Poll Puts GOP Tops

PRINCETON, N. J. (AP) — Republicans lead the Democrats in terms of voter confidence for the first time since 1957, according to the latest Gallup Poll.

The American Institute of Public Opinon, Dr. George Gallup's poll organization, said a poll of 1,565 adults across the nation indicated that more Americans feel the GOP is better able to deal with problems of the Vietnam war, racial strife, and the high cost of living, than the Democrats.

Those polled were asked to name what they thought were the most important problems facing the nation. They listed the war, the racial situation and the high cost of living, although the poll indicated no priority of importance.

They were then asked, "Which political party do you think can do a better job of handling the problem you have just mentioned — the Repulican party or the Democratic party?"

The poll showed that 30 per cent of the 1,565 persons put their faith in the Republican party as best able to handle the problems, while 26 per cent named the Democrats.

Twenty - eight per cent felt there was no difference between the two parties' ability, and a final 16 per cent had no opinion.

The poll then equally distributed the "no difference" and "no opinion" percentages between the two parties to give the Republicans a lead of 52-48 over the Democrats.

In August, when racial problems were cited as often as the war, the Democrats held a 53-47 per cent margin in terms of voters confidence — the same margin they held a year ago, when the top problems listed were the same as in this recent poll

Today In History

Today is Monday, Nov. 13, the 317th day of 1967. There are 48 days left in the year.

New Bitter Fighting In Dak To Defense Zone

By GEORGE ESPER

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese army regulars charged at U.S. defenders near Dak To in the central highlands tonight but withdrew after two hours of heavy fighting. The Americans fired 105mm howitzers at point-blank range to hold their positions.

Unofficial accounts from the scene said nine U.S. soldiers were killed and 25 others wounded, bringing the U.S. toll in 11 days of fighting in the area to 101 killed and 525 wounded. Red casualties in the fight were not immediately known. Before the fight their losses were more than 600 men killed.

There were reports the Communist forces had breached the U.S. defense perimeter at one point in the fighting and that paratroopers of the American 173rd Airborne Brigade were rushed in to drive them out.

AP correspondent John Lengel reported from the battle zone that the sharp new action came after a day of light skirmishes along the highlands battlefront. Earlier U. S. intelligence reports said the North Vienamese had moved in reinforcements to bolster their ranks. The North Vietnamese force is believed to include a rocket regiment armed with 122 mm projectiles.

Lengel reported the airborne brigade came under frontal assault after nightfall about six miles southwest of Dak To in what U.S. officials believe is an effort to score an "impact victory" to embarrass South Vietnam's new civilian-based government. But the Communists also may be seeking to keep open an important infiltration route into the South from Laos by knocking out U.S. defenses at Dak To, which straddles the route.

Earlier in the day U.S forces launched fresh helicopter assaults against the five North Vietnamese regiments believed to be in the area.

The choppers rose to seek out the enemy after U.S. troops encamped in the area weathered 10 hours of incoming Communist rockets and mortar rounds.

"There's every prospect of a truly significant victory," said Lt. Gen. William B. Rosson, the U.S. commander of the 2nd Corps area that encompasses the middle region of South Vietnam.

"The enemy gives every indication of staying. We couldn't ask for anything more opportune."

So far 635 North Vietnamese soldiers have been killed over the last 10 days. U.S. casualties stood at 92 killed and 500 wounded, the U.S. Command said.

In one clash today a U.S. reconnaissance team killed two men in a five-man enemy machine gun squad 3,000 yards from the Dak To airstrip.

The number of American and enemy casualties in today's skirmishing were not available but were said to be light.

The Dak To base camp, however, was bristling with activity. Big four-engine C130 transports roared onto the 5,000-yard airstrip at short intervals with more supplies and ammunition. Bare-backed U.S. gunners worked their howitzers against the ridges and mountains.

Israel, Jordan Face-To-Face

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Israel and Jordan meet in face-to-face debate in the U.N. Security Council today with little or no change expected in the chief points at issue between them.

Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban was ready to call once more for direct negotiations, whether arranged by the Arabs and the Israelis themselves or by a U.N. special representative.

Jordanian Foreign Minister Abdul Monem Rifa'i was expected to demand that Israeli troops withdraw from occupied soil in Egypt, Jordan and Syria before talks could begin.

Israeli and Jordanian gunners on opposite sides of the Jordan River waged their own debate Sunday, trading barrages of medium artillery and mortars. Neither side reported any casualties.

An Israeli army spokesman said Jordan fired first and that the exchange lasted four hours. A Jordanian military spokesman said the Israelis shelled farmhouses in Jordan for 50 minutes.

Eban canceled a speech before the council Thursday when a Soviet move switched him from No. 2 on the speakers' list to No. 7.

Sunday evening the Israeli foreign minister, responding to questions on Metromedia's "Opinion: Washington" television program, accused the Arab countries of "getting themselves into a mood of regarding negotiations with Israel as a forbidden process."

The Middle East countries must learn to settle their own problems without influence from the outside, he said.

He also blamed the June war on the Soviet Union, charging that the Soviets fed false information to Syria about Israeli troop movements and urged the Egyptians to help Syria withstand the threat posed by 11 Israeli divisions the Russians said were massed on the Syrian border.

Eban already has rejected a resolution sponsored by India, Mali and Nigeria calling for a U.N. special representative to coordinate efforts toward a Middle East settlement. He seemed to prefer a U.S. resolution instructing the U.N. representative to assist the Arabs and Israelis in negotiations.

Both resolutions call more or less explicitly for withdrawal of Israeli troops from Arab territory, the end of Arab belligerency against Israel, the right of Israel to use international waterways in the area and the settlement of the Arab refugee problem.

VOTER APATHY APPARENT

Five Amendments Confirmed

By TOM JOHNSON
Associated Press Writer

Massive voter apathy marked this weekend's voting on six new patches for the Texas Constitution and Texas Republicans claimed to see anti-Johnson sentiment in returns from special legislative sessions.

The vote count from Saturday's election continued today on six amendments to the 91-year-old Constitution, changed 178 times before Saturday.

Five amendments passed without a serious contest and only one—a measure to permit counties to lump together their special funds into one account—was leading but appeared in danger of failing.

The Texas Election Bureau issued this count Sunday on the amendments, with 246 of the state's 254 counties reporting, including 188 complete:

1. Consolidating county funds: For 132,917, against 131,798.

2. Permission for mental health services: For 163,894, against 99,064.

3. Veterans land bonds: For 156,278, against 111,949.

4. Medical and pay aid for injured police officers: For 174,902, against 91,501.

5. Bonds for improved parks: For 145,640, against 118,890.

6. Allow state employes to serve on certain boards: For 134,971, against 126,660.

The turnout was far lighter than expected. Robert L. Johnson, director of the Texas Election Bureau, had predicted some 500,000 of the state's three million eligible voters would cast ballots.

County Approves Four Amendments

Scurry Countians Saturday approved four of the six state constitutional amendments by overwhelming majories ranging from 2-1 to 3-1, but they turned down proposed amendments numbers 5 and 6 by slight majorities.

The two amendments that failed to carry here concern bond sales for the development of state parks and state employes in non-elective positions.

No. 5, which was voted down here, called for an amendment adding a new section authorizing the issuance and sale of $75,000,000 in bonds to create the Texas Park Development Fund for the acquisition of lands for Sate Park sites and to develop State Parks.

