

CHAUTAUQUA COMMITTEE MEETS HERE TOMORROW

LOCAL COMMITTEE AUTHORIZED TO SUBMIT DEFINITE PROPOSITION FOR THIS CITY.

QUESTION WAS DISCUSSED

Matter Was Considered at Length at Meeting of Directors of Chamber of Commerce.

At a meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce this morning the committee recently appointed to confer with the Chautauqua committee of the North and Northwest Texas conferences of the M. E. Church, South were given authority to make a definite offer to the committee when it meets here tomorrow afternoon and to sign a contract in behalf of the Chamber of Commerce if the proposition made by the committee is accepted.

The agricultural committee of the Chamber of Commerce was also authorized in conjunction with representative citizens from Byers, Petrolia, Burkburnett, Iowa Park, Archer City and other communities throughout this and Archer and Clay counties to call a mass meeting at some date to be decided upon for the purpose of organizing a tri country fair to be held in this city this fall.

The discussion of these two important matters took up most of the time in the directors' meeting this morning.

It was announced that the chautauqua committee from the North and Northwest Texas conferences of the M. E. Church, South would meet in this city again tomorrow when they would expect a definite proposition from the citizens of Wichita Falls. A tentative suggestion as the basis for a proposition from the citizens of Wichita Falls was submitted by the chautauqua committee of the two conferences. This proposed that all the privileges at the lake be turned over to the chautauqua for its use and benefit during the week or ten days of the meeting; that a bathing pool be erected below the dam; that the one fare to and from the lake on the traction line be reduced to ten cents during the chautauqua; that the Chautauqua be given the use of the grounds and the ball park. The conference committee also suggested that the citizens of Wichita Falls make some proposition relative to tents and cots and that they make provision for advertising the meeting over North and Northwest Texas.

Mr. J. A. Kemp, president of the Wichita Falls Traction Company said that he believed all the requirements proposed could be complied with so far as the traction company was concerned.

Rev. C. M. Bishop urged that the committee be ready to submit a definite proposition when the conference committee met here tomorrow. He said that great interest was being taken in the proposed Chautauqua throughout this section of the State and believed that no less than 1000 visitors would attend. He said that many expected a larger number. Twenty-five to fifty dollars would be spent here by every one who would attend so that the meeting would bring a considerable sum of money here in addition to other benefits.

Was Quanah Parker Poisoned? Comanches Believe He Was

Lawton, Okla., Feb. 28.—That Quanah Parker, chief of the Comanche Indians and head-counselor of the Kiowa, Comanche and affiliated tribes, was poisoned by Indian medicine men and died from poison instead of rheumatism affecting the heart, is the belief of the Comanches, who say the Great Spirit revealed the truth to their medicine men when, with the "great medicine," they entered the room to administer "Kotee-E-Wyo," or the Indians' last resort.

They will send White Parker, son of Quanah, among the Cheyennes, to gather evidence.

Dr. J. A. Perisho of Cache, who attended Parker in his last illness, does not believe death could have resulted from poison, but the Comanches declare "the white medicine men don't know Indian poison."

FORT WORTH HAS A SERIOUS RIOT

A MOB OF ABOUT ONE THOUSAND ATTACK NEGROES IN THE BUSINESS SECTION

NEGRO SHOW THE CAUSE

White Man Attempts to Operate a Theatre Exclusively for the Negroes.

Special to The Times
Fort Worth, Texas, Feb. 28.—An unruly mob composed of about 1000 men and boys paraded the streets of this city last night and made life miserable for the negro population for several hours before the disturbing element could be quelled. For some time the mob surged and swarmed on Main and Houston streets and whenever a negro was encountered he received rough treatment at the hands of the whites.

The mob was incited by a white man who attempted to operate a moving picture show exclusively for negroes at which a negro was placed in charge of the ticket window. This place was the first attacked by the mob that afterward extended its operations to other parts of the city.

Nobody was seriously hurt during the riot but matters had a decidedly threatening appearance for some time and some lines of business suffered considerable loss as a result of the early closing that resulted.

Mounted police are today patrolling the streets and keeping back the crowds from the scene of the disturbance. A small band attempted today to break into the theatre that caused the disturbance but were driven away and the police think there will be no further trouble.

Houston Primaries.

Houston, Texas, Feb. 28.—Democratic primaries for Mayor and four commissioners is on in this city and a big vote is being polled.

Little Girl Drowned.
By Associated Press.
Clarksville, Texas, Feb. 28.—Washing her doll dresses in a pool one foot deep the six-year-old daughter of Jap Strickland was drowned.

Upon a motion C. W. Bean and P. St. Clair were added to the committee from the Chamber of Commerce to close a contract with the conference committee.

Dr. J. M. Bell of the agricultural committee recommended that a call for a meeting of the progressive citizens of Wichita, Clay and Archer counties be called to meet in this city at an early date for the purpose of organizing a fair association. His suggestion was adopted and the members of the agricultural committee were asked to secure the signatures of prominent citizens from nearby towns to the call. It is proposed to organize a stock company and to make the fair an annual occurrence.

Charter Mass Meeting Tonight Should Be Largely Attended

"There comes a tide in the affairs of men which taken at the flood leads on to victory." There is for consideration by the citizenship of Wichita Falls at the City Hall tonight a question affecting the interests of this city which may mean the tide that will lead us on to further victory. However, regardless of your opinion as to the value of a commission government, come and help the enterprising citizenship of Wichita Falls arrive at a decision as to the proper course to pursue. The occasion is an important one alike to those who conscientiously favor a special charter, and those who are opposed to a change. It is the initial step, the hour for mutual consideration and an opportunity every voter should take advantage of. Don't remain away and then complain of the action of those who were in attendance. Be present and register your objections, if any you have, you will be given a respectful hearing. Likewise, if you favor the charter, be present and offer such suggestions as you may have in mind, they may be of such a nature as to materially strengthen the new form of government if adopted. Let nothing prevent you from being at the City Hall tonight.

THE TIMES

The proposed city charter gives us a centralized government and confers powers on three men that they ought not to have. Our present system of four aldermen and a mayor or five altogether will come nearer being a government by the people. With five men every part of the city has a chance to be represented in our law making body. Seven members would be better than five because we want the city government to carry out the wishes of as nearly all the people as possible, and in multiplicity of interests and counsel there is wisdom.

No charter ought to be passed by the legislature until it is first voted on and adopted by the citizens. It won't do to say it will be voted on after the legislature passes it; the time to vote on it is before it goes to the legislature and becomes a law.

The present tax rate of six and six-tenths cents is high enough. Our voters are increasing rapidly and there is no reason for a higher rate. We are now assessing property at two-thirds of its value, and if we assess it at full value as we have a right to do, our taxes will be increased one-third, which ought to be sufficient. If taxes are materially increased rent will be raised and I think our merchants and other citizens are paying every dollar in rents that they can stand now.

The poor man is not the only one who is opposed to this increase but it is objected to by many of our heavy taxpayers. We are doing well now; why not let well enough alone? As values in the county increase the county tax rate comes down, but it seems to be necessary (as some view it) as city values increase for the city tax rate to go up.

The saloons are hereby reason of law the same as any other business and ought to be treated fairly. It is entirely proper to confine the saloons to the fire limits and the business district, but the charter ought not to say where they shall be located in the business district. If saloons are scattered they will cause less trouble than if confined to certain territory in the business district. If saloons are all right on Seventh street why are they not all right on Eighth street?

I would favor a state law that before a saloon can be opened the written consent of a majority of the property holders in that block shall be secured; but to arbitrarily attempt to legislate some of them out of business is neither just nor fair. If we don't want saloons (and I am opposed to them on every part of the ground), why not vote them out in a legal manner?

A CHARTER OPPONENT.

Mr. Bigger in Rebuttal:

To the Citizens of Wichita Falls: Gentlemen, the insinuation which you will observe in yesterday evening's Times, that you are being misled by words that are written so as to appeal to the prejudice or word to that effect, under the "pen name" of "Charter Advocate," evidently must emanate from the mind of a very biased and prejudiced mind and I hurl back the accusation that I would mislead the public. You read clause No. 5 of the brief outline of the proposed new city charter which says the maximum rate shall be $1.25 (one dollar and twenty-five cents) on the $100 (one hundred dollar) valuation and not on the $1,000 (one thousand dollar) valuation as some would have the impression prevail, which when it is totaled up is $12.50 (twelve dollars and fifty cents) per thousand. This does not include the county, State and school taxes. Now they say they won't place the whole maximum rate in force until needed, but don't you believe these boosters won't have any use for the "full maximum rate" as soon as their imaginations say they must have "these improvements"? They'll come sooner than you'll expect.

