DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENTIAL NOMINEE GOES TO CALIFORNIA AFTER EXPRESSING VIEWS ON GOVERNMENT CONTROL AND REGULATION

(By The Associated Press)

ROOSEVELT SPECIAL EN ROUTE TO SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23—After writing into the record of this presidential campaign his views in a speech at Portland on the regulation and control of public utilities dealing with electricity, Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt today was in California, whose swing from John N. Garner assured Roosevelt's nomination at the Chicago Democratic convention.

William Gibbs McAdoo, who announced the swing during the fourth roll call last July 1 had flown to Redding to meet the nominee and escort him through the state. McAdoo is the choice of California Democrats for the United tSates senate.

Roosevelt, in the Portland address last night, the third of the four major utterances he will make on his 21-day tour of the west, outlined his views on government ownership, public utility regulation, and of President Hoover whom he designated "my distinguished opponent." He said:

"Since 1928 my distinguished opponent has done nothing to enforce the regulatory sections of the federal water power act.

"He has done nothing to block the financial operations incident to the great post-war development as planned by its promoters.

"My distinguished opponent is against giving the federal government in any case the right to operate their own power business."

In his peroration, which the crowd frequently interrupted with cheering, Mr. Roosevelt said:

"To the people of this country I have but one answer on this sub-

$100,000 SOUGHT BY WIFE OF CALIFORNIA TENNIS PLAYER

(By The Associated Press)

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 22.—Denial she had stolen the love of Albert J. Cohen, tennis player and author's agent, was made today by Corliss Palmer, Georgia beauty. Miss Palmer was made defendant in a $100,000 alienation of affections suit filed yesterday by the man's wife, Mrs. Estelle A. Cohen.

Miss Palmer, estranged wife of Eugene V. Brewster, former millionaire magazine publisher, said she had been a friend of Cohen but had understood him to be unmarried when she first met him. When he told her he was married she said, he had added that his wife was separated from him and was contemplating a divorce. She said she ceased seeing Cohen when she learned he and his wife were living together, calling only at his office to see him on business as he was her agent.

At the time of Miss Palmer's romance with Brewster in 1926 she was involved in an alienation of affections suit brought by Mrs. Eleanor Brewster for $200,000. A settlement was made.

Simultaneous with filing her action for alienation of affections, Mrs. Cohen filed suit for divorce, naming the screen actress as correspondent.

Woman Takes Poison; Condition Critical

VICTIM TAKEN TO HOSPITAL HERE TODAY

FAMILY DIFFICULTIES BLAMED; COMPLAINT IS DISMISSED

Depressed by family difficulties, Mrs. J. C. Butler, 42, swallowed bichloride of mercury tablet in the front room of her home at 404 Avenue L about 6:30 o'clock this morning. She was in a critical condition at Lubbock sanitarium at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

A wife desertion complaint, made by Mrs. Butler in justice court here Tuesday, was withdrawn on Mrs. Butler's request this morning, after her husband had been arrested in her room at the sanitarium.

Disputes Cited

Butler, a machinist who has turned to picking cotton for lack of other employment, said he and his wife had engaged in several disputes recently. He said she warned him Monday that if he came into their home she would shoot and kill him, and Thursday struck him several times with a stick. His wife, who was treated by a doctor at the home about an hour after swallowing the poisonous tablet, and who was received at the sanitarium at 10:45 a. m., admitted to him that she had taken the tablet in a suicide attempt, Butler said. She had left no notes, he said.

Sitting on a bed in the front room, Mrs. Butler gulped down the tablet and became ill almost immediately, remaining on the bed her husband related.

The woman's stomach was cleansed and she underwent inter-veinous treatments at the sanitarium. Odds were against her recovery, however, attendants indicated.

Butler attributed the more angered outbursts of his wife, prior to her attempt at self-destruction, to an alleged tale brought her by a 17-year-old son, who evidently had been reproved by his father for riding off Monday morning on his newly acquired bicycle instead of remaining to go to work with his father. Butler said he had repaired the bicycle for the boy Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Butler have two daughters and a son here and a son in California. Mrs. Butler has two sons, one living here and the other in New York state, by a former marriage.

Accompanied by her husband Mrs. Butler was taken to the sanitarium in a private automobile.

GAIN IN COTTON LOST IN MARKET

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 22 (AP)—Cotton extended yesterday's impressive gains by about $1 a bale in early trading today, when October advanced to 7.58 and December to 7.70 on very much better Liverpool cables than due and reports of heavy, damaging rains in West Texas. The July delivery crossed the eight-cent line to 8.06.

Hedge-selling and profit-taking appeared on resumption of the upturn however, reducing the net advance by about 50 cents a bale before the end of the first hour.

Later in the morning continued hedging and realizing by satisfied longs, wiped out the first hour advance and futures dropped five points, equivalent to 25 cents a bale under yesterday's close.

TEXAS RELIEF MEASURE SET IN MOTION

SPECIAL SESSION OF LEGISLATURE ENDS ON WEDNESDAY

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Sept. 22.—Machinery incident to reimbursing counties for money spent through bond issues in construction of highways on the state system of roads had been set in motion today.

The third special session of the Texas legislature adjourned finally yesterday after enacting laws designed to help the taxpayers of Texas through the stringent economic situation now prevalent.

Tax Set Aside

Principal of the relief measures was the law setting aside one cent of the four cent gasoline tax to refund counties for indebtedness incurred in building highways.

A special board comprised of the state highway engineer, state treasurer, and state comptroller was created to deal with the counties in relieving the taxpayers of approximately $7,000,000 annually otherwise paid in by them in tax levies towards liquidating interest and principal due on those obligations.

Gilchrist Chairman

Gibb Gilchrist, state highway engineer, was chosen chairman of the board. George H. Sheppard, comptroller, and Charlie Lockhart, treasurer, were meeting with Gilchrist incident to figuring out the pro rata share due each county under the arrangement.

Other relief measures enacted by the legislature included a law remitting interest and penalties against state, county, and district taxes delinquent provided they were paid before Dec. 31, 1932, and a bill amending loan and building association laws to permit those organizations to participate in the federal home loan act making it possible for owners of homes about to be foreclosed to obtain mney with which to pay out.

NOT EXACTLY G.O.P. BANDWAGONS

It wasn't exactly a G. O. P. bandwagon that the farmers of Goldsboro, N. C., rigged up when they started for a county rodeo recently. The farmers said they were too broke to buy gas for their cars, so they turned them into home-built carts that carried in the parade a few hoots for Hoover.

LARGE COTTON SALE MADE

ELLWOOD SELLS 1,500 BALES TO LUBBOCK BRANCH OF CO-OP

What is said to have been the largest sale of cotton in the South to a cooperative marketing association was made this week by W. L. Ellwood, Lubbock rancher and capitalist, who sold 1,500 bales to the Lubbock branch office of the Texas Cotton Cooperative association.

"Mr. Ellwood chose the call pool," N. H. Payne, manager of the Lubbock district, said. "As far as we know this is the largest single sale of cotton to any cooperative in the south."

All of the cotton was classed for grade and staple. The cotton ranged from 7-8 to 1 1-32 inch staple and was of a high grade.

The shipment will be loaded in a Santa Fe train and it will take 30 cars to haul the cotton to Houston. There it will be placed on the T.C.-C.A. warehouse for sale on Mr. Ellwood's order.

NEW TAXES CUT INTO DEFICIT

REVENUE LAW BEGINS TO BEAR FRUIT FOR U. S. TREASURY

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Approaching their maximum yields, taxes in the billion-dollar revenue law are beginning to threaten slashes in a federal deficit that already has climbed to nearly $400,000,000 since July 1.

August brought $79,940,310 into the treasury from the new levies on gasoline, electrical energy, bank checks, stock transfers and other miscellaneous sources. This was an increase of $18,253,843 over July receipts and of $11,546,170 over miscellaneous collections in August, 1931.

Bigger Increase Seen

But treasury officials believe this yield still is short of returns which may be expected under the 1932 act. Further increases are forecast in the monthly receipts as accumulated stocks of taxable merchandise dwindle and payments are made on retarded excise tax collections.

BULLINGTON IS OPPOSED BY NEW GROUP

DALLAS G. O. P. CHIEF LEADS OPPOSITION TO THE NOMINEE

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, Sept. 22.—Republicans hoping to win the votes of any "frogleg" Democrats who might jump the Democratic pledge and support Orville Bullington, the Republican nominee for governor, were confronted today by an anti-organization revolt, led by George S. Atkinson, Dallas Republican.

Atkinson said he and other Dallas Republicans would have a conference some time today with George W. Armstrong of Fort Worth, gubernatorial nominee of the Good Government party. He said they were in communication with other anti-organization leaders in Houston and San Antonio.

Publicly, "regular" Republican headquarters ignored the threat of disaffection and turned to plans for addresses Bullington expected to make today in Cleburne, Keene, Alvarado, Grandview, Itasca, and Hillsboro, and tomorrow in Frost, Milford, Midlothian and Waxahachie. Bullington, a Wichita Falls attorney, opened his campaign with an address Tuesday night in Waco.

ARMSTRONG EXPECTS REPUBLICAN VOTES

DALLAS, Sept. 22 (AP)—George W. Armstrong of Fort Worth, independent candidate for governor, said today he expected to receive the votes of three-fourths of the Republicans of Texas in the Nov. 8 general election.

