Looneys to open Outpost

Looney and Sons Family Restaurants will be coming to Floydada soon. Pete and Ed Looney have begun extensive remodeling on the building formerly known as Tastee Freez.

Plans include a dining area with seating capacity for about 30 people. A drive-up window on the north side of the building will allow cars to drive around the building, without having to wait in the highway.

The name of the local restaurant will be the Floydada Outpost, and will feature numerous sandwiches, platters, ice cream and soft drinks, in the finest Looney tradition.

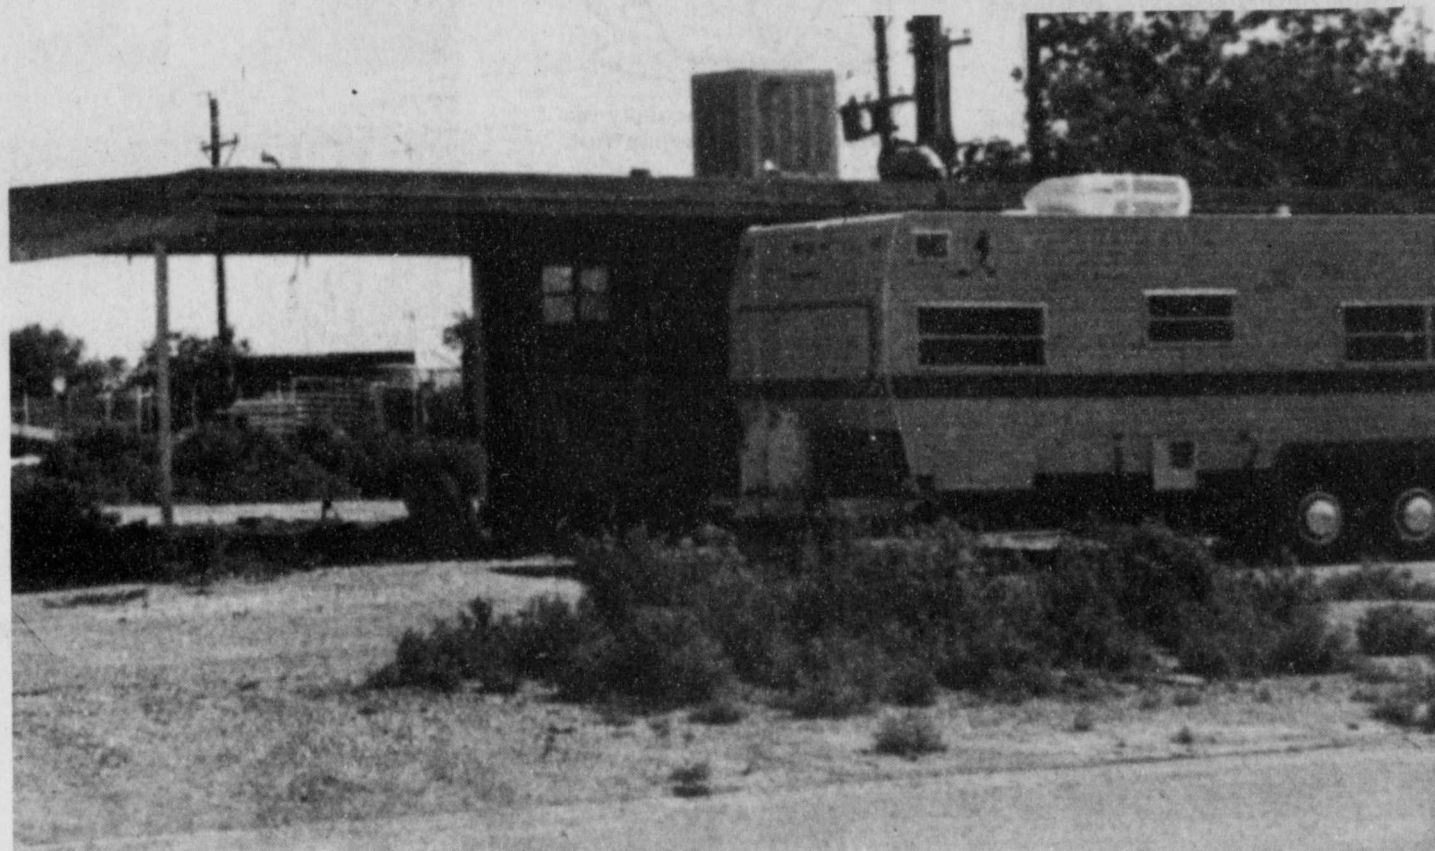

The Looneys purchased the Dairy Queen in Plainview in June, 1982. Their youngest son, Pete, works there.

In January they acquired the Dixie Dog Drive-In in Petersburg, changing its name to the Petersburg Outpost. It is managed by James and Helen Hobbs. A third restaurant was purchased in March, formerly known as The Duke in Olton. It is now the Olton Star Ranch.

Looney said, "I feel that the economy here has reached its lowest ebb and is now on the rebound. The farm economy is going to be significantly better in 1983 and 1984."

"Floydada has a great potential for growth in the next 10 years, and we Looneys are proud to be able to be a small part in it," Son Ed said. "It is going to be good to be back home in business in Floydada." Even though he has spent two tours in the service he has always considered Floydada home.

The Looneys have two other sons serving in the Air Force: Anthony,

U.S. Congressman Jack Hightower will be the featured speaker at an Honor America Day service at First Baptist Church in Floydada Sunday, June 26. The service begins at 11 a.m.

Congressman Hightower, representative for the 13th District of Texas since 1974, is a Southern Baptist church member and a deacon. In addition to his responsibilities as a representative, he has served on the board of directors of the Baptist Standard, the state newspaper for the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

During the Honor America Day service recognition will be given to local elected and volunteer officials, including courthouse and city hall officials, members of the police and sheriff's departments, and the Floydada Volunteer Fire Department. Also to be honored are military veterans, including two church members, Clyde Bagwell and A.S. Mize, who served in World War I. Special honors will be given in memory of those who gave their lives in service to their country.

Congregational singing of patriotic songs, pledges to the U.S. and Christian flags, and a special presentation of patriotic music by the adult choir will also be featured.

"We are pleased to have this opportunity to express our appreciation to those who serve our city, county, state and nation, and to thank God for the blessings that we enjoy as citizens of the United States," said Dr. Floyd C. Bradley, pastor. "We could ask for no better person than a dedicated, Christian public servant like Congressman Hightower to challenge and inspire us on this special day."

Hightower, a native of Memphis, Texas, is a senior member of the Texas delegation to Washington and serves on the prestigious House Appropriations Committee. He has been honored on several occasions for his work in Congress.

