Sen. Engle Withdraws From Race

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Sen. Clair Engle's campaign managers today announced his withdrawal from the race for re-election.

Engle is in a Washington hospital recovering from a second brain operation performed last Friday.

When Engle announced after the first surgery last August that he would seek a second six-year term without providing Democratic party leaders details of his physical condition, it touched off a bitter row.

Engle's right side has been partially paralyzed and his speech severely handicapped but aides have denied repeatedly that he would drop from the race. Engle has maintained that he is physically capable of campaigning and serving if elected.

Engle, 52, said in a telegram to his state chairman, Assemblyman Tom Carrell, D-San Francisco, that "it is with deep grief" that he had decided to give up the fight.

He said his doctors now "advise that if I am going to win the battle to regain my health I must conserve my strength and concentrate on getting well.

State Controller Alan Cranston is contending with Pierre Salinger, former White House press secretary, for the Democratic nomination to succeed Engle.

Solons Are Pressured For Civil Rights Vote

WASHINGTON (AP)—Southern senators faced increasing pressure today to permit a vote this week on a compromise jury trial amendment to the civil rights bill.

But Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., leader of the Dixie forces, said he was standing firm. "I don't like to be driven by threats or pressure, especially when I feel my position is reasonable," he said.

Amid growing talk of a move to invoke the Senate's debate-limiting cloture rule, Democratic and Republican leaders were hoping to persuade the Southerners to vote Friday on the jury trial issue.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., the assistant majority leader and floor manager of the bill, told newsmen that if senators want time off to campaign this fall, they had "better settle down to business" and start voting on the civil rights bill.

He said President Johnson had urged at a White House meeting with Democratic congressional leaders that the Senate move along with the bill and get some votes.

Humphrey emphasized that the Senate has "a very heavy calendar" of other legislative business to deal with, and indicated he felt continued Southern resistance to a vote on the jury trial amendment would help to win votes for cloture.

Both he and Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois have been talking with Russell in efforts to get some voting.

Russell said in an interview that "as far as I am concerned there will be no vote this week unless it is on cloture."

"We can't discuss the jury trial amendment adequately in that length of time," he said in reference to leadership pleas for a vote by Friday.

Dirksen confirmed that he was making an effort "to see if we can't get a vote this week" despite Russell's earlier announcement that there would be none if the Southerners could prevent it.

With the Senate's civil rights debate now in its 42nd day, the bill's backers concede they cannot now muster the two-thirds majority necessary to put a limitation on debate in effect.

Russell denounced the compromise jury trial amendment, offered last Friday by Dirksen and Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, the Democratic leader, as "totally unacceptable."

It would provide for a jury trial in contempt cases growing out of court injunctions authorized for enforcement of the bill's antidiscrimination provisions only if the penalty involved more than 30 days in jail or a fine or more than $300.

Dirksen and Mansfield advanced it, after consultations with the Justice Department, as a substitute for an amendment by Sen. Herman Talmadge, D-Ga., and other senators.

The Southern-backed amendment would give defendants in all criminal contempt cases the right to trial by jury, except when the contempt was committed in the presence of the court.

In debate Monday, Sens. Willis Robertson, D-Va., John McClellan, D-Ark., and Russell Long, D-La., made speeches denouncing the limited jury trial amendment. They said it would leave judges with "tyrannical" power to enforce injunctions.

Long said its adoption would "open the door wide to government by injunction, coercion by injunction, and federal harrassment by injunction."

He said it was discriminatory in itself, demanding to know "why a person fined $290 should be denied his constitutional right to a jury trial but not a person fined $310."

McClellan said no one could deny the bill takes "a mailed fist" approach to law enforcement and would deprive citizens of "the constitutional right to trial by jury."

Greeks Shell Kyrenia Pass

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Greek Cypriot forces brought the Turkish-held Kyrenia Pass under fire for the first time today and sporadically attacked the castle of St. Hilarion from positions only about 200 yards away.

A U.N. officer said the Greeks threatened to plaster Kyrenia road, a link between Nicosia and the Turkish-held highlands near the north coast, with mortar shells.

Compared to earlier actions in the area, however, the scale of the fighting remained minor. There was a brief flurry of shots about dawn. Greek guardsmen lobbed three mortar shells at gunposts near the 11th century castle.

Twenty-seven shells have fallen inside the castle since the Greek offensive started, but I found no damage to the structure on a visit to the Turkish stronghold.

Greek forces worked through the night to fortify advanced positions at the base of the lofty crag on which the castle is perched. By the light of the moon, they dug elaborate foxholes and camouflaged them.

The commander of the U.N. peace-keeping force, Indian Lt. Gen. Prem Singh Gyani, said the Greek offensive could have serious implications on the role of the United Nations in Cyprus. He said he has sent a full report to Secretary - General U Thant.

The general—whose car was stoned by Turkish Cypriots on Sunday in the belief he favored the Greek side—issued a general appeal for peace.

He said he was assured by President Archbishop Makarios and the Turkish leader, Dr. Fazil Kuchuk, that both want "peace and normality" restored and an eventual political solution of the crisis.

Ruby Could Escape Chair

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Jack Ruby may escape the electric chair if his counsel can convince the jury in a sanity trial that the balding convicted slayer of Lee Harvey Oswald is insane.

Judge Joe B. Brown said Monday he will empanel a jury at the first suitable date, in response to a sanity trial request filed by Ruby's sister, Eva Grant.

Texas law requires a judge to hold such a trial if the defense asks for it. Judge Brown presided over the first month-long trial, in which a jury rejected a defense plea that Ruby was insane Nov. 24 when he shot Oswald, accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy.

Ruby's lawyers said Monday that their client's condition has worsened since his conviction March 14, that his "mind is falling apart" and he has delusions that his crime has brought about a slaughter that will bring death to 25 million American Jews.

If a jury finds Ruby insane, he will be committed to a state institution.

Dr. Louis Jolyon West, psychiatry professor at the University of Oklahoma, testified that Ruby's hallucinations triggered his apparent suicide attempt Sunday. Ruby banged his head against a cell wall, raising a sizable knot.

Judge Brown rejected a defense motion that Ruby be hospitalized for mental treatment. Joe Tonahill, a defense lawyer, said he had to call Ruby's rabbi to calm him after he tried to fight the lawyer earlier Monday.

Dr. West said Ruby "is completely preoccupied with delusions of the persecution of Jews. He feels hopeless, worthless and guilty because he thinks he is to blame for the mass murder of his own people."

It will be up to the defense to prove Ruby's insanity. If they succeed and Ruby is sent to an institution, state doctors could later decide Ruby has regained his sanity but another sanity trial would be required to legally confirm it, according to Asst. Dist. Atty. Bill Alexander.

Waters Still Threat To Mongol Town

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet engineers blasted tons of rock and earth today trying to release a dammed - up mountain river which threatens to send a devastating flood down the Zeravshan Valley toward Samarkand.

The Communist party newspaper Pravda said more than 700 million cubic feet of water have built up behind the landslide that tumbled into the rain-swollen Zeravshan River last Friday and blocked its path through a mountain gorge.

Engineers, hoping to cut a 985-foot canal through the natural dam, had planned to touch off 110,000 pounds of explosives today. Their goal is to drain the pent-up waters into the riverbed, which has dried up below the landslide.

Blasting and excavation specialists have been flown from Moscow and other centers to the danger site 1,700 miles southeast of Moscow.

The area is due north of Afghanistan, across the Pamir Mountain range which forms the frontier between Afghanistan and the Soviet Union.

An official source in Moscow said it would take more than a half million pounds of explosives to blast through the huge slide.

Righters Promise More Scenes

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Civil rights leaders promised more demonstrations at a quickened tempo today in the wake of violence that flared when lay-ins tied up traffic on one of Tennessee's busiest thoroughfares.

Ten demonstrators, including three white college students, were jailed Monday after the clash between demonstrators and club-swinging police officers. All were released on bond.

Assistant Police Chief Braxton Duke said the violence started when a leader of the group, Lester McKennie, 23, struck him in the stomach.

McKennie was set upon by several policemen. He was taken to a hospital and treated for scalp cuts and a sprained arm, then charged with assault and battery and disorderly conduct and released under $500 bond.

McKennie denied striking Duke.

Cops Search For Stolen 2-Day-Old

CHICAGO (AP)—Hundreds of policemen combed a South Side neighborhood house-to-house today for a two-day-old baby boy abducted from his mother's arms in Michael Reese Hospital.

Dora Fronczak, 28, told police she was feeding her baby Monday, when a woman dressed in a nurse's uniform entered and took the infant, saying it had to be returned to the nursery.

When a nurse asked Mrs. Fronczak for the child a short time later the abduction was discovered and police were called.

Chester S. Fronczak Jr., 33, an aireraft machinist, broke the news to his wife that the baby, Paul Joseph, had been stolen. He is their only child.

Police said a cab driver, Lee Kelsey, 34, told them a woman 40 to 50 years old entered his cab with a baby and rode to 35th St. and Union Ave., a few miles from the hospital.

Reds Make New Gain In Laos Battle

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Strong pro - Communist Pathet Lao forces attacked and overran a rightist position today in the Plaine des Jarres 100 miles northeast of Vientiane, military sources reported.

The attack appeared to be Pathet Lao reaction t the coup of rightist generals who seized control of this administrative capital April 19. U.S. and other Western nations had feared the coup might upset the delicate balance of feuding factions in Laos.

The military sources said the Pathet Lao troops in large numbers captured rightist positions on the northeastern fringe of the Plaine des Jarres.

Other Pathet Lao forces at the same time moved toward a road leading to the neutralist headquarters at Muong Phanh, seven miles west.

Rightist and neutralist forces have been cooperating in the area since last year, when the Pathet Lao tried to drive the neutralists out of the strategic highlands.

Dust Clogs Texas Skies

By The Associated Press

Dust clogged up the sky in the Panhandle and as far southeast as Wichita Falls today. Elsewhere, skies were cloudy along the coast and clear to partly cloudy over the rest of the state.

A mild cool front was due to settle in central and southeast Texas tonight, the weather bureau said.

The front moved over the northern half of the state during the night.

State forecasts indicated the cloudy skies will linger at least through Wednesday.

Temperatures early today ranged from 46 degrees at Dalhart to 77 at Brownsville.

Clouds of dirt which started churning aloft Monday still held visibility down to one to three miles over the Panhandle and southward to Lubbock. It was between four and five miles at Wichita Falls and Mineral Wells, and there was a dusty haze at Fort Worth and Dallas.