He was in Dallas today to confer with George S. Atkinson, John J. Kettle and other local Republican leaders. Atkinson and Kettle announced their support of Armstrong after breaking with Orville Bullington of Wichita Falls, the Republican nominee for governor, and R. B. Creager, national committeeman, soon after the party's state convention here.

Armstrong said he would campaign actively. In the past two weeks he has been speaking in northwest Texas. Next week he plans to invade central and southwest Texas.

Gasoline Price At Dallas Is Slashed

DALLAS, Sept. 22 (AP)—Retail gasoline prices had been reduced in Dallas today by all major distributing companies. The lowered schedule quoted standard grade at 16 cents and the so-called special grade or treated fuel, at 19. Third grade gasoline remained at 12 cents.

It was the second time in a week that the price of sale for the two upper grades had been cut a cent. Last night Magnolia dropped its prices and by today all other major companies had fallen in line.

DEFENSE CASE IS RESTED AT NOON

WOMAN TESTIFIES TO STRENGTHEN ALIBI OF DEFENDANT

Completing final claims of defense in the alibi of Jess Covington, on trial for murder in 99th district court, Mrs. Osa Covington, wife of the defendant, took the witness stand shortly before noon today and testified she was with her husband at home "around 9 o'clock" on the night of May 30.

Covington, one of the three men charged in the death of F. V. "Leatherhat" Brown, pioneer county stockman, at Woodrow on May 30, did not take the stand to tell his own story and defense counsel announced its case closed as the court recessed until 1:30.

Expected To Testify

Covington had been expected to testify in his own behalf to aid in establishing his alibi.

Completion of testimony in the trial was expected this afternoon with presentation of rebuttal witnesses.

After preparation of the court's charge and the attorneys' arguments, the case will go to the jury. The jury will probably receive the case sometime Saturday, court attaches intimated today.

Aids Defense Claim

Mrs. Covington's testimony completed the last leg of the alibi defense, the time she said her husband was with her being approximately the same as the time of the killing as designated by eye-witnesses who testified for the state. They said the shooting took place "about 9 o'clock".

Mrs. Covington said she and the defendant had been married since 1923. She said that she was at the home of a friend, Mrs. Sneed, on the afternoon of the killing and remained there until about 7:30 when she went home.

She testified the defendant came home "15 or 20 minutes" after she got home and that they got in his car and drove around awhile.

"Around 9 o'clock"

"It was around 9 o'clock when we got back home," she said.

In answer to a defense question, she said the wheels of her husband's car were black.

"Didn't you go back to Mrs. Sneed's house after the killing and ask her if she didn't remember seeing your husband come for you late that afternoon?", District Attorney Durwood Bradley asked her on cross-examination.

"I don't know as I did," she replied then answered negatively to a second question of similar nature.

Mrs. Covington's testimony followed that of several witnesses, some of whom continued to testify in an effort to establish the alibi, while one or two others testified as to the kind of tires the defendant had on his car at the time of the slaying.

FAIR TRIP WILL DEPEND ON ROADS

Although reports here at noon today did not indicate the roads had been affected, officials of a third and final goodwill trip, scheduled for Friday to advertise the 19th annual Panhandle-South Plains fair, said road conditions would be investigated thoroughly, and the autocade would go only as far as Plainview if reports indicated roads were in a condition making travel difficult. Pavement is available to the Hale county capital.

The rest of the territory in Friday's itinerary would be covered later, if the original trip is so curtailed, it was said at the chamber of commerce. Ten Hale, Lamb, Floyd, and Crosby county towns are on the route. The trippers will leave City hall at 7:15 o'clock Friday morning.

Dozen Testify In Davis Case Today

NEW YORK, Sept. 22 (AP)—A dozen witnesses filed across the witness stand at this morning's session of the trial of United States Senator James J. Davis, who is charged with participating in lotteries the government says were conducted by the Loyal Order of Moose.

The witnesses were called chiefly in support of the technical aspects of the government's case, to show that tickets which the prosecution calls lottery tickets were actually printed, that they were ordered by authorized agents of the Moose and that they were delivered to such agents.

GANDHI WEAKENING AFTER TWO DAYS OF "DEATH FAST"; CRISIS IS FACED

(By The Associated Press)

POONA, India, Sept. 22.—Mahatma Gandhi, already weakening after the first two days of his "death fast," faced the crisis of his struggle with the British government today.

"It's today or never!" said G. D. Birla of the Hindu emergency committee which has been trying to bring about a compromise over the problem of the electoral rights of the depressed classes, the cause for which the Mahatma entered upon his starvation fast Tuesday.

In the "condemned" cell of Yeroda jail, to which Gandhi was moved yesterday because it offered more commodious quarters for the many visitors who came to see him, the spare and emaciated leader of India's millions continued to squat cross-legged on a webbed cot, but his voice was growing weaker when the last of his callers left him last night.

The committee was putting forth every effort today to bring about a compromise agreement which would satisfy Gandhi. The members were spurred by the belief that whatever is done must be done quickly if the Mahatma's life is to be saved.

GOOD ENROLLMENT INDICATED AT TECH AS FRESHMAN REGISTRATION IS BEGUN

Indications that Texas Technological college will have an enrollment at least equal to last year and possibly exceeding it were evident this morning at the college as registration for freshmen got under way. More than 600 freshmen were in attendance at the orientation exercises at the college Wednesday and officials expressed opinions there were more who did not attend.

Veteran members of the faculty said orientation attendance exceeded that of any day in the school's history.

Dr. Bradford Knapp, new president of the school, was enthusiastic over the enrollment this morning, declaring that it was too early to make any predictions on enrollment.

"From the records of the registrar's office," he said in a statement, "apparently something like 200 students are asking for transfers to this institution from other institutions. There are some indications that a larger proportion of former students will return to college this year than usual, due in part, no doubt, to the scarcity

I SAVED HER DAUGHTER

IT IS the daughter herself—Miss Rose Lama—who willingly gives the facts in a letter.

She says, "My mother wanted me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound when I was younger. But I wouldn't. If I had, I might have been a well girl now. I suffered terribly every month."

Finally the girls in her office convinced her. She tried it at last. Now she is on the way to greater health and happiness. Mothers—tell your daughters. And daughters—take your mother's advice. Suffering is unnecessary.

New Clubwomen's Head Budgets Time

WASHINGTON (AP)—The days, hours and minutes of Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole, new president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, are all budgeted.

Into a Washington that frankly slumps in the summer she brought her busy days—rise each morning at 7:30, breakfast at 8, to the desk at 9 to remain until noon, back at the desk from 2 to 4:30—

Then, whether her desk be cleared or not, whether she's finished the article she has been writing or is just working to its climax—off she goes to the theater or to her embroidery!

"Such a system might not suit some temperaments," said Mrs. Poole. "But I am certain it results in a larger all-around accomplishment for me."

For instance, Mrs. Poole never has to say of a worth-while plan: "I'd love to have seen it, but I just couldn't find time."

Into every week's time-budget she figures the theater, of which she is very fond, and concerts.

"Instead of wishing I could go to the theater I simply do it," she said. "The work is done when I get back."

By thus fitting her hours into a pattern of her own choosing Mrs. Poole has managed to travel more than 200,000 miles in 21 different foreign countries; deliver 2,500 lectures in cities from coast to coast; serve on school committee and civic executive boards of her home city of Brockton, Mass.; teach a boys' Sunday school class; play bridge; play the piano; and hold a series of offices in women's clubs—culminating this year in her election to the General Federation presidency.

Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole, new president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, carries the budget idea into her time schedule for a busy day's work—and recreation.

ITEMS OF INTEREST GARNERED FROM COLLEGE AS NEW SCHOOL YEAR GETS UNDER WAY

The first issue this academic year of The Toreador, Texas Technological college student newspaper, is off the press, with a Friday dateline. Photographs of six Matador football players top the front page, the art layout being captioned: "Do your stuff, Matadors—stop those Aggies tomorrow." The Tech-Aggie game also receives the banner story. Head Coach Pete Cawthon's and Captain Ross Ayer's pictures also are on page 1.

Parker Taulman is editor-in-chief and A. B. Brown business manager of The Toreador, published weekly. Two by-line columns, The Co-ed's Angle by Lorene Childers, and Under the Double T, a sports columnu by Bob Tracy, are in the first issue.

FROSH CAP YELLOW

This year's freshman cap at Technological college will be bright yellow with green lettering, instead of the traditional green, Bill Collins, salesman, has announced. Money from sales of the caps goes to the freshman loan fund and the college athletic fund, according to The Toreador.

YEARBOOK PLANS MADE

La Ventana, Technological college yearbook, this year for the first time will be of a standard size issued by the University of Texas, Texas A. & M. college, and other major schools in the state. All work except printing and engraving will be done by students, Everett Fairchild, editor, has announced.

EXAMINATIONS REQUIRED

Technological college freshmen this year were the first to be required to take English placement examinations. The tests were given Wednesday afternoon. The freshmen will be divided into four classes according to their ranking in the placement examination. Dr. A. L. Carter, English department head said.

TO SELL TAGS

In a sale sponsored by the college chamber of commerce, tags will be sold Matador students and other supporters of the Cawthonmen, Saturday, to obtain money to buy visitors tags, which will be pinned on all visitors to the Technological college campus this school-year. Ray Moore is president of the college chamber.

