Four-H Club boys and girls will have their annual fun-frolic this year in the form of an all-day picnic on Friday, July 31, at the LaHue Grove, Miss Rose Erisman, county home demonstration agent, announced early this week.

This picnic will take the place of the annual encampment, which was cancelled this year due to tire shortage. Approximately 150 boys and girls, all members of the 4-H Clubs of the county, will attend. Miss Erisman and B. A. Zorns, county agent, are working with sponsors of the clubs to make the event a success.

The boys and girls will gather Friday morning, and the fun will start about 10 a. m. A picnic dinner will be spread at 12:30, and more entertainment will follow until 5 o'clock, when the youths will leave for home.

"There will be games and a good time for all," the sponsors promise.

Boys and girls attending are told to bring a picnic lunch, dress in slacks or other comfortable clothing, and to come prepared for a good time.

Car Tax Evaders Subject To Fine

Reports reaching the office of Collector of Internal Revenue indicate that most persons subject to the $5.00 automobile tax due July 1, 1942, have already purchased the required Stamp but that in some sections many automobile owners have failed to purchase this Stamp. Beginning August 1, 1942, a concerted drive by Deputy Collectors in every section will be undertaken, and all persons subject to the tax, using the tax without the Stamp affixed, will be vigorously prosecuted. Such tax evaders will be subject to a $25.00 fine and thirty days imprisonment in addition to payment of the tax. This automobile use tax is a war measure, and all patriotic people should respond without delay, it was pointed out by W. A. Thombs, collector of internal revenue.

The most important thing to remember is that the $5.00 automobile tax Stamp cannot be purchased from Post Officers after July 31, 1942, and purchases will have to be made from the Collector of Internal Revenue, and late purchasers will be required to establish the fact under oath that they have not used their cars prior to the purchase date of the Stamp, in order to avoid penalty.

This is a final notice, and further leniency cannot be extended. This statement is made by direction of the Bureau of Internal Revenue in Washington.

He explained that it was impossible to have a recruit officer in each town, but that local men who are interested in joining the Navy can talk with the recruit officer who is at the Post Office. (Continued on Page Ten)

Riggs And Bell Winners In Contested County Races

Stevenson And O'Daniel Get County's Approval

By a narrow margin, Collingsworth County voters cast their ballot for Governor Coke R. Stevenson for Governor of Texas, over his nearest opponent, Hal Collins.

It was with an overwhelming vote, however, that they approved W. Lee O'Daniel for senator, giving him almost twice as many votes as all his opponents together.

These figures did not hold good over the state however, for Tuesday's indications were that Senator O'Daniel will be in the second primary runoff with James V. Allred, while Governor Stevenson's lead soon turned into a sweeping victory as the votes were reported.

Tuesday's reports gave O'Daniel 441,885 votes; Allred 295,831; Dan Moody 168,473; and Ryan 11,452. John Lee Smith led in the race for Lieutenant Governor with 166,060 votes, while Beck was second with 138,333.

Jesse James received 377,148 votes for State Treasurer, while his nearest opponent, Hatcher, was given 166,641.

McDonald was returned to the office of Agricultural Commissioner with 427,966 votes, leading more than three to one his nearest opponent.

Brooks lead a field of nine candidates for the unexpired term of Railroad Commissioner with 205,750 votes, while Jester, his nearest opponent received 147,655.

Totals for all state and district candidates polled in Collingsworth, included the following:

For Senator: O'Daniel, 1650; Moody, 268; Allred, 615; and Ryan, 15.

For Governor: Stevenson, 1252; Porter, 8; Wheeler, 3; Somerville, 6; Collins, 1228; and Ferguson, 11.

Names Of Early Residents Sought For Reunion

"If there is some old timer you would like to invite to the reunion this year, give us his name and we'll mail him an invitation," Dave Thomas, president of the Old Settlers' Association, announced this week.

An effort is being made to locate as many residents of this county during the early days as is possible, Mr. Thomas said.

Names of these men and women should be turned in to Miss Katherine Boverie at the county library, as the invitations will be mailed from that place.

The reunion will be held Thursday, August 13, at the LaHue Grove east of Wellington. Plans for the event are rapidly nearing completion. Although the attendance may be somewhat under that of former years, several hundred persons are expected to be present, Mr. Thomas declared.