DALLAS (AP)—Mark Berryhill, 4, died Monday night from injuries suffered Sunday when he ran into the path of a car.

Shriver Says Program To Aid Growth

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sargent Shriver, director of President Johnson's antipoverty campaign, told the U.S. Chamber of Commerce today that the program is one of initiative, investment and growth.

"It's not a Robin Hood program, which takes from the rich and gives to the poor," Shriver said.

"The point of the program is to make the whole pie bigger, by encouraging millions of people now unemployed or on the dole to learn how to become useful and productive citizens."

Describing himself as a "recruiting Sargent," the Peace Corps director told the businessmen at their annual convention: "I want you to know that Uncle Sam needs you."

"This is a program that's open to businessmen, and it is based on sound business principles," Shriver said.

Less than $5,000 invested in a job corps trainee can raise his lifetime earnings by at least $60,000 and multiply his productive capacity, Shriver said.

Fireworks Heavy In Texas Race

By PEGGY SIMPSON
Associated Press Writer

Sen. Ralph Yarborough, Democrat incumbent in a tight six-man race for the Senate, has asked the Federal Bureau of Investigation to probe published statements accusing him of receiving $50,000 from Billie Sol Estes in 1960.

Yarborough said in San Antonio the charge was "an infamous lie" and said he "never received $50,000 as a gift from anyone . . . I guess my largest campaign contribution was $10,000 back in the 1954 governor's race."

The senator would not say specifically whom he asked the FBI to investigate.

Gordon McLendon, Yarborough's only Democratic opponent, said he welcomed the FBI probe—"I wish they had been consulted in the beginning." Last Saturday in a statewide television program, McLendon introduced two men who said they saw Estes give Yarborough an envelope containing $50,000 in 1960.

Meanwhile, candidates are using statewide television programs and town-to-town stumping to reach voters before they go to the polls Saturday.

Both Democratic candidates for governor, Gov. John Connally and Don Yarborough, will have half-hour statewide television programs tonight.

Yarborough said Monday that Texans pay more for utility bills because this is the only state without a utilities regulatory agency.

Connally told a Corpus Christi audience the new tourist development agency is "one of the soundest investments in the economic and recreational future of Texas."

Dr. Milton Davis, a Dallas physician, said he is the only one of the four Republican candidates for Senate who knows what Republican voters want. He said he will make the runoff, probably with Jack Cox, because he is the only candidate who can carry East Texas.

Two other GOP candidates, Cox and George Bush, called for strong support for Barry Goldwater in the statewide presidential poll on GOP ballots. The result will not be binding on the Texas Republican delegation to the national convention, but both men said it will have a strong psychological effect on elections in other states.

Robert Morris, Republican Senate hopeful, urged allowing Chiang Kai Shek to recapture the Chinese mainland before the 1970s, when the Chinese Communists are expected to become a nuclear power. He said the Free Chinese Army is ready to reoccupy the mainland and in doing so "it will solve not only the South Viet Nam crisis, but virtually every other problem of ours in the Far East."

In the congressman-at-large race, Democratic incumbent Joe Pool said he went to Washington "because the voters chose me, not because they were delivered to me. It is the way I will return to Washington for a second term."

Dan Sullivan, one of five Democrats opposing Pool, said he would definitely get in the runoff.

Another candidate for the office, Robert W. Baker, warned his supporters of "desperation tactics in the home stretch. Anything may happen this week and we must be on guard for it."

Two Are Seated For Hoffa Jury

CHICAGO (AP) — Selection of a jury continues today in the trial of James R. Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union and seven codefendants on charges they defrauded the Teamsters pension fund of $20 million.

The trial began Monday before U.S. Dist. Judge Richard B. Austin, who warned prospective jurors that the trial may last three or four months and that they will be kept in seclusion between court sessions.

Three panels of 100 veniremen each have been readied for questioning by the battery of defense lawyers and the team of federal prosecutors.

Two jurors were seated Monday, 16 were dismissed for cause and two others were dismissed by peremptory challenge.

The jurors are being watched over by a team of 15 federal marshals brought to Chicago from other parts of the country. No explanation for the unusual precaution was given. Judge Austin denied a request by Maurice J. Walsh, Hoffa's chief counsel, for the names of the deputies.

Hoffa, convicted of jury tampering last month in Chattanooga, told newsmen he would not comment on any matter connected with the trial.

Judge Austin told the prospective jurors that should they be selected they would be permitted to call their families once a day and receive visits from members of their families once a week during the course of the trial.

A 28-count indictment charges Hoffa and seven codefendants with fraudulently arranging $20 million in loans from the Central States, Southeast and Southwest Areas Pension Fund. Hoffa is a trustee of the fund which has its offices in Chicago.

Scranton Backers Push Write-Ins

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Voters rate Gov. William W. Scranton's stature as a potential Republican presidential candidate in his home state and nominate one of three Democrats for the U.S. Senate in the Pennsylvania primary election today.

The primary ballot lists no presidential possibilities of any party, but Scranton backers, apparently acting on their own, are behind a drive to get an outpouring of write-in votes for the 46-year-old, first-term governor and former congressman.

Scranton backers hope the write-ins will give him added lustre as a potential candidate and ease him to change his repeated stand that he is not a candidate for the nomination and would accept only a sincere and unengineered draft.

Delegates to the national conventions also will be selected. Backers of Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., said they hoped to pick 6 to 8 of the 54 convention delegates. Scranton has asked for an unpledged delegation, with himself as chairman in a favorite-son role. The 10 at-large delegates already selected have agreed to this.

Also at stake were nominations for 27 congressional seats, two judges of the state superior court, auditor general, treasurer, 209 state house seats, and 25 state senate seats.

There is a three-way fight for the Democratic nomination to the U.S. Senate to face incumbent Republican Hugh Scott, who had only token opposition.

The state Democratic organization backed Justice Michael A. Musmanno, 67, of the State Supreme Court. His main opponent is Genevieve Blatt, 56-year-old state secretary of internal affairs.

The third candidate is David B. Roberts, prothonotary (court clerk) of Allegheny County.

None of the Republican presidential hopefuls campaigned in Pennsylvania. Goldwater forces said anything less than 800,000 write-ins for Scranton should be regarded as a repudiation of him as a presidential candidate.

Craig Truax, state GOP chairman, says he is hopeful of 100,000 write-in votes for Scranton.

There are 2,654,401 registered Democrats in the state and 2,642,770 registered Republicans.

Goldwater-Lodge Contest Brings Heavy Balloting

by CORNELIUS F. HURLEY

BOSTON (AP) — A battle for delegate seats between Lodge and Goldwater forces today brought out a heavier vote than was expected in the Massachusetts presidential primary.

'Excellent weather served as an added inducement for voting.

Rival slates are on the Republican ballot for delegates at large and also in 10 of the 12 congressional districts.

Slates in two of the congressional districts are running as pledged to Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz. However, under Massachusetts law, pledges are not finally binding on delegates to the national political conventions.

Complete slates were filed by Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, R-Mass., and GOP National Committeeman Richard F. Treadway, both for delegate-at-large and in the 12 districts.

They are unpledged but Saltonstall has said they will favor Henry Cabot Lodge if he becomes a candidate for president. Lodge, a former U.S. senator and ambassador to the United Nations, now is ambassador to Viet Nam.

A slate of candidates for delegate-at-large was filed by Jack E. Molesworth, a member of the GOP State Committee and a Goldwater adherent.

Ten district slates were drawn up by Lloyd Waring, one of the organizers of a draft Goldwater movement in Massachusetts.

Regardless of the outcome in the delegate contests, Lodge is expected to be the front runner as a favorite son in the presidential preference write-in on the Republican ballot. The preference write-in is not binding on the delegates.

On the Democratic side, President Johnson is expected to be the winner of the preference poll.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Four of us mothers in the neighborhood have a car pool. We alternate driving our children to school in the morning. One mother made all the children late five times last month. The late mother always has an excuse (small baby at home, she overslept, she forgot to set her alarm clock), but no excuse is acceptable at school and it goes against the children's records. Should we drop this mother from our car pool? I hate to cause hard feelings but I would just as soon drive the kiddies myself to be sure mine get there on time. How should this be handled?

ON TIME MOTHER

DEAR ON TIME: Since the school term is almost over, don't tell her you want to drop her from the car pool. Tell her you have the time, and do not mind driving the youngsters in her place. And next year, when you organize a car pool, include Mrs. Always-Late OUT!

DEAR ABBY: About three years ago someone asked you why a man who has a lady for a wife will pick up some tramp and treat her like a lady, but then he will turn around and treat his wife like a tramp. You gave a terrific answer, but I can't remember how you worded it. Will you please give it again?

ANNAPOLIS

DEAR ANNAPOLIS: "A man picks up a 'tramp' because he wants a female companion who is not better than he is. In her company he doesn't feel inferior. He rewards her by treating her like a 'lady.' He treats his wife, who IS a lady, like a 'tramp' because he feels that by degrading her, he will bring her down to his level. This makes him feel guilty. So, in order to get even with his wife for making him feel guilty, he keeps right on punishing her."

* * *

DEAR ABBY: To make a long story short, I flipped for a guy and in order to make him like me more, I tried to make him jealous. But that was a mistake. He got sore and started to date my best friend. I pretended I didn't care and got HIS best friend interested in me. So now the four of us date all the time (my date is a creep). And it's killing me to see the man I love with his arm around my best friend. What to do?

SUFFERING

DEAR SUFFERING: Having outsmarted yourself you had better pull out of this foolish foursome and look around for new friends and a fresh outlook on life.

Lawyer Wins City's Award

HOUSTON (AP) — Leon Jaworski, Houston attorney, receives the 1964 City of Hope humanitarian award at a banquet tonight.

The City of Hope is a national medical center at Duarte, Calif., engaged in treatment, research and education in the field of the catastrophic diseases, such as cancer, leukemia, maladies of the heart, blood and chest, and certain hereditary disorders.

The guest speaker will be Gov. John Connally.

The national award has been received by such persons as comedian Bob Hope.

Jaworski is a former president of the State Bar of Texas. He currently is president of the Baylor Medical Foundation, chairman of the joint administrative committee of the Texas Medical Center and the Baylor College of Medicine, trustee of the M. D. Anderson Foundation, and board member and past president of the Harris County chapter of the American Red Cross.

Belli Will Make Reply

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Melvin Belli, once lawyer for Jack Ruby, slayer of accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, will get a chance to answer complaints against his courtroom behavior by members of the American Bar Association.

