

OFFICERS CAMPS TO BE INSTALLED ON JANUARY FIFTH

WILL BE EMPLOYED PRIMARILY IN TRAINING MEN ENLISTED NOW.

OPERATIVE UNTIL APRIL

One Will be Located at Each of Regular Army, National Guard and National Army Divisions.

By Associated Press.

Washington, Oct. 3.—A third series of officers training camps to be opened January 5 will run until April 5, the war department announced today, primarily for the education of enlisted men of the regular army, national guard and national army for commissions.

In addition, however, 2490 graduates or undergraduates from 93 specified schools and colleges will be admitted.

A camp will be located in each of the regular army, national guard and national army divisions. Additional camps will be located in the Philippines, Panama and Hawaii, and one each at Fort Bliss and Fort Sam Houston, Texas, and Chickamauga, Ga.

Quotas for Regiments. The quota of each regiment or smaller unit of the army to be selected to attend the officers training camps will be in proportion to the enlisted strength of the organization. Graduates recommended for commissions as second lieutenants will be commissioned as vacancies occur.

College men to be admitted must be between 21 and 31 on the day of opening. There is no restriction against married men but unmarried men will be preferred. No graduates of the colleges named who did not take military courses given at the institution will be eligible.

Enlisted Men May Apply. Any enlisted man between 21 and 40 years of age may apply. Character and military aptitude will govern selection. College students will be required to enlist for the duration of the war.

They will receive the pay and allowances of first class privates while under instruction. The camps are primarily for the training of officers. The quartermasters general, chief ordnance, chief of coast artillery, chief signal officers and chief engineers have been authorized to organize such schools for special training as may be necessary.

Coincident with the start of the third division of the national guard, the railroads have played in handling the largest troop movement ever attempted in this country.

Including the national guard, the regular army and the new national army, the railroads have moved approximately 720,000 soldiers from their homes to training camps or embarkation points, says the statement.

BRITISH EMBARGO TIGHTENS CORDON AROUND GERMANY

By Associated Press.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Great Britain's new embargo on shipments of practically everything to Sweden, Norway, Denmark and the Netherlands, is regarded here as a most important move in tightening the cordon which slowly but surely is killing the military power of Germany.

Great Britain's action is regarded as one of the most important of the war.

As the British embargo excludes everything except printed matter, about the only thing that will be permitted to go to the German people by way of the neutrals will be expressions of world opinion that they should reorganize their system of government to do away with the military autocracy.

The embargo completely cuts off supplies Germany has been receiving through adjacent neutrals.

New York City Reports Heavy Sales Upon Second Day of Drive Sum Nearing $100,000,000.

By Associated Press.

Washington, Oct. 3.—The big drive for three billion dollars second Liberty Loan is in its third day with reports continuing to reach the treasury department in large volume telling of the public's enthusiastic response to the national appeal for subscriptions.

Although no figures were at hand today, treasury officials predicted the success of the new bond issue. They based their prediction on the fact that subscription of a $400,000,000 issue of federal certificates of indebtedness. This is the biggest issue of short time certificates of indebtedness ever put out by the government.

New York, Oct. 3.—Unofficial figures placed the subscription to the second Liberty Loan amounting to $93,354,850 in the second federal reserve district up to noon today.

Subscriptions today included $10,000,000 each by the United States Steel Corporation and Mutual Insurance Company and $2,500,000 by the Western Union Telegraph Company.

Telegraph messages costing fifteen cents or more.

Third National Army Increment Is On Way To Training Camps

By Associated Press.

Austin, Tex., Oct. 3.—About two hundred thousand men representing the third increment to the national army today are on their way to sixteen cantonments where already half the 687,000 called to the colors by the president are mobilized.

Although today's quota should be forty percent under regulations promulgated by Major Marshall Crowder, local conditions in the various states have reduced the general average of the increment to 20 or 25 percent.

COURT REVERSES M. L. MOORE CASE, OF THIS COUNTY

Special to The Times.

The court of criminal appeals today reversed and dismissed the case of M. L. Moore, from Wichita County. Moore was convicted of swindling and given 3 years in the pen. The alleged swindling was on account of the acquisition of $600 in money on the sale of certain personal property on the false representation, that the property was free of encumbrance.

HEFLIN AND MASON WRANGLE IN HOUSE BREAKS OUT AGAIN

ALABAMA MEMBER OFFERS TO NAME THOSE MEN HE SUSPECTS WERE INFLUENCED.

LATTER MAKES ADDRESS

Defended His Introduction of Measure to Repeal Draft as Approved by His Constituents.

By Associated Press.

Washington, Oct. 3.—The protracted wrangle over charges by Representative Hefflin of Alabama that members of Congress have "acted suspiciously" in the present war, flared up again in the house today when Representative Mason of Illinois made a speech contending that Hefflin had inferentially charged Mason with treason and linked him up with Emma Goldman.

Representative Hefflin requested consent of the House for time to reply to Mason's remarks and to name the men he thought he had "acted suspiciously" but objection was made by Representative Garner of Texas and the row for the time being was brought to an end.

House Groans. The House, evidently sick of the row, groaned when Hefflin asked unanimous consent to reply to Mason and applauded when Garner objected. The House was disinclined to risk reopening the wrangle by hearing Mason, but there was no parliamentary means of avoiding his speech on the ground of privilege.

