Growing of Youth

Youths who, seemingly only a few short years ago, were literally babes in arms, are stepping forward at this time of the year in high school gyms, auditoriums, open air stadiums and various other locations throughout the nation, to receive their high school diplomas and advance one more step toward assuming their responsibilities as our citizens and leaders of tomorrow.

This also is the time when many families haul out the family scrapbooks and albums to cast fond memories over photographs and other mementoes telling about the Senior of '82 "back when".

Through the courtesy of Bill Dixon, a Rivercrest senior who is among the 1982 RHS graduates, and his mother, Mrs. Carol Jean Leake of Talco, The Bogata News and Talco Times obtained pictures of Bill, taken during each of his school years, from kindergarten to now, plus a "bonus" photo of Bill as a 17-month-old delightful back in the mid-60's. The pictures serve as a typical, and interesting, pictorial history of the "growing up of youth" over the years.

Congratulations to Bill, the Rivercrest seniors and all other seniors of '82. The world awaits you!

When a name isn't a name

Apparently we made it through our first two editions without too many glaring boo-boos. Then came our third issue last week and with it was a bit of name changing on the ad for the First National Bank in Bogata.

The bank has started a series of ads, introducing the friendly folks who work in the bank. Last week's ad featured Joan Barnett.

We're new in the area, but we knew the name was Barnett and had so printed the name on the copy to be published beneath her picture.

But, somewhere along the line those ugly and pesky gremlins jumped up and changed things.

When the finished product rolled off the press, too late to do anything except slam your fist through the wall and utter nasty words, Joan Barnett had become Joan Bennett.

When a newspaper makes a goof, it's out there in the wide open for all to see and the Bennett for Barnett switch was certainly out in the open.

We don't imagine the name-swap was appreciated too fondly by Mrs. Barnett, certainly not her husband who knows she is his wife, and knows his name isn't Bennett. No doubt it was equally confusing, puzzling and irritating among the folks and customers at the First National.

We have always maintained there is no excuse for a mistake in a newspaper. We still say it. Nevertheless, the mistake was made and it was out there for everyone to see. We do apologize for the goof and hopefully the ad that is being reprinted today, voluntarily on our part, comes out correctly.

Speaking of goofs in the newspaper ads and attempts to amend the mistake, we are reminded of the trials and tribulations of the minister who started out by placing a classified ad in a daily newspaper to sell a TV set.

The tale of the ad that ended up being published five straight days goes as follows:

Monday's ad: The Rev. A.J. Garven has one TV set for sale. Tel. 423-5771 after 7 p.m. and ask for Mrs. Donnelly who lives with him cheap."

Tuesday's ad: "We regret any embarrassment to Rev. Garven caused by a typographical error in an ad in yesterday's paper. It should have read: The Rev. A.J. Garven has one TV set for sale cheap. Tel. 423-5771 and ask for Mrs. Donnelly who lives with him after 7 p.m."

Wednesday's ad: "Rev. Garven informs us that he has received several annoying telephone calls because of an incorrect ad in yesterday's paper. It should have read: The Rev. A.J. Garven has one TV set for sale cheap. Tel. 423-5771 after 7 p.m. and ask for Mrs. Donnelly who loves with him."

Thursday's ad: "Please take note that I, Rev. Garven, have no TV set for sale. I have smashed it—don't call 423-5771 anymore. I have not been carrying on with Mrs. Donnelly and until yesterday Mrs. Donnelly was my housekeeper."

Friday's ad: "Wanted, a housekeeper, usual housekeeping duties, good pay, love in. Contact Rev. A.J. Garven, Tel. 423-5771."

Runoff Nears, But Interest Low Key

With absentee voting underway and the Democratic election now only 10 days distant, interest remains low-keyed in the Talco area even though Talco voters will cast ballots on three precinct-level runoffs and one countywide job.

Absentee voting in the June 5 runoff began Wednesday and will continue through next Tuesday, with requests for absentee ballots to be made at the county clerk's office in Mt. Pleasant.

In addition to the runoff duels on the statewide ballot, Talco Democrats will cast their verdict for county judge; county commissioner of Precinct 3; justice of the peace and constable; along with having a say in the runoff for state representative of District 8.

On the more-local level, Ronnie Logan and Roy Price are the candidates for Pct. 3 county commissioner; Johnny Mac Brown and Hubert Martin are battling for Pct. 3 justice of peace job; and Jack Daniel is facing Steve Stephens for the constable's badge.

For county judge of Titus County, the bidders for the Democratic nomination in the runoff are Jimmy Shields and Bill Harper. Shields was the leader in the initial vote duel on May 1 with 30 percent of the tally.

For the state representative's job, a post that will be filled by a new occupant with the retirement of Buck Florence of Hughes Springs, the bidders for the Democratic nomination are Sam Russell of Mt. Pleasant and Gary Willeford of Hughes Springs.

The state representative district takes in Titus, Camp, Morris, Franklin, Cass and Marion counties. Russell won all but Cass in the May 1 vote tabulation. The winner between Russell and Willeford will face Republican Mike Ellis of Daingerfield in the November finals.

Petition for 'Unit' Vote

A petition calling for a countywide election on the unit rule has been submitted to the Titus County Commissioners Court.

The unit rule, if approved, would provide for all road services and purchases to be handled by a county engineer instead of the present system of decisions by individual precinct commissioners for their precinct.

The earliest date an election could be called is August 3, according to County Judge Harry Taylor.

ELECT ROY PRICE COMMISSIONER Titus County PRECINCT 3

During the past few months you have had to make several decisions as to which man you thought was best to serve in several public positions. Now is the time to consider once again which man is the better for the job that needs to be done.

If you elect me I plan to attend all meetings of the commissioner's court and work with all city and county officials to improve the county government. I will be on the job daily overseeing all road construction and repairs. I feel I have the experience and common sense to do a good job for you. I have lived in Titus county all my life and know majority of you as friends, the ones I do not know I have tried to meet and get acquainted with.

I ask that you review what you know about each candidate and make your decision.

Most important — it is up to the people of precinct 3 to get out June 5th and elect the man they want for their commissioner.

I have told you I will be fair and honest to all and you know I have experience in all areas of the job. I ask you once again for your vote June 5th.

THE EASY CHAIR BY Mike Fuller

Vacations are great levelers. The person who takes one returns just as broke as the person who stayed home because he couldn't afford to go away.

A successful person is one who went ahead and did the things the rest of us never quite got around to.

A town is usually divided by a railroad, a main street, and a lot of opinions.

Here's how we see it: you'll find the best buys in home furnishings right here at Fuller Furniture.