No. 6, the other proposed amendment which also failed to carry, would allow non - elective state officers and employes to serve in other non-elective offices or positions under this state or the United States until Sept. 1, 1969, and thereafter only if authorized by the legislature, if the offices or positions are of benefit to Texas or are required by state or federal law, and there is no conflict of interest with the original office or position. It also would prohibit elective officers under this state or the United States from holding any other office or position under this state; and, it would add members of the Air National Guard, Air National Guard Reserve, Air Force Reserve and retired members of the Air Force to the list of persons exempted.

The amendments which gained approval locally:

No 1 — Allows counties to put all county taxes into one general fund.

No. 2 permits municipalities, political subdivisions of the state and state supported entities within a hospital district to participate in the establishment and operation of mental health, mental retardation and public health services.

No 3 — Extends Veterans Land Program by authorizing the sale of bonds to increase the Veterans' Land Fund for the purpose of purchasing land in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans who served in the Armed Forces of the United States between Sept. 16, 1940, and the date of formal withdrawal of United States troops from the present armed conflict in Vietnam; and, also provides for an additional $200,000,000 in bonds, such funds to be expended in accordance with instructions and requirements that may be provided by law.

No. 4 — Authorizes each county in the state to pay medical bills, doctor bills and hospital bills for sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, constables, deputy constables and other county and precinct law enforcement officials who are injured in the course of their official duties; providing that the county shall continue to pay the maximum salary of these officials while they are incapacitated, but such salary payment shall not continue beyond the terms of office to which they were elected or appointed.

Results of the balloting on each amendment with number of votes in favor listed first:

Amendment 1 — 303 for, 217 against.

Amendment 2 — 315 for, 168 against.

Amendment 3 — 386 for, 130 against.

Amendment 4 — 292 for, 215 against.

Amendment 5 — 226 for 272 against.

Amendment 6 — 230 for, 271 against.

There was a light turnout both locally and state - wide for this "off-year" election.

AT PENTAGON REVIEW

Military To Oppose Pause

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. William C. Westmoreland and the Joint Chiefs of Staff can be expected to stand fast against any new proposal for an extended pause in U.S. bombing of North Vietnam, Pentagon sources say.

The perennial bombing pause question is on the list of matters to be reviewed at this week's high-level conferences.

Westmoreland, U.S. commander in Vietnam, is due here Wednesday to join Ellsworth Bunker, U.S. ambassador to South Vietnam, in discussions with President Johnson and top officials of the Defense and State departments. Johnson meets with Bunker today.

Pentagon sources said there are no urgent issues at this time —nothing in the way of new troop increase requests or logistic or operational problems. The conferences were billed as a general review.

The meetings come at a time when the Johnson administration appears to be stressing the theme of "steady progress" in the Vietnam war.

Bunker used this phrase on his arrival Friday from Saigon. High U.S. military officials followed up with a similar line Saturday in talking to newsmen, although they did predict hard fighting in certain critical areas.

In other war-related developments:

—Retired Lt. Gen. James M. Gavin said his recent trip to Vietnam convinced him the administration plans to keep forces in Southeast Asia for a long time.

Gavin, a persistent war policy critic, said the government pictures its purpose in Vietnam as resisting current aggression while in fact its policy is the long-term containment of Red China.

—California Gov. Ronald Reagan attacked Johnson's war policies, called for a clear policy decision on "whether we want to carry the war through to a conclusion, or give up" and said stopping U.S. bombing of the North "will only encourage the enemy to do his worst."

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR READERS: I recently published a letter asking my opinion about letting a child see his mother in the nude. It produced an avalanche of mail. Here is the letter, again, a repeat of my reply, and some typically vigorous reactions.

P. S. I must say, on second thought, I agree with the reactions.

DEAR ABBY: Do you think it's all right for a little boy, say around 4 or 5, to see his mother undressed? I have a friend who thinks it's perfectly all right to let her little boy hang around and watch her dress from the skin out and she thinks nothing of letting him come into the bathroom while she is in the tub. He comes in and asks her questions, or to just sit and visit while he gets his eyes full.

Maybe I am wrong, but I don't approve of this. My friend says it is better to let the boy KNOW than to have him curious. What is your opinion?

DAILY READER

DEA RREADER: Maybe I'm old - fashioned, but I still believe in modesty. A mother shouldn't make a federal case out of it if her 4-year-old son accidentally catches her in the altogether, but the bathroom door should be locked while mother is bathing.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Please reconsider your answer to DAILY READER. A 4-year-old boy is NOT a dirty - old man watching a stripper in a burlesque show. He is only a child wanting to be close to his mother. Why do you have to drag "sex" into everything? You and Dr. Freud would have made a peach of a pair!

DISGUSTED IN BUFFALO

DEAR ABBY: I say it is better to have the natural curiosity of a youngster satisfied by seeing his own mother unclothed than to satisfy it later with smutty magazines or, heaven forbid, with some sweet little 15-year-old girl down the block.

MICHIGAN MOTHER

DEAR ABBY: I can forgive the ignorance of Daily Reader, but not yours, Abby! Ever since that first moment of birth, I've seen our son naked, so why shouldn't he see me naked? In our house nakedness is natural. NOT flaunted, just natural.

When younger, our son (now 10) never found it necessary to chase little girls and pull up their skirts, as many of his friends did. And I'm sure that no young woman on a date with our son will ever be confronted with a clawing ape in a "give in, or get out" situation.

LIBBY B.

DEAR ABBY: Yes, you ARE old fashioned! Neither my wife nor I, nor our children have ever been ashamed of bodies, clothed or unclothed.

Not so with my mother who was so "modest" she wouldn't even let a doctor examine her. Or my father, who dressed and undressed in the clothes closet.

Of course we "peeked" and developed unwholesome attitudes toward sex, family relations, and marriage which, fortunately, we were able to overcome before we married.

Your advice is usually right on target, but this time you shot from the hip. Sincerely,

G. D., PALO ALTO

DEAR ABBY: "Lock the bathroom door," you advise. NEVER!

Six months ago when we first moved into this neighborhood, my 4-year-old brought six of his new friends to meet me while I was in the bathtub. I shooed them out quickly. After dressing I went to the drug store and bought a large bottle of bubble bath, and now if they should come in, I will be modestly covered with froth.

"NO LOCKED DOORS IN L. A."

To Oppose Antipoverty Compromise

By JOHN BECKLER
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — House supporters of the administration's antipoverty program plan to fight for the full $2.06 billion requested instead of seeking a compromise to head off a deep cut proposed by Republicans.

A GOP amendment to slash the program by $660 million is slated for action today as the House resumes consideration of the controversial legislation.

A plan by some Democrats who back the bill to agree to a lesser cut in hopes of defeating the Republican move was abandoned after a series of weekend strategy huddles and after President Johnson's fighting denunciation of "standpatters and nay-sayers."

In a New York speech Thursday night, Johnson blasted the "old coalition" he said has always opposed reform and is now using the Vietnam war as an excuse to oppose his domestic program.

The decision to stand by the administration request was taken even though the Republican bid to cut the total spending to $1.4 billion is likely to succeed. The economy-minded House has already indicated in an earlier vote it thinks the Office of Economic Opportunity can get along with as little as $1.2 billion.

