FATHER'S FIGHT UNSUCCESSFUL

Six Children Dead In Flames Of Home

OSHKOSH, Wis., Dec. 3 (U.P.)—Six small children were burned to death late last night when an exploding oil burner set off a fire in their home.

Their father, Arnold Carpenter, fought unsuccessfully to save them.

Firemen found four of the children dead in the blazing home. The two others died en route to a hospital. The mother was working in a factory at the time. She was hospitalized from shock when told all her children had died.

Carpenter, a machine operator, was home alone with the children when the fire started. A wall of flame blocked his rescue attempts. Although he was seriously burned, he refused hospitalization.

Rose Marie, 7, Russell, 4, Kenneth, 3, and Sandra, four months, died in the flame. Two others, Charlotte, 5, and Barbara, 2, were still alive when taken from the blazing building.

Rumor Of U. S. Withdrawal In City Spreads

Reds Also Claim Uncle Sam Might Recall Gen. Clay

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, Dec. 3—Communists launched a last-minute scare campaign today to try to keep Berliners from voting Sunday.

Their newspapers asserted, without foundation, that the U. S. might withdraw from Berlin by spring and that Washington might recall Gen. Lucius D. Clay, the U. S. military governor.

The Russians recognized a Communist rump government "as the only legal" regime for Berlin and pledged it support. The regime was formed this week at a Red mass meeting. The Communists, assured a trouncing in the western sector city elections Sunday, are trying to get Germans to boycott the voting.

Equipment Is Removed

The U. S. removed without trouble its equipment from the closed liaison office at the city hall in the Russian sector. Communist police insisted only on checking items taken away. The British had to argue four hours last night before the Communists let them move.

Russian recognition of the Communist regime they abetted surprised no one.

These steps in the Russian bid for complete control of Berlin were announced by the Soviet-sponsored ADN news agency last night.

The announcements had been expected since hand-picked delegates approved a Communist slate of city officers unanimously at a convention in the Soviet sector Tuesday and proclaimed it the successor of the legally elected (1946) city administration now seated in Soviet-blockaded western Berlin.

Rejected In Advance

Russia thus rejects in advance the results of a free election Sunday in all western Berlin, the sectors occupied by the United States, Britain and France, to choose a new city administration.

The campaigning has been marked by fights between anti-Communists and Sommunist hecklers. Fifteen hecklers were tossed out of one meeting last night.

Though the election is being conducted under four-power regulations which Russia originally approved, she was forbidden voting in the Soviet sector and Communists are campaigning militantly for a boycott of the ballotting.

Solon To Ask For Curbs On Firms' Power

Huge Holdings In Loans Are Claimed Threat To Nation

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3. —Rep. Celler (D-NY) plans to "get after" insurance companies which he calls a "menace to the economy of the nation."

He told reporters today he wants the House judiciary committee to make a "full investigation" of insurance firms with the aim of "curbing their powers."

Celler is in line for the judiciary committee chairmanship when the new Congress meets in January. His plans for getting after insurance companies, however, could be overruled by the committee.

Curbs Not Indicated

He did not indicate what kind of curbs he has in mind. But he said some federal controls are needed because "insurance companies are reaching out in so many directions they are constituting an actual menace to the economy of the nation."

Celler said five of the largest insurance firms in the New York area have a yearly income of over $5,000,000,000 and are the biggest owners of railroad securities. He said Metropolitan, one of the firms, is the largest owner of American farm lands.

Increase Assets

In 10 years, he said, insurance companies have increased their assets 1,000 per cent and do almost as much loan business as banks.

(In this connection the Federal Reserve board recently complained that insurance companies were bucking the administration's anti-inflation drive by selling government bonds and re-using the money in business loans.)

The five big companies Celler mentioned in addition to Metro-

Special Ceremony Signals Start Of Agreement At Rio

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The American republics lined up today to throw their collective power behind a pact designed to protect this hemisphere against any aggressor.

A special ceremony at 11 a. m. (CST) will signal the start of the mutual defense compact drafted last year by 19 nations at Rio De Janeiro. Costa Rican Ambassador Mario Esquivel will bring the historic agreement into full force by depositing his country's ratification with the Pan American Union.

New World Is United

Aimed at shielding the Americas from pole to pole, the treaty was negotiated in August 1947 at the Rio conference, climaxing years of effort to unite the new world nations for self-defense.

President Truman told the delegates then that the accord was a model for international cooperations. And it is expected to serve in that capacity when work starts on the proposed Atlantic pact—which would tie the United States and Canada into a mutual defense agreement with the western European union.

The inter-American treaty, which is based on the United Nations charter, provides:

Immediate Military Aid

1. Immediate military assistance by all of the American states to any member attacked by another hemisphere nation. The foreign ministers are empowered to issue a "cease fire" order and to spell out what further help should be given the nation under attack.

2. If a member is attacked by an outside power all the treaty signatories will hold immediate consultations to decide what steps are needed to safeguard the hemisphere.

Although the way was left open for Canada to join the Rio pact, the dominion has shown no inclination to do so yet. Canada, however, figures in the Atlantic union plans.

The 19-nation agreement has been ratified thus far by 14 countries—the two-thirds required to put it into binding effect on all. In addition to Costa Rica, they are Brazil, Mexico, Venezuela, the United States, Colombia, Nicaragua, Honduras, El Salvador Paraguay, Dominican Republic, Panama, Haiti, and Urguay.

Truman Leaves Way Open To Alter Cabinet

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3. (AP)—President Truman is making no changes in his cabinet at this time.

That's what he said yesterday at his first White House news conference since the election. But he left the way open for some changes later by saying he reserves the right to shuffle the cabinet membership at his pleasure.

The news conference was a lively one. The President employed a fast change of pace, at times serious and sharp, but often drawing hearty laughter from the 225 newsmen—the largest crowd since his first conference as president in 1945, which 347 reporters attended.

Madame Chiang Expected

His Nov. 2 election triumph was a major topic. Mr. Truman said he is proud he won with neither the 47 electoral votes of New York nor the 38 which southern Democrats gave to the States' Rights party. As for those southern votes, the President dismissed moves to have them included in his electoral total. He doesn't want them, he said, adding that he is not angry with anyone.

Mr. Truman also set at rest speculation as to whether he will confer with Madame Chiang Kai-Shek. The President said an appointment has been arranged, but he would not say when it is.

As for whether General Douglas MacArthur would be sent from Japan to China to help the beleaguered Chinese Nationalists, Mr. Truman had a blunt answer: No—period.

And he already had stated the administration's policy on China, he said, so he was having nothing to say on that again.

In citing reasons for his election, Mr. Truman said everybody in the Democratic set-up pitched

THE QUESTION

Since cotton is the leading product of this area, do you give preference to cotton in buying clothes or fabric?

THE ANSWERS

MRS. GERALD LOKEY, 2614 Twenty-eighth, housewife: "I do prefer cotton, because I have four children and it's easier to wash and iron than any material. As far as I am concerned, I hadn't thought of it from the standpoint of cotton being grown in this area."

W. E. CAUDLE, Lubbock route 6, postman: "I wear a lot more cotton clothing than I do anything else. These uniforms are wool, but for summer clothes I wear cotton. I don't believe I wear it because it is grown in this area. There seems to be a big demand for it all over the world and I don't think we need to wear it just because we raise it."

MRS. M. A. CLARK, 1311 Twenty-eighth, drug store cashier: "I do buy a lot of cotton, but that's not the reason why. I buy more cotton because it's more practical, particularly in the summer. It's more within the price range I like and more comfortable. Perhaps the fact we raise so much cotton has something to do with those things. It makes us cotton conscious."

MRS. J. C. HUGHES, 2119 Sixteenth, housewife: "No. Naturally, I buy more cotton in the summer, but I don't think about it from that angle. I think we should use the cotton, but I've never done it for that reason. I've never thought about it in that light."

MRS. TERESA BIGLEY, 710 Ave. M., secretary to manager at Hilton hotel: "No, I don't believe I do. For summer, I think that cotton dresses are nicest. They are washable and look cool, but I don't buy cotton clothes for the reason that cotton is grown here. I believe there is enough demand for cotton that it isn't necessary to buy it because it's grown in this area."

Committee For Tax Study To Be Sought

AUSTIN, Dec. 3. (AP)—Gov. Beauford H. Jester said today he will ask the legislature to appoint a tax study committee.

"We abolished the state ad valorem tax by constitutional amendment at the last election. Now the legislature is certainly going to be interested in replacing the revenue the state will lose," Jester said.

He observed that cities and municipalities have a "crying need" for more sources of revenue and that most counties are in the same shape.

"All this indicates the need for an overall tax study," Jester said at a press conference.

Missing Texas Child Located

MT. PLEASANT, Dec. 3. (AP)—A two-year-old child, missing 22 hours from his home, 18 miles north of here, was found unconscious at 10:30 a. m. today, three and one-half miles fromt he backyard from which he had wandered. His condition was reported "extremely serious."

Sheriff Coy M. Coker said Skippy Ray Randle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Randle, was found under an abandoned automobile top in a patch of woods.

1,000 Persons in Search

The boy was not warmly dressed and had spent the night in near-freezing temperatures.

Coker said the little boy was being rushed to medical aid. "He is in urgent need of oxygen," said the sheriff.

Manuel Blalock of Maple Springs found the child in a wooded section of a farm.

Altogether, more than 1,000 persons had taken part in a great search that lasted through the night, a search directed by national guardsmen and peace officers.

Skippy Ray had last been seen about 12:30 p. m. yesterday, playing in the backyard of his home.

SAN QUENTIN, Calif., Dec. 3. (AP)—Two convicts from Alcatraz prison were executed in San Quentin prison today for the slaying of an Alcatraz guard in an attempt at escape.

They were Sam Shockley, 36, kidnaper from Oklahoma, and Miran Thompson, 31, murderer of a policeman in Amarillo, Texas.

The death gas was turned on at 10:04 a. m. They were pronounced dead at 10:12 a. m.

Shockley turned as if to spit at a guard as they walked him to the chair and strapped him down.

Tight Smile On Face

Thompson had a tight little smile on his face.

Just before gas pellets were dropped Thompson closed his eyes tightly and his lips tensed. He appeared to be at prayer. There never was a smile from then on.

Shockley sat as if in a stupor. He showed no emotion whatever.

The gas seemed to hit Thompson first. He convulsed, then slumped forward, then raised his head.

Shockley fell forward at once, and never moved.

MADAME CHIANG SEES MARSHALL

Progress Is Made In China Aid Appeal

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 — Madame Chiang Kai-Shek was making progress today in her campaign to carry to top American officials her urgent appeal for aid against Chinese Communists.

The first lady of China saw Secretary of State Marshall for about an hour late yesterday. At about the same time President Truman announced that he will receive her on a date to be disclosed later.

Mme. Chiang's meeting with Marshall, at whose Leesburg, Va., home she is staying, occurred at Walter Reed hospital, where the secretary is undergoing a physical examination.

Asked To Speak

Before the visit had been disclosed, State department officials said the two probably would meet in a day or so. This was taken as an indication that the first session, at which Mrs. Marshall was present, was largely social, and that another meeting with Marshall would be held later.

The Chinese embassy still had not announced Mme. Chiang's itinerary, however, and her plans for the two weeks or so she will stay in Washington were for the moment indefinite.

Aides reported that the wife of China's Nationalist leader has received invitations from all over the country to make public speeches, as she did in 1942-43. But any such swing appears out of the question this time.

Several questions concerning the China crisis—now heightened by the Communist drive toward Nanking—were put to Mr. Truman at his news conference late yesterday.

But the President gave no hint of what his decision on China aid

Texan Bags Buck Deer With Bow And Arrow And Bayonet

(By The Associated Press)

STEPHENVILLE, Dec. 3.—Bagging a buck deer with a bow and arrow is a difficult feat that becomes even more of an accomplishment when you have to battle the wounded animal on ice.

But it's what happened to Franklin (Jeff) Conley, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Conley here. And to add to the honors, it resulted in Conley becoming the first bow and arrow hunter to bag a deer of the 1948 season in North Dakota.

Conley used a bow that he made while a boy scout attending Camp Wilderness in Minnesota. It was forgotten and little used since that time, but was called to mind again when Conley was attend a boy scout meeting in Jamestown, N. D., recently.

Wife Who Had Loved Husband Devotedly Is Resentful When He Confesses Infidelity

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am 32, have been married 12 years, and started going with Fred, my husband, when we were 17; and we were deeply in love when we married at 20.

After six years of beautiful love, friendship and understanding I discovered that Fred was seeing another woman. Blinded with love as I was, I couldn't accept the fault as his and ended by blaming the girl. Fred was the essence of romorse, our marriage resumed its normal course and four years passed before the second shock occurred.

I was awaiting our fourth child, to be born within a month, when the second affair was reported to me by the girl involved, whom I had thought my dearest friend. Fred not only admitted it, but filled in the sordid details and again was consumed by remorse.

STERN CONSCIENCE TORTURES HUSBAND

IN HAVING the baby I wished that God would take me out of my misery, but it was His will that I should live; and because I have a pleasant lighthearted nature, I had to put the episode out of mind in order to live with myself. Fred vowed it would never happen again.

Now, two years later, out of a clear sky he has confessed another infidelity, that happened a year ago, he says. His conscience has been so severe with him that I actually think he had to tell me to avert a nervous breakdown. So once again I am in distress and I resent it. A thought keeps running through my mind—"Three strikes on you and you're out."

What should I do? I have loved Fred with all by being: I have always been a homebody, yet ready to entertain his friends or go anywhere with him at a moment's notice. Should I give him another chance or tell him I want no further part of him, for I'm not sure I do. Please advise me.—C. O.

MAN'S REMORSE IS NEUROTIC RACKET

DEAR C. O.: The whole weight of law and Christian ethics holds wilful, unprovoked, pernicious adultery to be an unpardonable sin against marriage; thus in view to Fred's repetitious affairs, you have moral warrant to renounce him if you choose. And since you cannot condone his latest lapse without doing violence to your psychological integrity the time has come to deal with him as severely as you feel.

Unquestionably Fred is the type who suffers terribly for licentious sin; but the truth is, he unconsciously elects this suffering in preference to renouncing the guilty pleasure which precedes it.

His suffering is an ersatz neurotic anguish, a futile compulsive purgatorial seizure, which serves the unconscious scheme of appeasing his conscience by "paying off" in writhing remorse for the offense committed.

Having suffered "enough"—per this self-serving unconscious standard — and having evoked your forgiveness by playing upon your feelings (of mingled compassion and jealous attachment). he then consciously feels "redeemed," but the weak conflicted inner man is poised anew to embrace fresh temptations at the same old price.

FIRM FACT-FACING STEP FORWARD HEALTH

THUS in terms of the basic problem, which has to do with Fred's neurotic character, nothing is solved by overtly forgiving gravely destructive manifestations of it, and when he slays your love and faith, he is being destructive indeed.

Instead of acting in unison with him to bribe his conscience, you should sternly acquaint him with the fact that he must pay a realistic price for conjugal rapport and loyal wifely solicitude; that his promises have been dishonored too often to build on again and that his latest remorse leaves you cold, with emotions up in arms to reject him in toto.

The merit of this attitude is its honesty, which will be infinitely healthier for both than trying to fool him or yourself about how you feel; but to cleanse the trouble at its source, Fred should enlist psychiatric help.—M. H.

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Dec. 3—Three Greek orthodox priests are to be tried here next week on charges of leading a fight to carve a great Ukrainian republic out of parts of Soviet Russia and her Communist neighbors.

Press and radio attacks upon both the Greek and Roman Catholic churches preluded the announcement of details last night. The priests are formally accused of anti-state activities.

(Communists control the press and radio of Czechoslovakia, just as they control the government. The anti-clerical attacks followed a pattern already familiar in such Communist nations as Poland, Yugoslavia, Hungary and Romania.

Movements Sporadic

(Ukrainian nationalist movements develop sporadically in eastern Europe. Guerrilla bands since the war, but none appears to have accomplished much).

The three priests — Pavel Hlucko, Rehor Buranic and Sebastian Sabol — are charged with being the actual leaders of anti-Communist Ukrainians fighting to establish a republic extending from the Kuban river in Russia to the Poprad river in eastern Czechoslovakia.

Such a state would cut more than 800 miles across sections of Slovakia, Poland, Romania, the Soviet Ukraine and Cossack country of the Soviet Union. The Kuban river rises in the Caucasus and flows into the Black sea from the east.

Work With Band

The priests and two other defendants are charged with cooperating with remnants of a Ukrainian band formed during the war by a former student, Stephan Bandera, who attempted to set himself up as Ukrainian premier with Nazi help.

The two other defendants are Dr. Emil Ivanco, a lawyer, and a lay church official named Zilinsky.

The Czechoslovak press and radio said Bandera, variously reported killed or captured in Russia a year ago, had set up a Ukrainian nationalist group at Munich, in the American-occupied zone of Germany. The agencies said he had worked in Munich since 1945.

Preliminary charges against the five men held said a paid on Greek Catholic headquarters disclosed forged documents and false citizenship papers to help refugees travel into the American zone of Germany.