Mason defended his introduction of a bill to repeal the draft as being approved by a majority of his constituents, and drew wild applause from the House when he told that his son, nevertheless, had joined the army.

Ancestors Fighters. His ancestors, Mason declared, were English, and participated in every war for the United States.

Despite the fact that he has opposed war, Mason declared, he now supported it. He denied all implied charges of German influence and denounced the German military atrocity.

NEW PARTY MAY BE BORN TODAY AT CHICAGO MEETING

PLANS TO ELECT HALF DOZEN SENATORS AND MANY MEMBERS OF HOUSE.

PROGRAM IS AMBITIOUS

"March on Washington" When They will "Take Possession of The Government" Arranged for 1920.

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Chicago today may be the birth place of a new "third party" which will attempt to elect half a dozen United States senators and between twenty and forty members of the house of representatives in 1920, according to an announcement of leaders who are in conference here today.

The new party is to be recruited from the Prohibition, Progressive, Single Tax and Social Democratic groups, the latter asserting its membership is composed of former adherents to the entireties of the Socialist party who have found it "theoretical and unadaptable to new conditions as well as unpatriotic in the present world crisis."

The program of the party is to "take possession of the government" in 1920.

The tentative draft of the platform which is to be submitted to the conference, said to have been written for the most part by John Spargo, formerly a Socialist, approves universal suffrage, the initiative and referendum, the recall, the short ballot, the executive budget, and proportional representation. National Prohibition is strongly demanded and the declaration of permanent neutrality in war must be outlawed.

Extinction of land monopoly, public ownership of coal mines, all wells telegraph and telephone systems, Democratic parties, and the use of union labor on all governmental activities are among the demands made in the Spargo draft.

The voting strength of the party is estimated at 200,000. The party is expected to have a strong showing in the recent St. Paul conference of the National Non-Partisan League have been invited to present, but not as official delegates.

The Prohibition national convention which was in session here yesterday voted to concentrate its efforts in 1918 on 26 congressional districts and to raise a campaign fund of $300,000 for that purpose. This plan is to be abandoned if the amalgamation of the "new party" is effected.

BRITISH PREMIER STIRRED TO ACTION IN RETALIATION FOR AIR RAIDS MADE ON ENGLAND; FRANCE BEGINS LIKE WORK

The war situation of today is summarized by the Associated Press as follows:

"We shall bombard Germany with compound interest," Premier Lloyd George is quoted in the London press as declaring to a London crowd in promising that Great Britain would soon launch reprisals for the many German air raids on England.

The French reprisals, already under way, were continued last night. French airmen dropped bombs on the town of Baden, some 55 miles beyond the French frontier. More than seven tons of bombs also were dropped on various military objectives in German-held territory.

Along the French front the artillery duels were vigorous at many points. The activity was especially marked north of Verdun, where the French are apparently preparing an attack to recover a few trench elements which the crown prince's troops retained when their main attacking force was thrown back north of Hill 344 yesterday. A German attempt to attack east of Rheims was broken up by the French artillery.

Field Marshal Haig's dispatch from the Flanders front have again become laconic, the only recent break in their terse and briefly having been in the messages describing the German counter attacks which failed to shake the British hold on the ground won last week.

Today the British commander merely recorded that the enemy activity is reciprocal artillery activity east of Ypres. The latest press advices from the front, however, indicate that the British bombardment is being kept up with the greatest intensity, hundreds of big guns deluging the German positions with high explosive shells reaching far to the rear and covering every approach to the German lines.

The Russian democratic congress at Petrograd which the government has not recognized as an official body, after adopting a resolution favoring a coalition government, virtually reversed itself by voting the exclusion of the Bourgeois elements of the population. The supporters of the Korniloff revolt and the constitutional democratic party were especially instanced for exclusion.

Now speak of the growing scarcity of war materials and particularly of articles such as rubber, cotton and copper which can neither be produced at home nor obtained from Germany's European neighbors. One of the prisoners taken in yesterday's outpost affairs said that while German could not be conquered in the field she would be forced to make peace because of her failure to obtain supplies.

FRENCH BEGIN REPRISALS BY BOMBARDING MANY TOWNS. Paris, Oct. 3.—Continuing their reprisals for attacks of German airmen on French cities, French aviators last night dropped bombs on the German town of Baden, the war office announced.

The town of Baden, in the grand duchy of the same name, is one of the most famed and beautiful watering places in Germany, best known for its medicinal baths. It is a town of some 15,000 about 55 miles from the French border.

Lloyd George Promises Retaliation For Raids Made By Hun Airmen. London, Oct. 3.—A crowd of poor people in the southwest district of London yesterday appealed to Premier Lloyd George, says the Daily Mail, for reprisals against Germany for the raids on London. The premier shouted to the crowd:

"We will give that all back to them and we will give it to them soon. We shall bomb Germany with compound interest."

The crowd cheered the promise of the premier wildly. The premier had just completed a tour of the area damaged in the raids with Viscount French, commander of the home forces.

GERMANY ALLEGES NO APPROACH HAS BEEN MADE ENGLAND OR FRANCE. Amsterdam, Oct. 3.—Germany has made no proposal whatever for a separate peace either to France or Great Britain. Dr. von Kuehlmann, the German foreign secretary makes this announcement, according to an official statement received here from Berlin in answering the speech made by General Verkhasky, the Russian minister of war, before the democratic congress in Petrograd. The statement reads:

"The Russian war minister, General Verkhasky, asserted at the Petrograd democratic congress that the imperial chancellor (Dr. Michaelis) had stated among other things at Stuttgart that Germany was ready to return Alsace Lorraine to France. The imperial chancellor's utterances at Stuttgart are generally known and the assertion of the Russian war minister is an invention."

