Tax Reduction Blamed In HST Budget Review

Attack On Record Of 80th Congress Labeled Politics

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—President Truman's forecast that the government will be $1,500,000,000 in the red next June loosed an angry flood of Republican charges today that he had deliberately juggled his figures for political effect.

GOP lawmakers insisted the treasury will wind up between five and six billion dollars to the good. They said there definitely will be money left over to pare down the national debt and possibly to cut taxes again.

Mr. Truman's sharply worded mid-year budget review blamed the Republicans' "ill-timed" $5,000,000,000 tax cut for putting the government back in a financial hole.

More Spending Seen

He said federal spending in the year ending next June 30 will hit a near peacetime record of $42,200,000,000—more than $6,000,000,000 over the outlay last year.

And instead of the record $8,400,000,000 surplus of last June, Mr. Truman declared, the treasury faces an operating deficit of $1,500,000,000 and a return to "deficit financing."

Actually, even if his figures pan out, the treasury's books will show an "adjusted surplus" of $1,500,000,000. That's because Congress specified that $3,000,000,000 of last year's excess funds should be shifted to this year's accounts to help cover foreign aid costs. Mr. Truman called this a "convenient bookkeeping device" to yield a "paper surplus."

"Indeed," the Chief Executive asserted, "as long as the present fiscal outlook prevails, we may face an expanded debt even in a period of high national income when financial prudence clearly would indicate continuing debt retirement."

Rebuttals Hurried Out

The hour for Mr. Truman's budget review to be made public had not yet arrived when Republican leaders hurried out their rebuttals for simultaneous release.

"Just another campaign speech," said Chairman Bridges (R-NH) of

Election Heads Named In Suit

AUSTIN, Aug. 16 (AP)—Removal of 30 Webb county election officials appointed to serve in the run-off primary Aug. 28, was sought today in a supreme court suit.

S. Trumn helps and Bas M. Salinas asked the court for permission to file a petition in mandamus claiming Peter P. Leyendecker, chairman of the Webb county Democratic executive committee, had named election officials who either were not qualified voters in the election precincts for which they were named to serve, or who hold state or city offices of profit and trust.

Named with Leyendecker as respondents were 26 members of the Webb county Democratic executive committee. The instrument filed today merely sought permission to file the mandamus. Before the court can act on the mandamus, it first must grant Phelps and Salinas formal permission to file their petition.

Time Shortage Claimed

They claimed the shortness of time between now and the run-off primary prohibits them from going into district court with injunction proceedings. They asked the supreme court for quick action on their motion.

All the election officials named are presiding or associate judges, and they are all disqualified under provisions of the Texas election laws, the motion asserted.

The motion sets out that Phelps tried to protest to Leyendecker and claims that the county chair-

Dallas detectives said the mother of the little boy told them she beat her son Saturday because he wouldn't drink his milk.

She told detectives she "seemed to wake up" after the flogging and in carrying the child to the shower his head struck the bathroom door. An autopsy was ordered. No charges have been filed against the mother.

An automobile-bus accident near Houston Saturday resulted in the death of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Keng, both 66, of Houston, and Mrs. Tinnie Newsome, 67, of Giddings.

CITY GOVERNMENT PRODDED

Red Purge List Is Rumored In Berlin

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, Aug. 16—Berlin's Liberal Democratic press declared today the Communists have prepared a purge list of hundreds of thousands of anti-Communists upon whom revenge would be taken if the Western Allies left the city.

The newspaper Montags Echo said a Communist fifth column is working in the blockaded western sectors of Berlin, occupied by the U. S., Britain and France.

The Socialist Telegraf said that "the bloskade must be lifted and the roads to Berlin must be guaranteed wthout restrictions."

Firm Stand Urged

Berlin's anti-Communists urged the West to take a firm stand in the big four negotiations in Moscow, while German Communists prodded the elected city government of Berlin to quit.

The Montags Echo reported t had learned from Soviet sources here that Russian administrative policies in Germany—even on relatively minor questions—are now dictated directly from Moscow.

Ernst Reuther, whose election as lord mayor of Berlin was vetoed by the Russians n June, 1947, declared "there cannot and must not be a smple and convenient withdrawal" of the Western powers powers from Berlin.

Reuter—a Communist turned Social Democrat—declared yesterday in a broadcast that the Germans deserve a better judgment by world opinion now than when the war ended.

Mayor Makes Statement

He said the Moscow talks on the Berlin blockade and the other East-West differences wil inot only decide the fate of Berlin. He added that there must be found a "genuine compromise" in Moscow that is based on justice.

From the German Communists came threats of a winter blockade of Berlin in an effort to incite the people against the anti-Communist city government. Neues Deutschland, the official Communist newspaper, demanded that the city government resign immediately "to spare (blockaded) western Berlin further suffering." It said:

"Winter stands before the door; where will you get coal?"

Man Burned In Truck Wreck

LAMESA, Aug. 16 (Special) — One man was hospitalized here with severe burns and an estimated $15,000 in damages to vehicles resulted from two collisions involving three large trailer trucks on U. S. Highway 87 about 12 miles north of this city early Sunday.

John Pope Taylor, about 55, of Childress, was in a hospital here in serious condition, but doctors who attended him said he probably will recover.

Others In Wreck

Involved in the wreck, but unhurt were Jim Bob Jordan, about 28, and Victor G. Hernandez, about 35, drivers of the other two trucks, and Homer Dugan Cawthon of Childress, who was riding with Taylor in an oil transport. Jordan lives in Poteet, and Hernandez is from San Antonio.

Highway Patrolmen J. C. Welch and E. B. McKnight, who investigated the accident and remained at the scene for several hours to warn motorists, gave this account of the smashups:

Jordan, driving a truck loaded with vegetables, attempted to pass Taylor's loaded gasoline transport as both were moving north about 1 a. m.

The trucks sideswiped, Taylor lost control of his machine, which turned over, blocking the highway and catching fire. Cawthon, who was riding with Taylor, extricated him from the cab, rolling him in sand to extinguish flames which enveloped his body.

Taylor's truck and trailer were demolished and the wreckage

Ohio Boy Winner Of Big Race At Akron

Lubbock's Joe Lon Teal Fails To Place In Soap Box Derby

BY C. W. RATLIFF
Journal Staff Writer

AKRON, Aug. 16—Joe Lon Teal, Lubbock's entry in the eleventh annual All-American soap box derby, didn't win in his first heat of the big race here Sunday, but he learned one of the biggest lessons on sportsmanship ever given a group of American youngsters.

And last night before a crowd of 1,500 people in the champions' banquet in the big Goodyear gym he came from behind the speaker's table backdrop to receive the plaudits of the crowd as he was presented along with 147 other youngsters from all over the nation.

He was presented a gold watch and a diploma for having competed in the derby and sat at a block-long table as prizes were given the winners.

Donnie Strub of Warren, Ohio, a suburb of Akron, was the winner of the big race, but only after a close finish with Gary D. Turley of Charleston, W. Va., home of the 1947 champion.

War Declared On Dixiecrats

Party Pledge Demanded By Loyal Texans

Rebels Will Be Tossed Out For Not Backing HST

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Aug. 16.—Texas Loyalist Democrats are threatening to boot the rebellious Dixiecrats out of the party if they won't promise to support the Truman-Barkley ticket in the presidential election.

A cheering caucus of party-line Democrats here yesterday declared open war on the Dixiecrats, demanding removal of any elector who refuses to take the party pledge.

The Loyalists also said they would refuse to seat any delegate at the Sept. 14 state convention who will not support the national party's nominees for president and vice president, and bar any official in the same category.

Official Poll Slated

There will be an official telegraphic poll of the May electors soon and if they do not indicate whether they are loyal "we'll see what we can do for them in Fort Worth," executive committee chairman Robert W. Calvert of Hillsboro told the shouting Loyalists.

The meeting, called by Mayor Tom Miller of Austin to map plans for the fight that will come to a showdown at the September convention in Fort Worth, authorized a statewide organization to make sure the Loyalists turn out in force.

The caucus was informed that a canvass of county convention returns showed the Loyalists have 1,045 potential votes, the Dixiecrats 751, and the views of 550 delegates are not known.

Jester Gets Praise

"I say we have the votes but it it important that we see to it that the loyal delegates reach Fort Worth," Calvert advised. The meeting authorized him to head up the statewide organization. Miller will work with him.

The Dixiecrat or States' Rights faction of the party wants Texas' Democratic electoral votes cast for the southern Democratic ticket of Thurmond and Wright. The Loyalist faction, headed by Gov. Beauford H. Jester and Calvert, are holding to the party line and backing Truman and Barkley.

The caucus here heard many warm words in praise of Jester for his party loyalty. Among those who went down the line for him were Caso March of Waco and Roger Q. Evans of Denison, both unsuccessful candidates for governor against Jester in the July primary.

