Women In Literature Is Topic At Culture Club

"Women in Literature" was the topic for the program rendered by the Woman's Culture Club Tuesday afternoon at the Martha Ann Woman's Club.

Mrs. Floy Smith, the leader for the afternoon gave the introductory program. "In part she said, 'The intellectual freedom of women in modern western society is the result of the slow growth of culture. In the 15th century there was Catherine of Aragon, in England, who managed to acquire an unusually fine education and a real education to foster the education of others of her own sex.

"The first learned lady of English drama was Eugenia, in Sir Giles 'Goose Cap'. However, the woman who had the name of being the most learned of that time was Lady Victoria in 'Bells in Campo'. In a rousing speech to a group of her followers, she repudiated the traditional view that women are too limited in intellect, judgment and courage to hold positions of authority and trust. Her argument was that women were just as fit as men and should be allowed to help make, protect, and execute the laws of the land."

Mrs. Jodie Bynum gave a comprehensive history of noted women of the 20th century.

Among those named were the American poets and writers as: Amy Lowell of Brookline, Mass.; Edna Millay of Rockland, Maine; Lorna Speyer of Washington, D. C.; Marianne Moore and Elinor Wylie.

In speaking of the literary women of Texas, Mrs. Bynum said: "Texas, big in area, production, outlook and brags, can also claim bigness in her literary women. Texas became one of the first states of the United States to have her own poets laureate. One of the first was Alma Michaels, a native of St. Louis, Mo., who moved to Beaumont, Tex. in 1913. The second woman poet laureate of our state was Grace Crowell, who was born in Iowa but moved to Texas in 1919 and now resides in Dallas. The first native born woman poet laureate of this state was Lexie Dean Robertson. She was born in Lindale, Texas but now lives in Rising Star, where her work, as a writer, first attracted attention. She was presented in a poetry recital in New York City with such success that she became Texas 4th poet to carry the banner of laureate. Mrs. Robertson was also awarded the $50.00 prize of the Poetry Society of Texas, and won the 1952 book contest of the same organization.

"Other poet laureates of Texas were, Nancy Richey Ranson and Dollis Davis Smith."

Mrs. Claude Tucker spoke on

Adventures of Nils (English translation), in 1907. In 1909 she was awarded the Nobel prize for literature, the first woman to receive this honor.

"Paul Sydesstricker Buck, American author, was born in Hillsboro, W. Va., June 26, 1892. She spent her childhood in China where her parents were missionaries. She graduated from Randolph Macon College in Va. in 1914. In 1917 she married John Buck, who, like herself, was a Presbyterian missionary in China. Her first novel, 'East Wind', Chinese setting, was written in 1929. Later she wrote 'The Good Earth', 'The Fighting Angel', 'The Spirit and The Flesh', and in 1938 she was awarded the Nobel Prize in literature.

"Mrs. M. P. Lombard, Italian novelist, whose pen name was Grazia Delidda, was born in 1872. She wrote her first novel when only 15 years old. She has over 30 novels and four volumes of short stories to her credit. In 1926 she was awarded the Nobel Prize for literature."

Travis, Lamar Teams Battle

Cross-town rivalry, friendly except for one day of the year, will reign in Tiger Stadium this evening as football teams representing Lamar and Travis Junior High Schools tangle in the first of two games in an annual Snyder grid classic.

The 7th grade teams of the two schools will go at it in the opener at 5 p.m. That game will be followed in order by games matching the 8th and 9th grade teams of the two schools.

It will be the first time for all three teams of the two local junior high schools to compete in intracity action. Last year, only the 7th grade teams were divided, and Travis romped to a 44-22 victory over Lamar.

This year, Travis 7th owns the better record again as the two teams prepare to face each other. Travis 7th has won 4, lost 1 and led one in earlier play.

However, Lamar 7th has improved consistently and finished strong with an 8-6 victory over Lamesa on foreign soil in its latest outing. The Lamar 7th has won 2, lost 3 and tied 1 over the season so far.

Travis 8th has the only perfect record in the school system this year, marking up 8 triumphs and 0 losses to date.

Lamar 8th made an impressive start, winning its first four ball games before playing a 4-6 tie with Big Spring Runnels, a team it previously had defeated. Lamar 8th then lost its last two games to mark up a record of 4 victories, 2 losses and 1 tie.

Lamar 9th has the more impressive record, although Travis 9th showed power in its last outing by routing Big Spring Goliah, 34-9. Lamar 9th has won 6 and lost two, its latest conquest being the Lamesa 9th graders by a 28-0 shut out.

Travis ninth has won 3, lost 4 and tied 1.

The West stands in Tiger Stadium have been divided for fans who watch this evening's action. Travis fans and spectators will occupy the south half of the stand, while Lamar followers will be in the north half.

Lamar 9th has defeated Big Spring Goliah twice, 44-0 and 14-8. Big Spring Runnels twice, 30-18 and 48-20. San Angelo Lee, 22-6 and Lamesa, 29-0. The team has lost to Sweetwater 9th twice, 22-14 and 20-8.

Lamar 9th holds victories over Lamesa, 32-0, Runnels, 24-14, and Goliah, 34-0. They played one 6-6 tie with Goliah, and lost twice to Sweetwater 9th, 16-8 and 30-0, and once each to San Angelo Edison, 24-8, and Runnels, 14-6.