General Verkhasky further stated that it was Germany's intention to make a separate peace with Great Britain and France at the cost of Russia and that Great Britain and France had informed the Russian government that they would not be parties to any such peace.

"I herewith state that Germany has made no proposals whatever for a separate peace either to France or Great Britain."

PERU IS CONSIDERING RELATIONS OF COUNTRY WITH GERMAN EMPIRE. Lima, Peru, Oct. 3.—The Peruvian congress is considering the international situation as affecting Peru's relations with Germany. The foreign minister and the minister of war have been summoned before congress to give information in this respect.

U. S. AND BRITISH WARSHIPS COLLIDE; NO ONE IS BLAMED. Washington, Oct. 3.—An American destroyer in Britain waters recently was in collision with British naval vessel after taking on board an American crew, towed the disabled destroyer safely to port. In announcing the collision today the navy department said that no one was injured aboard the American destroyer and that the vessel since had been repaired and restored to active duty.

FAMOUS INTER-MOUNTAIN RATE IS PRACTICALLY RE-OPENED BY COMMERCE COMMISSION

By Associated Press.

Washington, Oct. 3.—By an order of the Interstate Commerce Commission the celebrated inter-mountain rate case was today practically reopened for consideration of new tariffs proposed by the railroads which would effect increases ranging from ten to sixty percent on about seventy percent of the present schedules.

By a blanket order last June which expected to close up the long-contested case, the railroads were authorized to increase some rates, reduce a few others and permit the remainder to stand as they are.

COTTON JUMPS SIX DOLLARS BALE, OR TOTAL OF TWELVE IN TWO DAYS. New York, Oct. 3.—The country's prospective short cotton crop as indicated by the government's forecast of the cotton market here this morning. The December contract advanced 46 cents to 12.40, a total of 12 cents since the estimate was issued in Washington yesterday.

EXPULSION OF LA FOLLETTE ASKED BY COMMITTEEMEN OF OWN STATE. Wausau, Wis., Oct. 3.—Senator La Follette's expulsion from the Senate for "treasonable and seditious utterances and disloyalty to our government" is asked in an appeal to the United States Senate in telegrams sent last night by W. B. Hennemann, chairman of the executive committee of the Wisconsin Republican state central committee, to the president of the United States and to Senator Pomerene, chairman of the committee on privileges and elections.

Uses His Own Method Of Shooting Pistol, But Hits Bull's Eye. Fort Sheridan, Ill., Oct. 3.—A student officer at the training camp here has caused instructors to wonder whether rules for pistol-shooting as prescribed by war departments are entirely correct. The man was at target practice and one candidate from Dodge City, Kansas, fired time and again without success. He missed the target with clock-like regularity. Then he tore rules to tatters. He jerked his pistol to his hip and scored four bull's eyes in rapid succession.

Six Lives Are Lost In California Brush Fire Near Fillmore. Fillmore, Cal., Oct. 3.—Fire fighters were today combatting a brush fire which yesterday caused the deaths of at least six persons and destroyed pipe lines and buildings valued at $50,000.

Denial Is Made Separate Peace Is Contemplated. The fire at its best reports was working in this direction but it was not believed the town in which is located the refinery and the great gasoline storage tanks of the Ventura Refining Company, was seriously menaced.

ROUSING ADDRESS ON RED CROSS IS MADE TO STUDENTS

REV. PERCY G. CROSS DISCUSSED THOUSAND DOLLAR CAMPAIGN NOW UNDER WAY

EACH URGED TO DO PART

Tells Them That They Can Easily Raise Two Thousand Instead of One, and Hopes None are Slackers

Rev. Percy G. Cross made a rousing talk to the High school students this morning, telling them that Wichita Falls was looking to them to do their part in the war by collecting the one thousand dollars a month which has been set as the amount to be raised for the needs of the Red Cross.

"A thousand dollars—shucks, I wouldn't mention a thousand," Mr. Cross said. "Besides you can as easily get two thousand as you can get more than a thousand, there will be some slackers among you. You start out Friday and Saturday as if you had the ball in your hands, and were going through Howe's line, and you'll get it through the Red Cross."

"As I watched you come in here, I thought how happy and care-free you seemed. I'm glad you are. I'm glad you can be. But do you know why you can be? No army is invading you, no airplane is going to drop bombs on this school house. Because men are bleeding and dying to make the world safe. That is the part they are playing in the war. What are you going to do? Will you do your bit? Of course you will. You want to have a part in it, so that when it is all over you can have come again, you will be able to talk with a clear conscience. Remember that if you have done nothing, you will have to cover your face and keep silence. Only people who have done something will be able to hold up their heads."

"What can you do? You cannot fight, and if you are like me, you can't give very much money. But you can help get this money for the Red Cross, and by so doing you can help take care of the wounded and dying, not only of our own men, but also those of our allied, yes, and even our enemies."

Each Urged to Work. "Now you get out on Friday and Saturday and pull down this thousand. You will get one dollar a month from every person whom you can persuade to give it. There must be four hundred of you here, anyway. That means that if each one will get three subscribers, you will get twelve hundred dollars. You are all willing to serve, because you are all Americans. Who will not serve is not worth to be an American. For—remember—the right of suffrage carries with it the duty of service."

