3 Incumbents Pop Lid for County's Political Campaign

Courthouse politics are popping open with three incumbents announcing they will be candidates for re-election.

Greeting the New Year with their candidacies are Sheriff W. L. (Lewis) Claxton and two commissioners W. M. (Marcus) Vest of Precinct 1 and J. C. (Jake) Northcutt of Precinct 3.

They are the first to break the political ice for the 1968 presidential election year, which will include campaigns for precinct, county, state, district and national offices.

Here are the formal announcements which the three candidates authorized for The Record.

VEST FOR PRECINCT 1

W. M. (Marcus) Vest announced he would be a candidate for re-election to County Commissioner, Precinct 1, subject to voting in the Democratic Party primary.

"In announcing that I will seek the office again in the coming Democratic Primary," Vest said, "I also would like to try to express my sincere appreciation for having had the privilege of working as a member of your Mitchell County Commissioner's Court."

"I realize that this is an honor and has indeed been an interesting experience for me."

"I sincerely hope that my conduct and my work has been in the best interest of the future of Mitchell County."

"I deeply appreciate your confidence and support, and hope that I may continue to serve you," Vest concluded.

NORTHCUTT FOR PRECINCT 3

J. C. (Jake) Northcutt announced he will seek re-election as County Commissioner, Precinct 3, also subject to voting in Democratic Primary.

"In announcing my candidacy for Commissioner of Precinct 3," Northcutt said, "I first want to thank you for the fine support and cooperation you have given me."

"You have been most cooperative and I sincerely appreciate it."

"If re-elected as your commissioner, I will continue to work for the best interest of Precinct 3 and all of Mitchell County and to keep the financial structure of our county on a sound basis.

"I am grateful for the many friends and acquaintances made during my tenure in office and will deeply appreciate your continued support," Northcutt concluded.

CLAXTON FOR SHERIFF

W. L. (Lewis) Claxton Wednesday announced he would seek re-election as sheriff of Mitchell County and will be a candidate in the Democratic Party primary.

SHERIFF LEWIS CLAXTON, . . . in race for re-election.

Claxton, who has been a peace officer in Mitchell County for more than 16 years, said he is asking re-election with the pledge to continue to provide all citizens with fair and impartial law enforcement.

He expressed appreciation to the public and to other law enforcement agencies for the cooperation extended to him and the entire sheriff's department during the last seven years.

Claxton emphasized that he was proud of the cooperation between his sheriff's office and other law enforcement agencies and pledged that his office would continue this cooperation in the future to provide better law enforcement for all the county.

A native of Mitchell County, Claxton won re-election as sheriff three years ago. Before heading the department he had served for years as deputy sheriff.

He said he was sincerely thankful for the support voters provided him in the last election and earnestly solicits the support and vote of all citizens in the coming Democratic Party primary election.

Decision Nears For Manager's Post

City Checks 5 Applicants

Four out-of-towners have joined Colorado City's J. A. (Sadler) Jr. as candidates to succeed Ford Merritt as city manager.

Councilmen talked to four of them in interview sessions here this week.

One out-of-town candidate was unable to meet the council's schedule for interviews and probably will meet with councilmen at a later date.

Some councilmen — if additional applicants are not received within the next week — believe a successor to Merritt may be appointed at the council's regular January meeting.

Mayor John Chinn told The Record Saturday, however, that he did not know whether the decision will come then or later.

Merritt has resigned with a target day in early February for leaving his duties. That means the new manager is likely to be appointed in January — either at a regular meeting or a special session.

Applicants traveling here this week for interviews were from Stinnett, Abernathy and Slaton. All three are currently in municipal positions and have had experience previously in managership.

A fourth out-of-town applicant from San Angelo, who was not here for the interviews, has extensive experience in city managership although now in another type career.

Sadler, who has experience in all major departments at City Hall except the managership, had support of three councilmen when Merritt's successor was first discussed in public session by council.

The Record learned also that Sadler's candidacy probably did not lose any support, either, in the interviews this week.

All four applicants interviewed favorably impressed councilmen with probably Sadler and the applicant from Slaton, a person with experience both in municipal administration and school tax office, probably emerging as leaders.

Champ Lamb

Mike Walker, 15-year-old Future Farmer shows his heavyweight cross b r e d lamb, the grand champion Saturday at Loraine FFA & 4-H Livestock Show.

