Jail Called Hazard By City Inspectors

The Scurry County jail has been declared to be in an "extremely hazardous condition," by the city building inspector and city fire chief.

In a letter to sheriff Earl Abercrombie, from Doyle Henricks, city engineer and building inspector, and D. A. Porter, city fire chief and fire marshal, the city officials said that an inspection of the jail building showed that in the event of a fire on the ground floor, the only entrance to the jail portion on the second floor would act as a chimney, thus completely isolating and trapping any persons above the ground floor.

County Judge J. Ray Martin said the inspection by the city officials points up the acuteness of the county's problem with inadequate and outmoded courthouse and jail facilities, and that the two problems should be considered as one.

The letter from the city officials to the sheriff said:

"In reference to your requested inspection of Scurry County Jail, on August 2, 1959, an inspection was made of the building occupied by the Scurry County Jail and dwelling apartment of the County Sheriff. During the inspection the following hazardous conditions were found:

"1. Termites have destroyed the ground floor sills, stringers and floor proper to such an extent that it is dangerous to step on certain areas. The total extent of the damage done by termites cannot be definitely determined, but indications are that considerable damage has been done to all wood structural parts throughout the building.

"2. Cracks in the outside walls and the interior bearing walls indicate uneven settling of the foundation footings. In view of the tremendous weight involved in the interior of this building, this could be an extremely hazardous condition.

"3. This building is so designed that only one means of entrance exists to the floors housing the cell blocks, in the event of a ground floor fire this one stairway would become in effect a chimney, thus completely isolating and trapping any persons above the ground floor.

"In view of the above findings we recommend that one of the following corrective measures be taken with all reasonable expediency:

ure be constructed so designed as to correct the exist hazard, above described, by providing an outside fire escape to all floors. That the building proper be entirely constructed of non-combustible materials.

"(Or) 2. That the existing building be completely and totally remodeled to the extent of removing all interior walls and structural material subject to termite damage and-or of combustible nature. That new material used be fire-resistant and termite proof; further, that the load of the metal-clad floors and cells of the second and third floors be reduced by redesign and lighter weight metal or other suitable materials, in order that the load limit on the foundation and bearing walls no longer exceed the reasonable capacities.

"For further information of questions please feel free to call upon either of us, the inspecting officials."

Martin said that the inspection was made by the city officials after sheriff Abercrombie discussed the condition of the jail with Martin, and Martin approved the request for inspection.

Ray Martin, county judge, are shown inspecting the metal stairway enclosed in an area about eight feet square leading to the second and third floors of the Scurry County jail. Labor Curb Bill Sent To Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House today passed and sent to the Senate a bill to curb racketeering and abuses in labor-management relations.

The House action capped a major legislative victory for President Eisenhower, who made a personal appeal to the nation for strong labor controls legislation.

The House vote on passage swamped Northern and Eastern Democrats who had backed less stringent labor curbs than the President asked.

The House-passed bill now goes back to the Senate for compromise with the differing version passed there last April.

Just before final passage today, the House defeated 279-19 a move to send the bill back to the House Labor Committee. This action cleared the way for a vote on passage.

The motion to send the bill back to committee was a parliamentary maneuver designed to block last-ditch Democratic efforts to revive a defeated bill backed by Democratic leaders.

Had the House sent the bill back to committee, there would have been no labor control legislation before the House.

The House on a surprising 229-201 rollcall vote had given all but the final approval to the measure Thursday.

The next move will be up to the Senate. Conceivably that body could adopt the House measure as is, which would send it along to the White House. But the Senate probably will call for a conference of representatives of the two branches to compromise differences. Both houses then would have to approve the compromise.

Labor and House supporters of a middle-of-the-road controls bill were stunned by the unexpected margin of their loss.

It gave President Eisenhower a smashing triumph in the bitter month-long struggle over the extent of curbs on racketerring and abuses of power in the labor-management field.

From his vacation headquarters at Gettysburg, Pa., Eisenhower hailed the House action as giving cause for "real hope that the Congress will ultimately pass a good labor reform bill."

He said the House-passed bill would "deal effectively with abuses disclosed" by the Senate Labor - Management committee headed by Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark).

But AFL-CIO President George Meany said in a statement, "It was not a vote on the issue of corruption. It was a vote to punish honest labor."

Paralytic Polio Cases Up Sharply

WASHINGTON (AP)—Reported paralytic polio cases jumped by 33 per cent last week to 245, the highest weekly figure since September 1956.

The Public Health Service said the total included 15 in North Carolina that should have been reported previously.

Through last Saturday there had been 1,560 paralytic cases listed this year. That compared with 668 in the similar period of 1958 and 3,045 in 1955, the year Salk polio vaccine first became available.

Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney said the rise last week was caused by a general increase in a number of states rather than occurrence of epidemics.

At least two more weeks of increasing reports are indicated. Not since 1940 has the weekly total shown a steady decrease until after the 33rd week of the year. In 10 years, the turn has come as late as the 37th or 38th week.

The 245 paralytic cases last week compared with 183 in the week ended Aug. 1 and 89 in the week ended Aug. 9, 1958.

The highest weekly total in 1958 was 221, in 1957 it was 105, and in 1956 it was 388.

Altogether, there were 432 polio cases listed last week. This was one case more than in the highest 1958 week and the largest weekly total since 1956.

There have been 2,482 polio cases this year through last week, compared with 1,365 last year through Aug. 9.

The service said Canada reports its polio incidence is about double what it was in 1958.

Security Checks Made In Santiago

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Security measures were tightened today at the inter-American foreign ministers conference after a hot exchange between delegates of the Dominican Republic and Cuba.

Chilean police and security officers of the Organization of American States checked all credentials carefully. No one was admitted without official documents.

OAS officials explained the tight security was aimed at promoting decorum. But it seemed evident that it was prompted by Thursday night's tumultuous session.

Before that, almost anyone could go in and out of the conference room just by flashing an official badge.

The Latin - American ministers turned their attention to a program U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter suggested for dealing with tension in the Caribbean.

Groups of ministers began discussing a temporary fire-prevention committee proposed by Herter. At present, the Organization of American States intervenes only at the request of a member involved in a dispute. Herter's plan would establish a regular watch-dog committee. Herter believes the committee, though lacking police powers, would have a calming effect.

Both Cuba and Venezuela have shown some opposition to this idea. There were prospects of a compromise plan, however.

The U. S. secretary also urged an investigation of "viciously hostile propaganda" in the area which he said was playing into the hands of the Communists.

The Caribbean tension exploded within the conference Thursday night when Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa accused the Dominican Republic of violating the principle of nonintervention by waging a radio campaign against Fidel Castro's revolutionary regime and by training anti-Castro expeditionaries to invade Cuba. Roa declared the counterrevolutionary plot which his government says it recently uncovered in Cuba was organized and financed in Ciudad Trujillo, the Dominican capital.

