Club Women From 20 Cities Attend Convention

By JO BRIGHT

The power of a woman is never more positive than when it is strengthened by the support of several million club women. Therein lies the key to the growing influence of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the largest women's organization in the world.

International in membership and magnitude, it is backed by many of the world's well-known women — and influential men. Tea-sipping has slipped by the wayside, as the federation has turned its time and potential to pressing problems created by the fastest-changing era in history.

Arriving in Big Spring today, to study and take action on projects and proposals of world-wide interest, is a host of federated club women, members of the Western District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. The Thirty-Third annual convention is being hosted by local federated clubs, including the 1948 Hyperion, 1905 Hyperion, Woman's Forum Modern Woman's Forum, Big Spring Progressive Forum, Junior Woman's Forum and Spoudazio Fora Study Club.

The two-day event will feature business and program sessions in the Big Spring Senior High School auditorium, a dinner this evening and luncheon Saturday in the school cafeteria, and executive board meetings and breakfasts at Holiday Inn.

Over 20 cities in West Texas will be represented by convention delegates, some of whom have traveled from as far as El Paso, Mrs. Richmond Dublin, Odessa, Western District president, will be the highest-ranking presiding officer, with Mrs. Henry F. Shaper Sr., San Antonio, president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs being a guest. Mrs. Shaper will address the convention during a luncheon in her honor Saturday.

Mrs. Hayes Stripling Sr. is general chairman for the convention, and working with her are Mrs. W. N. Norred, assistant chairman, and Mrs. Jerry Barron, junior club chairman. Other local women in responsible positions are Mrs. Clyde Angel, president's page; Mrs. R. J. Ream, registrar; Mrs. Merle Stewart, registration; Mrs. H. W. Smith, exhibits; Mrs. Hugh Duncan, doorkeeper; Mrs. L. B. Maulden, transportation; Mrs. Lloyd Wasson, hospitality; Mrs. Rogers Hefley, platform and house; and Mrs. Harwood Keith (a past district president), credentials.

Pre-convention activities this morning included an executive board luncheon at Holiday Inn, followed by a meeting of the executive board with department, division and committee

This program is designed to give recognition to young people who are exhibiting leadership and good citizenship. You can help recognize them, also, with a nomination.

Arab Pressure

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The Arab countries appear to be mounting a campaign to pressure Israel into accepting the Big Four powers as architects of peace in the Middle East.

The pattern emerged in statements Thursday by Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser in Cairo and by Jordan at the urgent session of the U.N. Security Council in New York. The Jordan position got strong support from the Soviet Union.

Ambassador Muhammad H. El-Farra of Jordan charged in the council that the Israeli raid on a village near Salt on Wednesday was undertaken with the aim of torpedoing the peace efforts of the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain and France.

Israeli Ambassador Yosef Tekoah denied the charge and said the raid was aimed at a base of Al Fatah, the Arab guerrilla organization which proclaims as its aim the destruction of Israel.

Oil, Gas Fire Kills One, Injures 50

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Firefighters spraying fountains of foam today put out a huge oil and gasoline fire which killed a tanker truck attendant and burned 50 other persons—many of them spectators.

A county fire department spokesman said the fire in a fuel storage tank field was completely controlled after firemen snuffed out flames licking around a storage tank filled with one million gallons of gasoline.

Sheriff's Deputy John Barnick said the injuries to spectators would have been averted if they had heeded officers' warnings to move back. Barnick said that shortly after the warning a new explosion shot flames over a block-long distance, causing flash burns to many onlookers.

The flames had diminished Thursday night several hours after two explosions ripped the Fletcher Oil Co. refinery in the suburb of Carson, but burst suddenly out of control again this morning.

The fire centered in a pool of liquid encircling an already exploded butane tank.

Three 1.3-million gallon tanks and six smaller ones were set ablaze when a truck unloading fuel burst into flames Thursday evening, killing Myron Chase, 47, of nearby Long Beach.

As up to 200 firemen battled flame consuming jet fuel, diesel oil, butane, gasoline, naphtha, and crude oil, a second explosion blasted apart another tank. A block away, about two dozen spectators—including 15 youngsters on bicycles—suffered flash burns. Two dozen firemen also were treated for burns.

Firemen theorized the truck fire might have been touched off by a static electricity spark.

The truck's other attendant, Steven Yancy, 57, was hospitalized with second and third degree burns over 60 per cent of his body.

A refinery spokesman reported one employee missing.

The refinery is in a flat industrial area closely bordered by homes, a highway and open fields.

The first explosion at about 5:30 p.m. sent the top of a gigantic storage tank sailing onto nearby Main Street.

Flames and thick smoke shot up to 1,000 feet and could be seen for 20 miles.

Tremors Leave 43 Turks Dead

ISTANBUL (AP) — A wave of strong earth tremors jolted Turkey's Aegean region today, leaving 43 persons known dead. More than 2,500 homes were reported to have collapsed or been seriously damaged. The focus of the quake was located at the towns of Alasehir and Sarigol and their surroundings—about 80 miles east of the Aegean port of Izmir.

Eisenhower Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dwight D. Eisenhower, commander in World War II of the mightiest armed force ever assembled and former president of the United States, died today.

The announcement of the general's death was made in a somber voice by Brig. Gen. Frederic Hughes Jr., commanding general of Walter Reed Army Hospital who said that Eisenhower had "died quietly at 11:25 a.m. (Big Spring time) after a long and heroic struggle," and that he had died peacefully.

"Mrs. Eisenhower and members of the immediate family" were nearby at the time of death, Hughes continued.

He added President Nixon, former President Lyndon B. Johnson and Eisenhower's two brothers had been notified.

Nixon meanwhile drove from the White House to the hospital. The White House said he would have a statement, a message to Congress and a proclamation later.

The 78-year-old five-star general, known as "Ike" throughout the world, was hit by congestive heart failure March 15 and again last Monday while recuperating from an intestinal operation and pneumonia complications.

With the rugged constitution of a Kansas farm boy, he already had battled back from seven heart attacks before undergoing surgery for an intestinal obstruction Feb. 23.

Four days after undergoing the high-risk surgery, he contracted pneumonia. Doctors successfully combatted the pneumonia with antibiotics.

But throughout the February trouble, it was Eisenhower's heart which caused doctors their prime concern.

Doctors made no mention of the congestive heart failure March 15 until after Eisenhower's wife, Mamie, said at a party the general had endured a "particularly bad" day.

Reporters questioned the hospital and were told of the latest onset of heart trouble.

Eisenhower had been hospitalized since last April 29, when a heart attack felled him in California after a round of golf. He was transferred to Walter Reed and there suffered three more,

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

his seventh coming on Aug. 16.

Since then he had gained vigor, walked short distances, received President Nixon and former President Lyndon B. Johnson, and grinned his famed and folksy grin from a hospital window when an Army band, observing "Salute to Eisenhower Week," serenaded him on his birthday Oct. 14.

The grin was dimmed from 1944, when it heartened allied troops mobilized for the awesome thrust through Normandy to the heart of Nazi Germany; from 1948, when he became president of Columbia University; from 1950, when he assumed supreme command of NATO forces; and from 1952, when both Democrats and Republicans sought him as their nominee for president.

As a Republican, he swept into office and four years later won re-election in what was then the greatest landslide in history. That made him the only GOP president of this century to win successive White House terms.

Despite this stunning political victory, Eisenhower disdained always partisan politics and privately made no secret of a dislike for politicians.

"I think in the general derogatory sense you can say, of course, that I do not like politics," he told a 1955 news conference.

And despite his rise to supreme allied commander in Europe during World War II, he was no fonder of what he called "this damnable thing of war."

While in the Army, Eisenhower said he wanted only to see "people in my profession permanently out of a job."

He left office after his second term proudest that he kept the peace, but warning against the

Day Of Mourning

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon mourned the death of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower today declaring he had been "an inspiration to us all," an inspiring leader and a great teacher.

He said Eisenhower had exerted for a quarter-century "a moral authority seldom equaled in American life."

In a presidential proclamation, Nixon sadly announced the death to the nation and set aside next Monday, March 31, as a national day of mourning growing influence of a "military-industrial complex."

Ike's reassuring image eased troubled years. Fidel Castro seized Cuba, led it into communism. The Soviet Union launched Sputnik 1. The U2 spy plane was shot down over Russia in flaming controversy.

Eisenhower made good his promise to end the war in Korea, ordered federal troops into Little Rock, Ark., to enforce school desegregation, and backed up his secretary of state, John Foster Dulles, in the Cold War policy called "brinkmanship" by critics.

But in 1955 the nation was plunged into apprehension when a severe heart attack hospitalized him in Denver for seven weeks.

Then Vice President Richard M. Nixon, just one faltering heartbeat from the presidency, got a foretaste of the dire responsibility he would not win in his own right until 13 years later.

The body will lie in state, first, at the Washington Cathedral for one day.

Then it will be borne by caisson—at slow march and to the roll of drums—down historic Constitution Avenue to the Capitol, where the public will be permitted to file by the bier in the rotunda for 24 hours.

On the third day after death, under a plan drawn in 1966, the remains will be taken back to Washington Cathedral for funeral services. The President, vice president, heads of state and other dignitaries will be invited.

Finally, the body will be taken to Abilene, Kan., his boyhood home.

Delegate Arrives

Capt. D. L. Ramsey, delegate from the 364th Pilot Training Wing at Laredo AFB, arrives at the Webb AFB flightline for the two-day Junior Officer Council conference. Capt. Ramsey is a T-38 instructor pilot and will serve as one of the three panel chiefs at the conference.

Junior Officers Open Command Conference

The two-day command-wide Junior Officer Council conference opened this morning at Webb AFB, with Col. William C. McGlothlin, Webb wing commander, welcoming the delegates.

The conference, the first of its kind in the Air Training Command, has drawn 35 junior officers, representatives of every base in the command.

The purpose of the conference is to study and consider problems of the junior officer, and how they relate to officer retention.

A briefing on personnel policies, procedures and programs will be given during a public panel chiefs presentation Saturday afternoon in With-combe Hall, beginning at 2 p.m. The results will be forwarded to Lt. Gen. Sam Maddux Jr., ATC commander.

The conference, which will be marked with briefings, seminar sessions and panel discussions, will come to a close Saturday night with a Texas-style barbecue at Richard Anderson's Muleshoe Ranch. The entertainment includes a mini-rodeo, square dance demonstration, and discussions on cattle ranching. It is being sponsored by the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce.

Delegates moved to Withycombe Hall following the opening breakfast and welcome by Col. McGlothlin this morning in the Webb Officers' Open Mess. There they received day-long briefings on such topics as career motivation, status of the officer force, ATC rated officer assignments and ATC support officer assignments. These briefings were given by personnel from the military personnel center at Randolph AFB, and from Headquarters USAF, Washington, D.C.

Panel discussions and conferences began in the afternoon and will continue Saturday morning. This evening the delegates will convene in the Webb Officers' Open Mess for a banquet in which Brig. Gen. Ernest T. Cragg, ATC deputy chief of staff for Operations, will be speaker.

'Rally For Decency' Sparks Imagination

By The Associated Press

The success of a teenage decency rally in Miami, Fla., has sparked the imagination of young people and civic leaders around the nation. Plans are now being laid for similar gatherings in 11 other communities.

"The best thing that has happened in this country in a long time," said Hyman A. Pressman, Baltimore's Department of Recreation and Parks, at Pressman's suggestion, has opened Memorial Stadium for a decency rally April 20.

Two Indianapolis high school students are planning a "Rally for Decency" party after spring break.

Dale Bookwater, 16, a leader of the Indianapolis movement, said, "We're tired of negative things. So are most young people. We just think it is time for a positive attitude about our city, our schools, our country, our parents. And we prefer decency in entertainment to some of the stuff offered us."

The Miami rally, which drew 30,000 people to the Orange Bowl Sunday, was organized after Jim Morrison, lead singer of the popular rock group, The Doors, was charged with indecent exposure during a March 1 Miami concert. Six warrants were issued for his arrest.

Mike Levesque who organized the Miami rally, summed up what he stands for on his business cards: belief in God, love of our planet, love of family, and reverence for one's sexuality and racial equality.

In a letter of appreciation to Levesque, President Nixon said, "This very positive approach which focused attention on a number of problems confronting society strengthens my belief that the younger generation is our greatest natural resource and therefore of tremendous hope for the future."

Levesque has been asked to organize teenage rallies in Birmingham, Ala., Minneapolis, Minn. and Phoenix, Ariz.

In Austin, Tex., advertisements announced an "Upsurge for Decency" rally on April 7 backed by 25 civic, religious and educational organizations.

The Arkansas House of Representatives adopted a resolution calling on the War Memorial Stadium Commission in Little Rock to set a date for a "Rally for Decency."

The legislators authorized the use of school vehicles to bus students to the rally from all over the state.

Charles Knight, a freshman at Tallahassee, Fla., Junior College, said plans are being made to hold a decency rally there.

"A 'Teens for Decency' rally has been set for April 20 at the Cincinnati Gardens. The show is being backed by Frank Weikel, a columnist for The Cincinnati Enquirer, and Bob Braun, a local television personality.

Flexibility For Court Proposed

A bill (HB 1115) to give flexibility to the home of the Eleventh District Court of Civil Appeals has been introduced by Rep. Temple Dickson, Sweetwater. It has been referred to the House Judiciary committee.

Two years ago Rep. Dickson introduced a measure to move the court from Eastland to Abilene, but this was defeated. HC 1115 would permit the court to sit at either Eastland or Abilene, provided accommodations without cost to the state. It also would require that all cases originating in Eastland, Comanche, Erath, and Palo Pinto counties be heard at Eastland.

chairmen. Exhibit entries were received from 10 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the foyer at the high school.

Mrs. Dublin presided this afternoon for the formal opening of the convention at 2 p.m., when the Pledge of Allegiance was read by Mrs. J. W. Hunt. Mayor Arnold Marshall was on hand to welcome the women to the city, and the response was by Mrs. James Petticoles. The club collected adopted internationally, was sung by vocalists from Howard County Junior College.

The remainder of the afternoon, according to Mrs. Howard Mims, Midland, was to be allotted to reports of district officers and two department programs. Mrs. V. C. Phillips, Fine Arts Department chairman, was to introduce Mrs. Charles McCally, narrator for a presentation on the Shakespear Globe Theatre in Odessa.

The second feature, "A Changing View of the Change of Life," was to be introduced by Mrs. B. H. McManis. It is a film produced by the American Medical Association. Also included on the afternoon agenda was "In Memoriam," by Mrs. Harry Tompkins.

