WAGES AND PRICES

About 15 months ago Mr. Henry Wallace, then Secretary of Commerce under President Truman, asserted that wages in the automobile industry could go up 30 per cent without prices of cars going up at all. It wasn't true, as all informed people knew at the time. But the statement tended to gain public support.

At least the statement helped gain public toleration for a long strike, which ended with about a 20 per cent raise in wages. But even then the OPA was immediately convinced that increases in prices were made necessary. Little by little OPA raised the prices in cars until it had granted an average increase of 22 per cent.

At least the statement helped gain public toleration for a long strike, which ended with about a 20 per cent raise in wages. But even then the OPA was immediately convinced that increases in prices were made necessary. Little by little OPA raised the prices in cars until it had granted an average increase of 22 per cent.

Some labor leaders are maintaining that wages in general can go up about 25 per cent without increasing prices. From last year's experience the public will quite readily understand that if wages go up again, prices must also go up. This is the interest of workers and the rest of the public for prices keep going up and up?

Some unions are now declaring that the raises they got last year are already neutralized by increased prices of the things they must buy. This is identically true. Now if another raise in wages is granted, only to be followed by a still greater rise in prices, workers will be better off. In fact they, and the rest of us, will be worse off. Higher prices will finally use buying to drop off. Then they will begin to drop off, leading to unemployment and finally to depression.

There is a way for everybody to gain—both workers and the general public. That way is for management and workers to cooperate to increase production so effectively that goods will become plentiful and prices will go down.

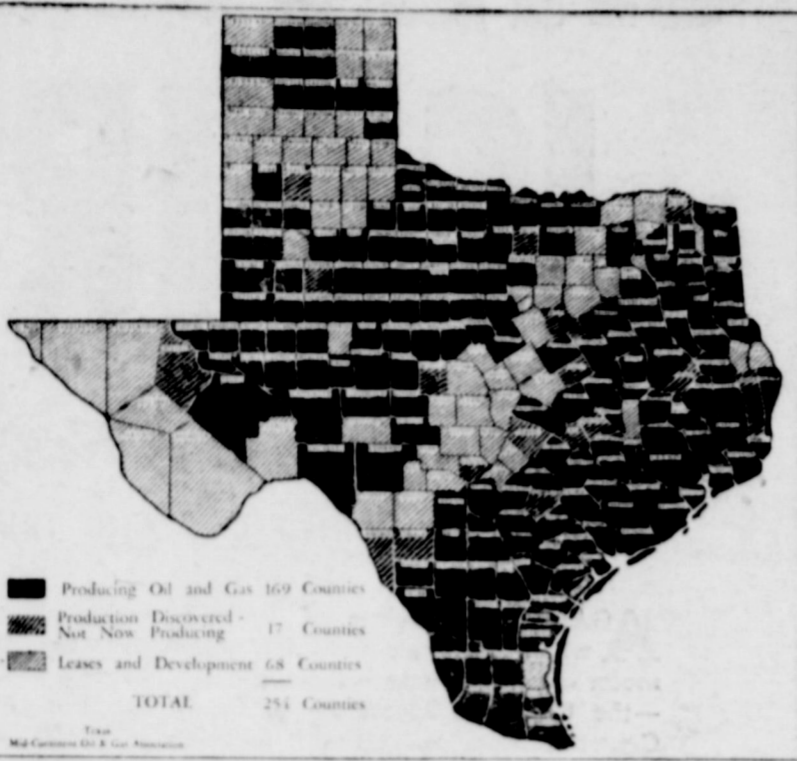

Then the workers will have the equivalent of a real raise in wages because their present wages will buy more food and clothing. All of the public will benefit in the same way. This is sound economics. But for wages keep going up and up, only to be followed by prices going up and up, it is unfortunate for workers and everybody else.

If we want to destroy the American economic order and force our country into state socialism that is the way to do it. Fifteen months ago many wondered seriously if Henry Wallace believed that wages could go up 30 per cent in any industry without prices going up. Many wonder if any informed people really think wages can go up 25 per cent without raises in prices. If we try it we will learn the hard way.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robert and daughter, Beth of El Paso were visitors here last Friday. They were enroute to San Antonio for a visit with his mother and his sister, Mrs. E. Heinke and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Banner were in town Wednesday and Thursday from the Banner ranch on the Pecos.