THE TIMES

Now, if this pet hobby of these boosters and politicians is stuffed down our throats, we will just as well take our medicine at first and be done with it, and not have to be in constant dread of its "unwelcome arrival." I reiterate, gentlemen, my former statements that it will impose a burden on us of just twice as much city taxes as our present maximum rate calls for, lacking just five cents. Now the idea they now have in view is to take over the "City Waterworks" which the owners would not sell for less than $200,000 (two hundred thousand dollars) or more. Do you realize what the interest on $200,000 (two hundred thousand dollars) is, not to mention the principal would be in addition to our present indebtedness which is anywhere from $150,000 (one hundred and fifty thousand dollars) to $200,000 (two hundred thousand dollars) (four hundred thousand) to half a million of dollars we would have to pay interest on and so much towards creating a sinking fund as well as to meet the other current expenses. I say wait a few years till we get enough ahead or in other words, caught up, and then take over the waterworks and traction company under the municipal ownership idea; thereby our dream of three cent fare and cheap water will be realized. It behooves us to be consistent as we have got to "crawl" before you can walk. Gentlemen, you know insanity runs in various channels, and therefore these over-zealous boosters and motley politicians are imbued with the over-doing strain branch of insanity. No, they will hand you a package from outside appearance that has the fragrance of the rose, but behold you when you open the package the odor of limburger cheese will not be in comparison to what the inside contains. Respectfully,

SAM BIGGER.

Canadian Girl Weds in London.
London, Feb. 28.—Trinity Church, in Finchley Road, was the scene today of a brilliant wedding of special interest in Anglo-Canadian circles. The bride was Miss Gladys Underwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Underwood, formerly of Montreal, and the bridegroom Mr. Kenneth Kusel, second son of the late Baron Kusel and of Baroness Kusel.

Crowd Follows First New York Harem Skirt.

New York, Feb. 28.—Brooklyn bridge broke its record as a scene of dare-devil exploits yesterday. A suicide never thrilled the throng of bridge promenaders more than did the appearance of a dashing young blonde on the great thoroughfare late this afternoon. She was attired in the new Harem skirt—the first of the millions of New York women publicly to venture the new affectionation of men's clothes, which has stirred continental cities to riot. It nearly came so that on the bridge today.

Pedestrian traffic was blocked by the crowds which followed in her wake and followed her hold left right into Newspaper Row's Postoffice Square and down Broadway, finally vanishing into the underground station of the Hudson tubes. The boldness of newspaper reporter "fell down on the story," all balking at the suggestion that some one inquire the heroine's name.

VICTORIA MONUMENT

IS A COLOSSAL ONE

Completed It Will Represent More Than Seven Thousand Tons of Marble.

London, Feb. 28.—The middle of May has been selected as the time for unveiling the National Memorial to Queen Victoria, which has taken more than five years to build in the great circular space in front of Buckingham Palace created and beautified by the art of Sir Aston Webb. No more appropriate time for the unveiling of the memorial could have been selected. The impressive exercises in honor of the memory of "Victoria, the Good" will form a fitting prelude to the brilliant ceremonies of the coronation of her grandson that will follow a month later.

Many of the royalties of Europe are to attend the unveiling. The colonial premiers and other statesmen who are to attend the imperial conference beginning at the end of May will also have a part in the exercises.

The Queen-Victoria Memorial has been spoken of as the "Dreadnought" of great monuments. From start to finish the builders have kept the idea of the durability of the monument in mind. Every brick in the deep foundations and every block of marble in the massive superstructure was carefully examined and pronounced perfect before it was put in place. The great monument, as it stands completed represents more than 2,400 tons of marble, masonry and granite.

Colossal is the only word giving an adequate conception of the size and imposing appearance of the monument. The memorial as a whole consists of a vast artistic framework that includes so many works of art that their conception and execution alone might have filled half a busy man's working lifetime. There are numerous statues and low reliefs in both marble and bronze, to say nothing of the great flights of steps, the magnificent fountain basin, the retaining wall, the piers and bays.

The central figure of course is the statue of the Queen, who is presented with characteristic dignity. The statue is of marble and is 15 feet high. Forming the background for the Queen's statue is a great marble base surmounted by a bronze figure of "Victory" twelve feet in height. "Courage" and "Constancy" stand as attendant and contributory figures. At the opposite end, looking toward the palace which in London was the Queen's official home, is the imposing group of "Motherhood." To the right and left stand the marble groups representing "Justice" and "Truth."

Primary Election in Chicago Today.
Chicago, Ill., Feb. 28.—Chicago's first attempt to apply the direct primary law to the nomination of candidates for Mayor is being made today. There are five Republicans and three Democrats on the ticket. The Republicans are Charles E. Merrim of the University of Chicago; John R. Thompson, restaurateur; John F. Smulski, baker and politician; Tom Murray, merchant; John E. Scully, contractor and politician.

The Democrats are Andrew J. Graham, banker; Carter H. Harrison, former Mayor; E. F. Dunne, former Mayor and former Judge.

The polls opened at 6 a. m. and closed at 5 p. m. Twenty thousand workers hired at $5 a day will man the polls. The probable vote is estimated at 200,000. Political prophets confess inability to predict the outcome.

COLDER WEATHER FOR TOMORROW

WEATHER BUREAU ISSUES FORECAST THAT INDICATES SNOW TONIGHT.

SNOWING IN PANHANDLE

At Noon Today Severe Weather Was Reported Up the Fort Worth & Denver Railroad.

Rain or snow tonight with colder weather and probably freezing tomorrow is the forecast of the U. S. Weather Bureau. This prediction is apparently confirmed by conditions reported in the Panhandle today.

At noon today according to reports received at the offices of the Fort Worth & Denver Railway at this place the snow began in the upper Panhandle early this morning and continued without abatement up to noon when the last reports were received.

At noon two and a half inches of snow were reported at Texline, two and a half inches at Dalhart, two inches at Amarillo and from two to one and a half inches from Amarillo to Cleardon.

A GOOD RECORD FOR FIRST TERM

If the record made by District Attorney Foster during the past week in the district court at this place may be taken as an indication of what he is to accomplish in the future in the way of prosecuting criminals, the lawless element had better begin to look a little out. Out of five cases that went to trial convictions were secured in all, the penalties being for either two or three years in each case.

Judge Foster is an able lawyer and that good results may be expected during his term of office, none will gainsay on account of his reputation for persistency in any matter that he undertakes. It may be expected that he will be found fighting for convictions just as hard during the last term of court as in the first.

Theft at Sea; Woman Victim Loses a Fortune in Jewelry

New York, Feb. 28.—Mrs. Malvin Drummond, formerly Mrs. Marshall Field, Jr., of Chicago, was robbed of a fortune in jewels aboard a transatlantic liner. Diamonds, pearls and other gems to the value of approximately $120,000 disappeared mysteriously from her state room on the steamship Amerika of the Hamburg-American line some time between 9:30 o'clock last evening and 5:30 o'clock this morning.

The loss was reported immediately after the liner docked at Hoboken this afternoon and the police are working on the case. Mrs. Drummond hurried to the Hotel Plaza, declining to discuss her loss. The Hamburg-American line disclaims all responsibility on the ground that passengers leave jewels in their staterooms at the owner's risk.

SENATE WAS IN SESSION ALL OF LAST NIGHT TRYING TO VOTE.

OPPOSITION IS STUBBORN

Friends Seek to Force Vindication But Opponents Prevent Vote.

By Associated Press.
Washington, Feb. 28.—All night a majority of the Senators remained in the Chamber in session on the Lorimer case which did not end until 5:09 o'clock this morning, when they recessed until 11 o'clock. Senator Lorimer's opponents filibustered to prevent a vote by offering to permit it only if important concessions were made them concerning pending legislation. Senator Crawford of South Dakota was on the floor talking for filibusters nearly all night.