The Education and International Affairs dinner will be held this evening at 7 o'clock in the Big Spring High School cafeteria, highlighted by two guest speakers, Dr. Ignacio Manolo Munoz of Nacogdoches formerly of Valencia, Spain, and Mrs. Luman Holman of Jacksonville, Texas.

Dr. Munoz received the bachelor of arts degree in Spain, and in 1962 came to this country to study law at Vanderbilt University. He earned his MA degree at Stephen F. Austin College in Nacogdoches and is a Ph.D. candidate at the University of North Carolina.

Dr. Munoz has published various articles on art as well as some fiction. His ceramics and pictures have been featured in national salons, and his poetry has been published. Several colleges and universities have presented his lectures on cultural programs.

Mrs. Holman has chosen the topic, "Sugar, Spice and Everything Nice." She is an English teacher, mother of seven children, and author of the book, "Spanish Nuggets."

On the same dinner program will be Spanish dances by Senorita Christina Guerrero Odessa.

Saturday's schedule will begin with a 7:30 a.m. breakfast for past presidents, executive board members and junior club representatives. The convention reconvenes at 9 a.m. in the high school auditorium for presentations by the Home Life Department, Public Affairs Department and Conservation Department, the latter to include a Community Improvement Project report with a film, "The Power of a Woman." Entertainment will be under the direction of Mrs. Leland Croft Odessa, who will introduce violinists from the Fine Arts Day School.

The concluding event will be the luncheon honoring Mrs. Shaper, where the Texas Heritage Department will be spotlighted. Award awards will be announced, as well as the Outstanding Junior Club Woman and Outstanding Juniorette.

Progress reports and discussion during the convention will range from community needs and changing morality, to focusing attention on conservation of natural resources, air pollution, safety education and needs of elderly citizens.

One of the federation's high priority goals this year is that it's voice be heard — and heard — in furthering better government.

Nixon Is Pushing Satellite 'Flop'

WASHINGTON (AP) — A satellite that flopped seven years ago is getting a push from the Nixon administration because it shows promise as an early warning device against a submarine-launched missile attack.

The satellite uses infrared devices to detect missiles by sensing the heat they emit as they leave the launch pad.

In the case of intercontinental range missiles, this satellite could provide as much as 30 minutes warning, about double that which can now be provided by radar capable of seeing the missiles only when they clear the horizon.

With the growing threat from Soviet missile-launching submarines the need for nearly instantaneous warning of attack has become imperative, since missiles fired from submarines off shore would take only a few minutes to reach target in the United States.

The satellite used to be called Midas. In 1962, it ran into trouble because infrared technology was not yet equal to the task.

The Air Force in late 1962 was ordered to reorient the program and return it to the research and development phase.

Now the Midas has made a full reappearance under a new name, Satellite Early Warning System.

The Pentagon has asked Congress to appropriate an additional $93 million for this project in the bookkeeping year starting July 1, largely to expand coverage but also to accelerate work on improved reliability, communications and sensitivity.

Wilson's Government Destined To Lose Race

LONDON (AP) — After a stunning electoral defeat Prime Minister Harold Wilson's Labor government appeared to most political commentators today to be destined to lose the next general election no matter what it does.

Thursday's rout, in which Conservatives swept three special parliamentary elections, gave the Labor party the longest run of special election defeats of any party in the 20th century.

More immediately serious for Wilson was an open challenge to his policies from Home Secretary James Callaghan, one of the party's big five. He came out against government proposals for trade union reform, including a strike vote and a 28-day cooling-off period before major strikes, and compulsory arbitration in interunion disputes.

Wilson's supporters accused Callaghan of trying to get union backing so he could try to replace Wilson.

In the voting Thursday, one Labor seat previously held by a Conservative was captured by a Laborite and retained two others in the traditionally Tory seaside resorts of Brighton and Weston-Super-Mare. The set-back left Labor with a 71-seat

FOR PERSONS OBSERVING SATURDAY AS SABBATH

Texas Absentee Ballot Is Voted

AUSTIN (AP) — Absentee voting privileges for some Jews and Seventh Day Adventists and a long list of gubernatorial appointments have been approved by Texas legislators.

The lawmakers had a busy day Thursday before adjourning for their usual three-day week-end.

Before quitting, the House passed a Senate bill that permits persons who observe the sabbath on Saturday—Seventh Day Adventists and certain Jews—to vote absentee in elections falling on Saturdays. The bill returns to the Senate for approval of minor amendments.

HARDEMAN HASSLE

About 20 appointments were approved by the Senate, including Tom Gordon and Joe Burwitt Greer, former state highway engineer, to the Texas Highway Commission; Dr. Wendell Hamrick, Air Control Board, and Leslie R. Neal, Texas Water Rights Commission. No action was taken, however, on the controversial appointments of former Sen. Dorsey Hardeman, San Angelo, to the state Insurance Board and William Blakemore II, Midland, to the Public Safety Commission. Hardeman is expected to be insurance board chairman if he is confirmed.

Several sources said at least 11 senators—enough to block it—opposed Hardeman's and Blakemore's nominations.

The Senate passed and sent to the House a bill that would allow persons who have been denied private club licenses to appeal to local district courts instead of to courts in Austin.

CRIME LABS

Other Senate bills passed to the House would raise from 25 years to life the maximum penalty for assault to murder and would increase the maximum fine for creating a public nuisance from $100 to $1,000. Sponsors said this was to conform with previously approved Senate bills authorizing prosecution of air and water polluters under the public nuisance laws and providing a $1,000 top fine.

The House passed and sent to Gov. Preston Smith for signature a bill allowing commissioners courts of counties with 900,000 or more people to issue as much as $1.5 million in bonds to finance crime laboratories.

Also finally passed and sent to Smith was a bill abandoning the annual school census in favor of censuses every five years. The bill also changes the basis for allocating the available school fund—some $260 million this year—from so many dollars per school-age child to a given amount per child actually in school.

ELECTION DATE

The Senate completed—for the time being—one of its biggest tasks of the session, passage of a record $5.77 billion general appropriations bill for 1969-71. House members are expected to act on their somewhat smaller bill before April 15, giving a joint conference committee the final job of writing a spending bill that both Houses will ultimately have to accept or reject.

Senators also approved and returned to the House for action a proposed constitutional change authorizing the state to issue $3.5 billion in bonds to finance its share of the $10 billion statewide water plan.

Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake, the sponsor, said he would ask the House Monday to accept the amendment, which sets an Aug. 5 election date on the amendment. That would complete legislative action on the measure, leaving the final decision to the voters.

BEATEN BACK BY SHERIDANS North Vietnamese Ambush U.S. Convoy Second Time

SAIGON (AP) — More than 200 North Vietnamese ambushed a U.S. convoy for the second time in two days northwest of Saigon today but were beaten back by new Sheridan light tanks, armored personnel carriers, planes and helicopter gunships.

One of the controversial 16-ton Sheridan tanks was destroyed by a rocket grenade that sliced through the turret and set it afire. Four tankers were wounded, two seriously.

Reports from the battle on the Ben Cui rubber plantation 45 miles northwest of Saigon said 46 North Vietnamese and three Americans were killed. The three Americans were riding in an armored personnel carrier that was hit by a rocket grenade.

Battlefront reports said the Sheridans criticized in Congress this week, fired deadly artillery "beehives" point blank. Each "Beehive" is loaded with more than 10,000 pieces of shrapnel an inch and a half long in the shape of darts.

Ten miles south on Highway 19, hundreds of North Vietnamese tried to ambush another 25th Division convoy Tuesday. That time 85 of the enemy and two Americans were reported killed.

U.S. spokesmen said the North Vietnamese today either opened fire too soon or were spotted by tankmen a mile ahead of the 120 trucks of ammunition and food for the 25th Division base camp at Tay Ninh. The first shots were fired at the tanks and armored personnel carriers.

The North Vietnamese were about 10 yards off the highway, on both sides of it, behind the stumps of rubber trees. Because of daily convoys, the Americans had cut down the trees and brush for 200 yards on each side of the road.

Within 10 minutes after the enemy began slamming rocket grenades at the 40 tanks and armored personnel carriers leading the convoy, American artillery, bombers and helicopter gunships were in action.

The tanks and personnel carriers returned the enemy fire with cannon and .50-caliber machine guns, while the bombers and gunships raked the enemy's escape routes to the rear.

The convoy moved on through to Tay Ninh while other American troops chased the rest of the North Vietnamese through the plantation. The attack had been made by more than 200 enemy soldiers, U.S. officers estimated.

Three other smaller fights involving 25th Division troops and an attack on a U.S. 1st Infantry division base also were reported.

Sues Attorney For $2 Million

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Mrs. Geneva Singleton, wife of a shrimp business owner, has sued attorney Percy Foreman of Houston for $2 million, accusing him of professional misconduct while representing her in a divorce case.

Mrs. Singleton said in a court petition Thursday that Foreman, who recently represented James Earl Ray, caused her mental anguish. She said he cursed her, took $18,000 in jewels in lieu of a retainer and failed to return them when she dismissed him as her attorney Feb. 28.

Mrs. Singleton also alleged that Foreman tried to get her to give him a jaguar coat she was wearing.

She said she traveled to Memphis, Tenn., in February, when Foreman was representing Ray in the Martin Luther King murder case, to engage the Texas lawyer as counsel in a divorce proceeding against her husband, Henry.

She said Foreman induced her to sign a contract that said in part she would marry him one third of whatever settlement was achieved, even if she dismissed Foreman from the case. She added that Foreman made her promise not to tell a Tampa attorney she had previously hired how much Foreman was to be paid.

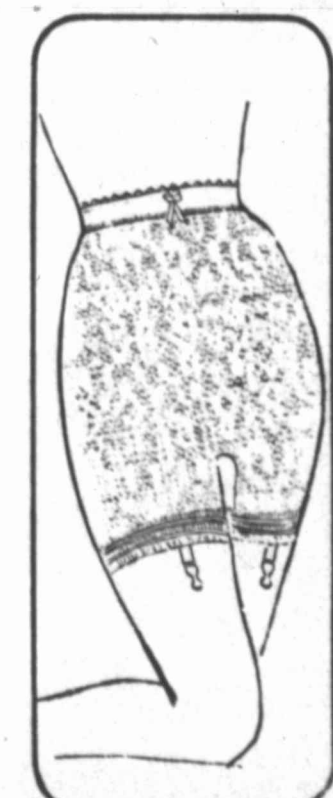

Mrs. Singleton alleged that Foreman told her not to trust her mother, sister or any other member of her family.

'These Balloons Made For Walking'

The Order of Rainbow for Girls will give balloons away Saturday for a donation (of any size) to the local Easter Seal Society. Each donation received will help a crippled child come a step closer to walking by himself. The money will be used to buy braces, crutches, wheel chairs and corrective shoes for children in Howard County, and the local society has had a heavy demand for these items since they have been paying expenses that occur at the Crippled Children's Clinic held four times each year at the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center. Pictured above are members of the Order of Rainbow for Girls who will assist in the drive. At left, Vicki Annen, Mary Ellen Hedges, Peggy Grant, Esther Dennis and Phyllis Jones.

Co-Ordinator Terms Volunteer Work At Hospital 'Invaluable'

Mrs. Mary Cochran termed volunteer work "invaluable" when she was guest speaker at the second meeting of the newly formed Civinettes Club. The group met Tuesday in the Pioneer Gas Flame Room.

Mrs. Cochran, volunteer co-ordinator at Big Spring State Hospital, showed a film concerning volunteer work done at the local hospital and how the program has become "out-reaching" in its concept to include programs in Snyder, Colorado City, Odessa, Midland and El Paso.

Altrusans Hear Iranian Talk On Customs, Schools

Cadet Athari-Nejan Kamaledine of Webb Air Force Base and formerly of Tehran, Iran, spoke on customs and schools in his country at Thursday's luncheon meeting of the Altrusa Club in Coker's Restaurant.

Cadet Kamal (as he is called) is 22 years of age, and he told of the education system in his homeland.

"Children begin school at the age of four and are taught the basic fundamentals of reading and writing, and at age six they are enrolled in a government controlled school," said Cadet Kamal.

"Mohammedanism is taught in the schools, and the Koran is the 'Bible.' When a child becomes 12, he enters high school where the boys and girls go to separate schools, and music is also taught separately," said Cadet Kamal.

Cadet Kamal concluded his talk by explaining that girls of 18 or 19 enter military training, and that the main occupation of the people is agriculture. The population of the country is between three-and-one-half and four million people, and the country is about five times the size of England.

Mrs. Roy H. Black introduced the speaker. Mrs. Willard Hendrick presided, and introduced another guest, Capt. Harry W. Brooks, also of Webb AFB.

Secretaries View Facilities

First Lt. Norman M. Slocum conducted a tour of the data Automation Center at Webb Air Force Base following Tuesday's dinner meeting of the Big Spring Chapter, National Secretaries Association (International). The group met in the Officers Open Mess at Webb AFB.

Lt. Slocum demonstrated the aspects of data automation and traced its development from the beginning stressing its 'limitless' future.

Mrs. W. A. Bryans, president, announced plans for Secretary's Week, April 20-26. Mrs. Frank Long, chairman, said the week will begin with members attending services at First Methodist Church on April 20.

On April 22, the final planning session will be held at 7 p.m. at Texas Electric Reddy Room.

A nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Dee Ratliff, Mrs. Billy Sheppard and Mrs. Linus Tucker, will present the officer's slate. A luncheon will be held at 11 a.m., April 23, at Furr's Cafeteria for all local secretaries.

Members of the Future Secretaries Association will visit offices of NSA members on April 25, and the final event will be an executive's night banquet, April 26, at Big Spring Country Club. The theme will be "Mythology Made Scientific." Local executives and their wives will be guests.

The local NSA Chapter will institute a chapter May 23 in Abilene. All members of the Big Spring group will attend.

Mrs. Bryans was selected as the delegate to the division meeting May 16-18 in Houston.

A course in Business Law was announced for the summer months at Howard County Junior College. Anyone interested in attending is requested to call Mrs. K. T. Downs, 263-2297 or 267-8216.

Grading sheets for entering the "Secretary of the Year" competition were distributed, and nominations for "Boss of the Year" were accepted.

Mrs. Leon Kinney was a guest.

Coahoma Pianists Will Play Sunday

Fortenberry of Planter's Garden Club, treasurer; and Mrs. John Edgar, Four O'Clock Garden Club, project chairman.

