BANK ROBBED, THREE EMPLOYES WOUNDED

State Trooper Shot To Death

TEMPLE, Tex. (AP) — Mounted police, bloodhounds and helicopters Saturday pressed the search for a second suspect in the shooting death of state trooper Hollie Tull, the Department of Public Safety reported.

VIOLENCE
A burst of gunfire took the trooper's life as he stopped a car while seeking two men who had fled the scene of a bank robbery in which three people were wounded.

DPS director, Col. Wilson E. Speir, praised the courage and dedication of the slain trooper in a statement issued late Saturday. Speir called the death of Tull and the wounding of three people in the holdup "outrageous" and "vicious."

A DPS spokesman said as many as 80 or 90 law enforcement officers were involved in the hunt for the second man. Officers picked up the first man near the Temple city dump.

Officers said the second man sought was armed with a pistol and shotgun and was believed to have all the bank loot.

Tull was trailing a blue 1966 Chevrolet believed to be the robbery getaway car, officers said, and was inspecting the driver's license of the men when he was cut down. Shortly thereafter, the blue car was found abandoned in the southwest part of Temple with its motor running. The search target area was the city dump.

BULLET IN HEAD
The men who robbed the Walburg (Tex.) State Bank of $2,000 shortly before the officer was killed were described as black and wearing Army fatigue uniforms.

Sheriff August Bosshard of Georgetown said the bank president, F. R. Leschber, was severely wounded with a bullet in his head but was able to detail how the robbery took place. Leschber told the sheriff that two men came into the bank, one bearing a government check in a brown envelope. He sought to cash the check and then grabbed Mrs. Miriam Kalmbach, 42, supervisor of nursing at the Georgetown hospital. She was a bank customer.

DROGGED HER
He dragged her behind the cashier's cage, Bosshard said, and made her, the bank president and the bookkeeper, lie on the floor. Leschber said all three were beaten with the pistols and then were shot. The sheriff said no one was able to explain why the men shot less seriously shot than the other two. Mrs. Kalmbach was shot at the base of the skull and was taken to the Brackenridge Hospital in Austin. She was conscious. Walburg is a community of about 250 persons off the main highways about 20 miles northeast of Georgetown in Central Texas. Banks in small towns are permitted by law to remain open on Saturdays. The slain trooper was 48 years old. He was married and had two daughters, 18 and 19 years old. Tull joined the Department of Public Safety (DPS) in June 1960 and was assigned to the driver's license division in San Antonio. He was transferred to Laredo and was assigned to the highway patrol division in January 1963. He was transferred to Temple in April 1964. He was a native of Falls County.

MR. HOUSE SPEAKER — House Speaker Carl Albert of Oklahoma stands beside a bronze bust of himself in Washington which was done for St. Peter's College, Oxford England. Albert was a Rhodes Scholar.

Executive Power Buildup Has Peaked, Albert Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — The generations-long buildup of power in the executive branch has probably peaked and Congress will begin playing a bigger role in the next few years, House Speaker Carl Albert says.

"I believe we will see a general strengthening of the legislative base in the intermediate term," Albert said in an interview. He explained he is thinking of a period of about 5 to 10 years.

But Albert, the highest official in the legislative branch, said the executive, with its concentration of initiative and decision power in one man — the President — will always have some built-in advantages. The tripartite system of U.S. government, he said, works best when there is close co-operation between the White House and Capitol Hill — and this relationship has been lacking in recent years.

dent to commit U.S. forces without concurrence of Congress.

A more recent instance of Congress acting on its own, Albert said, was the development and passage of legislation designed to protect the rights of employees enrolled in company pension plans.

Albert called this "a historic bill completely a congressional initiative."

Congress has taken no more important step toward reasserting its authority than passage of the Budget Control Act last July, Albert said.

This measure, now just beginning to be tested in operation, gives the legislative branch tools to grapple with the budget as a whole and to assert its views on priorities rather than merely reacting to the annual proposals from the White House.

"If we have only cheese-paring authority in the budget process," Albert said, "We can hardly be effective."

Albert repeatedly emphasized the need for the executive and Congress to reach accommodations.

Nixon In Pain

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — Former President Nixon, reported in pain and under physical stress from a new blood clot in his leg, remained secluded Saturday.

There was no comment from the San Clemente estate on Nixon's condition.

The former president's doctor, Air Force Maj. Gen. Walter Tkach, flew here from Washington on Friday and returned the same day. He said Nixon would continue to receive medication for the clot in a vein of his left leg, but that Nixon had decided against being hospitalized because of the phlebitis condition. An occasional florist's truck pulled up at the gatehouse of the estate to deliver flowers from well-wishers. Tkach, who said Nixon was "mentally alert," despite "severe strain and physical fatigue" caused by the illness, said he would visit Nixon again in a week to check on his condition.

All-Out Drive For UW Funds

A total of $10,699.60 has been pledged and $8,796 given toward the 1974-75 Howard County United Way campaign, officials of which are just now marshalling their forces for the all-out drive.

Chairman of four of the ten committees at work in the campaign checked in at UW headquarters during the week. Biggest surge was made by the Big Gifts committee, headed by Jimmy Taylor, which reported $8,842.60 pledged and $6,939 already contributed.

All of the $975 pledged in the Out-Of-Town division of the drive was in the till. Paul Meek heads that particular phase of the overall surge.

In Area division gifts, $335 has been pledged and as much already donated. M. A. Snell's group is headed toward an ultimate goal of $983.

The Women's division, led by Jeanette Snodgrass, has had $547 pledged and as much already donated. The women's objective is $3,718. The United Way committee, led by J. D. Nelson, president, and W. S. (Dub) Pearson, chairman, is shooting for a total of at least $121,777 and Pearson said he anticipated that the committee would experience no problems achieving that goal if everyone gives his or her fair share.

Jap Terrorists Holding Nine

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP) — Three members of the terrorist Japanese Red Army held nine hostages inside the French Embassy Saturday despite France's agreement to turn over an imprisoned comrade as the guerrillas demanded.

Dutch marines joined the security force at the scene.

The prisoner was flown from a French prison to an airport near here, meeting the original demand of the terrorists when they seized the French ambassador and eight other persons as hostages Friday.

There was no immediate official explanation as to why the Red Army group had not agreed to release the hostages in exchange for the prisoner brought from France, but the terrorists did accept a mediation offer from the Egyptian ambassador in The Hague. The Red Army has ties with Arab guerrilla groups.

There were reports, which could not be officially confirmed, that the prisoner at the airport was refusing to be released to join the Red Army trio.

In Paris, a spokesman for the French Interior Ministry said the terrorists had presented "a dozen demands since last night, all more or less fantastic and unacceptable."

He added that the French government was remaining firm on meeting only the original demand.

"We will exchange our Japanese, who is our hostage, against the nine persons held by the commando in the embassy," the Paris spokesman said. "We not will change our attitude."

"It is the question of the lives of nine people. The Dutch government has no intention of putting the lives of these hostages, some of whom are Dutch, in danger."

The spokesman said a police assault in an attempt to free the hostages was "the last solution to be envisaged."

Rifle-toting Dutch marines in flak jackets reinforced scores of police around the building. All traffic was blocked for about a mile, and streetcar and bus services were disrupted. The cordoned-off area included the Dutch parliament building.

AMA Funds Go To Burleson

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Medical Association has earmarked at least $25,000 for the re-election campaigns of 10 members of the House Ways and Means Committee, which writes health insurance legislation.

For several years, the committee has been working on a variety of health bills, many of them opposed by the AMA.

SINGLED OUT
Of the 10 members singled out by the nation's major medical organization, six joined as sponsors of a health insurance plan supported by the AMA.

The measure was one of several offered in addition to the bill proposed by Ways and Means Committee Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark.

The 10 members aided by the AMA are among 21 committee members seeking re-election. At least two, Rep. Richard Fulton, D-Tenn., and Rep. Omar Burleson, D-Tex., are unopposed in the Nov. 5 general election.

The contributions were disclosed in records filed with the clerk of the House.

Fulton introduced the bill favored by the AMA Jan. 18. His re-election committee received a $2,500 contribution from the AMA's state political chapter July 22.

TEXAS BRANCH
The contribution was the largest single gift Fulton's committee has received, according to its most recent report.

Burleson, one of the co-sponsors of Fulton's bill, received $4,000 from the Texas branch of the AMA's Political Action Committee on April 2. His campaign expenses have totaled $6,414 so far this year, according to his funding reports.

Rep. Joel T. Broyhill, R-Va., also a co-sponsor of the bill, received $5,000 from the AMA's committee and $5,500 from two other medical groups.

He listed total campaign contributions of $137,817.

Rep. Al Ullman, an Oregon Democrat, received his largest contribution to date from an Oregon committee which relayed $1,000 from the AMA.

The congressman's campaign war chest totals $16,981, according to a Sept. 10 report.

KILLED — Highway Patrolman Hollie Tull, 48, of Temple was shot to death Saturday when he stopped a car believed to be the getaway vehicle for two men who robbed the Walburg State Bank earlier in the day. Tull, a Department of Public Safety officer since June 1960, had a wife and two teen-age daughters.

RAISED BLOUSE

Black Teacher Is Reinstated

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — A black coach who was fired after a 15-year-old white eighthgrade girl accused him of improper advances was reinstated Saturday by the State Board of Education.

Felix Phillips, 43, said after the decision he was not sure whether he would return to his job with the North Forest Independent School District of Houston.

HIPHUGGERS
The local school board has some opinions, too. It can appeal the decision to the courts, let Phillips come back to work or pay off the 21 months remaining on his two-year contract, which was terminated Dec. 17, 1973.

Phillips is now assistant principal of the school operated by the state prison system at its Retrieve Unit, 55 miles from his home.

The girl said the incident occurred after Phillips took her into the hall and asked her if she were violating the school dress code by wearing hip huggers. Both parties said she raised her blouse to show she was not. From that point on, the accounts differ, and there were no witnesses.

Phillips said that when he saw the girl raise her blouse, he automatically turned his head away and threw up his hands in a defensive gesture, unintentionally touching the girl.

She said he placed the fingers of one hand inside her front waistband and with his other hand cupped her chin and asked, "Do you want to kiss me?"

He emphatically denied making any advances.

Former State Education Commissioner J. W. Edgar upheld Phillips before retiring this summer. He also criticized the school district rule requiring male teachers to enforce dress standards for girl pupils.

Reviewing the

with Joe Pickle

Tomorrow sees the 1974 version of the Howard County Fair take off the wraps, and all signs point to a bigger Fair than last year's successful revival. It's your Fair, and if you want to enter something for exhibit — from pictures to prunes — take it to the Fair barns Monday morning.

Well, it was a short Fall. That mid-week cold front drove temperatures down to the low 50's, and clouds, as usual for this year, contributed almost nothing in the way of moisture. These successive August-September cold thrusts may bode ill for our moisture chances the rest of this month and October — which is saying, until next Spring.

Howard College had 1,294 students whose registrations had cleared the business office Friday, only five less than last year's all-time record. However there is another week to go, and the office has 15 applications on hand. Prospects are great that the 1,300 mark will be topped for the first time.

NOT INJURED — The drivers of these automobiles were not seriously injured at 11:45 a.m. Saturday as they were involved in a collision at 4200 West Highway 80. Beatrice Young Turner, Big Spring was taken to the Hall-Bennett Hospital where she was treated and released. Driver of the station wagon was Charles Dennis Elmore, Stanton.

Rockefeller Worth At Least $33 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — An upward revision is expected of a financial statement submitted to Congress by vice presidential nominee Nelson A. Rockefeller reportedly showing a net worth of $33 million.

The Senate Rules and Administration Committee has requested that he submit current market values for some stock and real estate holdings that were listed at their acquisition cost. A source who has examined the statement said, for example, that

Rockefeller has owned New York real estate for over 60 years and added, "you can imagine what it's worth now."

Purse Snatching Puts Four Teens In Trouble

Seventeen-year-old Joseph Stutz and three juveniles, two 16-year-olds and one 15-year-old were apprehended by Big Spring police Friday afternoon after they allegedly snatched the purse of a 77-year-old Big Spring woman, Mrs. F. G. Sholte.

Mrs. Sholte, who was walking along the sidewalk on Johnson Street near the high school, reported the youths pulled up in a car and one of the juveniles jumped out, took her purse and then got back in the car and sped away. The purse contained $100.

An unidentified citizen witnessed the incident and reported a description of the car and license number to police, who located the youths just as they were getting out of the car across town.

The purse was recovered, along with the money, but Mrs. Sholte reported that her keys were gone, and that a billfold which was a gift from one of her grandchildren was torn up.

Stutz was charged and released on $2,500 bond.

Coffee Demand Is Declining

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP) — Kenya's coffee farmers are in trouble. Demand for coffee on the world market is on the decline, and prices are at a low ebb.

In February Kenya coffee was selling at $170 per metric ton; two months later the price fell to $162 per ton. And the downward slide has continued. Kenya coffee is now selling at $128 a ton.

Kenya earns $100 million from coffee annually. While coffee production is holding at last year's levels, Agriculture Ministry officials are worried that low prices might cause output to fall off.

THEFTS

Yolanda Correa, 1300 W. 2nd reported that someone broke into her home and took an 8 track tape player and two speakers, valued at $62.

Big Spring Rendering Co. reported that someone siphoned off the gas from a truck parked at their building and a padlock on a nearby gas pump was broken, but no gasoline was taken.

Pollard Chevrolet reported the theft of four wheel covers from a 1973 Ford pickup on their used car lot. Value was set at $75.

Let 'em Dance

KATWIJK, The Netherlands (AP) — The city council of the seaside resort of Katwijk is being forced by court order to grant a permit allowing a dance hall to operate on Sunday.

The council had refused the permit, claiming Sunday dancing would not be acceptable to the majority of the town's population.

Frightening Turbulence

By The Associated Press

Texas weather lost its punch Saturday and was rather surly about it. It enveloped Texas in gloom, wetness and cold—but nothing like the sometimes frightening turbulence of the previous day occurred.

A cold front which plunged into the state's midsection and on to the Gulf Friday left two known dead and a third feared dead. The Flash floods almost stopped traffic in areas surrounding Corpus Christi. One or more tornadoes hit a hospital near Houston.

The cold front which triggered the rains and tornadoes dumped as much as 14 inches of moisture on some areas near Corpus Christi, sending nearly all the streams out of their banks.

Still more heavy rains fell during Friday night and early Saturday.

day night and early Saturday.

But by midday, the state generally was on ly suffering occasional showers, although all of Texas was cloudy and relatively cold for this time of year.

The bodies of two of three persons who were swept away by a flood Friday near Woodsboro, northeast of Corpus Christi, were found Saturday, the Refugio County sheriff's office reported. Officers searched for the third presumed victim.

Two of the five persons in the pickup camper which was swept away clung to brush and were saved. They were Tomas Castro, a young girl, and Roel Castro, a young boy.

Missing after the flood were Jose, Maria and Juan Castro.

FEDERAL CAMPAIGN

PAINT IT PRETTY — Lt. Col. Jerry S. Grimes, assisted by his 83rd Flying Training Squadron keymen, Capt. Bob Jessup, P.D. Leonard and Rog Taylor gives the paint shop a hand. After five days of the Combined Federal Campaign the 83rd FTS was over 100 per cent of its goal and the paint shop had not gotten it on their schedule to paint.

Overhead Too High

LONDON (AP) — John Cavanagh, one of Britain's leading dress designers, is closing his dress shop in London's swank Mayfair District.

"The ever-increasing overheads and cost of production have made it virtually impossible for us to continue this business any longer," Cavanagh wrote in a letter to his customers.

His customers including Princess Alexandra and the Duchess of Kent.

Cavanagh, now 60, has worked as a dress designer since he was 18. He began as a pupil of the late Edwaeux and later worked for Pierre Balmain before opening his own premises in Curzon Street, London, in 1952.

83rd Exceeds It's Goal By $3

During the first week of the Combined Federal Campaign (CFC) at Webb AFB the 83rd Flying Training Squadron exceeded its goal by $3 when its members contributed $1,895. No other unit on base came close to its goal that early in the campaign.

The CFC hopes to contribute $21,890 to United Way of Big Spring and Howard County. This represents 72.73 per cent of the total goal of Webb, the Veterans Administration, Post Office and other federal agencies, which is $30,097.

Others to benefit from the combined fund raising are National Health Agencies and International Service Agencies.

The drive is scheduled to continue over a six weeks period but Webb's Wing Commander, Col. Robert A. Owens hopes to wind it up ahead of time. He is serving as chairman of the CFC in the Big Spring area.

Newspaper Price Hike

DALLAS (AP) — The Dallas Morning News said in its Sunday editions it will raise its newstand and subscription prices effective Oct. 1.

Single copy prices will climb from 10 cents to 15 cents daily and from 25 cents to 35 cents Sunday, the News said. Monthly subscriptions will rise from $3 to $3.50, and monthly Sunday-only subscriptions will increase from $1.35 to $1.75.

"Increasing costs in every category of our operation have necessitated this adjustment," the News said.

Re-Elect Directors Of Co-op

A crowd of 2,280 attended the 35th annual barbecue of the Cap Rock Electric Co-op on the Stanton football field Saturday night and re-elected three incumbent directors.

Edgar Phillips was re-elected director for District 3 over A. G. Rogers; Raymond Pribyla of Tarzan was named in District 6 over Malcolm Tunnel of Lanorah and Bob Cox of Stanton was named in District 8 over ayme of Stanton.

Dr. C. L. Kay, assistant president of Lubeock Christian College, discussed present world conditions and need for change.

Glenn Cantrell, president of the board presented a plaque for 35 years of service to Cap Rock by Edgar Phillips, vice president, who has only missed 14 monthly meetings during the 35 year period.

Howard County Medical Survey

By MARI CARPENTER

A medical survey of the Permian Basin by the medical service committee of the regional planning council shows Big Spring and Howard County with the most hospitals and the most doctors per population of the entire area.

In Howard County, there is one doctor for every 1,080 persons. The average age of the Big Spring doctor is 52.

This county also has one dentist for every 4,725 persons. Seven hospitals are listed including Big Spring State hospital, Cowper Clinic and Hospital, Hall-Bennett Memorial, Medical Arts Clinic and Hospital, Medical Center Memorial Hospital, Veterans Administration Hospital, and Webb Air Force Base Hospital.

shows one physician for every 1,293 persons in the county. Up in Gaines County where Seminole is county seat, the average rises to one doctor for every 2,898 persons. Loving County shows none.

Over in Martin County with Stanton as county seat, the ratio is one doctor for every 2,387 persons. Midland County shows 1,129 persons for every doctor. Pecos County, whose county seat is Fort Stockton shows one doctor for every 2,750 persons.

BAD FIGURES
One of the worst ratios is over in Reeves County, with Pecos as the county seat, where there is only one doctor for every 4,132 persons. Terrell County with Sanderson as county seat shows no doctors and Upton, with McCamey as the county seat, shows one doctor for every 1,349 persons.

Ward County, with Monahans as the county seat, shows a ratio of one doctor for each 3,255 persons. Winkler County made no report.

The report showed that over 1,248 persons are admitted to one of the hospitals in Big Spring each day.

All in all, the report definitely points up that Big Spring and Howard County are singularly lucky in medical services and that with the construction of the new hospital, almost complete, will be able to serve an entire area with almost every type of medical care.

Fair Promises Bigger, Better Show This Year

Resurrected with resounding success last year after a 20-year suspension, the Howard County Fair reopens Monday with promise of another big season.

While agricultural offerings may be crimped somewhat by drought, those in other areas promise to be more numerous and varied.

Best of all, there will be vastly more room in which to display the materials, because the Dora Roberts Foundation had given a new 100x120 building to house displays. One instant effect will be to nearly double the number of commercial and private displays. Another is to free the older buildings for more spacious exhibits.

Still another improvement is the enclosure of the Fair barn and county barns in a new cyclone-type fence to protect the area and afford better control.

Numerous special events will add sparkle to the week-long show. There will be the ubiquitous carnival. The flower show opens Monday. On Tuesday evening the Shrine circus will be in the rodeo arena. There will be the traditional barrow show and sale, also the motorcycle rodeo, which proved a real success last year, a pet show, and a horse show. During the week the Chamber of Commerce agribusiness barbecue will be held to honor farmers and ranchers for their contributions to the economy and the well-being of the area.

One new wrinkle will be the first "world championship sand washer pitching tournament."

"This is a family show," said Buddy Barr, president, and we hope entire families will come and enjoy the fun and the stimulation of seeing what our county and its people can do."

EVENTS FOR FAIR

This is the event schedule for the 1974 Howard County Fair, Monday through Saturday.

MONDAY
The grand opening is set for 6 p.m. Judging of foods, textiles, arts and flowers will begin at 2:30 p.m. The barrow show starts at 7 p.m.

TUESDAY
Judging for field crops and agricultural projects will begin at 9 a.m.; judging of rabbits at 10 a.m.; barrow sale at 7 p.m.; Shrine circus in Rodeo Bowl at 8 p.m.

