funds.

Chamber of Commerce representatives are scheduled to appear before councilmembers to make a request for a portion of those funds.

Councilmembers will hear three new car dealership representatives give ideas, opinions and information in regard to the purchase by the city of new police vehicles.

Consideration is being given to the purchase of small, more compact and lighter weight police vehicles in the future to conserve gasoline expenses.

Bids will be accepted on the automobiles as soon as specifications are received. See LIST Page 6

Harvest Nears Completion As Bale Count Climbs

City Cemetery Is Spruced-Up

City residents may soon have the opportunity to be very proud of their cemetery facilities.

Through the joint efforts of councilmembers, the cemetery board and Street Superintendent Julian Mendoza, a winter cleanup campaign has proven very successful. City Manager Ray Mason announced.

Mason indicated there were many days during the winter months when weather conditions prohibited other work and allowed CETA trainees to begin a beautification project at the cemetery. Lots have been mowed, weeds hand raked and some dirt work accomplished.

"The new watering system extends throughout the cemetery. We do need about 10 See CITY Page 6

by MAC McKINNON

The Record recently received copies of two state laws that we want to share with the public.

Both laws, one regarding access to information by the public from governmental bodies, and one governing open meetings, were passed by the state legislature in 1973.

The declaration of policy on the bill that is generally referred to as the open records law is very important and points up something that needs to be remembered by people in government at all levels.

That declaration states: "Pursuant to the fundamental philosophy of the American constitutional form of representative government which holds to the principle that government is the servant of the people, and not the master of them, it is hereby declared to be the public policy of the State of Texas that all persons are, unless otherwise expressly provided by law, at all times entitled to full and complete information regarding the affairs of government and the official acts of those who represent them as public officials and employees."

The law stipulates that "If a governmental body refuses to request an attorney general's decision as provided in this act, or to supply public information or information which the attorney general has determined to be a public record, the person requesting the information of the attorney general may seek a writ of mandamus compelling the governmental body to make the information available for public inspection."

The open meeting law describes a meeting as "any deliberation between a quorum of members of a governmental body at which any public business or public policy over which the governmental body has supervision or control is discussed or considered, or at which any formal action is taken."

"It shall not be construed that the intent of this definition is to prohibit the gathering of members of the governmental body in numbers of a quorum or more for social functions unrelated to the public business which is conducted by the body or for attendance of regional, state or national conventions or workshops as long as no formal action is taken and there is no deliberation of public business which will appear on the agenda of the respective body."

Deliberation is described as "a verbal exchange See COLUMN Page 6 meeting Monday night. The contract discussion will take place in executive session and will concern the contracts of High School Principal Jerry Reynolds, Middle School Principal Doyle Low-rance, Hutchinson School Principal Dell Riley and Kelley School Principal Bobby Lemons. There will also be a discussion of the contracts of Athletic Director Tom Ramsey, Tax Assessor-Collector J.S. Craddock Jr., Maintenance Supervisor Henry Ring, Cafeteria Supervisor Christine Cooley and Transportation Supervisor Coy Adams.

The school board election is set for April 5 at the school administration office and will be held to fill the expiring terms of Fleta Lewis, Eddie Piland and Edward Roach.

The election judge will be Craddock and the assistants will be Jeneal Chambers and Mavis Marsh.

Candidates have until March 5 to file for the school board positions. Absentee voting will See ISD Page 6

Mitchell County Commissioners will open bids for a new automobile for the Sheriff's Department during Monday's meeting set for 1 p.m. in the County Courthouse.

This date has been repeatedly set and changed due to weather con- See TAX Page 6

BLUSTERY COLD WINDS and heavy gray clouds brought a temporary halt to a joint effort between city and county workers to construct a new boat ramp at Lake Champion. County Commissioner Paul Hunter loaned the county's new bulldozer to the city for a day for use on the project. City officials hope to complete the project by early March, doing the bulk of work using city employees in an effort to conserve tax dollars.

Chamber Comments

By Starr Greenblatt, Chamber Manager

The saying is, "First impressions are lasting ones." I have had a deluge of first impressions since I first visited Colorado City in January.

To list them all separately would take entirely too much time, but there are some general thoughts I hope you will find interesting.