BALKY SEWING MACHINE USED BY MRS. HOOVER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22 (AP)—Even on a balky sewing machine Mrs. Hoover can turn a fine seam for the Red Cross.

She visited the workrooms yesterday where 30 whirring machines, each operated by a volunteer woman worker, were turning cloth that came from federally-owned cotton into pretty print dresses for needy little girls and substantial shirts for needy little boys.

The machines were all donated for such use and some of them were rather ancient models. Upon one of these Mrs. Hoover chanced when she sat down to "try her hand" at the work.

"Does anyone know how to drop the foot of this machine?" she first queried.

All the workers tried to help, but none offered the key to the puzzle before she herself had found the gadget that dropped the foot.

"Does it turn from you or toward you?" was her next question as the needle stuttered in its groove.

Some spectators favored "from" and some "toward," and the argument was still on when Mrs. Hoover's triumphant "ah-h!" announced she had found the answer. The machine smoothly stitched the side-seam of a little pink madras dress that will help some lucky little girl to stay in school this winter.

BUT SHE LOVED HIM

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—Although she had him arrested for disorderly conduct, Mrs. Joseph Gevirtz couldn't see her husband go to jail. Gevirtz refused to pay a fine of $10, and was sentenced to jail. His wife's kind heart got the better of her judgment, and she dug down and forked over the fine for him.

ARMS MEETING DELAYS WORK

POSTPONE ACTION ON GERMAN DEMAND FOR ARMS EQUALITY

GENEVA, Sept. 22 (AP)—The World Disarmament conference bureau, resuming its deliberations without a representative from Germany, postponed discussion of the German demand for arms equality today so the German government might have time to respond to a letter urging it to continue participation.

The postponement was at the suggestion of Arthur Henderson, chairman, who wrote the letter to Foreign Minister Von Neurath.

Henderson, reviewing the first phase of the conference, said: "We are now nearing a crossroads where we must take a choice between peace and disarmament or a race in armaments and eventual war."

The clerk read the recent correspondence between Henderson and Herr Von Neurath in which the latter served notice of Germany's withdrawal from the meeting. Then the bureau took up the routine docket.

USED CLOTHES ARE SOUGHT

WELFARE GROUP WILL START DRIVE HERE NEXT SATURDAY

Used clothing suitable for men, women, and children of all ages, sizes, and shapes will be collected systematically in all parts of Lubbock, Saturday, in an old clothes drive supervised by City-County Welfare association, Mayor J. J. Clements announced late Wednesday. At least 20 automobiles will be used in the collections.

Boy Scouts To Help

Workers, with Mrs. J. A. Raley, jr., in charge of cars, will gather at City hall at 9 a. m. Saturday and two Boy scouts will be detailed to each car. All territory within Lubbock's corporate limits will be parcelled out to drivers and the campaign will begin.

Citizens having clothing to donate are asked to place the bundles, plainly marked as 'old clothes', upon their front porches at 9 o'clock. As the cars roll along the thoroughfares the scouts will run from house to house, collecting the bundles from the porches.

Bundles Should Be Marked

Authorities yesterday warned donors to "be sure and mark the bundles" by pinning a piece of paper, upon which is written 'old clothes', upon each bundle". They said during the drive last year many bundles of laundry were collected in error.

The Mayor said calls for clothing are widespread and that shoes, too, are needed at the present time. Old dresses, underwear, suits, trousers and overcoats with wear left in them are in great demand, he reported.

A SOUR NOTE

COLUMBUS, O.—A prisoner thought he would pull one over on prison authorities, so he penned his sweetie a sweet-sour love note. The letter was written in lemon juice which, when exposed to heat, becomes visible. All would have gone well if someone hadn't handled the envelope and noticed writing appearing on it after contact with the heat of the hand. The note was opened. It read: "Dear Darling: I'm so glad we've found a way to keep up a correspondence that nobody else can read." The convict forfeited his writing privileges indefinitely.

DIXIE SERIES SQUARED AS TEAMS LEAVE FOR CHATTANOOGA

MATADOR SPECIAL IS STILL IN DOUBT

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

The 1932 Official Football Rule and Guide book was a little late reaching our desk, but it's here and it contains valuable information.

The section of the book dedicated to rules is, of course, particularly concerned with the six changes made last winter by the national rules committee. Written in clear, concise style, the rules would be intelligible even to such uninitiated subjects as Gray Eagle Pender and Ben Condray, who were chased off a Class B field last year by a couple of irate teams who insisted that these officials did not know the rules, or something like that.

This office is not an agency "for the new rule book, but it is recommended for every fan who wants to get the most out of football. Get a rule book, pour over it by lamplight and at lunch-time, memorize the contents, go to a couple of coaches and officials conventions, take private lessons from a member of the rules committee, observe the actions of officials with the aid of field glasses from the grandstand, do a turn at officiating and coaching and you might know something about the way a football game should be governed. We don't guarantee that you would, because we have never done anything but go to a couple of coaching schools, but it ought to work.

Of possible interest to local fans and other subscribers (this is still about the rule book) is a quarter-page picture of the Texas Tech squad, last year's Tech schedule and results of every game, and the schedule for this season. Also a brief note about the college which goes thusly:

"With apparently poor prospects, season was finished with seven out of ten games won in a schedule the hardest ever attempted. France, Ayers and Price were outstanding players."

We don't know who wrote that, probably Joe Utay of Dallas, or Ray Morrison or maybe one of the local coaches, but they had it about right. There is mention of the Haskell and Baylor games in the book. In the list of approved officials, under the head of The Southwestern Board of Officials, appear the names of Pete Cawthon and Dutchy Smith of Tech, W. G. "Bill" McMillan and Ben Condray of Lubbock, Pete Hackley of Crosbyton, Kenneth Hemphill, formerly of Littlefield, Henry Ernka of Greenville, Bill Honey, Al Baggett, Doc Parcells and Marshall Flay of Amarillo and Frank Kimbrough of Plainview. There may be others of local or sectional note but we read that section in a hurry.

The Plainsman isn't the only bird around these offices whose customers shower him with watermelons, birdseed, spaghetti and other victuals which procide a well-rounded form and pleasing tenor.

Mrs. Spying On Sports just finished clearing away the remains of a fine feast of dove, provided by Bill McMillan, the well-known contractor and sportsman. Mighty fine, Mr. McMillan, and thanks muchly.

In reply to several queries, the Texas Tech-Texas A. & M. football game will start at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. It will be played on Butler Field, just on the outskirts of Amarillo.

It is with something of bitterness that we remember our last visit to Butler Field. It was a cold Thanksgiving Day, back in 1931. There was water, water everywhere, but not many people were drinking water. They were wading through it. It was so bad on the field that some avid Westerner fans broke indirectly into print by suggesting, in no uncertain terms, that the Amarillo Fire department had been exercising on Butler Field a few hours prior to the game. Of course there was nothing to that.

Texas Tech students, new and old, hitting town this week to begin the long session, are accorded a hearty welcome by this department. To get started right, to show college spirit and to herald the opening of Tech's probable greatest season, we recommend that these new and old students grab the rattler to Amarillo Saturday and help beat off the Aggie attack. The team will appreciate your presence and your voices in the grandstand, and you ought to have your share of the fun.

Tomorrow this department will tell you how the game at Amarillo is going to turn out.

LOOKOUTS WIN SECOND GAME OF SERIES

BEAUMONT IS BLANKED BY 4-HIT PITCHING OF ALEX McCOLL

BY BILL PARKER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

BEAUMONT, Sept. 22 (AP)—The Dixie series was squared at one all, as the Chattanooga Lookouts and the Beaumont Exporters prepared to shift the scene of battle to the Southern association club's Tennessee home tomorrow.

The Lookouts walked off with the second game, 5 to 0, yesterday after the Exporters had shut out the visitors 1 to 0 Tuesday in the opener.

McColl Turns Trick

Alex McColl, who was scratched from the Dallas roster in the Texas league four years and told he was "through" because of a sore arm, was the hero of yesterday's Chattanooga triumph. He pitched a four-hit game that made Beaumont batters look feeble, for of the four bingles, no two came in the same inning.

Izzy Goldstein, who rushed back from the Detroit Tigers to help the Exporters win the Texas league pennant, pitched a five-hit game that was blasted to the winds in the seventh when the Lookouts scored four runs on two hits, an error, one walk and one infield out.

Break Up Duel

The Lookouts went 15 innings without a score, having been shut out in the first game, but when they did break loose they broke up a fan-rousing mound duel between McColl and Goldstein.

It started when Reese walked. Newsome, Beaumont shortstop, stepped in front of a made-to-order double play grounded off Bolton's bat, but the ball went through his legs for an error, and Reese raced to third, Bolton stopping at first. Travis doubled to score Reese and sent Bolton to third. Boss walked to fill the bases. Wilburn gave the Exporters hope when he flied out to Newsome, but McColl hit a line drive at Goldstein to score Bolton. Goldstein knocked ripped out a sin- Goldstein knocked the ball down and recovered in time to nab McColl at first. Kingdon ripped out a single and Travis and Boss galloped home.

The Lookouts got another run in the eighth when Gill led off with a double and scored on infield outs by Reese and Bolton.

Retires Big Three

McColl rose to the pitching pinnacle in the fourth. He walked Benton to start with, but like a pitching master, he retired the big three of Beaumont's batting attack. Foxx, Greenberg and Easterling with easy outs. He pitched great ball again in the ninth. Fox led off with a single, but McColl made Greenberg hit into a double play, and retired Easterling on an infield tap.