A spokesman for the bar association said in Chicago Monday that "complaints against Mr. Belli by other members of the association are under investigation by the committee on grievances" and that "he (Belli) will be given an opportunity to be heard before the committee."

The hearing will be closed to the public.

Belli demanded in a letter to association president, Walter Craig, that he be given a public hearing of charges of unethical conduct against him following a courtroom outburst after the Dallas jury returned a death verdict for Ruby.

House Furnishings Suffer Fire Damage

The Snyder fire department was called out at 5:05 p.m. Monday to fight a fire at 1507 Avenue R.

The residence there, owned and occupied by Jack B. Crawley, suffered extensive damage. Furniture and personal belongings also were extensively damaged.

Firemen reported that the fire started in the center of the house, apparently from a faulty hot water heater. Thy were prevented from entering the house from the "upwind" side by the large dogs in the back yard, and had to enter from the "downwind" or smokey side. Several firemen suffered mild cases of smoke poisoning while fighting the fire.

Guilty Pleas Heard In District Court

Three men pleaded guilty Monday in 132nd District Court to a number of charges.

Jack Dorton of Big Spring pleaded guilty to two charges of burglary in Scurry County and four charges of burglary in Borden County. He was assessed a two-year sentence on each of the six cases.

Also pleading guilty to three charges of burglary in Borden County was Curtis D. Atkinson, also of Big Spring. He received a four-year probated sentence in each case.

The burglary cases involved thefts from cabins at Lake J. B. Thomas.

Guadalupe Hernandez pleaded guilty to a charge of assault with intent to murder. The charge was filed following a knifing incident.

Hernandez was given a two-year probated sentence.

Astronauts To Make Arizona Field Trips

HOUSTON (AP)—Sixteen astronauts were to make field trips in Arizona Wednesday as part of their training for future moon trips.

The 16 will divide into three groups, with one group visiting the Kitt Peak Observatory at Tucson, another the Sunset Crater National Monument, and the third, the lava flow formations near Flagstaff.

The group will shift to all three points.

Manned Spacecraft Center officials said the astronauts would observe the moon through the 30-inch telescope at Kitt Peak between midnight and 2 a.m. each morning.

The observation will be primarily at the area picked for a moon landing, near the Sea of Tranquility.

California Man Killed In Mishap

FORT WORTH (AP) — J. T. Huffman, 42, of Richmond, Calif., was killed early today in a car-truck accident on Texas 114 east of Grapevine. Huffman's car and a heavy butane tanker truck collided. Truck driver Walton Clifton, 36, of Mineola was not injured.

Rights Bill Is Kennedy Legacy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Against a backdrop of racial violence, President Kennedy sent to Congress a sweeping civil rights bill that has become one of his legacies.

Today, after more than 10 months, the bill the slain President hoped to see enacted last year has passed the House and locked the Senate in a marathon debate.

The bill stands much as President Kennedy submitted it last June 19.

President Johnson has said he wants the Senate to approve the bill as it passed the House Feb. 10.

But many senators on both sides of the civil rights struggle concede that amendments will be adopted. The best bet is that these changes will dilute the House version.

Its provisions are in some respects stiffer than those Kennedy proposed.

Here are the key provisions of the bill before the Senate:

Public accommodations: Lodging places with more than five rooms, restaurants, places of amusement and gasoline stations are barred from discrimination. That is about what Kennedy recommended. The House wrote in exemptions for small rooming houses and retail stores without eating facilities.

Employment: Kennedy recommended an extension of regulations against discrimination in federal jobs or government contract work. The House voted to create a fair employment opportunities commission to deal with discrimination in private industry.

Federal aid: The administration version would have permitted the government to cut off grants, loans, contracts, insurance or guarantees in programs where discrimination occurs. The bill now says the government must refuse new grants and end existing aid to recipients who discriminate in administration of federally aided programs. Insurance and guaranty programs are not covered.

School desegregation: The attorney general is authorized to file public school desegregation suits. This is in line with the administration proposal.

Voting rights: The administration bill called for written literacy tests, equal voting standards for whites and Negroes, and the presumption that a sixth grade education is enough to make a person a qualified voter. Those provisions applied to federal elections.

The measure is in much the same form now, although the House added a provision permitting the attorney general to request appointment of a three-judge panel to hear voting rights cases. The House also eliminated an administration provision that would have authorized appointment of temporary referees to register voters who claim they have been denied a chance to register because of race.

Sunshine Said To Prompt Skin Cancer

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP)—A Baylor University doctor said Monday too much sunshine can increase the danger of skin cancer and shorten life.

Dr. John M. Knox of Dallas, head of Baylor's Department of Dermatology, told the Pacific Dermatologic Association meeting in Phoenix the dangers are particularly evident in the Southwest.

The sun's ultraviolet radiation, he said, increases organic sensitivity to heat, thus encouraging cancer growth.

His comments were among those of several skin specialists attending the session.

Dr. Denny L. Tuffanelli of San Francisco said anti-malarial medication taken by GIs in the South Pacific during World War II has caused premature whitening of the hair, discolored spots on the mouth and under finger nails.

Rusk Says Reds Still A Threat

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk warned today that the threat of Communist aggression has not been removed and there is still a need for a Middle East defense pact.

Rusk's comment came in a speech prepared for the opening session of the 12th Council of Ministers meeting of the Central Treaty Organization attended by foreign ministers from Iran, Pakistan, Turkey and Great Britain.

"Let us not forget that the leaders of both the principal Communist nations proclaim world domination as the ultimate Communist goal. And we must take particular care not to let any Communists anywhere think that they can gain from a policy of militancy," Rusk said.

This reference to the Chinese Communist brand of militant communism was underscored by references to the sister defense pact, the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization, which met earlier this month in Manila.

"SEATO is currently confronted with the brutal fact of continuing Communist aggression," Rusk said.

"Just a few days ago I visited South Viet Nam where warfare still rages because Communist aggressors persist in their attempt to impose their will on a free people."

He said the fact that such conflict has not been experienced in the Middle East Central region "is, at least in part, attributable to the existence of this defensive shield."

Rusk told the delegates that President Johnson would extend his personal greetings to the foreign ministers at the White House Wednesday morning.

BANDSMEN HONORED—Informality was the word at the Hawaiian party for band students at the Snyder Country Club last Friday night. The event was sponsored by the Band Parents Club.

Firms Indicted For Price Fixing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Twelve flour milling firms were indicted today on charges of conspiring over the past six years to fix prices.

A federal grand jury in Buffalo, N.Y., handed down the indictment against the companies, which produce 65 per cent of the bakery flour sold east of the Rocky Mountains. The indictment also names as defendants six officers of the firms.

As a result of the alleged conspiracy, it is charged, commercial buyers of flour have been subjected to artificially high and non-competitive prices.

The indictment names these defendants:

General Mills Inc. and William A. Lohman Jr., vice president; the Pillsbury Co.; Archer-Daniels-Midland Co. and Lawrence J. Weidi, vice president; International Milling Company Inc.; the Peavey Co. and William R. Heegaard, vice president, all of Minneapolis;

Bay State Milling Co. of Winona, Minn., and Bernard J. Rothwell II, president; the Weber Flour Mills Co. and the Western Star Mill Co., both of Salina, Kan.; Gooch Milling & Elevator Co. of Lincoln, Neb.; Inland Mills Inc., of Des Moines, Iowa, and John J. Vanier, who is president of Weber, Western Star and Inland and vice president of Gooch; the Colorado Milling & Elevator Co. of Denver, and Earl [illegible] Cross, its president, and Seaboard Allied Milling Corp. of Newton, Mass.

Wrestler Aids In Capture

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—A barefoot policeman and a former college wrestler teamed up Monday to capture one of the FBI's 10 most - wanted criminals.

He is Frank Dumont, 42, convicted six times since 1936 and wanted in Pocatello, Idaho, on charges of burglary and the assault of a 14-year-old girl.

The manager of a Tucson apartment house spotted Dumont rifling through an apartment, and alerted two tenants, off-duty policemen Richard Milne and Robert Wilson.

A third tenant, Dennis Favero, saw Milne race barefooted after the fleeing Dumont and joined in. Wilson had gone to get a car.

Milne caught up with Dumont and as the two battled, Favero, a University of Arizona graduate student and former Notre Dame wrestler, arrived and applied a hammerlock on Dumont.

"All right," Milne quoted Dumont as saying, "There's too many of you. I'll go peacefully."

Begins Trip Aboard Bull

INTERNATIONAL FALLS, Minn. (AP)—A Minnesota farmer was to start today for Galveston, Tex., aboard a Hereford bull to promote the American beef industry.

Carl Swanson of Onamia, Minn., and his bull Randy were to start from the Canadian border here, heading south through Minnesota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. Swanson hopes to complete the 1,800 mile ride by Christmas.

He said he hopes publicity will make Midwesterners eat more beef and also make congressmen more aware of problems facing American cattlemen.

A small dog named Puppy will accompany Swanson and Randy.

Authorization Told For Texas Project

when you need your phone you can count on it

A freckle-faced miss invites a playmate over . . . Dad tracks down a hard-to-find gadget for the workshop . . . Mom gets a recipe from a friend. Whatever the need, people take it for granted their phone will work. What else that you use so often is so dependable?

Making telephones so reliable takes complex equipment, technical improvements and, above all, carefully trained telephone people.

The payoff for these things comes when you pick up the receiver and your phone works, and works well. Our goal is telephone service that continues to grow in dependability, convenience and personal value.

Students Keep Vigil At Lincoln Memorial

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — For nine days now — and no one knows for sure how much longer — theological students of the Protestant, Jewish and Roman Catholic faiths have been standing in a quiet vigil at the Lincoln Memorial.

They intend to stay, 24 hours a day, until the civil rights bill is passed by Congress.

It has been a chilly, wet and undramatic demonstration —three students on a shift grouped around a black-and-white sign across the circle from the long flights of steps leading to the statue of the Great Emancipator.

Monday night, however, a rival camp was set up barely 20 feet away.

George Lincoln Rockwell, head of the American Nazi party, led a half dozen of his followers in to distribute leaflets against the civil rights bill.

Briefly the two sides mingled, exchanging their literature, before police shooed off the Nazis who lacked a permit.

To present a rival vigil the Rockwell group left behind one of their party—a stiffly erect 19-year-old in a tan storm-trooper cap decorated with a swastika.

"We'll be here as long as those people are," said Robert Lloyd of Arlington, Va., a follower of Rockwell.