Electric Lines Next for Road

Commissioners Court has taken an initial step for a contract to move rural electric power lines along the 5-mile extension of FM Highway 2319 from Baumann community to State Highway 208 at Lake Champion.

Commissioners have asked Lone Wolf Electric to make specifications for the moving of the lines and to contact prospective contractors.

Bids will be submitted and approved by the county before actual work is started.

Moving of the electric lines is one of the final steps before actual construction of the highway is scheduled by the state.

Right of way already has been purchased by the county.

In other business this week, commissioners also:

Notified the Abilene firm of Darrel Knight & Company, certified public accountants, to begin in January work toward the annual audit of county funds and offices. Report on this audit is usually submitted to Commissioners Court in May.

Agreed to pay for the installation of a Texas Historical Marker for Colorado City's buffalo tracks at the Colorado City Historical Museum. The bronze marker already has been received by the County Historical Committee and will be dedicated at a later date, according to Mrs. Mattie Hines.

Postponed action until its January 8 meeting on whether to participate in the paving of 17th Street, between Oak and Pine, and paving of Austin, 100 feet north of Hickory. The county owns property adjacent to this proposed paving, but previously has agreed only to pay the city for paving on 22nd St. between Austin and Hickory.

Your Postage Is Going — Up!

Higher Mail Rates Start Here Next Sunday

Get ready to pay more when you mail your letters and post cards.

Higher rates go into effect next Sunday, Jan. 7, Postmaster Arlene Morris reminded Saturday.

The increased rates will be for all classes of mail except parcel post and international mail.

Postmaster Morris lists these basic changes for the mailing public:

Post Cards — up to 5 cents; Air Mail Post Cards — up to 8 cents; First Class Mail & 6 cents per ounce; Air Mail — 10 cents per ounce.

The one-cent jump for letters is a 20 per cent increase compared to a 24 per cent boost in the rates for mailing newspapers and magazines, and a 34 per cent hike for advertising circulars.

Morris still proclaims postal service a "real bargain" even in face of the new rates of 6 cents for first class mail and 10 cents for air mail.

"For six cents you can send a letter to any of the 50 states, to any U.S. territory or possession, to Canada or Mexico, or to any U. S. serviceman stationed anywhere in the world," he emphasized.

New rate of 6 cents per ounce for first class mail applies up to 13 ounces and the new rate of 10 cents per ounce for air mail applies up to 7 ounces.

All first class mail over 13 ounces and all air mail over 7 ounces will be merged into a single category. The heavier pieces of first class and air mail subject to the single rate schedule will be delivered by the fastest available means of transportation, the Postmaster said.

A flat rate of 80 cents will be charged for all mail in this heavier category up to one pound. For all mail weighing more than one pound, the present air parcel post rates will continue to apply, except that postage on matter weighing between one and five pounds will change at half pound intervals rather than one pound intervals.

Morris said that the new rate structure will mean a reduction of postage on some parcels.

Another rate change that will affect the general public is the increase from 4 to 6 cents for the first two ounces of individual pieces of third class mail. Unsealed greeting cards may be sent at this rate, the postmaster said.

He emphasized that the new rate on unsealed greeting cards will not go into effect until January 7 and until then they can be mailed at the old rate of 4 cents.

Morris said that effective Jan. 7 special handling will be available on third class parcels weighing between 8 and 16 ounces. Special handling has not been available on these parcels since 1958, when packages weighing between 8 and 16 ounces were transferred from fourth to third class mail.

There will be no change in the charge for special delivery, special handling, registered mail, certified mail, cash on delivery or insurance, Morris said.

"We have an ample supply of one-cent stamps on hand," Postmaster Morris said, "for those people who have five-cent stamps and need one-cent stamps to make up the postage required under the new rate."

Higher rates also go into effect Jan. 7 for all categories of second-class mail, bulk rate third class mail, controlled circulation mail, and the educational materials category of fourth-class mail. Mailers using these classes who need information on the new rates should contact the local Post Office, the postmaster said.

County Studies New Insurance

Commissioners Court, still pondering over how much to raise pay of county employes, is also looking over expanded insurance coverage.

This new insurance study is delving into the possibility of group disability insurance based on monthly earnings.

Representative of BMA, which already provides group hospitalization insurance for county employes, presented data to commissioners during the week.

In the data were schedules for 13 week and 26 week benefit schedules with benefits during disability periods not to exceed 70 per cent of an employe's monthly income.