Chattanooga's defense was featured by a hustling infield that played its second consecutive game without an error. Greenberg and Newsome committed errors for Beaumont. Easterling in left field pulled in several difficult chances.

The series will be resumed tomorrow at Chattanooga where the next three games will be played. Luke Hamlin is favored to hurl for Beaumont. Petty probably pitch for Chattanooga.

Total receipts for the two days, with amusement tax deducted, amounted to $19,618.67, of which 20 per cent, or $3,923.73, goes to the leagues, 60 per cent of the remaining 80 per cent, or $9,416.97, to the players' pool and 40 per cent of the 80 per cent, or $6,277.97, to the clubs.

Yankees' Infield To Show No Advantage Over Cubs

BABE'S "TUMMY ACHE" MAY HURT CHANCES OF NEW YORK

BY ALAN GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, Sept. 22 (AP)—Unless the leading exponent of the strategic value of the home run, Babe Ruth, is in much improved health a week hence, the Yankees likely will not show any advantage over the Chicago Cubs insofar as the cleanup blows of their outfielders are concerned in the forthcoming battle for the baseball championship of the world.

The Yankees, on paper, show a heavier punch but this is offset by the fact Ruth has to contend with a bigger "tummy ache" than all the rest of the outfielders combined.

Averages Differ

The only real difference between the two outfield groups is represented by the batting averages of Ruth and Kiki Cuyler, who patrols right field for the Cubh. The unofficial season figures are .348 for Ruth and only .286 for Cuyler, but that doesn't tell the real story.

Where Ruth has been laid up and lost considerable of his much-needed strength, Cuyler has come down the home stretch like a forest fire fanned by a gale. The fleet Kiki has been producing the big cleanup wallop when the Bruins needed it.

Taking these facts into consideration, plus Cuyler's far superior defensive skill and base-running ability, the Cubs figure to concede little or nothing to their American league rivals in the outfield.

The veteran Riggs Stephenson is a much more dangerous, consistent hitter than Ben Chapman, the Yankees' left-fielder. The Kentucky colonel, Earle Combs, has the hitting edge on his youthful centerfield rival. John Francis Moore of the Cubs, but speed and defensive ability is a factor in favor of the younger player.

LEW FONSECA UNSUNG HERO

FORCED TO STRUGGLE ALONG WITH LOSER ALL SEASON

BY GAYLE TALBOT
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Among the unsung heroes of the closing baseball campaign is Manager Lew Fonseca of the Chicago White Sox.

Fonseca, in his first full season as pilot of a big league club, not only has been forced to struggle along with a chronic loser, but probably has had the biggest turnover of talent since the game began. Of pitchers alone, the records disclose, 25 have graced the Sox lineup since the season opened. The average for the other clubs in the two major leagues was around thirteen flingers. The figures prove, however, that the Sox owners have been going out and getting them in an effort to build up their fences.

Win Twin Bill

Two veterans of the Sox staff, Milt Gaston and Paul Gregory turned in sparkling work yesterday in beating Detroit twice, 11 to 3 and 3 to 1.

Babe Ruth returned to the Yankee's line-up, still slightly wobbly from his illness, but the league champions were given an 8 to 4 drubbing by the ex-champion Athletics. The Babe got a single in four trips.

Washington took both ends of a doubleheader from Boston, 1 to 0 and 3 to 2, the first going 10 innings. The double win clinched third place in the American league for the Senators, as Cleveland was dropping a 4 to 3 decision to St. Louis.

The New York Giants continued their great stretch drive in the National league by shading Boston 2 to 1, in a 10-inning duel between Carl Hubbell and Tom Zachary.

Pittsburgh sewed up second place by defeating the champion Cubs, 9 to 6. Dizzy Dean pitched his 17th victory as the Cardinals shut out the Reds, 2 to 0.

Leading Stars To Vie In Tournament

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 22 (AP)—Quarter-finals of the sixth annual Pacific southwest tennis tournament today brought together the four top-seeded American stars and the four leading foreigners.

Ellsworth Vines, jr., defending champion, was paired with Jiro Satoh, of Japan. Fred Perry of Great Britain was matched with Keith Gledhill of Santa Barbara, Calif. Wilmer Allison of Austin, Texas, meets Georgio De Stefani of Italy. Johnny Van Ryn of Philadelphia opposes Henry Austin of Great Britain.

"Marrying parsons" at Fort Smith, Ark., have slashed wedding fees to $1 by bidding against each other for business.

GRID TICKETS ARE ON SALE IN LUBBOCK

MATADOR SPIRIT AND HOPES INCREASED FOR A&M GAME

With adult football tickets and townspeople railroad tickets going rather slowly up to noon today, the question of whether a special train would run to Amarillo Saturday for the Texas Tech-Texas A. & M. college football game was largely up to Tech students. It was believed that a sufficient number of these would purchase round trip tickets and make the special train possible.

Tickets to the game and for the round trip by railroad are on sale at Lubbock Hotel Drug and Pinson No. 2 Drug. The American Business club is sponsoring the proposed special train.

Hopes Increased

Another hard workout yesterday afternoon left the Matadors in a state of fatigue but with increased hopes and spirit. The war cry, "On to Amarillo to Beat the Aggies," rings loudly at every practice. Coaches grow more optimistic daily as their charges show improvement and become a smoother functioning club.

Stage Fright

Coaches Pete Cawthon and Dutchy Smith are laying particular stress on the psychological side of football this week. Cognizant of the fact that football teams sometimes are not themselves when faced by a team of bigger proportions and heavier reputation, the coaches are attempting to drill into the Matadors the idea that

WESTERNER COACHES FACE TASK OF BUILDING GRID MACHINE WITH BUT THREE TESTED COGS FROM '31 TEAM

Coach Chapman picked out what appeared to be his best eleven candidates for the 1932 Lubbock High school football team yesterday and sent them into a brief scrimmage against a team that showed up almost as strong. The result was not exactly pleasing to look at.

Faced with the task of building a gridiron machine that will have only three tested cogs, Chapman and Huffman do not have visions of successfully defending the district and bi-district championship which the Westerners of 1931 won, but already there is a display of improvement on Fair park field where the Westerners are going through daily workouts.

Hutson Looks Good

Outstanding in yesterday's offensive work was the leather-toting activity of Truman Hutson and Bill Davidson, fullback and halfback candidates respectively. Truman, who was ineligible last year but who was pointed out in spring training as the man to watch this fall, looked better than decent with his spinners and quick thrusts at the line. Hurling his 180 pounds of brawn at the opposing line, he made dents at every thrust.

Davidson, an alternate regular last year and one of the three returning men of experience, shifted his dogs in pleasing fashion on slashing end runs and cutbacks. Richard Godeke, who was moved up to a halfback position from fullback when Hutson began to show an active interest in football this week, was in the blocking position yesterday, looking fair enough. Rufus Ryan, a newcomer to the Westerner team last spring, was calling signals from the right wing-back position.

Line Looks Weak

The line failed to reveal anything startlingly strong. Chester McCarthy at center was doing a nice work, and Robert Hale at right guard looked well. Diminutive Dalton Blagg, regular right end last year, looked good as usual. Big Harold Gaines was playing right tackle. The left side of the line was weakened by the absence of Louis Spear, regular tackle last year who has been unable to get in much active work this fall due to a wrenched knee.

The Westerners play their first game of the season at Snyder on September 30, being forbidden by Interscholastic League rule to play before that time. A week later they entertain the champions of District 3, the Sweetwater Mustangs, followed by a game on the next Friday with Abilene's Eagles, state champions who eliminated Lubbock from the race last winter.

BASEBALL STARS OF YESTERDAY

Dizzy Dean, Cardinals—Blanked the Reds with five hits and struck out five.

Carl Hubbell, Giants—Allowed but six hits in 10 innings and started the rally that beat the Braves, 2 to 1.

Ralph (Red) Kress, White Sox—Hit a home run, four doubles and two singles to help beat Detroit twice.

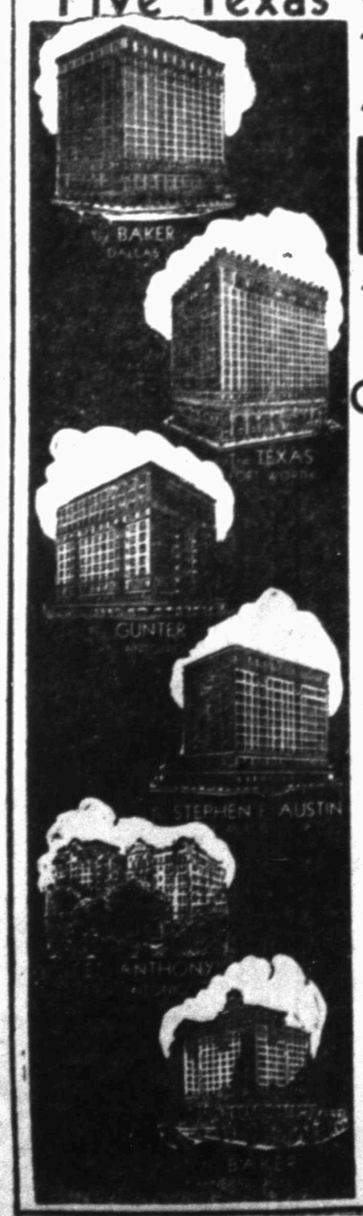

Merritt Cain, Athletics—Stopped the champion Yankees with seven hits.