Travis 8th is the only unbeaten and untied team in the system. It has defeated Sweetwater twice, 16-0 and 4-0, Runnels twice, 42-14 and 8-0, Goliah twice, 42-12 and 20-6, and Lamesa, 18-6.

Lamar 8th has won over Goliah twice, 30-8 and 20-6. Runnels, 44-18 and Sweetwater, 22-18. It has played a 6-6 tie with Runnels and lost decisions to Sweetwater, 18-8 and Lamesa, 36-12.

Lamar 7th holds victories over Goliah, 6-0, and Lamesa, 8-6. It played a 0-0 tie with Sweetwater and on another occasion lost to Sweetwater, 6-0. Other losses were to Runnels, 20-0, and Colorado City, 14-0.

Travis 7th has defeated Sweetwater, 8-6, Goliah, 22-0, Lamesa, 14-8 and Colorado City, 36-20. It played a 6-6 tie with Sweetwater and lost to Runnels, 30-0.

Expansion Of Junior Loop Moves Ahead

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Editor
NEW YORK (AP)—The American League will speed its expansion plans today when it names the owners of the new franchises in Washington and Los Angeles and begins to stock the clubs with talent from its own rosters.

Although the league still must clear a pre-expansion legislative hurdle in its conflict with the National League for sharing the Los Angeles territory, it is moving ahead confidently.

The American League believes it can counter any objections by the National League by throwing a similar road block in front of the National's plans to move into New York in 1962.

Commissioner Ford Frick, who says he will insist on a "fair and equitable" amendment of the baseball territorial rule before he casts a decisive vote Wednesday based the two groups to get together. The joint major league meetings are scheduled for St. Louis Dec. 8.

Both Joe Cronin, American League president, and Warren Giles, National League president, have huddled with Frick several times since the American made its surprising decision to expand last month.

The general managers of the league created a Wednesday plan for stocking the new clubs. This plan has been discussed on and off, for over a year. Roughly, it is based on the "dual plan" to provide talent for a team in case of a plane or train accident. Each team would give up seven players from its 40-man roster, providing a total of 56 players to be divided between the two new teams.

Hank Greenberg will head the new Los Angeles franchise, when and if he has been to California to get dates in the Coliseum which his club will share with the Dodgers. One of his associates is to be J. A. Smith, an industrialist and part owner of the San Diego team.

Tech Holding Key To Title

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Texas Tech, in its first year as a participating member, holds the key to the Southwest Conference championship and the Cotton Bowl bid that accompanies it.

The Raiders are out of the picture but remain the last obstacle in the path of Arkansas' on-rushing Razorbacks. The Cotton Bowl Saturday would assure the potent Hogs of at least a tie for the championship and would clinch the bowl berth.

"We're still not ready..." Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles said Wednesday. He said the Razorbacks would need Thursday's lengthy session to get acquainted with Tech's varying offensive formations and its defensive patterns.

Rice, which along with Arkansas has lost only one conference game, brushed up for its game with Texas Christian by engaging in a rugged scrimmage.

At Fort Worth, TCU looked effective against Rice's favorite offensive weapons, the sweeps and fullback traps. The Hogs worked two hours in preparation for the game Saturday at Houston.

University of Texas' stellar halfback Jack Collins, still feeling the effects of an injury, drew praise from Coach Darrell Royal.

"Jack ran better than he has in some time," Royal said. The Dallas speedster apparently will be ready for the Longhorns' traditional Thanksgiving Day game with Texas A&M.

The Aggies, meanwhile, worked out for the first time this week and heard the bad news that Sam Byer, starting fullback, will miss the Texas game. Byer developed a calcium deposit in his injured leg.

The outlook in Southern Methodist's camp was considerably brighter as four veterans, previously hampered by injuries, worked out in full uniform. They are end Pat Neill, guard Karl Beiz, halfback Glenn Gregory and fullback Gene Sherman.

SMU's opponent this week, Baylor, was having its troubles. Two of its three backfield Rommies—Bull and Goodwin—joined a group of other Bears in a battle against the Bears.

However, the word from trainer Weaver Jordan was that all will recuperate by Saturday.

High School Grid Chases Near Climax

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Pre-season rated powers like Baytown and Waco will look anxiously for places in the Texas schoolboy football playoffs this week when district champions are decided in Classes AAAA and AAA.

Classes AA and A will be starting the fight for state championships with favored Olney of AA making its opening bid against Azle, and Stinnet, the heralded kingpin of Class A, trying to beat LeFors again.

Baytown has two chances to make it despite its upset a couple of weeks ago by Galena Park. If Galena Park, which plays Pasadena in the final game of Dist. 12, shows falter Baytown would be "in." If Galena Park wins there will be a triple tie among Baytown, Freeport and Galena Park and a coin flip would be necessary to decide the state representative.

Baytown was for most of the season rated No. 1 in Class AAAA. Waco started out as one of the members of the top 10 only to falter early and finally get behind the eight-ball by losing to Bryan. However, Waco beat Austin and if it defeats Temple Friday night it would get the Dist. 13 representative.

Field Goals Haunt LSU

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Louisiana State's erudite Paul Dietzel might be forgiven for a lapse in grammar if he should moan:

"It's them field goals that's killing me."

