County Valuations To Top $34 Million

Mitchell County Commissioners Court expects to spend approximately $606,907 for all county operations and projects next year.

The proposed expenditures are included in the budget being prepared for public hearing Sept. 16 in the Courthouse.

Income to meet the expected expenditures in the proposed budget is expected to be approximately $578,000 from all sources.

Additional cash to meet the difference between the expected income and the expenditures will come from cash balances left over at the end of the 1969 budget year from short term time warrants planned for purchase of $21,000 in building and corner lot for a new office complex for state welfare, mental health and commodities food program in downtown Colorado City.

There is no tax rate increase but county income from taxes will be higher for 1970 operations because of the increase for tax property valuation base.

The county has been managing to get along on a base of 22 per cent of actual property value. But this is going up to 25 per cent - three points more than the previous.

That will push county tax valuations up to $34,000,000 - about four million dollars more than in the previous year.

Based on estimate of 98 per cent collections and the overall tax rate of $1.25 per $100 valuation, this new 25 per cent level is expected to produce about $404,470 cash.

Auto registrations will bring in approximately $110,000 more, lateral roads refund from the state will add $21,000 more and all the rest - except which might come from leftover '69 unspent cash and issuance of warrants - will come from fees, fines, court costs and similar channels.

The county's expected tax income will be more definite by the time the public has opportunity to speak its opinion at the hearing Sept. 16, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. This is because commissioners still awaiting final figures from Pritchard-Abbott, Fort Worth-tax consultants, who are compiling final tax figures for oil, gas and utilities.

For 1969 Commissioners are expecting approximately $512,840 income from all sources by Dec. 31 - compared to $578,040 expected for 1970.

Expenditures for the current year are expected to close out at about $30,000 less than planned in 1970 - $635,303.

In addition to the new office complex downtown and the beginning of a Commodities Food Program for needy families, the county in its new budget probably will place Mitchell County employees in Texas County and District Re-irement System next year and is expected to go ahead with a Courthouse memorial to county servicemen who died in uniform.

Commissioners already have authorized formal application for inclusion in the retirement system.

There will be options as to the amount of deposit rates by county employees into the retirement fund.

Watermelon Pause

Chamber of Commerce Manager Sefton Pickens cuts the first cold watermelon for participants in the Mitchell County farm tour. The mid-morning feast brought a refreshing break in the tour that checked crops and farm conservation projects.

Grazing Danger County Warning After Rainfalls

Repeated rain showers have brought welcomed moisture to thirsty farm and ranch lands of Mitchell County.

The rain, which ranged from around one inch to more than four inches across the county, came too late for some crops.

For the most part, though, the moisture helped cotton, grains, range and livestock ponds.

It also curtailed the upsurge of range and grass fires on sun dried land.

But it also has brought a warning for farmers and ranchers to be on the alert against prussic acid poisoning of livestock in the aftermath of the rains.

The poisoning already has struck in Mitchell County, according to County Agent Bobby Lemons.

"Each year we lose a few animals because of prussic acid poisoning," Lemons said. "But the less may be exceptional now unless we are aware and cautious to the danger."

The poisoning develops after foraging on sorghums, sudan grass, sorghum hybrids or Johnson grass when these grasses break into prussic acid in the animal's digestive tract.

This poisonous material is most likely to be present in young immature stands or in second growth following periods of drought or mechanical harvesting.

There is danger also in the fall immediately following the first frost.

"We are especially liable to this threat," Lemons said, "with drought distressed sorghums and on regrowth of grasses."

"And those with diverted acres who are expecting good grazing now should be watchful."

"In some cases it might be best to do a little feeding now and turn stock out after a dry out."

Cattle are more susceptible to the poison than sheep or goats, the agent said. Horses and swine rarely are injured.

Cattle and sheep may die within a few minutes after eating the toxic material, depending upon amount eaten.

Lemons reported one producer had eight animals down at one time this week, but was See GRAZING Page 3

Managers Set Meeting Here

Chamber of Commerce professional executives from a wide area of West Texas still come to Colorado City for a workshop.

They are members of Permian Basin C of C Managers Association and will be in sessions here Friday and Saturday, Sept. 5-6.