Explorer Laughs At Colorado Storms

LAMAR, Colo., Dec. 3. (U.P.)—When Colorado's wind and snow blow through Lamar, 81-year-old George Anderson just rubs the stump of a leg and mutters, "I've seen worse than this."

Anderson, who has been in southeastern Colorado almost long enough to be called a pioneer, is really a pioneer, but not of western America.

In 1895 and 1896, Anderson and Dr. Fridtjof Hansen reached 86 degrees and 14 minutes north, the nearest to the North Pole anyone had ever traveled at that time. It was 13 years later that the American Admiral Peary discovered the pole.

Anderson came to Colorado in the early 1900's, after his work for the Norwegian government was finished. He lost his left leg here.

HOME NEARS COMPLETION—J. R. Leftwich is building this $50,000 home at 3313 Nineteenth street. Leonard McGowan is the general contractor. Of brick with clay tile roofing, the home contains two living rooms, two bedrooms, two baths and an attached two-car garage, with tile sidewalks, as well as expansive steel casement windows. A basement is fully finished as a playroom. Completion is expected by the first of the year. (Staff Photo).

Argentina President States His Opinion On Red Question

BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 3. (AP)—President Juan D. Peron of Argentina says it is easy to brand a man a Communist but "the thing to do is not to make Communists by giving everybody a better life."

Peron told a group of lawyers supporting the government's proposed constitutional reform last night the fight between Communism and Capitalism has spread all over the world.

In Argentina, he said, the issue lies between the old ruling classes and the people. Peron said he has chosen the side of the people. He added:

Side With Capitalists

"But other countries have sided with the Capitalists. Some places already have concentration camps where they send workers accused of being Communists."

Observers speculater whether Peron was referring to Chile which recently outlawed Communism and ordered that Communists be moved to remote towns.

Some also recalled that a Chilean official recently said a plot aimed at overthrowing the Chilean government was inspired outside the country.

(A dispatch from Santiago said a Chilean military prosecutor has sent to a military court charges against 27 men accused of plotting to overthrow the government. The prosecutor has charged the plot was "inspired in Argentina.")

The Argentine foreign ministry issued a statement last night denying that Argentina had been involved in the alleged plot in Chile.

The statement said Argentina traditionally has refrained from interfering in the internal affairs of other nations.

Train Mishap In Red Sector Fatal To 10

BERLIN, Dec. 3. (AP)—At least 10 persons were killed and 30 others badly hurt in a train collision today west of Berlin in the Soviet zone, the Soviet-licensed news agency reported.

The agency said the death toll might reach 15 and added that a "large number of passengers sustained minor injuries. Four cars were derailed, two of them smashed to splinters.

The collision occurred at Falkensee railway station, at about 6 a. m. (midnight, EST).

"Strong" Citizen Fails To Pass Test

TACOMA, Wash., Dec. 3. (U.P.)—Patrolman H. W. Fleming observed a citizen pushing and pulling at a parking meter, finally tearing it from its sidewalk stand.

"And just what do you think you're doing?" Fleming asked John A. McMillan, 43.

"I'm strong and I'm testing my strength," was the answer. "Now I'm going to test your strength."

"Whereupon," wrote Patrolman Fleming after booking McMillan on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, "he was subdued and jailed."

POLICEMAN IS SHOT

NACOGDOCHES, Dec. 3 (AP) — City Policeman Bennett Spradley, 59, was fatally shot here yesterday. Sheriff Hagan Parmley said a local store owner was jailed.

YES, VIRGINIA, THERE IS A SANTA CLAUS!

A little girl, Virginia, wrote to the Editor of "The New York Sun" asking if there is a Santa Claus, explaining that some of her friends told her he is a myth. The late Frank P. Church's immortal answer appeared in that paper over 80 years ago. This editorial, like Santa Claus himself, will probably never die.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

by Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3. (AP)—The Chicago Cubs are going to the winter baseball meetings next week in a trading mood . . . And Red Smith, who has been exploring the possibilities for owner Phil Wrigley in his time off from coaching the football Giants line, figures some deals will be discussed at Minneapolis and concluded during the major league sessions at Chicago . . . "We need a good third baseman and another good right-hand pitcher," says Red. "And we have three good catchers, something other clubs need, so we can trade one, and we have an extra first baseman. Phil Cavarretta won't be traded. He'll play first" . . . Off that brief survey, it appears that the Cubs have a lot of spare talent for an eight place club . . . And if there are as many holes in Smoth's deals as there are in the Giants' line, they'll finish last again.

Bob's unstudied mugging while he pitches is one of the high spots of the 1948 World Series picture . . . ## Blackhawks In Favorite Role

Class A grid championship of the Panhandle and South Plains will be at stake at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at Amarillo's Butler field, when the undefeated Post Antelopes tangle with the powerful Phillips Blackhawks in a second-round playoff tilt.

Phillips, representing District 1-A, defeated Lefors last weekend in a bi-district tussle, while Post of 4-A was pounding out a 7-6 victory over Lockney. Both Phillips and Post have won 11 games this season.

The Blackhawks will enter the important tussle as a slight favorite, on the basis of an impressive offensive and defensive record this season, although there is little in the way of an actual comparison that can be made. Phillips has scored 284 points against 11 foes, while allowing all opponents a total of 24 points.

Perryton Held Hawks

The Hawks opened the season with a 33-6 victory over Panhandle, then drubbed Wellington, 32-0. Phillips then followed up with a 32-6 triumph over Floydada, a narrow 7-6 win over Shamrock, and a 38-0 win over Dalhart. The Hawks closed their regular slate with a 26-0 margin over Canyon, a 43-0 decision over Dumas and wins over Hereford, Tulia and Perryton. Perryton held Phillips to a 7-0 victory, however.

Post's record is familiar to most South Plains schoolboy grid fans, who know that the Antelopes have tallied 233 points this season against 38 for 11 opponents. Post holds wins over Ralls, Spur, Seagraves, O'Donnell, Tahoka, Snyder, Levelland, Lubbock Cowhands, Slaton, Littlefield and Lockney. The tilt with Littlefield was for the full district championship and the tussle with Lockney determined the bi-district winner.

The only comparison that can be made between the two teams is through another 3-A team, Floydada. Phillips drubbed Floydada, 32-6, then later Lockney edged the Whirlwinds, 15-12. Since Post beat Lockney by a one-point margin, the comparison gives the Blackhawks a two or three touchdown advantage. Comparative scores can hardly be used as a true guide, however.

The regional encounter will also match two of the top mentors of the Panhandle and South Plains. The Hawks are coached by veteran Chesty Walker, who has lost only 12 games during the last 10 seasons. His Phillips teams have won eight district championships during the 10-year period, as well as six regional crowns.

The Post mentor, Francis (Bing) Bingham, has been in the coaching business for only a few years, but in two years at Post he has built the top grid team on the South Plains. Bingham was a stellar end for Texas Tech's Red Raiders before the war.

Some of the best Class A grid performers of West Texas will clash in the setto Saturday, with most of Post's hopes resting on the capable shoulders of Halfback Junior Malouf. Malouf, very fast and shifty, is a touchdown threat every time he carries the ball.

The Hawks depend more on backfield teamwork and deception for their scoring punch, but their "T" quarterback—Bill Braden—is a top-flight performer.

Winner of the regional tussle will meet the winner of the Monahans-Ballinger tilt in the quarter-final playoff bracket to a state Class A championship.

Collier's Picks Its 1948 All-America

NEW YORK, Dec. 3 (AP)—Collier's magazine announced today its 59th annual All Star football team, selected by a group of seven football coaches, lining up as follows:

Ends — Sam Tamburo, Penn State, and George Brodnax, Georgia Tech; Tackles—Leo Nomellini, Minnesota, and Al Wistert, Michigan; Guards— Marty Wendell, Notre Dame, and Paul Burris, Oklahoma; Center—Chuck Bednarik, Pennsylvania; Quarterback—Doak Walker, Southern Methodist; Halfbacks — Charlie Justice, North Carolina, and Clyde Scott, Arkansas; Fullback—Jackie Jensen, California.

Southwest Loop Cagers Going Into Action; Baylor Whipped

(By The Associated Press)

Four Southwest conference basketball teams are in action tonight as pre-conference season play swings into high.

Baylor's Bears dropped their opening game of the year last night, losing to New York university in Madison Square Garden, 47-67.

Tonight, the University of Texas meets Louisiana State university at Baton Rouge, La.; Rice meets Tulane, Texas A and M plays Trinity at San Antonio, and Southern Methodist is host to Texas Tech at Dallas.

Tomorrow night six of the seven conference schools are in action. Southern Methodist and Texas Tech play again at Dallas; Baylor meets Canisius at Buffalo, N. Y., Texas Christian plays host to North Texas State at Fort Worth, Arkansas and Oklahoma A and M meet at Stillwater, Okla., Texas and Tulane clash at New Orleans and Rice and Louisiana State tangle.

New York university rallied in the closing minutes of the second half to pull away from Baylor. The Violets scored 23 points in eight minutes of the second half to build up a commanding lead.

Don Heathington, big Baylor center, fouled out early in the second half. He had scored 12 points when he had to leave the game.

Joe Dohlon led Violet scoring with 20 points.

Tech Underdog For Two Mustang Tilts

The Texas Tech basketball quintet, on the short end of the odds for two games in Dallas against Southern Methodist university tonight and tomorrow night, spent last night in Wichita Falls.

A 12-man travelling squad left yesterday afternoon about 1 for Wichita Falls, where Coach Polk Robinson sent them through a light workout. They spent the night there and were scheduled to go into Dallas today.

The Raiders have two practice games with Wayland College under their belts, as well as a 63-39 victory over McMurry, scored here Tuesday night. The squad has 12 lettermen returning and has shown signs of becoming a topnotch quintet.

Mustangs Not Tested

In SMU, the Raiders will run into one of the better cage crews in the Southwest Conference. So far the Mustangs have not been tested in the 1948-1949 season and, while the Techsans may not be able to win against SWC competition, they are expected to prove stern opposition for the Ponies.

Coach Robison probably will build his starting five around towering Don Grove at center, who turned in a capable game Tuesday night. The forwards will be Gene Gibson and Wayne Bowles, both of whom showed good floorwork and ballhawking ability in the McMurry game. The guards probably will be Ardis Barton and Chet Jackson. Barton was high point man in the Indian contest, while Jackson showed good team play.

Others making the trip, most of whom are expected to see action, include Bill "Whistle" Banks and C. W. Dukes, forwards; Charles Pinnell and Durwood Patterson, centers; and Wimpy Hill, Bill Edins and George Belchef, guards.

Every player in uniform Tuesday night saw action and all players making the trip probably will be used to give them additional experience before getting into conference play.

Another Cage Series Planned At Boys Club

Another series of basketball games will be played at the Lubbock Boys club, following four games there yesterday that involved play in the Pee Wee, Midget, Junior and Senior leagues.

Monte Hasie, with three points, led the Black Demons to a 7-2 victory over the Hellcats, who were led by Ray Day and Charles Stogner, in a Pee Wee game.

The Five Little Devils turned in a 46-13 victory over the Fighting Irish in a Midget game. Dennis Calvert had 22 points for the winners, Jerry White scored six for the losers.

In the Junior game, the Dirty Demons nosed out the Roughies 18-16. Billy Averitt paced the winners with six points, one less than Bobby Henly had for the losers.

Billy Diamond caged 15 points in leading the Sharpshooters to a 46-20 victory over the Roughnecks in a Senior game. Billy Bohner made seven points to lead the losing team.

Lubbock Will Tackle Lamesa

LAMESA, Dec. 3. (Special)—Lubbock's highly-regarded Westerner cagers and the veteran Lamesa Golden Tornadoes, sparked by five letterman of the 1947 squad, will blast the lid off the new schoolboy basketball season here at 8 o'clock tonight at the high school gym.

The Tornado cagers have been working out for several weeks under the direction of Coach Q. W. Follis, who is beginning his third year as head basketball mentor.

Returning lettermen, who make up the tentative starting lineup at the present time, include Center Leon Blair, Forwards Gene Morris and T. J. Womack and Guards Larry Lattimore and Wallace McNeill. Five boys who lettered on the "B" team last year will furnish the reserve strength for the Tornado quint, and may break into the starting lineup before the District 3-AA season gets underway.

The "B" lettermen include Ronald Chapman, Bobby Hawkins, Jerry Phillips, Bill Hart and Bill Cox. Chapman, Hart and Hawkins have made the most impressive showing in workouts.

Two regulars of the 1947 Lubbock High five are expected to lead the Westerners into action tonight. Big Jim Wilson will be at the starting pivot post, with veteran Charles Galey at guard. Other starters named by Coach Roy Morris will probably include Jesse Fullerton and either Bob Rooker or Blair Hankins at forwards and Jack Hensley at guard.

First Tilt For Both

The tussle will be the opening game of the season for both teams and should indicate how the quints will fare in competition this year. Lamesa is rated as a contender in the 3-AA loop and the Westerners are expected to provide Amarillo and Pampa of 1-AA with strong competition.

Lamesa's complete schedule includes:

Dec. 7—Lamesa at Brownfield.
Dec. 10-11 — Hardin-Simmons tournament at Abilene.
Dec. 14—Lamesa at Midland.
Dec. 17—Hobbs at Lamesa.
Dec. 21—Lamesa at Hobbs.
Jan. 4—Odessa at Lamesa.
Jan. 7—Big Spring at Lamesa.
Jan. 8—Lamesa at Lubbock.
Jan. 11—San Angelo at Lamesa.
Jan. 14—Lamesa at Abilene.
Jan. 18—Lamesa at Sweetwater.
Jan. 21—Midland at Lamesa.
Jan. 25—Brownfield at Lamesa.
Jan. 27—Lamesa at Odessa.
Jan. 28-29—Odessa tournament.
Feb. 1—Lamesa at Big Spring.
Feb. 4—Lamesa at San Angelo.
Feb. 8—Abilene at Lamesa.
Feb. 11—Sweetwater at Lamesa.

CONTINUE TRAINING

CHICAGO, Dec. 3 (AP) — Both Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis and Billy Conn, of Pittsburgh, continued training today for their six-round exhibition bout in the international amphitheater next Friday night.

City Loop To Reach Climax

(By The Associated Press)

Ten games today and tonight start a weekend in Texas schoolboy football that will establish finalists in one class and quarter-finalists in two others.

The City conference is the division that will name its title play off teams. Woodrow Wilson (Dallas) and Arlington Heights (Fort Worth) clash at Dallas tonight. Tommorrow afternoon Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio) meets Lamar (Houston) at Houston. Winners of these two games tangle next week for the championship.

Fireworks Started

Two games start the fireworks today and tonight in class AA which has 14 teams left in the race, two of them — Amarillo and Texarkana — drawing byes.

This afternoon Palestine plays at Waco and tonight Austin (El Paso) goes to Denison. Tomorrow afternoon Wichita Falls plays at Odessa, Breckenridge at Highland Park (Dallas), Port Arthur at Baytown and San Benito at Austin. In next week's quarter-finals Amarillo will play the Wichita Falls-Odessa winner, the Denison-Austin (El Paso) winner will meet the Highland Park-Breckenridge victor, Texarkana will play the Waco-Palestine winner and the Port Arthur-Baytown winner will clash with the Austin-San Benito winner.

Eight games are scheduled in class A, all except one of them today and tonight. Monahans will be at Ballinger in a day game with Bowie playing Irving at Fort Worth, Dekalb clashing with New London at Kilgore, Lavega going to Van, New Braunfels to Cameron, Aldine and El Campo playing at Houston and Carrizo Springs at Falfurrias in night tilts. Tomorrow afternoon Phillips and Post get together at Amarillo.

They pair like this in next week's quarter-finals:

Phillips-Post vs. Monahans-Ballinger, Bowie-Irving vs. Dekalb-New London, Van-Lavega vs. Cameron-New Braunfels, Aldine-El Campo vs. Falfurrias-Carrizo Springs.

Independent Cagers Unreel Battles Here

Four independent basketball tilts were unreeled in Lubbock Thursday night, with Crawford Electric nosing out Trammell Magnolia, 40-36, and Texas Lumber Bin drubbing Spade, 46-39, in feature games at the O. L. Slaton Junior High gym.

Orville Alderson paced the Crawford crew with 10 points, while Guy Cowden tallied 12 for Trammell. W. E. Medlock topped Lumber Bin scorers with 12 points and Bobby Short chalked up 11 for Spade.

Two tilts were played at the Senior High gym, with the Lubbock Cowhands edging Furr Food, 37-33, and the Thomas Tinkers shading the Plains Gassers, 54-53.

Walter Norton scored 13 points for the Cowhands, and Melvin Johnson equalled the mark for Furr Food. Bob Galey topped the Tinkers with 25 points, while Bill Woods made 18 for Plains.

ARMY WINS TROPHY

NEW YORK, Dec. 3 (INS)—The Army received today the Lambert trophy, emblematic of the championship college football team of the east.

Cowboys Interested In Bid To Bowl But No Acceptances Made

ABILENE, Dec. 3 (AP)—Hardin-Simmons university says it's interested in a bowl game, but has not yet accepted an invitation to the Camellia bowl at Lafayette, La., or the Permian basin bowl at Odessa.