WEDNESDAY
Agri-Business Appreciation barbecue 11 a.m.-1 p.m.; Motorcycle show at 8 p.m. in Rodeo Bowl; National Championship of Sand Washer Pitchers in arena barn.

THURSDAY
Judging of steers at 1:30 p.m.

FRIDAY
Pet show at 8 p.m.

SATURDAY

Classes Are Invited

Classes 1943 and 1945 are being asked to join the Class of '44 reunion at Big Spring High School Homecoming this year, Oct. 4-6.

"Notices have been mailed to all ex-students on whom we have addresses," said Pat Simmons, chairman. "If you know of any former student for these class years, we would appreciate your contacting me after 5 p.m. daily or afternoons on weekends at 263-4607. Also if any students here have not received notice, please let us know. We need resumes returned with the $1 membership fee."

She added that a special effort is being made to get a good turnout on the part of local exes.

Art Show Is Fair Feature

One of the divisions which attracts a large number of entries in the Howard County Fair is the art show. There is a limit of two paintings per exhibitor. The spread is for young or old, amateur or professional.

Competition will be in oil base, water base, graphic and sculpture and wood carving, and the divisions are professional (commercial or teachers), non-professional adult art (Students or amateur artists), juniors (6-9 years and 1-12 years); also youth (13-15 years, and 15-18 years).

Penny Gum To Change

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — The gumball might be hollower and the chicle-chew might be a little less chewy, but one major producer of penny gum is determined to keep the price at one penny each.

We experimented with a two-cent vending machine in one town and, to me, it is not the way to go," says Leo Leary, president of the Ford Gum & Machine Co. of nearby Akron, N.Y.

Leary said a finished gumball is 75 per cent sugar and the price of a sugar has skyrocketed in just one year from $14 to $40 per 100 pounds.

He said the company, which produces about 5.5 million pounds of gum a year, is experimenting with making the gumballs hollow center a bit larger. For the rectangular chicle-chews, which have no hollow center, Leary said the company was trying to shrink the gum-base center and use more coating.

Samples Of Skills Can Be Shown

Individuals handy with their hands will have a chance to show examples of their skill in the crafts and hobbies division of the Howard County Fair.

Included are the Holiday Parade with table cloth for holiday, Christmas stocking, Christmas tree skirt, holiday apron, hand-made candles, Christmas balls, miscellaneous.

Metal craft of enameling, tooled pictures, jewelry, any small article not listed.

Pictures of seed or grain, fabric picture framed, transfer art, ecology, decoupage, beads, three dimension and miscellaneous.

Flowers made of feathers, burlap, fake fur, wood, ribbon, beaded, bread, miscellaneous.

And miscellaneous items such as dolls, toys, leather work, wood carving, enamels, plastics, ceramics, decoupage, macrame, gold leafing, memory books, cut bottles, purses, beads, etc.

Elderly Have Own Division

The Howard County Fair includes a special section for individuals who are 60 years of age or older.

Competition generally is in crafts and hobbies; goods (baked and canned); and clothing construction. This is one of the more popular divisions of the fair.

Escape Thwarted

STILLWATER, Minn. (AP) — A Houston man was among six convicts whose breakout from Stillwater Prison was foiled.

Culinary Competition In Fair Beckons Many

Those who excel in the kitchen will have a chance to demonstrate their artistry by entering the culinary division of the Howard County Fair.

Divisions include breads (biscuits, muffins, corn (plain and jalapeno), ginger, nut, banana, pumpkin, raisin and yeast, coffee, cinnamon, rolls.

Cakes including angel food, apple sauce, (not iced), banana layer, chiffon, devil's food or chocolate, German chocolate, gold loaf, jelly roll, marble loaf, pound, prune loaf, spice layer, sponge, white layer, iced, fruit fresh apple and cedar cakes (unglazed or iced).

There is also a division for decorated cakes (non-professional and professional).

There also is a division for cookies such as drop oatmeal, icebox, rolled, bar-press or molded, brownies. The candies division includes best 1-lb. box, caramel, chocolate fudge (standard and marshmallow, any other fudge, date loaf, divinity, mints, peanut brittle pecan parlines, peanut patties, chocolate covered cherries.

Road Segment Is Opened

The last section of divided four-lane highway between San Angelo and Sterling City has been opened to traffic.

D. R. Watson, San Angelo district engineer for the Texas Highway Department, said that it may take another month to complete all the work and cleanup. However, traffic is moving on over the new 7.88-mile section which extends from the Coke County line southeastward to a point two miles north of Carlsbad.

Horse Show Volunteers Make Fair Set Saturday

Volunteers Make Fair Viable Institution

Some of the classes in the horse show of the Howard County Fair Saturday are:

ADULT HALTER
Halter classes, registered yearling, 2 and 3-year-old and aged stallions; non-registered yearling stallions and those 14 hands and under and 14 and over.

Mares — Registered and non-registered, in virtually the same classes.

YOUTH HALTER
Geldings five years and older, 4 years and under for registered; also non-registered.

ADULT YOUTH PLEASURE
Classes for 13-years and under, 14 years through 18 years, adults in Western Pleasure, same for reining; same division for barrel racing; same division for polebending.

There will be a jackpot barrel race with one run for experienced and for novice riders.

Good Field Due For Fair Race

The open jackpot barrel race, which also will include a division for novice racers, is expected to draw a wide field of entries from this part of West Texas.

Set for 7 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 21, it will be one of the climaxing events of the Howard County Fair.

The entry $18 for the open class and $8 for the novices, will go to the jackpot prizes, with the exception of $3 for handling. Novices are considered those who have not won $150, and all with winnings over that are in the open class, said Skipper Driver, chairman of this event.

The Howard County Fair is a volunteer affair, being the chief reason for existence of the Howard County Fair Association.

None of the officers or directors receive pay, although many of them devote countless hours during the year, and then virtually full-time the week of the Fair. The same can be said for the superintendents and the chairmen and workers in various divisions.

The association is headed by James C. (Buddy) Barr, president. Johnnie Walker is the immediate past president and therefore one of the key members of the board.

The executive board is comprised of Barr, J. Arnold Marshall, president-elect and general superintendent; Neil Fryar, vice president; Joe Pickle, secretary; and M. A. Snell, treasurer.

Other members of the board of directors are Rodney Brooks, Delbert Donaldson, Skipper Driver, Hamlin Elrod, Mrs. Dorothy Garrett, Mrs. Joe Mac Gaskins, Jerry Hall, Tom Locke, Ron McNeil, Mrs. Glyn Mitchel, Oliver Nichols, Mrs. W. R. Posey, Bill Read, Jimmy Taylor and Johnnie Walker.

Superintendents named by Marshall are: W. Bruce Griffith, agricultural; Mrs.

Agri-Business Tickets Ready

Farmers and ranchers who can attend the Agri-Business Appreciation barbecue, set for 11 a.m.-1 p.m. Wednesday, at the Howard County Fair are asked to get their tickets at the Chamber of Commerce office. These should be obtained prior to 5 p.m. Tuesday, said Terry Hanson, assistant manager of the Chamber. Farm and ranch operators, and their wives, are invited to be tuests of local business men.

Joe Mac Gaskins, home and hobby; James Barr, operations; Neil Fryar and Mrs. Dorothy Garrett, special activities.

Under Griffith, these are chairmen: J. E. Peugh, agricultural products; Ralph

The pickles vision includes peach, watermelon rind, beet, bread and butter pickles, cucumber pickles (sweet and sour) dill pickles, green tomato, mixed, onion, chili sauce, chow chow, pepper relish peppers, okra, beet relish, gherkins, beans.

Preserves and jellies classes include apple peach, plum butter; conserves, apricot blackberry, grape, plum and strawberry jam; apple, berry, cherry, grape, mint, peach, plum jelly; pure honey; marmalade; apricot, cherry, fig, peach, pear strawberry, tomato, watermelon preserves; pear honey.

White and Larry Shaw, barrow show; Ronnie K. Wood, children's barnyard; Skipper Driver and Mrs. W. Glyn Mitchel, horse show; Ed Seay, rabbit show; Lloyd Robinson and R. E. Haney, steer and heifer show.

Those serving with Mrs. Gaskins in home and hobby are: Mrs. Lloyd Robinson, women's activities; Mrs. Raymond Phillips, antiques; Mrs. Richard Patterson, arts; Mrs. W. N. Norred and Mrs. Paul Guy, crafts and hobbies; Mrs. L.L. Soles and Mrs. J. R. Petty, culinary; Mrs. Odell Womack, flower show; Miss Bessie Love, "Over Sixty"; Mrs. Neil Fryar, youth.

Barr's operations divisions has Ron McNeil and Johnnie Walker, booth sales; Vo-Ag Teachers, buildings and grounds; Bruce Griffith, catalogue; M. A. Snell, finance; R. H. Weaver, legal; Tom Locke, parking; Joe Pickle publicity.

The special activities led by Fryar and Mrs. Garrett include Joe Dunn, entertainment; John Samuel (Lt. Col. Ret.), lapidary; Ray Weir, motorcycle; Bruce Wright, pet show.

Free On Bail

Ramon Lopez, Big Spring, is free on $5,000 bond after a shooting incident Saturday. Lopez is accused of firing two shots at a neighbor who attempted to break up a fight between Lopez and his sister.

Young Is Crowned

DENVER, Colo. — Olin Young of Peralta, N.M., was crowned world champion steer roper for 1974 at the conclusion of the national finals steer roping, the Rodeo Cowboys Association said.

Young, along with 15 other top steer ropers for the year, competed in eight go-rounds at the finals in Laramie, Wyo., winning $3,000, and wound up with $12,416 in year-end winnings, and event record. The biggest rodeo to end over the weekend was the Tri-State rodeo at Fort Madison, Ia., which offered $14,222 in prize money.

Three-times world champion saddle bronc rider Shawn Davis, Lewisville, Texas, took first in his event for $833, and Rusty Riddle, Weatherford, Texas, took the average in bareback riding, winning $714.

Leaders in various events are:

All-around cowboy—Tom Ferguson, Miami, Okla., $55,075, and Bob Berger, Norman, Okla., $28,712; saddle bronc riding—John McBeth, Burden, Kans., $25,561, and J. C. Steer Classes Are Listed Steers entered in the Howard County Fair will be judged and classed as to weight with no more than eight steers to a division. They will be classed also as to English breeds (including English crosses) and also as to exotic crosses. Classes for the breeding cattle show will be set up as needed. In the barrow show, the usual weight divisions and breed classifications will prevail.

County Budget To Be Amended

Amending the budget to allow for higher total travel expenses for patients bound for out-of-town hospitals is on the agenda for County Commissioners Court Monday. Also, the court will: Discuss the Permian Basin Regional Planning Commission emergency medical system. Consider radios for the new Texas Ranger and game warden. And confer with Neel Barnaby, county road engineer.

Varied Items In Farm Displays

Here are some of the categories of competition in the agriculture department of the Howard County Fair.

COTTON — best 20 open bolls; best pound of lint; gallons of any variety of cotton seed; any variety of cotton stalk (leaves striped).

GRAINS AND SEEDS — One gallon of hard winter wheat, oats, barley, peanuts, field peas (except blackeyes), sudan grass, sweet sorghum, red or yellow grain sorghum, white grain sorghum, alfalfa, soybeans, rye, castor beans, millet or triticale.

SHEAF GRAINS AND SEEDS — Three to five inch diameter for wheat, oats, barley, millet, rye, sweet sorghum, sudan grass, sunflower (3 heads), sweet clover Spanish peanuts (1 bunch), alfalfa, soybeans, grass, triticale.

GRAIN SORGHUM HEADS — White grain sorghum, yellow grain sorghum.

HAY (Baled) — Alfalfa, sorghum, cowpeas, unthrashed peanut, soybean, sudan, grass.

CORN (10 ears) — White, yellow or any other variety or color; also any variety popcorn.

VEGETABLES — Irish potatoes, yellow yams, onions, turnips, beets, carrots, radishes, tomatoes, eggplant, cabbage, summer squash, winter squash, cashew, field pumpkin, pie pumpkin, watermelon, cantaloupe, bell peppers, any variety peppers, okra, rhubarb, collards, cucumbers (pickling and slicing), lima beans, any variety beans, green also dry, blackeye peas, and other variety peas.

FRUITS — Half dozen apples, pears, peaches, plums, grapes, apricots (12), strawberries (15).

MISCELLANEOUS — Ornamental gourds, or other unusual crops for ornamental purposes.

Women To Have Special Exhibit

One of the most interesting parts of the Howard County Fair is the women's department.

This is a show for people who are interested in preserving treasures of the past, whether they are family relics or have been acquired for private enjoyment.

Suggested items include such things as cut glass, art glass, satin glass, carnival glass, pressed glass, china, porcelain, old fans, pottery, ironstone, stoneware, pewter, copper and gold, paper or wood album, family Bibles, music boxes, photographs, clothing, coverlets, quilts, etc.

Daylight Saving

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress may complete action next week on a measure that would restore the nation to standard time from Oct. 27 to next Feb. 23.

The House passed such a bill Aug. 19 and the Senate Commerce Committee this week recommended approval of that bill by the full Senate.

Actually, the Senate already has given its approval to the idea — by voting late last month for a four-month trial return to standard time.

But that vote came on an amendment to the pending Energy Reorganization Act and could be dropped in a House-Senate conference as non-germane under House rules.

Snyder Con Woes Soar

STEPHENVILLE — Ed by the Erah County Tex. (AP) — Two of three Colorado convicts who blazed a trail of violence across Texas and New Mexico in August have been returned to jail following their indictments on capital murder charges.

The two surviving convicts, Dalton Lloyd Williams, 29, of Snyder, Tex., and Jerry Ulmer, 22, of Garland, Tex., were named in 16-count indictments listing capital murder during a felony, murder in commission of a felony, several counts of aggravated assault, and seven counts of burglary. The indictments were returned by the Erah County.

Importing Rickshaws

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Bill and Genny Davenport, in an effort to employ an ancient means of transportation to meet a modern problem, have come up with the pedicab. They have purchased five of the pedicabs, a bicycle version of the rickshaw, once common in the Orient. The cabs are equipped to haul two persons between the University of Oregon and downtown Eugene.

Flowers To Add Color

Adding color and beauty to the Howard County Fair will be the flower show following the theme "Our Heritage in Historic Howard County."

There will be awards for excellence, sweepstakes, aboreal, best in show, award of merit, of appreciation, tri-color, distinction, creativity, educational.

The horticulture division will include roses, Chrysanthemums, dahlias, perennials, annuals, aboreal, potted plants, African violets, cacti and succulents, vegetables.

The division for artist design will operate in 16 classes, each with a specific topic such as "Spanish Explorers," "Boom Towns," "Cap Rock," "Webe's Jets," and "Marcy's Trails."

Reward Readers

Texas Summer Reading Club certificates were given out during a program at the Howard County Library Saturday afternoon.

Children who read 12 books and their parents attended the program. Those missing the program may pick up their certificate at the library desk.

Jackie Piper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Piper, 606 E. 15th St., was the first participant this summer. She read 38 books.

Layton Freeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Freeman, was first to finish and read the greatest number of books, 49.

Wire Stealing Ring Cracked

COSICANA, Tex. — (AP) — Officers in widely separated parts of Texas held six men in jail today accused of theft of copper wire largely from utility companies.

Officers at Bay City, where one of the men was held, said warrants had been issued in 15 counties, most of them alongside Interstate 45 leading from Dallas to Houston.

Four of the men were picked up in Corsicana late Wednesday and early today. Another, described as a drifter possibly of Houston, was arrested in Victoria and taken to Bay City, while one was found already in the Dallas County jail on another charge. Two were from Mexico.

One of the Mexia men was held under $2,500 bond. The others were placed under $25,000 bail each. Sheriff Jerry Shelton of Navarro County (Corsicana) said his telephone had been ringing constantly today as officers from other counties sought information from him.

HC Nears A Record

There is an excellent chance that Howard College will establish new enrollment records for the Fall semester.

Friday evening, L. L. Lewis, dean of admissions, said that there were 1,184 on campus, which is only 10 below the previous record of 1,194 in 1970 when all the enrollment was on campus.

In addition, there are now 41 registered at the Lamesa Center and 69 at the San Angelo Center (at Goodfellow AFB), bringing the total enrollment to 1,294. This is only five less than the final figure of 1,299 last year, when the all-time record was established.

Lewis still has 15 applications for registration on file in the business office, and there is yet a week to go in which late registrants can sign. While there may be some attrition before the registration deadline Friday, Lewis rated chances for a new record to be excellent.

Agents Help Dawson County Remain Dry

LAMESA — "Dawson County voted dry in a recent election and we're doing all in our power to keep it that way," agents from the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission stated Friday.

On Thursday night, a simultaneous raid was held at nine locations with seven arrests and warrants issued for several other persons.

UNDERCOVER AGENT — The raids followed work by an undercover agent who had made 22 buys from ten different persons in this dry community. Additional arrests were being made late Friday and Saturday by Dan Hutchinson, Big Spring agent with the alcoholic beverage enforcement division.

Others helping with the raids included four agents from Odessa including Billy Flynn, formerly of Big Spring, James and Troy Moore and George Baucum.

They were assisted by Dawson County highway patrolmen, deputies, the county attorney, and the juvenile officer.

Author Dies — ROCKFORD, Ill. (AP) — Aviator Bert R.J. "Fish" Hassell, 80, who tried in 1928 to reach Europe by crossing the polar ice cap, died Thursday.

Arrested late Thursday and charged with possession of alcoholic beverages for purpose of sale in a dry area were Leona Mason, Jimmy Hawkins, W.L. Harris, Carmen Vera, Hubert Collins, Clarence Martin, and Robert McCurley.

BOOZE APLENTY — Martin Collins, Harris and Mrs. Mason had already pled guilty and paid fines of $150 plus court costs.

They also lost the alcoholic beverages that they had in their possession when the agents confiscated 254 quarts of beer, 145 bottles of beer, 12 half pints of gin, 103 half pints of whiskey and 35 bottles of wine.

Trustees Meet Here Tuesday

Trustees of Howard College will have their regular monthly meeting 12:25 p.m. Tuesday in the board room at the Dora Roberts Student Union Building.

Mostly routine business is on the agenda, although there will be personnel changes to consider, according to agenda posted by Dr. Charles Hays, president.

Success? Man With A Good Looking Wife

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — A man with a good looking wife rates higher in other people's eyes than a man married to a homely woman, two University of Pittsburgh psychologists say.

Leonard Saxe and Daniel BarTol report, however, that the reverse isn't true — a handsome husband apparently won't enhance the status of his wife.

HOMELY MEN

Saxe and BarTol said in a report released on Thursday they showed portraits of various couples to a total of 128 viewers and asked them to try to rate each man and woman according to personality, success and social and economic background.

The portraits were paired differently for different observers, with homely men paired with attractive women in some cases and the combination switched around in others.

In every case, the observers were told that they were looking at a man and wife.

The findings: —Homely men with good looking wives got the top ratings for income, job success and professional status.

—When these same men are paired with homely women, their standings in the eyes of the observers dropped.

SOMETHING GOING —The lowest ratings went to handsome men paired with attractive women.

—Good looking women fared better than handsome men. "Among females, an unattractive woman married to an attractive man is evaluated lowest on these scales, whereas an attractive female married to an attractive male is evaluated highest," Saxe said.

He speculated that this may be "because people figure if an unattractive man can get a good looking wife, he must have something else going for him."

Handsome men, meanwhile, were rated low on both trustworthiness and brains. Saxe credited this to "an egghead stereotype," meaning people may think smart men are ugly.

He added: "What keeps surprising us is that people keep insisting their judgments aren't influenced by physical attractiveness."

Crops Need Appraisal

Producers planning to avail themselves of emergency benefits under the grain sorghum program have been advised to have crops appraised prior to harvesting.

Even if harvesting is done by grazing, this must be done.

Failure to obtain an appraisal of potential production might result in the farm not being eligible for a disaster payment even though it has, because of adverse weather conditions, suffered a severe loss in income.

The county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office also reminded that for any crop the office should be notified when the crop has been harvested or destroyed. Payments cannot be computed so long as the crop is standing on the farm. When crops are appraised and a decision is left to leave standing acreage, it must be recertified. Non-conserving crops left on failed acres cannot be harvested (even by razing) except for grazing prior to maturity.

This year the maximum amount of disaster and target price payments a person may receive is $200,000 under the combined programs.

TIA Leading Airlines Fight

DALLAS (AP) — The Texas Aeronautics Commission chairman says it will rule late this year on whether to permit Southwest Airlines to provide service to the Rio Grande Valley.

"This is the most momentous decision which we've been called upon to make since I became a member of the commission," the chairman, Rex Cauble of Denton, said.

"We're going to look at it harder than anything we've ever studied. When we get recommendations of our staff, we'll need time to study them. So the decision won't come until late this year."

Southwest, a Dallas-based firm, wants to extend its Dallas-Houston route to Harlingen.

Texas International Airlines is leading the fight against the Southwest request.

Francisco Lorenzo, Texas International's president, predicted the line will lose $2.8 million a year if Southwest competes with it in the Valley.