"Let's get together and drive the Dixiecrats out of the party like rattlesnakes," March cried.

The meeting was attended by 225 persons representing many shades of Democratic thought.

High Food Costs Got Their Goats

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 16 (U.P.)—Something new has been added by two Kansas City housewives in the nation-wide campaing for lower food prices.

Mrs. W. I. Davenport, wife of a carpenter-contractor, and Mrs. W. E. Eisenhart, wife of a physician, are urging "women everywhere" to buy a goat "and bring down the price of milk."

They point out:

Goats are cheap ($3 to $5).

They'll keep your yard free of grass and weeds; do not cost much to feed.

Each goat will give one to two gallons of milk a day.

Goat's milk is highly recommended by doctors.

And then, they add, when the price of milk comes down, you still will have the goat as a source of meat for the family dinner table.

INCENDIARY BLAZES REPORTED

East Texas Forest Fires Are Raging

(By The United Press)

LUFKIN, Aug. 16—The most serious outbreak of early-season forest fires in history raged through the piney woods of East Texas today, as some 200 Forest Service employes battled the destructive blaze.

Texas Forest Service headquarters in Lufkin reported 34 fires burning yesterday. Lumbermen and cattlemen had joined the members of the Forest Service in attempting to bring them under control.

O. H. Hill, the Forest Service's dispatcher in Lufkin, said 98 per cent of the fires appeared to be of incendiary origin. He largely blamed careless smokers.

Hill said that since Aug. 1, more than 22,000 acres of valuable timberland had been destroyed.

Complicating the situation was the tinder-dry condition of the piney woods. No rain had fallen in the area for two weeks.

Ordinarily, the woods are hard hit by fires only after the first frost in the fall.

Areas Involved Listed

The 34 fires reported yesterday raised the total since Aug. 1 to 398.

Montgomery and San Jacinto counties were the hardest hit, with only slightly less damage reported from Tyler, Polk, Newton, Sa-

Alger Hiss Will Take Stand To Tell Story In Spy Probe

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Alger Hiss, former state department official has accepted an invitation to testify to the House un-American Activities committee in closed session, late today.

Chairman Thomas (R-NJ), when announcing this, told reporters it is important that Whittaker Chambers will be present.

Original plans were to have the two men—accused and accuser—face each other today and see whether they would repeat conflicting testimony given the committee in its investigation of alleged Communist spy activities.

Thomas said the committee still hopes to bring the two ment together at some time.

Magazine Editor Testifies

Chambers, now a senior editor of Time magazine, has testified he was an active Communist in the 1930s. He said he knew Hiss as a member of an "elite" Communist underground movement that once operated here.

Chambers also said that after he broke with Communism he pleaded with Hiss to do likewise but Hiss refused.

Hiss, in public testimony, has denied any Communist connections and declared he does not know Chambers.

The committee plans an early recess of its hearings. But the echoes seemed likely to reverberate for a long time to come.

Attorney General Clark, for instance, whipped out a contention that the inquiries on Capitol Hill have damaged administration efforts to crack down on Communist activities.

Moscow Dusts Off Spy Case

And Moscow came up with a spy case of its own by dusting off a four-month old charge against an American naval officer. The state department, however, insisted it was nothing but a frame-up. U. S. officials said it seemed to them the Soviets were just try-

Vacationing Couple Dies In Florida

Young Stenographer Attacked And Slain; Escort Is Killed

(By The Associated Press)

ORMOND, Fla., Aug. 16 — A pretty Georgia stenographer was raped and slain and her 23-year-old escort shot in the head at close range on a desolate moonlight beach here in what authorities described a sone of the most fiendish slayings in the state's history.

Sheriff Alex Littlefield said the young vacationing couple—24-year-old Mary Hucks of East Point, Ga., and Gregory Blount of Lexington, Ky.—was shot and killed early Saturday night on a lonely beach about a half-mile from the nearest habitation.

The young woman's bruised and beaten body was found in a clump of palmetto brush. Her bathing suit had been wrenched from her body, and footprints in the sand indicated a fierce struggle, Sheriff Littlefield said.

"There is no doubt that she was raped," he added.

Body Found On Blanket

He said Blount's body was found on a blanket spread upon the white beach sands, and that young man apparently had been slain while he slept.

The Volusia county sheriff said his investigation indicated that two slayers were involved in the crime and he theorized that they were "sex perverts on the prowl."

Rewards totaling $1,000 had been offered for information—"with no questions asked"—leading to the arrest and conviction of the slayers, Littlefield said.

"We have some leads, but we would be fools to give them away right now," he continued.

Police said the couple had met at this Atlantic seaside resort only last Thursday, had a double date with another couple Saturday afternoon, and were reported last seen before their deaths about 6:30 Saturday night.

Sheriff Littlefield said a reconstruction of the crime indicated

Heat Wave In Area Is Ended

(By The Associated Press)

A cautious weather bureau official said today "it looks as if the heat wave in North Texas may be broken, for now."

Temperatures throughout the northern part of the state ranged in the 60's early today before beginning their usual climb. There was hope that climb wouldn't reach recent heights.

City officials anxious about growing water shortages joined in hoping for a break in the prolonged heat.

Temperatures Reported

The temperatures this morning that made good reading included: Amarillo and Clarendon 63, Wichita Falls, Lubbock and Pampa 66, Childress 68, El Paso 69 and Dallas 73.

South Texas remained in the grip of the heat, with Presidio again taking the hot-spot title yesterday with 104. Other highs yesterday: Laredo, Lufkin and Bryan 103, Tyler, San Antonio and Waco 102, Austin and Houston 101, and Dallas 100. It was the seventh consecutive day Dallas had reported 100 or higher.

Rainfall was capped by a 2.58-inch gully-washer at Texarkana yesterday. Other rain: .26 of an inch at Ozona, .15 at Waco, .10 at Marfa, .01 at El Paso.

White House Announces Major HST Speech

Truman Will Open Campaign Labor Day At Detroit Rally

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16—The White House announced today that President Truman will speak at a Labor day rally in Detroit.

That confirmed reports which have been current for some time. The speech is expected to be one of his major addresses of the presidential campaign period.

J. Howard McGrath, Democratic national chairman, long has urged the President to open his 1948 campaign in Detroit with an appeal for labor support.

Mr. Truman's charge that Republican tax cuts built up inflation fires appears to be developing into a major issue. It is likely to prompt a campaign demand by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey for a drastic cut in government spending.

Mr. Truman's attack on the Republicans—made in a disputed estimate that the nation faces a $1,500,000,000 deficit—was due to be broadened with his promised statement on the credit-curbing bill

Sudden Blast Sends Flames Over Crowds

One Fireman Still Missing In City's Greatest Tragedy

(By The Associated Press)

RENO, Nev., Aug. 16—Fire, a shattering explosion and panic among several hundred spectators left a toll of five dead, one missing and 137 injured in Reno's worst tragedy in its history.

The fire broke out about 10 a. m. yesterday in a false-fronted frame and brick building in the old business district. It drew several hundred onlookers, massed around the scene just a few blocks east of the city's gambling quarter.

Some Are Trampled

The sudden explosion and fire killed the fire chief of a nearby city and four men. A sixth, a Reno fireman, was missing. The blast sprayed injury among the spectators. Some were trampled in the rush to get away.

As firemen fought to prevent the blaze from spreading to adjoining buildings, a policeman warned the crowd to get back—that "there's dynamite in there."

"A few of the timid retreated," said John Sanford, city editor of the Reno Gazette. "The rest pushed closer. There was a roar. Smoke, shot through with spurts of flame, blanketed a half block of Lake street."

No Dynamite Involved

District Attorney Harold Taber said preliminary investigation disclosed no dynamite involved in the blast.

Taber and Reno detectives joined the fire department in a continuing investigation of the explosion and fire. Property damage was estimated, unofficially, at between $100,000 and $300,000.

The blast blew out the front of the building, which housed small shops, a vacant cafe and a small rooming house. A slot machine—one of those under repair in one of the shops—went booming across the street. Shoes were blown off some spectators.

The crowd, showered with smoking debris and splinter glass, broke in panic. Some were trampled underfoot. Others were badly cut. All available ambulances were summoned, some rac-

Property Lost In Burglaries

Police studied evidence today in several weekend burglaries.

Property valued at $390 was reported taken in a burglary of the 1915 Ave. B residence of Surlester Hereford, identified as a negro. Hereford reputedly lost two expensive suits, two shirts, and an automatic pistol.

Other Cases Reported

The detective bureau had sent officials to check into a reported burglary of a residence in the Avinger addition. An incomplete report said money, and a watch had been taken. The report, referred also to John W. Wilson, city-county juvenile counsellor, was made by Hulon Phillips of Avinger addition.