Athletic Director and Head Football Coach Warren Woodson last night said he had not accepted a bid to the Camellia bowl at Lafayette, La., as announced by Rex McCullough, jr., public relations director of the Camellia Bowl association.

Woodson said that when an opponent is named for Hardin-Simmons by the Camellia bowl, then he would have a statement to make on the acceptance or rejection of the bid.

The Coyboys, who already are scheduled to meet Ouachita of Arkansas in the Shriner bowl at Little Rock, Ark., Dec. 18, have also been invited to the Permian basin bowl at Odessa, Jan. 1.

Woodson said "we are interested in a January 1 game and will play against a suitable opponent either at Odessa or Lafayette or perhaps elsewhere, depending on the offer most attractive."

W. E. Ledbetter, school business manager, said two members of the athletic council were expected back in town tonight. He said by that time "we hope a suitable bowl bid has been received so that the council may take some action."

Hawkins, Williams Tech Co-Captains

The Texas Tech football squad has chosen Ernest Hawkins of Lamesa and Bobby Williams of Phillips as co-captains of the 1948 season, which came to a close last Saturday with a 28-20 victory over Hardin-Simmons.

Hawkins, a quarterback, and Williams, a center, thus combine to represent the backfield and line. They were the choices of the players who worked with them all season. Coach Dell Morgan, who appointed individual game captains each week, decreed that the squad should elect a captain, or captains, for the season, so that they could be entered in Tech history.

Williams, Hawkins Starred

The Tech football squad this year won seven games while losing only three and won the Border Conference title for the second consecutive year. The Raiders played and won five games without defeat in the Border loop, winning additional victories over Tulsa and Texas A & M. The losses were to SMU, Baylor and Rice, all of the Southwest Conference.

And in all the games, Williams and Hawkins played important parts. Williams, playing his fourth year of varsity ball, is a 25-year old standing six feet two inches and weighing 195 pounds. He is particularly valuable on defense, backing up the line and guarding against the short pass over the center of the line. On offense, he used his ability and aggressiveness to open holes through which the backs poured for substantial gains.

Williams, older brother of Don, a reserve tackle, and Clint, a WTSTC player, came into his own this year after playing in the shadow of Tuffy Nabors. He was a team player, never saying much, but always turning in a good job. He had one of his best days of the year against Rice, when he roamed far and wide to make tackles.

For his performance in that game, Williams was named player of the week. But he consistently turned in good games and his work had much to do with the success of the Raiders this year.

Won Award Twice

Hawkins is a 23-year-old player who stands an even six feet tall and weighs 165 pounds. He has completed his fourth year on the Tech varsity, but has one more year of eligibility.

This year was one of Hawkins' best and he capped it by winning player of the week awards twice. The first was for his brilliant performance in the Texas Aggie game, when he directed the Raiders to a 20-14 victory and played a fine defensive game. In addition, the 92-yard pass play that he completed with time running out at the half was the turning point of the game.

In the Hardin-Simmons game, Hawkins threw one touchdown pass and intercepted an aerial to run 36-yards with the game-tying score. He recovered a fumble on the four-yard line to avert a touchdown threat, intercepted another pass on the 11 late in the fourth quarter to break up another threat and instigated a pass defense while playing that did much to break up the Cowboy aerial game.

The former Lamesa High school player, not equipped with the natural ability so often seen on the gridiron, is one of the hardest workers in college football. He is entirely self-efacing, a team player from start to finish. Typical of the tribute paid to him came from the New Mexico players, who said that they had faced only one T formation quarterback who was better. It was Paul Campbell of Texas university.

Between The Lines...

By Joe Kelly

Amarillo will be host tomorrow afternoon to one of the top Class A regional football games in the state, when the Post Antelopes and the Phillips Blackhawks collide on Butler Field. It should be a titanic struggle between two fine teams and the outcome is anybody's guess. So far, most of the experts have picked Phillips, but AP Sports Editor Harold V. Ratliff comes out with a vote for Post. We haven't seen Phillips, but we have seen Post—and we think that they have the power and speed to cope with the Hawks.

If you can't get up to Amarillo for the game, or would rather not, KFYO will bring the game into your home via their sports microphones. Ray McNally will do the play by play broadcast, hitting the airlanes from Butler Field at 1:45 p. m. More than passing interest in the game is being expressed in Lubbock, since Post played Lockney here in the Bi-District clash. Moreover, Francis "Bing" Bingham of Post is a Tech graduate and made a strong effort to bring the game to Lubbock, for which local sports fans are appreciative, even if other sources are not.

We had a telephone call yesterday afternoon from Monahans, expressing great interest in playing the Class A quarter-final game here, providing Phillips should get past Post and Monahans beats Ballinger. Monahans' official said that they'd like some aid by the local Chamber of Commerce, which we believe would be forthcoming, and they also were interested in the availability of Jones Stadium. Lubbock would be the halfway point between Phillips and Monahans and an ideal location for the game.

Now, if we can get Texas Tech and the local Chamber of Commerce together and on the ball enough to make an all-out bid for the probable Odessa-Amarillo game, Lubbock might have one of the biggest football week ends in the history of the state. During the regular season we had Amarillo-Lubbock and Rice-Tech on successive days. This time we might get Monahans-Phillips and Odessa-Amarillo on successive days. If those two games wouldn't fill Jones Stadium each day, we can't imagine two games in a row that would. Work is being done to promote the game, but it's a slow process.

We were sorry to learn Wednesday night that Jimmy McGowan, flashy quarterback for the Lockney Longhorns, had to be brought to a hospital in Lubbock. Sid Reeves, superintendent of schools in Lockney, brought him here and was concerned over his condition. Jimmy was injured on the second play of the Post-Lockney game and, after treatment in Lockney, suddenly became worse Tuesday. He's resting comfortably in Lubbock Memorial hospital and last night they told us his condition was better. Good luck, Jimmy. Hope you're up and kicking again in no time.

For the information of fans desiring to see the Cotton Bowl game New Year's Day, we pass on the following information just received; there will be no public sale of tickets out of the allotment for SMU. This announcement came from the Mustang business manager. If you want to "see" the game—and don't have a ticket—stay home and listen to it over the radio.

Tom Duggan, jr., called yesterday to say that so far, only $125 had been raised by the Quarterback club for the athletic fund at the high school. This is a shame. As anyone knows, who has been attending the meetings Monday nights, the fund is administered by school officials in any manner they see fit. They can use it to buy equipment, sponsor a banquet, take the boys to a football game, or anything else. There is particular interest in the donations to the fund this year and the public is urged to contribute—now. It doesn't have to be much. Anything you can spare will be appreciated. You can give it to Tom, or you can leave it at the business counter of this paper.

H. J. McCabe, former American Legion commander and chairman of the Junior Baseball program, called last night with a reminder. The reminder was to boys who want to play next year on the American Legion's senior team. Mac says that if they have a registered birth certificate, they'll be eligible to play, but if they don't have one now, they'd better get one by Jan. 1. McCabe stated that all boys desiring to play on the senior squad had better check to see whether their birth certificates have been registered properly. If they have, they have nothing to worry about; but if they haven't, they have until Jan. 1 to get them in order.

TRACKMEN IN BOWL EVENT

AUSTIN, Dec. 3 (AP)—Two University of Texas trackmen, Jerry Thompson and Charlie Parker, have accepted invitations to run in the Sugar Bowl track meet Dec. 30 at New Orleans.

USC Is Given Little Chance

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 3 (AP) — There was a slight quake and a shake out in East Los Angeles today. It wasn't an earth tremor. It was the Notre Dame football team rolling into town.

There was a bit of shaking across the broad expanses of the entire city, too—heads shaking in negative fashion. They reflected the attitude of most of the supporters of the cardinal and gold of the University of Southern California.

The Trojans, said the head wagglers, might put up a good battle against the feared, famous, fightin' Irish from South Bend in the 20th renewal of their grid warfare tomorrow.

But there was nothing to warrant hope for anything except perhaps a score closer than last year's 38-7 walloping. Even this was hazardous thinking because the 1948 Trojan eleven, on paper, anyhow, isn't even rated as good as the one last year.

The lure of the Irish, with its T-style attack functioning behind Frank Tripucka and aided and abetted by such men as squat Emil Sitko, John Pinelli and mates, plus the visitors' record of no defeats in 27 games, is enough to stamp the game as a sell-out weeks ago.

This series is like the Rose bowl game; the people will pack the joint no matter who plays or the chances of either team winning or losing.

Coach Jeff Cravath has brought his Troys up as far as he can. The rest is up to them. They were routed last Oct. 2 by Ohio State, 20-0. They barely got by Rice, 7-0. They began to look good as the season progressed, and played well, if losing ball, against Oregon (8-7), and unbeaten California, (13-7). Team morale is good, even high.

To date, the Trojans have scored 128 points and held nine opponents to 73. Notre Dame has accumulated 306 points to the collective enemy's 79.

Texas Mines Squad Arrives In Hawaii

HONOLULU, Dec. 3 (AP) — The powerful Texas College of Mines eleven arrived by plane late last night for the El Paso collegians' football tussle tomorrow with the University of Hawaii.

Hawaii students thronged the airport and staged an impromptu show of hula dancing and singing that lasted more than an hour.

College Football Takes Final Tiny Fling Before Bowl Tilts

NEW YORK, Dec. 3. (AP)—The college football season takes a tiny, final fling on widely scattered gridirons this weekend before plunging into the year-end bowls.

Some 100,000 customers will jam Memorial coliseum at Los Angeles tomorrow to watch Notre Dame tangle with Southern California. The Irish will be heavily favored to wind up their third straight season without a defeat.

In Charleston, S. C., Clemson, one of the three other major all-winning teams of the year, will help the Citadel dedicate a new stadium in what should be a flurry of Tiger touchdowns. By winning Clemson can capture the Southern conference championship.

And at Birmingham, Ala., Auburn and the University of Alabama will meet on a football field for the first time since 1907. The teams quit playing each other so long ago no one remembers exactly what caused the break. It took a threat by the legislature to cut off school funds to bring the schools back together.

Two games are scheduled tonight. Vanderbilt, with seven straight victories, plays the University of Miami at Miami, Fla., and the University of Richmond visits Rollins colege at Winter Park, Fla.

Eight bowl games are on the weekend card.

Little All-America For 1948 Selected

NEW YORK, Dec. 3. (AP)—Eddie Le Baron, engineer of College of the Pacific's tricky T-maneuvers, and James Nelson, rugged Missouri Valley guard, are repeaters on the Associated Press' annual Little All-America football team.

The honor eleven, chosen today from the hundreds of smaller college squads over the nation, includes three representatives from each of the Midwest and South, two from the East and Far West and one from the Southwest.

Is The Only Junior

Le Baron, 18-year-old triple threat, is only a junior and thus has a chance to become a three-time Little All America honoree.

He heads a backfield that consists also of Lynn Chewning, the former Navy star who now performs for Hampston-Sydney; V. T. Smith of Abilene Christian and Jack Salscheider of St. Thomas in Minnesota.

Smith is a fleet, powerful ball-carrier who in track sprints the 100 in 9.8. He returned a kick 71 yards for a touchdown against Arkansas and in another game returned three kickoffs for scores

On The Second Team

1949 District Grid Schedule Is Decided

AMARILLO, Dec. 3 (Special)—Re-organization of District 1-AA for grid competition in 1949, under the Texas Interscholastic league redistricting plan, was completed at a meeting of the district executive committee here Thursday. Representatives of Amarillo, Pampa, Borger and Plainview approved the football slate for next season and elected loop officials.

The 1949 grid slate was the chief item of business today, but other district problems were also discussed. Ticket prices for public school students were raised from 30 to 50 cents, and college students ducats were boosted from 60 to 75 cents.

The '49 schedule, as approved, included: Nov. 5—Plainview at Borger, Amarillo at Pampa. Nov. 12—Pampa at Plainview, Borger at Amarillo. Nov. 25—Amarillo at Plainview, Pampa at Borger.

A proposal for a "round-robin" slate was voted down.

Mulloy Is South's Top Tennis Player

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Dec. 3 (AP)—Just as it was figured all the time Gardnar Mulloy of Miami is the south's top ranking men's tennis player.

The Southern Lawn Tennis association gave him that ranking yesterday. The No. 2 spot went to Jack Tuero of New Orleans.

The top woman player is Doris Hart of Miami and a fellow townswoman, Maria Barnett, was given the No. 2 spot.

CLASH FOR TITLE

CORSICANA, Dec. 3 (AP)—Navarro county junior college and Ranger clash here today for the north zone championship of the Texas Junior College Athletic conference. The winner will meet Wharton for the conference title.

Big Chance Is Given Yarosz

NEW YORK, Dec. 3. (AP)—Tommy Yarosz gets his big chance tonight against ring-wise Jake Lamotta who rules a 1 to 2 favorite to win their 10-round duel at Madison Square Garden.

New financial worlds will open for 26-year-old Yarosz from Monaca, Pa., if he can upset the "Bronx Bull." Lamotta needs a convincing victory to re-establish his ranking. He was handed as surprising fourth-round technical knockout by Billy Fox last year. The pick here is the underdog Yarosz.

Need Sharp Margin

Among the plums that may await the winner is an over-the-weight match this winter with Marcel Cerdan, the middleweight champion. However, the margin must be sharp and decisive for the winner to rate even a non-title shot at the champ.

Both will be on trial with some 10,000 fans who are expected to pay $40,000 for the privilege. After the Fox debacle, the fans want to see how much Lamotta has left. Many are skeptical about Yarosz ability to mingle with the top-notchers, despite his fine record.

Purses Held Up

After the Lamotta-Fox fight in November of 1947, the New York state Athletic commission made a complete investigation. Purses were held up for a time but later were paid. Lamotta drew an indefinite suspension and $1,000 fine for "concealing vital facts about his physical condition before the fight." The ban was lifted June 21.

Three "comeback" fights in small clubs failed to produce the old Lamotta. He had to go hard to decision one Vern Lester in his last start a month ago.

The 20th Century Sporting club has Jake booked for a Jan. 7 date with Robert Villemain, the Frenchman who was to have been his opponent tonight but became ill.

Blaik Denies Army Afraid Of N. Dame

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Stern with indignation, Army football coach Earl (Red) Blaik vehemently denied today that he had "anything" to do with refusing a bowl bid—of which Army had three—because he feared a possible meeting with powerful Notre Dame.

Blaik, who has turned out three undefeated teams at Army within four years, insisted that he "never was much of a bowl man." And he disclosed that when he coached at Dartmouth he personally had turned thumbs down on a Rose bowl bid.

Report Is Refuted

The Army coach was tight-lipped and grim-eyed as he refuted a New Orleans report that he had turned down a Sugar bowl bid after Secretary of the Army Kenneth Royall and top academy officials had okayed the trip.

"On Nov. 9, Gen. (Maxwell D.) Taylor announced that we were not interested in post-season games," Blaik said. "Later Secretary Royall called and asked Taylor what was our stand. Gen. Taylor told him we were against such games and it was Taylor's decision—not Blaik's."

Three of the top bowls, excluding the Rose bowl, had invited Army "several times" during the past couple of years and also this season, Blaik explained.

Reason Is Explained

"There are always dirty innuendoes," he snapped.

"We are different than any other institution," the dark-haired coach added. "Our boys don't get to go home often. Christmas week is about the only time. Then, too, they have their written mid-year examinations in December—and it doesn't matter whether you play football or not if you fail them."

That, he explained, was the chief reason why Army has refused all bowl offers.

TO PLAY IN FINALS

CORPUS CHRISTI, Dec. 3 (AP)—Solomon Coles of Corpus Christi won its way into the finals of the negro state high school grid race last night, beating Booker T. Washington of Houston, 14-6.

The winner of the Booker T. Washington (Dallas)-Gladewater game in Dallas tomorrow will play Coles for the state championship.

BOWLING SCORES

Bell Ice Cream company's bowling team climbed into a three-way tie for fourth place in the Ladies Bowling league last night with a clean sweep of three games from the Lubbock National bank team, which fell into a two-way tie for seventh.

Bell's victory took them up from sixth into a deadlock with Lubbock Packing, which lost two of three games to the third place Hemphill-Wells five, and State Drug, which dropped two of three to the second place Hub Laundry bowlers.

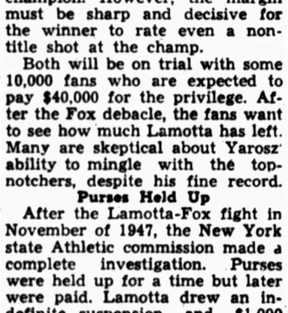

Mission Orange held onto its one-game lead with a two out of three game victory over KCBD, tied for seventh with the bank.

High keglers last night included Billie Slover, Mission Orange, 230-554; Bennie Presley, KCBD, 182-497; Lovie Beavers, Lubbock National, 161-461; Norma Crossland, Hub Laundry, 157-450; Sarah Behrens, Hemphill-Wells, 158-442; Reda Gary, Bells, 152-439; Joyce Vaughn, State Drug, 150-416; and Grace Hall, Lubbock Packing, 148-413.

