Allied Army Admits Defeat In Battle Of Flanders; German Drive Costly

Memorial Day

HERE, near the battlefields of the new World war, are the graves of some of the Americans who died in the last one—in the Aisne-Marne American cemetery near Chateau-Thiery on the Meuse River between Paris and Sedan.

Certainly there is nothing in the scene above to justify the most insane of all man-made institutions—war!

Nation Pauses To Pay Tribute

(By The Associated Press)

While war and fears of war grip most of the world, the United States will pause today to pay tribute to its soldier dead.

President Roosevelt will lead the nation's observance of Memorial day by laying a wreath on the tomb of the unknown soldier in Arlington National cemetery at 10:30 a. m. (CST).

In Washington, as elsewhere, parades, speeches and sporting events will highlight the day.

To Decorate Graves

After the president visits the tomb, veterans organizations will place wreaths there every two minutes until 12:25 p. m. Boy Scouts will decorate the graves of the hero dead while three military services and scores of patriotic groups parade on Constitution avenue. Paul V. McNutt, federal security administrator, will deliver the principal address at the cemetery. Joseph Bentonelli of the Metropolitan Opera company will sing.

Seventy-five thousand persons are expected to march in New York City parades. Mrs. Roosevelt will speak on "Peace and the Significant Challenge of Memorial Day This Year" at services at Fernclliffe cemetery, Ardsley, N. Y.

Governor To Speak

Gov. Arthur H. James of Pennsylvania will speak from the Gettysburg battlefield. At the national

Operation Performed On Lucian Thomas

Surgery was performed Wednesday in Kirksville, Mo., in an attempt to correct paralysis of Lucian Thomas' lower limbs, Mrs. J. N. Nislar of 2105 Broadway was informed.

A brother, Jack Thomas, said the paralyzed youth was resting well Wednesday night, although it was too early to determine success of the operation. A specialist performed the operation on Thomas' back.

The Thomas brothers left Lubbock last Wednesday in a specially equipped automobile.

Lucian Thomas was injured in an automobile accident last summer, his injuries resulting in the paralyzed condition.

GENERAL CONDEMNED

PARIS, May 29. (AP) — General Henri Bodet, of the French medical corps, was condemned to six months in prison by the Paris military tribunal yesterday for abandonment of his post (12 words censored) in the Sedan sector during the night of May 15.

Teaching At Texas Tech Handicapped

Arts And Science Division Plagued By Overcrowding

By OPAL McMAHON
Avalanche Staff Writer

ON AN office wall at Texas Technological college hangs a blueprint indicating an administration building twice the size of the present structure.

According to original plans, drawn when the college was established, the wings would extend southward from the building now in use.

"If we had this administration building completed and furnished and could move into it tomorrow we should not then have too much space for the needs of effective teaching," said Dr. James M. Gordon, dean of arts and sciences.

Far Into The Future

Dean Gordon, however, did not dwell upon the subject of a larger building. Fulfillment of the dream of a completed administration building is not expected in the near future.

One of the more serious needs of the arts and sciences division is for additional teaching force. "A conservative estimate would call for 12 additional teachers, even if the enrollment did not increase another year," said Dean Gordon.

The arts and sciences division serves not only those students who

Memorial Day To Be Observed

Memorial day will be marked today in Lubbock by the decoration of graves of ex-service men of three wars by Lubbock's two service organizations.

Three member banks of Lubbock Clearing House association will be closed to business, as will First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Lubbock. Federal employes will observe the holiday.

Appeal Is Made

First designated for decoration of graves of deceased Civil war veterans, the observance has been expanded to include those who have served in armed forces of the United States during the Spanish-American and World wars.

Final appeal for flowers was made Wednesday by members of a committee representing the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars for services this afternoon.

Flowers should be left at the home of Allen Bros. post of the American Legion, 910 Texas avenue, before 8 o'clock this afternoon.

Services will be held in the audi-

Elementary Summer School May Close

Summer classes in elementary grades will be closed if enrollment has not increased to a number sufficient to warrant hiring a teacher for those classes, Supt. W. B. Irvin said Wednesday night.

Although no figure was given, the enrollment was too small thus far to make continuance of class practical, Dr. Irvin announced. He set Tuesday as deadline for decision on the matter.

At close of registration Wednesday afternoon, 126 students had enrolled in Senior High school and 19 at Junior High school.

Deportation Of Harry Bridges Before House

Right-Of-Way Given; Speedy Passage Forecast

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Legislation for the summary deportation of Harry R. Bridges, west coast CIO leader, won the right-of-way to the House floor today by unanimous vote of the rules committee, and informed members predicted its speedy passage.

Majority Leader Rayburn (D-Tex) said, however, that no plans had been made to bring the measure up for debate. No such action has ever before been taken by Congress against an individual.

Undesirable Alien

The rules committee heard from Rep. Allen (D-La), author of the bill, that the House immigration committee was convinced that Bridges was an "undesirable" alien.

"Bridges is regarded by the framers of this bill as a menace to the interests of this country," the committee reported. "His close association with known Communists was brought out and admitted by him in the government's warrant hearing in his deportation case during the summer of 1939."

"It is felt that in these days when national interests are in jeopardy and our nation may at any time become involved in war, it is not a time to equivocate."

Allen's bill would direct the secretary of labor to take Bridges into custody and deport him to Australia, of which he is a subject. He has started proceedings to become an American citizen.

Secretary Perkins dismissed deportation proceedings against Bridges after Dean James M. Landis of the Harvard law school conducted an exhaustive hearing and reported that there had been no showing that Bridges advocated overthrow of the government or was a member of the Communist party.

PREFERS DEPORTATION

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29. — Harry Bridges, California CIO director, charged today that congressional legislation designed to deport him was part of an employer move to get him out of the country "by any device possible."

"I assert again," the labor leader stated, "that my efforts in behalf of the union men who elected me to represent them comprise the real and only reason why private interests want me deported.

"I don't want to be deported. But I would rather be deported than compromise even to the slightest extent the trust which union people have placed in me."

Gamelin Reported To Have Killed Himself

ROME, May 30 (Thursday) (AP)—Il Popolo d'Italia's correspondent in Bern, Switzerland, reported briefly today that the French generalissimo, Maurice Gustave Gamelin, is "understood to have killed himself following definite instructions of the French high command."

General Corap, who commanded the French 9th army which was overrun in the German breakthrough at Sedan, the correspondent said, had been executed.

Gamelin was removed from command and replaced by General Maxine Weygand after the Sedan disaster to the French forces.

Flood Sluices Are Opened To Protect Retreating Troops

Nazis Are Left In Control Of Industrial Region Of Northern France; Belgian King Is Charged With Betraying Allied Forces

As The Allies Tell It

By HENRY C. CASSIDY
Associated Press Staff Writer

PARIS, May 29.—The Allies tonight gave up as lost the battle of Flanders and, in a great retreat, opened the flood sluices around Dunkerque to guard their last port of escape on the sea.

The bloody conflict in the north was all but over. The Germans, thus, were left substantially in control of France's northern industrial region and her northwest coast, across from England.

Blamed On Leopold

At least, however, the battle had given the Allies time to build a strong southern front along the Somme and Aisne rivers, for 200 miles across France.

The virtual collapse of the Allied cause in Flanders, after the Belgian army's surrender, ordered by King Leopold, left their flanks laid open—came amid scenes of fire and flood.

While the waters rose steadily in the vast system of streams around Dunkerque, French divisions fought across the tortured landscape to hold the rear while British troops defended the main points of passage for the main forces seeking the coastline.

Resistance Rallied

The Allies brought on the inundation by opening the locks southwest and northeast of Dunkerque, on the great canal that flows by the city and follows the coast for many miles.

In Dunkerque, the last Allied resistance was rallied under Vice Admiral Jean Marie Abrial, 61-year-old commander of the port. The Allied armies, navies and air forces fought together in an effort to save as much as possible from the wreckage of Flanders.

The retreat was harassed by heavy German fire. Some Belgian units, refusing to lay down their arms despite their king's order to capitulate, were reported still fighting beside the British and French.

Battlefield Lighted

A single French division which had been stationed with the Belgians as the backbone of their front tried to hold back the Nazi rush in the Nieuport-Dixmude sector, a World war battlefield on the coast northeast of Dunkerque.

Suicide squads also held out on the eastern and southern sides of the Allied path to the sea. Some Allied units had to fight through German columns.

Dunkerque, manned by French sailors, was the last island of solid Allied positions.

The rest of the battlefield was a maelstrom of free-for-all fighting, lighted up by blazing fires.

Airplanes tangled in the heavy clouds hanging over the battle area. Allied navy dive-bombers, using the low-flying tactics they employ

Jury Completed For Case Today

Selection of a jury to hear the second of two contested criminal cases in United States district court was completed shortly before 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and taking of testimony is to start at the opening of court this morning at 10 o'clock, Judge T. Whitfield Davidson, presiding, announced.

Jurors not engaged in the case of the government against Dr. J. F. Campbell of O'Donnell, charged with violaton of the Harrison anti-narcotic act, were excused until 10 o'clock Friday. Some of them had served in another criminal case Wednesday.

Given 18 Months

After being out for an hour and 20 minutes, a jury in the case against Paul Anthony Tyler of Levelland, charged with impersonating an officer, returned a verdict of guilty. Judge Davidson gave Tyler 18 months in the federal penitentiary.

Clyde O. Eastus, U.S. district attorney and his assistant, W. P. Fonville, said the government expected to use approximately 12 witnesses and that it would take half a day to present the government's case. George W. Dupree of Crenshaw, Dupree and Milam said defense would need as much time in presenting an expected 18 witnesses, including several physicians.

Judge Davidson announced a civil jury case, scheduled for today, would probably be called Friday morning. Securing of the panel to try the Campbell case consumed more than an hour. Two members of the panel were excused because of busi-

Forgery Charge Halts Plans For Student

FORT WORTH, May 29. (AP) — A charge that Joseph William Dunlap forged a $2.65 check in Callahan county last April bobbed up today to change plans for transferring the former Colorado City ministerial student and college athlete at Hardin-Simmons to the penitentiary on Fort Worth burglary convictions.

Callahan county officers placed a "hold" order with Sheriff A. B. Carter and asked that Dunlap, 20, be held here until the grand jury meeting at Baird Monday can dispose of the case.

Germans Admit Great Losses

As The Germans Tell It

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, May 29. — Admittedly taking great losses themselves in a crunching drive against cornered British and French who were selling themselves dearly, the German army today nevertheless expected the capitulation at any moment of the half million troops fighting a suicide battle in Flanders.

The Germans were reported smashing furiously with hundreds of dive bombers, tanks and massed artillery in an effort to ring down speedily the curtain on the Flanders carnage.

Penned In Little Space

The British and French were cut apart in the general vicinity of Lille, the British to the north and the French to the south of that city, their predicament turned to disaster by the sudden surrender yesterday of 300,000 Belgians. Only a miracle, Germans said, could prevent their annihilation or capitulation. They spoke of the desirability of a quick Allied surrender to end "this futile waste of blood."

Then, if wide speculation is borne out, there will be a tremendous push on Paris—not England.

In the main part of the Allied triangle, pushed against the channel and blazing Dunkerque, are the men of the British expeditionary force which rushed in 19 days ago to resist the invasion of Belgium.

In the broken-off tip of the triangle; south of Lille, stand the Frenchmen who tried to break out

Woman Who Escaped Odessa Jail Nabbed

TIPTON, Ind., May 29. (AP) — A young woman, identified by Sheriff C. D. Hobbs as Isabelle Messmer, 24, of Elwood, Ind. who escaped jail April 8 at Odessa, Texas, was arrested today as she left a motion picture theater.

She first denied being the Messmer woman, Hobbs said, but admitted her identity when informed her fingerprints conformed to those in the Messmer file at the Pendleton state police post.

She was serving a three-year term for the slaying of a baseball player when she escaped from jail, one of a series of escapades in which she has figured in various sections of the country.

Sheriff Hobbs said an Elwood business man, in Tipton on business, recognized Miss Messmer on a downtown street and notified the sheriff's office and state police.

Argentine Merchant Ship Sunk By Nazis

BUENOS AIRES, May 29. (AP)—The Argentine foreign ministry announced tonight the Argentine merchantman Uruguay, 3425 tons, had been torpedoed and sunk off the Spanish coast.

The ship was carrying grain to Ireland, and was reported sunk 160 miles off Cape Villano.

(Two other ships, a British tanker, and a French vessel, were sunk by German submarines off the Spanish northwest coast today).

SABOTAGE PROBED

DUBLIN, May 29. (AP)—The home of Dr. Eduard Hempel, German minister to Ireland, was slightly damaged by fire tonight. Officials said an overheated iron caused the blaze, but authorities were understood to be investigating the theory that sabotage may have been responsible.

FHA Objects To Name Of Garlic Avenue

BREMERTON, Wash., May 29 (AP) J. R. Jensen, East Bremerton farmer, cut up his 40-acre farm and sold building lots.

Several builders applied for FHA loans but Jensen said the applications were returned with the notation the FHA would like to have changed the name of the street on which the houses were to be built.

It was Garlic avenue.

But Jensen contended he had raised garlic in that area and Garlic avenue it would remain.

Texans Worried About Bomb-Proof Roofs

DALLAS, May 29. (AP)—Fears of a German air attack have caused worried citizens of San Antonio, Austin, San Angelo and Dallas to seek plans for bombproof shelters from John Pies, city building inspector.

Pies said he was giving each applicant the address of a publication in position to furnish the plans developed by English architects.

Coronado Celebration Gets Underway

(By The Associated Press)

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., May 29.—The Southwest was embarked today on a summer-long whoop-er-up celebration of its 400th birthday.

With all the historical trappings from whiskers to iron 16th century bonnets, the Coronado cuarto-centennial was launched with a flurry that is to carry it through New Mexico, west Texas, Arizona and Colorado this year, and Kansas and Oklahoma in 1941.

It marks the 400th anniversary of the Southwest's first tourist, Don Francisco Vasquez de Coronado, who marked his conquistadores north from Mexico in 1540 in search of gold and adventure, and claimed the Southwest for Spain.

Juan Francisco de Cardenas, Spanish ambassador to the United States, formally opened the cuarto-centennial at the ancient ruins of Tiguex pueblo 20 miles north of Albuquerque.

It was here, beside the Rio Grande and sheltered by the towering west face of the Sandia mountains, that Coronado and his men wintered during 1540-41.

"The southwest of the United States cannot forget that its first culture was Spanish, and that it contains within itself the tradition and reminiscence of that that civilization," said Ambassador Cardenas.

With Governor John E. Miles, Cardenas dedicated the Coronado national museum erected near the ancient Indian pueblo and across the Rio Grande from the town of Bernalillo.

The governor, paying tribute to the courage of the conquistadors, called upon New Mexico and the southwest to "pay tribute to the zeal and leadership of . . . all of our Spanish-American citizens."