EVANGELIST

Rev. H. N. Dickerson, nationally known evangelist of the Church of the Nazarene, is conducting revival services in Wellington. The meeting will continue through August 9.

Shinnery First School To Open

First of this county's schools to open for the new term is Shinnery, which opened Monday, July 27, B. W. Beaird, county superintendent, said.

Miss Honor Tucker is teacher of the school. This is her second year in that district. Grades one through six are taught.

The school is opening early in order to turn out for cotton picking in the fall, Mr. Beaird pointed out. Other schools in the county are expected to start within a few weeks.

Small Increase Given County Wheat Allotment

An increase of approximately 230 acres in this county's wheat allotment will be made for 1943, it was learned at the AAA office this week, following the receipt of the cotton allotment acreage.

This will bring the total acreage to around 9300 acres after all allotments, including those for new growers, are made.

The increase is approximately two and one-half per cent over the 9171 acre allotment for the county in 1942.

Very little difference could be noted in the allotments of individual farmers for the coming year, however, and in many cases, the new allotment is only a fraction of an acre greater than for the last year.

Runoff Necessary To Determine 3 Precinct Races

County voters picked their officers in the three contested county races and five precinct races, gave their approval to other county candidates who were unopposed, and indicated their choice in district and state elections as the climax to one of the quietest political campaigns conducted in recent years.

There will be no run-off for the county offices, as only two candidates were listed in each case. Two precincts will choose their commissioner, and one precinct a constable in the second primary election August 22, when state and several district officers will also be determined.

This year's vote was approximately 500 less than that of two years ago, when 3,000 ballots were polled. The highest number was received by J. W. Holder, candidate for tax collector, who polled 2587.

Howard Riggs was winner in the County Judge's race, receiving a total of 1508 votes to 1009 for his opponent, C. C. Bishop, the incumbent.

Paul Bell received 2096 votes for sheriff against 396 for Wylie McKinney. Mr. Bell was seeking the office for the second term.

Luther Gribble received 1207 votes for county chairman of the Democratic Party against 1102 for Lee O'Neil, the present chairman.

In the precinct races, Hunter Peters led a field of five men in the race for Commissioner of Precinct One. In the runoff with him will be B. A. Vandiver. Mr. Peters received 363 votes; Mr. Vandiver 316; N. C. Tension 254; D. M. Shanks 227; and Elbert Watts 222.

Kenneth Johnson, who received 134 votes, and Henry Davidson, who polled 81 votes, will be in the runoff for the place of Commissioner of Precinct 2. Other candidates were Allen I. Smith, who polled 57 votes, and Charles Graves, who received 55 votes. This is to fill the place of Jason (Continued on Page Ten)

Women To Receive Instructions On Surgical Dressings

Instruction in the making of Red Cross surgical bandages will be given women in this county within a short time, Mrs. James Doneghy, co-chairman of this work, announced late last week.

Mrs. Doneghy and Mrs. M. M. Kern, who is also co-chairman for the local chapter, returned last week from Pampa, where they received instructions from the regional office on making the bandages.

Much care must be taken in making the dressings, and some knowledge of and practice in the work is necessary before they can be accepted for use by the Red Cross, it was pointed out.

Exact dates for the beginning of instruction here have not been worked out, Mrs. Doneghy said.

Eugene Hunter Hurt In Accident

Eugene Hunter of Childress received deep head cuts Friday night when his car and another vehicle were involved in a collision at Midway Station south of Wellington. Mrs. Hunter was uninjured.

They were on their way to Childress after visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Daffron of Samnorwood.

Members of Mr. Hunter's family stated that the accident occurred when a car believed to have been from Oklahoma drove onto the highway from the Midway station and crashed into the side of the Hunter car.

Mr. Hunter was rushed to Childress for emergency treatment, and sixteen stitches were required to close the deep gash which he received across his forehead. Although he has been dismissed from the hospital, he is not yet able to return to his work.

Handley Tells Of New Methods To Fight Fire Bombs

New instructions in fighting fire bombs have been announced as a result of extensive research by technicians in the United States and England, it is reported by Marvin Hall, State Fire Defense Coordinator.