It was hoped that an agreement would be reached during the recess but the Senate re-convened with the announcements that all efforts at a compromise had failed. Vice-President Sherman, who entered the Senate Chamber at midnight in evening clothes from his annual reception was still in the chair, weary eyed, when daylight streamed through the windows.

It was Senator Bailey's shrewd, but quiet motion, early last night, which removed the last vestige of red tape standing in the way of a vote on Lorimer and compelled his opponents to rely solely on their talking endurance. He moved and had passed a motion that when the vote was taken that it be by ayes and noes. Immediately after its passage the anti-Lorimer men saw the trap and tried to appeal but it was too late.

Senator Bristow was talking when the Senate recessed until 11 o'clock, mostly reading from congressional records. At 11 the Senate further recessed for 50 minutes in order to end the legislative day of the 27th.

During the recess the democrats tried to reach some agreement, but failed.

The Senate re-convened taking up the regular order of business of today. The joint resolution for the popular election of Senators as amended by the Sutherland provision was defeated by a vote of 54 affirmative, to 33 negatives, two-thirds being necessary to pass the measure. Bailey and Culberson both voted yes on the resolution.

Late this afternoon the Senate stood just where it has been for many days and there is a prospect for another all night session.

Senator Stone is now making a long speech in the case and will consume considerable time to prevent a vote.

ITS TIME

The old song of pure, fresh drugs, registered and pedigreed pharmacists and drug store service that is heavenly was being set to new music.

We carry a middling fair line of Pharmaceutical junk just about the same as the other poor deluded freaks who in early life contracted an assortment of spells that the home remedies would not reach and putting away childish things made for a drug store. That mouldy line of bug house nonsense about the noble profession and the love of science is a joke. Give one of these hollow-eyed slaves of the mortar and pestle enough of the filthy lucre to buy for three bottles a day and a place to snore for the rest of his life and he'll shake the noble profession like a bachelor would a baby show. We've been throwing bottles at the wall for all these years but we'd still rather go fishing and listen at a screech owl quarrel at his wife than to spend the sixteen hours per equally between selling stamps, hunting the city directory and trying to explain that this pill emporium is not a charitable institution for benefit of the down and out club.

We carry several things usually found in a drug store. We are just common druggists.

In discussing the arrangement with a Times reporter Mr. Stampfli said that he was greatly pleased with the present equipment and considered it one of the best in the country, providing both accuracy in sounding the alarms, and dispatch in notifying the plant that pressure was required.

With Mr. Stokes a thorough test was made of the new alarm Friday afternoon, as also the ability to furnish pressure and the result was very gratifying indeed.

Mr. Stampfli states that he is very thankful both to the city council and to the water works company for their co-operation in providing this splendid improvement.

CHAUTAUQUA COMMITTEE MEETS HERE TOMORROW

LOCAL COMMITTEE AUTHORIZED TO SUBMIT DEFINITE PROPOSITION FOR THIS CITY.

QUESTION WAS DISCUSSED

Matter Was Considered at Length at Meeting of Directors of Chamber of Commerce.

At a meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce this morning the committee recently appointed to confer with the Chautauqua committee of the North and Northwest Texas conferences of the M. E. Church, South were given authority to make a definite offer to the committee when it meets here tomorrow afternoon and to sign a contract in behalf of the Chamber of Commerce if the proposition made by the committee is accepted.

The agricultural committee of the Chamber of Commerce was also authorized in conjunction with representative citizens from Byers, Petrolia, Burk Burnett, Iowa Park, Archer City and other communities throughout this and Archer and Clay counties to call a mass meeting at some date to be decided upon for the purpose of organizing a tri country fair to be held in this city this fall.

The discussion of these two important matters took up most of the time in the directors meeting this morning.

It was announced that the chautauqua committee from the North and Northwest Texas conferences of the M. E. Church, South would meet in this city again tomorrow when they would expect a definite proposition from the citizens of Wichita Falls. A tentative suggestion as the basis for a proposition from the citizens of Wichita Falls was submitted by the chautauqua committee of the two conferences. This proposed that all the privileges at the lake be turned over to the chautauqua for its use and benefit during the week or ten days of the meeting; that a bathing pool be erected below the dam; that the one fare to and from the lake on the traction line be reduced to ten cents during the chautauqua; that the Chautauqua be given the use of the grounds and the ball park. The conference committee also suggested that the citizens of Wichita Falls make some proposition relative to tents and cots and that they make provision for advertising the meeting over North and Northwest Texas.

Mr. J. A. Kemp, president of the Wichita Falls Traction Company said that he believed all the requirements proposed could be complied with so far as the traction company was concerned.

Rev. C. M. Bishop urged that the committee be ready to submit a definite proposition when the conference committee met here tomorrow. He said that great interest was being taken in the proposed Chautauqua throughout this section of the State and believed that no less than 1000 visitors would attend. He said that many expected a larger number. Twenty-five to fifty dollars would be spent here by every one who attended so that the meeting would bring a considerable sum of money here in addition to other benefits.

Was Quanah Parker Poisoned? Comanches Believe He Was

Lawton, Okla., Feb. 28.—That Quanah Parker, chief of the Comanche Indians and head counselor of the Kiowa, Comanche and affiliated tribes, was poisoned by Indian medicine men and died from poison instead of rheumatism affecting the heart, is the belief of the Comanches, who say the Great Spirit revealed the truth to their medicine men when, with the "great medicine," they entered the room to administer "Kotes-E-Wyno," or the Indians' last resort.

They will send White Parker, son of Quanah, among the Cheyennes to gather evidence.

Dr. J. A. Berisho of Cache, who attended Parker in his last illness, does not believe death could have resulted from poison, but the Comanches declare "the white medicine men don't know Indian poison."

A MOB OF ABOUT ONE THOUSAND ATTACK NEGROES IN THE BUSINESS SECTION

NEGRO SHOW THE CAUSE

White Man Attempts to Operate a Theatre Exclusively For The Negroes.

Special to The Times. Fort Worth, Texas, Feb. 28.—An unruly mob composed of about 1000 men and boys paraded the streets of this city last night and made life miserable for the negro population for several hours before the disturbing element could be quelled. For some time the mob surged and swarmed on Main and Houston streets and whenever a negro was encountered he received rough treatment at the hands of the whites.

The mob was incited by a white man who attempted to operate a moving picture show exclusively for negroes at which a negro was placed in charge of the ticket window. This place was the first attacked by the mob that afterward extended its operations to other parts of the city.

Nobody was seriously hurt during the riot but matters had a decidedly threatening appearance for some time and some lines of business suffered considerable loss as a result of the early closing that resulted.

Mounted police are today patrolling the streets and keeping back the crowds from the scene of the disturbance. A small band attempted today to break into the theatre that caused the disturbance but were driven away and the police think there will be no further trouble.

Little Girl Drowned.
Clarksville, Texas, Feb. 28.—Washing her doll dresses in a pool one foot deep the six-year-old daughter of Jap Strickland was drowned.

Upon a motion C. W. Bean and F. P. St. Clair were added to the committee from the Chamber of Commerce to close a contract with the conference committee.

Dr. J. M. Bell of the agricultural committee recommended that a call for a meeting of the progressive citizens of Wichita, Clay and Archer counties be called to meet in this city at an early date for the purpose of organizing a fair association. His suggestion was adopted and the members of the agricultural committee were asked to secure the signatures of prominent citizens from nearby towns to the call. It is proposed to organize a stock company and to make the fair an annual occurrence.

Charter Mass Meeting Tonight Should Be Largely Attended

"There comes a tide in the affairs of men which taken at the flood leads on to victory." There is for consideration by the citizenship of Wichita Falls at the City Hall tonight a question affecting the interests of this city which may mean the tide that will lead us on to further victory. However, regardless of your opinion as to the value of a commission government, come and help the enterprising citizenship of Wichita Falls arrive at a decision as to the proper course to pursue. The occasion is an important one alike to those who conscientiously favor a special charter, and those who are opposed to a change. It is the initial step, the hour for mutual consideration and an opportunity every voter should take advantage of. Don't remain away and then complain of the action of those who were in attendance. Be present and register your objections, if any you have, you will be given a respectful hearing. Likewise, if you favor the charter, be present and offer such suggestions as you may have in mind, they may be of such a nature as to materially strengthen the new form of government if adopted. Let nothing prevent you from being at the City Hall tonight.