Tonight the premiere of the "Coronado Entrada"—A pageant depicting the travels of Coronado from Compostela, Mexico, to the Gran Quivira in Kansas—was staged by 1,000 bearded, armored actors before the estimated audience of 7,500.

The entrada is the only formalized feature of the celebration, and is to travel several thousand miles over the Southwest, showing in various cities.

Cal Farley Is Guest Of Club

Details of operation of the famous Maverick club of Amarillo, one of the best known clubs for boys, were given Rotarians Wednesday noon in a talk at a club luncheon in Lubbock hotel by Cal Farley, past president of the Amarillo Rotary club and one of the sponsors of the work with boys.

Dean James M. Gordon and W. W. Condray were co-chairmen of the meeting, with Dean Gordon presiding and introducing the speaker. Vice-president Overton W. Ribble was in charge of the meeting and A. T. Cocanougher was asked to give instructions to Roy Leasure, a new member.

Music Presented

President Irving Tolzein of the Amarillo club played a violin number at the close of the program. He also spoke briefly on the work. Farley brought with him his daughter, Miss Jean, and Misses Marilyn Cornelious and Vesta O'Dell. Miss O'Dell was pianist for two duets and a tap dance for the others and also played a piano number. She won the recent state high school piano contest at Waco, it was announced.

Farley told of the organization of the Maverick club, seven and a half years ago by Emmett Galloway, now of Lubbock. At present, he said, the club has 640 active members.

The club has a 40-acre tract at Old Tascosa, former pioneer North Panhandle county seat, where a group of boys are living. The ranch has been used as a club for a year and a half and there are now 19 boys there, working the place and "enjoying" rural life. "We have only lost one boy," Farley added.

Nine acres are irrigated, springs furnishing the water. On the place are seven cows, which the boys milk, 300 chickens, a span of mules used to work the garden, some sheep, hogs and calves. Last year the boys raised and canned enough vegetables to supply their table throughout the year. This year they hope to have 2,000 gallons of fruits and vegetables.

Farley said the boys, the youngest seven and the oldest 15, handle all of the governmental problems of the farm. If a youngster becomes unruly he is "straightened out."

After the meeting most of the Rotarians remained to see a 10-minute reel showing activities at the ranch and also of the Maverick club.

Secretary Perkins Is Called Incompetent

WASHINGTON, May 29. (AP) — Secretary Perkins, called a "notorious incompetent" by Representative Taber (R-NY), retorted today that her regime had "cleared up irregularities and dishonest situations" found in the immigration service when she took control in 1933.

Miss Perkins wrote Taber that she would ignore his opinion about her competency, but that she felt compelled to label as "not true" his assertion in House debate Monday that she "has steadily and steadfastly failed and refused to enforce the immigration law and continuously admitted and kept here those who were not entitled to stay."

The House voted this week to hasten the transfer of the immigration service from Miss Perkins' labor department to the justice department.

Athletes Winners Of Art Scholarships

AUSTIN, May 29. (AP)—Art is no sissy game.

A star football end, a boxing sailor, and a former three-letter high school athlete are winners of the first University of Texas art scholarships.

Joseph F. Schwarting of Waco, Longhorn end; George Patrick Buffington of Navasota, for two years a sailor on a tanker and now a Golden Glove tournament boxer; and Luther A. Bookout, jr., of Santa Rosa, high school athlete and now basketball and handball intramural tournament player, will be awarded the $130 Harriet F. Batts art scholarship for their excellence in painting and sculpture, Ward Lockwood, art department chairman, announced today.

News Briefs

Morton residents expect a better rodeo this year than ever before when the annual affair is held the last two days of August, J. A. Morrow, a deputy under Sheriff Tom Standefer, said Wednesday here. The sheriff again will be general manager.

William P. Walker, jr., of Crosbyton, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Walker, who is to graduate this week from Texas A. & M. college, has been employed by the Sinclair Oil company at Houston, his father said Wednesday. The young man, a graduate of Crosbyton high school, is receiving a degree in chemical engineering.

A charter was granted Lubbock Kiwanis club Wednesday in Austin, according to an Associated Press report. George P. Kuykendall, Charles H. Read and W. C. Wood were listed as incorporators. This was no capital stock.

Light showers fell Wednesday on several points of the South Plains, none apparently dampening the soil more than enough to delay farm work more than a half-day. Lubbock received .07 inches, according to a report of Municipal airport.

Texas Unemployment Compensation commission offices at 1207 Thirteenth street will be closed today in observance of Memorial day, L. S. Morgan, director, announced Wednesday night.

One discordant note was sounded with the report Philadelphia police would be assigned to guard services at Fort Hill, near Fort Washington, Pa., The police assignment was made after American Legion officials reported they heard that the German-American bund planned to hold a "special meeting" simultaneously with the memorial day service.

In Detroit only American flags will fly in the parade. There Herbert Busse, German submarine commander in the World war and commander of the Detroit German Veterans' post, said his group had withdrawn from the parade "to avoid any embarrassment to other foreign groups." Big Tourist Year In Southwest Predicted

EL PASO, May 29. (AP)—H. W. Dodge, of New York, vice president of the Texas company, predicted today that the Southwest would experience its biggest tourist year in history during 1940.

Dodge, making a tour of the Southwest, said his company was making preparations to handle the expected record crowd of tourists in this section of the United States.

The oil company vice president was accompanied by C. B. Barrett, Houston, sales manager, and L. M. Green, Dallas, district manager. They planned to visit New Mexico cities before ending their tour.

Suit Dismissed After Tax Paid

AUSTIN, May 29 (AP)—Payment of $16,623.16 in state chain store taxes today brought dismissal of a suit in which the Lone Star Gas corporation and subsidiaries fought the tax.

The third court of civil appeals dismissed the litigation on motion of the company which said the case was moot since the supreme court recently ruled that the tax should be levied on a company and its subsidiaries as a single entity and not individually against the various concerns.

This ruling was given in the case of H. E. Butt Grocery company and the Southwest Texas Grocery corporation which jointly operate more than 30 stores although they are separate corporations. Coincidentally the supreme court today overruled a motion for rehearing in the Butt case.

Chain store tax payments by the gas companies were made as follows:

Community Natural Gas company $8,968; Texas Cities Gas company $4,122; Lone Star Gas corporation $1,102; Dallas Gas company $1,543, and County Gas company $886.

ness relationships with the defendant.

Examinations Lengthy

Trial of Tyler consumed most of the day. The defendant and his wife were the only defense witnesses. The government used Josph E. Yates of Morton, the alleged victim, M. B Boone of Lubbock; J. A. Morrow, Cochran county deputy sheriff and U.S. Marshall J. R. Wright as witnesses. Examinations of Yates and Tyler were lengthy. Eugene Mathis, who recently moved to Lubbock from San Angelo, was defense attorney.

Arguments were made by both Ponvile and Eastus for the government and Mathis and Judge Davidson gave an extended charge to the jury before it retired at mid-afternoon. Tyler was charged with having represented himself to be a deputy U.S. marshal.

Chadwick Application For Writ Withdrawn

Withdrawal of an application for a writ of habeas corpus sought by Phillip Chadwick of Fort Worth to secure lowering of his bond on federal charges was announced Wednesday afternoon in U. S. district court by Howard Dailey, his attorney, following a lengthy session in chambers with Judge T. Whitfield Davidson and Clyde O. Eastus, U. S. district attorney.

Dailey filed the writ in Fort Worth and Judge Davidson agreed to hear the matter Wednesday. The meeting was in the office of Judge Davidson before opening of the afternoon session.

Charge Not Pressed

Chadwick was arrested in Chicago and it was there, Dailey explained, a bond of $15,000 was set, which he and his attorney felt too high. Eastus said the bond for two cases filed in Fort Worth was $10,000 on 42 counts alleging violation of the Harrison anti-narcotic act and $2,500 on a charge of conspiring to harbor a fugitive from justice. It was agreed that these bonds would be satisfactory to the defendant.

"I think we can raise the bonds in Fort Worth," said Dailey after the hearing.

The attorney also said that a charge, filed in Fort Worth, alleging Chadwick was fleeing from justice, due to a complaint having been filed on the West Coast, would not be pressed for the present and that Chadwick would be released on his own recognizance in this case.

Solution Of Plane Crash Hinges On One

LOS ANGELES, May 29 (AP) — Possible solution of an army bombing plane crash in Mohave desert wastelands that killed six March field aviators outright hinged today on recovery of a lone survivor.

Formal inquiry into the accident that occurred shortly after the 12-ton Douglas B-18 bomber completed a dummy bombing mission on Muroc dry lake was under way by an army board.

The sole survivor, Sergt. John B. Stewart of Midway, Ala., is in a critical condition but is reported to have "responded well" to blood transfusions.

Killed were Second Lieut. Jess A. Smith, 30, son of Mrs. Mary Smith of Fort Collins, Colo.; Second Lieut. Charles A. Nisbett, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard A. Nisbett of Alton, Ill.; Sergt. Thurman T. Owens, son of Mrs. Rosa Noland, Ardmore, Okla.; Private Wayne G. Kaufman, son of Mrs. Rita L. Kaufman, Burlington, Ia., and Cloid Kaufman, Tyrone, N. M.; Private Doyle H. Bean, Kirbyville, Tex., and Private Eugene A. Schulz, son of Henry G. Schulz, Twin Falls, Idaho.

Irish Will Fight Each Other But Unite Against Any Invading Enemies

By J. NORMAN LODGE
Associated Press Staff Writer

DUBLIN, May 29. — Reservists called back to military service today placed Ireland's standing army on a war footing while political factions found a new unity and the Dail cast away party lines for the first time since the World war.

Here in Dublin there was no fuss or hysteria but volunteers—plus regulars—streamed into service.

Will Be United

The newspapers which, like the Dail, ordinarily are divided in opinion, unanimously agreed that while two Irishmen may fight each other they will unite against another foe.

"Eire if invaded," said one high-ranking officer in a statement that seemed to express the general view, "will fight to the last bullet, then use rifles as clubs.

"We left the bullet holes of 1922 in this O'Connel street building as a constant reminder to our people that our liberty was dearly bought.

"It will be more dearly surrendered."

Power To Recommend

Officials insisted there would be no conscription for conscription is anathema to Eire.

The newly formed national defense committee will be in effect a supreme war commission. Although it will have no executive powers as such, it will have the power of recommendation and the responsibility for all major policy arising out of the country's present dangerous condition.

The acceptance by William T. Cosgrave, leader of the Fine Gael opposition, of Premier Eamon de Valera's solemn "unity call" had made this solid front possible.

Tech Examinations End This Afternoon

Examinations will end this afternoon at Texas Technological college and many students will leave for their homes.

Approximately 100 students had left the men's dormitories Wednesday afternoon after completing their examinations.

A series of commencement activities will keep graduating students busy until after the commencement service Monday night.

The dormitories will not close between end of the long session and opening of the summer session, although meals will not be served June 4 and 5, said Miss Mozelle Craddock, business manager. Registration for the first term is scheduled for June 6.

BARONESS SENTENCED

PARIS, May 29 (AP)—The Baroness von Eineim was sentenced to death in Absentia tonight by a military tribunal for espionage.

Clifford Jones Back From Austin Meeting

After attending a conference called in Austin by Governor O'Daniel, Dr. Clifford B. Jones, president of Texas Technological college, had returned Wednesday.

The conference called by the governor was in interest of defense and announcement was made later by the governor of a defense committee composed of department heads and presidents of several state institutions. Dr. Jones is a member of the committee.

Any Texas citizens with information on subversive activities are to address communication directly to the governor. Reports from anonymous sources will receive attention but it was urged that informants sign their names, which they may do with full assurance that the information will not be divulged except to the proper sources, said Dr. Jones.

Before going to Austin Dr. Jones had attended funeral services in Abilene for Mrs. H. L. Bentley. After the Austin conference he went to Fort Worth for conferences, regarding defense and other business.

Littlefield CCC To Be Served Barbecue

Littlefield CCC enrollees will be guests at a barbecue given by Ellis Faust, Eldridge Faust, Carl Smith and other cooperators of the camp Friday night, said A. B. Chapman, camp superintendent.

O. T. Williams, area conservationist of the soil conservation service, and members of his staff were invited by Chapman to attend. There are 170 members of the camp and several guests are expected.

Leopold's Action Is Upheld By An Aide

LONDON, May 29 (U.P.)—Admiral Sir Roger Keyes, who was an aide to Leopold, king of the Belgians, asked today that judgment be suspended for a time on the king's action in ordering his troops to capitulate to German arms.

Keyes, ranked as a special British liaison officer in Belgium, was with Leopold until late Monday.

"Some very hard things have been said in this country and France about the action taken by King Leopold in bringing about a cessation of hostilities in that part of Belgium occupied by his troops," Keyes said. "I trust that judgment will be suspended on a most gallant soldier until all of the facts are known."

The "back-to-Reich" movement of Germans in Baltic states, Polish Galicia, and Russian Volhynia has involved to date about 200,000 persons.

Las Chaparritas And Sub-Deb Clubs Farewell Dances Feature Soc

The Woman's Angle
by Margaret Turner

THIS Memorial day we are sure that many will join the writer in the belief that we should spend billions for defense but should not send one man to the slaughter in Europe. Someone has penned this thought that seems especially appropriate at this time:

"Instead of honor from glib tongue
Say only that they died too young;
Think of the frustrate hopes beneath,
Before you lay your formal wreath;
And save the fervor of your breath
To keep more youth from early death."

CREDIT FOR GIFT

OF interest to hundreds of club women in the district is a letter that is circulating in explanation, once and for all time we hope, of Mrs. Clara Driscoll's magnificent gift to State Federated club headquarters in Austin. Those who attended the recent seventh district convention in Shamrock will remember that at one time the question arose as to WHO was responsible for the loan being transferred into a gift.

While we couldn't see what difference it made apparently it was a big issue and quite a stir has been made over the matter. A prominent club woman in the district wrote the generous donor asking her to explain how it came about. Her reply was as follows:

"In answer to your letter in regard to my purchase of the Federated headquarters at Austin, I want to state that my gift to the club women of Texas of $92,000.00 was made WITHOUT the influence or suggestion of anyone. In fact no one knew of my decision to make this gift until the night, when at a meeting of the fifth district of the Federation at Corpus Christi, I, in a talk, announced my intention of giving the club house to the Federation. In all of my work for the good of my state it had been my habit to make up my own mind in regard to such matters and I have never permitted anyone to advise me. My interest in the Federation is, as you will understand, and as I have evidenced, sincere, and it is not my intention or desire to in any way inject my influence into the affairs of the Federation and the election of their officers.

"I have appreciated more than I can say the gratitude of the women for what it was my pleasure to do for them."

Which should answer the question of who influenced Mrs. Driscoll for all time to come. Sh says no one did and she ought to know.