Mrs. Alice Turner is visiting Balmorhea with her son George Turner and family.

Each of Texas' 254 counties currently is producing or has produced oil or gas, or has land under lease for oil and gas development, a new map prepared January 1 by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association shows.

Texas oil and gas counties number 169, while former petroleum counties total 17. The 68 others have land leased for oil and gas exploration and development. Counties added to the oil column include Edwards, Knox and Madison, where recent discoveries were made, and Newton, Nolan and Walker, which had shows earlier, but which reported their first production last year.

Nearly 54,000,000 acres, or virtually one-third the entire land area of Texas, is now under lease for oil and gas development. Texas farmers, ranchers and other land-owners receive around $215,000,000 a year in lease and royalty payments, the Association reported. This extra "cash crop" totals more than two billion dollars for the past twenty-five years, or nearly one-seventh of the value of all Texas agricultural crops during the period.

Cold Norther Hits Rain, Snow, Sleet Falls Thursday

A cold norther blew into town early Thursday morning and soon after daylight it began to rain and by noon sleet began to fall. During the afternoon rain, sleet and snow fell intermittently and the thermometer began to tumble getting into the low thirties.

Late in the afternoon, the snow and sleet began to stay on the ground as the thermometer dropped to below freezing.

Reports from west of here were that there was heavy sleet, ice and snow.

Warm, but cloudy weather, had prevailed here previous to the cold spell that hit Thursday.

Governor-Elect Beauford Jester pledged every co-operation in the annual March of Dimes sponsored by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. He is pictured with George D. Wilson, Texas chairman for the fund-raising campaign, which is now under way throughout Texas and will continue through January 30. George Waverly Briggs of Dallas and W. L. Clayton of Houston and Washington also are serving as Texas chairmen.

W. W. Sudduth will again head the March of Dimes campaign for Terrell County which opened on Wednesday of this week and will continue through January 30.

Citizens of Sanderson and Terrell County are again being asked to do their share in the unending fight against infantile paralysis in this annual March of Dimes. Although not assigned any special quota it is hoped that a substantial sum will be raised to contribute to the State fund.

A proclamation setting the latter half of January aside for the annual appeal was signed by Governor Coke Stevenson in the presence of Governor-Elect Beauford Jester and George D. Wilson of Houston, Texas, chairman of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Wilson points out that the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is totally dependent on the American people; it has no endowment or other means of financing its work. During the nine years of its existence, millions have been spent to equip hospitals, care for victims and carry on research into the cause and possible cure of polio.

Those who wish to make a contribution to this work while a cause may leave same with W. W. Sudduth, local chairman.

Locker Food Plant Being Constructed By Turner Bros.

Jack and Frank Turner have begun the construction of a locker plant that is to be located next door to their store on Highway 90 east of town.

The concrete foundation has already been completed and work on the erection of the walls has begun. The building will be of frame stucco with insulated walls. There will be 200 frozen food lockers installed, each with a capacity of three hundred pounds.

It is to be hoped that the plant will be completed within the next two months and the lockers installed by that time.

Burp's right leg was badly lacerated and the dog's teeth sank into the flesh very deeply. The accident occurred near the bridge which is across Sanderson Canyon in the East part of town.

Only as you adjust yourself to conditions as you find them will you be able to advance.

Deadline is Near For Ex-Servicemen To Renew Insurance

January 31 is the deadline for reinstatement of lapsed National Service Life Insurance policies without a physical examination. Jack Hayre, service officer of the local American Legion post, this week called attention to this fact and urged all veterans of World War II to act before it is too late.

Hayre has in his office in the court house the necessary application blanks. All a veteran has to do to reinstate his insurance is pay two monthly premiums and certify that he is in as good health as when the policy was issued.

After January 31, veterans wishing to reinstate lapsed insurance will be required to undergo a physical examination, the results of which could possibly eliminate their chances at government insurance.

