Curtain Rolls Down On Five Day Rail Battle Here

Lubbock Stressed As Market Center Of Disputed Area

June 15th Is Set For Date Of Brief Filings; Santa Fe Sums Up Its Claim To Build Into New Mexico

Examiner Says Decision Of Commission Unlikely To Come Before That Time; Local Men Testify

CLOSING day was Lubbock day at the Interstate Commerce commission hearing here yesterday, when compilation of evidence was presented in testimony before Examiner H. C. Davis by Ray Grisham, manager of the Lubbock Cotton Oil company; S. E. Cobe, wholesale grain dealer, and A. B. Davis, manager of the Board of City Development, as positive proof that this city possesses extensive facilities as an adequate marketing center serving the southeastern portion of New Mexico.

So far as the hearing is concerned, the applications of the South Plains and Santa Fe railway and of the Texas and New Mexico railway, for permission to construct an extension from their existing rails in Texas to Lea county, New Mexico, the battle is now finished.

Brief Deadline Set. But the hearing is not all. As Examiner Davis set the date of June 15th for the final time briefs may be filed by all concerned in the hearing, there remains the compiling of these briefs. H. C. Pipkin, Santa Fe attorney, and Albert L. Reed, Dallas attorney and rate expert who represented the city of Lubbock, have 1,400 pages of reading matter which would be necessary in telling their sides of the story to the Interstate Commerce commission.

Pipkin and Reed asked Examiner Davis to give them until July 1, for preparation of briefs, attorney G. S. Bateman, of Dallas, leading counsel for the Texas and Pacific, requested the date of June 1 be set, the examiner compromising by setting June 15.

Following presentation of all evidence to the commission, it will require some time before Davis can review these, and the transcript of the hearing. With this done, the examiner can then make his recommendations as to which of the applications should be granted the permit.

Farm Relief Bill Is Probable Soon

House And Senate Groups To Draft Measure For Extra Session; Support Believed Certain For Statute

WASHINGTON, Apr. 5. (AP)—Administration leaders were confident of support needed to write a new farm relief bill acceptable to President Hoover and Congressional leaders on farming conditions which had closed today. The Senate and House agriculture committees started to draft a measure for consideration by the special session.

Following McNary's lead. Administration leaders were convinced the new bill would follow that introduced last fall by Senator McNary, endorsed at that time by the then Secretary of Agriculture, William M. Jardine, and this week by Secretary Hyde.

Under this measure the regulation of industries on the farms to bring more efficient methods and increasing incomes, would fall to a federal farm board of six members and the Secretary of Agriculture.

Murder Of Young California Girl Puzzles Officers

Investigation Follows The Finding Of Corpse Which Is Disembowered Expertly; Identification Lacking

LOS ANGELES, April 5. (AP)—Police investigating the slaying of a girl whose disembowered torso was washed to the bank of the Los Angeles river, near Compton, a suburb, were left today without a clue.

An autopsy disclosed that the young woman was not an expectant mother as at first had been believed, but that the body had been subjected to mistreatment after death, which probably came two days ago.

Probe Is Three-Fly. Investigation was divided into three phases. A search for the head and limbs, which the autopsy revealed had been severed by an expert. A search through the records of the Missing Persons bureau and the pursuit of mysterious "fliers" which led searchers for a "fied slayer" to the stockyards district, and to the motion picture colony in Hollywood.

Juan Martinez, who with his son discovered the torso was held pending investigation.

Police said the body was that of a young woman between 18 and 22, of medium build and complexion. Especial attention was paid to the reports of six missing girls and women who have disappeared in the past two days, but efforts to compare the descriptions of the missing ones with the mutilated body without result.

Dairy Show Close Marked By Parade And Annual Sales

Successful Exposition At Plainview Ends Its Run Of Four Days As Crowds Throng Exhibit Hall

Was Historic Event

More Than 300 Entries And Largest Crowd In History Of Southwestern Shows Is Record For Exposition

(Special To The Avalanche) PLAINVIEW, April 5. — Fine-blooded dairy cattle, pride of all Texas, stepped with prancing feet to shine before thousands of on-lookers, as the line of march on parade too them through this city's crowded thoroughfares in the Second Annual Texas Panhandle Plains Dairy show's closing day this morning. The purebreds, after three days of confinement in their stalls at the exposition buildings, and the several times on display as competitors in numerous judging contests, seemed to enjoy their share in the grand finale of the show.

Changing of thousands of dollars, from pockets of dairy men of the Panhandle Plains country, took place this afternoon when the second annual auction of the association was held.

Many Entries Made. With more than 300 entries recorded, and an attendance not bettered by any show ever held in the entire southwest, the show was undoubtedly an historic event in all the annals of Plains country cow history.

The parade was staged as an act of appreciation for courtesies shown by the people and officials of Plainview.

Crowds Are Large. Crowds continued to stream the exhibition building today despite the rains of Thursday night and the attendance again touched a high figure.

Hale county farmers carried away the bulk of honors in the grade cow division of the show.

Gratification, a success of the show at the annual banquet and business meeting was Thursday night. Minor changes in the constitution and by-laws were voted and officers were elected. A. L. Stansell of Floydada is the new president. W. L. Stangel of Texas Tech was named a director. Nearly 300 people attended the banquet.

Identify Corpse In Mystery Case

Mexican Woman, Found Dead In Bushes, Was Formerly Sweetwater Resident, Officers Find

(By Associated Press) VICTORIA, Tex., Apr. 5. — The fourth death mystery to center around a thicket near Rainis, Tex., slowly was clearing up somewhat today.

Officers established the identity of a body found in a thicket near Rainis, Tex., the thickest that of Mrs. Julia Masore Hernandez, a Mexican who formerly lived at Sweetwater, Texas.

The head was so crushed that identification first was thought impossible.

Under Theory Advanced. Sheriff Weisner advanced a murder theory. He said he thought the woman was killed with an axe or some similar weapon.

A combination truck and roadster automobile, parked on the highway for several days near the thicket, was found by officers. It contained a letter bearing the names of a man and a woman, and also a quilt with a live oak twig on it.

Tracing back to the body, the officers found a strand of material, similar to that of which the quilt was made, on a barbed wire fence.

The coroner's inquest was delayed pending investigation.

Three other bodies have been found in the clump of brush in past years.

West Texas Convention May Not Be Held Until Fall If Hoover Can't Attend Before That Time

(By Associated Press) EL PASO, April 5. — Dates for the eleventh annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce here still are undetermined. Homer D. Wade, manager, announced here today.

A decision to abandon the dates first announced, May 13, 14 and 15, was reached because of the uncertainty of the plans of President Hoover. The President expressed desire to attend the meet, but told officials he would not be able to leave Washington during the special session of Congress.

Still After Hoover. Renewed efforts will be made to get a pledge from the President to attend, Wade said. If necessary the convention will be postponed until early fall.

At today's conference it was decided to make the celebration of the Gadsden purchase a special feature during the convention. President Hoover will be expected to lay the cornerstone of a monument to be erected where negotiations for the purchase were consummated. The point is near Las Cruces, New Mexico, about 40 miles northwest of El Paso.

Manager Wade and L. W. Hoffecker, representing the El Paso Chamber of Commerce, left tonight for Phoenix, Arizona, to obtain the promise of Governor Phillips of that state to attend the convention. He, as well as Governors Dillon of New Mexico and Moody of Texas, will be asked to sign an invitation to President Hoover to attend.

Five States Probed

"Intellectually Dishonest" Is Characterization Of Creager By Brookhart; Texan Makes Answer

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 5. — Chairman Brookhart of the senate patronage committee reached into a file of correspondence today and drew out a stack of letters, telegrams and affidavits to show that large sums of money were contributed by federal office holders to republican campaign funds in five southern states.