Lorenzo has sought to persuade business leaders in cities the line serves to join the airline in fighting the Southwest request.

He contends his line needs the revenue from its Valley service to improve service on unprofitable routes.

Lamar Muse, president of Southwest, says Texas International has received federal subsidies of $50 million in 10 years to provide service on losing routes.

Gas Stations Recycled

NEW YORK (AP) — Many gas stations are being abandoned, demolished or converted — due to the effects of the energy crunch.

National Petroleum News estimates that 10,000 service stations have closed since 1972.

Vote To Strengthen Bilingual Education

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The State Board of Education voted Saturday to strengthen bilingual education, and its one Mexican-American member said he was "grateful" for the step.

The action was the board's response to language proficiency demands by three associations of Mexican-American language training for educators for greater teachers.

No specific actions were taken on requests to make the Mexican-American educators' will be a request to groups official advisors to the board or more Mexican Americans in decision-making jobs in local school districts and the TEA.

The board said those two requests had been at least partly met by continuation of the Advisory Committee on Bilingual Education and through the TEA's "affirmative action plan" for minority hiring.

"I would like to thank the board for this beginning. I am very grateful."

Old Farms Recognized

AUSTIN (AP) — The Harry McLean Ranch near Corckett is the oldest agricultural property found so far in the state by the Texas Agriculture Department, Commissioner John White says.

The McLean ranch, which will be recognized at the State Fair in Dallas Oct. 14 along with other farms and ranches more than a century old, dates back to 1821.

The Agriculture Department, which sponsored the 1974 Family Land Heritage

Program, said McLean's great grandfather, Daniel McLean, first came to Texas in 1812 with the Gutierrez-Magee expedition and nine years later settled one league of land in Houston County.

White said 563 families have qualified as holding their lands for 100 years or more. The farms and ranches range from 12-acre plots to one spread containing more than 8,000 acres. Most of the century-old lands are in the state's Czech and German settlements with many of these dating back to original Spanish land grants.

Tries To Burn Down Church

Big Spring police have few clues in their search for an arsonist who attempted to burn the Berea Baptist Church sometime between Wednesday night and noon Saturday.

It was discovered Saturday that someone had entered the building through a rear door and set fire to curtains in the nursery which eventually burned themselves out before igniting the building.

Damage to the curtains was estimated at $35.

Officers reported that they could find no footprints, nor were there any sign of matches left at the scene.

Many Items In Textile Group

In the textile division of the Howard County Fair there will be competition in infant wear (coats, dresses, shirts, gowns, jumpers, suits, pants); children's wear (coats, jackets, suits, dresses, pant suits, shirts, gowns, etc.); women's wear (coats, jackets, capes, dresses, dressy dress, formal, two-piece, pant suits, pant dress, etc.); men's wear (jackets, suits, pants, jumpsuits, shirts, etc.).

Adult hand work includes aprons (smoked, cross-stitched, embroidered, party, appliqued, liquid embroidered, kitchen); pillows (smoked, plain, crocheted, etc); pillow cases (liquid embroidered, embroidered, crocheted, hemstitch, satin, etc); tea towels (liquid embroidered, embroidered, huck-weaving punchwork); tablecloth (liquid embroidered, embroidered, cutwork, appliqued, hemstitch, Christmas, punchwork, crocheted); patholders; scarfs (crochet, embroidered, liquid embroidered, cutwork); vanity scarfs (crochet, embroidered, liquid embroidered); miscellaneous (bedspreads, place mats, toys, hooked rugs, purses, afghan, Christmas accessory, others); baby accessories (bonnets and caps, blankets or carrying robes; quilts, pillows; pillow case, sheets, bibs); crocheted or knitted apparel (vests, hats, stoles, booties, capes, coats, skirts, etc.).

The youth division somewhat parallels the various classes for adults in linens, clothing, culinary, canned fruits and vegetables, pickles, preserves.

There will be classes for senior household linens; senior clothing; senior culinary; senior canned and preserved items.

Fair Carries Small Gate Fee

The Howard County Fair carries a modest gate admission of 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children six through 11 (those under six are admitted without charge). Last year's experiment with a family admission fee only created confusion, so the decision was reached to have only two types of admission. All such proceeds go to the Fair's general fund to help defray expenses.

Exhibits Remain Until Fair's End

Exhibits in the Howard County Fair will remain in place until the end of the exhibition on Saturday (Sept. 21).

The only exceptions will be certain temporary exhibits such as flowers, etc.

Last year several exhibitors began to remove items Saturday afternoon and early in the evening, but this year the Fair Association requires that exhibited materials that be left on display until gate closing time at 10 p.m. They may be removed then, the following day or the following Monday (Sept. 23). The Fair Association will maintain security guards 24 hours throughout the tenure of the fair and for the day preceding and succeeding the Fair.

You Can Show Wares At Fair

Who can exhibit in the Howard County Fair?

Any bona fide resident of Howard County is eligible to enter items in the various categories. In general, material brought to the appropriate show chairman between 8 a.m. and 12 noon will be accepted for display (although there are exceptions in that some are accepted throughout the day). Most entry lists close at noon or shortly thereafter in order that mudding may proceed.

Come To The Fair

Monday evening sees the beginning of the 1974 edition of the Howard County Fair. Blessed with a spacious new exhibit building, provided by the Dora Roberts Foundation, and with fencing and other improvements, the Fair promises to be bigger and better than last year's revived but highly successful addition.

The Fair is a good thing for the community and area. First of all, it provided an opportunity to get together at one time and place, to visit, to have fun. Thus, fortified with a variety of regular and special events, the Fair is good entertainment for the family.

Admittedly this is not the best of agricultural years, but the Fair is more than a place for displaying the yield of the land. Through the wide variety of things which are on display, we are informed not only about crops, but about the handwork of our women, our artists, our older adults, our young people.

Indeed we can show off our own accomplishments. We get a chance to see products we never dreamed would grow here; to observe first hand what excellent results our 4-H and FFA members have in feeding calves and swine; what fine breeding stock we have. Not the least of the benefits is the opportunity for our institutions, our businesses, and agencies to display what they have to offer commercially or in services. These are both interesting and reassuring as to the progressive attitude of the business community. Operators, even more than spectators, are stimulated. Finally, most of those who go to the Fair come away revived in spirit, assured that we are doing something, that we do have potential.

Register To Vote

Gov. Dolph Briscoe has proclaimed this as Voter Registration Week. It is a sort of "last chance" reminder to register to vote if you have not already done so. Under Texas law, it is now possible to register to vote within 30 days of the election in which the voter will participate.

Well, the next and probably last chance to vote this year is Nov. 5, the date of the General Election. So if you are to equip yourself to function as a real citizen, then you have until Oct. 5 to get your certificate.

Our record of participation as to percentage of population has not been good, but it certainly has no chance at all unless and until people qualify themselves to vote. So please, yes please, take time out this week to register if you are not now registered.

Then vote on Nov. 5.

Millard Fillmore

Around The Rim

Walt Finley

The Millard Fillmore Society, revived by my drinking cousin, Bobby Harris, is bound to be a big one. There is just one requirement for joining.

When you call a man at his office and the secretary asks "May I tell him who's calling?" you must reply "Millard Fillmore."

BOBBY'S FAVORITE result when an Oklahoma City secretary asked: "And who do you represent, Mr. Fillmore?"

Bobby's reply: "The Tippecanoe and Tyler Too Boat Works."

The girl put the boss on the line immediately.

Bobby has another answer for use when he hears, "May I say who is calling?"

Just say "No," and stand by for all sorts of reactions.

I have two different methods of handling this situation. When the question is asked "May I tell him who is calling?" I often answer "God."

This brings some pregnant pauses, and a repeat of the question. About the third time the secretary asks "May I tell him who's calling?" I reply "Yes." No more.

MY WONDERFUL AUNT, Mildred Ladd, has a social note from Park County, Colo., 80 years ago from the Fairplay Flume (a newspaper).

A man who eloped with a Wisconsin wife left a note saying: "I have taken your woman, but you are welcome to my last week's wages, which I didn't draw. I hoap that square things."

PRIOR TO THE FIRST appearance of a column by the Herald's new sports editor, intrepid nosy reporter Marj asked Clark Leshar what he was going to call his column.

Clark snapped: "Wait until Sunday."

Marj replied: "Wait until Sunday is a pretty good title."

Clark said emphatically: "I mean wait and see."

"Oh," says Marj, "I don't think wait and see is quite as good — but it might be all right. Wait and see if we win — wait and see if we lose."

Hmmmmmm.

The Big Spring Steers beat the "s" out of Andrews, according to Clark. For example "they corraled a rugged Andrew eleven 16-6."

Missed The Job

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — President Ford has been putting his new White House staff together. We have heard about the people who have been hired for his Administration, but we haven't heard anything about those who, for one reason or another, didn't get jobs.

HERE ARE SOME of the people and what they say to President Ford which gave him pause about hiring them:

"Now, Mr. President, I think the first thing you should do is to install a recording system in the Oval Office. In that way you can tape the conversations of everyone who comes in your office."

"NEXT!"

"MR. PRESIDENT, it's not too early to think about your election in 1976. I have a plan for you approval here. What I would like to do is set up a committee for your election which would be in complete charge of raising funds and directing your campaign so you wouldn't have to be bothered with the details. We would call this group the Committee to Elect the President."

"NEXT!"

"ALL RIGHT, GERRY, being President is fine, but you have to think about your future after you're out of office. Your best bet, as I see it, is to invest in real estate. Now what I will do is talk to a few rich friends of mine and we'll buy you some land and then we'll get the government to fix it up and

"NEXT!"

"MR. PRESIDENT, there is no reason why you shouldn't take advantage of the tax laws just like everybody else. Now if I were on the payroll, I would see that you got every last possible deduction you were entitled to. First, we'd work out something for your papers. I think, staying with the law, you wouldn't have to pay more than $800 a year — power of attorney and

"NEXT!"

"YOU ASK ME what I can do for you, Mr. President? I'll tell you what I can do for you. There are a lot of people in this country out to get you. What I would do, if you gave me the job, would be to set up some sort of clearinghouse where we could keep a list of your enemies."

"NEXT!"

"YOUR BIGGEST WORRY, Mr. President, is leaks in the White House. What you need is your own special group which would prevent our secrets from getting out. Now the important thing is that since this group would be involved in some activity, such as breaking and entering, wiretapping and forging papers, and

Letters To The Editor

TO THE EDITOR:

This is to express my gratitude to the hundreds of people in Big Spring for their kindness in deeds and various expressions to me and my family at the recent loss of my husband, Ed, and also to me as I continue to recover from my injuries in and out of the hospital.

In my opinion, Big Spring people are the best and no other community will excel them. God bless you.

Jane Upton

DEAR SIR:

The Big Spring Herald's article (9-10-74) regarding the city Council meeting illustrates that the reporter's obvious favoritism toward the city administration hinders the effectiveness of this article.

The article stated that Mr. Howell admitted that the fluctuating work week was legal, but the article failed to state that the fluctuating work week was legal only when certain requirements were met, and that the city employee's working schedules do not meet these requirements.

I urge that the Big Spring Herald write the facts in their entirety. Especially concerning this important matter.

Sincerely,

national and foreign affairs.

The deserters I have seen interviewed in television all have been very bold in saying they want total, unconditional amnesty or nothing. I'm afraid I'm not as good a Christian as I believed because my answer to that statement is "nothing." I feel if amnesty is granted in any form, a precedent will be set that will be extremely hard to cope with if America once again needs men to protect her.

The deserters seem to want peace and freedom at no cost—free. Shall we throw in some S&H green stamps? Let them speak to my husband, a returned POW who gave almost seven years of his life, our children's lives and my life for the privilege of being an American citizen. I pray to God he will never have to do it again, but if that time comes, I know he will, not because he wants war, but because he knows first hand what it is to live without freedom.

Thomas Paine once said "Those who expect to reap the blessings of freedom, must, like men, undergo the fatigue of supporting it." The deserters did not support it; they ran from—keep on running.

Exporters May Apply Pinch

NEW YORK (AP)—

For anyone who needed reminders, there were reminders this past week that the nation's energy problems are still there and could be worse.

Representatives of oil exporting countries met in Vienna, Austria, to consider cutting crude oil production as a way to keep prices up.

Some sources within the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC) said Arab members planned to meet separately and would talk about the possibility of another oil embargo as a way of winning concessions from the West in the Middle East.

Some observers believe few major moves would result from the Vienna talks, but the agenda alone

Arab nations consider cutting output to hold prices up

Some propose 14 per cent more on posted price of $11.65

Iranians want to impose tax (33 cents) applied to profits

Oil consumers say this would cost consumers 1-cent more

FPC, may relax on small gas producers, but again users pay served as reminders of the power held by producing countries.

OPEC's Economic Commission had recommended a 14 per cent hike in the posted price of crude oil, now $11.65 a barrel. The market price for that oil is about $9.50 a barrel, but the Arab oil embargo last winter helped push the price over $20 a barrel.

One Iranian official at the session said the exporters wanted to boost oil revenues through taxes that should hit company profits but not consumers.

Jamshid Amouzegar, Iran's minister of the interior, said the governments wanted to impose new taxes of about 35 to 40 cents a barrel. They decided on 33 cents a barrel.

Oil company observers at the session said any increase in taxes would be passed along to consumers.

Poison Ivy Argument

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: On reading your answer to the poison ivy question, I surmise that you never suffered from this excruciating itch.

For years I endured this torture from one to three times a summer. You say it does not spread. If that wasn't poison ivy that traveled over my body, it was my twin.

My doctor told me I might find relief from catching it by taking poison ivy extract. I started taking this magical drug 10 years ago. I may get one or two bumps that itch for a day. But it never spreads.

It takes five or six weeks to complete the medication so I usually start in February or March.

I realize that a certain medicine does not work the same for everybody, but for me it's wonderful! — A.H.

Of course I've had poison ivy, but am grateful that I am not extremely sensitive to it, as some folks are. Including you.

As to spreading — well, I don't really expect to convince anybody who thinks it does, but here are the facts. A sensitive person, exposed to the sticky ivy resin, will get different amounts in different parts of the body, and will break out first where the exposure was heavy, later where exposure was light.

He may, for example, walk through a patch of ivy (not seeing it, naturally) and break out on his legs. But he'll pick up some of the resin on his clothes, and transfer it thence to other parts of his skin. And presently break out there.

I have seen some cases in which a poison ivy (or from poison oak) provided the starting place for a secondary infection which indeed could and did spread.

But the point I'm making about the ivy poisoning not spreading is simply that water in the ivy blisters does not spread the itching. If so you could catch it from someone else.

As to your use of ivy extract (poison oak extract also is available for those who need it) it serves to "desensitize" you. It builds up your tolerance for the season. As you know, it can help even if it doesn't provide a total immunity for you. Some people it doesn't help.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: When I took a physical for track, my blood pressure was 120-70. I am 11 years old. My great aunt said this was bad but my doctor says it is usual for 11 years old. Who is right? — D.M.

Your doctor is right. That pressure is quite normal for your age.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Please settle an argument. Dad says you can get "crabs" from sitting on toilets other than your own, such as public toilets. I disagree. Who's right? — D.J.

Crabs (crab lice, that is) can be picked up from wherever they happen to be — from people, from borrowed clothing, from bedding. But toilet seats are not the most likely way to acquire these pests.

My Answer

Billy Graham

A recent column told of a woman jealous of her husband. My situation is just the opposite.

My husband is both selfish and jealous. If I would sever all ties with family and friends, he would be pleased. Can't togetherness go to an extreme where home becomes nothing more than a prison? M.J.H.

Any good thing can be carried to an extreme. Togetherness, however, is such a great need in our society, particularly in marriage, that one wonders how it could ever become an evil.

One writer has suggested that, "The human being becomes a human being by entering into interrelations with other human beings."

That's why the Psalmist in the 68th chapter says, "God setteth the solitary in families."

Now there just are some facts in your situation which you've not told me. One might be excessive attention and time lavished on those outside your immediate family. That fault would be yours. Another is an upbringing which rather isolates and pampers, and does not equip an individual for a mature, healthy marriage. That might be your husband's trouble.

In any event, settle on a pattern of conduct that provides each with the freedom needed. Be a good wife and mother — caring for the needs as you know them. Help your husband to understand, however, that marriage is not enslavement.

A Devotion For Today . .

"The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and give his life as a ransom for many." Matt 20:28.

PRAYER: Christ of the upward way, help me entrust my life to Thee and live in the way of love Thou has trod. Amen.

ROBERT STRIPLING

CHARLES BEIL

W. A. MOORE JR.

Robert Stripling Is New Board Chairman

The Board of Directors of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association announced Friday the election of a new chairman of the board, president and board member following a special board meeting.

Robert Stripling, former First Federal manager, was elected chairman of the board. Charles E. Beil, present First Federal manager, was elected president and W.A. (Dub) Moore Jr., vice president, was elected to the board of directors.

Remaining board members are K.H. McGibbon and

M.L. Patterson. Stripling, a lifelong resident of Big Spring, became associated with the First Federal Savings and Loan in 1943 when he was named manager. He served as manager and director until his retirement in 1966, but continued on the board of directors. He is active in civic affairs, a member of the Kiwanis Club, and he and his wife Jean are members of the First United Methodist Church.

Beil, who served as executive vice president before his election as president, has been manager of First Federal Savings and Loan since 1966. He was elected to the board of directors in 1973. He is active in the Rotary Club and other civic affairs. He and his wife, Joan and family are members of the First United Methodist Church. They have three daughters, Beverly, 15; Brenda, 13, and Charlotte, 11.

Moore, who has served as vice president since he became associated with First Federal in 1954, is active in the Kiwanis Club here. He and his wife, Pat, and family are members of the 14th and Main Church of Christ. They have two daughters, LaVoy, 13 and Laura, 11.

Local Officer Proves Helpful

Three burglaries were cleared up for the Fort Worth police with the picking up of two juvenile runaways in Big Spring.

Lt. Jim McCain of the city juvenile division said the two youths were only 12 and 14 years old. Three runaways were handled last week by the juvenile division from New Mexico including a 14 year old girl and two youths, 16 and 17. In New Mexico, a 17-year-old is still a juvenile under their state law.

DEATHS

Sally Brown

LAMESA — Mrs. Sally F. Brown, 90 died in a nursing home here Friday morning. Services will be at 2:30 p.m. today in the Brannon Funeral Home Chapel, with J.D. Mabry officiating.

Burial will be in Lamesa Memorial Park. She was a native of Dallas County, and had lived in Comanche County 27 years before moving to Lamesa about 18 months ago.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Cleo Bay of Odessa, Mrs. Lois Rice of Lovington, N.M. and Mrs. Mary Harp of Lamesa; a son, Claude of Wink; a half brother, Buster Hurst of Abilene; nine grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Oattie Lee

Services for Mrs. Oattie Mae Lee, 65, mother of Theron Lee, director of continuing education at Howard College, will be held at 2 p.m. today in the First Baptist Church at Ralls. The pastor, the Rev. Dale Cain, will officiate, and burial will be at Ralls with Carter Funeral Home in charge.

Mrs. Lee, who had been making her home here with her son at 2501 Central Drive, was DOA Thursday evening at a Ralls hospital after becoming ill while eating.

She was a native of Hill County and was a retired motel owner. With her husband, the late Lewis T. Lee, who died in July 1972, she lived in Lubbock from 1929-47, in Clovis, N.M. to 1959 and from that time until recently at Aransas Pass.

Surviving are two sons, Theron Lee, Big Spring, and Don Lee, Dayton, Ohio; one daughter, Mrs. Leon London, Farwell; three brothers, Jack Henry, Lorenzo, Alvin Henry, Cleveland, Tenn., and Dub Henry, Morton; four sisters, Mrs. Gladys Howard, Crosbyton, Mrs. Zonelle Myers, Borger, Mrs. Hazel Smith, Ralls, Mrs. Masine Thornton, Killen; three grandchildren.

10-Car Train Pretty Fast

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — A 10-car train will speed 80 miles per hour through a 3.6 mile underwater tube today, inaugurating the final link in the country's most advanced rapid transit system.

The Bay Area Rapid Transit system is expected to have no trouble making the inaugural run in under five minutes with a load of 1,000 dignitaries, nor in providing limited service this weekend on the final link between Oakland and San Francisco.

Completion of the tunnel under San Francisco Bay, the last link in the 71-mile transit system, may in fact further multiply transit problems for some commuters.

Greyhound bus lines has announced a 10 per cent cutback in Contra Costa County service because of the tube opening.

Sinatra Wins, Pal Must Pay

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Singer Frank Sinatra won a victory in a $2.5 million federal court suit against him, but jurors ordered a close friend of the entertainer to pay damages.

Plaintiff Frank Weinstock, an insurance man from Salt Lake City who claimed he was beaten by two men on orders from Sinatra, was awarded $101,000 Friday in a judgment against restaurateur Jilly Rizzo.

A U.S. District Court jury of three men and three women deliberated six hours before clearing Sinatra of any blame for a fight between Weinstock and Rizzo and another Sinatra acquaintance, Jerome Arvenitas.