IN THE MAIL

DEAR MISS TURNER: Is it a breach of etiquette for girls to tip girl car hops? After all, we tip hair dressers, etc., I will certainly appreciate it if you answer this in your column, sometime when you have room.

Thanks, Jayne K.

Dear Jayne K.: We suppose unless there is a ruling against tips where the girls are employed it's perfectly all right to leave a tip. After all those young girls work hard, in all kinds of weather and long hours and we are sure a few dimes help here and there. In fact we have heard of places, although not in Lubbock, where girl car hops are not paid a salary but make their livings from tips left by generous patrons.

SPELLING TEST

A BLITZKRIEG for spellers was devised recently in Austin by Dr. L. L. Click, University professor of English who says any person who misses fewer than eight words in the following story will rate a grade of excellent:

"An irreligious peddler and an embarrassed cobbler were harassed by bulletins charging that they kidnaped a bottle of asafoetida to inoculate some picnicking acquaintances against catarrh.

"Your innuendo is sacrilegious,' spieled the peddler, fingering a woolly queue which he used to camouflage his skull.

"'I saw the thief, a traveler in the cemetery, reveling in the symmetry of the obelisks.'

"His alibi seemed impregnable enough to supersede legal procedure; so the sheriff recommended that the bailiff release him.

"'This plaguy, desiccated and rarefied air will give him a hemorrhage anyway,' he said."

Mrs. Charlie Watson who loves words like a fat woman eats candy "gave out" the list to every one whom she could corner. Her husband, telegraph editor, who has been editing the evening papers that contain those war stories filled with three dollar words, missed five. Another editor, whose name we will not reveal but whose initials are CWR, missed twelve. As for us, we stopped when we got to asafoetida.

Miss Marilyn Riggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Riggs of 1811 Ninth street is being presented tonight at 8:30 in a junior voice recital by Miss Myrtle Dunn, 1811 Ninth street. Miss Riggs is a student at Texas Technological college.

The numbers will consist of: Lungi del caro bene (arranged by Huhn), O, Had I Jubal's Lyre (Handel), Violette (Scarlatti); aria, Il Est Doux, Il Est Bon (Massenet); Songs My Mother Taught Me (Dvorak), Thous Art So Like a Flower (Schumann), Sapphic Ode (Brahms), Jeunes Fillettes (Wecherlin); Dusk Comes Floating By (Bunker), By a Lonely Forest Pathway (Griffes), A Winter Afternoon (Manning) and When I Have Sung My Songs (Charles).

The recital is open to the public.

Informal Tea Is Held At Smith Residence

Mrs. Marlin R. Smith, 2508 Twenty-fourth street, entertained with an informal tea Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, honoring Miss Imogene Birdwell, bride-elect of Lloyd Price.

The hostess presented the honoree with a recipe box and guests wrote favorite recipes for her. She received a shower of kitchen articles.

Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. C. J. Leland of Fort Worth, presided at the serving table which was laid with a green cloth and decorated with bowls of pink roses.

There were about sixteen guests.

Screen Plants Topic For Club Lecture

"Armour river privet is the best screen plant for it does not shed its leaves until new ones come on in the spring," Miss Clara Pratt, home demonstration agent, told members of the Arnett-Benson Home Demonstration club Wednesday afternoon at a meeting with Mrs. A. R. Pendley. Elder, sumac, lilacs, while good plants for screens, lose their leaves sooner in the fall than the privet, she pointed out.

Mrs. C. C. Heatley presided for a business meeting and Mrs. L. Vannoy discussed Lubbock county whole farm demonstrations.

Others atending were Mesdames J. E. Reid, C. A. Putman, Otis Jones, Bryan Landers, C. R. Minor, H. C. Cox, J. P. Wages and Ed Holcomb, members, and Mrs. C. D. Pendley, a guest. The club will meet June 6 with Mrs. Putman.

City Ordinance Is Acted Upon

AUSTIN, May 29. (U.P.)—In a five-page opinion today the Texas court of criminal appeals discussed a city ordinance of Dallas regulating dance halls and held part of the ordinance valid and part of it invalid.

The part held invalid required operators of class A halls to have a special officer in attendance and to pay a fee of $5 a day for that purpose.

The opinion said in part:

"We think that the city has the power to classify these places of public amusement into the classes here found (classes A, B, C and D) and to tax them for license purposes as set forth in the ordinance.

Section Is Separate

"We think that section 8 of this ordinance, providing for the payment of $5 per day for a city policeman to be in attendance at any dance given in class A hall, offends against the 14th amendment to the constitution of the United States, and infringes against the private right of contract, and that such section 8 is void and of no force and effect.

"We think section 8 is separable, and its failure will not affect the remaining portions of such ordinance."

The decision was made in affirming refusal of a Dallas county court to grant a writ of habeas corpus to Mrs. O. A. Newberg when she was charged by complaint in corporation court with violations of the ordinance. The appellate court here said:

"We find the complaint under which relator is held contains three other and further counts which state a legal accusation against her, and we therefore affirm the judgment of the lower court remanding relator to the custody of the chief of police of Dallas."

Class A halls are dine and dance establishments.

Mystery Of Human Bones Found Near Brownwood Solved

BROWNWOOD, May 29. (A.P.)—Some old skulls and human bones that T. D. Snipes once used in a drug store window advertisement had everyone worried around here for a while today.

Two youngsters found the bones in the basement of a Brownwood residence and Constable Wayne Weems started an investigation.

Snipes heard about it and explained he had left the bones in the basement when he moved.

Harbor Projects Said Needed For Defense

WASHINGTON, May 29. (A.P.) — Army officers told the House rivers and harbors committee today that the 19 harbor projects in a bill prepared by Chairman Mansfield (D-Tex) were connected directly with military establishments, and were considered "essential" by the government's defense agencies.

The committee postponed final action on the $23,823,000 authorization measure until Friday, when it will discuss additional projects which some members of Congress want to add to the bill.

Principal Dies After Leading 300 To Safety

LIMA, O., May 29. (U.P.) — L. L. Weaver, 58, principal of Lima's Lincoln elementary school, collapsed and died today a few minutes after he led 300 pupils safely outside when the building was struck by lightning. Death was believed caused by cerebral hemorrhage induced by excitement.

The lightning tore off a corner of the roof and topped a chimney.

U.S. Vessels On Way To Europe

WASHINGTON, May 29. (U.P.) — Three American warships are en route to Europe today to double this country's naval forces in those waters and protect American citizens and interests.

Secretary of the Navy Charles Edison announced last night that the three warships—the heavy cruiser Vincennes and the destroyers Truxton and Simpson — had left American waters and were proceeding to Lisbon, Portugal. They will join the present European squadron of the navy, now based at Lisbon—the light cruiser Trenton and the destroyers Dickerson and Herbert.

There was no official explanation of the move beyond Edison's statement that it was "for the purpose of protecting American interests."

Did Not Elaborate

It was understood that the chief purpose is to have units available for making quick dashes into ports within the combat zones to remove American citizens in case the situation required their sudden evacuation. These warships could take the passengers to some neutral port such as Lisbon for normal transportation to the United States.

It followed by only a few hours a state department announcement that the S. S. Washington, a United States line vessel, would leave New York Thursday to bring back Americans in the war zone. The S. S. President Roosevelt already is en route to Ireland—with the combat zone in which American shipping has been proscribed—to pick up American wishing to come home.

Edison's annodncement said that the detachment was "not convoying any merchant vessels" across the Atlantic, but did not elaborate or mention the S. S. President Roosevelt or Washington specifically.

Soil District Will Be Talked At Meet

MULESHOE, May 29—W. G. Kennedy of Muleshoe, prominent farmer and member of the state soil conservation board, will conduct a hearing here Saturday on a proposal to set up a soil conservation district for Bailey county.

Farmers petitioned the board for an election and the meeting is being held to determine if it is advisable. Sam Logan, county farm agent, was in charge of circulation of a petition asking for the hearing and more than the required number of signatures were secured.

Meeting will be in the district courtroom.

Brownfield Employs Inspector Of Meats

Hoover Attacks FDR Committee

NEW YORK, May 29 (U.P.)—Former President Herbert Hoover said today that the country "will be disappointed that President Roosevelt has chosen to set up another advisory committee instead of reorganizing the war and navy departments and appointing somebody from industry for the production of munitions."

Mr. Hoover's statement follows:

"In view of the crisis we face and all the exposures of the past month, the country will be disappointed that President Roosevelt has chosen to set up another advisory committee instead of reorganizing the war and navy departments and appointing somebody from industry for the production of munitions. There are three or four good men on this committee, and the country will gain confidence in it if it boldly insists that these things be done at once.

"Certainly Assistant Secretary of War Johnson last night demonstrated that his capacities at political smearing exceed the capacities he has shown in past years in production of airplanes and guns.

"We need action now and not advisory reports for the files."

Power For Maritime Commission Okayed

WASHINGTON, May 29 (A.P.)—The Senate passed today legislation which would give the maritime commission broad powers to adjust ship subsidies when necessary to meet emergency conditions caused by war.

Chairman Bailey (D-NC) of the Senate commerce committee said the neutrality act provision barring American vessels from combat areas had taken away many of the most profitable shipping routes and that possible extension of the combat zone to the Mediterranean might tie up many other vessels.

The legislation would give the maritime commission authority to revise any existing subsidy contracts to meet these conditions with skeleton crews."

Mexican Minister Denies Germany Has Constructed Landing Fields In Mex

Investigations Are Underway

EL PASO, May 29. (U.P.)—Melquiades Angulo G., Mexican minister of communications and public works, today denied that Germany had constructed airplane landing fields in Mexico near the United States border.

"The President of Mexico and several of his cabinet members have made intensive investigations over a period of six months in answer to recurring rumors in Mexico City of such so-called hidden airports near the Rio Grande," Angulo said in a statement to the American press.

Reports Squabbled

"We found that there was absolutely nothing to these reports."

Angulo made his statement in answer to reports in this country that air fields had been constructed along the Rio Grande under German supervision.

"These are reports which apparently have been broadcast by followers of Gen. Juan Andreu Almazan (Candidate for president of Mexico)," Angulo said.

Angulo said that President Lazaro Cardenas of Mexico had received rumors of Nazi-constructed air fields and other alien subversive activity six months ago "from a foreign legation."

On Inspection Tour

"We found these reports without basis, but we are continuing our investigations to prevent any such possibility from taking place," Angulo said. He said that a close watch was being kept on all aliens in Mexico to prevent "our country from becoming a center of espionage in the western hemisphere."

"We are watching our borders closely and daily we patrol our territorial waters along the Mexican coast," Angulo said.

Angulo postponed a trip to Chihuahua City and left this afternoon for Matamoros, Tamaulipas, on an order of President Cardenas, he said, to inspect work of repatriating Mexicans from the United States. Angulo said he would go by train from El Paso to San Antonio, and then drive to Brownsville. He had been here several days on official business.

Two Held On Charge On Un-Americanism

STANTON, May 29. (AP) — Tom Bellflower, Midland, and A. L. Paschall of Miami, Fla., and San Angelo, were held today in lieu of bonds totaling $4,000 on charges of disturbing the peace.

They were arrested after citizens became aroused over alleged un-Americanism and disrespect for the flag, Sheriff Morris Zimmerman said. Members of a religious sect, the two were surrounded by an angry group of citizens after they assertedly distributed literature and played records on porches of people who refused to accept the literature, the sheriff said.

Bible Class Will Install New Officers

Receiving Belgians In U.S. Considered

WASHINGTON, May 29. (AP) — Secretary Hull said today active consideration was being given to the possibility of receiving Belgian refugees in the United States.

The state department chief said conversations had been held with representatives of the British and other governments about many phases of the refugee problem as well as with private individuals and groups.

Hull said also there had been no developments concerning diplomatic relations with the Belgium government now in refuge in Paris. The statement was taken to indicate continuance of United States recognition of the present Belgium government.

Rites Read For James Keever

James B. Keever, longtime resident of the South Plains and a retired business man, was buried Wednesday afternoon in Lubbock cemetery after rites read in Sanders chapel.

Officiating were Rev. Jesse B. Leverett, pastor of the Silverton First Baptist church, and Rev. W. K. Johnson, retired minister of Lubbock.

Mr. Keever died at 5:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Tahoka residence of a daughter, Mrs. L. E. Bigham. He was 88 years old.

Born in Lincoln county, N. C., he was a merchant several years. He was married June 22, 1881, to Miss Alice Bell Douthitt of Wilks county, N. C., and seven children were born.

Survivors Listed

In 1911, Mr. Keever and his family moved to Tahoka and he operated a business several years, later liquidating and moving with Mrs. Keever to Lubbock. They lived here four years and when Mrs. Keever died Mr. Keever spent the rest of his life with his children, mostly at Mrs. Bigham's residence.

He was a member of the Presbyterian church and the IOOF.

Survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Bigham and Mrs. W. C. Bishop of Chillicothe; three sons, E. E. Keever of Pratt, Kas., C. D. Keever of 1619 Ninth street in Lubbock, and James B. Keever, jr., of Hutchinson, Kas.; one sister, Mrs. W. H. Hicks of North Carolina; 16 grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Retail Sales Show Increase In Texas

WASHINGTON, May 29. (AP)—The commerce department reported today that sales of independent retailers in Texas, based on reports from 1,040 stores, were 6.4 per cent higher in April than during the same month last year.

For the first four months of this year sales were 7.6 per cent higher than in the same period of 1939.

Sales in cities of 50,000 to 100,000 decreased an average of 1.6 per cent, in spite of gains of 7. per cent shown by Galveston, and 5.5 per cent by Port Arthur. A drop of 0.1 per cent was registered in cities of 25,000 to 50,000, although Amarillo gained 4.9 per cent and Corpus Christi 2.3.

Sales in cities of 10,000 to 25,000 were 4.5 per cent higher, with Brownsville showing a gain of 12.7 per cent; Pampa, 15.2 and Tyler, 5.

The Jewish synagogue in Posen, former Polish town, will be reconstructed into a swimming pool, German newspapers report.

Brief Bits Of Local News

Funeral rites were read at 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in Plains chapel for Mrs. Jesse C. Godsey, 40, of Lubbock route 1. Burial was in Memorial Park cemetery. She died Tuesday.

Lubbock has been invited to participate in the 1940 fire waste contest sponsored by the United States Chamber of Commerce. A certificate placing Lubbock on the 1939 contest honor roll was received at the chamber of commerce. Lubbock was one of 10 cities in its population classification in the nation, the only one in Texas, to win that honor.

Jas. P. Posey, chief deputy sheriff, has returned with Mrs. Posey from Rising Star, where they vacationed in the home of a daughter, Mrs. C. E. Williams. The Poseys have moved into a new home at 2605 Twenty-first street. Cap Moore, another deputy, and Mrs. Moore will leave on vacation probably Saturday.