In Mississippi, affidavits collected by the postoffice department disclosed that 110 postmasters gave more than $12,000 to the republican fund, some of the money going to E. P. Boone, husband of the negro republican national committeewoman. While nearly all said the subscriptions were voluntary, some of the affidavits showed the money was paid in return for postmaster appointments.

One Gives Two Hogs. A former Arkansas postmaster declared he gave $378 for his job, and a former Tennessee postmaster asserted that he contributed $300 and two hogs for his appointment. An Alabama physician said he believed appointments were being "given to the highest bidder in the state."

Texas letters and memoranda, put into the record at the request of R. B. Creager, republican national committeeman for that state, revealed that a large number of appointments many of whom were recommended by Creager, had been regular contributors over a period of years. Nearly all of the letters praised Creager's methods, but some did the opposite.

"Creager," Brookhart said, "is intellectually dishonest." The charges laid before this committee indicate that Creager has demoralized his organization in Texas. The immoral purpose of these contributions is unexplained.

Some of Them "Sneak". Among the Mississippi affidavits was one from R. K. Haxton, postmaster at Natchez.

Mexico's Main Federal Army Ready For Advance On Chihuahua Capital; Cavalry Seeks Scattered Enemies

(By Associated Press) MEXICO CITY, April 5.—The main federal army of General Juan A. Almazan was at Jimenez and La Reforma this evening waiting for repairs to the railroad to enable it to advance on Santa Rosalia, Bachimba Pass and Chihuahua City.

Aviators, after observation flights over the territory just north of the army, reported there was no sign of any big concentration of rebels, only small disorganized bands which escaped the La Reforma massacre. Federal Cavalry is attempting to round up these bands.

Calles Seeks Fighting Secretary of War Calles in messages to presidential headquarters continued to express belief that there will be no more important fighting in Chihuahua state.

Some indications of the terrific storm of metal loosed against the rebel positions in the battle of Jimenez and La Reforma was revealed in the report today of General Nazario Medina Dominguez, who commanded the federal artillery, that 2,247 shells of 75 millimeters calibre were fired in three days.

Reports received here from the Pacific coast campaign said merely that the troops of federal General Lazaro Cardenas continued to move northward toward Culiacan.

Add the syrup to egg whites and beat until it will hold its shape when cold; add lemon juice or baking powder and cream of tartar.

Spread between each layer of cake, using thin slices of pineapple or banana.

Dry Agent Is Charged With Perjury In Shooting Case

PONTIAC, Ill., April 5. (AP)—Eugene Boyd Fairchild, wanted on a perjury charge resulting from the fatal shooting of Mrs. Lillian de King at Aurora by a county dry raider, was arrested here late today.

A coroner's jury had decided Fairchild swore falsely in an affidavit given state's Attorney George D. Carberry.

It was this affidavit that led to issuance of the search warrant and the raid on the De King home. Mrs. De King was killed and her husband's skull fractured. The 12-year old son terrorized, shot Deputy Roy Smith in the leg.

Westerners Make Second And Third Places Count In Taking First Annual Panhandle-South Plains Invitation

Locals Display Strong All-around Team In Downing Field Of 123 Athletes; Amarillo Is Second

By ALLAN CARNEY
PLAINVIEW, Apr. 5. — Lubbock High school's rampaging tracksters continued its onslaught over track teams of West Texas here today by walking off with the heavy end of the scoring in the first annual Panhandle-South Plains invitation track and field meet against 123 of the outstanding high schools of this section. The entries in the meet reached 123.

Coch J. J. Lowrey presented a well-rounded cinder aggregation that was able to place men in the finals of all fourteen of the events held in the meet. The Westerners carried off four first places, three second places, eight third places and three fourth places for a total of 48 points as compared to 27 points for their nearest rivals, Amarillo and Sandies. Plainview, led by its star performer, C. Laird, came next in scoring with 22 points; Ralls was fourth with 21 and Lamesa fifth with 20. Littlefield, Brownfield and Turkey were tied for sixth place with 5 points each. Amherst was the only other visiting team to scratch the score pad, counting four points.

Amarillo Threatens
Doebler and Travis furnished the strong threat for the Amarillo aggregation, accounting for 21 of the 27 points scored by the Sandstorms. The former was high point man of the meet with two first places and one second, making a total of 13 points. Other big names in the 27-point team were Lamesa with 10 points; Creighton of Lubbock with 9; Moffat of Lamesa with 10. Ralls Jackrabbits captured the feature event of the day when the quartet composed of Holmes, Keith, Richards and S. Bryan took the medley relay in 3 minutes, 54 seconds. Plainview chalked up the second best time while Lubbock came up third.

An extremely slow track and a strong wind prevented the speed merchants from doing anything sensational in the races, but in several field events, some exceptional marks were made. Ritchie and McLaughlin of Lubbock outdistanced the entire field in the high jump with a mark of five feet, ten inches. A flip of the coin gave first place to the Lubbock team. Lamesa's main mountain, hurled the javelin against a strong wind for a distance of 133 feet, four inches. Complete results follow:

100-yard dash—Moffat, Lamesa, first; Burford, Littlefield, second; Price, Lubbock, third; C. Laird, Plainview, fourth. Time, 11 seconds.

Matador Aggregation Expects Stiff Competition From Canyon Teachers; Contest Starts At 2:30

Canyon Buffaloes invade the stronghold of the Tech Matadors today, bringing one of the strongest track aggregations in the history of the college to clash with the local cinder path hopefuls in the first dual meet of the season. The first event will be called at 2:30.

The Matador tracksters wound up training Friday afternoon and were pronounced fit for competition by Coach Payne. Although the locals are not boasting a flash track unit this season, the Tech men have whipped into shape a formidable all-round team to send against the Teachers in the first home contest.

Canyon is coming with a cinder track built around their star dash man, Red Keith, and a newly acquired weight man, Sloan Miller, a husky 200 pounder, who has been showing the veterans on the Buff squad plenty of new tricks.

Buffs Strong In Dashes.
While the Pedagogues are figured to furnish their main threat in the dashes, the 400 and the weights, Coach Payne as pinned his hopes on his hurdlers and high jumpers, Lawrence Cole, Dallas and Corley will attempt to outpoint the visiting dash entries.

The meet today will open a short but strenuous track season for the local thirty-clad. Following the Canyon away immediately in front of the stands is one of the fastest in West Texas.

Texas Champions Battle Through Mid-Summer Temperature To Down Tennessee Team In Sluggish Tilt

Athens Brothers Again Are Stars For Jimmy Kittie Aggregation; Heat Has A Visible Effect

CHICAGO, April 5. (AP)—A team of six foot plus athletes from Athens, Texas, today successfully battled mid-summer temperature and College Grove, Tenn., to go into the semi-final round of the national high school basketball tournament at the University of Chicago. The score was 22 to 7.

A temperature of 80 degrees—said to be the hottest April 5 day in Chicago in 56 years—had a visible effect on both teams, but the towering Athenians came through in a poorly played contest. Both teams were sluggish in advancing the ball and time and again missed up easy shots which in preceding games were good for two points.

College Grove, which yesterday eliminated a favorite in Wheeling, W. Va., combatted not only the heat but hard luck at connecting with the goal.

The Nut Cracker

Lefty Groves' chief hobby is collecting pipes. Connie Mack hopes he adds Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, and a couple of others to his collection this year.

Bucky Harris says he'll ask waivers on players who break training rules, varying from the erst-while custom of John J. McGraw who used to wave something at 'em.

Walter Johnson is said to have disciplined Al Schacht. Walter ought to try his hand next on Fox Griffith.

They called Tom Heeney the "Hard Rock from Down Under" when he came over from Australia but it begins to appear as if Tom has had been run through a stone crusher.

The New York scribe who said championships don't mean anything any more isn't so far wrong at that. Pretty soon the sports writers will have to keep a catalog showing who's champion in the east, middle-west, south and Pacific region at any given moment.

The man who went to live in a tree to get away from radio must have been listening to some of the recent prize fight announcements.