In a communication to Fire Chief, Bura Handley, Mr. Hall stated, "All civilians should become familiar with the new and safer method of fighting incendiary bombs, described in the latest instructions released by OCD. These are the result of extensive experiments by OCD technicians and the Chemical Warfare Service of the U. S. Army. The new method has already been adopted in England and New Zealand."

At the same time, Mr. Handley announced that this county was still short on the number of volunteer auxiliary firemen needed for training, and he again urged men who wish to do this work to contact him at once. The training should be received now, not some time in the future, he pointed out.

Chief Handley said that the most important change in technique is that which calls for the use of a jet of water instead of a spray. A speedy attack on the bomb with a jet of water will knock the bomb out in less than one minute, thus saving valuable time which can be used in attacking other bombs nearby before they can start serious fires. Sand is not to be used except where water is not available or where the glare of the bomb can be seen by enemy flyers, he said.

Briefly, the latest instructions are:

1. Bring your fire fighting equipment to the scene at once.
2. Shoot a jet of water directly at the bomb without delay, to put it out of action quickly.
3. Then use the jet, quickly, to quench the fragments and the remains of the bomb, and any fires that might have been started.
4. Be absolutely sure all the fire is out before you leave the scene.
5. Use a course spray only where scattering of metal must be avoided.
6. Use sand only if a bomb falls where it is not likely to start a fire, or if water is not available.

Chief Handley pointed out that the desirable jet of water can be obtained from a garden hose, any type of water fire extinguisher, a pump-tank extinguisher, or a stirrup pump.

Pioneer Pastor Preaches Sunday

Rev. Ed R. Wallace of Shamrock, one of the earliest pastors of the Methodist Church here, delivered the sermon at the morning service Sunday, July 26. He spoke in the absence of Rev. Hubert Thomson, the pastor, who, with his family, is visiting a son stationed at San Diego.

Rev. Wallace served as pastor of this church in 1896. He is now retired from active ministry.

Vital "junk" is loaded on trucks to aid Uncle Sam's drive among farmers for scrap steel. Worn-out tractors, harrows and jalopies as well as all sorts of miscellaneous scrap have been gathered from farms to be turned into armament.

Don't Tell Your Troubles Red Cross Tells Parents

Be careful what you write to the fighting men of Uncle Sam's armed forces.

This is the advice of hundreds of American Red Cross workers who come into contact daily with the troubles and personal problems of American service men both at home and abroad, Miss Katherine Boverie, secretary of the local Red Cross Chapter, said Monday.

Too many times, they warn, the folks at home pour forth petty family problems in letters to their boys who are away in camp or fighting at the front, she continued. The result in many cases is the demoralization of a brave soldier. The loving mother, sweetheart, uncle or aunt unwittingly may be aiding the enemy.

There are too many cases, Red Cross workers declare, of a soldier, sailor or marine receiving a wire, "Come home, mother serious-ly ill." Verification of the facts by the Red Cross often reveals that there was no real reason for alarm. Mother, it appears, had been suffering from an illness for many years. It was no worse at the time the wire was sent, but she sent it, because she had a motherly desire to see her son.

During the waiting period, while Red Cross workers check the facts in the soldier's home town, the army is confronted with a bewildered, worried boy, who but a moment before was a determined soldier.

Red Cross workers have encountered numerous cases where a lovesick sweetheart wishing to have a visit with her soldier boy friend has forged a wire stating that "Aunt Mary" is ill and not expected to live through the day. Red Cross workers are soon able to wire back the comforting news that no illness exists, but meanwhile, another soldier has spent agonizing hours trying to visualize the actual conditions at home.

Cases of suicide of service men have been reported to the Red Cross which were directly traceable to the thoughtless letter of the "girl friend" at home in which she wrote the service man that she no longer cared for him.

By far the majority of the cases investigated by Red Cross Home Service workers are legitimate. In these instances, the Red Cross mobilizes its forces both in the soldier's camp and in his home town to provide financial assistance, arrange for transportation and aid to his family during an emergency.

It is the minority of letter writers who bring about demoralization among the troops. Many of these writers are unintentionally worrying the service man, a few deliberately. Most of them are merely too prone to seek comfort on small personal problems from a soldier who himself needs the united support of his family at home.

