Passage ensures 1000-bed jail facility in Mitchell County

Constitutional Amendment election is Tues., support urged for Proposition 14

277 ballots were cast in the early voting period in Mitchell County and the large turnout was prompted by Proposition 14 on the ballot concerning the funding of state jails and other correctional facilities in Texas.

If passed in the election which is scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 2, a 1000-bed state jail will be built next to the 80-John Wallace Unit here in Mitchell County.

A small voter turnout is predicted state-wide and it is very possible that more votes will be cast in Mitchell County than in counties with a much larger voter registration list if early voting is any indication.

Local civic leaders and law enforcement officials have all expressed how important the passage of Proposition 14 is to the welfare of Mitchell County and the state of Texas.

Precinct 1 voters will cast their ballots at the CISD School Administration Building, Precinct 2 will vote at the Westbrook ISD School Tax Office, Precinct 3 voters will cast their ballots at the Mitchell County Courthouse, Precinct 4 will vote at the Loraine Sr. Citizens Center, Precinct 025 will vote at the Oak Street Baptist Church and Precinct 046 voters will cast their ballots at the Calvary Baptist Church.

This week, State Rep. Rob Junell called the upcoming election "one of the most important elections that we've had in a number of years" saying passage of Proposition 14 is important for public safety.

"Every time an inmate is admitted to the state prison system, another inmate must be released," Junell said. "Some of the horror stories you have heard are from people who shouldn't have been let out of prison but there was no room."

Although the state needs to address juvenile crime and other needs through better and earlier education efforts, it must address the need to house already convicted inmates now, Junell said.

Mitchell County Sheriff Patrick Toombs said this week that the county jail averaged 20 to 25 inmates daily - just a few short of its capacity of 29.

"It used to be just the larger metropolitan jails that were full," said Toombs, "now they all are."

Briefly, the 16 propositions are as follows:

Proposition 1: $50 million in bonds for historically underutilized businesses.

Proposition 2: Property tax exemption for certain pollution control devices.

Proposition 3: Relinquishing state interest in land in Fort Bend and Austin counties.

Proposition 4: Income tax referendum, dedication to education and school tax relief.

Proposition 5: Authorizing the legislature to prescribe qualifications for sheriffs.

Proposition 6: Abolishing the elected office of county surveyor in Jackson County.

Proposition 7: Repeal of corporate requirements for issuing stocks and bonds.

Proposition 8: Abolishing the elected office of county surveyor in Hospital Auxiliary to celebrate 25th Anniversary on Sunday

The Mitchell County Hospital Auxiliary is celebrating its twenty-fifth anniversary this month. In honor of the Auxiliary's years of dedicated service, Mitchell County Hospital District is hosting a reception on Sunday, October 31st, from 2 p.m. until 4 p.m. in the C.C. Thompson Room at City National Bank.

The first organizational meeting for the Hospital Auxiliary (originally the Root Memorial Auxiliary) was held in 1967. The Auxiliary, organized by Marion Bassham, who was a registered nurse at the hospital, became affiliated with the Texas Association of Hospital Auxiliaries in 1968.

Through the years, the Hospital Auxiliary has been a vital support to the Mitchell County Hospital District. Over $212,000 worth of equipment and scholarships have been provided by the Mitchell County Hospital Auxiliary since 1969. The Auxiliary members have purchased wheelchairs, heart monitors, televisions for patient rooms, a portable X-ray machine, an infant incubator and a variety of other hospital equipment, according to Bonnie Farrar, Auxiliary President.

Col-Tex work is expected to start in mid-November

Work at the Col-Tex refinery site is expected to start within two weeks according to Diane Poteet of the Texas Natural Resource Conservation Commission.

There has been a change in the over-site contractor according to Mrs. Poteet as the original contractor selected by the state, Ebasco, decided not to participate in the project.

Intera, an Austin based environmental company, will be the over-site contractor and the contractor who will do the actual dismantling of the three remaining tanks at the site is expected to be formalized no later than this Tuesday.

This initial project is expected to take approximately ninety days. As the tanks are being dismantled, testing will be conducted by Fina and the TNRCC.

Two more suits filed against Fina and others

Two more suits have been filed in District Court as a result of the contamination at the old Col-Tex refinery site.

Santos Reyes, his wife Lucy, Delma Reyes Rocha, Cynthia Reyes, Elizabeth Reyes and Santos Reyes filed suit against El Paso Electric Company and other defendants including American Petrofina, Fina Oil and Gas, Chevron U.S.A., Colorado City Industrial Foundation and Renderbrook-Spade, Inc. This is the third set of lawsuits that have

The Mitchell County Hospital Auxiliary is an integral part of the hospital. The Auxiliary's support is greatly appreciated by the governing body, physicians, staff and administration. We value their diligence and dedicated service," says Wendell Alford, Mitchell County Hospital District Administrator.