Gene Garrison of Odessa, president of the association, will preside at workshop sessions and Sefton Pickens, Colorado City Chamber manager, host.

The workshop will be designed as a self-help program for the professionals in developing and successfully carrying out chamber of commerce programs within their own communities.

"There will be a panel discussion and problems, programs and comments will be localized to particular locations and organizations," Pickens said.

"The managers will be relating from their own experience how they have solved problems in their own programs. In this exchange of ideas and information we can channel techniques to our individual communities."

The meeting will officially begin at 5:30 p.m. Friday with a reception, then move quickly See MANAGERS Page 3

Court Fees COMING BACK IN '70

Going Up Monday

Fees for 32nd District Court will go up Monday under revisions voted by the Texas Legislature.

District Clerk Bill Erwin has listed the new fees in letters to lawyers in the area.

The new schedule of fees list separate costs for all legal categories. Previously, the state statutes provided for district courts in counties of Mitchell's population to have a straight $15 fee plus $5 additional if a jury was wanted in the case.

New fees going into effect Sept. 1 for district courts in counties 900,000 or less population include:

Civil - $15 filing, $4 issuing citation and copy, $4 law library, $4 sheriff's fee for $27 total; Civil (no service) - $15 filing, $4 law library for total of $19.

Divorce - $15 filing, $4 issuing citation and copy, $4 law library, $4 sheriff's fee and $1 certificate for total $28; show cause - $4 for issuing precept and copy, $4 for sheriff's fee; divorce waiver - $15 filing fee, $2 for certified copies, $4 library and $1 certificate for $22 total.

Contempt - $10 filing, $4 issuing precept and $4 sheriff's fee for $18 total; adoption - $15 filing, $2 and $1 certificates, $4 law library, $4 issuing citation, $4 sheriff's fee and $4.50 new birth certificate - for $34.50 total.

Jury fee will continue at $5 and commission fee will be $4.

County Fair Cancelled

Mitchell County Fair is being cancelled for this year.

Decision to cancel the 1969 event and begin work immediately for a 1970 fair was made Thursday at a meeting of the fair committee.

Several factors contributed to the decision, including conflict with other activities and a general slow down in community interest.

However, a major influence for cancellation was the inability to secure adequate carnival rides for the fair.

"We just could not secure the rides," said County Agent Bobby Lemons, who became fair committee chairman at a late date. "The committee was under the impression that it had rides scheduled for the fair dates in September, but the owner said he couldn't fit us into his calendar."

The committee contacted other rides after the unexpected turn down and offered to rest the fair for later dates in September and October, but to no avail.

A sub-committee of Lemons, Buster Aycock and Sefton Pickens will attempt to contract for rides for the 1970 fair within the next few weeks.

Other plans are expected to be inaugurated now for the '70 fair, so as to enlist maximum support, prepare a successful program and line up of exhibits.

5,800 Dresses Now!

Second Shipment Leaves New Plant

Second load of dresses moved out of Colorado City Manufacturing plant Saturday for Jeanne Manufacturing's distribution center in Dallas.

The shipment 1200 culotte sets and 1590 shift styled dresses.

Original shipment from the plant - the previous weekend included 2500 dresses.

That's a total of approximately 5,800 dresses and culotte sets manufactured by the new Colorado City industry since plant started its production line Aug. 6.

Employment level now has built up to 65 workers under the management of Mrs. Jo Denson.

A new truck, purchased by Jeanne Manufacturing expressly for the Colorado City-Dallas transport job, carried the new shipment to Dallas Saturday.

Before loading the new production, the truck brought nine more machines for the production line that now has almost 100 machines in the plant.

New materials also were moved here for another style of dresses which will be manufactured this week.

Izy Freudenreich, the Jeanne executive in Dallas who usually visits the Colorado City plant each week, plans to be here again by mid-week.

He told the Record Saturday that production was moving ahead here in "good manner" and that the build-up in production would continue.

Only one step in a complete manufacturing process is eliminated from the new plant. That is the spreading and cutting of material.

However, a cutting table more than 100 feet long already has been installed and this procedure is expected to be started here within a week or two.