Forum Hears Program On 'The Big Thicket'

"The Big Thicket," the official project of the Western District of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, was the program presented by Mrs. Preston Bridges at Thursday's meeting of the Junior Woman's Forum. Mrs. Jerry Barron, 3223 Cornell, was hostess.

"The big thicket is 57 miles from Houston and it is presently a controversial issue before becoming a natural preserve," said Mrs. Bridges. "It is composed of 300,000 acres of forests and swamp-like beauty."

Mrs. Bridges also discussed the advantages of belonging to a federated club, and she stressed that the main reason is being associated with the General Federation of Women's Clubs, which is the largest woman's organization in the world, composed of 11 million members.

Mrs. Barron presided, and Mrs. Joe Horton reported on a style show slated by the club to be held in conjunction with a membership drive. The fashion showing will be sponsored by Fashion Pants and will be held at 1:30 p.m., April 24, in the First Federal Community Room. Invitations will be mailed to prospective members, and clothes will be modeled by eight club members.

The next meeting will be March 27 in the home of Mrs. Bridges, 702 W. 18th, when Mrs. Bill Spain will speak on interior design.

Hints From Heloise

Dear Heloise:

I learned the hard way. If you have throw rugs or scatter rugs with what they call a non-skid finish on the backing please "keep" this backing CLEAN!

Use a vacuum cleaner, or suds them with a damp sponge once in awhile.

Remember, these rugs are usually put on highly polished floors and the backing absorbs the wax.

Every time I sweep, I turn the rug over and sweep the back, PLUS, I never wax the floor where my throw rugs now. Broken Bones Agree 100 per cent!

I checked this with the Injury Control Program of the Food and Drug Administration in Washington, D.C. They say you brought out a good point.

Hope all of your bones have healed. And thanks a million for cluing us in. Heloise

Dear Heloise:

To me, game birds — partridge, grouse, duck — haven't much natural flavor to them. But I found a way to add that something extra.

I use a package of herbed bread stuffing and toss it with salad dressing. After stuffing the birds, I brush more salad dressing over them, wrap them in foil and bake as usual.

You can use a different flavor dressing for the stuffing and another for basting. It's fast, easy and indescribably delicious. Lynn Seney

Dear Heloise:

I decided to try your hint of sprinkling clothes on the line with my garden hose on fine spray. It worked beautifully, but when my five-year-old son saw me doing it he wanted to help.

I told him "no," but that he could water my pansies next to the garage.

When I turned around with damp clothes in my arms, there he stood watering the dry, folded clothes in my laundry basket!

I screamed, "What are you doing?" And he very innocently said, "But Mama, you said I could water your pansies."

I haven't watered clothes on the line since. Mrs. Arlene Hall

Dear Heloise:

I dampen a soft cloth and sprinkle talcum powder on it, then use this to rub over my steel sink to remove the dark spots. A factory man told me this. Mrs. O. Cohn
It works! Heloise

Dear Heloise:

Did you ever think of cutting the top off a plastic bleach bottle and using it as a paint holder?

I cut it just below the handle and took the top part with the handle (leave the lid on) and put paint in it.

The top is so convenient to carry by the little handle when you are climbing up and down ladders.

It's a perfect wife-saver while papa mixes the paint and supervises. Ken Negrey

Dear Heloise:

While watching a maid change the linens on our bed at a motel recently, I learned a short cut to bed-making.

I noticed she tucked in the sides of the bottom sheet and left the foot end loose.

Then when she put the top sheet on, she simply tucked both ends under at the same time.

Why hadn't I ever thought of that before? Saves tucking twice and lifting that heavy mattress. Marie Goodenough

Dear Heloise:

If your child's last year's coat has become too short in the sleeves but fits O.K. otherwise, get busy and knit some ribbed cuffs.

Fasten them up under the edge of the sleeve and your coat looks smarter than it did when it was new. Mrs. Roy Lester

Texas Reaction Is Mixed To Urban Agencies Order

DALLAS (AP) — All federal matters relating to urban problems in five states will be centered in Dallas, President Nixon announced Thursday.

The realignment of offices was made in an effort to streamline overlapping urban agencies which administer programs for disadvantaged groups.

The plan drew praise from Dallas and Fort Worth officials, but the Austin regional director of the Office of Economic Opportunity saw nothing to praise. He said the plan might be "traumatic" because "an effective team" would be broken up in the Austin office.

The change will make Dallas the headquarters for all but one of the federal agencies involved in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arkansas and Louisiana. The exception will be the Housing and Urban Development regional office, which will remain in Fort Worth, 30 miles away.

That office will lose its present states of Kansas, Missouri and Colorado to the Denver regional office under the reorganization. The Fort Worth office will be center for the same five-state area as Dallas.

New Program Developed To Assist Drug Addicts

The two major hospitals for the treatment of persons addicted to the use of drugs — one at Fort Worth and the other at Lexington, Ky. — are scheduled to disappear from the scene in the relatively near future, a Big Spring State Hospital psychologist told the Big Spring Kiwanians Thursday.

In their places is an ambitious program, Dr. John Kegerris said, to set up centers in strategic areas where addiction is prevalent at which the victims can be given help. He compared these proposed centers to the general plan used by the Big Spring State Hospital in establishing mental health centers at Lamesa, Colorado City and Snyder.

Drug addiction on a local level is not a major problem. There are drug users, Kegerris said, but not in the tremendous numbers found in the populous centers of the east and west.

Few LSD patients are admitted to the hospital here. More common are heroin addicts and habitual barbiturate users.

The dangers of drug use beyond its mental aspects are in the threat, carelessness of others to the life of the addict. Bloodstream infection, caused by dirty hypodermic needles and other misuses, can cause the death of the addict.

He pointed out that the illicit sale of drugs will continue because of the rich return to the distributor from a small investment. A buyer in the middle east can buy a quantity of heroin, he said, for $700 to $800; brought to this country and broken up into "packets" it can yield the handler as much as $400,000.

Robert Piatkowski was inducted as a new member —

Austin with its staff of 220 will move to Dallas under the plan. Regional OEO director Walter Richter said Thursday the relocation of the people could be "very shattering and very significant for a lot of families."

"I am very concerned that what I think is an effective team would be broken up. It will be a very traumatic experience—just the uncertainty of the future has been bad enough for us. I'll just have to wait and find out how many of our families will be willing to make the move," Richter said.

W. W. Collins, regional director of HUD in Fort Worth, said he feels he will "really welcome the uniformity of regional boundaries." Personnel at Fort Worth will be trimmed from 547 to 499.

Harold J. Stafford, assistant regional director for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, said, "For years and years the Bureau of the Budget and almost all federal executives felt it would be wise to have the same geographical basis for each department."

Nixon also ordered formation of regional councils in the headquarters cities to coordinate the programs.

Priddy is pastor of youth enrollment at the First Baptist Church. He is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University and Southwestern Seminary.

Pope Paul's Nominees Include Four Americans

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI today named 35 new cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church. They included four Americans—Archbishops Terence Cooke of New York, John Dearden of Detroit, John Wright of Pittsburgh and John Carberry of St. Louis.

Thirty-three of the new cardinals of the Church will be elevated at a secret consistory April 28.

Two of them will not be present. The Pope named them "in pectore"—in his heart—and will not reveal their identity until some future time or perhaps never. This has been done in the past where the announcement of a prelate's elevation might endanger his safety, if he was in a country whose government was inimical to the Church, for example.

The consistory will increase the College of Cardinals to a record membership of 134.

It will be the third consistory of Pope Paul's six-year-old reign. At his last, on June 26, 1967, he increased the college to 118 cardinals, then a record. But in the past two years 16 of these prelates have died.

The present American cardinals are Richard Cushing of Boston, Patrick O'Boyle of Washington, Lawrence Shehan of Baltimore, John Krol of Cleveland, John Cody of Chicago and James McIntyre of Los Angeles.

Pope Paul's nominees today also included Archbishop Joseph Waula of the Congo, who will become the third black African prince of the church.

Until the reign of Pope John XXIII, there had never been more than 70 cardinals, a limit set by Pope Sixtus V in 1586. At that time the total world population was about 360 million. Today there are more than 550 million Roman Catholics.

Pope Paul's 35 new cardinals are the largest number elevated at one time to the purple. The previous record number was named by Pope Pius XII, who appointed 32 in 1946, just after

Dastardly Deed

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — "Somebody has perpetrated a dastardly deed upon medical science," said a Johns Hopkins Hospital official.

He might have numbered hay fever victims among the unfortunate also since the comment referred to the theft of a $300 pollen counter used by the hospital's allergy laboratory.

Percentage Of What?

The state Senate committee on constitutional amendments has approved a joint resolution which would require that farm and ranch tax values be based on an agricultural production value. It goes to the Senate where there is a good possibility that it will be approved, and with House concurrence, will go on the ballot this November for a decision by the voters.

The object of this is to remove the burden of inflated market values from land ostensibly to be used in agricultural purposes. For instance, land near an expanding urban center may carry a high market value because it is in demand for sub-division or commercial and industrial development. Yet, if the operator prefers to farm or ranch this land, he is stuck with a tax load which, based on what the land will yield, is unrealistic. Or take the case of almost every acre of land — its ready market value is probably several times what it actually justifies based on the value of products it will yield. This, then, is the basis of the case.

But it is not quite that simple. If a producer prefers to hold on to land near urban centers and work it for agricultural purposes rather than to sell for the market value, it is a choice he makes — a choice much the same as an individual who prefers not to lease or sell a vacant lot next to a valuable property. The value exists even though it is not realized because of personal choice. Moreover, tying tax values solely to productive values can just as logically be applied to non-agricultural properties.

Granted there is a problem here, it is one that should require a equitable solution rather than selective relief. Ad valorem (tax) means as to the percentage. Percentage of what, and for whom?

Important Service

More than a million Texans 18 years of age and older have not achieved an eighth grade level of education. These adults lack sufficient knowledge and skills in reading, writing and speaking the English language and in arithmetic. These deficiencies constitute a substantial impairment to their obtaining or retaining productive employment and to functioning successfully in meeting adult responsibilities.

They do not possess adequate knowledge relating to good health practices, citizenship rights and responsibilities, principles of good homemaking practices and community relationships. They have inadequate knowledge and information relating to employment, such as good work habits, employment opportunities, training requirements for entry upon and success in employment and information as to the availability of training programs designed to prepare persons for job opportunities.

These are some of the reasons for our community's Adult Basic Education program and why it has an important place and performs an important service.

Our Man In Saigon

SAIGON — Whether as pro-consul or watchful marmalade, Ellsworth Bunker is not type-cast in the mould of the American power structure. The Ambassador to South Vietnam is tall, lanky, understated — a Vermont in a Brooks Brothers shirt with a penetrating gaze that can at times be steely bleak.

Bunker has just gone back to Washington for consultations that at this critical stage of the war are supremely important. His word will have great weight, since for two years he has been the civil figure in the incredibly complex tangle of the Vietnam war.

EFFORTS TO TAG him in the political aviary fall short of clear definition. Among those who have served under him and currently are providing expertise for the Paris peace talks he is put down as a hawk. He considers his function, these critics say, the protection and the promotion of the government of President Nguyen Van Thieu even at the cost of a settlement of the war.

BUNKER'S ASSOCIATES here indignantly deny this. Certainly, he has had his share of nursemaid in helping to sustain a workable government in a country torn by war and civil rebellion. He has an all-too-vivid memory of the midnight phone call from Washington telling him to wake President Thieu at 4 a.m. so that Thieu could prepare to send a delegation to the Paris peace talks coinciding with President Johnson's announcement of a halt in the bombing of North Vietnam. After several additional calls Bunker settled for 7 a.m.

The Communists invariably, in their propaganda, speak of the "puppet" government in Saigon. Bunker has constantly stressed that for Americans in the huge military-civilian establishment here to consider it merely as a puppet is to play the Communist game.

THERE IS NO question of his conviction that the Thieu government is greatly strengthened. He believes it is strong enough to take the withdrawal of American troops this year and possibly even to face realistically a compromise peace settlement in Paris. Knowledgeable officials in the American mission believe Thieu might gain in stature by requesting that the American troop level be lowered. He would thereby create an impression of the increased authority of his government.

Retiring from a successful business career in 1951, Bunker has had 18 remarkable years in diplomacy. Prior to Vietnam in three difficult and sometimes dangerous situations he racked up an impressive score.

IN 1962, at the request of the United Nations, Bunker mediated the dispute between Indonesia and The Netherlands over West New Guinea. While the Dutch were embittered, charging that his role had been merely to hand the territory over to the Indonesians, a confrontation threatening open warfare was averted.

A year later, as consultant to the Secretary of State, he went to the Middle East to defuse the quarrel between the United Arab Republic and Saudi Arabia in their more-or-less open involvement in the civil war in Yemen.

THE THIRD PIECE of trouble-shooting was by far the most difficult. Against the background of fierce fighting and a massive U.S. intervention Bunker went to the Dominican Republic as a member of the organization of American States to work out a solution. Months of painstaking, patient negotiation went into a settlement that has held with at least comparative stability.

Another Star Is Born

NEW YORK (AP) — Hollywood has a new Cinderella every season and this year's Cinderella is Ali MacGraw.

Ali is the Manhattan fashion model who was picked from more than 100 aspirants many of them well-known actresses to play the lead of Brenda in the film version of Philip Roth's prize-winning book "Goodbye Columbus."

"I STILL FIND the situation incredible," she said, speaking of her debut as a star. "I thought I had been passed over several times. I wasn't even among the first four who were selected to be sent to Hollywood for film tests."

But she survived the winnowing, and if the picture achieves its predicted box-office success the future looks bright indeed for her.

However, Ali—a family abbreviation for Ali—once a Cinderella who isn't swept off her feet by the glamour of it all. She calls herself an incurable romantic, but she might be more aptly termed a practical idealist.

"What impels me most is simply the fantastic sensation of being alive. I'm not hedonistic in a frenzied way. But every single solitary thing in life interests me."

"I don't know for sure where I want to go. What's more important to me is the process of getting there. Every second is worth something, whether it's happy or sad."

MISS MACGRAW is a sprightly young lady, gawky slender, 5 feet 8 inches tall, with dark shoulder-length hair and eloquent dark eyes. Her long, tapering fingers are elegant, too, and she keeps her hands in almost constant movement as she speaks.

Behind her dramatic beauty lies a fine brain. Daughter of a father and mother who work as commercial artists, she herself is a talented artist, a graduate of Wellesley College, and can speak French, Italian and Russian.

"In college I didn't know what I wanted to do," she remarked. "I liked—and still like—to do a lot of things."

"I became a fashion assistant at a woman's magazine, but the excitement wore off quickly. I decided I didn't want to spend my life working with 75 women hung up on how they looked."