Scoring Hampered

The Texas state champions worked the ball in close where the Tompkins brothers and Sumner would make their six feet and more of height count. But even the Texans found their scoring ability hampered by the heat.

Benny and John Tompkins teamed together to give Athens a 4 to 3 lead at the quarter and in the second period Sumner came through to roll up the advantage of 12 to 3. The third period, which ended 15 to 7, was the worst of the game. Neither team could hold onto the ball pass or shoot. A changed lineup, however, sent Athens rapidly ahead in the last period.

L.C.C. Rail Hearing Comes To A Close Here Friday After Five Day Session

mit to build. Even this will not complete the thing. The commission reviews the case, attorneys for the railroad appearing before it. There will undoubtedly be exceptions filed to certain briefs. Hearings on these must be set, and listened to.

Decision Far Off

"It will likely be before October 1, when a decision will have been handed down," Examiner Davis remarked, following the close of the hearing yesterday afternoon.

"If the Santa Fe receives the permit, we feel sure of having the extension constructed and trains operating on the line within six months from date of the permit," F. R. Hulsebeck, general manager of the Panhandle and Santa Fe Railway company's western lines, declared yesterday.

Figuring absolute addition, should the Santa Fe line be constructed, and the first train run over the extension six months from October 1, it will provide a peculiar coincidence with April 1, exactly one year from date of the hearing's opening here last Monday, marking beginning of train schedules between Lubbock and Lovington, N. M. The distance between the two cities over the proposed Santa Fe extension west from Seagraves, will be 110 miles.

Others Testify

Other Lubbock men testifying yesterday were W. K. Dickinson and Sam C. Arnett, both of whom have been interested in the livestock industry of this and the Southeastern New Mexico territory served by the Seagraves branch of the Santa Fe.

A feature of the closing day was the appearance of a number of Leacock and Lovington witnesses, who testified in favor of the Santa Fe, in contrast to the number who had previously taken sides with the Texas and New Mexico. These included G. A. Cook, mayor of Lovington, Conn., who formerly lived here, stated the Lovington Chamber of Commerce and citizenship had decided on a neutral stand, but that the committee appearing here for the T. and N. M. had taken sides contrary to that understanding.

Last witness of the hearing was T. M. Combs of Midland, for the Continental Supply company, handling oil field supplies. He stated that he favored the T. and N. M. picking an cross examination by J. G. Gallaher, who testified in Leacock county, his concern would probably locate a supply house in that section, similar to its present house at Pecos, on the T. and N. M. main line adjacent to the Winkler field.

Gallaher On Stand

Tom B. Gallaher, of Amarillo, general freight and passenger agent for the Panhandle and Santa Fe railway, who was next to the last witness at the hearing, offered in evidence a large quantity of detached data on the Santa Fe routes into and out of Leacock county over the extension, as well as rates on various commodities to be hauled. These were compared with movements over the proposed T. and N. M. extension, in all instances, quicker routings and shorter hauls.

All in all, the Santa Fe presented considerably more detailed data of this character than did the Texas and New Mexico officials.

Gallaher was closely examined by J. G. Gallaher, T. P. attorney; J. C. Moore, rate attorney of Oklahoma City, and A. H. Yriss, representing Fort Worth and Oklahoma City livestock exchange concerns.

"I do not recall it," Gallaher answered. "Did not President Storey, of the Santa Fe, write to the people of Lovington," queried Bateman, "and refuse to consider building an extension to that city?"

"I never heard of Mr. Storey writing such a letter," answers Gallaher, "and I further contend that he never did make such a statement. He might have written that, in his opinion, development of that area, at the time, would not justify the extension."

"I made a trip into Leacock county, as well as into all the area southwest of Lubbock in 1925 and have made several since that date. We have watched the progress and development in that territory very closely, and in my opinion, extending that line out to Lovington as developments justify. And we even are watching developments beyond Lovington, with the same view in mind."

Bateman then questioned the extension of the Seagraves, Bessie, and leaving out the town of Lovington. To this Gallaher replied that oil companies in the area had requested a quick extension as flush of production was then anticipated but that as this did not then materialize, and closer study of the territory's requirements was made, that the Santa Fe came to the conclusion that, as this oil development came, together with agricultural expansion in the vicinity of Lovington, they revised their plans to fit in with the original idea of building a straight line west from Seagraves to Lovington and beyond.

"But," insisted Bateman, "wasn't the change in your plans brought about because of protests from Lovington citizens?"

"I don't think that Lovington citizens would seriously affect the plans of the Santa Fe system, nor of the Texas and Pacific railway, in a matter of this sort," was Gallaher's reply.

"Want Both Roads."

"Well," signed Luke Roberts, Lovington newspaper editor, "we still want both railroads, and it appears we'll get one, or both."

"Yes," interposed Wesley McAlister, of that city, "it appears like Lovington is going to get something. We really are planning for an airport, perhaps before the railroads come."

unsuccessful in their attack on Matatlan, also is worrying the state department. There are larger American interests in Sinaloa and in the adjoining state of Sonora, held by the rebels, and to protect those Secretary Stimson today requested the Secretary of the Navy to dispatch a destroyer to the port of Topolobampo in Sinaloa, about 200 miles north of Matatlan.

The rebels on their retreat northward have concentrated at Culiacan with a small rear guard at Quila, about 60 miles south of that place. They are being pursued by federal troops and are generally retreating against American and American property in the two states. The destroyer Smith sent some time ago to Matatlan, will remain and be available for duty further up the Gulf of California at Guaymas.

A protest from Governor Phillips, of Arizona, against the United States giving permission for Mexican federal troops to pass through Arizona has reached Secretary Stimson. It was feared by the Arizona governor that the Mexican government might wish to send to Naco for entry into Mexico—and to assist in the defense of that place—Mexicans detained at Fort Bliss, Texas, after they crossed into the United States at the time of the battle of Surrender. No application for such movement has been received by the Washington government.

Before permission would be given to allow any Mexican troops to pass over American soil, the state department, would secure the consent of the governors of the states through which they would be taken. The disposal of the Mexicans at Fort Bliss is in the hands of immigration authorities at El Paso. In view of the opposition of Governor Phillips of Arizona, they may be taken back to Mexico through Eagle Pass or Laredo, requiring them to pass only through Texas, in which state they now are detained.

Train Leaves El Paso With Federal Troops

EL PASO, April 5. (AP)—A 14 car special train, carrying 285 Mexican federal soldiers left here at 6:50 p. m. for Naco, Arizona, where it will cross the border into Mexico to reinforce the Federal garrison defending Naco, Sonora, against a rebel army.

Northwestern Wisconsin In Path Of Tornado

DULUTH, Minn., April 5. (AP)—Northwestern Wisconsin and a section of Minnesota tonight were hit by a tornado in which at least five persons were killed and many injured. Heavy property damage was done.

Mrs. Louis Reed, 50, was killed near Rice Lake, Wis., her house was blown down. Two children of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pittman were killed at Reeves, Wis.

A man named Lindgren and an unidentified woman were killed near Forest Lake, Minn. Twenty-five were reported injured at Forest Lake.

DIRECTORS RE-ELECTED. ST. LOUIS, Apr. 5.—(AP)—Directors of the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad company were re-elected at the annual meeting of stockholders here today. The directors will meet April 17 in New York City to elect officers.

Picked Up At The Rail Hearing

ANOTHER COINCIDENCE. Coincidences and contrasts were visible in many corners, during the I. C. C. hearing, which closed yesterday afternoon.

Attorney H. C. Pipkin, of Amarillo, heading the coteries at Santa Fe legal light and Attorney G. O. Bateman, heading those of the Texas and Pacific, were classmates in the University of Texas.

"Bateman and I graduated at the same time," Pipkin remarked. "We turned among the 1911 grade, the biggest law class ever turned out by the University, before or since. There were 215 of us, in all."