In 1982, the American Security Council awarded him its National Security Leadership Award for his work to promote a strong national defense. He was awarded the Guardian of Small Business Award by the National Federation of Independent Business in the 94th, 96th and 97th Congresses. Twice he has been presented the Watchdog of the Treasury Award by the National Associated Businessmen's organization for his work in fighting fiscal waste and excessive government spending.

Hightower is a graduate of Baylor University with a bachelor of arts degree and a bachelor of law degrees. Prior to his election to Congress, he had served one term in the Texas House of Representatives, 7 years as a district attorney, and then was elected to the Texas Senate in 1964.

He has also served on the board of regents of Midwestern University and the board of trustees of Baylor. In 1977, Howard Payne University awarded him an honorary doctor of laws degree.

It's a Real Recovery

By Frank J. Fahrenkopf, Jr.
Chairman, Republican National Committee

Reminiscence for a moment and it will all come back to you. Remember all those people who said President Reagan could never beat inflation? After all, they claimed, we'd had high inflation for years and years. Then what happened? He beat inflation.

The same thing happened with allegedly permanent high interest rates. They were sliced in half in only two years. The same folks said America had fallen into permanent second-class status and we would never fully regain our position as a world leader.

Did you read about the Williamsburg summit conference? World leader after world leader praised the president's role in the summit. It was clear at Williamsburg that the United States is still the leader of the free world. More gloom-speak down the drain.

In each of these cases the hand-wringers called for quick fix "solutions." But, these "solutions" treated only the symptoms, not the causes.

President Reagan stuck to his principles, and we've all seen the success. You have only to pick up a newspaper to see the reports of an improving economy.

Now, unemployment seems ready to topple back into single-digit figures. Month after month, unemployment had edged down. Recently it hit a low of 10.1 percent—good progress after a recessionary high of 10.8 percent.

As President Reagan said all along: we had to get the inflationary monkey off America's back before we could see some real economic growth and real jobs.

Sure, unemployment is a terrible problem and unemployment is unacceptable. But curing it takes economic growing-time and no good would be accomplished by going back to the old tricks of the past—the shot of inflationary heroin that nearly destroyed us before.

So once more, the President's critics are wrong again and have to go loping off to find some other allegedly unsolvable problem.

By doing what he promised and not giving in to the defeatism that was so fashionable in the last administration, President Reagan has laid the foundation for a strong economic recovery.

Unlike the snake-oil cures offered by some, this recovery is here to stay.

IRS grants month extension

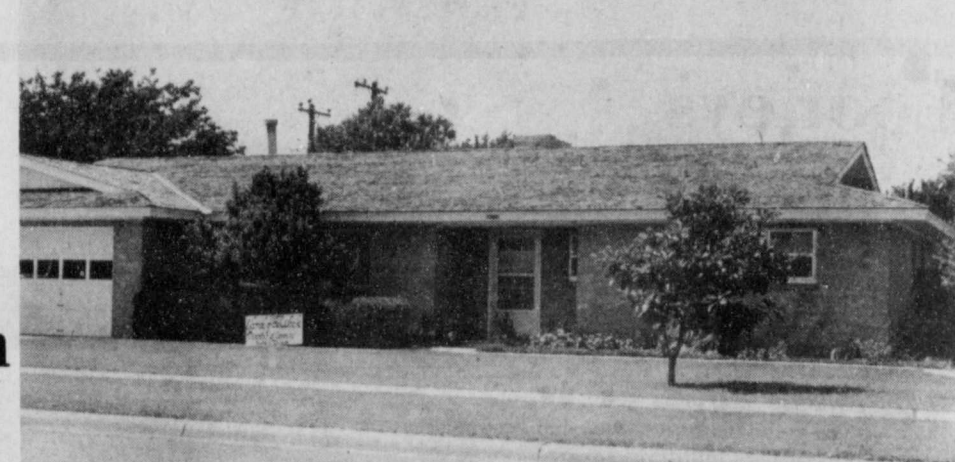

The Internal Revenue Service said that it is granting to all payors of interest and dividend income an automatic 1-month extension of the requirement to withhold tax scheduled to begin July 1, 1983. The automatic 1-month extension is being granted to alleviate any undue hardship to payors.

Action is being taken in light of the June 16, Senate action to repeal the withholding provisions which were enacted by the Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1982. The IRS noted that there has been no final action concerning repeal. The Congress continues to consider expanded backup withholding and other compliance measures.

YARD OF THE WEEK for June 13 to June 19 was the home of Mrs. Fern Bethel. Mrs. Bethel resides at 110 East Jeffie. Mrs. Bethel had several colorful flowers lining the walk up to her home. She also had a white bird bath in the center of the yard.

JOHN SPEER of 806 Mesquite received the honor of Yard of the Week for June 20 to June 26. The yard was a very well groomed lawn with touches of pinks and purple that is very attractive to the yard.

West Texas leads state 18 to 15 in travel growth

Over 3 billion dollars were spent by travelers in West Texas in 1981, according to the most recent figures available from the U.S. Travel Data Center and reported by West Texas Chamber of Commerce magazine, This Is West Texas. Total expenditure growth in West Texas was 18% compared to a statewide growth of 15%.

According to This Is West Texas story it was found that nine West Texas counties were among the top twenty Texas counties in highest total travel expenditures. These include Tarrant (3rd), El Paso (6th), Potter (12th), Lubbock (13th), McLennan (14th), Midland (15th), Ector (18th), Taylor (19th), and Wichita (20th).

Total travel expenditures for Floyd County was $5,321,000. Entitled "Travel in West Texas Its Impact on West Texas Economy," the This Is West Texas article attributes an excellent highway system and emphasis on travel by various West Texas cities for the travel expenditure increases.

West Texas travel meant over $645 million in travel generated payroll in West Texas while generating 65,602 jobs. West Texas cities benefited from travel tax receipts of over $31 million.

Where do Texas visitors come from? According to the Texas Department of Highways and Transportation over 55% of U.S. visitors to Texas come from ten states:

State, Rank, and Percentage are listed, respectively:

VA News

According to Margaret Herrera Veterans Service Officer for Floyd County, veterans should remind their families that burial in a Veterans Administration National Cemetery may be available if desired. Burial in a National Cemetery is open to any veteran discharged under other than dishonorable conditions, with no charge for the opening and closing of the grave, and the grave marker is provided free of any charge.

National Cemeteries in Texas, and their anticipated close-out dates, are as follows: Fort Bliss (El Paso), after year 2000; Houston, after year 2000; Fort Sam Houston (San Antonio), year 1999.