Politically Inevitable?

BRETTON WOODS, N.H. (AP) — The newly elected president of the American Bar Association says he was surprised that former President Richard M. Nixon was pardoned, but he said it was inevitable.

"It was politically inevitable, humanely inevitable, and just inevitable," James D. Fellers said in an interview on Friday. Fellers, here to address the Vermont Bar Association, said he was speaking only as "Jim Fellers, a lawyer from Oklahoma City."

Recall Eyedrop

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Food and Drug Administration has announced the recall of Prefrin-Z, an eyedrop, because some cartons were filled incorrectly with Ophthalmic, an eye anesthetic.

The FDA said the bottles of Ophthalmic were correctly labeled as such, but the recall was initiated by Allergan of Irvine, Calif., the manufacturer.

13 New Staff Members Hired At VA Hospital

By TROY BRYANT

The Big Spring Veterans' Administration Hospital this week announced the hiring of 13 new staff members, including six full and part time doctors, three department heads and four staffers.

The new staff members are replacing other staffers who have retired or have been transferred.

Dr. Thomas Peyton Walton III, is the new Chief of Surgical Services at the Hospital.

He is a native of Archer, Florida and received his M.D. from the Tulane University School of Medicine. He also served as Assistant Professor of Surgery at the LSU School of Medicine.

He served with the Army Air Corp in World War II as a combat bombardier.

MEDICAL DEGREE—He is certified by the American Board of Surgery and is a Fellow of American College of Surgeons.

Dr. Byung H. Lee, a native of Korea, is a new Staff Physician at the VA Hospital. He received his medical degree from National Sun-Yat Sen University in Canton, China and is a naturalized U.S. citizen.

He served his internship at Loma Linda University in California and has had experience in the Kankakee State Hospital in Illinois, Beatty Memorial Hospital in Westville, Indiana and the Benton Harbor Hospital in Michigan.

Dr. James I. Shelton, DDS has been named Assistant

Chief of Dental Service at the hospital.

The Baylor University Graduate came to Big Spring from the Temple VA Center where he began in 1973 with the Veterans' Administration.

NATIVE OF SPAIN—Dr. Jose R. Becerra joined the VA Hospital staff and is Assistant Professor, Department of Medicine, Division of Endocrinology at the Texas Tech Medical School.

He serves on the staff here part time. He is a native of Ferrol, Spain and received his degree in medicine from the Universidad de Santiago. He finished his internship at Fundacion Jimenez-Diaz in Madrid and the Mercy Hospital in Des Moines, Iowa.

Dr. Glen Harry Stanbough, Assistant Professor, Department of Medicine, Division of Nephrology at the Texas Tech School of Medicine, is a new addition to the VA Hospital Staff as a part time staffer.

He lives in Lubbock, and received his medical degree from the University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston.

MAYO CLINIC—Rod G. Tank is the new physical therapist at the hospital and is a graduate of the University of Nebraska. He is a registered physical therapist and joined the VA system in August. He received training at the Mayo Clinic Physical Therapy School in Rochester, Minn., and the University of Bridgeport in Bridgeport, Conn.

Mrs. Verona I. Riegel, R.N. is the new Chief of Nursing Services at the VA Hospital.

She is a native of Gretna, Va. and received her degree in nursing from the University of Virginia.

She came here from the VA Center in Mountain Home, Tenn.

REGISTERED—Jerry B. Gault is the new Chief of Pharmacy.

He has been a registered pharmacist in Texas since 1965, with degrees from Kilgore College and the University of Houston.

He entered the Veterans Administration in 1964 and has served in Veterans' Hospitals in Coral Gables and Miami, Florida and served in a Veterans' Clinic in Los Angeles, Calif.

Kenneth R. Johnson, Lorraine, has been named Staff Pharmacist.

He is a native of Sweetwater and received his B.S. degree from McMurry College and his b.s.p. degree from the University of Texas School of Pharmacy in Austin.

He is a member of the American and Texas Pharmaceutical Associations and is a member of the Masonic Lodge and Shrine.

SUPPLY CHIEF—George H. Tarpley has been named Chief of Supply.

He entered the Veterans' Administration in 1953 and during those 21 years, he has served hospitals and clinics in seven different states.

He is a native of Cooper, Texas and served as an airplane mechanic in the Army Air Corp in World War II.

Pennye L. Lewis has been added to the VA Hospital as a social worker. She transferred from the New Orleans VA Hospital and received her Masters Social Worker degree from Tulane University in New Orleans.

V. Dale Freeman is the new corrective therapist on the hospital staff, transferring from Shreveport, La. He entered the VA in 1961 and has served at the Dallas VA Hospital.

He is expected to bring on a serious economic recession.

told Ford on Wednesday they favor an easing of credit and interest rates, as did many of the economists who met him in another pre-summit meeting a week earlier.

Republicans should endorse a one-cent cut in the sales tax, the GOP candidate for governor told a platform committee meeting Saturday in advance of the state party convention.

WATERGATE—"This would be an across the board reduction and would give relief to all citizens of the stat," said Jim Granberry, a former mayor of Lubbock who seeks to oust incumbent Democrat Gov. Dolph Briscoe in November.

"This would provide about $280 million in relief," Granberry said, noting later that a $1.5 billion surplus is expected.

He spoke at the pre-convention temporary platform and resolutions committee hearing.

The temporary committee will present its hearing record Tuesday to a permanent committee elected by the 3,000 delegates to the convention and any resolutions will be voted upon by the entire delegation Tuesday in the one-day convention.

The platform committee was urged by Granberry to devote their work to state issues and leave national concerns alone.

Granberry said in the 14 months he has been campaigning for governor, time and again the first question asked him is about Watergate and other national issues.

ROCKY ROAD—"National issues were obscuring the state issues," he said. "This is a state convention. Our responsibility is to speak to the state issues so the people of this state can focus on the needs of the State of Texas."

He told the News that presidential counsel Philip W. Buchen had misled him about the pardon, which caused him to give false information to newsmen. Without giving details, he said he had been misled twice before on different topics by different staff members.

In his column, terHorst wrote that Haig and his associates were not used to Ford's style, which he described as open and candid and not given to being impressed by lengthy memos and position papers.

He entered the Veterans' Administration in 1953 and during those 21 years, he has served hospitals and clinics in seven different states.

Inflation Fight Lost This Year

WASHINGTON (AP)

With production down and prices still going up, some labor leaders, members of Congress and outside economists are pressuring the government to change its anti-inflation policies.

Top Ford administration economists have admitted the government has lost the battle against inflation this year, and that prices will be rising at or near a 10 per cent rate by the end of 1974.

They continue to advocate policies of tight money and spending restraint as the ways to control inflation in the long run.

Senate Democrats have announced plans for their own hearings to determine the causes of inflation, an obvious slap at the series of inflation summit meetings called by President Ford.

The Democrats, meeting in a caucus Thursday, also asked Ford to include several items on his economic summit agenda, including an eased monetary policy.

Democrats have expressed growing concern that the tight credit and high interest rate policies of the Federal Reserve Board have had little effect on inflation, but are hurting the housing industry and could bring on a serious economic recession.

Top labor leaders told Ford on Wednesday they favor an easing of credit and interest rates, as did many of the economists who met him in another pre-summit meeting a week earlier.

'GOVERNOR'S CONVENTION' Party Platform Plans

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)

Texas Democrats will meet Tuesday for a party platform convention that shows every sign of being the "governor's convention" that Gov. Dolph Briscoe has asked.

Outspoken leaders of certain party factions tried to build a fire for a "people's convention" that would give the more say in the Kansas City national convention in December.

But as members of the important Credentials Committee gathered for Sunday and Monday hearings, it appeared Briscoe had the situation well in hand.

IMPORTANT CHANGES—The Democratic Party of Texas must continually strive to assure full, open and broad-based involvement by all of its constituents in the election process, the convention process and in all the affairs of the party, Briscoe said in a peace statement issued Friday.

At the same time he proposed that the next State Democratic Executive Committee, whose members will be named by Tuesday's convention, have two new vice-chairpersons—"one for minority affairs and one for youth affairs."

Briscoe also said the Black caucus and the Mexican-American caucus will each be asked to recommend delegates for the Kansas City convention where important changes in national party rules will be made. Naming the 98 Texas delegates to Kansas City Dec. 6-8 is another duty of Tuesday's convention.

downtown Austin hotel. The $25 per person admission includes cocktails, a buffet supper and a contribution to the state party.

The state convention proper begins at 10 a.m. Tuesday when more than 5,400 delegates crowd into the Austin Municipal auditorium with alternate delegates and guests taking up any empty space.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER—State Democratic Chairman Calvin Guest will be the temporary chairman.

Briscoe will be the keynote speaker.

Briscoe's conservative and moderate forces claim they can control the convention, with considerable help from friends of Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D-Tex. and George Wallace, both p residential possibilities in 1976.

Briscoe also has the at least temporary support of Texas AFL-CIO leaders.

Mrs. Billie Carr, a National Democratic Committee member from Texas, has been a leader in the "open party caucus" that tried to organize opposition to Briscoe.

The Steers are beginning to get gridiron followers to stand up and take notice of the 1974 edition as Friday's results end up in the win column.

Even though census of opinion had it figured a no sell-out for Hobbs, I thought the attendance spoke for itself. A sell-out could be in the making when Abilene docks here, Oct. 4.

Helen Hughes, third member of the tri-captain formation of the Big Spring Quarterback Club stopped by The Herald sports desk Friday.

Mrs. Hughes is doing all she can to encourage people to attend QB club meetings. So without further fanfare here's the schedule.

A door prize will be awarded Tuesday to both men and women attending the QB get-together. The meeting starts at 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria. Attendance was up 65 of the previous week's meeting.

Bob Burris always ready to help in boosting QB interest will have a football referee present. He will explain the new rules and penalty signals.

Burris and his assistants will also show films of the Hobbs game plus a complete scouting report of this week's opponent, Snyder.

Talked to Allen Davis over the phone. He decided to turn thumbs down on a SMU scholarship.

Allen said he drove to the Southern Methodist campus Aug. 18, stayed a week, then packed his bags. He's now working out with the Howard College basketball team.

The Big Spring High product started he was recruited as a punter. But there changes can be made. He was to have been used as a scouting quarterback. That consists of using next week's opponent's formations and inviting the varsity to read them.

Allen stated he broke his wrist in high school doing the same thing, scout team quarterback. It still bothers him, so he decided to give up the scholarship.

Allen's dad, Harold Davis incidentally is ranked among the latest NJCAA winningest coach list. Mr. Davis who is no longer active in the coaching field compiled over 11 years, 218 wins and 118 losses.

Football admirers from the three Odessa high schools have purchased 5,713 season tickets for the 15 games scheduled there. A total of 4,401 Permian fans bought season ducats this campaign, compared to 3,852 last year.

Season ticket holders at Odessa High is up 217, from 1,065 to 1,282. Thirty Ector High fans currently hold season tickets as compared to 22 in 1973. Overall season ticket records for 1973 showed 3,449 for Permian, Odessa, 693, and Ector, 19.

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Joe Lovitto keyed a five-run fourth inning with a run-scoring single and later hit his second home run of the season, leading the Texas Rangers to an 8-3 victory over the Oakland A's Saturday night.

The victory brought the Rangers within four games of the first place A's in the American League's West Division. The clubs, which meet in the finale of their three-game series Sunday night, both have 15 games remaining in the season.

Jackie Brown, 12-12, scattered seven hits for the victory, striking out five and walking one.

Oakland led 3-1 before the Rangers' fourth-inning rally.

Hawks Record Team Honors

Coach Jerry Dudley's Howard College golf team competed in WJCC competition Friday and Saturday.

On Friday the Hawks took team honors at Borger's Huber County Club with a 292. Scott Wood led off with a 70, followed by Danny Garvin, 71, Tony Takitani, 75, Bob Blackerby, 76.

Howard College placed third Saturday at Clarendon County. Hawks' Wood was medalist with a 68, followed by Garvin, 70, Takitani, 73, Blackerby, 77.

Jimmy Stewart of Big Spring fired a 72 for New Mexico Junior College.

The Results
Saturday — NJCC, 283; Odessa, 284; Howard College, 288; Western Texas, 290; Amarillo, 291; Midland, 295; South Plains, 299; NMJC, 309; Frank Phillips, 311; Clarendon, 338.

Cowboys Go To Atlanta

ATLANTA (AP) — Roger Staubach, who missed two preseason games because of cracked ribs, is scheduled to return to the starting lineup Sunday when the Dallas Cowboys tangle with Atlanta in a National Football League opener.

The Cowboys will be seeking their ninth straight season opening conquest in the 4 p.m. EDT battle which is a 58,850 sellout in Atlanta Stadium.

Dallas is a slight favorite in the game, but the Falcons are given their best shot ever at whipping the Cowboys. Dallas has won all four previous meetings between the teams, the last a 13-0 victory four years ago.

The Cowboys expect a few more injured players to be ready after a 3-3 record in preseason action, including a whopping 15 loss to Pittsburgh in their last start.

Atlanta rolled to a 4-2 mark in the exhibition campaign.

Sooners Manage To Collect Win

By The Associated Press

Mighty Oklahoma, the nation's top-ranked college football team, needed a fourthquarter offensive burst to beat stubborn Baylor 28-11 Saturday, while Alabama, rated No. 3, required some final-period defensive heroics to edge Maryland 21-16.

Oklahoma, heavily favored against undermanned Baylor, pushed the Bears all around the field for the first three quarters, but managed only a 7-5 lead because of numerous fumbles. Then, in the final period, the Sooners stopped fumbling and scored three times, once on a nine-yard run by fleet Joe Washington, who finished with 156 yards on 17 carries—better than a nine-yard average.

Oklahoma finished with 554 yards gained running and passing to Baylor's total of 221; but the Sooners' dominance was not evident on the scoreboard until the fourth quarter.

Alabama, also an overwhelming favorite, built an early 14-0 lead against Maryland on touchdown runs of seven and 73 yards by Calvin Culiver, but needed a fumble recovery, intercepted pass and a fake punt in the final period to ward off the fired-up Terrapins.

Meanwhile, fourth-ranked Ohio State whipped Minnesota 34-19, No. 6 Michigan downed Iowa 24-7, seventh-rated Nebraska overpowered Oregon 61-7, and eighth-ranked Penn State held off Stanford, tied for 20th, 24-20, in a nationally televised game.

Several of the nation's other highly regarded teams played Saturday night. No. 5 Southern California faced Arkansas, tied for 20th, at Little Rock, Ark.; ninth-ranked Louisiana State entertained Colorado, and 10th-rated Texas was at Boston College. 2nd-rated Notre Dame was not scheduled to play.

Archie Griffin, a junior, set an Ohio State career rushing record in leading the Buckeyes past Minnesota in a Big Ten Conference game.

Griffin, who scored once on a 10-yard run, broke loose for 133 yards on 26 carries, increasing his career total to 2,577 yards.

Quarterback Cornelius Greene, another junior, passed and ran for 213 yards and scored twice for Ohio State.

Quarterback Mark Elzinga, substituting for ailing Dennis Franklin, tossed a 10-yard touchdown pass to Gil Chapman and ran one yard for another TD in pacing Michigan's victory over Iowa in another Big Ten game. It was Michigan's 30th consecutive victory at home.

Nebraska used quarterback David Humm's two touchdown passes and one scoring run plus its vaunted "blackshirt" defense in smothering Oregon 17-3.

Isaac climaxed a 74-yard drive after the opening kickoff with his first touchdown after he made three key first down runs on the drive.

Isaac again moved the Red Raiders into scoring position on their next possession before Duniven passed to tight end Pat Felix for 11 yards and a touchdown with 9:07 left in the first half.

In between Tech's first half touchdowns Iowa State's Tom Goedjen climaxed a 61-yard drive with a 32-second left in the first quarter.

Texas Tech fullback John Garner also had a good night in the Red Raiders' balanced attack. His 33-yard run to the Iowa State four in the third quarter set up a 23-yard field goal by Brian Hall, who kicks with an artificial foot, to make the score 17-3.

Duniven completed nine of 12 passes for 76 yards and rushed for 36 more.

Duniven led the Red Raiders to touchdowns on their first two possessions in the first half on long, ball-controlled drives that totaled almost 15 minutes.

Isaac climaxed a 74-yard drive after the opening kickoff with his first touchdown after he made three key first down runs on the drive.

Jets Vs. Chiefs In NFL Opener

KANSAS CITY (AP)

Joe Namath and Len Dawson, two old pros and great passers, will battle each other in Sunday's National Football League regular season opener between the New York Jets and the Kansas City Chiefs.

The game will be on national television (NBC) and starts at 3:05 p.m. CDT.

Namath, beginning his 10th pro season, is anxious to guide the Jets back into the limelight after they finished 1973 with a disappointing 4-10 record.

Dawson, now in his 18th campaign, is healthy and ready to go. He missed eight games last season, the opener and the final seven tests as the Chiefs wound up 7-5-2 a year ago. Dawson played in three preseason games and had a .696 completion average.

Charles Winner will be making his debut in a regular season game as the new coach of the Jets.

Kansas City had a 33 record in exhibition play and New York 24.

Buffaloes Grab Second Victory

WINK — Stanton's Buffaloes ran roughshod over the Wink Wildcats, 35-14, here Friday night, thereby achieving their second win of the 1974 season.

The Buffaloes scored in the opening round when Bill Howard raced three yards across the double stripes. The try for point failed.

In the second, Vernon Brown sprinted eight yards for another Stanton score.

Johnny Gonzales added to the Stanton aggregate later in the second on a 55-yard aerial bomb from Howard. Howard's pass to Darrell Christian accounted for two extra points and Stanton carried a 20-0 lead into the dressing room at halftime.

In the third, Howard and Gonzales hooked up on still another pass, this one good for 66 yards and six points. Brown barreled across for the two extra points and Stanton's lead mounted to 27-0.

Howard sought out Joe Hernandez with another aerial thrust, covering 10 yards for Stanton's final tally. Gordon Eiland kicked for Stanton's final point of the evening.

Wink waited until the fourth to score its touchdowns and both came largely against reserves.

Marshall Helping Dodgers

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mike Marshall has earned his niche in the game of baseball that had its inception in the 19th century.

His long sideburns and mustache are reminiscent of the way some players looked decades ago. His pitching and philosophies are current, perhaps even ahead of their time.

For the past two years, Marshall has pitched in more than any other major league pitcher. Barring an injury, he will appear in more than 100 this season, and his performances could put the Los Angeles Dodgers in the World Series.

Marshall holds a master's degree and is working on his doctorate; he teaches in the offseason and says he prefers education to baseball. His knowledge of the physical science called kinesiology has been applied to his pitching and to his teaching at Michigan State University.

He has said he applies his knowledge of kinesiology to pitching the screwball, which he can make move in more than one direction, and to his conditioning.

He also has said he could not begin to describe his program because it would be meaningless to people like sportswriters who lack an education in physiology. Kinesiology by definition is the science dealing with the interrelationship of the physiological processes and anatomy of the human body with respect to movement. Using that hard-to-understand terminology and the knowledge it carries with it, Marshall has determined what his body muscles can do most effectively.

Marshall refuses to talk to most newsmen, saying they will put their own interpretation to what he says.

Imperial Wins 14-0

ACKERLY — Buena Vista High School of Imperial blanked the Sands Mustangs, 14-0, here Friday night, evening Sand's record at 1-1.

Touchdowns in the second and third period swung the issue Imperial's way.

Jim Powell scored for Imperial in the second quarter on a three-yard run. Imperial took to the air on the extra point try but failed.

In the third, Jack McDonald scored Imperial's second TD on a one-yard plunge, after which Powell powered across for the two extra points.

Sands couldn't hold onto the ball, coughing it up three times on fumbles. Imperial did even worse, yielding possible on four occasions.

Raleigh Morton raced two yards for Wink's first score and a pass from Terry McIver to Bobby Hawkins covered 65 yards for the second.

McIver powered over for Wink's conversion and two points.

Eagles Over Bearcats

GARDEN CITY — The Sterling City Eagles struck three lightning blows in the first quarter here Friday and defeated the Garden City Bearcats 28-0.

Sterling City, in District 3-B, is an 11-man team, while Garden City plays in District 1-B eight man during the regular season.

Sterling City is 1-0, Garden City is 0-2.

Sterling City lost little time in mounting a 60 yard drive in the opening frame with Kenneth Gaston going over from the four. The attempt to run over the extra point failed.

When Sterling City again got the ball, Jeff Copeland turned a dive play into a 45-yard TD and Russell Davis ran over the two extra points. Before the quarter was out, Copeland climaxed a relentless ground drive with a 10-yd. TD. The point try failed.

The Bearcats, shaken by events, settled down on defense and allowed only one other score, a second quarter 45-yard punt return by Russell Davis, who saw momentary daylight and streaked to it. The point try failed.

Garden City couldn't get anything going in the way of sustained drive.