Ali then became a stylist and researcher for Melvin Sokolsky, the commercial photographer, where her duties ranged from authenticating backgrounds to ironing the hair ribbons for models. Then she became a model herself, working for both television and magazines. In her spare time she took acting lessons and continued her language studies.

"MODELING is a good field," she said, "because you can do very little of it and earn enough to pay your skeletal costs and still have time left to do everything you really want to."

"I like to have time to myself. I'd hate to have to work on a nine-to-five job. I don't feel you have to have a big-paying job to feel your life is justified. If I like what I'm doing—that's what counts."

Ali has the same convictions about her future film career. "I want to continue in pictures," she said, "but the size of the part isn't as important as the quality of it."

"This is incredibly hard work, emotionally and physically. At the end of the day you're wrung out. Since it takes so much out of you, you need to feel pride in what you do."

"I don't want to crank out a multimillion-dollar picture that is just a piece of garbage."

Nixon's Tax Theory

NEW YORK (AP) — It seemed like a routine message to Congress, but President Nixon's statement this week on the need for a surtax extension was a clear and strong reaffirmation of an anti-inflation policy that so far has not worked.

Even the most outspoken critics concede, however, that it is a policy that must be given plenty of time to prove itself.

THAT POLICY seeks to return balance to the economy by the use of the basic techniques of raising revenues and cutting spending. Direct involvement in the market place, through controls or guidelines, is rejected.

"This is fundamental economics," Nixon said, "and we intend to deal with fundamentals." But it is this fundamental attack that so far has shown such poor results in cooling the economy. Inflation has, in fact, accelerated.

Not only is the Nixon administration faced with a fierce battle, therefore, but it is likely that along the way it will have to defend its methods of combat, for these methods may produce sound but not quick changes.

In some respects it is a courageous policy, for it isn't necessarily the easiest route to take. Although it is buttressed by the best of orthodox economic thinking, it still may be vulnerable, especially to politics.

By intervening in the market place, Presidents Kennedy and Johnson did manage to thwart some industrial price increases. And former members of their administrations have said Nixon could do the same. He hasn't by design.

Although this preserves the cherished freedom of the market place, it also could prolong the battle.

EVENTUALLY, however, the fundamental approach should begin to make its impact. Slowly but surely, it is reasoned, labor and business will realize that inflation isn't here to stay and so will refrain from raising their rates.

A Passel Of Quickies

Getting hit by an automobile is a bad way to start the day. So is getting out of bed.

"Since the song about the Harper Valley PTA came out," I replied, "I decline to answer until you define your terms."

A WOMAN was telling me the other day about the plight of a daughter who had just married. She works "in credit," the woman explained (doesn't everybody?) and, thus, knows what a vicious thing being in debt can be.

So the couple has moved into a house with wall-to-wall carpeting and their possessions so far are a stove, a refrigerator, a television and a bed. The daughter feels this is a very Spartan arrangement and, at the same time, quite difficult.

I felt called upon for some little bit of advice, so I told the woman I didn't see how they could go wrong with those furnishings as long as they don't use any of them too much.

Reasons For Campus Unrest

WASHINGTON — Disorders on the campus which have often led to violence or unlawful seizures of college property are not readily explained. University presidents are reluctant to depend merely on harsh measures because the truth is many of the supervising authorities have a sense of frustration — they don't really know the cause of the unrest.

TWO UNDERLYING factors may be responsible for some of the outbursts as well as the mob instinct that in the excitement of the moment prompts students to do things which they probably never deliberately contemplated. One is the uncertainty over the occupation or profession into which they may be trying to fit themselves, and the other is the worry over what lies ahead because of the possibility they will be drafted into the military service before starting their civilian careers.

MANY EXPERTS who analyze aptitudes say that college students are not being given the kind of tests that ought to be required before they select their courses of study. Some young persons are sure just what type of job they wish to get after graduation, but a large number are not. The regular lectures and classroom study to which they are assigned become a bore. Sooner or later dissatisfaction with the whole process crops out in the behavior of students.

THE FUNDAMENTAL question is whether college students today are satisfied with the routine to which they are bound. Educational institutions in some instances have varied their methods of teaching as compared with those of yesteryears, but frequently the curriculum, while presenting choices, still means a monotonous period for many students with alert minds and restless dispositions.

Too often, also, parents dictate to their sons what they are to do when they graduate. This is an arbitrary decision as a rule, and it is not always based on whether the student has an aptitude for the particular career which his father may have possessed.

THE SPECIALISTS in the measurement of aptitudes find, for instance, that a student with a fluency in English, an objective personality and a creative imagination will enjoy salesmanship and make good in such fields as marketing and advertising. Young men who, among other things, excel in mathematics are deemed excellent candidates for the medical profession, since a basic requirement is precision.

There are a number of research laboratories which specialize on tests for young people to determine just what aptitudes they have for different kinds of work. This is something on which the colleges might well have concentrated in the past so that each individual could be analyzed carefully before mandatory courses of study were assigned.

AS FOR the draft, it will continue to hang over the heads of the youth of the nation. Many in college choose to volunteer as soon as they graduate, so they can pick the kind of service they prefer and plan for graduate studies to be undertaken after they have finished in the military field.

There have also been innumerable instances which have shown that an individual did better academic work after a tour in the armed services than before. This was proved after World War II and the Korean war, when the GI Bill of Rights provided educational opportunities for the veterans. Maturity was recognized as a factor which contributed to the higher marks they obtained.

THERE IS LITTLE doubt today that the vast majority of the college students are orderly and do not approve of the practices of the trouble-making dissidents. But the real task for the educators is to study more carefully the reasons for the insecurity and unrest of the members of the unhappy minority.

Why We Can't Call Off The Arms Race

WASHINGTON — There are a number of reasons for betting for and against the proposition that the USSR will soon offer to join in a good-faith arms control treaty.

If you follow President Nixon's theory, Russia is shifting its worry-priority from the Western World to Red China and to the Eastern satellites who want out of the Warsaw Pact and the Iron Curtain.

IF YOU follow Sen. Symington's reasoning, Russia after many years has achieved parity, or perhaps a nominal superiority, in land-based and submarine-launched nuclear missiles and is ready, as we've long been ready, to negotiate from strength.

And, of course, there are numerous public thinkers who have seen signs of "mellowing" in Soviet policy since the death of Stalin and, more recently, since the removal from power of Khrushchev.

AGAINST THESE persuasions, however, are countervailing factors that lie deep in Russian history. There are monuments all over the USSR to the three great events that have cemented distrust of the Western World in every Russian mind.

There was Napoleon's invasion. It was not nationalistically French in nature but an alliance that included Germans, Poles, Italians and nearly every race of Europe. From the Russian viewpoint, and from the perspective of another century, the Napoleonic invasion was an exercise in aggression, an aberration of human nature, which no amount of treaties, good-will visits by the leaders of state and church, or common commercial interests in space, could possibly have averted.

THERE WAS the Revolution of 1917 which overthrew the rule of the czars and nobles. The Russian royal family was related by blood and marriage to the crowned heads of Europe. Its rule was more ignorant than cruel, its fault more in apathy than tyranny. But the suppression of the masses by the classes continued, and it was not broken except by internal revolt which destroyed just about every resemblance to the hated monarchial and ecclesiastical system which reminded Russians of their neighbors to the West.

HITLER'S INVASION, still fresh in the minds of Russian leaders and peoples, was so generally similar to Napoleon's that fine distinctions are not allowable in the Russian mind. No matter that the Western nations were at war among themselves, and no matter that we have tried to disown Hitler and his Nazi government. Again, to the Russians, it was an example of the greedy, blood-thirsty Europeans, to whom the Americans are cousins, behaving in the accustomed manner.

WHO CAN SAY how many generations must go past before such memories, justified or not, become obliterated? Similar distrust exists in the Mid East, in the Far East, between races and religious sects in virtually every region of the earth.

There seems to be in our times, no alternative to an arms-race. With less reasons than the Russians have, we dare not fall behind.

Disenchantment Key To 'Dixie'

WASHINGTON (AP) — High Democratic officials are expecting disenchantment with Republican administration racial policies will bring the once solid South back into the Democratic fold.

Sen. Fred Harris of Oklahoma, new Democratic national chairman, is known to feel that President Nixon will ultimately stand by the controversial school desegregation guidelines laid down by the Democrats over the last five years.

Once the South sees that Nixon doesn't intend to really change the guidelines, Harris feels, the traditional political and economic appeal will take hold and restore Democratic power.

In other words, with the racial situation being equal, the South will choose Democrats over Republicans.

Although national Democratic strength had slipped gradually in the South since the early 1950s, it was the 1968 presidential race that nearly broke the party's back.

Only one Southern state—Texas—was carried by Hubert H. Humphrey, with the rest going to Wallace and Nixon.

But the Democratic leaders see this week's special election in Tennessee as initial evidence of a return to Democratic ways.

Ed Jones, a Democrat, easily outdistanced a large field, including a well-financed Republican and an independent running with personal support from George C. Wallace, who carried much of the South in last fall's presidential contest.

The Democrats say they do not intend to sit back and wait for the South to return and have started work for strong campaigns in the 1970 elections.

Sen. Edmund Muskie, the Democratic vice presidential candidate last year, already has touched down in the South on a recent fund-raising tour.

And Humphrey goes to Mississippi early next month to help raise money and support for the biracial organization that won the national party's official recognition last year as the state's Democratic party over an all-white group.

Las Vegas Casinos Aim Music At Older Crowd

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — The miniskirts and new cars would tell you it was 1969. But in Las Vegas showrooms this week the music had the sound of the 1940s. The casinos were aiming frankly for the older crowd.

From Guy Lombardo at the south end of the Strip to Fred Waring downtown, nostalgia-seeking tourists turned back the clock to hear "All of Me," "A Cottage for Sale," and "It's a Lonesome Old Town."

Russ Morgan, Sarah Vaughan, Duke Ellington, Harry James, Louis Prima, Ray Anthony and Sy Zentner are some of the others headlining the marquee.

And hotels were booking such names as Lionel Hampton, Woody Herman, Orrin Tucker and Freddy Martin.

"A younger entertainer might draw a larger audience," said Tropicana executive Harvey Diederich. "But I think Lombardo brings in an audience with more money."

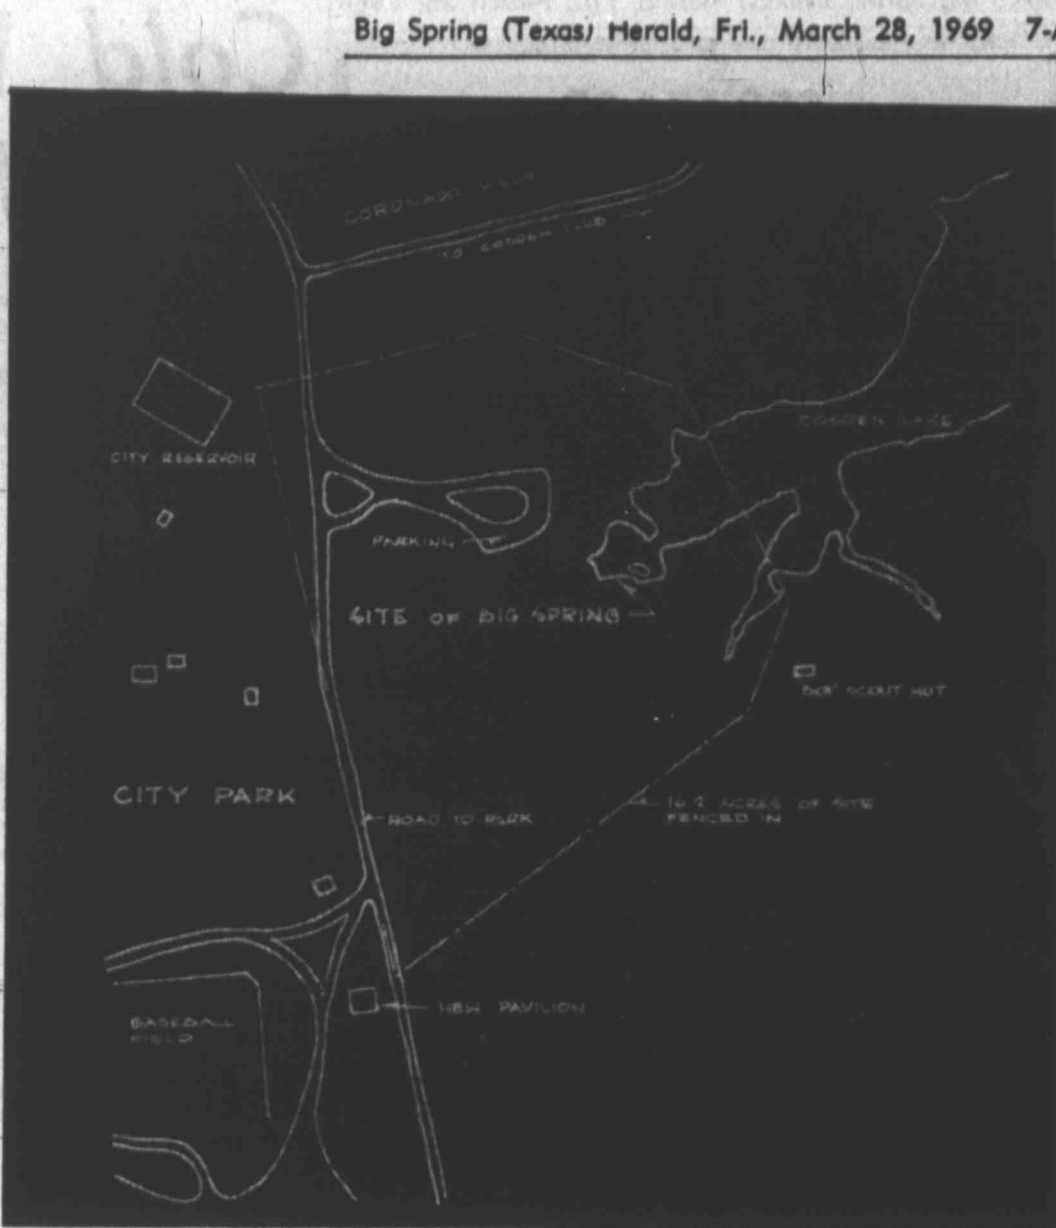

The young crowd doesn't spend as much as people think, Diederich said, and their parents are likely to gamble more. The Tropicana also has "young acts," as do the others.