Dallas Police Win Running Gun Battle With Four Holdup Men

DALLAS, Dec. 3. (U.P.)—Two Dallas policemen won a running gun battle with four holdup men after a short, five-block chase in the early morning hours today.

The holdup men—ages 20, 16 and two 17-year-olds—surrendered after officers poured four shots into the battle. Two struck the getaway car.

B. E. Ramage, manager of a Humble service station tipped the officers at 2:15 a. m. that he expected to be held up. He said that a suspicious man had been asking a series of questions about station operations during the day.

Police Park Cruiser

Police parked their cruiser where they could get a clear view of the station and saw a car drive slowly past with four men in it. Seconds later, the car came back. They noted that all four men were watching activities around the all-night station.

The car disappeared from their view, but exactly eight minutes later the officers saw three men enter the station. They started their cruiser moving forward without lights, but as they approached the station they saw three men running south on nearby Garrett street.

Ramage burst through the door and yelled to the officers:

"There they go!"

As the last man piled into the getaway car, Policeman T. D. Cain fired a blast from a shotgun. His partner, C. R. Boyce, fired once with his service pistol and hit the fleeing car. He was driving and had to shoot with his left hand.

Cain fired twice with his pistol—hitting the car once—as it tried to make a turn.

But the 20-year-old driver of the holdup car failed to make the turn and hit a curb. The left front wheel crumpled and the chase ended.

Minor Thefts

Pat Davidson, who had gone to Lamesa to question Jesse James Herrera, 28, in connection with burglary Nov. 19 of J. J. Murphy Lumber yard at 330 Ave. H in Lubbock. They obtained a written confession that Herrera rolled the Murphy safe out of the office and carried it in his car to near Monroe, where he opened it.

Officials were told where the safe was abandoned, but had not found it, they said.

Herrera, charged at Lamesa with theft over $50 in another case, is charged here with burglary. The suspect said he cashed a $61.81 check he had found in the safe, at a Monroe service station the night of the burglary. Other checks he tore up. There was only $6 in money in the safe, he said.

Prisoners Removed

C. E. Luce removed three federal prisoners from county jail and left with them for a federal penitentiary, officials said. They were listed as Billie Dale Pollard, 25, of Lubbock, sentenced to two years for theft from an interstate shipment; Tiofilo Acala, 24, a San Angelo Mexican; and Albert Bunton, 45, a negro, sentenced to a year and a day for violation of terms of parole.

E. C. McCrary of 2820 Walnut street told police that a three-quarters length topcoat valued at $25 had been stolen at a local drug store.

A 55-year-old Lubbock man was arrested at a residence in 1600-block Ave. D after residents of the house complained to police that the man was drunk and carrying a pistol there. Charges of carrying a prohibited weapon will be filed in county court today, police indicated.

Dick Gordon of 3108 Merthel said that his bike, valued at $30, had been stolen from the park at Seventh and Ave. T.

S. E. Jondahl of 2511 Nineteenth told police that a $450 diamond stick pin in a yellow gold setting was missing from that address. He did not indicate that the pin had been stolen.

terday afternoon.

By nightfall, hundreds gathered at the Randle farm, two miles east of the Maple Springs community school and the long, cold search began. The temperature last night dropped to 34 degrees in this area.

Hundreds more volunteers at dawn replaced the men who had, during the night, "walked out" an area three miles in radius around the Randle farm. Bloodhounds from Texarkana were used.

Officers expressed the fear at mid-morning that the little boy had been kidnaped.

Mother Arraigned In Death Of Baby

DANVILLE, Ill., Dec. 3. (INS)—A former student nurse in a Danville hospital was arraigned today on a charge of manslaughter resulting from the death of her baby and released on $10,000 bond pending investigation of the case by the January grand jury.

The former student nurse is Mildred Louise Burnworth, 20, of Sidell, Ill., who gave birth to the child unattended Nov. 6 in her room in the nurses' home adjoining the hospital.

She claimed the child was stillborn. Authorities said, however, that an autopsy disclosed that air in the child's lungs indicated it had breathed after birth. They charged that the child was strangled.

The student-nurse attended classes the next day, when a housekeeper discovered the body in an incinerator.

Entry Lists

responsibility they have agreed to assume.

Rules are practically the same as in the contest last year, which attracted more than 60 entries, but the prizes are substantially larger. They have been arranged, as detailed in the accompanying list of rules, in an effort to give as many people as possible a chance to share in them.

For example, the window contest should interest apartment dwellers who have no front yard or front doorway to decorate. Nearly all of them can concentrate upon a window. Many probably can arrange for an outdoor tree. Incidentally, contestants were fewer for the outdoor tree prizes last year than in any other division.

Entry into the competition will not necessarily require the expenditure of a great deal of money. One prize winner last year spent only 15 cents. Another spent only 60 cents.

The judges are fully aware that some people can spend more than others for a thing of this kind. Therefore, they say, they will give a great deal of consideration to the originality of the decorations.

They point out, further, that a decorations picture does not have to be huge in order to be beautiful. The smallest cottage will have just as much chance to win one of the prizes as the finest mansion.

Decorations may be put in place at any time, but not later than Dec. 15. The sooner it is done, however, the more beautiful will be the Christmas picture that Lubbock as a whole presents.

The judges are to make their inspections at any time they may see after Dec. 15. The inspecting will be done at night, which means that the decorations must be illuminated and visible after dark. Decisions will be announced and award checks distributed soon afterward.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Dec. 3 (AP) — Cotton futures turned steady today following early easiness, as mill buying and short covering met light offerings.

Private advices said that mill buying of spot cotton improved, with both mills and shippers willing to pay more for the better grades. Anticipating the next government cotton crop estimate, traders looked for an unchanged to moderately lower figure.

Cotton futures rallied sharply into new high ground for the day at the close, as flurry of trade buying met a scarcity of offerings. Part of the demand was against export sales, particularly to France. Exporters said that France is in the market for a large quantity of cotton, with some estimates running as high as 270,000 bales. Futures closed 50 cents to $1.00 a bale higher than the previous close.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Dec. 3 (AP) — Grains rolled upward on the board of trade today in response to export trade news. Gains exceeding a cent were posted at times by wheat, corn and soybeans. Trading was active as the advance attracted a good deal of profit-taking.

The December wheat contract went to the best price this delivery has reached since last February, when the market suffered its big postwar price break. It still was well under its high of $2.63¾ made on Jan. 16.

Supporting the upturn was announcement by the Agriculture department of 1949 first quarter export allocations, which were up substantially from the current quarter. Another bullish item was the granting of $15,026,000 credit to bisone Germany for American corn.

Wheat closed 1⅛-1⅝ higher, December $2.42-2.42⅛, corn was ⅜ lower to ⅛ higher, December $1.44½-1.44, oats were unchanged to ⅜ higher, December 83⅝-½.

Woman Alive After A 12-Story Plunge

NEW YORK, Dec. 3 (INS) — A 55-year-old woman plunged 12 stories today from a room in the Hotel Pennsylvania, crashed through a screened skylight—and survived.

Police said she is Mrs. Mary Bell of the Bronx, who registered at the hotel last night and was assigned a room on the 16th floor.

This afternoon she plunged from a window of her room which overlooks a fifth floor setback of the hotel.

Her body smashed through a skylight to the cement floor of the fourth floor linen room.

Police rushed Mrs. Bell to St. Vincent's hospital where she was given blood plasma.

Officer Not Scared; Delivers Own Babies

COVINA, Calif., Dec. 3. (AP)—Officer Orville Budd said he always feared he might have to deliver a baby or two some day while on police duty.

Today that fear has left him.

While on patrol, he saw a light in his home and learned from his wife, Goldie, that the stork was approaching rapidly. He summoned an ambulance, but before it arrived, he had delivered twin girls—his own.

New Rich Oil Strike Made

DALLAS, Dec. 3. (U.P.)—A new major discovery flowing 26 barrels of premium oil every hour may give Colorado a boom in black that will set its neighboring states "afire," oilman D. Harold Byrd said today.

Byrd returned to Dallas last night after flying over the San Juan basin in Montezuma county, where the strike was made.

The discovery is the Byrd-Frost Driscoll No. 1 on the Dove Creek structure. It was shut in Wednesday night, Byrd said.

"It's an awful big thing," he said. "It's opening up a whole oil province that had just been fooled with."

Bryd said the oil was tested at 68 gravity.

"It should be worth from $4 to $5 a barrel," he said.

Pipe Line Planned

Carbon dioxide gas was struck at 8,286 feet on the Mississippi river line. Then, Byrd said, operators plugged back almost 3,000 feet to where the premium oil was struck.

Byrd said his company had leased structures in Colorado, Utah, New Mexico and Arizona and would extend its operations on the 40,000 acres surrounding the rich wildcat.

He said plans were being made to build a pipe line to Salt Lake City, Utah, and then to San Francisco.

"We've been drilling three years, and this is the third field in five or six tries," Byrd said jubilantly.

An initial flow of from 15,000,000 to 20,000,000 cubic feet of gas was charted.

Byrd did not say when full-scale operations would begin. It was reported that work had been slowed down two days ago because of bitter cold weather.

Terms In Ship Tieup Reached

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3 (AP)—Agreement was reached today with the last of five striking maritime unions to end the west coast strike. Omar Hoskins, federal conciliator, said the CIO radio operators and the Pacific American Shipowners association came to terms after an all-night conference. Both sides were to hold ratification meetings today.

Agreements Reached

Earlier the other unions and employers reached agreements to end the three-month strike.

Even before the radio operators and shipowners reached terms, the unions had agreed to a limited work schedule today, with four ships freed for work in this port so that Christmas cargo could start moving to Hawaii and the Philippines.

There is an additional dispute to be ironed out. The non-striking but idle AFL Sailors Union of the Pacific has accused CIO longshoremen of attempting to invade its jurisdiction.

Harry Lundeberg, chief of the AFL union, said, "we're not going to sail any ships until we have a meeting with shipowners and settle this."

His final decision may be based, at least in part, on a report from foreign aid Administrator Paul Hoffman later this month—as well as on State department recommendations which have not yet been presented.

Hoffman is due to leave today on a world-circling trip which will take him to Britain, China, Korea, and Japan, by December 20.

Zinc Firm At Dumas Gives Wage Increase

DUMAS, Dec. 3. (AP) — The American Zinc corporation yesterday gave about 350 employes a 13½ cent an hour wage increase.

W. E. R. Smith, business manager of the plant, said the increase would be retroactive to Nov. 21. An agreement provides that no further wage hikes will be asked until the plant-worker contract expires in August, 1949.

Reds Call Jap Base "Loaded Revolver"

MOSCOW, Dec. 3. (AP) — The Russian navy's newspaper, Red Fleet, described the Japanese naval base at Yokosuka today as "a loaded revolver aimed at the breast of Asiatic peoples" by American hands.

I. Ermashev, in the signed editorial, asserted the base is being rebuilt and modernized by General Douglas MacArthur for the United States Navy.

HAMILTON IS UNDECIDED

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 3 (AP) — Navy captain Thomas Hamilton asserted today he still was undecided about taking the Pitt athletic directorship—but he brought his wife here to do some house hunting.

New Bowery Social List Ousts Hobo King Backslider

NEW YORK, Dec. 3 (U.P.)—The Bowery News announced the 1948 revision today of the "Bowery Social Register."

Kicked out were:

Dan O'Brien, honorary hobo king "for senile delinquency. He's become a bottle baby."

Bozo, the hobo poet, for becoming a pearl diver (dishwasher) in a gandy dancer (railroad worker) camp.

Boxcar Betty Welcomed

Admitted:

Boxcar Betty, cigar smoking, 200 pound former hula-hula dancer, coal miner and snake charmer, for donating five city lots in North Brunswick, N. J., for a hobo's rest home.

Gus Schaefer, king of beggars, for "hitting the road again at 64 and showing daredevil achievement in stemming (panhandling) three Pittsburgh working stiffs (laborers) only 10 feet from a bull (policeman).

Hobo King Ben Benson "who at the age of 65 made a coast-to-coast trip without any money, despite rising living costs including demands for tips by flophouse attendants, and is now in Pershing Square, Los Angeles, defying all hobo-kings to come out and fight."

O'Connell Will Head Lubbock TEC Office

B. T. O'Connell of Texarkana, former office manager with the Texas Employment commission, has been named manager of the commission's office here, succeeding James E. Marshall, who has resigned to accept the post of business manager of the Plains Clinic, it was announced here today.

O'Connell is to assume his duties here Monday. As director of the Abilene control office of the TEC's farm placement service this year, he assisted in placing thousands of cotton and other harvest hands throughout West Texas this year.

Marshall's resignation becomes effective Saturday, and he is to take over his duties at the clinic Monday. He succeeds John Blackwell, who resigned to enter private business.

in and helped. As soon as the people got the facts, he added, they voted right. He said they could not get them from newspaper opinion columns—one of several cracks he took at columnists.

Asked about the possibility of cartel getting control of German industry, Mr. Truman said it never will happen as long as he is president.

sized.

Mackenzie struck out for shore and help but collapsed on the beach. Mrs. De Francesco managed to reach shallow water.

Daddy seized Marjorie, holding her in one arm while grasping the boat with the other.

For nearly a half-hour daddy and Marjorie clung there in the frigid water waiting for help.

As the cold numbed his arms, De Francesco tried to boost his daughter up on the boat.

But she couldn't hold on and finally, semi-conscious slipped off and disappeared under the water. Minutes later daddy, too, lost his grip and sank.

Three hours later state police brought up the bodies of daddy and Marjorie from the lake bottom where they had lain side by side.

Deer Battle

the animal near the heart, and brought down the four-point, 163-pound buck on the edge of Arrowood lake.

The young hunter, who was with four companions, twanged his arrow into the deer from 20 feet, and the animal staggered and ran some 300 yards out onto the ice of the lake before falling to its knees.

But when Conley and one of his companions drew near the wounded buck, it got to its feet and charged Conley, who was armed only with a bayonet.

A blow on the head with the weapon stunned the buck, which dropped to its knees again. However, it quickly got up and charged Conley again, this time hooking his wrist on an antler. Conley's companion grabbed the animal about that time, however, and Conley was able to complete his kill with several thrusts of the bayonet.

Youth Killed In Car Wreck In Houston

HOUSTON, Dec. 3 (U.P.)—Thomas F. Marrs, jr., 16, was killed almost instantly last night when the car in which he rode struck a curb, swerved 138 feet out of control and threw him to the pavement.

The driver, 14-year-old Cecil Shine, was hospitalized with a broken leg. He received his driver's license only a week ago.

Police said the car-load of teenagers had attempted to pass another car on the left side. The vehicle hit the surbing of an esplanade on South Main street and a rear tire blew out.

Young Marrs suffered a fractured skull and was dead upon arrival at a hospital.

Carving Of Old West Tells Story In Wood

NEWKIRK, Okla., Dec. 3. (U.P.) L. S. Heldebrand took up a knife and started carving as a hobby 13 years ago and he hasn't stopped yet.

His project is a story in wood carvings of the old west. His carvings cover everything from buffaloes to a circus parade.

The figures, now numbering over 250 in 90 groups, cover 50 feet of ground when displayed. The main feature is a threshing machine and crew complete to the straw churning out and bundles being tossed in.

Jap Seamen's Union Orders New Walkout

TOKYO, Dec. 3. (AP)—The Japanese seamen's union ordered a new 72-hour strike today to enforce demands for a 30 per cent wage boost.

The union struck earlier this week, tying up some 400 ships in nine ports, but returned to work after the 48-hour walkout. The union claims a membership of about 40,000.

Meanwhile, a three-day strike of coal miners ended—but without agreement. Japan's three largest mine unions considered calling still another strike to emphasize wage increase demands.

The three-day mine strike, in which workers in various parts of Japan walked out for one day at the time, involved 440,000 miners.

Other nominations were: second vice president — Ed Hambright, Paul Willis and Briggs Irvin; W. D. McCarty and Gordon Douglas, secretary-treasurer; and Raymond Phillips, Ernest Stewart, jr., A. C. Sanders and Lambert Eaton, sergeant-at-arms.

Two Are Drowned In Freak Farm Mishap

WAUSEON, Ohio, Dec. 3 (AP)—A farmer's wife and her two-year-old daughter drowned in 18 inches of water yesterday after they were pinned in a shallow ditch by an overturned wagon-load of corn.

Victims of the freak accident were Mrs. Eugene Pontius, 27, and her daughter, Judy.

Mrs. Pontius, Judy, and her son William, 4, were riding on the wagon which was being pulled by a corn picker. When her husband, who was driving the picker, came to the end of the field he swung too wide.

The wagon overturned in the ditch, trapping Mrs. Pontius and her two children. Pontius raised the wagon enough to allow his son to crawl out. The mother and daughter were removed later after help arrived, but they were dead.

Escaped Youths Fail To Enlist In Army

DALLAS, Dec. 3. (AP)—Five of six youths who wanted to join the Army here are going back to the state home for boys at Mexia, a unit of the state reform system. They escaped from the home Wednesday night.

The six boys applied at a local recruiting station here yesterday. They were given the Army mental test—and all promptly flunked. They also flunked another test—they couldn't produce draft cards.

