Services Held Wed. For George Bulman Sr.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon in the First Baptist Church for George Edward Bulman Sr. with Rev. John Stout and Rev. W. R. Lawrence officiating.

Mr. Bulman, 61, died Monday afternoon in Adair Hospital here. He had been a resident of Donley County 45 years and at the time of his death, farmed in the Martin community. He was a deacon of the Martin Baptist Church.

Mr. Bulman was elected Commissioner of Precinct No. 1 this past year and had been serving in that capacity since January 2nd of this year. He was prominent in community affairs and served his community as a school trustee a long number of years and was a member of the County School Board prior to his election as commissioner. He was fair in his dealings and his judgment was regarded highly.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, George Edward Jr., of Amarillo, and Gene Bulman of Bell, Calif.; two daughters, Mrs. Billy Jack Land of Clarendon and Mrs. Tick Barbee of Stephenville; four sisters, Mrs. Emily Hillhouse and Mrs. Pearl Rogers, both of Hillsboro, Mrs. Chris Lewis of Overton, and Mrs. R. E. Harvey of New Deal; and nine grandchildren.

Pallbearers were O. T. Hill, Pete Land, Wes Sullivan, J. C. Gibbs, H. L. Riley and J. T. Hill. Burial was in Citizens Cemetery with the Murphy Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Services Held For Mrs. Stencil

Graveside services for Mrs. Jessie Gray Stencil, 51, a former Clarendon resident, were held Saturday afternoon at Citizens Cemetery here with Rev. W. R. Lawrence officiating.

Mrs. Stencil died Tuesday at Surburban Hospital in South Gate, Calif. She had lived there the past 30 years and was employed as a die casting inspector.

Survivors include a stepdaughter, Mrs. Frank Fitten of Anaheim, Calif.; four brothers, Roy Blackwell of Clarendon, Roy Blackwell of Channing, Jockey Blackwell of Tatum, N. M., and Reeford Blackwell of McLean; five sisters, Mrs. Pearl Terry and Mrs. Jewell Yoakum, both of Clarendon, Mrs. Jimmie Frye of Lubbock, Mrs. Bess Harvey of Panhandle, and Mrs. Margaret Albright of San Antonio.

Services were under the direction of Murphy Funeral Home.

Senior Class Play Set For Thursday Night

The senior class play, "The Sweetheart of U Baka Pi," will be presented Thursday evening, February 9, at 7:30 p.m. in the High School Auditorium. Admission will be 75c for adults and 50c for students.

The play, originally scheduled for Saturday of last week, was not presented at that time due to bad weather.

The public is invited to attend Thursday evening, 7:30 (tonight).

YWA's of First Baptist Church To Observe Focus Week Feb. 12-18

Members of Young Woman's Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church will observe YWA Focus week February 12-18. The purpose of Focus Week is to call to the attention of church members and of members of the organization themselves the purpose of Young Woman's Auxiliary, which is, briefly, the promotion of missions through Bible study, prayer, mission study, stewardship, and personal service.

The week's activities will begin with a devotional at the Sunday School hour on Sunday morning brought by members of the group, the theme of which will be, "Here Am I—Send Me." On Monday evening the girls will travel to Amarillo to participate in an associational gathering to study a book on Home Missions, "His To Command," by Harold Dye, a thrilling account of Baptist Pioneers as they started the mission movement among Baptists in America and the resulting heritage that is Baptists' today.

A coke party will be held in the home of Jean Moore on Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 for members and guests. On Wednesday evening a White Bible presentation ceremony will be held in the home of Mrs. Joe Goldston at 6:30, honoring Miss Betty Parker, bride-elect of Larry Hopkins. Such a ceremony is a tradition in Young Woman's Auxiliary and is an honor accorded to each member prior to her marriage.

Thursday night should prove to be full of fun and relaxation as the girls drive to Pampa for an evening of bowling.

Members of Young Woman's Auxiliary who will be participating in Focus Week activities include: Sandra and Andra Pinkerton, Rosalie and Jean Welch, Cleeta and Barbara Koontz, Elaine Behrens, Betty Parker, Judy Thompson, Paula Adams, Sarah Antrobus, Janie Ivey, Carol Wood, Sue McCord, Carol Spencer, Sharon Williams, Agatha Wallin, Francis Armstrong Jean Moore, Counsellor, and Fay Pinkerton, Director of Music and Education.

Mrs. Evans Bruce and Sally Bivens of Amarillo visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bugbee Tuesday.

Bulldogs Bounce Back After Twin Setbacks

Smarting from last Friday and Saturday's two defeats on a road trip by a total of three points, the Bulldogs made of themselves very unpleasant hosts to their neighbors to the north Tuesday night.

From the outset of the game every move the Bulldogs made was destined to claw away at the Plainsmen from Frank Phillips College until they could gain an advantage. The Bulldogs gained a 3 point lead in the first 5 minutes only to be overtaken by a determined opponent to tie the game at 23-23. At the 18 minute mark the lead had changed twice, but again the score was tied up at 35-35. During the last two minutes of the first half the Bulldogs grabbed the lead to hold at 41-39 at intermission.

At the half Jimmy Humphreys and Bobby Lesley were even at 9 points each, however, Jimmy was far out in the lead with 8 rebounds to take defensive honors for the first stanza.

The Bulldogs returned to the battleground for the second half encounter with determination and a purpose. Field goals by Humphrey, Alexander and Lesley, plus a charity toss by Humphreys added 7 points in two and one-half minutes before the Plainsmen could scratch. This gave the Bulldogs a nine-point lead which they stretched to 11 at the third quarter, the score standing at 53-46.

The following five minutes saw the Plainsmen adopt a full court press with more than average effectiveness and rally within 4 points of the Bulldogs. This rally was more than the Bulldogs were willing to accept, and with the precision of a hand-tooled machine, Lesley drove in for a lay-up. In turn Bronniman drove for another and then added a corner jump shot to go ahead 81-71 with two minutes left in the game.

The Plainsmen were unable to add to their total while the Bulldogs upped their tally to 88. Final score: 88-71.

Coach Young cleared the bench, allowing every member of the squad to participate in the Bounce Back from a series of very close losses.

Four sophomores scored in double figures to get back in the 80 points a game bracket which the club had been scoring earlier in the season. Lesley was high with 25 giving him 76 points in the last 3 games. Jimmy Humphreys added 18, John Alexander 16, and Oscar Bronniman 12. De Bord was high for the freshmen with 8 and Wiggins was close behind with 7. Martindale, Jones and Morrow saw only limited action but carried their end of the load while on the court.

Cox, wearing number 30 for the Plainsmen, who played with Borger's state finalists last season accounted for 23 points and high scoring honors for the losers. The Plainsmen made a contest of the game to the very end but the difference in the score was due to an accuracy of goals from the field by the Bulldogs of 51.8 per cent while Frank Phillips could only can 41.2 per cent of their attempts plus giving up 31 points to the Bulldogs from the free throw line compared to only 19 opportunities for the Plainsmen from the Charity stripe, of which they cashed in on only 15.