The reason House Democrats can view such a potential defeat calmly is that the Senate has already passed a bill authorizing $2.2 billion and an eventual compromise bill could go as high as $1.8 billion no matter what the House decides.

The money amendment is only the opening of the Republican fight to rewrite the antipoverty bill. The GOP has several dozen other proposals ready to go and final action on the bill is not expected until midweek.

Rep. Charles E. Goodell, R-N.Y., who proposed the cut to $1.4 billion, said if the House goes along with the rest of the GOP amendments it will have created a program that would generate $3 billion to fight poverty through additional state, local and private contributions.

The GOP bill would end some programs, put others under different administration and enlarge the role of private industry in job training.

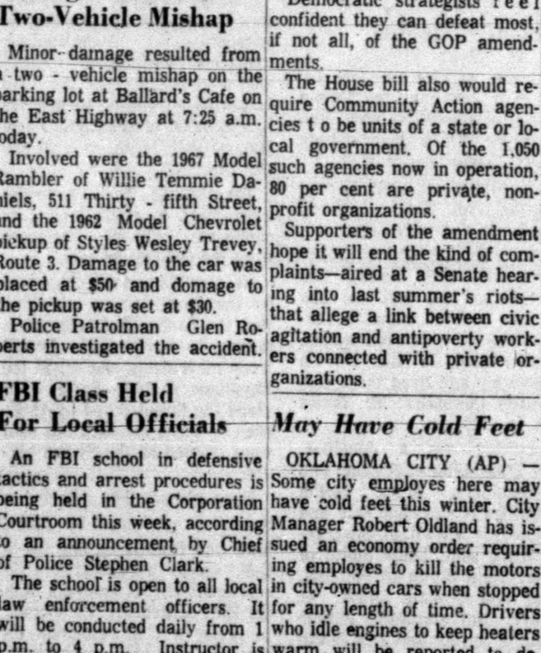

Democratic strategists feel confident they can defeat most, if not all, of the GOP amendments.

The House bill also would require Community Action agencies to be units of a state or local government. Of the 1,050 such agencies now in operation, 80 per cent are private, nonprofit organizations.

Supporters of the amendment hope it will end the kind of complaints—aired at a Senate hearing into last summer's riots—that allege a link between civic agitation and antipoverty workers connected with private organizations.

May Have Cold Feet

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Some city employes here may have cold feet this winter. Drivers who idle engines to keep heaters warm will be reported to department heads for "corrective action."

Hong Kong Violence Toll Climbs

HONG KONG (AP) — Hong Kong's death toll from Communist violence climbed today to 48 since May 11 as authorities announced the death of a 10-year-old Chinese girl who had been injured by a terrorist bomb Wednesday.

The bomb also injured 38 other persons in Kowloon, the crowded Chinese city across the harbor from Hong Kong island. The girl, whose body still was unclaimed, was the third child killed by terrorist bombs.

A 17-year-old suspected terrorist was wounded Sunday, apparently by premature explosion of a bomb he was planting.

An anti-Communist newspaper said reliable sources had reported British and Red Chinese officials may meet in Tokyo early next month to discuss ways to Communist sentiment on the end the Communist trouble in the British colony on China's southern coast.

The Chinese-language Fai Po said the meeting would try to arrange "that neither side would lose face."

It said as a gesture of conciliation Britain would replace its charge d'affaires in Peking, Dennis Hopson.

A Hong Kong government spokesman declined comment on the report and Communist newspapers in the colony continued to attack "British Hong Kong fascist authorities."

At the convention in Formosa of Nationalist China's ruling party, the Kuomintang, Vice President-Premier C. K. Yen said the Communist regime on the mainland is on the verge of collapse.

He said Mao Tse-tung's regime is "waging a desperate struggle against the doom awaiting it" and the struggle "will ignite even more violent anti-mainland."

Guilty Pleas Are Heard

Two men entered several guilty pleas in County Court Friday.

J. L. Bowdy, Snyder, pleaded guilty to four charges of possession of alcoholic beverages. The offenses occurred between Sept. 6, 1966 and November 4, 1966. One of the guilty pleas brought a one-year jail term plus a $500 fine and court costs, but the sentence provided for probation for one year. The other three guilty pleas each brought a 4-month jail term plus court costs.

In addition, Bowdy pleaded "no contest" to a charge of transporting intoxicating beverages on Oct. 29, 1967. For this charge, he received a $500 fine, and a one-year jail term plus court costs. The fine and jail term were probated one year.

L. P. Lunceford, also of Snyder, pleaded guilty to two charges of swindling by worthless check. He received a 30-day jail term plus court costs on each charge. The offenses occurred Dec. 22, 1966 and Feb. 2, 1967.

Robbers Captured

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Four men being sought in the early-morning burlary of the Texas State Bank were captured in brushy country southeast of San Antonio Sunday by sheriff's officers mounted on horseback.

The four men, all from Houston, were jailed but charges were not filed immediately.

No money was taken from the bank. Maury Holden, vice president of the bank, said the burglars tried to open the main vault with a cutting torch but were unsuccessful.

A bank customer using a night deposit box saw the burglars inside and called police.

The capture of the four men came about five hours after the burglary was discovered.

Clergyman Asks Johnson For Straightforward Words

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — It was President Johnson who must have felt baffled.

But he was in the wrong place to do anything about it, sitting in the very pew George Washington used in an Episcopal church in Williamsburg, Va. He could not very well get up and walk out. And he couldn't very well answer back.

All he could do was sit and listen. But when it was over he left at once without a smile.

He had just finished a 5,100-mile Veterans Day weekend trip, stopping at military camps from coast to coast, appealing to North Vietnam to talk peace and hitting at the critics of the war and the way he is handling it.

He is probably more sensitive to criticism than any president. With growing intensity he and his administration have been striking at the critics. This trip, most of it spent congratulating servicemen on their valor, was a platform.

"Vietnam is no academic question," he said at Ft. Benning, Ga. "It is not a topic for cocktail parties, office arguments, or debate from the comfort of distant sidelines."

It probably never occurred to him that at the very end of his journey he would be hit with criticism in a church while he was sitting there and by a clergyman who apparently, either hadn't kept up with what Johnson had said, or had ignored it.

The President finished his trip Saturday night at Williamsburg and Sunday morning took his family to the Bruton Parish Episcopal Church where the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Cotesworth Pinckney Lewis, was ready and waiting.

A parish spokesman explained later that while Dr. Lewis had prepared one sermon for Sunday's services, he put another one together when he heard Johnson would be present.

Since Johnson has been accused by his critics of not leveling with the American people on the war in Vietnam, of creating a "credibility gap," it is easy to imagine his reaction when the minister got started.

Dr. Lewis said, "There is a rather general consensus that something is wrong in Vietnam . . . (and) we wonder if some logical, straightforward explanation might be given without endangering whatever military or political advantages we hold. . .

"We cannot close our Christian consciences to consideration of the rightness of actions as they are reported to us, perhaps erroneously, perhaps for good cause of which we have not been apprised."

He cautioned against oversimplifying things by viewing the war as directed at monolithic communism. He said the complexities of the American involvement in the war are "baffling."

But this is what must have baffled Johnson in turn.

On June 29 Johnson made a speech—which he probably thought was logical—explaining the basic reason why the United States was involved in the war and that reason was communism.

If the clergyman had read that speech then his statement—warning against oversimplifying things by viewing the war as directed at communism—can be interpreted as a rejection of Johnson's explanation.