Dominican Foreign Minister Porfirio Herrera Baes jumped up and demanded an opportunity to reply, shouting: "Somebody here wants to muddy American waters like squids. But in this case it is not black ink but red ink that is used according to the newest, dirtiest ideology."

Several foreign minister intervened privately to calm down the antagonists after the session adjourned.

Two Women Bank Employes Are Suspected In Shortage

JACKSONVILLE (AP)—A chic, greying-blonde ex-bank executive and a hefty bookkeeper in a cotton print dress talked with a federal attorney today about a $130,516 bank shortage.

State and federal banking authorities confirmed the disappearance of the money from the Texas Bank and Trust Co. where the women worked until they were suspended recently.

The loss had been an open secret for some time in this East Texas city of 11,000. Insurance protects the bank and depositors from loss.

Those conferring with U.S. Atty. Bill Steger in nearby Tyler, were Miss Yola Renfro, about 59, and Mrs. Weldon Conner, about 34, mother of two small children.

Miss Renfro was assistant cashier. Mrs. Conner was a bookkeeper.

Both had somber expressions when they entered the federal attorney's office. But their clothes were gay. Mrs. Conner's dress was bright, while Miss Renfro wore an orange outfit.

Federal officials who refused use of their name said no charges face the women. They are expected to enter court next Wednesday without the formality of other court action.

Miss Renfro worked for the bank 18 years and Mrs. Connor for 15.

The bank's losses had occurred over the past eight years.

One source said dormant accounts—those on which checks rarely were drawn—were involved.

Neither of the former employes lived pretentiously, although Miss Renfro was noted here for her expensive gifts to betrothed couples, on anniversaries and the like.

Mrs. Connor's husband is employed at a mortuary, where his wife's late father was a partner. Before that he operated a filling station. Neither of the women would discuss the case with reporters.

Persons who attend the same church as Miss Renfro reported that she recently stood up during a period of "testimony" by members and declared she had done wrong but pledged herself to a better life. She did not mention the bank.

T. E. Acker, bank chairman, said people had asked why the bank made no public statement.

"We were advised by all supervising authorities to refrain from making any statement until some action was taken," Acker said.

No charges have been filed and neither of the suspended employes was willing to discuss with reporters what became of the money. Under Texas law, publication of their names is prohibited unless a criminal complaint has been filed.

One of the two women, described by Police Chief Sam Bollinger as "a heck of a nice person," told a newsman:

"I do not care to make a statement. In fact, I don't know what to say—I've never been in trouble before."

The other said:

"I have nothing to say. I don't think it's a public matter in any way."

As soon as spokesmen for the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. and the State Banking Department confirmed reports of a bank shortage, the Jacksonville Daily Progress put out an extra with the news.

Publisher B. H. Broiles said residents of this normally quiet town bought more than 800 copies within an hour.

The suspended employes arranged to confer with Steger today in Tyler, 28 miles north of here. Reporters were told it would be a private conference.

Bank Cashier Alvin Shattuck discovered the shortage July 23. An FBI agent arrived within two hours and took statements from the two women employes.

Authorities reported the pair produced records showing how much money was missing and an audit subsequently showed this total was accurate to the penny.

One of the suspended employes is married and the mother of two small children. The other is single.

CASE DISMISSED

Right Name, But Wrong Husband

NEW YORK (AP) — "Is this your husband?"

Mrs. Seymour Kroll of Utica, N. Y., peered intently at Seymour Kroll of Brooklyn in Brooklyn Felony Court today, then shook her head.

"Definitely not," she said.

Kroll breathed a sigh of relief and smiled.

He had been arrested Sunday on a warrant charging him with abandonment of a wife and four children in Utica 10 years ago.

Kroll, who has a wife and a child of his own, protested he was an innocent victim of identical names. He said he never had heard of the Utica Mrs. Kroll and never had been in Utica.

Magistrate David Malbin dismissed the abandonment charge not only on the word of the upstate woman that Kroll was not her missing husband, but on evidence gathered by Brooklyn Dist. Atty. Edward S. Silver.

Silver said the fingerprints of the two men did not match, that they had different Social Security numbers, and that the Brooklyn Kroll was born in New York 35 years ago and the missing Kroll was born in Chicago 46 years ago.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Arthur Darrigrant of Oneida County, who accompanied the Utica Mrs. Kroll to the hearing, expressed apologies of Oneida County authorities to Kroll. He said they had acted in good faith on information that proved erroneous.

"It's a great relief," said Kroll, an aviation company clerk.

Kroll's attorney, Irving M. Berg, told newsmen he intended to file a million-dollar false arrest suit on behalf of Kroll.

Doctor Rude, Says Beauty

TOKYO (AP) — Miss Universe returned to her native Japan today on the tail of a typhoon and in the midst of another storm about her bust.

"Very rude," snapped Akiko Kojima in denying a report of a Tokyo surgeon that he had injected her with a cupful of plastic to enlarge her bust and help her to a 37-23-38 figure.

"I would like to confront that doctor in front of everyone in this room," declared the 22-year-old fashion model.

Mitchell Tries To Head Off Rail Strike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell has been holding a series of private huddles with railroad operating union leaders in an apparent effort to try to head off a a possible rail strike later this year.

The Labor Department confirmed that Mitchell met with four union chiefs Thursday in Cleveland. There have been earlier sessions and the secretary presumably also has been in contact with rail industry leaders.

Civil War Veteran Still Critically Ill

HOUSTON (AP) — Walter Williams had a temperature of 101 degrees today.

The lone surviving veteran of the Civil War, the 116 - year-old Confederate has been critically ill a week at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Willie Mae Bowles.

"It looks like he can't last much longer," Mrs. Bowles said in reporting the temperature.

Child Dies After Delicate Surgery

DALLAS (AP)—Donna Rae Davis, 8, died early today after delicate heart surgery, which brought 23 persons from her home in Abilene to serve as blood donors.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rathel Davis of Abilene, had been buoyed by hope on reports that the child had been "doing better than expected." Her surgeon stayed with the little girl until the end came.

Faubus Ready To Call National Guard Again

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today he was ready to call on the state police and Arkansas National Guard in the school integration situation if necessary.

Faubus' announcement came as three Negro students entered Hall High School peacefully for the third day of token integration in two of Little Rock's four public high schools.

Faubus, at a hastily called news conference, did not say under what circumstances he would call on the state police and National Guard.

The three Negro girls, Effie Jones, Estella Thompson and Elsie Robinson, were hardly noticed when they walked into Hall. Only about 10 policemen were on hand and a few newsmen. No spectators were around the school.

Mrs. L. C. Bates, president of the Arkansas chapter of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, sent Eisenhower a telegram Thursday. She said her pleas for aid from local authorities were futile.

Asked what form of protection she wanted, Mrs. Bates said, "I don't care how they do it. I'm just tired of all these harrassments."

There was no immediate comment from officials at the temporary White House in Gettysburg, Pa.

Four Negroes return to Central and Hall high schools today to round out the first school week. Their attendance provoked no incidents Thursday and no disturbances were reported inside the police-patrolled schools.