So the next time you write Johnny Doughboy be cheerful, and if you cannot be cheerful, be factual, the Red Cross warns. A demoralizing letter, whether intentional or not, can be as damaging to Uncle Sam's armed forces as an enemy bullet.

The Paris Exposition in 1889 was the first affair of that nature attended by United States Marines.

In the U. S. Marine Corps there are 17 different types of sergeants.

COME IN AND LOOK 'EM OVER!

You know, folks, this Pig Growing Contest looks like it's going to develop into a mighty big thing. At least, the Purina-fed pig shows signs of growing into a whoppin', good-sized hog.

About a month ago, we brought two well-matched pigs into our store and put them in separate pens. One pig is getting all the grain he wants, and the other is getting grain plus Purina Hog Chow Supplement. It's a race, folks, to see which pig will make the biggest hog out of himself in the shortest time.

Right now, we've got suspicions that this "grain plus Hog Chow" pig is going to whip the daylight out of his opponent, when it comes to putting on pounds of top quality pork at low cost. Already, the Purina-fed hog has begun to pull away from his rival.

Why don't you come in and pass your opinion on this unusual pork-building contest? You'll meet many of your friends here, who have stopped in to see it too.

So come in today!

LETTERS FROM MEN IN SERVICE

July 21, 1942

Dear Deskins, Marian and Diane, I was in Chicago the other week end, and happened to hear a civilian say, "The whole U.S.O. is the bunk!"

Do you realize that that expresses the idea of about 70 per cent of the people's feeling toward the United Service Organization up here in Illinois? I have talked to several of the workers at this station. They all have the idea that the U.S.O. is doing everything possible to make "bums" of the sailors and soldiers.

I am proud of one thing. The Southern people, especially those Texans, are doing everything in their power to help us fellows by giving to the U.S.O. Don't you ever think we don't appreciate it, too. In my copy of The Leader recently I noticed the drive there went well over the top. Thanks, Deck, for the work you did in behalf of the organization; and thanks to all those from Collingsworth County who contributed. I know the sons of all those there who read The Leader feel the same way, regardless of whether they are in the Navy, Army, Coast Guard, or Marines. They are still Americans: Americans fighting for our right for freedom.

I have been in Chicago, North Chicago, Kenosha, Milwaukee, Racine and Waukegan since I have been at Great Lakes. In each of these my "home away from home" was the U.S.O.

If it wasn't for these places, the only place left for us to go would be "Sir Dopey's Tavern," "Mike's Cocktail Lounge," or the theatre. I can just see a sailor going to the theatre after five days of heartbreaking work in a naval base, can't you? The U.S.O. gives us a place to relax, feel free, and especially a place to dance with respectable girls.

I have seen civilians visiting the U.S.O.'s, and leaving with curled up noses, to drive away in their fine cars (on good treaded tires). No wonder they turned up their nose! The club isn't a swank night club to compare with their fine mansions. It couldn't be anything except a brick building, furnished with simple furniture, and with no luxuries. The money that has put it there is limited. There are thousands of others to be built yet, but money is still insufficient to furnish them. The people with the "upturned noses" only come to compare it with their homes, not to try to help it any way. They are just plain narrow-minded, I guess. It may be just a cheap place to them, but it is a "home" to us.

In Kenosha, a town slightly larger than Childress, we were given sandwiches, milk, cake and pie to eat. At the tables were all kinds of games, a few musical instruments, and above all, jars of cookies—home cooked to suit our taste. They say there's no reason for a sailor to miss a liberty just because he is minus certain funds. If you are out of cigarettes, there's always a bowl full near at hand.

The ladies, most of whom have sons in the service, are the most likeable people on earth. Anything they can do for us, they would do it just as cheerfully as if we were their own sons. If those mothers at home could see what these U.S.O. mothers do to make us happy they would wring every spare cent out of the county for the U.S.O.

Of course, the clubs in Chicago and Milwaukee are larger than in smaller towns, but regardless of size the spirit is the same.