Eagles Lose Hard Fought Game To Marathon Tuesday

Nosed out by a score of 18 to 25 the Eagles met defeat in their first district encounter when they played Marathon here Tuesday night. Jessup was the high point man for the evening's game, accounting for 9 points.

Lack of ability to hit the goal was costly and the main reason for the loss of the game.

The Junior team, playing the Marathon team also lost their game of the evening by a score of 22 to 9.

The girls Volleyball team played the Marathon team three games and won one game out of the three.

Friday night the Eagles will journey to Ft. Davis for their second district encounter of the season.

Stockton Friday afternoon for Longfellow in the truck and trailer, which was recently donated to the 4-H Club boys by the American Legion of Ft. Stockton, and will arrive in time to prepare their stock for the show Saturday morning.

Following the exhibit of the calves and lambs Saturday morning the stock will remain at Longfellow over the weekend and will be taken from there early Monday morning for Houston where they will be shown. There will be 5 calves and 15 lambs that will be shown in Longfellow and later taken to Houston.

Billy Gene Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hill of Longfellow will have one calf on exhibit.

Eagles Place Fourth In Tournament Held Saturday at Eldorado

Playing Menard they won the game by a score of 14 to 12 and lost to Lakeview, tournament champs, 32-11 and dropped a 33-27 encounter to Eldorado for fourth place in the field of ten teams. Lakeview won the tournament and stopped Del Rio, Sonora and Ozona to win the honors.

Veterans' News

Q—Is a veteran of World War II entitled to emergency ambulance service to a VA hospital or other government hospital in which VA has beds allocated, if the occasion arises?

A—Yes. When a veteran or his representative contacts a field station requesting emergency ambulance service, the chief medical officer or his designate will get all information possible about the case and will grant authority, if warranted.

Q—I was captured by the enemy during World War II and was in a prisoner of war camp for 15 months but my claim for disability has been denied by Veterans Administration. What can I do now that the disability is getting worse?

A—Veterans Administration will give special consideration to disability claims filed by veterans interned in enemy prison camps. You should get in touch with your nearest VA office and have your case reopened.

Q—I am going to school under the G. I. Bill. My eyes didn't bother me while I was in service, but they bother me now when I try to do very much studying. Will VA pay for a reader to read some of my textbooks assignments to me?

A—No. Veterans with visual impairment are eligible for reader service only if they are enrolled under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act. (Public Law 16).

HEALTH NOTES—

AUSTIN, Texas, January 16.—Pellagra, although not a communicable disease, is one of great concern to public health officials in Texas for many people die of pellagra in this state every year. The disease is caused by the lack of certain essential foods, and as it comes on slowly may not be recognized until the victim begins to have the more serious symptoms such as sore mouth, stomach trouble, and reddening and scaling of the skin.

"When these symptoms appear, the disease has been present for some time," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. "The longer an individual has pellagra the harder it is to cure. It is advisable, therefore, to watch for the early symptoms such as nervousness, indigestion, and burning of the hands and feet, and if these symptoms appear, treatment should be instituted at once. In its advanced stages pellagra may become so severe as to not only cause physical suffering but seriously affect the mind."

Pellagra is not contagious, Dr. Cox pointed out, and he emphasized that it can be prevented entirely by including the right kinds of foods in the daily diet. These essential foods include milk, fresh meat, whole wheat products, brewer's yeast, salmon, as well as tomatoes and other fresh fruits and vegetables. The inclusion of these foods in the daily diet will prevent pellagra, and as in the case of any disease, it is better to prevent it than to try to cure it.

Mrs. C. P. Peavy spent Wednesday in Pecos where she attended a district meeting of the executive board of the Fifteenth District of Parents-Teachers Association which was held at Hotel Brandon.

Veterans Administration is attempting to restore nearly 160,000 disabled veterans to employability under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act (Public Law 16).

Total rainfall for Eagle Pass and vicinity during 1946 was 26.15 inches. C. P. Dodge, CPL ice-plant manager and local weather-man, reported today. This is "just about average," he said. The statistical average for Maverick County is 22 inches of rain a year, County Agent W. M. Sellers stated.