Mrs. Bates has led the integration movement here for the past three years. Her plea for protection came after her house guard and two other Negroes were arrested by state police.

Mrs. Bates, at a press conference, related a list of incidents which have occurred at her home in southwest Little Rock—bombs thrown on the lawn, shots fired at the house and bricks hurled through windows.

"In the face of all this," she said, "we have begged for protection by city and county law enforcement authorities—but to no avail. In all the assaults on our home there never has been a single arrest of any offender or suspect."

One of the Negroes arrested was Ellis Thomas, 48, father of Jefferson Thomas, a 16-year-old senior and the lone Negro at Central.

Only a few persons stood around outside Central when Thomas attended Thursday. Four white youths were arrested for carrying weapons in the vicinity and disobeying police orders to move. Four others were questioned but released later.

At Hall, located on a pine-tree-studded hillside in the upper-income Pulaski Heights district, three Negro girls went to classes in a peaceful atmosphere. The girls are Effie Jones, 17, and Elsie Robinson and Estella Thompson, both 16. They reported no trouble. A white student said they sat by themselves, away from other pupils, when they could.

AF Is Poised For 'Game Of Catch'

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — A fantastic game of catch will be played thousands of feet above the Pacific today if all goes well with satellite Discoverer V.

The object: to snare the satellite's ejected 300-pound nose capsule.

The purpose: to test the project's intricate electronic system, which someday may help propel man through space. An aerial catch also allows the least possibility of damage to the capsule's contents.

Discoverer V blasted off its launching pad at noon Thursday. It is circling the earth every 94 minutes, sending back, loud clear signals.

Eight C119 Flying Boxcars are poised on Hawaii for the attempt to catch the instrument-packed capsule as it floats down under a parachute near the islands.

The Air Force says the chance of success is about 1 in 1,000.

Here is how it proposes to snatch the capsule out of the air:

As Discoverer V makes its 16th pass, a tracking station in Alaska will trigger the ejection mechanism. On the next pass, the satellite, repositioned by compressed gas jets, will tilt 60 degrees downward.

At the designated moment, explosive springs and bolts will separate the capsule from its vehicle, the 1,700-pound, automobile-size second stage of the rocket which bore it into space. The vehicle is expected to continue orbiting for about 10 days.

The capsule will be slowed down by a retro-rocket. A switch operated by forces of deceleration will release a parachute.

Guided by radio signals from the descending capsule, the Flying Boxcars will move in to try to grab the parachute with trapeze apparatus suspended from the planes.

They have about 10 minutes to make a catch.

If they fail, the Military Sea Transportation Service ships Hawaii Victory and Dalton Victory will attempt to pluck the capsule from the sea.

Scientists want to probe its instruments for information which can be used in the forthcoming Project Mercury, intended to send man into space and bring him back.

Scientists Fail To Launch Balloon

BROWNWOOD (AP)—Scientists failed today to launch a huge, plastic balloon in quest of data about high-altitude gamma rays.

They blamed weather conditions and "technical circumstances." A new attempt at launching was set for tomorrow morning just before dawn.

Car Outruns Its Driver

SHELTON, Conn. (AP) — Everything was fine on Tuxedo Avenue Thursday until a car went by.

It was a car like any other, except that the driver, John Fabozzi, was running after it instead of sitting behind the wheel.

After his runaway romped through a fence and knocked down some shrubbery and a coach lamp, Fabozzi told this story to police.

His car wouldn't start, so he came up from the rear with a truck and gave it a little push. He planned to jump out and catch the car while it was still rolling so he could start the motor by putting it in gear.

As it turned out, the car was pretty good at rolling. Better than Fabozzi was at running, anyway.

American Telephone & Telegraph has more stockholders than any other company listed on the New York Stock Exchange. The total was 1,600,000 in 1958. General Motors was next with 680,000.

Pension Fund Cut Axed By Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rejecting committee cuts, the Senate has passed overwhelmingly a bill adding another 10 billion dollars to veterans pension costs over the next 40 years.

The size of the vote, 86-6 in the Senate Thursday and 226-34 in the House last June, dampened today's earlier speculation that the measure might be vetoed by President Eisenhower.

The Senate made only minor changes in the measure passed June 12 by the House but the changes made further House action necessary.

The Senate voted 75-20 to strip from the bill Finance Committee amendments cutting the 40 - year cost of the measure by 21 billion dollars.

Sen. Robert S. Kerr (D-Okla), who led the fight to knock out the committee cuts, discounted any idea Eisenhower would veto the bill.

But Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va), Finance Committee chairman, noted that strong administration opposition to the House version had been expressed before his committee.

The principal Senate change is a provision to give veterans who have served since 1940 another one-year chance to obtain National Service Life Insurance. This is heavily opposed by the administration.

The bill concerns only pensions for veterans with non-service-connected disabilities and their dependents. It would:

1. Put pensions for veterans and dependents going on the rolls in the future on a sliding-scale basis to be determined by need.

2. Make eligible for pensions the widows of World War II and Korean War veterans whose death had no connection with their military service. This eligibility now applies only to widows of World War I servicemen.

The bill would not cut the pension of anyone presently on the rolls. About two thirds of these would get increases.

Thus, the bill would cost about $1,200,000,000 more than present law over the first five years.

But, counting the full period between now and the year 2000, the Veterans Administration estimates the new sliding scale system would save about 12 billion dollars in payments to veterans themselves as compared with the present program.

However, bringing in the World War II and Korean War widows would cost about 22 billion. Thus the net cost of the bill would be 10 billion, added to an estimated 105 billion under present law for the pensions over the next 40 years.

West Gulf Area Has Rains Again

By The Associated Press

There was thundershower activity again Friday over the West Gulf of Mexico after a small tornado and a water spout inflicted some damage Thursday in the Galveston area.

Skies were partly cloudy over the upper Texas coast and across south central portions of the state. Scattered shower activity occurred South Central Texas at dawn and there was some light rain in the extreme northern portion of the Panhandle.

Temperatures at daybreak ranged from 81 at Palacios and Corpus Christi Naval Air Station to 67 at Dalhart and on down to 62 in the mountains around Guadalupe Pass in West Texas.

Lufkin had light fog as the sun came up. Dallas had an overcast at 3 a.m.

The Thursday afternoon tornado dipped to the ground 15 miles southeast of Angleton, but the Department of Public Safety said only slight damage was reported.

The waterspout passed over Bolivar Peninsula at Gilchrist, 25 miles northeast of Galveston, and overturned a trailer house. Residents in the area said three other waterspouts were sighted.

A heavy thunderstorm struck in the San Augustine area of East Texas with winds estimated up to 100 miles per hour by Sheriff Elbert C. Nichols. The sheriff's radio antenna was blown down and trees were uprooted, but there were no other reports of damage.

Another thunderstorm rattled the Lufkin area and earlier in the day showers fell at several points about the state. Alpine reported an unofficial 1.75-inch rain.