Some of the key words to describe the community and community leaders in Colorado City are friendly, out-going, energetic, hard working and enthusiastic, all very positive attitudes.

As a new arrival to this community, my family and I could not have received a warmer welcome. And, as the new Manager of your Chamber of Commerce,

I could not be more optimistic.

Your officers, directors, committee chairmen, etc. give a great deal of their time and energy to working toward the betterment of Colorado City area.

They discuss, offer ideas and strive constantly for the good of the community. Whether it involves industry, culture or business, they have the welfare of the citizens as a whole as their concern.

With the help and interest of these fine people, your Chamber of Commerce will do an excellent job today in building an even better tomorrow.

I urge each and every one of you to join, become active and have a voice in your Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber works for you. Help it work even harder to achieve the goals you want.

FAITH & WORKS ARE BOTH NEEDED

Rev. Roy Byrd Pastor
First Presbyterian Church
Colorado City

Two men...eyeball to eyeball. "Faith" shouted one to the other. "Work" bellowed the second to the first. It was a heated exchange. How often have church members contended with one another over these two words! Can it be resolved? Perhaps the following will help.

Once upon a time there was a man who made a pair of stilts. The left one, he called "Faith"; the right one, he called "Work". "I have found" he said, "that when I try to walk on one stilt only, I am like a man with one leg. I am a little more than half a man. But, if I use both stilts, I am like a man with both his legs, I am a whole man, upright and balanced in my walk."

"Faith" without "Work" is dead, don't you think? And "Work" without "Faith" is soon exhausted. But "Faith" and "Work" together make a whole Christian, an upright and balanced person, "to do justice, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with God."

Language Ministry Practiced In Dallas

"Four in One or One in Four," was the topic during the Baptist Women's Night Circle meeting Feb. 4 at 7:30 in the home of Margaret Bodine, with Betsy Aycock as program speaker and assisted by Billie Harrison.

The program dealt with a Southern Baptist Church in Dallas, Cliff Temple. Unlike most Southern Baptist Churches, they may conduct their service in English, Spanish, Vietnamese or Korean.

She stated that almost one-half of the U.S. population identifies with an ethnic group having distinct language and cultural characteristics.

Cliff Temple saw this as a language ministry. All four congregations have the advantage of being constantly reminded that the gospel is universal. They all recognize that the same Lord is in all four of the congregations.

Refreshments of strawberry shortcake, coffee and tea were served to the following:

Billie Harrison, Katherine Morris, Evelyn Rose, Imogene Webber, Joy Piland, Virginia Dearen, Anna Staats, Billie Roenfeldt, Francis Cooper, Betsy Aycock and hostess, Margaret Bodine.

Autograph Party Planned In Honor Of Local Author

Local author and historian J. Lee Jones, Jr. will be honored at an autograph party and reception for his latest publication "Red Raiders Retaliate" on February 17.

Ceremonies will be held in the Mitchell County Library and hosted by the Historical Commission between the hours of 2 p.m. and 4 p.m.

Everyone is invited to attend and meet the author.

Books will be available for purchase at the library.

Illustrations in the book are created by Carolyn Walker, who will also be present for the event.

"Red Raiders Retaliate" is the story of Lone Wolf, The Elder (Guipahgo), famous Kiowa Indian chief.

It is a poignant story of the intrepid Kiowa chief based on extensive research by the compiler.

Jones also presents his conclusions about episodes during the career of the famous chief whose presence in Mitchell County is indicated by the many sites located here bearing his name and the names of events involving his people.

Lone Wolf, The Elder died in 1879 and in the words of the author "thus bringing to an end one of the most shameful episodes in American history."

The law also stipulates that "any member or group of members of a governing body who conspire to circumvent the provisions of this Act by meeting in numbers less than a quorum for the purpose of secret deliberations in contravention of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500 or imprisonment in the county jail for not less than one month nor more than six months or both."

The law also stipulates that "any member of a governing body who willfully calls or aids in calling or organizing a special or called meeting or session which is closed to the public, or who willfully closes participates in a regular, special or called meeting or session which is closed to the public where a closed meeting is not permitted by the provisions of this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500 or imprisonment in the county jail for not less than one month nor more than six months, or both."

