City Hospital District Starts Fiscal Year

$728,395 Budget Set

Colorado City Hospital District began operation of Root Memorial Hospital and Root Valley Fair Lodge for the new fiscal year Wednesday, Oct. 1, under a recently adopted overall budget totaling $728,395.

Fiscal year for the hospital district runs from Oct. 1 to Sept. 30 each year.

September public hearing on the budget was attended only by members of the hospital district board, headed by Murrell Blassingame with Bob Reilly as secretary, said Perle Wednesday.

While hospital costs are in with the higher cost of living, continue to climb, Root Memorial Hospital cost to patients is still under the national average as reported by the American Hospital Association Journal, comparative figures show.

National average cost as a hospital patient for the first five months of 1969 was $70 per day. Weatherford for the same period at Fort Worth averaged $63, the hospital board pointed out in making the budget figures.

Notes in the detailed budget of the estimated total of operating revenue from all sources for the hospital and Root Valley Fair Lodge at $636,475.

Estimated operating revenue for patient care is placed at $548,955 for the hospital and at $70,395 for the lodge.

Supplemental tax revenues for the hospital district-owned institutions is estimated at $87,540 for the hospital itself and at $32,364 for the lodge to bring tax revenue total for both to $224,044.

Monies to be spent in operating expenses shows the top figure will go for salaries with $273,716 for hospital staff salaries, $137,603 for lodge salaries to total $411,321 in the salaries column.

Supplies for the hospital are estimated at $87,600 and at $35,017 for the lodge, to total $122,617 in the supplies column.

Other expenses are estimated at $74,382 for hospital, $31,139 for lodge to total $105,521.

Tax revenues collected from citizens of the Colorado City Hospital District which supports and operates the hospital and lodge, will supplement hospital income by $87,700 or 41.8 percent of tax revenue.

Tax revenue supplement to the lodge will be $32,364, or 15.8 percent of total tax revenue.

Also to be paid from tax revenue funds will be $57,738 as payments on purchase of properties, or 27.5 percent of total tax revenue.

Capital improvements on hospital and lodge equipment is estimated in the budget at

'Hot Checks' Forum

Today To Feature Attorney

Frank Ginzel, Mitchell County Attorney, will instruct interested merchants and business men from this town and county concerning this state's worthless check laws, Thursday.

Meeting for the detailed study will be at 2 p.m. in Civic House this afternoon. Invited to attend are merchants, employees, all law enforcement officers and any other interested citizen.

Aim of the meeting will be to help business men better understand the Worthless Check Law in a concerted effort to keep violations in this county to a minimum of offenses.

Ginzel will outline the Texas Law, prosecutions under the law and ways of curbing worthless check losses to merchants and businesses.

Ginzel will give a detailed summary of "hot check" laws in Texas and explain that bank notations of "No Account," and "Account Closed" do not fall into the same category, legally speaking, as "Insufficient Funds."

Not every bad check can be the basis of criminal action, the county attorney's summary will point out, but one which can not may represent a legal obligation which can be collected in a civil suit.

Neighborhood Center Is Teen-Age Project

Wallace Neighborhood Center project, sponsored by the Community Action program, is shaping up on schedule, largely on a volunteer labor basis.

Teen-Age Club, organized under CAP with Mrs. Thelma Lee, Mrs. Edna Taylor, and Mrs. Angeline Biggers as adult leaders, has been working at the project since mid-June.

Renovation of the old Wallace School on Wallace St. for use as a neighborhood recreation center began with a general clean-up of the building and premises. Clean-up work was done by teen-agers, with the city lending a hand.

The building, vacant since Colorado Independent School district built a new modern brick building which is now Wallace Elementary School, now has all major repairs completed except for the painting of the exterior walls.

Interior walls have been painted by Teen-Age Club members who have kept at their painting job from two to six afternoons each week.

Major repairs included installation of two rest rooms and plumbing for the kitchen; a brand new roof; all new windows; all new doors; new kitchen cabinets, serving area, sink, and pantry; new linoleum for kitchen and rest rooms.

Necessary repairs also included outside and inside masonry patchwork and an all new electric system with flourescent lighting.

Still to go on the project is a butane system, outside paint, and landscaping for the grounds.

Community Action Program and the active Teen-Age Club need blinds and curtains or curtain material for the windows, CAP announced Wednesday morning.

Also needed are space heaters, cooking utensils, recreational equipment, chairs, tables, shrubs, trees, grass to make the neighborhood center useful and attractive.

Also needed for the project is more money for the "paint fund" to pay for the paint to be used for exterior walls. Checks to speed the project along may be made to Wallace Neighborhood Center, Care of Community Action Program, Route 1, Box 52, Colorado City.

Office for CAP is in the city-owned Community Center. The office said a public "thank you," Wednesday, to the Teen-Age workers and interested parents for the three months spent cleaning up and painting.