Maximum temperatures Thursday ranged from Houston's 86 to Presidio's 106. They were expected in about the same range for Friday.

Fines Are Assessed On Pleas Of Guilty

A Snyder man pleaded guilty in County court yesterday to two cases of aggravated assault.

He is James King, Jr., Roby highway, who had been charged with aggravated assault of his wife and of another woman.

King was fined $48.50, including court costs, in each case by County Judge J. Ray Martin.

In other county court action, Mrs. T. W. Parker of Lubbock pleaded guilty to a swindling charge and paid a fine of $38.50, including court costs.

A charge of illegal transportation of intoxicants was filed against Bobby Earl Adkins of Ralls after he had been arrested by city police. His bond was set at $1,000 after he entered a plea of not guilty. He had not made bond by late this morning.

FALL SUITS—Not all suits for Fall are classic or mannish, as evidence this very pretty dressmaker, made of the new wickerweave wool. In caramel color, the jacket has a wider, dropped shoulder line, three-quarter length belled sleeves, and a draped saucer collar with a self tie. The stand-away collar continues popular, as does this brief jacket that is shaped in to indicate the waistline. The skirt is slim and straight. The suit is available in pastels and dark shades.

Scrambled Eggs With Swiss Cheese

INGREDIENTS: 4 large eggs, ¼ teaspoon salt, 2 sandwich-size thin slices processed Swiss cheese, 1 tablespoon butter, paprika.

METHOD: Beat eggs and salt with a whisk just until whites and yolks are combined. Dice cheese very fine. Melt butter in 8-inch skillet until sizzling; add eggs; turn heat low. As egg congeals on bottom of skillet scrape up with spoon; do not stir constantly. Scrape up center as it congeals. When eggs are as firm as you like them, remove from heat and immediately stir in cheese. Lift from pan with pancake turner or wide spatula and sprinkle with paprika. Makes 2 servings.

Graham Torte

INGREDIENTS: 1 cup very fine graham-cracker crumbs, 1 cup sugar, ¾ cup coarsely chopped walnuts, 3 large eggs (separated) teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon vanilla.

METHOD: Stir together the graham-cracker crumbs, ½ cup of the sugar and the walnuts. Beat egg whites until foamy; add salt and gradually beat in remaining ½ cup sugar until very stiff and glossy. At once, without washing beater, beat egg yolks and vanilla until thick and lemon colored; fold into beaten whites. Fold in crumbs and walnuts. Turn into a buttered and floured 9-inch pie plate. Bake in a slow (325 degrees) oven 40 minutes. Set pan on wire rack to cool. Cut into wedges and remove with spatula. Nice with whipped cream or ice cream. Makes 8 servings.

NOTE: We used 14 graham crackers from a small 7 ¾ ounces box to make the 1 cup crumbs called for, crushing them in an electric blender. If a rolling pin is used for crushing, make sure crumbs are very fine.

If your youngsters enjoy sweet sandwiches, make a filling of cream cheese with drained crushed pineapple, chopped dates or raisins.

Mrs. Nixon Made Hit In Russia

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

If the women of the world could get together over a quilting bee or a covered-dish supper, there soon would be little need for summit conferences and diplomatic tug-of-war.

There are some things that all women instinctively understand and enjoy, whether in Iowa, the Soviet Union or Timbuktu. That's conversation about children, recipes, kitchens and clothes.

Striking proof of the common international language of women was the sensation created by Pat Nixon during her recent visit to the Soviet Union and Poland with the vice president.

Newsmen accompanying the Nixon party reported that when Pat and her husband took a stroll down a Moscow street, they practically stopped traffic. Women gathered to stare at Mrs. Nixon's fashionable pointed shoes, her smart suit, her attractive hairdo and modish hat.

In her own sight-seeing about the city, the friendly, personable Pat probably did more to convince the Russians that Americans are nice people than could years of diplomatic exchanges.

Women the world over know how to size each other up, whether they speak the same language or not. And the women of Moscow had only to look at the vice president's wife to see that here was a friendly, happy, cultured woman. They also saw her as one who had access to more attractive clothes and cosmetics than are available to Mrs. Ivan.

Similar instances have been reported again and again after the many trade fairs in which the United States has participated around the world during the last few years.

Representatives of food manufacturing companies and appliance manufacturers have brought back reports of the fascination of foreign women for such things as an electric blender, a modern range, or a packaged angel food cake mix.

When people of other countries can taste American home-cooked food, can see how American kitchens work, can take a trip through an American supermarket and talk, even in sign language, with American women, understanding grows by leaps and bounds.

You can't hate somebody with whom you've just exchanged recipes for cornbread or pizza.

Texas, Louisiana and Oklahoma are the nation's three leading oil drilling states.

OUR VIEW

Nobody Immune To Mishaps

Scurry County sailed along for nearly half a year without a traffic fatality. Then came the first road death of 1959 but the county's traffic record still was far better than that of 1958.

Now, the second half of the year has scarcely started and two more road deaths have been added to the list. The record for the year still shows improvement over the 1958 figure (five had died on Scurry roads by this time last year) but a disasterous "second half" could spoil it before the year's end.

The accident northeast of town Wednesday could have happened to anyone who drives an automobile. That is a factor we forget when a person sets foot in an automobile, he becomes a potential casualty. There is a chance for an accident any time a mechanical apparatus is put into operation, and the chance increases when the apparatus is dependent upon the human hand.

When such accidents occur they should serve as a reminder to all drivers that it could just as easily have happened to them. Nobody is born with immunity to traffic accidents and there are no protective vaccines.

The best we can do is keep our vigil while driving and hope the other fellow does the same.

Ike Takes Share Of Dulles Record

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower is putting himself in the position of having to share the credit — or the blame — for practically everything the late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles did or said.

Through remarks at his news conferences and elsewhere, the President is painting a picture of his relationship with Dulles that shows the two men seeing eye to eye on everything before Dulles announced it.

But, as it turned out, Dulles became a kind of lightning rod and shield for the President since most of the criticism of American foreign policy during Dulles' years in office was directed at him, not at Eisenhower.

The following can be said confidently to represent the President's recollections of his secretary:

Dulles never made a pronouncement without Eisenhower's signature, initials or approval. Dulles was scrupulous in insisting the President approve every action taken. Eisenhower reacts strongly to any suggestion they were ever apart.

It was in the latter part of 1958—with East and West in a cold war growing colder—that Eisenhower and Dulles decided they needed something different, or as Eisenhower put it as his news conference this week:

"We began to feel that the methods we were pursuing had to be reinforced by something a little differently than we had been doing up to this moment."

That is the end—in this story—of Eisenhower's recollections.

There can be no doubt Dulles was far better informed on foreign affairs than the President. Eisenhower had spent a lifetime soldiering. Dulles has spent his life in diplomacy and law.

Eisenhower never pretended he did not depend on Dulles to handle details.