The next game for the Bulldogs will be Saturday night when the Bronchos from New Mexico Military institute will be here for a conference game.

The Bronchos are tied with Howard County for second place in the conference and will be attempting to hold on to that position. However the Bulldogs, having found the winning spark in Tuesday night's game will be more determined than ever to reduce their standing.

WHEAT PERFORMANCE

Wheat measuring is nearing completion. We wish to express our sincere appreciation to you for the fine cooperation with the reporters and the office in this work. If you have excess acreage, please keep in mind that the area disposed of must be of regular shape with not more than four sides. MAY 10, 1961 is the final date to dispose of excess acreage.

ACP PROGRAM

We have just completed a very successful Soil and Water Conservation Program here in Donley County and are looking forward to another year of service to our many farmers and ranchers. Nearly 400 farmers participated in the 1960 ACP.

RELEASE AND REAPPORTMENT OF 1961 COTTON ALLOTMENTS

The release and reapportionment provisions of the cotton allotment procedure provides a means whereby allotments can be diverted from farms where this allotment is unwanted to farms where the allotted acreage is wanted and needed. Cotton farmers, by availing themselves of the privileges provided in this procedure, can help maintain their own cotton allotments, can help maintain the county allotment, and can contribute to a strong agricultural economy for the country.

Cotton farmers can make this release and reapportionment provisions work for their benefit and the benefit of the county in one of the following ways:

1. By releasing any unwanted cotton allotment for your farm;

2. By requesting an increase in your allotment from released acreage if you have land, labor, and equipment available for the production of additional acreage of cotton; and

3. By planting any acreage allotted to your farm which is not released. Proper forms for release, or applications for increased acreage can be obtained at the county ASC office. April 14—Release of Cotton Acreages. April 14—Request for additional acreages.

$25 TAKEN IN ROBBERY OF MUTTS CAFE

Sheriff Truett Behrens reported that Mutt's Cafe was entered by way of breaking the glass in the front door Monday night and $25 in change was the only item missed by the owner, B. L. Graham, when he discovered the act.

Sheriff Behrens said the job looked like the work of amateurs.

FISHERMEN RETURN WITH GOOD REPORT

The four fisherman that journeyed to Guaymas, Old Mexico, returned home last week with a report that fishing was good and the weather fine . . . most of the time. They caught some 200 pounds of fish and apparently raided a shrimp boat before they departed.

Making the trip were Bill Todd, Doc Mann, Bert DeBord and Odell Osburn.

Donley County Steers Sweep Top Honors At Southwest Livestock Show

Services Held Tuesday For Rex Reeves

All Canyon public schools closed Tuesday in tribute to the memory of Ernest Reginald (Rex) Reeves, elementary school principal who died Saturday.

Funeral services for Mr. Reeves were held Tuesday morning in the First Baptist Church at Canyon. Graveside rites were held at 3 p.m. in Citizens Cemetery here. The Rev. Strauss Atkinson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Canyon, officiated, assisted by Rev. Art Brewer, director of the Baptist Student Center at West Texas State College.

Mr. Reeves died of a heart attack Saturday night as he was driving home from a basketball game at West Texas State College.

He had lived in Canyon for 11 years and was principal of the West Texas Demonstration School before the demonstration school was incorporated into the public school system.

He had been a teacher and school administrator for 37 years and had taught in Donley and Gray counties before coming to Canyon.

He was a member of the First Baptist Church, and the Masonic Lodge and was a past president of the Canyon Lions Club. He was a former director of the Canyon City Club.

Survivors include his wife, Anna, and a son, Ernest Reginald Reeves III.

Pallbearers were members of the Sunday School class which Mr. Reeves taught, including Bill Davis, Marvin Fite, Joe Hooper, Bob Lindsey, Bob Oglesby, Harold Prichard, Carroll Vaughn and Bill Dugan.

LES BEAUX ARTS CLUB TO HOLD EXHIBIT SUNDAY

The Les Beaux Arts Club exhibit will be held Sunday afternoon, February 12, from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. at Patching Club House, weather permitting. The public is invited to attend.

The exhibit scheduled for last Sunday was not held due to bad weather.

ROY HUNTER IS NEW DEPUTY AT HEDLEY

Sheriff Truett Behrens announced this week that Roy Hunter of Memphis and formerly of Hedley, had accepted the position of Deputy Sheriff for Hedley.

This position was vacated some time ago by the resignation of Jimmy Thompson.

County Agent Flip Breedlove sounded like he was floating on air Wednesday morning when he called the Leader from El Paso to report Donley County youth and their steer entries had swept the Southwestern Livestock show at El Paso and Tracy Sanders, Hedley 4-H boy, had the Grand Champion of the entire show and Rod Stone of Clarendon 4-H had the Reserve champion Angus. Sanders' steer was bred by Tommie Potts.

Breedlove reported the placing in the various divisions as follows:

Light Angus — 1st, Rod Stone, 2nd — Gary Longan; 4th — Susan McAnear, Clarendon 4-H. Light Hereford — 3rd, Susan McAnear.

Medium Hereford — 1st, Tracy Sanders, Hedley; 2nd, Gene Floyd, Hedley 4-H. Donley County also took first place in best county carload.

Those attending the El Paso show with Breedlove are Mr. and Mrs. Dub McAnear; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mooring, James Potts, Buford Holland, Chuck Longan and the youths showing the animals mentioned above.

Donley County can certainly be proud of Breedlove and these young folks and the outcome of this show is a good indication of the efforts that have been put to our county.

C.H.S. Teams Split With McLean

The Clarendon Bronchoettes won their game with McLean by a score of 63-46 at McLean last Friday night. Fautia Adams was high point with 30 points, Marie Richey followed with 25. The substitute girls played the remaining minute of the game.

The Bronchos lost their game with McLean by a very close score of 63-61. Howard Talley was high point man with 21, James Allen followed with 19 points.

The next home game will be with Lefors Friday night. The basketball queen will be crowned at this game. Paula Adams has been chosen queen and her attendants will be Sharon Williams and Connie Martin.

LELIA LAKE MYF BAKE SALE SATURDAY

Members of the Lelia Lake Methodist Youth Fellowship will sponsor a bake sale Saturday afternoon at Vallance Food Store. Everyone is invited to shop their display for your week end needs in the way of baked foods.

RIPPETOE HOME BURNS MONDAY MORNING

Fire which was believed caused by faulty wiring, destroyed the home of Carroll Rippetoe shortly after seven Monday morning and all household effects, clothing etc. were a total loss.

The fire was breaking through the roof when the fire alarm was sounded. The family escaped injury in the blaze. The Rippetoes have seven children. Contributions through the United Charity set them up in housekeeping within a very short time and the Rippetoes wish to express their sincere thanks to the many people who contributed at this time of need.