CAP directors also expressed gratitude to Colorado City officials and to the city workmen who mowed, took away the trash, dug the ditch for installation of a septic tank; and to citizens who have contributed to the project.

Together Does It

Lions Set Sale Of Light Bulbs

Lions Club members of the Friday noon club will stage their annual sale of light bulbs Tuesday, Oct. 7, starting their '69 sale campaign at 7 p.m.

Two rival teams for the sale will be headed by Arlene Morris and Jimmy Harrison.

New feature this year is the penalty for the losing team. Losers will have to buy all unsold packages of light bulbs.

Money realized from the annual sale will go into the Noon Lions fund for eye examination and glasses for less privileged children.

House-to-house sales will pit the Harrison team against the Morris team in the selling of 8 assorted light bulbs. In each package will be two 60 watt bulbs, two 75 watt bulbs, and four bulbs of 100 watts each.

Families missed by the sales crews are asked to call the Chamber of Commerce office, 728-3403 and bulbs will be delivered by a member of the Noon Lions Club.

$21,000 or 10.2 of the district's tax money.

Unallocated funds remaining amount to 4.7 percent of the total, or an amount of $9,698.

That brings the total tax revenue estimate to $210,000.

Comparative figures for the fiscal year which ended Tuesday, Sept. 30, show total operating expenses for Oct. 1, 1968 through Sept. 30, 1969, to be $583,562 for both hospital and lodge.

Hospital patient care operating revenues for the hospital itself totaled $345,162 and for the lodge totaled $171,094. Tax revenues were $53,215 for the hospital and totaled $13,579 for the lodge.

Total operating revenue figure was $398,377 for hospital, $185,185 for lodge, to total $583,562 actual operating costs.

Salaries for Root Memorial Hospital were $248,377, for Root Valley Fair Lodge, $125,094, to total $373,471 for both, in the year just ended.

Supplies cost the hospital $81,187. Supply cost for the lodge was $32,099 for a total of $113,286.

Other expenses were reported at $583,562 — with $398,377 for hospital, $185,185 for lodge.

investigate or pursue matters strictly civil in nature," he will explain to merchants and business men attending the afternoon meeting, "and is not a collection agency."

He will then accent the ll circumstances which make a "hot check" ineligible for prosecution by the office of the county attorney.

Mechanics of filing a worthless check complaint will be explored along with special problems such as third party checks and "stop payment" checks.

Greater portion of the check discussion will be alloted to methods of prevention and advice to merchants on protecting themselves and their business against worthless checks.

"Do's" will include—require a valid check; require identification; require signature made in your presence; require that employees initial checks when they accept them; call the bank when in doubt; take immediate action when a check "bounces."

"Don'ts" to be discussed will be don't accept a personal check for a worthless check already held; don't accept postdated checks or agree to hold a check if it "bounces"; don't hesitate to check identification and compare photographs.

Also to be discussed by Ginzel in the workshop will be credit card frauds—their prevention and prosecution; shop lifting "musts" for a conviction; and special problems.

To climax the study session will be tips for the prevention of loss by forgery, prosecution under the law, commercial fraud practices and other practices necessitating alertness on the part of stores and business houses.

Rev. Dykes Is Guest Speaker For Hesperian Daughters Club

Rev. Weems S. Dykes defined patriotism as meaning "one's love and dedication to his country."

Rev. Dykes, minister of First Christian Church, presented his definition of the word Friday afternoon during a talk to Hesperian Daughters Study Club meeting in the home of Mrs. Willis Jones.

He discussed seven great documents dealing with the rights of man.

Those seven, he explained, are "the Sermon on the Mount delivered by Jesus, the Magna Carta granted by King John of England in 1215, French Declaration of Rights in 1789, Declaration of Independence by American Colonist July 4, 1776, American Bill of Rights of 1791 and Women's Sufferage Act of 1920 giving women of the United States the right to vote.

"There are four groups in America that promote spirit of patriotism among citizens," Hesperian Daughters heard. "They are the hereditary group, veterans, historical and international groups."

In his topic, "Patriotism Then, Now and Tomorrow," Rev. Dykes also reviewed the struggle of colonists in their fight for freedom, Civil War, Mexican War, Spanish American and World War I and II.

"It was much easier to enlist the support of the American people in the mentioned struggles than in the struggles we might call 'Today' or 'Now'," the speaker continued.

"Such struggles as the Korean War and Vietnam War, which we might call presidential wars of involvement, rather than direct acts of Congress of the United States, have not won the American people the support 'Now' that was true 'Then' during the American Revolution and World War I and II.

"Due to better communication, education and a better informed citizenry," he said, "I feel that there will be less emphasis on nationalism and patriotism in the 'Tomorrow' not only in the United States but through out the countries of the world.