The Times:

The proposed city charter gives us a centralized government and confers powers on three men that they ought not to have. Our present system of four aldermen and a mayor or five aldermen will come nearer being a government by the people. With five men every part of the city has a chance to be represented in our law making body. Seven members would be better than five because we want the city government to carry out the wishes of as nearly all the people as possible, and in multiplicity of interests and counsel there is wisdom.

No charter ought to be passed by the legislature until it is first voted on and adopted by the citizens. It won't do to say it will be voted on after the legislature passes it; the time to vote on it is before it goes to the legislature and becomes a law.

The present tax rate of sixty-five cents is high enough. Our voters are increasing rapidly and there is no reason for a higher rate. We are now assessing property at two thirds of its value, and if we assess it at full value we will be increased one third, which ought to be sufficient. If taxes are materially increased rent will be raised and I think our merchants and other citizens are paying every dollar in rent that they can stand now.

The poor man is not the only one who is opposed to this increase but it is objected to by many of our heavy tax-payers. We are doing well now; why not let well enough alone? As values in the county increase the county tax rate comes down, but it seems to be necessary (as some view it) as city values increase for the city tax rate to go up.

The saloons are hereby reason of law the same as any other business and ought to be treated fairly. It is entirely proper to confine the saloons to the fire limits and the business district, but the charter ought not to say where they shall be located in the business district. If saloons are scattered they will cause less trouble than if confined to certain territory in the business district. If saloons are all right on Seventh street why are they not all right on Eighth street? I would favor a state law that before a saloon can be opened the written consent of a majority of the property holders in that block shall be secured; but to arbitrarily attempt to legislate some of them out of business is neither just nor fair. If we don't want saloons (and I am opposed to them on every part of the ground), why not vote them out in a legal manner?

A CHARTER OPPONENT.

Mr. Bigger in Rebuttal.

To the Citizens of Wichita Falls: Gentlemen, the insinuation which you will observe in yesterday evening Times, that you are being misled by words that are written so as to appeal to the prejudice or word to that effect, under the "pen name" of "Charter Advocate," evidently must emanate from the mind of a very biased and prejudiced mind and I hurl back the accusation that I would mislead the public. You read clause No. 5 of the brief outline of the proposed new city charter which says the maximum rate shall be $1.25 (one dollar and twenty-five cents) on the $100 (one hundred dollar) valuation and not on the $1,000 (one thousand dollar) valuation as some would have the impression prevail, which when it is totaled up is $12.50 (twelve dollars and fifty cents) per thousand. This does not include the county, State and school taxes. Now they say they won't place the whole maximum rate in vogue until needed, but don't you believe these boosters won't have any use for the "full maximum rate" as soon as their imaginations say they must have these improvements. They'll come sooner than you'll expect.

Now, if this pet hobby of these boosters and politicians is stuffed down our throats, we will "just as well take our medicine" at first and be done with it, and not have to be in constant dread of its "unwelcome arrival." I reiterate, gentlemen, my former statements that it will impose a burden on us of just twice as much city taxes as our present maximum rate calls for, lacking just five cents. Now the idea they now have in view is to take over the "City Waterworks" which the owners would not sell for less than $200,000 (two hundred thousand dollars) or more. Do you realize what the interest on $200,000 (two hundred thousand dollars) is, not to mention the principal would be in addition to our present indebtedness which is anywhere from $150,000 (one hundred and fifty thousand dollars) to $200,000 (two hundred thousand dollars) making anywhere from $400,000 (four hundred thousand) to half a million of dollars we would have to pay interest on and so much towards creating a sinking fund as well as to meet the other current expenses. I say wait a few years till we get enough ahead or in other words, caught up, and then take over the waterworks and traction company under the municipal ownership idea, thereby our dream of three cent fare and cheap water will be realized. It behooves us to be consistent as we have not to "crawl before you can walk." Gentlemen, you know insanity runs in various channels, and therefore these over-zealous boosters and motley politicians are infected with the over-doing strain branch of insanity. No, they will hand you a package from outside appearance, that has the fragrance of the rose, but behold you when you open the package "the odor of hamburger cheese" will not be in comparison to what the inside contains. Respectfully,

SAM HIGGER.

Canadian Girl Weds in London.
London, Feb. 28.—Trinity Church, in Finchley Road, was the scene today of a brilliant wedding of especial interest in Anglo-Canadian circles. Houston, Feb. 28.—A spirited political campaign, culminated in the city primary election in Houston today. Interest centers chiefly in the contest for the mayoralty in which H. Baldwin Rice, the present incumbent, is opposed by Jules Hirsch.

Crowd Follows First New York Harem Skirt

New York, Feb. 28.—Brooklyn bridge broke its record as a scene of dare-devil exploits yesterday. A suicide never thrilled the throng of bridge promenaders more than did the appearance of a dashing young blonde on the great thoroughfare late this afternoon. She was attired in the new Harem skirt—the first of the millions of New York women publicly to venture the new affectation of men's clothes, which has stirred continental cities to riot. It nearly came so that on the bridge today.

Pedestrian traffic was blocked by the crowds which followed in her wake and followed her hold lead right into Newspaper Row Postoffice Square and down Broadway, finally vanishing into the underground station of the Hudson tubes. The boldest of newspaper reporter "fell down on the story," all balking at the suggestion that some one inquire the heroine's name.

VICTORIA MONUMENT IS A COLOSSAL ONE

Completed It Will Represent More Than Seven Thousand Tons of Marble.

London, Feb. 28.—The middle of May has been selected as the time for unveiling the National Memorial to Queen Victoria, which it has taken more than five years to build in the great circular space in front of Buckingham Palace created and beautified by the art of Sir Aston Webb. No more appropriate time for the unveiling of the memorial could have been selected. The impressive exercises in honor of the memory of "Victoria the Good" will form a fitting prelude to the brilliant ceremonies of the coronation of her grandson that will follow a month later.

Many of the royalties of Europe are to attend the unveiling. The colonial premiers and other statesmen who are to attend the imperial conference beginning at the end of May will also have a part in the exercises.

The Queen Victoria memorial has been spoken of as the "Dreadnought" of great monuments. From start to finish the builders have kept the idea of the durability of the monument in mind. Every brick in the deep foundations and every block of marble in the massive superstructure was carefully examined and pronounced perfect before it was put in place. The great monument as it stands completed represents more than 2,300 tons of marble, masonry and granite.

Colossal is the only word giving an adequate conception of the size and imposing appearance of the monument. The memorial as a whole consists of a vast artistic framework that includes so many works of art that their conception and execution alone might have filled half a busy man's working lifetime. There are numerous statues and low reliefs in both marble and bronze, to say nothing of the great flights of steps, the magnificent fountain basin, the retaining wall, the piers and bases.

The central figure, of course, is the statue of the Queen, who is presented with characteristic dignity. The statue is of marble and is 18-1/2 feet high. Forming the background for the Queen's statue is a great marble base surmounted by a bronze figure of "Victory" twelve feet in height. "Courage" and "Confidence" stand as attendant and contributory figures. At the opposite end, looking toward the palace which in London was the Queen's official home, is the imposing group of "Motherhood." To the right and left stand the marble groups representing "Justice" and "Truth."

SENATOR LORIMER'S CASE IS BEING HARD FOUGHT

WEATHER BUREAU ISSUES FORECAST THAT INDICATES SNOW TONIGHT.

SNOWING IN PANHANDLE

At Noon Today Severe Weather Was Reported Up the Fort Worth & Denver Railroad.

Rain or snow tonight with colder weather and probably freezing tomorrow is the forecast of the U. S. Weather Bureau. This prediction is apparently confirmed by conditions reported in the Panhandle today.

At noon today according to reports received at the offices of the Fort Worth & Denver Railway at this place the snow began in the upper Panhandle early this morning and continued without abatement in to noon when the last reports were received.

At noon two and a half inches of snow were reported at Texline, two and a half inches at Dalhart, two inches at Amarillo and from two to one and a half inches from Amarillo to Clarendon.