The President, besides repeatedly saying Dulles was the greatest secretary of state in his memory, once said he had "acquired a wisdom and experience and knowledge that I think is possessed by no man—no man in the world."

From this it seems safe to assume Dulles was Eisenhower's guide in the foreign affairs jungle, that he therefore greatly influenced the President, and that it was natural for Eisenhower, who so respected his wisdom, to accept his ideas.

There never seemed much question it was Dulles who dominated American foreign policy. But Eisenhower and Dulles were not innovators. Their foreign policy was not original with them. They inherited it from the Truman-Acheson administration.

Simply put, this was it: stiff-arm the Soviets and keep them surrounded with military bases and alliances to discourage Soviet aggression.

But, since Eisenhower depended so much on Dulles, it might seem that after Dulles' death in May Eisenhower was forced to rely more on himself, and as a result became much more free-wheeling.

His decision to invite Premier Nikita Khrushchev here might be taken as an example. This is not necessarily proof of a more free-wheeling attitude on Eisenhower's part.

Just remember that he said he and Dulles, in late 1958, decided they had better try something different. So this was a joint decision, not one by Eisenhower alone.

At most, inviting Khrushchev here—the the evidence now known—is simply a switch in tactics in dealing with the Russians, not a change in strategy. Eisenhower simply said he and Dulles wanted to try something a "little" different.

Eisenhower has not said whether inviting Khrushchev here was the kind of change Dulles and he had in mind in 1958. But he has indicated Dulles would have approved it.

So, American foreign policy as of now, including the invitation to Khrushchev, is still the Eisenhower-Dulles policy, not something new by Eisenhower.

Close Watch Kept On Mutual Funds

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Fast-growing mutual funds and the part they play in the stock market are one of the most talked about phenomena in the postwar financial world.

And today you may be wondering what part they are taking in this week's roller coaster market. Traders outside the funds themselves closely watch what stocks the funds buy and sell and how they change their portfolios, notably over the years, and show much total holdings have grown.

When traders rush to sell stocks as they did Monday, who is it that buys them? Someone has to or there couldn't have been some four million shares sold.

In Wall Street the belief is that a sizable part of the buying was done by mutual funds, always on the search for bargains, and noticeably more active during previous market breaks.

The funds steadily get more money to invest. Some of this money comes from one-shot investments by the public.

But a lot of it comes from steady investment under accumulation plans calling for purchase of mutual fund shares at more or less regular periods.

A peek at how one big mutual fund has changed its portfolio over the years—getting out of whole industries, and stocking up on others that have bloomed in recent years is afforded today by Dwight P. Robinson Jr., chairman of Massachusetts Investors Trust, Boston.

When the fund started in June 1924 it had $29,300 to invest and its common stock portfolio held shares of 45 companies, only 15 of them in the present portfolio of 121 common stocks.

Robinson notes what has happened to holdings of six prominent ones. Originally MIT had 10 shares of U.S. Steel valued at $971.50; 10 of GM at $670; 10 of Eastman Kodak at $1,077.75; 10 of Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe at $1,041.50; 20 of Texas Co. at $780.5, and 5 of National Lead at $729.1: 3

Eastman Kodak is the only one of the six that has been in the portfolio continuously over the 53 years. Through stock splits the original 10 shares by March 1959 had grown to 77, valued at about $11,802.

If MIT had kept the original shares of National Lead they would have grown to 549, valued at about $62,791.

All six of the stocks named are again in MIT's portfolio today, but in much larger amounts: 560,000 shares of U.S. Steel valued at 55 million dollars; 721,000 of GM at 37 million; 222,000 shares of Eastman Kodak at 19 million; 775,000 of Santa Fe at 23½ million; 527,100 of Texaco at $42½ million, and 128,112 of National Lead at nearly 16 million dollars.

Andy Williams Is Like TV Mirage

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Andy Williams has been such a standout in the desert of summer television that some people are convinced he must be a mirage.

Moguls from the networks, Broadway and Hollywood have been knocking on his door and crying, "Open in the name of opportunity."

But the pleasant voiced, finger-snapping young baritone isn't a man to be rushed off his feet by love or money.

"You can't afford to make too many mistakes," he said. "But I think opportunity knocks more than once. You just have to have an ear for the right knock.

Andy, at 28, already has had a long ride on the roller coaster of show business. He started singing at 8. In 1952, he was making only $175 a week at a night club here. Now his income is in the six-figure bracket. Eight of his 10 records have been smash hits.

He is considering two bids for an hour-long TV show, two movie offers, and a bid from Broadway.

"I'd like to try a Broadway show," he admitted. "But for me it's a completely different field. You have to sing bigger. You can't croon and get by on Broadway."

Andy, who hails from Wall Lake, Ia., looks and acts like just what he is — a boy from the Midwest who has made good in the big city, and still feels at home in either place.

"The biggest fear of anyone in show business today is not to wear out his welcome in a couple of years," he said.

"It's better not to get too big all of a sudden. I think it's better to build gradually — and hope to last longer."

His easy-going air is the fruit of endless painstaking. He rehearses 48 hours for a one-hour show.

Andy lives alone in a small East Side apartment, likes to collect modern art, and play golf. He is in no hurry to give up his bachelor freedom.

Helicopter Pilot Is Fatally Injured

NEW YORK (AP)—A Texas pilot was fatally injured Thursday when his Army helicopter hit the top of an apartment building on Governor's Island while coming in for a landing.

The pilot, Warrant Officer Lester G. Bundrick, 30, Henderson, Tex., died at an Army hospital.

Youth Runs Down Boy, 13

NEW YORK (AP)—Barry Goldenberg, 16, has been accused of deliberately running down a 13-year-old boy during a wild auto ride.

The victim is Peter Ramos, who suffered a broken pelvis, broken leg and internal injuries. His condition was described as "still critical but slightly improved" today.

Police gave this account:

Goldenberg borrowed the car of a relative, Arnie Geller, Thursday, rounded up six friends, and set out to find some youths who recently beat up two of Goldenberg's friends.

Patrolman Kevin Pettus said that while cruising around, Goldenberg deliberately swerved the car toward a group of children at play.

After the child was hit, the car sped off. Pettus commandeered another car and crowded Goldenberg's auto to the curb.

Geller was given a summons charging him with permitting an unlicensed person to operate his car. Goldenberg was charged with felonious assault, leaving the scene of an accident and driving without a license.

The pelican gets its name from the Greek. Its huge beak is shaped like the Greek pelekus, an axe.

State Little League Meet Opens Tonight

Play will get underway at 5:30 p.m. today in the first game of the State Little League Tournament, which will be played on the Little League field in Towle Memorial Park.

Galveston Western will meet the Longview American all - stars in the first game, and matched in the second game, to start at 7:30 p.m. are Highland Park National of San Antonio and the Hereford all-stars.

Finals in the tourney are scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Saturday. The winner of the state tourney here will fly to Norfolk, Va., for the Southern Region tourney, which will be held next Thursday through Saturday. All expenses of teams going to that tournament will be paid by the Little League. Winners of regional tournaments will go to the Little League World Series at Williamsport, Pa.