Although the law does not provide for grave site reservations, a veteran may make things easier for survivors by expressing a desire to be buried in a VA cemetery, keeping military service records accessible and verifying his eligibility in advance.

To be eligible for burial, service must have been in the active military service of the Armed Forces, Reserve or National Guard personnel not meeting these requirements, but who die as a result of active duty or training, also may be eligible. Service members who die while on active duty are eligible. Burial is also available to an eligible veteran's widow, widower, and minor children. Under certain circumstances, a child who became permanently disabled prior to age 18 may also be eligible for burial.

When a veteran or dependent dies, the documents verifying eligibility should be presented to the funeral director handling the burial, who will then contact the National Cemetery to establish eligibility and make plans for the burial.

Recent legislation has expanded the Veterans Administration's authority to collect debts it is owed, advises the director, Waco VA Regional Office.

Public Law 96-466 authorizes the VA to charge interest and administrative costs on those debts. Effective now, simple interest and administrative collection costs will be charged on unpaid principal balances, he stressed.

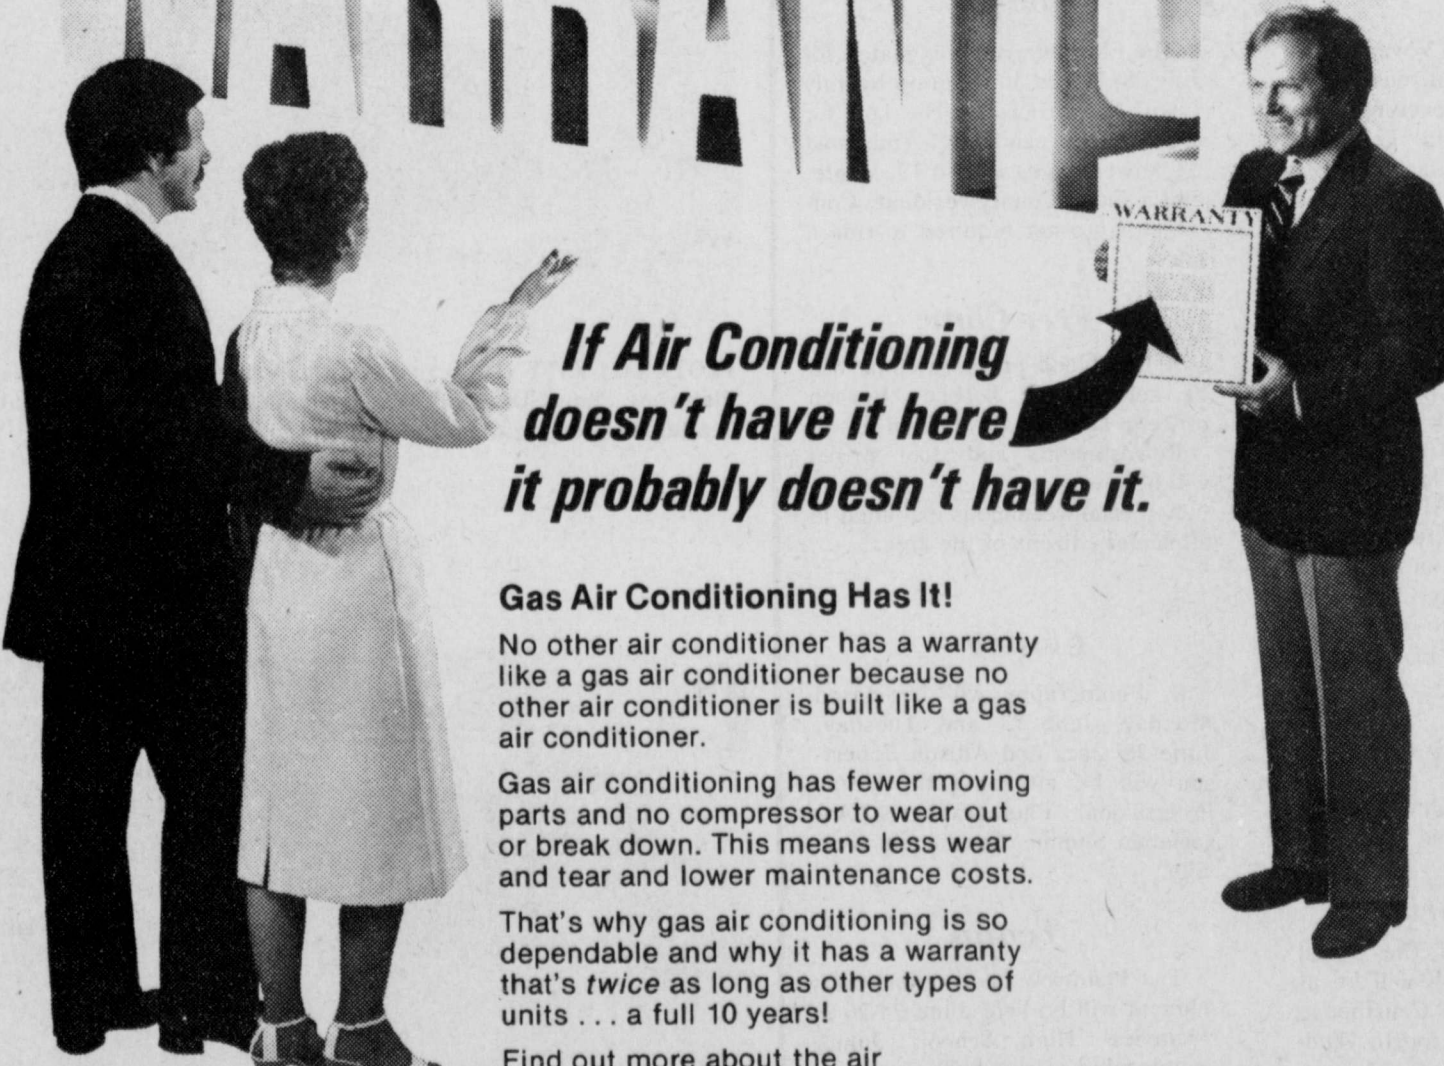

However, veterans and beneficiaries first are given the opportunity to pay in full within 30 days of the date of notification to prevent any of those interest charges. Additionally, the VA now has the authority to notify consumer reporting agencies of the debts -- which might adversely affect a veteran's ability to obtain credit.

In debt cases where legal action has resulted in a judgment being granted, property may be attached, wages garnished or liens filed against property. In the case of federal employees, salaries may be offset up to 15 percent of the disposable income to satisfy the debt.

He noted that stiff collection procedures may be avoided if debts are paid in full, or an acceptable repayment agreement is established with the VA District Counsel.