B. F. Johnson, who introduced Mr. Cross, told the students that they had been chosen to put over the biggest campaign that had ever been staged in Wichita Falls. "We are looking to you, and we know that you shall not be disappointed."

Mr. Johnson also stated that he would address the students tomorrow morning, giving them all the details of the campaign and showing them how to go to work.

NAN'S LETTER HOME

London, September, 19.

My Dear Sis: I was sitting in the room at the hotel when the distant vibrating drone of machines began. Twice the silver silhouettes were cut sharply against the harvest moon. It was some minutes before the firing began and then it sounded so far away that it did not even cause a thrill in me. Presently it grew sharper and more rapid and we were able to distinguish the rattle of the guns and bombs. Then came a flash and the terrific crash of a bomb which fell in a neighboring street and presently it was all over and we turned to see what had happened.

That was all, except that I went around the next morning to see the damage, and it was then that I became so filled with rage that even now I feel I must do something to help the suffering of the women and children and wounded soldiers I found sitting in the ruins of what had yesterday been a beautiful hotel. One woman was trying to make a kettle over a gas burner all twisted and charred by the explosion. I held her baby, a white-faced little fellow with big staring eyes, and asked the mother if she wasn't going away out of it all. "No, I'll be stopping here," she said, and made pitiful little screams out of the window-pane. All the woodwork and glass of the windows had been cleaned away as neatly as if a carpenter and the wall was sucked out. The furniture of the room was in splinters and a shoddy varnished dressing table, the woman's pride, which she had bought last week with some of her daughter's savings, was sitting astride some vines hanging in a tangle half way across the room. I asked her where the daughter was and she said "Why at her work in munitions to be sure, where would she be?" Where, indeed, except that I don't know, and she didn't know either.

I was surprised to find so few people standing about, crowding and pushing so much as turning their heads. Only after working hours did the people begin to come out, and the hospital where the wounded soldiers in their light blue flannel suits with their crimson ties were still wandering aimlessly about in dismantled and windowless yards.

Light Blue Suits. These light blue suits are among the queerest sights of England for me. When one of our soldiers first saw men wearing them he said, "I came over here prepared for anything and expected to die out there in France, but I swear they'll never make a guy of me by putting me into a baby blue suit."

CONSTIPATION

And Sour Stomach Caused This Lady Much Suffer. Black-Draught R. ed.

Meadowville, Ky.—Mrs. Pearl Patrick, of this place, writes: "I was very constipated. I had sour stomach and was so uncomfortable. I went to the doctor. He gave me some pills. They weakened me and seemed to tear up my digestion. They would gripe me and afterwards it seemed I was more constipated than before. I heard of Black-Draught and decided to try it. I found it just what I needed. It was an easy laxative, and not had to swallow. My digestion soon improved. I got well of the sour stomach, my bowels soon seemed normal, no more griping, and I would take a dose now and then, and was in good shape."

I cannot say too much for Black-Draught for it is the finest laxative one can use. Theodor's Black-Draught has for many years been found of great value in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Easy to take, gentle and reliable in its action, leaving no bad after-effects. It has won the praise of thousands of people who have used it.

Our soldiers are crowding into the new American Y. M. C. A. hut here, and if you want to do something which will earn you an immediate halo, St. George, London, W. C. A. big package of good old American tobacco, the kind you roll for yourself. Farmer's lads don't wear any tailor-made smokes. Our boys can't bear European tobacco in any form and Mr. George Bye gave a big artilleryman a match to light it with, the Artillery man nearly wept.

Little Things Count. It's little things like that that count over here. Warm socks and sweaters and mufflers are all necessities, and are taken by fighting men as matters of course, like the drilling and the discipline, but when it comes to extras you can't think how they long for their own, for the things they had at home. I think it may be the Hut who was sitting at the end of a bench all alone and looking most melancholy, confessed to me that what had pestered him was the way the calendars are got up. The days are set vertically in a rod instead of being across the top of the calendar as we have them. "It had me all up and I only found out after I had mailed a letter home that I'd put the wrong dates on everything; our wedding anniversary, our boy's first birthday, and all that was right up in the air, and I don't know what my wife will think of me."

American Woman Canteen. American women are managing the canteen and they look awfully attractive in their blue striped dresses and white aprons and caps. I think it must be a joy to the men to have their food served by such charming waitresses. It's particularly nice food too, the very best to be had and many of the American things as they can. But it's not easy to import anything but necessities from anywhere else when you do run across them they are usually about three years old.

It's no joke doing canteen work. The women pay all their own expenses. They work for eight, nine or ten hours a day. The weak sisters get weeded out very soon and the brunt falls upon the steady ones who are quiet work for the bone. As I was leaving the Hut one of them came up to me and said, "When are you going to work? We are a little short of hands this afternoon. I'll lend you a uniform if your isn't ready." I mumbled something and she looked sharply at me. "You didn't come to work?" "I got away somehow but I can see that I shall be handing round plum tarts and cups of coffee to our soldiers before I want to go home."

YOUR LOVING NAN.