It was a damp night and the students stood in the mud watching as buses unloaded hundreds of tourists at the monument.

Some of the tourists—most of whom were out-of-town high school students on the annual spring trip to the capital — stopped. A few took pictures with flash cameras. Some read the sign which says "Civil rights is basically a moral issue" and "We are brothers before God." Some asked questions.

A heavy - set boy spoke to Lloyd, then crossed the 20 feet to confront Joseph Brodie of New York Jewish Theological Seminary.

He asked Brodie how he would answer the Nazi's contention that Hitler had a million Jews killed because they were Communists.

Patiently Brodie explained that he didn't think the American Nazi party was objective and that the boy should check other sources.

Usually the students are relieved after a three-hour stint.

But there are so many Roman Catholic seminarians in the capital, said Jack Campbell of Boston, a student at St. Paul's College here, that "they are standing in line" to sign up and thus usually have only one-hour shifts.

An automobile shuttle service carries theological students to and from New York.

Gail Johnson, a pretty 24-year-old from New York's Union Theological seminary put in two three-hour shifts Monday and was returning to school on the auto shuttle before midnight.

France Withdraws Officers From NATO Naval Unit

PARIS (AP) — France announced today she is withdrawing her officers from the North Atlantic Treaty Organization naval headquarters unit in a further step in President Charles de Gaulle's program to make his country independent of her allies.

The French announcement said proposals have been made for close liaison with the alliance's fleets.

De Gaulle already had withdrawn French ships earmarked for NATO duty in case of conflict. Today he wiped the navy slate clean by announcing withdrawal of his officers.

The French president apparently does not care that the move isolates his nation from planning in NATO naval councils.

US Regrets Withdrawal

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States deplored the French withdrawal of naval officers from NATO headquarters today because it shows a further deterioration in the organization of the Atlantic alliance.

State Department officials said, however, that the action in itself was not very important, since the French had already withdrawn their naval units from potential NATO control.

"We deplore it, of course," a spokesman said. "But we must keep in mind that the basic commitments of France to the defense of the West as they are set down in the North Atlantic Treaty are unimpaired."

Both the Kennedy and Johnson administrations have discounted the effects of a long series of French actions on the unity and strength of the Atlantic alliance.

But some officials now believe that these deliberate efforts to paper over the cracks in NATO with reassuring statements are becoming useless if not outright harmful since they pretend a degree of unity and cooperation which does not in fact exist at all.

Dandy K. Purely Against Tradition

By KELSO STURGEON
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—If Cecil Carmine's Dandy K. wins the Kentucky Derby, Carmine can go into business with Jack Price of Carry Back fame showing the big names of racing how its done.

Just about everything, from the breeding to the way Dandy K. breaks from the starting gate, is contrary to the traditions of racing. And, just about everything Jack Price did with Carry Back raised the eyebrows of the industry's diehards.

Dandy K., whose stretch running is similar to that of Carry Back's, has won four of his last seven races — including the Fountain of Youth Stakes—and will be a big threat in the Derby if the pace is fast.

The colt was on the sidelines today as the $15,000-added Derby Trial Stakes held the spotlight at Churchill Downs.

The one-mile trial—the last prep for the Derby—attracted a field of seven, headed by Run-for-the-Roses favorite Hill Rise. The track was expected to be sloppy, giving Hill Rise his first race in the mud.

Dandy K. had his last race in preparation for the Derby Saturday in the seven-furlong Stepping Stone Purse and finished a fast-closing third behind Mr. Brick and The Scoundrel after stumbling and nearly falling down as he left the starting gate.

"We got Dandy K. by breeding the best we had to the best we could afford—and to me that's just as good as breeding what's supposed to be the best to the best," Carmine aid Monday.

Dandy K. is a son of Chris K., who commands a stud fee of $150.

The colt's dam is Speed Trust, one of two broodmares in Carmine's stable at Lexington.

R. E. (Red) Wingfield, who trains Dandy K., said he believes the colt "has a real good chance in the Derby. If the pace is fast, we should give them a real battle when they start running in that stretch."

Today's trial field was rounded out by Roman Brother Clem Rae, He's a Gem, Mr. Moonlight, Grand Garcon and Robair. An impressive win by Hill Rise could send most of those in the trial looking for cover.

Patton Makes Flying Start In 4th Bid

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) — Billy Joe Patton, off to a flying start in his bid for a fourth North and South Golf Amateur Championship and third in a row, met Peter Zaccagnino of Hartford, Conn., today in the lead-off contest of the 32-match second round.

Patton, 42-year-old Morganton, N.C., lumberman and veteran of Walker Cup play, was on the 7,000-yard No. 2 course of the Pinehurst Country Club only two hours Monday as he opened with a 7 and 5 victory over Elliott Phillips of New Albany, Ind.

Patton did not lose a hole and was three under par in what he described as "the best round I have played in a long, long time.

There were some surprises but most of the top-notchers survived. Among the most impressive was Walker Cup veteran and former North and South champion Charlie Smith of Gastonia, N.C. He was three under par in a 5 and 4 victory over Richard Babbitt of Rockford, Ill.

Patton and Smith are in the upper half of the draw and could collide in the semi-finals Friday if they continue to play as well as they did in the first round.

U. S. Cagers Challenged

MOSCOW (AP) — Is U.S. Olympic basketball supremacy threatened at last?

It could be. An American squad with five members of the 1964 Olympic team lost three straight to the Soviet national team here, despite some fine college players, seven men over 6-6 and four teammates from the AAU championship club.

"We should have risen to the challenge here — there's no alibi," said Cliff Buck of the AAU, head of the team.

He said his team "hasn't played good ball." And he said the Russians are much better than they were three years ago when an American team won eight straight.

But, he said, "I feel we can win the championship at the Tokyo Olympics." He said the Americans will have a stronger team at Tokyo, with more depth and more experience of playing together.

Buck said in a telephone interview from Kiev that one of the problems has been that the U.S. team has not played together long enough.

'Have-Nots' Shoot For Fifth Place

NEW YORK (AP)—The have-nots of baseball have a new goal—fifth-place money.

The first-division clubs always have shared in the World Series loot. When the major leagues expanded to 10 clubs, they didn't change the ground rules.

Commissioner Ford Frick announced Monday that the players voted 478-58 to extend the share-the-wealth program down to fifth place. He said approval by the majors at their joint meeting this summer would be a mere formality.

If this plan had been in effect last year each of the Cincinnati Reds and Cleveland Indians would be approximately $308 richer.

Bruce Solibakke of Seattle joined the Washington varsity basketball team this season after averaging 13.8 points in 19 games for the 1962-63 freshman squad. He is 6-feet-7 and 202 pounds.

Passes Up Chance With Champions

By W. B. RAGSDALE JR.
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Not many college football players would pass up a chance to play with a championship professional team.

But Dick Drummond did, and Monday the National Football League champion Chicago Bears swapped Drummond to the Washington Redskins for a draft choice.

The reason the 6-foot-1, 205-pound halfback spurned the champs: He didn't want to leave medical school at Gerge Washington University in Washington.

A Washington native, Drummond has had his eye on medical school ever since he was a local high school star.

He strayed to the University of Iowa as a freshman, but soon came back home to enroll at George Washington.

"When I went to Chicago, it became quite clear that I would not be able to attend GW medical school and play for the Bears," Drummond said, and added:

"The Bears wanted me to transfer to a medical school in the Chicago area, but I felt that when I was accepted last year as one of the 100 new students in the GW medical school I was committed to continue there. Also, the school went out of its way to make it possible for me to play football last fall."

Drummond at first planned to skip his senior year of football after he was admitted to medical school, but officials permitted him to take a laboratory course in summer school in order to clear enough time from practice.

"I love both medical school and football and would like to do both," Drummond said.

The husky halfback combined the two very neatly last season, rolling up 602 yards in 110 carries.

WISHBALL WINNERS—Team Captain Joe Pate kneels with his team's first place trophy which was awarded Monday night at the conclusion of the bowling league's season. Members of the team with their individual trophys are Cloyce Talbott, Freddie Everton, Don Murphree, Tony Hatfield and Jack Finley.

THE SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD of the Wishball Bowling League was presented to J. O. McNew, left, by the president of the league, Wayne Monroney. The winner was determined by a secret ballot of all the league's bowlers.

Frogs Sign Gresham

FORT WORTH (AP) — Texas Christian Monday signed all-state center E. A. Gresham of Graham to a football letter of intent. Gresham was a four-sport letterman. In addition to his football stardom he was a key man in the scho l's State Class AAA basketball championship.

Hogs Sign Cager

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) —Arkansas has signed its first basketball player to a letter of intent—David Self of El Dorado. Self was an all-state Arkansas center. He is 6-5 and is noted for his rebounding.

Baylor In Tie For Top

By The Associated Press

Baylor shut out Texas Christian 7-0 Monday and moved into a tie for the lead in the Southwest Conference baseball race. Each has an 8-2 record.

This set up a showdown series between Baylor and Texas A&M at College Station Friday and Saturday. A split could throw the race into a tie for the lead among Texas A&M, Baylor and Texas should the latter beat Texas Christian in two games at Fort Worth.

Henry Perkins worked a four-hitter, fanned nine and got two hits himself—one a double—as he pitched Baylor to its triumph over Rice. Gary Price featured the 14-hit attack as he batted in four runs.

Drysdale Finally On Course For Dodgers

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Don Drysdale, the last healthy member of Los Angeles' Big Four, has given the Dodgers' beleaguered pitching staff its most impressive streak since putting together three consecutive injuries.

Taking over where Phil Ortega left off Sunday, Drysdale pitched the Dodgers' second straight shutout Monday night, winning his first game in four starts by limiting Houston to six hits in a 6-0 victory built on a three-homer salvo.

Only one other game was scheduled in either league. In that, Washington whipped the Los Angeles Angels 6-2.

Drysdale's performance and home runs by Frank Howard, Ron Fairly and Willie Davis—the Dodgers had collected only eight homers in 12 previous games—topped off a heartening day for Manager Walt Alston.

Possibly the most imporant piece of news came from Los Angeles, where Sandy Koufax has been undergoing treatment for a muscle strain in his left arm. Dr. Robert Kerlan reported Koufax might be given permission to throw on the sidelines this weekend.

Besides Koufax, the Dodger staff has been depleted by injuries to Johnny Podres and relief specialist Ron Perranoski while the attack has lost the services of two-time batting champion Tommy Davis. Nevertheless, Alston said the Dodgers' poor start could not simply be traced to injuries.