Further information is available by visiting, writing or telephoning the Waco VA Regional Office toll-free number listed in your local telephone directory under "Veterans Administration" or "U.S. Government." A VA counselor will respond.

"It is our plan to provide Floyd County and area residents with interesting events from the museum throughout the year," Broseh said. "We wanted a summer event and have made our plans for this special August day."

Activities will include new exhibits at the museum and a Sidewalk Art and Crafts Show and Sale on the sidewalks of downtown Floydada. O.M. Watson Jr. is chairman of the summer event committee. Other committee members include Mrs. Olive Hinton and Mrs. Joyce Williams.

"We invite everyone to bring their art, crafts, hobbies, and food concessions to Floydada on August 6 and spend the day," Watson said.

DESPITE HIS SMALL STATURE and 83 years of age, Allen Rendon continues to climb ladders and work on houses. In fact Rendon says working is one of his hobbies. He says if he's not working, he doesn't feel good.

LIGHTHOUSE TOUR GROUP RETURNS — Alton Higginbotham greeted Patrick Lloyd, Rob Pratt, Lori Beckham, Joe Morgan of Amarillo, Shawnda Brock of Lockney, and Thad Carthel of Plainview from their Lighthouse sponsored trip to Washington, D.C. Tuesday afternoon when they returned.

Allen Rendon recalls the good life

By Hope Warren

Floydada has many unique people living here. Some are merchants, some are businessmen, and some are farmers. But one of the most unique people here is Allen Rendon.

Rendon was born on December 16, 1900 in Pflugerville, Texas. His parents were Raymond and Margaret Rendon. They died in 1935 and 1936. Rendon had four brothers and two sisters. He was the middle child. One sister is still living. She is 79 years old and resides in Austin. Rendon's father managed a ranch in Pflugerville. When Rendon was a little boy he and his sisters would work cattle. He enjoyed this very much until a bull hooked him one day. Rendon says it almost killed him. He got away from the bull by climbing the closest thing he came too. Rendon enjoyed growing up on the ranch. The school he attended was seven or eight miles from Austin. He says now it is in the middle of town.

Rendon met his wife, Josephine, both having originated from the same neighborhood. He reports they just started talking and became interested in each other. They were married in 1930, having been married 52 years. He said "I wouldn't take a dozen eggs for her." Josephine was born on March 18, 1914 in Manor, Texas. Rendon was thirty years old when they married.

Allen and Josephine Rendon were blessed with four children, three boys and one girl. They are Patrick, Aaron, Josie, and Victor. Patrick is now a mail carrier in Plainview. Aaron works on a farm at Dougherty. Josie lives in Robstown and Victor is a school principal in Victoria, Texas. They also have 35 grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Rendon came to Floydada in 1944. He heard about the great opportunities in West Texas. He recalls that he left a good farm in Pflugerville but says this is good country. He and his family were one of the first families from that area to stay in Floydada. According to Rendon, a "Model A" car brought them to Floydada.

Since coming to Floydada, Rendon has worked at a variety of occupations. He worked on a farm, was custodian at one of the schools in town and at the Baptist church. For the past thirteen years he has worked with the Green Thumbers, having served for the last 12. They renovated the building for the Floyd County Museum. He is very proud of his work on it. At the present time they are constructing a house in Lockney.

Even though he's going on 83 years of age, Rendon continues to climb ladders. In fact he says working is one of his hobbies. Rendon says hard work keeps you healthy. He claims that since coming to Floydada, he has never been sick or in the hospital at all.

Rendon is also a member of the A&A Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, a member of the Masonic Lodge in Floydada, and a member of the First Baptist Church of Floydada. He is also on the board of directors of the Floydada Senior Citizens.

Allen Rendon has a very funny sense of humor. He is a warm, friendly man with many friends. He takes pride in what he has done and says he has been blessed with a very good life.

All of Rendon's children were together for Father's Day for the first time in 23 years.

Wheat field lost to blaze

By Hope Warren

A wheat field in the Pleasant Hill Community caught on fire about 4:30 Tuesday, June 21. The fire which was in the field of Verlon Wright was started when a pick-up was driven through a part of the field that had previously been cut. It is believed that exhaust heated the stubble caught around the exhaust pipes. As the stubble caught on fire it fell to the ground causing the field to burn.

About ten acres had been cut prior to the fire. Wright reported that he did lose 3-4 thousand bushels. The rest of the wheat was too green to cut so not all was lost. After the fire started it took fifteen to twenty minutes to contain it. The Wrights would like to say a big "thank you" to the fire department for their speedy aid to putting out the fire.

The wheat that was lost was irrigated and seed wheat for next years crop. There were no injuries reported.

The accident was on Interstate 27, about one north of Hale Center.

Gonzales was riding a motorcycle northbound on the interstate and collided with a car driven by Gilberto Gonzales of Olton, who reportedly was southbound in the northbound lane.

The motorcycle traveled 861 feet after the impact.

and Mrs. Jackie Duke of Floydada, and the deceased Mrs. Ruthie Beedy.

Given in marriage by her father Lewis Burk, the bride wore a long white gown of chantilly lace over white satin, with a high neck, sheer yoke outlined with shiny venice lace edged with wedge-wood lace ruffle, fitted bishop sleeves, with lace motifs. Full skirt edged in ENGAGEMENT REVEALED BY McCARTERS—Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCarter of Lockney announce the engagement of their daughter, Karla, to Gary Flowers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Flowers of Amarillo. They plan to exchange marriage vows August 13, 1983 in the Main St. Church of Christ. They plan to make their home in Spearman after their marriage.

MR. AND MRS. R.C. DAY will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception at the Wall Street Parlor, First Baptist Church, in Floydada Sunday, June 26, from 2:30-4:30 p.m., hosted by their children. R.C. and the former Manola Ray Gilbreath were married in Plainview, July 2, 1933. An open invitation is extended to all their friends and neighbors.

Double-ring ceremony joins Collins, Burleson

Ruth Collins and Omar Burleson were united in marriage in a candlelight service held Friday evening, June 17, in

First United Methodist Church of Lockney.

The double ring ceremony was conducted by church pastor, the Rev. Michael O'Connor and First Baptist Church pastor, the Rev. Merle Rogers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mangum of Lockney. The groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Burleson.

Special guests at the wedding were the bride's daughters, Misses Julie and Jennifer Collins, and the groom's son, Todd Burleson and Terri Turbeville of Denton, and the groom's brother, Jim Burleson of Lubbock.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Terry Brewer and seated by Eddie Teeter and Delvin Bybee.