If Dr. Lewis hasn't read the Johnson speech—the most detailed in a long time—then he undertook to be critical without taking the trouble to be informed.

In September Johnson put it this way: "The key to all we have done is our own security." Every American president, he said, in time of crisis has to answer one question above all.

This is it: "Is the aggression a threat, not only to the immediate victim, but to the United States and to the peace and security of the world of which we are a part?"

Johnson's whole speech was built around that question. And he made it clear he thought unchecked Communist expansion in Southeast Asia was such a threat.

Still, there was one lesson for Johnson to learn from Dr. Lewis, although others have told him the same thing: He does not do enough public explaining about the war, even if in this case when he did the clergyman wasn't listening.

Bulletins From Boyle's Mailbag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

One of the things that science hasn't been able to figure out is why this century has been most favorable to the longevity of women. As recently as 1920, statistics indicated women outlived men by only a year. Now the feminine margin of survival is seven years: women 73.5 years, men 66.5.

If you're superstitious, one of the ways you can assure the happiness of your household is to put a tomato on the windowsill. Of course, it doesn't hurt if you also can afford to have meat in the icebox, a color television set in the living room, credit at the drugstore and cash in the bank.

Bears, like people, suffer from insomnia. For example, grizzly bears have been seen shuffling through the forests in the middle of winter, when they are traditionally supposed to be paused in hibernating sleep.

The human brain is said to contain 100 billion nerve cells. Now and then, don't you feel particularly on Mondays— that one of them is missing? It is hard for a fellow to feel at his peak with only 99,999,999,999 brain cells. It is that absent spark that makes all the difference in ignition.

When you drop a glass and it breaks, the cracks in it move at a speed of nearly a mile a second—more than 3,000 miles an hour. The wisecracks follow as an accompanying speed.

Quotable notables: "Love is the delightful interval between meeting a beautiful girl and discovering that she looks like a haddock."—John Barrymore.

If you want to contact Scotland Yard in a hurry and the international phones are tied up, simply send a cable addressed to "Handcuffs, London," and it will probably be delivered there. But don't send it collect.

Wonders of science: An extract of potatoes, researchers at the University of Michigan have found, is capable of both stimulating and inhibiting the cell growth in other plants and microscopic animals. This confirms what was found out in Ireland long ago. A presence of potatoes on the plate stimulates the cell growth of the Irish, and an absence of potatoes from the plate inhibits the cell growth of the Irish.

Few human beings are entirely satisfied with the shape they're in, but those most discontented with their silhouettes are adolescent girls. Only 16 per cent are found to be clinically obese, but 60 per cent don't like the way they weigh.

Junior Editors Quiz on THE UNITED NATIONS

QUESTION: What nations belonged originally to the United Nations?

• • • • •

ANSWER: Movements to organize such a group as the United Nations were first begun in September, 1939. But it was not until 1945 that the U.N. had been organized and its charter signed; the charter members are named in our drawing. Later, a number of other nations joined the organization. The U.N. is not a world government but a meeting place where nations can try to settle their problems through peaceful study and discussion; It has kept some dangerous disputes from turning into warfare. The handsome U.N. headquarters buildings, completed in 1952, are located on the New York City riverfront. Many young people enjoy taking tours through these buildings when great world issues are being debated. One of the U.N.'s activities is UNICEF, The United Nations Children's Fund, through which many of the world's needy mothers and children obtain food and medical care. The only U.N. agency to receive contributions from individuals, UNICEF was awarded the Nobel peace prize in 1965.

Addresses FB Meet

AUSTIN (AP)— The world will need the American farmer more than ever before in the years just ahead, President C. H. Devaney of the Texas Farm Bureau said today.

He addressed the farm organization's annual convention.

"The world population continues to explode, but perhaps even more important, the people are beginning to be dissatisfied. They are learning that there is more to life than a cereal diet and a loin-cloth existence," Devaney said.

"In an environment where two-third of the world is a deficit food area, the American farmer is uniquely prepared to produce more and better food if he can do it at a profit."

He said the American farmer's output per man is up 85 per cent since 1950.

Devaney predicted that the farmer's capital requirement per worker will double to $100,000 in "the very near future."

Missouri Lass Favorite Teenager

By PEGGY SIMPSON

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A mite of a girl with a smile that glows, Stephanie Crane of High Ridge, Mo., is the 1968 Miss Teenage America.

The 17-year-old high school senior was the favorite of the 62 other contestants because of her natural spontaneity and friendliness.

Stephanie said at a news conference Sunday she never considered how to impress judges, fellow candidates or the pageant officials.

"More than winning the contest I wanted to be happy with myself and the only way I could was to be myself," she said. "I didn't want to be pegged as something I wasn't. I'm glad the judges liked me!"

She will use the $10,000 scholarship to attend "the best possible school for drama and singing in the country." She hopes to be an entertainer.

"It's hard to put my finger on just how I reacted when they called my name Saturday night," Stephanie said. "It was a mixture of so many different feelings—a little bit of fear because I don't know what is going to happen, gratitude and then surprise. In fact, I was shocked."

In addition to the scholarship, Stef won a new car, a guaranteed $5,000 in personal appearances that will take her up to 500,000 miles around the nation during her reign, a clothes wardrobe, and stock in two of the sponsoring companies.

Released Prisoners Head Home

By GERALD MILLER
Associated Press Writer

ROME (AP) — Three U.S. Army sergeants released from Communist captivity in Vietnam passed through Rome today on a jetliner taking them home to the United States.

The Americans remained on the Pan American jet for the 45-minute stop at the Rome airport.

The men had spent the night in Beirut, where one of them in an interview with a local newspaper repudiated antiwar statements he had made in Hanoi. Another of the trio stood behind his remarks.

The three men—James E. Jackson of Talcott, W.Va., Daniel Lee Pitzer of Spring Lake, N.C., and Edward R. Johnson of Seaside, Calif. — were put aboard a Pan American airliner due in Washington at 10:30 p.m. EST after stops in Rome, Paris and New York.

The men were flown to Beirut Sunday from Phnom Penh, the Cambodian capital, aboard a Czechoslovak airliner after a ceremony Saturday at which they were turned over to Thomas Hayden, representing an American peace committee.

Hayden was traveling with them to the United States, Pan American said.

Sgt. Johnson, who was reported ill with dysentery and malnutrition, was quoted by the Beirut newspaper Al Bayrak as denying that he had been brainwashed and said: "I am going back to the war when duty calls me."

"I said what I said in Hanoi under pressure and I didn't mean any of it," he was quoted as saying. "I am an American, . . . I don't think my brain is so dirty that somebody has to wash it for me."

However, Al Bayrak said Pitzer told its reporter at the airport: "I meant everything I said in Hanoi. I am against war and I think the Americans made a mistake in getting involved in it."

Newspaper Endorses Briscoe As Goveror

UVALDE, Tex. (AP) — Dolph Briscoe, a rancher, banker, and civic leader in Southwest Texas, has been endorsed for governor by the weekly Uvalde Leader-News.

Publisher Harry Hornby said the endorsement was the second in the 70-year history of the Leader-News. The other political endorsement was for John Nance Garner for president. Garner, who served as vice president, died last week at the age of 98.