It was announced Wednesday that Envoy V. M. Vanaycle of the Salvation Army would leave June 17, but his assignment had not been announced. He came to Lubbock two years ago from Corpus Christi.

Nominated for officials of IOOF lodge 609 were: Bill Stone for noble grand and Allen Mackey, Paul Dennis, Clarence Woods and J. B. Belcher for vice grand. Election will be Tuesday night, when A. B. McCaughan, Ralph Burdett, J. J. Modrell E. L. Keefer and Jack Caraway will receive the initiatory degree.

Funeral will be read at 10 o'clock this morning in Rix chapel for O. W. Toone, 26, Friona teacher who died here Tuesday, and burial will be in Lubbock cemetery. Pallbearers will be faculty members. L. L. Hill will conduct services, assisted by C. C. Dollar, both of Friona.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Huffman of Midland Wednesday morning in Midland, relatives here were informed. Both Mr. and Mrs. Huffman are former students of Texas Technological college. Huffman was business manager of the student body in the 1938-39 session. Mrs. Huffman, the former Miss Nelda McElroy, is the sister of Mrs. Lawrence Banks of 2202 Seventeenth street.

J. G. Hamner and William A. Foster each provided bonds set last week by Judge Daniel A. Blair after a 72nd district court grand jury voted indictments against them. Hamner, charged with forgery of a $58 check, executed $1,000 bail and Foster provided $750 bond on a drunk driving charge.

E. R. Hubbard posted $750 bond Wednesday on a drunk driving charge, filed in justice court of J. T. Inmon. B. J. Patterson of the Texas Highway patrol signed the complaint, prepared by Burton S. Burks, district attorney.

A permit was issued Wednesday to Nathan Douthit, owner, and J. L. Badley, contractor, for construction of a residence at 1318 Twenty-seventh street, to cost $2,750. That permit and three small ones increased total for the week to $24,831, the month to $350,920, and the year to $1,939,978.

A jury in 99th district court of Judge E. L. Pitts deliberated two hours without reaching a verdict Wednesday afternoon in damage action of J. A. Turner and others against George E. Smith and others. The jury will continue deliberation at 9 o'clock this morning. Judgment of $4,000 is asked. The case of the Methodist Episcopal (negro) church against John Pair for possession, will be called for trial after completion of the damage suit, a court official said.

Grady Harrist, deputy sheriff, will return to Lubbock today after accepting custody in El Paso of a Lubbock man charged here with theft by bailee. Police officers of the border city arrested the man on pickup orders of the sheriff's department here. The suspect is charged with theft of a car borrowed from Mrs. Jesse W. James.

Most of the O'Donnell territory has plenty of moisture, said C. H. Doak of O'Donnell, who was in Lubbock Wednesday. Doak said his farm nine miles west of town was in one of the few dry spots.

Mrs. Burleson Asks New Trial

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 29 (AP) — Notice of a motion for a new trial delayed imposition of sentence today on Mrs. May Walker Burleson, Galveston, Texas, woman convicted of manslaughter with recommendation of mercy.

The former artist and suffragette leader was found guilty last night of fatally shooting the woman who succeeded her in marriage to Col. Richard C. Burleson of the U. S. army. The jury's verdict automatically fixed sentence of from two to 30 years.

The second Mrs. Burleson, formerly Mrs. Isabel Reece Knowlton of Boston, Mass., was shot while eating lunch in a hotel cafeteria March 8. Her husband, artillery advisor of the sixth division, was at Camp Jackson, near here, attending winter maneuvers.

The state asked that the defendant be sentenced to die in the electric chair and argued that she "pretended insanity." The defense contended that she was mentally deranged at the time of the slaying.

Hubs Snap Streak, 10 To 3; Oilers In City Tonight

The Hubbers got serious last night and won one for the ladies! The score was 10 to 3 as Lubbock salvaged the final game of the three-night stand from the Borger Gassers to snap a five-game losing streak.

Led by Manager Charlie Engle who hit the ball on the nose for four bingles in as many times at bat, and by the clean-up swatter.

PAMPA HERE TONIGHT

Manager Grover Seitz brings his larrupin' Pampa Oilers into town to open a two-game series with the Hubbers here tonight. Tough and getting tougher every day, the Oilers smacked over the Lamesa club last night to retain a firm hold on second place, not far below the league leading Amarillo Gold Sox. John Jacob Hyma faces his regular turn on the hill for the Hubbers tonight. In his last home appearance against Pampa, he defeated the Oilers, 7 to 5, in a fine performance.

Chester Hajduk, who also bagged four hits, in five trips, the Hubbers gave ample and pleasing support to the nice pitching performance of big Pat Ralsh.

Ralsh let the Borgers down with seven hits and struck out nine of them, including the powerhouse manager, Gordon Neil, who previously walloped his usual home run over the scoreboard, his third of the series. Borger never got more than two hits in any one inning, and never more than one run, as Ralsh bore down in the pinches and pitched four one-two-three innings. He was well supported afield, too, the Hubbers playing errorlessly except for a ninth-inning bobble by the manager on a very hot "bad hopper" by Pinchhitter Hausman.

Borger also played fine ball afield, committing only one fumble, and the ladies' night crowd of some 2,500 were treated to a well-played, well-earned ball game.

Patterson Is Victim

Ralsh and Hart, starting pitcher for Borger, each pitched shutout ball for the first three innings, then in the fourth Neil hit his homer. In the last of the fourth, Lubbock tied the count when Hajduk singled, Sparr singled and Engle walked, filling the bases, then the new catcher, Vince Castino, worked Hart for a walk to force in the run.

Hart retired in favor of Pat Patterson, lanky righthander, and the Hubbers immediately began to make life miserable for him. Borger scored again in the fifth, and so did Lubbock to keep it square.

In the seventh the Hubs got going to town, batted around for five runs off four hits, including doubles by Hajduk and Engle, a couple of sacrifices and the lone error. They kept it up in the eighth for three more tallies when Niedziela, who was shifted to the leadoff position, Drake, Hajduk, Sparr and Engle connected for base hits.

Hubbers Show Hustle

Borger's third tally came in the eighth when Larry Gilchrist, the sensational rookie shortstop, walked, moved up on Bobby Decker's single and a passed ball, scored on Scopetone's long fly to Watkins in center.

The Hubbers looked like a different ball club last night, maybe having come to realize they might as well apply the power they are

Another No-Hitter?

Minyard Will Hurl Tonight

With the record of having hurled the only no-hit, no-run game in Lubbock this season, seasoned Earnest Minyard, Sudan's veteran tosser, tonight takes the hill to seek his second such "perfect" game on local soil when he faces the Lubbock Co-Ops in the finale of a double bill at Fox Park, College avenue and Fourth street.

Initial game of the night sends Ropesville's tough crew, victor over Lubbock's classy Dr. Peppers, against the Wholesale Grocery nine, another local aggregation. Starting time is 8:30 o'clock.

Play is in the Lubbock Amateur Baseball league, already boasting several top notch performances for its young season. Minyard's performance last Thursday against Whitharral included the sensational stunt of striking out 16 batters in the five inning fray.

Another popular hurler will be in action—Lubbock High's Frank Smith.

Pampa Tumbles Loboes, 9 To 8

(Special To The Avalanche)

LAMESA, May 29. — The Pampa Oilers clipped Lloyd Patterson for six runs in the third frame tonight to take the deciding game of the series, 9 to 8.

Gus Hallbourg went the route for visitors, although giving up 14 safeties and experiencing plenty of trouble.

The loss left the Loboes in a third-place tie with Midland and Pampa's victory stretched the Oiler lead in second place to two games.

Four Games Scheduled In Twilight Softball

Play in the Business-Professional twilight softball league will be resumed this afternoon after the customary Wednesday recess.

Four games are on the card which finds the loop leading Jaycees making another appearance, their second of the week.

National division competition sends the Jaycees against the hustling Union Carpenters aggregation, the game to be played on Field No. 4. On Field No. 3, the up-and-down and up again Lions delegation tangles with the A.B.C. ten.

The Doctors and Lawyers, two bitter rivals in the American division tee off on Field No. 1, while the Christians and Baptists tangle on Field No. 2 to round out the afternoon's schedule.

FLYING FAME — That is the elusive goal a field of 33 dare devil drivers will seek today over the grease-stained Indianapolis Motor Speedway. Pictured above is the field as it rounds the bend at the start of another 500-mile race over the track which has seen glory and death ride hand in hand. Wilbur Shaw, inset, has twice raised his hand in response to cheers for the winner. Expected to play a great part in shoving up the speedometer needle are the first foreign threats since 1933, including Rene Dreyfus and Rene LeBegue of France and Paul Riganti, Argentine champion. Dreyfus and LeBegue were demobilized from the army in order to compete.

Fame And Fortune At Stake In Memorial Race Today

(By The Associated Press)

INDIANAPOLIS, May 29 — A bomb will burst at 10 a. m. tomorrow—weather permitting—and stiff-helmeted race drivers will roar off in a grueling four-hour test of men and motors—the twenty-eighth annual 500-mile race.

The stake in the Memorial Day marathon over Indianapolis' two-and-a-half-mile speedway will be $100,000 in prize money, to be divided among the contestants. The winner will draw down from $25,000 to $35,000, depending on the number of laps he leads.

Foreigners Entered

Assuring an international flavor will be Raul Riganti of Buenos Aires, Argentina, the South American champion, at the wheel of a new Maserati—rated by most trackside observers as one of the fastest speedsters in the event.

Two former winners will be in the race. They are Wilbur Shaw of Indianapolis, seeking to tie Louis Meyer of Huntington Park, Calif., as a three-time victor, and Kelly Petillo of Los Angeles.

Shaw will drive another Maserati, the same car in which he won last year. He also was first in 1937. Petillo won in 1935.

On the basis of qualifying speeds the field is not as fast as that of a year ago, but only two starters qualified at an average of less than 120 miles an hour.

On the basis of qualifying speeds the field is not as fast as that of a year ago, but only two starters qualified at an average of less than 120 miles an hour.

Others whose qualifying times indicate they are to be threats are Joel Thorne, the railroad heir of Tuscon; Mel Hansen of Los Angeles; Cliff Bergere, one-time Hollywood stunt man; Frank Brisko of Chicago; Tommy Hennerschnitz, former dirt track pilot of Reading; Russell Snowberger of Detroit and Ralph Hepburn of Los Angeles.

New Precautions Taken

New safety precautions are offered as a further indication of added speed. A wider apron has been laid on the south turn and backstretch, along with 7,000 feet of steel guard-rail on the backstretch.

It was on the treacherous southeast turn that Floyd Roberts, 1938 winner, was killed in a three-car smash-up last Decoration Day.

Harry MacQuinn, tuning up Bill White's Alfa Romeo, had a cooling system hose give way and spray him with scalding water. Floyd Davis, practicing in Anthony Gullota's four-cylinder special, went into a skid on the southeast turn and came out of it only after a display of super driving.

The chances for spills add to the thrills and help draw the 100,000 spectators to the roaring 500.

BEES PURCHASE MOORE

NEW YORK, May 29. (U.P.)— Outright sale of Outfielder Gene Moore to the Boston Bees was announced today by the Brooklyn Dodgers. The sum was believed to be slightly above the waiver price of $7,500. Moore formerly played with the Bees.

Hub Laundry, Sherrod's Win As Robinson Forfeits Again

Hub Laundry proved its marked supremacy over the Class C softball circuit by capturing an 18-4 victory from the second-place Home Lumber ten at Fox Park Wednesday night. Sherrod's nipped Sear's, 7 to 4, in the other contest of the evening.

For the second straight night a forfeit marred the fast league feature, Robinson Grocery again failing to place ten men to the field at game time. Poultry & Egg moved into fifth slot in the Class B loop via the easy triumph. Only Lefty Bettes was in a Grocer uniform and unofficial reports have it that the Robinson entry will withdraw from league competition.

Following a scoreless first inning, Hub Laundry's heavy hitters hopped on Pitcher Grochowsky of Home Lumber for 12 solid blows. Melvin Billings led the onslaught with a pair of doubles and a single in four attempts. Norm Rushing slammed out a mighty home run during the hitting spree.

The line scores:

Lubbock Women Plan To Enter Tournament

"Flag tourney" prizes in "ladies day" competition at Lubbock Country club Wednesday were taken by Mrs. C. L. Dean and Miss Ruth Ford in lower and higher handicap division play, respectively.

Hostess for the day was Mrs. Dean.

It was announced after yesterday's luncheon and links play that at least a quartet of Lubbock golfers would participate in qualifying rounds of the annual women's West Texas tournament opening in Abilene Monday. They include Mesdames Wright Kerr, Homer Hall, Fenner Tubbs and Charles Akey.

Mrs. C. L. Dean is a director in the association, and will attend the directors meeting, but will not compete.

Those who either attended the luncheon, played golf or both Wednesday are Mesdames Paul Newman, C. C. Longbaugh, Kerr, J. H. Stiles, Tubbs, Hall, Olen Key, Gordon Cranmer, C. E. Dean, Charles Akey, T. E. Patterson, J. W. Heilhecker, E. A. Henry, W. F. Helwig, M. M. Brown and Miss Ford.

LEADERS GO UP

NEW YORK, May 29 (AP)—Wall street's traders took a more hopeful view of business prospects today. Leading stocks rose as much as three points.

Accompanying the advance were bonds and most commodities.

Two technical factors underlaid the improvement: first, covering by many short traders and, second, adjustment of trading accounts in preparation for the Memorial day closing.

Above these factors appeared the satisfaction of many commentators in the market's firm behavior Tuesday in the face of the Belgian surrender—an action which had caused fear of a wide break.

The Associated Press average of 60 selected stocks rose .4 of a point at 38.4. The turnover was 657,982 shares.

As the slowest day in three weeks, the session showed operators relaxing from previous hysterical dealings.

Steels led the upturn, largely on the basis of reports of increased operations because of Allied and United States government orders, coupled with a building-up of inventories by users who feared government-priority orders might cut into their supplies.

Among the best performers were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Youngstown Sheet, General Motors, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Montgomery Ward, Harvester, Caterpillar, Sperry, Lockheed, American Telephone, Kennecott, Phelps Dodge, du Pont, Allied Chemical, Johns-Manville, Eastman, Santa Fe and Great Northern preferred.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, May 29 (AP)—Cotton futures clung to small gains throughout the session today, ending with additions of 2 to 4 points.

Traders seemed glad to take a breathing spell after recent turbulent trade and even war news failed to stir up unusual activity.

Trade demand and price fixing for mill accounts kept prices looking upward. Nearby deliveries received most support while only a spattering of demand was sufficient to keep later months on an even keel.

At one time prices rose as much as 7 to 11 points under influence of somewhat unfavorable weekly weather reports and steadiness in securities.