An unknown female who answers description of a woman who has been reported several times recently in connection with similar incidents, entered a residence in 2200-block Ninth, and one later at 2500-block Ave. J, police were informed.

Purse Is Stolen

It was believed she may have been the person who took a purse from the 1908 Main quarters of Lois Butler, officials indicated. The purse had $25.35 and a fountain peh, among other properties, police were informed.

A woman at the Ninth street address said the intruder "just walked into the house," and when she saw someone was there she asked to use the phone, then went outside, got into a taxicab and left, police were informed.

A woman answering the same description has done the same thing several times in recent weeks, officials said.

Police said Ernest Balden, who had been stabbed late Saturday

Gov. Warren Meets With Dewey To Map Strategy For Campaign

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 16 (AP)—Tabbing high prices and "peace with honor" as the top campaign issues, Gov. Earl Warren of California got together with Republican presidential candidates Thomas E. Dewey today for a strategy pow-wow.

Warren, the GOP vice presidential candidate, singled out those issues in advance of the round of conferences with Dewey scheduled through tomorrow.

Issues To Be Discussed

The nominees will talk about the issues as well as places and dates for Dewey and Warren speeches. The sessions will be attended by Herbert Brownell, jr., Dewey's campaign manager; U. S. Senator William F. Knowland (R-Calif) and other key GOP advisers.

Warren named the main issues, as he sees them, during a stopover at La Guardia airport in New York City on his way to Albany yesterday.

"We'll go down the line and discuss every domestic and international issue and all phases of the campaign which occur to us during the two days," the California governor told reporters regarding the conference with Gov. Dewey.

Labor Day Open

Dewey and Warren made it clear at a joint news conference in the executive mansion last night that they have no plans to compete with Mr. Truman in Labor Day campaign speeches. The President will open his campaign in Detroit on that date, Sept. 6.

In reply to a question, Warren said he had no Labor Day speech scheduled.

"Same answer," said Dewey when the question was put to him.

As for whether Dewey would debate with Mr. Truman if the occasion should arise, the New York governor termed that "an 'if' question" and declined to answer it.

Dewey said that while he and Warren planned to discuss "the whole campaign, the issues and the route," they will take in stumping the country, he doubted there would be any announcement of detailed plans when the conference ends tomorrow.

Actress Sets Goal For Film Stardom

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 16 (AP)—After all these years, Claire Trevor has decided she wants to be a star.

Claire has specialized in first-class supporting parts, such as those in "Stagecoach," "Dead End" and "Murder, My Sweet," while taking an occasional flier at leading roles. This has been going on for 15 years and she now says she's aiming at the top bracket.

"Until now I always thought of the movies as a temporary arrangement," she explained on the "Lucky Stiff" set. "I had always thought of myself as a stage actress. But I had a few flings at the stage and I decided I like pictures better.

No Longer Feels Temporary

"Now that I no longer feel temporary in the movies, I want stardom. Heretofore I never felt the demands were worth the advantage. But I realize that's the only way I can get top roles, top directors and top cameramen."

Mack Sennett will be honored with a dinner at the Masquers club this week. Frank Capra, Leo McCarey, Harold Lloyd, Buster Keaton and Frank Fay will be among the speakers. Hollywood's conscience has been hurting since D. W. Griffith died in obscurity.

Cecil B. DeMille has figured out how to break down the columns: I don't mean such as this one. The producer-director has figured out a scientific explanation of how Samson (Vic Mature) will topple the temple columns at the climax of "Samson and Delilah." Faulty architecture will cause the walls to come tumbling down.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL . . .

Wife Thinks She And Wonderful Husband Appear To Be Growing Apart In Feeling And Interest

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: We have been married 10 years, my husband has worked his way up to a substantial income, we have all the desired conveniences, and have been absolutely happy except for two things.

1. We haven't been blessed with children. 2. Our roots are in the East, where we own a home, and I had hoped to return to our many interests there after the war, but Rod elected to keep his good job in San Diego.

Somewhat grudgingly I assented to this, with much fretting at first, I admit; but Rod was very sweet about trips back East whenever I wished, and now I'm adjusted, so that's not the difficulty. Our big problem is that we are drawing slowly apart in feeling and interests, and I wonder whether my post-war pouting started this drift.

Rod has been a wonderful husband and in other years we shared all recreations, including friends, trips, shows, etc.; but when we go out together nowadays there are long silences and no sense of sharing. We just don't "click" any more. We have both grown irritable and apologetic by degrees, despite interludes of trying valiantly to regain rapport. . .

WANTS TO HANDLE PROBLEM WISELY

MY husband says he loves me as much as he "could ever love anyone," but that it cold comfort after nearly 10 years' accustomedness to every evidence of deep love and affection; and I have begun to feel like a parasite in relation to him, although I am a good, economical housekeeper.

I have a good education, I look and dress better than many women of 40; I am interested in everything; and I have a profession to which I could return and make my own living. But the fact is, I love him more than ever and wouldn't want another sort of life without him.

However, if he has lost pleasure in my company, have I a moral right to stay with him? He says, "How could we get a divorce?"—as much as to say, "What reason do we have?" I've convinced myself there is no triangle factor and perhaps I am being overly sentimental. Do we need love after 40? Please advise me before it's too late to meet the problem wisely.

(Signed) R. L.

THINKS TO RUN FROM HER FEARS

DEAR R. L.: You say you've convinced yourself there is no triangle here, which implies that your intuition strongly suggests the existence of a love-rival offstage, whereas your mind rejects the idea as to painful to contemplate.

In all probability your hunch is sound, and it were better to look it in the eye, in your private assessment of the situation, rather than try to banish the thought as "unthinkable."

To surmount a difficulty, one must be aware of factors involved; and it seems to me you put your finger on the origin of the marital rift, when you speculate that it may have begun about the time you were fighting Rod's decision to stay in San Diego, and exacting various trips "back East" to assuage your fretting.

It seems unlikely that a man tied to a job could break away sporadically for transcontinental trips with his wife, hence I infer that you went without Rod occasionally, possibly even with peevish intent to leave him lonely and neglected briefly, as punishment for displeasing you.

BE CALM, GENEROUS DURING THIS PHASE

IN such case, it is conceivable that during your absence, he might have chanced on a congenial woman willing to share his evenings, who amiably salved the wounds you had dealt and inadvertently or artfully weaned his thoufhts from you—with the result that, on your return, the best he could give you was a negative welcome and perfunctory solicitude.

As I get the picture, he is amatively agog over somebody else at present, though still deeply attached to you by bonds of habit and intermingled experience. He is vexed with your company, preferring another's, and you resent the end of the honeymoon, hence the edgy temper of your dealings nowadays.

For advice: Stop taxing Rod about his feelings. Stop pressing him for adulation; stip clocking his pulse, figuratively speaking. In brief, stop forcing trouble. Take for granted the marriage will last; love him fully in unasking ways during this phase, counting it a blessing that you are his wife and morally privileged to care for him. Gradually he will respond in kind, and a more mature, more secure, more deeply married unity will evolve.

FELT SO WEAKENED HE COULD HARDLY STAY ON THE JOB

Retonga Gets Credit from Mechanic Who Suffered Distress from Nervous Indigestion, Constipation, and Loss of Sleep. He Now Feels Fine.

"My job is hard work and takes plenty of strength and energy, so you can see how thankful I am for the relief Retonga brought me from the miserable way I felt," declares Mr. Perry A. Hyche, automobile mechanic and respected resident of 624 18th St., Bessemer, Ala. He gratefully continues.

"I suffered such distress from nervous indigestion and excess gas on my stomach, that I had to rely on soft foods and liquids most of the time and eat only what caused me the least discomfort. I felt jumpy and restless and seldom slept over a few hours a night. My bowels were so sluggish I had to take strong laxatives. Having to eat as I did, I felt weakened and draggy most of the time.

"The relief Retonga brought me was one of the most wonderful experiences I ever had. Right from the start I began to feel better, and get back some of my lost strength and energy. I now eat anything I want without a worry, sleep better and get up ready for a good, hard day's work. My constipation has been relieved and I no longer rely on strong laxatives. I am glad to recommend Retonga to others suffering as I did because I think it's a truly fine medicine."

Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, borderline Vitamin B-1 deficiency, and constipation. If the first bottle fails to give you gratifying relief, your money will be refunded. You can get Retonga at all good drug stores, including Walgreen Drug Store.—Adv.

Hubbers Fall To Dukes, 9-7, In First Of Two-Game Series

Between . . . The Lines

— By JOE KELLY —

After the Clovis game the other night, when rain finally halted the contest in the bottom half of the eighth inning, we were given a lot of rhubarb by probably well meaning persons. The rhubarb was over our giving credit to Clovis for four runs scored in the top half of the inning, making the score 15-5. Most persons contended that the score should have reverted back to the seventh, when it was 15-1. But that isn't what the rule book says, so we are going to quote it for you.