Washington, Oct. 3.—What is being accomplished by the American Red Cross for the children of France is indicated in the following cable just received from Major Grayson M. P. BACK OF THE AMERICAN FRONT

By George T. Bye. This little building in which we have our rendezvous, or office, has among many attractions an 'ousterkeeper' or janitor who has been on the job for 32 years. Such a length of attachment though unbelievable to us Americans, is almost the rule here. I know that at home to have a janitor for three years, say, is to have at your service an historic character. But Miss R., our housekeeper, is more than a janitor. She is our neighborhood historian, a fount of philanthropy, a bulwark of abstemiousness, our counselor and our joy. She takes our tobacco remnants to a poor old man. The crumbs from our afternoon tea are gathered in her apron for secret feeding to street pigeons, her 'poor dears,' that are very hungry just now because of food laws making it a punishable offense to feed them. If we are in need of misshapen things, she can always direct us to a shop whose profits go to the Red Cross or to a producer of goods made by blind or maimed soldiers. Really 'Doesn't Talk.' Miss R. doesn't talk; she is a moving picture with a gift of speech. Her reaction from the world's craze for pictures is that she must give a suggestive vision of every action she describes. I am quite sure that should she ever encounter an interesting snake, and wish to tell us of its antics, she would lie down on the floor and slither about sinuously. That's Miss R. for you, though she is a foe to intemperance. I have excited her good humor to such a point of hilarity that she bent over, wagged from side to side and beat the floor with one foot. For which we all love her, and I will throw this typewriter at the first who smiles at her. We needed waste baskets and Miss R., with her usual eager promptitude, sent us to St. Dunstan's where the blind soldiers weave all day long as a means of getting money, and as a safeguard against suicide. Story of the Waste Basket. What Margaret Walker saw at St. Dunstan's must have been soul-trying, for it was some time before she could describe her experience. I shall not tell anything harrowing beyond the story of my waste-basket. It deserves the capital. My wastebasket was the last intelligent effort of a young Australian. He was fine and stalwart and sprightly as a boy, with the tender complexion of a girl. On the British front he was first in all the rushes. He had been at the Dardanelles. He seemed invulnerable, escaping even scorching shells. When a high explosive shell burst near him, it sent its fragments everywhere but avoided him. However, the explosion blew out his eyes. In a terrible fidget, the young Australian was brought to the basket shop. He went through the brief but tedious instruction, awkwardly twisting his fingers and sometimes crying out in impatience. Then he was ready for his first basket, the one I have, a clumsy, misshapen thing. The true story is that his torment rose to a high pitch during this day of maddening darkness until, when the final fanning had been made, he toppled backwards with raging brain fever from which he died that night. Tells of Nobles. Miss R. as a historian has told of ever so many 'nobles' who have lived and still live, in next door buildings. She was surprised at our evident heart flutters at the near presence of royalty. It seems that the average poor of the realm would walk down Pall Mall without being noticed but for the nervous posse of Americans at his royal coat tails. The English but lords and ladies on a plane a little above that we give to actors and actresses, unless they respect them for individual accomplishments. I am sure that a Bronco dancer would attract more attention in one of our big western hotels than a duchess would get in any hotel on Piccadilly. The king, however, has universal respect as the unchanging head of the nation. When England in 1215 became the birthplace of democracy upon the promulgation of the First Declaration of Independence, the Magna Charta, it had not a sufficiently lively temperament to arrange for a regular shift in its titular head. It is still in the outstanding English trait, which the king thus personifies. And while other institutions may change, the English get comfort in seeing in their king the England of all ages. Across the street from us in the home of Edward Montagu, India Secretary, who recently announced England's new policy of self-government for India. Next door is Lord Haldane's which Miss R. has no interest in bea smear of black on the front that resists all scrubbing. Suffragettes did it long ago. And next door is lady Somebody Else, whom Miss R. respects above all others because "she is a 'handsome' 'new' way with fruit and oranges acceptin' all hover lilt!" Center of Antiquity. For top royalty in our neighborhood we have good old Queen Anne herself in a bustling little stone structure that sets in a niche in our building, No. 13, Queen Anne's Gate. The guide books tell all about it and they also say, "this is the center of the stronghold of seventeenth century antiquity." Queen Anne's Gate is not a gate at all but a decorative little street, as prim as Anne and about as long. A few doors west it slides around a corner into St. James' Park. Directly across the park, a minute's walk, is the Mall, the stately pageantway approaching Buckingham's Palace, which is a simple, rectangular, white-stone building which might be mistaken for an American public library if it were not for its homelike curtains and its lack of names of authors chiselled on the front. You can have a much closer view of the king's home than of the White House, but through a much higher and heavier fence. The other end of Queen Anne's Gate leads, by way of a half dozen curling little streets—that must have been laid out by a Spencerian penman—to Westminster Abbey. The Henry VIII Chapel of the abbey is directly across Parliament Street from the many spires and towers of the Houses of Parliament. Parliament street, after two short blocks, becomes Whitehall, ending in 4 blocks at Trafalgar square. I must tell you of the Prime Minister's official residence. It is in a sort of alley off Whitehall called Downing street, and is a dingy three-story brick building I was in just a few weeks ago in Columbus, Neb. But not quite so ornamental. The embassies are close at hand. The nerve center of the war-loops around us.