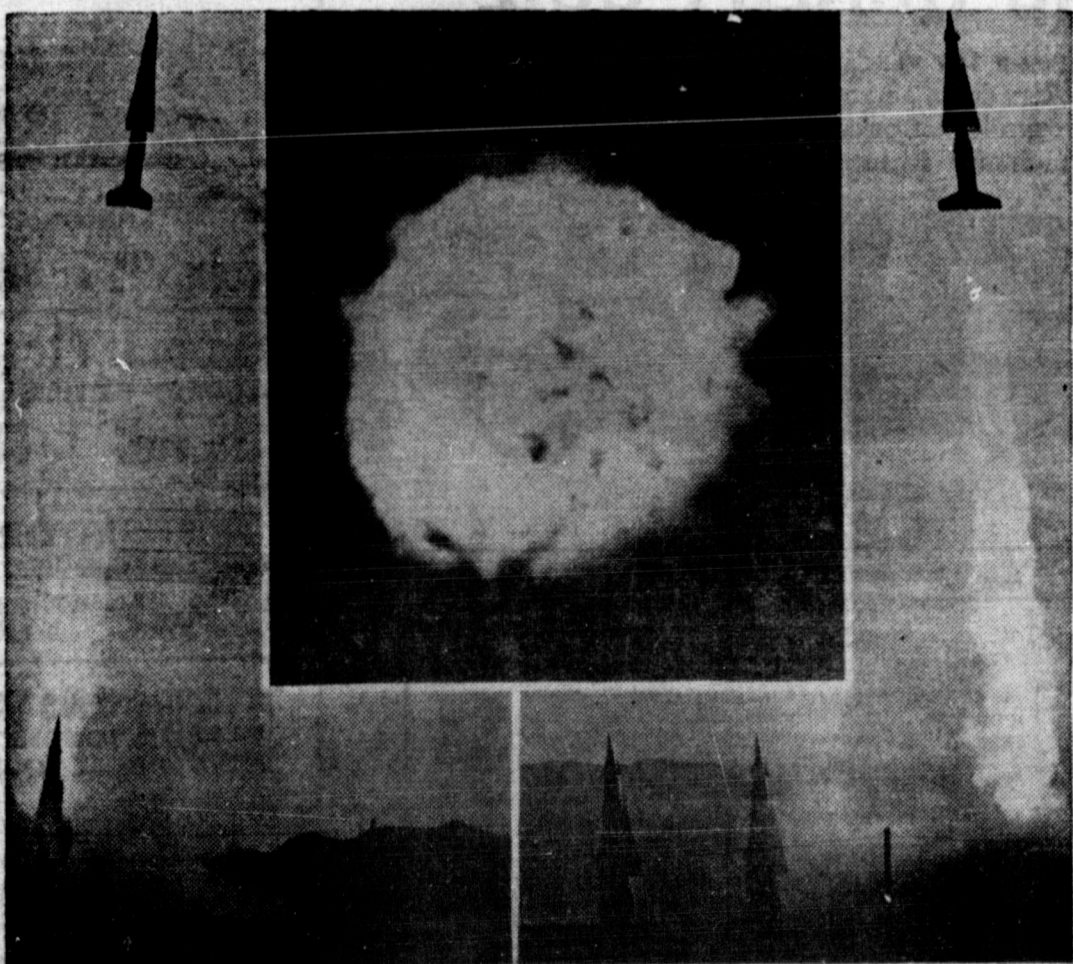

COTTON GINNING REPORT

A cotton ginning report from the U. S. Department of Commerce this week shows that 8,710 bales of cotton were ginned in Donley County prior to January 16, 1961. At this same date a year ago, 10,836 bales had been ginned.

The total figure for Donley County will exceed the above figure as considerable cotton had been ginned since the January 16 date and reports going to the government are slow in being reported on an official basis.

HIGH ALTITUDE MISSILE INTERCEPT—Using improved radars, the US Army's NIKE-HERCULES on September 14, destroyed another missile of the same type at White Sands Missile Range, New Mexico, at an altitude of about 19 miles above the earth. The second NIKE-HERCULES was used to provide a target of high performance and is part of the Army's progressive program to test the system capability of the NIKE-HERCULES, the most advanced surface-to-air missile with which United States Army Air Defense Command units of the North American Air Defense Command are armed. Only the killer missile was set to detonate at intercept. They approached each other at a combined speed seven times faster than sound.

FINDINGS CANNOT BE OVERLOOKED

Late in December President Eisenhower appointed a 15-member Presidential Railroad Commission to study work rules and practices in the railroad industry. The appointment of such a commission was recommended by both railway unions and railway management. Appointment of such a commission was recommended by both railway unions and railway management. Appointment of the Commission and the choice of members have been highly praised. Everyone recognizes the gravity of the task facing the Commission.

More is involved than the future of the railroad industry itself, important as that is. The questions to be considered are typical in a large measure of those attached to the entire American industrial scene. They explain, in part, the inability of this country to meet foreign competition, rising unemployment and other evils commonly associated with an unsettled economy.

The Presidential Commission is constituted of citizens of the highest caliber. Five represent the carriers, five the operating brotherhood and five the public. Retiring Secretary of Labor, James P. Mitchell, is serving as chairman. Findings and recommendations of the Commission will be filed with the President on or before December 1, 1961.

In announcing the personnel of the Commission, President Eisenhower said, "The members of this Commission . . . are embarking upon an effort that will have far-reaching and lasting consequences for the railroad industry . . . this Commission represents a major and constructive innovation that will prove to be a significant achievement in the progress of labor-management relations toward greater maturity and stability. In resolving this problem in a manner fair to the men, helpful to the industry, and in the best interests of our country, the members of this Commission will provide service of incalculable value."

The recommendations of the Commission will be advisory only, but because of its stature and the pressure of public opinion for solutions to current management-labor questions its findings will carry great weight, and cannot be ignored by either party to the proceedings.

WILL IT BE — PUBLIC BE DAMNED — ?

Does it make you nervous to realize that a bunch of strangers are getting together to plan ways of spending your money? Well it should, because the 87th Congress is now in session and there will be strong pressure to undertake new programs more costly than any that have gone before. The question of whether the American taxpayers can pay the bill should come first, but it won't, in the minds of many lawmakers, until there is pronounced public opposition to the free spending philosophy that has depreciated money and brought this country to the point where every employed person works four months out of the year just to pay taxes.

Government—local, state and national—is forced to seek tax money from every conceivable source and in maximum amounts in a losing battle to keep up with spending programs. Many of these taxes are ill-conceived, unfair and self-defeating. One of the outstanding cases is the "federal sales tax" on gasoline. Combined federal and state gas taxes now average 10 cents a gallon and this is close to 50 per cent of the price (before tax) of every gallon of gas you put in your car. Although gasoline is a basic necessity, fueling the motor vehicles that have become essential to our whole way of living, it carries a higher tax than such exclusive luxuries as mink coats and perfume.