QUALITY IN A MEMORIAL

Quality is not something that can be argued into a monument or promised into it. To begin, the material must have it. In the finish and the lettering, it must be placed there. The finest sales talk will not act as a substitute. Rock of Ages means quality, and the Rock of Ages seal is your absolute assurance of the finest material and the supreme quality of craftsmanship.

To America's Producers, America's Thanks!

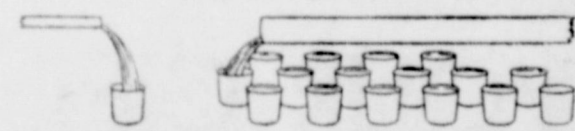

As this new year begins, America's ranchers and farmers are busy with their winter work—feeding and caring for their livestock. And all America is again properly grateful to you who produce the food to keep us the world's best fed people.

To you who ride the range from Montana to Texas . . . whose teams and tractors till the nation's fertile acres . . . who have labored hard, long hours . . . who, with soil and seed, sunshine and rain, grass and grain, have achieved miracle after miracle of food production—to you America gives thanks! Thanks for the part you have had in all-time record crops of wheat and corn . . . for bumper yields of small grains . . . for livestock numbers at high levels . . . for soaring dairy and poultry production. This abundance of food which you have produced means better nutrition for millions of families—because good nutrition is just good food that's good for you.

Vital as it is, production is only part of the nutritional job. Food must be processed. It has to be transported from surplus-producing areas to the markets where there are great numbers of people to eat it. Here is where Swift & Company comes into the picture. It's our job to provide many of the services required in bringing the foods which you produce to the dinner tables of the nation. Together we are in a vitally important industry. Because nutrition is our business and yours, together we can help build a stronger, healthier America.

Things are NOT always as they seem

A 1-inch pipe and a 4-inch pipe run water into gallon pails. It seems as if the 4-inch pipe would fill 4 times as many pails in a given time. The truth is that it will fill 16 gallon pails while the 1-inch pipe is filling one.

When you read something like this: "Meat in commercial storage on January 1 was about 590,000,000 pounds", it sounds like a lot of meat.

Soda Bill Sez:

... that labor saved is money made. ... speak well of your enemies—you made them.

He Puts the NEW in Nutrition

We'd like you to meet a Swift scientist, Dr. H. W. Schultz. He is head of the nutrition division of our research laboratories. The work of Dr. Schultz and his associates is mighty important to all of us in the livestock-meat industry. They develop new products which open new markets for meats. This widens outlets for your livestock.

Dr. Schultz is the father of three children. As a scientist he knew growing children needed the body-building proteins of meat. As a father he knew the trouble of scraping and straining meats for the baby and dicing meat for the older children. An idea was born: perhaps Swift & Company could discover a way to prepare canned meats suitable for babies. A research project was undertaken. The scientists went to work! The research took more than two years. The Swift people consulted with leading doctors, child specialists. They agreed that special meats for babies would be a good thing. Many methods of preparing various kinds of meats were tried. Hundreds of feeding tests were made by families with small children. Finally, six kinds of meat were approved by the doctors, nutritionists, mothers, and the babies themselves. Placed on the market in test cities, these products won immediate acceptance. They are now being sold in many cities, and facilities for their manufacture are being expanded.

These new products—strained and diced meats for babies—create a big new market for meats. There are millions of baby appetites to satisfy.

Martha Logan's Recipe for Navy Bean Soup

- 1 pint dried navy beans 1/2 tablespoon salt
2 quarts water 1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 cup sliced onion 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
1 cup diced celery 2 tablespoons flour
3 tablespoons butter 4 frankfurters

Soak beans in water for several hours or overnight. Drain, add water. Fry onion and celery in butter. Add to beans, simmer 3 to 4 hours or until beans are soft, adding more water as water cooks away. When tender, save out 1 cup beans. Rub other beans through sieve. Reheat to boiling point. Add seasonings and flour mixed with 1/4 cup water. Garnish with hot sliced frankfurters and whole beans. Yield: 4 servings.