From "Official Playing Rules of Professional Base Ball Clubs," we quote Rule 23, Section 6, which says: "It shall be a regulation game if at any time after five (5) innings have been completed, the umpire shall call it in accordance with Section 3 of this rule, and the score shall be that of the last equal innings played; except that if the team second at bat shall have scored in an unequal number of innings more runs than the team first at bat, or if the team second at bat is at bat when the game is called, and has scored in the incompleted inning the same number of runs, or at least one run more, than the team first at bat, the score of the game shall be the total number of runs that each team has made."

If that is complicated, we turn to the official manual for scorers as issued by the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues' official scorers' bureau. This manual interprets and explains the rules more simply. "The point to remember is that after five innings, the score reverts to the last equal innings, except that the score remains as is, at the time, if 1, home club is ahead; 2, home club is at bat and score is tied." We aren't defending the way we called it, but merely are passing it along for the benefit of those who did not realize that this was the case. As a matter of fact, several of the Hubbers didn't realize it and swore that we were wrong.

High school football drills open today, which hardly seems possible, but open they do and indications are that competition will be stronger than ever throughout the South Plains. Both Floydada and Seminole wrote in to say that they had lost heavily in material, but were looking for good replacements to step in and fill the gap. And right here in Lubbock the Westerner staff is faced with problems, as they prepare for as still a schedule as they have had in a long time. We look for the same rugged type of play this Fall as we saw last year in all the schools, with the same rivalries growing more taut and producing the same fine football.

Texas Tech doesn't open grid drills until Sept. 1, but they'll make up for lost time when they do hit the gridiron. The Red Raiders are more to be pitied than anything else this year, what with a rough, tough schedule to meet. On the basis of returning material, the team looms as a strong threat to repeat in the Border Conference, but to run into lots of trouble against Southwest Conference competition. If a few of those big junior college players should happen to show up on the Raider campus, Coach Dell Morgan and his staff would breathe a little easier. Otherwise it's apt to be a rough 10 games for Tech.

Chick Fowler, whose batting average has been slumping, received some unexpected help the other day, but it won't do him any good. His father, who follows his son's career closely, knew that he was having bat trouble, so got a friend to put three stout pieces of oak on the lathe and fashion some timber for Chick. The bats arrived last week in fine condition. The only trouble with them was that 1, they were too heavy; and 2, they were much too short! Chick is looking around for a deserving kid who has a lot of muscle and determination. They'd just about fit one of the sandlot boys.

Royce Mills was told the other day that he had started a game this year, but he was positive that he didn't. He turned to this writer for assistance and we backed him up, positive that we hadn't seen him start. The Hubber batboy, though, was equally positive and came down to the office, going through the files until he found proof. And there it was. Rooster started against Albuquerque on April 25, going five and a third innings, giving up nine hits and nine runs. Lubbock won the game, 19-9, so that Saturday night's victory over Borger was the second time this season that Royce has started and won a nine-inning game.

THE ROUNDUP: Walker's mother has been watching her son catch the last two games . . . . Fowler's left leg is painful, the result of sliding Friday night. But he still had two for four Saturday night . . . Bob Kramolish, regular Borger catcher, is sidelined with a broken finger, the result of a Hubber-Gasser skirmish in Borger. The Gassers were much weaker with 17-year-old T. L. Lasley behind the plate. . . . Frank Secory wasn't too certain of himself Friday night, even going so far as to call a ball on Bob Frye, when the young Borger hurler swung all the way around on a pitch . . . When Chris Haskins took time out a crucial ninth inning Friday night, when Borger had the sacks loaded, fans were amazed. But not, so much so as they were when it was discovered he was only changing chaws! . . . The Hubbers won their 30th home game Saturday night and it was their 60th game at Rosenthal Field.

The Lubbock Hubbers had too little too late yesterday afternoon at Rosenthal Field and the Albuquerque Dukes walked off with a gift victory, 9-7, in the opener of a two-game series.

The loss didn't hurt the Hubbers a great deal, with Amarillo beating Pampa in the first game of a twin bill, 4-1, while the Gold Sox lost the second game, 4-0. Borger oblingingly beat Abilene 9-7 to maintain Lubbock's lead over the Blue Sox. And at Lamesa, where the two tail end clubs met, the Clovis Pioneers swamped the Loboes, 19-7.

Five-Run Explosion

A five-run explosion in the first frame was enough to send Leon Hayes and the Loboes, now under the acting management of Shortstop Walter Buckel, down to defeat. Buckel took over Saturday night, after Manager Tony Fiarito had been sold unexpectedly to Midland.

Clovis maintained their five-run lead through the seventh inning, but exploded in the eighth for six tallies and added another trio in the ninth to put the game entirely out of reach.

There were a dozen "ifs" in yesterday's game, including "if" Virgil Richardson had gotten a hit in the ninth, "if" Gene Hixson had gotten a hit in the first, "if" Chick Fowler had held onto Pitcher Ray Machado's line in the second, "if" both Frank McAlexander and Fowler had gotten one more hit apiece, "if" Cotton Russell hadn't served up a home run pitch to Len Attyd in the eighth, and several more.

But these ifs never settled anything and the Dukes did. Despite a shaky ninth inning, during which the Hubbers made life very uncomfortable for Manager Herschel Martin, the Dukes gave a pretty good demonstration why they are leading the league. They received a good mound job from Machado and they backed him up with some fine filding. They also hit the ball pretty well. In fact, they made 14 hits good for a total of 24 bases.

Brilliance Was Lacking

The Hubbers, faced by the best club in the loop, didn't exactly go to pieces by any means, but they failed to come up with their brilliant work afield. Three unearned runs came in during a four-run second inning and after that the Hubbers wern't able to overcome the deficit.

Despite that, three fast double plays were turned in, and they helped to snuff out Duke scoring chances. All three doubles plays came in successive innings, making seven Duke hits good for only two runs, when they threatened to make a rout of the game.

Three Hubber chuckers failed to halt the hitting prowess of the visitors, who managed to put their blows together when they counted. The only inning they failed to score in, after getting a hit, was in the sixth, when Manager Jackie Sullivan started a double play.

Score In Bunches

The Hubbers scored their runs yesterday in bunches, getting one in the first on a walk to Don Moore, McAlexander's single and Bob Clodfelter's single. They picked up another in the fourth on Moore's second hit, a double, a wild pitch and McAlexander's fly to left field. And two runs scored in the sixth on a walk to Richardson followed by Floyd Walker's home run over the centerfield fence.

The Hubbers made a threat in the ninth, after McAlexander had gone out. Fowler led off with a single and Royce Mills, batting for Cotton Russell, walked. Martin yanked Machado at this point and inserted Lee Zamorra, who walked Jackie Wilcox and had three balls on Hixson, when he too was shunted from the game. Martin took over and completed the walk.

Sullivan Pounds Double

He then elected to pitch to Sullivan, which was a mistake, the Hubber manager pounding a double into left centerfield to score Fowler and Mills. Don Cantrell came on at this point and the old Hubber nemesis completed the inning. He slipped two strikes past Richardson and then the Hubber first baseman hit to Ron Bowen, who stepped on the bag for the second out. Hixson, who had gone half way home on the play, was trapped and elected to try and score. He didn't make it and the Dukes ended the game with a double play.

Tonight, Roland Miller probably will go for the Hubbers, with either Virgil Butler or Frank Shone hurling for the Dukes.

Missed Putt Costly To Babe Zaharias

NORTHFIELD, N. J., Aug. 16 (AP)—A five-foot putt missed by Mrs. Mildred (Babe) Zaharias cost her $1,000 yesterday in the women's national open golf tournament, as she easily captured the event at the Atlantic City country club.

As it was, the Ferndale, N. Y., star collected the winner's purse of $1,200 with an even 300 for 72 holes, eight strokes better than Betty Hicks, Detroit, in second place.

A country club member offered $1,000 to any of the 11 professionals in the tourney scoring under 300.

Vandergrift Defeats Lubbock To Win State Softball Crown

WICHITA FALLS, Aug. 16 (Special)—Three unearned runs gave the Vandergrift softball team possession of the Texas Amateur Softball Association championship as they defeated the Thomas-Sunbeamers of Lubbock 3-0 behind the three-hit hurling of Tawrance Smith before a crowd of 2,500 in Scotland Park.

Jackie Neel, the brilliant Lubbock hurler, apparently tired from pitching his fourth game in four nights, wasn't in top form, but still had enough to keep the victors under control. Neel should have escaped without a run over the regulation distance, but errors by his mates in the first two frames hurt.