Dale Alexander, Red Sox—Made four of his team's 13 hits in doubleheader with Washington.

John Cotton, an eminent Puritan divine, was known as "The Patriarch of New England."

MATADOR CLUB HOLDS MEETING HERE; DICK SMITH IS ELECTED PRESIDENT

Fifty-two members and guests of the Matador club attended an informal dinner in the Lubbock hotel ballroom last night. Richard C. (Dick) Smith, nominated by by Dr. W. A. Jackson, was elected to succeed Spencer A. Wells as president.

Dr. Bradford Knapp, president of Texas Tech, was honor guest and principal speaker. He appeared on the brief program after a speech by Pete Cawthon, head coach at Texas Tech.

Carl Patton was elected first vice-president and J. A. Raley was reelected secretary-treasurer. A board of directors consisting of S. A. Wells, W. A. Jackson, Bert Pinson, R. F. Hinchey, B. Sherrod and Neil Wright was elected by popular vote.

In his talk, President Knapp applauded the work in the past by the Matador club and painted a glowing picture of the future, made possible by a continuation of the work of the club of business men supporters and the coaching work of Cawthon, J. O. Morgan and Russell Smith.

Cawthon outlined the work of the club as it applies to Texas Tech athletics and went into detail regarding the business aspect of coaching a college team.

Mayor J. J. Clements, Roscoe Wilson, Ben Condray and George Dupree made brief addresses.

BAPTIST MEMBER CANVASS TALKED

Six of seven associations of District No. 9 were represented at an all-day meeting at First Baptist church Wednesday when details of the every-member canvass sponsored by the Texas Baptist convention were explained to about 200 persons by Dr. W. R. White of Broadway Baptist church, Fort Worth, T. C. Gardner of Dallas, and J. Howard Williams, Texas Baptist association secretary, Dallas.

The program yesterday was both informational and inspirational," the Rev. R. C. Campbell, local pastor, who presided, said. The next move in the campaign is to conduct meetings in each association, and from these meetings the campaign will be carried to individual churches. No one was here yesterday from the Sierra Blanca association.

GREAT LITTLE FIXER

PORTLAND, Ore.—Next time Charles Broadwater gets any traffic tickets, he won't give them to any stranger to have them "fixed." He gave 26 of them to an unknown man who said he would "fix" them for 26 cents each. Now Charles has to pay twice for having them fixed. The city has demanded its payment of $1 each on all those tickets Charles received.

Garner Relative Is Lubbock Resident

Miss Blanche Garner, 1606 Avenue X, a grandchild of Mrs. Sarah Jane Garner, was unable to attend Mrs. Garner's funeral Tuesday in Detroit, Tex. Miss Garner could not make train connections after her grandmother's death, in time to be there for the services.

The vault in which her grandmother was placed Tuesday is one used by the immediate Garner family, which includes the Democratic vice-presidential nominee, John Nance Garner, Miss Garner stated. It was built when her father died and is large enough to hold 12 members of the family.

Thought For Today

For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.—Romans, 14:17.

* * *

An honest man's the noblest work of God.—Pope.

Inner Selves

The name of Rothschild is one of those names that mean important money. Like Rockefeller, Mellon and Morgan, it stands for finance and the power of finance. So when Lord Rothschild was listed as a speaker at a recent meeting of a British scientific association, everybody stood by for a heavy speech about the world depression and what not.

But Lord Rothschild, without cracking a smile, got up and made a speech which began as follows:

"The queerest looking fleas yet discovered originated in South America. They are found only there and in modified form in Australia. The only explanation that is at all satisfactory is the asseumption that at one time there was a bridge between South America and Australia."

And he went on to deliver a scholarly scientific speech that did not have the faintest relation to finance, trade or industry.

As a revelation that a king of finance can have an interest aside from money bags, this little story is rather illuminating. We ordinarily assume that a man like Rothschild must be a monkish gentleman whose veins run ice water and who can interest himself in nothing that does not bear the sign of the dollar or the pound sterling.

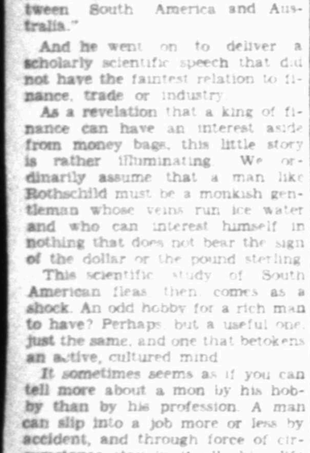

This scientific study of South American fleas then comes as a shock. An odd hobby for a rich man to have? Perhaps, but a useful one, just the same, and one that betokens an active, cultured mind.

It sometimes seems as if you can tell more about a man by his hobby than by his profession. A man can slip into a job more or less by accident, and through force of circumstance stay in it all his life when there are other things he would rather do. But his hobby—that is his own choice, and he can change it any time he pleases.

And this story about one of the world's richest men makes one wonder; if things had happened just a little differently might England not have one less financier and one more scientist?

The new president of Mexico is Abelardo Rodriguez, and you can be pretty sure he's not Irish.

Flapper Fanny

Walls, unlike reputations, are often blacker than they are painted.

The PLAINSMAN Says:

That Girl on Broadway says you can say one thing for Waco; it's the only cemetery in Texas with lights.

"If ignorance is bliss", said Black To White, "why then, old boy, You'd better get your life insured: You're apt to die of joy!"
—Literary Digest.

"If bliss is ignorance", said White To Black, "this will I vum. You're the happiest looking man I've seen; You must be awful dumb!"

IF it is true that socially ambitious ladies everywhere will go to any extreme to outstrip their rivals, there is a great, great opportunity right here in Lubbock for some original and daring hostess to cover herself with glory.

All any hostess needs to do in the way of offering something different to amuse her guests is to have some kind of a party where bridge is not the diversion.

Judging from reports compiled twice daily by our Misses Bean and Turner, about 99 and 44 one-hundredths percent of the social functions engaged in by ladies here revolves about a bridge table.

That being the case, all a hostess needs to do to entertain friends now-a-days is borrow and set up a few rickety tables, get several decks of pasteboards and offer a prize—any old prize will do providing it is useless.

One can readily see that much of the effort and originality of society has thus been stifled and the attendants at parties now only hitch up their chairs, go to playing and keep playing until somebody drops over exhausted!

LUBBOCK is waiting, with open arms, for the original hostess who will shock her party guests by ushering them into a room totally devoid of cards and tables.

A brave, daring, pioneering soul, who will say: "Ladies, let's play charades, let's gossip, let's have a truth meeting or let's pull taffy" can make a name for herself.

Just how long it will take local entertainers to find it out remains to be seen—but The Plainsman will gamble it's true, none-the-less.

* * *

In an interesting address upon educational conditions in Texas and other states of the union, W. C. Rylander yesterday told the Rotary club some startling things. He said:

"Out of 100 boys and girls who start in the first grade of grammar school, only 63 finish.

Of that 63, only 34 enter high school and of that number, only 13 finish as seniors.

Seven of the 13 enter college and of the seven only two are graduated!"

The statistics are calculated to surprise almost anyone not familiar with school figures.

AS far as The Plainsman is personally concerned, it begins to commence to look like this fall will be a flat failure.

Whether cotton goes to a dime or 15 cents won't make any difference.

Even if the 19th annual Panhandle-South Plains fair achieves the chamber of commerce attendance estimate of 150,000 (and what an estimate!) it'll be all the same.

Skies are gray, the world looks dark and dreary—and it's all because there likely will be no circus here this autumn.

The far-famed bright blue weather of late September or early October is bound to lose a portion of its zest for several thousand faithful souls here who must have their circuses . . . that ain't right, that's all.

ALL spring and summer—in fact ever since the Barnes show pulled out of here last year—The Plainsman has been looking forward to this year's circus. And it looked for awhile like we'd get the best of all of them—Ringling Brothers and Barnum-Bailey combined.

Dexter Fellowes, octogenerian press agent for Ringling, who is known as the best in the business, wrote this writer last winter saying that Ringling was planning to return to Lubbock this season.

But the big show probably changed its route, for it's been to Ft. Worth, Dallas and San Antonio, without making any mention of Lubbock.

It's a tough outlook, all right, all right—but maybe there'll be a circus next year!

That Man on Avenue Q says the chief difference between a rich man and a poor man is the former's two extra days on the week-end.

* * *

Many a fellow would commit suicide now-a-days if it were'n't such a dangerous practice.

WITH various charity drives just around Mr. Hoover's corner, Lubbock might well take a tip from Dallas in the matter of raising the necessary shekels.

Dallas will have a Community chest and as a method of filling its coffers will offer various attractions to those who are willing to pay for them. One of the schemes is to pit Bobby Jones against Golfer Gus Moreland, a Dallas man, charge admission to the links and turn the money to the chest.

While Lubbock probably will not have a Community chest, it will be called upon to donate to this, that and the other drive.

Therefore, it appears logical to your Uncle Dudley that organizations seeking funds offer something in return, in an effort to stimulate interest as well as add to the total collected.

We probably couldn't get Bobby Jones or Babe Ruth here, but we might get a celebrity, theatrical organization of merit or something of the kind so everything wouldn't depend upon donation.

