GARMENT BUILDING OPENED — This is a portion of the crowd of people who jammed the Form-O-Uth building Thursday night to eat barbecue and help dedicate the new industry's plant which sparked the recent Pampa Industrial Foundation drive. Officials said about 675 persons were served and a number given tours through the building who did not eat.

Pampa Gains Industry as 675 Visitors Mark Event

Pampa gained two new citizens and an industry Thursday night as 675 persons packed the completed Form-O-Uth Company building for one of the biggest dedication celebrations in a long time for city industry. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Fraser of Los Angeles, found they can "hang their hats on the Top O' Texas" for as long as they want when Aubrey Steele, president of the Chamber of Commerce, made them honorary Texas citizens.

And during the presentations that officially opened the building, Pampans took time out to add their little bit to the "Good Neighbor" policy when the city paid honor to a visiting visitor from Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Carrillo of Mexico City were introduced by Steele and presented with a plaque making the couple citizens of Texas while Carrillo received the proper head dressing — a big Stetson hat of the Lyndon B. Johnson type — to wear. Carrillo is the son of the Mexican ambassador to the United States Antonio Carrillo Flores. He is currently employed at the Pampa Celanese plant where he is being trained to head the company's operations in Mexico.

The surprised young man from Mexico told the gathering that he "had never met such friendly people as I have in the Texas Panhandle."

Fraser, who is president of the firm that will operate the garment factory, told the assembly, "The warmth of the people of Pampa is the greatest I've ever experienced. I hope you feel the same way with my firm and my wife and me as you do now, several years from now."

Fraser said, after looking at the building, that he was amazed with how complete a job has been done in such a short time. "This structure was completed on a crash basis in just 38 working days from the time we broke ground," Fraser said. "I am thrilled with it, but I fear it may already be too small for what we plan to do here."

The company executive said that plans for start of actual work in the plant still center around May 4 at which time some 45 people will move into the building and open shop. The company hopes to have 200 or more people employed by the end of the year or mid-1965. Harold Schmitzer, city manager, welcomed the plant and its owner to Pampa in the absence of the mayor.

Violence in Nashville Deplored

By United Press International Civil rights leaders have disagreed on how demonstrations aimed at "total desegregation" are being staged at Nashville, Tenn. The demonstrations, starting the first week, have turned into violence in at least two occasions and 25 persons were injured, including policemen and Negro students. More than 100 were arrested.

Mrs. C. E. McGruder, president of the Nashville chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), said Thursday night that the violence could have been avoided by better organization and discipline.

The Rev. Andrew White, a Nashville Negro minister and a leader in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said the demonstrating students were organized, trained and disciplined.

"The disorderliness was the result of panic provoked by police brutality," he added. Elsewhere:

Notasulga, Ala.: Six Negro students returned to classes Thursday in a makeshift classroom ordered set up by a federal judge. The high school the students desegregated last February was burned April 18 in what authorities described as arson. The new classroom was set up in an unburned auditorium.

Chester, Pa.: The NAACP in an apparent split with another civil rights group, Thursday reaffirmed its pledge of a seven-day moratorium on civil rights demonstrations.

'Tyranny' of Auto Turns Secretary To Bicycles

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Interior Secretary Stewart L. Udall, deploring "the tyranny of the automobile," today endorsed a call for more bicycling space. Udall, who said he grew up on a bike in a small Arizona town, spoke at a breakfast meeting sponsored by the American bicycle industry and the American youth hosts. The meeting was called to focus national attention on the diminishing amount of space available for the nation's 35-million bicycle riders. May has been designated American Bike Month.

Final Reading Set on City's Leash Law

Third and final reading of Pampa's proposed dog control ordinance has been postponed until Tuesday, May 12. The commission will not meet next Tuesday because Mayor H. R. Thompson and Commissioners MacField, McDaniel and Jim Nation will be out of the city.

Commissioner McDaniel said he would like to have a little more time to study the ordinance. He said he had received complaints that the penalties for violation and the pound fees were too high.

City Manager Harold Schmitzer said today he had received some more mail about the dog control ordinance. Four letters favored the legislation as it now stands and three were against it, the city manager stated.

In a short session of the commission last yesterday afternoon, a contract for hauling wet garbage was awarded to Lucky Westbrook for $200 a month.

New Sketch Used In Kidnaper Hunt

CHICAGO (UPI) — Police built their search for 5-day-old Paul Joseph Fronczak today around a new sketch they said was "very close" to the description of the mysterious woman kidnaper. Mrs. Dora Fronczak, the dark-haired mother of the missing infant, wept openly Thursday before newsmen, television cameras and glaring floodlights while pleading to the abductor to "please return our baby."

"He was everything we had of our hopes for the future," the 28-year-old mother sobbed. "She was white-skinned, but that's all I remember," Mrs. Fronczak said. The kidnaper, masquerading as a nurse at Michael Reese Hospital, took the baby from his mother's arms Monday while he was being nursed.

"She said she was going to take the baby to the nursery," the mother said. Her husband, Chester, 33, stood by silently. "Take good care of him and see that he gets enough to eat. Just so he's taken care of and brought back. That's our only hope and prayer," Mrs. Fronczak said.

Police said the new sketch pictured the kidnaper with a more oblong face than did the previous drawings. The woman is described as a "dishwater blonde" in her late 30's. Both Parties Set For Vote Turnout Democrats and Republicans alike put the final steps together to pave the way for Saturday's primary election with only one contest on the ballot in Gray County. Sheriff Rufe Jordan will be seeking to retain his office while L. J. Flaherty, a Pampa businessman, is running for the office.

That is the lone Democratic contest on the ballot locally, but a flock of statewide offices that are up for grabs is expected to be a drawing card for county Democrats.

Republicans are faced with a primary election to determine a nominee to oppose Rep. Walter Rogers in the November general election, plus the added interest of a presidential "straw ballot," in this area.

Pampa's Bob Price is seeking the GOP nod to do battle with Rogers come fall but is being opposed by Frank Hinkson, Farmer County resident, who wants the same chance. The race is expected to draw about 1,200 or more GOP voters to the polls Saturday.

Gray County Democrats have predicted a heavier turnout with some 5,000 persons expected to cast ballots during the day Saturday. Polls will open at 8 a.m. and remain open until 7 p.m. in the 13 precincts that make up the county.

County Clerk Charlie Thut's office reported today that 110 Democratic absentee ballots had been filed in their office while a total of 57 Republican votes had been recorded.

Most of the area counties that compose the Top O' Texas will have at least one contested election Saturday, but Hemphill County is faced with a heavy race for the Sheriff's post and the two county commission posts open.

On the state level, Texans will select a U.S. Senator nominee from a field of two, including incumbent Ralph Yarborough, while Republicans will attempt to name one of four men to oppose the Democrat.

The race for governor is also attracting some interest in the Democratic camp where incumbent John Connally is being opposed by Don Yarborough, not related to the Senator.

Austin politicians predicted a little less than 15 million voters will make the trip to the polls for the Democratic primary and about 225,000 for the Republicans.

At least four GOP presidential hopefuls will keep their eyes peeled on the Texas election because of the preferential "straw vote," the first ever in Texas.

Pampa's Annual Clean Up Drive City trucks will pick up trash in Ward 1 on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week. Collections will be made in the entire area north of R. H. and W. Foster Sts. and east of N. Cuyler and Mary Ellen Sts.

Horse and Buggy Thief Liberated After 59 Years

NEW YORK (UPI) — Benjamin Brenner was indicted as a horse thief 59 years ago. He was accused of stealing a horse and buggy on June 14, 1905, and sent to a mental hospital. Recently, a psychiatrist gave him a periodic examination and said he was "no longer a menace to society" and recommended he be released. Supreme Court Justice Miles McDonald dismissed the indictment against him Thursday making it possible for the 89-year-old man to go free. "Why, he was arraigned on the original charge 12 days before I was born," Judge McDonald noted.

Man Arrested in Office of Romney

LANSING, Mich. (UPI) — An unidentified man with a loaded revolver in a briefcase and a jackknife in his pocket was arrested by a state police bodyguard today when he tried to force his way into the office of Gov. George Romney. Romney was not injured.

The time he later said he doubted the man meant him any harm. The man first identified himself as a prominent Dade County (Fla.) Republican leader, then said he was an FBI agent, told troopers he was married to a wealthy woman with large land holdings in South America and that former Vice President Richard Nixon had arranged for him to see Romney.

State Trooper Jav Kennedy, assigned to Romney's office, grabbed the man just as he got one foot inside the office. Kennedy took him into the hallway and the man tried to break free. He was handcuffed. Kennedy looked inside the briefcase carried by the man. It contained a loaded .38 caliber, chrome-plated revolver with a five-inch barrel, a knife, a camera and various papers.

The man told police he was "Charles P. English," former head of the Dade County (Miami) Republican organization. He said he was a state senator elected from Dade County. Police checked his description and said it matched that of a man named "Potts" who often used the alias of Charles P. English. They said "Potts" had a record of carrying a concealed weapon and parole violation.

The man carried identification as Charles P. English. Identity cards in his wallet were from Miami, Fla.; Mansfield, Ohio; Columbia, S.C.; Ithaca, N.Y.; and California. Romney surrounded by eight law enforcement officers, later talked to "English" because "I want to find out what he wants."