WORLD'S SERIES UMPIRES ALL HAVE "BEEN THERE BEFORE"; SELECTIONS ARE ANNOUNCED

The umpires appointed for the World Series of 1917 are William J. Klem and Charles Rignier, National League and Frank O'Loughlin and William G. Evans, American League. All of them have considerable experience as arbiters of play in the World Series. Klem worked in 1912 when the Boston Red Sox defeated the Giants in the memorable eight game series and again in 1915, when the Boston Americans four out of five games from the Philadelphia Nationals. Now for the third time they have been chosen together, calling balls and strikes making decisions on the bases, and watching the foul line, each in his turn as the series progresses. Klem's first experience in the big baseball feature was in 1908 and since that time only two world's flags have been won, without his having been connected with games in his official capacity. The exceptions were the battles of 1910 and last year. So that the coming series will be the eighth in which he will have taken an active part. O'Loughlin, "Old Timer," O'Loughlin ante-dates in World Series history as he was the umpire in the Chicago series of 1906 when the White Sox beat the Cubs four out of six games. He officiated again in the 1909 series between Pittsburgh and Detroit when the Pittsburgh Nationals shut out the Tigers in the seventh game and won the championship. Then in 1912 and 1915 he was active and the coming contest will make his fifth appearance in the World Series. Rignier also will officiate for the fifth time in a world's championship struggle, when he strove out on the diamond at Chicago. In 1910 together with Connolly, O'Day and Sheridan, he umpired the series between the Athletics and Chicago Nationals. In 1912 he was appointed for the New York-Philadelphia Series, while in 1912 and again in 1915, he and the other three umpires who are officiating this year worked together. Evans worked in 1909. Evans had his initial experience as a World Series umpire in 1909, when he worked with Johnstone, Klem and Evans, in the Pittsburgh-Detroit series. Then again in 1912 and 1915, he and his partners of this year made up the umpiring staff, which has been reapportioned for a third time. The assignments of umpires for World Series since 1908 follow: 1908—Klem, Sheridan, O'Day. 1909—Johnstone, O'Loughlin, Evans, Klem. 1910—Connolly, O'Day, Rignier, Sheridan. 1911—Klem, Dineen, Connolly, Brennan. 1912—Klem, Evans, Rignier, O'Loughlin. 1913—Klem, Egan, Rignier, Connolly. 1914—Klem, Dineen, Byron, Hilderbrand. 1915—Klem, O'Loughlin, Evans, Rignier. 1916—Connolly, O'Day, Quigley, Dineen. 1917—Klem, Rignier, O'Loughlin, Evans.

SMOKES GREATEST BOON TO SOLDIER ON FRONT LINES

WICHITA FALLS PEOPLE CONTINUE TO CONTRIBUTE TO TIMES FUND. CONTENTS OF KIT THAT YOU MAY SEND. The Times tobacco boxes, to be sent to the American soldiers in France will contain forty-five cents' worth of tobacco, but will be supplied to The Times Tobacco Co. for 25 cents. They will contain: Two packages of Lucky Strike cigarettes. Three packages of Bull Durham Smoking Tobacco. Three packages of Bull Durham Clearcut papers. One tin of Tuxedo smoking tobacco. Four books of Tuxedo cigarette papers.

Maybe you can imagine the feeling of one of our American soldiers, somewhere in France, when at the close of a trying day, with the thunder of heavy guns in his ears, with the screech of shells over his head, with mud under and over his feet, with thoughts of home and friends passing through his mind, he is handed a pack of "smokes." Maybe he hasn't had a smoke for three days, except when some more fortunate comrade has shared a scanty supply with him. The quieting, soothing effect of a pipe or a cigarette has been denied him, and that seems like a very small one to deny a man who is fighting your and our battle for us. It seems a shame that such a man can't have even a little thing he wants when he is accepting, and enduring with cheerful courage, so many big and dangerous things that he doesn't want. A soldier's little things he ought not to be denied. That's why we are carrying on our campaign for Smokes for Soldiers. It gives us all a chance to make the lot of our soldiers a little more comfortable; to bring to them a little good cheer, and the happy sense that somebody's thinking of them with a kindly thought when all conditions around them are cheerless. You can have a part in this work if you will; and you can send a "smokes-kit" to some soldier in a very personal way, by subscribing 25 cents; make it more if you choose; we accept subscriptions for less, if you say so; and you can make "smokes" for some American soldier happier. Two more Wichitans have contributed to give the soldiers in France a little comfort. The contributors are: H. R. Hanks $10.00. Myles O. Reilly $10.00. Several days ago the contribution of H. J. Stokans was reported as 50 cents. It should have been reported as one dollar. If any other errors have occurred the Times asks that they be called to its attention. Every effort is being made to have an exact accounting.

TEXAS FOOTBALL CONTESTS WILL BEGIN IN EARNEST DURING WEEK; INTERESTING DOPE UPON GAMES

Several games of interest to the football fans of the state are to be played the coming week-end. The first of these will be staged at College Station Friday afternoon between the Aggies and Austin College Kangaroos. These two teams did not meet last year, so doping out the game for Friday is somewhat of a task. However, some idea of the comparative strength of the teams may be had by referring to the collegiate football records of last year. The Aggies defeated the Baylor Bears by a small margin 3 to 2, and then the Bears defeated the Kangaroos badly, 26 to 0. From these figures it is evident that the team which compared last year. But not so much can be gained from that, for each team has some new men this year. The Kangaroos have a new coach and nine old men back, while the coach of the Aggies second team last year is now head coach there, and eight of last year's men have reported for work this season. Another thing that would seem to give the Aggies the advantage is the fact that of the new men on their team five are from high schools that made good records in the game last year. Men from these schools are: Stevens of Dallas; Martin

Over the Pampas of Argentina

THE CATTLE CORRAL

BEHIND eight galloping nudes drawing a strong old coach of the style of a modified 'forty-niner,' we sallied forth from a little Argentine settlement on a journey that covered many days in the great outdoors of the far southland.