AVERAGE PRICE

NEW ORLEANS, May 29 (AP)—The average price of middling 15-16ths-inch cotton today at ten southern spot markets was 4 points higher at 10.24 cents a pound; average for the past thirty market days 10.19 cents; middling 7-8ths-inch average 10.06 cents a pound.

Nazis Admit Losses

of the German trap toward the south, at Valenciennes. Separated from the British, they are reported penned in a segment of 12 square miles. With them are thousands of hapless, homeless refugees.

The German advance sheared off this triangle tip today. Forces fighting from the northeast and southwest met at Lille, taking that city of French industry. The trapped French are below them.

On the sides of the triangle, the Germans engulfed the Belgian channel port of Ostend, passed Bruges and reached Dixmude; occupied Langemarck; raised the swastika over Armentieres, near Lille; broke up a fortified French border position near Cassel through a rearguard attack, and stormed Ypres and Kemmel, of tragic World war memory.

Street fighting was reported in Dunkerque (presumably between the Allies and advanced Nazi armored columns).

Dunkerque, the Germans say, has been burning for three days. It remains the only port where it is barely possible to embark British forces.

German speedboats infest the channel water while the dive-bombing Stukas plummet down to pick off British ships seeking the coast.

Moreover, the Germans are reported in dispatches from the front to be raining shells into the British from Lille to the sea.

It is admitted, however, that the British are fighting back desperately at several points.

Hill Tosses Five-Hit 5-0 Win Over Barons

BIG SPRING, May 29. (Special)—Behind the five-hit hurling performance of Chester Hill, Amarillo's league leading Gold Sox added insult to injury here tonight to blank Big Spring in the series finale, 5 to 0.

Sparkplug of the helium city machine's attack again was Emmitt Altenburg with two homers, one in the third, another in the fifth. Big Spring loaded the bags in the fourth but was unable to do anything about it.

Pellegrini was touched for nine hits.

Testimony Given In Trial Against Leche

ALEXANDRIA, La., May 29. (AP)—James Thomas, Batron Rouge business man, testified today in the mail fraud trial of former Governor Richard W. Leche that he paid Leche $31,000 in commission on trucks purchased by the state three years ago at allegedly excessive high prices.

Thomas' testimony, in which he said he was the payoff man on Leache's instructions for some of the $116,571.38 which the federal government charges was collected excessively highlighted the third day in the trial of Leche, who resigned as governor last June 26.

Thomas said he gave $16,000, $12,000 and $3,000 in cash in 1938 as the former executive's share in the profits pool agreed upon in a 1937 conference in the office of L. P. Abernathy, then chairman of the Louisiana Highway commission.

Move To Obtain Labor Peace May Be Taken

WASHINGTON, May 29. (AP)—Men on both the AFL and CIO said they would not be surprised if Sidney Hillman, named by President Roosevelt to coordinate the labor effort in the defense program, would launch a move to end the rift between the rival labor organizations when the CIO national executive board meets here Monday.

Hillman, vice president of the CIO, was one of the seven national defense commissioners appointed yesterday.

Harry C. Bates, chairman of the AFL peace committee, said that although he had received no definite indication a new peace effort was imminent, he believed a settlement should be made to avoid any friction which might endanger the defense program.

Nazi Victory Is Admitted

against submarines and warships, plunged on German tanks.

American-made bombers, newly arrived, operated effectively, but too late to turn the tide.

Still other battles must be fought on the Aisne-Somme front before the war itself can be called decided.

The Germans made Lille, the industrial center of northern France, and Calais, on the channel straits of Dover, particular battlegrounds. But their advance was slowed by Allied sharpshooters waging guerilla warfare in the fields and fighting in the streets of the cities.

And tonight, toward the vital city of Dunkerque, the bulk of an entrapped army of half a million was backing.

Satisfied With Supplies

The French admiral in command there reported he was "satisfied with the supply situation," and at the same time ships were bringing in more and more food and munitions.

Also, while the French port of Calais—the nearest to England on the strait of Dover—was reported partly occupied by the Germans, the French spokesman said some French troops still were holding out there.

And on the great, 200-mile-long front along the Somme and Aisne rivers, he said, the "quiet heavy" offensive actions begun yesterday had resulted this afternoon in wiping out the last German-held bridgeheads on the south side of the Somme, with many Nazis taken prisoner.

Fight With Heroism

Tonight's French communique, gloomy in tone and saying the Allies were fighting with a "heroism worthy of their traditions," offered "fierce attacks" made successfully by the French on the Somme front as one of the few bright spots.

The great retreat of the Allied armies of Flanders was toward Dunkerque and the bloody action at Lille was simply a last-ditch fight, serving to help the bulk of Allied forces reach the coast.

Today, the Germans had claimed the capture of Lille, an important fortified industrial city, and to have cut off in a subsidiary pocket to the south French troops previously isolated, in the large triangle held by the Germans, from their British comrades-in-arms.

Had To Retreat

Thus, these twice-isolated Frenchmen apparently had no specific objective toward which to fall back, but merely to retreat somewhere, or anywhere.

The main German attack was reported directed toward Cassel, northwest of Lille and about midway between that city and the English channel.

In the vital job of keeping communications open at Dunkerque the French and British air forces cooperated.

And, despite their peril—increased by the defection of the Belgians—the Allies declared they still maintained a sea line of communications.

Sea Power Challenged

In the English channel and the North Sea, however, German torpedo speedboats went out to challenge British seapower, while German planes attacked from the sky.

Meanwhile, the Allied artillery commanding the long German corridor to the sea was reported pounding destructively at Nazi armored columns.

Allied fliers were declared to have found a vulnerable spot on the tops of the German tanks, where the armor is thinner and to have pumped shells into many of the machines with a new cannon mounted on fast pursuit planes.

Losses Mount

German losses in aviation crews, particularly the young and insufficiently trained fliers manning dive bombers, along with the wear and tear of 20 days of blitzkrieg, also were claimed to be slowing down the Reich army.

French military sources said the Germans had lost at least 2,000 tanks of an estimated total force of 5,000, as well as 2,000 planes—believed to be nearly half of the Nazi first-line strength.

During the day military dispatches summed it up with the philosophic report that the Germans appeared to be "getting out of wind."

Headquarters For Red River Dam Set Up

DURANT, Okla., May 29. (AP)—Contractor Guy F. Atkinson said today headquarters for construction of the main embarkment of the $50,000,000 Denison dam had been established on the Oklahoma side of Red river.

Governor Leon C. Phillips once warned the federal government not to attempt any construction work on the Oklahoma side until the state had been compensated for damages to be caused by flooding the reservoir.

Phillips, who has fought the giant project on the grounds it represents a violation of state's rights, did not state what, if any, action would be taken if his warning was ignored.

Four Charged With Killing Indian Freed

DURANT, Okla., May 29 (AP)—Four persons charged with slaying Isaac Nelson, a Choctaw Indian, six years ago were acquitted today by a district court jury.

The defendants were Mrs. Edna Everett Jones, Mrs. Lillian Gresham, Dossie Bates and Tommy Everett.

Nelson's body was found beside a railroad track. A coroner's jury ruled that he was struck by a train but county officers recently revived the case.

of our physical defense shall we permit the lamp of freedom to be extinguished in this land." The communication was read at ceremonies in the Capitol unveiling a painting of the signing of the constitution.

"We should all be immeasurably happier," Mr. Roosevelt said, "could this ceremony take place in another kind of world—in a tranquil world where men and nations alike were free to seek out peacefully their individual destinies."

Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the House ways and means committee drafted the new defense tax bill, with the intention of introducing it tomorrow and beginning hearings with a statement from Secretary Morgenthau on Friday. He reduced his estimate of the bill's annual yield from $683,000,000 to $656,000,000.

Another On Committee

Supplementing the commission on national defense named yesterday to coordinate industrial production, President Roosevelt named Donald M. Nelson of the Sears Roebuck Co., to the post of procurement director at the treasury, with the post goes the chairmanship of a committee created to coordinate foreign and domestic aircraft purchases.

Other developments bearing on national defense:

(1) Attorney General Jackson recommended legislation requiring registration of all firearms in the United States, as a means of keeping them out of the hands of subversive groups and blocking "fifth column" tactics.

(2) Secretary Hull announced diplomatic discussions are in progress on the feasibility of receiving numbers of Belgian refugees into this country.

Loans Approved

(3) The House banking committee approved legislation empowering the RFC to facilitate loans to industry if needed to finance national defense expansion and production. Senator Taft (R-O) said he was opposing similar legislation in the Senate banking committe on the ground it was broad enough to let a government corporation "do any kind of business it wants to."

(4) To facilitate delivery of war planes to the Allies, Secretary Hull modified neutrality restrictions to permit American citizens to pilot the craft over to Canada to New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward island.

(5) The Senate naval committee said an unnamed "reputable scientist" had reported the discovery of an explosive 100 times as powerful as nitroglycerine, and urged careful consideration of all new developments.

Outlining provisions of the tax bill, Doughton said they would consist of: A 10 per cent increase in income tax payments yielding the government $226,000,000; an increase from one to 1 1-2 cents in the federal gasoline tax, yielding $112,000,000; an increase from $2.25 to $3.00 per gallon in liquor taxes, $91,000,000; increase from $3.00 to $3.50 in the tax on each 1,000 cigarettes, $77,000,000; an increase from $5 to $6 per barrel in the tax on beer, $46,000,000; a 20 per cent increase in the tax on stock and bond transfers, $3,000,000; decrease in the exemption on theater and other amusement tickets from 40 cents to 30 cents, $35,000,000; increase general excise taxes (except the cigarette tax) by 10 per cent, $76,000,000.

Supplementing the tax bill will be legislation authorizing the treasury to float $3,000,000,000 in "national defense obligations" with five year maturities, and raising the present limit on the size of the public debt from $45,000,000,000 to $48,000,000,000. Officials said the tax bill was so arranged that the estimated yield from the revisions would retire the defense obligations, with interest paid, in five years.

New Labor Union Is To Be Organized

PHILADELPHIA, May 29. (AP)—A new unaffiliated labor union, pledged never to strike and with power to sue and be sued, established headquarters in a mid-city office building today and opened a drive for members.

W. H. Gotwald, secretary, said that recruits for the United Crafts guild would be drawn entirely from federal, state and municipal employes. He estimated 3,000,000 in the United States are eligible.

"We formed to give governmental employes an opportunity to unite and protect themselves from abuses and coercion," Gotwald added.

Hubs Snap Streak, 10 To 3; Oilers In City Tonight

The Hubbers got serious last night and won one for the ladies!

The score was 10 to 3 as Lubbock salvaged the final game of the three-night stand from the Borger Gassers to snap a five-game losing streak.

Led by Manager Charlie Engle who hit the ball on the nose for four bingles in as many times at bat, and by the clean-up swatter,

PAMPA HERE TONIGHT

Manager Grover Seitz brings his larrupin' Pampa Oilers into town to open a two-game series with the Hubbers here tonight. Tough and getting tougher every day, the Oilers smacked over the Lamesa club last night to retain a firm hold on second place, not far below the league leading Amarillo Gold Sox. John Jacob Hyma faces his regular turn on the hill for the Hubbers tonight. In his last home appearance against Pampa, he defeated the Oilers, 7 to 5, in a fine performance.

Chester Hajduk, who also bagged four hits, in five trips, the Hubbers gave ample and pleasing support to the nice pitching performance of big Pat Ralsh.

Ralsh let the Borgers down with seven hits and struck out nine of them, including the powerhouse manager, Gordon Nell, who previously walloped his usual home run over the scoreboard, his third of the series. Borger never got more than two hits in any one inning, and never more than one run, as Ralsh bore down in the pinches and pitched four one-two-three innings. He was well supported afield, too, the Hubbers playing errorlessly except for a ninth-inning bobble by the manager on a very hot "bad hopper" by Pinchhitter Hausman.

Borger also played fine ball afield, committing only one fumble, and the ladies' night crowd of some 2,500 were treated to a well-played, well-earned ball game.

Patterson Is Victim

Ralsh and Hart, starting pitcher for Borger, each pitched shutout ball for the first three innings, then in the fourth Nell hit his homer. In the last of the fourth, Lubbock tied the count when Hajduk singled, Sparr singled and Engle walked, filling the bases, then the new catcher, Vince Castino, worked Hart for a walk to force in the run.

Hart retired in favor of Pat Patterson, lanky righthander, and the Hubbers immediately began to make life miserable for him. Borger scored again in the fifth, and so did Lubbock to keep it square.

In the seventh the Hubs got going to town, batted around for five runs off four hits, including doubles by Hajduk and Engle, a couple of sacrifices and the lone error. They kept it up in the eighth for three more tallies when Niedziela, who was shifted to the leadoff position, Drake, Hajduk, Sparr and Engle connected for base hits.

Hubbers Show Hustle

Borger's third tally came in the eighth when Larry Gilchrist, the sensational rookie shortstop, walked, moved up on Bobby Decker's single and a passed ball, scored on Scopetone's long fly to Watkins in center.

The Hubbers looked like a different ball club last night, maybe having come to realize they might as well apply the power they are

Another No-Hitter?

Minyard Will Hurl Tonight

With the record of having hurled the only no-hit, no-run game in Lubbock this season, seasoned Earnest Minyard, Sudan's veteran tosser, tonight takes the hill to seek his second such "perfect" game on local soil when he faces the Lubbock Co-Ops in the finale of a double bill at Fox Park, College avenue and Fourth street.

Initial game of the night sends Ropesville's tough crew, victor over Lubbock's classy Dr. Peppers, against the Wholesale Grocery nine, another local aggregation. Starting time is 8:30 o'clock.

Play is in the Lubbock Amateur Baseball league, already boasting several top notch performances for its young season. Minyard's performance last Thursday against Whitharral included the sensational stunt of striking out 16 batters in the five inning fray.

Another popular hurler will be in action—Lubbock High's Frank Smith.

Pampa Tumbles Loboes, 9 To 8

(Special To The Avalanche)

LAMESA, May 29. — The Pampa Oilers clipped Lloyd Patterson for six runs in the third frame tonight to take the deciding game of the series, 9 to 8.

Gus Hallbourg went the route for visitors, although giving up 14 safeties and experiencing plenty of trouble.

The loss left the Loboes in a third-place tie with Midland and Pampa's victory stretched the Oiler lead in second place to two games.

Four Games Scheduled In Twilight Softball

Play in the Business-Professional twilight softball league will be resumed this afternoon after the customary Wednesday recess.

Four games are on the card which finds the loop leading Jaycees making another appearance, their second of the week.

National division competition sends the Jaycees against the hustling Union Carpenters aggregation, the game to be played on Field No. 4. On Field No. 3, the up-and-down and up again Lions delegation tangles with the A.B.C. ten.

The Doctors and Lawyers, two bitter rivals in the American division tee off on Field No. 1, while the Christians and Baptists tangle on Field No. 2 to round out the afternoon's schedule.