While they are looking over the possibility of disability insurance, commissioners also are awaiting more information concerning the

B. Merket, Mike Walker Top Winners

Mike Walker and Becky Merket exhibited grand champions Saturday at Loraine FFA & 4-H Stock Show.

Walker, 15-year-old Loraine High sophomore and son of Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Walker, showed his heavyweight crossbred lamb to grand championship in competition with winners from six classes.

Judge Frank Brownfield, Colorado High vocational agriculture instructor, selected Walker's lamb and then pointed out Donnie Bowles' Hampshire lamb as reserve champion.

Walker's group of three also were judged best of the lambs and Bowles took additional honors with the showmanship award. Bowles 19, Loraine High senior, is son of Mr. and Mrs. Billie Bob Bowles of Rule.

Becky, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Merket, walked away with just about all the honors in the steer competition.

Soldier's Tribute

Robert Cooper Funeral Saturday

They buried young Robert Cooper here Saturday in the manner of his Christian faith.

It was an unpretentious, home folks funeral — the type which is a custom in his hometown.

He was Mitchell County's second victim of Vietnam war — his life blasted while in Army uniform with a tank unit.

But here at home, for the final service in memorium to his 19 years, military tradition was in the background. There was a uniformed escort, the U.S. Flag draping the casket, but nothing more.

Rev. Billy Wilkinson, minister of First Methodist Church where the Cooper family worships, reflected upon the dead soldier's own words.

"I know you, mother and dad, would like for me to be home," the minister paraphrased the specialist fourth class' words in a recent letter home after the combat death of his Army buddy, "but I must stick it out here.

"I have a responsibility and I would not feel right until I served my time here doing what I think is right."

The minister spoke brief Bible scripture — "he who loses his life will find it" and Christ's own words about "greater love hath no man than . . . to lay down his life for a friend."

Then, the minister added this appraising tribute for the youth who left Colorado High to don Army uniform:

"His remarks and attitude come right from the context of our Christian faith.

"Men who have made history — some recorded, some not — have had this Christian philosophy of life."

There were brief referrals to Cooper's citizenship before entering military service in November 1966, back when he was a 4-H Club leader exhibiting champion steers at the state's leading livestock shows.

But whatever could be said about him was not enough to serve this youth, the minister spoke.

"He had to live his life as an example . . . and, with a sincerity which exceeded that of many."

Robert W. Cooper was fatally wounded Dec. 16 by an enemy booby-trapped bomb while serving as a tank driver with the 24th Armored Unit. He died in an Army overseas hospital Dec. 22.

Funeral service was conducted Saturday afternoon in First Methodist Church by Rev. Wilkinson, assisted by Rev. Darris Egger of Sweetwater, formerely pastor of the church.

Burial was in Colorado City Cemetery by Kiker & Son Funeral Home.

Survivors are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cooper, Route 1; a brother, Mickey W. Cooper of Lubbock, a Vietnam veteran; grandparents — Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jones of Trent.

Pallbearers were T. J. Goss II, A. K. McCarley Jr., Jack Long, T. J. Geiger, R. J. Hoback and John Tiller with the following as honorary pallbearers — Jack Lee Long, Ronney Moseley, E. H. Ezell, Johnny Tiller, George R. Geiger and Charles Ray Watlington.

Dollar Day's Attractions Are Tuesday

First Dollar Day shopping specials for the New Year come to Colorado City Tuesday.

The event is scheduled for Tuesday instead of the usual first Monday of the month to avoid conflict with New Year's Day.

Advertising Dollar Day bargains in this edition of The Record are Western Auto, Penney's, Sanderson's Watch Shop, Wood's Boots, Landau's, Mode O Day and Cowen Shoe Store.

Three food stores — Village, Safeway and Fuller's — also are advertising first of the week specials which will be good for Tuesday's Dollar Day as well as Monday and Wednesday.

D.L. Breeden Funeral Held Saturday

Dalton Leadoil Breeden, 64, died unexpectedly Thursday morning following an apparent heart attack at his home, 811 Pine St.

Funeral services were conducted at 10:30 a.m. Saturday in Oak Street Baptist Church by the pastor, Rev. Calvan Gustin.

Mr. Breeden was a charter member and one of the organizers of Oak Str

CHAPEL VOWS

Miss Jane Merrill Wed To Mr. Brady

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Merrill, 751 East 8th St., announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Jane Merrill, to Lt. Col. (Ret.) Wendell Darrell Brady of Ft. Worth.