TRAILS STILL CROSS

As trails of cattle crossed the Great Shaded Plains, back in those days before barbed wire began to stop the north wind, so today the trails of men cross occasionally.

Take, for instance, I. C. C. Examiner H. C. Davis and that other venerable gray-haired man, H. H. Laredo, Texas, was found guilty of several charges, including smuggling of gold and illegal transportation of liquor, by a committee which investigated his office. The records showed Campbell was the writer of one of the postmaster's letters and was a contributor to the committee's campaign funds.

"High Williams' Sure, I've known him for many years. My wife and he went to school together in New Mexico when they were kids," Davis declared.

And, Examiner Davis by the way is a former newspaper man. He is a former publisher of the Amarillo Union and was a printer. "That was long ago," he said, "I haven't seen my card for about 30 years, now."

Then, Mr. Williams. His acquaintance extended to include practically every Santa Fe official present at the hearing. "For 20 years I was with the Santa Fe," he remarked. "Started as a call boy and was a passenger engineer when I finished." He then told of pulling the first passenger train over the divide on the transcontinental line of that road in New Mexico, before there was any Clovis.

EL PASO'S STAND. E. R. Tanner, traffic manager of the El Paso chamber of commerce, who appeared here in behalf of the Texas and New Mexico application, explained:

"El Paso is not in this hearing because of opposition to the Santa Fe, or against the interests of Lubbock or any other city, but only as an effort at building up our own trade territory, and what we believe to be our own trade interests."

PLENTY OF LINES. From close observation of a map exhibiting the Santa Fe system's entire railroad trackage it is apparent that there are more branch lines of that road running out of the city of Lubbock, than run out of any other single point on the entire system.

Tornado

Minn., levelled farm buildings but no one was reported injured. In the Pipestone, Minn., region severe dirt storms were reported generally over Nebraska, where the wind attained less velocity, no casualties were reported, but property damage was heavy. Motorists were blinded by dust whirled about by a forty mile an hour gale at Hastings and numerous collisions resulted, wheat growers leveled generally over the state and telegraph and telephone communication crippled.

Minneapolis Section In Path Of Raging Tornado

MINNEAPOLIS, April 5. (AP)—At least two persons were killed, more than a score were injured, several probably fatally, and thousands of dollars of damage was done by a tornado which struck the Lake Minnetonka district, and west, north and northeast Minneapolis, and New Brighton, late today.

Buildings in the North Minneapolis area were demolished and yards were strewn with electric and telephone wire and poles, torn down by the wind.

One Victim a Woman. Andrew Hanson, 45, was killed on a farm north of Minneapolis, and a woman was killed in her home.

As soon as the height of the storm passed, rescue efforts were started by residents of the areas struck. A school in Brooklyn Center was reported blown over.

Chicken House Roof Fatal To Man Near Souix City

SOUIX CITY, Ia., April 5. (AP)—George Tuin, 40, was killed late tonight near Little Rock, Ia., when a chicken house roof torn loose by a wind storm, struck him. Considerable damage was reported near Little Rock. Hall accompanied the storm.

master at Greenville, which declared that he gave $2,125 to the Republican organization there. Of the amount he said, $500 went for stock in an insurance company. It was explained to him, he said, "as the officers were men of strong republican influence in the state, it would be the right thing to do to take some stock."

W. T. Heale, postmaster at Indianola, Miss, said he gave $425 and C. V. Taylor, postmaster at Clarksdale, Miss, said he contributed $555.

He was told, Taylor declared, that if he paid the money he would receive the postmaster's appointment, but if he did not pay, he would not be the successful applicant.

J. G. Sullivan, president of the Winter Garden, Texas, chamber of commerce, in a letter, said that Roy Campbell, collector of customs at Laredo, Texas, was found guilty of several charges, including smuggling of gold and illegal transportation of liquor, by a committee which investigated his office. The records showed Campbell was the writer of one of the postmaster's letters and was a contributor to the committee's campaign funds.

Creager Issues Answer To Charges Of Iowa Senator

BROWNSVILLE, April 5. (AP)—Calling on the public to "Judge between the word of President Herrick Hoover and that of Senator Smith Brookhart" as to the record and standing of the republican party in Texas and its leaders, R. B. Creager today issued the following statement in reply to one by Brookhart earlier in the day:

"An attack by Senator Brookhart is almost like setting a distinguished service medal for bravery on the field of civil battle. He is one of the most preposterous figures in American public life.

Quotes Magazine

"There is a fairly accurate picture of him in the leading article in the April American Mercury where the following language is used in describing him: 'There is little intelligence or moral fibre in him. Brookhart runs heavily to simplicity. Not infrequently it reaches the intensity of the scatter-brained. His wide don't seem to help him to false conclusions. His glibness makes him an easy mark whenever occasions, whatever the situation, require. Brookhart, simple man that he is, glories in the resultant public attention.'

Chambers Senator Lied. "Brookhart charges me with being mentally dishonest. I have publicly branded him as a falsifier, and have proven that, at least in two specific instances, he lied.

"As to the record and standing of the republican party in Texas and its responsible leaders, the public may judge between Senator Brookhart, and President Hoover, who in his statement published in every newspaper in the country expressed in unqualified language his confidence in the Texas republican organization and its leaders.

Vote At City Hall. Polls will be at the city hall with W. E. Ballew, C. A. Burns and P. C. McCoy as judges. Any qualified voter residing in the district will be allowed to participate in the voting.

Terms of school trustees in precincts one and two of the county are expiring. W. A. Pincher, incumbent and A. J. Brooks seek the place in precinct one. J. H. Brewer is the candidate in precinct two. Polls will be at the regular voting places in the two districts.

County Judge Robert H. Bean has ruled that all voters in the precincts affected may cast a ballot, despite word from the former county superintendent, W. M. Pevelous, that voters in independent districts would be excluded. Judge Bean based his decision on a new ruling, received by County Superintendent Mae Murfee, giving the right of vote to all voters in the precincts, regardless of whether or not they reside in independent districts.

SPECIAL SESSIONS OF CONGRESS

In calling a special session of Congress to meet on April 15, President Hoover is following a precedent set by several other Chief Executives. A presidential election frequently gives a mandate for certain legislation. The leisurely arrangements for handling over the reins of government do not require a newly elected Congress to begin a regular session until thirteen months after its election, and until nine months after the inauguration of a President. Frequently this period is much too long. Thus President Cleveland called a special session of Congress in August, 1893. Presidents McKinley and Taft acted more promptly and summoned Congress immediately after their inaugurations. President Roosevelt waited until November, 1903, and Woodrow Wilson acted in April.

Special sessions have become more frequent in recent years. Down to the Civil War there were only seven special sessions during thirty-six congresses. Of the total number of twenty-three special sessions which have been summoned, ten have been since 1890. The Sixty-seventh Congress, under President Harding, set a special record. It had four sessions. In November, 1922, hoping to secure the passage of a ship subsidy bill, President Harding called a special session which lasted only a fortnight. The ship subsidy measure failed. In this special session and in the fourth (short) session of the Sixty-seventh Congress which followed, Roosevelt waited until November, 1923, and Woodrow Wilson acted in April.

President Coolidge called no special sessions of Congress. He had no legislative program which he desired to put on the statute books. The session which begins next month will doubtless last longer than a few weeks. During the last session of the Sixty-fifth Congress, under President Wilson, Congress was in session for the whole period save two months.

Some years ago the ladies of Lubbock inaugurated an exchange of flower plants and shrubs, and in that way there was a better distribution of plants among the homes. There are many people in Lubbock who have a large surplus of shrubs, bulbs and plants that others could use if they only knew who has them. We believe that there might be some arrangements made whereby people could make public the things they would give away or exchange, and this would help to beautify more homes.