And anyway, the donor always feels better when he thinks he's getting something extra.

The Hunting Season Opens

Political Campaign Speakers Are Picking Out Audiences With Care These Days In Effort To Dodge Those Hecklers

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22—One of the most notable features of this political campaign is the circumspection with which the speakers are choosing their audiences and limiting their messages to the most suitable areas.

Many of our citizens are this year possessed of a deplorable disposition to heckle and even to lend themselves to whole-hearted renditions of the lusty boo and the Bronx cheer.

Dutcher

So an unprecedented number of political speeches are being made in the sheltered surroundings of rallies, clambakes and garden parties for which invitations are limited to the faithful while the general public depends on the reports in the next-days newspapers. You can heckle a newspaper report, of course, but the results are not satisfactory.

Governor Roosevelt began the campaign by coming right into the convention hall to accept the nomination. Although it was a Democratic gathering and he received no razzberries, he really took a chance, considering the splendid booing his cause had received at earlier sessions.

Mr. Hoover accepted renomination before an exclusive audience of 4000 Republican admirers, mostly official, in Constitution Hall. The bonus army which might have picketed, had been carefully chased out of town. All potential hecklers were outside. The president will suffer little or no exposure to hecklers this year.

Roosevelt must make more crowd appearances, but when he went to Connecticut where Al Smith feeling is especially strong he spoke to 2500 Democratic politicians and their friends in a pavilion while 20,000 ordinary persons heard him through loud speakers on the beach. No platform appearance before the multitude.

His speech on prohibition at Seagirt before a Democratic harmony meeting was, according to the Republicans, carefully circulated only through the wet eastern states.

The season's most effective boo-ing was administered to Assistant Secretary of War F. Trubee Davison when he attacked the characters of the evicted bonus marchers in a speech to the New York American Legion.

Political speeches of that type were quickly abandoned and when Secretary of War Pat Hurley decided to attend the American Legion's national convention at Portland to defend the president if necessary against any vote of censure it was emphasized and reemphasized that he wasn't representing the administration. Pat seemed to be heading into an especially loud booing and the thought was that this mustn't be considered directed at Mr. Hoover.

Pat's availability as a campaign speaker began to be questioned after his famous long statement about the B. E. F. had been laughed full of holes. He went to Providence and made an undisputed speech just the same—not to a crowd of people but to the Rhode Island Republican club. The day of the heckler seems to be passing just when the hecklers are really getting interested in their jobs. One will also miss those brilliant flashes of repartee sometimes exchanged when statesmen are challenged from crowds.

Remember how Vice President Curtis, reckless enough to make a rear platform appearance in a western town and questioned by a heckler, shot back "You dirty coward!" and so gloriously won the day?

Not all honors for snappy comebacks go to Republicans. It was the intellectual Democratic congressman, J. B. Shannon of Missouri, who, asked how he squared his vote for the bonus with the country's best interests, sent his adversary slinking away in confusion by replying, "Go to hell!"

Curtis made his unexpected dry acceptance speech in his own dry home town and at once promised not to mention prohibition again in the campaign. As he was billed for a Pennsylvania campaign speech, however, politicians there feared the possibility of disturbance if he did talk about prohibition and refused to let him come unless again assured that he would keep away from that subject entirely.

Presumably no one else will bring the matter up when he speaks because it will be just another family party—a Republican rally.

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS GROUND FROM THE GRIST OF THE DAY'S HAPPENINGS

(By The Associated Press)

Subject To Disgust

OTTAWA — Alderman Brethour believes in economy and is also subject to moments of disgust. When his effort to halt the appointment of five new officials to the engineering department failed, he moved the adoption of the following resolution:

"It is recommended that the board of control purchase five French poodles complete with collar and chain, so that the appointed officials may amuse themselves by taking the dogs for a daily walk."

Handy Fathers

RFIGATE, England—Fathers can be adept in "babycraft" if they try. Five fathers here have just been awarded certificates by the town council for their proficiency in knowing what to do with a fretting infant, how to detect mumps and measles, and other skill in tending their small offspring.

Never Late

NEW YORK—Sing praises to the Napoleons, the Caesars and the Alexanders, but consider too, William C. Creamer, who has worked 71 years for one firm without being late for work a single day. President Hoover and Vice-President Curtis among others sent congratulations to the 81-year-old department store employe when he was given a luncheon by his bosses yesterday.

Officials Ready

PRESCOTT, Mass.—Prescott didn't vote for anyone in Tuesday's primary. Nevertheless there were seven officials ready to handle the vote, had there been any, reschott is one of the towns to be wiped out by the metropolitan water commission in providing new water supplies to Boston.

Cal Coolidge, in writing of the books he read in his youth, said that campaign literature in no way compares with the "eloquence of "Orations of Cicero in the Roman Senate." Wonder if Cicero had anything to say about silence.

Samuel Seabury, who had a lot to do with Jimmy Walker resigning as mayor of New York, arrived in London recently and denied he had intentions of running for mayor of New York. He certainly didn't run from New York's mayor.

They say an education pays, but this is the season of the year when the graduations of last spring are a dead loss to the football coach.

New York's new Mayor McKee cut his own salary from $40,000 to $25,000. So the mayor of New York really gets a salary, after all!

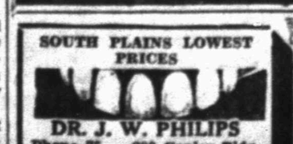

It is about time for somebody to offer us a poem, mentioning something about "melancholy days," "sere and yellow leaves" and "the twilight of the year." Not that we're asking for it, however.

SHOT SELF—FINED

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.—It's getting so a fellow can't even shoot himself. Santos Candelaria complains. Neighbors heard him quarreling with his mother. Shortly after they heard a shot. Police hurried to the scene expecting to find the mother murdered. Instead they found Santos with a self-inflicted bullet would in his shoulder. He was taken to jail, charged with discharging firearms in the city, and fined $10.

Flyers face a fine of $180 for landing in Greenland without a permit. Maybe that explains the success of transatlantic fights.

Judging by the way the stock market has been acting, by now all the bears should be nearly bare.

One of the newest of the "health juices" is extracted from cranberries. Another juicy business.

FETE FOR CHAMPAGNE

To mark the 250th anniversary of putting the sparkle into champagne a celebration is to be held at the old Abbey of Hautvillers, in Champagne, France, on June 26 and 27. The "man who put the bubbles in the fizz" was Dom Perignon, a venerable abbot who discovered the method by which to this day the fine white wines of Champagne are made to sparkle, and he will be fittingly feted during the anniversary as the "Father of the Champagne Industry." A committee headed by the mayors of Rheims, Epernay, and Hautvillers is arranging details of the celebration, which will end with a feast attended by experts from the world over, who will extol the virtues of the bubbly golden wine.

—dragging feet? yes—
just a sign of that "tired feeling"

—a "run-down condition" where a tonic is needed . . . then pause and reason what may be the cause of this condition. You know . . . that red-blood-cells and their hemoglobin are necessary to carry oxygen from the lungs to all parts of the body . . . that when these blood-cells are decreased the body is weakened. Then why not build them back and breeze along in step with your strong, healthy friends?

This is now and has been the function of S.S.S.—proved by scientific research and by millions of users over decades. A truly time-tried blood tonic. Start a course of S.S.S. today and note the happy results. Two convenient sizes at all drug stores. The larger size is more economical. Don't permit anyone to "switch" you in your determination to gain better health and more strength by restoring your red-blood-cells. © The S.S.S. Co.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Sept. 22 (AP)—Cotton futures opened very steady, 17-23 higher on firmer Liverpool cables and rains in the Western belt.

The active initial demand sent the price of December contracts up to 7.75 or 97 points above the low level touched on the reaction at the beginning of the week, but the market encountered increased offerings at that level. Realizing was heavy, while there was some selling from spot houses or the south which caused reactions of some 10 to 17 points from the best by the end of the first half hour.

There were a good many overnight buying orders at the opening, attracted by the strength of yesterday, and there also was buying through brokers with Liverpool and Japanese connections. The south was only a moderate seller at the start, but hedging was said to be a little more active at the advance.

Liverpool cables reported general buying and covering in that market on the unfavorable weather reports but said business in cotton goods at Manchester was retarded by the labor situation and the rise in raw material.

Reaction from the opening advance carried December off to 7.55, about 20 points from the best and within 5 points of yesterday's close. Offerings were absorbed by continued trade or commission house buying on the decline, but moderate recoveries promoted by some Wall Street buying were not fully maintained. At midday the tone was barely steady with prices about 4 to 6 points net higher.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 22 (AP)—The cotton market had an active and firm opening today. Liverpool cables came in 20 to 26 points better than due and first trades here showed gains of 15 to 17 points, which was not a full response to the strength aboard.

The market however continued to improve after the start, largely on reports of heavy and damaging rains in West Texas. October traded up to 7.78, or 18 to 20 points above yesterday's close.

There was a good deal of profit-taking at the advance and considerable hedge-selling which caused prices to ease 8 to 10 points from the initial highs toward the end of the first hour. The undertone however, continued strong.

Following the activity and advance of the first hour the market quieted down and gradually eased during the morning under considerable profit-taking by satisfied longs and the usual hedge selling. Uncertainty in stocks also contributed to the decline. October dropped to 7.33, December to 7.47 and January to 7.58, down 20 to 25 points from the early highs and 5 points under yesterday's close.