Sterling City piled up 456 total yards, mostly on the ground, and Garden City 183, also principally overland. Sterling City had 14 first downs, Garden City 6. Sterling completed five of eight passes for minor yardage, Garden City 4 of 13 for small yardage.

Garden City entertains the Iraan B team here Thursday evening.

Williamson Loses Job

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "The Hammer" has apparently gotten the ax.

Fred "The Hammer" Williamson has been fired from his job as a commentator on ABC's Monday night pro football telecasts, industry sources said Friday.

Williamson, on location in nearby San Pedro filming "The Rookies," could not be reached for comment. In an interview with the St. Petersburg Times last week, Williamson said: "It's obvious to everyone that there are problems, but the fault is not mine."

Wildcats Defeated

The Loop Longhorns laid it out on the Grady Wildcats, 38-0, at Loop Friday evening, thanks to an early blitz.

Danny Lelly did the Wildcats in with three TD scapers, one for a yard climax in an early first-quarter drive, then another minutes later for 46 yards with Daniel Frazier adding the points.

Early in the second, he broke loose for seven yards to score, and Rod Hand added the 2-point conversion. Hand slipped through four yards and a third-quarter TD, then added two points on the conversion.

Ronnie Armstrong closed out the Loop scoring in the fourth, while Leonard Nail added the final two points.

Dannie Lozano whipped a 28-TD pass to J.C. Tunnell for Grady's only score, which came in the fourth. The conversion try was unsuccessful. Daniel Crow turned in a good defensive game.

This is Grady's first year in football, and fumbles hurt the Wildcats. Grady goes to Wellman Friday for a third game. This year all of its games will be away from home because the Grady field is not yet in shape.

Lamesa Wins 12-0

LAMESA — Lamesa's Golden Tornadoes scored twice in the final period to decision Denver City, 12-0, here Friday night.

Fullback Melvin Robinson barreled over from the one for Lamesa's first score.

A pass from QB Danny Flannagan to halfback Jay Newbrough, good for 14 yards, set up the tally. The try for point failed.

The Tornadoes capitalized on a Denver City error to add the insurance tally. Eddy Pearson intercepted a Mustang aerial and ran it in from 85 yards away. The PAT attempt again went awry.

Lamesa made 14 first downs, 180 yards rushing and 20 yards passing.

Denver City added up eight down renewals, 76 yards rushing and 112 through the air.

Score by quarters:

Cougars Score

KLONDIKE — Forsan's coach, Jack Klondike, gave his junior varsity a good workout and Klondike's Cougars got a rare adventure in 11-man football here Friday night.

Klondike won the game, 52-14. Forsan scored another touchdown that was wiped out by a penalty.

The Buffaloes scored their first touchdown in the second when sophomore A. J. Stanley, a halfback, raced 15 yards. QB Craig Clark, a freshman, and Stanley combined to set up the score on a pass play that covered 30 yards. The PAT try failed.

In the third, Forsan scored again when Clark flipped a pass to junior end Billy Banks, good for 15 yards. The play culminated a long drive.

Forsan got on the board for the final time in the fourth when junior tackle Mark Glass tackled a Klondike back in the end zone.

In the fourth, Gary Martin scored for Forsan on a 50-yard pass and run play but the touchdown was negated by an infraction.

Sophomore Hank Adams, a fullback, looked especially good on offense and at linebacker on defense for Forsan.

Woodley took 23 boys with him on the trip. The Forsan varsity troops go to Imperial, now 1-0-1, next Friday. Imperial defeated Sands, 20-0, Friday night.

Mustangs Pick Up Decision

SWEETWATER — QB Jeff Teel led the Sweetwater Mustangs to a decisive 41-13 victory over Colorado City here Friday night.

Teel scored four touchdowns on runs of four, six, 33 and one yards.

Colorado City didn't get on the board until the third period, when Steve Bolin bruised over from the three. A 50-yard pass play from QB Gene Banks to Dan Smith set up the Wolves' score, carrying to the three. Bolin went over on a fourth-down play.

In the fourth, Banks passed to Pete Selvera for six yards and Colorado City's second TD.

Sweetwater's top gainer was Willie Marshall, who wound up with 86 yards.

Santiago Bugarian and Marshall counted the other TDs for the Mustangs, who confined all their scoring to the first three periods.

Each of the teams now has a 1-1 won-lost record.

The Mustangs had 14 first downs to nine for Colorado City, 260 yards rushing to 103 for the Wolves and 54 passing on four completions to 95 on six completions for the losers.

Sweetwater 21 7-13 0-41

Colorado City 0 0 7 6-13

McCormick Top Runner

ODESSA — Ricky McCormick of Big Spring High won the two-mile cross country race here Friday. He ran the course in 9:55.

Teammate Kim Wrinkle, junior placed seventh with a 10:22 recording.

McCormick won the district mile event last year. Teams competing besides Big Spring were Odessa, Permian, Midland High and Abilene Cooper.

FANS HELP OUT

Nebraska Investments Pay Off

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Many Nebraska fans want highpowered, first-class, big-time college football. Some are willing to pay for it, and lately their investment has paid off.

The way they play football at the University of Nebraska resembles a business operation. And the success produced on the field in the past decade has been reflected elsewhere.

In that period there have been a pair of National Championships. The stadium has been expanded four times, raising seating capacity to 76,000 from 31,000. To help produce a lavish, $550,000 press box, more than 300 of the fans who support this football team contributed $10,000 each.

These are indications of what has happened to the Nebraska Cornhuskers football team as it enters its 85th year of competition.

Here are some of the things success has bred:

—When Oregon took to the AstroTurf of Lincoln's Memorial Stadium on Saturday, they faced the 68th consecutive home sellout here. "We don't sell tickets, we ration them," says ticket manager Jim Pittenger.

In 1961-62, the university spent $760,000 on athletics and lost $70,000 in the process. Last year, it spent in excess of $3 million, and showed a profit of more than $200,000. Football expenditures alone were $24 million, which was $555,000 less than the football program brought it.

Last year's football income was enough to sustain losses in basketball, track, baseball, swimming and five other intercollegiate sports and still give the school a profit in the sports program.

The 100 or so scholarships cost between $10,000 and $15,000 each over four years. Six of the 11 full-time assistant coaches make $20,000 a year. Nearly $100,000 a year is spent to recruit.

The school claims it has yet to spend the first tax dollar.

In 1961, Nebraska's football team was just another program going nowhere. Then Bob Devaney came along.

"When you're talking about the program, you're talking about Devaney," says Cletus Fischer, for 15 years a Nebraska assistant coach. "He went to every little town in the state that ever asked him, and some of them that didn't."

Devaney says when he came to Nebraska he could sense an attitude of mediocrity and believed that "in order to get the guys to believe they could do anything, we had to beat somebody that was really good."

That somebody was Michigan, beaten by Nebraska 25-13 in the second game of 1962.

Thus started the string of sellouts, which continue. Thus started success at Nebraska, continued until 1973 by Devaney as he compiled a 136-90-6 record, won six bowl games and eight Big Eight titles.

The secret? "We recruited real hard," said Devaney. "We never had to fire a coach. I tried to do two things: give them all the responsibility possible and pay them. For awhile, we had the highest paid coaching staff in the country."

Devaney, now the athletic director, makes $37,200. His coaching successor, Tom Osborne, is paid $26,000 and makes more from a weekly television show. He wouldn't say how much more.

Osborne, who had a 9-2-1 record and a bowl victory last year in his first season at the helm, says the football program makes an effort to be concerned with each individual in it.

"We felt college football is good for the characters of the majority of the players," he said, pointing out that an unusually high percentage—85 to 90—of his players earn a degree.

Osborne estimates Nebraska's recruiting program costs between $70,000 and $85,000 a year. This university is not among the ones which have been disciplined for cheating in those areas, and school officials say they follow the rules.

"You shouldn't have to lower yourself to any illegal recruiting," says defensive coach Monte Kiffin, who acknowledges that a host of recruiting problems exist in college football.

Debbie Baker was chosen president of fourth period. Additional officers include Debbie Maxwell-vice president; Barbara Brown-secretary; and Tammy O'Dell-treasurer.

Sponsor of the HERO organization is Ms. Nancy Annen.

Economic Summit

DALLAS (AP)—A day-long session on the nation's economic preliminary to President Ford's major conference Sept. 27-18 will be held at Southern Methodist University Monday.

The object of the conferences—the one here—will be one of it is to seek information which could lead the country out of the morass of inflation and other economic ills.

The Dallas session will be presided over by Interior Secretary Rogers Morton.

The meetings at the Student Center are open to the public and citizens are urged to contribute written statements. Secretary Morton will make the opening address, followed by representatives of the Council of Economic Advisers and the office of Management and Budget.

Thereafter those attending will hold separate conferences on oil and gas, coal and electric power, minerals and materials and on recreation and the environment.

After lunch delegates will reassemble to hear reports from the separate conferences.

Stanton Discuss Plans

By MINDY HAILSLIP

The Future Teachers of America met this week to discuss plans for the coming year and swear in new officers.

Officers for the 1974-75 school year are Karen Anderson, pres.; Gordon Elland, v. pres.; Karla Gregg, sec.; and Brenda Ringener, treas. Miss Sue Walker will be acting as sponsor for the group.

The group discussed the need for fund-raising projects to allow the group to attend the FTA state convention in the spring following the district convention to be held this fall.

Delegates to this convention will be selected through a point system. Participation in club activities will be the means of gaining points and making members eligible for selection as delegates.

Committees were appointed to oversee various club activities. These include designing and constructing an entry in the float competition for the homecoming parade and the raising and lowering of the flag at each home football game. Additional responsibilities include planning of programs for presentation at club meetings and the announcement of the FTAer and teacher of the month, selected by the members of the club.

Another new addition to the Stanton High faculty is Miss Linda Dudley. Originally from Wink, she is a 1974 graduate of Sul Ross with a B. S. degree in physical education.

Miss Dudley teaches English II, speech, drama, P.E., and is in charge of the girls' basketball program. She is also acting as sponsor for the cheerleaders and pep squad as well as the drama club.

Forsan Homecoming Scheduled

By DOROTHY BANKS

Last Tuesday, a Student council meeting was conducted at the noon hour. Details of the meeting included the voting on next year's assemblies, the discussion of a smoking area for student and plans for Homecoming.

Homecoming is scheduled for Oct. 11 but other details have yet to be worked out. That will be the principal topic at the next Student Council meeting.

Mr. Poyner, Forsan principal, talked to the seniors at a class meeting held the past Tuesday. The main subject of the talk was about the ACT test. There was also some discussion about magazine sales and the annual Senior trip.

The Juniors met the same day. The class, it was disclosed, has gone over the half-way point in their magazine sales' objective. The sale will be concluded next Tuesday.

The Junior class also set dues for the year at $10. Half of that amount is due by Oct. 15. A 50 cent charge will be exacted for late payers.

Tote bags for the Buffalo Band uniforms arrived Wednesday. The tote bags includes the individual and the picture of the school mascot, the Buffalo. Price for these bags is $6.75. First meeting of the band council took place after school Friday.

Rehearsals for "Cheaper by the Dozen," the fall play this year are already in progress. It will be staged Oct. 8 in the high school auditorium.

Two students were chosen as new members to serve on the school's Annual staff. They are Sheryl Fraley, a junior, and Ernie Morgan, a freshman. Present members are Oscar Boeker, sponsor; Dorothy Banks, editor; Ginger Dittmore and Theresa West, co-editors; Terry Fryar and Kevin Hocker, photographers.

The Buffalos' Junior Varsity met the Klondike Cougars Friday at Klondike. Next game for the Forsan varsity team will be a Imperial at 8 p.m., Sept. 20.

WESTBROOK First Meeting Held For Members Of FHA

By MARY MARTINEZ

The Colorado City Record photographer was at Westbrook School Friday, Sept. 6 and took pictures of the class officers and student council representatives.

Wednesday, Sept. 11, The Westbrook FHA Chapter had its first meeting of the year. The meeting was called to order by President Brenda Matlock. The FHA Creed was repeated in union by all members. Evie Duran had row call and the reading of the minutes. A treasurer's report was given by Mary Martinez.

All new officers were introduced and a warm welcome was extended to all freshmen. The girls were reminded to bring all calendars back and not to forget to pay their dues.

A FHA Beau was chosen but the name is being concealed by the girls. At the first pep rally the boy's name will be announced. The FFA Sweetheart will also be announced at that time.

L.M. Dawson talked to the chapter about the possible new changes in this year's Dallas trip.

Pandora Moore, vice-president, whose duty is to put out the FHA Yearbook asked for volunteers to be on the Yearbook Committee. Carolyn Hubbard, Julie Sweett, and Mary Martinez volunteered. Refreshments were served.

Wednesday all coaches and superintendents went to Ira for a meeting. They discussed the 1974-75 basketball season.

During 3rd period, Thursday, Mr. Lightfoot, Counselor, will administer group guidance to the Seniors.

Thursday, Sept. 5, the 6th grade went on a field trip to the Texas Electric Power Plant at Lake Colorado City.

They were taken on a tour around the plant and shown slides of different plants in Texas. They were told that if the housewife would use her electric appliance after 8:00 p.m. it would save a lot of energy.

The 6th grade elects a Best Citizen of the Week. The week of Aug. 26-30 Tina Bacon took the honor. Debbie King was Best Citizen for the week, for the week of Sept. 2-6.

1974 graduates attending college include Joyce McDenney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Mc Kenney of Westbrook. She is attending Midland College.

Also Billy Denson is attending Western Texas College in Snyder. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Denson of Star Route, Colorado City.

Steven Hines, son of Mrs. Betty Hines of Westbrook is attending Tarleton State University in Stephenville. Debbie Webb attending Angelo State University Nursing School in San Angelo. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Webb of Westbrook.

Garden City Spurny Selected

By MARTHA DOE

Joe Spurny, senior, has been chosen Student of the Month for Aug. by the Beta Club.

During the annual drive for Unicef, the FHA Chapter collected $37.55. All members are urged to get their dues to $2 paid before the deadline.

This year's officers are: Phyllis Johnson, president; Becky Robinson, vice-president; Martha Dow, 2nd vice-president; Becky Hirt, secretary; Shirley Schwartz, treasurer; Linda Batla, parliamentarian; Jacque Frerich, historian; Linda Chandler, recreation leader; and Cindy Halfmann, reporter. Mrs. Joyce Bergstrom is the club sponsor.

New members initiated into the group are: Evette Coffman, Della Smith, Donna Lister, Rose Hoelscher, Mary Kay Schwartz and Donna Plagens.

The Sophomores discussed showing "old time" movies in the new auditorium as their project for this year.

Sands Future Homemakers explored the concerns of each member on projects and activities for the coming year. They also discussed qualifications that will be required of our FHA Beau. The new FHA Beau is Frosty Floyd.

Post Office Nostalgia

STOCKTON, Calif. (AP)—

A bit of nostalgia dating back to the 1930s greets patrons stepping into Stockton's new midcity post office. The nostalgia is evidenced by installation of a partition holding windows and letter drops which was salvaged from a recently closed post office.

It is built of rare golden oak and dates back to 1932. It was originally in Nevada before being moved to Stockton.

Runnels Rally Held First Pep

By JONI CLINE

The Student Council officers, Council representatives and alternate met during the week. The different ideas on the upcoming events were discussed. The Student Council has 20 representatives and 20 alternates.

Runnels Chess Club met Tuesday. There are approximately 20 members. Elections will be held on a later date.

The Runnels Band held its monthly poster contest. Winner was Buddy Slaughter.

The new students coming to Runnels Junior High this week are La Nell Hayward from Fort Worth, Rhonda Lee Persinger from El Paso, and Jackie Long from Mineral Wells, Texas. Welcome to all.

Girls seventh grade choir officers are president, Maria Jackson; Vice President, Arva Jones; secretary, Isabel Rodriguez; treasurer, Kim Thomas; reporter, Gaylene Bruton; section leaders Wendy Lane, Katy Hought and Arva Jones. Boys seventh grade choir president is Oscar James; vice president, Pepper Sullivan; secretary, Alvin Franks; treasurer, Wilber Grant. Section leaders are Ricky Davidson, Tracy Pruitt and Danny Crosby.

GRADY Pictures Taken

By JANA WOOD

Thursday, Sept. 12 at 3:30 p.m., members of the Senior Class met at the Hollis Studio in Midland to have their pictures made. They also ordered their invitations from Mr. Freeman. The Junior class met at the same time to order their senior rings.

Tuesday, the Annual staff held its regular meeting.

Thursday was the first junior high pep rally. The junior high had a scrimmage at Klondike at 4:30 p.m.

Friday, during Activity Period, the high school students gathered for a pep rally. A skit was performed by Miss Pennington, Mrs. Reynolds, and Mrs. Sins. The Grady Wildcats played at Loop Friday night. A booster bus, for those needing a ride to the game, was taken to the game.

Boy Scouts Settled Dust

FAIRFAX, Calif. (AP)—When a builder proposed tennis courts in this area, he immediately received protests from residents claiming the construction work would cause too much dust and noise. He had a ready response.

He pointed out that there would be very little grading necessary because Boy Scouts who had used the area for many years had cleared and established camp sites, making perfect spots for tennis courts.

Venue Change Suit Continues

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The change of venue hearing continued here today in the $11 million suit against Coastal States Gas Co. filed by the Lower Colorado River Authority (LCRA). Tuesday Coastal States presented seven witnesses who testified that the company could not receive a fair trial in Travis County because extensive news coverage has turned public opinion against the company and its subsidiary, Lo-Vaca Gathering Co. Earlier Tuesday LCRA attorney Clint Small voluntarily withdrew from the proceedings. Coastal States attorneys had asked that he be disqualified because he had once represented Coastal States.

World Service Day To Be Observed Here

World Service Day, Oct. 8, will be observed by the Webb-Spring Lions Club with a carnival event. Ten or more games contests and other booths will be set up in the Lakeview YMCA, plus food and drink concessions. Net proceeds from the carnival will go to the club's support of Operation Headstart.

More than a million Lions all over the world will unite on Lions Service Day to serve the needy, lonely, and 37,000 local Lions clubs each will perform some special act service to citizens of their area.

Overtime Pay Talks Slated

A committee meeting to discuss grievances with the union representative concerning employees' overtime claims will be held at 3 p.m. Tuesday in the city manager's office.

The committee includes the city manager, the union representative and two councilmen, Howard Hall and Eddie Acri with Hall named by the mayor as chairman.

Chess Sets, Pool Table, Ping Pong Balls Needed

The Volunteer Services Department at Big Spring State Hospital, continuing their "People Helping People" program, issued an appeal Friday for several items needed for patients at the hospital.

Items needed include large size women's clothing, dresses size 18 or larger and robes and soft house shoes.

Also needed are games such as dominoes, chess sets, checkers, playing cards, ping pong balls, and a good, sturdy pool table.

Due to the rising costs, deodorant and instant coffee are also needed by the volunteers.

Any club or individual interested in donating any of these items can call the Volunteer Services at the State Hospital at 267-8216, ext. 308, and the items will be picked up.

Horoscope

HOROSCOPE

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1974
GENERAL TENDENCIES: A fine Sunday to wind up decision making already under way and to think out your long range plans. Listen to studies of your choice, improve your environment.
ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Do favors for those who have been good to you in the past. Make plans for improvements in the next few weeks.
TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Show more affection for family and friends. Get out to the recreations that relieve tensions. To be early tonight for an early start in a.m.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Ideal day to have a good time with own family and to establish more harmony at home. Plan now to put plans in motion to attain aims.
MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Try to follow your philosophical tenets of the past that were ideal. Enjoy good friends, relatives. Something fine can come of this for the future.
LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Don't get so engrossed in the big interests of your life that you neglect attention to the minute detail that is important for your success.
VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Analyze just how far you have gone toward your most cherished goals and plan how to correct mistakes as well as make progress easier. Attend worldly socials.
LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Study your paper and magazines well for ideas on how to improve your regular routines. Make your home more charming. Take mate to some attractive social.
SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Start wheels rolling in the right direction to get good results for personal aims. Join social group that can help further your side of them. Show mate more devotion and love.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Get into the social work that can help your side of them. Show mate more devotion and love.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Study new ideas and plan for expansion so you get fine results in the company of mates with others of different background.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Quietly think out how to have more harmony with others and get on the good side of them. Show mate more devotion and be less critical.
PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Be sure you discuss a financial matter with an expert before going ahead with your plans. Gentility with mate brings good results.

WANTED 20 HOMES THAT NEED PAINTING

CENTRAL TEXAS — 20 Homeowners in this area will be given the opportunity to have the new United States Steel finish on their homes. It will be of special interest to homeowners who are fed up with costly repainting, for new United States Steel is ideally suited for the Texas climate as it will not mildew, peel, crack, fade or chalk, for the life of the building.

UNITED STATES STEEL finish has been developed after years of extensive research and testing.

UNITED STATES STEEL carries a written 30-year guarantee (labor and materials)—can be applied over any type of home: wood frame, stucco, asbestos or brick. This new U.S. Steel and Vinyl finish has excellent insulating properties which will make the home warmer in cold, damp weather.