"Science has made us a community of neighborhoods and I feel that day will come that we will have a United Nations of the World, just as came into being in our own country among the colonist and eventually the states that make up our country.

"The secret of any nations survival," Rev. Dykes advised, "is lodged in their belief in God. . .There can be no true liberty unless it is equal liberty for all men."

In concluding his talk the speaker quoted James Bryce as saying, "Patriotism consists not in waving the flag, but in striving that our country shall be reghteous as well as strong," and the Bibical reading "Blessed is that nation whose God is the Lord."

Club members attending the afternoon meeting were Mrs. Dykes, Mrs. B. R. Whitson, Mrs. Waverly Massingale, Mrs. John Worrell, Mrs. B. W. Tartt, Mrs. A. L. Geer, Mrs. Curtis Erwin, Mrs. W. H. Boney, Mrs. E. V. Grantland, and the hostess.

CONVERSATION CORNER

OCTOBER comes, as autumn waxes
October is in. So are higher taxes.

OCTOBER has always been one of the glad months. . .with fairs and football. . .pumpkins and Halloween. . .blankets and yams and 'mums and the cotton crop coming along.

October usually finds the kids in school. . .little women in the baking mood again. . .and men in full possession of all radios and television sets in this country.

October has always been a glad time!

AND now as the world turns on its axis
October bristles with new taxes.

OCTOBER'S higher taxes in state and city is no longer just the signal for listening for the start of the gins humming along.

You couldn't hear 'em hum, even if they were humming, because everybody is too busy hollering.

Oh well. There's a bright side to everything. Maybe the increased tax on cigarettes will be more effective in abolishing smoking than all the warning advertisements on earth.

Am reminded here, too, of a charming man who used to drink too much years and years ago. Then the great "Depression" came and he quit.

When the preacher of his faith tried to compliment him, the reformed gentleman shook his head and grinned.

"Anybody can quit," he said. "All you have to do is run out of money."

OCTOBER still has its many happy faces—even when it costs more to smoke and use what the Texas Legislature labeled "special services."

In Colorado City and Mitchell County, October has been the most popular month of all for some years in one of our big events—the Old-Timer Reunion.

Never thought to live to see the day when I'd be counted as an old-timer.

And as a once new-comer to C-City, there's something I need to say to all new-comers in this town and county.

It's this—you don't have to be an authenic old-timer, any more, to join the jolly reunion. Rules have been changed and everybody is invited—even if you just moved in yesterday or the day-before.

TIME WAS, back in the late 'thirties, when there was a 20 year—or was it 25 years—requirement before a person could show up, unless invited to take part in the music or program.

This writer, being the sneaky type, slipped in once as pianist for the occasion. . .another time because she took the trouble to write new locally appropriate words to the tune of "When You and I Were Young," beginning 'I wandered today to West Hill, Maggie. . ."

Managed to squeeze in one season to recite that rousing Western classic "Laska. . ." and took a group of Camp Fire girls to dance "Put Your Little Foot," yet another year.

JUST ABOUT the time the family had made it here 20 years, Old-Timer Reunion was thrown open to the whole town and county. Proving people can go to an awful lot of trouble, sometimes, just by being impatient.

Anyhow. . .each October, or each Old-Timer Reunion season. . .it is time to remember reunions of other, earlier years.

Remember the Old Fiddlers Contests? Remember how the late Ed Jones always carressed his fiddle?

Remember the times they staged square dances as part of the program? Seem, sometimes, to see again the late Mrs. Charles Mann Sr. doing the do-si-do.

Remember the way Mrs. E. A. Barcroft loved reunion time as long as she lived? Remember how the late Jim Greene was always here?

MANY of our real old pioneers have joined that glorious eternal reunion now.

Some of them are scattered in other cities, other states. But some of them still return to Colorado City, come October, to remember. . .and remember. . .and remember.

Hike in taxes will not be a factor in keeping the old familiar faces away, come Saturday, Oct. 11, I betcha!

GONE are the days when their hearts were young and gay
But hearts all turn home on each reunion day.

HEAD of the coming reunion will be Dale Hall Geer (Mrs. A. L.) of Colorado City who grew up in Loraine as daughter of the late J. C. Halls Sr.

Mrs. J. Ed Richardson will head the refreshments committee and T. J. Goss II has been named main speaker. Y'all come.

LEARNED more about Gloria Richardson, daughter of the Porter Richardsons and granddaughter of Mrs. J. Ed.

Gloria, who attended McMurry College summer, fall, and spring semesters in 1968-69 for pre-nursing courses, is now enrolled at Hendrick Memorial Hospital School of Nursing in Abilene. She is member of the choir of student nurses under direction of Bob Burroughs, director of First Baptist Choir at Abilene.