The public is invited to attend the reception for the Hospital Auxiliary on Sunday afternoon. Once again, the reception will be held in the C.C. Thompson Room at City National Bank from 2 p.m. until 4 p.m. on October 31.

Time to "fall back" again

It's time to catch up that one hour of sleep that was lost back in the spring when Daylight Savings Time went into effect.

Sunday morning at 2:00 a.m., DLST will officially end and, lo and behold, it will be 1:00 a.m.

So set your clocks back an hour before you go to bed and you will be on time for the next few months.

Mitchell County Hospital has 28 percent admissions increase

Admissions at Mitchell County Hospital were up considerably over last fiscal year. Hospital Administrator Wendell Alford told the hospital board this week.

While other small town hospitals are on the decline for the most part, admissions increased 28.1 percent locally. 939 patients were admitted through the end of the fiscal year Sept. 30 as compared to 733 the previous year.

Emergency room visits increased by 466 or 21.4 percent.

Births at the hospital increased by 3 - 113 from 110 and the number of in-patient surgeries also increased.

They increased 58 percent from 36 a year ago to 57 this past year.

The hospital board heard a presentation from Texas Tech concerning possible changes in the Loan applications for range fire loss accepted by FmHA

Applications for emergency farm loans for losses caused by range fires are being accepted at the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) office located in Sweetwater, FmHA County Supervisor Dennis Cumbie said this week.

Nolan and Mitchell Counties are 2 of 149 in Texas recently named by Secretary of Agriculture Mike Espy as eligible for loans to cover part of actual production losses resulting from the range fires.

Cumbie said farmers may be eligible for loans of up to 80 percent of their actual losses or the operating loan needed to continue in business or $500,000, whichever is less. For farmers unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, the interest is 4.5 percent.

"As a general rule, a farmer must have suffered at least a 30 percent loss of production to be eligible for an FmHA emergency loan," Cumbie said. "Farmers participating in the PIK or Federal Crop Insurance program will have to figure in proceeds from those programs in determining their loss."

"Applications for loans under this emergency designation will be accepted until May 10, 1994 but farmers should apply as soon as possible. Delays in applying could create backlogs in processing, possibly over into the new farming season," Cumbie said.

FmHA is a credit agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It is authorized to provide disaster emergency loans to recognized farmers who work at and rely on farming for a substantial part of their living. Eligibility is extended to individual farmers who are U.S. citizens and to farming partnerships, corporations or cooperatives in which U.S. citizens hold a majority interest.

The FmHA office in Sweetwater is open from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Farmers and ranchers to participate in 1993 Crop and Livestock Surveys

Early in November the Texas Agricultural Statistics Service will begin contacting farm and ranch operators on the Fall 1993 Crop and Livestock Surveys. Early survey results will be used to estimate final acreage production for crops grown in 1993. Later surveys will be used to determine January 1 livestock inventory numbers.

Approximately 52,000 farmers and ranchers have been selected to represent Texas agriculture. Reported information will not only represent the selected producer but also other farmers and ranchers who have similar size and type operations. Individual reports will be expanded and summarized to provide state and county estimates.

"To obtain an accurate picture of Texas agriculture, we depend on voluntary cooperation of farmers and ranchers and we hope each operator contacted will participate in these important year-end surveys. All information received is strictly confidential and protected by law from any disclosure," State Statistician Dennis Findley said. Survey results will be published in Texas Agricultural Facts, which will be available to all survey respondents. Anyone may receive the survey results by calling 1-800-626-3142 and requesting the 1993 Texas Agricultural Facts Annual Summary.

"For children to be ready for a changing world, education needs a work of change."

Did you know...

* The Texas population is aging as the baby boomer generation begins to reach middle age.

* The ratio of working age to elderly people in Texas shrank from 9:1 in 1950 to 6:1 in 1990. The Texas Comptroller forecasts that by the year 2026, the ratio may drop to 4:1. As a result, fewer future workers will pay for services for the elderly.

* During the 1980s the number of unemployed Texans increased by 123% compared to only a 14% increase nationally.

* By the year 2000, 80% of all jobs will be service-based jobs: transportation, communication and public utilities, wholesale and retail trade, finance, real estate, insurance, government and health, business, legal and hotel services.

(Sources: S.H. Murock's Demographic and Socioeconomic Change in the Texas Population, 1980-1990, Vol. 1, and R. Marshall and Mark Tucker's Thinking for a Living.)

If we look at the data then what is the future of education for Texas children? What do high school students need to know and be able to do by the time they graduate? Do you have an opinion on this question? If you do and you want your voice to be heard, please plan to attend a Real World Forum to be held in Colorado City during the month of November.