There is evidence that the "temporary" one-cent increase in the U.S. federal gasoline tax imposed about a year ago may have been the straw that broke the camel's back. Many state officials are reportedly worried because gasoline tax receipts — a direct indication of consumption — are not reaching hoped for levels.

Both fairness and reason dictate that this "temporary" tax be allowed to expire on schedule June 30, 1961. Extending it, or worse yet, increasing it, would be a perfect example of a public be damned attitude.

COSTLY CONTROLS

Profits of many industries show declines in spite of higher gross sales and evidence is piling up that American business is having tough sledding in international markets. As the new Congress goes to work, legislation to raise the federal minimum wage is slated for early consideration.

The cost to the country of raising the minimum wage at this time is well described by a paper box manufacturer of St. Joseph, Michigan. "We believe this would be very detrimental to our industry and will cause more inflation and unemployment. When the cost of packages such as our industry makes reaches a certain point, the customers turn to some other form of packaging which is less expensive and, as a consequence, we lose orders and in turn have to reduce our working forces . . . It is almost impossible to compete with foreign imports with our present wage structure and if the minimum is increased by 25 per cent, we are sure unemployment and inflation will be the result."

Multiply this paper box manufacturer by tens of thousands and you have a fair picture of what such legislation could do—in dollars and cents costs, and hardships imposed on marginal workers.

There are longer range "costs" that are beyond calculation. These involve matters of principle such as whether the free market, free enterprise system can endure this kind of increasing centralized government control.

Supremacy Isn't Leadership

World leadership may be slipping from the United States due to "the deteriorating moral fiber of our people."

That warning came from the commencement speaker at Aquinas College in Grand Rapids—Albert R. Beatty, assistant vice president of the Association of American Railroads. And he went on to draw this important distinction between world supremacy and world leadership: "World supremacy is obtained and maintained largely by military might and worldly riches. World leadership comes from national character, which, in turn, inspires trust and confidence on the part of other peoples. When national character deteriorates, leadership wanes. As leadership is threatened, so is world supremacy."

Mr. Beatty was speaking to young people just starting out in life—across section of the young people who will determine what the future of this nation is to be. If they put their faith solely in material values and material advancement that future will be bleak indeed. For, to quote him once more, "a nation is no stronger than the morality and faith of its people."

GEORGE'S WIFE

By "Sarah"

We've been read the Declaration of Independence again, and have compared the grievances set forth by the Colonies, with the predicament we as a Nation have gotten ourselves into, not by what we have done so much as what we have left undone or depended on some one else to do for us.

In 1776 these great men pledged their lives, their fortunes and their honor to uphold their belief. Also they say, "Prudence indeed, will dictate that governments long established, should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shown that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed."

While we have no king ruling us, our government has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people, and eat away our substances, have imposed taxes on us without our consent. Our Courts have abolished some of our most valuable laws, and altered fundamentally the forms of our government. We are cutting off our own trade with other parts of the world, as well as within our borders, by pricing ourselves out of a market. We are in danger of invasion from without and we do have convulsions within . . . About this time of year those convulsions within get pretty drastic. The way we have it figured out our way, that 20 per cent we are sending up the hill would just about pay our expense another year. The usual procedure is to borrow that 20 per cent at another healthy per cent to send up there, or else borrow for expense another year, either way, we pay a premium for making a living, twice. And our Commander-in-Chief has promised it will get worse before it gets better.

George and I, along with the crowd, will be more disposed to suffer, but not silently, while these evils are sufferable, rather than go to prison at this late date. Our 20 per cent is on the way along with the social security for someone.

NO TIME TO WASTE

Citizens and taxpayers who are interested in economy in government would do well to make their views known — without delay. For, during the remaining life of this Congress, the big-spenders are going to be active.

They've made a successful start already — in the top-heavy vote overriding the President's veto of the federal pay raise bill. This measure will add about $750 million a year to federal spending and will increase the post office deficit to more than $850 million a year.

Much more of the same is in the works, as the Chamber of Commerce of the United States points out in a report. For example, a Senate aid-to-education bill would spend $1.8 billion over a two-year period, and a House bill would provide $1.3 billion in four years for classroom construction. Another Senate bill would appropriate $1.7 billion for a wide variety of subsidies, including urban renewal, college housing and community facilities — a House bill would spend $1.4 billion for similar purposes.

So it goes, down the list of measures based on let-the-government - do - everything - and-pay - for - everything attitude. In a general election year, the urge to spend and spend and spend, in an effort to attract votes, is powerful indeed. It can be countered only if the public votes against the big spenders and for economical and efficient government.

The Milwaukee Railroad proposes to discontinue its passenger train service west of Minneapolis, effective January 8. The Miles City, Montana, Star, said, "Perhaps it is a sign of the times. The Milwaukee is only one of many railroads serving a vast area and must spend more than it takes in if the service is to be continued. Deficit spending may be the modern trend as far as government is concerned, but certainly private business cannot endure such procedures."

It's not too late to make that 1961 resolution covering farm and home safety, reminds the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council. They urge families to be especially careful with heating equipment.

National Electrical Week

February 5-11, 1961

MAKE Electricity WORK FOR YOU

ELECTRICITY, probably more than any other source of energy, has been responsible for the high standards of living enjoyed by millions of Americans today. The nation is more productive, healthier, wealthier, and more secure—thanks in large part to the number of tasks electricity performs.

Today's people live longer because electricity accomplishes the labor that formerly drained their strength and impaired their health. Mass production would be impossible without electricity. At the touch of a button or switch, electricity goes to work in factories, homes, on farms, on the land, in the air, and under the sea—doing the work of millions of people and enabling millions more to enjoy more ease and convenience than ever before. In medicine and in science, electricity enables man to study areas as yet unexplored. Today's children can look forward to a future in which electricity will make even greater contributions to their health, comfort and security.

Electricity stands ready to do even more in the way of improving the world in which we live, whether it is the world of business, science, medicine, research, entertainment. Electricity is ready to create more jobs and whole new industries. It is ready to take on increased tasks on the job, in homes, on farms and in factories. Electricity and its abilities are boundless—they need only to be called upon to serve. This is the electrical industry's message during National Electrical Week, a message to its own employees and to the public: MAKE ELECTRICITY WORK FOR YOU.

BLWIN' Out the CORNERS

The Uncle Zeb

I counted up all my income
Subtracted what I'd spent.
It sure makes a fellow wonder,
Just where the greenbacks went.

I figured up all the plus's
Right to the last red cent.
But the minuses have me puzzled
Just where the greenbacks went.

Uncle Sam seems mighty concerned
And such a pleasant gent,
Till we get down to the outgo,
And where the greenbacks went.