Musicians for the wedding were Mrs. Ray Ford, soloist; Mrs. James Ferguson, organist; and Mrs. Keith Jackson, pianist.

The altar area of the church was decorated with two candle trees holding pink tapers and tied with fern, baby's breath and pink and burgundy bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long dress of candlelight eyelet. Lace covered the eyelet bodice and formed long sleeves. The scooped neckline was edged in lace ruffling. The natural waistline was accented with a self sash that tied in a bow in back. Her bouquet was a nosegay of pink and burgundy roses and carnations. For "something old", she wore her grandmother's wedding band.

Honor attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Pat Frizzell. Bridesmaid was George Ann Hobbs of Lubbock, and Ronnie Thornton was groomsmen. The women wore dresses of pink or burgundy and corsages in the same colors.

A reception in the church fellowship hall followed the wedding. The table was laid with white lace over a white ruffled undershirt. Decorating the table was a silver candelabra holding the bride's bouquet and tied with burgundy and pink ribbon. The tiered wedding cake was decorated with silk flowers in the same colors.

Serving at the table were the bride's sister, Miss Tara Mangum, and Mrs. Ronnie Thornton. In the houseparty were Mrs. Delvin Bybee, Mrs. Brad Ziegler of Silverton, Mrs. Keith Jackson and Mrs. Terry Brewer.

Jennifer Collins distributed satin roses holding rice.

After a wedding trip to Las Vegas, Nevada, Mr. and Mrs. Burleson are making their home in Lockney. He is employed with the U.S. Postal Service as a rural mail carrier and she is employed in Lubbock at Spike's Furniture.

Randy Duke of Plainview, brother of the groom, served as the best man. Presiding as groomsmen were Terry Westbrook, Eric Cornelius, and Tom Ross.

Decorations adorning the church included an archway with baby blue carnations, white gladiolas, green plumosa, and daisies. A fourteen light brass spiral candelabra on each side of the archway were accented with plumosa, baby blue carnations and baby mums. Completing the decorations was a formal basket of white gladiolas, baby blue carnations, and baby mums on each side of the spiral candelabra.

Musical selections were presented by Christi Norrell on the piano. While guests were being seated, she played "Just You and I" and the "Theme From Ice Castles." While the parents of the bride and groom were being seated, she played "Seasons." After the prayer she played "Open Arms."

Ushers were Brad Fulton, Mark McCormick, Randy Burk, and Michael Burk.

Registering guests were Julie Duke and Shawnda Sanders.

A reception following the ceremony was held in the Wall Street Parlor. The wedding table was draped with a white lace cloth. The centerpiece was made up of a three candle brass candelabra. The bridesmaid's bouquets were placed around the candelabra to complete the centerpiece.

A three tiered wedding cake with grecian column separations between each tier was frosted in white and adorned with very soft tiny baby blue flowers. Two love birds adorned the cake between each layer and the top of the cake was adorned with wedding bells made of baby blue satin, little white flowers and seed pearls. Punch, nuts, and mints in the shape of wedding bells were served.

The servers included Nina Campbell, Jodie Smith, and Wendy Ruff.

Members of the houseparty for the reception were Mrs. Jennie Gauntt, Mrs. Joyce Anderson, Mrs. Edna Cochran, and Mrs. Reta Pierce.

Athenas enjoy program on "Mechanics For Women"

On June 9th, Athena Study Club met at Johnson and Johnson Garage for a program on "Mechanics For Women."

The program was given by Jerry Johnson, owner of Johnson and Johnson. Mr. Johnson toured club members through the garage where he demonstrated a machine that can be attached to a car's engine to determine if the engine is running in time, by turning and setting positions on machine many things can be learned about the engine.

He stressed the need for all mechanics to go to classes to keep constantly up-dated on the changes being made in cars every year. Mr. Johnson showed the members a library of books with parts and accessories that are being updated on a monthly basis. A need for all mechanics to keep up with the newer car computerized components is a must. He insists that all of his mechanics attend all the area schools that are offered in this area.

After a tour of his garage, he discussed how to check under the hood of your car, for the amount of oil and water in the radiator. He stressed that everyone should check their tires before getting into their car and starting to drive off.

The next thing he discussed was how every woman should know how to change a flat tire. He showed how to take a jack out of the car, he discussed how all cars had instructions in the trunk lid on how to get the jack out and how to change the tire and how to put the jack up.

A great big "thank you" was given to Mr. Johnson for an interesting and informative program, by members present, Donnie Meriwether, Barbara Mathis, Judy Schacht, Martha Sue Lusk, Jill Golden, Laura Wilson, D'Lynn Morgan, Charlotte Mitchell, Sandra Turley, Kathey Hunter, Mary Ann Kring and Virginia Owens. After the program, members went to the home of Charlotte Mitchell for refreshments of chips, sandwiches, cookies and homemade oreo ice cream served from a table decorated with automotive parts. Co-hostess was Virginia Owens.

The devotion was, "What have we done today?", given by Mary Ann Kring. Roll call was, "I wish I would have known what to do for my car when it was not running alright." Charlotte Mitchell, president, conducted a short business meeting.

The next meeting will be held July 14th at the home of Donnie Meriwether, after a visit to Jannette Workman's Workout Gym.

Steve Alldredge of Plains, Mark of Lubbock and Karen and Tommy Klein of Sweetwater were all visitors in the Bob Alldredge home for Father's Day weekend. Wheat harvest was the order of the day. Even the Klein grandchildren, Jonathan, age 4, and Jeremy, age 2, helped with driving the combines and wheat trucks.

Hunter and Dean Smith, sons of Judge and Mrs. Choise Smith, will be playing in a junior golf tournament all this week in Lubbock.

Gail and Robert Ferguson of Woodrow visited her grandmother, Mrs. Roy Fawver Sunday. During the afternoon, they all went over to visit the Leslie Fawvers.

Mrs. Maxey McKnight of Kress was here Tuesday and Wednesday to visit her parents, the Earl Edwards.

Mrs. Charles Miller and son, Ford, of San Antonio spent the weekend with the Q.D. Williams. Ford was in a wedding in Lubbock Saturday. The others ate Saturday night supper at the new Roaring Springs Ranch Steak House, on the Dickens highway beside the golf course at Roaring Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Appling visited her brother-in-law, Lonnie Ellis at the Crosbyton hospital Sunday. He has pneumonia. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Olin Wallace while in Crosbyton.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Hammonds visited in Canyon last week with their daughter, Gaye Lynn Carpenter. They brought their little grandson, Cody, home with them for a few days, and Gaye Lynn came to get him Sunday.

Scott Battey is helping his father, Jerry Battey, finish up plowing. Kathy Battey left Monday for cheerleading camp at Big Spring this week with other Floydada cheerleaders.