FLYING FAME — That is the elusive goal a field of 33 dare devil drivers will seek today over the grease-stained Indianapolis Motor Speedway. Pictured above is the field as it rounds the bend at the start of another 500-mile race over the track which has seen glory and death ride hand in hand. Wilbur Shaw, inset, has twice raised his hand in response to cheers for the winner. Expected to play a great part in shoving up the speedometer needle are the first foreign threats since 1933, including Rene Dreyfus and Rene LeBegue of France and Paul Riganti, Argentine champion. Dreyfus and LeBegue were demobilized from the army in order to compete.

Fame And Fortune At Stake In Memorial Race Today

(By The Associated Press)

INDIANAPOLIS, May 29.—A bomb will burst at 10 a. m. tomorrow—weather permitting—and stiff-helmeted race drivers will roar off in a grueling four-hour test of men and motors—the twenty-eighth annual 500-mile race.

The stake in the Memorial Day marathon over Indianapolis' two-and-a-half-mile speedway will be $100,000 in prize money, to be divided among the contestants. The winner will draw down from $25,000 to $35,000, depending on the number of laps he leads.

Foreigners Entered

Assuring an international flavor will be Raul Riganti of Buenos Aires, Argentina, the South American champion, at the wheel of a new Maserati—rated by most trackside observers as one of the fastest speedsters in the event.

Two former winners will be in the race. They are Wilbur Shaw of Indianapolis, seeking to tie Louis Meyer of Huntington Park, Calif., as a three-time victor, and Kelly Petillo of Los Angeles.

Shaw will drive another Maserati, the same car in which he won last year. He also was first in 1937. Petillo won in 1935.

On the basis of qualifying speeds the field is not as fast as that of a year ago, but only two starters qualified at an average of less than 120 miles an hour.

On the basis of qualifying speeds the field is not as fast as that of a year ago, but only two starters qualified at an average of less than 120 miles an hour.

Others whose qualifying times indicate they are to be threats are Joel Thorne, the railroad heir of Tuscon; Mel Hansen of Los Angeles; Cliff Bergere, one-time Hollywood stunt man; Frank Brisko of Chicago; Tommy Hennerschnitz, former dirt track pilot of Reading; Russell Snowberger of Detroit and Ralph Hepburn of Los Angeles.

New Precautions Taken

New safety precautions are offered as a further indication of added speed. A wider apron has been laid on the south turn and backstretch, along with 7,000 feet of steel guard-rail on the backstretch.

It was on the treacherous southeast turn that Floyd Roberts, 1938 winner, was killed in a three-car smash-up last Decoration Day.

Harry MacQuinn, tuning up Bill White's Alfa Romeo, had a cooling system hose give way and spray him with scalding water. Floyd Davis, practicing in Anthony Gullota's four-cylinder special, went into a skid on the southeast turn and came out of it only after a display of super driving.

The chances for spills add to the thrills and help draw the 100,000 spectators to the roaring 500.

BEES PURCHASE MOORE

NEW YORK, May 29. (AP)— Outright sale of Outfielder Gene Moore to the Boston Bees was announced today by the Brooklyn Dodgers. The sum was believed to be slightly above the waiver price of $7,500. Moore formerly played with the Bees.

Leaders Show Why They're There—

Hub Laundry, Sherrod's Win As Robinson Forfeits Again

Hub Laundry proved its marked supremacy over the Class C softball circuit by capturing an 18-4 victory from the second-place Home Lumber ten at Fox Park Wednesday night. Sherrod's nipped Sear's, 7 to 4, in the other contest of the evening.

For the second straight night a forfeit marred the fast league feature, Robinson Grocery again failing to place ten men to the field at game time. Poultry & Egg moved into fifth slot in the Class B loop via the easy triumph. Only Lefty Bettes was in a Grocer uniform and unofficial reports have it that the Robinson entry will withdraw from league competition.

Following a scoreless first inning, Hub Laundry's heavy hitters hopped on Pitcher Grochowsky of Home Lumber for 12 solid blows. Melvin Billings led the onslaught with a pair of doubles and a single in four attempts. Norm Rushing slammed out a mighty home run during the hitting spree.

The line scores:

Lubbock Women Plan To Enter Tournament

"Flag tourney" prizes in "ladies day" competition at Lubbock Country club Wednesday were taken by Mrs. C. L. Dean and Miss Ruth Ford in lower and higher handicap division play, respectively.

Hostess for the day was Mrs. Dean.

It was announced after yesterday's luncheon and links play that at least a quartet of Lubbock golfers would participate in qualifying rounds of the annual women's West Texas tournament opening in Abilene Monday. They include Mesdames Wright Kerr, Homer Hall, Fenner Tubbs and Charles Akey.

Mrs. C. L. Dean is a director in the association, and will attend the directors meeting, but will not compete.

Those who either attended the luncheon, played golf or both Wednesday are Mesdames Paul Newman, C. C. Longbaugh, Kerr, J. H. Stiles, Tubbs, Hall, Olen Key, Gordon Cranmer, C. E. Dean, Charles Akey, T. E. Patterson, J. W. Heilhecker, E. A. Henry, W. F. Helwig, M. M. Brown and Miss Ford.

LEADERS GO UP

NEW YORK, May 29 (AP)—Wall street's traders took a more hopeful view of business prospects today. Leading stocks rose as much as three points.

Accompanying the advance were bonds and most commodities.

Two technical factors underlaid the improvement: first, covering by many short traders and, second, adjustment of trading accounts in preparation for the Memorial day closing.

Above these factors appeared the satisfaction of many commentators in the market's firm behavior Tuesday in the face of the Belgian surrender—an action which had caused fear of a wide break.

The Associated Press average of 60 selected stocks rose .4 of a point at 38.4. The turnover was 657,082 shares.

As the slowest day in three weeks, the session showed operators relaxing from previous hysterical dealings.

Steels led the upturn, largely on the basis of reports of increased operations because of Allied and United States government orders, coupled with a building-up of inventories by users who feared government-priority orders might cut into their supplies.

Among the best performers were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Youngstown Sheet, General Motors, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Montgomery Ward, Harvester, Caterpillar, Sperry, Lockheed, American Telephone, Kennecott, Phelps Dodge, du Pont, Allied Chemical, Johns-Manville, Eastman, Santa Fe and Great Northern preferred.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, May 29 (AP)—Cotton futures clung to small gains throughout the session today, ending with additions of 2 to 4 points.

Traders seemed glad to take a breathing spell after recent turbulent trade and even war news failed to stir up unusual activity.

Trade demand and price fixing for mill accounts kept prices looking upward. Nearby deliveries received most support while only a spattering of demand was sufficient to keep later months on an even keel.

At one time prices rose as much as 7 to 11 points under influence of somewhat unfavorable weekly weather reports and steadiness in securities.

AVERAGE PRICE

NEW ORLEANS, May 29 (AP)—The average price of middling 15-16ths-inch cotton today at ten southern spot markets was 4 points higher at 10.24 cents a pound; average for the past thirty market days 10.19 cents; middling ⅞ths-inch average 10.06 cents a pound.

of the German trap toward the south, at Valenciennes. Separated from the British, they are reported penned in a segment of 12 square miles. With them are thousands of hapless, homeless refugees.

The German advance sheared off this triangle tip today. Forces fighting from the northeast and southwest met at Lille, taking that city of French industry. The trapped French are below them.

On the sides of the triangle, the Germans engulfed the Belgian channel port of Ostend, passed Bruges and reached Dixmude; occupied Langemarck; raised the swastika over Armentieres, near Lille; broke up a fortified French border position near Cassel through a rearguard attack, and stormed Ypres and Kemmel, of tragic World war memory.

Street fighting was reported in Dunkerque (presumably between the Allies and advanced Nazi armored columns).

Dunkerque, the Germans say, has been burning for three days. It remains the only port where it is barely possible to embark British forces.

German speedboats infest the channel water while the dive-bombing Stukas plummet down to pick off British ships seeking the coast.

Moreover, the Germans are reported in dispatches from the front to be raining shells into the British from Lille to the sea.

It is admitted, however, that the British are fighting back desperately at several points.

Testimony Given In Trial Against Leche

ALEXANDRIA, La., May 29. (AP)—James Thomas, Batron Rouge business man, testified today in the mail fraud trial of former Governor Richard W. Leche that he paid Leche $31,000 in commission on trucks purchased by the state three years ago at allegedly excessive high prices.

Thomas' testimony, in which he said he was the payoff man on Leache's instructions for some of the $116,571.38 which the federal government charges was collected excessively highlighted the third day in the trial of Leche, who resigned as governor last June 26.

Thomas said he gave $16,000, $12,000 and $3,000 in cash in 1938 as the former executive's share in the profits pool agreed upon in a 1937 conference in the office of L. P. Abernathy, then chairman of the Louisiana Highway commission.

Move To Obtain Labor Peace May Be Taken

WASHINGTON, May 29. (AP) — Men on both the AFL and CIO said they would not be surprised if Sidney Hillman, named by President Roosevelt to coordinate the labor effort in the defense program, would launch a move to end the rift between the rival labor organizations when the CIO national executive board meets here Monday.

Hillman, vice president of the CIO, was one of the seven national defense commissioners appointed yesterday.

Harry C. Bates, chairman of the AFL peace committee, said that although he had received no definite indication a new peace effort was imminent, he believed a settlement should be made to avoid any friction which might endanger the defense program.

Nazi Victory Is Admitted

against submarines and warships, plunged on German tanks.

American-made bombers, newly arrived, operated effectively, but too late to turn the tide.

Still other battles must be fought on the Aisne-Somme front before the war itself can be called decided.

The Germans made Lille, the industrial center of northern France, and Calais, on the channel straits of Dover, particular battlegrounds. But their advance was slowed by Allied sharpshooters waging guerilla warfare in the fields and fighting in the streets of the cities.

And tonight, toward the vital city of Dunkerque, the bulk of an entrapped army of half a million was backing.

Satisfied With Supplies

The French admiral in command there reported he was "satisfied with the supply situation," and at the same time ships were bringing in more and more food and munitions.

Also, while the French port of Calais—the nearest to England on the strait of Dover—was reported partly occupied by the Germans, the French spokesman said some French troops still were holding out there.

And on the great, 200-mile-long front along the Somme and Aisne rivers, he said, the "quiet heavy" offensive actions begun yesterday had resulted this afternoon in wiping out the last German-held bridgeheads on the south side of the Somme, with many Nazis taken prisoner.

Fight With Heroism

Tonight's French communique, gloomy in tone and saying the Allies were fighting with a "heroism worthy of their traditions," offered "fierce attacks" made successfully by the French on the Somme front as one of the few bright spots.

The great retreat of the Allied armies of Flanders was toward Dunkerque and the bloody action at Lille was simply a last-ditch fight, serving to help the bulk of Allied forces reach the coast.

Today, the Germans had claimed the capture of Lille, an important fortified industrial city, and to have cut off in a subsidiary pocket to the south French troops previously isolated, in the large triangle held by the Germans, from their British comrades-in-arms.

Had To Retreat

Thus, these twice-isolated Frenchmen apparently had no specific objective toward which to fall back, but merely to retreat somewhere, or anywhere.

The main German attack was reported directed toward Cassel, northwest of Lille and about midway between that city and the English channel.

In the vital job of keeping communications open at Dunkerque the French and British air forces cooperated.

And, despite their peril—increased by the defection of the Belgians—the Allies declared they still maintained a sea line of communications.

Sea Power Challenged

In the English channel and the North Sea, however, German torpedo speedboats went out to challenge British seapower, while German planes attacked from the sky.

Meanwhile, the Allied artillery commanding the long German corridor to the sea was reported pounding destructively at Nazi armored columns.

Allied fliers were declared to have found a vulnerable spot on the tops of the German tanks, where the armor is thinner and to have pumped shells into many of the machines with a new cannon mounted on fast pursuit planes.

Losses Mount

German losses in aviation crews, particularly the young and insufficiently trained fliers manning dive bombers, along with the wear and tear of 20 days of blitzkrieg, also were claimed to be slowing down the Reich army.

French military sources said the Germans had lost at least 2,000 tanks of an estimated total force of 5,000, as well as 2,000 planes—believed to be nearly half of the Nazi first-line strength.

During the day military dispatches summed it up with the philosophic report that the Germans appeared to be "getting out of wind."

Headquarters For Red River Dam Set Up

DURANT, Okla., May 29. (AP) — Contractor Guy F. Atkinson said today headquarters for construction of the main embarkment of the $50,000,000 Denison dam had been established on the Oklahoma side of Red river.

Governor Leon C. Phillips once warned the federal government not to attempt any construction work on the Oklahoma side until the state had been compensated for damages to be caused by flooding the reservoir.

Phillips, who has fought the giant project on the grounds it represents a violation of state's rights, did not state what, if any, action would be taken if his warning was ignored.

Four Charged With Killing Indian Freed

DURANT, Okla., May 29 (AP) — Four persons charged with slaying Isaac Nelson, a Choctaw Indian, six years ago were acquitted today by a district court jury.

The defendants were Mrs. Edna Everett Jones, Mrs. Lillian Gresham, Dossie Bates and Tommy Everett.

Nelson's body was found beside a railroad track. A coroner's jury ruled that he was struck by a train but county officers recently revived the case.

Overcrowding And Lack Of Funds Cause Inefficiency And Inconvenience At Tech are enrolled as majors in the division, but it teaches some required courses to students in other divisions.

Enactment by the state legislature, for example, requires that students of all divisions pass six semester hours of government before graduation. There are a few exceptions to that rule.

Another need is for additional office space for instructors.

Office Space Inadequate

"Good teaching calls for frequent conferences between teachers and students. Effective conferences cannot be had when four or five teachers are crowded into one office and two or three are trying to confer with students at the same time," said Dean Gordon. "Our office space is entirely inadequate."

The division also has felt the need for additional teaching space. Schedule makers have been faced with a stupendous task in attempting to schedule classes so that each room will be used to the fullest extent through the teaching hours of each day.

If walls could talk, a babble of quotations from Shakespeare, mathematical formulas, orations on government and accounts of historical events likely would issue from some of the classroom walls at Texas Tech. Under the present arrangement, almost every classroom is used by more than one department.

Exclusive Classrooms Needed

"To do effective teaching, a department should have classrooms largely exclusive. They should not be forced to transfer teaching materials from one room to another," said Dean Gordon. A room used for teaching of history, for example, should be equipped with maps and other materials for use of the history department.

One of the programs handicapped by shortage of funds is the testing program, in which "IQ," vocational interest, psychological and other types of tests are given. The program is under the direction of Dr. Albert Barnett, assistant dean of arts and sciences. Some of the tests help the student correct any deficiency in his manner of studying and reading. The vocational interest test aids the student in determining the vocation for which he is best suited.

"Our testing program has shown amazing results, considering the limited time and space," said Dean Gordon.

Additional funds also are needed for financing of educational conferences, said the official.