No deducts on beans, meat and stuff—

Not even gas and rent.
Small wonder that my books
don't show—
Just where the greenbacks went.

Income tax time brings a furrowed brow to most everyone. It is a time of wonder and surprise. We are surprised at the amount we have taken in, puzzled as to the small bank balance that is left, and filled with wonder as to just where the money went.

In this day of modern living we find so many things which seem necessary to every day welfare that the $600.00 deduction for each member of the family doesn't seem to go very far. Neither is it possible to deduct enough of the everyday expenses for us to show on paper just where our money went.

As usual, when we are confronted with a serious problem it seems to help by turning poetic. After turning out the above poem, if we may so call it, we now feel better and can think of a lot to be thankful for.

We can be thankful if we have the money to pay our debts. We can be thankful for the right to earn. We can be thankful that in spite of taxes we still have the highest standard of living in the world. We can certainly be thankful that we still have the right to complain about the things we think are wrong.

PanTech Farms under the direction of Manager J. P. Smith have been busy the last few years trying to prove some statements that have been kicked around throughout the ages. We have all heard the saying "Like father—like son," and most of the women have used this to explain away the bad points of their offspring. Also, many a father has pointed with pride to it when he wanted to stress some good trait of his son.

We have all heard that "Acorns never fall very far from the tree," and that "Water never rises any higher than its fountain head." These and many other old-time sayings might well be applied to the thing that is being proven with cattle right here in our own back door. The work that of proving ability to gain as well as such things as color and horns may be transferred from one generation to another in the species of cattle, is progressing faster than many of us suspect.

This year 169 test bulls are being fed at the farms to furnish further proof of what already seems to be a certain fact. The bulls are making good gains with an average for the first 56-day report of 2.59 pounds per day. As definite proof that they are on the right road is the fact that nine out of 10 of the top gaining pens are from sires that were station tested and qualified for a P.R.I. station gain rating in prior years.

Bulls fed in progeny sire groups continue to gain faster than those fed individually. This factor being only an interesting sidelight in the test. Congratulations to the farm, and we didn't want to overlook this important development taking place right close by. The Big Sale Day will be March 30, 1961.

If life should seem to trick you,
And give to you the boot
There's only one can lick you—
He lives inside your suit.

It is true that the only person who can keep us down for the final count is that fellow we see every day in the mirror. Until we admit to him that our case is hopeless there is still a chance for success.

One of the most certain signs that this person who lives in our suit has us licked is when we start blaming others for our failures. It is then that we are going down for the count of ten. Someone has said that we should believe in ourself, but that we shouldn't be too easily convinced. So often we meet with someone who for a long time in their life struggled to get ahead and to as we sometimes say "make the grade." In most cases you will see the spirit of faith in themselves which has led them on toward their goal. But we will find this spirit of self confidence securely nestled in an humble

LIBRARY NOTES

EDITH BARNES

The Pathfinder Club, bless them, has given their yearly generous check to the library. Most of you know that the Pathfinders started our library.

A man has passed away who will be mourned not only here in the States but by some of the forgotten, except by "MEDICO," in odd places all over the world.

The most fitting memorial to Doctor Tom Dooley that the people, "who have," can build to his memory is to see to it that the work he has done among the "have nots" is not only carried on but expanded to help more and more all over the world. Critics, oh yes he had them it heart. On the other hand we now and then find a person who has all-of-a-sudden found success. Who without a long tiresome effort has become famous or perhaps in a high position. With this group it is so often the case that we find the over-confident and cocksure attitude.

Faith that we can do the job is necessary, but far more important is to be able to prove that we deserve the good that comes our way.

seems that we little people always have to snipe at the truly big folks, have among other things said that "MEDICO" would die with Doctor Dooley. It will not unless we let it.

"Life" magazine during his life time was critical of his methods for raising money yet another Luce publication had this to say about him, and I quote parts of the article: "Many an American male occasionally inspects his complacent life and for a minute imagines himself given over to single-minded, selfless service among the sick and poor of the world. Young Tom Dooley did not seem to be that type." But he was!

"In the nearly seven years that followed (1954) until he died of cancer . . . last week at 34, Dr. Dooley traveled 400,000 miles, raised $1,750,000, established seven hospitals in four nations, and brought modern medical care to half a million underdoctored people."

"When critics argued Dooley was a "hit-and-run" doctor, he obligingly admitted to the charge. What difference what kind of medicine he practiced when it brought relief from suffering to thousands.

Cardinal Spellman visited him on his 34th birthday and said to him: ". . . that in his 34 years he had done what very few have done in the allotted Scriptural lifetime." a fitting epitaph for a great man, Doctor Tom Dooley.

If we want "MEDICO" to live on all we have to do is support it. Not just now but in the years to come. The same is true of Doctor Schweitzer and his work but since neither he nor Dr. Dooley would use professional fund raisers who spend a hundred dollars for each 90 that goes to the actual good cause, they tend to come out short when folks are giving.

A man should read just as inclination leads him, for what he reads as a task will do him little good. —Samuel Johnson

1926 BOOK CLUB OBSERVES GUEST DAY WITH PATRIOTIC PROGRAM

Members of 1926 Book Club and their guests met at Patching Club House Tuesday afternoon, February 7, for a most outstanding patriotic program. Guest speaker for the occasion was Louise Evans Bruce of the Amarillo News-Globe. With her was Sally Byens, also with the News-Globe.

Mrs. J. R. Brandon, president, called the group to order and turned the meeting over to Mrs. L. N. Cox, program chairman. Mrs. Cox introduced Mrs. Bruce who is an editorial writer for the Amarillo newspaper. She has traveled widely and recently attended the Conference for the Aging held in Washington.

Her subject was "Senior Citizens and Social Security." She gave an account of the Conference for the Aging and discussed the program of medical care and the plan in connection with Social Security also the deductions that would be necessary to carry on such a program. In closing she suggested several local projects for clubs, groups, and organizations to be carried out in any community to help care for the aging rather than permitting the government to set up such a program. A brief round-table discussion followed. Everyone enjoyed this informative program.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Bruce spoke to members of the Lions Club where she stressed the need to elect dedicated Americans to office rather than professional politicians. She also addressed an assembly at Clarendon Junior College where she explained what an increased Social Security would mean to the younger generation in the form of taxation in the coming years.

Following the Book Club program a social hour was held. The patriotic theme was carried out in decoration. Among the arrangements was one displaying the flags of all nations and another using silhouettes of Washington and Lincoln with American flags.

The tea table was laid with a linen cut-work cloth and a tiered arrangement of red and white carnations topped with blue Dutch iris. Mrs. J. R. Brandon presided at the silver service. Mrs. W. C. Thornberry served white cake marked with favors of Uncle Sam in miniature. Mrs. Loyd Johnson also assisted in the dining room. Hostesses were Mrs. L. N. Cox and Miss Inez Blankenship.