Romney said the man was "incoherent." He said "I (Romney) ought to get into the Oregon presidential primary and that Nixon ought to get into it too. He (See ARRESTED, Page 3)

Lady Bird Sees Luci Baines in Blossom Time

WINCHESTER, Va. (UPI)—Luci Baines Johnson, who began her reign as Shenandoah queen with a fond presidential kiss, leads the apple blossom festival parade today with her proud mother looking on.

The First Lady was expected to be in the reviewing stand when her 16-year-old daughter passes by in the grand float with her royal entourage.

Luci was crowned the 37th apple blossom queen Thursday by Air Force Chief of Staff Gen. Curtis E. LeMay. The President made an unannounced trip from Washington to see the ceremonies and later told a crowd of about 5,000 that Luci had always been "a queen" in the Johnson home.

"She has always been the kind of a girl that any parent would want to have," Johnson said.

The black-haired, blue-eyed Luci was thrilled that her father was able to see her crowned queen. "You always want the people you love at your big moments—and this was a big moment," she said.

Saucer Sightings Fall Off for '63

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Air Force's annual "flying saucer" report shows that sightings of temporarily unidentified flying objects fell off around the nation during 1963.

The report, made public Thursday, said there were 382 sightings in 1963 compared to 469 in 1962 and 1,004 in the record year of 1957. The Air Force said it had investigated more than 8,000 sightings over the past 16 years and all but 7.7 per cent of them have been explained on the basis of natural phenomena.

The major causes of saucer reports were said to be astronomical occurrences, planes, balloons, and now, artificial earth satellites. Eighty-one of the unidentified objects reported in 1963 turned out to be satellites.

ISSUES DRAFT
WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Defense Department has issued a draft call for 6,000 men for the Army in June—only half the request for May.

The quota, announced Thursday, was the lowest since the draft fell to 4,000 in February, 1963. The May call of 12,000 was itself a reduction from April's draft of 14,000 men.

Housewife Pilot Lands OK at Wake

WAKE ISLAND (UPI)—Flying housewife Joan Merriam landed her two-engine plane safely at Wake Island tonight, finally completing the oft-delayed Guam-wake leg of her solo flight around the world.

The 28-year-old aviatrix from Long Beach, Calif., completed the 1,500-mile flight from Guam at 7:30 p.m. wake time (3:30 a.m. EDT).

Miss Merriam spent eight days on Guam, where she postponed her flight to Wake Island five times and was forced to turn back on another occasion. The plane developed minor instrument trouble shortly after her takeoff from Guam earlier today, but she decided to continue the 11-hour flight after making minor repairs with a screw driver.

Miss Merriam is following the route planned by Amelia Earhart, who disappeared in the Pacific in 1937 while on a similar flight. Miss Merriam began her journey in Oakland, Calif., on March 17.

Margaret Chase Smith and Harold Stassen. Former vice president Richard Nixon, Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, and Govs. Williams Scranon of Pennsylvania and George Romney of Michigan, were taken off the ballot at their own request.

They could do this under the rules laid down by the state GO Psince they had not announced they were seeking the nomination, but those announced as candidates could not remove their names.

The announced purpose of the vote is to indicate the preference of Texas Republicans, but will not be binding in delegates to the National Convention.

Both parties will hold precinct conventions at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at the polling sites in most instances in Gray County.

Purpose of the conventions is to lay the groundwork for the county and state conventions for each party before the National Conventions this summer.

Democratic Primary

Voters in the Democratic primary in Gray County tomorrow, in addition to the low contest for sheriff between Jordan and Flaherty, will find on the ballot the following uncontested candidates:

Grainger McIlhenny for state representative from the 8th district, Bill Waters for district attorney, Don Cain for county attorney, Jack Back for tax assessor-collector, Joe K. Clarke for Pct. 1 county commissioner, J. M. McCracken for Pct. 3 county commissioner, W. R. Combs for Pct. 1 constable, H. A. Doggett for Pct. 2 constable, J. D. Fish for Pct. 5 constable, and G. L. (Nat) Lunsford for Pct. 2 justice of the peace.

State races on the Democratic primary ballot include: For governor — John Connally, Don Yarborough, Mrs. Mae Hackworth and M. T. Banks.

For lieutenant governor — Preston Smith and Albert Fuentes Jr.

For U.S. Senate — Ralph Yarborough, Gordon McClendon and J. Van Cronkhite.

For land commissioner — Jerry Sadler and Fred N. Williams.

For State Supreme Court — Sears McGee and Jack Pope.

For congressman — at large — Bill Elkins, Joe Poole, Bob Looney, Bob Baker and Dan Sullivan.

Democrats in Gray County who did not pay their poll tax, but registered when the amendment to the Constitution doing away with such taxes was passed, may vote Saturday, but only for three offices.

County Clerk Charlie Thut said today that the registered voters would be given a short ballot with the names of candidates for U.S. Senate, U.S. representative — at large and U.S. representative from the 18th District, on them.

"We are supplying election judges with a list of the people who qualified for voting by registration after the amendment passed," he said. "Proper identification will allow them to vote on the short ballot only."

Thut said the registered voters would also be allowed to take part in precinct conventions along with those holding poll tax receipts.

Thut said he did not think Republicans in Gray County were faced with this problem, since he had not been given a list of registered-voters for which to prepare extra ballots.

Republican Primary

Voters in tomorrow's Republican primary election in Gray County will find no local contests on their ballot. A great deal of interest of Republicans will be centered in the race between Bob Price of Pampa and Frank Hinkson of Parmer County, both seeking nomination as representative to Congress from the 18th Congressional District.

Probably the top attraction to draw conservatives to the polls in the Republican county primary will be the contest of the four United States senatorial candidates — George Bush of Harris County, Jack Cox of Harris County, Dr. Milton V. Davis of Dallas County and Robert Morris of Dallas County.

Uncontested Republican candidates for state offices include Jack Crichton of Dallas County for governor; Horace Houston of Dallas County for lieutenant governor; John Trice of McLellan County for attorney general; Bill Hayes of Bell County for congressman — at large; T. E. Kennerly of Harris County for associate justice of the Texas Supreme Court; Don Flanagan of Dallas County for an unexpired term as railroad commissioner; Dallas Calmes Jr., of Dallas County for comptroller of public accounts; Fred E. Neumann of Jefferson County for state treasurer; John A. Mathews of Taylor County for commissioner of the general land office; and John B. Armstrong of Kleberg County for commissioner of agriculture.

Two Girls Receive Highest In PHS Scholastic Ratings

Two pretty senior girls at Pampa High School walked off with the top scholastic honors today as school officials named the top 10 seniors by grades.

Martha Pattillo and Ann Christie were named as valedictorian and salutatorian by school officials. Miss Pattillo is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pattillo of 1901 Hamilton while Miss Christie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Christie of 807 E. Craven.

Cameron Marsh, principal, said Miss Pattillo took the top honors with a grade average of 96.125 while Miss Christie had an average of 96.038 for second spot.

The grades are based on high school study required for graduation.

Both of the girls are members of the National Honor Society and are leaders at the school, Marsh said, in many programs.

The other eight top senior students are Carol Chase, Ray

Wagner, Karen Moore, Judie Riley, Helen Moffitt, Kathy Larsen, Mark Stiggins and Cynthia Erwin.

The announcement came when plans for a week long program honoring the academically talented students were being finalized by the school.

A banquet which will pay tribute to 112 top students is scheduled for next Friday night at the high school cafeteria which will follow an assembly program during the afternoon that will see each student named presented with an award.

Marsh said the students must have taken English, a foreign language, mathematics, biology and chemistry courses, to qualify for the honors week program.

Marsh said a program for the banquet will include a speech by Robert Ashworth, Amarillo school system superintendent; music from Pampa High School

Randy Headlines Pre-SWC Meet

HOUSTON (UPI)—Texas A&M shotput whiz Randy Matson and the crack Rice University mile relay team will go through their paces Saturday in a warmup meet for the Southwest Conference championships.

Also in the meet will be Texas, co-favorite in the championships with Rice. The championships will be held in Lubbock next Saturday.

Matson and Rice pole vaulter Fred Hansen are both strong Olympic prospects. And Rice's relay team holds the year's best time of 3:09.2.

Hansen is hoping to vault over the 16-foot mark for the first time this year in a meet. In practice, he has done 16-7 once and 16-2 twice.

Matson broke the national freshman record recently in the Drake Relays with a heave of 64-feet, 1-inch. The old mark of 63-7 was held by Californian Dallas Long.

Special Ring
Host Rice track coach Emmet Brunson has designed a special shot put ring for Matson. It is built on the edge of the cinder track close to the stands for better viewing. Brunson also has taken care to see that Hansen's efforts will be seen easily by all with a special place for the vault pit near the stands.

Rice's Ed Red is a top man in the javelin and recently won the Drake Relays with a throw of 230 feet, 8 inches.

While Rice is expected to rack up points in the shorter distances and the Aggies are bringing home the ribbons in the field events, Texas probably will be dominating the longer runs.

Texas could sweep the individual distance events from the half mile up with Loy Gunter in the 880, Richard Romo in the mile and Ken Sunderland in the three-mile run.

Distance Runs
Only two runners, George Stroup of Rice and Iban Bilguta of A&M, are given much chance in the distance runs. Gunter has the top mark of the conference in the half mile with a 1:52.3, as does Romo in the mile—4:10.3.

