The SDN Column

Picked up from the mail:

"Old Wives' Tales" have played a role in the history of mankind, and, according to the Health Insurance Institute, many of them endure today. Although usually harmless, they are mostly of little real value, and some could be dangerous by providing a false sense of security.

For example, take these admonitions with a grain of salt, or better still, ignore them, advises the Institute, because they are misleading:

"A steady diet of red meat will cause high blood pressure."

"Physical exercise will reduce overweight."

"The primary cause of diabetes is eating too much sugar."

"Never eat pickles and ice cream together."

"Wearing glasses will weaken your eyes."

"You shouldn't leave food in an opened tin can."

"Soap is bad for the hair."

"Thumb-sucking will cause crooked teeth."

"Salt is bad for people."

"It is better to blow your nose than sniff."

"You should not pick your teeth."

"It is good (or bad) to suppress a sneeze."

And then there is one of many letters received almost daily from people, or syndicates, trying to sell new columns for publication, which begins: "As you know, Los Angeles is the music capital of the world..."

No, we didn't know.

The next sentence sheds some light on this appraisal, as he notes: "I live in Los Angeles."

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Tuesday, May 20, the 140th day of 1975. There are 225 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1862, President Abraham Lincoln signed the Homestead Act, providing millions of acres of free land to settlers in the American West.

On this date:

In 1506, Christopher Columbus died in Spain.

In 1861, North Carolina voted to secede from the Union.

In 1834, the French hero of the American Revolution, Marquis de Lafayette, died.

In 1927, Charles Lindbergh began his solo flight across the Atlantic to Paris.

In 1943, during World War II, the U.S. and Britain ratified a treaty abolishing extra-territorial rights in China.

In 1946, Britain's House of Commons passed a bill to nationalize the nation's coal mines.

Ten years ago: U.S. planes dropped hundreds of thousands of leaflets over North Vietnam, appealing to North Vietnamese soldiers to end the war in South Vietnam.

Five years ago: Speaker of the House John McCormack announced he would retire from Congress at the end of the current session.

One year ago: Federal Judge John Sirica rejected White House arguments and ordered President Nixon to turn over Watergate tapes and other records subpoenaed by the special prosecutor.

TOP SENIORS AT SHS—Pam Underwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Underwood, is valedictorian, and Billy Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Murray, is the salutatorian of the Snyder High School graduating class of 1975. The identity of the two top seniors was disclosed this morning at the annual awards assembly in the SHS Auditorium.

TOP SENIORS ANNOUNCED

SHS Awards Made For 1974-75 Achievements

Dozens of students at Snyder High School were honored this morning for outstanding achievements during the school year at the annual awards assembly program held in the school auditorium.

Valedictorian of the senior class is Pamela Ann Underwood, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Underwood, 3000 Austin. She had a grade point average of 95.12. Salutatorian is Billy Keith Murray, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill J. Murray, 200 Thirty-third Street. He had a 94.57 grade point average. Both students were recognized by Principal Horrace Bostick.

Juniors in the "Top 10" are William Loy Sullenger, Deanna Myers, Beverly Fay Sullenger, David Bradley Vaughan, Donald Randal Gressett, Connie Diane Miller, Kerry Lynn Musick, Jeri Ann Bavousett, Karen Sue Jones, and Gregory Arthur Kane.

There was a tie among "Top 10" students in the sophomore class; consequently, 11 were honored. They are Terri Kay Eaton, Deborah Ann Inman, DeLena Caye Vickers, Bobby Dwayne Hanks, Lee Allen Jarrell, Trussha Renee Farquahr, Patricia Diane Stewart, Debbie Lynn Smithee, Kay Lynn Ellington, Steve Royce Wiman and Julia Dawn Glass.

Stanley Walker, representing the Society of Petroleum Engineers, presented a calculator and plaque to Charles G. Anderson Jr., in recognition of his being named the outstanding science student at Snyder High School. The other science award, a $400 scholarship, will be made at commencement exercises.

Program Fund Cuts Refected

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Texas representatives, debating an $81.9 billion two-year state budget bill, today rejected attempts to cut funding for arts and humanities programs and regional planning.

Consideration of the bill was interrupted by fatigue, hunger and committee schedules at 9 p.m. Monday and resumed this morning.

Rep. Tim Von Dohlen, D-Goliad, tried to switch $200,000 from the Texas Commission on the Arts and Humanities to a program of rural industrial development loans.

"They're doing an excellent job. This is not a slap at them," Von Dohlen said of the arts agency. But, he added, the $200,000 rural loan program is about out of money. He said it created 703 jobs, plus a tax-paying potential of $125,000 a year.

Rep. Neil Caldwell, D-Angleton, former appropriations committee chairman and an accomplished artist and sculptor, said the arts and humanities had been neglected too long.

"We rank just behind Guam—93rd—in our interest as evidenced by the amount of money we spend on the arts and humanities," Caldwell said. "If you are going to take the money from some place, don't pick on the cripples. These people have been crippled long enough."

AFTER RED TAKEOVER

Portugal Shuts Down Newspaper

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — The government today shut down the Socialist party newspaper Republica pending a decision by a special press tribunal on the seizure of the newspaper by Communist workers.

A spokesman for the information ministry said the newspaper, Lisbon's only non-Communist daily, must cease publication until the court rules on the dispute.

The decision to close the paper came after a visit by high government officials while Socialists kept vigil through the night outside the offices.

Paratroopers rushed to the building by the leftist military government barred the Socialists from entering the building to drive the Communists printers out.

Led by party chief Mario Soares, a minister without portfolio in the government, scores of Socialists spent the night in a drizzling rain outside the building. Soares threatened to take his party out of the cabinet unless it regains the paper.

Speaking from the roof of a car, Soares told his supporters: "The seizure was illegal, against the press law and all that the Portuguese revolution stands for. The paper was taken over by a minority. It is our duty to stay here, to defend our liberty.

"Our patience has its limits," he warned when told that the printers balked at carrying out an agreement to clear the building. Leaders of the typographical union and the Socialist editorial staff, bargaining under the supervision of an army major, reportedly agreed that the building would be cleared and sealed off while the government decided who should get control of the paper.

The printers reportedly told the editor of the paper, 69-year-old Raul Rego, that his ideology was incorrect. Rego was imprisoned three times by the fascist dictatorship that the army overthrew last year.

Meanwhile, the 240 officers of the Armed Forces Movement, the parent assembly of the regime, ended a special meeting without launching an expected purge of moderates in the group.

Instead the AFM declared it was ready to "intensify its direct links with all popular structures ... and to overcome partisan struggles in the battle for production."

The assembly also announced it was setting up a revolutionary tribunal and 12-man jury to try persons implicated in the unsuccessful rightist counter-coup on March 11.

Kissinger, Gromyko End Talks On Arms, Mideast

By KENNETH J. FREED
Associated Press Writer

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko ended two days of talks on arms limitation and the Middle East today.

Kissinger said the two would meet again in the near future but did not name a place or date.

The two ministers emerged from the Soviet Embassy after almost six hours of discussions — an hour longer than scheduled — and told reporters they had "a good and constructive meeting."

They did not reveal details of their discussion but said a communique would be issued later tonight.

U.S. officials said earlier the two had planned to discuss the pace of the SALT negotiations in Geneva for another strategic arms limitation treaty, and the Middle East situation.

The American secretary was asked whether a compromise was achieved concerning the controversial issue of verification of missiles with multiple warheads, the so-called MIRVs. Kissinger made no direct reply, but Gromyko who stood next to Kissinger said, "This is only a small detail."

Kissinger was to leave for Bonn, West Germany, later in the day. Gromyko was scheduled to leave Vienna on Wednesday.