SHAKES LOOSE — Tommy Chorn (No. 17) scored two touchdowns in Hermleigh's 48-6 rout of Roby Saturday afternoon. Here, the 162-pound junior, shakes loose on a long gainer around right end. Roby's Joey Whitfill gives pursuit.

Cards Rout Roby 48-6

HERMLEIGH — It was a happy homecoming celebration here Saturday afternoon as the host Cardinals routed Roby 48-6 in a District 4-B gridiron match.

Hermleigh spotted the visitors six points, then wracked up 48 mostly on spectacular plays, striking from long distance. The Cards took a 34-6 halftime lead and coasted in.

Bobby Moore, 150-pound senior back, sprinted six yards around left end for Roby's only score. He also set up the tally on a long end run.

The Roby lead was short - lived, however, as Danny Peterson broke loose on a 48 yard touchdown run for Hermleigh as the first quarter ended 6-6.

Roby drove down to the Hermleigh two in the second frame. Then, on fourth down, Billy Joe Odstrcil dumped the ball carrier behind the line at the six as the Cards took command.

On the next play, Tommy Chorn raced 82 yards to the Roby 12. After a line play gained one, Danny Peterson swept right end to pay dirt. A run around the other end accounted for bonus points.

Tom Chorn did the honors on the next TD, sweeping right end from the six following a blocked punt. Billy Joe Odstrcil sliced over left tackle for two points and the margin soared to 22-6.

Chorn took an 8-yard pass from Ronnie Helm for the third TD of the quarter. He set it up on a 17-yard run following a short punt.

Ted Winter put the Cards in business late in the period with an interception at midfield. Chorn scrambled for 10, and a 15-yard roughing penalty moved the line of scrimmage to the Roby 34. At this point, Odstrcil shook loose on a long run to the end zone as the haltime count went to 34-6.

Robert Peterson intercepted a Roby aerial early in the third quarter and returned it 23 yards for Hermleigh's sixth touchdown.

Ronnie Helm plowed over from the one to cap a drive from midfield later in the period following a fumble by the visitors.

Roby netted 38 yards on the ground, but key defensive plays and fumbles kept them away from the promised land after the early score.

It was a great team effort by the Cardinals.

Chargers, Chiefs Find Victory; Raiders Idle

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Oakland Raiders have found out that idleness won't win them any American Football League titles, not with the San Diego Chargers and Kansas City Chiefs hard at work.

Playing the role of the idle rich Sunday only made the Raiders poorer as the Chargers and Chiefs each rolled to victory and narrowed the gap that separates them from leading Oakland in the Western Division.

The Chargers, 6-1-1, stumped Miami 24-0 and the Chiefs, 6-3, hammered Boston 33-10 while the Raiders relaxed with an open date and a 7-1 mark.

The New York Jets had to work hard to retain their one-game lead over Houston in the Eastern Division with a 20-10 victory over Buffalo while the Oilers struggled by lowly Denver 20-18 in the other AFL games.

In the National League, Green Bay walloped Cleveland 55-7, Baltimore ran over Atlanta 49-7, Dallas scored over New Orleans 27-10, Los Angeles whipped Philadelphia 33-17, Washington outscored San Francisco, 31-28, Chicago routed the New York Giants 34-7, and Detroit and Minnesota tied 10-10 as did St. Louis and Pittsburgh 14-14.

San Diego, off last week, also suffered the effects of idleness against the Dolphins as the high-powered Chargers managed only a 7-0 lead into the fourth quarter before blowing open the game.

"Two weeks layoff was too much," said Charger Coach Sid Gillman. "I think we will be a better football team from here on out."

"We were sluggish and our timing was off," agreed quarterback John Hadl, who pitched for two touchdowns, but had four other passes intercepted. "We might have been looking ahead to Kansas City. I'm just glad we didn't play the Chiefs today."

The Chargers and Chiefs collide Sunday while Oakland, if it can avoid rustiness, hosts weak and Miami and can pick up ground on at least one challenger with a victory.

The Chiefs readied themselves for the San Diego clash after spotting Boston a 10-7 lead and then crushing the Patriots for their third straight romp in a inal drive to rein the AFL title they won last year.

The Chiefs' Len Dawson pitched for two touchdowns and defensive back Emitt Thomas returned an intercepted pass 57 yards for another score and intercepted a second pass and recovered a fumble to set up a TD and a field goal.

"We're in g ood shape," Coach Hank Stram of Kansas City said. "We play both Oakland and San Diego again and they play each other once. We just have to keep winning."

The loss all but eliminated the Patriots in the East race, and the New York victory did the same to Buffalo as each suffered its sixth defeat.

The Jets, meanwhile, won for the sixth time in nine games in a contest dominated by the defenses which blocked several field goal attempts, intercepted four passes and recovered one fumble.

Joe Namath threw for one touchdown and set up two field goals by Jim Turner, but a 41-yard TD run in the final period by cornerback Johnny Sample with a pass deflected by teammate Ralph Baker proved to be the clincher.

The Bills needed an interception by George Saimes and two roughing the kicker penalties to get its TD and a 10-10 tie at the half.

Houston, noted for its defense, won its fifth game with an usual 20-point outburst in the first three periods on a scoring pass by Pete Beathard and the running of Hoyle Granger and Woodie Campbell.

But the Broncos, able to cross midfield only twice and trailing 20-0, gave the Oilers a scare as Steve Tensi tossed two TD passes and Bob Humphreys kicked a 43-yard field goal in less than six minutes during the final quarter before the Houston defense regrouped.

Palmer Palms World Cup

By PAUL H. FINCH

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Arnold Palmer, the easy-going golf master from Latrobe, Pa., was off to new conquests today after capturing his first World Cup individual prize in six tries as cowinner of the American team.

Jack Nicklaus, 27-year-old teammate from Columbus, Ohio, came in second as individual winner plus coholder of the team trophy by the United States for the sixth time.

"I owe my partner a great deal for getting those clubs right," said Palmer.

"I came here to help win the team championship," added Nicklaus. "If I couldn't win the ndividual prize I,m glad Arnold did."

The two U.S. stars, who outstripped a field of 80 golfers from 40 nations, territories and regions, fired a combined 567 for the two rounds, 13 strokes below their nearest competitors, southpaw Bob Charles and Walter Godfrey of New Zealand.

Palmer, who nursed an eye scratched by sand from a trap shot for the last two days, fired a five-under par 67 in the final round for a total of 276.

Nicklaus and Charles tied for second place, five strokes behind Palmer.

Individual and national prestige was the real stake in the World Cup, formerly called the Canada Cup.

Palmer got only $1,000 for the best individual score and shared $2,000 with Nicklaus for the team victory. Nicklaus and Charles split $500 for second place while Tony Cerda of Argentina won $400 for his 284 and third place, and Ted Makalena of Hawaii, fourth with 285, got $200.

Palmer then rushed out of the press room at the Club de Golf Mexico to fly in his own jet to Puerto Rico for a new tournament, the CBS World of Golf.

Following the meeting, the Cub Scout and Boy Scout round table will begin at 7:30 p.m. For better community support and opportunities for packs and troops all scouters should attend.

Dallas Wins With Defense

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys showed Sunday what a defense can do as they held the New Orleans Saints to 43 yards on the ground and took advantage of the breaks—which they made themselves—to win 27-10.

Dallas obviously had improved while New Orleans was in the same rut. The Saints held the Cowboys to a 14-10 victory when the teams met at Dallas.

