Chamber sponsored circus here Tuesday for two shows

Colorado City and Mitchell County will soon receive a visit by kinkers, rubber cows and joeys. It's nothing to be worried about.

The circus, over its centuries-old history, has developed a language all its own. Kinkers (performers), rubber cows (elephants), and joeys (clowns), are samples from this descriptive circus lingo.

When Carson and Barnes 5-Ring Circus arrives on Tuesday to set up between MacMichaels and Seniors apartments on Hwy 208 for shows at 4:30 and 8 p.m. citizens will be hearing other examples of this specialized language.

Another name for elephants in circus lingo is "bulls" although all of the elephants that travel with the show are females. There are some 20 of them with the big show and they will be unloaded, watered and fed on circus morning. Then they will help erect the massive Big Top.

The circus invites everyone to visit the grounds that morning to see the 100 exotic and domestic animals which will also be unloaded as the huge trucks carrying them arrive one by one. This morning set-up is a free show that is fast disappearing from the American scene. Carson and Barnes is the last big circus in America maintaining this schedule of one-day stands, turning an empty field into a glittering circus city in a matter of hours.

For reference, here are some more circus words you might hear when you visit Carson and Barnes: butcher, a circus vendor; cats, all lions and tigers; "High Grass Show", a circus like Carson and Barnes that performs under the Big Top in the small and medium sized communities; Spec, the big themed parade during the big show, usually as an introduction for the Aerial Ballet; cookhouse, the tent where all the circus personnel eat; First of May, the term used to describe a new employee; Cherry Pie, an extra job to be done; donniker, the circus restrooms; and "Sunday School Show", a clean and neat family oriented show like Carson and Barnes Circus.

Your chance to practice this new language is coming soon. Join us for the magic of the circus. Carson and Barnes will be here ONE DAY ONLY. Tickets are available at Advance Sale Prices before Circus Day at the Chamber of Commerce and City National Bank, D&R Grocery, KVMC/KAUM, First State Bank of Loraine and CapRock Electric/Lone Wolf Division. On Circus Day tickets are available only at the Circus Box Office.

GETTING READY FOR THE CIRCUS: Ron and Millie Cole, better known as "Tooter and Gingersnap", put their clown make-up on prior to making several stops in the community Friday promoting the Carson and Barnes Circus that will be here Tuesday for two performances. The two - husband and wife for some 36 years - travel over 20,000 miles each year in promoting the Circus. Ron has been a clown most of his life and Millie has been putting on the grease paint for 12 years.

CHILD ABUSE

Mitchell County has an active Child Welfare Board whose function is to promote child abuse awareness and to provide financial assistance to children in foster care. Currently there are 12 children for whom the Mitchell County Child Welfare Board has conservatorship. The Board raises money to buy school clothes and summer clothes for these children. In addition, there is a special Christmas Angel Tree campaign each year to provide Christmas gifts for the kids. Other expenses for which the Board is responsible include the initial doctor's examination when an abuse case is referred, counceling, tutoring, and various other expenses for which there is no funding available. Child Welfare Boards rely heavily on donations to meet these needs.

The Mitchell County Child Welfare Board is currently offering a chance to win one of two beef hind-quarters or a box of hamburger patties. Tickets are $1 each and may be purchased from any Board member prior to the drawing on Tuesday, April 6th.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

On 3-11-93, the Loraine City Council made a tentative decision to eliminate our local certified policeman Edgar Haltom. Their reasons? I'm not sure. He doesn't give tickets? We now have a Sheriff's deputy living here who is designated strictly to the D.A.R.E. program? They don't like his aftershave? I'm just not sure, although they probably had some seemingly viable reason.

On 3-19-93, Edgar was reactivated with laughingly nominal pay. So basically he is a certified volunteer policeman now. On the night of 3-20-93 at 1:45 a.m. Green's Lil Souper was broken into. Edgar had been called out twice that night prior to this call for other incidents.

He was on the scene in record time, as usual. His calm demeanor kept the rest of us in check, as usual. He assisted our Sheriff's deputies in all of the occuring legalities, as usual. He stayed in town until we found a way to seal our broken window and secure our business, as usual.

I say as usual because our downtown businesses have been burglarized on a regular basis over the last few years. Of course, our Sheriff's Dept. creates miracles out of what sometimes looks to be hopeless situations and we depend on them because of that.

The news to you might be that many times the leads would fall dead if it were not for Edgar's knowledge of our community and the people therein.

It is human nature to be drawn to those who make waves and disregard those who don't. Because Edgar does not deceptively stake himself out in order to ticket us for the enormous amount of traffic violations that take place daily in Loraine does not constitute disregard considering that he is instructed by the City Council not to come into town unless he is called.

Edgar Haltom and his family have always done more than their share to make Loraine a good place to live. Each one plays an active role in all types of community work.

What saddens my heart is that if the City Council decides to delete Edgar's present statues, he will voluntarily find something else to be involved in that heightens our community's betterment. That is a fact that none of us can ignore because we know Edgar just as well as he knows us.

I leave Lorainians with this thought: If you find yourself in a life threatening situation, Edgar is eight minutes closer to you than the Sheriff's Dept.

I remind the City Council of this: It is the Mayor's duty to protect or provide protection for his community.

This is my own opinion and does not necessarily reflect the opinion of others.

I also apologize if I have embarrassed Edgar Haltom or his family.

Sharon Green

Christian Temple sets Easter family picnic

Christian Temple announced plans for an Easter Family Picnic following their service on Easter morning. According to Pastor Pat Savage, the event is designed to bring a true since of celebration to the season. "For Christians, this is the ultimate day of celebration", Savage stated, "and we just wanted to celebrate it as a family."