A Methodist, Gloria sang with the McMurry Chanters while a student there and completed one course in microbiology at Hardin-Simmons (Baptist) University.

SEEN LATELYS included George O. Witten of the LTNS (long time no see) department. . .Clem and Frances Myers in a lunch hour twosome.

Saw Amarie Gann Hall (Mrs. Price) looking beautiful and gay. . .E. S. Miles at the post office.

Don DeLaney, "leg man' for this pro-tem sports department of the Record, was an office drop-in after the victory over Brownfield.

Pretty Jon (Mrs. Robert) Shamburger was talking the CAP program and wearing an attractive knit of gold with brass buttons.

FAMILIAR FACES, other places, belonged to Raymond Fuller. . .Jamie Anderson and his attractive wife, Linda, plus her goodlooking son David, here from Austin for a weekend with Jamie's mother Aline Anderson.

Ruth Grantland was lunching with her friends Betty and John Worrell. Ruth's second granddaughter, Jill, who is daughter of James and Janelle Grantland of Dallas, suffered a fractured arm last weekend while playing at home.

The Worrells visited son Bill Worrell and his family at Lubbock last weekend.

DID YOU KNOW that Wolf split-end Larry Holder is the son of Johnnie (Mrs. B. W.) Tartt of 1665 Watson St.?

Larry's twin brother Garry Holder is active in Colorado High's Future Farmers of America. Larry's love is football.

Vivacious Johnnie visited her two daughters, Tuesday. They are Charlette (Mrs. Max) Sageser of Cotton Center near Lubbock and Carol (Mrs. James) Shipman of Lubbock.

WHAT MAKES A CHS WOLF ?

What are big bad Wolf teams made of?

Well, to tell the truth, big teams are mostly made out of boys who grow big while playing football on the little teams in our public school athletic program.

Sometimes nobody much except proud parents notices the little fellows learning the game in the 7th grade, 8th grade, and Freshman, teams. They are a sort of "also rans" in the public eye.

That's how come the Quarterback Club deserves a loud cheer. The club has already had a night meeting honoring the 7th grade team, another night for 8th graders and now plan a night for the Frosh.

Quarterbackers know for sure that big bad Wolves are made of fellows fighting right now for a place on Junior High teams and that Freshman squad.

TANE Commends Root Memorial

Root Memorial Hospital, of Colorado City, has been commended by Texas Alcohol Narcotics Education (TANE) for not allowing sales of cigarettes on the hospital premises.

A certificate of commendation and recognition says the award is given "for the decision not to allow sales of cigarettes on the premises, thereby making the people more aware of the health hazards of cigarette smoking. This action contributes to the saving of lives, to which cause both Texas Alcohol Narcotics Education and this institution are dedicated." It is signed by Wallace J. Shelton, President, and Albert F. Tucker, Executive Director.

TANE recently completed a survey of Texas hospitals in which it was found that 205 of 582 hospitals replying to the questionnaire did not allow sales of cigarettes. Among those replying was one hospital that had removed cigarettes because of their link with cancer and other diseases, but allowed cigarette machines back because of "pressure."

"We believe these courageous hospitals are setting a trend. It is incongruous for an institution that treats cancer to allow a cancer cause to be sold on the premises. We sincerely hope the remaining hospitals will follow the example set by this institution," said Albert F. Tucker, TANE Executive Director.

TANE is a non-profit, educational organization, supported financially by Texas churches of some 19 denominations.

Scott Rites

Mrs. Paul Cooper returned Friday from Arkadelphia, Ark., where she attended funeral services for her daughter's husband, David Edward Scott Jr. who died of a heart attack.

Veteran of World War II, he was a music graduate of Hardin-Simmons University and held his master of religious music degree from Southwestern Theological Seminary. He also studied at the Institute of European Studies in Vienna. He was dean of music at Ouachita Baptist College, Arkadelphia.

Both he and Mrs. Scott, the former Miss Grances Merle Cooper, were active at Baptist summer camps in Glorieta, N. M., and Ridgecrest, N. C., and in the Community Theater at Arkadelphia. He was a member of First Baptist Church in Arkadelphia.

Born in Olney August 2, 1927, he is survived by his wife, one daughter, one son, of the home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David E. Scott, Sr. of Olney; and two sisters.

Roping Set Saturday

Western Riding Club's sixth annual roping events are set to start at 7 p.m. Saturday in the club arena west of Colorado City.

Contests will offer a hand tooled saddle to the top winner and prize money for go-round winners.

Saddle winners in past annual shows staged by Western Riding Club will be eligible for prize money only, said Dink Rees, who announced the show for Saturday.

Entry fee will be $15, Rees said.

Mrs. Charles Wood will be records-keeper for the events with County Agent Bobby Lemons as announcer at the loud speaker.