U.S. STEEL VYNASOL paneling has been advertised nationally in LOOK and LIFE Magazines. Homeowners who act now will receive special decorative work at no additional cost. Please call collect 915-945-3110 and ask for Mr. Ron Fox. An appointment will be made to see your house with no obligation. Please act at once. Out of town calls welcome.

BIG THREE UP!

G.M., Ford, Chrysler Hike Prices.

DETROIT—To keep up with recent rises in the price of steel, the Big Three auto manufacturers announced new increases on cars and options.

This is GM's seventh price rise since the end of the '73 model year. Increases have included not only the basic vehicle but extra standard equipment, optional equipment and destination charges. The increases average over $550 per vehicle over final '73 model prices.

It was the sixth

Ford and Chrysler, hiking their prices a total average of $584 and $458 respectively.

Extraordinary Increases

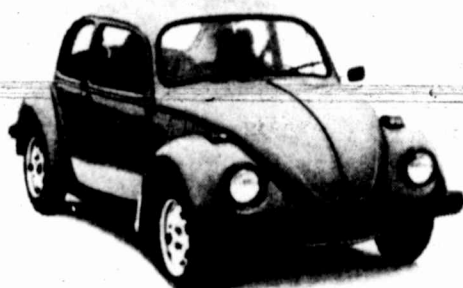

The multiple price increases put into effect by the auto makers are unusual for the industry, which in the past tried to limit increases to one per model year.

However, the recent rises in the cost of materials have forced the auto makers to act quickly.

... and the 1975 Domestic cars will be even higher!

San Angelo Revenue Sharing Meet Set

May Face Delays

Most Baptist churches in the Big Spring Baptist Association will send delegations to the Texas Regional Sunday School meeting in San Angelo Thursday.

Mrs. Bill (Martha) Reynolds of First Baptist will be on the instructional team for the age 5-6 division. Other instructors include: Billy Tisdale, the speaker; Robert Callahan, general officers; Hazel Rogers and Robert Graves, adults; Dicky Dunn, high school; Richard Ross, junior high; Inez Webb, grades 1-4; Mrs. Lewis Robinson, cradle roll; Mary Headland, young pre-school; Mary Ann Boubel, older pre-school.

Thrust of the day-long sessions at Park Heights Baptist Church will be outreach, plus an effort to challenge members to read the Bible through.

Case Settled Out Of Court

GARDEN CITY — A case, over workmen's compensation was settled out of court and dismissed here, 118th District Judge Ralph W. Catonsaid.

A jury trial had been scheduled in the suit of Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co. and Farrel Hoelscher.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some 6,000 state and local governments may face delays of three months or more in receiving millions of dollars in federal revenue sharing aid because they haven't filed the proper forms.

A Treasury Department official said if the forms aren't in by next Wednesday, the money will be delayed until early 1975.

A spokeswoman for the Treasury Department's office of revenue sharing said the total amount of money involved is impossible to estimate, but some amounts involved are substantial. Boston might have to wait until January at the earliest to receive $5 million it's entitled to receive next month. The states of New Mexico and Washington face the same situation involving checks for $3.3 million and $7.2 million, respectively.

The Navaho Tribal Council in Arizona stands to lose the use of $203,000 for three months. The same situation applies to Peculiar, Mo., and both Upper and Lower Turkeyfoot townships in Pennsylvania.

The stumbling blocks are what Priscilla R. Crane, information officer for the government's revenue sharing operation, describes as two simple, one-page forms.

One form, called a planned use report, describes how the revenue sharing recipient plans to use the money. The form was due June 24.

The other form, called an actual use report, lists how the recipients spent the checks they received every three months between July last year and June this year. The form was due Sept. 1.

But since the 6,000 communities have failed to file one or both forms, the revenue sharing office is holding its books open until next Wednesday, Mrs. Crane said.

To Celebrate At Reese AFB

REESE AFB, Tex. — Col. Schuyler Bissell, 64th Flying Training Wing Commander at Reese Air Force Base has announced that the base will sponsor a public open house on Sunday, Oct. 6 between the hours of 1 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. in honor of the 25th anniversary of Reese's continuous active service as an Air Force Base.

Featured attraction of the day's activities will be the first local appearance of "The Thunderbirds," the U.S. Air Force's Aerial Demonstration Team flying the T-38 Falcon, the same aircraft flown by student pilots at Reese in the later stages of training.

ENLARGED SHOWROOM TO BE OPENED — New furniture and accessories will be on display when Carter's Furniture Store, located at 202 Scurry Street, stages the formal opening of its new showroom the coming week. The section features dining room suites and table sets. Free gifts will be offered to each adult visiting Carter's during the week.

Bangles And Beads

THE TRADITIONAL costume of belly dancers is designed to drape and enhance the body without hindering its freedom of movement. Ms. Dorothy Dockter, dance instructor, shows the attire she wears for exhibition dancing.

By JO BRIGHT
It's new exercise with an old twist.
All over the country, women are casting aside the cloak of conformity — and exchanging it for the seductive veil of a belly dancer.
This sensuous art form is undergoing a phenomenal revival (usually touted as a fun-type exercise), and belly dancing schools are operating in hundreds of cities.
Records featuring the special rhythms required for the dance are selling like hot cakes, and publishers are making a good profit on the "how to" books that let modest maidens — and matrons — lose their inhibitions in the privacy of their homes.
More popular, however, are classes such as those at the Magic Mirror where women of all ages gain courage from their companions — and discover muscles they never knew they had.
The modern exponents of the belly dance point up the physical fitness aspect of the dance, and there is much to recommend this idea. When properly executed, the dance does involve many muscles of the human anatomy that do not come into play in the more static exercises.
The course, which costs $25, consists of only four lessons, but it is expected and assumed that the pupil will practice at home. Classes are held at 8:30 p.m., Tue. days.
No one finds fault with physical fitness. If it can be achieved in an atmosphere of fun — why not?
Today, any modern Miss, Mrs. or Ms. can learn an art that dates back at least to Salome's performance for Herod.

THERE'S LOTS of laughter as novice dancers learn to manipulate their veils. In the spirit of the moment, Mrs. Janice Hopper swirls to let the scarf envelop her like a soft, black cloud. At the left is Mrs. Gloria Holmes.

BEFORE THE DANCE begins, there is a "limbering up" period to relax the muscles and bring little used ones into play. Joining her classmates in the weekly ritual on the carpeted floor is Mrs. Catla Raney.

THE DRAPE does take a bit of doing, to adorn without confining. Mrs. Mary Thomas, right, gets help from Ms. Dockter.

MAKING THE most of the music, Mrs. John Richard (Gloria) Caffee concentrates on coordinating her movements.

Women Invited To Enter Fair Exhibits

One of the features of the Howard County Fair, Sept. 16-21 will be the Home and Hobby Department. There will be the following divisions:

- ADULT
 1. Antique
 2. Art Exhibit
 3. Crafts and Hobbies
 4. Culinary (Baked Goods and Canned Goods)
 5. Textiles (Clothing and Handwork)

YOUTH

1. Crafts and Hobbies
2. Culinary
3. Textiles

Entries will be taken Monday from 7:30 a.m. to 12 noon. Anyone may enter, but there are some special rules to consider:

1. Exhibits will not be open to the public until 6 p.m. Monday.
2. Exhibits will not be released until Sept. 23 between 8 a.m. and noon.
3. Blue, red and white ribbons will be awarded first, second and third place in each division providing the quality is such that these awards are deserved. Ribbons for participation will be given each entry.

4. Entries in the Youth Division will include all area youth (not just FFA & 4-H).

5. All items entered must have been completed in the last three years and must not have earned a 1st place ribbon or award in a previous fair.

6. All entries must be the work of the exhibitor. All articles must be complete.

7. No professional work will be accepted unless there is a division for such.

8. Canned fruits, vegetables, pickles, relishes will not be judged unless in regulation jars. All jars must be sealed with rings left on. Jellies, jams, etc., may be in standard glasses or pint jars. Paraffin will be accepted.

Jal Visitor Has 87th Birthday

FORSAN (SC) — Mrs. T. A. Rankin celebrated her 87th birthday during a visit here with her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Overton, and Mr. Overton. Mrs. Rankin accompanied her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Palmer, to Forsan from their home in Jal, N.M.

All jelly glasses or jars must have tops. No mayonnaise, coffee or old jars will be judged. All jars must be labeled as to contents.

9. Baked articles must be placed on cardboard squares or circles and must be completely covered with clear cellophane that is taped to the underside.

There is a place to enter almost anything you can think of, but if you have questions, please come by the Extension Office and get a Fair Catalogue. There will be someone available to answer your questions from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. except during the noon hour from 12 to 1 p.m. Ruth Mitchell is the Fair Secretary and will be available to answer questions.

Again this year, there will be a special division for the "Over Sixty" group. For those who wish to enter their items here, there will be a place for anything as long as it complies with the general rules.

The Fair committee urges everyone to participate and to make this Fair even bigger and better than it was last year.

Hosts Tea At Forsan

The Forsan Study Club began its new term by hosting a tea Saturday afternoon in the parlor of the home economics room at Forsan High School.

Hostesses were Mrs. Jack Woodley, Mrs. Cecil Thixton and Mrs. Lee Yarbrough. The serving table was covered with a cut work linen cloth, with fall flowers for the centerpiece. Punch and cookies were served.

Mrs. Thixton, vice president, reviewed the yearbook's programs and read the by-laws. The club collect was read by Mrs. Thetus Dunagan.

Hobby Club To Hold Bazaar

The Busy Bee Hobby Club met Thursday at Kentwood Center for lunch and to work on projects for their bazaar Oct. 22.

Mrs. Betty Plew was a guest, and Mrs. Betty Smith joined the club.

The group will meet Sept. 19 at Furr's Cafeteria for lunch and, afterwards, attend the Howard County Fair.

Violet Club Will Exhibit At Fair

Plans for entering specimens in the Howard County Fair were made when the Texas Bouquet African Violet Club met for breakfast in the home of Mrs. A. C. Moore, Mrs. E. D. Campbell and Mrs. Paul Koshi were cohostesses.

Members heard Mrs. Moore lecture and demonstrate the correct way to groom African Violets for exhibit. Mrs. Odell Womack reviewed new rules and the schedule, and gave grooming tips on cut specimens. She announced the breakfast project money will be used for city beautification, therapy and the litter campaign.

Letters of welcome into the Texas Garden Clubs were read from state and district officers. Announcement was made of the flower show at Midland's Lancaster Garden Center Sept. 23-25.

The Texas State Garden Club convention will be held in Lubbock at the Red Raider Inn Oct. 22-24. Reservations should be made at the Inn, 6025 Avenue A, Lubbock, or by telephone, 806-747-5111.

The two-year-old club won a first place blue ribbon at the national convention of the African Violet Society of America in Hartford, Conn.

Guests were Mrs. Dale Smith and Mrs. Fred Witt.

CONSUMER ALERT

COLLEGE STATION — Economical, high-quality protein is at seafood, dairy and poultry counters this week, Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt said today.

One protein source is the now increasing supply of fresh seafood, according to the consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Fish is usually filleted and has very little waste. At dairy counters, features include cream, cottage cheese and a variety of cheese slices. For high nutrition in snacks, a glass of milk is still low cost — compared with carbonated beverages," the specialist added.

Prices on large-size eggs show fractional advances — if the price difference between sizes in the same grade is more than seven cents a dozen, buy the smaller size, Mrs. Clyatt advised.

"Fryer chickens and parts still lead the list of most frequently featured protein foods, and turkey hind-quarters and drumsticks offer an economical change of menu."

Other meat features include beef chuck roasts, round steak and beef liver,

Pork specials are scattered — some appear on quarter loin cut into chops, Boston butt roasts, semi-boneless and canned hams.

Fresh fruit and vegetable items in good supply at the most reasonable prices include prunes, plums, grapes, nectarines, cantaloupes, watermelons, cabbage, carrots, cooking greens, dry yellow onions, squash and potatoes.

WATCHWORDS: Sausage meats, in more than one hundred varieties, make quick and easy meals for hot summer days. Use unit pricing knowledge to figure cost per ounce — or cost per pound.

Lunch Box Tip

It's back to school time again! Along with books, pencils, and other classroom paraphernalia, tuck a box of handy, junior size facial tissues into the supplies for school-bound youngsters from kindergarten to college. The junior size package is just small enough to fit among books and papers, yet large enough to find when needed for the sneezes, fast make-up repairs, or desk wipe-ups.

Miss Davidson Wed To W.W. Sledge III

Miss Tammy Jo Davidson became the bride of W. W. Sledge III in a formal ceremony held Saturday evening in the Berea Baptist Church. The Rev. Eldon Cook, East Fourth Baptist Church, officiated as nuptial vows were exchanged before an arch entwined with rosebuds and daisies and flanked by candelabra.

A prelude of traditional music was performed by Mrs. Marguerite Hyden, pianist, and Miss Arlene Horton, vocalist.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ed Seay, Big Spring, and T. C. Davidson of Harrison, Ark. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sledge Jr., 4044 Vicky.

The bride attended high school in Coahoma and Big Spring and the bridegroom graduated from Big Spring High School and Howard College. He attended West Texas State University and is now employed by Cosden Oil and Chemical Company. After a trip to Ruidoso, N.M., the couple will reside at No. 9 January.

Carrying a cascade of white roses centered with yellow daisies, the bride was attired in a full-length gown of white organza with cotton Venice rose motifs and daisies trimming the bodice. The trim was repeated on the A-line skirt which swept into a chapel-length train. Her headpiece of Venice lace held a veil of tiered illusion.

ATTENDANTS
Miss Terry Sledge, sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor. Wearing a floor-length gown of yellow and orange floral organza with matching garden hat. The bridesmaid was Miss Terri Poteet, sister of the bride, who was attired in a floor-length gown of green and white floral organza with matching garden hat. Each carried a small basket of white Sweetheart roses and yellow daisies.

Gary Underwood served as best man, and groom's man was Randy Thomas. The flower girl was Denise McCann, and ring bearer was Scott McDonald. The bridegroom's brother, Stephen Sledge, and the bride's brother, Timothy Davidson, were the ushers.

RECEPTION
The reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church where refreshment tables were covered with full-length white organza cloths. The bride's table was centered with a basket of yellow daisies and Sweetheart roses, and the bridegroom's table featured a brass candelabrum.

MRS. W. W. SLEDGE III Curley's Studio

Those serving were Mrs. Annette McDonald, Mrs. Patsy Stuteville, Mrs. Donna McCann and Mrs. Sheri Wilson.

Out-of-town relatives who were guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Woods, Ballinger, grandparents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Reynolds, DeSoto; Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Shelton, Fort Worth; and Mr. and Mrs.

'Fun Night' By Lodge Planned

Plans were made for a fun night, "The Barnyard Degree" at the Tuesday meeting of John A. Kee Rebekah Lodge 153.

The date set for the affair is Oct. 1 and there will be a charge of $1.50.

Mrs. Grady Sudberry presided for the business meeting when 22 visits to the sick were reported. Mrs. A. E. Fiveash and Charles Leek reported on the Family Night held Sept. 7 with 45 attending. Entertainment was furnished by the Ramblers, a string band. Members of the Big Spring Rebekah Lodge 284 and the Snyder Lodge joined in the social.

During the Tuesday social hour Mrs. Lee Thackrey and Mrs. Sudberry read poems. Lodge instruction was conducted by Mrs. Garland Maxwell, lodge deputy.

Mission Fund Gets Donation

Prayers were worded by Mrs. E. T. White and Mrs. Ethel Simmons.

The class gave $10 to the Mary Hill Davis Mission Fund and heard Mrs. Lois Legg read the 13th chapter of Corinthians, the theme of WMU Houseparty held recently in Waco.

Attending the houseparty from the church were Mrs. Bill Sandridge, Mrs. A. W. Page, Mrs. Legg, Mrs. Mabel Kirkland, Mrs. Bob Wren, Mrs. Nannie Garrett and Mrs. Dalton Johnson.

Guests were Mrs. Legg and Mrs. Bernice Micallef. Mrs. Simmons and Mrs. Mabel Craven were hostesses.

Hints From Heloise

Dear Heloise:

I make pillow slips from embossed plisse for sheets for my baby's bassinet. I make them long enough to fold the top under about four inches and pin on the underside of the bassinet pillow.

I pin rubber sheeting around the bassinet mattress and then put on my pillow slip. When baby spits up on them these slips may be washed and no ironing is required.

After the baby has outgrown the bassinet, the rubber sheeting can be cut to fit inside the pillow slip and put on the crib, crossways under the baby, with enough excess to tuck under the sides. With the rubber inside the pillow slip, mother saves changing sheets and laundering them. The pillow plisse slip is easy and quick to remove and washes beautifully. It looks much nicer than a plain rubber sheet on a baby bed.

Betty Fennelley

Dear Heloise:

You recently printed a hint on writing local recipes, while on a trip, on postcards so you would have a file of scenes plus recipes from the places visited.

I would like to enlarge on that wonderful idea and suggest you mail the postcard to yourself. Then you will have a valuable canceled stamp plus the post office name and the date.
Star Black

Dear Heloise:

After soaking and draining shredded potatoes for hash browns, it took so many paper towels to get them dry enough to fry.

My husband suggested spin drying them in the washing machine. He said to put them in a piece of nylon net!

Mrs. Ralph Johnson

I laughed when I read your letter, Mrs. Johnston. Ever thought of squeezing 'em? I do.
Heloise

Dear Heloise:

If the men in your household have nylon fishing line that is tangled, save it! You can always get enough pieces from it to sew on buttons or torn slippers or whatever you need to sew that requires strong thread.
Aunt Mary

Dear Heloise:

If you ever used a highly concentrated roll-on antiperspirant you may have noticed that crystals form on the screw-on top.

This makes it very difficult to open. I discovered if you will put a little moisturizing lotion on the portion of the bottle where the lid screws on, it will impede the formation of these crystals.

Your bottle will then be easily opened at all times.
Regina Boyle

Dear Heloise:

I work in a doctor's office and adopted the plan of giving paid receipts in duplicate. Patients will then have one for their own records and one for insurance purposes if necessary.

People really do appreciate this, especially people on Medicare. It saves them the trouble of getting a copy made. It isn't any extra work and if it was, their gratitude would be well worth it. This should be a standard procedure in all doctor's and hospital receipts.

New Ideas Of Morality Examined

A three-man panel discussed "The New Morality" at a meeting of Big Spring Child Study Club Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Curt Strong. Mrs. David Hodnett was co-hostess.

The panel, composed of the Rev. Carroll Kohl, St. Paul Lutheran Church; Dr. Jimmy Law, College Baptist Church, and the Rev. Randall Ball, First Assembly of God; was introduced by the program chairmen, Mrs. Bob West and Mrs. Don Long.

Dr. Law defined the new morality, Rev. Ball discussed contributing factors that "encourage" the new morality, and Rev. Kohl noted the effect of the new morality on society.

Mrs. Bill Pollard was elected treasurer. Three guests were Mrs. Richard Grimes, Mrs. Larry Willard and Mrs. Leance Prudhomme.

Modern Touch

For a modern touch in room lighting, try a strip of adjustable lights installed on the ceiling just in front of the window.

ENGAGED — Mr. and Mrs. F. C. June, Gail Rt., Big Spring, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Lola, to Michael Kloss, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Michael Kloss, 4210 Muir. The wedding will be Nov. 23 in Trinity Lutheran Church.

Watch Diets

A popular American pastime — snacking — can add needed vitamins and minerals to a person's daily diet. But too many or the wrong kind may cause excess weight gain, according to Sally Springer, foods and nutrition specialist, Texas A&M Extension Service.

International Club Plans Style Show

International Women's Club members made plans for a style show, a Christmas program and New Year's party at the Wednesday meeting in the home of Mrs. Lucy Mulhern.

A style show will be given by Zack's at the Oct. 9 meeting at 8 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Jung Ja Simpson, 2503 Ann. Fall fashions are to modeled.

The Potpourri Club has invited the International Women to provide two speakers each month through March to tell of the role of women in their native lands.

Plans for a family Christmas party were made, and children will demonstrate with songs and poems how Christmas is observed in countries represented. A New Year's party is being planned for couples.

Goodbyes were said to Mrs. Un Soon Lee of Korea who is moving with her family to Winters where Dr. Lee will establish a medical practice.

A white elephant sale was held. Mrs. Janetta Jackson (Greece) won the attendance prize.

All foreign women are invited to join the club. For further information they should call the club president, Mrs. Gudrun

Burton of Germany 263-0618. A new member is Mrs. Genevieve Hernandez of France, and guests were Mrs. Jo Gonzales and Mrs. Lolita Pfingston, both of the Philippines, and Mrs. Isha Syed and Mrs. Lorelei Gilbert.

Mrs. Mulhern served homemade cakes and tortes typical of her native Germany.

Make It Plain

According to a new Food and Drug Administration regulation food products must give "common or unusual name" of any chemical additive used in the product, along with a separate description of its function. Examples of descriptions include "to retard spoilage," "to help protect flavor," "a mold inhibitor" and "to aid in color retention," says Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist, Texas A&M Extension Service.