The law notes that "Written notice of the date, hour, place and subject of each meeting held by a governmental body shall be given before the meeting as prescribed by this section."

One provision states, "Nothing in this Act shall be construed to allow a closed meeting of a governing body where such closed meeting is prohibited, or where open meetings are required by charter."

The County and School here are allowed to have closed sessions for prescribed topics of discussion but no decision can be made during closed meetings. The City of Colorado City can have only meetings open to the public, as provided for in their charter.

A complete copy of each law is available at the Record office to be reviewed by anyone wishing to do so.

The truck jackknifed across the westbound lane, went off the bridge and landed in a culvert. The front end of the vehicle was damaged and Taylor was taken to Root Memorial Hospital for observation.

At 10:45 a.m. Friday, another eastbound 18 wheeler also slid off the road. The driver was not injured.

Both accidents were handled by Texas Highway Patrolman James Burson and Tracy Tipton.

The highway patrol reported another minor accident Friday with no injuries and likewise the Colorado City Police Department reported two minor accidents with no injuries.

Highway Patrolman Tipton advised all motorists Friday, "to stay off the road unless it's a have to case, it's just not worth it."

A check of the area utilities, Texas Electric, Lone Wolf Electric and Southwestern Bell, Friday showed that as of that time they had experienced no serious problems because of the conditions.

The department is seeking aid of county officials in preventing and correcting pollution conditions around area lakes.

The status of the county Veteran's Service Officer will be a topic discussed during the meeting.

Judge Bill Carter has been serving in that capacity and his appointment expired the first of January.

Tax Assessor-Collector Mike Burt will appear before the court to request authorization to return LaVaco Gathering Company's tax payment for 1979.

For the past two years LaVaco has established its own opinion of fair value and rendered that amount as payment in full. This year the tax figure assessed on LaVaco was $14,147 and they tendered $6,292.44.

If the county accepts the check it indicates their acceptance of that figure as payment in full.

Trial dates are currently pending between Mitchell County taxing bodies and LaVaco in an effort to settle the dispute.

Bids will be opened and awarded for a high powered water machine for use in clearing sludge and sediment from city sewage lines during Tuesday's meeting.

Councilmembers must also consider an ordinance setting the date of this year's City Council Election.

Colorado City Police Chief Fred McWhorter is scheduled to present the annual police report during Tuesday's meeting.

The Hospital District Board terms of office expire for T.C. Moore, Bob Reilly and Henry Bilberry. Bilberry was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Murrell Blasingame who resigned from the board last month.

Moore and Reilly have both chosen to try for re-election to the board.

Mrs. H. Jene (Bobbie) Steakley has recently asked for a place on that ballot.

Absentee voting begins March 17 and runs through April 1 at city hall, the school tax office and hospital administration office.

In Westbrook's political arena, all four incumbent School Board members have chosen to seek re-election. They are W.D. Conaway Jr., Cleburne Rich, Don Burnett and E.A. Oden.

Westbrook City Councilmen W.A. Bell, Sidney Jones and Mayor

E.A. Oden all hold terms of office which expire this year. Bell has stated he will not seek re-election to that office.

Billy Sweek has announced he will run for the office of Westbrook City Councilman.

Political campaigns in Loraine are off to a slow start with no announced candidates for the two board positions or the two council seats which come available this year.

Seats on the council which will be on the ballot are those of Roy Holland and Doris Henderson. Both persons have declined to seek re-election.

School Board positions for Hubert Meadows and J.D. Clifton expire this year and neither individual has announced intentions to run for another term of office.

Candidates in these races have until March 5 to sign up and absentee voting will be held March 17 through April 1.

Kappa Gamma Meets

Three guest speakers presented the program for Delta Kappa Gamma Feb. 5 in the home of Marion Craddock.

Betsy Aycock, program chairman, presented Dawn Lemons, high school junior; Beverly Fuller, college sophomore and Pat Reilly, young career man.

Presenting a kaleidoscopic view, Miss Lemons commented on life made to easy, temptations which would weaken youth and the necessity for work, worthwhile goals and faith in and devotion to God. Outstanding in 4-H Club activities, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Lemons.