Trophy Is Presented

Manager Blackie Hilliard, representing the Lubbock nine, accepted the runner-up trophy after the game, presented to him by Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce officials. The Lubbock nine won their first four games in the tournament, two of them eight inning, no-hit, no-run games by Neel, with a one-hit, no-run game by G. W. Warden.

Lubbock never was able to threaten last night and only three batters hit safely, including Neel. All eight hits in the game were singles. The Lubbock team never was able to put two of the hits together.

The game also saw Byron Clark's pinch hit record broken. Previously Clark had gone in to bat three times for Charley Reynolds and had hit a home run and two doubles. Last night he fanned on three pitches.

Win In First Inning

Dallas won the game in the first inning when Whatley opened the initial frame by striking out. Fine singled to centerfield and when Reynolds booted the ball, the runner went all the way to third. He scored easily when Squires bounced out, pitcher to first.

Two more runs scored in the second on two singles and two errors. Wilson opened the frame by fanning, but Latimier singled through the box. Good was safe when Warden messed up his double play ball to put two men on. Smith whiffed to put two away and relieve the pressure. But Ferguson was nicked by a Neel fast ball to load the sacks and bring on Whatley. He lifted an easy Texas Leaguer that fell behind second. Latimier scoring; and when Warden's throw to the plate was wild. Good dented the rubber.

Fine fanned to end the inning, but the damage had been done and Lubbock could never get back in the ball game.

The Thomas-Sunbeamers will return to Lubbock today and prepare for the Texas Softball League Shaughnessy playoffs that start next week. They were crowd favorites in this city and, if they could have shaken off their tension, should have won last night's game. They fought down to the last out, but it wasn't their night.

WICHITA, Kans., Aug. 16 (AP)—Fort Benning, Ga., sprang a mild upset here last night when it knocked off the Alpine, Tex., cowboys, 3-1, in the national semi-pro baseball tournament.

Each team made only four hits. However, wild throws from the infield in the fourth gave the soldiers what proved to be the winning runs, two scoring on a walk and two errors.

Indians After League Crown

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Lou Boudreau's mid-July prediction that his pennant-hungry Cleveland Indians would win the American league pennant looks better than ever today.

Back home for a six-game stand against the lowly St. Louis Browns and Chicago White Sox, the Indians are safely enconced in first place, a game and a half to the good over the Philadelphia Athletics, two and a half in front of the Boston Red Sox and five ahead of the New York Yankees.

Feller In Fine Form

Further cause for jubilation among the tribe was the fine pitching form displayed by the two Bobs—Feller and Lemon—who hurled the Indians to a 6-2 and 8-0 sweep over the White Sox in Chicago yesterday.

The happiest note for the Indians in yesterday's triumphs was Feller's fine showing in the first game in which he spaced 11 hits for his 12th victory. It marked the first time he has pitched a complete game since he was beaten by the Browns, 3-2, on July 11.

The Athletics rebounded from their two crushing defeats at the hands of the Yankees by whipping the Bronxites twice 5-3 and 5-3. The first game went 10 innings.

The twin triumph enables the A's to take over second place from the Red Sox who were held to a split by the Senators in Washington. After Washington won the opener, 5-4, the Sox came back to win the nightcap 8-7.

Tigers Knock Off Browns

In the other American league game, the Detroit Tigers came up with two runs in the top of the ninth to break a 1-1 tie and defeat the St. Louis Browns, 3-1.

Brooklyn climbed back within three games of the National league leading Braves by defeating them in Boston, 4-2. The third place St. Louis Cardinals picked up a half game on the leaders, dividing a double header with the Pirates in Pittsburgh. They now trail Boston by three and a half games. The Cards won the opener 8-3, but lost the nightcap, 5-4.

The Phillies set back the fifth place New York Giants twice, 8-1 and 7-5, to move within three games of their victims. Chicago and Cincinnati divided a doubleheader. The Cubs won the opener, 7-6, and the Reds copped the afterpiece, 5-0.

Black Hubbers Lose To Hobbs, N. M., 9-7

Lubbock's Black Hubbers were slightly outclassed by the Hobbs, N. M., Tigers Sunday, 9-7, at Hobbs Memorial stadium.

Batteries for the Hubbers were Childress, Johns, and Bracey, and for Hobbs, Smith, Walker, and Cobbs.

Thursday and Friday of this week the Hubbers will be host to the Dallas Red Sox at Rosenthal Field at 8:30 p. m. each night. Sunday, August 22, the local club will meet the Slaton Mexican Tigers at Rosenthal Field at 3:30 p. m.

Line score in yesterday's game follows:

Trout Cops Country Club Title 2 And 1

Veteran Chick Trout, sr., steady-stroking Lubbock links ace, staged a brilliant comeback on the last 18 holes of the finals of the annual Lubbock Country club championship tourney Sunday afternoon to nose out hard-driving Jimmy Goldman, 2 and 1.

Goldman had taken a two-up margin over the first 18 holes of the championship match Sunday morning at the club course, but Trout rallied with a series of sensational approach shots and a hot putter to even the count on the sixth hole of the final round.

Missed Three-Footer

Both golfers shot par fives on No. 7 and par fours on No. 8 to remain deadlocked, then Goldman went one-up with a par three on the short ninth hole. Both men were on the edge of the green with their first shots, but were short with their putts. Goldman sank his second putt for a par three, but Trout missed a three-footer to go one down.

Trout and Goldman split the next two holes with par fours and fives, then Trout evened the count with a birdie two on No. 12. Both golfers were on the green with their tee shots, and Trout sank a five-foot putt to take the hole.

Trout went one-up on the next hole, No. 13, with a birdie four. Goldman's tee shot went wide to the right of the fairway, and he had to make his second shot from a difficult lie. Goldman's third shot went to the far edge of the green and he two-putted.

The finalists split the next two holes with par fours, then Trout went two-up with a par four on No. 16. Goldman missed a three-foot putt to muff an opportunity to halve the hole.

Trout holed out on No. 17 with a par three to divide the hole and clinch the club championship, 2 and 1.

Trout had a two under par 65 through the 17 holes of the final round, while Goldman was two over with a 69. In the morning round Goldman had a one over par 72 for the 18 holes, with Trout taking a three over 74.

Most lower flight championships were also determined at the club Sunday, with L. G. Raney defeating Chick Trout, jr., one-up in 20 holes in the first flight finals. H. H. Holmes copped the first flight consolation title by downing C. W. Tatum, 3 and 1.

Bob Smith ousted Al Cooper, 3 and 2, in the finals of the second flight bracket, with Tom Hamm the consolation win over J. A. Raley, one-up.

Other Results Given

In the third flight Earl Ray chalked up an easy 6 and 5 triumph over Dick Green, as Wilkie Talbert dropped Charles Whitacre, 2 up, in the consolation finals.

Armstead Smith copped the fourth flight consolation title with a victory over C. E. Roberts, one-up in 19 holes. Lt. J. E. Critz defeated C. R. Skidmore, 2 and 1, in the fifth flight and Harold Humphries gained a consolation triumph over John Shelton, one-up in 19 holes.

Two final matches are scheduled at the club this afternoon, with Bruce Kattmann meeting Tom Murphy in the championship flight consolation and Guy Brown clashing with J. E. Auburn in the fourth flight bracket.

WHEN we were in Berlin last Winter, we met and talked at length with a very intelligent youngster whose name we prefer not to use publicly—for fear of possible reprisals—but whom we shall call Hans Schmidt.

We met young Hans through Mrs. Robert LeG. Walsh, wife of an American major general in charge of U. S. Intelligence in Occupied Europe. Mrs. Walsh had met Hans through her contacts with the boy's mother, now a seamstress. Hans' mother is the divorced wife of an actor who, in pre-war Germany occupied much the same stage and screen position which Frederic March occupies here.

Young Hans, then nearing 17, is as smart as a proverbial whip. He had been taken in tow by the Nazis when six years old and had come up through the regimented Hitler Youth Movement. By the time of Germany's collapse, he was a Youth Gauleiter—a sort of captain of a company of other youngsters similarly schooled in fascist manner.

Mrs. Walsh, who has children of her own who are older than Hans and who is a very fine and thoughtful lady, thinks that Germany never can be democratized without proper native leadership. She thinks that if Hans could be reclaimed from the Nazis, he could be one of the pillars of strength about which a German democracy eventually can be forged. So she and General Walsh have cultivated the lad, have seen that he meets and mingles with numerous Americans and more or less look on him as a protege.

We hadn't talked five minutes with Hans before we, too, saw his possibilities.

Since our return home, we have corresponded with him from time to time, answering his questions about affairs in this country; sending him shoes, clothing, some food items, shaving cream and soap. This we have done to help Mrs. Walsh's "Operation Rehabilitation" program as far as Hans is concerned.