I want to thank you again, Deck, for all you did for the U.S.O. drive. I do not know who the others in Wellington were who helped carry it out, but I'd bet Mr. Pinkston, Ben Hurst, Drs. Elmer and Charlie, Tom Campbell, Pink Sullivan, Bura Handley, Dr. Johnson, and many, many others did all that was in their power to make that drive a success.

"Don't say No to the U.S.O.," please, for us fellows, Navy men or what, who know how to appreciate those nickels and dimes.

Your friend,
S. A. Combs,
U. S. Navy Res.

"I Learned about LIGHT in a BLACKOUT!"

That's what a man wrote in a very human letter.

- "We had our first practice blackout here recently," he added. "For twenty minutes, my family and I sat in total darkness. The seriousness of war hit us all harder than ever before."
- "Then, when the all-clear sounded and we turned the lights back on, warmth and reassurance came into the room. That made me realize that whatever I spend for electricity, it's still about the cheapest thing I buy."

• Here in West Texas, where blackouts have been few and far between and the war seems far away, a lot of folks take electricity for granted until something reminds them how dependable and cheap it really is. If yours is an average family, you're getting about twice or three times as much electricity for your money as ten to fifteen years ago.

• The reasons why this service is so cheap and so dependable go back to the way America works—a way we're all fighting for now. A way of life in which free men have an opportunity to create and produce and succeed in proportion to their individual contribution.

• Your Electric Servant grew up that way—steadily making more jobs, serving more homes and people and lowering rates—under efficient business management. Because it has done its part of the job well, West Texas has the electric power to attract military training camps, flying schools and war plants. West Texas today is helping produce the men and material that promises a permanent blackout for the Axis dictators!

Information On Births Available At Census Dept.

The District Clerk's office has secured blanks through the Bureau of Census Department by means of which information may be secured as to births in any part of the United States from the years 1880 to 1940, except for the year 1890, when the records were destroyed by fire. This announcement was made this week by J. McBroom, clerk.

There are no records in the Census Bureau upon which a regular birth certificate can be issued by this bureau, Mr. McBroom explained. Birth certificates are issued by vital statistics offices in the respective states in which the births occurred. At each census, however, the census enumerators obtained the ages and place of birth of every person reported.

"Copies of these records are usually accepted as evidence in support of age or place of birth, for employment purposes or in connection with investigation for old age assistance, or other special purposes," Mr. McBroom said.

A fee of $1.00 is charged by the Census Department, plus the 50 cent service fee by the clerk. Thus a copy of the desired information will be furnished if found in the records. These fees cannot be refunded if the desired information is not found, as this charge covers only the cost of the search. Applicants will have to await their turn, as this is a routine search, but if immediate information is desired a fee of $3.00 is charged for a special investigator to be on hand for this occasion.

Names in the census records are not alphabetically arranged, but appear in the order they were reported to the census takers, therefore, before the name of a person can be located the following information must be furnished:

1. Exact place of residence of the individual on the date of a Federal census; the street number if in a city, if in the country, the county, town, township or village, number of district or precinct.

2. Names of parents of the individual, or the name of the individual with whom residing at the time the census was taken.

The census statistics are strictly confidential and will not be furnished unless the above instructions are complied with, Mr. McBroom warned.

Former Resident Is Army Chaplain

The Rev. W. A. Squyres, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church in Lawton, Oklahoma, has been commissioned a chaplain in the U. S. Army, with orders to report July 31 in San Francisco. He holds the rank of First Lieutenant.

Rev. Squyres was reared in Collingsworth County. He is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lowe of Wellington and a brother of Mrs. Albert Gollighugh of Marella. He went to Lawton recently from Rockwall.

Thirty-six years old, he has been in the ministry 10 years. His family will remain in Lawton until he is assigned.

They were guests of relatives in this county Monday and Monday night, before Rev. Squyres left for San Francisco to take over his duties.

L. E. Gribble, Jr., and Jack Wilson of Stephenville spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Gribble.

Fewer Traffic Deaths In Texas

AUSTIN.—There were fewer traffic deaths in Texas in the first six months of 1942 than during any similar period since accurate records were started in 1938, State Police Director Homer Garrison announced today.

For the half year, Texas recorded a flat 20 per cent reduction in traffic fatalities, from 863 in the 1941 period to 689 this year.

Nationally, the reduction was 11 per cent for the first five months. The six-month average has not yet been announced.