SCHOLLENBARGERS HOST REHEARSAL DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. George Schollenbarger were hosts at a rehearsal dinner honoring members of the Risley - Schollenbarger wedding party at the Dixie Cafe, Friday evening, February 3, at 7:30 p.m.

Bouquets of jonquils and white stock were used in decoration.

Attending were Miss Martha Jo Risley, Mr. Keith Schollenbarger, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Risley, Mrs. Rolle Adams, Emmett Bobbitt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bain, Bliss, Scott, and Todd of Lubbock, Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Risley, Leane and Jim, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. George Schollenbarger.

Risley-Schollenbarger Wedding Solemnized In Home Ceremony

Miss Martha Jo Risley became the bride of Mr. Keith Schollenbarger in a ceremony performed at 7:30 p.m. Saturday evening, February 4, in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Risley, Clarendon, Texas. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. George Schollenbarger, also of Clarendon.

Double-ring vows were exchanged against a background of tiered candelabra bearing white tapers flanked by baskets of white gladioli and greenery. The Rev. W. R. Lawrence, pastor of First Baptist Church, Clarendon, officiated. Tapers were lighted by Jim Risley, brother of the bride, and Bliss Bain of Lubbock, niece of the groom. Bliss wore a dress of white pima cotton with yellow trim and a wristlet of small yellow flowers.

Mrs. Joe Pfeiffer, pianist, played a prelude of nuptial selections and the traditional wedding marches. She also accompanied Mrs. W. R. Lawrence who sang "Always," and "Whither Thou Goest."

Miss Patricia Salmon of Canyon attended the bride as maid of honor. She was attired in a ballerina length dress of yellow polished cotton fashioned with a scoop neckline, fitted sleeves in a three-quarter length, and full skirt. She wore a matching headband and a corsage of white carnations.

Attending the groom as best man was Emmett Bobbitt. Ushers were Maurice Risley, uncle of the bride, and Robert Bain, brother of the groom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length dress of white crystalline over taffeta. The fitted bodice was designed with a sabrina neckline and full, short sleeves; the skirt was bouffant. Her veil of illusion was attached to a small hat formed by petals of crystalline, matching her dress. She carried a white orchid atop a white Bible. The satin streamers were tied with seed pearls and love knots. All of the traditions of something old, new, borrowed, blue, and a penny in the shoe were observed.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Risley chose a silk linen dress in American Beauty accented by black accessories and a corsage of white gladioli. Mrs. Schollenbarger, mother of the groom, wore a brown wool suit embellished by brown accessories and a corsage of flame-colored gladioli.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception honored the couple and their attendants. Bouquets of Jonquils and white stock decorated the entertaining rooms. The refreshment table was laid with a lace cloth over yellow and crystal appointments. The two-tiered, heart-shaped cake was decorated with yellow and white rosebuds and was served by Miss Gay Watson. Miss Sherri Montgomery dispensed punch. Others assisting in the house party were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hardin and Mrs. Maurice Risley. Miss Leane Risley, sister of the bride, presided at the register.

For traveling and a short wedding trip, Mrs. Schollenbarger chose a blue wool suit, black accessories, and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride was a student at Clarendon High School the past semester. She is a member of the National Honor Society and will be a member of the graduating class in May. The groom graduated from Clarendon High School and is employed by General Telephone Company of the Southwest. The couple will be at home in Guyton, Okla.

Close friends and relatives attended the wedding. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bain and Bliss of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Roper of Sunray, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Roper of Darroutz, Mrs. J. N. Schollenbarger of Perryton, and Lynn Lawrence of Borger.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Chenault attended a 50th Wedding Anniversary Celebration honoring her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Boyce of Midland, at Canyon Sunday. Hosts were the couple's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Patke.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

GOLDSTON QUILTING CLUB

Irene Pritchard was hostess to our club at the community center the 2nd. with one guest Helen Jackson and Jimmy and members present Minnie Roberson, Bonaie Davis, Adgar Williams, Quata Phillips, Nora Smith, Billie Ashcraft, and Fern.

We quilted on two quilts. Dainty sandwiches, cookies, coffee and cocoa and mints were enjoyed by all. Minnie Roberson will be hostess Feb. 16th. Johnnie Bryson and Nora Smith received Polly Anna gifts. —Rept.

42 PARTY ENJOYED AT CHAMBERLAIN CENTER

The "42" party at the Chamberlain Center, Friday night was enjoyed very much by everyone present. Sandwiches and coffee were served by Lela Muse and Laura Ivey.

All friends and neighbors please remember that we are having a box-supper Feb. 17. We want all our friends from Clarendon and surrounding communities to come and help us fill our Center. There will also be a short program. —Rept.

CORRECTION IN GOOD NEIGHBORS REPORT

We would like to make a corrected report for the Good Neighbors Club carried in last week's paper. The errors were not made by the Club reporter or your society editor but were due to a mix of type that our proof-readers failed to catch. Following is the report as turned in by the reporter.

The Good Neighbors met with Bessie Helton Friday, January 27 with 9 members present. One quilt was quilted.

Those to enjoy the day were Della Barker, Carrah Mixon, Lida Warren, Emma Davis, Ruby Jordan, Rosa Bingham, Nova Barker, Eula Butler, Florence Harp and Bessie Helton.

On Monday afternoon, January 30, at 3 p.m. we gave Maggie Easterling a surprise birthday party. Members present were Bessie Helton, Bennie Crabtree, Emma Davis, Della Barker, Florence Harp, Eula Butler, Ruby Jordan and Nova Barker. Visitors were Lillian Easterling and Virgie Jordan. Angel Food cake and spiced tea were served.

The next meeting will be with Ruby Jordan February 10 when we will have another all-day meeting. —Rept.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE AT CHAMBERLAIN CENTER

During the time we were having the cold snowy weather the men of the Chamberlain Community were not idle. They gathered at the Center every day for a week and worked on improving the recreation room. A partition was removed. This gives us a stage for our programs and also a place for hanging coats. New sheetrock was put on the walls and ceiling and painted a light gray color. This gives our recreation room a new-look.

The ladies of the community also helped. They prepared dinner each day and cleaned up the "mess" when the men had finished spilling textone and paint. We want everyone to come enjoy our parties and programs in the future. The President of our Community Center wishes to thank everyone for their cooperation in making this improvement possible. —Rept.

MARTIN QUILTING CLUB

The club met Thursday, Feb. 2 in the home of Margaret Waldrop with 11 members present. Two visitors were also present.

One quilt was finished; two pollyanna gifts were exchanged. Those enjoying the noon meal were: the hostess, Margaret Waldrop, Elsie Sibley and Rickey, Dortha Reynolds, Cindy Eunice Land, Lois Stevenson, Edna Osburn and Judy, Hilda Cannon, Rose Lee Watson and Mrs. Virginia Smith, a visitor. Also Raymond Waldrop and Bob Cole.