Managers and other officials of each team met here last night with Ed Patton of Rotan, state tourney director, and Leland (Mutt) Herod of Snyder, assistant director, to draw for tournament pairings and to review special tournament rules.

The Chamber of Commerce recreation committee, which is working with Little League officials in the tournament here, has scheduled a barbecue in the Towle Park pavilion after tonight's games for all the tournament teams and for the all-star teams of Snyder's two Little Leagues.

Several service clubs are also aiding by sponsoring team breakfast. The Optimist Club sponsored breakfast for the Galveston team, which represents an Optimist-sponsored league, today at the Country Club and will sponsor another breakfast for the team tomorrow at Carlos' El Rancho.

One breakfast for the Hereford team at the Village is being sponsored by the Rotary Club. The Longview team is being sponsored at one breakfast at the restaurant of its choice by the Downtown Lions Club. The Kiwanis Club is sponsoring the San Antonio team at one breakfast at Sallie's Dining Room.

The tournament expenses here are being handled by the Snyder Little Leagues and the Chamber of Commerce, none to be taken out of collections for the teams at the tournaments. Tournament games are free for fans, but collection buckets are passed among the fans in each game, as is done in regular league games, and each team shares in the collection.

There is seating at the Little League field, including that in temporary bleachers moved to the field, for about 1,000 persons, plus space for cars to park within view of the field.

The four teams in the state tournament represent some 400 leagues of 1,600 teams in Texas, or about 24,000 boys. All other all - star teams from leagues in Texas were eliminated in preliminary tournaments. Each of the teams coming here has won an area, district and sectional tourney.

Along the tourney route the Galveston Western defeated Galveston Central, Galveston Eastern, Baytown, Texas City, Northeast Houston, and downed Port Arthur 9-7 in sectional finals. A Galveston team went to the Little League World Series in 1954, where it lost in its first game. Murry Proctor, who managed that all - star team, is among the Galveston fans in Snyder for the state tourney.

Hereford downed Muleshoe in area finals and Littlefield in district finals before playing two shutout games in the sectional tournament at Brownfield, defeating Lubbock Southern 4-0 and Pecos 2-0 in finals. There has not been an earned run scored against Hereford in its six tournament games so far. Among Hereford Little League officials in Snyder for the tourney is Joel Hodges, banker who was formerly manager of the Production Credit Association in Snyder.

Highland Park National of San Antonio downed Harlandale 3-2, Lackland Gateway 10-3, Highland Hills 6-2, Los Angeles Heights 5-1, Pleasanton 5-1, and beat Kingsville 7-3 in sectional finals at Kingsville.

Victories were logged by Longview American over Marshall American, Marshall National, Greggton, Garland and Austin.

GPL Games Rained Out

LUFKIN (Spl.) —Rain last night forced postponement of games in the Region 8 Graduate Pony League Tournament.

Snyder and Southwest Houston, which were scheduled to meet last night, were playing today in a game starting at 2:30 p.m.

Also to play today were Lufkin and South San Antonio, the only two undefeated teams in the tourney.

The winner of the Snyder-Houston game is to be matched with the loser of the Lufkin - San Antonio game in the double elimination tourney.

The team which wins that game will go against the winner of the Lufkin - San Antonio game tomorrow evening, and if the team from the loser's bracket wins that game a second game will be necessary to determine the region championship.

Snyder lost to South San Antonio 7-4 in the first game of the tourney but began a comeback by downing Garland 10-7 the following night. Garland had lost to the Houston team in the first round 4-1. The Houston team then lost to Lufkin 7-1 in a second round game.

If Missouri beats Kansas in football this fall (Nov. 21) their series will be tied at 30 victories each. Eight games ended in ties.

Musial Near End Of Trail

By JOE REICHLER

Two on and two out, St. Louis batting in the bottom of the ninth, trailing 7-6.

A perfect spot for Stan Musial. But that was yesteryear. Instead of Musial coming up to hit in that spot, the batter was rookie first baseman Gene Oliver, Stan's replacement. Musial? He was sitting on the bench.

The fact that Oliver struck out ending the game is not important. The tragedy of it is that Musial, the greatest hitter in the National League in our time, was deemed too much of a risk to send up in that crucial spot.

In fairness to Solly Hemus, the aggressive Cardinal manager probably was fearful of shattering kid Oliver's confidence. After all, it was Oliver who ignited the Cards' last-ditch five-run rally with a homer in the ninth. Pinch hitter George Crowe followed a few moments later with a grand-slam homer.

Just before the game, General Manager Bing Devine announced that the 38-year-old Musial would be benched for much of the rest of the season in favor of the much younger Oliver.

The Dodger victory lifted them into second place 2½ games behind the San Francisco Giants, who dropped a 20-9 slugfest to the Chicago Cubs, and half- a game in front of the Milwaukee Braves, who were beaten 9-8 by Cincinnati. Pittsburgh and Philadelphia were idle.

Chicago's White Sox maintained their 2¼-game lead over Cleveland in the American League, shutting out Detroit 9-0 while the Indians were defeating Kansas City 5-2.

Los Angeles southpaw Sandy Koufax took a 7-1 lead into the ninth. But it took two more pitchers to stop the Cards.

The loser was Bob Miller.

Brooks Lawrence, third Cincinnati pitcher in the ninth, forced Eddie Mathews to foul out with the bases full to preserve the Reds' victory. The Braves, trailing 8-0 after four innings, battled back and were trailing 9-5 as they came to bat in the ninth. Singles by Henry Aaron, Joe Adcock, Johnny Logan and pinch hitter Stan Lopata, and a double by pinch hitter Andy Pafko accounted for the three runs.

Frank Robinson hit a grand-slam homer and batted in a fifth run with a sacrifice fly to lead the Reds' attack against loser Bob Buhl and four relievers.

The Cubs pounded seven Giant pitchers for 19 hits, good for 40 total bases to set a season scoring high in a game that lasted 3 hours and 50 minutes, longest nine-inning game in league history. Rookie George Altman paced the Cubs with two homers, three singles and five runs batted in.

Net Tourney Play Starts

Play got underway here last night in the Scurry County Tennis Tournament, which is being sponsored by Von Roeder Seed Farms, the Girls Recreation Program and the Chamber of Commerce recreation committee.

A total of 15 matches were played last night on the courts in Towle Memorial Park in six of the tournament's seven divisions.

Play will resume tonight, probably through semi - finals rounds. Finals will be played Saturday night, according to James Wesson, tourney director.

Trophies will be awarded to winners of each division by Von Roeder Seed Farms.

Results of last night's matches:

All-Stars Set For Daring Strategy

By CHARLES HAMBECRLAIN

CHICAGO (AP) — A daring, gambling strategy may be the collegiate All Stars best bet tonight against the professional football savvy of the Baltimore Colts.