A GOOD RECORD FOR FIRST TERM

If the record made by District Attorney Foster during the past week in the district court at this place may be taken as an indication of what he is to accomplish in the future in the way of prosecuting criminals, the lawless element had better begin to look a little out. Out of five cases that went to trial convictions were secured in all, the penalties being for either two or three years in each case.

Judge Foster is an able lawyer and that good results may be expected during his term of office, none will gainsay on account of his reputation for persistency in any matter that he undertakes. It may be expected that he will be found fighting for convictions just as hard during the last term of court as in the first.

Theft at Sea; Woman Victim Loses a Fortune in Jewelry

New York, Feb. 28.—Mrs. Marshall Drummond, formerly Mrs. Marshall Field, Jr., of Chicago, was robbed of a fortune in jewels aboard a transatlantic liner. Diamonds, pearls and other gems to the value of approximately $130,000 disappeared mysteriously from her state room on the steamship Amerika of the Hamburg-American line some time between 9:30 o'clock last evening and 5:30 o'clock this morning.

The loss was reported immediately after the liner docked at Hoboken this afternoon and the police are working on the case. Mrs. Drummond hurried to the Hotel Plaza, declining to discuss her loss. The Hamburg-American line disclaims all responsibility on the ground that passengers leave jewels in their staterooms at the owner's risk.

SENATE WAS IN SESSION ALL OF LAST NIGHT TRYING TO VOTE.

OPPOSITION IS STUBBORN

Friends Seek to Force Vindication But Opponents Prevent Vote.

By Associated Press. Washington, Feb. 28.—All night a majority of the Senators remained in the Chamber in session on the Lorimer case which did not end until 5:00 o'clock this morning, when they recessed until 11 o'clock. Senator Lorimer's opponents filibustered to prevent a vote by offering to permit it only if important concessions were made them concerning pending legislation. Senator Crawford of South Dakota was on the floor talking for filibusters nearly all night.

It was hoped that an agreement would be reached during the recess but the Senate re-convened with the announcements that all efforts at a compromise had failed. Vice-President Sherman, who entered the Senate Chamber at midnight in evening clothes from his annual reception was still in the chair, weary eyed, when daylight streamed through the windows.

It was Senator Bailey's shrewd, but quiet motion, early last night, which removed the last vestige of red tape standing in the way of a vote on Lorimer and compelled his opponents to rely solely on their talking endurance. He moved and had passed a motion that when the vote was taken that it be by ayes and noes. Immediately after its passage the anti-Lorimer men saw the trap and tried to appeal but it was too late.

Senator Bristow was talking when the Senate recessed until 11 o'clock, mostly reading from congressional records. At 11 the senate further recessed for 50 minutes in order to end the legislative day of the 27th.

During the recess the democrats tried to reach some agreement, but failed.

The Senate re-convened taking up the regular order of business of today. The joint resolution for the popular election of Senators as amended by the Sutherland provision was defeated by a vote of 54 affirmative, to 33 negatives, two-thirds being necessary to pass the measure. Bailey and Culberson both voted yes on the resolution.

Late this afternoon the Senate stood just where it has been for many days and there is a prospect for another all night session.

Senator Stone is now making a long speech in the case and will consume considerable time to prevent a vote.

William T. Grenfell.

Dr. William T. Grenfell, the noted Labrador missionary, was born in Chester, England, Feb. 28, 1865. Trained in the hospitals in London, with a strong leaning for missionary work, he began his life's work by establishing missions for the deep-sea fishermen in the North Sea region. Later, seeing the needs of the people of the coast of Labrador, he established the missions there to minister to the scattered population. In his hospital at St. Anthony and the three dispensaries, and by means of dog-sledge journeys, in which he covers hundreds of miles each year, Dr. Grenfell and his assistants teach the people wholesome and righteous living. Dr. Grenfell has also established and conducts co-operative stores, provides for orphans and families bereft of the bread winners, encourages thrift and admires justice, and adds to the material welfare of the population by operating a saw mill, a schooner-building yard and other productive industries. Each spring he visits Boston in his vessel to lay in a stock of supplies for his work and to take back to the people of Labrador many little comforts and necessities.

ALFALFA ROOTS

FOR TABLE USE

Discovered To Be Nourishing and Similar to Asparagus Properly Prepared.

Spokane, Wash., Feb. 28.—Alfalfa roots, white and tender will take the place of early asparagus if Louise F. Weinland, an irrigation rancher in the Spokane Valley, is successful with her plans for marketing the newest table vegetable in the western country. Miss Weinland, who came from Pennsylvania last spring, has broached the enterprise to members of the Spokane chamber of commerce and several have promised to assist in establishing a small cannery. The discovery that alfalfa root is nourishing to man as it is to live stock was made by Miss Weinland several months ago, but the proper method of preparing it was not ascertained until a few days ago, when the young woman, after poring for hours in a huge tome on cookery, decided to try recipes for cooking asparagus. The first dish was sampled by a neighbor's hired man, who, ignorant of what he was eating, called for a second dish. Other neighbors ate of the root and pronounced it satisfying to the palate as well as highly nourishing, they say the flavor is similar to asparagus.

FORMER PRISONER

HAS SOME MONEY

Receives $12,000 for Patent Soon After Completing a Jail Sentence.

Spokane, Wash., Feb. 28.—Clinton Buchanan, who recently completed serving a term in the county jail at Walla-Walla, Wash., following conviction on the charge of passing "no funds" checks, can today draw a good one for $12,000, the amount he received from J. F. Kirner of Spokane, and B. C. Holt of Walla-Walla, for a patent attachment to a sidehill combined threshing machine. The device is designated to keep the threshing apparatus of a combined harvester in a level position on any contour of land and tilt of header. Experts declare that the attachment is the most useful contrivance of its kind that has been patented, as it will add much to the efficiency of the big machines, now used extensively in the wheat belts throughout the western country. Buchanan made arrangements to sell his device while behind the bars. It is said he passed the worthless checks while under the influence of liquor. Fellow-prisoners say that on leaving the jail he promised not to touch another drop of strong drink as long as he lives.

TARIFF QUESTION

OVERSHADOWING ONE

Stands Out as the Leading Issue in the Present Session of Congress.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 28.—While the Canadian reciprocity treaty stands out as one of the biggest things before the Congress which is just coming to a close because of the fierce controversy it stirred up between different sections and interests, and the uncertain ultimate effect it would have on the general tariff policy of the country, and also because of the bearing it had on an extra session with the inevitable opening up of endless legislative possibilities, there were many other matters before Congress which would have engaged the attention of the country to a considerable extent if the treaty had not monopolized it. The Lorimer case, for instance, was sensational in the extreme; there was a bill for the reorganization of the consular service, which received but passing attention; there were the usual appropriations bills carrying hundreds of millions of dollars, which had to be rushed through; there was the annual and inevitable war scare personally conducted and exhibited by Hon. Richard Pearson Hobson, of Merimac fame; and there were dozens of other things, all of which suffered as to publicity from the preeminence given reciprocity and extra sessions talk.

Big Supply Measures May Not Be Considered

Washington, Feb. 28.—Day and night sessions probably will be held in both branches of congress this week, for only five and a half days remain to conclude a formidable legislative program, which is in an unprecedented and almost hopeless condition.

Without taking into consideration the situation in the senate, where there is a filibuster against taking votes on the Canadian reciprocity agreement, the permanent tariff board bill and the Lorimer case, to say nothing of the proposition to raise the rates for carrying the advertising sections of magazines through the mails, there is a congestion of appropriation bills that to some seems irremediable. The urgent deficiency bill is the only one of the fourteen general supply measures that has become a law. The situation respecting appropriation bills is as follows:

The Indian, legislative, army and District of Columbia bills have passed both houses and are in concurrence. All of these bills contain items of dispute which present difficulties. The pensions, postoffice, agricultural, naval, military academy, fortifications, diplomatic and consular and sundry civil bills have passed the house but not the senate.

The general deficiency bill has not even come out of the house committee on appropriations.

There remains to be passed by the senate the pensions, postoffice, agricultural, naval, military academy, fortifications, diplomatic and consular, sundry civil and general deficiency bills. Not in the memory of any senator has there been such a congestion of supply measures, nor so many complications by reason of other important business.