THE other day we got a couple of letters from Hans. One, in particular, gives the German impression of the Berlin crisis; a summary of public opinion among Berliners—and shows how interested even the kids there are in international affairs.

In these regards, Hans wrote (and we quote him, word for word):

"As you know the crisis here in Berlin began in April and became more bad from week to week.

"Berlin is feeded only now thru the air. (I mean the Western sectors.)

"All night and all day we can see and hear the American and British planes. This gives us a strong feeling and shows us that the Western Allies don't want Germany conquered by communism. We all welcomed the protest note of the Western Powers against Russian blockade to Berlin.

"Life here is full of adventures in Berlin, because the Russians know how to kidnap the Berliners. I think there are only a few Berliners who do not hate a Russian uniform. These are the SED-ists (communists.)

"A few weeks ago Communists tried to struck and hang Social Democratic senators, who sent a letter to the UNO about the Berlin situation. I was there and could see it with my own eyes. A communist woman cried, pointing her finger at an old lady who is one of the Social Democratic leaders in Berlin: 'Kill the old Jewish swine!'

"This shows the communists are the same bunch of criminals the Nazis were. The whole Democratic world has to fight them!

"Here is another thing I saw last Sunday. There was a carrace in Wannsee (a section of Berlin) and thousands of spectators were there. When the race was over and the crowd began to go home, a high Russian officer tried to pass in his car.

"We all tried to stop him and some tried to beat him and throw stones on him. This shows how we hate the Russians.

"But I am afraid such things will not help us much, or make the Bolsheviks more kind to the German people. But when that fat so-and-so passed by, we came in extasy!"

OUR letters from this youngster, who goes to high school, plays basketball and baseball; sings in the school chorus and plays the drums and piano, sometimes astound us in the very visible extent of his "Americanization."

He has had a very favorable position, of course, through the sponsorship of the Walshes. In this respect, he is one in a million.

But his letters are dotted with American slang and expressions and his reports of his school activities show that the American influence in the particular school is very great.

We never fail to marvel over the interest and insight in world affairs shown not only by this particular boy, but, through his remarks, by the German in the Street. Talk of a "Big Four" meeting is greeted with the same sort of avid interest in Germany as the World Series is in this country.

Hans Schmidt is no fraud. Through General and Mrs. Walsh we know all about him. We know what has been done for and with him since the Americans moved into Berlin and we have seen and continue to see the results.

His reactions, then, to what he calls the "airbridge" are those of the Berliner—and so are his reactions to the great "Two Worlds struggle," or "cold war," which all mankind is watching today.

According to the sawbones in Lisbon, a frontal lobotomy can make a silk purse out of a sow's ear—brain-wise speaking; or, maybe better, a mental giant out of a dumb bunny.

If they're right, and the docs can popularize the lobotomies to the same extent they have the appendectomies, another 25 years should find us a race of tremendous Thinkers.

And when that happens, maybe somebody will be smart enough to think up a cure for the common cold!

Charles Skouras Launches American Youth Aid

ED. NOTE—Drew Pearson today awards the brass ring, good for one free ride on the Washington Merry-Go-Round, to Charles P. Skouras, head of the National Theatres.)

WASHINGTON—When Charley Skouras came to the United States as a Greek immigrant boy forty years ago, no one ever figured that someday he would become head of the largest movie-theatre chain in the world.

Nor did anyone ever dream that last week he would help the President of the United States dedicate a special "youth month stamp"—a stamp commemorating the month of September and the drive which the Theatres of America and most of the communities of America will make toward wiping out juvenile delinquency.

PEARSON

Charley Skouras is heading that "youth month" drive.

Sometimes I think many of the Americans who have become U. S. citizens by adoption, who know first hand what it is to live in the old world, are more appreciative of the USA than those born here who take this country for granted. Certainly this is Charley Skouras' viewpoint toward the USA.

When he first landed in New York, Skouras got a job in a Greek restaurant paying him 50 cents a day, plus meals and the privilege of sleeping on bags of coffee in the rear at night. Later he moved to St. Louis, where he worked as a bus boy. His two brothers, Spyros and George, were also in St. Louis hotels, worked hard, saved their money.

The bartender who employed Spyros made him recite the Star-Spangled Banner, from beginning to end, every morning before he began work—which is probably more than most native-born Americans can do at any time. Spyros can still recite it, all the verses, and later gave the bartender an interest in the Shaw theatre in St. Louis.

World's Top Movie Magnates

The Skouras brothers got into the theatre business when a friend offered to sell them a decrepit St. Louis Nickelodeon. They had saved $3,500 and gambled it all on the then relatively new movie business. Fifteen years later, the Skouras brothers had acquired 36 theatres in Missouri, later sold out to Warner brothers, became bankrupt in the 1929 depression, subsequently signed up to manage 550 theatres in the West.

Today Spyros dominates 20th Century-Fox, George operates a chain of theatres in the East, while Charley, the oldest brother, is president of National theatres and Fox West Coast theatres, operating 1,500 movie houses.

I first got to know Charley Skouras when the friendship train was being organized. His theatre managers had been asked to tell the public about the idea behind the friendship train, and to that end Skouras called them to Los Angeles for a conference.

"But, boss," they protested, "we're just opening with 'Forever Amber.' How can we publicize that and the friendship train too?"

"Which is more important—" grounted Skouras "'Forever Amber' or your country, 'Forever Amber' can come later."

TODAY Skouras is heading the national committee for youth month, backed by the Theatre Owners of America whose 10,000 movie houses will do their best to create more interest in youth activities, beginning in September.

"The trouble with most of us," says Skouras, "is that we talk too much about juvenile delinquency and not enough about juvenile achievements.

"When I go to the country fairs and see the prize cattle, chickens, hogs and all the things that the farm kids raise all by themselves, it gives me a big thrill. That's achievement. Those kids won't go wrong, because they've got pride in their work. And some of them are more self-reliant at 12 than adults three times their age.

"But kids in crowded cities have a tough time," pleads Skouras. "So we've got to provide incentives, give them a chance to want to achieve, to improve themselves.

"Most American boys are hero-worshipers. They don't want to be side-line sitters. Give them healthy outlets for their pent-up energy and they'll land on their feet.

"Sure, some kids go wrong—maybe 2 per cent. But when it comes to delinquency, it's the parents and our own communities which are the chief delinquents."

More Playgrounds

The aim of youth month is to promote more playgrounds, swimming pools, gymnasiums, and off-the-street boys clubs. In New York, for instance, there is no home or institution where a boy picked up by the police can be taken for the night except to a municipal lodginghouse or to a jail.

In the more crowded slums, it is Charley Skouras' ambition to have a playground for every three or four blocks.

"The average age of criminals in our penitentiaries is under 25," he points out. "And most of them are in there chiefly as a result of the cities' squarlor."

During youth month, the Theatre Owners of America will show various short subjects on youth and juvenile delinquency, as well as special films and literature on community youth organization.

"Doing something for our youth is a lot more than a one-month job," explains Skouras. "This is only a start. But if we can make youth month in September really mean something, I hope the carry through will continue the rest of the year. Giving youth a real stake in our democracy is the best way to make democracy live."

The plan is to buy and/or build about 300 first-class hostelries in Europe, South America, Africa—wherever the governments seem safe and steady. As this outfit has unlimited money, flowing in from shady sources, which cannot well be accounted for to the U. S. Internal Revenue Department, the main idea is to scatter it. These masters at bribing and smearing are confident that they can beat the tax problems abroad, where American dollars can perform magic, but they know it's tough here and a prison risk, besides.

Nation Needs Better Method Of Studying Red Activities

WASHINGTON — After two weeks of Congressional hearings on Communist espionage activities it cannot be said that we are any closer than before regarding the truth of the sensational charges made before the various committees.

There now has been placed on the record for all the world to see and consider the amazing testimony of Miss Elizabeth Bentley, self-confessed Communist spy, regarding the alleged existence of a Communist spy ring that supplied Russia with secret information from confidential United States Government files during the war.

We also have had the no-less sensational testimony of Whittaker Chambers, a senior editor of Time Magazine, regarding the alleged existence of a Communist network that had been set up within the Government in pre-war years.

The testimony of Miss Bentley and Mr. Chambers has directly or indirectly pointed the finger of accusation in the direction of dozens of individuals.

Only Their Word For It

So far we have only their word for it. So far, at least in committee hearings, there has been a paucity of corroborative data regarding the role allegedly played by specifically named individuals in the Communist network and the Communist spy ring.

This does not necessarily mean that such data will not ultimately be forthcoming, although it is well to bear in mind that the Federal Grand Jury, which listened to the same witnesses, has not seen fit to indict any of the individuals named by Miss Bentley or even to issue a presentment of its findings.