Proving all figures and holding fast to those that are accurate is quite necessary when there are many conflicting claims about the extent of drunkenness. When the Massachusetts state commissioner of correction officially reports that there is a decrease in several reasons, his statement is important for several reasons. One of them is that this drop from 126,372 arrests in 1917 to 81,290 in 1928 has been achieved despite a 15 per cent increase in population, and another that it has come about although there has been a greater vigilance on the part of the police. These are two points worth thinking about.

Well, even if the members of that committee that is going to come out west to investigate the schools and other things that are wanting appropriations, do not get any thing that is new they put in on the top it will be worth a great deal to them, and it will also be a good thing for West Texas. Some of these fellows will almost sure want to come out in this country to make their home, and we might get some valuable citizens out of the bunch.

Governor Moody probably took a chance at being defeated in Texas for honors that he might seek in the future when he vetoed the Wertz political bill, but he had signed it he would have taken a worse chance, so we judge that he merely laid things like that aside and acted according to the best judgment he had, for the best interests of the party.

The evidence is all in on the rail hearing, and now it is up to the Interstate Commerce Commission to say which one of the roads shall build into Lovington. Most people seem to think that the Santa Fe has the best of the evidence, while others are certain that the Texas and New Mexico line will get the favorable decision. Time will tell, and the majority of the people in this country are for the Santa Fe.

Predictions that the woman's auxiliary of the Marshall Shilman movement will soon be organized to find for women who have served prison terms remunerative work, with a chance for moral and social rehabilitation, brings up an interesting question. Since it is possible to rehabilitate those just out of prison, why are not familiar methods available to save them from going to prison?

Albert C. Conover, captain of the Brown University football team, has set a high standard for other college athletes to follow. Not only did he make the All-American team, but he is also an scholar. He has certainly given ample proof that it is possible to be a star athlete without neglecting one's studies.

Of all things that Texas needs we are of the opinion that a new constitution would be the best. A run down constitution, or one that is all of time is a serious thing for the safety of the state's life.

A Washington Bystander

ENLARGING HOUSE MEMBERSHIP WILL DO NO HARM, SAYS SENATOR BY CHARLES F. STEWART Washington Correspondent

ASHINGTON, Apr. 5.—"Four or five men run the house of representatives anyway; so what does it matter how many members there are? Not a bit."

"The same four or five leaders could manage 500 as easily as the present 435. A larger room might be required; nothing else. Maybe not even that. A full attendance is unusual."

It was Senator Elmer Thomas, of Oklahoma, speaking.

The Oklahoma was discussing reapportionment—which means a fresh division of members of the house of representatives among the states; so as to give each one its fair share, in proportion to its population.

Naturally population does not grow uniformly, but faster in some spots than in others.

To keep up with it, the constitution provides for a reapportionment after each 10-yearly census. Congress always attended to it—except once, during the civil war, when no census was possible—up to and including 1910.

Since then there has been none.

The difficulty is this: In the past, whenever a state's growth has entitled it to more representation, the number of congressmen has been increased, making the total that much larger.

Now, however, it is argued that there are enough; so if one state gains, some other state must lose correspondingly. The states which would lose balk. It is most unfair to those which ought to gain, and unconstitutional, but congress cannot very well be punished.

Regularly at every session a reapportionment bill is introduced; just as regularly it goes into the discard.

It happened as usual last winter, but last winter's bill was somewhat different from earlier ones. It sought to empower the secretary of commerce, who takes the census to make future reapportionments if congress fails. The idea was to prevent a repetition of the last nine years' scandal. Nevertheless many congressmen who favored the bill otherwise, drew their line on giving this new authority to a cabinet member.

The customary bill will appear again when the extra congressional session opens in April—probably minus the secretary of commerce feature.

Senator Thomas' point is that the house of representatives is not an unwieldy body already, as many assert—that a score or so of additional members will do no harm, if they are needed to break the long deadlock.

"Indeed," he says, "we need plenty of representatives."

"Formerly they were not so necessary. There was a time when the average citizen rarely came in contact with Washington politicians. Today the central government is snatching so extremely into local affairs that the home folks must be thoroughly represented at the capital—not so much by a law-maker as by a lawyer, to look after their interests before our multiplicity of departments, boards, bureaus and miscellaneous executive divisions and subdivisions."

"As for the matter of legislation, the lower house of congress already is so large that it has been compelled to adopt rules placing practically all power in a few hands, in order to transact any business whatever."

"Thus," explained the senator, "ample representation is essential. While efficient representation, the existing rules already is so concentrated that a handful of members more or less means nothing, insofar as routine proceedings are concerned."

"Moreover, a large house is harder for selfish interests to control."

"If the objection is made that the representatives' rules give too much power to too few men, the senate acts as a brake."

"After serving in both bodies, I think they balance each other very well."

However, Senator Thomas does oppose strengthening the commerce secretary's authority.

"On the contrary," he said, "I advocate the resumption of budget-making by congress, rather than by an executive bureau; and the vesting, once more, of the tariff commission's functions in the house of representatives."

"I never will support any plan for a further centralization of government."

We think with the wheat fields of the South Plains waving a welcome to the passers by, and a few acres in the ground for the planting of all kinds of field crops that this section of the country presents a most inviting condition to those who wish to see here now.

We think that Lubbock has a very interesting prospect in the contest this year. There is no doubt that will stimulate the interest in pretty homes and neat lawns and pretty yards than a bit of local competition. Lubbock has many pretty homes, and a few acres in the ground for the planting of all kinds of field crops that this section of the country presents a most inviting condition to those who wish to see here now.

We think the Oklahoma state legislature has had an extra busy session, they have fired governors and impeached supreme court judges, besides passing several hundred laws.

We think men can sit and wait things to happen in the community, but if they do not put action into the proposition, in all probability nothing much will happen.

We think the Santa Fe has much the best of the argument in the rail hearing and should by all means get permission to build, and the people of this section have confidence in the recommendation of Mr. Davis, and the final order of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

THIS HAS HAPPENED RUTH LESTER, secretary, finds the body of her employer, "HARRY SOME HARRY" BORDEN, Monday morning sprawled beneath the airshaft window of his private office. He was shot some time between one and four Saturday afternoon.

McMANN, detective sergeant, questions the following suspects: Ruth, MRS. BORDEN, Borden's estranged wife and mother of his two children, who admits calling on him Saturday afternoon; RITA DUBOIS, night club dancer, who says she called on Borden Saturday afternoon to get the torn half of a $500 bill he promised her; JACK HAYWARD, Ruth's fiancé, whose office is across the narrow airshaft from Borden's.

Hayward says he returned to the seventh floor Saturday afternoon to get his and Ruth's suitcase tickets left on his desk. McMANN's belief in Jack's guilt is strengthened by the testimony of MICKY MORAN and OTTO PFLIGER, elevator boys, and BILL COWAN, Jack's friend, who tells of having heard Jack threaten Borden's life.

A detective is sent for CLEO GILMAN, Borden's discarded mistress, BENNY SMITH, Borden's office boy, says he returned to the office Saturday afternoon to get Ruth's gun for target practice but it was already gone. ASHE, Borden's manservant, tells McMANN of a woman with a beautiful contralto voice of whom Borden lived in fear.

Detectives are sent out to bring in Cleo Gilman, Borden's discarded mistress, and Jake Bailey, his lawyer. McMANN makes an arrest, instructs McMANN to send for Jack and Rita.

That evening at Ruth's apartment, she and Jack try to fit into the sordid puzzle. ASHE and Minnie's testimony about some mysterious woman received in McMANN's office, instructs McMANN to send for Jack and Rita.

Stock Market Stumbles In Friday Operations

Trades Moderate And Industrials Most Satisfying

Lowest Renewal Rate Marks Last Two Weeks of Trade In-Call Money; Vigorous Upturn In Steel

BY CLAUDE A. JAGGER
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, April 5. (AP)—The stock market stumbled about on uncertain ground today, unable to keep its footing, although reports of highly satisfactory industrial operations helped it along in place. Trading was again in moderate volume, although the day's turnover of $4,000,740 was a little larger than yesterday's.