The church will hold it's easter service at 11 a.m. with the picnic to follow after service concludes. Events include an Easter Egg Hunt, Team Sports and more. "We are going to take our time with the day and allow the joy of Easter to invade our hearts," the Pastor explained. "We are telling our members to fix a lunch for your family plus one extra person. That should provide plenty of food for everyone."

The church is located at the corner of 5th and Elm in Colorado City. For more information, contact the church office at 728-5944.

Mission looking for home

The Community Mission is looking for a new home and in the meantime, the directors are asking that all donations be "held up" for awhile.

The zoning at the location of 1431 Austin did not qualify them to operate the Mission there and they are temporarily closed.

However, if you do have articles of clothing or other items that you have no place to store until they are in a new facility, please call 728-5217 and room will be found for them.

NEWS FROM

LORAINE SENIOR CITIZENS CENTER

By Bessie Ann Vaughn

Greetings from the center in March. Cold winds go away come again some other day like maybe in August during one of the dog days. You can tell its a dog day if the critters won't move from the shady side of the porch to chase the cars, scratch fleas or even to fetch a ham bone.

***

In March the center was decorated in a St. Patricks Day theme with lots of green four leaf clovers. Mischievous looking elves and a big good-looking banner with Erin-Go-Brough on it. It looks good and it sounds good but I don't really know what it means. Maybe it means "Come To Ireland", or maybe "Luck to The Irish," or "Saints and Begorrah", could be "Bottoms Up." Maybe it means "May the Winds Always be at Your Back and The Sun be Shinning on yer face" what I do know is, there aren't any snakes in Ireland. I wonder if there are snakes in Iran? Through our good neighbor policy we could share with Saddam. We could air-lift tons of baby rattlers to give the country a quick-fix.

Get well cards were mailed to Lucille Cox and Bertha Fay Snyder.

Thank you cards were recently mailed to Mike Gage, Mitchell County Gin, Co-Op Gin, Loraine Bank, Irene Hester, Bea Looney, Elk and Biddy Jones, Billie Schroeder, Rachel Singleton and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mearse. Sympathy cards were mailed to the family's of Clara Butler. Clara was a member at the center for many years and had been residing at the Loraine Nursing Home.

***

Memorials made to the center in memory of Clara Butler and Ira Mitchell were from donors, Margaret Brame, Darlene and Bobby Hamrick, Jack Albrights, Sybil Walker, Merlyn and Lora Nell Bruce, Effie Wheeler, Opal Coles, Jewell Dukes Huddleston, Grace Rodriguez, Marie Alaniz, Mary Ann Fincher, Gladys Payne and Kenneth and Bonnie Huddleston.

***

Friend Cecil Martin will be leaving Loraine soon to move to Lubbock. She will be near her son there. Cecil has been a faithful member at the Center since it's inception. We all will miss this nice lady and wish her well.

***

Visitors to the Center in March included relatives of Darlene Hamrick and her mother Gladys Stokes. They were Florence Jones, Ethelen Walker, and Joe and Helen Whirley. Also visiting was Beverly Johnson from Irving. She was on spring break from teaching. She brought jigsaw puzzles which really pleased our puzzle fans. Beverly is the daughter of Dorothy Johnson. Also on spring break was Charity Cain. She now goes to school in Plano and was visitng with her grandparents, the C.H. Hamiltons. Also visiting were Joe and Maurice Coldeway, Kittie Gage, and Gerry and Don Richburg.

***

We want to send out a special thank you to Mike Gage and his crew. All the work on the Gazebo has been as volunteer effort on his part. When you see him tell him thank you. There is still a lot of work yet to be done down there at the mini-park. A fence, electrical work, painting, landscaping etc. If you can help in any way it would be appreciated. There is still a pot to pitch money in at the senior center at the front desk. Perhaps you might want to donate a shrub or tree in memory of someone in your family call 737-2711 or 737-2751.

***

Birthdays come but once a year; Leap birthdays once in four; May all the birthdays listed here; be followed by many more.

***

Darlene Hamrick, Laura Lewis, J.M. Lewis, Effie Wheeler, Vida Alsobrook, Gladys Hart, Ollie Ruth Wiggins, Julia Green, J.D. Iglehart, Geraldine Parnell, also Lewis Claxton, Raymond Hackfield, Annie Bell Jones, Thelma Matlock, Marie Dobbs, Ina Harris, Billie Ruth Abernathy and Elizabeth Scoggins. Effie Wheeler made the special cake to go on the party table.

***

The Sunday luncheon at the center the 28th to help raise funds for our improvement project was a terrific success. Over two hundred meals were served. Nelda Hill won the oil painting by Rachel Singleton and Mary Helen Price won the afghan made by Billie Schroeder. A big thank you to everyone who made our success possible.

***

Three ladies fitting the senior citizen category were enjoying each others company and sipping Earl Grey Tea. Lou was the target of severe teasing from Rose and Emma for having brought along her crochet, and if that wans't bad enough the color thread she was working with was a bright hot-pink. "Vulgar they said," "A risque sexie pink." Lou tried to explain that needle-work was relaxing for her when she was cut short by Emma's asking what plans had they made for the summer?

Rose said she was going to spend all summer in Dallas with her children and give them the pleasure and priviledge of waiting on her hand and foot.

Emma said she was going to loaf all summer and watch a lot of T.V. "Especially Matlock" she said, he was her "main man."

Finally it came Lou's time to speak and she blurted out she could hardly wait to plant a small garden, paint out-door furniture and start square dance lessons. Rose and Emma gave her reply a lot of laughter and called her "Miss Busy Body."

Later when it came time to leave Lou said "Well ladies I'm going home to a nice vegeterian supper from last year garden." "And laugh all you want" she said as she held up a large square of hot pink. "I have a new sexie dish-rag for my effots, what do yall have?"

***

Take good care and see you at the center.