Mrs. Q.D. Williams attended the Crowell High School 1940's reunion at Crowell last weekend. On Wednesday she took her father, Edgar Jones, to the ear doctor at Abilene. While in town they drove out to look at the campus of Abilene Christian University. Mr. Jones' uncle, N.L. Jones of Quanah, Texas, was a trustee of the university in years past. His uncle, N. Levi Jones, owned a large home in Quanah, had thirteen children, was a building contractor, and owned a string of cotton gins and flour mills from Vernon to the Plains. When Jones relatives would decide to leave Arkansas to seek their fortune in Texas, they would go to Quanah, which was the end of the railroad line for years, work for their uncle Levi in some of his enterprises until they got a grubstake, boarding with the big family. Then they would strike out on their own. Edgar's father worked a cowboy for twelve years around Quanah, took his pay in cattle until he and another cowboy left for the Plains with a herd of three thousand head. In those same years, Miss Thomas in Montgomery would ride the train to Childress, which had become the end of the line, catch the mail back to Floydada to spend the summer in Blanco Canyon on the ranch of her father, Col. Tom Montgomery.

Mrs. Nettie Adams visited Mrs. Roy Fawver Saturday. Flora was able to eat lunch at the Senior Citizens several times last week, and played 84 at the home of Mrs. William Mayo.

The James McGaughs went to Roaring Springs Ranch Saturday and Sunday for swimming and golf. They took little Scott Miller, age one and a half, along for the fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Womack have moved from the rock house where they formerly lived, to the brick home vacated by her parents, the Arnold Rathels, who moved to Crosbyton. On Father's Day, Joe and Julie entertained a number of relatives for dinner. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Rathel, Rodney and Randy Rathel, Mrs. Gertie Rathel, Leroy Rathel all of Crosbyton. Also Mr. and Mrs. Jay Austin of Spur, Tommy and Casey Johnson and Cere; Mrs. Ann Hodges of Spur and Bill Womack of Floydada.

Judge and Mrs. Choise Smith and children joined Scarlett and Punk Jackson and daughter, Tiki, of Spearman for Saturday night supper at the home of Flukie and Charlie Smith in Lubbock.

Misses Jody Smith, Tracy Harrison, and Anna Marie Joutat attended the opening night performance of "Texas" in Palo Duro Canyon Tuesday night. The young ladies were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cardinal.

Wheat harvest is short in Lakeview this year, due to much of the crop having been signed up in PIK. A great many acres were grazed out, baled or plowed under. Wheat harvest trucks and crews are in town and more arriving as the bumper crop on the Rolling Plains around Crowell is harvested and completed. That is all dry land wheat down under the Caprock, but very good this year. Rain fell at the right time and several farmers around Crowell are reporting yields in the 50 to 60 bushel class. Hundred degree weather here in Lakeview is buring the grass and rain is needed for pastures and crops.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mooseberg and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thurston attended the ice cream supper after church Sunday night at the City Park Church of Christ.

 'Tis June, the start of summer...
 ...With lots of chores and fun...
 With birthdays on the schedule
 It keeps us "on the run".

 We welcome Mrs. Roberts
 Whose years are 84...
 For such a lovely lady

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

Nursing Home activity has been very busy this week...with four more new residents...the activity increases. Robert (Bob) Stanley is with us. Bob is from Matador and was the pharmacist there for many years. Ruby Robertson is from Petersburg. Annie McCaghen is from Matador and Roxie Bennett is from Floydada. We are happy to have each of these nice people with us.

We were glad to have Wendy back on Monday morning. Wendy journeyed to Austin over the weekend to attend her son's wedding. Mrs. Troutman is back with us after her stay in the hospital.

On Monday afternoon, Kim was here with her Music Therapy. Twenty-seven residents enjoyed her "fun music"...and enjoyed...Kim! Also on Monday, Peggy Medley shared with us the cards made by her third grade Bible class during Vacation Bible School at First Baptist Church. The children designed inspirational cards with verses in their own words. Johnny Ochoa, Tony Arellano, Sylvia Caballero, Edward Wickware, Jessie Dean, and Gina Lee chose to share their cards with the residents here in the Nursing Home. We read and talked about the insights which the children revealed through their cards.

Resthome Birthday Party

We're wishing many more!

Our Mrs. Cobbs we're greeting...

...She's boasting 82...

A friend to all who know her

And MANY people do!

Our Mrs. Clara Williamson

...She counts from '95...
 Spends many hours in reading
 And keeps her mind alive!

 ...With the ever-ready smile...
 Has seen a lot in 90 years
 And she goes that "second milé..."

Mrs. Brashear we welcome
 ...Her parents named her Laura...
 She loves to greet her friends today
 And still will "come tomorrow."

Let's do the good old birthday song
 To bring these ladies cheer...
 And let them know we love them
 As they start another year!

Thursday, June 16 was birthday time at the Rest Home with ladies of the City Park Church of Christ hosting the party. Residents, honorees and guests were ushered into the dining room with the honorees being seated at the "honor" table. Mrs. Roberts was away seeing her doctor and was unable to be in the party.

The table was laid with an ecru cloth and centered with a floral arrangement in blue. Special cards, in blue, marked places for the guests of honor. Each lady was presented a lovely corsage of tiny blue and white mums, compliments of Williams Florist of Floydada. The Hesperian photographer came for the "picture taking" after which the party was well underway.

The poem was read and all joined in singing the birthday song. Mrs. Cobbs had as her special guest her daughter, Jane Bean. Seated with Mrs. Brashears was her daughter, Maxine Jarboe and Mrs. Williamson hosted her daughter, Dessie Turner. Mrs. Mary Mason of Matador was a guest of her cousin, Bennie Wilson.

A delicious refreshment plate of Angel Food cake and tangy fruit punch was served everyone present including guests and employees. It is so good to have relatives and friends visit with us and it is especially good for our guests of honor. Please come and be with us any time you can.

The next party will be Thursday, July 14, 2:30 p.m.

"Laugh Lines"

BY DON AND SARA PROBASCO

Bits of Humor, Trivia, and an occasional Word of Wisdom

In the tiny space of twenty years we have bred a whole generation of working people who take it for granted that they will never be out of a job or go a single year without a salary increase.

A gossip is someone who suffers from acute indiscretion.

The only thing that will stop falling hair is the floor.

What we need is a mirror with a little more consideration for old age.

Newspaper "bloopers": "A check at the local swimming pool revealed some startling figures."

"The FDA has compiled a list of poisons children may drink at home."

"Cheer up" someone said, "things could be worse." So I cheered up, and sure enough, they got worse.