A Colorado City resident has been training in Jeanne's Dallas See DRESSES Page 2

There's No Ending

Just as Colorado City Manufacturing Company workers finished their first 2,500 Jeanne label dresses (top photo), material stacked high for a new order (bottom photo) in the continuous line of production. At the weekend the total amounted to 5,800 and a second shipment moved out of the plant.

Cope Retires From Lorraine Post Office

Friday marked the last official day of employment for Russell B. Cope of Lorraine, who has retired after 37 years with Lorraine's United States Post Office.

Cope first began work as postmaster in Lorraine June 26, 1934 and served in that position for about 11 years.

He then transferred to rural mail carrier and has delivered mail for patrons on Lorraine's Route One since that time.

In speaking of changes which have taken place since he began his rural route, Cope emphasized improvement in county roads. "Improvement in cars have also made the mail carrier's job easier in recent years," he said.

He plans to fill his retirement hours with "a little farming and a lot of hunting."

Cope was born Aug. 26, 1899 in Lorraine. He came to Mitchell County in 1919 and started working in a Lorraine gin. He later worked at a service station, did some farming, was employed by Mitchell County and served as a Marine corporal in World War I and WW II.

Mrs. Cope, the former Inez Meador of Fluvanna, has taught in Lorraine School about 34 years.

They have one daughter, Mrs. A. G. (Mary Frances) Furlow Jr. of Colorado City; a granddaughter, Mrs. Raymond (Joyce Lynn) Hughes, and a great-granddaughter, Joni of Jayton.

GRAZING From Page 1 able to save them. He advised calling veterinarian immediately at the first signs of poisoning.

A good way to check grazing safety is to turn one or two low quality animals into a suspect field and watch them for a day or two. And be certain waer is available to them or the symptoms may be delayed the county agent warned.

CONVERSATION CORNER

OPEN LETTER SEASON

DEAR GOVERNOR Preston Smith—

Your speech to the joint session of the Texas Legislature got a rousing ovation from this Texas too.

That House versus Senate wrangling reminds one of two rival fraternities of sophomore undergraduates during rush week.

And you, Sir, get A plus from this section. You sounded as indignant as most average Texas citizens have been feeling for 10, these many weeks. Bravo!

DEAR MISS Brenda Bell—

Your feature series in re the Texas Legislature sessions are so comprehensive that even us Dallas News addicts are filled with a special kind of pride.

Your bylines on the front page of the Ft. Worth Star Telegram entitle you for nomination to the LGMG—local girl makes good—C-City chapter. Congratulations!

DEAR DOCTOR Joyce Brothers—

Every time you print one of those psychological true or false tests concerning such grave matters as marriage, divorce, ideals, parental responsibilities, insomnia, and working wives, this reader flunks every question.

Do you suppose that means that in my secret heart I'd be happier as a rich old spinster?

If so, just what do you suggest?

DEAR MR. Arthur Godfrey—

You're such a nice man. Does it really make any difference to you that this TV fan is getting callouses on the fingers from turning off the sound when you extoll the fine qualities of detergents and toothpaste all day every day?

If you must get richer via commercials why don't you persuade the producers to let you sing the ads while you play the ukelele you strum so well? If you've just gotta say it, try saying it with music, won't you?

DEAR MISS Eva Gabor—

Have always thought you the most beautiful and the most intelligent of the Gabors.

As Lisa in Green Acres you're so delightfully idiotic you're a bright spot.

The other night on that Joey Bishop show you acted and talked just like Zsa - Zsa. And that's awful. Not delightful. Just idiotic. PLEASE!

DEAR PREACHER Billy Graham—

Happened to hear part of your friendly debate with one William Buckley.

You were magnificent. . . Time Magazine to the contrary and not withstanding.

DEAR COACH Tom Landry—

Due to conditions beyond my control have been a captive fan of the Dallas Cowboys, season after season.

Season after season this captive fan has worried more about you than about the passes, the tight end, and so on.

Finally figured out that you wear football shoes every game. For luck maybe?

That still left the hat. Thank you for leaving it off during that interview with Vern Lundquist. Now I know. Your head would get mighty cold outside without that hat during games.

Well gee whiz, Mr. Landry, a fellow called Yul Brynner had all the ladies swooning a few seasons back. He was the one who said, quote, "Most women think my bald head is sexy," unquote.