Near mid-session the market was quiet and steady but at the low except for October which had recovered two points.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Sept. 22 (AP)—Helped by upturns in Liverpool wheat quotations and by falling off in Canadian rural marketings, grain prices here averaged higher early today. Reports that the Reconstruction finance corporation was co-operating in plans to dispose of 25,000,000 bushels of wheat to China also were a bullish influence. Opening unchanged to 1 cent higher, wheat afterward held near to initial limits. Corn started 3-8 to 5-8 up and subsequently reacted somewhat.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Sept. 22 (AP)—The stock market experienced alternating chills and fevers in animated trading today, early nervous fluctuations giving way first to a rally and then to a decline which carried prices down 1 to about 3 points.

The rails, after their leadership in yesterday's spectacular advance, swung forward briskly with Santa Fe, Union Pacific and New York Central gaining 1 to more than 2 points, but that rise was cancelled later however, by early afternoon the market again had hardened.

Public utility stocks appeared somewhat impervious, at the opening, to the rapidly shifting direction of price movements elsewhere but later yielded with American Telephone, American Water Works, United Corp., and Consolidated Gas, off a point or so at the worst.

U. S. Steel, after early strength, lost 2 points before it reached a stronger resistance level, and much the same pattern was woven by Bethlehem, Allied Chemical, United Aircraft, American Smelting, Case, Harvester, General Motors and Sears Roebuck.

JURY IN BROWN TRAFFIC CASE IS DISMISSED

After deliberating about an hour, a corporation court jury in the case of Franklin D. Brown, a Lubbock attorney charged with over-running a stop-sign in an automobile, reported it had not agreed on a verdict, and was dismissed at 11:55 a. m. by Judge T. T. Inmon to return at 1:30 o'clock. Trial of the case began about 10 o'clock. Brown, who accused policemen of violence in arresting him on a capias, is charged with over-running a stop-sign at Avenue Q and Broadway.

COVINGTON TRIAL

long he had known Covington. He said about ten years.

He testified S. E. "Slick" Melton was his father-in-law and that he didn't know whether Jess Covington and Melton were very good friends or not. He said Melton did use Covington's car to make a trip to Amarillo shortly after the killing.

After repeating that he thought G. A. Ross, chief prosecution witness, had a "bad reputation", Wilson was asked by state's counsel "isn't it a fact that you learned this after Ross became associated with Jess Covington, Hugh Walker, Barber John Richardson and Slick Melton?" Walker and Richardson are the other defendants in the murder charge.

Defense objected strenuously and District Attorney Bradley withdrew the question.

Walker Not Present

Tom Walker, brother of one of the defendants, was then called to the stand but bailiffs reported him not present. The defense then read a part of the state's contraverting plea to a defense motion for continuance in which the state admitted that if Tom Walker was present he would testify that he talked with Ross and that Ross told him he had traded his 30-30 to some New Mexico boys for a go-devil. The state admitted that Ross might have made the statement but they would not admit its truth.

A. B. McCarty, a farmer living nearly a half-mile south of Woodrow and a member of the first grand jury investigating the case, was the next witness. He said the Hiltons "never definitely identified" any of the defendants at that time.

On cross-examination, he said the Hiltons said "Barber John and Walker resembled the men who were at the home when Brown was slain.

Will C. Grimes of Acuff, foreman of the same grand jury, was called and said a number of witnesses appeared before the first grand jury. He said no one put the direct question of identity to the Hiltons in the first investigation as "we were trying to get further evidence".

Objection Sustained

On cross-examination, he repeated that no one in the grand jury called on the Hiltons to definitely identify the three men. Defense objected to the question and court sustained the objection.

Z. M. Marcy of Woodrow was the next witness. He was examined by R. J. Allen, one of the defense attorneys.

Marcy testified he called Sheriff Wade Hardy after learning of the killing and that he arrived at the Hilton home "probably 9:20 to 9:30". He said only two other men were there, the Hilton brothers, when he arrived. He testified it was a dark night and he couldn't recognize people very far.

On cross-examination, he said he had been at the Hilton home probably ten minutes before Sheriff Hardy arrived.

In answer to re-direct defense question, he said the ambulance arrived after he had gone back to his home and that it was "probably 30 minutes after the shots that the ambulance arrived".

Tells Of Tires

J. M. Wagner, a tire salesman, was next on the stand. He testified he was familiar with different brands of tires and their treads and pointed out the differences in four treads as illustrated by a booklet the defense exhibited in court.

He said he knew Jess Covington and remembered about the time he bought the car, declaring he tried to trade him some new tires for the ones on it. He said Covington's car had Goodrich Silvertown tires on it at that time.

He said he knew G. A. Ross and that his car had four "Lotta Miles" tires on it and that after the killing Ross traded two of them for some U. S. tires. He said it would be hard to detect the difference between the treads of U. S. and Lotta Miles tires if the tires had been worn to any extent.

Refutes Earnest Story

His testimony was placed on the stand in an effort to impeach testimony of Deputy Sheriff Will Earnest who testified Wednesday that he thought the car he trailed west from Woodrow on the night and the next day after the killing had Firestone tires on it. Earnest testified he had examined tread tracks of the car.

On cross-examination, Wagner said he wasn't an expert on the tread of tires and that he didn't know positively what kind of tires Covington had on his car on May 30.

Bill Deatherage, a battery and electric man here, testified he knew Ross and Covington and said Ross drove a car formerly owned by Hugh Walker. He said the car was "dark blue or blue-black". He said he owned a car similar to Ross' and that it would make 70 miles an hour. Later he testified Ross' car had a "busted cylinder head".

In answer to state's questioning, Deatherage said the cylinder head of the car was broken before the killing. He said Covington's car was much newer than the one Ross owned and that Ross' car was "slightly weather-beaten".

Kuykendall Recalled

Geo. P. Kuykendall, a state's witness, was called back to the stand by the defense at this juncture and testified the 1932 Chevrolet cars were equipped with U. S. and Goodrich Silvertown tires. He said Covington's car "had one or the other".

On cross-examination, Kuykendall said he didn't know what kind of tires Covington's car had on May 30.

Mrs. Jack Kinkler, who said she lived 3 miles southwest of Lubbock, was the next witness. She also testified as to the kind of tires on Covington's car. She said she had driven the car many times both before and after the killing and that she remembered it having Goodrich Silvertown tires. She said she changed one of the tires which went flat at her home a day or so before the slaying and that she remembered the kind. She also said she was washing the car at the home of her father in Brownfield a few days after the shooting and she noticed it still had the same kind of tires.

Cross-examined by the state, she said she didn't know what kind of tires the car had on May 30.

J. T. Scott, jr., of Woodrow, a brother-in-law of Mrs. Kinkler, followed her on the stand and testified on the tires also.

Curiosity Satisfied

He said he went to Brownfield with Mrs. Kinkler and his wife in Covington's car a few days after the killing and that he "had heard rumors about Covington and certain tires" and that he "looked at the tires on the car to satisfy my own curosity".

Carl Covington, a bus ticket agent at Midland, came to the stand and testified he saw his brother, Jess, in Midland on May 31 and that the car he was driving had Goodrich Silvertown tires on it. He said one of the tires was nearly flat and that he put some air in at the station there, noticing the brand of the tire at that time.

He said Jess was on the way to visit his invalid mother who was then at Abilene. He testified after objection from the state that "Jess had been furnishing mother money". Mrs. Covington, an invalid, has been sitting in a wheelchair in the courtroom all during her son's trial.

On cross-examination, Covington denied a state allegation that his brother had come down there to borrow money from him during the early part of May.

HORSE EXPERT HERE TODAY

JIMMIE HAMILTON TO ARRANGE SHOW FOR ANNUAL FAIR

Jimmie Hamilton, of Amarillo, probably the most successful and most widely known horse trainer in West Texas, arrived here this morning to confer with local horsemen concerning the horse show which will be a nightly feature of the Panhandle-South Plains fair.

Mr. Hamilton busied himself arranging classes for the event—first of its kind in fair history. He expects to return to Amarillo tonight but will be back some day next week to view the animals in action.

Bowman Heads Show

Joe W. Bowman, head of the South Plains Coaches, is in charge of the horse show and is owner of one of the finest saddle horses in this area. The animal is a thoroughbred mare, Eva Norma, and will be seen in action at each fair showing.

Mr. Hamilton, a Virginian, was born and raised in the horse business and has been operating a boarding and training stable in Amarillo several years. He has headed annual horse shows there and in Panhandle and other points.

KNAPP SPEAKS AT KIWANIS MEETING

Presenting statistics showing the ranking of Texas in education as compared with other states, Dr. Bradford Knapp, president of Texas Technological college, was principal speaker at noon today before the Kiwanis club in a luncheon meeting at Hotel Lubbock.

Dr. Knapp stated that legislators should bear in mind one of the cornerstones of American government—the fundamental right of every child to a public education. In practicing economy in local state and national government curtailment should not be placed on education, he said.

Tom Gerrard, a member of the State Board of Education, was chairman of the program.

Preceding Dr. Knapp's talk, L. E. Davis, secretary, reported that 103 school children had been outfitted to attend school since last week when the club voted to aid underprivileged families. Each man in the club adopted a child and purchased him clothing and school supplies.

of work, and possibly also in part due to the slight increase in the price of cotton".