But at New Orleans Sunday, with the largest crowd ever to see a sports event in the South —83,437—making so much noise they had to stop play nine times while Dallas had the ball on its last score — the Cowboys, not very sharp on offense but with the "doomsday defense" playing to the hilt, cuffed the Saints for their seventh National Football League victory against two losses.

That kept the Cowboys easily out front in the NFL's Capitol Division.

Another bright spot for Dallas was the excellent kicking of Danny Villanueva, who had been in a decided slump. Villanueva booted two field goals, punted for an average of 41.5—most of them high, lazy kicks that permitted the Cowboys to hold returns to a minimum—and did some good kicking off.

Dallas suffered one blow. Pettis Norman, the pass-catching star who also can run well, suffered a muscle pull. How long he will be lost was not determined immediately. The injury was not believed to be severe, however.

Cornell Green blocked a field goal try and recovered the ball to set up one Dallas touchdown. Green also intercepted a pass which he fumbled in the end zone but opportunist Mel Renfro recovered and ran it out to put Dallas on the way to a field goal.

Don Meredith had a pass intercepted that led to the New Orleans touchdown.

Late Score Saves Lakers

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Chicago Bulls got within two seconds of their second National Basketball Association victory Sunday night, but then alvation, in the unlikely form of Reggie Harding, came to the os Angeles Lakers.

The last seconds of the Lakers' National Basketball Association 97-96 victory over the Bulls went something like this:

Mel Counts hit a jump shot with 13 seconds left, drawing Los Angeles within three points. Gail Goodrich hit a layup, making the margin a point. Clem Haskins of the Bulls was fouled, but missed three straight shots.

Still the Bulls seemed in control. But Los Angeles Archie Clark threw wildly, Harding pushed Counts and with two seconds left, Mel sunk a pair from the foul line and won the game.

In the only other NBA game Sunday night, St. Louis beat San Diego 116-105.

In the American Basketball Association, Minnesota beat Oakland 108-104, Denver took Indiana 110-103 and Pittsburgh stopped New Jersey 100-96.

St. Louis made its record 16-1 at the expense of San Diego as the Hawks were never seriously threatened. Bill Bridges of St. Louis led the scorers with 29 points while Don Kojis had 24 for the Rockets.

Jr. Varsity Wallops Jayton 26-12

The Snyder Junior Varsity Reserves walloped the Jayton B team, 26-12, Saturday morning in Tiger Stadium.

Thirteen members of the local JV aggregation were on hand for the daylight engagement which rolled to a 20-6 lead in the first half.

The Kittens scored on their first possession in the ball game. Ronald Ward passed to Roger Wampler for the payoff, with the play covering 25 yards. Ward then ran for the two - point conversion.

Later in the first period, Jayton scored after blocking a Snyder punt, but was unable to convert the extra points.

In the second period, Mike Keller went 10 yards for another Snyder touchdown, and then Ricky Arnold put the game out of reach on an 8-yard scamper.

Jayton broke a long play or its TD, which came in the third period. The play covered 65 yards.

Keller scored again on a 10 yard blast to conclude the scoring.

HERE SATURDAY NIGHT

Upstart Hornets, Rated Eagles Vie

The No. 1 Class A football team in Texas will face an upstart challenger Saturday night in Snyder's Tiger Stadium.

The Seagraves Eagles and the Aspermont Hornets will tangle here in their bi-district game at 7:30 p.m. Saturday.

Arrangements to play the game in Snyder were made Sunday at Post during a meeting of coaches and officials of the two schools. After discussion of the possibility of several playoff sites, Aspermont named Snyder as its choice and Seagraves selected Lubbock. Aspermont won the coln toss and Snyder it was.

Snyder Chamber of Commerce Manager Gene Merrifield was on hand a t the meeting in Post to extend the invitation for the teams to play here.

As soon as tickets are printed, supplies will be sent to each school and they also will be on sale in Snyder.

Seagraves has been in the No. 1 spot in the Dallas Morning News weekly pool and consequently is favored to march to the state championship in Class A. Aspermont was unranked last week, but surprised the experts by bouncing No. 6 Merkel, 28-27, to win its district championship and the right to face Seagraves in the bi-district.

Perry Paces Minnesota

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Minnesota Muskies sportingly spotted visiting Oakland a five-point halftime lead Sunday night and then unleashed Ron Perry.

Perry threw in 17 points in the third quarter, leading the Muskies to a 108-104 victory, their seventh in their last eight American Basketball Association outings.

Oakland led 55-50 at halftime but Perry, who finished with 24 points, brought the Muskies on with a rush. Mel Daniels scored 21 points and had 20 rebounds for Minnesota while Lavern Tart was high for Oakland with 27.

In other ABA games Sunday, Pittsburgh beat New Jersey 100-96 and Denver topped Indiana 110-103.

In the National Basketball Association, St. Louis beat San Diego 116-105 and Los Angeles edged Chicago 97-96.

Connie Hawkins threw in two free throws with 1:53 left, breaking a tie and Pittsburgh protected the margin over New Jersey after that. Hawkins led the Pippers with 25 points and Charley Williams had 23. Tony Jackson led the Americans with 34 points.

Denver scored 38 points in the third period, overcoming a seven-point halftime deficit against Indiana, Larry Jones scored 31 points for the Rockets while Roger Brown collected 28 for the Pacers.

The Detroit Tigers have drawn more than one million fans to Tiger Stadium for the last 24 baseball seasons. The 1967 figure of 1,455,614 was the highest since 1961 and the second highest since the record of 1950.

MARVEL OR MISTAKE?

Report On Peace Corps

by TOM SEPPY
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A young Peace Corps volunteer arrived in the remote fishing village of San Jose in northern Peru, took a deep breath and asked himself "What first?"

He decided to persuade the villagers to form a cooperative to market their catch. The venture was successful.

With their new prosperity the fishermen were able to buy engines to replace the sails on their boats and had money to repair the village's electric generator.

There was one hitch to this otherwise happy ending: the volunteer had been assigned to San Jose in southern Peru. He had gone to the northern village through a staff mixup.

"This points up what volunteers can really do," said a corps spokesman. "He went to a village that didn't expect him but needed someone to get them organized and the volunteer made good."

The success story is not an exception. Reports from Associated Press bureaus around the world indicate that during the nearly seven years the Peace Corps has been in operation its successes far outnumber its failures — although there have been some complete flops.

The corps will have 16,000 volunteers in 58 countries by the end of this year, the largest number ever. It will have 17,500 in an anticipated 66 countries by the end of next summer if Congress approves its request for $118.7 million.

Since 1961 more than 30,000 volunteers have spent two years in some underdeveloped country. The operation has cost $467 million.

Has it been worth it?

"Every dollar that has been spent on the Peace Corps in services overseas has been well spent," Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey said recently. "Not another cent has been required for the new dividends that we have been receiving here at home."

On the other hand, Chairman Otto E. Passman said during hearings of his House Appropriations subcommittee: "This program has been the greatest whitewash in the history of government."

He told Corps director Jack Vaughn "This program is so new and so uncertain, and what it has accomplished is so uncertain, that you are trying to make something out of a program that was cooked up overnight."

Overseas, however, the Peace Corps volunteers are usually praised by most governments and newspapers for the work they are doing.