"The injuries have hurt us," he said, "but the team was not playing up to par before anyone got hurt. Yes, we're crippled but that isn't all the reason for our troubles.

"What we've got to do is win as many as we can while we're crippled," he continued, "then move when we get all the injured men back. There is nothing wrong with the morale of this team right now that a couple of good wins and some base hits won't cure."

Howard and Fairly took care of the base hits. Each hit a two-run homer and also collected two singles. Willie Davis added a solo homer and a fine running catch that preserved Drysdale's shutout. With two men on and two out in the seventh, pinch hitter Al Spangler lashed a curling drive to left center that Davis speared with a final lunge after a long run.

Two-run singles by Mike Brumley and Don Zimmer gave the Senators four runs in the fourth inning off Angels starter Ken McBride. Fred Valentine drove in the other two tallies, one with his first major league homer.

Golf Title Is On Line

LUBBOCK (AP)—The Southwest Conference golf championship will be decided Saturday when Texas meets Texas A&M at Austin.

That became a fact Monday when Texas Tech beat Arkansas 4-2 and wound up its schedule with a 27-15 standing.

Texas, which is 20½-9½, plays Texas Christian at Fort Worth today. If the Longhorns won all matches they would be 26½-9½ and could take the title by making only one point against the Aggies. But if A&M won 6-0 it would be champion.

If Texas should drop all matches against TCU then win two points against A&M, Texas Tech would win it.

Steve LeCrone led Tech to its victory over Arkansas when he shot a two-under-par and then beat Mike Hastings 7 and 5. Richard Yates won another singles match and Tech won both doubles matches against Arkansas.

18 Teams Accept Bids For Odessa Tourney

ODESSA (AP). — Eighteen teams already have accepted invitations to play in the Odessa pro-amateur golf tournament July 30-Aug. 2.

Fifty-two more will be invited and the remaining 30 places will be decided by an 18-hole qualifying round.

Byron Nelson, Earl Stewart, Ernie Vossler, Abe Beckman, Sam Speer, Dick Turner, Joe Houck, Gene Mitchell, Hardy Loudermilk, Doug Higgins, Al Forrester, Jimmy Burke, Byron Nelson, Jake Bechtold, Horace Moore, Windy Green, Boyd Huff and PGA president Warren Cantrell are the pros already in the field.

Brosnan Keeps Busy, But Still Seeks Baseball Job

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—Jim Brosnan, a writer who is now going to take a fling at broadcasting, hasn't abandoned hope of returning to baseball, but says he is beginning to feel like an ex-pitcher.

Brosnan was hired by the American Broadcasting Co. Monday to do two five-minute spot shows each Saturday and Sunday on a radio network broadcast.

Along with his writing, which currently includes six magazine articles and a book which must be finished by May 15, the scholarly looking right-handed relief specialist is a busy man, but not too busy to get back in baseball.

"I don't believe my pitching record last year indicated I had lost my effectiveness," Brosnan said. "Maybe the White Sox felt I was expendable but I certainly feel other clubs who admittedly need pitching might at least have contacted me."

Brosnan, 32, was given his unconditional release by the Chicago White Sox when all the other major league clubs waived on him at the ridiculous price of $1.

Brosnan tried to land a job with other clubs and even advertised for a baseball job, but found no takers.

"I've been waiting for someone to contact me but I've heard from no one," he said. "Apparently the only people who think I can still pitch are the fans, newspaper columnists and radio and television commentators."

Brosnan said he couldn't conceive of a conspiracy to keep him out of baseball.

"That would mean 20 clubs would have to agree on the matter and usually it's difficult to get five clubs to agree on something," he said.

Brosnan admitted his desire to pitch and write at the same time might be a drawback to landing a job, but he added:

"I read where Casey Stengel says he needs pitching help but I haven't heard a word from the New York Mets."

Torre May Prove Point This Season

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves' Joe Torre appears on the way to adding a little proof to his claim that baseball's spring training is too long, at least for him.

The 23-year-old catcher and first baseman started to make his point by holding out for three weeks in a salary dispute.

He has added proof by compiling a .366 batting average in the young season. His mark tops the Milwaukee regulars. He is second among the Braves in home runs with two and is third in runs driven in with seven.

At this stage of the 1963 season, Torre had a .315 plate average and finished the season with a .293 mark.

"I feel that two weeks of getting into shape and then playing exhibition games is enough to get a player ready for the season," said Torre Monday as the Braves were idle.

"Maybe it's because I'm young, but if a fellow keeps himself in fairly good shape during the off season," Torre said, "two weeks of preliminary condition is all he needs."

"I'll admit that all the time I was holding out, I had fears that I might be hurting myself by not being ready, but now my doubts are dispelled."

Torre said that while he was negotiating his salary, he also was spending some time in a gymnasium playing basketball and running.

All But One Team In Tie

By The Associated Press

Everybody is tied for something except last place Fort Worth in the Texas League race.

Tulsa pulled into a deadlock with San Antonio for first place Monday night as the Oilers clipped the Bullets 6-4 with a 12-hit attack.

El Paso snapped a five-game losing streak by edging Fort Worth 9-8 while Austin Slammed Albuquerque 10-4 and it created a triple tie for third place among El Paso, Austin and Albuquerque.

Joe Patterson led the Tulsa attack in beating San Antonio in the opener of a crucial series, getting three singles and a double and batting in two runs. San Antonio left 16 men on the base paths.

Vincent Ferguson was the big gun for Austin when he drove in six runs with a double, triple and homer as Albuquerque failed for the third straight time to win at home.

Two-run blasts from Moose Stubing and Diablo Montoya in the ninth gave El Paso victory over Fort Worth.

Austin again is at Albuquerque, Fort Worth at El Paso and Tulsa at San Antonio tonight.

Champion Celtics In Sad Farewells

By BOB HOOBING
Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON (AP) — "Maybe it sounds funny because I'm colored and you're white," said K. C. Jones turning to Frank Ramsey and Jim Loscutoff "but the Celtics are a family. I feel your losses deeply."

In the midst of celebrating an unprecedented sixth straight National Basketball Association title Monday night, Boston players found themselves saying farewells again. The Celtics wrapped up the playoff crown by beating San Francisco 105-99 Sunday night.

There had been the departure of past notables Ed MaCauley and Bill Sharman, then last year, Bob Cousy. Now co-Capt. Ramsey and Loscutoff have retired. Clyde Lovellette and Johnny McCarthy will not likely return.

Willie Naulls will be welcome but may chose dental studies, instead.

"I'm tremendously proud of this team," said owner Walter Brown. "I don't believe any of us will ever live to see another professional team win six consecutive world championships. Only one club has a chance—these same Celtics.

"I believe this is our best club. Maybe it didn't have the best personnel but it was the best team."

"I've had many thrills," said Coach Red Auerbach. "But this year we all felt we really did the job."

"I've grown very attached to Ramsey and Loscutoff in my years with the team," said playmaker K. C. Jones. "We have very different personalities but their retirements are like losing someone very close.

"I love 'em both.

Ramsey, variously known as "Mr. Clutch" and "the Kentucky Colonel," drawled his way through some wisecracks until it came time to say goodbye. "Baskeball has come a long way in Boston," said Ramsey haltingly. "It's very difficult to leave. We've made a lot of friends.

"When you finally say it's time to quit you have a lot of misgivings," he added choking back the tears. "You wonder if you've really played too long or not long enough.

"If — you ever come down to Kentucky, be sure and look us up, hear?"

As Ramsey sat down, his face buried in a handkerchief, the banquet hall rang with a standing ovation.

"I've always hoped there's some semblance of a chance Ramsey might come back," said Auerbach. "Very few people in the history of sports have been as loyal to an organization as Ramsey.

"Of all the pros who ever entered the NBA, Ramsey came in more ready to play than any. He never was a rookie."

Texans Get Top Coaches

ORANGE (AP) — A couple of pretty well known football players will assist Bobby Layne in coaching the Texas squad that meets Pennsylvania at Hershey, Pa., Aug. 1.

Layne, the Texas and pro football great, has selected Doak Walker, the Southern Methodist all-America and star of the Detroit Lions, and Harley Sewell, former Texas lineman who was outstanding in pro football.

So everything appears to be ready for the big game that will pit the high school seniors of the two states against each other.

Fred Gervelli, sports editor of the Orange Leader is handling the Texas squad, which will be selected when the spring sports season is at an end. Pennsylvania already has announced its squad which will feature Bob Bazylak of McKeesport, Pa., who had 2,353 yards total offense last season.

Snyder Polo Team Downs Ralls, 15-0

The Snyder polo team took a 15-0 decision from Ralls last Saturday night at Ralls.

Snyder players who made the trip included Willis Cumbie, Duane Davis, Cecil Langford, L. J. Mueller, Rudy Minor and Robby Robinson.

LBJ Uses Masterful Touch In Appealing To Each Voter

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, sailing high with increasing confidence in himself and his campaign to be all things to all people, has just given a masterful performance and a great insight into how he is going about it.

In his speech to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Monday he pulled out all the stops, touching each listener, and each reader later, with appeals to the various motivations of a man in the American society today.

There was something in it for the rich, the poor, for conservatives, for liberals, for the sick, the old, the untrained, and the young ambitious.

What he said Monday and how he said it—since he is going to run for election in November—can be taken as the key to the directions his political campaign will take, and how he'll handle it.

While this was a speech to businessmen it was also a tremendous political speech.

He appealed to his listeners' desire for frugality in government and their own desire to make money; to their desire for peace and at the same time for military security; to their humanity, their compassion, and their patriotism.

It was all there but he was careful, although you might not notice the various transitions, to humanize himself in the process by shifting from soaring sentences to homey phrases and homely images, like the old house where he was born. He says he keeps a picture of it in his bedroom.

The implication he got across was that what he could do any American could do in his rise from rumble beginnings to the White House — if he had the chance. And he was asking everyone to pitch in to help everyone get the chance.

Thus the picture of Lyndon Johnson which emerged from all he said—modestly, as if in passing, but certainly intentionally—was that of an American epic which didn't have to be unique.

In short, he made the widest kind of appeal to the greatest number of people for he knew far more people would be reading later what he said than could be jammed together to hear him Monday.

He started out with a fairly short, prepared speech which might have taken 15 minutes to deliver. By the time he got through adding to it, sometimes in a rambling but humorous way, he had talked an hour.