While Lombardo plays the same music he did 30 years ago, Harry James plays newer numbers such as "Hey Jude" at the Frontier. But many of his songs were composed before most of his band was born.

Waring, appearing at the Fremont, says popular music got "pretty far out for a while" but that new writers are "settling down to writing about people, they're writing folk. Some of it's simply great."

Todd Smith and Robert Beuchler were inducted as Bobcats at the meeting of Pack 179 at Kentwood Methodist Church Thursday evening. Den 2 had the opening, and Dens 4, 6 and 7 had Indian dances. The Webelos conducted a sing-song for the closing.

Becoming Webelos were Mark Bradbury, Bill Downing, and Scott Higgins; Bears, Bill Gehling and Craig Bailey. Arrow points went to Bobby Knight (2), Rusty Braun, Bill Gehling, Mike Eagan, and Mike Raigh. Rick Dykes and Mike Raigh received one-year service awards.

This drawing gives an outline of the old "big spring" site and serves as a map for those who will help in the cleanup project Saturday. Volunteers will pitch in to help clean up the big spring site, between it and the parking area. All interested residents are invited.

Dear Abby

Plenty Of Denture Tips

DEAR ABBY: My sympathy to Grandpa, who complained because it took him so long to eat he couldn't carry on a dinner table conversation with the others.

There is nothing that will drive a man to distraction quicker than ill-fitting dentures. Sending him back to his dentist won't help. What Grandpa needs is a supply of thermoplastic material that will enable him to eat like a horse and talk as much as Hubert Humphrey at the same time.

TOOTHLESS BUT HAPPY

DEAR ABBY: Clinical tests have proven that patients lose approximately 75 per cent of their chewing ability when they get false teeth.

For every person who says his dentures are "like his own teeth" there are 100 who wish they had their own teeth back.

Dentists do not like to see their patients lose their natural teeth, but there is usually no choice. Patients, after neglecting their mouths for 10, 15, and 20 years, will come to a dentist and ask him to try to "save" their teeth. This, of course, is impossible.

And while I'm on the subject, may I use your vast readership to implore people to take care of their teeth. No dentures will ever replace them.

D.M., D.D.S.
BEVERLY HILLS, CALIF.

DEAR ABBY: I haven't had a problem I couldn't solve myself which is quite something at age 82, but I have a word for Grandpa about his store-teeth.

Sixteen years ago, before starting on a world cruise in a small yacht, I was advised by a San Diego dentist to have all my teeth extracted because if I ran into any trouble I would be far from a dentist.

He took the impressions after X-rays and when the upper plate was ready, I came in, he yanked all my uppers and popped the plate in, telling me to leave it in for a week. I did and it worked fine. Then I came in for the bottom set and his partner said I should keep my own lowers, so I did. I still have them but have to go in to have them treated regularly.

I should have had the lowers out, too. It would have saved a lot of trouble and expense.

KONA
GREAT GRANDFATHER

DEAR ABBY: About Grandpa who can't keep up with the rest of the folks when it comes to eating with his new China clippers: You should have told him to take his time, enjoy the meal, and let the others about where the fire when they talk and eat and leave him way behind. He'll live longer.

Remember, too, that it took more than two months to learn to run. How do you expect to learn to eat with new teeth in that short time? WEARS THEM

DEAR ABBY: I read your advice to the denture patient, and I must say that you sure did put your foot in it.

I have practiced dentistry for more years than you are old and can tell you that NO denture patient can eat as fast with "store-bought" teeth as he could with his own.

Also, there are any number of denture wearers who, because of the anatomy of their mouths, or their inability to adjust to new situations, cannot get a better "fit" no matter how hard the dentist tries. OLD PRO

DEAR "PRO": All right, I'll take 10 lashes with 46 yards of dental floss, and next time when it comes to "dentistry," I'll keep my unprofessional mouth shut.

SDS Loses Appeal In Circuit Court

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals upheld Thursday a University of Texas decision which barred the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) from holding a national council meeting in the Student Union this weekend.

TWINS SUFFER BIRTH PAINS

MANCHESTER, England (AP) — Barbara Morgan had labor pains but her twin sister Gillian had the baby.

It was a relief for the 19-year-old identical twins when Gillian Crosby finally gave birth to a 7-pound 14-ounce daughter Thursday. An hour before the birth in Wythenshawe Maternity Hospital, Mrs. Crosby sent this message to her sister:

"Hang on, Barbara, it won't be long now."

Barbara, under sedatives to ease the pain she was suffering at home, gripped her teeth then suddenly fell asleep immediately after Gillian's baby was born.

Doctors who examined both girls said it was a case of an unusually strong "sympathetic affinity" often observed between identical twins.

The court said it could not find that the federal district court erred in upholding the decision and added:

"Consideration of the papers (offered by SDS) demonstrates that to grant the stay is not merely to grant temporary interim relief but to decide the case finally on the merits since the meetings are to commence Friday, March 28, 1969."

The SDS motion charged that the university decision "violates the fundamental principles of freedom of speech and assembly."

The city of Austin, Tex., also refused the use of an auditorium to the SDS group.

Yule Decorations Decision Delayed By C-C Group

The retail committee of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce delayed action Thursday on purchasing downtown Christmas decorations for this year.

The group looked into two plans for decorations, and heard that the minimum price would be $6,000 for 45 units for a three-year program. The price would include trade-in for old decorations, installation and removal costs.

Since funds for Christmas decorations are not in the Chamber of Commerce budget, money would have to come from downtown merchants and businessmen, according to Travis Starr, who was appointed chairman of a finance committee to solicit funds for the project.

Tom Eastland, chamber manager, said that if the money could not be raised the chamber has about 30 old decorations which could be used after minimum repair. The chamber originally purchased 60 of these decorations five years ago.

School Bus-Car Wreck Checked

Three minor traffic accidents were investigated by police Thursday.

A school bus driven by Marie B. Byrd, 2990 Runnels, was in collision with a car driven by Patsy Morton Wade, 1603-B Lexington, at the intersection of Lexington and Goliad.

Cars driven by Tinnie L. Hays, Coahoma, and Claude Lee Wood, Stanton, were in collision at the intersection of First and Benton.

$98,674.02 City Gets Third Sales Tax Check

Holes in an orange-colored IBM check spelled out $98,674.02 for the City of Big Spring treasury this morning.

The check, received by City Secretary Charles Smith, represented the one per cent sales tax collected for the city during October, November and December.

Gross collections for the period were $101,095.17 with the state keeping $2,021.90 for a two per cent service charge. The state held out $4,931.63 to cover bad accounts; however $4,532.43, which was held out of the second quarter payment for the same purpose, was included in today's check.

The third quarter revenue brought the amount collected from the sales tax to $257,356.10. This windfall represents $69,856.10 more than city officials originally planned to receive when the tax was approved by Big Spring voters to become effective April 1, 1968. The fourth quarter will raise the unexpected bonus money even more, according to Smith.

The first quarter check was for $71,573.51, and the second quarter was for $57,108.57.

Firemen Vote To Extend Disability Protection

Big Spring firemen have voted 36 to 0 to extend disability protection to off duty hours and raise disability benefits from $100 a month to $150, according to City Secretary Charles Smith.

Voting on the two measures started Monday and continued through 10 a.m. today.

Money for the coverage of disability payments comes from the Firemen's Relief and Retirement Fund. Revenue for the fund comes from five per cent contributions of the total salaries of city firemen and an equal amount matched by the city. Firemen put $13,000 into the fund annually and the city matches it.

There is now $200,000 in the fund, according to Smith. The disability benefits voted by the firemen are the maximum they can receive from the fund without the law governing the money being changed, he said.

The fund is controlled by state law. Big Spring firemen started contributing to it in 1942 with one per cent of their salaries. Several years ago the amount contributed was raised to five per cent.

There are 47 firemen in the local department.

Today's Sounds To Abound Here

Today's sounds in music will abound at 8:15 p.m. today in the City Auditorium when the Paul Winter Contemporary Consort present the finale of the current Big Spring Concert Association season.

At the same time, patrons will have an opportunity to sign up for the 1969-70 season. Included in the new series are the New Orleans Philharmonic orchestra, the Norman Luboff choir, the Norwood Puppet Theatre, and the Preservation Hall Jazz group, an authentic early American jazz ensemble from New Orleans. Dan Shockey, president, urged patrons to bring personal checks for memberships ($4 student and $10 adult; or $8 student and $14 adult, reserved).

Paul Winter brings a new sound with his group of seven musicians who blend their instruments to achieve a homogeneous sound in music. In addition to the basic instrumentation, arranged for compatibility of tone, the consort has adopted a variety of instruments, and particularly percussion, from more than a score of countries where they have toured.

The repertoire ranges from the classic to the folk song, and it can be as soft as a breeze or as strong as a wind, depending upon the amplification.

Winter organized his first group while at Northwestern University and won the international jazz competition and a long-term Columbia recording contract. In 1965 he created his consort, which has toured widely in the United States as well as being tapped by the state department for international tours. With the alto flute, saxophone, cello, classical guitar, English horn, bass and percussion, the consort has developed as an idiom for modern music.

Workmen's Comp Racket Unveiled

DETROIT (AP) — A small group of law firms in the Detroit area is involved in a scheme to bilk large corporations and the city of Detroit out of millions of dollars in workmen's compensation claims, according to a state official.

This "must be stopped and stopped now, not two years from now," said Burke L. Daily, director of the State Workmen's Compensation Bureau.

AUSTIN (AP) — The one per cent city sales tax raised $28.2 million for 276 Texas cities during the last quarter of 1968, state Comptroller Robert S. Calvert says.

Calvert announced Thursday he has mailed checks to the cities for the three months that ended Dec. 31, 1968.

Biggest payment was to Houston, $6.46 million, followed by Dallas, $5 million; San Antonio, $2.3 million, and Fort Worth, $1.99 million.

Among payments to other major cities were Abilene, $350,555; Austin, $906,028; Beaumont, $625,435; Corpus Christi, $677,704; Denton, $151,541; El Paso, $947,548; Galveston, $214,428; Irving, $310,890; Laredo, $334,101; Longview, $282,746; Lubbock, $646,905; Port Arthur, $205,042; San Angelo, $215,699; Victoria, $170,277; Waco, $414,169; Wichita Falls, $313,357.

The comptroller collects the taxes for the cities along with the 3 per cent state sales tax and remits them every three months, minus 2 per cent for administrative costs. Calvert held out $580,047 in the quarter that ended Dec. 31 for collection costs.

Cold Wave Watch Posted In Texas

By The Associated Press

Never-say-die winter threw another early spring punch toward Texas today.

Forecasters posted a cold wave watch for Northwest Texas, where the new northern was expected to bluster into the Panhandle by afternoon. The arctic front was expected to spread its chill over most of North Texas during the night and to envelop the rest of the state Saturday. As the icy air still approached,

Admits Agency Wasted Money

WASHINGTON (AP) — A secret report compiled for the Office of Economic Opportunity admits the antipoverty agency is wasting money, but claims the amount is small, can't be avoided and program results make the losses worthwhile.

The report, sent this week to Acting OEO Director Bertrand Harding, denies allegations of widespread fraud, corruption and theft and points with apparent pride to the fact "only six million dollars" has been challenged.

Extensive audits of OEO programs, the report says, "show a very high degree of accountability." The fact the $6 million has been questioned doesn't mean the money was stolen, it adds.

The report comes at a time when OEO, flagship of former President Johnson's war on poverty, is battling for survival against a doubting Republican administration.

President Nixon already has ordered the showcase Job Corps and Head Start programs transferred to older line agencies and has said OEO's main task should be as an "incubator" of experimental new programs.

"It should be made clear that OEO is administratively sound," the study by the agency's Office of Inspection and Auditing Division states.

"In order to involve the poor in shaping their own destiny, we have taken responsible chances."

An OEO official, asked what chances, said:

"If you don't think organizing a farm cooperative in the South through a group of poor, black people who are not experienced in business and fiscal matters wasn't taking a chance, then I don't know what is."

He said this venture, and others like it, were worth the gamble, had improved the lives of thousands of poverty-stricken people, and were for the most part fiscally sound.

The report says that 1,238 audits of OEO program involving $1,067 billion indicate that 97.5 per cent of the antipoverty funds "were spent in complete accordance with OEO guidelines."

Some $28 million of the total amount audited was questioned, and $14 million of this was subsequently cleared.

Prospects were seen for snow flurries in the Panhandle-Plains sector. Otherwise it was expected to be a dry norther until the wintry blast reached South Central and Southeast Texas, bringing a chance for scattered showers.

Overnight temperatures as low as 25 degrees in the Panhandle and 32 in the north central and southwest parts of the state were predicted, with readings in the middle 30s to 40s elsewhere.

Long range forecasts, covering the period through next Wednesday, promised temperatures averaging 10 to 15 degrees below normal for the season.

There was no rain anywhere in the state Thursday. Top afternoon temperatures ranged from 83 at Presidio down to 64 at Galveston.

Predawn marks today dipped to 37 at El Paso and 38 at Dallas, while it was still 61 at Brownsville and McAllen.

Webelos received numerous awards at the meeting of Pack 29 at the Elbow school Thursday evening.

Gary Moore received five special training awards for the Webelos. Kary Richardson got seven, Gary Tidwell five, and Jace Elliott two.

The bear award went to Carl Barnes; denner stripes to Mike Lagana; assistant denner stripes to John Summers and Phil Lagana. Darrell Richardson was named den chief for the Webelos.

Den 1 presented a collection of project models, and Den 2, costumed as Indians, staged horse and war dances, the great white spirit ritual. Bill Cregar, cubmaster, presided, and the pack reported 100 per cent attendance from the three dens.

The Rhythm Riders participated in a picnic at the H. W. Wright home in Silver Heels Wednesday, then held a business meeting at which it was voted to take part in the Rodeo parade at 5 p.m. in Sweetwater April 3. More than 20 shared in the meeting and picnic.

Twenty Absentee Ballots Recorded

Twenty persons had voted absentee at noon today in the city commission election scheduled for Tuesday. Deadline for absentee ballots is 5 p.m. today.

No ballots were requested through the mail, according to City Secretary Charles Smith.

Two seats on the city commission will be determined by the outcome of the election. Blaz Bailon, Eddie Aciri, Garner McAdams and George Zachariah are candidates for the election. McAdams and Zachariah are seeking reelection.

Tragedy Mars Homecoming

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) — Constance Ann Townsend, 20, greeted her husband Thursday on his discharge from the Army at Ft. Riley, Kan., and the couple started in separate cars for their home in Webster Groves, Mo., where he had a civilian job awaiting him.