New successes are being reported as the corps expands the role of volunteers in programs such as poultry production, agriculture, rural community development and health and family planning. But education still gets top priority.

In the health area, a tuberculosis control program in Malaysia is only 11 months old but already is being hailed as a major success. The emphasis was on getting Malaysians to use clinics that have seen set up in 30 towns.

Here's a rundown on some of the corps' other activities:

In Africa, volunteers have worked successfully with local officials to help resettle families on fertile farmland.

In Brazil, volunteers helped to expand a school lunch program to thousands of additional students.

In Thailand, volunteers worked in a program to help stamp out malaria. Considerable progress has been reported.

In India, 250 volunteers are working as nutrition and home vegetable instructors. The corps says about 1 million families are benefiting.

In Columbia, the corps is reaching 50,000 school children through educational television.

In Micronesia, volunteers have taken on day-to-day responsibility for virtually the entire public health program.

In the Dominican Republic, 300 elementary school teachers are under the instruction of 30 volunteer teacher-trainers.

In Nigeria, more than 270 volunteers are in teacher training colleges and related activities. The corps says almost 30,000 Nigerian teachers will benefit.

But in just about every country where the Peace Corps can point to successes, failures can usually be found—most of them in urban community development.

"If we could do things differently, we would have sent fewer volunteers to the urban areas of Latin America," says Vaughn, who in March, 1966, took over the $28,500-a-year directorship from the first head, Sargent Shriver. "The farther out of the cities the Peace Corps gets, the better off we will be."

Big Guns Spew Death In Darkness

By JOHN WHEELER
Associated Press Writer

ALONG THE THU BON RIVER, Vietnam (AP) — At night Death's face softens in the countryside and takes on an almost eerie beauty as he goes about his grim chores.

The jagged steel splinters from artillery and bombs, the swarms of bullets crisscrossing the rice paddies are no less lethal for being hidden by the mask of night's long shadows.

But the bright oranges and reds from explosions, tracers and distant burning homes moved one veteran Marine sergeant sitting in night ambush to comment: "You know, at night it doesn't seem so dirty. This whole business seems to have a little style, like a fireworks display at the fair grounds on the Fourth of July."

As he spoke the displays were in the distance and impersonal. A half hour later the sergeant and his men stood, adjusted their field gear and started to move their ambush to a new position 100 yards away across a rice paddy.

As they began to move out, a large Viet Cong unit opened up with machine-gun, automatic weapon and rifle fire. The muzzleflashes blinked bright yellow. Red tracers from the machine gun played almost lazily, like water from a garden hose, across the tree line where the Marines intended to set up their new positions.

The Marines sprawled in the dirt as noiselessly as possible. The firing stopped without shifting. The Marines crawled on all fours back into the old positions. Minutes later the night noises sounded again.

The big shells from the Marine base at An Hoa arrived and the white phosphorous rounds exploded.

Miles away and toward the east the drone of a C123 flare ship could be heard circling over a government outpost. Red tracers and white mortar shell bursts clearly marked the battleground. A series of winks showed in the sky above the outpost as the parachute flares ignited.

The flares dropped slowly in line, a necklace in the night. The jewels began to burn out one by one. The last still glowed brightly as it hit the ground and set fire to the brush on a hillside. The murky night held the smoke close to the ground and gently pushed it down the slope toward the fields blow.

Midnight. The ambush was over. Another patrol from Echo Company already had moved toward positions nearby. Third Platoon stood, stretched cramped muscles, and started silently home through the inkey black rice paddies and scrubland.

Overhead the clouds broke temporarily and the southern stars showed through. The constellation Scorpio pointed the stinger of its tail straight down toward the Marine company's base camp. The Tea Pot, Scorpio's companion, had tipped in its daily circle and poured celestial nothingness on the Annamese mountains.

Pupils Loft Balloons

PORTLATND, Ore. (AP) — Boys and girls at Lynwood Elementary School sent 4,100 helium balloons into the air in October as part of a science project. Each balloon had a tag which asked the finder to notify the school. The balloons have been spotted in Idaho, Colorado, Texas and Hume, Va.

POPULAR FLOWERS — Mums and Chrysanthemums always are popular at this time of year. A large shipment of the flowers has arrived at Hinshaw's House of Flowers, 2804 Avenue S. Here, Jesse Criswell and Hershell Hinshaw unload a shipment from California. Modern storage facilities retain the freshness of the flowers. Just dial HI 3-9600 to place your order.

Flowers For All Occasions Are On Hand At Hinshaw's

All kinds of flowers for all kinds of occasions. That's an apt description of Hinshaw's House of Flowers, 2804 Avenue S.

Let the flower design and arrangement specialists at the House of Flowers — Hershel Hinshaw, Pat Hinshaw, Dorothy Shaw and Jesse Criswell — fix up an attractive array of flowers with easel pieces the next time you send flowers for the funeral of a loved one. The easel pieces begin at $15 and can be ordered in a variety of shapes — including hearts, double wreath rings, broken wheels, saddles or Bibles. All types of flowers are available for casket pieces.

When you purchase flowers at Hinsahw's House of flowers, you can be sure they are fresh. Just last week the firm received a shipment of mums from California. They are kept fresh in a cold storage vault. You can ask for mums or Chrysanthemums for football games — and, of course, Thanksgiving and Christmas are just around the corner. Tied sprays begin at $4.

Chrysanthemums are the flowers of the month for November, and poinsettias are appropriate for December. A large supply of both types are on hand at Hinsahw's.

Speaking of Christmas, the House of Flowers can provide you with ideal contemporary Christmas designs. The Christmas stock includes centerpieces for tables, reindeer, toys, Santas, Madonnas, lighted lamps for burning scented oil and scented candles.

In addition, door swags with the legend "Merry Christmas" or mantel or outside decorations would make an ideal gift. They vary from the simple to the elaborate. One of the more elaborate mantel decorations shows Santa Claus going down a fireplace. Greenery for mantel decorations also is available.

Whenever you order flowers from the House of Flowers, you can be sure that they will be delivered fresh and arranged with artistic taste.

Farm Controls Object Of Attack

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON AP) — Federal farm controls are under sharp attack in Congress and among some farm organization leaders, but the Johnson administration asserts it has stronger support now than for several years.

Many bills have been introduced to drop the farm measures. Sentiment among lawmakers is being expressed by actions in Congress rejecting administration proposals to strengthen government controls over prices and supplies of grains.

Top Agriculture Department officials argue that critical legislators are not fully aware of what the department sees as a swing of farmers back to controls.

These officials cite farmer response to government proposals to cutback next year on the production of wheat and livestock feed grains and to expand next year's production of cotton and rice.

In fact, Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman expresses belief that the administration's strong endorsement of farm controls will be an advantage against an expected Republican promise to liquidate the controls.

Department officials say they expect a much larger percentage of feed-grain growers to comply with a cutback program next year than at any time since the program was inagurated in 1961. They also expect as favorable a response on wheat controls as any in the past.

Under these programs, government benefits-price supports and payments—are offered growers who comply with programs calling for smaller acreages of wheat and the feed grains.

In the case of cotton, growers who participated in regional department meetings appeared to be almost completely in accord with a subsequently announced plan to increase cotton plantings around 15 per cent next year. A cotton surplus —the reason for earlier production restrictions—no longer exists.