Wedding of the couple took place at seven in the evening, Tuesday, December 26, at "The Little Chapel in The Woods" on campus at Texas Woman's University, Denton.

Rev. William Holmes, pastor of First Methodist Church at Denton, officiated at the couple's exchange of vows.

Mrs Daughtrey Hostess At Dinner

Guests in the home of Mrs. T. W. Daughtrey for the holidays were Tommy Daughtrey of Louisiana; Sgt. Richard Daughtrey, his wife and sons Michael and Richard, of Ft. Hood; O. O. Daughtrey, his wife, daughter Jan, and a friend J. Henry of Abilene.

Also here for the occasion were Tommy Williams, his wife Fay, son Charles, of Pecos, and Mrs. Williams' son T. R. Richmond, US Marine Corp, Memphis, Tenn.

Blassingame Home Scene Of Gathering

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Blassingame have as their New Year's houseguests their daughter Mrs. Don Reynold (Jewel) and her children Mark and Terry of Houston. The Reynolds family accompanied Mr. Reynolds' mother Mrs. Wilma Reynolds to Colorado City, Wednesday, after she made a Christmas visit in the home of her son.

In the Blassingame home at Christmas were their daughter Leenell, her husband Winston Gann, their children Elaine and Craig, of Abilene; their daughter Jane, her husband Ronnie Bassinger, and their children from Dayton, Ohio, to Abi-zabeth, Jennifer, and Thad. Mrs. Bennett has moved Steven and Julie Ann of Lubbock.

Also here were the Blassingame daughter Jimmy Lou, her husband Major R. F. Bennett and their five children, Becky, Sylvan, Eileene where she and the children will live while her husband is on foreign duty. Major Bennett left Friday for Thailand. He is an US AF pilot.

Joining the family party were the Blassingame daughter Louise, her husband Darwin Huff, and children Turney, Paul, Louann, Brad and Patti of Odessa; and Mr. Blassingame's sister Mrs. R. B. Long.

CONVERSATION CORNER

Ruth Coffey's

Out there, somewhere,
A little New Year's a-bornin'
While lyin', dyin', the old year
Will not last 'til mornin'.

WHETHER you hold with making New Year's resolutions or not, there's always something inspiring about the first day of the first week of the first month of the New Year.

Somehow it's always a day of promise with a new calendar full of new days to put to use — or squander.

There'll be 366 days in the New Year of 1968, instead of the measley 365 usually alloted a year.

That's 'cause 1968 is to be Leap Year. Poor little old February will acquire an extra day, February 29. That happens every four years to make up for the 365¼ day-cycle computed as 365 days.

'COURSE everybody knows that the real reason for Leap Year has nothing whatever to do with day-cycles.

It was invented by some feminine genius. Leap Year, by tradition, is the one year in four when it's perfectly all right and legal for a girl to do the wooing, the pursuing and proposing.

That's why it's called Leap Year. Boys and men will leap all over the place to escape while girls and women will leap for joy at the whole idea of equal opportunity.

You've got to admit though, that Leap Year is not exactly a fair allotment, by odds of three to one.

Like nearly everything else under the shining sun it amounts to discrimination between the sexes and should be investigated by Congressional committee.

WHAT this world needs is Leap Year rules and regulations for every year. Pray, why not?

Why should the female of the specie do all the waiting around for something romantic to happen?

It certainly isn't because of the example set by the world's first woman, first one named Eve. Adam was the first man to accuse a woman of "chasing" him, though far from the last.

It's a matter of record that Adam gallantly tattled on Eve concerning her unseemly behavior in the classic excuse "The woman Thou gavest me, she did tempt me . . ."

COME to think of it, maybe the whole social arrangement grew out of the Garden.

From that day forward it was arranged that it should be fit and proper for men to go courtin' when not otherwise engaged with golf, sleeping, cards, hunting, and such like.

It was likewise arranged that girls and women should do the sittin' and waitin' . . . except on Leap Year.

'Course times have changed since grandma was a girl. But not enough to do away with the absolute necessity for Leap Year.

Welcome, welcome little Leap Year
Gals leap with glee when you get here!

DID you know that USN Commander Bob Post spent Christmas in Hawaii with his little wife Ila?

Bob, son of Mary Post Herr (Mrs. Bruce) is on duty in Saigon. His first R&R leave coincided with the Christmas holidays. Ila, his wife, left the three Post children with her mother and flew to Honolulu to spend the short time with him.