Latest major college statistics, released today by the NCAA Service Bureau, show LSU has yielded only 44 points in eight games, an average of 5.5 a game. Except for field goals, the average would be 2.5, for LSU's opponents have averaged a field goal a game against Dietzel's Tigers.

What's more, the three-pointers have accounted for three LSU losses and one tie. Without them the team would have a 7-1 season record instead of 3-4-1.

Other team defense leaders include: total defense — Wyoming, average yield 146.3 yards a game; rushing defense — Utah State, 79.0 yards; forward pass defense — Iowa State, 30.4 yards; punting — Georgia, 43.6-yard average on 84 kicks.

Major changes in the past week saw Mississippi jump from 10 to second in the total defense rankings, and Utah State and Wyoming move up in rushing defense. Missouri gave up 333 yards to Oklahoma and dropped to fifth.

Pirates' Dick Groat Named National League's Top Hand

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
BOSTON (AP)—Dick Groat, captain and shortstop of the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates, today was selected the National League's most valuable player for 1960, ending the two-year domination of Chicago's Ernie Banks.

Groat, who led the Pirates to their first pennant in 33 years, won in a landslide.

He was named first on 16 of the 22 ballots cast by a special committee of the Baseball Writers' Association of America, was listed on every ballot and picked up 276 points in the voting, far ahead of teammate Don Hoak, who was second with 162.

"It's a wonderful thrill, of course," the Pirates' field leader said from his home in Pittsburgh,

TOP CARDINAL LINEMAN—Billy Kubena, 165-pound defensive guard, has been named "lineman of the week" for the Hermleigh Cardinals on the basis of his play in last week's Cardinal victory over Trent Kubena, a sophomore, marked the 1960 edition more so the Cardinal won, 48-14. He will see action again Saturday when Hermleigh meets Clint in a bi-district game in Tiger Stadium.

Two Years Make A Big Difference

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer.

What a difference two years can make in a college football team.

Example: Yale's unbeaten, untied Ivy League leaders who are on the verge of their first perfect season since 1923. The Eli of that year posted an 8-0 record, the present mark of the 1960 edition, who battle ancient rival Harvard this week in Cambridge, Mass. In addition to the perfect season, a victory also secures the Ivy title.

But this time two years ago, the Eli had a 2-4 record and lost to the Cantabs 28-0, also in Cambridge. It was the first time in 17 years they failed to beat a league opponent.

On that fated day were 10 of today's 11 starters, playing as sophomores. This group started coming into its own last year when it won the first five games without allowing a point. Yale finished 1959 with a 6-3 record, but lost the finale to Harvard 35-6.

But this year, the bedraggled soph and junior winners were molded into a solid unit.

But as solid and successful as they were, Coach Jordan Oliver would not concede to their greatness until just before his team's

Three Deaths Attributed To Hunting

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Three deaths attributed directly or indirectly to hunting Wednesday day marred the opening of deer season. The opening day, however, appeared to be successful for many of the hunters who combed the Texas woods.

Game wardens in several sections of the state reported the brush areas "virtually filled" with hunters making good bags.

The season opened and closed quickly for a Centerville High School senior, John Trutt, Graham. He killed two deer with nine and five points, his limit for the season.

Game wardens said 650 deer had gone through the Llano check station, an increase over the same period a year ago.

R. W. Love of Houston and Claude Register of Lufkin reportedly killed 26-point bucks. Love bagged his buck near Centerville, where about 3,500 hunters swept through the Leon County area. Game Warden Seth Taylor estimated 500 deer were killed in Leon County.

Register's buck was shot two miles west of Lufkin.

One of the largest deer killed was 14-point Tom Ewers, Leon County farm agent. It dressed out at 144 pounds.

An unidentified hunter killed two bobcats, one of which attacked him.

An apparent heart attack, a drowning, and a shooting claimed the lives of three hunters.

Herrrell Lloyd Sexton, 26, Fort Worth, was fatally wounded while hunting near Junction. A justice of the peace ruled accidental death. Norman J. Josefy, 48, owner of the AAA Auto Glass Co. in San Antonio, collapsed and died while hunting in brush country south of San Antonio. Death was tentatively attributed to a heart attack.

Henry Everett Moore, 48, Waco, drowned in an accident in Bosque County. He was en route to hunt with a Clifton man when their pickup truck went out of control on a farm road and plunged into a creek near Clifton.

Tables Turned On Philadelphia Team

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Philadelphia Warriors, who couldn't win early in the season, now can't win.

The Eastern Division leaders in the National Basketball Association suffered their third straight setback as they lost 119-118 Wednesday night to the red-hot Detroit Pistons. It was the Pistons' fourth straight victory.

In other games Wednesday night the Syracuse Nationals smothered the Cincinnati Royals 124-87, and the Boston Celtics outpointed St. Louis 124-106.

The Warriors won their first nine games.

Hockey Stars Are Scattered

DULUTH, Minn. (AP)—A year has scattered Uncle Sam's hockey stars who scored a championship sweep in last year's Winter Olympics.

The team that succeeds this season as the U. S. national squad will be playing under vast handicaps, and no one knows it better than the coach.

"They're definitely will be comparing the nationals with the Olympic championship team," said Connie Pleban, 46, Duluth insurance man. "And we probably won't have more than two or three of those players back."

"We'll be young and rather inexperienced, but we hope that by the time we reach Switzerland for the world championships we will be a strong unit."