A few hours later near Columbia, former Army Lt. James F. Townsend Jr., 27, looked in his rear-view mirror and didn't see his wife's car. He turned around and raced back along Interstate 70.

Townsend found that her car had skidded off the road and overturned, killing her.

SUSIE LEAKE

Paying Debt Of Parents

BALDWIN, Kan. (AP) — Eighteen-year-old Susie Leake is attending Baker University as a freshman to pay the fee for the minister's services at her parents' wedding 32 years ago.

Miss Leake is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Leake of Kansas City, Mo., who were living in Detroit, Mich., when they were married in Depression era 1937.

After the ceremony the Methodist minister told them that in lieu of a cash fee they could send their first child to Baker, a Methodist-related school.

Years went by and the Leakes had no children.

In 1948 the Leakes moved to Kansas City, and their first child, Susie, was born Oct. 6, 1950.

"My parents didn't make me come to Baker, it was just mutually agreed," said Miss Leake. "I wanted to come to Baker. I love it and want to spend all four of my college years here."

She plans to be an elementary teacher.

U.S. Military Critics' Conference Under Way

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressmen displeased with American military policy opened a critics' conference today aimed at arousing public opposition to growing arms spending and spurring Congress to a more active role in national defense.

Fourteen senators and 38 representatives, all but one of them Democrats, began the closed two-day study featuring a dozen leading scientists and scholars who will discuss the military budget and its impact on domestic goals.

"We believe Congress has not shown sufficient sensitivity to these issues and to the public's anxieties about them," Rep. Benjamin S. Rosenthal, one of the organizers, said in prepared remarks.

The New York Democrat said the meeting resulted from a growing concern among members of Congress over the amount of defense spending and its domestic effect.

He said he hopes the meeting will dramatize the issues of defense spending, the arms race, the continuation of the war in Vietnam and the apparent lack of control over the military budget.

Arthur Larson, a presidential adviser to Dwight D. Eisenhower, will serve as chairman of the conference and sum up its conclusions at a news conference Saturday.

State Begins Its Rebuttal in Sirhan Murder Trial

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The state begins its rebuttal in the murder trial of Sirhan Bishara Sirhan today without the opportunity to show a movie film of Robert F. Kennedy in the moments before he was mortally wounded.

After the defense rested its month-long case Thursday, Judge Herbert V. Walker ruled the film would be inflammatory—thus denying the state a vivid way of evoking the memory of Kennedy.

VERY HAPPY

The color film showed Kennedy addressing supporters in the Ambassador Hotel after he won California's Democratic presidential primary last June 4 and ended with him, arms outstretched in victory, saying, "On to Chicago!" He left the stage, walked a few steps into an anteroom, and was shot by Sirhan.

"Here is a young man who just made what he considered a major victory, very happy, very gay, congratulating everybody," the judge said. "The contrast between that and what happened in this court certainly would be conveyed to the jury."

Co-prosecutors John E. Howard and David N. Fitts said they wanted to show the 12-minute movie to the jury that Kennedy that night said nothing about Israel. Sirhan claims the New York senator's pro-Israel stance turned his love for Kennedy to hate.

"I recall no evidence that this defendant heard any part or appreciable part of that speech," Judge Walker said in denying the motion.

Since Feb. 28, when the defense presented the first of 29 witnesses, the bulk of testimony has concerned whether Sirhan's mind was too unhinged to be able to "maturely and meaningfully" premeditate Kennedy's murder.

Opponents of the plan say the land fill program may pollute underground streams.

Clear Lake Call Sounded

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Water Quality Board said Thursday Clear Lake near Houston will be "forever ruined" within five to 10 years if something is not done about the pollution problem.

The board said it hoped to hold a public hearing in the Clear Lake area within the next two months.

A board spokesman said the board may require construction of an "interceptor line" to take the sewage to Galveston Bay or it may order a third step in treatment of the sewage by the sewage plants, the spokesman said.

The board also plans a hearing in San Antonio to consider protests over a proposal to dispose of trash through a land fill program. The program is a substitute for trash burning, which will be illegal beginning this summer.

'Y' Chromosome Man Sentenced

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A man who contended he was not responsible for his actions because of an extra male chromosome in his genetic makeup was sentenced Thursday to a 10-14 year prison term for the beating and rape of a housewife.

In sentencing Raymond Stewart Tanner, 33, Judge Maurice T. Leader ruled that relationship between an extra "Y" chromosome and behavior haven't been established. A normal male has an XY chromosome count.

Leader recommended that Tanner be assigned to Attascadero State Hospital, rather than a prison. Doctors at that hospital are studying the "Y" factor to determine if there is a relationship between genetic makeup and commission of violent crimes.

Tanner said he would appeal.

Clear Lake Call Sounded

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Water Quality Board said Thursday Clear Lake near Houston will be "forever ruined" within five to 10 years if something is not done about the pollution problem.

The board said it hoped to hold a public hearing in the Clear Lake area within the next two months.

A board spokesman said the board may require construction of an "interceptor line" to take the sewage to Galveston Bay or it may order a third step in treatment of the sewage by the sewage plants, the spokesman said.

The board also plans a hearing in San Antonio to consider protests over a proposal to dispose of trash through a land fill program. The program is a substitute for trash burning, which will be illegal beginning this summer.

Opponents of the plan say the land fill program may pollute underground streams.

State Begins Its Rebuttal in Sirhan Murder Trial

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The state begins its rebuttal in the murder trial of Sirhan Bishara Sirhan today without the opportunity to show a movie film of Robert F. Kennedy in the moments before he was mortally wounded.

After the defense rested its month-long case Thursday, Judge Herbert V. Walker ruled the film would be inflammatory—thus denying the state a vivid way of evoking the memory of Kennedy.

VERY HAPPY

The color film showed Kennedy addressing supporters in the Ambassador Hotel after he won California's Democratic presidential primary last June 4 and ended with him, arms outstretched in victory, saying, "On to Chicago!" He left the stage, walked a few steps into an anteroom, and was shot by Sirhan.

"Here is a young man who just made what he considered a major victory, very happy, very gay, congratulating everybody," the judge said. "The contrast between that and what happened in this court certainly would be conveyed to the jury."

Co-prosecutors John E. Howard and David N. Fitts said they wanted to show the 12-minute movie to the jury that Kennedy that night said nothing about Israel. Sirhan claims the New York senator's pro-Israel stance turned his love for Kennedy to hate.

"I recall no evidence that this defendant heard any part or appreciable part of that speech," Judge Walker said in denying the motion.

Since Feb. 28, when the defense presented the first of 29 witnesses, the bulk of testimony has concerned whether Sirhan's mind was too unhinged to be able to "maturely and meaningfully" premeditate Kennedy's murder.

Opponents of the plan say the land fill program may pollute underground streams.

BIG SPRING DAILY HERALD

SEC. B BIG SPRING, TEXAS, FRIDAY, MARCH 28, 1969 SEC. B

Six More Champs Are Announced

By SAM BLACKBURN

Six more school spelling champions were announced Thursday. Three schools will have their classroom champions vie for the school title today.

As matters shape up, it now appears that the Seventh Annual Howard County Spelling Bee to be staged here April 19 will have 13 Big Spring Independent School champions and a champion from the Immaculate Heart of Mary Parochial school vying for a chance at the regional spelling bee crown in Lubbock May 3.

The Seventh Annual Howard County Spelling Bee is to be staged in the high school cafeteria April 19 at 10 a.m. The county bee is sponsored by the Big Spring Herald.

Each school champion will be presented with a special ballpoint pen and a blue ribbon. The school champion, who wins the county championship, will get a plaque engraved with his name. He will also win a free trip to Lubbock to try his skill against the spelling champions from 23 West Texas counties. A victory there wins a free trip for the champion to Washington D.C., in June and a chance to try for the national title.

Second place winner in the Howard County Bee is presented with a gift by the Big Spring Herald.

Park Hill's champion is Maridene Margolis, 11, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Jack Margolis, VA Hospital. She is a sixth grader and Mrs. Jannette Thomas is her teacher. Runner-up at Park Hill is a fifth grader, from June Prather's room. He is Hugh Porter, 11, son of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Porter, 1608 Indian Hills. Park Hill's 1968 champ was Paul Talbot who went on to win second place in the county bee.

Sheri Denise Ingram, a sixth grader, is the champion of College Heights school. She is 12 and a student in the room of Sarah McWhorter. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clay M. Ingram. Alternate at College Heights is Sharon Kay Jenkins, 11, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Jenkins, 593 Highland. She is a sixth grader in the room of Mrs. Ann Gember. Last year's champion at College Heights was Julia M. Evans.

Both the champion and the alternate at Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic school have competed in earlier spelling bees within the school. However neither had won the right to represent her school until this year.

Immaculate Heart of Mary champion, selected Thursday morning, is 11-year-old Julia Finfinger. She is a sixth grader in the school and the daughter of Maj. and Mrs. James J. Finfinger, 3863 Calvin. Alternate for the school is Mary Lou Pistone, a fifth grader. Ten-year-old Mary Lou is the daughter of T. Sgt. and Mrs. Robert V. Pistone, 135 B Dow Drive. Immaculate Heart of Mary's champion in 1968 was Cathy Sneed.

At Lakeview, last year's alternate is this year's champion and last year's champion is the 1969 alternate. Elsa Hernandez, 11, a sixth grader, will represent her school. Her alternate is Denis Way, 11, fifth grade. Elsa is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hernandez, 303 N. Aylford. Denis is the daughter of Mrs. Jessie Way Miles, 804 Pine. Denis was Lakeview's 1968 champion.

James Tyra, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tyra, 2702 Ann, is the Kentwood school champion. His alternate is Angela Hodnett, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Hodnett, 2718 Lynn.

Runnels Junior High School's 1969 champion is David Coates, 13, son of Mrs. W. T. Coates, 1204 W. 2nd. He is an eighth grader. Runner-up is Roy Raney, 14, an eighth grader and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dale Raney, 609 Steakley. Runnels has provided several of the county champions in the past and the champion from this school and that of Goliad, to be named today, are usually regarded as top threats in the county bee.

Goliad, Boydston and Marcy are the only three schools which have not yet named champions.

Sheds Crutches To Help Save Boy

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — A man recovering from a broken leg threw aside his crutches Wednesday and sprinted 150 yards to help save 2-year-old Ernie Land who had fallen into the Jordan River.

Police said Charles Brown raced to the assistance of Byron Farnsworth who had become stuck in the muddy river bottom after grabbing the child.

Brown, a former Army medic, then applied mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and revived the boy.

Police said the youngster apparently fell into the stream while playing.

Parking Tickets 'Fix' Measure Not Popular

AUSTIN (AP) — An Austin legislator has asked his fellow lawmakers to go on record as abandoning their traditional privilege of having parking and traffic tickets fixed in the capital city.

Rep. Maurice Angly, a Republican, introduced his resolution Thursday.

The measure would place lawmakers on record "as disclaiming any immunity from the issuance of traffic and parking citations arising from violations of the ordinances of the city of Austin, and expressing a desire to be treated without special favor or undue accord."

Angly acknowledged he has participated in the practice, both by having "one or two parking tickets" fixed for himself and as serving as a pipeline for other lawmakers who wanted theirs "taken care of."

The reason given for the practice, he said, was that other legislators might retaliate if tickets were not fixed by voting against bills important to Travis county.

"This custom of fixing tickets for legislators is wrong both as a moral matter and as a practice which tends to destroy the respect which should be felt by the people towards the Texas House of Representatives and Texas Senate."

"This is not going to be a very popular measure," Angly conceded.

REJECTION, CRUCIFIXION OF CHRIST SUNDAY TOPIC

The Sunday School lesson deals with the rejection and crucifixion of Christ. The background Scripture comes from Mark 14:43 — 15:41. Devotional reading comes from Isaiah 53.

People pretty naturally can relegate all the blame for the crucifixion of Christ to those who did the actual yelling of "Crucify Him," and those who did just that. However, we, in our sinful ways, sent Christ to the cross. It is we who reject Christ, just as He was rejected 2,000 years ago, when we "kicked Him" and "His teachings" out of areas of our lives.

The false witness should serve as a reminder that we have nothing against Jesus either. Therefore, He deserves the place of authority He seeks in our lives. The treatment He received then is not unlike the treatment He receives today.

The elements of the trial and crucifixion should remind us that Christ had no faults. The thieves should remind us of the sin within us that Christ died for.

Dr. O'Brien, who now resides in Houston where he is associate pastor of the Second Baptist Church, will arrive here Saturday and speak twice Sunday. His morning worship message will be "Christianity's Greatest Need" and the evening topic will be "A Seven-Fold View of Jesus."

Through the week there will be two services, the first for Presbyterian men and all who will join them in the early morning worship from 7 to 7:50 o'clock, and then at 7:30 p.m.

Topics, taken from the book of Amos, for the breakfast sessions in Fellowship Hall are: Monday, "Israel in the Day of Amos: America in Our Day"; Tuesday, "Dominant Theme of Amos"; Wednesday, "Hazards of Prestige"; Thursday, "Teaching by Symbols"; Friday, "Hope for the Future."

Music for the series of services during the week before Easter will be led by John Walker with Betty Johansen at the organ console.

Dr. O'Brien is to be the speaker for the annual Easter Sunrise services sponsored by the Big Spring Pastors Association at the City Park amphitheatre.

Cotham Starts Mission Trip Around World Easter Sunday

A missionary journey beginning Easter afternoon will take Perry Cotham, Fourteenth and Main Church of Christ minister, half way around the world.

Within a six-week period he will be in more than a dozen churches for Gospel meetings in South Africa. En route he will make stops in Frankfurt, Germany and Vienna, Austria, where he will visit missionaries, and in Athens, Greece, where he will appear on a lectureship program on the subject, "The Timeliness of the Gospel." On his way back home he also will visit missionaries in Rome, then go to Madrid, Spain, on the last leg of his trip.

a half years ago, Mr. Cotham was minister at several Oklahoma churches, including those at Shawnee, Wewoka, Duncan and Capitol Hill in Oklahoma City. He is author of numerous tracts. Rick Moses, associate minister, will preach until return of Mr. Cotham for the May 18 morning service.

GRIN AND FOLKSY NICKNAME WERE HIS HALLMARKS

'I Like Ike' Was A National Sentiment

WASHINGTON (AP) — From the day he entered West Point as a plebe to the day he left the White House 50 years later,

Dwight David Eisenhower achieved personal popularity seldom matched in America. His grin and folksy nickname were his hallmarks.

There was a simple plainsman's eloquence about Eisenhower that touched Americans. He had no flair as an orator, little sophisticated wit, and no flamboyance.