The chamber members and their wives at the end gave him such a prolonged, standing ovation that he had to take what amounted to two curtain calls. Twice he had to return to wave thanks.

Some of the techniques—

The homely phrase: "You can go home and tell your friends that you have an independent, taxpayin', light-bill-savin' President in the White House."

Patriotism: "I believe this strong and this rich and this successful nation can bring peace to the world and I believe it so strongly I am going to work for it and fight for it and I hope I get it."

The homely image: "I have a little house where I was born, the son of a tenant farmer, a picture of which is hanging up in my bedroom (in the White House), because every night when I go to bed and every morning when I wake up, I call it the 'opportunity house.'"

His appeals—

To frugality and the desire to make money: he promised less government spending, pointing out he reduced the budget, less government jobs, and predicted 1964 would bring industry $30 billion in profits.

To humanity and self-interest: in soliciting help for his fight on poverty, unemployment, medical care for the aged, job training, he said, "Unless you attack the causes of poverty itself, you are going to be shoveling it out to the tax-eaters instead of producing and training tax-payers.

As indications of his efforts and good times ahead he pointed to the rail dispute he helped settle; the tax cut he got through Congress; figures on a rising economy; military strength; shutdown of needless military installations.

He didn't quite follow the advice he quoted from George Washington: "Let your discourse with men of business be short and comprehensive." Johnson's speech wasn't short but it was comprehensive.

Columnist Jumps To Conclusions

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Jumping to conclusions:

Dandelions, now gleaming like gold coins on millions of American lawns, are among the loveliest plants known to man. Anybody who uproots them before they are through blooming is a snob and a horticultural social climber—and may his green thumb turn blue!

Flying from Chicago to New York last week, I heard a fellow passenger complain. "The trouble with this flight is you get there before you can finish your second martini."

It is said that one of the things Gen. Charles de Gaulle detests most is talking over the telephone. Any man who holds this view can't be altogether bad.

During the 400th anniversary of William Shakespeare's natal year, he is being widely praised as the greatest writer in the English language. If we all weren't so terribly busy, it would be nice to pick up one of his plays and see what the man had to say.

No matter how many people in an office use a pencil sharpener, there usually is only one who will uncomplainingly take the trouble to clean it when it gets full of shavings.

There are only two types of middle-aged people—those who are grateful for bifocal glasses, and those who'd rather bump their heads against a brick wall.

Even if we didn't have television, we'd probably find something else to bore us. Most of mankind's progress has come from a desire to avoid either work or ennui.

One of the loneliest feelings in the world is to go to a circus by yourself after 40.

No matter how agnostic a man may be, he still likes the sound of church bells.

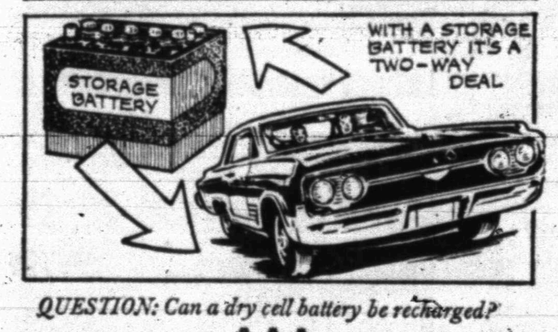

The thing a fat man wonders most about a thin man is how he manages to keep his shirtfront in. The ordinary fat man gets most of his exercise fighting his shirtfront back into place.

Baseball was the national sport when it was a game played by nine men who went the whole nine innings. With the arrival of the platoon system, it became just a form of outdoor automation, more enjoyable to computers than fans.

If you haven't had a headache lately, think it over. Maybe you are shirking doing your fair share of the national worrying.

Junior Editors Quiz on DRYCELLBATTERY

QUESTION: Can a dry cell battery be recharged?

ANSWER: Batteries have one or more units called cells and each of these has two 'electrodes' inside made of different materials. These give off the electricity and have terminals at the top to which the wires are attached. In the dry cell (upper left) the central electrode is of carbon and the outer one of zinc—this being the battery container. Batteries also contain a chemical substance called an 'electrolyte' which attacks the electrodes and builds up electricity in them as it does so. In the upper battery the electrolyte is a moist paste of various chemicals. Such a battery will give out electricity as long as the materials inside go on attacking each other; but when they are used up, the battery goes dead. After this it cannot be recharged.

This is not the case with the other main kind of battery, called a secondary or storage battery. In this, such as in the battery in your family car, electricity must come into it first—it is electricity made by the electric generator of your car's engine which charges up your battery. The battery stores this power, and when you need to start your car it will send out electricity by its own chemical process. It will go dead, however, unless a generator charges it again.

FOR YOU TO DO: Ask your father or mother to point out, on the instrument panel of your car, a needle or light which shows the battery either charging or discharging. Watch this as you drive and you will see how the car charges up the battery so that the battery can start the car.

ON JOHNSON'S DEALINGS

Business World Has Yet To Give Final Approval

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—If his reception by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce is a reliable indicator, President Johnson has won the general approval of the nation's business community.

But many of those who applauded or laughed 60 times during his hour's rambling discourse before the group Monday obviously are going to take a hard look at Johnson's dealings with the big labor unions before they reach any final political judgments on him.

Johnson's reception by the chamber was an astonishing one. After his speech, one member of the overwhelmingly Republican audience observed: "Maybe not a soul here will vote for him. But he's sure done some damage to Republican campaign contributions."

Another commented: "This fellow is trying to get elected unanimously."

The chamber is historically a poor audience for Democrats. The late Paul Butler, when Democratic national chairman, was booed during one hot debate on government welfare spending.

There was booing again in 1961 when Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., grew angry at the hostile reception he received in a debate with a conservative economist at a U.S. Chamber convention. Clark advised the delegates to "grow up;" he got a storm of derisive jeers.

President John F. Kennedy, in his lone appearance at a chamber session, received little more than polite applause.

Although former President Dwight D. Eisenhower never missed addressing the chamber's annual meeting in his eight years in office, the friendly receptions he received never approached the storm of applause that Johnson won Monday.

The chamber's applause for Johnson was the more remarkable because Edwin P. Neilan, retiring chamber president, has been stumping the country for months denouncing the administration's domestic policy.

Neilan, a Delaware banker, has accused Johnson of wearing "the false face of frugality." He has used such terms as "immorality," "seduction by subsidy," "picking the taxpayer's pocket," and "bribery" to describe the administration's budget and domestic programs.

Johnson warmed his business listeners with a forecast that profits after taxes will reach $30 billion this year, up nearly $3 billion over 1963.

But some were not so enthusiastic about his statement that he is going to call on industry later to reduce some prices for the benefit of consumers.

They may have been a little puzzled as to just what he meant, but they clapped loudly when he added: "And then, in the same week, I am going to call in the leaders of the working men and tell them the same thing."

The general feeling among politicians is that Johnson will be presented with a number of opportunities to try out his persuasive powers on labor before the election. His roughest test may come in the United Auto Workers' bargaining with the motor manufacturers late this summer.

New Code Curbs Cigarette Appeals

By LARRY FRIEDMAN

NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's cigarette manufacturers are putting their $250 million annual advertising program into the hands of an administrator to enforce a new code banning appeals aimed at teenagers.

The administrator, to be named shortly, will be empowered to fine a code violator up to $100,000. He will be given "complete and final authority" on all cigarette advertising, the nine companies which account for more than 99 per cent of the cigarettes made in the United States announced Monday.

Among advertising appeals banned by the companies' new code are:

—Testimonials by athletic heroes, famous entertainers, or other persons who would have a special attraction to those under 21 years of age.

—Suggestions that cigarette smoking is essential to social prominence, distinction, success or sexual attraction.

—Claims with respect to health because of the presence of a filter, unless the claim is based on valid scientific data as determined by the administrator.

All cigarette advertising must be cleared by the administrator, whose office shall be in New York.

The code bars ads aimed directly at persons under 21, and forbids distribution of free sample cigarettes and promotion of cigarette smoking on college campuses.

Advertising models must be at least 25 years old and look that age. There is a ban on persons "smoking in an exaggerated manner."

The industry acted 3½ months after the report by the U.S. surgeon general which linked cigarette smoking with cancer.

The code needs approval by the Justice Department to comply with antitrust laws, the announcement said.

Had Hands Full With Fights-Clad Women!

MONTREAL (AP) — Firemen and police had their hands full Monday night hauling 37 women, most of them clad in leotards, out of a basement physical culture studio after they were overcome by smoke from a fire above.

The rescuers lugged four women through a door of the burning building. When that route was blocked, they passed the rest through a window.

'Most of them were wearing only those black tights," said Police Chief Raymond Dion. "Some of them were heavy."

Rangers Mum About Typographical Error!

LAWTON, Okla. (AP)—Game rangers in this area are keeping a tight lip these days as they write citations for violations.

They find the less talking they do the better.

A typographical error on the forms that they are using identifies their agency as the Oklahoma Wildlife Conversation Department.

LIGHTEST MEXICO

BY JOHN ABNEY

SAN JUAN DEL RIO, Mexico — It is a comfortable half-hour drive from this curious colonial town to the city of Queretaro, capital of the State of Queretaro.

Georgraphy gets confusing to the tourist at times. The city of San Luis Potosi is the capital of the State of San Luis Potosi. Guanajuato is the capital of Guanajuato. Veracruz is the capital of Vercruz. And on down the line.

Once you are out of San Juan, and off the broad avenue filled with curio shops and restaurants, you get on the smooth highway to Queretaro. Distance questionable.

The map says it is 202 kilometers from Mexico City. The road markers read 221 kilometers.

Whatever it is, you roll along the pavement filled with trucks and buses dodging each other (while you dodge them) on curves and past green fields and resty mountains.

This being election year, the mountains have gone political on us. Every few miles you see whitewahsed rocks neatly spelling out MEXICO CON DIAZ ORDAZ (MEXICO WITH DIAZ ORDAZ) on a hillside.

Mr. Gustavo Diaz Ordaz was Minister of the Interior until the official Party of Revolutionary Institutions (PRI) suggested he be their presidential candidate in the coming July 7 elections.

This resulted in a turmoil although the reverse of what you normally find in similar situations.

No sooner was Senor Diaz Ordaz officially announced than everybody decided they liked the idea. He is an avowed anti-communist, being a staunch Catholic from the State of Puebla, and in these days of tribulations and military juntas this is a fairly important point.

A fast developing country like Mexico does not cater to 'isms" which might sift in and decide to take over.