Vocational-technical training at Wayland

Vocational-Technical training will be offered by Wayland Baptist University, Plainview, beginning August 30. This is part of the University's plan to provide broader coverage of services to the South Plains area and to its nation-wide student body. Two years ago Wayland began to offer Master's Degrees in three areas of graduate study. This summer it begins a vocational-technical program. The newest addition to Wayland's curriculum enables it to participate in all areas of post-secondary education—from short-term vocational courses to comprehensive graduate degrees.

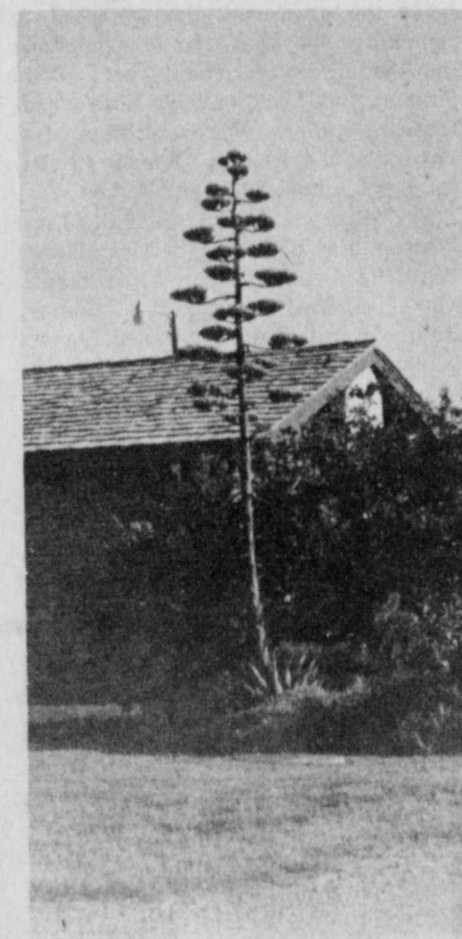

Electronics Technology, Automotive Mechanics, Welding, Building Trades, Vocational Nursing, Bookkeeper-Clerk, Child Care, Mid-Management and Real Estate Sales and Management will be taught in the International Occupational Center, which is located on Yonkers Street, at the western edge of the Wayland campus.

Tuition costs for the Vocational-Technical subjects are substantially lower than usual costs in private colleges and universities ($30.00 per semester hour), discounted for students from the six surrounding counties. These programs provide options for the traditional four-year college courses.

For additional information, contact: Director, Vocational-Technical Training, International Occupational Center, Wayland Baptist University, Plainview, Texas 79072.

John Leatherman of 917 S. Wall, is one of the most recent Floydada graduates to enroll in Wayland's vocational courses, choosing mechanics as his major.

A CENTURY PLANT growing at the Adrian Helms home has 28 extensions all bloomed out, despite the fact that it is only about 15-18' tall. It is really attractive if you are driving out Highway 70.

I would like to thank the following businesses for sponsoring the youth who participated in Tee-ball, Softball, T-shirt and Little League: Floydada Livestock Sales, Thompson Pharmacy, Fuller Trucking, Anderson's Dept. Store-Hale Ins., Brooks Oil, Brown Imp., Davis Farm Supply, First National Bank of Floydada (2 teams).

Norrell Tractor Parts, Lovell-Collins, Jewelry, Oden's Chevrolet-Olds, Floydada Insurance & Real Estate, State Farm Insurance, Cop. Adam's Well Service and Moore-Rose Funeral Home.

Softball season begins

There are 11 teams in the men's softball league this year. These are: Pay N Save, Stampley's, Paymaster, Knights, Coop, Providence, Fierros, Lamberts, High School, Raiders, and Patterson.

The league season began June 20 and will end on July 22. Each team will play a total of 10 games during the league. After league play is completed double elimination, a tournament for league teams only will begin on July 25. First and 2nd place individual trophies will be given and 1st, 2nd and 3rd team trophies will be given.

Softball Rules

I. The 1983 Men's softball began on June 20th and will end by August 10th.

II. A total of approximately 90 games will be played during this period.

III. The balls will be furnished by the league.

IV. A team must be able to field 8 players by the designated playing time or forfeit.

V. $160.00 per team will be charged. This money will be used to pay the umpire, buy the balls and keep the field up.

VI. If for any reason in the umpires judgement, the fans become unruly, the umpire will have the authority to forfeit the game of the team whose fans are causing the trouble. Using abusive language toward the players or the umpire will be reason enough.

VII. Each team will turn in a (no more than) 15 player roster. No restrictions have been put on as to who can play. But this can be subject to change. Teams be warned against loading a team with outsiders. Basically what was used in the tournament.

VIII. Players seen drinking in or around the ball park will be suspended from play for a full 7 days. It makes no difference rather they have a game that night or not!

IX. These rules were voted on and established by a majority vote by representatives from the following teams: Patterson Grain, Lockney Co-op, Tye Co., Lambert Spraying Service, Raiders, Stampleys, Providence, Paymaster and Fierros.

Slow pitch tourney set

A USSSA Men's Open Slow Pitch Tournament sponsored by the West Texas State Softball Team will be held at Southeast Park in Canyon and the WT softball field on July 16-17. Entry fee is $95.00 and entry deadline is July 12. For more information contact Tournament Director, Brenda Marshall, WT Softball Coach at office 656-2651 or home 655-4204.

Gray receives award

Local leather artist, Bill Gray, recently received a Citation Award at the "1983 Art Classic" juried show, sponsored by the Lubbock Art Association. His winning entry, entitled "Bulldogger," was also selected for the local circuit exhibit and will later be included in an exhibit at Hemphill-Wells in Lubbock.

It has also been learned that The Leather Factory of Chattanooga, Tennessee, has selected one of Gray's works, A Blue Jay, entitled "Now It's Spring" to be included in the "Idea Sheet" series, a monthly publication nationally distributed by the Tennessee leather firm.

Having done leather art for over thirty years, his one-man show at Floydada's First National Bank in November, 1982, was first full-scale exposure of his works. He is rapidly gaining a name in this unique art form.

and the national exposure to be gained from the Leather Factory series should enhance his reputation. Several Arts & Crafts Festivals, plus an up-coming one-man show in Lubbock are keeping Gray quite busy, with several original works now in the planning stages.

The framing for all his works is being handled exclusively by Stan McClen-don's "Frames Unlimited," of Floydada. According to Bill, "Stan's materials and excellent workmanship have that certain 'Western Rustic Touch' that is so complimentary to my leather art and pictorials."