Sunderland has been clocked at 14:25.7 in the three-mile run. In the freshman division, besides Matson, another top attraction is expected to be the 100-yard dash where James White of Texas A&M will be competing. White, while at Dallas Sunset High last year, was the state's leading sprinter and had a top time of 9.5.

The 440-yard relay will start the varsity running events at 3 p.m., and the varsity mile relay will complete the program at 5:25 p.m.

North-South Semis Today
PINEHURST, N. C. (UPI)—Billy Joe Patton of Morganton, N. C., meets Wayne Jackson of Hampton, Va., today in the 18-hole semifinal of the North-South amateur golf tournament here.

The other semifinal match will be played between Robert W. Allen of West Hartford, Conn., and Dale Morey of High Point, N.C.

Patton, defending North-South champion, sank a 90-foot chip trap shot Thursday to down former titlist Frank Strafachi of Miami 3 and 2 and go to the semifinals.

Jackson earned his berth by beating David Boyd of Atlanta 2-up in Thursday's quarterfinal round.

Allen, last year's runnerup, downed Dick Sideroff of Philadelphia 3 and 2 while Morey was defeating Pat Foy-Brady of Reidsville, N. C., 7 and 6.

The 36-hole final round will be played Saturday.

WAITING HIS TURN—Texas Christian University catcher Mike Stewart has his bat ready, but appears to be headed back behind the plate first apparently, as he has his pads on and his mitt ready. Karras In Shape To Begin Season

DETROIT (UPI)—When star defensive tackle Alex Karras was told that his one-year suspension from the National Football League for gambling activities was lifted, he told his wife, "you can buy that furniture now."

She didn't, but they'll be heading for the store any day now. Karras signed a two-year contract calling for an estimated $22,000 a year with the Detroit Lions Thursday.

Karras, a 250-pound All-Pro defensive tackle, was suspended for 11 months along with Paul Hornung of the Green Bay Packers by National Football League Commissioner Pete Rozelle for betting on games.

Karras said he would report to the Detroit rookie camp two weeks before the veterans are due to report.

"I've been working out playing basketball, handball and working with weights and am in better shape than I usually am at this time of year," the 27-year-old bespectacled Karras, 10-pounds under his normal playing weight, said.

Bill Finnegan Choice In Run for the Roses
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—The trainers of the top four horses among the 12 entered for Saturday's running of the Kentucky Derby wondered today what lay in store for them this time in America's racing classic.

Bill Finnegan, 73-year-old trainer of favored Hill Rise, Horatio Luro, who has second choice Northern Dancer, Elliott Burch, conditioner of Quadrangle, and Mesh Tenney, trainer of The Scoundrel all have been through the Derby grind before.

Luro and Tenney have had ready as I can make him. This one race is 50 per cent horse and 50 per cent jockey and I am glad I have (Willie) Shoemaker to ride. Experience counts here," he said.

Luro sent out Decidedly to set a Kentucky Derby record of 2:00 2-5 in 1962 and Victoria Park to take third in 1960. He did a remarkable training job with Decidedly, who was a slightly built colt. He couldn't take much training. Victoria Park was an average horse but Northern Dancer is a little fellow. But he is compact, muscular and as game as they come.

Tenney won with Swaps in 1955, was 12th with Terrang in 1956 and third with Candy Spots last year.

Rookie Reynolds Really 'Swinging' To Get Job

Does the name Tom Reynolds ring a bell? Probably not, but neither did the name Tom Jones with many until the Academy Awards.

Tom Reynolds and Tom Jones have only one thing in common. They're both real swingers, but the comparison ends right there.

Jones, a cinematic sexpot, never cared anything about base hits and merely lived from one-skylark to the next. Reynolds, on the other hand, is a level-headed 22-year-old Kansas City rookie who lives for the day he can nail down a regular job.

He certainly went about it the right way Thursday when he blasted a three-run homer over the center field fence in the first inning and singled home another run in the third to pace the Athletics to a 10-3 victory over the Detroit Tigers.

Dick Farrell Stomps LA Dodgers Again

Dick Farrell, a guy with the memory of an elephant, stomps all over the Dodgers every chance he gets.

He admits he enjoys it, too, and that's becoming obvious because he now has beat them more times than he has any other club in the National League.

The hard-throwing, 30-year-old Houston right-hander took particular relish in snapping the Dodgers' four-game winning streak, 7-3, Thursday night for his third straight victory without a loss.

Farrell, owner of a 14-8 lifetime record against the Dodgers, has nursed a deep-seated resentment against them since they dumped him into the NL player expansion pool at the end of the 1961 season.

Blamed By Dodgers
He didn't mind being thrown into the pool so much as he did being blamed by the Dodgers for their failure to win the pennant that year. Farrell had an 8.7 record that season, with a 5.18 earned run average and the Dodgers let it get around that he cost them a shot at the World Series.

Farrell has never forgotten and it shows in his work against them. He was clipped for nine hits Thursday night but struck out nine and had the added satisfaction of boosting the seventh-place Colts a full game ahead of the Dodgers.

With the score tied at 3-3 in the seventh, the Colts kavood loser Phil Ortega during a four-run rally in which rookie Mike White singled across the tie-breaking run and Rusty Staub contributed a bases-loaded double.

White, the son of Milwaukee Coach Jo Jo White, came through with the tie-breaker as a pinch hitter for Walt Bond, who had three-for-three, including a two-run homer in the first inning.

The first-place Philadelphia Phillies beat the Cincinnati Reds, 3-1, in the only other NL game played as rain washed out the Pittsburgh-Milwaukee and San Francisco-Chicago contests.

Left-hander Dennis Bennett was staked to a two-run lead in the first inning against the Reds and that was all he needed for his second victory.

Bennett gave up eight hits and had more trouble with Tommy Harper on the base paths than he had with all the rest of the Reds put together.

Gal Golfers Tee Off in Invitation
ALEXANDRIA, La. (UPI)—Top money-winner Mickey Wright and Titleholders titlist Marilyn Smith reigned as co-favorites among 35 women pro golfers who tee off today in the Clifford Ann Creed Invitational.

But the field held plenty of upset potential, including the former Alexandria schoolteacher for whom the tourney is named and Mary Lena Faulk, who led the top foursome in Thursday's pro-am preliminary.

Harvesters Face Lubbock 9s Here

The down, but not out, Pampa Harvesters start the second round in district 3-AAAA play this weekend as they host Lubbock at 4 p.m. today and league-leading Monterey tomorrow at 2 p.m.

"Although Monterey has a 7-1 mark and Tascosa and Borger each are a game behind, this district can be a lot closer at the end of this weekend," said PHS coach Ray Howard. "Right now Lubbock is real hot. Monterey has to play Borger and Big Joe Robinson today, Pampa tomorrow and Lubbock Tuesday. The whole picture can change with a few upsets. Lubbock will probably throw left-hander Dorian Clawson against us and right-hander Gary Washington against Borger, then come back with Clawson for the Plainsmen."

Howard was not positive about his starting pitchers today and tomorrow, as his two top hurlers, Jerry Garrison and Jim Arthur have both been bothered by stiff elbows. "A lot will depend on whether it's a right-hander's or a left-hander's wind at Optimist Park too," pointed out Howard. "Right now Jim feels good, we hope to go with him today and Jerry Saturday. Bobby Price did a good job in relief against Tascosa and will be ready if we need him."

"As far as changing the batting order because we just got three hits, I doubt it. Some of the boys, especially Kenny Hebert and Rick Stewart, were hitting the ball hard, but right at somebody. Some of the boys, like Larry Daniels, hit some solid long drives, but Tascosa's good outfield got to them."

PAMPA TRACK COACH Norm Phillips was unsure whether Mark Westbrook would run at the Red Raider Relays in Lubbock this Saturday until Tommy Bryant of the Amarillo News reported that Web Loudat of Roswell was expected to be there, upon which the tobacco-chompin' PHS mentor immediately sent off an entry form.

Mark has run the mile exactly five times this year and the slim junior and ex-880 man has moved from a 4:34 to a 4:27.5 clocking, fifth fastest time in the state this year and third fastest among those who will compete in 4-A at the state meet next weekend.

Bryant said it was the consensus of opinion among coaches and sportswriters who watched him in Odessa that there was just no telling how fast Westy could actually run. There was little doubt, said Tommy, that if Mark had made his kick a few yards earlier he would have won. As it was, Dale McDonald of Abilene Cooper won by a tenth of a second, giving it all he had, while Westbrook was still coming strong at the finish line.

THE FACT THAT the junior has had relatively little experience in running the mile is one factor for the too - late kick. Another, points out Phillips, is that there is simply no one around who can pace him who can work with him. . . . the only times Westbrook ever had any competition prior to regional was in his two duels with Glen Beard of Tascosa. Although it is putting the cart before the horse, it is conceivable that running against Loudat, as well as in state, can push him to new heights this year, instead of next as Phillips' long-range planning had indicated.

MARK WESTBROOK

ALTHOUGH HE STILL has another year in high school, college coaches already have their eye on the Pampa jet, including UT and Oklahoma. Phillips, although naturally pleased to develop another great trackman, would prefer that the college coaches let Mark concentrate on his studies and his running, at least for this year.

Ford Nurses Narrow Lead

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Long - shot Doug Ford nursed a one - shot lead today going into the second round of the $65,000 Tournament of Champions but close on his heels was the formidable figure of defending titlist Jack Nicklaus.

Ford, a 41-year-old veteran playing in this golf classic for the tenth time, fired a five-under-par 67 over the 7,073-yard Desert Inn Country Club on opening day. Nicklaus, who won the tournament by five shots last year, was only a stroke behind with a 68.

Ford's first round was marked by some superlative chipping. He knocked the ball in the cup for a birdie from off the edge of the green once and three times hit wedges to within inches of the hole for three more birds. He capped the round with a 35 - foot putt on 17 for his 67.

Nicklaus, on the other hand, simply overpowered the course. The longest hitter in golf today, he was on three of the four five - par holes in two shots for easy two - putt birdies.

The five pars always have been Nicklaus' meat. Last year, Jack was 15 under par for the 16 par five holes played at Desert Inn.

Pressing the leaders in this star - studded field of PGA tournament champions were Bob Charles, the left - hander from New Zealand, and peppery Juan (Chi Chi) Rodriguez.

Lee 9th, Pampa 8th Strong Loop Threats

Lee's 9th grade Rebels and Pampa's 8th grade Reapers both have good chances to cop the crowns in Saturday's district junior high track meet at Borger.

Lee coach John Hale pointed out that Perryton must be considered the 9th grade favorite, but that "we could pull it out." "On the basis of their records in two previous meets, winning their own track meet and placing high up in the Dumas meet, Perryton should be given the nod," said Hale. The grizzled Lee mentor quickly pointed out that the Rebels had placed higher than any district team at the Amarillo meet, and definitely had a chance. Also entered in the meet are Dumas, Phillips, Perryton and Austin and Houston of Borger.

Hale was encouraged by some outstanding practice times turned in by his relay teams and also about one powerhouse addition to the field events.

The sprint relay squad of Ronnie Sanders, Lonnie Richards, David Harris and Gary McCarrell peeled of a 46.4 practice time Tuesday, a definite bid for the marbles if they can repeat. The mile relay crew of Smisson Goodlett, Dwain Owens, Andy Cole and David Hulsey then flew to a 3:50.4 clocking Wednesday, and also are a potent threat. "If our relay teams repeat, we can pull it out," admitted Hale.

The Rebels will also have a double - barreled threat in the discus this week. In addition to consistent placer James Matney, Doc Cornutt, who has been breaking Randy Matson's junior high shot putt records and winning in every meet he had entered, will also fling the discus. The big freshman got off a practice heave of 171 feet this week and gives the Rebs a good chance of capturing both weight events.

Pampa coach Harold Moore again has the problem of missing one of the best men on his slim crew for district, but gets another good one back in an even-up swap. Don Bean, who ran on both relay teams and was the Reapers' top quarter-miler, is ineligible this week.

However, Larry Stephens, who was out of town with the Key Club one weekend and then sidelined with illness, is back. David Martindale or Rowdy Rowden will take Bean's place on the mile relay team, with Stephens probably running the 440 and the sprint relay spot.

Best bet for the Reapers is dashman Lane Hooten, a consistent placer, who has a 10.7 clocking in the 100 and a 23.7 in the 220.

Moore warned that the Reapers have been down for the last two meets, but are definitely "up" for district competition and could surprise.

The quiet man of P-JH definitely indicated expectations of taking the 8th grade win. "Dumas is favored to win on the basis of their win at Perryton, but we placed a strong second to them. As a matter of fact, we got more first places than anyone else, we lost it on depth. If we can get a lot of the boys in the finals and get some depth for those other places, we can take it."

Hale admitted that Dumas and Pampa looked strong in the 8th grade, but pointed to several Johnny Reb standouts who could give a battle, favored Kenny Ferguson in the shot, and David Schaub in the sprints, as well as Dickie Henley, Mike Brown and Wendell Watson.

Weaver Leading In Turner Open

BURNEYVILLE, Okla. (UPI) —Texan Burt Weaver led a host of par - busting young golfers into the second round of the Waco Turner Open tournament today with a healthy share of the nearly $6,000 in bonus money shelled out by the affair's wealthy sponsor.

Weaver's lead was a slender one, however, since his opening round 36-31-67 was just one of 26 sub - par scores — an unexpectedly high number — posted by the PGA tours so - called also rans over the long Turner lodge-private course.

An even dozen golfers were within three strokes of the leader, 13 others were a stroke further back with 71s and 12 more matched par 36-36-72 over the 7,040 yard course which is so long it took five hours for a threesome to complete a round.

Unknown Joe Spinola of Richmond, California was Weaver's closest pursuer with a 33-35-68 that stood up as opening day's low round for six hours until Weaver came in with the sunset shadows on the impetus of a torrid five-under-par back nine.

An unofficial count indicated the 143 pros nicked sponsor Turner's oil rich bonus pocket for 346 birdies, worth $15 each; 15 chip - ins at $25 per; and 53 eagles with a going price of $30 for a total of $5,965 counting the $100 given the daily leader.

Weaver, who has never won a tour title, got that $100 plus $95 more with three birdies and an eagle crowded into a seven hole stretch on the hilly back nine. It could easily have been more, but the 32-year-old Beaumont product flubbed short putts on the last two holes.

Otherwise, the biggest bonus winners were Dan Sikes of Ponte Verda, Fla., who had seven birdies, a chip - in and an eagle for $150 en route to a 35-34-69; Paul Bondeson of Palm Springs, Calif., with five birds and an eagle for $125 while posting a 36-34-70, and Cliff Brown of Cleveland, Ohio, who had three birds and an eagle and a chip - in for $120 in a 37-34-71.

Cokes Favored Over Hayward

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) —Seventh-ranked Curtis Cokes of Dallas, Tex., was rated an 8-5 favorite over Stanley (Kitten) Hayward in their nationally-televised welterweight bout tonight which both hope to use as a springboard for a title fight.

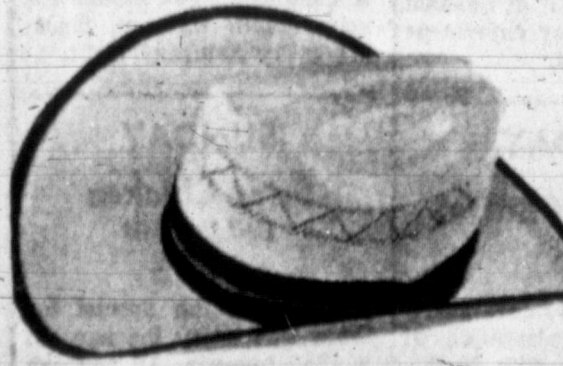

Both Cokes, 26, and Hayward, 23-year-old Philadelphian who who is ranked 10th, hope an impressive win in tonight's bout at the Blue Horizon Arena can start them on the climb toward a title match against welterweight champion Emile Grif-fith.

Phyllis Diller Real
Rarity in Show Biz

By DICK WEST
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Phyllis Diller is something of a show business rarity, being one of the few women ever to make it big as a "stand up" comic.

I shall now endeavor to explain what "stand up" comedy is. "Stand up" comedy is the opposite of "situation" comedy as seen on television. In other words, it is funny.

I spent about three hours in Mrs. Diller's company one recent evening to see if I could discover the secret of her success. The first hour she was on stage at the Blue Room, a local lecture hall. The rest of the time she was off stage.

Just Beyond Fringe
As far as I could tell, Mrs. Diller doesn't know the difference. On stage or off, she was always a few paces beyond the fringe, so to speak. Which in my opinion is a fine place to be.

It might be said then that Mrs. Diller is on even when she's off, and when she's on, she's off. That may not be a very lucid delineation of her personality, but it's the best I can do.

she might swallow them. Mrs. Diller said she rejoiced at being able to buy the ring because she came from a poor family and did not have many luxuries as a child.

Sells Three Books
Her father was an encyclopedia salesman. Only he never did sell but three. I asked Mrs. Diller which encyclopedias her father sold and she said "A, B and S."

She said her father had trouble understanding that the books were supposed to be sold as a set.

Mrs. Diller had a long career as a housewife before she got into show business. She said she felt the change would do her good. Besides that she was 18 years behind with her ironing.

I might have thought she was exaggerating her housekeeping deficiencies had I not attended a little party in Mrs. Diller's hotel suite after her show.

Mrs. Diller, who uses carpet bags for luggage, had unpacked her things and arranged them in symmetrically unbalanced heaps all over the bedroom floor.

She explained that this was the only way she could keep track of her extra eyelashes.

In order for the guests to reach the bathroom, it was necessary to play hop scotch over the hostess' belongings.

And, as the saying goes, we were playing with real scotch.

EDUCATION: A pay raise for teachers and professors. Scholarships for deserving college students. Tuition in state colleges and universities reduced from $50 to $25 per semester. Tuition-free junior colleges established throughout the state. Expansion of vocational schools for both industry and agriculture. More junior colleges in the Panhandle.

LOAN SHARKS: A real regulatory loan shark bill instead of the present law which legalizes up to 3200 percent interest rates on small loans that the present governor had passed.

EQUAL RIGHTS FOR WOMEN

BEEF IMPORTS: Require the labeling of foreign beef imports into Texas with the country of their origin.

OLD AGE PENSIONS: An increase in old age assistance payments from the present average of $53 a month, using as our ultimate goal California's $176 per month.

SALES TAX: An all-out fight against expansion or increase in the sales tax. Near the close of the legislature, the Governor signed into law the new tax bill, cutting $20,000,000 out of the taxes paid by big eastern pipelines, banks, sulphur companies, international oil companies and other giant monopolies. Worse still, the governor's tax bill also extended the sales tax to work clothes. The Governor asked for a sales tax on farm implements, too, just as Don Yarborough warned.

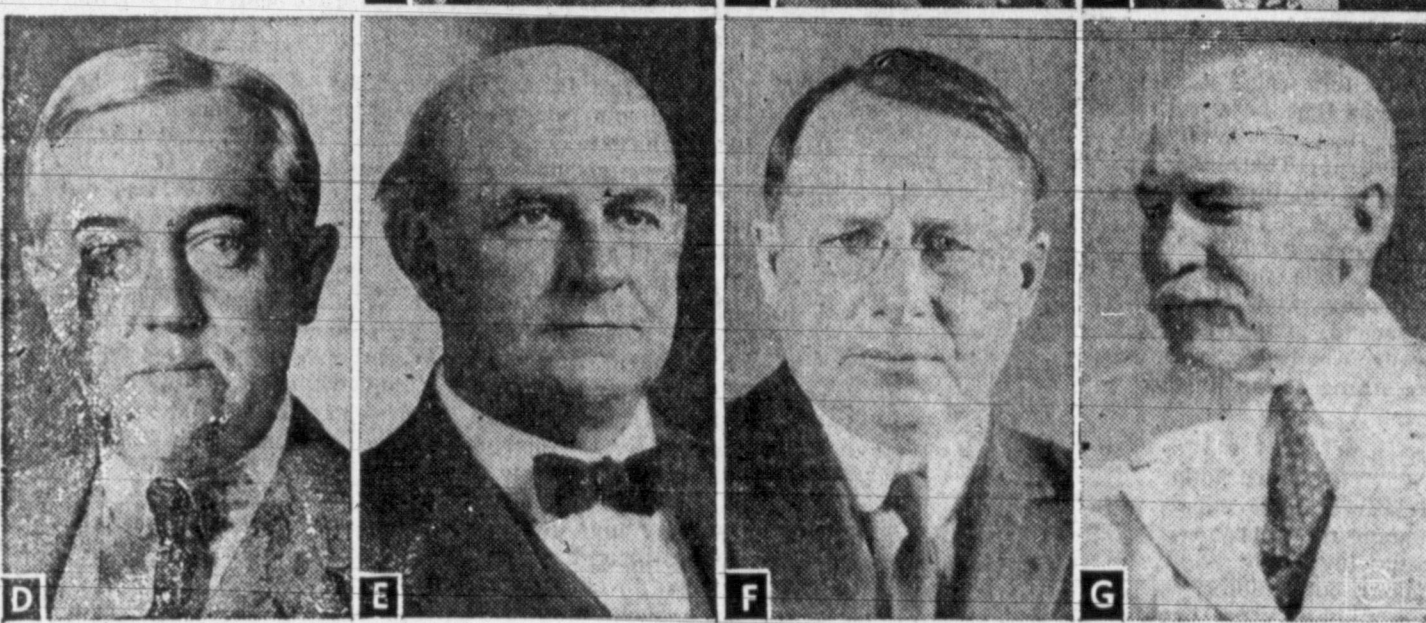

TAXATION: A constitutional tax on natural gas pipelines and an increase in the oil allowable. If the oil allowable were increased from the present eight days to nine, the state would receive an extra eight million dollars income per year in taxes.

All the World Loves a Loser
(But Nobody Remembers Him)

Winning candidates in presidential elections are at least remembered by school-children. But losers, famous at the time of their candidacies, are as familiar as a guy named Albert Wibbledon. The losers pictured here all ran in the 20th century. How many do you recall? Answers below.

A—Alfred M. Landon defeated by Franklin D. Roosevelt (1920). B—Charles Evans Hughes defeated by Woodrow Wilson (1916). C—John W. Davis defeated by Calvin Coolidge (1924). D—Theodore Roosevelt defeated by William McKinley (1896). E—William Jennings Bryan defeated by Woodrow Wilson (1912). F—Warren G. Harding defeated by Franklin D. Roosevelt (1932). G—G. Allen B. Parker defeated by Theodore Roosevelt (1904).

WASHINGTON—Father John F. Cronin of the National Catholic Welfare at a meeting of religious leaders in support of the civil rights bill:

"There has been a great awakening of conscience among church and synagogue members in the past year. Many have begun to realize that racial discrimination is first of all a moral wrong."

NEW YORK — Jules Dubois, Latin American correspondent for the Chicago Tribune, addressing the American Newspaper Publishers Association on the Communist threat in South America:

"Already the Reds are smirking at us from a tiny 90-mile gap; and the ceaseless boring from within shows too plainly in more than half a dozen of our Latin American neighbors."

50 MINERS RESCUED

HUITZUCO, Mexico (UPI) — Fifty miners trapped Tuesday behind a 30-foot wall of earth in a 1,000-foot-deep shaft in the recently-reopened Marina Mine were rescued early Wednesday. Red Cross rescue workers said some of the men were suffering from shock or respiratory disorders, but none was seriously hurt.

More than 500 of Huitzucos' 4,000 people aided the rescue operation.

MOTOR ENGINEER

LINCOLN, England (UPI)—Retired motor engineer Algon Bates, 63, gave four magistrates the benefit of his 66 years' driving experience Thursday when he appeared in court on a careless driving charge.

"I have been driving since 1898 and had never had an accident," he told the magistrates. "I am very proud of my record. I have lived in a car for 66 years, and what I don't know about driving—and I am not boasting—is not worth knowing. I am sound of limb, wind, eyesight and hearing."

The magistrates promptly dismissed the charge.

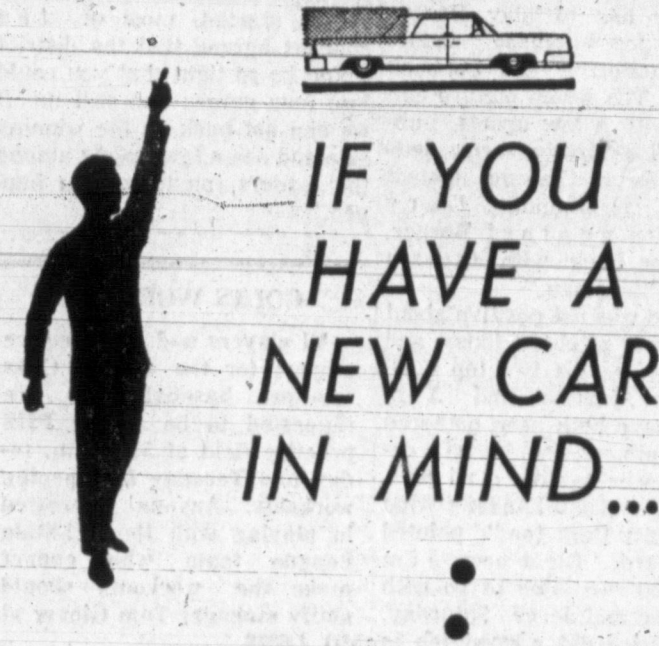

BEST MAN

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Michael J. Silverstein, 21, went to court Wednesday to sue another man in connection with a traffic accident—and ended up with a best man for his wedding.

The same municipal court judge who presided over the traffic claim case officiated at the wedding ceremony.

Senior Center Corner

By MRS. O. A. WAGNER

Several seniors have been reported ill this week including Mrs. Clara Blythe who is confined to the Highland General Hospital; Mr. DeMoss, Mrs. Towe and Mrs. Mollie Hethcock were under the weather, so to speak, and Uncle Billy Frost says he is retiring. He hasn't been out lately.

Porter Pennington is a new member as is Mrs. Birdie McKinney. Welcome to the Center.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Burgin are Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Burgin of Duncan. The L. B. Burgins were guests at the Center and reported that they enjoyed it very much. Guests are always welcome.

A week end guest of Mrs. P. H. Gates was her sister, Mrs. Edna Nunally of Casey, N. M. Everyone was admiring the lovely art display in the library. Some were done in oil, others in water color and charcoal. A large oval coffee table with the top done in green fired glass overlaid with liquid plastic received great admiration. A display that any school could be proud of! Congratulations to Pampa High.

Hostesses were members of Epsilon Sigma Alpha. Serving were Mmes. Charlene Frasier, Juanita Bentley, Janice Tucker, Pat Treadway, Barbara Maher, Thelma Cruise. Delicious home made pies were served with coffee and a little bird told me that Uncle Billy Frost had one of the pies delivered to him after the meeting. Lucky man! Gray Ladies providing transportation were Mmes. O. F. Kreimeyer, A. D. Hills, George Benham and Jess Hatcher.

Altruists present were Louise Sewell, Lena Pearl Hobbs, Charlene Yeager. Congratulations to Mrs. Jack Foster on her election as vice president of the Panhandle Association of the Red Cross. Mrs. Foster brought her mother, Mrs. Adah Brown of St. Louis, Mo., to the Center.

Adios until next week. Love, Mrs. Wagner

The Doctor Says

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT

Q — Every time I wore a dark blue suit I bought last year, my legs broke out with a severely itching rash. I wrote to the manufacturer and he said that the material (wool and dacron) was handled daily by many employees and worn by thousands of customers without causing any reaction. Do you think my trouble was due to the material or the dye? Is there any way I can be immunized against the cause?

A — You should have your doctor make a patch test with small samples of wool of different colors and samples of dacron as well. This should narrow the cause down to one of the materials or to a dye. If the dye is at fault, ask the manufacturer to give you a complete list of its components. Then, if possible, you should have patch tests made with pieces of white cleansing tissue to which each ingredient has been added. When you have discovered the specific cause it may be possible for your doctor to desensitize you — a tedious process at best — or you may be able to avoid further contact with the irritant.

Q — My nose is sore on the inside summer and winter, in damp weather and dry. It cracks and never stays healed longer than two or three days at a time. What can I do to heal it?

A — The nose bruises and bleeds easily. Its mucosal lining is very thin and covers a dense network of blood vessels. Removing hard crusts can easily cause cracking and slight bleeding. If hard crusts are a part of your trouble, you should keep the lining membranes softened with a thin coating of petroleum jelly. If this does not help, have your doctor see whether you have a small ulcer that needs to be cauterized.

Q — I have a congenital heart defect called patent ductus arteriosus. I am 20 and I am able to swim, play tennis and dance without causing heart symptoms. What are my chances of living a normal life span?

A — This type of congenital heart leakage is due to a failure of the communication between the pulmonary artery and the aorta to close. The size of the leak varies greatly in different individuals and the smallest opening may cause the loudest murmur and the least interference with normal circulation. The fact that you can lead an active life without cardiac symptoms is evidence that yours is a very slight defect. It should not affect your life span.

Dear Abby...

Do They Or Don't They?

It's A Major Question
By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: That person who wanted to know if blondes really had more fun obviously wasn't a blonde or she would have known better. People do turn around and look at blondes because they are more striking than girls with any other color hair. But don't assume that just because blondes are stared at more it is to their advantage. Other women are jealous of blondes. This is a fact. And when people are jealous of you, it can be rough. How many blondes ever win beauty contests? Not very many. Why? Because if the judge chose a blonde, when he got home, his wife would kill him. Thank you.

RUNNER-UP (BLONDE)

DEAR ABBY: That person who wrote in to say that blondes had more fun was badly mistaken. I was a natural blonde, and I had those white eyelashes and eyebrows to go with it. Believe me, I wasn't having very much fun. Last year I decided to do something about it. I had my hair, eyebrows, and eyelashes dyed black! It changed my whole personality. I now look vivid and alive! My skin is very pale and since I have become a brunette, people have told me that they have never seen bluer eyes. (No one even noticed my eyes when I was a blonde.) Here is one blonde who wouldn't go back to being a blonde for anything!

TRANSFORMED

DEAR ABBY: Why do people pick on blondes? When they want to slam somebody, they say, "Dumb blonde" or "Dizzy blonde". Even just plain "blonde" implies that a girl is kind of cheap. I have noticed that the flashy, loud blondes that give all blondes a bad name are not really blondes at all; they are brunettes who have decided to become blondes. Please give us blondes a break, Abby, and print this.

Episodes Reveal Flaw In Modern Citizens

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International

A few weeks ago, in a quiet residential neighborhood of New York, 38 people watched a killer stalk a defenseless woman.

It took him half an hour—and three separate attacks—to complete the brutal business of stabbing her to death. During that time, any one of the on-lookers might have saved her life simply by picking up the telephone and calling the police. Not one of them lifted a finger to help her. As they explained later to police, they didn't want to get involved.

On April 13, nearly 3,000 people gathered in the streets around the DeWitt Clinton Hotel in Albany, N.Y., to watch an emotionally distraught 19-year-old boy pace back and forth along a narrow ledge on the 11th floor.

"Go ahead and jump," somebody yelled. "Don't be chicken, jump," shouted another spectator.

"Jump, jump, jump," chanted a crowd of boys in unison.

Crowd Disappointed

When police finally pulled the boy to safety, members of the crowd made no secret of their disappointment. "They really wanted to see him die," said a fireman, shaking his head in disbelief.

What do these episodes reveal about the mental and spiritual health of our urban society? What do they say about the state of religion in America?

Dr. Robert H. Felix, director of the National Institute of Mental Health and past president of the American Psychiatric Association, said both incidents demonstrate the "dehumanizing" effects of life in an urban environment where relationships tend to become increasingly impersonal.

"One of the marks of a fully civilized human being is a capacity for empathy and compassion towards others," he said. "People who stand by and watch a helpless woman be murdered, or exhort a boy to commit suicide to provide them with a 'thrill,' are acting in a way that can only be described as sub-human."

Dr. Frank E. Gaebelin, editor of Christianity Today Magazine, said the incidents are symptomatic of the "callousness" which is widespread in contemporary society.

"We have become hardened—perhaps even addicted—to violence," he said. "The dreadful wars we have been through seem to have cheapened the value we place on a human life."

Family Week to Start Sunday at Christian Church

Sunday at Lamar Christian Church begins Christian Family Week. The Festival of the Home, May 3-10 is a special season for honoring the home, uniting the family in Christian worship and service, calling each family into the fellowship of The Family of Families, the Church.

At the morning worship, beginning at 10:45, Loren E. Williams, the minister, will use for his text Gen. 5: 21-24 and Heb. 11:1-12. His message will be "After the Baby Came." Mrs. J. J. Rance will be at the organ playing two numbers by Bach: "Abide With Us O Lord Jesus Christ" and "Glory Be to God on High."

Church School begins at 9:45. Chi Rho Fellowship at 5:30; and evening worship at 7. The Lord's Table is spread both morning and evening.

TRIO — Kingsman Trio, gospel singers of Dallas, will sing Sunday, at the Fellowship Baptist Church, 622 E. Francis, during both the 9:45 a.m. Sunday School program, and the 11 a.m. church service. Rev. Earl Maddux, pastor, has invited the public to both services.

Calvary Baptists Announce Plans For Two Stage Revival Effort

Plans have been announced for a two stage revival effort at the Calvary Baptist Church, 620 S. Barnes. The meeting will "Blast Off" with a youth led campaign under the leadership of Richard Cheatham, sophomore at Wayland Baptist college, in Plainview. The 19-year-old evangelist has conducted 66 revivals since entering the ministry at the age of 12. Cheatham is a member of the varsity track squad and is active in other phases of the Campus life at Wayland.

The youth led meeting has been set for May 8, 9, 10. Although, youth emphasis will be made during this phase of the effort, all persons are invited to participate. The weekend effort will be climaxed by a dramatic production by members of the Wayland Mission band who will arrive in Pampa Sunday morning. The team will have charge of other activities during the day.

After the initial phase of the revival, the second stage will continue from May 11 through May 17, as the Pastor, Rev. Joe Hawn conducts the services, both morning and evening. Hawn has recently come to Pampa from Wheeler county where he pastored the First Baptist Church, Kelton. He be-

Pampa Witnesses Finalize Plans For Convention

Pampa families of Jehovah's Witnesses are finalizing plans to attend a three-day convention at the Fairgrounds in Guymon, Oklahoma, May 22-24.

"Three times annually the Watchtower Society sponsors circuit assemblies such as the one in Guymon," Conner said. "Here the work of the circuit is analyzed along with a varied program of Bible talks designed to advance our knowledge and effectiveness in the preaching work."

According to Conner, more than 500 delegates from a three-state area will be in Guymon where surveys are being conducted to accommodate the hundreds of families from 15 congregations who will be in attendance.

Principal speaker for the convention will be Peter D'Mura, District Supervisor of a seven-state area, who will address the convention Sunday at 3 p.m. on the subject, "Facing Up to the Urgency of Our Times."

The Guymon congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses will be host to representatives from 30 communities in western Kansas, Oklahoma and the Panhandle of Texas.

Central has a fully graded Sunday School and Training Union to teach the Bible to all ages. Sunday School meets at 9:45 a.m. Training Union is at 6 p.m.

Pastors, Laymen To Participate In Area Meet

Pastors and leading laymen of the Church of the Nazarene in this area will take part in the annual Abilene, or Northwest Texas, district assembly at the Northside Nazarene church in Fort Worth, May 13-14.

The presiding general superintendent will be Dr. Samuel Young, of Kansas City, Mo., chairman of the board of General Superintendents, who has served since 1948 in the highest elective office of the church.

The Rev. Raymond W. Hurn, Lubbock, will give his annual message as district superintendent. District officers will be elected.

Final plans will be made for participation by local Nazarenes as delegates and guests at the 16th General Assembly of the church at Memorial Coliseum, Portland, Ore., June 18-26.

At the district gathering, annual reports will be made by pastors of 96 churches. These churches have about 6,000 members and a Sunday school enrollment total of 10,000.

The Church of the Nazarene is the largest Protestant denomination that stands for scriptural holiness in the Wesleyan tradition.

It has doubled its world membership in the last 20 years and now has 401,352 members in about 5,000 churches. It maintains work in 44 countries. International offices are at Kansas City, Mo.

Rev. West to Continue Series

Sunday morning at eleven o'clock at the Church of the Brethren, 600 North Frost St., the pastor, Russell G. West Sr., will continue his series of sermons on Beliefs and Practices of the Church of the Brethren.

This Sunday he will deal with the Missionary outreach of the Church, using as his subject, "Pampa Beyond Pampa." Like most churches the Brethren had to close down their mission work in the main land of China when the Communists took over.

They now promote missions in India, South America, Indonesia, Puerto Rico and Africa. At present the fastest-growing missionary enterprise is in Nigeria, Africa.

Sunday School will open at 9:45 a.m. with Bryce Hubbard, the superintendent in charge. A nursery is provided for babies and small children.

An illustrated lecture on Camp Spring Lake, composed of 108 colored slides will be given by the pastor, assisted by the young people, at 7:30 p.m. This lecture is a part of the twentieth anniversary celebration of Spring Lake Camp and will cover the high points of the history and development of the Camp. The evening will open at 6 p.m. with a fellowship salad supper as a part of May Family Night. Mrs. Ruth Hubbard and Mrs. Jo Ann Welch will serve as hostesses. There will also be a brief meeting of the women and of the men following the supper.

Sermon Topic Set For First Baptist

The Weekly Message Of Inspiration

Rev. Russell West
Church Of The Brethren

A Call to Intercessory Prayer 1 Timothy 2: 1-6

"First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all men, for kings and for all who are in high positions, that they may lead a quiet and peaceable life, godly and respectful in every way. This is good and it is acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as a ransom for all."

Recently I met a little boy near Johnstown, Pennsylvania, who pleaded with his mother, who was ready to give him a spanking: "Mother, he pleaded, 'please don't spank me! Please don't Mother! You know it won't do any good. Why don't you try praying for me!'"

We have a lot of people in our world who seem to need a good spanking. At least that's the way we sometimes feel. In many ways our world is sick. It is torn asunder by friction and group hatred.

The Arab hates the Jew; the Jew hates the Arab!
The Turk hates the Greek; the Greek hates the Turk!
The black hates the white; the white hates the black!
The North hates the South; the South hates the North!
The East hates the West; the West hates the East!
The Rich hate the poor; the poor hate the rich!
Labor hates Capital; Capital hates Labor!
Liberal hates Conservative; Conservative hates Liberal!

Those who spread bitterness and hatred seem to hate everybody!

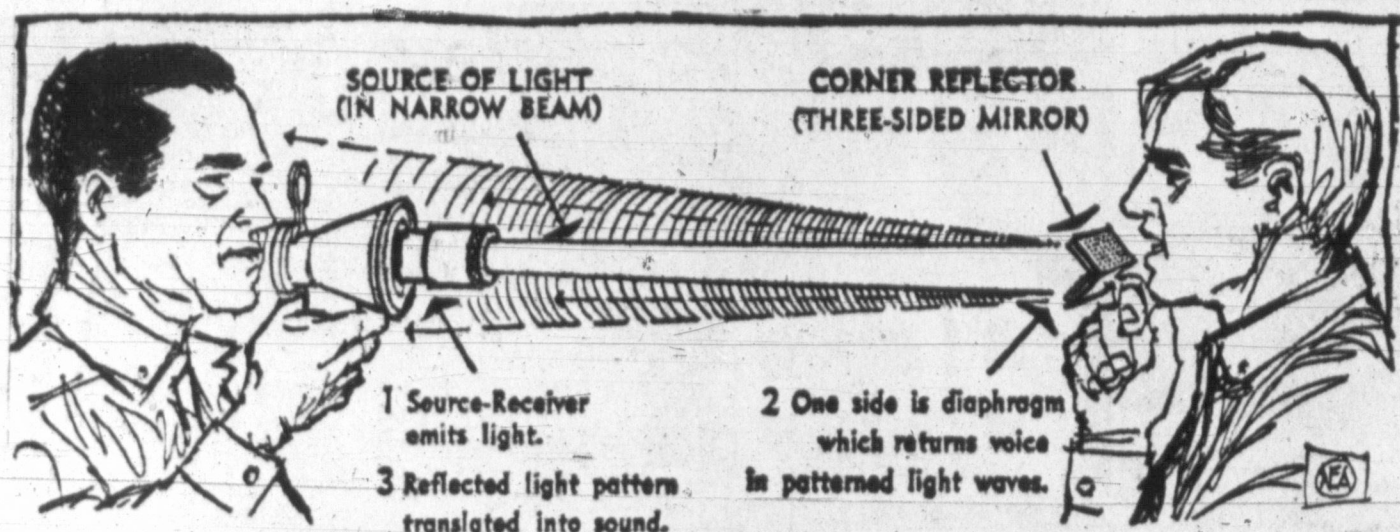

This recalls to me the statement of Isaiah the Prophet regarding the conditions in his own country. In chapter 1, verse 4-6 we read: "Ah, sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, offspring of evildoers, sons who deal corruptly! They have forsaken the Lord, they have despised the Holy One of Israel, they are utterly estranged. Why will you still be smitten, that you continue to rebel? The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. From the sole of the foot even to the head, there is no soundness in it, but bruises and sores and bleeding wounds!"

In the midst of a world afflicted by group hatred, open sores and bleeding wounds, it is refreshing to know that God does not hate anybody. God hates sin, but loves the sinner! It was into a world of sin, sinning, and sinners that Jesus came in the love of God to redeem us. We should never forget that "while we were yet sinners Christ died for us." If God hates sinners, no human being on this earth would have a hope of salvation! God hates nobody! Christ hates nobody! The true follower of Christ hates nobody!

God hates all manner of sin, injustice, oppression, wickedness, vice, crime, drunkenness, prejudice, malice, hatred, bigotry, impurity, immorality, fornication, irreverence, ungodliness, selfishness, lawlessness, thievery, murder! "The wages of sin is death!" Saint Paul says, in Galatians 5:21, "I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God." God is loving and kind and merciful and forgiving toward those who repent and come back to Him through Christ. He has also given to man a freedom of choice, by which he can choose to spend eternity in either heaven or hell.

God wants "everybody to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth." Therefore, as God's redeemed children, we are urged to "pray for all men." That, my friends, is a big program, but that's our mission on earth!

TALKING BY FLASHLIGHT—Light, the stuff that lets us see, is now being used to help us talk. A device to make this possible, called a Retrometer, has been built at Langley Research Center, Va., for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. As illustration above shows, a light beam is broken up into new wave lengths and returned beams are transformed into sound by means of a light-sensitive electronic receiver. While the scientific principle is not new, the use of a "corner reflector" mirror to return the beam is an innovation. The mirror keeps the beam concentrated on the return journey. NASA has made the invention available to anyone who wishes to develop it.

United Press International
Politicians and newsmen alike are playing it cozy in Indiana where Alabama's Gov.
George C. Wallace is campaigning against the Johnson administration in the state's presidential preference primary. They make no public predictions. Election day is next Tuesday, May 5.

Knowledgeable but any-mous observers in Indiana will tell you, however, that Wallace may poll 40 to 45 per cent of the Democratic vote next Tuesday. Pollsters report that a heavy vote also is building up for Wallace in Maryland where he also is entered. Election day there is May 19.

Indiana's Democratic Gov.
Matthew E. Welsh is the administration candidate, pledged of course, to President Johnson's nomination. Democratic Sen. Daniel Brewster is Johnson's Maryland stand-in. The state organization in Indiana under Gov. Welsh is going it alone in the fight with Wallace.

May Visit Maryland
There are reports, unconfirmed, that President Johnson and a platoon of other nationally known Democrats will sortie into Maryland against Wallace. Johnson's participation seems doubtful. He was in Indiana last week on a poverty tour and spoke twice in the state. But the President avoided all reference to Wallace and to the primary campaign. He did not put his personal prestige on the line.

Samuel Lubell has just emerged from a Maryland poll.
Lubell has solid credentials—as a pollster. He found about 33 per cent of registered Maryland Democrats for Wallace and 15 to 20 per cent more undecided so far.

Lubell found a sampling of two thirds of eastern shore men and women for Wallace.
The eastern shore of Maryland lies between the Atlantic and the Chesapeake Bay, a little Dixie area as southern in tradition as Georgia. One of Lubell's conclusions will give the administration pause. It was this: "Reaction along the eastern shore suggests that President Johnson is in for much more political trouble in the (Deep) South than is generally assumed."

Short of a crash program sprung by panic, it seems unlikely that Johnson will risk his personal prestige by appearing in Maryland against Wallace.
The governor's presidential campaign is not taken seriously, even by himself. But he has sparked a show of protest against civil rights developments and against the New Deal-Fair Deal-New Frontier foundations of the Johnson administration.

Opposes Civil Rights Wallace opposes the civil rights bill as a state's rights man. He denies that he is campaigning as a segregationist. However that may be, Wallace is in fact an all-out segregationist. He appeals for votes to shake up what he calls the liberals in Washington, obviously meaning the Johnson administration.

President Johnson's intervention in the Maryland primary would point up the idea Wallace seeks to emphasize, that a vote for him is a vote against Johnson.

You, Your Child and School

EPI Education Specialist Examinations are an important part of the education process. Regardless of arguments for or against the merits of exams, students must take and should perform well on them.

Since exams are used as a measure of achievement and success, the realistic student should make every effort to improve his scores. This involves more than just studying and knowing the material being tested. There are many good students who constantly score low on tests.

One cause of low test scores is related to emotional or physical factors. The student who is afraid of an exam becomes tense and sometimes panicky.
At the exam he becomes confused, forgets information, and may even develop physical symptoms such as stomach pains, nausea, headaches, etc.
The result is a poor score.

What can be done to prevent such extensive upset? The problem results from pressure to attain high grades. This pressure may be exerted by parents or teachers who over-emphasize perfection. If this is the case, the cure is obvious.
The pressure may also be exerted by the student himself. In this situation, professional guidance is helpful.

Ease The Pressure
Parents can help, in either case, by using their influence to provide a relaxed atmosphere at home. Every opportunity should be used to show the child that he is loved and accepted as an individual regardless of school success. This doesn't mean encouraging laziness or poor study habits. It does mean less stress upon grades and more stress upon the importance of non-school activities. Contrary to common belief praise for good work can be a factor in producing pressure.

Another major cause of low test scores is inefficient study methods. Studying should be well organized. Careful planning saves time and produces superior results. A study schedule should be written down, making sure that sufficient time is available for each subject. Since estimates may be inaccurate, extra time should begin with a clarification of which areas will be covered on the exam. This may be done by going over a course outline if provided or reviewing the table of contents in the class textbook.

Review Textbook

The next step is to review the textbook. This can be accomplished by reading the last part of each section or chapter which is usually devoted to a summary. When something unfamiliar is found, the student can then go back and clarify the point in greater detail. One good technique is to look for items which appear to be ideal for test questions.

Perhaps the most important aspect of studying is a review of notes taken during class lectures. Teachers will tend to discuss those points which they feel are most important. It follows that these will more likely appear on an exam. However, don't neglect the text and other required reading since most teachers will include some reference to these other materials.

Tests are constantly used in education. It is important to give consideration to achieving better scores.

The True Facts About Federal Oil Control

Misleading newspaper advertisements are being carried by my opponent on my attitude toward federal control of the petroleum industry by erroneously quoting statements I was supposed to have made at Wichita Falls. My actual statement, made in Wichita Falls on March 26, follows:

"... Although the quotas would be set and administered by an intermediate board, the Compact Commission, this would be done under federal legislation and come close to placing production under federal control.

"The late James V. Alfred of Wichita Falls, was Governor of Texas in 1935 when this proposition was laid out. Governor Alfred blasted it off the table with a few hundred choice words, including these:

"... Federal control means the end of personal effort,
It means the end of personal freedom, it means the end of local self-government, it means the end of states' rights; it means a leveling out process at the hand of the government, trying to equalize and put everybody on the same basis, irrespective of initiative, irrespective of industry, irrespective of individual talent and all those sorts of things that have helped to make America great."

"Governor Alfred recognized even then, nearly 30 years ago, that there was only one way to enforce production quotas as between states, and that was for the federal government to do it. That is just as true today, and probably more so. He was against it then, and I AM AGAINST IT NOW.

"I repeat, as emphatically as I can: Whatever the motives of people who call for mandatory or any other kind of state production quotas, they are inviting — yes,
THEY ARE BEGGING FOR FED-ERAL CONTROL OF THE PE-TROLEUM INDUSTRY."

fact

Contour farming is the practice of following the contour of the land in plowing to reduce soil losses from erosion and to conserve water in the small furrows. In contour farming, the plowman keeps to a level line at right angles to the direction of the slope, the usual result being that furrows that are level curve around the slope.

MILK PAINS

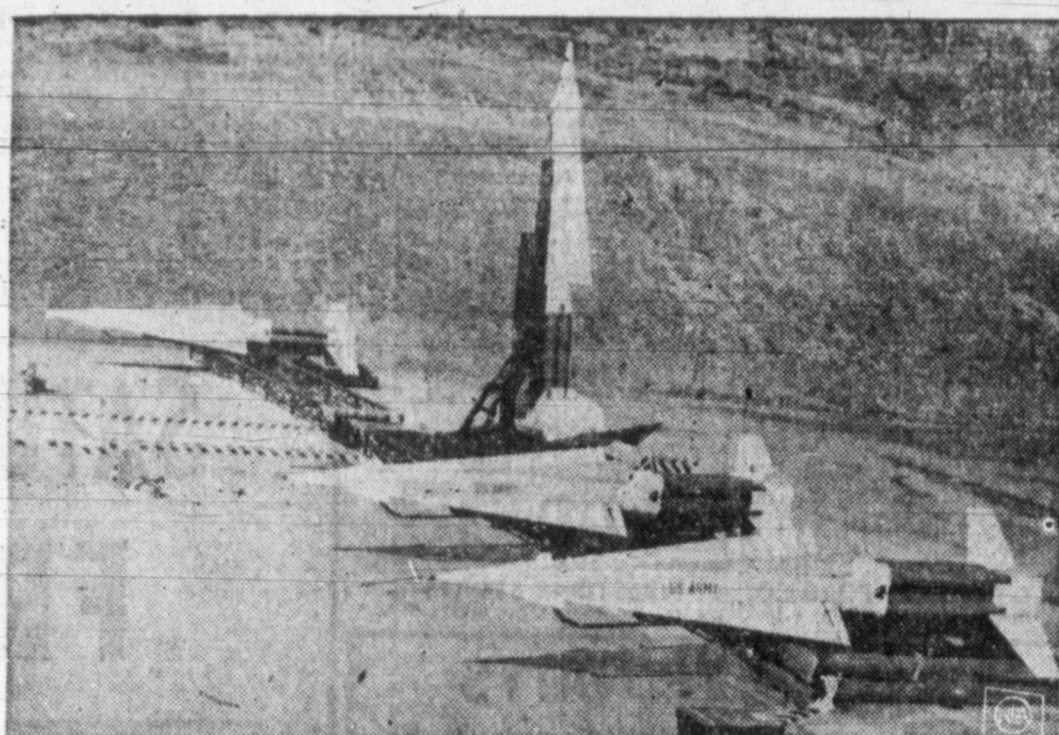

FAIRVIEW, Utah (UPI)—The manufacturer of a widely advertised indigestion tablet can call on a three-year-old Guernsey cow for a testimonial, if he wishes.

Farmer Calvin Garlick found the cow lying in a pasture, badly bloated. He ran to the house, obtained the bottle of tablets from his wife and dumped the whole bottleful into a container of water.

The Garlicks forced the bubbling liquid into the cow, waited a minute and watched as bossy, bellowing and belching, got to her feet—apparently relieved.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate Wednesday approved President Johnson's nomination of Dr. Covey T. Oliver to be ambassador to Colombia and Taylor G. Belcher to be ambassador to Cyprus.

GUARDIANS OF OUR CITIES—Army Air Defense Command's Nike Hercules missile is cocked and ready to fire. After it is away, it is only a matter of seconds before another can be on its way. This is how we are guarded against sneak bomber attack. This battery is in the vicinity of New York City.

BUYS TOOL FIRM

CHICAGO (UPI)—MSL Industries, Inc., has agreed to purchase Sinko Manufacturing & Tool Co., Harwood Heights, Ill., for more than $3 million, consisting of cash, notes and 10,000 shares of MSL stock, it was announced Tuesday.

Foreign Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM

UPI Foreign News Analyst
When French President Charles de Gaulle pulled his naval officers out of the NATO command, he did little to alter physically the already weakened structure of the North Atlantic Alliance.

But what he did do was to emphasize anew the current and continuing difficulties of this oldest and most important of post-war alliances designed for joint Western action to curb communism. Physically, French naval forces in the Mediterranean were removed from NATO command in 1959, and her English Channel forces similarly removed on Jan. 1, 1964. Her naval commitment now is limited to five submarines.

Stirs New Resentment
Politically, the French move stirred new resentment in the United States and Britain and suspicions of the West Germans that De Gaulle's go-it-alone policy also means that he will ignore the 16-month-old French-German treaty of cooperation at any moment of his own convenience.

The treaty provides for consultation and advance notice of any move by either which effects the other, whether military or political.

Neither in this instance nor in French recognition of Red China was the treaty observed.

Presumably France will continue to maintain 75,000 men under NATO command in Germany and the three air wings which also are under NATO. To do otherwise probably would wreck whatever remains of the French-German accord.

Aside from the French attitude three other pressing problems face NATO.

One is the danger of a clash over Cyprus between Greece and Turkey, eastern anchors of NATO in the Mediterranean.

Multi-Nation Force

A second is the multi-nation nuclear naval force now being discussed by eight NATO members, with France here also

Masons From Six Cities to Hold Meet in McLean

A Masonic workshop will be held for officers and members of Masonic Lodges in six cities of the Pampa area at the McLean Lodge in McLean at 8 p.m. Saturday. Officers of Masonic Lodges at McLean, Shamrock, Pampa, Mobetie, Wheeler and Spearman will participate.

John R. Hefley Jr., Twitty farmer, will conduct the workshop. He is also chairman of the Masonic workshop area covering six counties in this Pampa handle area. The workshop will deal with common problems of Masonic Lodges and their operations.

The workshop has been approved by John R. Collard Jr. of Spearman, Grand Master of Masons in Texas, and is part of a semi-annual statewide program covering the quarter-million Masons in nearly 1,000 Masonic Lodges in the state.

Grand Master Collard urged attendance of officers and members of the six lodges invited to participate and stressed that other Masons also are welcome to attend.

standing aloof. The United States seeks an early decision although most of its allies are convinced it must be put off at least until after both U.S. and British elections.

A third bearing the seed of new antagonisms among NATO members is the selection of a successor to Dr. Dirk U. Stikker, the alliance's secretary-general who serves as a counter-weight to the NATO military command.