What exactly is a Real World Forum? The brainchild of Texas Education Commissioner Skip Meno, these forums will offer grass roots folks an opportunity to voice their opinions about what schools need to teach in order to prepare our students for the 21st century. Thirteen school personnel and community people were trained as discussion leaders for these forums, which can be held at any location in Mitchell County this month.

The forums will last about an hour to an hour and a half and will include a short video presentation followed by small group interaction. All results form the small groups will be sent to the Texas Education Agency, which will then compile all of the results from the state. The resulting document will chart the course of Texas education in the 21st century.

Look for announcements about the Real World Forums and make plans to attend one. As citizens and taxpayers of rural West Texas, it is imperative that our voices are heard alongside those from the metropolitan areas. Be a voice in the "changing world of education!"

8th grade Wolves defeat Greenwood

The 8th grade Wolves held Greenwood scoreless until the fourth quarter for a victory over the Rangers 20 to 6.

In the first quarter, Justin Sparkman ran a quarterback sneak up the middle for the touchdown and then again for the extra points accounting for the first 8 points of the game. Sparkman then connected with Adam Molina in the second quarter and the fourth quarter with touchdown passes.

The offensive line cleared the way for Aaron Emerson, Chris Fambro and Adam Molina to run through the Rangers' defense setting up the touchdown drives. Good execution by the offensive line consisting of Jonathan Jones, Jeff Anzaldúa, Johnathan Castro, Cody Kemp, Adam Wood, Armando Rivera, Chris Martinez and Javier Quintero led the way. Also contributing to the offensive effort were Roland Nelson, Ray Martin, Jebby Forbes, Perry Noblett, Micah Brannon, Brian Arocha, Scotty Vasques, Joshua Bell, Wesley Chambliss, Joey Lopez, Timmy Arocha, Daniel Garcia and Chad Golden.

Coach Powell thought this was the best game of the year. "We played extremely well both offensively and defensively. Greenwood has a very good team. This was only their second loss in two years.

"We have progressively played better each week and it showed Thursday night. They have worked hard and deserved to win. We ended up with 5 wins and 2 losses, our only losses being to Stanton."

Coach Richburg says the team had a lot of class and played with much enthusiasm. "It was a big win and a great season ending on a good note."

VOTE YES

To Fight Crime!

Overcrowded prisons threaten the safety of our families and our communities. Because we don't have enough prison cells, violent criminals get put back on our streets years before they complete their sentences.

Passage of Proposition 14 will authorize the state to sell bonds to build state jail facilities to house non-violent criminals, thus allowing the state prison system to keep the violent criminals locked up.

Mitchell County has been selected as a site for a jail facility! Let's vote in large numbers and let's vote for Proposition 14!

7th grade Wolves lose to Greenwood

The Greenwood Rangers scored a touchdown in each of the first two quarters and then kept the Wolves out of the end zone for a victory.

The second half showed much improvement for the Wolves as the defense led by Joseph Cardenas, Brett Hoyle and Armondo Rocha did not allow the Rangers another score.

The Wolves' offense moved the ball up and down the field, but could not find the end zone to put points on the board.

8th grade 'A' Volleyball team wins final game

The 8th Grade A Team traveled to Water Valley for their final volleyball game of the season. Colorado City won after 3 games, 15-5, 11-15 and 15-9, making their season record 7-4 and they placed 2nd in the Snyder Tourney.

Scoring points for Colorado City were Jana Redwine, Cinnamon Hampton, Ashley Turner, Cheryl Ortiz, Mica Merrell, Kimberly Hall, Nikol Swann, Bettina Bridgford, Belinda Miles and Barbara Rivera.

Hits were made by Mica Merrell, Bettina Bridgford, Kim

Hall, Angela Chaney, Cinnamon Hampton and Nikol Swann.

Coach Mathis said, "Snyder was the only team to beat us this year. Both Colorado City and Snyder have excellent teams that use all the skills in volleyball. I'm pleased with the girls and all their improvements and success this year."

"Thanks for all the parent support throughout our season!"

The first basketball game of the season will be on November 18 in Sweetwater.

Rangers blow past Wolves 56 - 28

By Cliff Vlasin

The Greenwood Rangers stayed in the District 6-3A playoff hunt Friday night, downing the Colorado City Wolves, 55-28.

With a blustering north wind at their back, the Rangers streaked to a 28-0 first-quarter lead. Although Greenwood ran only eight plays in the opening quarter, four of them resulted in touchdowns, and the Wolves were in a cold, deep hole they couldn't climb out of.

To their credit, however, the home team never gave up. Down 42-0 late in the first half, quarterback Jason Castillo fooled the Rangers on a pass-option play, walking the five yards to give the Wolves their first points.

The run capped a seven-play drive in which Castillo hit on four straight passes to put C-City in scoring position.

Beginning the drive at the Wolf 39-yard line, Castillo hit Greg Gaona for 11 yards, Frank Espinoza for 15, Jim Lemons for 15, and Espinoza again for 14 to give the men in red first-and-goal at the six.