The time was November; and in Argentina the harvest days were drawing near, for he it remembered that seasons in the far South are reversed. As the day advanced and we became a mere speck moving across leagues and leagues—not acres—of pampa land the novelty of the journey gave place to serious thought.

Whenever the windmill stands one may expect to see well-trodden earth, for thousands of hoofs have obliterated every vestige of grass. Even the 'dumb-driven beasts' seem to learn by intuition the location of this thirst-quenching spot, which to plainman or animal is ever and always a welcome oasis.

On an Estancia. "Quillalauquen," an average estancia, is located on the Southern railway within eight hours' train time of Buenos Aires. The area embraces over 100,000 acres; the stock consists of 100,000 sheep, 14,000 cattle, 2,000 horses, 800 milch cows, and thousands of swine.

Fans of France. At the time that Louis XV was king of France fan making had reached, perhaps, its highest point. It has not gone backward since then, but surely no fans could be made more exquisite than were those of the days of the glory of Versailles.

Imagination. The gift of imagination appears to be the peculiar privilege of man. The architecture of the beaver is clever and ingenious, but the work of one beaver differs only from that of his fellow in the shape and nature of the wood at their respective command.

Their Land Not for Sale. In a southern province of Argentina I met the owner of a great ranch. I thought his vast estate too large for one person, and I asked if a few hundred or a few thousand acres could be bought from him.

Next Season's Style Tendencies are set by the Society Brand Clothes of Today

Society Brand Clothes Are YOUR Clothes

These three practical illustrations show the time-honored tendency of the wealthy Argentine to retain his possessions, and if possible increase rather than diminish their area, which in many cases has been handed down through families for generations.

"LITTLE MISS OPTIMIST"

A cheerful title for a cheerful play, with a still more cheerful little star to dispel the glooms and lift you out of the doldrums. Smiling Vivian Martin, as a young lady whose hopes and aspirations refused to be quelled by a series of misfortunes, is a sure cure for the blues.

As a little "Newbie" with a big heart and a faculty for getting into all sorts of trouble, Vivian Martin is in her element. But even the "rop" on the beat is a friend of the little ray of sunshine who shouts "Waxtry!" up and down the streets of the big city. Playing opposite Miss Martin is the always popular Tom Moore.

"No, I'm not afraid of ghosts or thirteen or opening umbrellas in the house," laughed Vivian Martin, star of "Little Miss Optimist," which is appearing at the Empress Theater today. "But I have one last superstition to which I have clung since childhood. That is carrying a 'lucky dime,' the same, by the way, which I've used in 'Little Miss Optimist' in order that the picture should be very successful. A lot of people, especially theatrical people, are very superstitious. They don't believe in 'shuffling in dressing rooms,' having two people look into a mirror at the same time, putting a hat on the bed, or lighting three cigarettes from the same match."

"THE HONOR SYSTEM" COMING NEXT WEEK

The Gem.
"The Empty Gun," a Gold Seal three-reel drama will be the attraction at the Gem today. Claire McDowell, Lon Chaney and Sam DeGrasse are starred. The story is one that is somewhat unusual. Mary, the girl, finds after years of toil and suffering for her husband that he has tricked her. That her other lover, who was accused of a crime, was guiltless and her husband the real criminal. How she discovers her husband's duplicity and the manner in which the tangled skein of the three lives is untwisted satisfactorily makes "The Empty Gun" a picture that holds the interest from beginning to end.

AL G. BARNES' TRAINED ANIMALS WILL BE SEEN HERE TOMORROW; BENGAL TIGER ACT IS FEATURE

Vars Earle, the Prima Donna of the charge, plays with the Al G. Barnes' animals, who maintain trainers it is considered a difficult feat to get lions to work with lions, or bears to act with ponies. So far as having wild animals, particularly of the cat species, work harmoniously with domestic animals, such as dogs or horses, has always been considered impossible.

It remained for Al G. Barnes, whose big four-ring wild animal circus will exhibit in Wichita Falls on the afternoon and evening tomorrow, Thursday, Oct. 4, to accomplish the remarkable feat of training wild and domestic animals to work together.

In one of the sixty-five big acts which makes up the program, Maharajah, an unusually fine specimen of royal Bengal tiger, roars through a difficult act with Don and Flossie, two trained dogs, far as having wild and domestic animals to work together.

Two trains of double-length cars carry the circus over the road. Orchestral and military bands and four calliope help to make the two-mile long parade given at 10:30 o'clock each morning a glittering event in itself.

The doors open at 1 and 7 p. m. and the bill opens at 2 and 8 o'clock.

PARENT-TEACHER MEETING PROVES GREAT SUCCESS

CLOSER CO-OPERATION BETWEEN SCHOOL AND HOME IS NOW PROMISED

MONEY WILL BE NEEDED

Mrs. Lee Makes Plea That There be More Sustaining Members—Rest Room Supplies Received

Marking what promises to be a stronger co-operation between parents and teachers, the Parent-Teacher Council reception Tuesday evening was a success beyond expectations, and definite results outside the social end were achieved by the addition of a number of sustaining members to the Council, and promises of co-operation in the work of the Council might broaden, with a most gratifying response. Several new members signed up, donations were received, and this morning early offers of supplies for the rest room reached the officers of the Council.