As the Texas Traffic Advisory Committee's conservation program began to make noteworthy progress in June, deaths fell to 104 as compared to 151 for June of 1941.

MY THANKS

I am very grateful for the splendid vote given me in the first primary, and this is to ask for your continued support and vote in the run-off.

I also want to thank the people of Precinct 2, those who voted for me and those who voted for another candidate for their uniform courtesy during the campaign. Your consideration is greatly appreciated just as your vote will be August 22.

Kenneth E. Johnson
Candidate for Commissioner
Precinct 2

Leading the safety race were cities and small towns, with reductions of 30 and 29 per cent, respectively. Highway deaths were down 17 per cent; those on county roads, 14 per cent. Highway Patrol Chief Hill Foreman reported that arrests and warnings by the Highway Patrol increased 22.5 per cent over last June, from 18,327 to 22,460.

Here is something to take your minds off politics for a spell. There is a piece in Look magazine by Pierre Van Passen. He is an authority on foreign affairs so the article says.

Here is what he says in part: "Before snow again blankets the blood-soaked battlefield from the Baltic to the Black Sea, Hitler will have lost the Russian war." He says Russia admits having lost 4,500,000 men, something of the same number as our total army. But he also says that Russia has 4,000,000 men who will get into the battle for the first time this summer.

Van Passen also discusses the vast scale on which Russia has prepared for the last 15 years. Only two of the eight important industrial areas built up by Russia with their three five year plans lies in the region threatened by the Nazis. He says a stab in the back by Tokio would prevent a final decision this year. This was startling to me in view of the bad news that comes from the actual operations, but it is a long range view and not a report of week to week changes. Whether it will work out or not is something about which I do not know the least thing. Van Passen merely happens to be a man whose writing has interested me tremendously in the past.

From another source I get the information that the Soviets are now allowing Allied military observers permission to visit vital battle fronts. You know that they did not do this until a few weeks ago. What does this mean? My guess is that it is a bid for a second front in France, but also a demand for more supplies. Russian chances of stopping the Nazi drive are not hopeless, but the situation is serious. The greatest battle of the Russian war is yet to be fought in the next few weeks.

The price of cotton fell off last week. It was due to the anti-inflation moves and to the fact that the crop is getting along pretty well. This does not change the contention I have been making all year. If the war lasts through 1943 a cotton shortage will be witnessed in this country. The stocks of low grade cotton are still large, but we are using cotton faster than the farmers are producing it.

Get out the brooms, there may be an air raid. My wife told me of seeing Mrs. Bill McClaskey out fighting a grass fire back of her house with a broom. On the return trip she saw Mrs. Ralph Ball, and Mary Beth out assisting with brooms and Mrs. Mitchell using a garden hose. They put out the fire.

Since I owe each one of them a letter I have decided to print a letter to J. K. Porter and mail the copy to the rest. It will be feeding five birds with one spoon and besides it will fill this so-called column.

Your father was in the office and told me that you had phoned him. I was glad to learn that you are in the best of health. I had a letter from S. A. Combs who is in the Great Lakes Naval Station. He wrote in the most part about how much the USO meant to him when he was on leave.

I also read a letter from James Sullivan who said that he has reached his destination. He said it was the most interesting trip he had ever had in his life. Since he is there and since I am not mentioning his outfit, I don't mind telling you that we think he is in Alaska. The Ford boys who are with him mentioned their new equipment so we have a good idea.

Oris Miller is in Porto Rica with the Coast Guard and he likes it fine. Marshall Wells is with the Third Army in San Antonio and I owe him a letter just as I owe all of you one.

I got to thinking about you boys the other night and I thought that by writing this sort of a letter I might let each one of you know where the others were. You are already scattered in far parts and there is no telling to what more distant parts of the world you may go. I would like for each one of you to know that I think of you every day with affection and esteem.

A very few of the boys get leave to come back home for a very short time, but the absence of young men of their own age makes a difference. The home town does not seem the same as the town they left.

The folks here at home are working harder than I have ever seen them work. The shortage of labor will be acute by fall, both on the farms and in the stores. We do not raise a lot of vegetables that I hope you are eating, but if you fellows don't get plenty of milk, eggs, beef, hog meat and white bread then it will be due to transportation and not to the efforts of the folks back here.