A two-point conversion failed, and the half ended with Greenwood holding a commanding 46-6 lead.

The Wolves came out fired up in the second half, and seemed to increase in intensity as the horizontal snowfall built up.

Less than one minute into the third quarter, the Wolves recovered a Ranger fumble at the 22-yard line.

On the first play from scrimmage, Castillo found Daniel Silva wide open in the end zone, hitting him with a 22-yard strike, on of three TD aerials from the junior quarterback.

The Wolves scored twice in the fourth quarter, despite running against the substantial wind.

With exactly one minute gone in the fourth quarter, Castillo found Ashley Walthall for the first of his two touchdowns on the night, a 30-yarder that featured some fancy running by Walthall.

Frank Espinoza added the point-after to make it 49-21, Greenwood.

The Wolves took advantage of another Ranger miscue at the 9:29 mark of the final period, after sophomore Jeff Hill recovered a Greenwood fumble just 38 yards from the end zone.

Two plays later, Castillo hit Walthall again and the senior back slipped down the sideline and in for his second score of the night.

Espinoza bounced the point-after off the top of the crossbar and over to make it 49-28.

An onside kick failed, however, and Greenwood added another tally with just over two minutes left in the game for the final margin of victory.

Castillo finished the night with 154 yards passing with Gaona and Lemons hauling in three each for 38 and 29 yards respectively.

Walthall caught only two passes for 50 yards, but both were for touchdowns, while Espinoza nabbed two for 29 yards and Silva one for 22.

Walthall added 46 yards on the ground, which was over half of the Wolves rushing total.

Colorado City finished the night with 12 first downs and 238 yards in total offense.

The Rangers piled up 445 yards and 15 first downs on the night, all of it coming on the ground.

The two teams put the ball on the ground seven times on the snow-driven field, with Greenwood fumbling four times and losing three while the Wolves dropped it three times and lost two of them.

Greenwood also picked off two Castillo passes, both of which set up Ranger scores.

Only one game remains on the 1993 schedule as the Wolves travel to Big Lake next Friday to take on state-ranked Reagan County.

Homecoming win caps successful Wildcat season

The Westbrook Wildcats ended their 1993 season with a winning record after handling the Midland Trinity Chargers 50-20 Friday night at Homecoming.

Seniors Jay Browne and Greg Conaway scored three times each to pace the Wildcats, who finished the year at 7-2.

Freshmen Casey Hill and George Rincones scored once each while Jay Luna added an extra point kick to round out the scoring.

The Wildcats will begin a full varsity six-man schedule in 1994.

GET OUT OF MY WAY. Westbrook senior Greg Conaway (30) tries to pound through a Midland Trinity tackle while teammates Jay Browne (10) and Heath Morris (55) shout encouragement. Conaway scored three times in the Wildcats 50-20 Homecoming win.

HEALTH NEWS

Breast Cancer is the number two killer of American women, after lung cancer. It is estimated that one out of every nine women will develop breast cancer at some time in her life. But, as many women who have been struck by cancer and survived can tell you, finding out you have breast cancer does not mean you are going to die. Your best chance for survival is early detection. Dee Roach, M.D., Chief of Staff of Mitchell County Hospital, stresses that arming yourself with the proper information, whether you already know you have breast cancer or not, can make all the difference in the world.

"It's not necessary for women to live in fear. It is important, however, for them to know that they might be the next victim of breast cancer," says Dr. Roach. "But, you can't stop there—you need to know what the risks are of getting any of these forms of cancer, and how often you should go to an expert for an exam for early detection."

The following is a short list of facts and recommendations concerning breast cancer for the American Cancer Society.

- Some women are at higher risk than others for breast cancer, and can increase their chances of survivability considerably if the disease is detected through an annual exam or mammogram. Mammography, an X-ray of the breast, is vital to early diagnosis of breast cancer. The earlier breast cancer is discovered, the better the chance for cure.

- Age and personal history of breast cancer are the highest risk factors. Others include a family history of breast cancer, never having had children, or having your first child after the age of 30.

- You should conduct a self-exam monthly. See your doctor if you find a lump in your breast, if liquid discharges from your nipples, or you discover any abnormal changes in your breasts.

- Age 20 to 40: Have your doctor check your breasts every three years.

- Age 35 to 39: Have your first mammogram.

- Age 40 to 50: Have an annual breast exam and a mammogram every year or two, depending upon the recommendation of your doctor.
- Over age 50: Have an annual breast exam and mammogram.

"Almost all breast cancers are initially found by the patient," says Dr. Roach, "so I cannot stress enough the importance of self-exam. However, a mammogram can detect even the most minute growths in the breast long before they've grown to a size large enough for you to feel. So, between the two, you have a chance at early detection and a rapid, complete recovery."