HERE for the holidays in the home of Glade Costin are her son, Jim, and his wife Mary Ann (Merritt.)

Jim's a second year student in Southwestern Medical College and Mary Ann is a teacher at the Pilot school in Dallas. They'll be here through New Year's Day.

Mary Ann's parents, Ford and Jean Merritt, got back from a visit in the Ohio home of their son Joe Merritt and his wife Carolyn (Shimer) Thursday night.

SEEN LATELYS included the PM (postmaster) Arlene Morris at the bank . . . Ruth Dozier, our librarian, looking well again . . . Lena Baumann (Mrs. Melvin) and her pretty little daughter Ann at lunch with Ernestine and C. N. Stubblefield out at the Villa.

Had a pleasant chat with Hazel Costin of Odessa who spent Christmas here visiting her mother Mrs. L. A. Costin . . . Mrs. Wilfred Fox was an office visitor.

Saw Addie V. Payne and daughter Arlie Jo of Arlington at the Down Town. With them was Carolyn Drennen-ente daughter of Betty and R. H. Drennen.

Martha Sheppard, daughter of the A. V. Sheppards is home from Tarleton State through New Year. So is Judy Wood, daughter of Odessa and Jim Wood of Texas Tech.

FAMILIAR FACES, various places, belonged to Frances Chesney, wife of Gus . . . Peggy Bagwell, wife of Hulen, who was visited by her niece at Christmas.

Saw Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wallis entertaining a group at lunch . . . Mrs Bill Russell on the shopping scene . . . Mrs. Claud Eudy in a becoming coat of Christmas red.

Saw Elizabeth (Mrs. C. P.) Gary who was saying what fun she had playing with her great-grandbaby, over at the Snyder home of her daughter Lois Eloise, her husband Harold Bennett, their son Tom Bennett, his wife and baby, from Texas Tech.

NEW YEAR'S DAY will find Keith and Ida Miles parked close to their TV.

Their granddaughter Barbie Miles is majorette of Lovington, N.M., band which will march in the Cotton Bowl parade.

Barbie, daughter of Mrs. Jeanne Miles of Lovington and the late Weldon Miles, is also great-granddaughter of Mrs. Jess Thompson.

HERE from San Francisco visiting his parents the Claud Eudys and other relatives are the Don Eudys.

The couple also visited Ballinger and spent last weekend in Dallas where they took in the game played in the Cotton Bowl.

Cotton Bowl reminds me. Wonder where all the Aggie jokes went? There's been a real death of 'em since the Texas Aggies won the Southwestern Conference title and bid to the Cotton Bowl's New Year classic.

Happy New Year, all you Aggies out there in Aggieland. Make that read HAPPY NEW YEAR, EVERYBODY everywhere.

POSTSCRIPT — Don't you know Jane Merrill was a beautiful bride Tuesday evening.

For the simple ceremony she preferred, Jane wore a wool dress of winter white with white hat and carried a bridal bouquet of gardenias.

Her niece Jane Ann Burt lighted the altar candles. Jane Ann, too, wore white.

Now Mrs. Wendell Brady, the former Jane Merrill will complete the school term as teacher of business administration, at CHS, then move to Ft. Worth where she and her husband have an apartment.

Miss Mary Marguerite Smoot Mr. Gingerich Exchange Vows

Miss Mary Marguerite Smoot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Henry Smoot of Big Spring and formerly of Colorado City, became the bride of Thomas George Gingerich of Waco, Friday evening December 29, at eight in the evening.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. George K. Gingerich, 2413 Starr Drive, Waco.

Pastor of the church, Rev. Robert F. Polk was officiant for the couple's double ring vows, in First Baptist Church, Big Spring.

Altar was enhanced with emerald green fern trees and tall white candelabra holding cathedral tapers. Four baskets holding massive white mums, gladiolus, and pompom mums flanked a white prie dieu. Family pews were marked with white satin bows and greenery.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. G. R. (Bob) Robinson, organist, who accompanied Lester Morton, soloist for "O, Perfect Love, Because, and Whither Thou Goest."

Escorted and presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal wedding gown of white peau de soie styled as a modified tent with scalloped bodice and sleeves overlaid with re-embroidered French lace. A cathedral train extended from the back of the lace bodice. Her headpiece of seed pearl flower petals held the bouffant veil of maline. The bride carried a cascade of white stephanotis and frenched carnations centered with white orchids and streamered with white satin.