As the recruiters called authorities, one of the boys slipped away. The other five identified themselves as George Rivierra, 17; Rogert Whitely, 18; James Joseph Turnbull, 21; Jack Melvan Finney, 18; and James Walter Meredith, 18. They said the sixth boy was Nick Zero, 15.

Eckles Trial

Blair the closing defense argument. District Attorney Lloyd Croslin closed for the state.

Was Third Trial

The trial was the third attempted in the case. The first ended in a mistrial when a jury failed to arrive at a verdict, the second in a mistrial tracing to illness of a juror.

No recommendation was made by the jury to suspend the sentence.

Judge Pardue adjourned the jury after its report.

The defense claimed accidental homicide and self-defense caused the shooting.

The state claimed Eckles acted with wanton disregard of the safety of Tune when he fired three shots at Tune and a companion when they ran from a freight train.

The jury was completed at 4:55 p. m. Wednesday, and testimony commenced at 9 a. m. Thursday. Both sides closed testimony at 4:45 p. m. Thursday. Arguments commenced this morning.

Food Cost To Remain High

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3. (U.P.)—Housewives were told today that despite some improvement in the general price outlook, food probably will remain high through most of next year.

The Agriculture department said in its annual forecast that food prices may even go up somewhat during the first half of 1949. But it said there may be a slight drop at the end of the year when meat becomes more plentiful.

Situation Improving

The department's prediction followed a statement by White House economic adviser Edwin G. Nourse that the general price situation is improving. Nourse, who is chairman of President Truman's council of economic advisers, said yesterday there are definite signs of a "flattening out" in some prices.

Meanwhile, businessmen got some encouragement from Mr. Truman himself. The chief executive told a news conference yesterday that business has no more to fear from his policies in the next four years than it had during his first three-and-a-half years in the White House.

Some hints as to the administration's business policies may come tonight from Commerce Secretary Charles Sawyer. At the National Association of Manufacturers banquet in New York, he delivers a speech he "cleared" earlier this week with Mr. Truman. Sawyer is expected to appeal to businessmen to reduce prices voluntarily before the administration is tempted to ask Congress for controls.

Booths Are Planned In TB Seal Campaign

Members of the Junior Welfare league will operate booths eight days at Lubbock National bank, Citizens National bank, First National bank, Hilton and Lubbock hotels, Hemphill-Wells Co. and Dunlap's.

Women from the board of directors of Lubbock County Tuberculosis association will operate a booth at Sears Roebuck & Co. Saturday and the following Saturday.

U. S. About To Break Own Export Record

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (U.P.) — The United States is about to break its own record for wheat exports.

The Agriculture department has announced overseas shipments of 108,891,000 bushels of wheat and flour for the first three months of 1949.

The allotment brings to 413,000,000 bushels the total wheat exports for the first nine months of the current fiscal year. That is only 67,000,000 bushels short of the record set in 1947-48.

Northerner To See Georgia's Governor About Negro Slaying

ATLANTA, Dec. 4. (AP)—Gov. Herman Talmadge had a date today with Joseph M. Goldwasser of Cleveland, Ohio, to see about a negro's murder.

The Ohioan flew into town last night from Savannah to talk over the slaying of Robert Mallard from ambush near Lyons, Ga., Nov. 20.

En route Goldwasser said he was a little perturbed over his possible reception by the governor, but said, "if he asks why I'm mixed up in this case I can only say 'I'm following the dictates of my heart'."

Civil Rights Violated

He added, "you know, I'm a little ashamed of the fact that I, a northerner, had to come to Georgia to get the evidence for Georgia authorities.

"You know, just about every northern senator and representative is interested in this case because when Congress meets they're going to take some action on civil rights legislation."

Goldwasser arrived bearing a pocketful of written statements from Amy James Mallard, the slain negro's widow naming two white men as the killers and giving Goldwasser power of attorney.

Goldwasser said he was going to turn the information over to the governor and ask that the Georgia bureau of investigation take out warrants.

Follow Up Planned

If no such action is forthcoming, he said, he will take the case to the Federal Bureau of Investigation and ask for prosecution for violation of civil rights.

The GBI has said it did not have enough evidence to take out warrants and the sheriff of Toombs county, R. E. Gray, said he would not.

The mid-westerner is president of the Peerless department store and Peerless Rubber company in Cleveland. He also is a member of the Cleveland chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored people.

Mallard was shot, said his widow, by robed white men. She later was charged with his murder, but the charges were dropped.

Suggestions Given To Avoid Burning Down House During Hazardous Christmas Holidays

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3—If you want to keep from burning the house down Christmas, give your balsam a douse from the tap in the kitchen sink.

That's official from the United States Forest service.

The forest products laboratory at Madison, Wis., did a lot of research on the subject and concluded that good old plain water does more to keep a Christmas tree from getting dry, and therefore flame-happy, than a lot of things on the market.

Here's what to do:

First buy a tree that has been chopped down recently.

Then cut off the end of the trunk diagonally at least an inch above the original cut end. Stand the tree in water at once and keep the water level above the cut part as long as the tree is in the house. Or, you can "plant" the treee in a bucket of sand and pour water over the sand.

Painting Tips Given

Not only will the chances of a fire starting be lessened, but the tree will stay fresh and green a lot longer and the needles won't fall and mess up the place.

A lot of folks like to pretty up a tree with fire-retardant coatings. This costs a little money and is a lot of trouble, but the service has a home formula. One plan produces a transparent, colorless coating. The second, with about the same ingredients give a tree that cream-colored look, which you can tint with suitable dyes.

For this you use sodium silicate, some china clay and water. Two coats are recommended and can be applied either by dipping or spraying.

But even with this coating, the Forest service recommends that you still sink the bottom of the tree in a tub of water—just to be sure.

The patent bureau of the Department of Commerce has okayed a number of products for coating trees and for "fire-proof" tinsels and other decorations.

Toys Are Hazards

Many of these have been tested in the laboratories at the national bureau of standards.

The bureau, by the way, has some suggestions of its own for a safe, as well as a merry Christmas.

The standard people recognize two hazards around Christmas time. The trees, of course, and electrical toys.

One of the rangers in the toy department are those playthings which require a transformer. This latter gadget should be entirely enclosed in an iron or insulating case, and should have a circuit breaker which will prevent an excessive current in the toys or transformer.

And when it comes to trimming the tree, the bureau of standards warns against celluloid, cotton, paper or other such materials that burn easily. Flake asbestos and powdered mica make a substance that looks like snow and won't burn like cotton, which can cause a serious flash fire

Also, have a look at the wiring on the lights. The insulation should be thick enough so that the current won't come breaking through to set fire to something.

Chicago Doctor Says It Pays To Be Lazy

CHICAGO, Dec. 3. (U.P.)—Dr. Lester F. Miles says it "pays to be lazy" if you can control yourself.

"Laziness is not necessarily the same as shiftlessness," according to Miles. "There is such a thing as productive or controlled laziness which is a good idea.

"For example, the men who invent and build labor-saving devices are productively lazy."

Miles gives five rules for productive laziness which he declares will make men healthier, happier and wiser:

1. The productively lazy man is at all times sensibly realistic. He accepts the rules of the game and makes use of them; he doesn't butt his head against a stone wall.
2. He discards the word "hurry" and substitutes "dispatch."
3. The productively lazy man is a fact-finder; he thinks before he acts.
4. He avoids repeating errors.
5. He analyzes the importance of his personal relationships.

When Australia suddenly lifted rationing recently, some 300 female secretaries, stenographers, telephone operators and clerks, made available for other positions, found themselves eagerly sought after by government departments and private employers, who offered them strong inducements to take new jobs, Sydney reports.

Texas GOP Primary For 1950 Is Urged

DALLAS, Dec. 3. (AP)—The Republican party of Texas has been urged by its state chairman to hold a primary election in 1950—with a full slate of candidates.

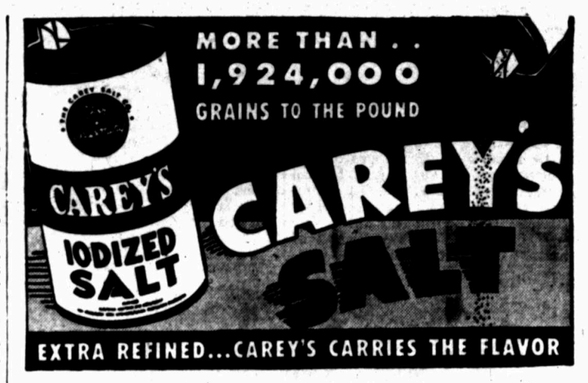

In that way the party could prove the sincerity of its drive to make Texas a two-party state, Henry Zweifel of Fort Worth said. The GOP vote this year was encouraging, he added in a letter to party members.

Only twice in Texas history have Republican primaries been held. In each case—in 1926 and 1934—the primaries were necessitated by an unusually heavy Republican vote polled against former Governor Miriam A. Ferguson, Democratic candidate.

The GOP chairman also called on party members to hunt out an estimated 1,000,000 persons who failed to vote, and enroll them.

A machine to make paper bags was invented in 1852 by Francis Wolle.

Circus Woman Seriously Hurt In Fall From Speeding Train

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Dec. 3. (U.P.)—Jane Evans, 30, an acrobatic rider in a circus, was in San Bernardino county hospital with a fractured skull today and police said she apparently fell or jumped from a moving train.

Miss Evans, a sister-in-law of animal trainer Clyde Beatty, staggered into a ranch house at nearby Ontario yesterday, bruised and almost delirious. Her hair was matted and she said she remembered having a few beers with a male friend in Los Angeles, then jumped or fell from an automobile.

However, Ontario police found some blood and her scattered possessions on the Southern Pacific railroad tracks.

Her sister, Mrs. Harriet Beatty, said Miss Evans was due in Los Angeles early yesterday but failed to arrive. She was travelling from Houston, Texas, to join the Beatty circus in its winter quarters at El Monte, near Los Angeles, Mrs. Beatty said.

Attendants at San Bernardino county hospital said Miss Evans still was too dazed to give a coherent account of what happened. She was resting comfortably, they said, and had suffered multiple cuts and bruises in addition to the skull fracture.

State Governments Being Streamlined

OLYMPIA, Wash., Dec. 3. (U.P.) The job of running a state government is being streamlined in many states by arming the governor with a staff of management specialists. The set-up operates like a large-scale business.

That was shown in a survey by the University of Washington as a guide for changing the structure of Washington's government.

States generally are transferring management duties from elective to appointive officials, responsible to the governor, the report showed.

Elective officials cannot be changed. Governors are being given increased power to appoint and remove officials, and are, in turn, responsible for getting things done.

Famed Italian Statue To Be Shown In U. S.

ROME, Dec. 3 (AP) — Michelangelo's colossal statue of David will be shown at the National Art gallery in Washington next month, on loan from the Bargello museum in Florence.

A foreign office spokesman announced last night the loan of the masterpiece, which never has left Italy, was arranged at the request of the United States government.

The statue will be taken from Florence to Naples on an Italian warship and then transferred to the American Cruiser Grand Canyon for shipment to the United States.

China's big trade in gallnuts (from a species of oak tree) has not recovered its prewar importance, because prices offered by foreign buyers in the United States and England, are not high enough to induce collections, Shanghai reports.

Dr. Evans First President Of Negro College At Prairie View

PRAIRIE VIEW, Dec. 3. (AP)—Dr. Edward B. Evans, grandson of a slave, today became the first president of the nation's largest negro land grant college.

The 54-year-old negro educator was installed as president of the nation's largest negro land grant college.
and M. college system.

Evans, a native of Missouri, has served on the faculty at Prairie View almost continuously since 1918. He has been principal since 1946. Until the title of president was conferred today the college has been administered locally through a principal, with top administrative duties in the hands of officers at A. and M. college at College Station.

Only One Considered

Gilchrist said no other person was considered for the newly created post of president of Prairie View; that Evans' performance of his duties as principal were outstanding.

The chancellor of the A. and M. system recalled that Prairie View has been closely associated with the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas since 1879 and that it is an important branch of the system, "one of which we are justly proud."

Evans, a graduate of Iowa State college with the degree of doctor of veterinary medicine, spent most of his life in Texas. He lived near Galveston as a youth and spent some time in and around Lufkin.

Accepts Position

Evans accepted his new position by saying:

"I accept with humility the power of presidency vested in me by the governing board of this institution; and along with this acceptance goes a philosophy of education neither revolutionary in its purposes nor stagnant in its outlook. Mine is a philosophy of animated moderation—of followship on the one hand and leadership on the other. It is according to this formula that I shall calculate the equation that will define the course of my administration."

He has served as head of the department of veterinary science, state leader of the negro extension service of Texas, acting registrar, and director of various divisions, before being named principal.

For four months in 1918 he was on leave to attend officers training school at Camp Lee, Va., where he received his commission as a second lieutenant in the officers reserve corps, medical section.

Dr. Evans said that in his administration "we shall see that the 50,000 negro families operating farms in Texas will not go without professional guidance. We shall train vocational agricultural teachers who will instruct their pupils in farm ways. We shall train extension agents that will give technical assistance to their grown-ups."

STEALS LEAD

TACOMA, Wash. (U.P.)—Police arrested Thomas A. Paige, 38, on a charge of committing the "heaviest heist" of the year. Paige was charged with stealing a truckload of lead ingots from a local firm and reselling them to a Seattle company.

C. Of C. In West Texas Will Co-Ordinate Industrial Reports From Its Committees

ABILENE, Dec. 3. (U.P.)—The West Texas chamber of commerce planned today to co-ordinate industrial reports from its railroad committees and at the same time promote industrializaion of West Texas towns having possibilities of development.

John D. Mitchell, Odessa banker, pointed out, however, that "we know every town in west Texas can't get a cotton mill or a plant utilizing sorghum grains." He said the reports could be used as a basis for study.

Preparing Analysis

The Texas & Pacific railroad was preparing an economic analysis of the area it serves, while the Burlington report, covering the sorghum grains potentialities in the area, already has been issued in booklet form.

The Santa Fe industrial report treats the cotton and wool textile industries in West Texas. The wool report will be out within a few weeks and the cotton report has been issued already in a bulletin from Texas Technological college at Lubbock.

Committee Set Up

A central co-ordinating committee was set up, with the following members:

J. B. Thomas of Fort Worth and J. E. Cunningham of Amarillo, co-chairmen; Frank Kelley of Colorado City, L. C. Porter of Dallas, Wright Armstrong of Fort Worth, O. B. Odell of Childress, J. H. Greene of Big Spring, E. L. Buelow of San Angelo, E. O. Wedgeworth of Pampa, R. C. Standord of Wichita Falls and C. C. Westfall of Stamford.

Man Who Changed From Girl Ends Life As Suicide Victim

TROY, O., Dec. 3 (AP)—Don Lee Reid, who couldn't escape the trick mother nature played in changing his sex in mid-life, sought peace in suicide last night.

The 28-year-old man who made headlines a decade ago because he changed from a girl to a boy shot himself with a .22 caliber rifle he borrowed from a friend.

Coroner Charles Kiefer ruled his death suicide.

Don Lee, a slender fellow with good-looking, clean-cut features, left no note. He didn't explain his act. But Ralph Reid, an uncle with whom Don Lee lived, said:

"He had just returned from St. Louis where he had been trying to get a job. He didn't have any luck. He couldn't hold a job. His life followed him wherever he went."

Don Lee began life as a girl, a tot who suffered from dual sexuality. When he was 18, high school age when deviations from the normal strike hardest, Don Lee became a boy. Medical testimony nine years later bore this out.

The metamporphasis plagued Don Lee. Nine years after his switch of sex, he was drinking with his 51-year-old father, John.

The oddity of his son's sexual switch caused the father to taunt Don Lee, witnesses testified later.

Don Lee stabbed his father to death.

The youth was convicted of manslaughter. But, even then, Don Lee wasn't treated normally. Because of his change in sex, authorities declined to place him in Ohio penitentiary.

So, Don Lee served a year in jail. He was paroled last April.

Between his sex change and the slaying of his father, Don Lee married Miss Thelma Cox. The marriage didn't last. Mrs. Reid since has remarried. She lives in St. Louis.

Alabama Jury Finds White Man Guilty Of Attack On Negress

WETUMKA, Ala., Dec. 3. (AP)—An all-white jury trying a white man for raping a young negro woman answered a prosecutor's plea that it prove a negro "can get justice" in an Alabama court.

The jurors, in short order, found John C. Howard, jr., operator of a garage and a mattress factory, guilty and sent him off to prison for 45 years.

They wanted to go even further—fix it so Howard could not get a pardon or parole. But Circuit Judge Oakley Melton told them not "to worry about" that.

Second Case Slated

Howard, from Friendship, Ala., was convicted last night of raping 22-year-old Melinda Jackson last April 25. Next on the court's docket is the trial of his cousin, Jack Oliver, 20, on an indictment that he raped Melinda's 23-year-old companion, Annie Grayson, at the same time.

The men were accused of robbing the women after forcing them to enter a pick-up truck.

Howard admitted in court he had sexual relations with Melinda but said he did not use force or threats. Melinda said he did.

Drink Is Blamed

Circuit Solicitor Winston Huddleston argued that the white man could have raped the negro woman without a gun because "negroes fear white people . . . and do what a white man tells them."