Various interpretations were placed upon the statement of the Federal Reserve Board, but in the main it left speculative Wall Street as perplexed as ever over credit outlook. Bullish feeling in the fact that the reserve board does not feel that higher rediscount rates are yet necessary, but the declaration that other means will be used to curtail speculative credit if the present course of action fails was not encouraging.

Call Money News Show

Call money renewed at 8 per cent the lowest renewal rate in more than two weeks, and again dropped to 6. Funds were available in the outside market as low as 5.

A vigorous upturn in the steel shares was inspired by private estimates that U. S. Steel next week will report a gain of 200,000 tons or more in unfilled orders at the end of March, despite record production and shipments that month, and that earnings for the first half will run between $9 and $11 a share.

Heavy construction contracts in the first quarter were reported to have exceeded the like 1928 period by more than 40 per cent, despite the higher money rates. Erie railroad placed an order for 2,350 cars. Burn Pipe increased the price of burner tubes in Texas 20 per cent a barrel.

Selling Is Brisk

The market encountered considerable selling at the opening, attributable to the Federal Reserve statement, but in the early afternoon moved irregularly higher. Heavy profit-taking in the last half hour, however, more than cancelled most of the gains, and as measured by the Associated Press price indices, wiped out more than half of yesterday's advance.

Some of the high priced shares were bid up sharply. Burroughs Adding Machine rising nearly 17 points to 392. American Express mounted 4 points to a new peak at 91 on news that his sale of the American Railway Express holdings has netted it about $18,000,000.

In steel, Bethlehem rose to 113, the highest price since 1917, but ran into resistance in the closing transactions and fell to 109 1/2. Copper, Motiva and Oia bore the brunt of the late selling. Anaconda lost nearly 3 points, while American Smelting, Greene Cananea, Kennecott, Chrysler, Hupco, Packard, Houston Oil, Standard of New Jersey and Pac. America, B. B. 1/2, fell from 2 to more than 3 points. Radio dropped 3 points to 100. American Telephone, Montgomery Ward, International Telephone, General Electric, Electric Auto and Union Pacific were among issues losing from 2 to 4 points. Wright Aero sold off 5 points at one time.

Commodities generally moved in a narrow range. Cotton was firmer on the recovery at Liverpool. Grains closed practically unchanged.

Foreign exchanges were firm, with Sterling ruling slightly higher.

Cotton Works Up At New Orleans; Weather A Cause

Market Opens Steady Even Though Liverpool Says Trading Easy; Statement Is Bullish For Week

NEW ORLEANS, April 5.—Cotton prices worked slightly higher today, under covering prompted by prospects for unsettled weather in the Western belt, bullish weekly in the market and a firmer stock market. Considerable realizing developed on the bulge but it was absorbed at moderate setbacks in late trading. July contracts traded to 19.95, or 19 points above the early low. The option closed at 19.88 for a net gain of 7 points. The general market closed steady at a net advance of 7 to 12 points.

Early Decline In Cotton Gives Way Before Advances

NEW ORLEANS, April 5.—An early decline, influenced by relatively easy Liverpool cables, was followed by advances in cotton today on trade buying of near months and covering in later deliveries. Buying was attributed largely to uncertainty of weather developments over the week-end and was sufficient to send prices up from 19.80 to 20.03 for July contracts. July closed at 19.97. The general market closed steady at net advances of 7 to 12 points.

The market opened steady at a decline of 3 points to an advance of 1 point and showed net losses of 6 to 10 points in the early trading. May declined to 20.35 and December to 19.79 under this early pressure.

Prices Improve

For the remainder of the morning the market was quiet, but prices gradually improved owing to fairly bullish weekly statistics and the firmness in stock. The highs of the day were made in afternoon trading when May traded to 19.86, July 19.90 and October 19.76, or 17 to 18 points above the lows and 12 to 14 points over the previous close.

There was a period of realizing in final trading and a net realization of 4 to 7 points from the top. October showed the maximum gain of 12 points, closing at 19.72.

Offerings Absorbed

Offerings were readily absorbed, with trade interests buying old crop position. There also was some commission house demand, as well as covering in later months. The latter seemed to be stimulated by apprehensions that rains expected in the Southwest would work eastward over the week-end and the strength of near months had a sympathetic influence on later deliveries.

May sold up to 20.35, or 14 points net higher, while December advanced to 19.88, or 11 points above yesterday's final quotations.

There was some realizing on this bulge but closing prices were within a few points of the best. At the close May was 19 points over October compared with a difference of 61 points at yesterday's close.

Buying Is Reported

Cable advices reported continental and Bombay buying in Liverpool, supplied by liquidation, and said there was a pessimistic feeling in March and with producers losing ground.

Exports today 34,013 making 6,971,097 this season. Post receipts 1,915 U. S. port stocks 1,631,878.

Bradstreet Gives Cheerful View Of Money Condition

NEW YORK, April 5. (AP)—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: With fuller realization of the very large business done in the first three months of the year, there is an evident tendency to take rather cheerful views of the possible uncertainties facing trade and industry in the second quarter. For one thing the current volume of final distribution compares exceedingly well with that done in the like period of last and preceding years. In most industries, too, the March and first quarters' outputs set up new high records for those periods, and the recessions visible in a few lines do not seem to be regarded as seriously as in other years. That the net results have been on the whole satisfactory seem to be the opinion of smaller numbers of failures and the lessened liabilities reported for March and the three months' period by Bradstreet's.

Market Is Steady To Strong Today

FORT WORTH, April 5. (AP)—Steady to strong prices prevailed in the cattle yards here today. Slaughter steers found a good demand and values generally higher with prices at 10.50; 11.50 and 12.10 and 13.00 for carlots. Two loads sold at 13.00 and averaged around 11.00 pounds.

Trading today included one car of heavy bulls at 8.50. Common light bulls sold around 7.00. Better fat cows sold at 9.00 and 9.50 and the butchers around 7.75. Very few canners getting tickets under 5.50 and cutters up to 6.75.

Slaughter yearlings plentiful with a good demand at fully steady prices. Carlots at 12.00 to 13.00 and package lots up to 12.00. One load of south Texas calves of only fair quality sold at 11.25, bulk of cull calves between 8.00 and 9.00.

Hogs sold ten to 15c higher with spots more. Best rail butchers 10.95, and 10.25 for best truck butchers; bulk of the 17,000 pound butchers at 9.50 to 10.00; packing sows at 8.50 to 9.25.

Sheep included 13 decks bought in the country. Killing sheep steady to a quarter higher, shorn fat lambs 14.25 and 14.50; shorn fat wethers 14.25 and 14.50; shorn fat wethers at 10.00 and 10.50; some 2 year old shorn fat wethers at 11.00; yearlings at 12.50.

11.50; shorn wethers 11.00; 75 pound shearing lambs 6.75; lambs, good and choice, 82 pounds down 16.50 to 17.75; medium to choice, 25-100 pounds 15.50 to 17.00. Doves, medium to choice 150 the down 8.00 to 11.50; feeder lambs; good and choice 13.00 to 16.75.

Oil Operations

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., April 5.—First shipment of casing-head gasoline from the Oklahoma City district was scheduled to move late today or early tonight, with three cars going to Chestnut and Smith, of Tulsa. Shipping orders had not been received by the Indian Territory illuminating oil company, and the destination was not learned. The ITTO plant, in section 24-11-3W, has been turning from 2,800 to 3,000 gallons a day.

SEMINOLE SLUMPS

TULSA—Greater Seminole field registered another slump today, this morning's gauge showing an output of 378,577 barrels, a decrease of 3,055 barrels from yesterday. During the past two days the field has fallen off 10,940 barrels due to prorations. St. Louis pool contributed largely to the decrease, dropping 1,852 from yesterday's 6,147 during the last 48 hours. That pool today registered 104,468 barrels from 251 wells.