But "I Like Ike" was a national sentiment—so much so that the Democratic and Republican parties both sought to make him president, even while his political persuasion was unknown.

He was the only Republican president in a generation. And his party controlled the House of Representatives for only two of his eight years in office, yet he rolled up majorities matched previously only by Franklin D. Roosevelt in his first two terms.

He was a career soldier who called war "this damnable thing" who said he hoped to see "people in my profession permanently out of a job." It was characteristic of Ike that in his speech to the 1968 Republican National Convention—pinned to the delegates from his hospital room—he subordinated politics to a plea for "traveling the pathways of peace, with honor and justice."

Peace and Honor. The words surfaced again and again in a brilliant career that was a succession of peaks with few valleys: general of the Army, allied commander in chief for North Africa, commanding general of Allied powers in the European theater, chief of staff of the Army, president of Columbia University, two terms as President of the United States. Always he spoke of the strength of America. "Let us first remind ourselves of the greatness of this nation and its people," he told the Republican convention. "Let's not waste time this year searching out someone to blame, even though some seem more disposed to concede rather than to stand firmly for America."

Less than 12 hours after he spoke Eisenhower was stricken with his third heart attack of the year—the sixth one since 1955. He was unable to watch the convention on television.

The 34th President of the United States was the third of the seven sons of David and Ida Stover Eisenhower. One of Ike's brothers, Paul, died in infancy; the others were successes in their own right: Arthur, a banker, Edgar, a lawyer, Earl, an electrical engineer, Milton, a government official and college president; and Roy, a druggist.

Their grandfather traveled west with the wagon trains in 1878 and settled near Abilene, Kan. Their father failed with his general store and moved his family to Denison, Tex., where Dwight was born Oct. 14, 1890. A year later the family returned to Abilene and the father took a job in a creamery.

Young Eisenhower graduated first in a class of 164 from West Point in 1915. As a lieutenant at Ft. Sam Houston, Tex., he met Denver girl Mamie Geneva Doud at a party. They were married July 1, 1916. A son, Dwight Doud, born a year later, died of scarlet fever at 3. A second son, John Sheldon Doug, followed his father to West Point.

In the 1930s, then Maj. Eisenhower accompanied Gen. Douglas MacArthur to the Philip-

Days Of Triumph

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is shown in two victorious phases of his life in these studies. He gave "V" for victory sign during Kansas City welcome on his triumphal return to U. S. after World War II. He came to the attention of Gen. George C. Marshall, the Army chief of staff, who summoned Eisenhower to Washington. Ike was sent to London to make recommendations about the organization and development of American forces in Europe. To his surprise, he was named to the European theater command with orders to execute his own plan.

Eisenhower first headed the expeditionary force to North Africa in 1942 and early the next year was made commander in chief of all allied forces in the North African campaign.

In 1943, Eisenhower was named Allied commander for the invasion of Europe. D-Day came on June 6, 1944.

He directed the Allied forces to victory over Germany and presided over surrender ceremonies. Soon after, he returned to Washington to become Army chief of staff, holding the post until 1948 when he became president of Columbia University.

But President Harry S. Truman summoned him to Washington to serve temporarily as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Later he took a longer leave of absence to organize and command North Atlantic Treaty Organization forces.

The affection the nation felt for Ike paid off in the 1952 election. He had a plurality of more than 6.5 million votes over Democrat Adlai Stevenson, carrying 39 of the 48 states. He did even better in his 1956 re-election, topping Stevenson by 9.5 million votes.

The Korean War was ended by an armistice in Eisenhower's first term after a dramatic visit to South Korea before his inauguration.

It was in the Eisenhower years that both the United States and Russia developed hydrogen bombs, engaging in a grim race for superiority. It was also the time when the Space Age dawned with unmanned satellites. Man traveled under atomic power under the sea for the first time.

The 1954 Supreme Court declared the segregation of schools to be unconstitutional.

Three years later, Eisenhower became the first president since Reconstruction to use federal troops to enforce a court order —the integration of schools in Little Rock, Ark.

The United States, under Eisenhower, severed relations with Cuba after Fidel Castro's revolution, but it did not support the Hungarian uprising.

Eisenhower sent Marines to Lebanon at that country's request after a coup in neighboring Iraq. But he criticized England and France after their attack on Egypt.

In the twilight of his second term, the United States and Russia appeared to be moving closer than at any time since World War II toward the detente that Eisenhower so long had sought.

The Russian leader, Premier Nikita Khrushchev had visited this country and asked Eisenhower to visit his. A summit conference was planned.

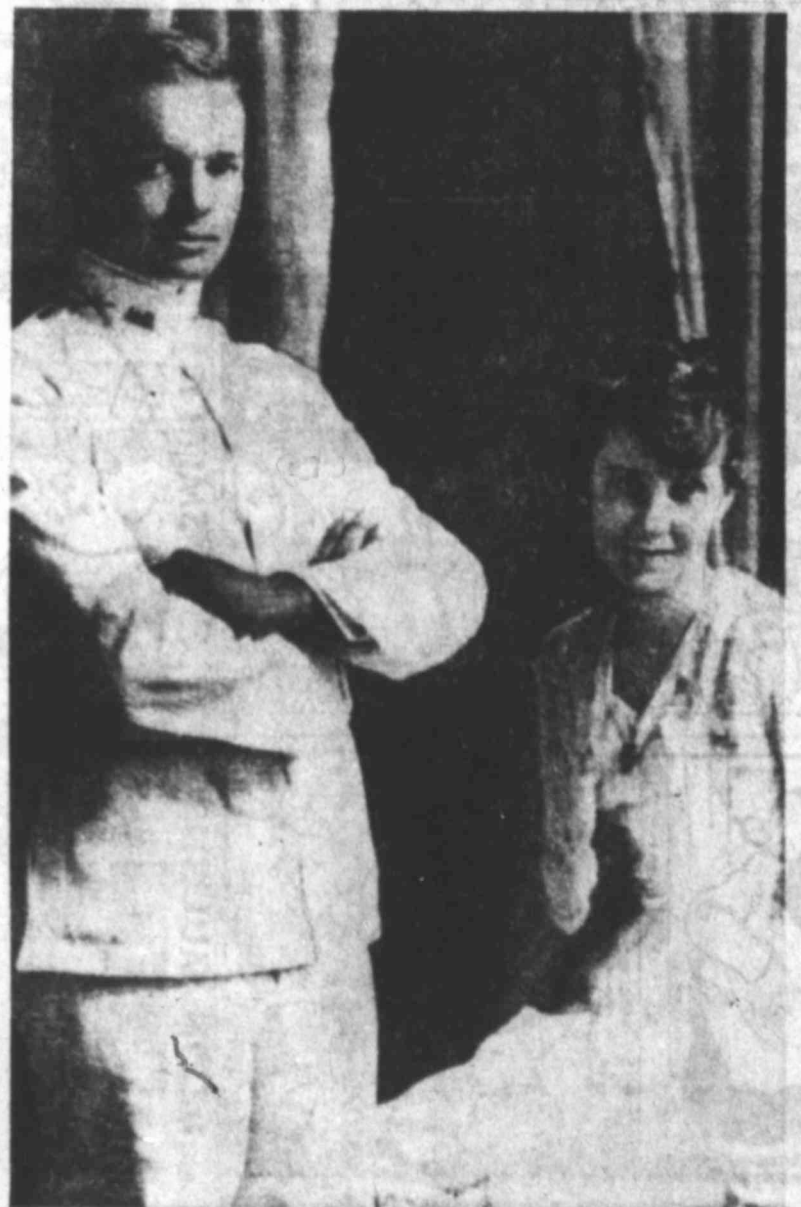

Then, May 1, 1960, disaster struck. A U-2 spy plane piloted by Francis Gary Powers was shot down over Soviet Russia.

An angered Khrushchev scuttled the Paris summit before it got started and the uproar that ensued cast a shadow that lingered for months.

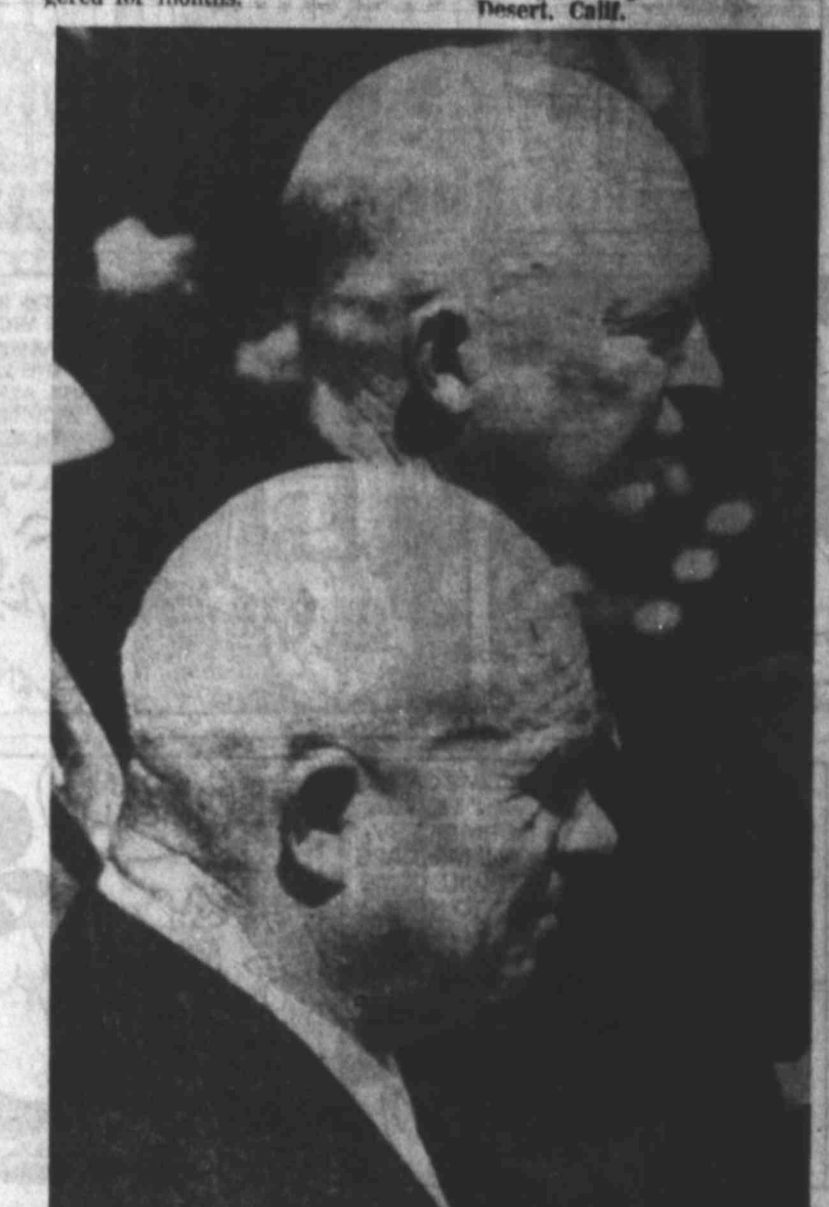

Golfer

Ike's favorite pastime was golf. He is shown here in 1961 hitting a long iron at Palm Desert, Calif.

Steers Seek 5th Win In Conference Today

Oakey Hagood's Big Spring Steers will try to make it five 3-AAAA baseball wins in a row in a 4 p.m. contest here today with Midland High.

The contest was originally booked for Saturday but was moved forward upon the suggestion of Dub Headrick, the Midland coach.

Either Thomas Ham, who appears to have fully recovered from an "early season" illness, or Jimmy Farris will mount the knob for Big Spring.

The Longhorns will be working on a string of six straight wins, having not lost since they dropped a 1-0 decision in wretched weather at Lubbock to Coronado High School March 7.

Big Spring needs this one badly, since it hits the road next week for five straight conference games. The Longhorns play first at Permian and then at Lee in Midland next week.

Although Big Spring and Abilene High are the only unbeaten clubs in the conference, most observers still regard Lee as the team to beat for the title. The Rebels were blanked by Abilene High in Midland last week but otherwise have been pulverizing the opposition.

Midland beat Odessa Ector, 2-0, in its last start. The game wasn't decided until the ninth. Mark Manulik struck out 16 batters along the way.

In conference standings, Midland is 2-3, not out of title contention by any means.

Anyone Can Win

Eddie Trice, coach of the New Car Dealers Association basketball team, admires the four trophies which will be awarded in the free throw contest to be held in conjunction with the first annual Men's West Texas Basketball Tournament at HCJC, scheduled tonight and Saturday. Anyone paying the cost of admission is eligible to take part in the contest, without an additional charge.

Four-Team Men's Tourney Begins

Zale's Jewelers and Hemphill-Wells will furnish team trophies for the first annual Men's West Texas Basketball tournament, a four-team event which gets under way in the HCJC Gymnasium at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

If the two-night event is well supported at the gate, individual awards will also be given to members of the five-man all-tournament team.

Tonight's pairings: Midland Nickel Chrysler vs. Big Spring New Car Dealers, 7:30 p.m.; Tompkins Sinclair Dinos vs. San Angelo Cleveland Chrysler-Plymouth, 8:45 p.m.

Third place will be determined in a 7:30 p.m. game Saturday while the championship game starts at 8:45 p.m.

Midland Nickel, boasting such stars as Preston Sherrod and Johnny Robinson, is favored to cop the title but strong opposition is bound to come from the other three clubs.

The New Car Dealers team has several HCJC players, among them Glen Fletcher, Jerry Phillips, Sammy James and John Billison, plus Johnny Wright and Dayton Dickey. The latter starred for the University of Redlands team in California at one time.

The New Car Dealers team is coached by Eddie Trice, one-time McMurry player, now physical director at the YMCA here.

Johnny Johnson, 6-4; Reggie Gilbreath, 6-7; and Cecil Scarbrough, 6-3, are other standouts for the Midland Nickel team.

Tompkins Sinclair Dinos boasts such stellar hands as Kirby Pugh, Ralph Harris, Ben Neel, Delnor Poss, Eddy Nelson, Bob Davis and Henry Peacock.

Pugh, Nelson and Peacock are former junior college All-Americans while Poss was a scoring great for Hardin-Simmons.

The tournament is being co-sponsored by the Sports and Recreation Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and the Civitan Club. If it is a success, it will be held again in 1970.

Proceeds over and above expenses go toward supplying clothing for needy families here.

A free-throw contest will be held in conjunction with the meet, with competition limited to the half-time period in each game. Anyone paying the price of admission is eligible to take part. Each entry will take ten shots at the bucket.