Only Larry Palmer, a goalie from Wakefield, Mass., and John Kirrane, Brookline, Mass., defenseman, definitely plan to be back. Billy Christian, Warroad, Minn. One of the most valuable players on the 1960 team, may be back.

But gone are the likes of Jack McCartan, the No. 1 goalie, Bill and Bob Cleary, Paul Johnson, John Mayasich and others.

"This is a building year for the 1964 Olympics," said Pleban. "Tryouts will be conducted in Minneapolis Nov. 25-26 and Boston Nov. 29-30."

"I want to emphasize these tryouts are open to any boy interested in playing on the 1961 team," Pleban said.

The 20 or 22 players picked from those tryouts will train in Duluth beginning Dec. 11 and start the annual domestic tour Dec. 16 against Minnesota prior to competing on a European swing leading up to the World Games.

Casper Is Favorite In Cajun Classic

LAFAYETTE, La. (AP)—Billy Casper of Apple Valley, Calif., ruled as the favorite as play started today in the $15,000 Cajun Classic golf tournament here.

Casper, the 1959 U.S. Open winner, won here last year. He has won the last three tournaments he has entered, the Portland, Ore. Open, the Hesperia, Calif. Open and the Orange County, Calif. Open.

Casper faces a tough field including the two hometown favorites, Lionel and Jay Hebert. Other leading contenders include Doug Sanders of Ojai, Calif.; Pete Curog of Dorado Beach, P.R.; Marty Furgol of Cog Hill, Ill.; and Frank Wharton of Dallas, who shot a 65 Wednesday to win a one-day pro-amateur competition here.

Par on the 6,531-yard Oakbourne Country Club course is 71.

Penn State will next meet a Big Ten football rival in 1963 when it takes on Ohio State at Columbus.

North Carolina and North Carolina State have met 90 times in football.

PRETTY BIG TO PUSH AROUND

Fat Man Is Worthy Of Some Aid

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—It is time the federal government did something to help the fat man.

As it is now, nobody does much for the fat man except jeer him. "Fats" they say, poking him in the stomach. "Aren't you putting on a little weight?"

Yet fat people are vital to the American economy. Since we have some 25 to 30 million overweight people, they outnumber farmers or manufacturers by a large margin.

Congress regularly rushes to the rescue of the farmer with crop benefit payments and to the aid of the manufacturer with protective tariffs.

But the only government help fat people get is a periodic warning from the U.S. Public Health Service that if they don't lose weight they probably won't live as long.

This is not enough. If fat people are a great natural resource—and they are—they should be treated as such. The government should encourage them to reduce by offering them solid inducements, just as it helps the farmer and the manufacturer and the oil well owners.

For example, why not a fat depletion allowance on your income tax?

Under this plan your doctor would indicate how much overweight you were, and give you a diet. Then when you went to pay your income tax, the collector would give you a 1 per cent reduction for each pound you had lost, in recognition of your valiant and patriotic effort to save a worthwhile part of America—namely yourself.

And why shouldn't Congress strike off medals to honor them as "Heroes of the Battle of the Human Bulge, and Saviors of the National Waistline?"

A federal fat control program such as herein outlined may sound like another raid on the Treasury by another special privilege group.

Actually, it isn't. Unlike the federal farm surplus program it probably would more than pay its own way—because it would keep millions of former fat people alive longer, paying taxes years beyond their expected span.

One thing you can say about any one who opposes this program of national recognition.

He ain't a fat man. The fat man already gets enough advice. What he needs is real help with a weighty problem.

Coffee Not Good As 'One For The Road'

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—"If you want one for the road" after a party stay away from coffee as well as liquor, a laboratory expert on drunkenness advised.

Prof. Robert F. Borkenstein of Indiana University's police administration department said the danger is that coffee will give the motorist a feeling of false security.

"Coffee is a mild stimulant," he said. "It has a very fleeting effect against alcohol, a violent depressant."

The best solution, he told a traffic conference Wednesday, is for the party host to control the flow of liquor.

MODEST MAIDENS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The maritime administration Tuesday announced a new move designed to hamper trade between Cuba and the Soviet bloc.

The agency said that in future any American ship which is transferred to foreign ownership or registry may not be chartered for use in Soviet bloc-Cuba trade without advance approval from the Maritime Administration.

On Oct. 20, the agency imposed a restriction requiring prior approval for the transfer, sale or chartering of U.S. ships to Cuba or to Cuban nationals.

Venice Doesn't Need Uplift, But Flood Control Desired

By INEZ ROBB
VENICE, Italy—This is the day I come with glad tidings of great joy for all Veniceophiles. This unique—incomparable—city is not slowly sinking into a watery grave amid its canals as alarming stories in the world press insist on an average of once every six months.

There is a bit of a problem here, all right. But the trouble is not that the city and its 400-plus bridges are sinking into the Adriatic that it once commanded. Any Venetian worth his water wings will gladly tell you that the water-impervious piles on which the city is built have long since oozed through the mud and come to rest on the foundation of solid rock underpinning the city's 117 islands.

No, the city isn't sinking. The truth of the matter is the Adriatic is rising, which is an entirely different matter. Granted that it's an awkward situation, the problem is not to raise the bridges but to lower the water.

Like all Venetians, the Commendatore said, with considerable passion:

"Venice is not sinking! The Adriatic is getting higher. It's a nuisance."