Also, DO (that's his nickname with the public) showed up as a very competent administrator while he sat in the Interior Minister's chair. A quick idea man.

In short, Mexicans felt he looked so good that the problem arose. Opposition parties began endorsing him as The Man.

This proved somewhat embarrassing to the PRI. The official party began asking nervously, "Whatta we gonna do?" when the opposition showed up at rallies to cheer for Mr. Diaz Ordaz.

Finally, Vicente Lombardo Toledano's left wing Popular Socialist Party announced it had put the stamp of approval on Diaz Ordaz.

At this, DO spoke up in a strong voice and said; "I am the candidate for the PRI. You guys get your own man." A rough translation but the general idea.

And the other side shouted right back, "This is a free country so we vote for whoever we want!"

I am not sure but I would bet up to a peso that the gentlemen of the PRI went scurring around to the other parties saying for Heaven's sake be democratic about this and put up some candidates. One man in an election looks lopsided and gives a terrible impression.

After a while the Party of National Action announced they would offer Mr. Jose Gonzalez to the public. Officials must have breathed a sigh of relief.

But along all the highways it is DIAZ ORDAZ on the hillsides and mountains. Possibly Mr. Gonzalez will vote for him too, comes election day.

Simple political situations like this can get terribly complicated.

Rep. Alger Defends City Of Dallas

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Bruce Alger, D-Tex., defended Dallas in Congress Monday from what he called "attempted lynching" and "Communist-inspired" smears.

Alger said the attacks against Dallas had increased since President Kennedy was assassinated there Nov. 24 but had begun long before that time.

He said the attacks were a Communist-inspired attempt to silence the anti-Communism of the city.

"The people of Dallas believe in the freedom to express political differences and opinion," Alger said, "and we will not be silenced by Communist-inspired attacks or by the left wing extremists or liberals who challenge any opposition to their thinking as " 'spreading hate.' "

Alger said several incidents were distorted.

He accused the press of having a double standard, playing up incidents in Dallas while playing down such incidents as the picketing of Chief Justice Earl Warren in New York or the striking by pickets of Alabama Gov. Wallace campaigning in Wisconsin.

During the 1960 campaign, Lyndon Johnson, then the vice presidential candidate, and his wife were reportedly jostled and heckled by a Dallas crowd. Alger was in the group, holding a sign that said "LBJ Sold Out to Yankee Socialists."

"To my personal knowledge," Alger told the House, "there were no insults, there was no spitting and I saw no one pull Mrs. Johnson's hair."

When a horse sleeps, a muscular reaction locks its leg joints in place.

Row Over Attorney Fees Suggests Hoffa Losing Grip

WASHINGTON (AP)—James R. Hoffa has backed off from a crackling Teamsters Union row over whether the union should continue paying his legal fees, stirring speculation he is losing his iron grip on the Teamsters.

Hoffa, never known for ducking scraps but now beset by troubles with the law, yielded to a demand by one of his vice presidents that the union stop paying the bills until it can be determined whether or not it is in violation of federal law.

Edward Bennett Williams, the Teamsters general counsel who has defended Hoffa in some of his legal battles, is reported to have ruled that the union will be breaking the law if it pays the fees.

Hoffa, according to an aide, made his decision in Chicago where he is on trial on federal charges of misusing $20 million in union pension reserves.

"Mr. Hoffa wants to find out if such payments are legal," said Teamsters Vice-president Harold J. Gibbons in St. Louis. "The decision will not be reversed until the legality is upheld by a nationally outstanding authority."

Gibbons, who resigned in December as Hoffa's executive assistant and closest aide, said, "Mr. Hoffa made the decision in view of a request by Teamsters Vice President John J. O'Rourke of New York."

Gibbons denied reports that the funds had been cut off by the union's secretary-treasurer.

"It was strictly Mr. Hoffa's decision, until the legal issues are settled," said Gibbons.

An attorney representing 12 members of Teamsters Local 107 in Philadelphia sent a letter which contended the union payment of Hoffa's legal fees is illegal, Gibbons explained, and copies went to all the union vice presidents.

"Teamsters vice presidents agreed Friday to hire an outstanding legal authority from outside the union to study the problem," he said. "Hoffa made his decision in a phone call to the vice presidents today."

Williams' opinion that it is illegal to use union funds to pay Hoffa's trial expenses had the potential of putting both the Teamsters strong man and the 15-member executive board on a financial spot.

Williams reportedly told executive board members they could be made personally responsible if they continue authorizing use of union funds for Hoffa's legal defense.

Further, Williams reportedly advised that Hoffa could be liable for personal income taxes on union money used to pay his trial costs estimated in the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Hoffa was said to be angry, emotional and upset about Williams' opinion, which informed sources say came as a bolt out of the blue and reversed an earlier opinion.

It appeared to be the second sharp blow in succession to the stocky union leader who until recently had weathered a sea of troubles in courts, in congressional hearings and in the labor movement.

Last month Hoffa was set back by a federal jury tampering conviction in Chattanooga, Tenn., in which he was sentenced to eight years in prison.

His legal expenses for appealing that conviction pile atop those for defending himself in the current Chicago trial. The outcome of this trial, as viewed by reliable labor sources, is even more threatening to Hoffa's control of his 1.7 million union members than the dispute over paying his legal expenses.

Qualified sources, however, see the battle over lawyer's bills as adding to the mounting pressure within the union that may finally explode and hurl Hoffa from his Teamsters' throne.

Harlem Woman Ready For Visit To White House

By ROBERT HOLTON

NEW YORK (AP) — A 49-year-old Harlem school principal makes her first command appearance at the White House today and her main concern is how she'll look in a big, cream-colored hat.

"I was so busy last night doing one thing and another in preparation for my trip to see Mrs. Johnson that I never did get around to having my hair done," confessed Kate Tuchman.

"So, the only thing left to do was wash my hair and tuck it under a big hat."

Mrs. Tuchman was chosen as guest of honor at the fourth in a series of informal luncheons for "women-doers" held by Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson. Guests usually include about a dozen professional women.

Mrs. Tuchman said she was invited to the luncheon three weeks ago.

"But I didn't learn until last week that I was expected to make a speech to the group," she said. "Even then I wasn't nervous. As I told my husband, why get nervous. I'm a big girl now."

But, she added: "My father, who came here from the old country where things were a little different just sits and looks at me in awe since I received the invitation.

"And all the other excitement of my friends and other relatives finally rubbed off onto me and now I find myself a little nervous about it."

At first, she said, she thought she was making the appearance as a private citizen.

"But now that I know I must speak," she said, "I feel I am not going down there as Mrs. Tuchman. I am going down as principal of a school of New York City."

Mrs. Tuchman and her husband, Arthur, live in Jackson Heights, Queens. They have two grown children.

Grass Team Is Tops In State

First place in the state-wide contest for FFA grass juding teams was awarded Saturday to the Snyder team.

The three members of the Snyder team also placed first, second, and third in individual honors. Members of the team are John Zalman, Charles Bell and Billy Laster.

The contest was held at Texas Tech.

Placing first in the individual crop identification division was Jimmy Don Lloyd, also of the Snyder FFA.

The meat team of the local FFA chapter will compete for state honors next Saturday at Texas A&M.

Orpans Benefactor Dies In Seoul

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Harry Holt, an Oregon farmer whose adoption organization placed more than 3,000 Korean orphans in American homes, died today at his orphanage 10 miles north of Seoul.

Holt, 59, apparently died of a heart attack, a spokesman at the orphanage said. He is survived by his widow, who is at their home in Creswell, Ore., and 14 children, including eight orphans he and his wife adopted.

The spokesman said Holt became ill shortly after a trip to Seoul in connection with adoption processes for orphans who will be adopted by a group of 80 Californians now visiting Korea.

Mexico, France To Exchange Technicians

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Mexico and France will exchange agricultural technicians soon, minister of Agriculture Julian Rodriguez Adame said Monday.

Gym Planned For Use Of Astronauts

HOUSTON (AP) — Manned Spacecraft Center officials, worried about astronauts spending more and more time behind their desks, approved $15,000 final construction plans today for a gymnasium.

The building would cost $236,200, have 10,538 square feet including handball, squash and volley ball courts, exercise and weight rooms, trampolines, exercise boards, lockers, showers and dressing rooms.

Space agency officials said the facility would form the basis and be the tool in developing and maintaining physical skills, stamina and endurance vitally needed by each astronaut.

The exercises were chosen because they could be used by as few as two persons and require a minimum of equipment.

"One of the prime requirements for Gemini and Apollo program astronauts selection is excellent physical condition," said a spokesman.

Much of the astronauts' physical training is now done at military installations.

"A portion of the success of the manned space flight program," said the spokesman, "is attributable to the excellent physical condition of the astronauts.

"Physical conditioning to date has been left to individual initiative and no facilities have been provided."

"The very smallness of the Mercury group invited a strong competitive challenge to maintain their physical well being.

"However," the spokesman continued, "with increasing demands of flight missions and the ever increasing number of astronauts, an organized physical training program is required."

Post Office Extends Lease Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Post Office Committee has approved a bill extending indefinitely the Post Office Department's lease program for post offices under which the department contracts for private construction of buildings and agrees to lease them from the builder.

Little opposition has been voiced in Congress for the program criticized by the General Accounting Office as too expensive.

The House committee agreed with the Post Office Department that the lease program in smaller cities is financially sound.

Postmaster General John A. Gronouski told a House Appropriations Subcommittee: "The leasing program gives us a lot of flexibility. If we do get out in five or 10 years, we don't have a 'white elephant' building on our hands."

The GAO report said estimates of costs to construct 91 buildings were compared with costs of leasing for a 10-year basic lease period and that leasing cost less than government ownership.

It added, "our computations show that, if the department exercises its renewal options and continues to occupy these 91 facilities for five or 10 or more years beyond the basic 10-year lease terms, the costs of leasing at the end of 15 and 20 years of occupancy would exceed the costs of government ownership by about $2.1 million and $4.9 million, respectively." In addition the government would hold title to the land and building.

The leased post office in Temple, Tex., cost $347,000 for the building and $112,000 for land. Leasing costs for 20 years will total $835,000. The government maintained that the cost was offset by advantages of the lease plan.

Abell said post office operations require about 112 million interior square feet. About half of this is now in leased or rented buildings and half in government-owned buildings, he said.

Cigarette Machines Back In Hospital

FARMINGTON, N.M. (AP)— Cigarette machines were removed from San Juan Hospital after the recent surgeon general's report linking cigarette smoking to cancer. Now they're back in their old spots.