Practice Rooms Needed

"We need a small chapel where musical organizations may practice," he said. A small frame building has been constructed as a practice house for the musical department and contains individual practice rooms.

The need is acute for additional laboratory space in the science building.

The college has a new $275,000 library building, but does not have funds to purchase suitable equipment and many needed books.

"One of the problems we have in keeping in the good graces of standardizing agencies has to do with oversized classes," said Dean Gordon. Because of shortage of teachers, it is difficult to reduce the size of classes.

Band Handicapped, Too

"We need a band house and a band shell in connection." The band now rehearses in the textile engineering building. In addition to students studying band during the regular session, numerous directors and students from a wide area attend band school at the college each summer.

Although some faculty members have rejected offers of higher salaries elsewhere, some have received offers so attractive that they have left Texas Tech. "The large majority of teachers draw smaller salaries today than when the college opened," said Dean Gordon. That is true of deans and department heads.

Those are only a few of the problems facing the arts and sciences division, which has a spring semester enrollment of 2,234 students.

"I wish someone would give us $100,000," said Dean Gordon. "We could use it to very good advantage."

More Defense Funds

of our physical defense shall we permit the lamp of freedom to be extinguished in this land." The communication was read at ceremonies in the Capitol unveiling a painting of the signing of the constitution.

"We should all be immeasurably happier," Mr. Roosevelt said, "could this ceremony take place in another kind of world—in a tranquil world where men and nations alike were free to seek out peacefully their individual destinies."

Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the House ways and means committee drafted the new defense tax bill, with the intention of introducing it tomorrow and beginning hearings with a statement from Secretary Morgenthau on Friday. He reduced his estimate of the bill's annual yield from $683,000,000 to $656,000,000.

Another On Committee

Supplementing the commission on national defense named yesterday to coordinate industrial production, President Roosevelt named Donald M. Nelson of the Sears Roebuck Co., to the post of procurement director at the treasury, with the post goes the chairmanship of a committee created to coordinate foreign and domestic aircraft purchases.

Other developments bearing on national defense:

(1) Attorney General Jackson recommended legislation requiring registration of all firearms in the United States, as a means of keeping them out of the hands of subversive groups and blocking "fifth column" tactics.

(2) Secretary Hull announced diplomatic discussions are in progress on the feasibility of receiving numbers of Belgian refugees into this country.

Loans Approved

(3) The House banking committee approved legislation empowering the RFC to facilitate loans to industry if needed to finance national defense expansion and production. Senator Taft (R-O) said he was opposing similar legislation in the Senate banking committe on the ground it was broad enough to let a government corporation "do any kind of business it wants to."

(4) To facilitate delivery of war planes to the Allies, Secretary Hull modified neutrality restrictions to permit American citizens to pilot the craft over to Canada to New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward island.

(5) The Senate naval committee said an unnamed "reputable scientist" had reported the discovery of an explosive 100 times as powerful as nitroglycerine, and urged careful consideration of all new developments.

Outlining provisions of the tax bill, Doughton said they would consist of: A 10 per cent increase in income tax payments yielding the government $226,000,000; an increase from one to 1 1-2 cents in the federal gasoline tax, yielding $112,000,000; an increase from $2.25 to $3.00 per gallon in liquor taxes, $91,000,000; increase from $3.00 to $3.50 in the tax on each 1,000 cigarettes, $77,000,000; an increase from $5 to $6 per barrel in the tax on beer, $46,000,000; a 20 per cent increase in the tax on stock and bond transfers, $3,000,000; decrease in the exemption on theater and other amusement tickets from 40 cents to 30 cents, $25,000,000; increase general excise taxes (except the cigarette tax) by 10 per cent, $76,000,000.

Supplementing the tax bill will be legislation authorizing the treasury to float $3,000,000,000 in "national defense obligations" with five year maturities, and raising the present limit on the size of the public debt from $45,000,000,000 to $48,000,000,000. Officials said the tax bill was so arranged that the estimated yield from the revisions would retire the defense obligations, with interest paid, in five years.

New Labor Union Is To Be Organized

PHILADELPHIA, May 29. (AP) — A new unaffiliated labor union, pledged never to strike and with power to sue and be sued, established headquarters in a mid-city office building today and opened a drive for members.

W. H. Gotwald, secretary, said that recruits for the United Crafts guild would be drawn entirely from federal, state and municipal employes. He estimated 3,000,000 in the United States are eligible.

"We formed to give governmental employes an opportunity to unite and protect themselves from abuses and coercion," Gotwald added.

Nazi Trickery In Mexico

PROBABILITIES are in favor of the truth of "unconfirmed reports" said by Congressman Martin Dies, chairman of the House committee on Un-American activities, to have been received by him that Nazi sympathizers have established camouflaged air bases in Mexico.

If the reports should be proved true, they can hardly be termed startling, though certainly they are disturbing. Nor can it be assumed that the American State department has been entirely unaware of their existence. Surprising though it may be to some, the State department is credited with keeping a pretty close check on what goes on south of the border.

Many factors argue for the probable truth of the reports to which Mr. Dies referred. One is that it has been a matter of common gossip for years — a subject for articles in reputable and conservative publications — that the Japanese have established bases on the west coast of Mexico under the guise of improving harbors for peace-time commerce. If the Japs have made preparations, then it is probable Germany has also.

With specific reference to the preparations Germany may have made, it is an unquestioned fact that Mexico has a large German population — no one outside of Berlin knows just how large. It is one which, for the most part, must be loyal to the homeland for fear of what might happen to loved ones there if dictates from Berlin should be ignored. Likewise, preparations in Mexico would be wholly in keeping with German thoroughness in approaching any enterprise which might be contemplated.

Just what procedure may have been followed in Mexico, if reports to Mr. Dies are true, is entirely speculative. However, air fields may be disguised as golf courses, polo fields or the like. Warehouses may be of the type which could be converted instantly into hangars. German-owned factories in Mexico probably are of the kind which could be converted into war uses. It has been a characteristic of German procedure that any investment for purposes of commerce in any foreign land take into consideration the possible military value of that investment to the old country.

The only thing to be done about the reports to Mr. Dies is to make every effort to determine if the rumored conditions exist. If they do exist, then our only course is to be prepared to make certain that they never will be put to any use which might endanger U. S. safety.

Tuberculosis On The Run

BECAUSE of world conditions, significance of a declaration before the recent Southern Tuberculosis conference that tuberculosis can be stamped out completely in the United States will not be immediately nor fully appreciated.

Added weight was given the declaration by the fact that it came from Dr. Paul Turner, distinguished specialist and former president of the conference who cured himself of the disease. To Dr. Turner's credit he did not content himself with making a statement. He suggested a definite plan to follow.

Few people can realize just what an achievement such as that suggested by Dr. Turner would mean. In terms of lives saved, it would outrank lasting world peace, because several times more people have died from tuberculosis during the past 50 years—or during almost any period of time that might be cited—than have been killed in wars during that same period.

Even though tremendous strides have been made and are still being made in the prevention, treatment and cure—especially the prevention—of tuberculosis, it still is one of the chief causes of death. It still is one of the world's most difficult health problems.

The five-point program suggested by Dr. Turner would not be either expensive or difficult. In comparison with armaments, the cost for the whole nation probably would not equal that of a battleship. It would stress education and the provision in schools of equipment which would detect tuberculosis at its very inception.

Even if his ideas are not adopted immediately, they should be given the most careful study and if found to possess the merit they appear to have, they should be followed out with the least possible delay.

Listening to the radio, a West Virginian dropped off to sleep and didn't wake up for a week. Ah, these political speeches.

Chapter 32

Spitfire At Work

"Well, Mac hasn't lost his job—entirely," Eric said in answer to Brenda's question. "That is I mean to say—well, the nephew is here, all right. Maybe they're keeping Mac on to coach him a bit."

Anger began to kindle in Brenda's eyes. "Why don't you say straight out he's been fired? Bringing the boy here is the equivalent of it I wonder that Mac stays on after being insulted like that! He ought to have turned on his heel and marched out; and let the nephew go to the dickens with his old accounts!"

"What a little spitfire you are, my dear!" Eric said admiringly, "Temper becomes you, too, if I may say so. But about Mac. He couldn't walk out on his job like that you know. It wouldn't be square. No matter whether he likes it or not, Mac's not the sort to leave things in a mess."

"And I suppose you haven't tried to help him!" It was an accusation rather than a question. "You haven't seen this Mister--Mister—"

"You know his name is Hopkins, Brenda!" Eric said.

"Well, Mr. Hopkins, then! I suppose it never occurred to you to go and speak a good word for your friend—!"

He laughed in genuine amusement. "What could I have said? Hopkins knows a darn' sight more about Mac's ability than I do. Of course," he went on kindly, "I could have mentioned that he always leaves the bathroom tidy, and that his table manners are good, and that—"

She turned on a vicious high heel and walked away.

"Men," she said coldly, "are absolutely spineless! They are utterly without resource!"

"M'm. Try your hand at helping old Mac, why don't you? I know for a fact he won't be let out before the first of the month, and that's eighteen days from now. Time for plenty of action."

Brenda, her head held high, was thinking the same thing as she marched away. She had had a vague plan in the back of her mind all along, she now realized. It seemed the time had arrived to put it into execution.

In her own room, she opened one of the drawers of her bureau. From beneath piles of fragrant silken things, she drew a neatly tied flat package. It was what Mac called a "layout." He had considered it the best thing he had ever done in that particular line. So, also it seemed, had the villainous Mr. Hopkins. A number of details had been changed so Mac made two sets. Brenda had salvaged this from the wastebasket where he had thrust it.

Now she wrapped it more carefully and addressed it to a man she knew in New York.

"I'll write him to hurry the answer back at once. And then pooh for you, Mr. Hopkins, sir! Mac'll have a job twice as big and important as the one you took away from him!"

Better Then Worse

When both package and letter were gone, she felt better; at least for a few days. Then she felt very much worse. Before even she had expected it, the answer came from New York. "Good work," was the brief comment. "Your man has brains without doubt. But I couldn't get my own brother a job here right now, supposing I had a brother, and he needed a job in anybody's advertising department!"

She crept about the house, crushed. She had shot her bolt and it had come back and rapped her smartly on the head.

But Brenda never remained crushed over long. Corklife, her mind bobbed up and set to work anew on the problem.

"Eric, how is young Hopkins getting along?" she demanded on an evening perilously close to the first of the month.

"Not too well, it seems. I was talking to Mac today. We lunched together. I honestly believe the old man would send the boy back to his first job—if someone who counted applied a little pressure."

"Mac?"

"Good Lord no! Even a girl ought to know Mac's the last one who can do it."

"You, then."

He shook his head. "Hopkins knows I'm Mac's friend. I explained that to you before."

"Who, Eric? Could Hugh Saltus? Judge Harper?"

"He doesn't know either of 'em from Adam. Moreover their opinion wouldn't count with Hopkins."

"Whose would then?"

"Somebody in his own field, I suppose. Forgive me, Brenda, but you know that letter and package you gave me to mail last week? I couldn't help but recognize the name and address. If an expert like Wilkinson boosted Mac's work—"

"He did! Oh, he did! Wait; I'll show you." She ran upstairs eagerly and brought down the letter. "See, it says it's good work and Mac has brains!"

Eric's face underwent a sort of convulsion. He looked over Brenda's curls straight into space. After a moment he said: "Yes. Yes, I think we may take it for granted he has brains. Well, it's a pity Hopkins doesn't know about this letter. It might make all the difference."

She thrust it into his hand with feverish eagerness.

"Take it to him! Make him read it!"

"No," he answered sadly. "Don't you see it wouldn't carry any weight in that case? Hopkins knows I've never been in New York; that I don't know Wilkinson."

"All Mixed Up"

Brenda thought confusedly that there was a flaw in this reasoning, but she was too worried to hunt for it. She gazed at Eric sternly.

"Then I'll take it to him myself!"

Eric jumped. "No, no, Brenda! I didn't mean that at all! What I meant is that is you'd show Mac the letter, and tell him how you wrote this Wilkinson, he could—maybe—accomplish wonders with it. Anyway," he finished, "it would certainly buck him up to know you'd been trying to help him."

"You give it to him, and tell him."

Eric hesitated. "I'd rather not, if you don't mind. Mac would think I'd been appealing to you on his behalf, don't you see? You could explain it so much better, Brenda. I'll tell you! I happen to know he's going to be home tomorrow evening. There's a sort of lobby where he lives. How would it be if I borrowed Isobel's car and drove you down right after dinner? Just for a few minutes you know."

Her dark brows drew together anxiously. "You're getting me all mixed up about this, Eric. If Mac has the letter, I can't see what difference it makes who gives it to him."

"But you've been giving me thunder for helping Mac," he reminded her. "And now when you have an opportunity — maybe — not only to save his job for him but to give him a little friendly encouragement besides—and I'm here to tell you, Brenda, Mac needs friendly encouragement mighty bad just now!—you go all haughty and mid-Victorian—"

"Don't! I'm not! If Isobel will, let us have her car, I'll go with you. If she won't"—she paused and added impressively—"we'll take a taxi!"

But after Eric had taken his departure for his office the next morning, she changed her mind. Afterward she blamed Adelaide's calendar for it. It hung in a conspicuous place in her landlady's desk in the library. Brenda, wandering restlessly about the lower floor of the house, was transfixed by the date which stared in accusing black numbers at her. Two more days left in the month! And then it would be the first of the next, and any business man (the unlucky Mr. Hopkins's business ability had long had a low rating with Brenda but still he managed to keep afloat, it appeared) would certainly conclude any arrangements he might intend to make two or three days before a given date.

She made her decision on the instant. Running upstairs, she got into street clothes, examining with a sort of detached interest the small brilliant face above the collar of the fur coat Aunt Anne had given her last Christmas.

Half an hour later, she was being politely seated in a chair by old Mr. Hopkins' desk.

The News Behind The News

WASHINGTON
By Ray Tucker

WENDELL Willkie's write-in vote in the New Jersey Presidential primary has shocked and surprised the G. O. P. politicos. Without making any speeches or any campaign, the public utility magnate corralled about 10 per cent of the total balloting.

That total, although seemingly small, is almost unprecedented in a primary where a candidate like Mr. Willkie made no political appeal. It suggests that he would have swept New Jersey and other states had he entered as an active candidate for the nomination. His large write-in in New Jersey, and his strength in other sections of the country, have had this effect on the Republican politicians: They are afraid of Mr. Willkie because it begins to appear that the common folk like him. District leaders in at least two states have told their state Chairmen that they could "go to town with that fellow".

The politicians will smother him in the back room at Philadelphia if they can; they will try to select one of their own kind. But if they think they can win with Willkie, they will take him. Incredible as it may seem, he appears to be the G. O. P.'s dark and Trojan Horse for use under foreseeable circumstances. The playup of Herbert Hoover this week tells its own story.