Huddleston closed his argument with a plea for proof that negroes can take their injuries to court and see justice done.

Howard, in his own testimony, blamed his conduct on drink. A prosecution witness, former chief deputy sheriff E. L. Wilkerson, likewise testified that Howard told him after his arrest that he had been drinking and Melinda had "looked beautiful to him."

He quoted the defendant as saying he did not use force but "probably would have" if she had resisted.

Howard was downcast and silent as he received his sentence, which in Alabama the jury prescribes.

Woman Is Bug Killer But Mice Scare Her

CLEVELAND, Dec. 3. (U.P.)—One of the leading exterminators in Cleveland is a woman who is afraid of mice and squeamish about bugs.

Mrs. Helen Laing has the usual feminine fear of rats and mice. And she hates to touch bugs, although she has seen thousands dead and alive.

Mrs. Laing, 53, is a tall, attractive woman who took over the Laing Exterminating Co., founded by her husband 27 years ago, after his death in 1942.

In the past, Mrs. Laing has donned a gas mask many times and gone about the job of fumigating Great Lakes freighters.

"The work is dangerous and one never works alone with the deadly gas," she said.

President's Economic Advisers Are Men Of Pracical Experience As Well As Theory

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3—President Truman has the word of his three economic experts that we seem to be doing a little better.

They told him yesterday some prices are "flattening out" a bit and don't seem to be "jumping through the ceiling."

But who are the experts? How'd they get that way? And how do they know how we're doing?

These three men, with long and wide experience in economics, make up the President's council of economic advisers:

Edwin G. Nourse, 65-year-old chairman of the council; Leon H. Keyserling, 40; and John D. Clark, 64.

Pretty soon you'll be hearing more about them or, at least, about the work they're doing.

Salary Is $15,000

As soon as the new Congress comes in next January Mr. Truman will start pelting it with reports on our economic condition.

And a lot, if not all, of what he'll say on that subject will have been whipped up by his three advisers.

Like three doctors, they're getting paid—$15,000 a year each — to diagnose the nation's economic chills and fever.

If medicine is needed, like price control or higher taxes or less government spending, they're supposed to know and tell Mr. Truman.

While he doesn't have to take their advice, you can be sure he does, in big part. His cabinet members can pour their ideas into his ear, too.

Mr. Truman asked Nourse a week ago to work with his cabinet in drawing up an anti-inflation program to offer Congress.

But no one in the government has as much all around information as these three advisers, nor as much chance to gather it.

Background In Business

All three have been up to their necks in economics for years. Keyserling and Clark, besides being economists, are lawyers, too. Clark was also in business and banking. All have taught economics.

Nourse began his teaching back in 1909. He's wirtten books on his specialty. He's one of the country's best-known economists.

Keyserling, after teaching briefly in the early 1930's, came to Washington with the new deal in 1933. He's done jobs in economics for the government ever since.

Clark started in business in 1907, became a director of the Standard Oil company of Indiana in 1923, and didn't start teaching until 1931.

How'd they come to get their jobs? Mr. Truman picked them in 1946 when the council was created by Congress to advise the President.

How do they do their jobs? How do they know how the country is doing and where it's going? There are a number of answers.

Consult Other Experts

For one thing, there's the long experience they've had in economics. They keep abreast of what's said and written in the field.

They have a staff of about 20 experts, all trained economists, to help them. One is an expert on prices, another on building, another on international economics, and so on.

The three-man council can draw, and does, on the vast sum of economic information gathered by the government departments, each of which is a storehouse of facts in its own field.

For example: The Federal Reserve board gathers facts on banking; the Treasury department on taxes; the Commerce department on business; the Bureau of Labor statistics on living costs, wages, food prices.

Each department has its own staff of experts and the council members can consult with them.

The council also meets four times a year with representatives of the big business, labor and farming organizations. For example:

The National Association of Manufacturers, the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, the committee for economic development (a business group); the AFL, CIO and the railroad unions; the American Farm Bureau federation, the National Grange, and the Farmers' union.

And the council meets during the year with representatives of other groups, such as consumers, parents and teachers, women's clubs, educators, and so on.

All with the idea of finding out how we're doing.

Misfortunes Befall Couple In Michigan

YALE, Mich., Dec. 3 (AP)—An advertisement in a Port Huron newspaper seeking return of a purse containing $3,000 brought to light today the series of misfortunes that have befallen an elderly couple.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lacyk left Detroit seven years ago and settled on a farm near here.

Then they were beset by a crop failure, their cattle became diseased and their barn burned.

Finally, the day before Thanksgiving, they went to Mt. Clements to draw out the $3,000—their life saving—to pay off a mortgage on farm equipment.

But somewhere between that city and home the purse containing the money was lost.

Reds Say Flier Quit South Korea Terror

MOSCOW, Dec. 3. (AP)—The Soviet army newspaper Red Sar said today a Korean aviator from Seoul, capital of American-occupied south Korea, had flown to Pyongyang, capital of the Russian sponsored north Korean "people's republic."

Quoting the Pyongyang radio, Red Star said the flier, who was not identified, declared he had left Seoul because he had no desire to serve "our enemies who are selling our people and country to American imperialists."

The flier was quoted as saying there was a rule of terror in south Korea and that Korean youths were refusing to serve in the south Korean government's troops.

'Red-Head' Sentenced For Love Affair With 16-Year-Old Boy

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 3. (INS)—Mrs. Faye Kahn, a 31-year-old buxom red-head, was sentenced to nine months in jail today for a love affair with a 16-year-old boy.

Sentence was passed by Juvenile Judge A. A. Scott despite a dramatic plea for the woman by her ex-husband, Barry Kahn, 28. Kahn implored the judge:

"Send me to jail. Let me take the rap. She's a good woman. I'm the one that's at fault."

Has No Regrets

Mrs. Kahn also was placed on probation for five years. Judge Scott committed her to jail after he asked her whether she thought she was morally wrong and she replied:

"No, judge. I was separated from my husband and I didn't know Ronnie was so young."

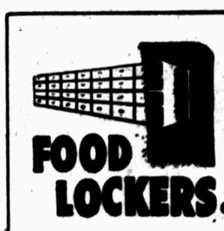

The boy, Ronnie Simmrin, has been placed in a juvenile detention camp.

After being closed for 20 years, Charnwood Forest Railway, in England, has just been reopened to carry football crowds.

United Nations Action On Palestine Issue Indicates Support Of 1947 Partition Plan

PARIS, Dec. 3 (AP)—United Nations action carving the heart out of the Bernadotte plan for Palestine was seen today as signifying an intention of the delegates to reaffirm partition as voted a year ago.

American, Australian, Russian and New Zealand informants said they believed that less emphasis on the slain mediator's proposals is inevitable in any final settlement now.

The informants—all intimately connected with the Palestine problem — based their prediction on several factors.

The most important of these, they said, was the political committee's vote yesterday which bumped the core of the already twice-revised British resolution for a Palestine settlement. The British resolution originally was based on the Bernadotte plan.

Objections Stated

Top American and British delegates met for several hours last night to figure out whether they could patch up the battered proposal.

The committee continued voting today on what remained of the British resolution and amendments to its several clauses. Morning, afternoon and night sessions were scheduled.

The delegates hope to achieve some kind of final action from their three-week discussion by this weekend.

The Bernadotte pain and the original British resolution would have taken the Negev away from Israel and given it to the Arabs. The Jews would in return have received western Galilee. The Jews oppesed the plan because it would have deprived them of about three-fifths of the territory given them under the 1947 general assembly partition. The Arabs opposed it because, among other things, it would have meant recognition of the Jewish state. The 1947 partition provided that the Negev would go to the Jewish state and western Galilee to the Arabs.

British Proposal Loses

The United States declared that no territory should be taken from the Jews without their consent, but at the same time said Israel should not attempt to keep western Galilee without giving up at least part of the Negev.

The British resolution, as revised after the American statement, gave equal emphasis to the Bernadotte plan and the 1947 partition.

The resolution also called for internationalization of the port of Haifa and the airfield at Lydda, as recommended by Bernadotte.

Members of both the British and United States delegation were shocked when a combination of pro-Arab and pro-Jewish countries mustered 25 votes to defeat the British proposal. There were 22 votes in favor of it.

Policy Choices Given

The committee has approved the preamble and two substantive clauses of the British proposal.

These note the existence of the mediator's report and the 1947 plan; set up a three-man conciliation commission to take over the mediator's functions, and call on the parties to seek agreement either directly or through the commission.

The committee now can adopt one of several policies in outlining the job to be done by the conciliation commission:

1—It can leave its functions and powers to delimit the Palestine borders intentionally vague.

2—It can give it a clear cut directive to reach a settlement broadly on the basis of the 1947 partition.

3—It can say definitely the Bernadotte plan ought to be considered as the basis for a political and territorial settlement.

Job had patience, all right, but then he never had to accompany his wife on a Christmas shopping tour.

SATURDAY, December 4 marks a special date on the calendar of every resident within the Lubbock Independent School district —100 square miles with the Lubbock county courthouse in the middle.

Saturday, December 4 is a special date because it is the day on which school district voters will ballot on the proposition of whether or not to issue $1,250,000 in bonds, so that needed new school buildings may be constructed and additions may be made to some of the structures already in use.

Saturday, December 4 is the date on which school district voters will say, by their ballots, whether or not the school system shall be enlarged to the point where it can really serve educational needs, or whether present overcrowded conditions and half-day schedules shall become worse and worse by the day.

Inside the school district there are approximately 15,000 eligible voters.

If all of them should go to the polls, the score of the bond election should be 15,000-to-0 in favor of the bonds.

But the trouble is, only a relative handful of voters will take time to go to the polls on December 4, and among them will be some who will vote against the bonds, because (1) they are misinformed regarding the school system's needs; (2) they make a mistake in marking their ballots; or, (3) because there are a few strange thinkers in every community who pride themselves on the fact that "I don't never vote for no bond issue, no time."

IF even so few as 10 per cent of the eligible voters go to the polls on December 4, the bonds will carry by a wide margin.

But if only a handful of citizens register their opinions, there is a chance that the bonds will lose.

In spite of the fact that the general public is overwhelmingly in favor of bringing the Lubbock schools up to par as far as physical facilities are concerned, it is possible for the will of the majority to be flouted IF enough of the representatives of the majority fail to take the few minutes necessary to cast a vote.

The Lubbock school system is far past the point where anyone may logically counsel, "Let's wait awhile; let's wait until materials and labor go down; let's wait until we may get a better deal on the bonds."

Lubbock cannot wait another minute to enlarge its schools if the schools are to fill the needs of the district.

To wait an extra minute means to push the schools farther downward — which means to discriminate against our youngsters who, already, are getting less instruction and, therefore, less basic education, than they should be getting.

LUBBOCK school district voters ought to go to the polls and vote. They should go to the polls and vote for the bonds.

They should accept the ballot as a challenge not only to the progressive spirit of this community, but as a tool whereby they can order expansion of the school system to bring it abreast of the city's growth.

Each of us should accept, as a civic duty, the responsibility of going to the polls and voting for the bonds, so the result shall be an overwhelming mandate: "Give our children the best!" Each of us should make it his business to see that Lubbock's most valuable possession, its children who shall be the citizens of tomorrow, are given just as much chance for a good education as the children of any other community in the land.

Who can vote?

All persons of 21 years of age and over, who reside inside the school district; who have lived a year or more in the state and six months or more in the county; who have a poll tax receipt or an exemption slip covering elections held during the year of 1948; and who have rendered for taxation any sort of property.

Rendition of property doesn't mean real estate, alone. It may be a watch, a car, furniture—anything at all. In short, if you have rendered anything for taxation and fulfill the other requirements, you can vote—and you should vote.

Let's put the bonds over even bigger than we did the last time, when the score was 49½-to-1!

Best Simile of the Week: As boring as a radio "public service" program.

THE Lubbock Rotary club had a dinner for members and their ladies the other night and the theme of the evening was International Relations.

International Relations — perhaps it might be better put as Good International Relations—as a project means much to Rotary, which functions in 75 countries around the globe. Normally, Rotary International attacks the hard core of international misunderstanding on a global level, but in its program here the other night the Lubbock club brought the matter right down to home.

Present, in addition to several local citizens of foreign birth, were about 20 of the 29 students who have come to Texas Tech from foreign lands. And they were given prominence due them as a part of the occasion.

As these youngsters from Mexico, China, Peru, Africa and a dozen other countries were introduced we could not help thinking that they—individually and collectively—are the responsibility of every citizen of Lubbock and of every native-born student of Texas Tech.

Bright, attractive youngsters they were, a Turk next to a Burmese and a Venezuelan next to a Puerto Rican.

They chose to come to Texas Tech not only to take advantage of the college's educational opportunities. They also came to become acquainted with Americans and their ways.

The college, of course, can and does take care of th educational needs of these young people, but upon the shoulders of all the rest of us lies the responsibility of giving them opportunity to know the American people and, especially, about the best of our traditions, customs and thinking.

THE Christmas holidays soon shall be upon us and very few of Tech's foreign-born students will be able to go home to be among their own people.

Those who are left here should be guests in the homes of fellow students or, even, in the homes of townspeople. As guests in ordinary American homes, they can get an insight into Americana which they can get in no other way. At the same time, their hosts can learn from the foreign students.

By all means, this sort of thing should not be confined only to the Christmas season. It should be the customary thing for us to open our homes to these youngsters, so we may get to know them and they may get to know us.

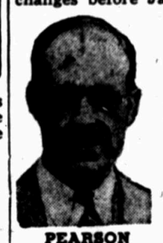

When these boys and girls return to their homes around the world, they will be important links between our people and their own, Whether they give us good report, or bad, is up to us.

We should do all in our power to encourage a good report, because there is no better way of building sound international relations than by understanding and affection between the world's peoples.

BY DREW PEARSON: DOCTOR SHORTAGE STUDIED BY U. S. SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

Press Associations Omit One Side Of China Story

WASHINGTON—Talking to a close friend last week, President Truman confided that he did not intend to make any cabinet changes before Jan. 20, at which time several cabinet members would go.

PEARSON

However, Mr. Truman, who knows what it is to be broke, said he didn't want any cabinet member to appear to be fired, for fear it might hurt his future earning power. "And I'm not going to throw them out while the newspapers are sniping at me," he added. "When the newspapers stop picking my cabinet for me, I'll pick my own."

News Omission

U. S. Newspapers outside New York and Washington sometimes get mentally kicked around by their readers through no fault of their own. They are at the mercy of the press associations which frequently take their lead from the big Washington-New York dailies.

Here is a case in point.

Front-page news in the big metropolitan dailies recently was the report of ex-senator D. Worth Clark of Idaho urging that several billion dollars be dumped into China. Clark had been sent to China by Republican members of the Senate appropriations committee and almost every newspaper front-paged his demand for Chinese aid.

However, not one paper carried the very important fact that ex-senator Clark was a former partner in a law firm which was paid $100,000 by T. V. Soong, brother-in-law of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek, for the express purpose of getting aid for China.

MAYOR John F. Davis of Reading, Pa., tells this story on himself.

"Shortly after I was elected, I began to learn about the qualifications for government office. A friend dropped in and suggested that I give a job to George Schultze down in the 6th ward.

"'What can he do?' I asked.

"'Nothing,' replied my friend.

"'Then let's hire him right away,' I said. 'We won't have to break him in.'"

Doctor Shortage

Unassuming Oscar Ewing, the federal security administrator, has been doing some quiet digging on the all-important problem of getting more U. S. doctors, dentists and nurses.

"Even today, three years after the end of the war," says Ewing, "there are large sections of the country woefully lacking in doctors."

Meanwhile, medical schools are overcrowded and medical faculties are so understaffed that, if new medical schools were started, it would be difficult to find enough professors to staff them.

Ewing is working on a plan for federal loans to medical students as one way to ease the doctor shortage. Local banks would grant tuition-loans to qualified students, with the government guaranteeing the loans 100 per cent.

He is also hoping that the bill introduced by Senator Thomas of Utah will pass the next Congress giving government subsidies to medical schools based on the number of students they turn out.

Note—Ewing blames the marriage - market for the nurse-shortage. Good nurses get married about as soon as they get trained. However, all is not lost, says Oscar; they make better wives.

COMMENTS W. F. Bond, Mississippi's commissioner of public welfare: "Samson slew 1,000 Philistines with the jawbone of an ass—a record which stood for over 6,000 years, and was not broken until November, when Harry Truman with his own jawbone slew over 21,000,000 Republicans."

Labor Diplomat

President Truman's advisers are seriously considering the appointment of a labor leader as assistant secretary of state.

Hitherto, high State degone to Wall streeters, as for instance the present Undersecretary of State Robert Lovett, a big investment banker, and Assistant Secretary Charles Saltzman, former vice president of the New York stock exchange.

However, most European governments are now dominated by labor. In fact, the domerate labor leaders of western Europe are considered the best bulwark against Russia, and it is vital that U. S diplomats understand their point of view.

That's why a labor leader may be among the new State department executives, also why Irving Brown, the International Labor office representative in Europe, may be appointed U. S. ambassador to a western European country. Brown's quiet work among European labor leaders has done more to combat Sovietism than a whole crew of the old-fashioned U. S. diplomats combined.