During their five-hour meeting Monday, Kissinger warned against Russian attempts to exploit American failures in Indochina.

Kissinger and Gromyko began Monday with a 75-minute session in which they faced each other with only their interpreters present.

U.S. officials said Kissinger warned Gromyko against trying to take advantage of the American setbacks in Vietnam and Cambodia by challenging U.S. commitments elsewhere. He called Gromyko's attention to a speech Kissinger made last week in St. Louis, Mo., in which he warned Moscow against adventurism stemming from a mistaken belief in American weakness, the sources said.

Gromyko objected previously to the St. Louis speech, criticizing Kissinger by name for preaching détente on the one hand and calling for increased U.S. military strength on the other.

U.S. sources said Kissinger gave a new warning to the Russians to underline the Ford administration's determination to keep Moscow from testing the American resolve elsewhere.

Following their private meeting Monday, Kissinger and Gromyko called in their experts on Europe and strategic nuclear arms for a look at specific issues of détente.

Ship Captors Seeking Asylum In Thailand

By The Associated Press

Cambodian navy men who sailed a 175-foot subchaser to Thailand seeking asylum claim theirs was the vessel that captured the American freighter Mayaguez last week, officials in Bangkok and Washington report.

Pathet Lao troops took over the southern Laos city of Savannakhet today, and a dozen Americans held in loose arrest there by left-wing students were reported "just fine." Thousands of townspeople cheered the Communist-led troops, and rightist troops joined the victory parade.

The takeover of Savannakhet, which previously had been under control of Laotian rightists, came after two weeks of political upheaval in which the right-wing faction of the coalition government surrendered political power to the Communist-led Pathet Lao and neutralists.

Observers believe the entire country will fall to the Pathet Lao, which was reported moving into Pakse, another Mekong River town in southeast Laos.

The Thai navy, in a one-sentence statement, said it had impounded a gunboat flying the flag of the old Cambodian government and disarmed and detained 10 crew members.

The fleeing Cambodians reportedly arrived at Sattahip, on the Gulf of Thailand, last Thursday, the day U.S. Marines and planes rescued the Mayaguez and her crew of 39. However, there were conflicting reports as to whether this was the boat involved with the Mayaguez.

Mayaguez Capt. Charles T. Miller said Saturday the Cambodian boat involved was a "motor torpedo boat," but U.S. government sources said the Mayaguez was captured by two small gunboats. The captain's log identified the vessel as bearing the number P128, but the boat reaching Thailand was reported to be numbered E311. It was not known whether this could have been a second vessel mentioned by the crew.

The Americans and six other foreigners in Savannakhet were placed under loose arrest when students sacked the compound of the Agency for International Development last Wednesday. They demanded an end to U.S. influence in the area and of rightist control of the town.

The U.S. Embassy said it was trying to get a statement from the troubled coalition government on its policy toward the aid program, which totals $32.5 million this year. The embassy said it was willing to "modify, reduce or eliminate" the aid. Pathet Lao officials say privately they would like U.S. aid continued, without strings.

Strip Mining Bill Vetoed

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford vetoed a bill to protect the environment against coal strip mining today, saying it would boost unemployment and consumer fuel bills.

"I am unable to sign this bill because as many as 36,000 people would lose jobs when unemployment already is too high," Ford said in his veto message to Congress.

"Consumers would pay higher costs — particularly for electric bills — when consumer costs are already too high," Ford said.

"The nation would be more dependent on foreign oil — when we are already overly dependent and dangerously vulnerable," the President said. "Coal production would be unnecessarily reduced — when this vital domestic energy resource is needed more than ever."

The President included a jab at Congress for not coming up with an acceptable energy program, saying: "America is approaching a more serious domestic energy shortage and we are not facing up to it."

Rainfall Pattern Here Is Erratic

Rumbling thunderstorms with high winds and an occasional tornado kept Texans over a wide area on edge Monday night and early today, and flood watches were posted throughout North Central and Northeast Texas.

Thunderstorms moved through Scurry County late last night, but failed to produce any general rains. The northwest part of the county had the highest rainfall reports, with an inch to 1½ inches reported in and around Fluvanna. There were some reports of rain up to an inch west of Snyder, but the fall at the Lake Thomas dam measured only .70 inch.

Snyder had .24 in the official gauge at the city water plant, while light showers were reported at Ira and only a sprinkle at Hermleigh. Some marble-sized hail was reported around Fluvanna, but there apparently was little damage.

It was not known immediately whether there were significant rains on the Lake Thomas watershed. The lake patrol reported the Colorado River flowing a stream about six inches deep on the west end of the lake early today.

The turbulence stretched from the Panhandle-Plains area deep into the state.

The National Weather Service reported clocking wind gusts up to 80 miles per hour — 5 above minimum hurricane velocity — at both San Angelo in West Central Texas and San Marcos in South Central Texas.

Tornado funnels popped out about dusk around Sabinal, Bandera and Seguin, and a twister spun northwest of Austin in Angus Valley shortly after 5 a.m. today, official observers reported.

Although a tornado watch remained up as late as 3 a.m. for areas from around San Angelo northward into Oklahoma and repeated severe thunderstorm warnings went up, there was no word of injuries or major damage from the vicious winds and tornadoes.

A roof was torn off a house near Fort Stockton in West Texas and hail as big as baseballs pounded the countryside 30 miles east of there.

By early morning gusty winds still lingered in parts of the Texas Panhandle with a few thunderstorms around Childress and Wichita Falls although skies had cleared farther north, and often severe thunderstorms raged downstate in a section embracing San Angelo, Del Rio, San Antonio and Fredericksburg.

Meanwhile generally light rain fell from around Corpus Christi and Kingsville in the south toward Cotulla and Laredo.

And before daylight, as radar detected rainfall at rates exceeding 2 inches per hour, a flash flood watch went up through the day for all of North Central and Northeast Texas — a total of 88 counties — and into tonight for the northeast part of the state.

Forecasters said the increasing thunderstorms carried threats of 2 to 3 inches of rain within three hours, enough to set off floods in places. The alerted areas lay north of a line from San Angelo to Alexandria, La.

Flash Flood Watches Out

By The Associated Press

Increasing thunderstorms caused the National Weather Service to post a flash flood watch today for North Central and Northeast Texas, and it was extended into tonight for the northeast part of the state.

It embraced these 88 counties:

Life Begins at 80

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1975 by Chicago Tribune-N Y News Synd , Inc

DEAR ABBY: I'm sure you get a lot of poems about yourself, but you recently published one from a 91-year-old lady because you were impressed with the fact that she was 91.

We oldsters sure get away with a lot just because we've managed to keep breathing longer than most folks. I have just celebrated my 80th birthday, and I've got it made.

If you forget someone's name or an appointment or what you said yesterday, just explain that you are 80, and you will be forgiven. If you spill soup on your tie or forget to shave half your face or take another man's hat by mistake or promise to mail a letter and carry it around in your pocket for two weeks, say, "I'm 80, you know," and nobody will say a thing.

You have a perfect alibi for everything when you're 80. If you act silly, you're in your second childhood.

Being 80 is much better than being 70. At 70, people are mad at you for everything, but if you make it to 80, you can talk back, argue, disagree and insist on having your own way because everybody thinks you are getting a little soft in the head.

They say that life begins at 40. Not true. If you ask me, life begins at 80.

GOT IT MADE AT 80

DEAR GOT: You are beautiful. Thanks for a dandy day brightener.

DEAR ABBY: My husband commited suicide and left me with a tiny baby.

When people learn that I am a widow, they ask, "What happened to your husband? Cancer? Heart? Or did he die in an accident?"