Even less can we afford to assume that the testimany of Mr. Chambers and Miss Bentley is all smoke and no fire, simply because those individuals involved have denied their truth.

Long before the names of Bentley and Chambers flared into the headlines, the sober revelations of the Royal Commission of Canada regarding wartime Russian espionage in the Dominion made it clear that the same evil that had plagued Canada plagued this country, too.

THE Royal Commission's report did not go into detail on this matter, since it was outside its term of reference. But it produced evidence tending to show conclusively that the Canadian spy ring was linked to one in this country, Great Britain and nations on the European continent.

The very fact that much of the Russian espionage efforts in Canada, in the period covered by the Royal Commission report, involved aspects of the atomic bomb secret makes it certain that the Russian spy ring was, if anything, probably far greater in this country, the home of the bomb, than in Canada.

It cannot be said that even the Canadian commission's investigation resulted in a complete exposure. The commission's report mentions the fact that Russia maintained not one but several parallel undercover systems. The commission was able to delve into the ramifications of only one of these and even then its labors did not result in the discovery and apprehension of all the members of the particular spy ring revealed by Igor Gouzenko.

Yet the commission did a superb job. It not only dug up evidence sufficient to convict a dozen espionage operatives but, in the process, threw a very revealing light as to just how they were recruited, what prompted individuals of real intelligence to work for the Russian spy system and how they actually operated.

Very Little Brought Out

So far extremely little along these lines has been brought out by the Congressional investigations.

In permitting the broadcasting of sensational charges first and then trying to get the accused to confirm or deny these charges, the committee has produced not clarification but confusion.

On the one hand, some of the witnesses have stood on their constitutional rights not to answer on the grounds that answering might incriminate them and, on the other, the categorical denials by other witnesses of the testimony given by Miss Bentley and Mr. Chambers have added to the general bewilderment.

There is every reason why a thoroughgoing examination of Soviet espionage in this country and of Communist fifth-column activities should be conducted. It is imperative from the viewpoint of this country's national safety. But a better way must be found than the method now being employed.

The Feminine Viewpoint

PERHAPS just to contribute his bit to light summer conversation, a Northwestern University professor has come out with the statement that chivalrous men are nothing but wolves at heart.

MILLETT

While chivalrous men will undoubtedly deny this, any woman can prove it's true. Here's how: Have a party at which nobody is invited but settled, married couples (remember that adjective "settled"). Watch how slow the men are about noticing that a woman's cigaret needs lighting, that the hostess is setting up a card table without assistance, that a draft is blowing on Mrs. Fat-and-Forty's neck.

NOW, SWITCH SCENES

THEN get the same crowd together — and add something new—a pretty, young, unattached bit of femininity.

Then watch the men turn chivalrous.

One more word to the ladies. After you've made the tests and proved to yourself that the chivalrous man is only a wolf at heart, keep the fact in mind. And next time you start wishing your own husband had the beautiful manners of some other husbands, bring yourself up short.

Instead of wishing he were different, be glad, lady, be glad. It just means you aren't married to a chivalrous wolf.

A SOCIAL upstart once made the fatal error of trying to upstage Mrs. Stuyvestnt Fish, who combined the wit of Dorothy Parker with the arrogance of a Prussian general. Mrs. Fish was tricked into attending the upstart's party, and posing with her for snapshots for the society page. "We'll pose here," the upstart told the cameraman in a bellow designed to be heard by everybody present, "in front of this iron fountain. It was designed by Rodin, you know. I had it shipped from France."

"Very interesting," commented Mrs. Fish in equally distinct tones. "I have a trough exactly like it for my farm horses."

KIWANIS "ON THE BEAM"

The constructive position that naturally would be expected of Kiwanis International in any and all matters is reflected in the list of resolutions adopted at the recent national convention in Los Angeles.

The organization reaffirmed confidence in the United Nations; called for legislation barring Communists from employment in all branches of government and urged adequate national defense.

But, in some respects, the most interesting resolution urged statehood for Alaska and Hawaii. These proposals have been kicked around in Congress for a long time. They have been used as the excuse for numerous congressional junkets to Alaska, or Hawaii, to "investigate" the proposals—actually to provide luxurious vacation trips for dozens of congressmen.

With Kiwanis International and its more than 3,000 clubs behind them, advocates of statehood have gained a powerful ally. The club's membership typifies the very highest in citizenship in all communities with Kiwanis clubs. Kiwanis support brightens the outlook for the statehood sought and suggests the time may not be distant when congressmen will have to dig up some other excuse when they wish to go a-junketing at taxpayer expense.

Birthday Celebrated By 109-Year-Old Man

LINNEUS, Me., Aug. 16 (AP)—A century ago Jeremiah Campbellton wondered if he'd survive capture by the Micmac Indians.
He celebrated his 109th birthday here yesterday.
After six years as a Micmac prisoner, Campbellton escaped and returned to his home at Van Buren to find that the redskins, who took him into slavery had killed his parents and burned their frontier cabin.
For years he guided early settlers of northern Maine through the Aroostook forests.
Still hale, he enjoys his meals, plug tobacco and radio broadcasts.

Her battered body was found on her estate Saturday night. A blood-stained club was near the body and one arm was bound with a piece of cloth.
Laurens county Sheriff Carlus Gay said he was holding six negroes—four men and two women—for questioning. He said they are tenants on the Smith plantation.
Rewards of $500 have been offered by the state of Georgia and by Laurens county, Sheriff Gay said.
Mrs. Smith was a member of one of the most prominent families in the county. She has lived alone in her country home since the death of her husband eight years ago.

Scientists Experimenting With Process To Solidify Gasoline

By WILLIAM F. McMENAMIN
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16—Ever think of some day driving to the neighborhood filling station and buying a bagful of gasoline lumps for the car?

It's not as fantastic as it sounds. Military scientists now are attempting to perfect a process for the manufacture of solidified gasoline.

It can be handled and shoveled like coal. Or it can be made up in big blocks or tiny pellets, strips, ribbons or lumps the size of hens eggs.

Lumps Won't Explode

Furthermore, this congealed gasoline won't explode. It won't burn any faster than a lump of coal. It can be stored in open bins and shipped in ordinary freight cars like coal. It is light brown, porous, and jelly-like.

The scientists say it is possible to convert any grade of gasoline, kerosene, fuel oil or any other petroleum product into a semi-solid or even solid state. All this can be done without changing the characteristic of the original fluid.

The blocks or chunks then can be converted back into the fluid state under compression.

This method, of course, has great military value. An airplane carrying solid fuel that would not burn rapidly or explode if hit by incendiary bullets would be of tremendous value.

Commercial planes carrying it would be able to eliminate the deadly "crash and burn" characteristics of present aircraft.

Pipelines Not Needed

Navy ships, trucks and tanks also would be far more able to resist enemy gunfire.

Tests show that congealed gasoline may be stored for extended periods without loss of more than one per cent by evaporation.

Large petroleum stocks could be transported and stored anywhere. It would reduce the need for pipelines.

But there are bugs. The navy experimented for some time and found it "feasible but expensive." The Air Force said its experiments are continuing. But the product is still not in general use.

The army said the big difficulty is finding a method of making the product that is not too expensive. It is not now carrying on experiments.

One of the biggest problems is devising a means of converting it from solid to liquid just before injecting it into a engine's combustion chamber.

GOP Blasts

the Senate Appropriations committee. To which Chairman Millikin (R-Colo) of the Senate Banking committee added:

"Another of the weird distortions which are coming from the White House while its occupant is a nervous candidate for re-election."

Bridges insisted that instead of the $1,500,000,000 deficit Mr. Truman predicted, there will be a surplus "that will be not less than $6,000,000,000."

Millikin said even the President's own figures when viewed "on the basis of present realities" indicate a surplus of "over $5,000,000,000. Truman listed these as the "outstanding facts' 'of his budget review:

Budget Facts Reviewed

"1. Budget expenditures for the fiscal year 1949 are now estimated at $42,200,000,000 — substantially higher than was estimated in January—largely because of increases in the national defense program, increased benefits for veterans, and increased tax refunds.

"2. The tax reduction enacted in April will cause receipts for the fiscal year 1949 to be substantially lower than was estimated in January. Budget receipts are now estimated at $40,700,000,000.

"3. As a result, an operating deficit of $1,500,000,000 is now anticipated for 1949, compared with the record surplus of $8,400,000,000 in 1948. This sharp reversal eliminates one of the principal forces that have been restraining further inflation.

"4. The public debt was reduced by $6,000,000,000 in 1948. Present estimates indicate that no further reduction in the total debt will be possible in 1949.

Reduction Made Impossible

"5. As we look ahead it is clear that our national and international responsibilities make impossble any sharp reduction in government expenditures in 1950—indeed it is likely that there will be some increases. It is plain, therefore, that the ill-timed tax reduction of last spring has left the government facing a period of deficit financing."