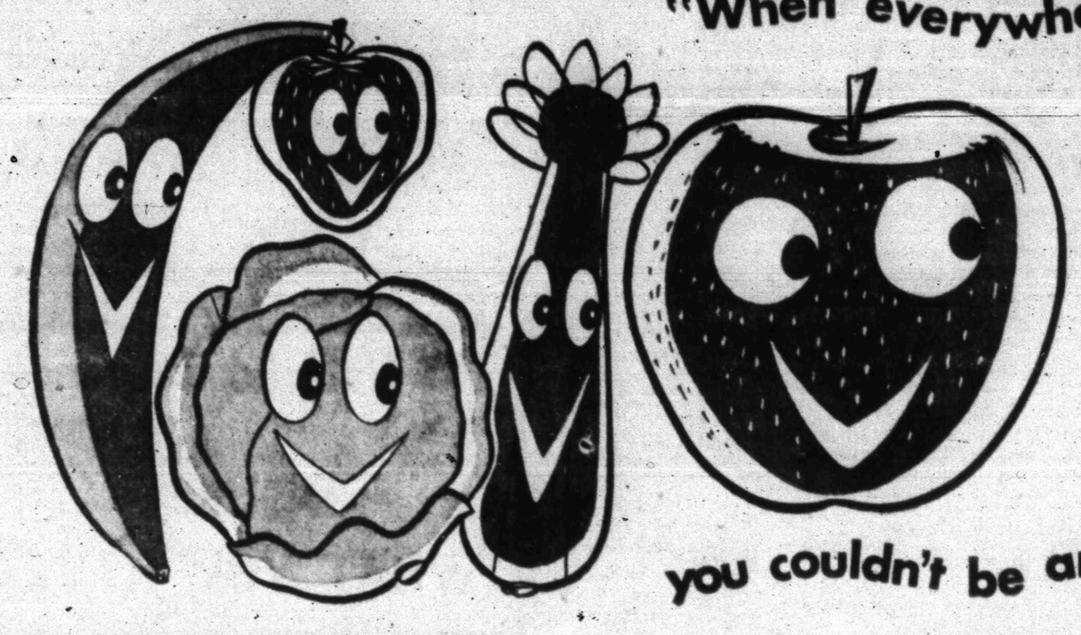

Jets To Make Study Of Electrical Bolts

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — Jet planes that soon will ride herd on Oklahoma tornado clouds also will make an additional study of electrical discharges that have been plaguing commerical airliners lately.

Neal Ward, research meteorologist with the National Severe Storms Laboratory here, said Monday planes that will observe and, in some instances, penetrate storm clouds include a Navy F11, and an Air Force F100 and B17. A U2 craft based at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif., will fly over the turbulent weather.

"The planes will be prepared for lightning strikes to determine what part of the cloud and what stage of the storm is more likely to produce the flashing discharge," Ward said.

Yarborough Says Friends Are Vital

By GARTH JONES
Associated Press Writer

Friends and workers win political campaigns more than money, says U.S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex.

Yarborough, 59-year-old lawyer and former Austin District judge, stated that seven years ago when elected to the U.S. Senate and he is still saying it today.

"I will never cease to be grateful to those loyal friends who have stayed with me through five long, hard statewide campaigns in six years," Yarborough said in a 1958 victory speech.

"I am thankful to you for your support through the years and I still need your help," Yarborough said the other day in his campaign for re-election to a second full Senate term. "Time is short. We haven't money for a money campaign, we need a man and woman campaign. That's what we need to win."

Yarborough is a full speed campaigner for the Democratic nomination, just as he was in his 1958 campaign for his first full term, his 1957 victory in a special election, and his three unsuccessful races for Texas governor and one unsuccessful race for attorney general.

Reporters, and sometimes his own aides, get left behind as he whizzes from one rally site to another. On the other hand he usually runs behind his announced schedule. "He just likes to keep talking as 'ong as he thinks anyone is listening to him," an aide says.

Yarborough's current campaign hinges around his claim that he has earned a second term by "seven outstanding years in the U.S. Senate." He points particularly to his current standing as chairman of three Senate subcommittees and as a ranking member of three Senate committees. He points out his work on education measures, on veterans' laws and his sponsorship of the Padre Island National Seashore Bill.

Yarborough also stresses his party loyalty as a member of "a Texas Democratic team."

"I'm a Democrat. I think I am the only Democrat running for the Senate this year," he tells crowds that usually respond with loud cheers and laughter. "We will snow the fifth Republican under in May and show those other four they're barking on a cold trail come November."

Yarborough's principal campaign pamphlet carries several large unposed photographs. One shows him standing just behind the late President Kennedy when Kennedy made his last public speech in Fort Worth the morning of Nov. 22. Another taken in January shows the Senator and Mrs. Yarborough greeting President Lyndon B. Johnson and Mrs. Johnson when the President visited Yarborough's home in Austin.

Oil Production Up, Reports Gas Journal

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — United States oil and lease condensate production rose about 20,050 barrels during last week, the Oil and Gas Journal reports.

The Journal said production for the week was 7,275,330 barrels daily, compared to 7,555,280 for the previous week.

There was no change in Texas, with 2,650,800 barrels daily; Louisiana, 1,502,700, and New Mexico, 304,100.

Oklahoma production had the largest decline, down 3,000 barrels daily to 572,400. Arkansas stayed the same with 74,400.

Texas Campaigns Changing, Claims Gordon McLendon

By GARTH JONES
ASSOCIATED PRESS WRITER

Gordon McLendon, Democratic candidate for U. S. Senate, says Texas voters are seeing a new look in political campaigns.

"A lot of people, including some of the candidates, don't know it, but it is true," says McLendon, 42-year-old owner of six radio stations who goes by the professional and political tag of "The Old Scotchman."

"The way politics are now you can't get a big crowd to a rally unless you are a President or have a lot of local friends. In Houston, which may have 20 per cent of the vote, a crowd of 75 would be a big crowd," says McLendon.

"The result is that political candidates, successful ones, that is, must depend on newspapers and radio to carry their message to the voters and on television to project their personal image. Voters want to know what a candidate looks like. Billboards are necessary, too."

"Elect the Old Scotchman" says cards passed out by the youthful - looking, dark - haired wide - eyed, constantly smiling candidate. The same cards carry the McLendon "brag" that he is the father of four children, ages 12 to 19 years, and one grandchild, age 2.

McLendon appears each morning with his hair neatly combed. Fifteen minutes later a forelock of hair strays down between his eyebrows, and stays there the rest of the day.

The Old Scotchman label dates back to the early 1950s when McLendon operated the Liberty broadcasting System, which specialized in "re-creation" of major league baseball games.

"I came in one day feeling tired and worn out and generally no good and I made the comment over the air that I felt like an "old scotchman." The next day I had maybe 15 or 20 letters commenting on the remark and I decided it was a good thing and have used it ever since."

His wife Gay, daughter of former Louisiana Gov. James A. Noe, travels with her husband part of the time and in the latter part of the campaign has a separate campaign schedule of her own. "She will stress particularly the importance of conservatives voting in the Democratic primary instead of turning Republican," McLendon says.

As to his victory chances, McLendon says: "I'm getting stronger than horse radish as the campaign goes along...The winner of this campaign will be decided in East Texas because that is the stronghold of (U. S. Sen.) Ralph Yarborough. But I'm an East Texan, too, and I know East Texans, my patched britches brigade, I like to call them. West Texas, I believe is won for my side. I'm strong in south Texas because I speak Spanish and the people are responding tremendously to my appeals in their mother tongue. I've promised them that if they will elect me, I'll be the first true bilingual senator from Texas."

McLendon Is Said Biggest Spender

AUSTIN (AP) — Figures at the secretary of state's office show Democratic Senate candidate Gordon McLendon has reported the biggest spending among Texas politicians.

McLendon has spent $231,182 through April 26. Sen. Ralph Yarborough reported spending $75,246.

Republican Senate candidates showed $123,922 spent by George Bush. Jack Cox reported $32,665; Milton Davis, $16,810; and Robert Morris, $13,614.

Gov. John Connally has outspent his main opponent, Don Yarborough, $98,164 to $49,218.

McLendon reported gifts of $37,997, loans of $100,000, payments of $231,182 and a deficit of $93,184. Yarborough said his gifts totaled $74,262; payments $75,246 and debts, $59,097.

Cold Front Brings Nation Menu Of Snow, Tornadoes

By The Associated Press

Sections of the Deep South were raked by small tornadoes and high winds Monday, injuring at least 10 persons. The Plains states were hit by thick snow and winds up to 81 miles an hour.

An overabundance of moisture combined with a high-level cold front to cause the unstable air over the Southeast.

Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and Florida bore the brunt of Monday's storms, including heavy rains which dumped more water into the already swollen streams in the region. At Appalachicola, Fla., 4.46 inches of rain fell in six hours.

Flash flooding was reported along tributaries of the Chattahoochee and Flint rivers as an estimated 4.5 inches of rain fell in parts of eastern Alabama and western Georgia in a 24-hour period.

Hailstones the size of golf balls fell on Atlantic Ocean beach communities near Jacksonville, Fla. The Weather Bureau said the hail measured up to one and one-half inches in diameter.

Five persons were injured at Moss Point, Miss., when high winds ripped carports from homes and uprooted large trees. A woman and two children were injured near Mobile, Ala., when a twister demolished a frame house.

A tornado that struck the northwestern Florida community of Little Whitewater resulted in injuries for two housewives. Other twisters did property damage at Pensacola and Quincy, Fla.; Hawkinsville and Unadilla, Ga.

The rainfall at Pensacola totaled 8.62 inches in less than 48 hours and brought on excessive flooding. An emergency power system had to be put in service at a hospital after normal power lines were knocked out by a flooded basement.

The snowstorm in the Plains states blanketed the town of Martin, S.D., with 6 to 8 inches. The high winds were recorded in the central part of Nebraska.

INSURE WHAT YOU HAVE

When you prepare hot meals

your kitchen stays degrees cooler

with flameless electric cooking

Flameless electric cooking units fit snugly against pan bottoms. They put their heat into the pans where it is needed, not into the kitchen air. The electric oven, being flameless, requires no flow of air into and out of it to support combustion. The oven is insulated all around, including the bottom, to keep heat inside where it belongs. Result: your kitchen stays degrees cooler when you are cooking hot meals. See your electric range dealer soon. Cook the cool, clean, flameless way ...and live better electrically!