POTTAWATOMIE LEADS

OKLAHOMA CITY—Pottawatomie county was the leading oil county in the state last week, surpassing the position usually held by Seminole county. It had 11 completions of which seven were wells with total initial production of 5,849 barrels, while Seminole county had only four oil wells with combined initial production of 2,803 barrels. Total completions in Oklahoma during the week were 43, compared with 83 the preceding week.

Declines Follow Easter Rally In New York Cotton

Bearish Sentiment Granted Encouragement As More Favorable Reports Given To Farm Work Weather

NEW YORK, April 5.—Rallies which preceded the Easter holidays in the cotton market were followed by declines at the beginning of this week. Bearish sentiment was encouraged by reports of more favorable weather for farm work in the South, nervousness over stock market conditions, and the rather less favorable reports from the cotton goods trade. The official report on boll weevil survival Wednesday evidently was a disappointment to some buyers who had expected it to make a very bullish showing, and this no doubt contributed to the weakness. At 8 1/2 rate July, which had sold at 26 1/2 just before the holidays, declined to 19.86, with other months showing similar reactions.

ITLY NEAR 20 CENT LEVEL

Some trade buying of old crop months was encountered around these figures, however, and the market steadied up toward the end of the week with July selling back to approximately the 20-cent level on receiving inspired by the uncertainty of weather conditions over the week-end and reports of a better tone in the stock market.

The official report on boll weevil survival indicated that fewer live weevils per ton of most had been found in the state of Louisiana on the average, also in the localities examined in Georgia and Alabama. On the other hand more live weevils were reported in South Carolina and Texas than last year, and while the report was evidently a disappointment to some bulls, others considered it about stand off.

Fertilizer Tags Influence

The influence probably was offset by a report that sales of fertilizer tags during March represented 972,000 tons against 2,051,000 last year and for the eight months ending with March 3,138,000 against 779,000 last year. The figures were regarded as tending to confirm ex-

Hog Trade Fairly Active; Change In Cattle Is Slight

KANSAS CITY, April 5. (AP)—Hog trade around the 11-market circuit was fairly active on early rounds at 10 1/2 to 10 3/4 prices, but the close to packers at a few markets was slow with part of the early advance erased. The day's extreme top of $11.80 was paid at Chicago. Total offerings were around 61,250 a decrease of 4,500 from a week ago, and 9,500 heavier than the corresponding day last year.

Fat lambs were on a firm to unevenly higher basis with several of the river markets reporting gains of 25c to 35c. Aged stock was in limited supply with values steady to 25c higher. Choice fed wooled lambs in Chicago scored $17.75, while best wooled skins at Kansas City and St. Joseph realized $17.25. Aggregate receipts were estimated at 60,300 against 30,923, last Friday and 51,154 a week ago, and 9,500 heavier than the corresponding day last year.

European Demand For Wheat Opens In Friday Sales

CHICAGO, April 5. (AP)—Broadening of European demand for wheat from North America put considerable strength at times today in the wheat market here. On the bulges in price, however, selling enlarged, especially from the South-west, and the advances proved transient.

Closing quotations on wheat were irregular, ranging from 1-2c net decline to 3-8c rise, with corn unchanged to a shade lower, oats unchanged to 1-4c up, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 15c.

Export Business In North American Wheat Today

Export business in North American wheat today was estimated at 1,000,000 bushels, and was said to include some hard winter wheat from the United States. The market influence of such factors was largely discounted, though, by Kansas City messages which reported bids there were 5c out of line. It was said that European importers were bidding for United States hard wheat, and that unsold quantities both of Argentine and Canadian wheat are smaller. Under such circumstances nervous fluctuations in price here continued right up to the end of trading, and the finish was indecisive.

Benzene and benzine are two totally different substances. To add to confusion, benzene was originally called benzine and is now often called benzol.

BOOST CRUDE PRICES

NEW YORK, April 5. (AP)—Sun Pipe Line Co. has increased the price of Bruner crude oil in Texas 20 cents a barrel to $1.

The best speed of an average four-cylinder motor is estimated to be about 25 miles an hour—faster than a coyote but slower than a jack rabbit.

Robison Seeking Vital Changes To Leasing Law

Land Commissioner Will Go To Legislature With His Demands: Parts Of Lease Law Are Uncertain

(By Associated Press)
AUSTIN, April 5.—Two amendments to the new Texas University land leasing law, vesting two members of the board of regents and the land commissioner with power to dispose of University properties for oil production purposes, will be sought at the special session of the legislature, Land Commissioner J. T. Robison said today.

The changes are needed to correct inconsistencies of the law, which replaced a general land-leasing statute passed in 1925, the commissioner said.

Two angles stressed
Robison said one section of the bill provided for issuance of leases for five years, yet another specified that if production was not obtained within three years, leases would be automatically terminated.

Another provision required that every bid for school land for drilling purposes carry with it an obligation to pay not less than 10 cents an acre of delay in attempting to find production. This paragraph, Robison said he believed, was nullified by another which set out that if, at any time during the lease, drilling was begun, no rental should become due.

The commissioner stated he believed the three year production provision and the stipulation that if the lessee became engaged in drilling that no rental fund should be payable, should be stricken out.

LUBBOCK FARMER AND WIFE PRAISE IT

'Just Send 'Em To Me About Orgatone For This Medicine Is A Knockout,' Declares Shelton

East, West, North, and South, all over Lubbock, Orgatone is the talk of the town. People by the thousands are now taking this famous medicine that is creating such a sensation at Bowen's Drug store and are reporting remarkable results in restored health, strength and energy.

Statements such as the following from W. T. Shelton, of 420 Avenue E. Lubbock, Texas, well known retired farmer while apparently amazing, are heard on all sides every day. In his statement of the remarkable results his wife has obtained from the use of Orgatone, Mr. Shelton says:

"Believe me, Orgatone is the best medicine that ever came to Lubbock—it's a knockout. "I would not take $1000.00 for what the first bottle has done for my wife and she praises it every day and will continue to do so for many a day for it has put her in the best of health again.

"I tell you after every meal she used to blink up with gas as light as a drum and sharp shooting pains through her stomach. It seemed like she couldn't digest a thing she would eat."

"Constipation caused her no end of trouble, and she was bothered with biliousness and felt sluggish and tired all the time. Her sleep wasn't any good either, and she just felt pretty much 'All in'."

"Well sir, when she began taking Orgatone this medicine took no time in getting right down to the roots of her troubles, and now she has fixed her up so she can eat whatever she pleases, and lots of it, without a trace of gas pains, stomach cramps or indigestion afterwards. Everything agrees with her now she sleeps good, feels good and is in A-1 condition in every way."

"I know dozens of people right here in this town who praise and boost Orgatone like I do and I don't hesitate to recommend this medicine to everybody. Just send 'em to me about it."

Orgatone is not a so-called patent or secret remedy but a new scientific treatment containing no alcohol or other false stimulating drugs and is sold in Lubbock exclusively by Bowen's Drug store, Adv.

Sunday-School Lesson BY DR. J. E. NUNN

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON FOR APRIL 7, 1929

General Topic: The Ministry of Isaiah.
Scripture Lesson: Isa. 6:1-8; 20:1; 38:1-8.

Isa. 6:1. In the year that king Uzziah died I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up; and his train filled the temple.

2. Above him stood the seraphim; each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

3. And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is Jehovah of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory.

4. And the foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

5. Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for mine eyes have seen the King, Jehovah of hosts.

6. Then flew one of the seraphim unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar.

7. And he touched my mouth with it, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin forgiven.

8. And I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then I said, Here am I, send me.

Isa. 20:1. In the year that Tartan came unto Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and he fought against Ashdod and took it:

2. At that time Jehovah spake by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go, and be did so, walking naked and barefoot.

Isa. 38:1. In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came to him, and said unto him, Thus saith Jehovah, set thy house in order, for thou shalt die, and not live.

2. Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall, and prayed unto Jehovah.

3. And said, remember now, O Jehovah, I beseech thee, how I have walked in truth, and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore.

4. Then came the word of Jehovah to Isaiah, saying,

5. Go and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith Jehovah, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years.

Time: Isaiah's call, B. C. 755. Syria and Israel invade Judah, B. C. 737. Sargon's expedition against Ashdod, B. C. 711. Hezekiah's sickness, B. C. 710. Dates as given in Beecher's Dated Events of the Old Testament.

Place: Jerusalem.

Introduction.
We return today to the Old Testament for our study. We are to continue with the study of the prophets of the latter half of the Old Testament period.

God revealed himself in a marvelous way to his people through Moses, Samuel, Elijah, Elisha, Joel, Amos, Hosea, and Micah. These men of God and his prophets and directly with God's word to his people in times of crisis. God used them to teach his people to warn them and to drive home truths of tremendous import. Isaiah, Jeremiah and the others have great truths which our generation needs.

Isaiah's Times.
Isaiah lived in the closing days of Uzziah's life. The reign of this great king was marked by expansion, prosperity, luxury and His kingdom, with Jerusalem as the capital, and the Northern Kingdom, with Samaria as capital, were blessed during the forty years preceding Isaiah's ministry with unparalleled prosperity. Luxury and vice went hand in hand and conditions were exceedingly bad when the good king Uzziah died. The people could not withstand the temptations which peace and luxury thrust before them. Certain doom faced them.

Amos and Hosea.
Amos and Hosea came to the northern kingdom with God's word of inevitable punishment. They literally preached their hearts out, but to no avail. The people did not want to hear them and would not heed their earnest words. The end came for Israel in 722 B. C. and the ten tribes were carried away by the Assyrians. Micah worked alongside God's word to the people of Judah and Jerusalem. His is everywhere. Disobedience and injustice are everywhere. God's name is dishonored on every hand. It is a serious situation.

The Vision of God, Isa. 6:1-4.
This time Jewish youth, Isaiah, saw Jehovah. He was devout and thoughtful. He loved the good King Uzziah and probably grieved much over the calamity which had befallen him. He was conscious of the serious condition of the people of Jerusalem. While in this state of mind he enjoyed a most unusual experience. We do not know exactly where he was, but we are told that "as he walked in the temple or in a quiet moment of meditation in the seclusion of his own home God appeared to him and he was instantly impressed with his presence.

The lofty throne upon which he sat and the fulminance of his robes served to impress the young man with a sense of his majesty and power and glory. It was awe-inspiring. He was profoundly impressed. He could not be the same again. He could not think of Jehovah again as he had formerly thought of him.

The Vision of Himself, v. 5.
The effect was cumulative. Everything seemed to be converging to make the deepest and most abiding impression on the youth. Just as he was overwhelmed with the majesty and holiness of Jehovah he suddenly looks upon himself. The contrast is too great for him. There is no salvation in his own villainy and sin as never before. In the white light of God's own holiness and purity he seems to be the vilest and most unclean of all. He is convicted of sin. He has no hope for himself. He has no remedy to use. There is no salvation. He is a situation completely devoid of hope. It is well that he came to this place. "Man's extremity is God's opportunity."

The Divine Cleansing, vs. 6, 7.
When he confessed his guilt and villainy he was being cleansed by the move on God's part. One of the creatures was sent with a live coal to purge away the guilt. It was a symbolic act which was perfectly intelligible to the young man. It revealed to him the loving desire of God and his willingness to go to any length to accomplish the cleansing of one who prays for forgiveness and healing. The cleansing fire of divine love purges away his sinfulness.

"Here Am I, Send Me," v. 8.
The Scripture would lead us to believe that Isaiah volunteered immediately. There was no hesitation. He realized the definite call for someone to be sent, and he offers himself willingly and instantly. It is the most beautiful scene in all of his life. He answers the call of God to service. Jonah heard a similar call and turned away into disobedience. God loves a read answer to his call. He rejoices when one of us says: Here am I, send me. It is the logical step for a forgiven child of God to take.

Immanuel Forlorn, Isa. 7:14
Isaiah, having received a commission from the King of kings, was ready to face an earthly king. The noble, confident prophet was a fine contrast to the craven king. "Take heed, and be quiet," said Isaiah; "fear not, neither let thy heart be faint." Then the inspired prophet uttered the oracle which for two thousand years has been regarded as not only the bearing on the immediate future but as looking ahead to the supernatural birth of our Saviour. Then Isaiah declared that the Lord Himself would give him a sign; a virgin should bear a son, and should call him Immanuel. "God is with us," and before that time shall be old enough to distinguish good from evil both Israel and Syria shall be overthrown, and the Lord will bring the king of Assyria upon Judah.

Isaiah and Hezekiah, Isa. 38:1-8.
The miserable career of Ahab finally came to an end and he was succeeded by his young son, Hezekiah. It is refreshing to pass out of the foul atmosphere of the one into the rarer air of the other. Hezekiah is a good king and strives heroically to bring back the glory of Jehovah among the people. He is aided in this work by the eloquent preaching of Micah and Isaiah. These two prophets deliver powerful messages demanding reformation. A real reformation is effected. The people are prevailed upon to listen again for God's voice in the land.

Report Highways Ready For Autos

Recent Rains Benefit Most Of Roads In Section; New Culverts Are Being Put On Plainview Highway

Roads in the South Plains country were reported in excellent condition for travel last night, a day of work by highway grading crews having been applied following the Thursday night rain.

The highways are in better shape now than before the precipitation. Frequent windstorms had blown out rough spots in them.

Two old wooden culverts in the canyon on the Plainview highway, are being replaced immediately by new concrete structures. It was announced yesterday by Division Highway Engineer J. H. Caldwell.

Traffic is diverted through a route east of the regular Amarillo-Plainview highway while the culverts are being constructed. This is expected to require about two weeks.

Improvement of the Lubbock Idalou highway, by grading, was started yesterday by road crews.

Several paving projects of some chapter.

Isaiah's Prayer Answered.
Isa. 38:4, 5.
After a long life of service we have the picture of the king at the point of death. Isaiah, the faithful old preacher, came to him to warn him that death was near and begged him to make all preparations for that event. It was a serious time. The king knew that Isaiah always brought the true word of God. He was deeply stricken and began to pray. The prayer was fervent and his heart was right, for God answered by sparing his life for fifteen years.

The Efficacy of Prayer.
There is a wicked, though not a new, heresy coming in upon the church, in the denial of the efficacy of prayer for physical blessings, just such a heresy as recovery from sickness. I pray you, remember what that denial carries. It carries a denial of many a portion of God's Word. Let us take God as the great Physician of body as of soul.

"O Thou who keepst the key of life, Open thy fount, eternal Dove, And overflow this heart of mine, Enlarging as it fills with thee, Till in one blaze of charity Care and remorse are lost, like motes in light divine."

SICKENED BY BILIOUSNESS
Kentucky Lady Says That By Taking Black-Draught She Obtained Relief.

Richmond, Ky.—Many people who suffer from biliousness because of indigestion in the following statement by Mrs. Cora Mullikin, of this place: "I had been troubled with bad spells of biliousness. I would have pains in my side and in my stomach, and then a very severe headache. "I would have such a bad taste in my mouth, and my skin would look dark, and my bowels would get so heavy I would feel as if I could not hold up."

"I had heard of Black-Draught and began taking it. About three doses would seem to cleanse my system and I would feel just fine. So we have used it in our home all these years, and I would not be without it. I recommend it to my friends and neighbors. I use it with my children, and have always found it satisfactory."

"The medicine which this Kentucky lady mentions is also recommended by thousands of others because of the benefit it has been to them. Refuse imitations! Insist on the genuine Theodor's Black-Draught which has been in use nearly 100 years. In 25-cent packages."