But Signor Zucchi has confidence that science will solve Venice's problem, as it eventually must solve that of the Leaning Tower of Pisa. It is to continue a tourist attraction and not fall on its face by 2150.

Twice this year the crazy Adriatic has overflowed Venice, causing grievous loss to merchants and householders.

Ordinarily, high tide flows in and out of Venice without causing any citizen any more inconvenience than the morning or evening high tides of traffic in an American city.

But the tide flows in one side of the romantic lagoon and out the other. And if a sudden, strong wind blows against the tide at its peak, the water piles up in the lagoon and has no place to go but into the city. When it happens at night, it is a catastrophe for merchants.

Since there is no adequate weather forecast to warn Venetians that the Adriatic is on the rampage, Venetians are pressing the city council to ring the great bells of St. Mark's Cathedral to warn the populace of the impending flood.

That would give householders and merchants alike time to strip the first floor of valuables. The water seldom rises above 18 to 24 inches, and every Venetian building is equipped with its own supply of saw horses and wooden planks which can be quickly assembled to support goods and gear out of reach of the flood.

Wagner Dedicated To Segregation

By DAVID ZINMAN
NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — The uphill fight to maintain segregation is, by his own words, the essence of Emile A. Wagner Jr.'s life.

Wagner, lone dissenting voice of the five-man school board that authorized integration which began here Monday, is a 50-year-old widower with five children.

"I suppose the roots of my fight for segregation were planted when my wife died," he said. "The segregation battle takes up all my spare time—it eats up all my nervous energy. It is the real cause of my life."

If die-hard segregationists in New Orleans have any leader, most people would say it is Wagner. Undoubtedly, he is their most informed spokesman.

Ironically, Wagner says his closest friend when he was a young bachelor teacher was J. Skelly Wright, the federal judge who ordered New Orleans school integration.

"We taught two doors from each other at Fortier High School," Wagner said.

A few days ago, Wagner blasted Wright for enjoining the Legislature, branding the judge's actions "despotic, arbitrary, ill-considered abuse of authority."

Wagner, a heavy-set, barrel-chested man with a streak of gray running through his dark hair, studied law at night at Loyola University of the South and eventually left teaching. Today, he is executive vice president of a homestead and savings association.

When Archbishop Joseph Francis Rummel of New Orleans called segregation "morally wrong and sinful," Wagner led a Catholic group that protested the decree to Pope Pius XII in 1957.

The Pope did not speak out on the matter. But a Vatican spokesman said Archbishop Rummel was correct in his interpretation of Christian doctrine that all men are equal in the eyes of the church.

The Pope did not say I was wrong," Wagner said.

Basically, Wagner says he takes the position that token integration is a myth and leads inevitably to total integration. In New Orleans—where Negroes in public schools outnumber whites 20,000 to 40,000—integration would bring disaster to both races, he says.

Wagner claims a survey of 4th and 8th grade classes showed 40 per cent of Negro children had moronic intelligence levels or lower.

"You must erase the disparity first," says Wagner. "When it is removed, when desegregation will occur normally."

Asked on a TV interview why he let his daughter go to an integrated college, Wagner answered: "That proves my point. When disparity is removed, there is no objection."

Hagerty Mum On Plan For Future

NEW YORK (AP) — White House press secretary James C. Hagerty has refused to confirm or deny reports he will take over as vice president in charge of the American Broadcasting Company's news and public affairs department.

Veteran broadcaster John Daly resigned the post Wednesday, and his resignation was promptly accepted by ABC.

Officially, ABC would make no comment on reports that Hagerty would take over Daly's position after his duties end with the Eisenhower administration.

At President Eisenhower's vacation headquarters in Augusta, Ga., Hagerty said only: "When I have any announcement about my future plans, I'll let you know."

Daly, a top executive with ABC the past seven years, submitted his resignation to be effective in one month. His role as moderator of the Columbia Broadcasting System's "What's My Line?" will not be affected.

Daly said he was quitting ABC because of a "fundamental difference on policy" with ABC President Leonard Golden.

ABC said only that Daly's resignation has been accepted and announced the temporary appointment of Thomas Velotta, vice president in charge of special affairs for the ABC news and public affairs department.

Daly was said to have opposed the showing by ABC of a "Bugs Bunny" film and "The Rifleman" early on election night while other networks were concentrating on election returns.

Daly's yearly income from all his broadcasting activities has been estimated in industry circles at about $250,000. The same sources indicated his job at ABC vice president earned him around $50,000 annually.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To our friends in Snyder: We have just concluded our annual Fall Ceremonial held for the first time in Snyder, November 11 and 12. This was one of the most successful gatherings of our Shrine Temple on record.

We want to thank everyone for their interest in our activities, for the fine spirit of friendship extended to visiting Shrines from all over this West Texas Area, and for the big welcome given to them and their families while visiting in Snyder.

I have already had many individual direct compliments as well as written letters of commendation concerning the friendly atmosphere that marked all of the weekend activities and the enthusiasm, cooperation and general "open arms" attitude from everyone—merchants, businessmen, law enforcement officers helping with the parade, school officials, and all of the other friends who made this gathering successful.

From all of the members of the Suez Temple, including the members of the local Snyder Shrine Club, thank you, Snyderites, for helping make the Fall Ceremonial a memorable event.

Sincerely,
(s) M. L. Address

Human Cells In Capsule

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Human cells, along with bacteria and plant spores, were aboard the capsule blasted into space Monday by Discoverer XVII.

The cells, grown from a culture taken from a human arm, were sent aloft in an attempt to learn what effects man may suffer when he ventures into the hands of radiation which surround the earth in space. An Air Force spokesman announced Wednesday.

This likewise was the purpose of including spores and bacteria in the capsule.

Major Gen. O. J. Rittland, Ballistic Missiles Division commander, also said Discoverer XVII was unique in that its second-stage engine was started without pressurization, and this proves the feasibility of starting while in orbit.

Thus, a satellite could slow down and fall into another orbit, or could start up again, in another direction.

Ex-Instructors To Face Charges

DALLAS (AP)—Three men and two women, all former instructors of a Dallas Negro business school, have been indicted on charges of defrauding the federal government.

All formerly worked for the Southwest School of Business Administration, Inc.

They were accused of sending false attendance reports to the Veterans Administration on veterans attending the school in the fall semester of 1958 and the spring term of 1959.

Junior Editors Quiz on METALS

QUESTION: Why is pewter so little used now?

ANSWER: During the 1600's and 1700's pewter was widely used in England and other European countries. It was employed in the home as a household utensil, and to some degree, fashioned into church vessels. Plates, bowls, tankards and other articles were made of pewter, which was actually called 'poor man's silver'. When highly polished, pewter did resemble silver. But it is a metal alloy, consisting of tin, copper, lead, antimony and bismuth. As a general rule, the larger the proportion of tin, the better the pewter. The finest pewter is made of tin and copper, with no other metals introduced. Pewter, however, requires a great deal of care. It tarnishes easily, shows scratches and dents and does not stand heat very well. Of course, the development of china and glassware brought an end to the wide use of pewter as household utensils. Today, some fine pewter is to be seen in museums and private collections. There has been recent renewed interest in pewter as a decorator item in homes.

FOR YOU TO DO: Somewhere in your home there may be a pewter mug or some other item. If so, try polishing it and see how much you can make it appear like silver. You can certainly see items made of pewter if you visit an antique shop.

Soldiers' Families Will Be Returned

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—Under orders from President Eisenhower, the Defense Department will begin bringing home in January 284,000 wives and children of U. S. servicemen stationed abroad.

This return of dependents—more than half of all the armed forces dependents overseas—part of a seven-point program instituted by the President to save an estimated billion dollars a year in American spending abroad.

The program will not cut total U. S. spending—only that part spent overseas. Some costs actually will go up as more expensive U. S. goods are bought and shipped abroad to replace much now purchased there.

In effect, the program imposes a strict "buy American" policy on the military services and the International Cooperation Administration, which handles foreign aid.

The gradual reduction of overseas dependents is to be at the rate of 15,000 a month. At least part of it will be accomplished by keeping wives and children in this country as new men are sent overseas. There is no present plan to cut back the number of servicemen abroad.

Announcing the drastic foreign spending curbs Wednesday night at Augusta, Ga., Eisenhower declared it is imperative to bring the country's outflow of dollars into better balance with its foreign income. The United States presently faces a 1960 deficit in

New Comedy Rates Slick Confection

By WILLIAM GUNTER
Associated Press Drama Critic
NEW YORK (AP)—Romantic nonsense, off-beat and slickly amusing, takes "The Broadway Spotlight" "Under The Yum-Yum Tree."

The comic sextuplet, whipped up by a team of film and stage talents, opened Wednesday night at Henry Miller's Theater. Occasionally at times too hard to keep the bubble dancing, but largely and very finally conquer all.

Big Young, a debonair screen performer, scores strongly as the reluctant wolf in a nutty triangle. Sandra Church is alluring and saucy as the maiden wooed by the proper young swain of Dean Jones.

The plot, devised by movie scribe Lawrence Roman in his first stage outing, concerns what happens when the lass invites the lad over for a platonic premarital tryst.

The complications develop when Young comes across the hall to a clerk's confession from producers Frederick Brisson and Roger L. Stevens for seekers of gay diversion.

Roman concentrates the comedy upon this diffident Lothario, and Young tosses a steady stream of soft bolts with deadly skill.

Nan Martin, the other principal performer, is largely a foil for further complications to stretch the slender basic tease across three acts.

Joseph Anthony directs the quartet around the double-level living room and bedroom set of Oliver Smith with fine bravura.

"Under The Yum-Yum Tree" is a slick confection from producers Frederick Brisson and Roger L. Stevens for seekers of gay diversion.

Formosa Blamed For Red Division

By JAMES D. WHITE
Farmer Associated Press Correspondent in China
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—It is now possible to reach a tentative conclusion about the real nature of the much talked of split between Peiping and Moscow on the question of peaceful coexistence.

In a word, coexistence is not the central issue. The real argument—never admitted—seems to be over Red China's determination to take Formosa.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev has been proclaiming that the great imperialist war with the West predicted by Lenin is not inevitable. The Communist world is now strong enough to deter Western imperialists from waging such a war, and has more to gain through peaceful coexistence—permitting economic and political penetration—than it would through a nuclear war where it too would be left in ruins, the Soviet boss argues.

Chairman Mao Tse-tung of Red China has replied that Lenin was right and that anyone who says differently is guilty of being soft on Western imperialism. Behind Mao's obvious denunciation of Khrushchev is a whole series of statements by Red Chinese leaders to this general effect.

With 650 million people Red China is best suited of all the powers to survive a global nuclear holocaust. She could lose almost half her people and still be the most populous nation on earth—and the strongest on an earth where all modern industrial nations lay in radiation-poisoned ruins.

But neither Moscow nor Peiping acknowledges that these deeply antagonistic attitudes amount to a disagreement.

Since 1957, when the first signs of a split appeared, the world has wondered what it really meant.

The answer seems to be that coexistence certainly is involved, but that the big, underlying issue is Formosa.

Peiping claims Formosa as a province of China and Moscow fully supports this claim.

But the tipoff comes from Felix Greene, a British businessman who lives in Palo Alto, Calif., and who recently returned from 4½ months in Red China.

Greene reports he found the Red Chinese—including Premier Chou En-lai—absolutely inflexible on the question of Formosa. Greene recorded for television a 30-minute interview with Chou.

The Englishman, a journalist as well as a businessman, said this was a part of a much more hard-boiled attitude in Peiping than he had found on his first visit three years ago.

He told a radio panel that the Chinese Reds "insist upon settling the Formosa question on their terms before even considering taking the Chinese seat in the United Nations. They are aware that a U.N. trusteeship for Formosa has been discussed, and they want no part of it.

Farm Vote Still Strong In Texas

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas farmers and people who live in rural communities are still a strong voice in the state's political decisions, says the Kennedy-Johnson farm committee.

The committee that worked for the Democratic ticket said that people in those areas get the "greatest credit for giving the Democratic ticket its majority in Texas."

The steering committee for Sens. John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson was headed by John C. White, state commissioner of agriculture.

The presidential election result is a mandate for Kennedy and Johnson "to go full speed ahead with the type of farm program advocated by them in the campaign," conceived and administered for the actual benefit of the farmer instead of against the real interests of agriculture," the committee statement said.

"As far as the rural areas and farm vote of Texas were concerned, there was no hanging back in their whole-hearted endorsement of the Kennedy-Johnson approach to the farm program along with a repudiation of ruinous Republican farm policies of the past eight years."

Other members of the steering committee were Milton Potts of Livingston, Aubrey Pilgram of Pittsburg, Ed Dockery of Trenton, J. M. Dickson of Garland, State Rep. Steve Burgess of Nacogdoches, Roy Smith of Houston, Herbert Wischkaemper of Victoria, David Gault of Manor, Bob Goehman of Waco, Tom Craddock of Seymour, Merle Connally of Floresville, Jim Griffin of Mission, Lewis David of Corsicana, E. A. Walker of Delton, State Sen. Andy Rogers of Childress, Roy Davis of Lubbock, Bill Pricke of Fredericksburg, Weber Pugh of Sinton, and Otto Mosher of DeKalb and Mirvie Fisher Cunningham of New Waverly.

Judge Raps Jury Verdict

LOS ANGELES (AP)—After a jury voted life imprisonment for sex murderer Raymond Clemmons, the court told seven women on the panel: "I can only hope that he will not meet any of you ladies some night in a dark place."

Several of the women left the jury box Wednesday weeping. Superior Court Judge William E. Fox termed it "an extremely bad verdict."

He said 12 years was the average time served by life-termers.

The jury foreman said the panel was not convinced the slaying was deliberate. Clemmons admitted abducting cove Nina T. Thoren, 19, daughter of screen writer Robert T. Thoren, from a street near Los Angeles City College last July 12. She was strangled with her Capri pants.

Republicans Aid A Third Party

FARMINGTON, N.M. (AP)—New Mexico Republicans, relegated to the second spot on the recent general election ballot for the first time in years, instructed voters to vote for the bottom party on the ballot.

Result: The normally Republican community of Shiprock, just west of Farmington, gave 187 straight party votes to the liberalists—the party listed on the bottom. Two Republicans.

Fantastic New Phone System Goes On Trial

By JOHN BARBOUR
Associated Press Science Writer
WHIPPANY, N.J. (AP)—Today in some homes in Morris, Ill., a man can dial on the telephone, hang up, and ring every extension phone in the house to call the family to dinner.

And tonight, if she and dad are going visiting, they can dial a simple series of numbers, and from that moment on every call coming to their home phone will be routed to the house they will visit.

These are just two of the wonders of a telephone system of the future, installed today for trial in 50 homes and offices in Morris by the Bell Telephone System.

Other innovations: If dad or junior comes home early to find mom gone, they can track her down by dialing their own number on their own phone and thereby ring the telephone where mom is visiting, and where she directed all home calls.

Or, dad, leaving his office, can dial a simple code and immediately transfer all of his office calls to his home telephone.

In homes where there are extension phones, they can be used as an intercom system.

By 1965, Bell Laboratories officials expect to have the system in production for national use. Eventually 600 Morris users will give this vanguard system its customer trial. Other services to be added at Morris, or eventually to the national system:

A third party, and perhaps others, will be able to dial into an existing telephone conversation.

Of special interest in homes where teenagers monopolize the telephone, the system will hold incoming calls with a recorded "please wait" announcement, ringing the busy phone as soon as it is hung up.