If the senate could devote the five and a half days left of the present congress to the calendar, and if speeches could be curtailed senators would not worry about the legislative situation. Notices already have been given, however, of several speeches on the subjects of direct election of senators, Canadian reciprocity and the Lorimer case. There will be speeches also on the subjects of magazine rates, fortification of the Panama canal and numerous other controversial questions which appear in appropriation bills.

Intense feeling was displayed during the last week between the opposing factions in the Lorimer case and that is certain to create a deal of bitterness before a vote is taken upon it. The faction which supports Senator Lorimer is determined that disposition shall be made of the case during the present session, but it is evident that the anti-Lorimer forces will resist to the utmost any attempt to take a vote before they have concluded arguments they have in mind.

The McCall bill to carry out the provisions of the Canadian reciprocity agreement in on the calendar and Senator Hale and others opposed to the agreement have made it clear that they do not intend that any prior rights shall be given to it because of the interest of President Taft in the subject or for any other reason.

It is perfectly clear that a vote can not be prevented on the McCall bill without resort to a filibuster. The only way a vote could be obtained on the measure would be the giving of assurances, by a poll which could not be doubted, that there were votes enough to defeat it. The informal polls that have been taken have disclosed that a majority of the senate would vote to enact the McCall bill. There are several democrats who oppose the measure and an effort was made yesterday to obtain promises from seven others of the minority to stand with the republican majority against the measure. This effort failed, but it may be renewed at any time.

The Canadian bill has no champion in the senate and this fact seems to preclude any possibility of bringing it to a vote. Senate and house leaders have become reconciled to the idea of an extraordinary session and there is little doubt that one will be called by President Taft and that it will be convened on April 4.

Congressman McCall Congratulated.
Washington, Feb. 28.—Congressman Samuel W. McCall of Massachusetts, who has been engineering the fight for Canadian reciprocity in the House, received the congratulations of his colleagues today on the occasion of his sixtieth birthday anniversary. Mr. McCall was born in Pennsylvania, but has been a resident of Massachusetts ever since he was admitted to the bar in 1876, two years after his graduation from Dartmouth College. He has represented the Eighth Massachusetts district in Congress for nearly twenty years and is among those who will continue to sit in the house after March 4.

LENT BEGINS MARCH 1; SEASON OF DENIAL

Catholic and Episcopal Churches Have Special Observance During Forty Days.

Lent will begin Wednesday, marking the start of the annual forty-day period of prayer, almsgiving and fasting in commemoration of the forty days the Lord spent in the wilderness. This period is observed especially in the Catholic and Episcopal churches.

Many, however, says a prominent rector, annually observe Lent without actually being familiar with its significance.

"The Christian church, for many centuries," he said, "has observed the forty days in commemoration of the forty days the Lord spent in the wilderness, the days that are looked upon as the great fast of the soul and retiring from worldly pleasures, many of them innocent in themselves and better opportunities can be given to cultivate Christian graces and truths which distinguish those who follow Christ rather than the world."

"The primary purpose of Lent is the discipline of the body, in order that it may be brought into a subjective spirit."

"These great duties are brought out during the season of Lent. They are those emphasized in the Sermon on the Mount and are often spoken of as the three marks of the devout Christian—prayer, almsgiving and fasting."

"Ash Wednesday and Good Friday (April 14) are the special fasting days of Lent."

Helpless As a Baby.

Valley Heights, Va.—Mrs. Jennie B. Kirby, in a letter from this place, says: "I was sick in bed for nine months, with womanly troubles. I was so weak and helpless, at times, that I could not raise my head off the pillow. I commenced to take Cardui, and I saw it was helping me, at once. Now, I can work all day."

As a tonic, for weak women, nothing has been found for fifty years, that would take the place of Cardui. It is surely a good medicine. Cardui is prepared from vegetable ingredients and has a specific, curative effect on the womanly organs. Try a bottle today. At your druggists.

Wichita Falls, Tex., February 28, 1911

A man at Wichita Falls killed two men, one his father-in-law, who rebuked him for beating his wife, the other an officer, and was given five years in the pen by a Vernon jury. The murderer was full of liquor bought at the Wichita Falls bars, and when sober was said to be as peaceable a man as there was in town. Five murders in five weeks is said to have been the record for Wichita Falls about that time, all due to liquor. Col. County has averaged about one killing per year for the past ten years, possibly less, but certainly no more. A good deal of trouble is caused by the whiskey brought here from Dallas and other places, but it is seldom that any serious crime is committed, because our officers are vigilant and do not allow drunks to run at large till they do mischief. Dallas with saloons and less than one hundred thousand people had 56 murders last year. Col. County with half the number of people had none—and there's a difference. Of course the claim is made that Dallas had no many more bad citizens than Col. County had, but one reason there are so many there is that the saloons keep that sort of people in the city. Banish the one and you lose the other.—McKinney Courier-Gazette.

Perhaps the C-G will not object to telling us who the other three victims were? Another thing: While the murders, (and in the opinion of the Times that is the right term to be applied in this instance), were committed in Wichita Falls, a Wilbarger County jury rendered the verdict. It is also well to bear in mind that the best testimony offered for the defendant on the trial of the case was given in by a physician at Vernon, who gave it as his opinion that the defendant was at the time of the murder irresponsible for his act from the fact that he had sustained a bruise on his head when but a child. The fact that the defendant was holding and had held for years a position of considerable responsibility was not taken into consideration, or may not have been proven by the State at all, and with such evidence as that, no intelligent jury could be expected to give the extreme penalty. The only surprise was that the jury did not acquit. Wilbarger County is composed of just about as good citizens as any county in the State, and the majority of them are Pros. But unless the State of Texas can amend its laws so as to provide better facilities for the prosecution of such cases than is available at present, such verdicts as rendered in this case can be expected.

The mass meeting tonight at the city hall should appeal strongly to every interested citizen, it matters not whether he be only the owner of an humble home or whether he has prospered and can now count his wealth by the thousands of dollars. Wichita Falls is known far and wide for her progressiveness in matters pertaining to city building and in order to continue to stand at the very top of all progressive cities the time seems to have arrived for Wichita Falls to provide more revenue for the conduct of her government. It may be said that she has done well—well enough, perhaps, under the present form of government, and that there is no real need of a change at this time. But this is a matter for the citizens and tax-payers to deliberate upon and decide for themselves, and for that reason this meeting tonight should be as large and as representative a lot of tax-paying citizens as possible.

Hardware Men in Session.
Cincinnati, O., Feb. 28.—One of the largest gatherings of representative business men ever seen in Cincinnati assembled in the city today to attend the annual national convention of hardware dealers. All sections of the county are represented by the delegates. The sessions will last nearly a week and will be devoted to the consideration of a wide variety of trade questions.

The present term of the district court will adjourn this week and Judge Martin and District Attorney Foster will go to Graham to convene court there Monday.

The Great Comedy Hit, "Seven Days."
Creditable indeed it is to write a brilliant comedy, and the public is never slow to show its appreciation of a play that entertains. Still more commendable when playmakers achieve laughter and amusement without an atom of indelicacy. Praise to Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood for this very thing. In "Seven Days" they have written a comedy that scintillates with wit and cleverness in every fraction of a second, that keeps an audience in paroxysms of laughter from start to finish without any instant's letup, and does so in an absolutely wholesome manner. Americans should rejoice in this. Here is an American comedy, written by Americans, dealing with Americans, in America, home-made and home-bred throughout, recognized as the cleverest play and the biggest success since the days of the late Charles H. Hoyt, also an American, and it hasn't a word or a scene or a hint that could offend the most fastidious. Perhaps some of those theatrical managers who have been importing European farce will profit by the object lesson furnished by "Seven Days" and realize that it is possible to get a superior article here at home, and understand further that the American public prefers clean comedy to much of the suggestive stuff from abroad. Still, a "Seven Days" isn't found every day, nor every twenty years for that matter, for it has been fully that long since there was a play that has captured popular fancy and set people laughing as this one is doing. "There is lively fun in 'Seven Days,'" said the New York Herald. "It is an uproarious comedy and it is clean as well as amusing. There is not a line one need blush over and there is steady laughter all evening."

See "Seven Days" at the Wichita Theatre, Monday, March 4, matinee and night, and judge it for yourself. You'll be repaid a thousandfold. You'll laugh as you never laughed before and may never laugh again unless you see this play a second time. You'll see the sensational comedy hit of the time, acted by a New York cast specially organized by Messrs. Wagenhals & Kemper, and you'll see stage settings that will make you wish your house was furnished that way.