IN: The Allies have made frantic appeals to Washington since the blitzkrieg in the Low Countries for arms and ammunition. They have asked for the famous 75-gun, for machine guns and for Coast Artillery weapons which shoot a shell 45,000 yards.

The appeal paints a dark picture for Great Britain and France. It reveals their desperate need of material in which they were supposed to be tops. But Washington's response to their begging for guns is the really important factor. Despite our desire and willingness to aid the Allies, we have not a thing to give them. Army records show that we have only about five hundred 75's left over from World War days.

Off the record, Washington is shipping to Great Britain and France every weapon we have which is available. If the Allies eventually stop the German thrust, it will be because of the stuff which we have thrown in during these critical days. We are backing up Great Britain and France today as strongly as our troops did at Chateau-Thierry in 1918. Which means that we are in this war up to our necks, though comparatively few of our citizens realize that's possible.

EXPLICIT: Despite plenty of evidence to the contrary, President Roosevelt has convinced political intimates by his words and actions that he will not seek a third term. He will, according to his disclosures to close friends, get behind a ticket consisting of Secretary Hull and Attorney General Jackson. If the Democrats in convention assembled take that slate, F. D. R. will step aside.

Within the past few weeks—since Hitler's blitzkrieg against the Low Countries—the President has told political friends that he will not run again. He has said that raising the third-term issue at this time would be most unfortunate. It would divide the country—and his party—at the very moment when unity of the national spirit is an essential need.

Men like Mayor LaGuardia, Phil LaFollette and George Norris — unselfish citizens — have tried to convince Mr. Roosevelt that he ought to run again. But he has told them what he has told the intimate members of his political household: Namely, that he will seek a third term "only in the event of actual invasion of the United States".

SHIFT: Despite President Roosevelt's declaration that "war conditions" will not end the era of social and economic reform inaugurated in days of peace, the benefits legislated for the "forgotten man" during the last seven years will be sharply curtailed.

F.D.R. has proclaimed that such institutions as the National Labor Relations Board and the Wage-Hour Law will not be injured or weakened because of the stress of war. He has said that the Securities Exchange Commission will continue to function as it has in the past. Every other social and economic agency which he has established, according to the President, will carry on as usual.

Well, that is the bunk. The heads of these agencies concede quite frankly that they are now on a "war-time basis" at the specific instructions of the White House. You cannot—and nobobdy realizes it better than President Roosevelt—be a liberal and warlike at the same time.

NEW YORK
By Richard Waldo

TO well-informed Canadians there's a lot of loose talk connected with the transfer of the British Empire's capital to Canada. It may come about, but only in such extremity as caused a handful of Warsaw officials to set up a Polish government in France. It would operate, according to Canadian officials, with nearly the same limitations—and lack of substance.

Four ties hold the British Commonwealth together and permit the small insular land of England to retain sovereignty over dominions, colonies, protectorates and mandates. They are the Imperial crown, England's indstrial plant, the British pound and the fleet.

(1) On the industrial side England is a vast factory, absorbing Commonwealth raw stuffs and supplying them with manufactures. This function could not be transplanted to Canada in less than a generation; (2) The British pound welds the Empire by provdng money, credt and exchange facilities in any part of the globe where needed. But the pound is supported, not by British gold but by the British industrial plant—the factory system plus the world's greatest merchant fleet for distribution. Without these industrial and marine anchors, the pound would be just another currency—as it would become in a Canadian-based Empire; (3) The fleet could carry on from Halifax (presuming the facilities of the U. S. shipyards were thrown open) but the value is academic if the first two conditions changed; (4) Assuming the worst, in the way of military prostration, the Imperial Crown might vault the Atlantic—but the conditions necessary thereto are revolutionary beyond immediate estimation.

SHARE: In the light of afterthought, big league Republican industrialists believe that even our military unpreparedness will be faced up as a political asset by the New Deal scribes.

The charge against F. D. R. in the end narrows down to waste, delay and inefficiency in building up defenses. A review of Congressional votes on Army and Navy appropriation bills for the last five years shows (1) that the slashes were inspired largely by the Republican sides of both chambers; (2) that of what remained to expend, Republicans as well as Democrats dipped into the armament pork barrel with a fine regard for party appropriations.

An administration audit accounting for every defense dollar of the last five years would read like the old radio gag—the only reason black horses ate more than white horses was that there were more of them. The feed bill came high in both hay racks.

Ruckus Threatened Over Anti-Trust La As Government's Armaments Drive Op

BY BRUCE CATTON
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 29.—One of the most significant struggles of the entire rearmament drive is now beginning to take shape over this question:

What part, if any, should the anti-trust laws play in the government's huge war-emergency spending program?

Bernard Baruch, who headed up the famous War Industries board in the last war, has suggested the President be given emergency powers to suspend these laws whenever they interfere with the producton of war-essential commodities.

Any suspension of the anti-trust laws, however, will occur only over the dead body of Assistant Attorney General Thurman Arnold, who runs the anti-trust division; and if it comes to a showdown, remember that Arnold is very close to Attorney General Robert Jackson and that Jackson is very close to the President.

SUSPENSION OF LAWS HELD UNNECESSARY

ARNOLD'S main point is that no suspension of the anti-trust laws can be necessary, for this reason:

The anti-trust laws bar unreasonable restraints of trade. Whenever the army and navy can show that a certain industrial combination is necessary to the national defense, the reasonableness of that combination is automatically proven and the anti-trust laws do not apply to it.

If, in other words, a production-controlling or price-fixing set-up does become necessary, if it is supported by responsible persons in government and industry, for reasons which can be examined in the open—then it can be had without any suspension of the laws.

On the other hand, the anti-trust division is determined to act against sub-rosa price-fixing schemes as energetically as ever.

CONSUMER PROTECTION NOW BEING PLANNED

THE division, furthermore, is anxious to swing into action on a broad program of consumer-protection.

During the last war food prices shot skyward, and an acute housing shortage developed. Arnold is anxious that this be kept from happening again.

His famous building costs campaign is protection against an undue rise in building costs—or would be, if a little more money were at hand to carry it farther and keep on with it longer.

Plans are now being laid for a thorough study of food-distribution costs, probably centering in New York and Chicago, in which every combination and all of little rackets which a food costs would be att

TEXANS TURN
TO F.H.A. HOMES
UNDER $3,000
Texas families in ever increasing numbers are turning to FHA financing facilities in building or purchasing homes costing $3,000 or less, officials of the FHA report. So marked has been the increase in the demand for these homes, which may be bought on payments of $25 a month or less, that we have recently placed on the market a number of ideal building sites which are suitable for homes of this cost. Let us show you some ideal lots in 55 and 60 foot frontage that will meet every requirement of the FHA and we will get your FHA loan for you, then your housing worries will be over. Unification Of Methodist Churches Progresses At Meet

Maverick Says He Has Taken All Abuse He Is Going To; He Will Be More Aggressive

SAN ANTONIO, May 29. (AP) — Mayor Maury Maverick in a special commission meeting today declared that he had taken all the abuse that he was going to take and that he intended to be more aggressive than ever in the coming political campaigns.

Whatever steps are necessary to stop the abuse will be taken by the mayor, he asserted.

Maverick apparently was speaking of the actions of the pro-Garnerites at the state Democratic convention in Waco in foiling his efforts to take over the meeting in behalf of President Roosevelt and in defeating Maverick as national committeeman.

In speaking of his altercation in Waco with Mayor Tom Miller of Austin, Maverick declared that he was not struck. He said he was bowled over, however, when Floyd McGowan, his executive assistant, rushed in between them.

"Floyd got hit," he laughed, "but it was highly proper. He is the executive assistant and gets paid for it."

The mayor said that he was sorry for the rough words exchanged between him and Miller.

Diplomas Received By Negro Graduates

Seven seniors of Dunbar negro school received diplomas at commencement exercises Tuesday night, according to E. C. Struggs, principal.

Graduates were Nelda Lee Flakes, honor student, and Richard Knox, Sammie Lee Day, Leona Johnson, James Williams, Marie Bailey and Eddie Harris. The honor student received a $10 cash award offered by Dr. J. T. Hutchinson, president of the Lubbock city school board, and $20 presented by Clarence Pennington, Lubbock business man.

Diplomas were presented by W. B. Atkins, vice president of the city school board, who served in the absence of Dr. Hutchinson. Atkins was introduced by Dr. W. B. Irvin, city school superintendent.

Dr. J. A. Chapman, negro physician, delivered the commencement address. Others appearing on the program were the school glee club and a girl's quartet composed of Erma Hays, Ada Belle Houston, Aline Bracey and Myrtice Fay Morgan, both directed by Elsie Struggs; the processional and recessional, played by Edna Ray Wortham; and the invocation by Rev. Clyde Morgan, pastor of the negro Church of Christ.

Economy Drive Is Conducted

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., May 29 (UP) — Unification of the Northern and Southern Methodists reached the budget stage today as an eight-state church conference began to eliminate overlapping functions.

The economy drive was said to be aimed first at absolishing one of the two southwestern publishing houses, at Kansas City and Dallas, or combining them. A recommendation was due soon from the publishing committee, headed by the Rev. Angie Smith of Dallas.

Finances Talked

Financial matters as they affect the individual congregation were in the hands of the committee on lay activities and temporal economy with H. F. Banker of Houston Texas, the chairman.

Banker said his group favors appointment of a permanent jurisdictional board to handle the retrenchment work.

An important task facing the 300 delegates was appointment of a successor to Bishop Charles L. Mead, Kansas City, who will retire at the end of the conference. Dr. Paul Quillan of Houston, Texas, has been mentioned as Mead's successor.

No Stand On War

Hundreds of additional visitors registered at municipal auditorium as attendance mounted toward an expected total of 10,000. States forming the new conference are Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Missouri, Louisiana, Kansas, Nebraska and New Mexico.

The conference yesterday heard Bishop Ivan Lee Holt; Dallas, express sympathy for the Allies and hint that sentiment for a "holy war" against Germany is developing among church leaders.

Holt said churchmen had not decided whether to ignore the European war or whether "tyranny must be resisted, even at the cost of life."

Flight Training To Be Available

Flight training will be available this summer to 50 students and former students of Texas Technological college, by arrangement made Wednesday by the college and the Civil Aeronautics authority.

Dr. Clifford B. Jones, Tech president, made the announcement after conversation by telephone with CAA officials in Fort Worth. He had conferred with officials in Fort Worth Tuesday.

May File Applications

Men students and former students may file applications for the training with Robert P. Vail, who has directed the ground school instruction during the session now ending. Many students have filed applications for training during the 1940-41 session and some of those students may wish to change their applications and ask for the training during the summer, it was pointed out.

The training will be offered between June 15 and Sept. 1. Those applying must be between ages of 18 and 25, as of Oct. 1, 1940, said President Jones.

Staff Not Announced

The course will include 48 hours of ground instruction, as compared with 72 during the long session training program. Ground instruction will be limited to navigation and meteorology.

Complete staff of ground and flight training instructors was not ready for announcement Wednesday. Vail and Hollie Cross will continue on the ground school staff. Clent Breedlove, flight director during the session now ending, will be on the flight staff.

Further announcement concerning the fee and details of the program will be made later at the college.

The training will lead to private pilot licenses for those taking the course.

In arranging for the summer program the college was "actuated by steadily increasing interest in aviation and by the fine training obtained from the flying course of the past year". Students who have been enrolled "have received valuable experience and training, without a single mishap," Dr. Jones said.

Judge Reed To Speak At Memorial Service

LAMESA, May 29 (Special) — Lamesa American Legion's Memorial day services will be addressed Thursday morning by District Judge Louis B. Reed, on the courthouse lawn.

Decoration of graves in cemeteries of the county will be on the program.

Lamesa high school band will open the program at 7:15 o'clock with the audience singing America, led by V. Z. Rogers. Rev. E. D Landreth will give the invocation. D. O. Blackmon will direct a roll call and unveiling service after the address by Judge Reed.

DOUGLAS TO SPEAK

FORT WORTH, May 29 (AP) — United States Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas will address the state bar of Texas during its convention in Fort Worth July 4, 5, and 6.

Possibility Of Escape Of Trapped Allies Is Cited

By J. W. T. MASON
United Press War Expert

Germany has failed to surround the Allied Flanders armies. Indications point to successful retirements across the channel back to England, continuing for several days. It is now becoming apparent that the desperate fighting of the Allies this week has been rear guard actions on a very large scale, covering the transportation of British troops returning to England. It may well be that a part of the Belgian army too was thus rescued before King Leopold's capitulation.

Germany announced the capture of Ostend only today. Dunkirk remains open to the Allies as apparently does the strongly fortified port of Gravelines, between Dunkirk and Calais. Allied evacuations through these exits still may be successfully continuing.

Planned To Retire

General Weygand's strategic plan from the beginning of the Flanders battle is now seen to have envisaged an eventual retirement from the Flanders pocket. He did not order a major counter-offensive not only because he had no time to reorganize his armies after the German break through at Sedan, but also because the inevitable casualties would not have been justified by the territorial gains.

Since the Belgian king's surrender, German pressure against the greatly inferior Allied forces has not developed such strength as might have been expected. The Germans have been on the offensive throughout the Flanders campaign, and casualties are normally at least three to one against attacking troops.

Reason For No Drive

The German high command now has to consider the partial exhaustion which always follows a long major offensive. This is why no blitzkrieg stroke has been directed against the slowly retreating Allies, depleted though their numbers are by the Belgian capitulation. Time has been given to a very large proportion of the Allied forces to get away.

The exaggerated expectations of Berlin that up to a million Allied troops in Flanders would be forced to surrender or die are not being justified by the turn present events are taking. Germany will get the channel ports, but their future value is yet to be determined and any major advantage to the Germans will have to await future developments.

Germans Taxed

Capture of Narvik by the Allies indicates that the Germans have over-extended their battle front. They have been compelled to relinquish their pressure in Norway because of the enormous demands for men and material along the western battle line. This problem of supply is a grave one for the Germans, now that fighting has developed in the open. It must enter into all calculations concerning the future ability of the Germans to develop major offensives of long duration.

Narvik is the port for transportation by sea of Swedish ore so vital to the Germans, if the war is long drawn. The capture by the Allies of a supply station of such importance is conclusive indication that Germany has been so hard-pressed in recent fighting as to compel Hitler to abandon hope of successes at sea.

Withdraw From Sea

If Germany could have evolved a plan for transporting ore from Narvik through Norwegian coastal waters into the Baltic, the high command undoubtedly would have made more desperate efforts to retain the new form of offensive fighting with planes and mechanized units. The submarine and cruiser activities of the Germans have had to be suspended for this reason; and the sea raiding phase of the war now appears to have ended with Germany's withdrawal from water warfare. The Allied mastery of the sea is thus reaffirmed. German plans for an invasion of England will have to face this fact as Britain's paramount bulwark.