SENATOR GLEN TAYLOR, the prodigal Democrat, tells friends he "would be very happy to work as a democrat in the new Congress." . . . Seven-year-old Jerilyn Jessel, daughter of Hollywood Comedian Georgie Jessel, got some chewing gum from President Truman himself when she and her dad called at the White House last week. "I know who I'm going to vote for next year," chortled Jerilyn after the interview. . . Secretary of State Marshall is sore as blazes over the pilgrimage of Madame Chiang Kai-Shek. His pal, Secretary Forrestal, however, was in favor of her visit. . . Marshall confides to friends that he is in a dilemma regarding China. He thinks the American people deserve to know the facts, yet if he tells the facts, the government of Chiang Kai-Shek will collapse. . . A report leaked out recently that Senator Elbert Thomas, scholarly Utah Democrat, was writing a book on the rise and fall of the new deal. See Magazine promptly offered to buy the magazine rights. Replied Thomas: "I doubt whether an article on the rise and fall of the new deal would be timely at this time since I do not anticipate its fall."

Diplomatic Pouch

Inside reports from Moscow indicate that the Politburo has held several significant meetings since November 2 trying to figure out just what happened to Henry Wallace. (They're even more confused than Dr. Gallup.) They also have to work out a new international Communist party line. . . Defense Secretary Forrestal has ordered the Army to make a secret inventory of all its surplus war equipment. Following this, extra guns, tanks, planes and ammunition will be rushed to Europe to tide over the Marshall plan countries until Congress passes a peacetime military lend-lease bill. . . . The British have begun negotiations with French companies to produce British jet fighters under British licenses for the French air force. This is part of the plan to set up a single western European air force under British command.

Most important is that Ralph Edwards, Mr. Big of "Truth or Consequences," will do another "Mr. Hush," this time for the Damon Runyon Cancer Fund. Prob'ly in April or May. ## "I'd Like To Get You On A Slow Boat To China"

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

Today's Thought

Gird up thy loins now like a man; I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.—Job 40:7.

* * *

God's creature is one. He makes man, not men. His true creature is unitary and infinite, revealing himself, indeed, in every finite form, but compromised by none —Henry James.

"AMERICAN men woo women with their pocketbooks," complains a European actress now visiting in America. Judging from the rest of her comments she seems to think they would do better if they wooed their women with sweet talk.

MILLETT

Listen, Lady, American men know what they're doing, all right. They show their love with gifts because that's the way American women want to be shown. And the women don't take any chances of letting the men figure that fact out for themselves.

"Joe bought his wife a new car," Bill's wife says in a voice that manages to sound both admiring and wistful. Next Bill hears about the fur coat Jim came home with on his wife's birthday.

NEED TO IMPRESS

BY just such not-so-subtle hints as these women let their men know that they're mightily impressed by men who "woo their women with their pocketboows."

It's not just plain selfishness on the part of American women, either, that makes them so present-crazy. It's that deep need they have to impress other women. Sweet talk alone might convince a woman that a man loves her. But in order to impress other women with that fact, she has to have something to brag about when they start the "Jim gave me this" and "Joe bought me that" routine.

After all, just what do we mean when we say a girl made "a good marriage?" We mean she married a man who can give her a lot of things.

Ex-Congressman Facing Trial Aided In Truman Re-Election

WASHINGTON.—If there were any justice in this cruel world, such things couldn't happen. Former Congressman Roger C. Slaughter of Missouri has been indicted and will be tried for violating the law requiring lobbyists to register and list their employer and the amount of their compensation.

Slaughter says he was not a lobbyist for the grain trade. He was a lawyer paid for his legal services.

CHILDS

This is a fine point. Here in Washington a great many lawyers, some of them graduates of the new deal, are paid large sums by their clients even though they never go near a courtroom. They are part of the influence industry in the capital, and if the courts hold that Slaughter was actually a lobbyist and not a lawyer, there will be considerable trepidation in certain important law firms.

But the truly poignant point in the Slaughter case is not legal or technical at all. On the record as it stands, you can make a good case that Slaughter did as much as any single individual to help get President Truman re-elected.

Was Influential

Whether as lawyer or a lobbyist, he was influential in persuading Congress to include a limitation on the powers of the Commodity Credit corporation to store grain on the farms. This meant that the bountiful grain crop overflowed on the open market, with farmers forced to sell at less than the subsidy price. This fact, hammered home by President Truman in his repeated attacks on the 80th Congress, is believed to have had a greater influence in rural areas than anything else.

While he was elected to Congress in 1942 as a Democrat, Slaughter almost invariably during his two terms voted against the measures sought by the head of his party. His record may have pleased the Kansas City chamber of commerce but his opposition angered President Truman, who took a particular interest since Slaughter's district was next door to the one in which the President votes.

In 1946 the President helped to defeat Slaughter in the primary. In the election that followed, a Republican, Albert J. Reeves, jr., in turn defeated the President's man.

WHAT happened there this year is typical of the Nov. 2 revolution. In the Democratic primary an unknown, an amateur, Richard W. Bolling, had routed the Pendergast forces to win the nomination. On Nov. 2 he rolled up the biggest majority in the history of the fifth district, to swamp Reeves.

Bolling, a Pacific war veteran, was midwest organizer for Americans for Democratic Action. He made a forthright, hard-hitting liberal-new deal campaign.

Bolling is only one of a number of active ADAers who were elected to the new Congress. This liberal-labor organization, which was strongly anti-Communist and anti-Wallace during the campaign, will exercise considerable influence in the 81st Congress.

Hubert Humphrey, elected to the Senate from Minnesota, was a national vice-chairman of ADA. Humphrey led Senator Joseph Ball by over 200,000 votes. In St. Paul an active ADAer, Eugene McCarthy, topped his Republican opponent for the House by about 25,000.

Director Elected

In Wisconsin ADA's national political director, Andrew J. Biemiller, was elected to Congress from Milwaukee. He had served a term in Congress from 1944 to '46. Another Wisconsin Democrat, Clement J. Zablocki, was elected with ADA support.

One of the most startling reversals was in New Jersey where Charles R. Howell, the first New Jersey state chairman for ADA, won by about 30,000 votes. While New Jersey went for Dewey, three other congressional candidates backed by ADA were elected.

In Massachusetts the leader of ADA was the distinguished Harvard historian, Prof. Arthur M. Schlesinger, sr. He put together a highly effective team aimed to win votes from labor, the independents and the Wallaceites. One result was the election to Congress of a young veteran, Foster Furcolo.

To point up the contrast ADA has called attention to what happened in California where every Democrat who accepted Wallace support was defeated. Every Democrat against whom Wallaceite candidates had filed was elected or re-elected.

The newcomers will be heard from in the new Congress. And ADA has already started an organizing drive aimed at elections still to come.

A BIG JOB WELL DONE!

Criticisms so often are the lot of government agencies that praise falls somewhat in the "man bites dog" category of news. Worthy, therefore, of particular note is the satisfaction of City and Chamber of Commerce officials in their negotiations with the War Assets administration for the return to City control of South Plains Army Air field, along with buildings and installations which cost several million dollars to build.

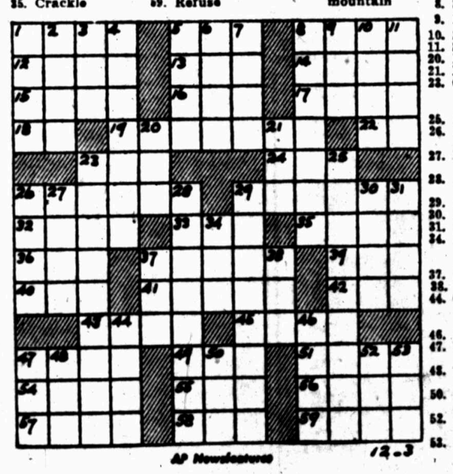

The negotiations took a long time. Many difficult technicalities were involved. But the Lubbock representatives are agreed that WAA officials, both in Washington and the Dallas regional office, were diligent in their efforts to expedite and simplify the proceedings.

This does not suggest the belief that Lubbock received more than was just and proper. But it is fitting that the WAA should receive credit for its efforts to effect a settlement which the responsible officials of our City regard as highly satisfactory.

Expert Says People Seem To Prefer Comforts To Children

BALTIMORE, Dec. 3 (AP) — Which is a more effective influence on populations, birth control or automobiles?

"Autos, any day," answers a man who should know, Dr. Lowell J. Reed of Johns Hopkins university.

It's just another way of saying that demographers—scientists who study poplation trends—are convinced a nation's material wealth is an ultimate factor in deciding how many people it will have, Dr. Reed told reporters.

Material Things Preferred

That's where the flivvers come in, as an index of people's wealth.

"It appears that if people are given the choice between material comforts and pleasures and children, they'll take the material things," Dr. Reed, one of the nation's foremost biostatisticians and demographers, declared today.

Demography, he explained, isn't concerned with controlling populations. Its job is to ponder the question of what happens to a population under given circumstances.

Even at that, there's nothing simple about it.

Take India. The current plan for that teeming sub-continent, recently graduated to independence, is for industrialization.

Would the resulting increase in wealth cut into the heavy overpopulation regarded as one of India's ills?

Not necessarily right away. In fact, the reverse might happen.

War Effects Cited

India's population may shoot up with the first gain in material goods—and gobble up that additional production before newly-increased wealth could act as a reducing factor, he said.

Dr. Reed noted that Japan's population "curve" indicates such a pattern.

For years before the era of Japanese industrial progress, that curve was almost a straight line.

But when the industrial innovations started, he went on, the population curve began a steep climb. Most people in Japan still don't have automobiles.

Contrary to some popular beliefs, Dr. Reed observed incidentally, wars make very little impression on the upward curve of populations.

He said charts of various nations show only a very slight deviation in the upward trend of population and birth rate curves even where there were huge war losses.

Huge 100-Foot Star Lighted In Bethlehem

Christmas City Of America Opens The Yuletide Season

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Dec. 3. (INS) A 100-foot star atop South Mountain flashed into brilliance visible for 20 miles last night, inaugurating the yuletide season in Bethlehem—"The Christmas city of the United States."

Two pretty student nurses—twin granddaughters of Mayor Robert Pfeifle—flicked an electric switch in Zinzendorf square.

Immediately Bethlehem was turned into a sparkling brooch of 30,000 multi-colored lights twisted in laurel ropes and entwined in Christmas trees.

The steel town of Bethlehem has taken its Christmas seriously ever since it was founded 207 years ago.

Name From Hymn

It was in 1741 that the first band of Moravians came to the spot where Bethlehem now stands to escape Europe's religious oppression. On Christmas Eve of that year, Count Nicholas Zinzendorf and his followers huddled in a crude hut and sang old Christmas carols.

From one of the hymns—"not Jerusalem, lowly Bethlehem"—they selected the name of their town, hoping that America would open a new life to them just as the birth of Christ had opened a new way of life many years before.

Eventually the town adopted the star as its city emblem, it designating the star's five points as representing the town's major interests—religion, music, industry, recreation and education.

The huge electric star atop South Mountain is not only a symbol of the east, which led the wisemen to old Bethlehem, but also a reminder to the citizenry of its own ideals.

Gifts Distributed

Many church services, rich in old Moravian tradition, are held throughout the season. These are highlighted by the Christmas Eve vigil, an impressive candle light service.

On Christmas morning, an unique trombone choir heralds the dawn of a new Christmas from the tower of the Central Moravian church.

Then the townsfolk distribute gifts and food to the needy and make their rounds of "putz" visiting. Almost every home has a putz, or miniature of the original nativity scene. Many of the putz figurines were handcarved centuries ago and are passed down from generation to generation.

Thousands of visitors come to Bethlehem each year to see the Christmas display. Although it attracts many visitors and the merchants pay the added electric bill, Bethlehem's Christmas display is not a commercial stunt. It's just the town's own way of expressing its Christmas spirit.

Texan Adds Steel To His Other Interests

HOUSTON, Dec. 3. (AP)—Multi-millionaire Glenn McCarthy today had added steel to his oil, movie, newspaper, ranch and hotel interests.

The Houston oilman announced yesterday he had purchased the 4,000-ton per month Detroit Seamless Tube company, formerly an affiliate of the Sharon Steel company, in Detroit.

The plant will be operated by the McCarthy International Tube corporation and will manufacture steel pipe from one half inch to five and one-half inches in diameter.

Later the plant will be enlarged to make larger pipes, which will be used primarily in oil field work, it was announced. The purchase price was not disclosed.

Companies Win Court Action On Flare Gas

AUSTIN, Dec. 3 (U.P.)—Operators in 15 oil fields today continued to flare their casinghead gas after winning their first court battle against the Railroad commission's close-in order.

Oil operators in the Heyser field won a permanent injunction blocking the order in Judge Charles O. Betts 98th district court yesterday.

The Sterling Oil Co., operators of the Heyser field, and three other companies had won temporary injunctions in hearings Wednesday.

In winning the permanent injunction, the oil companies completely thwarted the commission order to stop the burning of casinghead gas in the south Texas field.

Ruling Appeal Planned

After a two-and-one-half hour hearing, Betts said, "the permanent injunction is granted as prayed for."

Attorney General Price Daniel, who had filed suits against the companies, said that the flaring of gas was the same as burning oil on the ground.

He said yesterday that the Heyser ruling will be appealed and the state "will follow through" on suits brought by the other operators.

Daniel estimated that the flaring of gas would equal, within five months, burning of 500,000 barrels of oil on the ground.

In fighting the close-in order, attorneys for the oil producers said their clients had not been able to obtain pipeline and compression facilities needed to handle the casinghead gas.

Negligence Charged

One attorney said facilities would not be ready until next April.

Nelson Jones, Humble oil attorney, said his clients would spend $1,670,000 for compression facilities and $150,000 for laying a pipeline to connect with the Tennessee Gas Transmission Co.'s outlet.

Jones said a shutdown of the well under order would have halted oil production valued at $13,500, whereas the total value of the gas flared in the next five months would amount to less than $9,000.

Assistant Attorney General Elton Hyder argued that operators had been "grossly negligent," although they had been under official notice since 1946 when the commission first started hearings on flare gas.

"Is Humble Oil bigger than the state of Texas?" Hyder asked. "Can Humble oil determine the police powers of the state of Texas?"

Daniel charged that "the same law that makes it unlawful to burn oil on the ground makes it unlawful to waste gas."

He admitted, however, that op-

Bright Red Traffic Tickets To Become "Pacifying" Color

WORLAND, Wyo., Dec. 3 (INS)—The Worland town council turned to a study of psychology today after an experiment with color which proved almost disastrous.

The council decided recently to make traffic tickets a bright red color, to make certain they would not be overlooked by erring motorists.

The result, according to Councilman Frank B. O'Mahoney, was "like waving a red flag in front of the bull." The temper of drivers cited for violations flamed as brightly as the new color of the tickets.

A meeting was hurriedly called, and the council voted to make the tickets a "cool, pacifying" aqua-marine "to soothe the ruffled spirit of the offender."

Mayor Dan Healy said the wording also will be couched in "more diplomatic terms."

German Leader In Massacre Executed

MUNICH, Germany, Dec. 3. (AP)—A German navy lieutenant who led the Borkum island massacre of seven unarmed American airmen was hanged today with three other German war criminals.

The executions brought to 91 the number of men executed in groups on eight consecutive Fridays for the slaying of concentration camp inmates, captives and prisoners of war.

Made Forced Landing

Lt. Erich Wentzel, 46-year-old anti-aircraft officer was stationed on the island off the German North Sea coast when an American bomber made a forced landing there in August, 1944.

Seven American crew members were shot to death after being led through a gauntlet of workmen who beat them with fists and shovels.

A U. S. Army statement said Wentzel volunteered to accompany the guard detail that took the fliers through the town of Borkum.

The statement said the route "significantly led through a densely populated portion of the town" and "Wentzel ordered that the fliers be marched down a promenade along the sea wall where 80 to 100 men in German workers' corps formed two lines as a gauntlet through which the fliers had to march."

Kicked And Beaten

The airmen were kicked and beaten by the civilian population without interference by Wentzel or the guards, the Army reported.

"A soldier shot the fliers to death after they had been severely beaten," the statement said.

Hanged with Wentzel in Landsberg prison courtyard were:

George Eiskstein, 46, medical lieutenant, accused of shooting an unarmed American flier to death in March, 1945.

Hans Eichel, 58, police director at Offenbach, accused of giving the order which resulted in the death of an American flier in February, 1945.

Josef Remmele, 45, sergeant at Dachau concentration camp who "selected invalids for extermination transports" and "was in charge of executions."

War crimes officials said 49 men still are scheduled for hanging but the cases are being reviewed.

Craig Assumes Masonic Post

WACO, Dec. 3. (AP)—Hugh M. Craig of Fort Worth has added two new chapters to Texas Masonic history.

Craig yesterday became the first graduate of the Masonic home and school to be installed grand master of Texas Masons and his closing gavel ended for the last time a Grand Lodge session in the temple where Masons have met for 45 years.

Craig as grand master will be the first to preside over a grand communication in the $2,000,000 Memorial temple being constructed here. It will be completed in time for the 114th communication of the fraternity next December.