"Down By the Sea" a Success.
Last night at the Ruby Theatre the regular stock company presented "Down By the Sea" to an appreciative audience. The play itself ranks as a first-rater and is a beautiful story of life along the Connecticut coast and was produced in a manner that would do credit to any company. Especially good was the storm scene in the second act and the rescue of a child from the ocean; this was one of the prettiest and best effects ever staged by any company here and the audience showed their appreciation by round after round of applause. "Down by the Sea" will be presented tonight, when it will be replaced by East Lynne Wednesday night.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

Guthrie, Okla., has adopted the commission form of government.

The recent primary campaign for the mayoralty nomination in Chicago is said to have cost the candidates a total of more than $1,000,000.

The Ohio legislature has passed a measure which provides that candidates for the judiciary shall be elected on nonpartisan ballots.

Henry F. Lippitt, who succeeds Nelson B. Aldrich in the United States senate is one of the foremost cotton manufacturers in New England.

Congressman Leonidas F. Livingston of Georgia, whose service in the lower house ends March 4, has launched his candidacy for the United States senate.

A movement is said to be under way by certain Democrats to nominate ex-Governor Folk of Missouri for President and Governor Foss of Massachusetts for Vice President.

Chicago pays her mayor $18,000 a year, which is considerably more than the salary received by the governor of any of the States, with the single exception of New York.

Among the cities that are expected to bid for one or the other of the national political conventions next year are Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Kansas City, Denver and Cincinnati. Representative Samuel W. McCall of Massachusetts, author of the House bill to put the Canadian trade agreement into effect, is one of the veteran members of Congress, having served continuously since 1892.

The Swedish-American Republican league of Illinois, which has been an influential factor in the politics of that state for many years, will hold its annual convention in Bloomington on March 3.

According to the latest count there are now 114 American cities under the commission plan of government and the number is being added to almost daily. Illinois, which had no commission cities six months ago, now has more than a dozen.

The legislature of Iowa has voted to adopt the Oregon senatorial primary plan, which provides that candidates for the legislature either pledge themselves that they will not be bound by such choice.

The filibuster recently conducted in the House by Representative Mann, although it was a stubborn and spectacular contest, was not a record breaker in point of duration. Senator Quay of Pennsylvania once made a speech which lasted more than a week, and Senator Morgan of Alabama spoke three days against the Panama Canal bill. Another notable filibuster was that conducted by Senator Carter and Senator Gallinger in the Fifty-ninth Congress. The two senators spoke several days against the "hours of work" bill, and succeeded in defeating the measure.

Workman. This play will be found an exceedingly strong one and will be interpreted by a very capable cast, headed by the sterling actress, Nellie Dewes Wood. One lady will be admitted free with each paid reserved seat tonight.

Doings at Austin.

Austin, Texas, Feb. 28.—In the Senate today Senator Hudspeth introduced a bill absolutely repealing the automatic tax law as recommended by Gov. Colquitt. Senator Collins introduced a bill for the employment of civil engineers to make topographical maps of the counties with reference to drainage. The Senate adopted resolutions recalling the wolf scalp bill and the Judges and Attorneys expense bill in order to save them from the Governor's veto. It is understood that the Senate will change them. The Senate today passed the following bills:

Confederate Homes and pension five per cent tax.

Authorizing casualty companies to incorporate in Texas.

Establishment of independent school districts in two or more counties.

Proper branding of fertilizers.

Changing of the Supreme Court procedure was made a special order for Wednesday.

The House also recalled the wolf scalp and Judges expense bills to make corrections.

Secretary Day of the Chamber of Commerce is in receipt of a letter from the Worley Directory Co., at Dallas, saying that the Wichita Falls directories have been printed and will be shipped here tonight. A representative of the company will be here in a few days to make deliveries.

Vice-President and General Manager Frank Kell of the Wichita Falls Route, accompanied by a party of New York gentlemen who have investments in this section, are on a trip over the Northwestern in a special train this afternoon.

LOCAL NEWS BREVETIES

The Thomas Dixon company left this morning for Hobart, Okla., their next date, having completed the tour of Texas for this season.

The Curtis Comedy Company arrived this morning and will open an engagement at the Wichita Theatre tonight.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the O. R. C. will give an informal dance at the I. O. O. F. Hall Tuesday night, March 14th.

The trains are regaining their regularity following the recent snow blockades and are now running nearly on time, although not altogether on schedule.

The Eagles gave a big banquet at their hall over Simmons' furniture store last evening which was attended by something like 200 members and guests.

The row of lights around the Westland Hotel at the top of the building presented a very pretty appearance last evening and is an attractive feature of this new building.

Visitors were here from Abilene, Bowie, Henrietta, and other points last evening to witness the production of "The Sins of His Father" by Thomas Dixon and company.

This has been one of the most disagreeable days for some time, combining a cold wave with muddy streets and a very damp atmosphere. It has been especially disagreeable to those who had to be out of doors.

An enthusiastic and largely attended meeting is expected at the city hall tonight for the purpose of discussing the proposed charter. If you are interested in the welfare of Wichita Falls be present and give your views on the proposed change in our city government.

W. H. Clift, a leading and influential citizen of Lawton, Okla., was in the city yesterday enroute home from Archer county, where he had been to look after business interests. Mr. Clift has considerable land interests near Archer City and often visits this section of the state.

It may be interesting to note in connection with the improvements being made by the North Texas Gas Co., that whereas the company had less than five hundred consumers a year and a half ago, it now has a list of customers totaling 1400, another evidence of the growth of Wichita Falls and the appreciation of the advantages of gas as a fuel.

pealed to and under guise of baggage inspection everyone's luggage was sifted thoroughly, but as far as could be learned, not even a suspicion was unearthed.

The customs men made it a point to examine carefully the baggage and personal belongings of not only the first cabin passengers but of the 300 men and women in the second cabin. No one was even temporarily detained however, and the police must now extend their search to pawn shops.

NEW CAFE OPENS

TOMORROW NIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Brown, well known to our people as having successfully conducted the Brown Palace Hotel until recently, will tomorrow night formally open the Waldorf Cafe in the basement of the new Kemp & Kell building.

The new cafe is one of the best appointed in the city and besides being located in this elegantly finished building is furnished in a most pleasing style. The tables and chairs, capable of accommodating fifty people at a time, are of solid oak highly polished and thoroughly in keeping with the attractive surroundings. The linen is of the finest grade, while the table equipment otherwise is elegant and expensive. Two convenient and tastily furnished private dining rooms have been provided and every convenience is afforded for the patrons of the cafe.

The floor is covered with linoleum over which Brussels carpeting will be laid between the tables. Large mirrors will be arranged around the room, but these have not as yet been installed on account of a delay in shipment. The room is heated by steam and is brilliantly lighted with twenty-five electric lights. It is indeed a cozy and comfortable place and with the splendid service of which Mr. and Mrs. Brown are capable, will no doubt soon prove a very popular place.

As a feature of the opening tomorrow night champagne wafers and punch will be served and an orchestra will provide music for the occasion.

Don't fail to attend the mass meeting at the city hall tonight to discuss the proposed city charter.

WE MAKE OUR BOW and introduce ourselves to you. We are labor lighteners and expense reducers, and would like you to become better acquainted with the many advantages of using gas for fuel.

EIGHT MEN SEEK

CHICAGO MAYORALTY

One of the Most Noted Contests in the History of the City in Progress.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 27.—Today saw the close of one of the most exciting political campaigns Chicago has witnessed in some years. Tomorrow all of the parties will hold direct primaries for the nomination of candidates for Mayor, City Treasurer, City Clerk and members of the Board of Aldermen. The Mayorality, which is for a term of four years at an annual salary of $18,000, is the plum that is sought by eight aspirants, five Republicans and three Democrats. The name of one candidate each for the Socialists and Prohibitionists also will appear on the ballot, but neither of these parties is expected to cut much of a figure in the race.

The five candidates for the mayoralty nomination on the Republican side are Charles E. Merriam, John E. Scully, John B. Thompson, Tom Murphy and John F. Smulski. Mr. Merriam is a professor at the University of Chicago and a member of the Board of Aldermen. He is classed as the Republican reform candidate. As an alderman he was chairman of the Commission on City Expenditures, whose investigation into the city administration resulted in the removal of several city officials in the past year.