The oddsmakers believe the National Football League champions are in the proper frame of mind to hand the graduated heroes of the campus a licking.

Baltimore is favored by 17 points in the 26th annual game before upward of 70,000 fans in Soldier Field.

It will be televised and broadcast by ABC starting at 8:30 p.m. EST.

The pro champions have won 15 previous contests, lost 8 and tied 2. Last year, head coach Otto Graham's All Stars triumphed 35-19 over Detroit in the best offensive display shown by the collegians.

But Graham had a wealth of deep manpower then that enabled him to substitute by units. He has been forced to spike this tactic this time, inserting players individually from his stockpile of 49 men.

One of four All Star quarterbacks will have to come through in exceptional fashion to lead an aerial attack believed necessary to surmount the Colts' defense.

Quarterbacks include Lee Grosscup of Utah, Buddy Humphrey of Baylor, Bob Newman of Washington State and Bob Ptacek of Michigan.

These standout passers have fine receivers in such players as Buddy Dial, Rice; Rich Kreitling, Illinois; Dave Sherer, Southern Methodist, and Boyd Dowler, Colorado.

For heavy ball-lugging work Graham has fullback Larry Hickman of Baylor and Nick Pietrosante of Notre Dame, and such classy halfbacks as Pittsburgh's Dick Haley and Houston's Don Brown.

It will take luck and daring for the All Stars to outsocre the Colts, who were impressive in a short drill under the light in Soldier Field Thursday night.

(Question) "What is taught in the Bible concerning the doctrine of the 'second blessing'?"

Answer: Nothing! This is a term used by certain groups to refer to the baptism of the Holy Spirit. There are many secondary blessings that come as a result of having one's sins washed away; one of these is found in Acts 2:3 which states that after the remission of sins one will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. A misunderstanding of this would lead one to believe that he was to be baptized by the Holy Spirit. One must remember that the baptism of the Holy Ghost, or Spirit, was never a command but rather, a promise. One cannot obey a promise. There are only two accounts of anyone receiving the baptism of the Holy Ghost. One is in Acts 2 and the other is in Acts 10. Each of the accounts shows the initiation of certain groups into the church, or kingdom of God. God has always started a thing by miracle but continued it by law. The first fire on the alter of burnt offering was started by miracle but was continued by law. Men were started, or created, by miracle but continue by law. The first members of the church of Christ were placed there by miracle (baptism of the Holy Spirit) but in order to become a member today one must be obedient to the law of God through Christ. The first Jews were placed in the church by miracle (Acts 2) and the first Gentiles were placed in the church by miracle (Acts 10). If you want to receive the Gift of the Holy Spirit, or indwelling of the Holy Spirit, today you must be obedient to God. The Spirit of God and Christ, or the Holy Spirit dwells in one today through the learning of God's word and the obedience to that word. These people referred to in the first of the article, those believing in the "second blessing", call it sanctification. We are told in 1 Pet. 1:22 how that we are sanctified, or purified. Anything purified is sanctfied. This passage of scripture says, "Seeing ye have purified your souls in OBEYING THE TRUTH ." Notice that it was not done by being baptized of the Holy Ghost but by obeying the truth.

CHURCH NEWS

ABOUT 40 young people of the First Baptist Church will present "Shout" a religious drama based on the Biblical account of Joshua and the falling of the walls of Jericho at 7:45 p.m. Wednesday at the church. The church choir will assist in the drama, written by Dan Bohannan and directed by Shirley Ramsey. Among those in the cast, left to right, are Keitha Walton, Donna Lenoir, Kathy Mott, Chapman Mott and Rudy Crabtree, Jr., shown looking at a promotional poster.

Colonial Hill 5 Years Old

Sunday is the fifth anniversary of the Colonial Hill Baptist Church.

The church, in observance of the anniversary, has a goal of $5,000 in its new building fund for a new educational wing by Sunday. Plans are underway at the church for additional plant facilities in the near future.

Starting five years ago with 69 charter members, the church now has a membership of 517.

During the five-year period the church has received 716 into its membership by letter and baptism. The Sunday school enrollment has grown from 87 in 1954 to 630 now, and training union enrollment has increased from 70 to 359.

Less than 5 per cent of enlisted men in World War I had finished high school. In World War II more than 23 per cent were high school graduates.

6 TEST QUESTIONS

THE Great Teacher painted a picture of the final Judgment. To the amazement of His hearers, He said the test questions would be six:

Did you feed the hungry? Did you give drink to the thirsty?
Did you welcome the stranger? Did you clothe the naked?
Did you visit the sick? Did you help men in prison?

Had there been a seventh question, surely, it would have been — "Do you attend church regularly?" See the two faces . . . simple, but a great transaction is taking place. If you have been sick a week, or two, or three — then you understand. Living eyes are always hungry and to serve them is rich living. Why wait to give expensive wreaths and sprays until those eyes have closed in death? Attend church this week.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these glorious years. Therefore, with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. You in the Church and the Church in you form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Jap Had Plan For Punishing U.S., But Nations Lost War

By JAMES CARY

TOKYO (AP) — Fourteen years ago Saturday (Japanese time) World War II ended with the surrender of Japan. What would have happened to America if Japan had won?

The United States reduced to its original 13 states?

Alaska returned to the Soviet Union?

California taken over by Japan?

Compulsory Japanese education in American schools?

Execution of American war leaders?

These and other possibilities were explored in the Japanese magazine Shukan Bunshun this week in what it said was a reprint of an article that originally appeared in the magazine Senden three months before the fighting ended in 1945. Shukan Bunshun, one of Japan's most popular publications with a circulation of 600,000, called the article "foolish writing."

The author of the 1945 article, whose identity was not disclosed, had titled his article, "A Proposal for the Punishment of America." It was written shortly after the death of President Roosevelt and during the great B29 fire bomb raids on Japanese cities.

"There isn't one among us who doesn't long for the day when Japanese planes too will be bombing the American mainlands," the article said.

Japan should bring America to its knees and then impose numerous reforms, it continued, and predicted: "U.S. presidents will not be allowed to remain in office more than two consecutive terms. Those like Roosevelt, who was elected four times, should be punished. But since Roosevelt is dead, his family will be punished instead. . .

"America will compensate for damage inflicted on Japan . . . iron, oil, flour, shrimp . . . lumber for homes in Tokyo to be rebuilt."

The author said Hollywood movies had poisoned Japan so Hollywood would have to be shut down. He called for the execution of Gen. Curtis LeMay, whose planes were bombing Japan, and the punishment of former U.S. Ambassador Joseph Grew, Adm. Chester Nimitz and Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

"America's greedy world ambitions were caused by inadequate education in the moral and spiritual fields," the article continued. "Therefore Japanese educators must be sent to the United States to teach.

"Japanese language courses will be compulsory in all levels of education . . ."

The writer said all American territory taken from Mexico would be returned to that nation.

"But California and Hawaii will come under Japanese jurisdiction," he said. "This will prevent these people from reviving any ambitions in the Pacific."