There are still a number of girls here of your age. In the main they go without dates and without socks. They just run around together like a bunch of hens. It is my notion that if the men get any scarier they will shorten their skirts another half a foot just by way of advertisement.

Last Sunday I went to church and before the elderly preacher had reached the half-way mark, I counted six young ladies who had come to church without any hose. One was a married woman. But shades of Rev. C. R. Joyner, who ever thought that a time would come when women would go bare legged to church in Wellington.

Joe Baumgardner came in with his fine brood, minus those in the war. He was strutting like a peacock. I don't see why. Eva raised them. He might have done a little, but judging him by myself, he didn't do much. Mothers raise children.

The old pastor was pretty good. It was obvious after the first two minutes that he did not have a prepared sermon. It was full of frank common sense talk about real religion.

The retired minister has a grandson in Australia. He was proud of him and he held up the Bible in saying that there is nothing in this book that says we shall allow Christianity to be destroyed. His theme was that it was the duty of every person to be happy as well as a privilege. The happiness he talked about was a fundamental one. It had to do with sacrifice more than pleasure. He ended by applying it to the fathers and mothers who had sons in the service. There was something very humble, very sincere and very courageous in the old man's talk.

I will close by telling you fellows of a type of civil service work that was news to me. Beatrice Walters of this county picked up a blank in a Denver post office. She received her appointment and has signed up for the duration of the war and for six months afterwards. After her training she will be an assistant mechanic in the Army Air Corps. I sure didn't

Lester Hunter Buys Loco Store

Announcement was made this week that Lester Hunter of Childress has bought the grocery store at Loco formerly operated by Herman Belew, and has taken over the active management of the business.

Mr. Belew was called into army service recently.

Mr. Hunter formerly lived at Loco, but for several months he has been employed in Childress.

Since disposing of the store, Mrs. Belew has made arrangements to join her husband at Fort Sill and to remain there as long as he is stationed at that place, her friends report. She will be accompanied by Miss Mildred Ray.

Henry McClure left Tuesday to accept employment in Denison.

Many Thanks

Thanks for the splendid vote that you gave me.

Words cannot express my appreciation for your kindness, and I shall always feel grateful.

Sincerely,

MY SINCERE THANKS

I want to take this means of thanking the voters for their vote last Saturday. I would also like to thank my opponent for the type of campaign he conducted and to assure him of my continued high regard.

I will be glad to have the people of Precinct Four discuss the problems of the precinct with me at any time.

And again — THANK YOU.

W. C. BARNETT

Thank You-

I am deeply grateful to my friends, both old and new who so enthusiastically supported me during the first primary, and am equally appreciative of the conduct of the very fine gentlemen who opposed me in this election.

The runoff election next month will decide who will be your Commissioner for Precinct One, for the next two years and I sincerely solicit your continued support at that time. The splendid vote given me in the first primary last Saturday gives me confidence, but likewise a full feeling of my responsibility to you people and the office of Commissioner. If elected I promise you the best that is in me.

Again — Thank you.

OTHER FARMERS HAVE USED TWO CARS OF SULPHUR TO SAVE THEIR COTTON CROP

HAVE YOU DUSTED YOUR COTTON WITH SULPHUR? HAVE YOU MADE PLANS TO DUST IT AT LEAST THREE TIMES? THE COUNTY WILL CONTINUE TO ORDER SULPHUR AND THE GINS WILL CONTINUE TO DISTRIBUTE IT FREE OF CHARGE AND SELL IT AT COST IF YOU NEED IT. INSPECT YOUR CROP NOW.

DUSTING SULPHUR

Is Provided by Collingsworth County to Fight These Insects

COTTON FLEA HOPPER damage to the fields of Collingsworth County has been heavy in past years—as great as that from grasshoppers, many believe. Because this damage cannot be seen with the naked eye, the extent of the ruin is not known, and little has been done to combat the infestation heretofore.

This year's crop is more valuable to this nation's war efforts than ever before. Every boll is needed. Knowing this, and realizing that the prosperity of the people of this area depends on cotton, the Commissioners Court has bought a car-load of dusting sulphur to be sold to the cotton growers at actual cost. This will be distributed through the gins of the county.

