CATTLEMEN HEAR SPEECH BY MOODY

HIGHWAY PROBLEM IS SUBJECT OF SPEECH BY EXECUTIVE

(By Associated Press) HOUSTON, March 20.—Governor Dan Moody today renewed his plea for taking the entire burden of state highway building off property and placing it on the traffic before a sympathetic audience of members of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, many of whom own tens of thousands of acres of land.

Governor Moody made but brief reference to the proposed bond issue, a dead issue for at least two years through failure of the last legislature to submit it to the people. He made no definite recommendations concerning the gasoline tax, auto license fees or a gross receipts tax on common carriers, matters expected to come before the first called session of the legislature. The present policy of forcing county property to bear a portion of the expense of building cardinal

DALLAS MAN SLAIN IN OFFICE BRAWL

DISPUTE OVER STENOGRAPHER SAID TROUBLE

FATAL SHOOTING WAS RESULT OF KNIFE ATTACK

(By Associated Press) DALLAS, Tex., Mar. 20.—Attacked with a knife because, he says, he would not sign an agreement binding himself to have nothing more to do with his former stenographer, G. B. Pierce, Dallas insurance man, shot and instantly killed Andrew M. Blue, Jr., stationary salesman, in Pierce's office in a downtown office building here today.

Pierce, slashed on the neck and wounded in the left arm by his own pistol, was released on a $5000 bond after a charge of murder was filed against him by William McGraw, district attorney. He is married and has two children. Blue was unmarried.

The paper which Pierce says Blue tried to force him to sign, involves Miss Irma Tarrant, 21, until last week an employee in Pierce's insurance office.

According to Pierce's statement after the killing, Blue wrote the statement in ink as the men sat on opposite sides of a desk. It included a clause that Pierce was to have no conversations with Miss Tarrant.

"When I refused to sign it, Blue grabbed a knife from my desk and started slashing my neck," Pierce declared. "I couldn't stand there and let him kill me. I grabbed a pistol out of my desk drawer and shot him twice."

One bullet pierced Blue's breast. The other went through his shoulder and through the wall into an adjoining office. Blue fell with a loud cry on the opposite side of the desk from Pierce, and lay still full length on the rug. He was dead.

TALBOT TALKS TO ROTARIANS

'HUMAN BEINGS' FORMS TOPIC OF SPEAKER AT CLUB TODAY

Speaking on the subject of "Human Beings," Col. Wm. H. Talbot, of Dallas, agency manager for the Southern Life Insurance company, was the principal speaker on the program of the Rotary club today noon, at its weekly luncheon.

Col. Talbot declared that business conditions facing the average man challenge the ability to look into the future. "The greatest study before us is human beings, yet it is the least thing we study," he said.

"Quit trying to measure other folks by your own yardstick. If we understand the other fellow, then our brotherly love and fellowship will be natural."

The speaker analyzed human beings as being composed of five different biological types, claiming that:

GANGSTERS GET BLOODY REVENGE

Reprisal for Testimony at Trial Is Seen

NEW YORK, Mar. 20 (AP)—A squad of four or five gangsters drove up to the apartment of Frank Sacco, a former convict, in Astoria, Queens, today, battered down the door and shot him and his wife, Rose, to death.

Sacco, the police said, was released from Sing Sing prison about a month ago, where he had served a term for perjury. They said that search of police records indicated that slayings were in revenge for testimony that Sacco gave in a trial which followed a gang shooting in April, 1925, in which one man was killed and Sacco seriously wounded.

Jessie Charles, Liberty county, charged with the murder of Winfred Kuppel on August 16, 1928.

Silas Jarman, convicted in Grayson county for the robbery in Cooke county on October 8, 1928, of Mrs. A. R. Hasenpflug. It was alleged he threatened her with a steel yard, placing her in fear of her life and bodily harm. It was charged he took an automobile from her.

Mauro Gualardo, Williamson county, convicted of the murder of Arthur Bunnell on May 23, 1928. Jarman was a negro cotton picker working on the Hasenpflug farm. While Mr. Hasenpflug was away the negro went to the house and asked Mrs. Hasenpflug to take him to the fields. After they had started he attacked her and took the car.

The Jones county court verdict of 15 years against Clarence Beauchamp for assault to murder was affirmed. It was charged that Beauchamp shot his wife, Bennie Beauchamp. The two were in an attorney's office at the time of the shooting and were endeavoring to arrange a divorce. Beauchamp claimed he intended shooting himself and wounded Mrs. Beauchamp accidentally.

SEVEN IN JAIL; LARGE QUANTITY OF BOOZE AND MASH CONFISCATED IN DASH ON FARM SOUTH OF TOWN YESTERDAY

Seven persons are in the Lubbock county jail as a result of a series of liquor raids conducted yesterday afternoon and last night by county and city officers. One of the raids was the largest made in the county this year, resulting in the arrest of Luther Bradley and the confiscation of fifteen gallons of liquor and more than 700 gallons of mash.

Bradley was found eight and one half miles southeast of the city testing liquor in a fifty gallon still located in a deep dug-out.

The others who were arrested in Lubbock included R. M. Harkey, George Croker and E. E. Davis, and three negro porters, Arnie Morgan, Dewitt

White and Hershel Bean. All of the arrests were made on warrants after charges had been filed.

BANDIT SLAIN WHEN FLEEING AFTER HOLDUP

NEARBY STORE OWNERS FOUR LEAD INTO ROBBER

(By Associated Press) KANSAS CITY, Kan., Mar. 20.—An unidentified bandit was slain by neighborhood merchants when he attempted to escape after holding up the Industrial State Bank, in the Argentine section here today.

The bandit entered the bank which was crowded with customers, and presented a card to P. W. Porter, a teller. The card, read, "Hold up your hands and give me the money." He also pointed a revolver at Porter, who handed the robber all the money in his case, $1,700.

Another teller, W. A. Trent, jumped on the bandit, and together they fled. Shop owners seized weapons and fired a volley of shots at the bandit as he hurried from the bank toward a motor car parked across the street. The loot was recovered.

Mabel Normand And Husband, Cody, III

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Mar. 20 (AP)—Mabel Normand, often described as the "hard luck" girl of the cinema firmament, and her husband, Lew Cody, well known in the movies, are critically ill, neither aware of the other's condition.

Miss Normand is in her palatial home here, struggling against tuberculosis which has affected both lungs. For days fever has sapped her strength.

Attendants refrained from telling her that Cody, returned from New York, is attempting to recover from complete nervous prostration. It was feared the knowledge of her husband's illness might weaken the slender thread by which she clings to life.

REBELS STILL FLEEING NORTH

FEDERAL OFFICIALS IN CLAIM REBELLION NOW CRUSHED

(By Associated Press) The main body of the Rebel army was a step nearer the American border today, having retired from Escalon, 35 miles northward to Jimenez.

The government interpreted this movement by General Escobar, insurgent commander-in-chief, as another sign of rebel disintegration, declaring the revolt was as good as over.

Insurgent quarters, however, asserted that Escobar's retirement was purely strategic and intimated he

THINK NEGRO ACCUSED AT SLATON HELD

OFFICERS START AFTER BLACK, BELIEVED TO BE ARCHIE SEARCY

(Special to the Journal) POST, Mar. 20.—A negro thought to be Archie Searcy, wanted in connection with the murder of his wife, Sarah Searcy, at Slaton last night, was arrested here today by Carza county officers. The negro will be held in jail here until identified by Slaton officials.

SLATON, Mar. 20.—Chief of Police U. L. George of this city left shortly after noon today for Post where he will make an attempt to identify a negro, arrested there this morning and believed to be Archie Searcy, wanted for the murder of his wife here last night.

Sarah Searcy, negro cook, was killed here last night and Willie Cornbread, Edwards, twenty year old negro shine boy, was seriously cut about the neck, arm and shoulder, by Searcy in Chief George's back yard.

Although physicians offered little hope for Edwards' recovery last night, his condition was reported unchanged today. He is at a residence in the "flats," Slaton negro section.

Searcy and his wife had been separated for some time, and the knife affray occurred when Searcy found Edwards and his wife together. The negro woman was found in a pool of blood with her throat slit, and Edwards ran across the street before falling down.

OLVANY QUILTS

George W. Olvany, leader of Tammany Hall, famous democratic organization of New York city, has resigned effective April 15. His health is given as the cause, although cut in the city's vote by Alfred E. Smith for president may be a contributing factor.

LONG ILLNESS PROVES FATAL TO GENERALISSIMO WHO LED ENTENTE TO VICTORY IN WAR

(By Associated Press)

PARIS, Mar. 20.—Marshal Ferdinand Foch, Generalissimo who led the Allied Armies to victory in the World War, died at his home today after a lengthy illness. He was 77 years old. He died at 5:50 P. M. (12:50 P. M., Eastern Standard Time).

Although it had long been apparent that the Great General was fighting his "Last Campaign," his warrior heart would not give in, and day after day he fought off the inevitable end with grim courage. But a coalition of heart trouble, kidney disease and a lung infection were too great at his age.

On February 26 the Associated Press was authoritatively informed that the marshal's death seemed only a matter of days, a week, perhaps or ten days. But the marshal with indomitable will held off death even longer than his doctors thought possible.

It was the sudden collapse of his heart after several days of improvement that brought death to the intrepid warrior.

The foremost fighter of the great war displayed in illness that same grit that he had displayed as the commander-in-chief who led the allied armies to victory in the world war. Throughout it all, from January 14, when he first became gravely ill, until the end, he showed courage, unflinching equanimity and even good humor.

The end came just as his doctors reached the marshal's house this evening. He had been conscious the entire afternoon and had been found in a somewhat improved condition at 10 o'clock this morning when the first visit of the day was made.

Others who called upon the marshal were Queen Marie of Rumania, General Weyand, his faithful chief of staff during the world war, Myron T. Herrick, the American ambassador, and many of the most distinguished men in France. All wrote their names in the visitor's book.

It was a series of ups and downs throughout the illness. After the first crisis at the beginning of his illness which was marked by a se-

Today Mrs. Etta Adair, 71, of San Diego, Calif., held a Bachelor of Philosophy degree from the University of Chicago, given her at yesterday's convocation.

FOUR TECH STUDENTS INJURED IN SMASHUP

Four Tech college students were slightly injured last night when the car in which they were riding swerved into a ditch, three miles south of the city on the Slaton highway, after the steering wheel broke.

They were picked up by George W. Fitchett, local salesman, and brought to the Lubbock Sanitarium where medical aid was rendered. Some of the injuries proved serious and the youths were released last night.

Martinez, Mexican, Is Adjudged Guilty

Joe Martinez, Mexican, this morning was found guilty of theft of more than $50 by a jury in the 12nd district court and sentenced to two years in the state penitentiary.

The Mexican asked for a suspended sentence. He was represented by Max Coleman, and District Attorney Durwood Bradley prosecuted for the state.

Negro Porter Again Held On Pro Charge

Released about a week ago under a $250 bond on charges of violation of the prohibition laws, Hershel Bean, negro porter, was arrested on the same charges this morning by county officers. He was still in the county jail at noon today and had made no attempt to make bond.

The arrest of Bean made the sixth in the past 24 hours on liquor violation charges.

Presbyterian Men To Elect Tonight

Officers for another year are to be elected this evening when the First Presbyterian Men of the Church meets at 7:30 o'clock for supper and a program in the church.

AGED WOMAN JUDGED INSANE

Wrinkled and grey with age, a 74-year-old Lubbock county woman was declared insane by a jury in the county court this morning before Judge Robert H. Bean.

SHOOTING

when the emergency hospital doctor arrived.

Pierce ran from the office, bleeding from cuts on his neck and the wound in his arm, to the office of Dr. W. M. Sykes in the same building, where his wounds were dressed.

Blue lived at the Kappa Sigma fraternity house at Southern Methodist university here. His father is Rev. Henry B. Blue of Tulsa, Okla., and his brother is Rev. William B. Blue, pastor of the Bismarck Methodist church of Nashville, Tenn. He has no other surviving relatives.

Girl at Home

Miss Tarrant was not in Dallas today, but was notified of the tragedy and said she would come here. She resigned her place in Pierce's office last week and went with Blue to her former home at Bullard, Texas, where her family lives.

The Times Herald today says that her brother reported over long distance telephone he knew nothing between Miss Tarrant and Blue or Pierce.

Blue went to Pierce's insurance office shortly before the shooting with W. M. Pierson, a fellow salesman at the Clark and Court. A. T. Hardy, an employee of Pierce's, was in the ante room as was Pierce's niece. Pierson did not remain in the private office with Pierce and Blue during the quarrel.

Pierson strolled into the ante-room, stood about for a short time, and as the voices of the men began to rise in anger, left the office.

Hardy "heard some fussing" but was busy and paid no attention until he heard Pierce shout he wouldn't sign the paper. This was followed by a scuffle, two shots and a loud cry, he said.

M. M. Cherry and Miss Velma Scott, in the adjoining office, ducked for cover as one of the bullets crashed through the wall and showered them with plaster.

"I heard two shots and a scream," Miss Scott said. "I got behind the filing cabinet." Mr. Cherry took refuge under a desk.

EACH DAY A DREAD

"Orgatone Has Made A New Person Of My Dad And He Is Looking Better," Says Lubbock Boy

"At the time, my dad, started on Orgatone, he could hardly get around the house, and each day was just a dread for him," said Herman Clay, of 207 Avenue H, Lubbock, Texas, while talking with the Orgatone representative, the other day.

"My father, has suffered for about six years, with a very bad chronic case of stomach trouble," he continued, "and got so nervous the least thing would upset him. Gas formed on his stomach and he would bloat up so, he would almost die, he suffered so. He wasn't able to eat anything, for it disagreed with him. He had rheumatism, and got to where he couldn't hardly get around for the past six years, and was almost forced to quit his work, he got so bad. You see, he has to feel fine, in order to do his work, for he is a bricklayer, and it is hard strenuous work. He could hardly sleep at all of a night, and would roll and toss all night long, and when morning came, felt worse than when he went to bed. He just felt badly all the time, and didn't seem to have any ambition for anything."

"Orgatone had helped so many people, and a friend of ours, recommended it to dad, and he began to try it. We are all thankful, it has relieved him of all his troubles. He eats anything he wants, and is bothered the slightest with stomach trouble and the gas, dizziness and bilious spells are all gone. He feels much better, and his rheumatism is much better, and he honestly looks like a new man. I am glad to give you this statement for him for I know Orgatone is the only medicine that has helped, dad, and we are all thankful."

Genuine Orgatone is not a so-called patent or secret medicine but a new scientific bile preparation containing no alcohol or other false stimulating drugs and is sold in Lubbock exclusively by the Bowers Drug Store, under the personal direction of a special Orgatone representative. Out of town customers are being supplied by mail upon receipt of $1.25 for one bottle or $6.25 for six bottles. Adv.

Stomach Disorders First Revealed by Coated Tongue

Your tongue is nothing more than the upper end of your stomach and intestines. It is the first thing your doctor looks at. It tells at a glance the condition of your digestive system—and physicians say that 90% of all sickness starts with stomach and bowel trouble.

A coated tongue is a danger signal of those digestive disorders which lead to so many kinds of serious illness. It tells why the least exertion tires you out; why you have pains in the bowels, gas, sour stomach, dizzy spells.

Coating on the tongue is a sign that you need Tanlac—the medicine which has helped thousands who were physical wrecks from stomach and bowel troubles—who had "tried everything" in vain and about given up hope.

Before the opening of the fall term of school the Owens No. 2 and the Plum Creek school buildings will be moved to the Cap Rock district and combined, according to T. W. Walker And Smith On Opposing Sides

NEW YORK, Mar. 20.—(AP)—The prospect of a contest between Alfred E. Smith and Mayor Walker in the naming of a new Tammany chief added lively interest to the return of the former governor to the city today.

The resignation of George W. Olvany, submitted to the executive committee last week has put Tammany to the necessity of choosing a new leader on the eve of a municipal election.

Mayor Walker yesterday after interviewing a dozen district leaders announced he had no candidate for Olvany's successor. His activity, however, was interpreted by democratic newspapers as being inspired at least in part by a desire to "get the jump" on the Smith faction of Tammany in the choice of a new leader.

'Round through the mine wee Clowny went. At every turn he feared he'd dent the corners of the mine wall, but he traveled safe and sound. The little coal car which he rode could carry quite a heavy load.

'Course Clowny knew 'twas used to carry coal out of the ground. Thought Clowny, I would like to be a miner. It would just suit me. I'd get a lot of rides and it would be a heap of fun. For getting black I'm not keen, but I could always wash up clean. I know I'd have an appetite when each day's work was done.

Perhaps what Clowny thought was so, but then, he didn't seem to know that miners have to work real hard. That wouldn't be so nice.

OKLAHOMA OIL MAGNATE SELLS HIS HOLDINGS FOR NEAR FORTY MILLION

(By Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., March 20.—T. B. Slick, Oklahoma oil magnate, known as "The World's Greatest Independent Oil Operator," doesn't intend to retire from the oil game, even though he has just sold all of his holdings to the Prairie Oil and Gas Company for between $35,000,000 and $40,000,000.

Slick has tried to retire before. He has sold his holdings for a substantial fortune and settled down to enjoy a life of ease, but the lure of the game has called him back.

Born in Clarion, Pa., Slick came to Indian Territory in 1908 and began to buy and sell leases. He drilled his first oil test, and struck a dry hole. Still determined he sunk another test in the Cushing field, and saw his money lost again, as another "duster" was drilled. But with that second "duster" Slick's luck turned, he drilled one producer after another with almost uncanny regularity, and soon became an outstanding figure in the state's oil industry. Since that time when Cushing was "rank wildcat" his name constantly has been associated with Oklahoma's oil development.

Late in 1912 Slick sold all of his holdings, then confined largely to the Tonkawa area, for $2,500,000 and retired, hoping to recuperate his broken health. But the "oil game" was the one thing for which he lived, and inactivity so affected him that he was forced to return.

His return to the oil industry brought with it wider horizons, and Slick entered the Texas and Kansas activity, until his holdings outside of the state began to rival his Oklahoma developments.

He has many discoveries to his credit, including the Cushing, the Cross Cut, the Tonkawa deep sand, the St. Louis Wilcox sand, the Little River extension and the conservation pools in Oklahoma, as well as areas in West Texas and Kansas. Recently he had a prominent part in the development of the Sedgwick area near Wichita, Kans.

After a year's vacation which he has allowed himself, he is going to get back into the game again, along lines which he already is beginning to plan.

Critz Versus Hornsby

The Cubs, the Giants and the Reds are going to be the toughest clubs in the National League pennant race this year. In the opinion of Manager Jack Hendricks, the handle of the Cincinnati club named his Reds first on the list of the 1929 contenders but we are trying to make him look modest.

"The Cubs are mighty strong, and not because they have Hornsby," he says. "Hornsby may be a detriment to them instead of a big help. He hasn't been a good influence on any club he has played with and I have known him since his first day. Joe McCarthy won't stand for any monkey business from an outfielder and Joe knows what he was getting when he got Hornsby. But he went after him with so much doubt that he must not have any doubts."

"Personally, I am talking only personally. I wouldn't have Hornsby on any club of mine. I wouldn't trade him even up for Critz because Critz is a better ball player. It is a matter of record what I told John McGraw when he sent for me at the time the Giants had decided to peddle Hornsby."

"I guess McGraw gave me the first call because he had his eye on some of my pitchers that he thought he might get in the deal. He asked me what I would give him for Hornsby and I said 'I wouldn't give a dime for him and the negotiations ended right there.'"

"Can't see Cards, Pirates."

The Cubs had plenty of power before they got Hornsby. Hendricks went on. McCarthy told me he had to have a second baseman who would hit for him and he has one who can hit the ball. But in rating the Cubs as one of the outstanding teams in the league I am not doing it because they have Hornsby.

The Giants are a good ball club. They are always a good ball club, but I think they are overrated a lot. Their reputation works on a lot of ball players, but it does not work on any of my men.

"I can see one thing and I don't know how they got it in there last year. If they had been forced to take the bad breaks we had to take all season they wouldn't have been in the first division. I don't know how the change in management will affect them. Billy Southworth is a swell fellow and a good ball player, but he's kind of young at managing and all the changes the owners have made may affect the morale of the club."

"I can't see the Pirates either, although Pettit may pull out their pitching problem," he said.

Nobody knows what Hornsby never has been backward in expressing his personal opinion of Hornsby. There must have been some kind of bad feeling developed between them when they were both with the St. Louis Cardinals. Hendricks never would tell me the cause of the feud beyond the bare statement: "He's no good."

Hornsby is too independent to talk about it and too hard-skinned to be affected in the least by any kind of criticism from anyone.

He is without doubt the coldest proposition in baseball. He is absolutely on his own and if he had a vulnerable spot in him he would have had a broken spirit years ago.

I asked Hornsby once about the feud with Hendricks and he said he didn't have the time or the interest to talk about it. He wanted to know why he should bother about anything that fellow said.

"Just compare our jobs and you'll see why I should worry," he said with finality.

TRAINING IS OPENED WITH ENTHUSIASM

TEN UNIFORMS ISSUED TUESDAY; OUTLOOK IS PROMISING

Texas Tech's baseball training started off with a bang Tuesday afternoon when nineteen candidates for the 1929 team reported to Coach Grady Higginbotham for the first official workout of the season.

Local baseball weather prevailed as the aspirants for the Matador nine went through a lengthy first day session. The collegians took advantage of the warm sunshine to get a good start in their preparation for the playing season.

Texas Tech and newcomers alike limbered up their throwing arms, swamped around the field for fly balls and engaged in red-hot pepper games. The entire squad was sent through a lively session of fly chasing. Coach Higginbotham forcing the ball hawks to range deep and wide for the fungos.

Ten uniforms issued to veterans on the squad. Others reporting will be furnished the necessary paraphernalia within the next few days, according to the Matador mentor.

A strenuous training season is in store for the aspirants on the college nine. A late start will force the collegians to set a fast pace in order to get in shape within the short time left.

Practically every position this year is clinched by those who filled these positions last season. Only at shortstop will Coach Higginbotham have a breach to fill.

The letter men who reported yesterday are: Taylor, first base; Rigney, second base; Peterson, third base; Walker, Brothert, DeWitt and Marshall, outfielders; Burnett, catcher and Howell, pitcher.

A number of promising recruits are on hand to bolster up the reserve strength of the squad. Hodges and Coppage may relieve Burnett from some of his catching duties. Jimmy Kerr, who plays either in-field or outfield is also likely to break into the lineup. In the event one of the newcomers fail to come through for the shortstop position, Hodges may be worked in as the shortfield post.

Segrave To Attempt Speedboat Laurels

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 20.—Gar Wood of America and Major H. O. D. Segrave of England, internationally famous speed kings, plan to race this afternoon for the unofficial speed boat title of the world.

In the final event of the first day's program of the annual Miami Beach regatta, Wood will pit his record holding "Miss America VII" against the trim "Miss England" driven by Major Segrave, who last week established the world's automobile record for the straightaway mile when he drove his "Golden Arrow" over the Daytona Beach sands at 231 miles per hour.

Tomorrow afternoon, at the close of the events which have attracted 12 craft of various classifications, both men will attempt to break the record of 92 miles an hour established by Wood in his "Miss America VII."

Three Survive In Billiards Contest

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Mar. 20 (AP)—Three players, including Percy N. Collins of Chicago, the defending title holder, have survived the second round of the national amateur 182 ball game tournament without a defeat. Alec Elmslie, Milwaukee, who is Wisconsin state champion, and M. C. Weigert, Pacific coast champion of Everett, Wash., are the two who with Collins have won two and lost no games.

Ray Fessenden of Madison, Wis., and M. P. McClure of Pittsburgh, Pa., trail the leaders with one victory and one defeat each. Hardy Postel, Detroit, and Arle Schapp, St. Louis, have lost three games each, with no victories.

The majority of motor vehicle accidents occur from right-of-way contests at crossings. Speeding, driving on the wrong side, failure to give proper signals and "cutting in" cause most of the rest of them, proportioned in the order named.

ROOKIE SHOWING PROMISE

YIG SHIP

IF HE HITS AS WELL AS HE DID IN THE MINOR, HE'LL BE HARD TO BEAT

HE COVERS A LOT OF GROUND

BY JACK SORDS

Sports Cartoonist-Writer for Central Press and Journal

There is every reason to believe that the bright future predicted for Victor Shell, rookie first baseman with the Cincinnati Reds, may have at least hurried the decision of Manager Jack Hendricks to rid himself of Willie Pipp, one of his veteran first sackers. Pipp was given his release late in the winter that he might hook on with whatever club he could. His departure leaves the Reds with George Kelly and Shell as first basemen.

Shell was purchased from the McCook club of the Nebraska State league last fall after a brilliant season with the western team. He is tall and rangy and covers a lot of ground in addition to possessing considerable ability to hit. If he can hit major league pitching he will get a real chance to prove his worth this coming season. With an aging pitching staff the Reds can use plenty of offensive power.

Shell was born in Maryville, Ill., Jan. 21, 1906. He bats and throws right-handed, stands six and a half feet in height and weighs 178.

Drills on Strategy

Manager Shotton of the Phillies has not called for a Regular-Yankees game in the training camp at Winterhaven, Fla. This is unusual, but he thinks more benefit will be derived from intensive drilling on offensive and defensive strategy. To make the plays interesting and get the spirit of competition into them, Shotton puts runners on the bases. Then he divides the ball to the outfield and coaches the fly-chasers and relay men how to make the proper play on the runner.

Max Bishop, regular second baseman for the Philadelphia Athletics, has joined the club for a holdout, says his ambition is to become the greatest lead-off man in the game.

Bishop Seeks Record

"I want to set an all-time record for passes to first," he remarked. "Last year I batted .316 and did a lot of free swinging, which shows I didn't wait out the pitchers as much as in former years."

"Give the Cubs pitching and they promise to win ball games. Yesterday they got pitching from two rookies, Trader Horne and Henry Gramp, and employed the usual quota of extra base hits defeated Los Angeles, 11 to 3, to win the rubber game of a seven-game series."

Sixteen hits of various length were the St. Louis Browns' answer to Manager Howie's "why only singles" in the first exhibition game. Yesterday the American Leaguers won a 10 to 5 victory from the Philadelphia Nationals at Winter Haven. Heinie Manush climbed the heights with two triples, a double and a single in six times up.

HUGGINS HAS GROUNDS FOR SOME WORRY

YANKEES WINNING IN EXHIBITION TILTS THIS SEASON

(By Associated Press)

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, March 20.—John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, has not yet decided which of his two Andys—Reese or Cohen—will start the season at second base. He said the only reason he was sending Cohen on tour with the second team was because he was popular with the Texas fans.

If Miller Huggins is superstitious he ought to be doing a lot of worrying because his New York Yankees got one beating after another during the spring training, especially when they played the Boston Braves. During the regular season, however, they won so often they won the American League. Yesterday the Yankees beat the Braves for the third time in four games.

Just when Wilbert Robinson, president-manager of the Brooklyn Robins, had decided that Jimmy Pattison, former high school pitcher would have to go to Macon for a little more seasoning, Jimmy turned in a neat pitching performance to make Robby change his mind.

Pattison pitched the first four innings of yesterday's battle between the Regulars and the Yankees, and allowed three hits and a single run.

ULTIMATUM IS GIVEN DUNDEE

CHICAGO, March 20.—Joe Dundee's reign as the world's welterweight champion ceases tomorrow as far as the National Boxing Association is concerned, unless he meets the association's demands.

The N. B. A., through its president, Paul Phipps, has ruled that Dundee must sign contracts before March 21 calling for a bout with a logical contender and that he must post a certified check for $10,000. The commission has named Jackie Fields and Young Jack Thompson as the two logical contenders.

Fields and Thompson meet at the Coliseum March 28 with the possibility the winner will be declared the holder of the welterweight title by the N. B. A. Dundee's manager, Fred Phipps, wired President Phipps yesterday that the champion would sign before Thursday but Phipps said the contracts and checks must be placed in the hands of Edward C. Foster of Providence, R. I., chairman of the championship committee, by that date.

Drills on Strategy

Manager Shotton of the Phillies has not called for a Regular-Yankees game in the training camp at Winterhaven, Fla. This is unusual, but he thinks more benefit will be derived from intensive drilling on offensive and defensive strategy. To make the plays interesting and get the spirit of competition into them, Shotton puts runners on the bases. Then he divides the ball to the outfield and coaches the fly-chasers and relay men how to make the proper play on the runner.

Max Bishop, regular second baseman for the Philadelphia Athletics, has joined the club for a holdout, says his ambition is to become the greatest lead-off man in the game.

Bishop Seeks Record

"I want to set an all-time record for passes to first," he remarked. "Last year I batted .316 and did a lot of free swinging, which shows I didn't wait out the pitchers as much as in former years."

"Give the Cubs pitching and they promise to win ball games. Yesterday they got pitching from two rookies, Trader Horne and Henry Gramp, and employed the usual quota of extra base hits defeated Los Angeles, 11 to 3, to win the rubber game of a seven-game series."

Sixteen hits of various length were the St. Louis Browns' answer to Manager Howie's "why only singles" in the first exhibition game. Yesterday the American Leaguers won a 10 to 5 victory from the Philadelphia Nationals at Winter Haven. Heinie Manush climbed the heights with two triples, a double and a single in six times up.

Ohltown, Ohio, a drove village will be destroyed by a city water reservoir to be built on its site by the city of Youngstown.

In one year this nation consumes 224,000,000 gallons of ice cream and about 20,000,000 ice cream cones.

IMPROVEMENT OF REESE IS OUTSTANDING

DEFENSIVE WORK MUCH MORE PRONOUNCED IN TEXAS CAMP

(By Associated Press)

SAN ANTONIO, Mar. 20.—The New York Giants believe they will live up to their names in the approaching National league race. The players confidently expect to be the head men in the baseball show, and there seems to be some ground for their confidence.

Manager John McGraw's outfit seems definitely stronger than the 1928 cast which was good enough to finish runner-up to the champion St. Louis Cardinals. Perhaps the most encouraging single item in the Giants' new prospects is a greatly improved Andy Reese. Last season the Tupelo flash hit well while serving as outfielder, third baseman and second baseman, but his defensive status was undetermined at the end of the season.

Overnight Reese has developed into a capable and possibly great second baseman and is hitting harder than ever. His almost phenomenal improvement rounds out an effective infield combination for Bill Terry, Travis Jackson and Fred Lindstrom have been tried and proved. Standing by for emergencies will be Andy Cohen and Pat Crawford and possibly Baxter Jordan. Crawford and Jordan, graduates of Toledo, can play anywhere and hit any time.

Manager McGraw has his 1928 pitching staff intact and expects to add to it. He expects the Giants late in the season, to declare dividends on his experience gained under a major league fire. Hubbell will be a starting pitcher with Larry Benton, Fred Fitzsimmons, Joe Gencich and Dutch Henry, a southpaw who seems to have regained his earlier form. Carl May, the veteran underhand performer, may join the group as his arm has recovered at least a part of its old cunning. John Scott, another veteran, will be a valuable man in relief roles and curly Ogden has shown well in spring training.

Manager McGraw is holding his final outfield assignments in abeyance, with a possible arrangement calling for shifts against right and left-hand pitching. Fred Leach, obtained by trade from the Phillies, is expected to add strength and Ed Roush, who had an indifferent season last year appears to have completely recovered. Jimmy Welsh, the former Brave, picked up this spring where he left off last autumn. Melvin Ott, a major league veteran at 36 years of age, has shown to better advantage at San Antonio than ever before and may convince the boss of the Giants that he can punish southpaws as well as the orthodox pitchers. Tony Kaufman, former pitcher, and Art Veltman, a youngster from Springfield, Ill., and Chuck Fells, who has been up for a trial before, have the advantage of right hand batting to commend them for further consideration. Six of the seven outfielders in camp may be retained.

would draw the federal forces further and finally meet them in a decisive bat-

General Calles continued his methodical preparations to crush the rebels. He has arrived at Torreon personally and today was preparing his army of 30,000 for a northern advance.
The rebel forces, described as numbering about 25,000, continued concentrating at Jimenez.
Rebel troops also were reported continuing a southerly march along the West Coast, drawing closer to the support of Maximilian in Sinaloa.
The government charged the rebels with looting banks of millions of pesos with the intention of fleeing to the United States with the loot. In such event their extradition may be asked, not as political leaders but as "ordinary criminals."

This year's edition promised to be vidual pictures than any of the previous Tech annuals. A total of 1,500 books has been ordered.

Trials of Governor Is Expected to Reach Climax Today

(The Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Mar. 20.—
Final arguments in the impeachment trial of Gov. H. B. Johnston were continued today before the state senate court, with the case expected to be submitted to the court in the late afternoon.
Two of the seven allotted hours
of argument were consumed yesterday and the remaining five intervened before a vote could be taken.
There was some uncertainty as to whether a vote immediately would follow the closing arguments, since
the members of the court have jurisdiction to delay the vote if they wish.
Argument today was opened by Grady Lewis, Creek county representative and a member of the prosecuting house board of managers. Lewis fiercely attacked the contention of Johnston's attorneys that the governor has at all times
acted in good faith. The prosecutor presented evidence in the various charges and attempted to show good faith was not present.

The chief executive diagrammed the conditions to which such a policy
might lead. He mentioned that $416-000,000 would be necessary to complete the state highways which have been dedicated. If the counties have only one-fourth of this cost,
their bonded indebtedness will be swelled from $75,000,000 to almost $200,000,000, the governor pointed out. The proposed $175,000,000 bond issue was characterized as the
"worst thing that has been offered yet." The governor asserted that some such scheme would have to be worked out, and he pointed out some of the alleged flaws in the present "pay-as-you-go" policy.
Among those listening to Governor Moody's address was Representative Leonard Tillotson, of Seley, one of the leaders in the fight against submission of the road bond proposal.
"This state is making a blunder
in imposing a burden on the producing class out of proportion to that of any other state," the governor said. "By taking the burden of road building off the property
and placing it on the traffic, we would do much to relieve that inequity."
The governor paid a few compli-

HOUSTON, March 20 (AP)—Short hours of business and long hours
of fun make up the daily round for
the rank and file of the cattlemen
here attending the 53rd annual convention of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association.
On the program for the only
business session today, were addresses by Gov. Dan Moody, Victor
Culbertson of Silver City, New Mexico, president of the American National Livestock Association; O. M.
Plummer, of the National Livestock
and Meat Board, and T. A. Kincaid, president of the Sheep and Goat Raisers Association of Texas.
The association ended yesterday's work shortly after noon and its members danced and made merry until far into the night. Houston seems somewhat unaccustomed to the doings of the elbows on the range, was given a full fledged initiation into
the noisiness which cowmen can emit.
The cowboy whoops often resounded in the lobby of the headquarters and on the streets. Jack Norton, cowboy, from Mac Woodward, son of Senator Walter C. Woodward, of Coleman, obtained a furlough, always was able to gather an enthusiastic group around him as he sang and yodelled plaintive cowboy songs.
A little boy in cowboy costume received a big hand, and a well filled hat each time he clicked off a jig.

Trials of Governor Is Expected to Reach Climax Today

(The Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Mar. 20.—
Final arguments in the impeachment trial of Gov. H. B. Johnston were continued today before
the state senate court, with the case expected to be submitted to the court in the late afternoon.
Two of the seven allotted hours
of argument were consumed yesterday and the remaining five intervened before a vote could be taken.
There was some uncertainty as to whether a vote immediately would follow the closing arguments, since
the members of the court have jurisdiction to delay the vote if they wish.
Argument today was opened by Grady Lewis, Creek county representative and a member of the
prosecuting house board of managers. Lewis fiercely attacked the contention of Johnston's attorneys
that the governor has at all times
acted in good faith. The prosecutor presented evidence in the various charges and attempted to show good
faith was not present.

roads was attacked as inequitable.
The chief executive diagrammed the
conditions to which such a policy
might lead. He mentioned that $416-
000,000 would be necessary to complete the state highways which have been dedicated. If the counties
have only one-fourth of this cost,
their bonded indebtedness will be
swelled from $75,000,000 to almost $200,000,000, the governor pointed
out. The proposed $175,000,000 bond issue was characterized as the
"worst thing that has been offered yet." The governor asserted
that some such scheme would have to be worked out, and he pointed out some of the alleged flaws in the present "pay-as-you-go" policy.
Among those listening to Governor Moody's address was Representative Leonard Tillotson, of Sel-
ey, one of the leaders in the fight against submission of the road bond
proposal.
"This state is making a blunder
in imposing a burden on the producing class out of proportion to
that of any other state," the governor said. "By taking the burden
of road building off the property
and placing it on the traffic, we would do much to relieve that inequity."
The governor paid a few compliments to Texas, and A. and M. college.
"As a graduate of the University of Texas I say that A. and M. college has contributed more to the growth and development of Texas than any other state institution," he said.

hours of business and long hours
of fun make up the daily round for
the rank and file of the cattlemen
here attending the 53rd annual convention of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association.
On the program for the only
business session today, were addresses by Gov. Dan Moody, Victor
Culbertson of Silver City, New Mexico, president of the American National Livestock Association; O. M.
Plummer, of the National Livestock
and Meat Board, and T. A. Kincaid, president of the Sheep and
Goat Raisers Association of Texas.
The association ended yesterday's work shortly after noon and its members danced and made merry
until far into the night. Houston
seems somewhat unaccustomed to the doings of the elbows on the range, was given a full fledged initiation into
the noisiness which cowmen can emit.

in the lobby of the headquarters and

MARINES WIN IN NICARAGUA FRAY

NICARAGUA, March 20. (AP)—United States marine victories in two contacts with bandits in northern Nicaragua are described in information received by Brigadier General Logan Peland, their commanding officer.

On March 14 a Marine patrol engaged a group of outlaws northwest of Limay, killing one bandit. The next day in the same vicinity a combined patrol of marines and the Nicaraguan constabulary killed four outlaws and captured three. In both encounters arms and ammunition were seized. There were no marine casualties.

Europe annually consumes more than a billion and a half pounds of raw tobacco.

COTTON JUMPS $2 BALE

GINNINGS REPORT IS CREDITED WITH ADVANCE

(By Associated Press)

NEW ORLEANS, Mar. 20.—Cotton soared over $2 a bale in early trading under heavy short covering and fresh speculative buying induced by the bullish showing of the census bureau's ginnings report.

Initial trades showed gains of 21 to 27 points and prices continued to advance until May sold up to 20.52, July 20.60 and October 20.38, or 42 to 44 points above yesterday's close. The ginnings total of 14,269,313 running bales was somewhat smaller than traders looked for. The advance attracted the usual profit taking and the market eased off 10 to 13 points by the end of the first hour. The undertone, however, continued very firm.

The selling became more general as the morning progressed, liquidation by early buyers being augmented by selling by ring-traders and speculators to force a reaction. Reports of beneficial rains in Texas undoubtedly helped the decline which carried May down to 20.26, July 20.31 and October 20.15, or 23 to 25 points down from the early highs but still 15 to 19 points above yesterday's close.

At noon the market was steady and at the low.

NEW YORK MARKET
ALSO ON UPGRADE

NEW YORK, Mar. 20.—Cotton opened steady at an advance of 17 to 24 points and sold 37 to 40 points above yesterday's closing quotations after the call on buying influenced by the census ginning report and the weather report.

The census report showed ginnings of 14,269,313 running bales or 14,450,000 equivalent 500 pound bales, slightly under recent expectations.

May sold up to 21.22 and new October to 20.50. The higher prices reflected southern selling and the market eased off a few points from the best by the end of the first half hour.

The first demand was supplied on the early advance and trading became less active. Prices sagged under realizing or liquidation. By midday May had eased up to 21.00 or about 22 points from the early high and within 18 points of yesterday's closing quotation.

SWING DOWNWARD TO GRAIN VALUES

CHICAGO, March 20.—General selling, together with lack of aggressive buying, gave a decided swing downward today both to wheat and corn.

Opening 1-4 to 1 and 11-8c off, wheat later displayed little power to rally. Corn started 1-2 to 11-8c down, and subsequently underwent some additional setback. Oats were easy. Provisions likewise sagged.

Lauder Narrowly
Escapes Shark

SYDNEY, Aus., Mar. 20.—Sir Harry Lauder, Scottish comedian, narrowly escaped less of his right hand to a man eating shark in New Zealand waters recently.

He was fishing in the Bay of Islands and by luck was able to land two hours to hook a swordfish. Apparently attracted by its deadly enemy a shark of medium size was lurking in the vicinity. No sooner had Sir Harry cast his line again than a terrific tug unbalanced him and would have carried him headlong into the water had the boatman not helped him keep his feet.

The fish, a shark, fought frantically for half an hour. When it was brought in, apparently exhausted, it snapped viciously at Sir Harry's hand.

Financial Crisis
Threatening World

MANCHESTER, Eng., March 20.—The gravest financial crisis in the world's history was described by Sir George Parish, well known economist, as threatening modern business. Sir George startled his auditors at the national free trade conference here with his prediction.

"I speak with the highest authority, and I challenge any one to deny it, when I say we are threatened with the greatest financial crisis the world has ever seen because the governments of the world have followed the policy of trade restriction, preventing debtors from paying their debts," Sir George declared.

About 50 per cent of motorists now carry automobile insurance in one form or another.

MINING ENGINEER ONE OF THOSE IN HANDS
OF BRIGAND BAND

(By Associated Press)

MEXICO CITY, March 20.—Mexican bandits in Zacatecas were believed today to be holding P. L. Carnahan, American mining man, and Dr. Olvera, Mexican mine official, for ransom.

Both were kidnapped Monday night from La Notra mine, near San Benito, Zacatecas. The mine suspended operations leaving 1,000 men without work pending guarantee of safety for other employees against outlaw raids.

News of the kidnapping was brought to the American embassy here from private sources. Carnahan lived formerly at El Paso, Texas, and has a brother, George Carnahan, in New York City.

It was reported at the embassy that release of another American and a British subject, prisoners of outlaw bands, was expected shortly. The two were Henry Hanson, American resident manager of the San Nicholas Mining and Milling company at Vocas, Durango, and J. W. Reid, an English employee. Both were captured March 1.

Only a week before this abduction two American mining men, J. M. Underwood and C. C. Alsthorpe, were executed by their captors in Guajuato while federal troops attempted to secure their release.

Adcock Trial Nears Close At Texarkana

TEXARKANA, March 20 (AP).—Trial of Horace Adcock for the fatal shooting of his uncle, M. V. Patterson, near here last November in a quarrel over a pair of boots, ended today as the state prepared to offer rebuttal witnesses to the self-defense plea of Adcock.

Patterson, in a dying statement, declared he was shot by his nephew because he had failed to return a pair of hunting boots owned by Adcock. In his testimony yesterday, Adcock refused the statement, asserting he fired when he saw Patterson draw a pistol. The defense introduced two pistols alleged to have been on Patterson's person when he was killed.

Probe Into Death Of Bowie Officer

HENRIETTA, Texas, March 20 (AP).—The grand jury met in special session here today to review circumstances surrounding the death of R. Lee Williams, 44, former Bowie night watchman. Williams' body was found in a pasture, badly mangled. Apparently he had been shot to death and then dragged more than a mile behind an automobile.

Paul H. Strickland, 45, on whose land the body was found, was charged with murder. He was said to have told a friend he killed Williams after a quarrel over a girl the two men had known 25 years ago in Denton county.

Mr. Randolph's wife died here last August.

Promiscuous Light Cords Bring Warning

Electric light cords hanging promiscuously about a place of business or residence will result in an increase of $1 to every $1,000 worth of fire insurance policies, City Fire Marshal L. H. Simpson said yesterday.

Mr. Simpson has already served about fifteen notices on local business men. He states that he finds instances of this careless fire hazard every day.

MASTER FORGER WRITES OWN COURT RELEASE; THEN PENS WAY BACK TO PENITENTIARY

(By Associated Press)
KANSAS CITY, Mo., 20.—Hays Van Gorder, a master forger so clever with a pen that he forged his way out of Leavenworth federal penitentiary, is behind the bars again because the lure of his "racket" was too strong.

The astounding story of how the notorious criminal duped the officials of the prison with a forged court order for his release was revealed here today with the announcement by postal inspectors that Van Gorder had been captured while playing his old game of passing forged money orders.

And it developed that the escape from the prison might not have been discovered for months if ever had Van Gorder not tripped himself up outside with his penchant for signing other person's names.

Van Gorder forged the order that won him freedom, had it delivered into the hands of prison officials through channels that appeared to stamp it as regular, and walked away to continue his operations with only the prison officials aware that he was not safely locked up.

A flood of bogus money orders soon appeared in middle western states and postal inspectors got busy. The trail led to Milan, Mo., where a suspect was arrested and identified as Van Gorder.

Postal authorities couldn't believe it as they were confident that Van Gorder was serving at Leavenworth. But investigation proved the pris-

May Seek Return Of Fleeing Rebel Heads

MEXICO CITY, March 20 (AP).—President Emilio Portes Gil today told American newspapermen that the government was considering seeking extradition of rebel leaders who may flee into the United States on the ground that they are not political refugees but "common criminals" who have fled to the United States after robbing banks in Mexico.

The president declared that the government would also seek to have attached and returned to Mexico, "the money stolen by rebel leaders" from banks in the cities of Monterey, Saltillo, Durango and Torreon. This loot was said to total from three to five million pesos from the branches of the Banco De Mexico alone.

SLATON ADOPTS CHARTER CHANGE

(Special To The Journal)
SLATON, Mar. 20.—This city yesterday adopted the home rule plan of city government in a special election by a vote of 242 to 17. The civic organization will now include a mayor, four city commissioners and a board of city development, supported by a two mill tax.

Under the new system, Mayor W. C. Reese's administration will end in April, at which time another election will be held. Prior to that time the city charter will be filed with the secretary of state.

The new charter calls for the board of city development to have fifteen members to work in conjunction with the Chamber of Commerce in promoting the welfare of Slaton. Selection of members will be made soon after the election next month.