John B. Scully, whose name appears second on the ballot, is a member of the Board of Aldermen and an experienced politician. The principal plank of his platform is opposition to the public service corporations.

John R. Thompson, the third Republican aspirant for the Mayorality, is known chiefly as the proprietor of a string of popular restaurants. He has mixed in politics for some years and once served a term as County Treasurer. In his fight for the Mayorality he has the backing of Senator Lorimer's chief lieutenant.

The candidacy of Tom Murray, who is fourth on the Republican list, is not taken very seriously. Murray is a clothing merchant and far famed for his unique methods of advertising. He has never been a candidate for public office before.

John F. Smulski, the fifth of the Republican aspirants, is a veteran politician, who used to be State Treasurer. He is said to be favored by Governor Deneen and his local following for the Mayorality nomination.

On the Democratic side there are three candidates for Mayor, Carter H. Harrison, Andrew J. Graham and Edward F. Dunne.

Carter H. Harrison, who already has served four terms as Mayor, wishes to equal the record of his famous father, who was elected five times. Behind the Harrison candidacy is the notorious Kenna-Coughlan First Ward regency and a considerable portion of the old Harrison administration.

Andrew J. Graham, the second of the Democratic aspirants, is a West Side banker who has figured in Democratic politics for a long time, but has not held office. He has the backing of the Democratic county organization. His campaign for the nomination has been notable chiefly for his lavish expenditures.

Edward F. Dunne, the third Democrat in the field, was elected mayor several years ago on a municipal ownership platform. Before that he had been on the bench. When mayor he made a good record. He lowered telephone rates, and although he vetoed seventy-five cent gas, an ordinance was passed giving the people a reduction from $1 to 55 cents.

W. A. Brubaker is the only prohibition candidate for mayor and W. E. Rodriguez has no opposition at the Socialist primaries.

Figuring as leading issues in the mayoralty and aldermanic contests are graft and vice, cheap gas, lower telephone rates, subways and universal transfers, the smoke nuisance, and cold cars.

Anything in Your Eyes?

Many people who come to me for eye examination imagine that there is some foreign substance in their eyes. It is sometimes hard to convince them that these gritty, sandy, scratchings, irritating conditions are symptoms and effects due to refractive errors which may be corrected by the use of proper glasses.

ALL THE WRITING ALWAYS IN SIGHT

(The biggest order ever placed by any firm or corporation for typewriters for their own use) because their own mechanical experts, sitting as a jury, said it was unquestionably the best.
They examined all competing makes, tested them under every condition of stress and strain, and they unanimously in favor of the L. C. Smith & Bros. The Duponts
thus rendered you an invaluable service. Lacking mechanical experts of your own you can safely rely upon the decision of these five engineers, at the height of their call ing, who were willing to stake their professional reputation on the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter.
Many large concerns have already been guided by this expert opinion and have standardized, as the Duponts did, with the typewriter that stood the test. There could be no test more thorough, or more unbiased decisions.

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

Noted Workers from All Parts of United States to Participate in Program of Fort Worth Meeting.

To the Sunday School Army of Texas:
The last line has been written, the last letters are being mailed, the finishing touches on the program, and the detail work of all committees are complete, for the mighty gathering of Sunday School forces of Texas, which will convene at Fort Worth Thursday, March 9, to Monday, March 13.

The main sessions of the Convention are to be held in the First Methodist church, and the overflow and conference meetings will be held in the First Baptist, First Christian, Taylor Street Presbyterian and St.
Paul's Methodist churches.

The largest number of noted world specialists and trained experts which have ever been together in a single State Convention will be at Fort Worth. The program calls for a school of methods, which with the many conferences on the various departments, with leaders expected from probably 150 counties, will make this one of the rarest opportunities ever brought to the Sunday school workers of our State.

The attractive features of the Convention are too numerous to mention, but the Officers' Conference, the Departmental Conferences, the many Mass Meetings for teachers, pastors, superintendents, temperance missions,
the great parade with probably ten thousand people expected in line, the great Adult Conference and Banquet, the important Conference for Elmentary workers, and numerous other features will make this Convention one of the greatest ever offered to the workers in the South.

The faculty of noted experts will represent eleven states and nine denominations. Among the noted speakers to be present are: Rev. H.
M. Hamill, Educational Chairman of the International Sunday School Association; Rev. Wm. A. Brown, International Missionary Superintendent; J. Shreve Durham, International Visitation Superintendent; Prof. M. A.
Hosline, of Ohio, Educational Director of the United Brethren Church of America; Rev. R. P. Shepard, one of the editors of the Christian Publishing Company, with headquarters at St.
Louis; Miss Elizabeth Kilpatrick, teacher of the wonderful class of 400 men at Corinth, Miss.; Prof. E. O.
Excell, the world's greatest song leader; Alvin W. Roper, the world's greatest sacred pianist; Mrs. H. M.
Hamill, of Tennessee, the noted Elmentary specialist; the General Secretaries of six states; John C. Carman, of Colorado, W. Fred Long of Mississippi; Chas. H. Nichols, of Oklahoma; Thos. V. Ellzey, of Louisiana; R. R. Ray, of Florida, Wm.
Nehemiah Wiggins, of Texas.

In addition to these leaders, there will be a large number of noted State experts who hold important positions in the State official family, including twelve commissioners, 36 district superintendents, 150 departmental members.
All of these represent the leading protestant denominations of Texas and are among the most active leaders of their own denomination.

Any pastor, superintendent, teacher, and Sunday School worker of any Sunday School of any denomination in Texas is entitled to become a delegate.
Each delegate should enroll immediately upon arrival, paying the registration fee of $1.00, which secures the beautiful badge necessary to be admitted to the reserved seats in the main auditorium, which will be reserved for regularly enrolled delegates.
With the enrollment fee each delegate is presented this badge, souvenir song book, souvenir booklet, notebook, pencil and a receipt for a year's subscription to the Texas Sunday School Star.
Railroad rates have been granted
for trains arriving in Fort Worth March 9th and 10th, and on account of the great parade Saturday afternoon, nearby points have been granted a special rate for Saturday morning.

The local committees have everything in readiness. The committees on hotels and boarding houses has a list for the delegates, who can secure board from $1.00 to $2.00 per day, and up. Delegates are urged to write to J. A. Winn, Fort Worth at once if you desire reservation made.

Word comes from every section of Texas telling of large delegations. Convention "boosters" have been appointed in various counties, with a view of arousing the Sunday Schools to send delegates.

We hope to see trainloads of delegates from every section of our State rolling in to Fort Worth Thursday morning, March 9th, and that they will all come prepared to stay until the close of the convention, Monday night, March 13.

Robt. H. Coleman,
State President.
J. T. McClure,
Central Chairman.
Wm. Nehemiah Wiggins,
General Secretary.

SHEEHAN TO QUIT

Some Important Democrats Want Him To Give Up Candidacy. Refuses To Do So.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 28.—With a view to bringing about a break in the Senatorial deadlock, it was stated tonight on high authorities that the men most prominent in the councils of the Democratic party have been endeavoring to persuade William F. Sheehan, the caucus nominee, to withdraw.

Mr. Sheehan has turned down all such suggestions, it is understood, contending that the caucus nomination entitles him to election.

The old song of pure, fresh drugs, registered and pedigreed pharmacists and drug store service that is heavenly was being set to new music.

We carry a middling fair line of pharmaceutical junk just about the same as the other poor-debilitated druggists who in early life contracted an assortment of spells that the home remedies would not reach and putting away childish things made for a drug store. That mouldy line of bug house nonsense about the noble profession and the love of science is a joke. Give one of these hollow-eyed slaves of the mortar and pestle enough of the filthy lucre to pay for three hots a day and a place to snore for the rest of his life and he'll shake the noble profession like a bachelor would a baby show. We've been throwing bottles at the wall for all these years but we'd still rather go fishing and listen at a screech owl quarrel at his wife than to spend the sixteen hours per equally between selling stamps, hunting the city directory and trying to explain that this pill emporium is not a charitable institution for benefit of the down and out club. We carry several things usually found in a drug store. We are just common druggists.