DEAR SCHOOL Teachers—

"Was it tears that fell or was it rain" all over the place Thursday, the day school started?

SEEN LATELYS since last time included nice Dr. Elton Berkman (who does NOT wear a hat.)

He was saying that he and his wife Dr. Virginia recently attended a college class reunion in Iowa. And that the next campaign by the Chiropractic Association will involve bumper stickers saying "OUCH!" They are designed to remind the "tail-gate" drivers of danger of that practice on the highways.

Saw Eddie Piland and his attractive wife Joy out at the Villa noon buffet. . . Ditto Jim Mauldin, Texas Highway Patrolman and his dark-eyed wife Linda. Law and order or no law and order, Linda has Jim repainting her kitchen on his days off duty on the highways.

OFF THE CUFF—Our Mrs. Sam L. Majors, Sr., is at home again after a stay at McKnight Hospital in Carlsbad, near San Angelo. As you probably know, McKnight is to be converted by the State of Texas into a hospital for the mentally retarded or into some other needed public facility.

Ann Cook (Mrs. Bill) was beaming because the little niece she and Bill are rearing, Mallinda Wallace, attended public school for the first time, Thursday. Mallinda has been reading since the age of three and is enrolled in the second grade class of Jean (Mrs. Ford) Merritt at Kelley Elementary School.

Did you know that Wilma (Mrs. Dave) Womack is the new alteration expert at Landau's? Lora Lady, in the alteration department for several years, has joined the employee force at Jeanne Manufacturing Co., C-City's prized new industry.

FAMILIAR FACES, here and there places, belonged to Jim Latham of the City Police Department. . . Bonnie Burt of the Mitchell County Red Cross office. . . Harold Maniss on Second St.

Les Terry of the LTNS (long time no see) department was grocery shopping. . . Roy Buchanan was lurching solo. . . Lorraine (Mrs. Nathan) Rogers was lovely-to-look-at in a new scarfed fall dress that first cool day.

Marcelle Garner, wife of Willie and mother of Mike, was spied walking home from town for the fun of walking.

HEAR TELL that our Roger Richards, second son of Bea and Lloyd, finally received his long-delayed mail. Roger's been at sea with his submarine crew.

Seems his mail, plus his Colorado City Record, went first to another lad of similar name aboard a ship with a similar name, off Okinawa. Letter to Roger from the other sailor said "Didn't read your letters, but every man in this crew enjoyed reading your hometown paper!"

BRIEF ENCOUNTERS brought quick hello's from Mary Anne Kelley McCloud, wife of Judge Austin McCloud. . . Jane Majors, wife of Buzz. . . Barbara (Mrs. Carroll) Gary.

Bob and Rebecca Coles Price of Arlington, and children David, Doug and Mary Alice, are here to visit their parents Mrs. Oscar Price and Alice and Roy Coles.

Iva Helen Lee of Waco is here for the weekend with her father J. Ralph Lee.

LUCILLE (Mrs. Oren) Trulock returned Tuesday from the time of her life—a Gray family reunion at Stephenville. Lucille and her five sisters, their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren were all together for the weekend days.

WE MAY BE OLD FASHIONED, BUT!

We do believe that most people still appreciate that special kind of service that today might be called "old fashioned." We don't think it is corny to greet a customer with a smile and a friendly word. We don't think it's wrong to help someone select the products they want. We do think of ourselves as a personal pharmacy.

Back in the "old days" the pharmacy was considered a friendly place to shop for health necessities and other needs. We like to feel that this old tradition has not passed by the wayside. Stop-in soon and say hello.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.

Be careful over the holidays so you will still be with us come Tuesday, come by we will have some dollar day specials.

Among children and grandchildren were Major C. A. Wilkins, Lucille's son, his wife Marian, and children Cecilia and Walter, now of Austin.

Margaret and O. B. Trulock Jr., were in Alpine Friday to enroll their son John in Sul Ross State University. Tempus fugit.

AT COMANCHE, Lucille was saying, our Mary (Mrs. John) Reese has made a miraculous recovery from critical injuries suffered in an automobile accident.

Mary is now able to drive her car some and had been to a bridge party the night before Lucille stopped by for a short visit.