Council Praised.
Each of the speakers gave a word of praise for the Parent-Teachers Council, which is endeavoring to fill in what the school board has been forced, through lack of finances, to leave undone, and the lunchroom, supervisor and library needs were brought to the attention of the fathers and mothers. That these things have not been provided by the board through the regular channels is not due to any lack of interest, or through failure to appreciate the need for them, but through scarcity of funds alone, it was brought out with emphasis, Both Lee Clark, the city superintendent, and H. E. Bell, the high school principal, spoke their appreciation of the interested efforts of the Council which will enable improvements and additions to the school system that will put the local high school in the metropolitan class.

Good Program Provided.
In addition to the talks, an interesting program was provided by piano duets, and singing by the high school faculty, one an original composition, readings by Mr. Brouse of the Austin school and selections by the high school orchestra. The speakers were introduced by E. P. Haney.

The Senior class and the orchestra have the heartiest thanks of the Parent-Teachers Council for the services rendered during the afternoon. The young ladies served punch and the young men acted as ushers.

VOLUNTEERS ARE ASKED TO GIVE CARS TWO DAYS

THIRTY WILL BE NEEDED DURING CAMPAIGN OF HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Thirty volunteers are needed to provide cars for the high school students who will be canvassing the town on Friday and Saturday for the Red Cross funds. This work will be carried on all day both days, and if cars can be loaned for only a part of the time, this condition should be made known.

All parties having cars which they are willing to use for this purpose are requested to phone the Chamber of Commerce immediately, stating how many cars they will lend, and for how long.

This week is Red Cross week at the High school and the students are preparing to do their part on this week. Every morning addresses are being made to them, in preparation for the coming campaign, and they are keenly interested in the talks. The fact that they may be absolutely depended upon to clean up this fund on time. And it is felt by the campaign committee that the students have every right to expect this assistance from the citizens. The more cars they can get, the quicker the work can be done, and there is no time to stop at thirty. Thirty is the least number that will be of any use, and it is hoped that a large number of volunteers will immediately notify the Chamber of Commerce.

BOY IS WILLING TO DO HIS PART IN GETTING SEED

College Station, Tex., Oct. 3.—One sincere little letter received by A. B. Conner of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station from a 14-year-old former's boy is typical of the attitude of the producers responding to the efforts of the Committee on Seed Stock to mitigate as far as possible the shortage in seed for planting. Mr. Conner is chairman of this committee.

Letter From Boy.
Dear Sir: I have read your article on seed shortage in the newspaper and I would like to do my part in relieving the seed shortage," reads the letter, in part.

"I have about 35 pounds of selected Feterita seed which is very fine, very carefully selected and cured. I want 50 cents per pound. It is really worth more than that but I let it go at that so as not to make the calamity any greater. The 35 pounds will plant 50 acres and more and that will help the suffering farmers. It is a gift of God and producers as well here on our farm. It fills a place that nothing else can fill. I am a farmer's son, 14 years old. My papa has given me some of this Feterita seed and I want to sell it to some of those drought-stricken farmers. I have the seed ready to ship any time."

"Gift of God" View.
This unselfish "gift of God" view of the little Texas boy seems to have been widely adopted in a very practical form. The producers' report covers a high grade quality of seed, and in some

DRESSMAKING UNDER DIFFICULTIES WITH MISS JENNIE OF THE RINGLING ELEPHANT HERD AS SUBJECT.

How would you like to make a costume for an elephant?

The sloping shoulders, and high waisted effects might prove a fairly easy achievement, but when it comes to the matter of ultra-fashionable phrasing, black and alas, you would probably be rewarded with a sound whack from a trunk, especially were you catering to the modish Miss Jennie of the Ringling Brothers' Circus. True, one will find among the 41 pachyderms, who will come here Wednesday, October 17 a few old timers who think of nothing but peanuts and hay. In most instances the parade and ring performances as a matter of fact and the donning of robes and trapping a necessary evil.

On the other hand there are Ringling elephants who take a distinct pride in their dress and who would never think of tossing a trunkful of straw or straw by their backs so long as they wear their tailored suits. Nothing seems to please her more than to please her more than to be fitted George Hartzell gown. Upon Mrs. Jennie's wardrobe of Spangtown "Cinderella" to the eight-inch length of measuring and clothing the elephant.

This season there are more costumes than ever before because of the introduction of the fairly had spectacle dressed number of Ringling elephants. Since the majority of these performers are foreigners, they are bright colors and fluffy fur-trimmed and these partners

The Marines are proud of this invention, their first contribution to modern war equipment... MAY PAY PLAYERS IN WORLD'S SERIES IN LIBERTY BONDS

By Associated Press. Chicago, Oct. 3.—If Chairman Herrmann of the National Baseball Commission in his suggestion concerning the investment of world's series money in Liberty Bonds meant that the entire proceeds of the game should be converted into bonds his plan is opposed by President Ban Johnson of the American League. If Mr. Herrmann merely wishes to have the contestants paid off in Liberty Bonds his plan has the hearty sanction of the American League.

President Johnson speaking today of the plan said that he approved of converting the players' pool into war bonds and distributing them in lieu of the customary bank checks. Those who may have planned to invest their money otherwise, he declared, could undoubtedly turn bonds into cash. He stated however, that the National Commission needs money for its existence and ten percent it receives from the world's series is a vital contribution.