Winner in each of four age divisions will earn a trophy. The age groups are: Through nine years, 10-12; 13-15; over 16.

Admission prices will be a modest 25 cents for students and 50 cents for adults each night.

Herd Golfers In Amarillo

Wilbur Cunningham has taken his Big Spring High School golf team to Amarillo for the annual Amarillo Relays tournament.

The Steers are one of 22 teams entered in the 36-hole event, which begins today and continues through Saturday.

Lubbock Monterey is defending titlist in the division in which Big Spring will be competing. Odessa High and Odessa Permian are also taking part in the meet.

Play is taking place at both the Amarillo Country Club and the Tascosa Country Club.

The Longhorns are marking time for the resumption of District 3-AAAA play, which occurs April 11 in Odessa. Big Spring now occupies third place in the conference standings and must finish second or higher in order to qualify for Regionals.

Cowboys Win One

HOUSTON (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys came from behind Thursday night to defeat the Houston Oilers, 70-62, in a benefit basketball game that netted more than $18,000 for the March of Dimes.

Lopez Likely To Quit Post After Season

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — In all probability this is the last time around for Al Lopez as a big league manager. The soft-spoken popular veteran came out of semi-retirement last July to take over the Chicago White Sox from Eddie Stanky. After finishing out the season he agreed to stay on one more year.

"We'll just play it by ear about the future," said the 60-year-old Lopez, whose home is in nearby Tampa. "I'm pretty sure this will be the last. I'd like to get the ball club back in contention."

GO FOR SPEED

"The White Sox always were built around pitching, defense and speed. I hope to build them up again. We sagged last year in all departments. Injuries ruined our pitching staff."

Chicago lost its first 10 games last season, plunging deep into the cellar. They ended up tied for eighth with the California Angels, 23 games under .500 and 36 lengths behind Detroit.

Lopez thinks the new two-division system will be more interesting. The White Sox will be fighting it out with Oakland, Minnesota, California and the two expansion clubs—Kansas City and Seattle.

When Lopez came to camp he was worried about his pitching because he didn't know what to expect from Gary Peters and Tommy John. Both have been coming along fine so far.

Peters, bothered by a groin injury and a tender elbow, won only four games last year, compared to 16 in 1967. John, knocked out for the year in a tackling match with Detroit's Dick McAuliffe in August, won his first seven and had to settle for 10-5.

"It looks like my left shoulder is going to be all right," said John. "I was worried about it last fall but I think it's going to come back."

Lopez counts on John as a regular starter with Peters and Joe Horlen as the nucleus of his staff. Sammy Ellis and Cisco Carlos are probable starters. Danny Lazar, a young lefty, could get into the rotation or the bullpen which is well-manned with Wilbur Wood's knuckler and Bob Locker's sinker ball.

Faircloth Named Pro At Sunset

ODESSA — Gid Faircloth, veteran West Texas linkster, has been named head golf pro at the Odessa Sunset Country Club.

Faircloth was head pro at the Winkler County Course in Kermit for 14 years and has been at Dimmitt since last Oct. 20.

Gun Club Slates April 6 Shoot

Members of the Mesquite Gun Club will gather at their shooting range near Vincent Sunday, April 6, for a shoot in which heavy varmint rifles will be used.

Competition will be in five-shot groups at 100 yards.

In matches held last Sunday, Larry Baggett won first place with a score of 218, including one bullseye.

Larry Barret was second, at 217 with four x's while V. W. Kemper was third, at 215 and 3 x's. In all, eight shooters competed.

Competition was in hunting rifle class with scores of 243 and larger.

Bovine Netters In Abilene Meet

Big Spring High School has entered its tennis team in the annual Abilene Invitational tournament, which started on three courts in that city this morning and continues through Saturday.

Other schools competing are Austin High, Austin Travis, Austin McCollum, San Angelo, Wichita Falls, Wichita Falls Rider, Abilene Cooper, Abilene High and Odessa.

'Shoot To Kill' Slated Saturday

The Permian Bird Dog and Sportsman Club has scheduled a Shoot to Kill event at the Flying K Ranch in the northeast part of Howard County Saturday.

Registration will get under way at 8 a.m. The public is invited to be on hand.

Cards Look Strong As Openers Near

By The Associated Press

After two consecutive penants, the St. Louis Cardinals have gone into the rehabilitation business, and if spring training is any indication, they may profit with another National League championship.

The Cardinals acquired Vada Pinson, Joe Torre and Bob Johnson during the winter and spring and all three are paying dividends for their new lease on life.

Thursday was a good example as the trio collected five hits and spurred the Cardinals to a 4-0 victory over the New York Mets in an exhibition game.

Tony Conigliaro also continued his revitalization for Boston with his first home run since his eye injury in August, 1967, and it helped the Red Sox to a 4-3 triumph over Cincinnati.

ORIOLES COOLED
 In other games, Atlanta stopped red-hot Baltimore 7-1.

San Angelo's Track Meet Boasts Four Divisions

SAN ANGELO — Big Spring is not considered a title threat in the 11th annual San Angelo Relays starting here today but the Steers could shine in a couple of individual events.

Garv Kelley of the Steers is likely to make a splash in the open quarter while Steve Russell could contend for a blue ribbon in the discus throw.

The meet is divided into four divisions and Gerald Loyd's team will be competing against the likes of Midland High, San Angelo Central, Odessa High, Odessa Permian, Odessa Ector, Abilene High, Abilene Cooper, Temple, Lubbock Monterey and Plainview.

Y Swim Team Is Amarillo Bound

Coach Ernie Hobbs is planning to take 14 boys and girls with him to Amarillo Saturday for a swim meet.

The event will be held at the Maverick Boys' Club there. The local YMCA team was scheduled to compete in Amarillo recently but the show was called off due to bad weather.

Boys making the trip include Bryan Jenkins, Richard Jenkins, Paul Nabors, Kirk Nelson, Brent Nelson, Jim Nelson, Brad Sinder, Greg Sinder, Doug Mays and Clifford Hobbs.

Girls committed to compete include Ann Caton, Sammie Burns, Paige Little and Irene Little.

Jack Griffin, president of the association, said at least 14 umpires are needed if the organization is to accept all offers for work.

Last year, the BSUA had 15 members. Those aspiring to break in as umpires have an open invitation to attend the meeting, Griffin stated.

New officers will also be elected at Sunday's session.

Umpires Schedule Sunday Meeting

Members of the Big Spring Umpires Association will gather in the Chamber of Commerce conference room at 1 p.m. Sunday to discuss the job of trying to assign arbiters for all Teen-Age Association games this season.

Jack Griffin, president of the association, said at least 14 umpires are needed if the organization is to accept all offers for work.

Last year, the BSUA had 15 members. Those aspiring to break in as umpires have an open invitation to attend the meeting, Griffin stated.

New officers will also be elected at Sunday's session.

HC Linksters In Loop Test

ODESSA — HCJC's linksters try to protect their hold on first place in Western Conference standings in a 27-hole match scheduled at the Odessa Country Club here today.

In the fall competition, the Jayhawks accumulated 22 1/2 points to 18 1/2 for runner-up Odessa College, which will have the advantage of playing on its home course.

South Plains is third in the ratings, with 17 points, followed by NMML with 16; Amarillo College, 15; Frank Phillips, 10 1/2; and New Mexico Junior College, 7 1/2.

Representing Howard County in the meet are Jeff Neito, Mike Moore, Randy Truelove and Mike Weaver.

The scene of operations shifts to Big Spring April 18 while the teams end team play in Amarillo April 25.

Individual champions will be determined during the conference meet in Roswell, N.M., May 1-3.

Odessa would, no doubt, have been in better shape in the race had not it had to forfeit an early season match after one of the Wranglers admitted he had not putted out on several holes.

Torre, acquired for Orlando Cepeda after two bad years at Atlanta, tripled and singled. And Johnson, an oft-traded utility man also gotten from Atlanta, drove in another run with a single after delivering a single and a double in an 8-4 B squad victory over the Mets' B team in the morning.

Steve Carlton pitched seven shutout innings for the Cardinals after teammate Nelson Briles went seven innings in the early game.

TONY C BANGS BALL
 Conigliaro, well on his way to making a startling comeback, singled in one run and then homered against a stiff breeze. Carl Yastrzemski singled in another Boston run to up his average to .412.

Cepeda hit his second homer for Atlanta and Cecil Upshaw and Gary Neibauer combined on a two-hitter to hand Baltimore only its third loss in 17 games.

Tom Fresh slammed a two-run homer and Mel Stottlemyre went seven innings, giving up his first run in 20 innings, in the Yankee victory, and Hank Allen's leadoff homer in the last of the 12th won for Washington.

Tom Matchick's bad throw in the 12th inning let in Philadelphia's winning run against Detroit and Steve Blass went seven good innings for Pittsburgh to beat the White Sox.

AT SOCIETY BRAND the cutting of suit fabric is a fine art—so stripes and patterns will match perfectly at every seam. It takes more time and material to cut it that way, but the way you'll look in a Society Brand suit makes it well worth it.

Imagine kneeling in public!

It's true. A lot of Episcopalians (not all) kneel during parts of the service.

They have a funny way of looking at worship. They don't attend church for the primary purpose of enjoying stirring sermons or beautiful hymns. "This is no spectator sport," they say.

Worship, to them, means offering a bit of themselves to God. Their first thought is one of giving... not receiving. Kneeling sometimes helps.

Sure! Episcopalians, too, have music and "messages from the pulpit." But if the choir is lousy—or the sermon something less than eloquent—the hour isn't really wasted. Every individual gives a bit of himself. And if kneeling seems to help, then God probably doesn't mind.

Maybe you wouldn't mind, either, if you learned the reasons behind some of the Episcopalian peculiarities: "formal" services, refraining from chit-chat, reading from a prayer book, and offering guidelines—not straight-jackets—for Christian living.

Your nearby Episcopal minister would be flattered to discuss them... without even "twisting your arm."

Mariner Will Join Twin In Search For Mars Signs

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—While scientists puzzled over three minor lapses in its otherwise elegant performance, Mariner 7 streaked on course today to join its twin in search of signs that life can exist on Mars.

Following Mariner 6 by 31 days, the 901-pound spacecraft was blasted off from Cape Kennedy, Fla., Thursday atop a 117-foot tall Atlas-Centaur rocket.

Shortly after it separated from its rocket, Mariner first departed from its $64-million script. Its computer ad-libbed some unscheduled transmissions to earth, then resumed normal work.

The other two miscues came as the craft was securely in its 193-million mile, 134-day groove. Controllers at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory here noticed two abrupt, temporary drops in power to Mariner's operating equipment and transmitter.

Mariner's present course would carry it within 15,000 miles of Mars on Aug. 1. A mid-course rocket maneuver planned for about April 8 will nudge the craft on a course taking it within 2,000 miles of the surface, 4,000 miles closer than earlier Mariners.

Mariner 6 will come within 2,000 miles of Mars the day before Mariner 7. Each craft carries two television cameras that can pick out objects 900 feet across.

"If there is life on Mars, it is most unlikely the spacecraft would make that detection," said Newton W. Cunningham, Mariner program manager for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. "We do hope, however, to tell if the environment there is suitable for life to exist."

Suitable means having, among other things, oxygen, water and tolerable temperatures. Mars gives astronomers teasing hints that it may qualify.

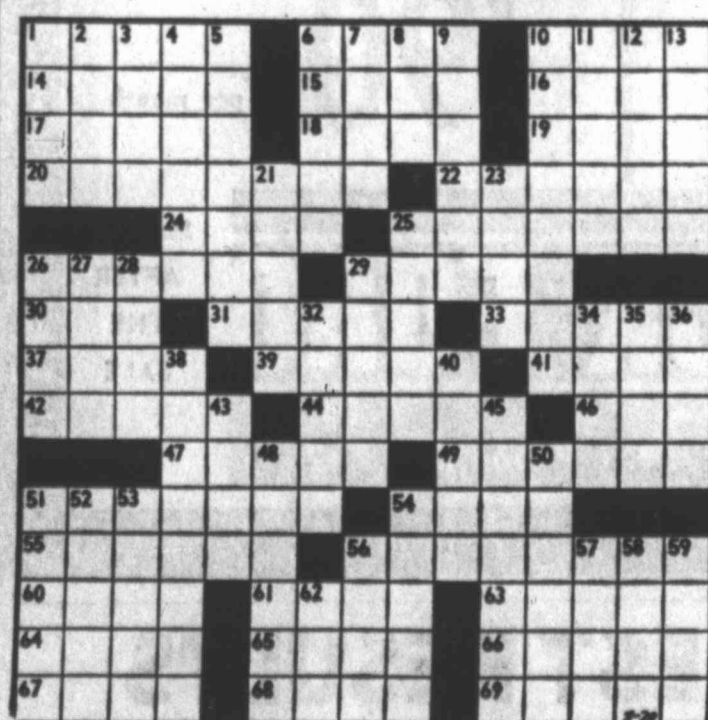

Scientists hope to settle the question of Martian life definitively in 1973 when unmanned spacecraft are to land on the planet.

'Chickendog' Controversy

WASHINGTON (AP)—A leading consumer advocate says failure of the government to hold hearings in the developing "chickendog" controversy will mean surrender to the meat lobby.

The Rev. Robert J. McEwen, a Jesuit priest who heads the Consumer Federation of America, made the charge Thursday in a letter to Secretary of Agriculture Clifford Hardin.

At issue is a proposal to liberalize labeling on hotdogs which would permit poultry meat in them without saying so in large lettering.

The chickendog proposal is part of a plan to overhaul federal standards for hotdogs and other cooked sausage products. It was passed on by the Johnson administration, which favored a series of public hearings to let consumers have their say.

The Associated Press first reported Wednesday that plans now call for the chickendog issue to be split from the broader, more complex proposals, including fat content and other specifications, and be recommended without public hearings.

McEwen charged in his letter—which he delivered to the department in person—that if no hearings are held he would have to conclude "your department intends to be run by the meat lobby—as some have long alleged—with no effort to consult consumer opinion."

There was no immediate response by Hardin, but Asst. Secretary Richard E. Lyng, who supervises the department's meat regulation agency, said in a statement that consumer interests would be considered.

"The department will take steps to assure that all interested groups have an opportunity to make known their views on whatever proposals the department makes to amend the labeling requirements that apply to cooked sausage," Lyng said.

At present, chicken is permitted by federal regulations in hotdogs as long as the main label indicates the contents in bold letters, such as "Frankfurters, Chicken Added."