The author concluded it would be best not to impose too harsh conditions.

"Americans have their vulgar and inferior points," he said. "But they, too, have the ability to contribute to the future welfare of mankind. One should not think of exterminating them."

Fouled-Up Fowl Found

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—A Tampa housewife went to her freezer and pulled out a fouled-up fowl—the chicken had three hearts.

Mrs. Margaret MacKie said she cut into the chicken and discovered the hearts, each about the size of a quarter. They were connected by a thin membrane which was attached to the liver.

Dr. Wayne Neal, a genetics specialist, said the connecting membrane ruled out the possibility that the hearts were stuffed into the chicken after it was cleaned and dressed.

"It's one of those mutations that will happen once in a million years," Neal said.

Board President Is Barred From School

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — School Board President Everett Tucker Jr. didn't get to visit Hall High School Thursday. He left his identification card at home and police wouldn't let him through.

Tucker said officers told him there were no exceptions to the no-card-no-admittance rule.

Identification cards were issued to students and faculty members to allow them to pass through police lines set up around the schools to prevent disorder during integration of two high schools.

Editor Skates' Into Dallas

DALLAS (AP)—Jim [illegible], the skating editor from Memphis, Tenn., was due in Dallas some time today.

Cortese, 41, just to break life's monotony, is attempting to skate across Texas, from Shreveport, La., to Hobbs, N.M. He started his lone jaunt Sunday and has averaged about 30 miles per day.

Last night he stayed in the city park on the west side of Terrell, Tex., about 30 miles east of Dallas.

It became apparent today that if Cortese is to finish his trip on roller skates, the Memphis Commercial-Appeal may have to extend his two-week vacation. He's still about 400 miles east of Hobbs when he leaves Dallas.

Yesterday he said he planned to stay in Dallas Saturday night and resume his trip Sunday via [illegible] to Fort Worth and thence by U. S. 180 to Hobbs.

At the Wright Brothers National Memorial on North Carolina's Outer Banks there is a replica of the workshop they used in 1903 when preparing for their famous flight.

Worker Confesses He Killed Woman

PITTSBURG (AP) — A 28-year-old Lone Star Steel Co. employe from Pittsburgh has admitted shooting to death Mrs. Glenis Lee Gandy, 25, in her home here early Thursday.

Camp County Sheriff H. H. Loveless said that the man is being held in county jail awaiting charging for murder.

The woman was found shot in the head in her bedroom about 6:15 a.m. when officers arrived. The suspect was arrested shortly afterward.

Mrs. Gandy was an employe of [illegible] Bell Telephone Co. in Mount Pleasant.

Couple Killed In Traffic Accident

SAN ANGELO (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rector Henderson were killed yesterday when their station wagon overturned.

Highway patrolmen, who said the wreck was caused by a tire blowout, placed the site as about 27 miles northeast of Eagle Pass.

Henderson, 70, owned a 19,000-acre ranch on which oil was found in 1956 near Vancourt, Tex.

Husky Ex-Con Nonchalantly Admits Long Island Slaying

ISLIP, N. Y. (AP)—A husky former convict who told police he derived pleasure from killing was held today in three brutal robbery-slayings in which he got about $400.

"If I had had more bullets I would have shot more people," 27-year-old-Francis H. Bloeth was quoted as saying.

Bloeth has a psychiatric record dating back to early childhood.

He loved to strangle cats even as a child, it was said.

The director of a correctional institution for youngsters, in which Bloeth once had been confined, said: "It was impossible to do anything with him. He once told us 'I get a thrill out of killing. I love to strangle.'"

Suffolk County Dist. Atty. John P. Cohalan said Bloeth nonchalantly admitted gunning down three persons within eight days in this Long Island area.

Bloeth's attorney, Sidney R. Siben, said his client had shown no remorse in admitting the killings.

Siben said Bloeth told him he threw the murder weapons — a 32-caliber revolver and a .32-caliber automatic—into Lake Ronkonkoma and into a ditch alongside a county road. Cohalan ordered an immediate search for the weapons.

Ballistics tests show two of the killings were committed with a revolver and the other with an automatic.

Robert Walsh, 21, an ex-convict pal, put the finger on Bloeth early this week. Walsh said he sold the revolver to Bloeth six months ago and the automatic to him only four hours before the third slaying—that of Mrs. Irene Currier, 50, of West Yaphank, slain Aug. 8 in a diner she operated at Westhampton.

Bloeth had steadfastly denied the slayings. Both Bloeth and Walsh took lie detector tests, but the results were not announced.

In all three slayings the victims were alone late at night. The first murder occurred July 31 with the shooting of Islip grocer Hans Hachman, 54. The other victim was counterman Lawrence Kircher, 53, slain Aug. 5 in a Smithtown diner.

The holdup killings netted less than $400.

Bloeth had been picked up and held without bail on charges of robbing a tavern of $60 July 22—a crime not connected with the slayings.

Walsh, who has served time for burglary and an attack on a policeman, was charged with violation of the Sullivan (antiweapons) law after admitting having owned the two guns used in the murders.

Authorities said Bloeth's confession first was gained from him by his wife Jane, mother of their 7-month-old daughter.

Bloeth has been described as a psycopath who strangled cats and loved to tell lies. He was an inmate in the State Training School for Boys in Warwick, N.Y., from November 1946 to May 1947.

A. Alfred Cohen, director of the school, said of Bloeth: "It was impossible to do anything with him. He once told us 'I get a thrill out of killing. I love to strangle.'"

Cohen said Bloeth escaped twice from the institution, and before being returned, burglarized restaurants.

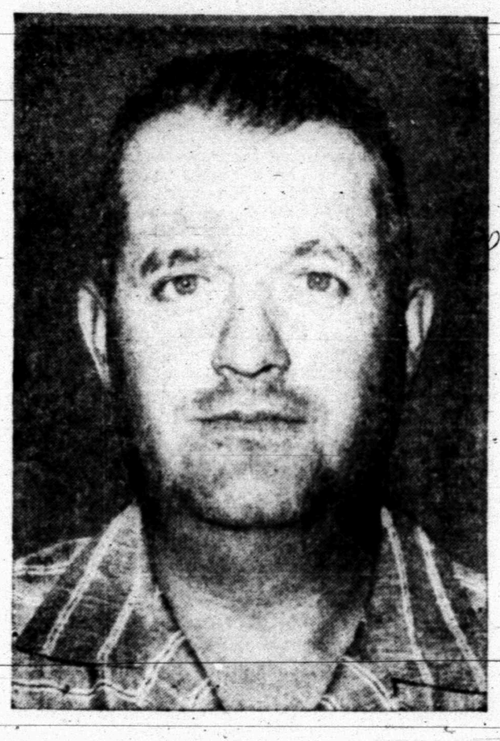

Bloeth's wife and his mother Mrs. Mary Bloeth have said that Bloeth suffered head injuries from a fall during boyhood and that he frequently blacked out.