The new grand master succeeded Horace K. Jackson of Hillsboro.

Other officers installed included Albert Delange of Houston, deputy grand master; Gabe P. Allen, Dallas, grand senior warden; W. J. Burris of McAllen, grand junior warden; J. J. Gallaher, treasurer; George H. Belew, secretary.

Harvey Byrd of Brownwood was named to the committee on work, succeeding Burris.

District deputy grand masters named included:

Zoning Change Action Taken By Commission

Routine matters occupied members of the City Planning commission, who met Thursday night in regular session in the City Hall. From the agenda, members referred two zone change requests to the zoning subcommittee for further study, approved a third, and rejected outright a fourth request. A number of plats were approved, upon recommendation of the platting subcommittee.

J. H. Dillard appeared before the commission on behalf of his request that lots 22, 23, 24, block 10, and lots 1, 2, 3, 21, 22, and 24, block 11, Original town, be changed from an "E" zone (multi-family dwelling zone) to an "F" (local retail) zone. Dillard presented a letter signed by two other property owners whose holdings are involved, both of whom favored the requested change. After discussion, the commission voted to refer the request to the commissions zoning subcommittee, composed of J. H. Murdough and Homer D. Grant, for study between that time and the next meeting. The property is at Fourth and Ave. F.

Also referred was a request from Mrs. Earl C. Scott to change the north one-half (N½) of block 49, Overton addition, or that portion deemed adequate by the Planning commission, to include lot 10, located at 2119 Eighteenth street.

Okayed was the request of Kenneth E. Pharr to change lots 2 and 3, block 30, Helm subdivision, from its present "C" (apartment) zone to an "H" (central business) zone. This property lies near North Second and Ave. Q.

Rejected was a request from N. M. Sullivan to change 3526 Ave. Q from an "A" (one-family dwelling) zone to an "H" zone. Since such a request would necessitate "spot zoning" (zoning only a portion of a block) the request was rejected.

Other Changes Approved

Approval of the following plat requests was given by the commission after the platting subcommittee, headed by W. L. Bradshaw, recommended such action:

Request from Warlick Carr for approval of "Virginia Place," a subdivision of the north one-half (N½) of black 8, Lubbock View addition, located at Thirty-sixth and Monroe Ave.

Request for approval of "Earl Kerr addition," a subdivision of Lot 1, block 15, of Crump Five Acre addition, located at Fortieth and Ave. S.

Request from W. M. Peticolas for approval of Robert Neill Heights," a subdivision of the west part of the Northeast quarter of survey 5, block E-2, located on Levelland highway.

Plainview C-C Holds Annual Fete; Officials Introduced

PLAINVIEW, Dec. 3—America's ideals of justice, liberty and peace instilled by its great heritage should develop a leadership so that freedom and democracy can be established throughout the world, O. K. Armstrong of Springfield, Mo., member of the editorial staff of Reader's Digest, declared in a talk at the annual banquet of the Plainview Chamber of Commerce in the City auditorium here last night.

"What we need are apostles of liberty, so that we can say to the rest of the world, 'you too can lift your own level'," Armstrong told the 300 persons at the banquet.

Reviews U. S. Heritage

"We have the proper answer to Communism with our freedom and liberty and we should have men in charge of our foreign affairs who should get up and say to the rest of the world, 'We do want something.' We should say we want a chance to reconstruct a peaceful world.

"And everyone that does business with us from now on should be told that we intend to re-establish freedom and democracy throughout the world . . . Shame upon us that during the war we didn't nail it down. It isn't too late yet."

Armstrong, who traveled extensively in Europe last summer and fall studying social, economic and political conditions, reviewed America's great heritage in its making and showed how our forefathers had laid a great foundation in the writing of the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

"We must make our great heritage effective now at a time when it is needed most," he declared. "We've taken it for granted for a long time but now it is being challenged by the insidious propaganda of Communism."

Armstrong was introduced by Dr. J. W. Marshall, president of Wayland college. Ray Pritchett, newly-elected president of the chamber of commerce, was toastmaster. Invocation was by Rev. W. E. Peterson, pastor of the First Methodist church.

A Wayland quartet composed of Hoyt Mulky, Denny Walker, Rockie Powell and Bill Knighton entertained with several vocal selections.

Prior to Armstrong's talk, the newly-elected officials of the chamber and the board of city development were introduced along with visitors from the area.

Attending from out-of-town were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roberts, Abernathy; J. H. Browner, Abilene; Rex Baxter, Ed Hardin, David Rasco, K. D. Peckinpaugh, J. D. Roberts, Ralph Ater and G. J. Sorelle, Amarillo; Geo. W. Brazzell, jr., and J. M. Johnson, Slaton; Ellis Mills and H. N. Garrett, Tulia; H. B. Goulding, Guy C. Victory, Ruel C. Martin, Clarence Whiteside, Homer Hensley, J. M. Crook, Lubbock; James Roberts, Joe Walter, Dr. and Mrs. I. T. Shotwell and Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Payne, Littlefield; Mr. and Mrs. Ivy Boggs, Dallas; and Bob Crowell and J. W. Rule, Floydada.

Besides Pritchett, other officers of the chamber of commerce are: Jesse West, vice president; Jack Hunter, treasurer; J. Oliver Bier, Charles B. Coker, Paul Zimmerman, and Wilmot Eaton, new directors. E. M. Osborne is president of the BCD; Carl Green is first vice president; Jack Skaggs, second vice president; and J. D. Strickland, treasurer.

Raymond Lee Johns is general manager of both organizations and presented an exhaustive report of 1948 activities in connection with tonight's banquet.

Big Narcotics Cache Seized In New York

NEW YORK, Dec. 3. (AP)—Police last night arrested two men and seized a $750,000 narcotics cache which, they said, apparently was destined for Broadway habitues.

Headquarters said the men gave their identities as Jack Gordon, 40, and Edward Eichler, 49, both New York salesmen. They were charged with illegally possessing narcotics.

Detectives said they and federal agents apprehended the two at Gordon's midtown furnished room, in which were found six and a quarter pounds of pure heroin and 5,800 tablets of morphine.

They said they also found lists indicating dealings with persons frequenting the theatrical and night club districts in Manhattan.

The "street sales" value of the cache was estimated by police at more than three-quarters of a million dollars. They said they also found measuring equipment adulterating chemicals and "thousands" of envelopes.

Top-Ranking Economist Claims Business At "Critical" Point

NEW YORK, Dec. 3. (INS) — A top-ranking economist warned today that inflation has brought American business to the "critical" point because more and more peo- cannot keep up with sky-rocketing prices.

Dr. Leo Wolman, professor of economics at Columbia university, told the nation's management leaders that "conditions favorable to buyers' strikes abound."

He asserted that a small cut in business volume could wipe out many companies' profits.

Dr. Wolman, who also is chief of the National Bureau of Economic Research, made his analysis of business conditions in New York before the 53rd annual congress of American industry, sponsored by the National Association of Manufacturers.

The economist appealed to the management experts not to be misled by the "outward appearances of things."

Another speaker at the three-day meeting, Rep. Clarence J. Brown (R) Ohio, told the group a three billion dollar annual savings in the cost of federal government can be effected.

Brown, a member of the 12-man commission on government efficiency, headed by former President Herbert Hoover, said this can be done by adopting the findings of the Hoover commission.

The congress adopted a resolution urging strict curbs on governmental spending, with a ceiling of 37 billion dollars for the next fiscal year.

Cloud Wampler, a national vice president of the NAM appealed for labor and management to "pull together" to guard world peace.

Wampler, president of the Carrier Corp., Syracuse, N. Y., declared that labor and capital must "give and get a square deal."

Very Worst Thing

The industrialist ascribed the lack of understanding of each other's problem as "the very worst thing that has happened to America" in recent years.

Wampler added:

"If we continue to quarrel among ourselves, if we continue to seek advantage at the expense of our fellow men, we will not long be strong. And, if America is not strong, the peace of the world is in great danger."

Few Are Affected By Loyalty Checks

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3. (AP)—Fewer than 400 persons have left government service or withdrawn their applications for employment because of federal loyalty checks.

The Civil Service commission, reporting that figure today, added that 51 of the workers were fired by their agencies after an "unfavorable determination" of their cases.

As of last Oct. 16, the commission said, 2,201,239 loyalty forms had been processed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation since the program's start on Oct. 1, 1947. In that time 385 workers left the government because of the checks. The FBI still has 131,167 forms to process and refer to the commission.

Full field investigations were ordered by the FBI in 7,275, or approximately .03 percent of the processed cases. Of these, 5,937 have been either completed or discontinued.

Charges or "interrogatories" were issued in 1,317 cases, but only 279 hearings have been held.

Writer Answers Question On Procedure In Making Movies

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 3.—"How do they make movies?" asks a gentleman in the audience.

A good question. And here, in general, is the answer.

We start with a story. The studio may pay a fabulous price for a hit play or a best-selling novel. Or it may buy more cheaply up an original story idea over which a film writer has sweated many an unemployed week.

The studio boss hands it over to one of the dozen or so producers on the lot.

Calls In Writers

Let's call our picture "The Pismo Beach Story." The producer, Jack Benimble, calls in one to three studio writers. He tells them what line the story should take and they retire to pound out their deathless prose.

The scrip is done, and redone, and redone, often to the point of insensibility. Meanwhile, Producer Benimble is lining up a cast and budget.

Benimble is instructed by the studio to bring "The Pismo Beach Story" in at one-four, which means it shouldn't cost more than $1,400,000.

He then consults with the production staff and plans the shooting. Benimble picks a director, cameraman and other key posts. He tends to the 1,001 details that go into the making of a picture.

The sets are built, the cast set and enough of the script written to give "The Pismo Beach Story" the green light. Now the director takes over.

Even the greatest director can't make a hit from a bad script. But a good director can mean life or death to a mediocre script, which class of writing predominates in Hollywood.

Finally it is finished. Then it is handed over to the film editor, who fashions the tangle of celluloid into a feature picture.

Barrage Bursts Forth

With the release date set, the publicity and exploitation barrage bursts forth. Ads and stories appear in the newspapers and magazines. Miss Highwater endorses Puffo cigarets and Mr. Downe appears on the "Truth Or Mayhem" air quiz show, both of course mentioning their latest picture.

The movies goes out to the studio's exchanges throughout the U. S. and the world and thence to the theaters. It finally reaches you, the customer.

What's that? You say you didn't like "The Pismo Beach Story," even if they did go to all that trouble? You think it stinks?

Well, that's show business.

ZOO FEEDS ITSELF

BINGHAMPTON, N. Y. (U.P.)—Animals in the Ross Park Zoo here are munching home-grown oats. Park Commissioner M. Marks Bump grew a bumper oat crop on nine acres of park land to feed the zoo's bison, lamas, deer, horses and ponies. Next year Bump plans to plants 14 acres.

Nose That Replaces Iron Lung Shown To Medical Association

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Staff Writer

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 3. — A new plastic nose, that does your breathing for you, was shown to American Medical association today.

This nose replaces the iron lung and often does the same life saving job. It is a small gadget, making an airtight fit over the nose and mouth. Its secret is a wartime valve, by which it can be attached to a tube carrying pure oxygen, or any other mixture a doctor wants.

Forces Air In Lungs

The valve automatically puts on pressure enough to force air into the lungs, and then relaxes for air to flow out. The doctor can set it for whatever breathing rate is wanted.

Breathing is effortless. Unconscious people, whose lungs have stopped working, breathe naturally.

The nose is named pneophore, which means artificial respiration. It is made by the Mine Safety Appliances company of Pittsburg. It was developed first for miners, but is also used in infantile paralysis, drowning, overdoses of sleeping pills, for mothers of premature babies, asthma, and in one mental hospital for patients who pass out during shock treatment.

Mists Are Used

Penicillin, streptomycin and other medicines, in the form of mists, are used in the automatic breather.

The medical development was done by Dr. Hurley L. Motley, Barton memorial division of the Jefferson Medical college, Philadelphia, and Doctors Lars Werko, Andre Counand and Dickinson W. Richards, jr., of Columbia university medical school and Bellevue hospital.

Miners with dust diseases in their lungs that resemble tuberculosis, after breathing with this nose for a short time daily for a few days, apparently get well for about six months. Then another breathing course is needed. The nose gives their lungs some medicine in the form of mist.

for approval of "Box Place Addition," a subdivision of the east ¾ of lot 1, block 12, Alta Vista Acres, at Thirty-eighth and Ave. W.

Request from W. M. Peticolas for approval of "Berry Addition Annex," a subdivision of the west one-half (W½) of the Northwest one-quarter (NW¼) of survey 6, block B, located at Thirty-fourth and Ave. A.

Also up for discussion was a request from Bob Miller on behalf of the appraisers for the Eva N. Rice Estate for tentative approval of a plat of a part of the Southwest one-quarer (SW¼) of survey 17, block A.

The property in question is not an addition, but was up for tentative plat approval in order that it might be divided among heirs. After discussion, the commission voted to leave the request to the city engineering department for study and alteration if necessary.

In regard to a bill for $1,800 submitted to the commission by O. H. Koch of Dallas for payment of his services as a consultant in matters of zoning, planning, and annexation, for eight months service, the commission voted to require that he furnish tangible evidence of the scope of his services before payment be approved.

Members present at the meeting were K. N. Clapp, Homer D. Grant, J. D. Hassell, M. R. Smith, J. H. Murdough, J. T. Krueger, R. L. Oldham, and W. L. Bradshaw.

erators "might be given a little more time."

Elston Law, counsel for Gulf oil, said enforcement of the commission order would have meant "confiscation of property." If the law had gone into effect, he said, "there would have been considerable underground waste."

Daniel didn't say whether he would take the case into the civil court of appeals or to the state supreme court.

Direct trials on permanent injunction requests, however, will be heard on Dec. 8, affecting the Flour Bluff field, and on Dec. 10, affecting the Tijerina-Canales-Blucher field.

Change In Church Name Is Announced

A change in name of the Central Baptist church here, and plans for a special week of effort in the building fund campaign, were announced yesterday by Rev. Jeff D. Welch, pastor.

The new name is to be First Central Baptist church. The change was approved by action of the membership in conference, when plans also were approved for the special financial effort, which coincides with beginning of the church's 25th year of service here.

The church was organized on Dec. 9, 1924, and will end its 24th year one week from Sunday. Mr. Welch, now in his 18th year as pastor, said that each member, or each family, in the church is being asked to contribute during the week to the building fund $1 for each year since the church was organized, a total of $24.

The pastor said it was anticipated that $10,000 will be raised in that way.

Building plans of the congregation have not been announced.

Utah Man Is NAM President

NEW YORK, Dec. 3. (AP)—Wallace F. Bennett, 50-year-old head of a Salt Lake City paint and varnish manufacturing firm, is the new president of the National Association of Manufacturers.

His election was announced last night at the close of the second day of the NAM's 53rd annual congress of American industry.

"My selection as president of the NAM," Bennett said, "is a recognition of the growing importance of western industry. This is the first time the presidency of the NAM has gone west of Chicago."

Bennett, whose paint company employs about 225 workers, said his election also is "a recognition of the importance of small business."

"Seventy per cent of the NAM members have less than 250 employes," he said. "I am selected from a company in this class."

To Tour U. S.

Bennett, who has served as a regional vice president and director of the NAM, succeeds Morris Sayre, president of the Corn Products Refining Co. Sayre becomes chairman of the NAM board on Jan. 1.

Bennett, named to the presidency for 1949, says he and Mrs. Bennett "will spend most of the year touring all major industrial areas in the United States."

In addition to heading the Bennett Glass and Paint company, Bennett heads the Bennett Motor Co., Salt Lake. He is president of the Cardon Jewelry Co., of Logan, Utah, and vice president of the Clayton Investment Co., of Salt Lake.

A graduate of the University of Utah and a veteran of World War I, Bennett was principal of San Luis Academy, Manassa, Colo., before entering a business career.

His son, Wallace G. Bennett, flew into New York yesterday from England to be with his parents. He has been overseas for two years on a mission for the church of Latter-Day Saints.

The Bennetts have four other children.

France Voices Ruhr Protest

PARIS, Dec. 3. (AP)—France has declared once again she does not want Germany to become too strong.

The national assembly voted last night against permitting Germany ever to regain full control of the industrial Ruhr which provided 70 per cent of Hitler's armaments.

The assembly vote was inspired by a recent British-American decision to return to the Germans temporary management of the coal and steel industries in the Ruhr.

The assembly said it was worried by a recent British-American statement that a future German government would be allowed to determine the fate of the Ruhr.

Type Control Unstated

The assembly voted 377 to 181 in urging the French government to tell the United States and Britain that the French people "unanimously" repudiate any such step. The Communists opposed the motion, but only because they always oppose the government.

The motion did not specify what kind of control France wants over the Ruhr. Up to now France has urged some sort of international control to keep the Ruhr from serving as a war arsenal.

Schuman said France was hastening the fusion of her occupation zone with the British and American bizone in order to be able to keep a closer watch on American-British policy in the Ruhr.

Schuman said Germany must eventually be integrated into Europe again—economically and politically—but with strings attached to the Ruhr.