Miss Kathy Simonds of Ft. Worth was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Sally Perkins, of Eastland, cousin of the bride; Miss Terry Myers of Colorado City; Miss Paula Leonard of Big Spring; and Mrs. Mike Mundy, of Lubbock.

Bridal attendants wore floor-length gowns of American Beauty fashioned in the A-line, with satin bows at the empire waistline, pleated chiffon sleeves, and flowing back panels. Their headpieces were matching silk illusion sprinkled with pearls. Each carried a cascade of pastel pink carnations tied in pink velvet ribbon.

Candle lighters were Becky Pore, cousin of the bride from Houston, and Carl Smoot, brother of the bride. Miss Pore was gowned in American Beauty velveteen. Her wrist corsage was of pale pink.

Sidney Ridlehuber of Waco, cousin of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen were Jimmie Howell, Dan McDonald, Bill Whitby, and Ernie Jennings, all of Waco.

Seating the wedding guests as ushers were Dale Stringer, Mike Baggett, Jimmy Gingerich, brother of the groom, all of Waco; and Hank Smoot, brother of the bride.

For the reception in Fellowship Hall, the bride's table was covered with a floor-length tulle cloth with lace border and flounced overlay. Centerpiece was a tall swirl candelabrum, holding pink and white carnations and butterfly roses. The three-tiered cake, based in pink tulle, was decorated with columns, white satin bells, and pink confection roses.

Groom's table, laid with a cloth of beige burlap, held copper coffee services.

For a honeymoon trip to Dallas the bride traveled in a mint green sheath topped with a matching full length coat. Matching hat and white accessories were complimented by a white orchid corsage.

The couple will live in Waco where they will continue their education at Baylor University. The bride is a junior student majoring in elementary education. The bridegroom is a senior finance major.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Perkins and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Perkins Eastland; Miss Dorothy Perkins, Midland; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Pope, Houston; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ridlehuber, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Trice, Mrs. Phillip Pohder, Miss Jo Kilpatrick, Mrs. Myrtle Trice, all of Waco; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lane of Sonora.

MRS. FITE SPEAKER

Los Alamos Is Subject At Zeta Delta Study Club

Zeta Delta Study Club met Thursday evening in the Reddy Room, Texas Electric Service building, with Mrs. Rodney James as hostess.

Opening prayer was said by the hostess. Presenting the program was Mrs. Don Fite who discussed "Los Alamos, N.M., Atomic Testing Center." Mrs. Fite accented her paper with pictures and brochures.

Reviewing accomplishments at Los Alamos the speaker reminded club members of the original project, the testing of nuclear weapons.

She then described the sciences laboratory at Los Alamos, the lab sponsored by University of California. More recent projects underway there, she said, are the Rover project, designed for interplanetary travel, the Sherwood thermo - nuclear project, and projects stressing the peaceful use of atomic energy — medical research on cancer and the artifical heart.

During the business session winners of the Zeta Study Club's annual Americanism essay contest for Colorado Junior High School students were announced.

Winner of the $10 first prize is Becky Camp. Second prize of $5 went to Scott Sherman. Prizes were presented by Mrs. Randy Hicks, Zeta Delta member, Dec. 21, at school assembly.

Essay winners, both eighth grade students, will present their essays at the next club program, Jan. 11, in the home of Mrs. Hicks, 929 Walnut St.

Mrs. Hubert Bassinger discussed the importance of members and their husbands registering to vote. Deadline, she reminded the club, for registering is Jan. 31.

Club members will stage their annual election of officers Thursday, Jan. 11.

Attending the Dec. 28 session were Mrs. Hubert Bassinger, Mrs. Eddie Braswell, Mrs. Fite, Mrs. James, Mrs. Bobby Nobles, Mrs. Tommy Rees, Mrs. Dave Sanders, Mrs. Mike Wadlington, Mrs. Hicks, and Mrs. Dennis Wright.

new Texas County & District Retirement System. They have asked J. Robert Brown of Austin, director of the retirement system, for additional information concerning the retirement plan authorized last year by Texas Legislature.

Decisions concerning the retirement plan and the disability insurance, no doubt, are likely to affect the courts final decision on pay raises for 1968. That's because either or both of the retirement and insurance plans are likely to take some of the funds which would go for straight pay hikes.

The county's new budget goes into effect Jan. 1 and that means the commissioners must decide definitely on the salary question in January or early February.

Becky