Those coming in the afternoon were: Minnie Cannon, Lela Bulman and Mrs. Laverne Thompson, a visitor, who also joined the club. Welcome Laverne.

The next meeting will be with Blanche Higgins as hostess in the club room Feb. 16th.

THE ASHTOLA NEEDLE CLUB

The Ashtola Needle Club met in the club room Thursday, Feb. 2, with hostess Naomi Green, 12 members, four children, two visitors, Mrs. Dill and Sibil Jones.

President Sue Rhoades presided at the business meeting where some changes were made in the year book.

Vena Hudson, as chairman of the finance committee, asks everyone to bring a needle, thread and thimble, to the meeting next time which is our Sunshine party. The meeting was turned over to Lena Mae Graham, leader. Games were played and valentines were made.

In the jello making, Naomi Green won first place with jello cherry cream. Veda Mahaffey placed second with jello fruit whip; Rhoada Ratten won 3rd place with her rainbow chiffon whip.

LISLE-WORLEY

Announcement has been made of the recent marriage of Miss Merry Lynn Lisle, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dewey of Lelia Lake, and daughter of L. E. Lisle of Milwaukee, Wis. to Mr. C. W. Worley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Worley of Oklahoma City.

Wows were exchanged in the Episcopal Church at Canyon. The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather, E. C. Dewey.

MIDWAY CLUB

Grace Ayers was hostess to the Midway Club in her home Friday, February 3. The all day meeting was enjoyed by Beulah Sanders, Jewell Myers, Eddie Williams, Leona Scott, Bobbie Dishman, Louise Aten, Allie Quattlebaum, and one guest, Mrs. Dale Ayers.

One quilt was finished and a top was worked on for Louise Aten. The next meeting will be with Bobbie Dishman, February 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Myers and Glenn are entertaining the Club Friday night, February 10, with a turkey dinner and "42" to be played afterwards. Rep.

BIRTHDAY COFFEE A SURPRISE

Mrs. Arria May was honored at a surprise birthday coffee in her home Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Mary Chenault was hostess.

The refreshment table was laid with an embroidered linen cloth and centered with a bouquet of pink roses flanked by pink candles. Pie, rolls, and coffee were served.

Attending were the honoree, Arria May, and Marjorie Winter, Herndon, Essie Putman, Lela Muse, Carmen Wright, and Mary Chenault.

The honoree received many lovely gifts along with wishes for "many happy returns of the day."

ASHTOLA COMMUNITY CENTER

About 25 were present Friday night at the Center for the 42 Party. Mrs. Martha Hill and Mrs. Mary Belle DeBord were hostesses and served sandwiches, coffee, and hot chocolate. Games of Progressive 42 were enjoyed.

Mrs. Van Knox presided over the business meeting, and several motions were made and carried.

At the next meeting Friday night February 10th everyone bring cookies for refreshments.

Due to the death of one of our faithful ones, we felt we could not have our course this week, but Mr. Gene Long, vocational ag teacher, said he would come out next week and give us the course. Mrs. Weatherly will be out February 15th and 16th to give us the lessons in Reupholstering. Come and bring a sack lunch the 15th for an all-day meeting, and on the 16th the meeting will probably be one-half day. On Monday, February 6th a work day was held which included cleaning and painting. Those to come help that day were Slaton Mahaffey, H. A. and J. R. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Van Knox, Vance Gray, Mr. and Mrs. John White, and Hubert Rhoades. Work is planned for other days this week.

LADIES OF CHAMBERLAIN COMMUNITY CENTER MEET
The ladies of the Chamberlain Community Center met Feb. 1, in an all-day meeting with Bradis Ballew as hostess. Two quilts were quilted. One was for Mr. and Mrs. Shorty Thompson and the other for Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lane. These folks were recent victims of fires.

Those enjoying the covered-dish luncheon at noon were: Ethel Dangler, Laura Ivey, Lee Welch, Mary Myers, Vivian Allen, Eunice Mann, Maude Self, Susan Hardin, Willie Hott, Clara Mae Carter, Velma Heathington, and Mary Mann.

The next meeting will be Feb. 9, with Clara Mae Carter as hostess. All ladies of the community come as we are making plans for the banquet we are to serve.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Vick and Mr. and Mrs. Dee Henry and children spent the week end in Horton with Mrs. Vick's parents.

Cub Scout News

Feb. 12 is Scout Sunday. The Cub Scouts in a group, will attend the First Christian Church, the chartered sponsoring institution here in Clarendon, at the 11 a.m. service.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

Looking Back on The Inauguration

Washington in recent years is the center of plenty of activities in the ordinary and usual trend of events. This is always tremendously increased during an inauguration. This is further tremendously increased by a snow storm during the several days of the Inaugural festivities. Those are the circumstances under which John Fitzgerald Kennedy was inaugurated. Thousands upon thousands of people came into Washington to witness the change of Administrations, and the inauguration of the newly-elected President of the United States. They did not anticipate the turn of the elements, and the thousands and thousands who came to town had thousands and thousands of experiences which they will be able to relate for many years to come. Some pleasant, some unpleasant. We were very happy to have quite a number of visitors from the Panhandle of Texas. Some could not reach the Capitol by car, by foot, or by telephone. If we missed seeing someone I am sorry, because we had a wonderful time with all those who got to the office.

About ten o'clock in the morning on Inauguration Day the police blocked off the streets around the Capitol and the office buildings. Unless you can show some pretty clear authority to get through, you are stranded outside the blockades. I told all of our folks to be sure to get to the office as early as they could. I got the entire Rogers family up about six o'clock and started for the Capitol. The night before, a snow storm had suddenly descended upon Washington, leaving several inches of snow on the streets and several thousand people stranded. I was in a taxicab just after the storm hit, and it took 55 minutes for us to go a distance of about 25 city blocks. Mary Catherine, our youngest, was on her school bus for four and a half hours coming home from school. Preparations had been made to clear the streets on the Inaugural Parade route, but this took all of the available snow equipment; hence, all other streets had to wait. On the morning of Inauguration Day, the sun was out but it was bitter cold and the snow was hard-packed and frozen. We had to bring quite a number of things to the office because I had made arrangements to have some coffee, soft drinks, sandwiches and cookies for all of the folks from the Panhandle. We packed everything in the car, including the clothes that I had to change in order to be properly dressed for the Inaugural Ceremony. Realizing the possibility of getting stuck in the snow, I did not relish trying to dig out in a morning suit and top hat. Available food and drink in the office is almost a necessity on Inauguration Day crowds and the impossibility of getting through the barricade to eating places. We got to the office in due time and set up for business.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lindsey from Borger and Mr. Dick Kennedy from Clarendon were the first to arrive and then came the Kenneth Kendricks from Stratford, who were followed in short order by Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Gibson, Mr. Michael Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, Mr. Jorn Ketler, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rapstine, all from Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Cook and their sons

Ronny and Larry from Vega, Mr. Jim McAndrews of Hereford, and Mrs. George Oliver of Canyon. Mr. and Mrs. John Bookout and their children almost didn't make it because of the difficulty in obtaining a taxicab. However, they did get up a few minutes before the Inauguration. A number of others missed getting up to the office, including Mr. and Mrs. Asa Willis of Texline, whom we saw later, Mrs. Julia Cooke Smith, Mr. Robert Bruce, and Dr. and Mrs. George Powers of Amarillo; Mrs. Jack Allen of Perryton and Mr. Joe Berg of Panhandle. There were many others by the office from outside of our District, including Mr. and Mrs. Fred Korth of Fort Worth, Mr. Bill Bailey of Houston, former Congressman and Mrs. John Lyle of Corpus Christi, Texas State Representative Bill Dungan of McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore of Plainview, and a number of others.