Kentwood Has PTA Speaker

Mrs. Vonda Townsend, Parent-Teacher Association president, was guest speaker at the Tuesday meeting of the Kentwood P.T.A.

Mrs. Townsend outlined the functions of the council and local units of the association.

Ernie Boyd, Principal, introduced faculty members and school personnel, and Mrs. Lee Freeze's 6th grade won the membership contest. The 37 students won a pizza dinner for their efforts.

The third grade taught by Mrs. Ray Cantrell won the room count.

Eighty-five attended the meeting and joined in discussion on the Halloween carnival slated Oct. 26.

Wedding Conducted In Baptist Church

The wedding of Miss Ronda Hooper to William David Clackum was performed at 7 p.m. Thursday at College Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Hooper, 2105 Runnels. Mrs. Mable Clackum, 1311 Mt. Vernon, and the late S. E. Clackum, are parents of the bridegroom.

Foy Richey, Church of Christ minister, officiated for the ceremony that was held beneath an archway entwined with boxwood and flanked with baskets of gladioli.

Mrs. Shirley Ryals was organist.

The bride wore a formal-length empire gown fashioned of sheer nylon organza with A-line skirt and long, puffed sleeves which extended to a deep cuff. Bands of lace accented the sleeves and the ring collar. Matching lace and pearls extended down the bodice and skirt which flowed into a chapel-length train. A bandeau of lace petals and satin ribbon held her waist-length veil, and she carried a bouquet of feathered carnations.

Mrs. John Norton was matron of honor, and Mrs. Charles Smith Jr., sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. They wore formal gowns of red jersey with smocked front bodice and a sash tied at the back waistline. They carried single long-stemmed peppermint carnations.

Wayne Clackum, N. Augusta, S.C., served his brother as best man, and Jim Smith was a groomsmen. Ushers were Ronnie Moser and Charles Smith Jr.

Following a wedding trip to the Dallas-Fort Worth area the couple will return to Big Spring to reside.

The bride is a graduate of Big Spring High School and attended Howard College. She is presently employed by the State Department of Public Affairs.

The bridegroom also graduated from Big Spring High School, attended Howard College and is employed at Sears.

Mrs. William David Clackum

A reception was held in the church fellowship hall where Mrs. Jim Gray presided at the registry.

Mrs. Ronnie Moser, Mrs. Calvin Williams and Ms. Marilyn Baker served refreshments from a table covered with a red lace cloth and centered with a mixed arrangement of white and peppermint carnations flanked by candelabra. Crystal and silver appointments were used.

Dear Abby

Insemination Not For Lone Woman?

DEAR ABBY: I am an adult, unmarried woman. I feel that I can get along without a husband and the right one never comes along. I want a child, but I don't want to adopt one. I want to experience bearing a child.

I have spent many hours on the phone talking to doctors and hospitals about artificial insemination, but they all refuse to accept me because I am not married. They say it is the "law." Abby, why? I am healthy, well-adjusted and can well afford to raise a child. I have even taken courses in child care and child psychology. Above all, I love children and know I would make a good mother.

Some girls fool-around and get pregnant. I have never fooled around, and I wouldn't do it even for the purpose of having a child, but the law says I can't have artificial insemination because I am not married. That's discrimination.

I am willing to go anywhere in the U.S.A., but it would be much more convenient if I could have it done near here. Please help me.

CHILDLESS IN MICHIGAN

DEAR CHILDLESS: Ask a lawyer to tell you if there is any state that allows an unmarried woman to have artificial insemination. If there is none, you are out of luck. I agree, it's discriminatory and archaic. It assumes that a child cannot be successfully reared by one parent — a fallacy, as widows, divorcees and single fathers have proven.

DEAR ABBY: I hope you can help me. At a convention dinner, my husband and I were having a wonderful time until I told an off-color, Polish joke. It didn't go over very well.

Later, I found out that one of the couples sitting at our table was Polish. I felt so stupid. I didn't know what to do or say. Needless to say, the rest of the evening was ruined for me.

Abby, what should I have done? Would an apology

EVENING RUINED

DEAR RUINED: Possibly. Now, do yourself (and your husband) a favor and vow never again to tell a joke that puts down an ethnic group. (And don't laugh at one, either.)

DEAR ABBY: I am 29, a divorcee with two children and am considered attractive. About a year ago I spotted an eligible bachelor in town, so I moved into this apartment building hoping to make his acquaintance. I made his acquaintance all right, but that's about all. He says hello pleasantly when we meet in the hall, but I've never been able to get him into my apartment.

I telephoned him one evening to tell him my bedroom window was stuck (it really was), so he sent a janitor with a hammer. He's not going with anybody special, and he's not a goody-goody because I've seen him entertain women in his apartment. None of them is as attractive as I. How can I get him interested without having it look like I'm chasing him?

GETTING NOWHERE

DEAR GETTING: It's not easy to chase a man without having it "look like" you're doing what you're doing. Face it. He's not interested in you. And any more moves in his direction will make your scheming so obvious that he's apt to hide when he sees you coming.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send $1 to Abigail Wedding, Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212.

Mu Zeta Earns Three-Star Rating

Mu Zeta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, has received notice from the national headquarters that it is now ranked as a three-star chapter.

The announcement was made by Mrs. Bill Schraeder, president, when the chapter meeting was held in her home on the Garden City Route Monday evening.

In other business, Mrs. Rick Isaacs announced that the chapter has purchased a Friend of Youth membership for a girl at the YMCA. Also, as a service project, each member will send remembrance cards during the year to two patients at the Veterans Administration Hospital.

As well as continuing the sale of stationery, the chapter will also sell a casserole cookbook this year. Cost of the book is $3.95, and orders may be placed by calling Mrs. Billy King, 263-0667.

Members, their husbands and children will meet at 3 p.m., Saturday for volleyball games, and a barbecue at Birdwell Park. The meal will begin at 6 p.m. The next regular meeting will be at 7 p.m., Sept. 23 in the home of Mrs. Kent Harrington.

The program, on prose, was given by Mrs. Gary Davis, who read excerpts from a 1963 speech by the Rev. Martin Luther King entitled "I Have a Dream."

Stretch Clothing Dollar With Fine Accessories

By SHERRY MULLIN
(HD Agent)

Accessories are vital to wardrobes because they add versatility, satisfying individual needs for day-to-day change. They provide opportunities for creativity, individuality and an expression of one's personality. They are a way to update last season's costume in an inexpensive way, thus expanding the clothing budget. Accessories make clothing more becoming to the wearer by emphasizing good features and drawing attention from less attractive ones.

Today's lifestyles have altered clothing habits by relaxing and eliminating many rules regarding appropriate dress. As a result, many different clothes and accessories are suitable for the same activity. Leisure, business and church dress may blend one mode of dress into the other, becoming one-in-the-same.

Accessories were once considered basic additions to clothing. For example, a woman always wore a strand of pearls with a black dress, and a man always wore a tie pin to hold his tie in place. Today emphasis is placed on the total effect of the complete ensemble, rather than considering each accessory individually shoes, jewelry and hats.

FORM OF ART

Fashion is a form of art. Principles of design have evolved through time which act as guidelines for achieving an esthetically pleasing or beautiful fashion picture. The effect of the various art principles in relation to accessories should be considered in achieving the most satisfying picture of dress for others to behold. Guidelines for the use of line, size and shape, texture and color are examined for each individual to make the most of accessories.

Accessories chosen to complete the ensemble should enhance the major structural lines of the garment. Repetition of line in the costume creates movement within the various parts. Repetition such as that created by a waistline belt and a horizontal yoke ties the costume together.

Drawing the glance to the side of the figure increases the apparent width of the part to which attention is directed. For example, placing a pin at the side of the waistline broadens the waistline.

Lengthwise and crosswise lines add length or width to the area where they are located. For example, the crosswise placement of earrings adds width to the face, belts add width to the waistline and ankle strap shoes add width to the ankle.

Strong contrasts in line create emphasis in that specific area. Keep accessories to a minimum if a focal point is established in the costume. An ensemble is much more pleasing if only one center of interest is used and other details are minimized.

The size of accessories should be in proportion to the size of the individual and other accessories. For example, a petite figure is overpowered by a large handbag. Likewise, a small handbag makes a large figure appear larger.

SHAPES

A distinct difference in the shape of an accessory can make an article appear completely unrelated to the costume. With a tailored suit cut on boxy lines, the shape of a rectangular bag would be pleasing.

A harmonizing texture provides some degree of variation without extreme

Fabric Blends

New fabric blends of cotton and wool take advantage of the best characteristics of each fiber, reports Mrs. Becky Culp, area clothing specialist, Texas A&M Extension Service. The warmth of wool and the comfort of cotton create a pleasing, attractive balance for wearers.

Set Limits

Young children are too immature and lack the experience to know what is safe in their home and neighborhood. They need guidance and some limits for their own protection, advises Ilene Carrington, family life education specialist, Texas A&M Extension Service.

Try This Bag

To flour meat, drop pieces of uncooked chicken, slices of meat or cubes into a bag containing flour, salt, and pepper. A few shakes and the meat is floured. This is much quicker and a more even job than you could do by hand.

differences in surface quality or the mood of the costume. For example, a smooth silk garment is incompatible with a corduroy belt. Bulky textured accessories add width. Shiny textured accessories create more emphasis and appear larger than dull-textured accessories; polished jewelry attracts more attention than dull or rough-textured jewelry.

The total effect of colored accessories depends not only on the colors chosen, but also on the proportion in which each occurs and is placed.

Brightly colored accessories are more satisfying if they are concentrated near the face, or at least high enough on the figure and far enough from the edge to achieve a balanced placement. In men's costume, the center of emphasis usually occurs near the face due to colorful shirts, ties and hats.

ATTENTION

Bright, contrasting colored accessories direct attention to the area where they are located. Where do you want the attention drawn? For example, colored hose or socks and shoes emphasize the feet.

One splash of color is generally more pleasing than several splashes which compete for a center of interest.

Accessories are a vital component of dress. They help satisfy our need for change and beauty. With a relaxed mode of living, there are no rules for dress. Guidelines emerge and assist in giving maximum satisfaction for dollars spent. The most important guideline is to understand yourself and accessorize to express your personality.

Music Club Conference Slated Here

Music Study Club members finalized plans for the District 12 conference when they met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Marguerite Hyden.

The district meeting will be held Oct. 12 at Howard College.

Mrs. Mary Skalicky and Harlen Thornton, pianists, performed W. A. Mozart's "Sonata In D, K. 448" for two pianos during the program.

Cohostesses were Mrs. Simpson and Miss Helen Ewing. The Oct. 9 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. G. R. Robinson, 2619 Crestline.

Need Moisture

Because soybeans absorb fat and moisture when cooked, add extra liquid to many dishes using soybeans to keep the finished product from being dry. Calorie- and fat-conscious consumers should remember that soybeans absorb and keep in fats that normally "cook out" of dishes such as meatloaf.

STYLE SHOW PLANNERS - The American Association of University Women will have a style show by Swartz at their annual coffee Sept. 21 at 10 a.m. in Big Spring Country Club. All college graduates are invited, but must make reservations by calling 267-6618. Shown planning the event are, from left, Mrs. Janelle Collier, Mrs. Marilyn Morrison, Mrs. Nancy Fulghum, Mrs. Joey Grathwol and Mrs. Lois Cave.

A LOVELIER YOU 'Real' Suits Are Back On Scene

By MARY SUE MILLER

Real suits regain approval. This is a pleasure, especially if you enjoy the latitude suits offer in the way of accessory changes.

Another plus, suit designing is versatile. Individual figures and lifestyles are not overlooked. In men's wear fabrics and flannels, the tailored suit caters to city-country living and to most figures. The jacket, ranging from hip-bone length to full-hip coverage, makes for easy wear. As does the skirt which falls straight or with controlled fullness to just about the calf or a bit longer.

A sweater suit also proves a wise choice. It goes everywhere and, depending on its weight, knows no season. New jackets wrap or button down, but are always belted. Skirts full out, a little or a lot.

As for accessories, the essentials are a felt hat or wool cap, a long woolen muffler, and a silky blouse or shirt. Two sets of accessories create two suits, where a minute ago there was one.

That brings us to the evening suit. Have you ever worn an evening suit? It has been a scarce item in recent years. Made of black velvet, it returns rejuvenated - beautiful. You may have it in a short or floor length; in slim or soft versions. Suit yourself!

FOR YOUR PLEASURE

After Summer's Lag, Entertainment Galore

After a summer's lag, things are booming on the cultural and entertainment front. The Big Spring Concert Association is gearing for its renewal kick-off Sept. 23 and for the new member drive Sept. 30. The enrollment ends Oct. 5. One of the offerings here is Fred Waring, who always packs 'em in, and the association will have reciprocity with Midland.

The O. W. Ranch Steer Roping and Art Exhibit (if you can absorb the incongruity of the combination) is set for Sept. 28-29 at the O. S. Ranch, seven miles south and then six miles east of Post. It benefits the West Texas Boys Ranches. If it's art you want, there will be some 100 paintings by such names as Wayne Baize, Jodie Boren, Juan Dell, Wilson Hurley, Frank McCarty, John Meigs, George Phipps, Tom Ryand, Gordon Snidow, Peter Hurd, H. C. Zachry. If it's roping, you'll find such names as Big Spring's Toots Mansfield, Troy Fort, Billy Frank Good, Jim Bob Altizer, Jiggs Barfield, Ronny Sewall, Shoat Webster and Olin Young. Times are 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. for the paintings, 1 p.m. for roping. Admission is $2, and $2.50 gets you into the barbecue.

Wind River Gallery of Dallas is supplying the next interim exhibit at Heritage Museum. Toy Walther, director, says she is bringing numerous bronze castings, among them a $7,000 Charley Russell, and examples from the A.P. Baker output; also works by prominent American and Western painters, works from Mary Dove, a collection of Indian jewelry, rugs, baskets and pottery; the kicker is a daily demonstration by Buck Mahoney as he works on a sculpture. This opens to the public Sept. 30, goes through Oct. 5. And this is just another way of saying that if you've missed the "Shine on Big Spring" exhibit, one of the most flavorful of the Museum's history, better see it this week if possible.

If the dates for the 37th annual rose show at Tyler (this year "A Fantasy of roses") have slipped your mind, they are Oct. 10-13. The fantasy is portrayed by mirrored reflection of the awesome mass beauty of 125,000 blooms. A feature will be an animated rose fountain on a turntable. "Oscar" roses will be on display.

Nashville guitarist Chet Atkins will open the 1974-75 season for the Midland-Odessa Symphony-Chorale. The Grammy award winner and four-time Playboy jazz-poll winner, will appear 8 p.m. with the Orchestra Monday, Oct. 21, at Ector County Coliseum, and Tuesday, Oct. 22, at Lee High in Midland.

Noted author, columnist and television commentator Nicholas von Hoffman will lead off the year's lecture-concert series for the UTPB in Odessa Wednesday. He speaks at 8:30 p.m. in the main lounge on the ground floor of the university's new building. Tickets ($1.50) may be had at the door.

Tuesday 7-9 p.m., the Museum of the Southwest in Midland will have a preview of the Nita Stewart Haley memorial library collection. Honor guests will Mr. and Mrs. J. Evetts Haley of Canyon and library trustees. The exhibit will be up for the remainder of the month.

Fairview Club

Has Installation

Officers for the Fairview Home Demonstration Club were installed at the Tuesday meeting in the home of Mrs. Bernice Micallef, 1729 Purdue. Mrs. J. F. Skaliky was installing officer. Officers are Mrs. Inell Smauley, president; Mrs. Opal Jones, vice president; Mrs. Winifred Wood, secretary; Mrs. Sarah Griffith, treasurer. Gifts were presented to outgoing officers.

Plans were made for the year's program. The Sept. 24 meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Ethel Simmons.

State University major fall drama projections. Cast in "Thunder Traveling over the Mountain" are Gary Smith, sophomore, and Bob Barnes, senior. Bob is in one of the Nez Perce Indian roles.

Theresa Treadway-Carroll, mezzo-soprano, will be the featured Texas Tech affiliate artist who tours area schools this season. She will be in Snyder Monday evening at Western Texas College, at Levelland Thursday. Between her engagements at Tech, she performs with the Lake George Opera Company, on tour with Goldovsky Opera Theatre; in season with Boston Opera.

Ye of iron gullets are reminded the Republic of Texas Chilympiad is set for Saturday in San Marcos, beginning with a red hot parade at 9:30 a.m. Over 50 cooks will be setting their fires on a 50-acre complex, hoping their recipe will win the coveted title of the Wick Fowler Award (remember Wick's three Alarm Chili? Nothing like it since lava trickled down Vesuvius).

Much of the history of the Southwest, from the time of the buffalo until arrival of the wagon train and cowboy, is portrayed in a collection of paintings on exhibit this month in the Museum of Texas Tech University. Most of these are from the collection of Clifford B. Jones and wife, Audrey. Meigs, Hurd, etc. are typical of the calibre of names to be found.

One view through Oct. 20 is Rembrandt's portrait of his only son Titus. This is at the Dallas Museum of Fine Arts.

Oasis Club Has Talks On Plants

A display was shown by Mrs. C. V. Wash at the Oasis Garden Club meeting Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Boone Horne.

Mrs. Wash showed pyracantha and ivy in a black container and yucca in a bottle dripped with olive green and red tallow with a piece of onyx shaped like an apricot as the accent.

Mrs. Lois O' Barr Smith gave a resume of indoor and outdoor plants and reminded the group that all plants were at one time outdoor varieties.

An arrangement of thistle was displayed by Mrs. J. D. Leonard who told the group the thistle is a member of the carrot family. She also showed how to spray and color dried materials for use in arrangements.

The garden therapy at Moss Elementary School will be held Sept. 19.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Albert Hohertz, 2800 Parkway.

Area-Families Have Guests

'Quotable Women'

Here are some quotable quotes from women during the week:

"No system is perfect, but in a country of India's vast diversity, there is one system, the democratic system, that listens to the voice of the people." Prime Minister Indira Gandhi, during a speechmaking tour designed to improve national morale in India.

"We'll never have Watergate behind us, I hope, because, in a way, it's been good. We're teaching our politicians to be straight and not crooked." Martha Mitchell, speaking in a television interview in Hot Springs, Ark.

"These individuals are also suffering because they told the truth — which is something we have yet to hear from Mr. Nixon. Why didn't Mr. Nixon have to pay at least the price of truth for his pardon?" Mrs. John W. Dean III, who says President Nixon and his family were not the only ones to have suffered because of Watergate.