Abby, I just can't bring myself to tell them that he committed suicide, so I say, "He was sick and died." (He had been under the care of a psychiatrist, so that could be called an illness, couldn't it?)

What should I tell my child when he is old enough to understand?

Please help me, Abby. I have no one else to ask.

YOUNG WIDOW

DEAR WIDOW: The truth is always best. Simply say that your husband was ill (it's true, he was), and he took his own life.

DEAR ABBY: I have an 18-year-old daughter who has a beautiful baby girl.

My daughter and her husband are getting a divorce because he is so immature, there is just no hope for him. (She went back to him twice for the baby's sake, but even the marriage counselor told her to leave him for good.)

My daughter's mother-in-law wants to adopt the baby. She even offered my daughter $2,000 cash for it! My daughter wants to keep her baby, of course, and the baby's father doesn't want it. He wants his mother to have it.

What do you think about a grandmother who would try to BUY her grandchild for adoption?

MARSHALL, TEXAS

DEAR MARSHALL: Not much. In fact, there are laws against buying and selling babies. Your daughter is under no obligation to consider such a proposition.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped (20¢) envelope.

100% Oil Allowable Extended

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The Railroad Commission extended Texas' 100 per cent statewide oil allowable today through June—the 39th consecutive month of all-out production.

Major buyers of Texas crude oil asked for 4,021,168 barrels a day next month, an increase of 4,188 barrels from May.

As usual, the East Texas Field will be restricted to 86 per cent production.

Chairman Ben Ramsey said a "preliminary examination of the crude oil production figures" for March "indicates that Texas production is beginning to stablize and possibly show a slight increase."

Nominations by major purchasers for Texas crude oil in June, in barrels per day, with any changes in Parentheses:

Say Ship Captain Is Missing Dad

TERRA LINDA, Calif. (AP) — A brother and sister say it took 22 years and an international incident to locate the seafaring father they claim is Charles T. Miller, captain of the U.S. merchant ship Mayaguez.

"I tried to get hold of him a number of times like when I got married and when my two children were born," James T. Miller said in an interview Monday. "Now he's got six grandchildren he doesn't know about."

The 34-year-old electrician said he and his mother recognized the captain's voice and face in a television broadcast Saturday after Cambodia released the Mayaguez crew.

"We compared old photos to pictures in the papers," he added. "He's older now, but it's him. No doubt about it. My sister and I are both excited and want to talk to him."

His 28-year-old sister, Cheryl Miller Pedersen, said, "I didn't even know if he was living. When I was born, he and my mother were divorced.

"I was five or so the last time I saw him," she recalled. "He took my brother and me to an Oakland department store and told us to buy anything we wanted for our Christmas presents."

"There's no bitterness towards him," she added. "Things like this happen when people get divorced."

Mrs. Pedersen, now a mother of four, said she was sending a letter to the captain in Hong Kong.

The 62-year-old sea captain's present wife, Ann Miller, of Fountain Valley, Calif., declined to either confirm or deny whether he had been married previously or had children.

"They should ask my husband that," she said.

Sea-Land Company, the Oakland-based owner of the Mayaguez, said the ship would be in Hong Kong for five days, but Miller was not available immediately for comment.

State Awards Won By Snyder Jaycees

Four couples from Snyder were on hand for the state convention of Texas Jaycees and Jaycee-ettes the past weekend in Houston, where they accepted some high awards on behalf of their local clubs.

Snyder Jaycees took first place in the state in "Priority and Major Emphasis with their sponsorship of "Operation Threshold" the past winter on the Western Texas College Campus. This event also won the a "Jake" (top award) in their population division. Snyder Jaycees place second in Health and Safety, and the Snyder unit was named a "Blue Chip" club, when means it ranked in the top 10 per cent in its population division during 1974-75.

The Snyder Jaycees will represent Texas in competition at the national convention with the "Operation Threshold" project. The national convention will be held the first week in June in Miami Beach, Fla.

Snyder Jaycee-ettes received an award of excellence at the state convention and was named a "Blue Chip" club for the past year. They also received two extension awards for work with McCamey and Lamesa Jaycee-ettes.

The Snyder group participated in the election of new state officers. Mike Moore was elected president of Texas Jaycees and Anita DuPount was elected president of Texas Jaycee-ettes.

Those attending the state convention from Snyder were Rodger and Janie Sullenger, Tim and Mary Burton, Tommy and Nancy LaRoux, and Clyde and Cindy Ferguson.

Six Flags Takes Over Astroworld

HOUSTON (AP)- Operation of the $24 million Astroworld entertainment park has been taken over by Six Flags, Inc.

Six Flags, a subsidiary of Great Southwest Corp. of Los Angeles announced Monday it had acquired a 20-year lease on Astroworld which concluded off-and-on negotiations over the last 18 months.

In addition to the 54-acre park, the lease also includes 45 adjacent but undeveloped acres.

The agreement calls for a graduated scale of lease payments, Ned P. DeWitt, president of Six Flags said.

No amount was announced but sources indicated the 20-year total would approach $50 million.

DeWitt said a long term goal is to have Astroworld offer a very different entertainment experience from Six Flags over Texas at Dallas-Fort Worth.

"Texans and tourists will want to visit both parks because of their differences," he said.

He said Astroworld will operate completely independent of Six Flags Over Texas.

Subpanel Buries Tax Plans

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — A bill that the House sponsor insists is essential in any meaningful attempt to revise Texas' public school financing has been buried in a Senate subcommittee.

The Senate Finance Committee rejected three plans Monday to set up a uniform statewide system for assessing property for taxation, including one sponsored by Rep. Wayne Peveto, D-Orange, which already has passed the House.

Two proposed substitutes for the Peveto bill—both of which would dilute the state comptroller's authority over property taxes—were defeated, 5-6.

Peveto's bill was then sent to a subcommittee on an 8-4 vote, with senators representing rural areas solid in their opposition to the measure.

Bassett Keller, president of the Snyder Rotary Club, presented outstanding citizenship awards to David Mayes and to Cydney McDonald. Dee Roach and Ruth Ann Fagin were recognized for being runnerup for citizenship awards.

Don Eiring, band director at SHS, presented the annual H.F. Clark award to the outstanding senior band musician, selected by the students. He is Patrick Martin.

Bill Lyon, choir director, presented an outstanding musicianship award to David Vaughan, an outstanding vocal achievement award to Ronald Huddleston, an outstanding music theory award to Angie Amato, and he recognized William Sullenger for being named to the All-State Choir.

Lyon also presented the National Arion Foundation award to Kathy Williams. This award goes to the student who made the most contribution to the choir during her school career.

Maurice (Mo) Hodges, athletic director at Snyder High School, honored the members of the football, girls volleyball, boys tennis and baseball teams who won district championships, and he recognized individuals in several sports who made All-District teams. Golf and girls track team members also were honored as well as boys on the boys track team who competed in region.

Jerry Worsham, speech instructor, recognized Greg Kane for having won district and regional Voice of Democracy radio script writing contests, and he presented the outstanding forensics awards to Steve Wilson and the outstanding drama award to Patrick Martin.

Roy Carter, assistant principal, presented plaques to Randy Gossett and to Trissa Bailey for being named outstanding Buddie and Cuddie members of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Coach Speedy Mallett presented the annual Robert Hobbs Memorial award to Richard Tovar. Mallett described the recipient of this award as a boy who "gives all of himself to improve the team."

Mrs. Peggy English recognized Robert Huddleston and Jeff Leesch for having scored the highest in social studies contest at Western Texas College.

Mrs. Kathy Roberts presented the Crisco Homemaking Award to Sandra Cumbie.

Miss Empress McFarland, journalism instructor, presented outstanding journalism awards to Billy Murry and to Tracey Moore.