The open house was most enjoyable and everyone seemed to have a good time. I had to get dressed up in the morning suit and the top hat and get to the House of Representatives by 10:45 a.m., as we parade to the Presidential platform in a body. Jean and the children and all of the other guests went over a little later. Susan was to ride on the Texas float in the Inaugural Parade and the time between the end of the Inauguration and her scheduled appearance on the float was so close that Jean left the Inauguration before President Kennedy had finished his Inaugural Address. She took Susan to the office where she changed into her parade clothes. Then they went to the garage where I had left the car, only to discover that there were no keys. I had them in my pocket, on the Presidential stand. This almost created a panic because Susan was overdue. But thanks to the garage attendant and two metropolitan policemen, Mrs. Rogers and Susan made it on time.

After the Inauguration we went down town and joined the Jimmie Smiths and others at the Willard Hotel to watch the parade. After the parade we made a made dash for home to change clothes and go to the Inaugural Ball. That is another story, because so many things took place that night that there isn't room to even list them in one newsletter.

It was a great occasion. One fellow was heard to remark that with all the chaos and turmoil, he could understand why these occasions were spaced four years apart.

It costs the U.S. government for storage $14,000 a day for flaxseed and rye; oats $15,000; rice $17,000; soybeans $23,000; milk and butter $29,000; barley $64,000 and cotton $76,000. "But these are peanuts," comments the Arlington, Texas, Citizen, "compared to the big boys. Have a good look: Grain sorghums cost $262,000 a day . . . Corn costs $444,000 a day . . . wheat $579,000 a day for storage." Total cost of storage for all these commodities comes to over $550,000,000 a year.

BIGHORN SHEEP RESTORED

Bighorn sheep, native to western North Dakota, but non-existent in that state for the past 54 years, are being restored to their native habitat. The last ones were killed in 1905.

Five head, obtained in California, have been released in the Theodore Roosevelt National Memorial Park, near Medora. Others will be added to this number later. A herd of 29 bison planted in the park three years ago has increased to 51 head.

Bulldogs Drop Dual Decisions

The Clarendon Bulldogs suffered two of the keenest heartbreaks of the year in dropping a game to Howard County by two points and one to the Odessa Wranglers by one point on Friday and Saturday night respectively.

The Bulldogs have played 24 ball games up to Saturday night of last week. Twelve of the 24 games were decided by four points or less. Eight of those 12 games were lost by a combined total of 17 points, or two and one-eighths points per game. Furthermore, six of the eight were lost on road trips.

Coach Young avers that more and more there is mounting evidence pointing toward the need of at least one big tall boy on the Bulldog roster to assert the Bulldogs' rights in the rebounding department.

Last Friday night at Big Spring every player except Buddy Jones, who did not participate because of an injured ankle sustained in practice the day before, added two or more points to the total of 74. Bobby Lesley, playing against the pre-season favorites, Howard County, to win the conference, and on their home court produced an amazing total of 26 points to be high point scorer for both teams. Jimmy Humphreys added 20 points to that total by sinking 14 of 19 free throws from the charity stripe. John Alexander supported the team with 10 points and an outstanding defensive performance. Bronniman, Wiggins, DeBord, Martindale and Morrow gave masterful accounts of their services in relief roles.

Howard County jumped out in front quickly at the outset of the game and held on tenaciously to their lead finishing the first half with an eight point cushion at 37-29.

The Bulldogs in true Bulldog-fashion came back with a vengeance at the start of the second half and with Lesley hitting from the field and Humphrey's from the free-throw line tied the ball game up with 4 minutes left in the game. The last four minutes were fast and furious with Howard County either one or two points ahead until 37 seconds remained in the game when Lesley scored with a jump shot from the corner, bringing the score to 72-76. At 11 seconds to go Lesley scored his 26th point of the game and 74th for the team with a lay-up.

Howard County took the ball outside but passed across the corner of the court, missing the receiver and the ball went outside. This gave the Bulldogs the ball to throw in near their goal. The pass to Alexander was good. He shot a 15-foot jump shot which bounced out of the basket but recovered by Martindale who shot and missed but recovered for a second shot 10 feet in front of the basket which jumped out, but was recovered again by Alexander who shot his second trial only to have it bounce off the edge of the rim as the whistle ended the most hectic 11 seconds of the season.

The game at Odessa was only evidence of the extreme deflation that resulted from the 2-point defeat at Howard County the night before. The Bulldogs had expended themselves so completely in competition with a great ball club that it was late in the second half before they could pull themselves together and show the spirit they had displayed the night before. The first quarter ended 15-11 and the half ended 32-23 favoring Odessa. Oscar Bronniman who had seen only limited action during the first half went back in at the second half and hit his first five attempts in a row from the field while Lesley was hitting five of six attempts and Alexander hitting two of three to tie the game up at 40-40 with 12 minutes to go. At five minutes to go the Bulldogs height began to show and big, burly, Berzac tipped in a rebound to break a 51-51 tie and put Odessa ahead 53-51. The Bulldogs were never able to overcome that one point lead and ended the game 64-63 favoring Odessa.

Every one of the Bulldogs, including Buddy Jones who set out the game at Howard County with an injured ankle, saw action in the Odessa game. Lesley hit another 25 points bringing his two-night total to 61, while Bronniman canned 10 points in the last half to bring his game total to 13. Humphrey's 8 and Alexander's 7 points were next high. Berzac scored 19 points for the winner to take top honors for Odessa.

FORMER RESIDENT RECEIVES TEACHING HONOR

Mrs. Billie Lou Edlin of Odessa, Texas, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Clyde Gilbert of Clarendon, was recently elected "Most Outstanding Teacher" at Cameron Elementary School where she is a second grade teacher.

This honor was bestowed upon her by the group of 30 teachers of the Cameron School. This places Mrs. Edlin in the run-off for "teacher of the year from Ector County" to be picked by teachers from those honored as outstanding school in the county.