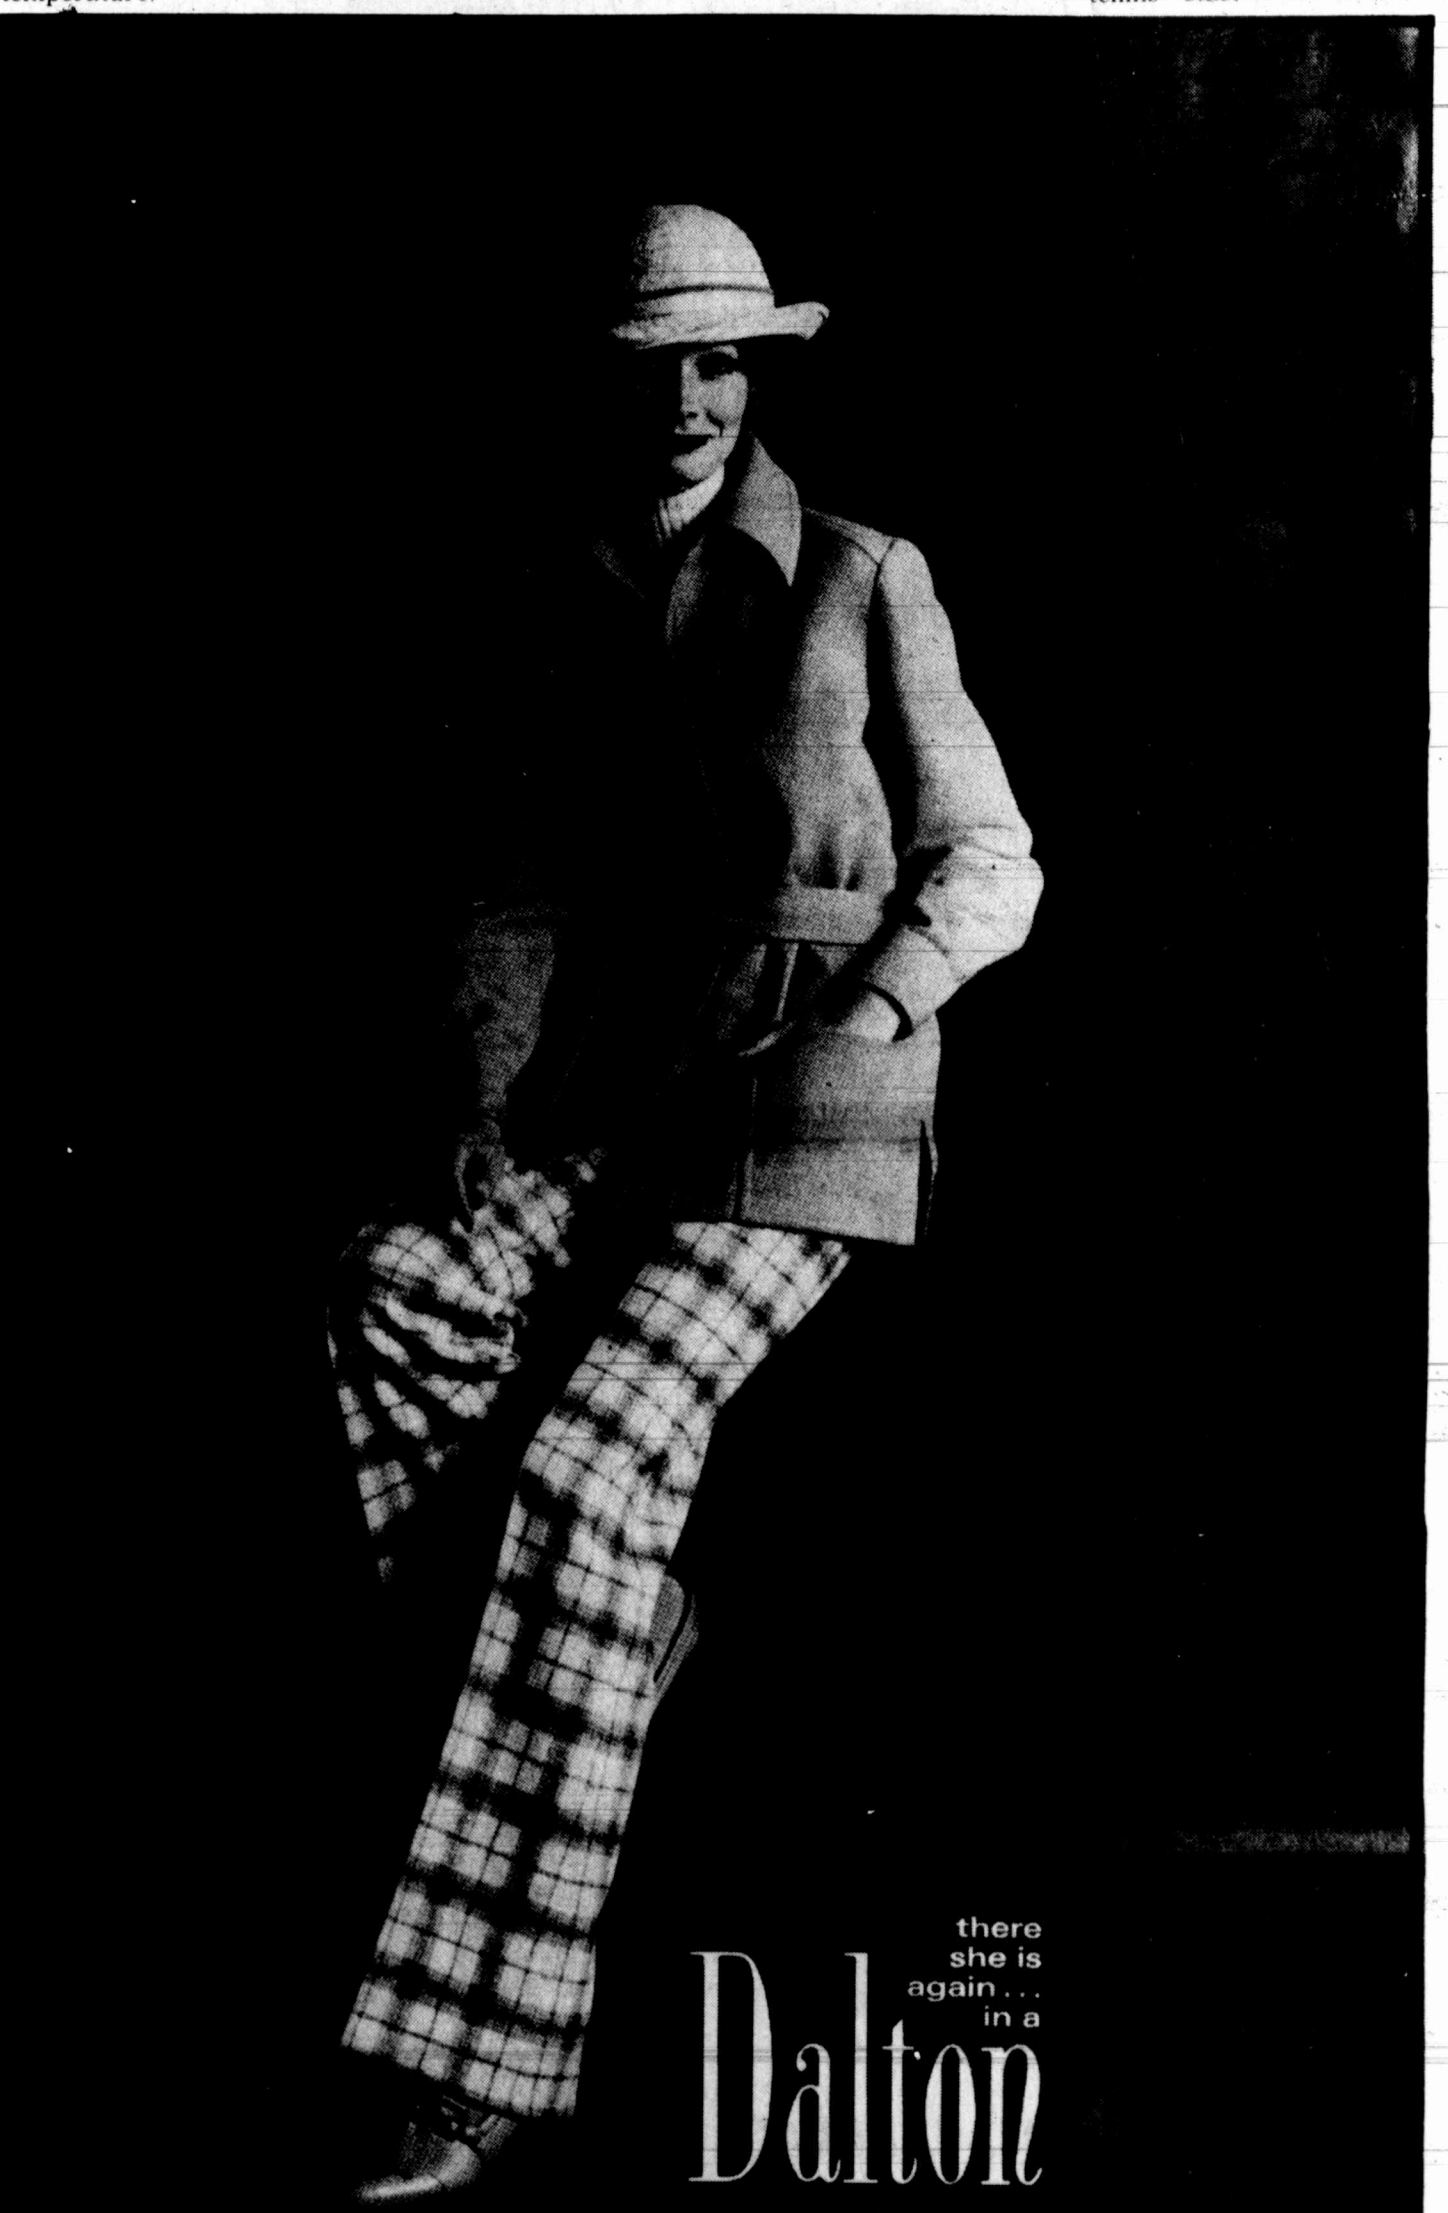

"Losing to Evonne was kind of a relief. It was really tough. I was emotionally tired." Chris Evert, young tennis star.

TO MARRY — Mr. and Mrs. Jack M. Griffin, 1320 Stadium announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Teresa Lynn, to Lt. Stephen Thomas Fenton of Webb AFB. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Fenton, Titusville, Fla. The couple will be married Dec. 21 in College Baptist Church.

NO ONE WANTS THEM NOW

Braceros Go Home!

HARLINGEN, Tex. (AP) — Braceros contract workers from Mexico — once welcomed by South Texas farmers with open arms. But no one wants them now, a survey of Lower Rio Grande Valley agricultural leaders shows.

Mexicans pour across the border illegally looking for work. About 750,000 were found and sent back home in 1973, and some federal authorities say this is only a fraction of those who slip into the United States.

NO WORK

There no longer is much farm work. They head on north and east to industrial jobs.

The bracero program, colored mainly to allow Mexican field hands to come into the United States, was phased out in 1964 after about 15 years. Thousands of Mexican families lived and worked in the United States during the program.

Mexican President Luis Echeverria recently said he would like to send as many as 300,000 workers to the United States to ease massive unemployment in Mexico.

It has been reported that this proposal will be among the top items on the agenda when Echeverria meets President Gerald Ford somewhere along the Mexican border this fall.

A survey of agricultural interests in the Valley shows there is little interest and much opposition to a new bracero program.

NOT SURPRISING

"It may be shoved down our throats anyway," said one farmer.

Opposition is not surprising in an area where up to 22.1 per cent of the labor force is unemployed and almost 24,000 families receive food stamps.

The Texas Employment Commission reports that 22.1 per cent of the labor force in Starr County (Rio Grande City) is unemployed. Willacy County (Raymondville), 9.7 per cent in Hidalgo County (Edinburg) and 8.8 per cent in Cameron County (Brownsville).

MECHANIZED

Baldemar Zuniga, South Texas director for the state food stamp program, reports 12,690 families receive food stamps in Hidalgo County; 7,990 in Cameron County; 2,090 in sparsely populated Starr County and 1,038 in Willacy County.

Another reason for opposition is that many of the crops harvested in the past by hand are now harvested by machines. "Everything that can be mechanized has been mechanized," one local farmer said.

"Bracero is Spanish for trouble in this country now," said farm editor Sam Gerald of the Valley Morning Star at Harlingen. Gerald, who has kept an eye on the agriculture scene in the Valley for many years, said, "The valley doesn't want a bracero program."

PAPER WOES

Gerald said he has talked with many Valley farmers who oppose the plan because of unemployment, too much paper work involved and because too many potential farm workers are now involved in programs such as food stamps.

Othal Brand of Griffin a firm with farms throughout the Southwest, said his firm once used braceros but favored phasing out the program at the time it ended. Brand said he opposes the program now.

"We have no trouble obtaining an adequate work force," Brand said. CUTTING REMARK Archie Taylor of the Valley Sugar Growers Cooperative said sugar cane growers have been able to find adequate labor. "Nobody's going to cut sugar cane by hand anyway," Taylor said.

Mike Wallace of Texas Citrus Mutual said citrus growers are not seeking a bracero program although there has been an occasional shortage of harvest hands.

"We have not pushed for it because there are a lot of problems with the bracero program," Wallace said.

A spokesman for one of the Valley's largest farming operations who did not want to be identified said his farm once used braceros but would not be interested again because he believes the federal government would have strict regulations concerning the housing and pay for such workers.

FOOD STAMPS

The man said it is difficult to find large work crews willing to do stoop labor in the fields. Many who once did that work, he said, now get food stamps and want to work only a few days each month in order to remain eligible for food stamps.

Some have said the bracero program might result in fewer illegal aliens coming into the United States. A spokesman for the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service said, however, that most of the 750,000 Mexican aliens apprehended in the United States last year were seeking jobs in industry in the North and only occasionally sought farm work to help finance their trips.

A spokesman for the Brownsville diocese of the Roman Catholic Church said Bishop John J. Fitzpatrick does not actually oppose the bracero program if the Mexican workers are paid the minimum wage and if U.S. workers are hired first.

Dog Show Upcoming

An American Kennel Club sanctioned B Match Dog Show will be staged in Birdwell Park Sunday. Entries for the meet will not be accepted after 12 noon and competition will start shortly thereafter. The meet is open to all unregistered purebred and all registered dogs. The entire family is welcome to the show and there will be no admission charge for spectators.

A concessions booth will be in operation on the grounds during the meet. Obedience trials will be held in conjunction with the show. Trophies will be awarded for the best local dog, the best of show and to the high-scoring dog in the obedience trials.

Those interested in entering dogs can contact Kathy Bucher at 3-0921 or 3-7567.

Terrible Twosome Talk About Life, Philosophy

By EVE SHARBUTT

NEW YORK (AP) — Donald Sutherland and Elliott Gould seem to specialize in movie roles with a distinct manic edge.

Some think they live those roles off-screen. Not so, Serious matters, such as the price of rice or politics, go into their discussions of acting and what's funny chicken is, goose isn't. Lounging at opposite ends of a long, beige sofa in their hotel suite, the actors Robert Altman first paired as stars in "M-A-S-H" talked about life, work and interviews.

CIA COMEDY

They've been promoting a new film, "S-P-Y-S," their third together, in which they play CIA men in trouble with almost everybody.

"We've been doing a lot of interviews, talking to journalists so they'll know what to talk to us about. Evidently some actors have given the impression doing interviews is an unpleasant task," Gould said.

"I like to be taken on. It's really very nice to be taken on and to respond. But anybody who wants to take me on—had better be prepared. He'll have to give himself away too."

Sutherland interrupted. "Everybody is the central character in their own movie. Everybody wants to be in movies. It's a very social business. So it's really joyful, interesting to participate in interviews, particularly when the two of us are together."

OVER 30

Sutherland is a lanky blond, 6-foot-four and 185 pounds, mustachioed and born in Canada. At 39, he has a string of film credits, including "Don't Look Now" with Julie Christie.

Gould, 35, looks heavier. He's 5-feet-3 and weighs 205, has dark eyes and brown electric-shock-curly hair, and is a native of Brooklyn, N. Y. He appeared on Broadway in musicals and drama before he went to Hollywood for movies.

Once married to Barbra Streisand, by whom he has a son, Jason, 7, Gould is divorcing Jennifer Bogart with whom he has two children. He prefers discussing the children to the former wives.

"I mean what I say and I say what I mean," Gould quipped. "And my kid says to me 'You are what you say.' Of course, that's because I replied 'Bull--' to something he said, and he said 'Daddy, you are what you say.'"

Sutherland lives in a Quebec farmhouse with French actress Franchine Bisset, who recently gave birth to their first child. He has two children from two earlier marriages. The are growing up in California. Sutherland worries that they will have no conception of regular weather or changes of season.

NO PROPERTY

Gould keeps an apartment in California and Sutherland "a telephone in a closet."

Neither of them owns anything anywhere. "To tell the truth, it's sad sometimes. I'm from the street. I live where I'm put. Frances Ford Coppola lives in San Francisco. I like it there, but Francis Ford lives there. Who can say where you live?" Gould asked.

That philosophy inspires Sutherland. "Once in California I parked my camper in a shopping center and when I came back there was a note on the window that said 'You are in my space.' And I thought, 'Wow, heavy.' Then I realized I was occupying his parking space."

The terrible twosome make the most sense when talking about their work.

"If it's special to be yourself or yourselves, then we are special," Gould said. "Once we were walking up Second Avenue after seeing a film of Donald's looking for Elaine's a popular actor-writer-type restaurant."

"People were great. I mean, you can walk through a crowd and be invisible. But this was like a party."

When Sutherland wants to change the subject, he mentions the price of rice, which he says has risen 120 per cent in the past year.

Then he's ready to talk about future projects.

We want to work together. There's a pirate film which we wish to do, and a western, "Rattlesnake Dick," he said. In the meantime, he has completed "The Day of the Locusts," and is working on "The Defense," based on a Nabokov story about a chess player.

Gould is especially proud of "California Split," which he did with Robert Altman, and the "The Long Good-bye," a spoof of private detective films of the '40s.

Canadian politics and problems, inflation, pollution all draw passing comment from Gould and Sutherland.

SEPTEMBER MEMORIES EVOKED — Cheerleader Jill Odom, 15, and Doug Robison, 17, post at ghostly reminders of the 1953 Big Spring Steer team. Carlisle (Frosty) Robison, Doug's father, was all-state halfback in 1953. W. Pascal Odom was a guard for the team, which reached the state finals, as far as any Big Spring grid team has gone. Doug plays flanker and linebacker for the 1974 Steers. Other 1953 team members with children in junior high and high school now include Bob Jones, father of Joni; John Birdwell Sr., father of Steer end John Birdwell Jr.; Roger Brown, father of Dale; Frank Long, father of Leslie; Jerry Hughes, father of Scott; Don (Lefty) Reynolds, father of Katie and guard Frosty and Freddie Blalack, manager in 1953 and father of Becky, Mike and Johnnie.

Tennis Helps Casting Bill Cosby In Movie

A mutual love for tennis — and admiration for each other's talents — brought Sidney Poitier and Bill Cosby together as stars in the movie "Uptown Saturday Night," a comedy about two buddies who attempt to apprehend bandits who have robbed them in an after-hours joint.

"Uptown" is being seen at the R-70 Theatre.

Both stars play tennis whenever they have time. Cosby likes it so much he has hired a private teacher to refine his game. Cosby was visiting Poitier on a tennis vacation in Nassau when Poitier first showed him a script for the movie.

As Cosby related the story:

"Sidney asked me to read this script, you know, and I read it and it was a funny script. Well, when I read this thing, I told Sidney that the only cat I could see playing Wardell Franklin, the cab driver, was me. And I was very serious when I said it."

"So Sidney thanked me, and we went out and played tennis. Then, later, he called me and told me I had the part. Groovy!"

Mexican Sugar Looks Good 'Hottest' Item

MATAMOROS, Mexico (AP) — Skyrocketing sugar prices in the United States have made sugar one of the hottest selling items in a curio shop in this Mexican border city.

Garcia's, a popular shop within walking distance of the international bridge across the Rio Grande, sells an 11 and a half pound bag of sugar for $1.25. A national chain store in Brownsville just across the Rio Grande sells a 10-pound bag of sugar for $3.37.

LOAD UP
A survey of sugar prices around Texas indicates that prices are about the same as in Brownsville.

An observer noted on a recent Saturday that sugar was selling faster than liquor or cigarettes and certainly faster than hand painted pictures, vases, purses or any of the other curios for sale. "We might as well load up at these prices while we are here," a Dallas woman said as she and her husband carried 12 of the bags of sugar to their automobile. While customers were carrying out the sugar to their automobiles, two men were carrying in more sugar from a truck.

PERSONAL USE
A clerk at Garcia's said the curio shop runs out of sugar and has to have a new shipment almost every day. She told a reporter, "We're out right now, but we should have more in two or three hours. How much do you want?" Acting U.S. customs port Director C. B. Fikes said his office has noticed an increase in the amount of sugar brought into the United States from Matamoros.

Fikes said a person can bring back less than 100 pounds of sugar every 30 days. This means that a person who buys a 112-pound bag of sugar at Garcia's for $11.20 will have it seized and held until the quota office of the U.S. Customs Service in Washington allows it to be released.

Blackbird Union Suggestions For GOP Platform

LONDON (AP) — A record breaking American spy plane, the SR71 Blackbird, left Britain today on another attempt to fly the 5,645 miles from London to Los Angeles in under 4½ hours. "It looks so far that she's making very good time," a U.S. Air Force spokesman said shortly after the black needle-nosed jet took off from Mildenhall Air Base in Suffolk, 50 miles northeast of London.

The spokesman said the plane took off at exactly noon — 8 a.m. EDT and passed through the so-called London Gate 11 minutes later. The Gate is a point over London from which the plane's time to Los Angeles will be measured.

The jet tried to make the flight Thursday but turned back because of engine trouble. Blackbird flew from New York to London on Sept. 1 in a record time of one hour and 55 minutes. It averaged 1,817 miles an hour.

HOUSTON (AP) — The Texas Republican party has the opportunity "to enter the 20th century philosophically," Texas AFL-CIO President Harry Hubbard said Friday. Hubbard made the remarks in a statement prepared for delivery to the state Republican party convention platform committee in advance of the Tuesday state convention.

The Texas Republican party can help lead the Grand Old Party out of the wilderness of moral decay by offering the people of Texas a program which speaks to solutions to specific problems in our state," Hubbard said.

ILLEGAL ALIENS.
The AFL-CIO's specific recommendations for the GOP platform included:

— Equal education opportunity with restructuring of the formula for allocating state funds to school districts.

— Creation of a public utilities commission to regulate rates and service.

— A constitutional amendment for either a legislative salary commission or authority for the legislature to set its own salary.

— Collective bargaining for state employees.

— Single member districts for all elected policy makers, including the state legislature, cities, school districts and special districts.

— Legislation to punish those who hire illegal aliens.

— Legislation of group auto and homeowner insurance.
— Voter registration by party affiliation.
— Legislation to restrict "police state type dossiers" on protesters and demonstrators.

— Increased unemployment benefits, and workmen's compensation payments.

— Legislation of consumer-oriented Health Maintenance Organizations.

— A constitutional amendment so the "state should raise funds from a tax on refinery production for mass transit."