Eddie Williams, faculty sponsor, presented student council awards to David Mayes, Kathy Williams and Kellye Grenshaw.

Bostick, the principal, also presented an honorary membership card in the National Honor Society to Brigitte Glandut, foreign exchange student from France.

Carter, the assistant principal, also recognized the Snyder High Students who represented the school in University Interscholastic League competition, winning district.

Homecoming At Hermleigh Being Planned

HERMLEIGH—The Hermleigh Ex-Students Association has announced tentative plans for a fall homecoming on Oct. 18.

Those who attended school at Hermleigh, or at any school which has consolidated with Hermleigh Independent School District, and would like further information on the homecoming plans are asked to send their names and addresses and those of relatives and classmates to the Homecoming Committee, Hermleigh Ex-Students Association, Hermleigh, Tex., 79526.

The committee is particularly anxious to get addresses of ex-students who live in other states. Women ex-students also are asked to give their maiden names as well as their married names, said Mrs. Tommie Henry, secretary of the committee.

Denver is called the "Mile High City" because it is 5,280 feet above sea level.

Recreation Staff All Ex-Members

The staff of Scurry County Summer Recreation all have at least one thing in common...they are all former members of the program.

Instructing classes for the June 9-July 18 program are Patsy Rainwater, director, Sue Jane Sullivan, Janice Rhodes, Marcia Shields, Kellye Crenshaw, Suzanne Peek and Amber Walker.

Ms. Rainwater states that she joined Girls Recreation 16 years ago when it was first organized. She began working for the program her sophomore year in high school. This is her third year as director and her eighth year to be employed by the program.

The director is presently employed at Iowa Park Junior High School in Iowa Park where she teaches physical education and journalism. She coaches volleyball, track, and boys' and girls' tennis. She has also taught physical education at Coronado High School in Lubbock. Ms. Rainwater earned her B.S. and M.Ed. degrees from Sul Ross State University. She will teach gymnastics and slimnastics and assist in the bowling class.

Teaching the basketball class will be Sue Jane Sullivan, a sophomore at Abilene Christian College. She has always been active in sports, playing softball and running track for summer recreation. This is her second year to be employed by the program. Ms. Sullivan played competitive volleyball and basketball for ACC this year and volleyball for SHS. At ACC she served as intramural director for her dorm.

Marcia Shields will head the girls' volleyball program. A former All-State player for SHS, Ms. Shields played volleyball for Howard County Junior College. She is a junior physical education major at West Texas State University.

Heading the track program is Janice Rhodes, a former active member of Summer Recreation's track team. Two years ago she served as the assistant track coach for Summer Recreation. Ms. Rhodes just graduted from WTSU, completely certification in physicall education and biology. She is also a former member of the SHS volleyball team. At WTSU Ms. Rhodes ran track and was a cheerleader.

Assisting the track program is Kellye Crenshaw, another former active runner for Summer Recreation's track team. Ms. Crenshaw has also played volleyball for SHS. She will graduate from SHS in May and will attend Abilene Christian College majoring in Secondary Education with a minor in Psychology.

Amber Walker will teach Let's Pretend and arts and crafts. A sophomore drama major at UT in Austin, Ms. Walker first began acting through the Let's Pretend program of Girls Recreation. She has gained many hours of practical experience through performances and crews, including winning Best Actress in the district UIL one-act play contest.

Instructing tennis again this summer will be Suzanne Peek, who once upon a time took part in Girls Recreation activities as an aspiring young tennis player. Suzanne will return to West Texas State next year where she is a sophomore elementary education major and psychology minor.

Board of directors for Summer Recreation are Guy Sullivan, president; Janet Wesson, vice president; Empress McFarland, treasurer; Ila Ruth Newton, Barbara Sojourner, and Annette Waller.

Registration for the six-week program is this week in the public schools and at Snyder Athletic Center.

Man Tried For Murder

THE KNOCK AT MIDNIGHT. By James Reston Jr. Norton. 232 Pages. $6.95.

The time is late 1968. The place is Cincinnati. The setting is fear. A killer is loose.

With six victims already strangled, the police, under tremendous community pressure, are frantic to make an arrest. They do. The man they take is Leyton Marlow, a black sometime musician. Marlow is brought to trial, convicted, sentenced to death. But there is one man who does not believe Marlow is guilty. His name is Matthew Sparks, a cousin of the convicted man.

Sparks begins a crusade to free his cousin and little by little his doings start to build up a resentment in the black community that explodes into a violent riot that rips the city. The riot is Sparks's undoing, as it also is for his unlikely white counterpart, Bernie Tiller, a man who has devoted his life to keeping the antagonism between his Appalachian enclave in Cincinnati and that of the bordering black community from erupting into race warfare. Too late, both men, white and black, realize that they have been victimized by the powers that really control the city, and both die because of this.

James Reston Jr. has written a readable enough novel in "The Knock at Midnight," but he has clotted the flow of his action with too much extraneous material.

Palette Club To Enroll Members

Anyone interested in becoming a new member of Snyder Palette Club is urged to attend the business meeting that will be held at 9 a.m. Thursday at the airport. All old members are asked to be present. A catered luncheon will follow the business meeting at 12 noon.

The Palette Club was formed many years ago to make Scurry County citizens become more aware of the value of art, and for the enjoyment of the members to further their learning of art. All day meetings are held the second and fourth Thursdays of every month, except summer. Even then, the members can meet if they so desire. Often an instructor is present and will help members for $2.00 for the full day. When an instructor is not present, the more accomplished members will help beginners at no charge. They seem to give this help willingly.

In May, every year, a very notable artist conducts a weeklong workshop. The fee varies, but is usually $50.00 for 5 full day lessons.

The club begins its new year every September, but it is important to put your name on the membership list at this meeting so your name will be included in the membership book which will go to press very soon. The fee for belonging one full year is $5.00 for active membership and $8.00 for inactive membership. It is hoped that you will become an active member for 1975-76. Adults only can belong to this club.

Many business places and public offices will allow members of the Palette Club to display their pictures that are for sale or not for sale. NFS indicates "Not For Sale", if for sale, the artist's name is usually listed with the price. The Palette Club is most grateful for this nice gesture extended them by the hospital, the nursing homes, the restaurants, doctor's offices and the many other places who are so kind to provide display space for their work and we also thank the public for buying our work and encouraging members to strive harder to become better artists.

Be sure to blanch or scald fresh raw vegetables before storing them in the freezer.

A serving or so of canned pineapple tidbits leftover? Drain the fruit and add it to a can of Boston-style beans, then heat as usual. You might like to serve this combination for brunch with slices of crisply cooked bacon or well-browned small pork sausage links.

Give Dad Blue Jeans

NEW YORK (AP).— Father's Day is coming and ...

Have you noticed how Dad looks at you in your indigos? How he pulls on a buttered pair of jeans when he is about to fix something mechanical or have a relaxing weekend? How he bowls and sails in his blue jeans?

Now that the new washed denim look is around for all ages, you may want to surprise your Dad with a new pair with cigarette slim or flare legs in the faded blue look.

Or you could invest in a watch band and watch whose face is blue denim, or lightweight denim luggage or a blue denim backgammon set in mini or major size or a barbecue apron that comes in a variety of styles.

If you're gifted, you may want to make something special out of an old pair of your blue jeans. It is a way to show you care enough to spend time on Dad when you recycle your denims into a pillow, a book cover, a wall hanging or a soft sculpture for him.

Namath May Sign With WFL

By PHIL ORAMOUS
Associated Press Writer

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP) — The yearling World Football League learns today whether free-agent quarterback Joe Namath will make the jump from the National Football League New York Jets to the WFL's Chicago Winds.

But WFL President Chris Hemmeter said Monday that it would be a while before the decision is made public.

Winds owner Eugene Pulliam held his first face-to-face meeting with Namath in Tuscaloosa Monday night, after day-long discussions among league officials, the backers of the Winds and Namath's lawyer, Jimmy Walsh.

Hemmeter told a news conference in Birmingham that the meeting in Tuscaloosa, where Namath owns a popular restaurant, was "a big step. It's important that Joe meet the people he is going to work for and with."

Namath reportedly has been offered a $4 million multi-year contract with the Winds, including $100,000 a year for 20 years.

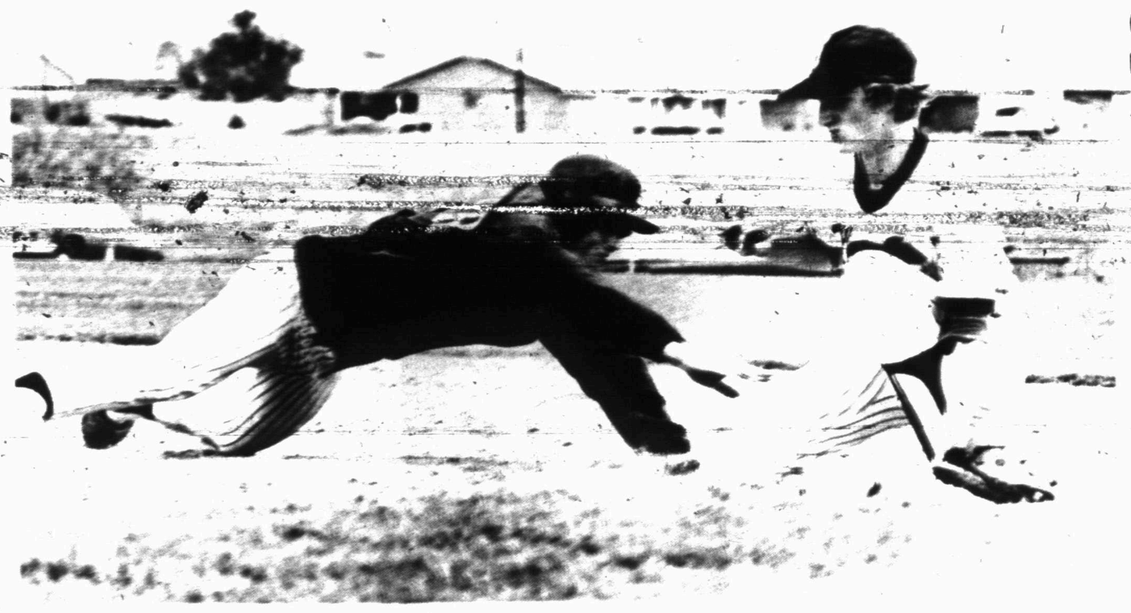

The Jets, with whom Namath has played out his option, reportedly have offered him a million-dollar pact. The quarterback signed with the Jets in January 1965, fresh off the University of Alabama team, for a then-fabulous $400,000.

Meanwhile, a spokesman for the Jets said Monday night, "We have made Joe a substantial offer. I guess like everybody else, we just have to sit and wait for Joe to make up his mind. That's all we can do."

Namath's decision, Hemmeter said, would be known internally by the league, "but we'll keep it confidential until he wants to make the announcement." That probably would come in Chicago, he said.

The president said the "material parts of the contract and some subtle parts of it have been worked out. Namath is looking for additional potential or contingent benefits."

Hemmeter would not define the additional benefits. He said, however, that they represented "a substantial sum of money, based on substantial performance."

HE'S SAFE—Snyder pitcher Gary Greenlee dives back into first base safely ahead of the throw from catcher David Ross to first sacker Kent Allsup in the second inning of the Tiger-Hawk bi-district baseball clash here yesterday afternoon. Hawks Outscore Snyder, 8 To 5

The hard-hitting Iowa park Hawks outscored Snyder's Tigers, 8-5, here yesterday afternoon to take a 1-0 lead in the best 2 of 3 Bi-District baseball series.

The two teams will tangle again at 4 p.m. Thursday in Iowa Park. If a third game is necessary, it will be held in Iowa Park Saturday.

The Hawks took a 1-0 lead in the 2nd, fell behind 3-1 in the 3rd, but regained the lead, 4-3, in the 4th. The visitors scored four runs in the 5th and the Tigers added two in the bottom half of the same frame.

Ken Scheffe tripled for the Hawks in the 2nd and scored on a suicide squeeze when Kent Allsup laid down a perfect bunt.

Randy Gressett singled to lead off the 3rd for the Tigers, and went to second on a sacrifice by Kelly Ragland. Richard Tovar singled with Gressett holding at second. After Ernie Simons flied out to centerfield, Sid Perry cracked a line single, driving in Gressett. Then Robert Alderete delivered a booming double to deep left centerfield with Tovar and Perry scoring on the play. Some observers outside the centerfield fence thought the ball hit the scoreboard outside the fence and bounced back onto the field. At any rate, it was ruled a double.

Two walks combined with a single by Daryl Frazier and a double by Kent Allsup accounted for the three Hawk tallies in the 4th.

In the top of the 5th, they got their final four runs on singles by Tony Singer, David Ross, Barry Spruiell, Daryl Frazier and Lynn Fonville combined with a fielder's choice and a passed ball.

In the bottom of the 5th, Snyder loaded the bases on singles by Ernie Simons and Robert Alderete and a walk by Danny Brumley. Phil Robinson, the next batter, drilled the first pitch into centerfield for a single, driving in Simons and Alderete.

The Tigers loaded the bases in the first inning after two were out, but couldn't drive them in. Snyder left nine men stranded on base during the game.

Richard Tovar led Tiger batters with three hits in four trips to the plate. Four different Hawk batters—Singer, Ross, Spruiell and Frazier—each got two hits. The Hawks had a total of 12 safeties, and Snyder had 11.

Gary Greenlee opened on the hill for the Tigers and was relieved by Ricky Beard with two on and nobody out in the 5th. Greenlee was charged with the loss. Lynn Fonville went the distance for Iowa Park and received credit for the victory.

There were several defensive gems turned in during the contest. The Hawks got out of a jam in the 7th inning with a double play. Gressett made a great catch in deep right centerfield for the Tigers, and Tovar made a perfect throw to the plate to nip a runner.

Indiana Beats Colonels 94-86

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The roar of the crowd barely had died out Monday night and Indiana's George McGinnis already was looking forward to Game 5 of the American Basketball Association championship playoff with Kentucky.

"Now we're going down there Thursday to knock heads," he said with a smile after the Pacers stayed alive with a 94-86 victory over the Colonels.

Indiana, pumped up when McGinnis and little Billy Keller broke out of three-game slumps, cut Kentucky's series lead to 3-1.

Indiana earlier in the day lost a protest of a 95-93 loss in the second game of the series last Thursday night. New ABA Commissioner Dave DeBusschere traveled to Indianapolis, met with team officials and reviewed evidence supplied by both teams before deciding that a disputed three-point goal by Keller as the game ended would remain disallowed.

But both teams put the protest furor behind them as quickly as it was decided.

McGinnis, a bullish, 6-foot-8 forward, was excited after Indiana's triumph.

When asked if his sore ankle, injured Saturday night in the 109-101 third game loss here, still bothered him, the Indiana captain replied, "No way! They'll have to put me in the hospital to keep me off the court. If I had to, I'd play in a cast."

Indiana Coach Bobby Leonard, though obviously happy, wasn't as delighted as his superstar.

"We've still got our backs against the wall and we must play better Thursday night if we're going to win at Louisville. Kentucky would sure like to win (the title) at home."

McGinnis came up with 22 points and 21 rebounds in the game, but the key man for the Pacers was the 5-foot-11 Keller. The six-year veteran from Purdue University suffering through a frustrating shooting slump in the first three games, scored 20 points.

The Pacers came from behind and took the lead midway in the final period. Keller's three-point goal with six minutes remaining and a two-point scoop shot seconds later gave the Pacers an eight-point lead and they were in command the rest of the way.

Angels Explode, Rout Tribe, 12-5

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer

The flying feet of the California Angels were slowed to a trot Monday night — by the booming bats of the California Angels.

After hitting only nine home runs but stealing 69 bases in their first 37 games, the Angels rewrote the script in a 12-5 rout of the Cleveland Indians. They slugged a double, a triple and three homers among 12 hits — Lee Stanton, Jerry Remy and Tommy Harper were the homer-hitters who jogged around the bases — while Remy was the only base-stealer.

Elsewhere in the American League, the Boston Red Sox trounced the Oakland A's 10-5, the New York Yankees downed the Kansas City Royals 5-1, the Chicago White Sox edged the Baltimore Orioles 2-1 and the Detroit Tigers whipped the Minnesota Twins 6-3. Milwaukee and Texas were not scheduled.

Remy's first major league homer, a three-run shot off reliever Jim Perry, highlighted a five-run fourth inning that broke a 3-3 tie. Stanton hit a two-run homer in the first inning off Don Hood and Harper connected off Perry in the seventh.

Red Sox 10, A's 5

Speedy Juan Beniquez scored the tie-breaking run all the way from first base on Rick Burleson's hit-and-run single in the seventh inning. A walk to Carl Yastrzemski and doubles by Jim Rice and Dwight Evans added three more runs.

Oakland's Gene Tenace drove in four runs against Boston ace Luis Tiant with his fourth and fifth homers of the season but Rico Petrocelli's homer touched off a five-run fifth inning for the Red Sox and they capitalized on a porous Oakland defense for four more runs in the inning and a 5-2 lead.

Yankees 5, Royals 1

Chris Chambliss belted the first two home runs of the season off Kansas City's Steve Busby and Roy White ripped a two-run double. The fourth-inning homer was the first of the year for Chambliss, who delivered again in the eighth and also drove in New York's fourth run with a fifth-inning single.

Meanwhile, New York starter Rudy May allowed three hits and struck out eight in 5 2-3 innings before giving way to Dick Tidrow, who yielded one more hit the rest of the way, the first 1975 save by a Yankee relief pitcher.

White Sox 2, Orioles 1

Jorge Orta's two-run single in the third inning helped Stan Bahnsen gain his first victory of the season, with clutch seventh-inning relief from Rich Gossage.

Tigers 6, Twins 3

Two-run homers by Willie Horton and rookie Leon Roberts and a pair of solo shots by Gary Sutherland powered Detroit to victory. Joe Coleman got the victory with help from John Hiller in the eighth.

Roberts' fifth home run of the season gave Detroit a 2-0 lead in the first inning against rookie Mike Pazik. After Roberts walked with two out in the third, Horton hit his ninth home run, tops in the league.

Islanders Blast Gulls

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Hawaii's Gary Ross pitched a perfect five-inning game, allowing no one to reach base, as the Islanders blasted the Salt Lake Gulls 19-0 in a rain-shortened Pacific Coast League baseball contest. It was the first game of a scheduled doubleheader.

The Islanders sent 20 men to the plate in the first inning and collected 13 hits and 15 runs against Salt Lake pitchers Sid Monge and Steve Blateric.

All nine men in the Hawaii line-up hit safely with Jerry Turner leading with four hits in five trips and three runs batted in.

Foolish Pleasure, champion 2-year-old of 1974, won six stakes over five different tracks last year.

Warriors To Play In Palace

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Golden State Warriors and their "no-name" offense, still underdogs in the National Basketball Association's championship series even though they upset the Washington Bullets in the opening game, go for their second victory tonight on an unfamiliar "home" court.

The setting for the nationally televised second game — and Friday night's third game — is the Cow Palace, an arena in which the Warriors have not played a home game since 1971. The Warriors were forced out of their normal home court, the Oakland Coliseum, by an ice show.

"I'm a little concerned about not being able to play in our regular place," said Golden State Coach Al Attles. "We haven't played in the Cow Palace in so long that it's really like playing on a neutral court. But one thing in our favor is that we will still have our fans behind us."

"The court is not familiar to either team, so we'll both be in the same bag in that respect," said K.C. Jones, the Bullets coach, still noticiably upset over Washington's 101-95 loss Sunday at Landover, Md., and the fact that his team was forced onto the road for tonight's game.

Portland Hires Braun

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — The Portland Thunder of the World Football League has named Ray Braun as its first assistant coach.

Braun will be defensive line coach under head Coach Greg Barton.

He was defensive line coach for the Portland Storm, a WFL franchise operated in Portland last year by different investors.

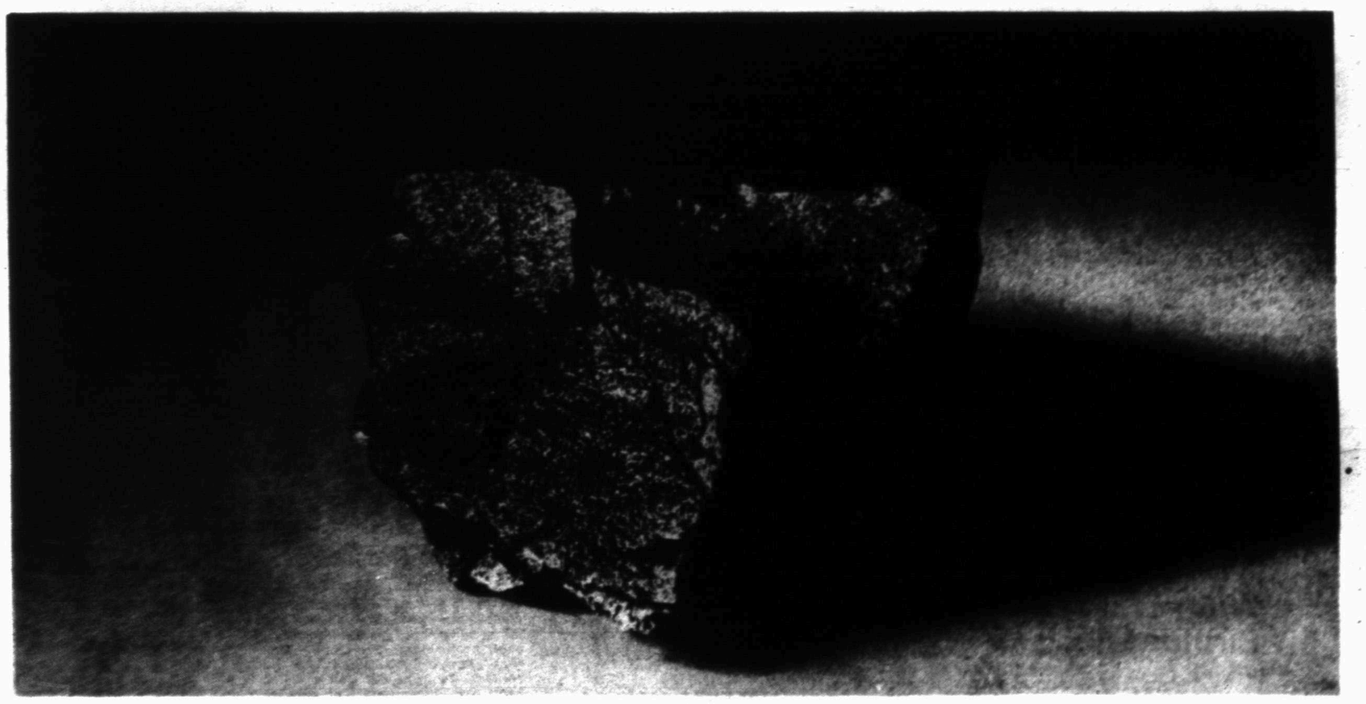

Two Storm players, running back Puddin Jones and offensive guard Levert Carr, were taken by San Antonio during the weekend in an expansion draft at the WFL meeting in Birmingham, Ala.

After lying around Texas for 55 million years this lump of coal has finally gone to work.

This is a piece of lignite, a form of soft coal. Even though it's 55 million years old, it's relatively young compared to 300-million-year-old hard coal.

Texas is fortunate to have fairly large deposits of lignite; it's generally low in sulfur content, so pollution problems are minimized.

We're turning to lignite to fuel new electric generating plants, because natural gas and oil, the fuels we've traditionally used, are harder to get and more costly.

Lignite plants cost more to build, which, along with inflation, means electricity will have to cost you more. But the increase won't be as much, because lignite fuel is available and more economical than new supplies of natural gas and oil.

Electricity today is still a good value. Especially when you consider that during the past ten years the cost of living has gone up more than three times as much as the price of electricity.

We're continuing the orderly development of our power system so that you'll continue having the electricity you need.

This year over 20% of your electricity will be produced using this 55-million-year-old fuel.

TWO SHOWS SHARE HONORS

Hepburn, Olivier Win Top Awards

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Two old movie pros, Katharine Hepburn and Laurence Olivier, and their "Love Among the Ruins" shared top honors with "The Mary Tyler Moore Show" at the 27th Emmy Awards.

"QB VII," which had scored the highest in nominations with 13, also won six awards Monday night. But none was in a major category.

Oscar-winners Hepburn and Olivier won Television Academy Awards Monday night as outstanding stars in a special program for "Love Among the Ruins," which scored a total of six Emmys including those for director George Cukor and writer James Costigan.

"The Mary Tyler Moore Show" was hailed by the Television Academy as the outstanding comedy series of 1974-75, winning a total of six Emmys including those for supporting performers Betty White, Ed Asner and Cloris Leachman.

But Miss Moore lost out as lead actress in a comedy series to Valerie Harper, whose "Rhoda" was an offshoot of the Moore series.

"I am full of love for everybody, especially Mary, who made it all possible," Miss Harper exulted to the television audience.

"Upstairs, Downstairs," the British-made story of servant life in Edwardian England, for the second year in a row as best dramatic series. Its victory and that of the British-made "Love Among the Ruins" gave the Emmy awards a decidedly British accent.

Britisher Jean Marsh, chosen best dramatic actress for her role as a maid in "Upstairs, Downstairs," commented, "It's very generous, unchauvinistic and typically American."

Some of the winners were also losers at the Hollywood Palladium festivities. Tony Randall was best lead actor in a comedy series for "The Odd Couple" and Jessica Walter best lead actress in a limited series for "Amy Prentiss." Both shows have been cancelled.

Lamented Randall: "I sure am glad I won. Now if I only had a job."

"The Carol Burnett Show" won as best comedy-variety or music series for the third time and "An Evening With John Denver" was named best special in that category.

The five-part "Benjamin Franklin" with its revolving cast portraying the statesman-inventor collected five awards including outstanding limited series.

"The Law," a television movie about a feisty public defender, was a surprise winner as outstanding special in comedy or drama, defeating "Love Among the Ruins," "QB VII" and others. "The Law" became a limited series and then was dropped by NBC.

Other major awards included:

Robert Blake, "Baretta," lead actor in a drama series; Peter Falk, "Columbo," lead actor in a limited series; Jim McKay, "Wide World of Sports," outstanding sports broadcaster.

Cloris Leachman was a double winner. Besides her Emmy for "The Mary Tyler Moore Show," she also picked one up for her supporting performance on a "Cher" show.

NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN

Ford Price Hike Seen

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. probably will raise new car prices about $300 this fall, says board chairman Henry Ford II.

Ford's prediction, made Monday at an impromptu news conference, was at the upper limit of the increase of 3 to 6 per cent mentioned by company President Lee A. Iacocca at the firm's stockholder's meeting earlier this month.

New car prices rose an average $450 last September and another $500 or so in the preceding nine months, contributing to the sharp sales slump started by the Mideast oil embargo and deepened last fall by economic recession.

Ford also said the firm is cutting production for June to 345,000 vehicles from the previously announced total of 370,000. A company spokesman said the move would not add to the number of workers on indefinite layoffs, but would mean more downtime for some assembly plants.

PUBLIC NOTICES

INVITATION TO BID
RENOVATION OF IRA SCHOOL
IRA, INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT
IRA, TEXAS 79527

Sealed proposals addressed to Mr. Donnie Dunn, President of the Board of Trustees, Ira Independent School District, Ira, Texas, for the RENOVATION OF IRA SCHOOL will be received up to and not later than 8:00 p.m. on June 3, 1975. At this time they will be publicly opened and read aloud in the Library of the Ira School.

Combined proposals will be received for General Construction, Plumbing, and Electrical work.

Copies of the Drawings and Specifications are on file and may be seen in the office of the Architect and the office of the School Superintendent in Ira. One complete set of documents may be obtained upon the deposit of $35.00. Deposits will be returned to each actual bidder upon return of the documents in good shape within five (5) days from bid opening. Additional copies may be obtained upon similar deposit but cost of reproduction will be deducted from deposit. Sub-contractors are requested to use plans of contractors or those placed in Plan Rooms for their convenience. Sub-contractors may obtain these drawings by paying the printing cost.

Any contractor taking out drawings and Specifications that does not bid the work shall forfeit his entire deposit unless he returns the plans 10 days prior to bid date.

Each bidder must submit a cashiers check, certified check, or bid bond payable without recourse to the order of the owner in the amount of five percent of the largest total amount of his proposal. This is considered a guarantee that the bidder will enter into a contract and execute contract surety within ten days after notice of award. The successful bidder must furnish bonds in the amount of one hundred percent of the contract price, for the faithful performance and payment of all obligations thereunder.

Each contractor shall perform all work in accordance with the Wage Scale as bound in the specifications.

The owner reserves the right to hold the bids for a period of thirty (30) days after the time set for the submission of bids. If the successful bidder executes and delivers agreement, bonds, and insurance certificates, the cashiers check or certified check will be returned.

The owner reserves the right to accept or reject any or all bids.

Dr. Lamb

Excess acid irritates ulcer

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB—Good day to you. I hope you can give me some much needed advice. I am having pains in my stomach. The doctor says I have an ulcer of the duodenum and two small ones in the stomach.

My problem is that I form a lot of saliva in my mouth and I have to swallow many times per minute which is embarrassing. When I close my mouth it becomes a river, and when I laugh I have to swallow. I was on Probathine but recently I was changed to another medicine and since then my whole body is feeling tired without doing anything.

My doctor said my ulcers should be okay after he looked into my stomach a few days ago. I had this swallowing problem about two years before my ulcers were discovered.

I would appreciate it if you could tell me what is causing all my problems. I am an 18 year old male. I need help badly.

DEAR READER—I can appreciate your problem. Formation of excess saliva is fairly common in the presence of an ulcer. It may be a reflex action related to the excess formation of the acid digestive juices in your stomach. These acid digestive juices are part of the cause of your ulcer. We don't see ulcers in young men without some increase in stomach acid.

Usually Probanthine and atropine-like medicines will cause the saliva to dry up. I wonder if you were taking a sufficient amount. These medicines block the nerve to the stomach that stimulates the formation of acid digestive juices. That is why they are often used in treating ulcers.

The doctor must have been satisfied that you had simple ulcers with no important complications and that was why he told you that your ulcers would heal.

I suspect that you were already producing an excess of acid digestive juice before your ulcers were diagnosed and that is why you were already forming too much saliva.

Duodenal ulcers were fairly uncommon in 1900. Now a high percentage of men have them. This probably reflects the increase in stress in our living patterns and the bad habits that go along with modern life. Men have ulcers much more frequently than women. I won't go so far as to say that modern women drive men to have ulcers, but it is a fact that ulcers were more common in women than in men in 1900.

You will need to do some adjusting of your personal life to avoid ulcer problems or even to minimize them. Write to me in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1561, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019 and ask for my special report on Ulcers. Send a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 50 cents for mailing and costs.

You should talk to your doctor about your excess saliva problem. And you should avoid cigarettes, alcohol, coffee, tea, colas and chocolate.

A little self-analysis of the stressful aspects of your life might help. Stress seems to be a major factor in causing ulcers. Often ulcers will not heal or will recur if stress is at the bottom of the whole problem. The type of stress involved is related to a great need to achieve, which causes the person to put himself under great pressure.

Leyva Isolated

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Joe Garcia Leyva, a confessed drug trafficker and top lieutenant of late South Texas drugs kingpin Fred Gomez Carrasco, remained isolated in a maximum security jail cell here Monday.

U.S. Magistrate Frank S. Baskin refused bond for Leyva, 41, picked up at his sister's south Bexas County home Sunday.

A fugitive warrant was issued for Leyva in March 1972 when he failed to appear before his probation officer after pleading guilty to conspiring to distribute two pounds of cocaine. He was awaiting sentencing when he disappeared.

Federal, state and county officers nabbed Garcia Leyva.

A Drug Enforcement Administration official said agents who had seen Leyva previously could not recognize him when he was arrested because of extensive plastic surgery.

However, officers said fingerprints confirmed his identity. "Fresh surgical marks" were detected behind his ears, a surgical dressing was on one of his legs and "very bad burned" skin was visible where tattoos once were, a DEA agent said.

Garcia Leyva was located on an informant's tip.

Magistrate Baskin said during arraignment proceedings that he could recognize Leyva despite the surgery.

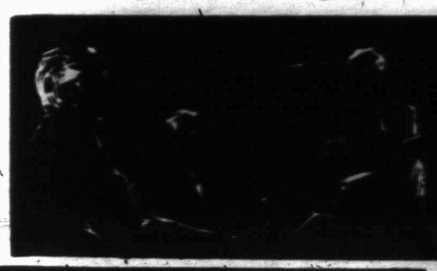

The fugitive's former boss, Carrasco, died in a hail of police bullets which ended an eleven-day siege and prison break attempt at the state penitentiary in Huntsville last summer.

NEW SHIPMENT—Brenda Crosby, employe of Snyder Book Store, 3904 College Avenue, displays some of a new shipment of family Bibles in various price levels. They make wonderful gifts for the graduate, for Father's Day or for newlyweds. Snyder Book Store has a wide variety of other books that would make ideal gifts for the high school or college graduate.

Snyder Book Store Has Gifts For Graduation, Father's Day

Snyder Book Store, 3904 College Avenue, has received several new books that would make ideal gifts for the college or high school graduate or for Father's Day. Included in the new books is a big shipment of Bibles at various prices.

Betty Shelburne, manager of Snyder Book Store, and Brenda Crosby, an employe, both are always glad to show people around the store. You are welcome to drop by any time you'd like to browse around. The Snyder Book Store is open six days a week, from 9 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. Mondays through Fridays and from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. on Saturdays.

A large shipment of new Bibles has been received. Included are Cambridge, Holman, and New American Standard Bibles, the new International version and many other modern translations as well as the King James Version and a few Golden Children's Bibles.

Dictionaries also make ideal gifts for the student, and you will find these in stock at Snyder Book Store. Included are the Collegiate American Heritage, New World and Merriam Webster dictionaries.

There are many other types of books available at Snyder Book Store, including new Western-type books that would make good Father's Day gifts. "Texas History" is just one of these books that would make informative and enjoyable reading for dad. Also available are Popup Books, the 3D Puppet books and many others. A shipment of Hardy Boys and Nancy Drew books make good summertime reading.

"We have more sheet music and hymn books now than we had last year," said Mrs. Shelburne, adding that Snyder Book Store has in a new supply of Baptist hymnals.

The graduate on your shopping list will enjoy a New Living Bible or a graduate memory book. These are imprinted and gift-wrapped for truly unique gifts.

Books make thoughtful and lasting remembrances for each occasion. Books can say, "Thank you, say "I'm sorry," "Congratulations," or "Thinking of you" as the case might demand.

Included among gift items are purse secretaries for the graduate.

"June weddings are in the near future," reminds Mrs. Shelburne, "And we have lots of items for weddings in any month." Included are invitations, wedding books, cake ornaments, cake knives, thank you notes or napkins—all of these are available at Snyder Book Store.

DRAPERY SPECIALISTS—Earline Payne (right), owner of Payne's Drapery in the Cogdell Center, displays a rod that matches the drapery material held by Ruth Davis (left) and Eleanor Burns (center), employes. Notice the sample books in the background underneath some decorative rods. Payne's Drapery has a large selection of drapery, fabrics, shades, trims, plain and decorative rods, blinds, etc. in all colors and sizes.

Payne's Drapery Has Big Stock Of Fabrics, Rods And Shades

Spring cleaning time is here again, and if you need new rods, shades, drapes or blinds, a good place to get them is at Payne's Drapery located in the Cogdell Center.

Earline Payne, owner and operator of Payne's Drapery, said she and her staff repair old windows and have a large selection of drapery fabrics, shades, trims, plain rods, decorative rods, blinds, etc. in all colors and sizes.

"If we don't have what you need in stock," Mrs. Payne said, "We will be glad to order them for you. We sell the finest in quality goods, such as Satin, sheers, cottons, floral and stripe patterns."

Payne's Drapery designs draperies for all types of windows. They custom make swags, cascades, decorative shades, pillows, sheers, woven-wood shades, table cloths, bedspreads and even some carpet.

"We also handle sewing machines," said Mrs. Payne, adding that she can obtain quality machines at reasonable costs for her customers who like to do their own sewing.

If you would like to have a free estimate on any drapery work, Mrs. Payne or any of her staff will be glad to take the measurements in your home. No job is too big or too small for Payne's Drapery, from a one-window job to large commercial jobs.

Over the years, Payne's Drapery has established a reputation of quality work, and they have satisfied customers in Fisher, Nolan, Mitchell and Borden Counties as well as in Scurry County.

Dial 573-3771 or 573-7831 for free estimates or for any help or advice Mrs. Payne or any of her staff can give you.

Two Railroad Executives Fined

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — Two railroad executives have been fined $2,000 each and placed on probation for three years on charges of making false employment reports.

Judge Earl E. O'Connor of U.S. District Court imposed the penalties Monday against Urban F. DeVeney, 56, of Kansas City, Kan., and Donald D. Doyle, 51, of Denison, Tex. They pleaded guilty to making false reports last month.

They were accused of falsifying records to show DeVeney's wife working for the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad for several periods between 1969 and 1972, apparently in a scheme to collect overtime payments due DeVeney. The government said Mrs. DeVeney collected more than $5,000 during the period.

DeVeney was chief clerk and Doyle was superintendent of the railroad's Kansas City, Kan., yard at the time of the alleged offense.