The government has suggested an increase in rice production that would involve the bringing in of some new growers. But many established growers oppose this. They want to continue rigid controls in effect in recent years.

But critics argue that this apparent support for controls does not necessarily indicate farmers want to keep them beyond next year.

They say farmers find themselves more or less obligated to go along with the 1957 restrictions to get out from under overproduction of crops and resulting price declines. They argue these were brought on by the Johnson administration's call for 1967 crops which have turned out to be unnecessarily large.

They contend that many farmers feel that once farm supplies become stabilized, agriculture would be much better off if growers were left alone to make their own production decisions.

Critics say that if government incentives were eliminated, farmers would be more cautious about production with the result farm production would over a time bring about a better balance between output and market needs—and more stable prices.

These conflicting points of views doubtless will be the basis of next year's battle for farm votes.

Nine Held After Melee

MONAHANS, Tex. (AP) — Nine persons were charged Sunday in the violent melee that broke out at a Mexican-American dance when two sheriff's deputies tried to serve warrants on two brothers.

One man, Joe Jaquez, 28, of Monahans, was killed in the fight Saturday night.

Ward County sheriff's deputies John Carr and C. M. Wilkinson said they went to the Ward County Coliseum south of this West Texas town to serve the warrants. A fight broke out and, the officers said, Carr's gun went of when he slugged Jaquez with it after Jaquez attacked him.

The deputies finally collared the two men they went to find and Jaquez' friends took him to a hospital. Another brawl broke out at the hospital and extra police and highway patrolmen had to be called in to break it up.

Nine men were charged Sunday with interfering with the officers. Five of those also were charged with aggravated assault and one with assault with intent to murder.

Article By Connally

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Gov. John Connally is writing an 8,000 word article for Life magazine on his recollection of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, an aide said Sunday.

Connally, who was riding in the same car with Kennedy, was shot and gravely wounded as the motorcade moved through Dallas Nov. 22, 1963.

Bill Carter, press secretary for Connally, said that Life writer David Nevin was working with the governor on the manuscript.

Connally was ired by William Manchester's "Death of a President," the controversial account of the assassination and its aftermath.

Connally, who said Friday he will not seek a fourth term, had indicated previously that he will publish a book giving his view of the assassination and events surrounding the late President's visit to Texas.

Bomb Blast In American Jetliner

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — High over Colorado, an explosion rocked an American Airlines jetliner with 78 persons aboard, shattering suitcases in the plane's rear baggage compartment.

The plane, on a nonstop flight Sunday from Chicago to San Diego dropped about 600 feet over Alamosa, Colo.

After the Boeing 727 landed two hours later in San Diego, fragments of what appeared to be a homemade bomb were found in the luggage debris.

"There's no question about that," said Mel Zikes, a public relations officer for American. "Parts of a crudely made bomb with a timing device—a face of a clock, some mechanism and a battery—were found."

The Federal Bureau of Investigation refused to comment except to say persons were being questioned.

None of the 72 passengers or six crew members was reported injured.

Coach Tony Sucec and seven members of San Diego State College track team were flying home after repeating as champions of the national college cross-country meet at Wheaton, Ill., College.

The pilot, Dwain C. Duncan of Barrington, Ill., said he believed something was wrong with the automatic pressure system, but that manual control brought the pressure back to normal.

Little Hope For Hike In Farm Income

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department offers the nation's farmers little hope for a substantial increase in incomes in the coming election year.

A report prepared by Rex Daly, chairman of the department's economic outlook and situation board, for today's opening session of its annual farm outlook conference, said prospects indicate little improvement in farm returns from this year.

Farm economists and educators from all parts of the country were invited to the conference.

The report said net farm income this year will be about 10 per cent below last year. The figure was estimated at $14.8 billion, compared with $16.6 billion last year.

"Gross farm income, including larger cash receipts and some increase in government payments to farmers, is expected to rise in 1968, perhaps by around a billion dollars," Daly said. "But production expenses will continue to increase and may largely offset any gains in gross income. Accordingly, incomes again are not expected to rise in line with the anticipated general expansion expected for the rest of the economy."

The report said this year's drop in farm earnings came as a result of a record agricultural output accompanied by declining prices.

"Looking to next year, supplies of farm products will continue large, but prices received in general are expected to strengthen from reduced levels this fall," it added.

The report said retail food prices are expected to rise more in 1968 than this year and perhaps a little more than the average increase of 1.5 to 2 per cent a year for the past decade. The increase could be as much as 3 per cent, it said.

Motorcycle Patrolman Killed In Crash

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas traffic patrolman James Stewart, 28, was killed Sunday when his motorcycle slammed into an automobile as he chased another motorcycle.

Mrs. Ealon Baxley, 50, was injured critically in the crash. The driver of the car was not injured.

Later officers arrested a 28-year-old man about six blocks from the crash scene. Charges were not filed immediately.

Stewart had been on the Dallas police force for seven years. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Stewart of Arlington.

The officer made his home in Rockwall. A police spokesman said Mrs. Stewart is expecting twins.

New Owners Take Over Big Circus

BOY GENE PLOWDEN
Associated Press Writer

VENICE, Fla. (AP) — Work went on with new enthusiasm at winter quarters of Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey Combined Shows, Inc., today and "The Greatest Show on Earth" was under new ownership for the first time since the Ringling brothers hit the road as entertainers in 1882.

"That's great news," said workers in and around the big amphitheater here which the circus calls home for seven or eight weeks each winter. They referred to reports from Rome, Italy, that Judge Roy Hofheinz of Houston, Tex., and Irvin and Israel Feld of Washington, D.C., had bought the famous old amusement enterprise for "more than $10 million."

John Ringling North, president of the circus off and on since his uncle John Ringling died in 1936, said he decided to pass ownership to Hofheinz and the Feld brothers because they indicated "their concern and their dedication to maintain the concept, tradition and artistic standards of the circus."

The new owners announced the technical staff of the circus would remain the same and the 1968 season would proceed as scheduled. The circus is to close its 1967 tour in Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 19 and return to winter quarters here, where it will start the 1968 season with a three-day stand Jan. 11-13.

The new owners said North would continue as producer and his brother, Henry Ringling North, would remain as vice president. Offices will be moved from New York to Washington, D.C., where the Feld brothers have operated the Carter Barrow Amphitheater for the past 14 years.

Hofheinz, who masterminded the Astrodome stadium in Houston, will become board chairman of the circus, with Irvin Feld president and chief executive officer and Israel Feld executive vice president and treasurer.

North, 64, who makes his home in Rome, had 450 of the 1,000 circus shares in his own name and with his brother controlled 60 more as executors of their mother's estate. Minority stockholders, who owned 490 shares, were heirs of Edith Conway Ringling and her son, Robert Edward Ringling.

The Circuit Court last Thursday approved sale of the minority stock and Judge Lynn Silvertooth said the court acted for beneficiaries of the trusts.

Rumors of the sale circulated for some time and a year ago John Ringling North put the price of his shares at $5.1 million. Minority stockholders said their shares were worth $4.9 million.

Burglars Add Insult To Injury

RICHARDSON, Tex. (AP) — Thieves in the Dallas suburb of Richardson added a dash of insult in a weekend burglary.

Police said the burglars stole 11 color television sets, five black and white sets, tires, tools, watches, small appliances and a safe containing $1,000 in cash.

Then they loaded it into one of the store's pickup trucks and got away.