The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station recommends dusting with sulphur as the mainstay in the fight against the cotton flea hopper. With sulphur available, simple dusting equipment can be made at home. A sack tied behind a cultivator can be used. And remember, infestation may be costly if it is not controlled.

The critical days in this fight against flea hoppers are ahead. Dusting should begin when squares appear on the cotton. The appearance of small brownish or blasted squares is the danger signal. Effective control of cotton flea hoppers in Collingsworth County will mean more cotton for our nation, and more money from the cotton crop at home.

Then at the hook the whole bunch looked
And Doty said, "Now don't get hooked.
Let Scouty do it first. He's good! He'll jerk a bit, just as he should."

The first jerk made the Totties roar,
And Duncy yelled, "Pull it some more!
Hey, let me join in on the fun.
I'll grab hold of the line and run."

"Don't take a chance," cried Windy, "I know another stunt to try. Let's fasten something to the hook, I wonder how his face will look."

"That's fine," said Goldy, with a grin.
"The fisherman will pull it in." But Coppy said, "I sadly fear That we'll find nothing way down here."

Then Duncy ran right up and said,
"Hey, wait. We will use this instead.

The fisherman will like this loot."

proposing an amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding a new section thereto to be known as Section 49a, requiring all bills passed by the Legislature on and after January 1, 1945, appropriating money for any purpose, to be sent to the Comptroller of Public Accounts for his approval, and fixing the duties of the Comptroller with reference thereto; authorizing the Legislature to provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of serial bonds, equal in principal to the total outstanding, valid, and approved obligations owing by the General Revenue Fund on September 1, 1943; providing for the submission of this amendment to the voters of this State; prescribing the form of ballot; providing for the proclamation and publication thereof; and providing for the necessary appropriation to defray necessary expenses for the submission of this amendment.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto, immediately after Section 49, a section to be known as Section 49a, to read as follows:

"Section 49a. It shall be the duty of the Comptroller of Public Accounts in advance of each Regular Session of the Legislature to prepare and submit to the Governor and to the Legislature upon its convening a statement under oath showing fully the financial condition of the State Treasury at the close of the last fiscal period and an estimate of the probable receipts and disbursements for the then current fiscal year. There shall also be contained in said statement an itemized estimate of the anticipated revenue based on the laws then in effect that will be received by and for the State from all sources showing the fund accounts to be credited during the succeeding biennium and said statement shall contain such other information as may be required by law. Supplemental statements shall be submitted at any Special Session of the Legislature and at such other times as may be necessary to show probable changes.

"From and after January 1, 1945, save in the case of emergency and imperative public necessity and with a four-fifths vote of the total membership of each House, no appropriation in excess of the cash and anticipated revenue of the funds from which such appropriation is to be made shall be valid. From and after January 1, 1945, no bill containing an appropriation shall be considered as passed or be sent to the Governor for consideration until and unless the Comptroller of Public Accounts endorses his certificate thereon showing that the amount appropriated is within the amount estimated to be available in the affected funds. When the Comptroller finds an appropriation bill exceeds the estimated revenue he shall endorse such finding thereon and return to the House in which same originated. Such information shall be immediately made known to both the House of Representatives and the Senate and the necessary steps shall be taken to bring such appropriation to within the revenue, either by providing additional revenue or reducing the appropriation.

"For the purpose of financing the outstanding obligations of the General Revenue Fund of the State and placing its current accounts on a cash basis the Legislature of the State of Texas is hereby authorized to provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of serial bonds, equal in principal to the total outstanding, valid, and approved obligations owing by said fund on September 1, 1943, provided such bonds shall not draw interest in excess of two (2) per cent per annum and shall mature within twenty (20) years from date."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State of Texas, at the next general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1942, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots, the words:

"For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, requiring appropriation bills passed by the Legislature to be presented to and certified by the Comptroller of Public Accounts as to available funds for payment thereof, limiting appropriations to the total of such available funds, providing for issuance of bonds to pay off State obligations outstanding September 1, 1943, and fixing the duties of the Legislature and Comptroller of Public Accounts with reference thereto."

Those opposing said proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots, the words:
