Q. How much does it cost the playhouse to produce the current play "My Fair Lady"?

A. All the expenses are not yet in, but Treasurer Lovess Curlee said it would be over $4,000. This includes $1,100 for set construction, $1800 for royalty and rental of the music, and over $1,000 for costumes. Utilities and miscellaneous expenses are still to be paid. To say the least, full houses are needed for this week's final performances.

Briefly

Flea market

The Second Saturday Flea Market at the Wallace Center will be Sept. 12 from 8:30 a.m.-4 p.m.

Space for rent (one table) is $10. Items to be sold can be anything from large equipment to small articles or crafts. Food and garden produce may also be sold. The 9-foot by 9-foot spaces are available inside or out. Call 728-2392 to reserve space.

Defensive driving

A class for defensive driving will be held at the Wallace Center on Sept. 8 and 15, at 6 p.m. each evening. Registration must be made at the Wallace Center by 2 p.m. on Sept. 8.

Gospel singing

First Assembly of God, 830 East 17th Street, is having a gospel sing service Sunday, Sept. 6, at 6:30 p.m.

There will be different ones from the church participating in the special service. After the service, refreshments will be served in the fellowship hall. The public is invited.

Commodities distribution set this week

Commodities will be distributed Wednesday, Sept. 9, from 9 a.m.-noon at the ag barn (new applications accepted after 11 a.m.); from 9-11 a.m. in Loraine; and from 9-11 a.m. in Westbrook.

Commodities will be distributed at the Wallace Center on Thursday from 9-11 a.m.

Able bodied volunteers are needed to help unload the commodities at the Senior Citizens Center in Loraine, said Bertie Kidd, coordinator. "Unless help is forthcoming, this will be the last month for the program in Loraine," she said.

Workers who help unload the truck at the ag barn need to be there by 7:30 a.m. Other workers need to be there by 8:45 a.m.

Persons who have commodities delivered to their homes need to make a special effort to be home at time of delivery, said Mrs. Kidd.

"It is not feasible for our volunteers to make several trips to your house," she said. "This program cannot work without cooperation from everybody involved."

Park attendance about 30,000; Griffin leaving

The metering device at Lake Colorado City State Park has been out of commission, thus a count of the visitors to the park during August is not available.

However, Park Superintendent Bill Griffin estimated about 30,000 people visited the park during the past month. If the estimate is close, this would bring the park attendance to approximately 265,597 for the fiscal year, as compared to 290,595 for the same period last year.

Firemen answer 21 alarms in August

Colorado City Fire Department answered 21 calls during the month of August, Billy Ray Williamson reported.

There were no structure fires, but the firemen were called to 12 grass fires, five miscellaneous calls, and four false alarms.

Eighteen of the calls were from outside the city and three within the City.

'My Fair Lady' Review

Ambitious undertaking

By Ray Mayo
Editor

Musicals are always ambitious undertakings for community theaters, and local thespians rise to the occasion with "My Fair Lady", the current production of the Colorado City Playhouse.

"My Fair Lady" is a tribute to its director, actors and production staff. It's obvious that many, many hours of rehearsal must have gone into the musical.

Directed by Carl Beery Moore, "My Fair Lady" takes place in London in 1912. A professor takes over the task of teaching a "guttersnipe", as he calls her, to speak correct English. In so doing, the professor and his student fall in love, although neither admit to being in love until the last scenes.

The play stars Emily Hataway as Eliza Doolittle, the flower peddler transformed into a lady, and Tim Haynes as Henry Higgins, the off-the-wall professor who is responsible for the transformation.

Mrs. Hataway keeps the audience's toes tapping with her beautiful voice as she sings "Wouldn't It Be Lovely", "Just You Wait", and "I Could Have Danced All Night."

Haynes keeps the play moving at a fast pace with his renditions of "Why Can't the English?" and "I'm an Ordinary Man."

Supporting roles are handled equally as well by Jack Starr as Col. Pickering, Tandy Curlee as Alfred Doolittle, Kay Oyler as Mrs. Pearce, Gwen Wistrand as Mrs. Higgins, Walter Hearin as Zoltan Karpathy, Pat Swanson as Mrs. Eynsford-Hill and David Shelton as Freddy-Eynsford-Hill.

Driver's license checks planned

Colorado City Police Chief Bobby Sparks warns that his department will be conducting driver's license checks at random times before and after school.

He said it has come to his attention that some unlicensed students are driving to and from school.

"Not only will the student be ticketed, but the parent will also be issued a ticket for allowing their unlicensed child to drive," said Sparks, who added that the law will be strictly enforced.

Charges filed after officer is assaulted

A 44-year-old Colorado City man was charged with aggravated assault on a police officer Sunday, Aug. 30, after the man was stopped for a suspected driving violation.

Richard A. Watkins was stopped by Officer Richard Hawkins about 9:30 p.m. for suspicion of driving while intoxicated. Hawkins took Watkins to the County Jail to administer an alcohol test at which time a fight ensued between Hawkins and Watkins with Watkins hitting Hawkins.

In addition to the DWI charge, Hawkins was also charged with aggravated assault on a police officer, said Police Chief Bobby Sparks.

Man attacks local woman with knife

A Westbrook man has been charged with aggravated assault with a deadly weapon following an incident Friday, Aug. 28, in the parking lot of Valley Fair Lodge.

Police Chief Bobby Sparks said Albert Richard Doss, 52, was arrested at Rodgers Road and the south service road of Interstate 20 following the incident which occurred about midnight when Sheri Wolf, 24, of Snyder, an employee at the nursing home, was leaving work.

As Wolf neared her pickup in the parking lot, she told officers she saw a man hiding behind the truck. She ran down Elm Street toward Kelley Elementary School and then south to the 1400 block of Elm Street. As she tried to run away, the attacker was trying to grab her and hit her, she said. She also was slashed in the face with a knife.

Residents in the area assisted her and the attacker left before police could arrive.

Sparks said a butcher knife, believed to have been used in the attack, was found stuck in a tree at Kelley Elementary. The knife is being tested for blood stains and fingerprints.

Poison drives rats from downtown to neighborhoods

Poisoning for the Norway rats in the downtown area has been successful, Animal Control Officer Richard Caldwell has reported, so much so that there have been increased reports that many of the varmints have moved out into the residential areas.

"The usual poisons such as D-Con and other such poison feeds available to the public, are not effective on this type rat," Caldwell said, "they only make 'em fatter." The type of rodenticide that is effective is only available through professional, licensed exterminators. The City will not and has not distributed the rodenticide in the residential areas mainly due to the danger to children and pet animals. Residents are urged to use extreme caution in having such poisons distributed. There is an antidote available at local vets.

Man nabbed in stolen car

A Pecos man was arrested here Wednesday morning in a car reported stolen from Pecos.

Police Chief Bobby Sparks said Jimmy Dale Gomer, 22, was charged with unauthorized use of a motor vehicle and for burglary of a habitation after several items taken during a residential burglary were found in the small foreign car.

Sparks said his department received a teletype from Pecos about the stolen vehicle and said

Write letters on prison

Following up on the public meeting with "Sonny" Emerson, held last Saturday in regard to the location of a Private Prison here, local citizens and businesses have been asked to submit letters indicating support of the project.

Backing of the prison by local citizens was well demonstrated at the meeting with a favorable straw vote of 508-5. And afterward, Emerson indicated his desire to establish the private prison here.

Now he needs further backing to convince the lending company, PacificCorp. Credit, Inc. that this is where the prison should be located.

Citizens are asked to write, on business letterheads where possible, about the benefits that would be derived from the new industry and their willingness to support the project.

Letters should be addressed to Carl "Sonny" Emerson, care of the Colorado City Chamber of Commerce, to be received by Sept. 16.

For The Record...

FROM THE SCRIPTURES—"You know the commandments: Do not commit adultery; do not murder; do not steal; do not give false evidence; honour your father and mother." Luke 18:20.

Colorado City is getting a lot of state-wide publicity this week on the popular Tumbleweed Smith's "Sounds of Texas" program. Airing this week is an interview with Colorado City Mayor Jim Baum, who has researched the subject of former Mitchell County Sheriff R. C. (Dick) Ware's shooting of the famous outlaw Sam Bass at Round Rock in 1880. There remains some doubt about who shot him, but before Bass died, he was said to have said, "The man with the shaving cream got me." Ware had jumped out of a barber's chair to gun down the outlaw.

There is some doubt about this story also. A man called home to speak to his wife. The maid answered and said his wife was not available. The man insisted. Finally, the maid admitted that his wife was in the upstairs bedroom with another man. The irate husband ordered the maid to take the gun out of the desk drawer, "go up and shoot them both." The maid obeyed then returned to the phone and asked "what now?". The husband told her to wipe off the fingerprints and throw the gun in the swimming pool. "But, sir," she said, "we don't have a swimming pool." The man said, "Isn't this 555-4545? ... sorry, wrong number!"

THE LONE WOLF SAYS, "The grass always grows best out of the cracks in the sidewalk."

Prison entrepreneur Sonny Emerson said "a tired prisoner is a good prisoner" and indicated that his inmates would be trained, worked and paid a decent wage. County Judge Bill Carter is instituting something similar. Some 28 cases of probation fee payment violations were brought before his court. If they could not provide "probable cause" for their violations, the Judge gave them three choices: (1) pay in full all fines and fees due, (2) face revocation of probation and be placed in jail, or (3) work out the fines and fees due, at $5 per hour credit, on assigned community projects. More than half were able to get current, some were given grace periods, some will probably go to jail, one paid up in full, and two elected to work out their debts—chopping weeds, cleaning streets, mowing grass, etc. That's good. Everybody benefits.

RESERVE OFFICERS of the City Police Department (l to r) Jack Green, Melburn Jaco, Don Webb, and Jerry Dossey, are all fully-certified law enforcement officers, who provide a valuable service to the City of Colorado City.

City reserve officers unique

Colorado City Police Department has a rather unique Reserve Officer unit.

"This is the only City I know of where all Reserve Officers are fully-certified and fully-licensed law enforcement officers," Police Chief Bobby Sparks said.

On the Reserve Officer force are Jack Green, who has the rank of sergeant and handles the scheduling; Don Webb, Melburn Jaco, and Jerry Dossey.

Dossey, an ex-Taylor County deputy sheriff, was certified when he joined the reserves several years ago. The other three completed basic law enforcement schooling after some 70 hours of training in 1982. With the support of the City and encouragement of Chief Sparks, the trio took a 120-hour advanced law enforcement course at Sweetwater earlier this year and passed their state exams in Abilene last April.

Now each member of the reserve unit meets the same qualifications as the other seven regular City Patrolmen.

Sparks, who has been Police Chief for the past two and a half years, started out as a Reserve Officer for Mitchell County Sheriff's Office in 1974. "Having served as captain of a 5-man Reserve Officer unit for the Public Records con't. —

Frank H. Coronado, 24, W/M, arrested Aug. 30 by City Police, charge of making alcoholic beverage available to minor.

Arthur A. Watkins, 44, W/M, arrested Aug. 30 by City Police, charge of DWI, aggravated assault on peace officer.

Rodrigo Medina, 29, W/M, arrested Aug. 31 by City Police, DPS warrant.

Janice E. Walraven, 24, W/F, arrested Aug. 31 by City Police, charge of forgery.

David Garcia, 44, W/M, arrested Sept. 1 by Loraine Police, charge of DWLS and DWI.

Larry Jackson, B/M, arrested Sept. 2 by City Police, disorderly conduct.

Jimmy Dale Gomer, 22, W/M, arrested by City Police, charge of unauthorized use of motor vehicle and burglary of a habitation from Pecos County.

Sheriff's Office for about six years, I recognize the need and the value of the services of these men," Sparks said.

The biggest advantage of having fully-certified reserves is that through their training, they are more capable and less likely to make mistakes that might have repercussions on the law enforcement liability of the City, the Chief pointed out.

"However, they provide an invaluable service to the department by supplying the manpower when needed," Sparks said. They work "on call" when needed. They are used mostly at various civic functions, sports events, parades and other such crowd-gatherings. This allows the regular officers to stay on the streets and perform their normal duties. The reserves provide this service, free without pay. The only time they are paid is when they are called on to work a full-time shift that a regular officer would normally work.

This allows us to keep the regular police force at a minimum number," Sparks said, "with the reserves available to fill in during vacations, illness, days off, etc. Their availability and usual quick response to calls for help are invaluable. And we don't have to worry about sending out unqualified or inexperienced officers."

He added that utilizing the reserves is a savings to the City, thus a savings to the taxpayers. Technically, they are part-timers, who work at a lower hourly-wage than regular officers, who many times might have to be paid overtime for extra duty. Also, the City does not have to pay them the fringe benefits paid to full-time city employees.

In addition, the reserve program helps with the public relations of the police department. All four Reserve Officers are local businessmen who have normal daily contact with the public that regular officers don't have.

Green is a salesman for Costin Implement Co.; Webb is Postmaster at Loraine and a member of the City Council; Jaco is production superintendent for Perkins-Prothro, and Dossey is a full-time paid fireman and operator of Dossey Wrecker Service.

Sergeant Green said "We enjoy the work and are happy that we can provide this needed service to the department. He pointed out that the local reserves got started a number of years ago when the Police Chief was fired and most of the regular police force quit in sympathy for their fired Chief. "With only one part-time, uncertified officer left," Green said, "a group of us got together to help keep some semblance of order in the town." Now, they have all become certified law enforcement officers.

Annual Railhead Arts, Crafts Roundup scheduled Oct. 10-11

The 15th Annual Railhead Arts and Crafts Roundup will be held Oct. 10-11 in Colorado City.

Tim Haynes, chairman, promises this to be another outstanding show.

Some of the crafts that will be for sale are stained glass, etched glass, soft sculpture, ceramics, wooden toys, small wooden furniture, wooden shelves, hand-made quilts, machine stitched quilts, handpainted china, saws and pictures, jewelry, dolls, Christmas decorations, Christmas tree skirts, crochet, clocks, painted clothing, lapidary, aprons, albums, baskets and many more.

There are still some booths available due to recent cancellations, said Haynes. Anyone interested in reserving a booth should call the Chamber of Commerce at 728-3402. Items that can be sold are limited to handcrafted arts and crafts. No manufactured items, kit items or items of bad taste will be permitted. The booths are rented on a first come, first served basis.

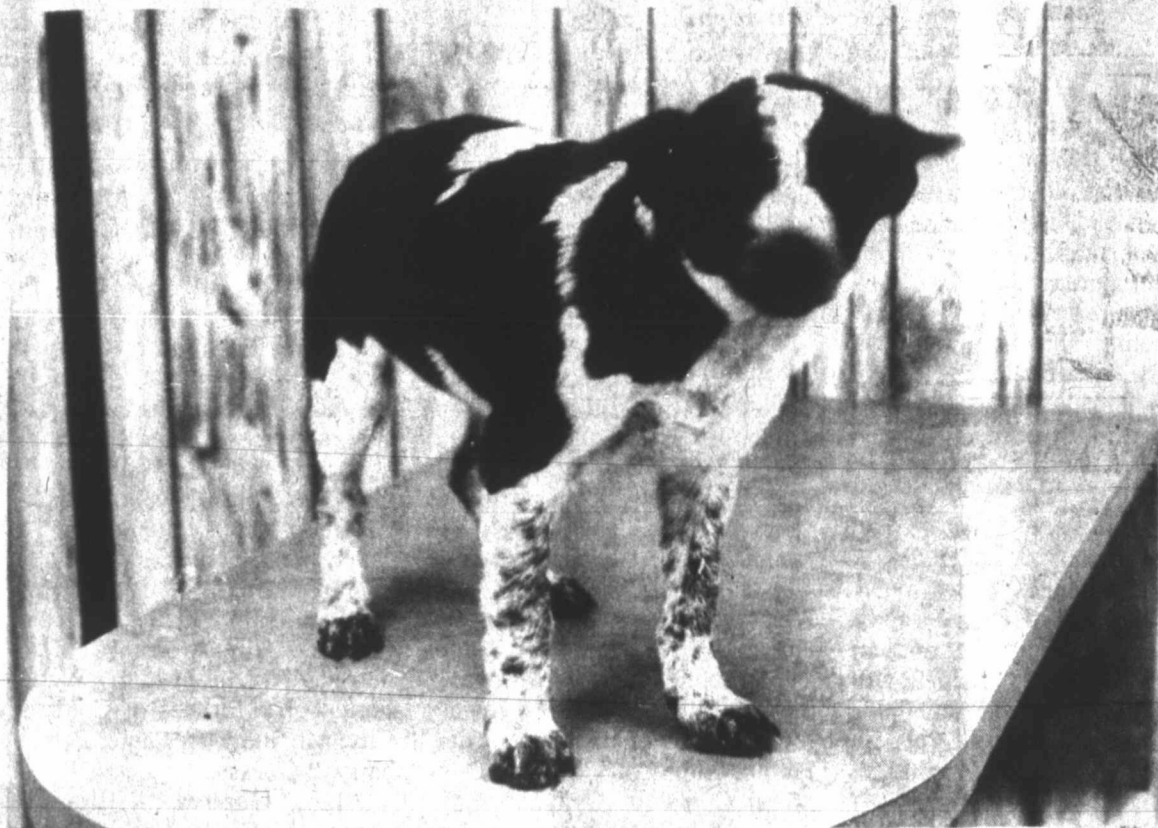

Hours for the show, held at the Mitchell County Ag Barns, West Highway 80, are from 10 a.m.-8 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 10, and from noon-6 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 11.

Two wrecks

Two traffic accidents were investigated by City Police here the past week.

Last Thursday, Aug. 27, at 6:30 p.m. a 1980 vehicle driven by Rebecca Coronado Garcia, 23, Colorado City, collided with a 1976 Mercury Marquez, driven by Patsy Huckabee McClure of Colorado City. Both vehicles were headed north on Hickory. The Garcia vehicle stopped to turn left and was hit in the rear by the McClure car.

Monday, Aug. 31 about 1:06 p.m. a 1980 Chevrolet Monte Carlo driven by Edward Luera Lozano, 31, of Sweetwater, backed out of a driveway and collided with a 1977 Ford LTD, parked across the street in 2100 block of Lucust. The parked car was owned by Jo Ann Dering, Colorado City.

POUND PUPPY - Speckles, a three-month-old female part Blue Heeler, is available for adoption from the City Pound located at the Mitchell County Veterinary Hospital, Highway 208 South. For more information about her or other pets available for adoption, call 728-8055.

42 expected to die on highways during Labor Day holiday

AUSTIN - The Texas Department of Public Safety is estimating that as many as 42 persons will die in traffic accidents during the 78-hour Labor Day period. The period begins at 6 p.m. Friday, Sept. 4, and ends at midnight on Monday, Sept. 7.

"We are seeing a decline of approximately 13 percent in traffic fatalities reported in Texas so far this year compared to the same period last year," said DPS Director Leo Gossett. "I'm hopeful that we'll be able to add 1987 to the downward trend in Texas traffic deaths which began in 1982."

There were 48 deaths reported at the end of the 1986 Labor Day in Texas. The addition of later deaths due to injuries received during the period raised the final count to 51. Thirty-eight of the 51 deaths resulted from accidents where speed or DWI was a contributing factor.

"The new state law which prohibits consumption of alcoholic beverages while driving went into effect today," Gossett reminded motorists Tuesday. "Violators of this statute are now subject to receiving citations from our troopers and may face a maximum fine of $200."

George Gustafson, spokesman for the Texas Coalition for Safety Belts and president of the Texas Safety Association, joined the DPS in cautioning drivers.

"Texas motorists can do a lot to make the Labor Day weekend safer simply by buckling up and, in addition, securing their young passengers in child restraints," said Gustafson.

Additional troopers will be placed on duty during the Labor Day driving period to enforce traffic laws and assist motorists.

The DPS Public Information Office will be providing updated traffic fatality counts three times each day during the Labor Day period.

New law takes affect

Texas notaries assumed important new responsibilities on Sept. 1 under a new law that changed how a wide range of businesses and professions use notaries and handle official documents.

According to W.A. Ruhmann, president of the Texas Notary Public Association, the new law "greatly enhances the professional status of the notary public."

"At the same time," he said, "it imposes serious new duties on notaries and TNPA is concerned that notaries are informed of their new responsibilities."

"The association," he said, "is offering a series of seminars around the state. They will explain the new statute and how it affects notaries - and their new relationship with the people who employ them, including banks, auto dealers, real estate firms and law firms, among others."

The seminars will explain the stricter standards of accountability - including how to avoid civil or criminal liability - and the guarantees it provides for the autonomy and professionalism of the notary in dealings with clients and the general public.

"The law is very specific about what a notary may and may not do," said Ruhmann.

Notaries and persons considering becoming notaries are encouraged to contact the association about arranging a seminar in their city. They can obtain details by writing TNPA at P.O. Box 26865, Austin, Texas 78755-0865.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Burt and two brothers, Joe and George Burt, and an infant son, Frank Solomon.

Pallbearers and honorary pallbearers were her grandsons and great-grandsons - Ricky, Charlie and Rex Solomon, Rusty Whalley and David Johnson, all of Odessa, James and Douglas Wyatt of San Antonio and Daniel Rackley of Corpus Christi.

Get into action with 4-H

The new 4-H year starts soon, so now is an excellent time to make a commitment to join this action-oriented organization, says Mike Mauldin, Mitchell County extension agent and county 4-H program coordinator with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

4-H is a national program for all youth between the ages of 9 and 19 regardless of race, color, ethnic background, economic status or cultural differences. In Texas, you can join 4-H when you enroll in the third grade, regardless of your age. The Texas 4-H program is administered by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The purpose of 4-H is to develop leadership and character in young people, Mauldin said. 4-Hers learn by doing through actively working on projects and participating in club meetings and 4-H activities.

4-H clubs are organized in such places as rural, suburban and urban neighborhoods. Groups may be organized among neighborhood families in one or two city blocks, housing complexes or anywhere they are needed.

Youth can participate in a variety of projects in 4-H, such as foods, clothing, animal projects, electricity, photography, arts and crafts, and many, many others. In fact, almost anything you want can be a project, said Mauldin.

Most important, 4-H is a lot of fun! Where else can you get together with other people your age and have fun while you learn? Boys and girls in 4-H are always on the move doing something and participating in various activities. For instance, the 4-H shooting sports project attracts numerous youngsters each year who are interested in learning to shoot and observe gun safety. Livestock projects give youngsters a chance to be responsible for an animal and enter stock shows where they learn competitiveness and sportsmanship. 4-Hers can even learn to make their own clothes through clothing projects.

Other 4-H activities such as the Share-the-Fun give youngsters the chance to participate in organized recreation, said Mauldin. County 4-H Fun Day, Day Camp or Rally Day is the time for playing games and making new friends. Members in 4-H can go on trips, take tours of interesting and educational places and help finance their college education with scholarships awarded through 4-H.

Boosting the 4-H program is the private sector which provides resources of money, personnel and materials for the advancement of 4-H is a valuable educational program for America's youth, Mauldin said.

Remember, you are what you want to be in 4-H. It is educational, interesting, challenging and lots of fun.

For more details on 4-H and how to join in on upcoming activities for the new club year, contact the county extension office, said Mauldin.

Baby shower honors Mrs. Morton

Mrs. Scott Morton was honored with a baby shower Thursday night at the community room in the tax building in Westbrook. Pink and blue streamers and balloons held by pink and blue satin bows decorated the party room.

The serving table was laid with a white lace cloth over pink. An arrangement of pink and white carnations with blue baby mums and baby's breath centered the table.

Mrs. Barbara Casey served pink frosted punch from a chrysanthemum punch bowl. Other refreshments were assorted cookies decorated with pink and blue booties, nuts and candies.

Hostesses were Ruth, Hollis, Barbara Casey, Diane Petty, Bess Lamb, Linda and Katie Walls, Gracie Ponce and from Big Spring, Susan Srelton and Vickie Briggs.

Twenty-five guests registered from Westbrook, Colorado City, Big Spring and China Grove.

Mrs. Morton is the former Elizabeth Burnett.

After-school program underway

The Colorado City Schools are still accepting children in the After-School Program, at Kelley Elementary. Students remain at Kelley Elementary and are bused from Hutchinson Elementary to Kelley daily. The supervised informal program includes a snack, recreation and enrichment activities for grades Kindergarten through five. The instructor is Jessie Neslon.

The fee is $12 per child per week. For families with more than one child, the fee is $12 for the first child and $8 for each additional participant and must be paid for one week in advance. We accept "drop-in" students with 24 hour notice for a fee of $2.50 per day per child. Program will be from 2:30 to 5 p.m.

The program is limited to 20 children. The project will follow the school calendar and will provide all-day care at Wallace Center on teachers in-service days. For regular participants there will be an additional fee of $2.50 and $5 for drop-ins.

Questions? Call 728-2392, Community Education office at Wallace Center.

Mitchell County Retired Teachers will have their first meeting Tuesday at noon at the Villa Restaurant.

ARMY PRIVATE Robert W. Ballard, son of Loretta Johnson of Colorado City, has completed basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. During the training, students received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, and Army history and traditions. He is a 1986 graduate of Colorado High School.

Retirees Explore Second Career Through H&R Block's Tax Course

Many retirees take their initial step toward a second career with the H&R Block Income Tax Course. The course offers ideal training for men and women who want to supplement their retirement income and learn about the 1987 tax reform changes. It offers enrollees an profitable way to use their spare time, and to make new friends. Graduates of the course learn a practical skill they can put to immediate use.

H&R Block, the nation's largest income tax preparation firm, has offered the course for more than 30 years. This year's course starts on September 9.

Experienced Block instructors guide students through various aspects of income tax preparation. Classwork includes discussion, practice problems, and hands-on experienced preparing individual tax returns. This year's course will also cover the new tax laws and regulations for 1987.

Qualified tax course graduates may be offered job interviews for positions with Block. Many Block employees find the flexible hours a plus. However, Block is under no obligation to offer employment, nor are graduates under any obligation to accept employment with Block.

One low fee includes all materials, supplies, and textbooks. Students who successfully complete the course receive certificates and 7.5 continuing education units. For more information about the course and registration form, contact the H&R Block office at 816 W. Broadway, Sweetwater, Texas, 235-3577.

Gymnastics program scheduled

A new gymnastics program will begin September 26 in the Hutchinson PE building with Kay Porter as certified instructor.

Classes will be held on Saturday mornings for children age three and over. Ages 3-5 will meet from 9:30-10:30 a.m.; ages 6-8 at 10:30-11:30 a.m.; and ages 8 and over at 11:30-12:30 p.m.

After the first six weeks session, the fee will be $25 ($10 for additional child) for four weeks. Students must be registered at Wallace Center by Thursday, September 24.

Basic instruction in tumbling and floor exercises will be offered. Classes will advance to other instruction later in the year. This is an excellent class for cheerleaders and future cheerleaders.

Notice: For the first session, the class will run for six weeks with an added fee of $37.50 for the first child and $15 for each additional child.

Enroll early. We must have twenty-five students to start the class.

For more information, call the community education office, 728-2392.

Beginning computer class is scheduled

A beginning computer class will begin Tuesday, September 15 with Debbie Goforth as instructor.

Classes will meet at the Colorado Middle School each Tuesday from 6-7:30 p.m. for five weeks. Tuition is $20 for the course. A certificate will be given upon completion of the course upon request.

A Saturday computer class will also be offered on September 26, from 9-12 and 1-5 p.m. The fee for this session is $20.

The classes will include computer language, elementary terms, vocabulary, and application of the computer to individual use. Apple computers will be used in the class.

Each session will be limited to 10 students. Enroll early to avoid disappointment.

Pre-registration must be made at Wallace Center by September 15, 4 p.m. For more information call 728-2392.

CPR course offered Sept. 29

A CPR course (cardio pulmonary resuscitation) will be offered September 29, 6-10 p.m. at the Wallace Center. Instructor will be Andy Arnold, with the Sweetwater EMT Paramedics, through TSTI.

The four-hour class will follow the American Red Cross requirements for certification in this life-saving technique.

We must have 12 persons enrolled to start the class. The tuition is $15. For more information, call 728-2392.

Tax increases to take effect

The tax and fee increases that have been approved this year will go into effect at various times over the next several months. The schedule is as follows:

SEPT. 1

Petroleum pioneers reunion slated Oct. 30 in Midland

The 15th biennial reunion of the Permian Basin Petroleum Pioneers Association is scheduled for Friday, Oct. 30, at the Midland Holiday Country Villa, announced Decker Dawson, association chairman.

The Permian Basin Petroleum Pioneers is an association made up of persons who actually worked on some job connected with the exploration, development, production, transportation or processing departments of the oil and gas business in the Permian Basin 30 years or more prior to October first of the year in which the application for membership was made. The purpose of the biennial reunion is to bring together those members in celebration of the oil industry and to keep alive the history that made the industry great.

The reunion will begin on Friday morning with an informal coffee during registration. The men's luncheon will be at the Holiday Inn Country Villa ballroom with a special guest speaker to be announced. The women's luncheon will be held at Midland Country Club with well-known Dallas media personality Susie Humphries as guest speaker. The day's activities will culminate with an evening reception at the Holiday Inn Country Villa ballroom. The cost for all the day's activities is $10 per person.

The event is for association members and their spouses or widows. Any persons interested in joining the Permian Basin Petroleum Pioneers Association should contact the Midland Chamber of Commerce, 683-3381.

History museum grants available from Texas Historical Commission

AUSTIN - History museums interested in securing assistance with the preservation, conservation and interpretation of collections have until Jan. 11, 1988, to apply for grants administered by the Texas Historical Commission.

The monies, appropriated by the state legislature for the 1988-89 biennium, total $24,275. Of that amount, almost $14,000 will be used to fund 1988 projects. Funding may be applied to special projects including, but not limited to, the following:

- developing conservation methods;
- obtaining technical assistance;
- training staff;
- developing educational programs, and;

• acquiring archival supplies.

Applications may be submitted for up to 50 percent of a project's cost, providing the request does not exceed $1,000. Museums must provide the remaining 50 percent of the cost, either in matching funds or a combination of funds and in-kind services. In-kind services may not exceed one-half of a museum's contribution. The THC will give favorable consideration to applicants that indicate strong community support by raising funds at the local level.

The deadline for the 1988 grant requests is 5 p.m. on Jan. 11. Five copies of the application must be submitted.

Wolves, Tigers split JV, freshman games

Last quarter scores at Slaton Thursday decided high school football games between Colorado City and the Tigers as the Wolves won a junior varsity game 3-0 and dropped a 14-8 decision in a freshmen game. Sophomore Dane Hoover kicked a 22-yard field with four seconds left to give the Wolves the junior varsity win. Hoover had earlier missed another shot at a field goal.

The winning drive was one of just two penetrations into the twenty yard line by either. The Wolves got inside the Slaton 30 yard line on another possession but fumbled the ball.

"We had a real good defensive effort," said coach Jerold Epperson. "Outside linebacker Jesse Franco, middle linebacker Adon DeLoera and end Ray Sutton had real good games."

"DeLoera had an interception and was in on about every tackle. Gabriel Ornelas also had an interception."

"Offensively backs Scott Pennell and Bobby Arocha ran real good."

Quarterback Ken Land's completion to Mark Alvidrez got the Wolves within range for Land's game winning kick. Back Manual Martinez almost broke loose for a score just prior to

"The team did real good," said Epperson. "They never gave up."

The ninth grade team "fell a little short," said coach Raymond Zamarripa. "We were leading until about two and a half minutes left. They scored on the option twice and ran one extra point attempt to win."

The Tigers took a 6-0 lead on a first quarter score.

The Wolves received the kickoff then marched 60 yards for a score and an 8-6 lead. The scoring play was pass from George Ramsey to Wendell Iglehart. Johnny Pineda ran a lead play for the two extra points.

"It was a total team effort," said Zamarripa. "All 15 played about all the game. I feel we beat them."

Elias Gutierrez and Steve Williams made interceptions for the Wolves. "Ramsey had some good runs along with running backs."

"They intercepted a pass and ran it back to our 10 yard line before scoring (the winning score)."

Freshmen girls win

The Colorado High School volleyball teams won one of three matches at Abilene High Tuesday.

Lady Wolves won 15-10, 15-12 in the freshmen contest and lost 15-3, 15-2 in a junior varsity match and lost a 15-1, 15-3 varsity match.

"The varsity played excellent," said coach Felicia Sanders. "We lost good."

The Lady Wolves led late in the second game after the big loss in the first game. "It takes us a while to get started. I don't know why." Abilene was hitting (spiking) from the middle of the net and we weren't used to it. We don't have any height so I pulled the blockers from the net. We played very well the second game."

"Amber Stephens had a good game. She's our setter and served particularly well. Laura Alvarez did a good jog. She had a good consistent game on serves, hits and defense."

Holiday delays game reports

Due to the Labor Day holiday Monday, The Record had to observe an earlier deadline, and was not able to publish the reports of the local football games in this issue. They will appear in the Thursday issue.

However, in the future The Record will be able to have the game reports in the Sunday issues.

REVIEW

The play features many fine voices, especially that of Shelton, who as Freddy Eynsford-Hill, falls madly in love with Eliza and sings "On the Street Where You Live".

Members of the chorus who handle a variety of roles (back stage must be a madhouse with all the costume changes), include Virginia Dearen, Julius E. Early, Mike Gorman, Mary Lynn Hackleman, Linda Hearin, Ruben Hurt, Talva Hurt, Karan Johns, Elaine Kelly, Tom Kelly, Mark Molina, Amy Moore, Marsha Moore, Coleen Palmer, Connie Penland, Anita Richardson, Stacie Smith, Trey Smith, Beth Swindle, Gloria Swindle, Frank Swindle, Carole Troha, Melodie Way, Kent Womack, Clay Yancy and Ginger Zamarripa.

Credit must be given to those in charge of costumes. The costumes are lavish, especially during the Ascot race scene and during the embassy ball scene.

The sets are equally as lavish and are a tribute to the creators who managed to create sets that could be changed quickly during the 17 scenes in the two acts.

Credit also must be given to the orchestra which keeps the musical flowing. Directed by David Sims, the orchestra is composed of June Kimmel, Kathy Bassham, Porter Richardson, Gus Armstrong, Bob Newman, Shelley Blassingame, Ann Kimmel and David Jones.

The production of "My Fair Lady" is more than fair - it's excellent and shouldn't be missed.

"My Fair Lady" continues Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday nights at the Opera House, 337 Walnut. Curtain time is 8 p.m. Tickets are $7.50 each and may be reserved by calling 728-3491.

The inpatient surgery program at the Big Spring Veterans Administration Medical Center will be continued, Cong. Charles W. Stenholm (D-Texas) announced.

Surgical services at the hospital were in jeopardy after the Medical District Initiated Program Planning Process proposed eliminating the program. Carrying out that proposal would have proven a hardship for area veterans, who are hundreds of miles from the next VA hospital, Stenholm said. In addition to the long distances, Stenholm cited the depressed economic conditions facing West Texans as another reason to keep the services available.

Now a member of the Veterans Affairs Committee, Stenholm personally asked Cong. Sonny Montgomery (D-Miss.), chairman of Veterans Affairs Committee, for his assistance in retaining the facility's inpatient unit. The area representative and Montgomery then asked Administrator of Veterans Thomas K. Turnage to consider the major improvements that have occurred in the few months since Conrad Alexander has become the hospital administrator.

In recent months, the average daily inpatient census and the number of outpatient visits have increased markedly," said Stenholm, the dean of the West Texas delegation. "Veterans have reacted positively to the attitude of the staff, internal improvements throughout the medical center and innovative methods of delivering healthcare, such as the Abilene VA Follow-up Clinic. I have every confidence that such progress will continue."

In a letter to Stenholm, Turnage agreed that Administrator Alexander, Chief of Staff Robert Jones and Associate Director Hank Burnine should be given an opportunity to bring the Big Spring hospital to its fullest potential. Recently, the hospital patient census registered an approximate 50 percent increase.

In his letter, Turnage stated, "The vast geography and rural character of the Big Spring service area create special demands, that, I believe, justify the special attention we are giving these matters. Our overall objective is to enhance the level of medical services available in the area, consistent with improved productivity and cost efficiency."

Stenholm said he was pleased with the VA's decision to leave the Big Spring unit intact. "I'm glad they followed our recommendation to retain the quality, surgical services that are warranted and deserved by the veterans of this country. This decision is a plus for Big Spring and for all West Texas veterans."

3 juveniles arrested here

Three 14-year-old Snyder boys were arrested here last Sunday for unauthorized use of a motor vehicle after the motorcycle they were riding was found to be stolen from Snyder.

Police Chief Bobby Sparks said Officer Jerry Rutherford observed the three youths acting in a suspicious manner about 6 a.m. Sunday. Upon investigation, he discovered that the motorcycle they were riding was reported stolen from Snyder.

The youths were taken into custody and turned over to juvenile authorities. The motorcycle has been returned to its owners.

Forfeited land sale raises $1.5 million for program

AUSTIN - The Texas Veterans Land Board announced that 68 tracts of state land were sold in a forfeited land sale with winning bids totaling $1,501,168.87 for a total of 1,234.53 acres.

The board certified the results of the sale Monday with a public reading of the sealed bids. Successful bidders will be notified by mail within one week.

Since the beginning of the Texas Veterans Land Program in 1949, approximately 100,000 Texas veterans have received long-term, low-interest loans through the program. Fewer than one percent of the loans have become delinquent.

Tracts failing to receive bids will be offered for sale to the general public at the next sale. The next forfeited land sale has been tentatively scheduled for November of this year.

The highest bid of $38,248.88 was submitted on a 11.33-acre tract in Kaufman County by Johnnie F. Cook of Seagoville.

Nine bids were received on a 22.02-acre tract in Franklin County, the largest single number of bids received in any one tract. The tract was purchased by Pete W. Smith of Irving with a high bid of $31,333.

The Texas Veterans Land Program has always been a self-sustaining program that has never cost the taxpayers a single penny," said Texas Land Commissioner Garry Mauro, who also serves as chairman of the Texas Veterans Land Board.

It's unfortunate when it becomes necessary to conduct a forfeited tract sale," Mauro said. "But a fair and aggressive policy toward delinquencies is necessary if we are to continue to offer generous terms to our veterans through this excellent program."

For information on the forfeited land sale tentatively scheduled for November, call toll-free 1-800-252-VETS.

New safety, health measures go into effect

AUSTIN - Many pieces of legislation impacting the safety and health of Texans went into effect Aug. 31 and Sept. 1, George R. Gustafson, president of the Texas Safety Association, said.

The measures include both on- and off-the-job safety.

Driving Safety Courses

Substantial changes occurred in statutes governing the dismissal of traffic safety violations via completing a driving safety course.

According to Gustafson, the changes are expected to curb some of the abuses that are counterproductive to traffic safety.

The revised statute will allow a court fee of no more than $10 including any costs by a city ordinance, and it will reinforce the Department of Public Safety's administrative oversight of such programs. The changes also provide some consumer benefits such as mandated advising of the right to take a driving safety course in lieu of paying the fine and prohibiting insurance companies from raising rates or cancelling a policy merely because the insured took the course.

In addition, the statute (1) requires that a person on or before the answer date enter a plea of No Contest or Guilty and present to the court an oral or written request to take a driving safety course; (2) requires filing of an affidavit regarding the person's not being in the process of taking a course or having completed one not yet reflected on the driving record; (3) disallows dismissal in cases of speeding 25 mph or more over the posted limit; and (4) allows dismissal of one charge per course.

Alcohol/Traffic Safety

Gustafson noted that a few more steps were made toward curbing the still-too evident DWI problem. Beginning August 31, 1987, it will no longer be legal to drink while driving.

Effective September 1 courts may require use of a deep-lung breath analysis mechanism by a person whose license has been suspended for second or subsequent DWI offense. The device registers blood alcohol level and requires a series of actions to start the vehicle. The probationer will have to bear the expense of obtaining the device.

The Legislature also addressed dram shop liability including a new emphasis on server training. Under the revised statute the employer cannot be held responsible for damages occurring as a result of his or her employee serving an intoxicated person, if the employer has required the employee to take an approved course of server training and if the employee has indeed taken the course. Various sections and provisions of this legislation have different effective dates.

Several driver's licensing measures are expected to help curb underage drinking.

One bill changed the statutes regarding penalties for manufacture, sale, or possession of a false driver's license.

Another addresses the offense of fraudulently or illegally obtaining a driver's license.

In the future the face of the license of underage drivers will be marked in letters of at least 1/4 inch and in red ink "under 21."

Action was also taken to discourage campus hazing incidents, which so often involve alcohol abuse. The new statute defines hazing (including forced consumption of alcohol) and provides penalties. It applies to a public or private high school or college, university, or other postsecondary educational establishment. Offenses include engaging in, encouraging, directly aiding, permitting, and failing to report hazing.

Truck Safety

Texas joins the growing national efforts for improved truck safety with its industry-backed omnibus truck safety legislation passed this session, along with the measures required by the Commercial Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1986 (federal legislation which will prohibit multiple driver's licenses and addresses many other aspects of commercial motor vehicle safety).

The new state law (1) gives DPS authority to adopt Federal Motor Carrier Safety regulations and Hazardous Material regulations for the safe operation of motor carriers and transportation of hazardous materials; (2) requires that the regulations address the physical condition of the driver and safe condition of the equipment; (3) requires assurance of ability to pay for damages; (4) applies to all segments of the trucking industry; (5) allows DPS to detain and inspect; and (6) allows a peace officer (certified by DPS for this purpose) of cities of 300,000 or more to detain and inspect trucks on a street or highway in the city. The statute is effective January 1, 1988.

Other Traffic Safety

A measure regulating the darkness of tinting for windshields and windows of vehicles also passed. The statute exempts for hire vehicles and vehicles of model years before 1988. The offense applies to operating, affixing a device, selling, or offering to sell a vehicle in violation of the new specifications. The effective dates vary for some provisions of this legislation.

Occupational Safety and Health

Occupational accident prevention was addressed from several perspectives including (1) enhanced emphasis on accident prevention services by workers compensation insurers; (2) incentives for safety via reductions in premiums based on experience rating and compliance with accident prevention programs; and (3) intensified employer responsibility for accident prevention, especially in respect to construction projects.

For construction projects involving trench excavation exceeding a depth of 5 feet, municipalities will be required to include in bid documents and contracts detailed plans and specifications meeting Occupational Safety and Health Administration requirements for trench safety and a pay item for them. If the municipality has a building code, these items must be included in the code.

It was also the session for action on asbestos. The Texas Department of Health will be licensing entities which remove or encapsulate asbestos. Some extensive education and record keeping will be required.

The Loraine Independent School District offers vocational programs in Vocational Agriculture, Useful Home Economics, and Vocational Adjustment classes.

Admission in these programs is based on grade level placement, prior attendance records, grades in course work (if applicable), and individual educational plans (IEP's).

It is the policy of the Loraine Independent School District not to discriminate on the basis of sex, handicap, race, color, or national origin in its educational and vocational program, activities, and employment as required by Title IX, Section 504 and Title VI.

The Loraine Independent School District will take steps to assure that lack of English language skills will not be a barrier to admission and participation in all educational and vocational programs. For information about your rights or grievance procedures, contact the Title IX Coordinator and/or section 504 Coordinator, Glenn Sanders, Box 457, Loraine, Texas 79532, 915-737-2225.

Various events scheduled across state

The following events, selected by Mari Schnell of the Tourism Division of the Texas Dept. of Commerce, are but a few of the many excellent opportunities offered by communities across the state.

Sept. 4-5 - Oatmeal Festival, Bertram/Oatmeal. Years ago, the town of Oatmeal was left off the state map, but after much hoopla and petitions by nearby Bertram, Oatmeal was again shown on the map. The two communities join together in celebration of this momentous event with crowning of oatmeal royalty, oatmeal cookoff and flaky contests. There will be parades, fun run, arts, crafts, music, food and a street dance. Admission free. Details from Oatmeal Festival, Box 70, Bertram 78605 (512-355-2197).

Sept. 5-7 - Alamo Village's 27th Labor Day Weekend, Brackettville. A rip-roaring weekend is planned in the frontier town built for John Wayne's epic, "The Alamo." The Alamo facade was recently refurbished for the movie "The Price of Freedom" filmed for the new giant-screened IMAX theatre to be built in San Antonio. Shoot-outs, stage-coach rides and live entertainment bring the Old West alive as visitors saunter through an old-time jail, cantina and other frontier buildings. On Monday, enjoy barbeque ($5) while waiting for the Cowboy Horse Races. Daily admission: $5 adults; $2.50 children 6-11, under 6 free. For more information contact Alamo Village, Box 258, Brackettville 78832 (512-563-2580).

Sept. 12 - Kolache Festival, Caldwell. Celebration of the Czech heritage of this Central Texas community features colorful costumes, music, dancing, museum exhibits, arts, crafts, quilt show, antique cars, ethnic foods and old world craft demonstrations. Highlight will be the County and State Champion competition in baking kolaches, small wedding pastries with fruit or meat fillings. Free admission. More details from Chamber of Commerce, Box 126, Caldwell 77836 (409-567-3218).

Sept. 13 - Family Fun Day, Heard Natural Science Museum & Wildlife Sanctuary, McKinney. Special lectures with live animals will enhance the museum's natural history exhibits and nature prints by Bessie Heard (Miss Bess celebrated her 101st birthday this year). Outdoor activities include turtle races, pony and wagon rides, nature games, craft festival and guided 3/4-mile nature trail tours. Barbecue lunch available. Free admission. More information from the museum, Rt. 2 Box 22, McKinney 75069 (214-542-5566).

Sept. 18-19 - National Golden Spur Award Weekend, Lubbock. Livestock Day opens this event with livestock judging, speakers, demonstrations and luncheon. The National Golden Spur Award will be presented to an individual who has made significant contributions to the ranching and livestock industry at the Prairie Party that evening. Ranch Day on Sat. at the 14-acre Ranching Heritage Center, which depicts 100 years of ranching heritage with over 30 restored ranch structures, will feature country music, folk dancing and crafts typical of early ranch life. Free admission (except luncheon and Prairie Party). More information from Ranching Heritage Assoc., Box 4040, Lubbock 79409 (806-742-2498).

Sept. 18-20 - Waterfowl Festival, Eagle Lake. Big happenings in the area noted for its duck and goose hunting during the migratory waterfowl season includes duck and goose calling contests, hunting dog field trials, wildlife art show, gumbo cookoff, craft and food booths and an auction. Free tours of the Attwater National Prairie Chicken refuge, sanctuary of the endangered native Texan fowl and numerous other birds. Details from Waterfowl Festival, Box 855, Eagle Lake 77434 (409-234-5496).

Sept. 18-20 - Republic of Texas Chilympiad, San Marcos. Five state chili cookoffs offer competition in several divisions, with showmanship as important as the recipe. Winner of the CASI-santioned Men's State Cookoff on Sat. is eligible to enter the international competition Nov. 7 in Terlingua. (Ladies State Cookoff will be held Oct. 3 at the General Store in Luckenbach.) Other divisions include junior, collegiate, media and chambers of commerce. There will be exhibits, food and continuous entertainment, plus big-name country/western concerts each night. General admission: $3.25-5.50 adults; children under 12 free. Concerts: $5.25-10.50. More information from Chilympiad Headquarters, Box 188, San Marcos 78667 (512-396-5400).

Sept. 21-26 - 65th Tri-State Fair, Amarillo Centennial, Amarillo. Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico entrants compete in livestock (including longhorns), agricultural, aquarium, culinary, textile and other divisions. Also scheduled is a parade, horse shows, sheep dog trials, pig races, carnival, exhibits, and special activities in celebration of Amarillo's 100th birthday. Special concerts by George Jones and Michael Martin Murphy ($10 each) and daily free entertainment. General admission: $3.50; Parking $2. Tickets and schedule from Tri-State Fair, Box 31087, Amarillo 79120 (806-376-7767).