You would be able to use your phone as an alarm clock, simply giving the telephone central office the hour you want to be awakened by your bedside telephone.

Bell officials say the new system can handle any new service that can be logically described.

All of these wonders are handled by a new, super-quick central office that replaces mechanical devices with thousands of transistors and neon-filled tubes, and a photographic electronic memory.

The new central office makes its moves in a matter of microseconds, or millionths of a second. There are as many millions of a second in one minute as there are minutes in about 107 years.

Even after performing all of its duties, the new central office has time left over. So Bell designers at this laboratory in Whippany, N.J., have set the system to constantly rechecking itself, testing its thousands of switches, connections and wires. The central office, finding a bad switch or connection, can often repair itself, removing the defective part from operation, and substituting a duplicate which is built in as a safeguard.

In any case when a defective connection is found, the machine prints out on a teletypewriter the location, what the trouble is, and the month, day, hour and minute of the defect.

At the heart of the new system is the photographic memory. Its actions are to a large extent set up ahead of time by the instructions in this memory, or book of procedures.

An electronic eye scans the coded instructions on glass photographic plates, learning from these clusters of photographic dots what actions to perform next to complete the call.

Here, in the dots of the code are the instructions to pass Mr. Jones' office call to Mr. Jones' home. Here too is the instruction that 1-2 from Whitney 2-2908 is the grocer, Whitney 2-4911.

In addition, the system uses electronic tubes as a sort of scratch pad memory.

If the numbers you dial refer to some specific instruction in the photographic memory, the machine looks up the instruction and handles your call as it was instructed to do.

Thanksgiving Foods Given Top Billing

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Texas food markets are getting ready for Thanksgiving. Their stocks this weekend will bulge with traditional items like turkeys, cranberries, sweet potatoes, dates and canned and fresh pumpkin, the USDA Marketing Service reports.

All of these foods, and many more, are in abundant supply at reasonable prices, says the service.

Fresh vegetables on the week's best-buy list include cabbage, carrots, celery, greens and green onions, iceberg lettuce, onions, potatoes, turnips and tops, and rutabagas. Many of these are coming from South Texas.

Texas grapefruit and orange shipments continue heavy. Wholesale prices are moderate. Apples, bananas, tokyay and emperor grapes, and lemons also rate best-buy honors among fresh fruits.

Higher priced than a week ago are avocados, cucumbers, lettuce, limes and Mexican and squash. Tomatoes are much higher. A few cucumbers and squash from Florida show up in Texas stores. If you like to chew fresh sugarcane stalks you'll find these in good supply, especially at farmers' markets.

November is a good time to pull out favorite sauerkraut recipes for frequent use. Cabbage, lower again this week, is selling at almost give-away prices. With pork and apples also abundant, observe the industry's kraut, pork and apple season Nov. 1-30.

Beef and broiler-fryers are in excellent supply at reasonable prices. Peanuts and tree nuts of all kinds also are being featured in many stores.

Kennedy Brothers Off For Vacation

MEXICO CITY (AP)—President-elect John F. Kennedy's brothers Robert and Edward and their wives joined forces Tuesday night on a holiday from their campaign labors. They were en route to the Mexican west coast. "Our only plan was to rest at Acapulco," said Edward, the youngest of the three Kennedy brothers. "We are convinced there is no better or more beautiful place to spend a vacation than Acapulco."

President-elect Kennedy is at his father's Palm Beach, Fla., home.

Beefed Up Curriculum Urged

By G. K. HODENFIELD
AP Education Writer
SANTA FE, N.M. (AP)—A drastic overhaul of public education, designed to raise the quality and eliminate the frills, was proposed today by a group of education experts. They outlined suggested programs in mathematics, chemistry, English, social studies, foreign languages, biology and economics. Some of the beefed-up courses are being taught in a few schools, others are in the planning stage. The proposals were made during the annual meeting of the Council of Chief State School Officers, an association of state commissioners and superintendents of schools. Highlights of the prepared statement: G. Bailey Price, executive secretary of the Conference Board of the Mathematical Sciences, told of a Yale experiment in which intuitive geometry is introduced in the fourth grade, vectors in the eleventh grade, and matrix algebra and probability and statistical inference in the twelfth grade. "Many schools now start algebra in the eighth grade instead of the ninth," he said. "Previous-ly much time has been lost in the seventh and eighth grades in review and on too much drill on trivial social application of arithmetic." Floyd Rinker of the College Entrance Examination Board's Commission on English said the problem in his field is to bridge the gap between what is taught in high school and what is required in college. Robert E. Hegze of the American Chemical Society told of two experimental programs being taught to a small number of high school students. In one there is emphasis on "atomic and molecular structures of substances and the nature of chemical bonding between atoms." George E. Smith of the Indiana State Department of Public Instruction called for "a 10-year course in modern foreign languages, starting with all third-grade pupils. Those who show aptitude and ability would continue the language through the twelfth grade." Roy E. Simpson, superintendent of public instruction for California, reported on a survey of the social sciences program in that state. He said the committee agreed that non-academic subjects attached to the social studies, such as driver education and instruction in the ill effects of alcohol and narcotics, be removed. Some school officials believe driver education should be part of the civics course, because it teaches respect for the law. Simpson also said it was agreed that the eight academic disciplines which should make up the social studies program are geography, history, political science, economics, anthropology, psychology, sociology and philosophy.