Meat Packers' Risks

Meat is perishable. It cannot be held for prices to go up. Like all meat packers, Swift & Company must sell, within a few days, this perishable product for what it will bring—no matter what price we paid for it.

We take risks in both buying and selling. In buying livestock the meat packer must pay the price established by competitive bidding of over 26,000 slaughterers. If the meat packer overestimates the quality of an animal, or the amount of meat the animal will produce, or the market demand for the meat, he will lose money. Hidden bruises, wounds, or other defects can create losses on any animal.

In selling, the meat packer must also follow the market trends established by those who buy the meats. He stands the risk that meat demand will fall off and prices decline between the day he buys the livestock and the day he sells the meat—also the risk of accidents and delays in transit which can wash out his profit.

An average profit of less than 2% on sales is a small return for taking these substantial business risks.

by Tyrus R. Timm Texas A. & M. College

An adequate record book is an extremely useful and valuable tool. It usually pays good dividends for the few minutes it takes out of the day's work to keep it up to date.

Specifically, a record book helps a farmer or rancher:

- Operate in a businesslike way. Learn more about the details of his business than ever before. Know exactly how much he is making from his land and his work. Find out the weak spots in his enterprises. Tell whether or not his operations are working out as planned. Prepare a plan for future operations. Itemize investments, receipts, and expenses. Figure the efficiency of his production methods. Provide a record of all business transactions. Keep track of bills owed by or to the farm or ranch. Establish a sound basis for credit. Comply with government programs. Prepare income tax returns.

There are farm and ranch record books especially prepared for each state which can help you save time and money. Write to your state agricultural college and obtain one. Properly used, it will give you a better understanding of your business and may open the way to increased profits.

Mrs. W. H. Grigsby Leader of P. T. A. Program Thursday

The Sanderson Parent-Teachers Association met Thursday January 9, at 4 o'clock in the High School Auditorium. Mrs. Sid Harkins, president, called the meeting to order.

Mrs. W. H. Grigsby was program leader for the afternoon. The Pledge of Allegiance was given in unison.

In her talk Mrs. Bradford stressed the point that adults and children need to be trained in economic efficiency. We are an extravagant nation and have wasted both money and natural resources, she further stated. The training for economic efficiency should start with the child in the home. He should be taught not to waste time, money or resources. If the children are trained toward economic efficiency and enough children are trained we will in time have an economic nation, Mrs. Bradford further stressed in her talk.

We must as a nation try to have an efficient budget and stay within it. Stressing the point of our resources Mrs. Bradford stated that a great deal of our land was allowed to wash and blow away before we started a land conservation program. We must also try to use wisely our great natural resources of wood, water, oil, minerals and others of which we are so richly blessed, she stated.

Reduction In Price of Fords Is Announced

Ferguson Motor Co., local Ford dealers, received a telegram Thursday morning announcing a reduction in prices of all makes of Ford cars. Said announcement was made public from Dearborn, Mich., on Wednesday by Henry Ford II, M. R. Ford made the following statement in regard to the reduction which reflects the Company's decision on matters basically important to national economy:

"Although more than one million of our customers are waiting delivery of their cars at present, we are immediately reducing the price of every Ford car, some models as $50.

The price reductions announced Wednesday were as follows:

Ford deluxe tudor-$25.
Super deluxe six, tudor, fordor and sedan coupe-$50 each.
Deluxe eight tudor-$25.
Super deluxe eight sedan coupe-$25.

Tudor, fordor and convertible club coupe $15 each.

"This is our 'down payment' toward a continued high level of production and employment in the months ahead. We believe that the 'shock treatment' of prompt action is needed to halt the insane spiral of mounting costs and rising prices and to restore a sound base for the hopeful period of post-war production we are now entering," Ford stated.

The Ford president said he hoped suppliers, employees and other economic partners would back "each to his own ability" our attempt to return to the economic pattern which has helped to make America great—the principle that higher wages and a higher standard of living for all depend upon the lower costs and lower prices through increasingly efficient large-scale production."