Miss Fuller, sophomore at Western Texas, disclosed problems that worry responsible students. Money and career choices were two she discussed, using value of career choice in percent terms. Job opportunities statistics were included. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Fuller.

Pat Reilly's analogous use of the white tail deer opened wide the door of man in his scientific and computerized world. A young career man, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Reilly.

All three speakers used abstract nouns as forces and requirements for success and self satisfaction; discipline, dedication and dependability.

After the program refreshments were served by Florence Bodine and Jean Robinson co-hosting with Mrs. Craddock.

President Margaret Sparks presided at the business meeting at which officers for the next biennium were elected. They are Earline Seiler, president; Frances Godwin, first vice president; Caroline Weaver, second vice president; Florence Bodine, corresponding secretary and Margaret Trulock, recording secretary.

The president will appoint the parliamentarian, the executive board and the treasurer. Present were Faye Welch, Fanny Fay Feaster, Mabel Merritt, Wilma Reynolds, Margaret Lattimer, Rochelle Smith, Molly Bruce, Carolyn Weaver, Dale Geer, Betsy Aycock, Margaret Conaway, Frances Godwin and Florence Pratt.

Also, Mamie Lou New, Margaret Sparks, Margaret Trulock, Nadine Gordon, Barbara Girvin, Earline Seiler, Peggy Bodine, Florence Bodine, Jean Robinson, Erna Lou Burt and Marion Craddock.

Couple Exchange Vows Saturday

In a Saturday double-ring ceremony Feb. 9, Deborah Sue Haggerton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Haggerton of Colorado City and William Deryl Dockrey of Granbury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dockrey of Colorado City were united in marriage.

The 7 p.m. ceremony was performed in the 22nd and Austin Church of Christ with the Rev. Glenn Roenfeldt, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating.

The theme to "Ice Castles," "Joyful Joyful" and "The Traditional Wedding Song" were sung by eight Abilene Christian University students and Scott Haggerton, brother of the bride.

The church altar was flanked with candelabras and silk arrangements in coral, beige and brown. The aisles were lighted with candles with runners and swags of greenery marking the family pews.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal length gown of silk organza with a Victorian neckline accented with venice lace and seed pearls.

The bodice and long sleeves of venice lace were accented with seed pearls and her chapel length train was also accented with venice lace and seed pearls.

Her veil of nylon illusion was accented with venice lace and seed pearls.

pearls matching her dress. She carried a cascade of silk roses with baby's breath in her chosen colors of beige and coral.

Debbie Rowe of Phoenix, Arizona was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Ginny Rivera of Colorado City and Andra Chamberlain of Midland. They wore dresses of coral quana with white satin ribbon belts and carried a long stemmed coral rose with ribbon streamers.

Lanny Vinson of College Station was bestman. Groomsmen were Mike Seaton of Brownfield and Russell Hertenberger of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Ushers were Jim Dockrey, Mike Ratliff, Mike Halford, Johnny Reeves, James White and Mike Everett.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church fellowship hall.

The bride's table was covered with a white cloth and centered with an arrangement of silk roses in the brides chosen colors and complimented with an antique crystal punch set.

The groom's table was covered with an Eric crocheted cloth accented with brown carnations and white daisies and set off with a silver tea service.

After a wedding trip to Ruidosa, New Mexico, the couple plan to make their home in Granbury.

Young Cagers Show Off Skills

Eighteen teams of fifth and sixth grade boys and girls got a chance to show off their basketball skills Feb. 2 at Wolf Gym in a cage tourney sponsored by the Colorado Middle School Fellowship of Christian Athletes Boys' Chapter.

There were 11 boys' teams which took part and seven girls' squads and the tourney was divided into four divisions.

The sixth grade boys' division had six teams with the winner being the Globetrotters. They defeated the Bucketeers 18-12 in the final contest.

The fifth grade boys' division had two teams, the Red Hots and the Blue Bonnets. The Red Hots defeated the Blue Bonnets 23-8.

Coach Raymond Zamarripa, who headed the tournament, said that he wants to thank everyone who helped in the tournament and especially the Colorado Junior High cheerleaders for their assistance.