My sincere thanks to everyone for making my stay in the hospital so much more pleasant. I could not ask for better treatment or care than I received from the staff there. The doctor and nurses and aids were so nice to me. Thanks to the nursing home staff and residents. Center News

BY MRS. J.E. GREEN

Hello, everyone! I am home again after my spring jaunt attending graduations, etc. But let us see about around home first.

Mrs. Marion Carpenter has had a cold but better. Mrs. Ashton of Lockney Rest Home is some better. We are happy to see Miss Alma Ruth Nelson of Floydada Rest Home able to be in church Sunday. Glad to see Mrs. Plumlee home and at church after a long visit with a daughter and family in Alabama.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Forman of Wichita Falls visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brewer from Friday to Sunday p.m. Mrs. Brewer is Forman's sister. The Formans and Brewers were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Watson of Mt. Blanco.

Mrs. Ava Jackson, I understand, is visiting in Amarillo with friends and relatives. Mrs. Roe Jones visited her daughter and family in Plainview over the weekend - Helen Milton.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayfield's company over the weekend were their son Eugene and family of Henrietta.

Hal Thomas spent Friday night thru Saturday night in Lubbock visiting his daughter and family. Sue and Milton Mensch and small sons, David and Calvin Dwayne, David came home with his granddad for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Rogers are at home about as well as usual. So are Brother and Mrs. Muncy of Lockney. Mrs. Anthony Latta is doing very well after surgery in Methodist Hospital, Lubbock.

Mrs. Ethel Warren, who was involved in a car wreck awhile back, was getting ready to go for a check-up with the doctor when I called. Not feeling too well. Mrs. Ola Warren and Mrs. Fred Battey were able to attend church both services Sunday.

The Thomas Warrens had a family get-together with all their children at home for Sunday dinner.

I was sorry to miss the Old Settlers, and to miss the visit of Bro. Ulman and Ruth Moss. We hope they will be back in September for Center Homecoming.

Mrs. Mayfield has word from Margaret Tubbs Fisher of Livermore, California that her husband has contracted a terminal disease, but is better and they hope to be able to be at the Center homecoming.

When I leave home, I am anxious about friends or neighbors who are sick, but this time we had lost long-time friends who we did not know were sick. First was a good neighbor, Mr. Earl Huckaby who moved away from Center to Dumas many years ago. Then Bro. R.C. Hodges of Plainview. Bro. and Mrs. Hodges were attending Wayland College over 30 years ago. She became a teacher in a Plainview high school and he was a ministerial student. Without a pastor, Center, when they came one Sunday and he preached, elected him at once, they became our loved pastoral family for six years. We grieve with these in their loss.

When spring comes we grandmothers begin to count our candidates for graduation. This year I had three - two in May and one in August - Annie, Clyde's youngest and Margaret's oldest son, J.M. Ryman III. And Steve in August (too far away; I can't go to it). And I've already missed one, Clyde's oldest, Gretchen from Hoonah, Alaska, (valedictorian, got a scholarship to Howard-Payne - her parents teachers in Alaska that year.) Annie was to graduate from Las Lunas Hi School, a town of about 1500, 212 graduates and the program in the stadium, the largest crowd and so enthusiastic. Annie - near the top grade - got a scholarship to Howard Payne. The date was May 25.

On Sunday May 22 Margaret's daughter and family came from Lubbock for me - no bus out of Floydada - and my way was planned for me by Clyde, Margaret and Sarah. On Monday Sarah put me on the plane for Albuquerque. I don't care for planes - that was my second. But since Jay's graduation was two days later, that was the only way I could attend both. Thursday I flew back to Lubbock and Friday we, the Chandler family, Sarah and Doug and my great-grand Bo (nearly 3) and I got an early start for Hubbard. We made it for Jay's graduation. It was nice, too.

I was to stay at Margaret's and Docs till after Donna's wedding. Clyde and Onita came - the wedding was June 12. I spent part of the two Sundays in Hillsboro with my brother's widow, Mattie Matthews, in the Rest Home. And Clyde's brought me home, then Monday June 13 they went back home to Peralta, New Mexico. The newly weds after a honeymoon in Austin are settled in Abilene, the Richard Birds.

Local duo race around with hobby

By Hope Warren

Many Floydada people have unique hobbies. One very unique hobby discovered is the hobby of Dale Derryberry and David Ware. Their hobby is named Poor Boy and is a street legal red race car.

Poor Boy was acquired over a year ago from Strickland's Auto Sales in Lockney. In addition to this car Derryberry and Ware have purchased another yellow car about two months ago named Trouble Maker, from Kevin Phillips of Plainview.

The races they run are held in Lubbock. The season begins the first week in May and continues until the first week in September. The races are held on the second and fourth Sundays of the month. These races are called "Point Races." They also drive in races on the first and third Friday nights for practice and fun. According to Derryberry and Ware either driver has never been in a wreck, and added they don't intend to. The races begin in the morning and continue into the evening.

Both drivers drive in time trials to determine the driver in the race. Points are built up by the best times turned in and the places in the race. The top point winner at the end of the season is eligible to drive in the Green Valley Race in October. The Green Valley Race is held in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex. The winner of the Green Valley Race then competes in Amarillo in the quarterfinals. The team of Derryberry-Ware already has 210 points. They are the leaders in their division, and out of 32 racers in the Lubbock area, Derryberry-Ware are placed sixth.

Cost is a great factor in the performance of a car. According to Derryberry, they have invested $4,000 in Poor Boy. Ware added, they have spent $2,500 in the motor alone. The engine in Poor Boy is a 396 board to a 402. They receive their parts from Oden's Chevrolet and Caprock Motor Parts. The best time Poor Boy has turned in is 13.73 which is approximately 105-107 miles per hour.

When Derryberry and Ware received Poor Boy, they had to rebuild the entire car. The paint job was done by Ernest Torrez, Sr. The number D447 on the windshield is the permanent number to enter the National Hotrod Association.

Assisting Derryberry and Ware as the "pit crew" are: Vicki Ware, Sheryl Derryberry and Ricky Nichols.

According to Derryberry and Ware, they are selling Poor Boy at the end of the season. At this time they are working to get Trouble Maker into running condition. According to Derryberry and Ware, Trouble Maker is going to be a faster car.

Aiding Derryberry and Ware in financial expenses are their sponsors: Sears, Bill Weir, Reed Ford, Thompson's Pharmacy, City Auto, Oden's

Chevrolet, Floydada Ready Mix. Our Place, Quality Body Shop, Red-X. These sponsors pay ten dollars a piece for entry fees and car accessories. Derryberry and Ware are also thankful for the support they receive from the townspeople and would like to invite everyone to come to the races.