President Knapp said during the rest of this week and the early part of next week, the whole effort of the staff will be to register the students and get down to class work as quickly as possible. Class work begins Monday morning, Dr. Knapp, a great believer in work, has already announced that in another year he hopes to change the order of registration so as to open regular class work in a much shorter period of time after the first day of school.

SUSPECTS ARE HELD HERE

THREE ARE JAILED IN BURGLARY ATTEMPT AT LITTLEFIELD

O. E. Duvall of El Paso, Edwin Barker, his brother-in-law of Lubbock, and Brewster Dillard have been charged with burglary in connection with an attempted break-in at Littlefield early Tuesday, Deputy Sheriff Bob Miller said. Duvall is suffering of gunshot wounds. The three suspects, arrested Wednesday afternoon, still were in county jail this morning.

Condition of Duvall, with two shotgun shots lodged in his brain, was reported to be serious. He is in the jail hospital ward. The jail records show that a "Bryant" Dillard is held, but Deputy Joe Rieger and Deputy Miller said Dillard's first name was Brewster.

Claim Shooting Accidental

Barker said Duvall was accidentally wounded by Barker when the two were hunting between Tahoka and Brownfield at about 10:30 o'clock Monday night.

FAIR EXHIBITS ARE SIGNED

TRI-STATE DISPLAYS AT AMARILLO WILL BE SHOWN HERE

The 19th annual Panhandle-South Plains fair here next week will have dozens of exhibits which were at the Tri-State exposition at Amarillo this week, it was announced after the manager and several department heads of the fair here went to Amarillo yesterday.

Friday the third and last goodwill trip of Lubbock citizens, inviting other South Plains residents to the fair, will be made. Final plans were to be made today. Kiwanians in the autocade will be guests of the Plainview club at luncheon Friday.

Going to Amarillo were: A. B. Davis, manager; W. L. Stangel, head of the Hereford department; Don L. Jones, a fair director; County Agent D. F. Eaton, superintendent of the agriculture department; Roy B. Davis, Plainview, dairy department superintendent.

Lillard Brings Stock

Fine hogs from the Lillard Stock farm at Arlington will be exhibited here, it was announced definitely yesterday. The Lillard Duroc Jerseys, Poland Chinas, and Hampshires have been shown throughout the southwest, winning many prizes.

Season Tickets On Sale

To permit more of their members to make the trip the American Business club met today at Hotel Hilton instead of Friday. T. C. Meinecke, chairman of the final tour, is a club member.

Season tickets to the 19th annual exposition went on sale at downtown stores Wednesday, with nearly all prices reduced 50 per cent. Drug stores, department stores and other retail houses are offering the pasteboards, good for admittance from Monday through Saturday.

Circus and vaudeville acts will be presented free each of the six days of the fair here. A fireworks display also is billed.

Capt. La Valley and his diving troup, two men and three women, will be one of the headliners. The troupe will do acquatic stunts, including fancy diving, and climaxed by two high dives, one by a girl from 65 foot and the closing dive by Capt. La Valley from the 90-foot mark into a blazing tank of oil, while he is a flaming torch as he hurls himself through space.

The Landua duo, a man and woman, will do a combination of high trapeze and Roman ring acts with the woman doing the difficult feats and the man offering Chinese comedy.

The Stellar troupe, two men and two women another troupe that will perform twice daily, come with a national reputation in vaudeville and circus performance. Members of the troupe do running, jumping, dancing and other acts, interspersed with a comedy.

Fireworks have been contracted from the Gordon Fireworks company of Chicago, the firm that supplied the program in 1929 when the best program ever offered fair patrons here was shot.

J. Saunders Gordon, president of the company, a former Texan and a personal friend of Fair Manager A. B. Davis, will come to Lubbock to supervise the shooting of the fireworks. While in Texas, Gordon will visit a sister.

Joe Bowman, superintendent, last night said about 40 horses would be entered in a horse show which will be conducted each night of the Panhandle-South Plains exposition. Jimmie Hamilton, Amarillo horse trainer, was to arrive today. He first was scheduled to be here Wednesday.

As a preparation for the division of the fair a training track on the northwest corner of the fair grounds has been laid out. Persons planning to enter animals in the shows are urged to see Hamilton at the fair grounds or Bowman at the union bus terminal.

ARCHITECTURE A LA KAAPUA WAOKAMEHAMEHA SPREADS TO WAIKIKI COLONY; HAWAIIAN GRASS HOUSES POPULAR

HONOLULU (AP) — When David Kaapuawaokamehameha, going the poet one better, not only built a house by the side of the road but also built it of grass, he started something.

Although it's no thousand years since everybody in Hawaii who had a house made it of grass, it was something of a curiosity on this island of Oahu, where civilization's touch lies a bit heavier than on the other islands. People liked to stop by the side of the road and look at Kaapuawaokamehameha's house.

Kaapuawaokamehameha, whose name should be gargled, not spoken, was usually sitting around eating poi, a native dish, like chop suey in that nobody but the cook knows what's in it.

Soon the architectural influence was felt abroad, and the result is a grass village under construction at Waikiki consisting of every type of structure found in the Hawaiian communities of old. Here the visitor will be able to get food, entertainment and hula—if he wants them—lessons.

In charge will be 90-year-old Kiaainaihalaulani Niuhiwa, who in name at least is a worthy contemporary for Mr. Kaapuawaokamehameha.

David Kaapuawaokamehameha's grass house, a revival of an old Hawaiian custom, has inspired similar primitive construction at the Waikiki colony. Here he is shown eating poi in recognized native style.

DESPITE SIMPLE LIFE OF ALBANIA'S PEASANTS, KINGDOM NOT SHOCKPROOF

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22 (AP) — Despite the simple life of Albania's self-sufficient peasants, Europe's youngest kingdom apparently is far from shockproof.

Evidence of this is seen in recent plots against King Ahmed Zog in the face of the government's boast it has been less affected by the world depression than others.

Sentenced To Die

Seven Albanian intellectuals have been sentenced to death as a result of the plots uncovered in August when reparations were being made to celebrate the fourth anniversary of the youthful Zog's coronation Sept. 1.

The government charges these plots to outside influences. Zog, raised to the throne from the presidency by the national assembly, had a long and stormy political career before being crowned his peace had marked his tenure of the throne.

King Is 38

Zog Albania's native king is 38 years old. Most of his considerable domestic troubles in recent years have arisen over land tenure and have been feuds between the clans. It has been free of religious difficulties.

As large as New Hampshire and Vermont combined, Albania has a population of about 830,000, chiefly mountaineers who till small patches and have herds of sheep, goats and cattle.

MANY OFFENDERS

WASHINGTON. During the second quarter of this year 268 pilots violated the Air Commerce Regulations, and the Aeronautics Branch of the U. S. Department of Commerce assessed civil penalties against 44 violators. Thirty-one reprimands, 106 suspensions, 23 revocations and 15 denials of licenses were also imposed for violations.

they're playing just another ball club, but a strong one next Saturday.

Whether the Matadors will suffer from inferiority complex remains to be seen. It is one team that need not suffer from overconfidence. Nearly all the teams they play this season enjoy more widespread publicity and fame than the Matadors have to date. For that reason there is a growing fear among the populace that the Techsters will take stage fright when they go on the field next Saturday.

The battle for positions still rages, as individuals in every department strive to outdo the other players.

A couple of new comers, Johnny Walker and Marion Harris threaten to replace more or less permanently the two boys upon whom coaches had built hopes, and Ed McKeever and Gwynn Dowell may have a tougher fight than they expected to stay ahead.

There is little to choose thus far, between the work of Whacker Barton and "Terrible" Tribble at center. Both men appear to have just about all it takes to make the team. The race is interesting.

Don't be surprised if Malcolm Martin, former Lubbock High school star wingman, doesn't do quite a lot of playing in his sophomore year. He's getting up in the class of Matt Hitchcock and Yancy Price with increasing rapidity. Bill Teal, a veteran who was injured in the Haskell game last year, is also hustling for his old position. Price and Hitchcock are men of responsibilities.

TOWNS SUE OVER BOOK

The towns of Dinant and Aerschot, Belgium, have filed before the Tribunal of Brussels their action for damages against the publishers of Baedecker's "Guide to Belgium." Details of the case are to be filed later. The Municipal Council of Dinant decided last December to proceed against the editors and publishers of Baedeker's "Guide to Belgium" (English edition) on the ground of libel. In referring to the town of Dinant Baedeker said that 600 inhabitants lost their lives in the war, many of them having been shot for taking part in the fighting. It is this phrase, omitted in the French edition of the Guide, which the council considers to be libelous.

"Nature in the Raw is seldom MILD"

OUTLAW OF THE JUNGLE

"Nature in the Raw"—as portrayed by the great animal painter, Paul Bransom . . . inspired by the leopard's fierce fighting power and relentless hunt for prey which makes him the terror of every beast of the African jungle.

Copr., 1932, The American Tobacco Co.

—and raw tobaccos have no place in cigarettes

They are not present in Luckies . . . the mildest cigarette you ever smoked

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

"It's toasted"
That package of mild Luckies

"If a man write a better book, preach a better sermon, or make a better mouse-trap than his neighbor, tho he build his house in the woods, the world will make a beaten path to his door."—RALPH WALDO EMERSON.
Does not this explain the world-wide acceptance and approval of Lucky Strike?