Mr. Truman said he had had to revise his January spending estimates upward by $2,609,000,000 and his income forecast downward by $3,744,000,000.

But Bridges said the President had "scrambled" his figures and "is making a political feint by conjuring up crisis."

This is the way Bridges arrived at his $6,000,000,000 surplus prediction:

Budget Padding Charged

"In estimating expenditures at $42,200,000,000, President Truman had padded the total at least $1,200,000,000 beyond a reasonable amount based on action of the 80th Congress.

"An 'operating' expediture of more than $41,000,000,000 in the fiscal year 1949 is highly improbable unless the nation embarks on some vast new concept of foreign aid or national defense, which is not planned at this time.

"By benefit of the Millkin (foreign aid) amendment actual expenditures will total $38,000,000,000.

"In estimating revenue, the President has set his figure approximately $3,400,000,000 too low. He predicted revenue at $40,600,000,000 by assuming 'a continuation throughout the fiscal year of approximately the present level of income.'

Upward Revision Justified

"However, the national income during the past few months justifies an upward revision, which the President himself indicates is possible. I am informed by authoritative sources that revenue can be estimated conservatively at more than $44,000,000,000 during the present year."

Mr. Truman said national defense costs will be $12,140,000,000, up $1,500,000,000 from last year; foreign aid and other international outlays will total $7,010,000,000 and veterans benefits $6,791,000,000.

Bridges said the President overestimated foreign aid by possibly as much as $1,000,000,000 and guessed national defense expenditures at least $100,000,000 too high. He added:

"The president has not given sufficient detail in his statement for me to estimate the full extent to which the totals are padded."

ing to Reno from points as distant as Truckee, Calif., 35 miles west of here.

One Still Missing

While the injured were being rushed to three hospitals, rescue crews went into the still-smouldering ruins of the building to recover the bodies of these five victims:

Fire Chief Frank Hobson, 56, of adjacent Sparks; Capt. Glenn Davis, 35, and foreman Earl B. Platt, both of the Reno fire department; and two civilian rescue workers, Domingo Galli, 28, and Bill Byron, about 50.

Missing was Harold Hodson, 26, Reno fireman who had the day off, but who was reported to have gone to the blaze.

At a late hour last night, all of the hospitalized injured except 36 had been treated and released. An undetermined number of persons received emergency first aid treatment at a station quickly set up by the Red Cross near the blast scene.

Listed as critically hurt were Robert Gaussie, 52, business agent for a Reno labor union local; Capt. Lowell Monday, 38, of the Sparks fire department; John Lusich, Reno fireman and Hugo Fanucchi, 45, Renor wholesale grocer.

Man Burned

burned for several hours with loss estimated by Cawthon at more than $10,000. Jordan's truck and his load of vegetables were only slightly damaged.

The patrolmen said the second collision occurred about 4 a. m. when Hernandez, headed south with a load of potatoes, failed to heed the warning lights and shouts of patrolmen, veered his truck too sharply around the wrecked transport, and it turned over.

The impact caused explosion of the gasoline tank on the truck, setting fire to the overturned vehicle, which was a total loss estimated at $5,000. The potatoes, some of which may be salvaged, were scattered along a barrow ditch.

It was not learned whether the losses were insured. Patrolmen Welch said Mrs. Taylor is at the bedside of her husband here.

Truman Speech

passed by the special session of Congress.

In what Republicans long insisted would be a Democratic campaign document, the President was expected to say the GOP lawmakers gave him too little and too late powers to hold down the cost of living.

This then shapes up the inflation issue between Mr. Truman and Dewey—an issue the Republican presidential nominee is reported to be ready to meet headon. Their division of opinion seems linkely to be as sharp as that between them on tax cuts.

Rites For Retired Minister Pending

Funeral servces were to be held at 3 p. m. today in Tahoka First Baptist church for Sahar E. DePriest, 86, who died at her residence, 2702 Second, about 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning. A resident of Lubbock and vicinity for the past 41 years, Mrs. DePriest died after an illness of two years.

Rev. Cecil Ray, pastor of Arnett-Benson Baptist church, has been named to officate, and interment will be in Tahoka cemetery under direction of Rix Funeral home.

Survivors include five daughters, Mrs. George Annis Vinson of Hollywood, Calif., Mrs. Loafy Benton of Colorado Springs, Colo., Mrs. Bernice Harris of Buffalo Gap, Mrs. Eunice Balch of Pep, N. M., and Mrs. Golden Whte of Tahoka; three sons, Ernest K. of Lubbock, Sidney of Pasadena, Tex., and Stanford DePriest of Elida, N. ## Mother Who Opposed Surgery To Save Child Changes Mind

CHICAGO, Aug. 16 (AP) — A young mother who had held out against a long-shot gamble in corrective surgery to save the life of her child has changed her mind.

Mrs. Irene Lamphere, 21, said yesterday that since learning the prescribed delicate operation has been successful in several other cases "I see no use of holding back. I'm going to leave it to the doctors as to when the operation should be performed."

Her 21-months-old daughter, Pamela, was born with the bladder outside her body and physicians had said the child could not live longer than two years more unless the condition is corrected.

Husband Went To Court

At the same time, Mrs. Lamphere said the doctors had given the child only one chance in 100 to survive the operation. The mother had chosen that two years of Pamela's life over the risk of earlier death in surgery.

She clung to the decision with such determination that she and her husband, Fred, 23, had become estranged over it. He finally asked a court to order the operation over her protests.

At the court hearing, Judge Walter R. O'Malley decided to have deans of four Chicago medical schools make recommendations in the case. He said he would be guided in his judgment by their findings.

Actual Case Seen

Newspaper accounts of the case attracted the attention of several other mothers whose children have recovered from similar operations. Some of them telephoned Mrs. Lamphere. One of them, Mrs. Helen Ulrich, took her 19-months-old daughter, Christine, for a visit in the Lamphere home. Christine's operation, Mrs. Ulrich said, was similar to the one prescribed for Pamela.

"Now I know of a lot of babies who had the operation and are perfectly all right," Mrs. Lamphere said in announcing the reversal of her recision.

Western Film Star Is Honored Here

Lash LaRue, young star of western motion pictures, was honored at a luncheon at noon today at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley B. Blankenship, 2708 Ave. V.

LaRue arrived by air liner Sunday for a two weeks visit in Lubbock and the South Plains. He will appear in Wallace theaters. He will fill engagements in Lubbock Sept. 3 and 4.

Present at the luncheon today were Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Parks of Brownfield, Dave Stone, Royce Blankenship, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Neyland, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Blankenship and LaRue's manager, Jimmie Blythe, and three musicians in LaRue's party.

Couple Slain

the killers had walked past the couple, doubled back of a row of sand dunes along the ocean front, crept up to the pair, and shot Blount at point blank range.

Miss Hucks was awakened by the shot and ran a short distance before she was overtaken and dragged behind a screen of palmetto brushes where her assailants stripped her swimming suit from her, raped her, and then shot her, the sheriff surmised.

He said that indentations in the blanket indicated the couple were asleep when the slayers came upon them, and that Blount was shot first.

Miss Hucks was employed by an Atlanta architectural firm.

Blount's roommate here, Tom Conner, said he was invited to accompany the couple to dinner Saturday night, but declined.

Rites Are Set Today For Lubbock Woman

HOUSTON, Aug. 16. (U.P.)—Funeral arrangements were pending today for Dr. Thomas W. White, 80, retired Baptist minister who died Sunday in Crowell while visiting relatives.

A native of Brookhaven, Miss., Dr. White came to Texas in 1893, and served in pastorates at Jacksonville, Beeville, Yoakum, Port Lavaca, Angleton and Freeport.

He had lived in Houston since 1920, serving for 20 years as a missionary for the Union Baptist association.

Woman Celebrates Her 100th Birthday

ABILENE, Aug. 16 (AP)—Mrs. Mador Norsworthy celebrated her 100th birthday here Saturday and recalled a doctor told her 43 years ago that she had only a few months to live.

The tiny widow of a pioneer West Texas preacher is a patient in a hospital here.

Three daughters were on hand for a birthday party. They are Mrs. Arthur McEachern, Lubbock, and Mrs. Beulah Watts and Mrs. J. J. Pee, Abilene. A son, Claude Norsworthy, was unable to attend because of illness in his family.

Chambers and Elizabeth Bentley, another professed ex-Communist, have been the committee's star witnesses during more than two weeks of hearings.

Hiss testified that he had never "laid eyes on" Chambers before and would like to do so. That was in the face of Chahbers' sworn testimony that he even had visited Hiss at the latter's home.

Early Recess Improbable

Committee members said it was improbable the hearings would recess either late today or tomorrow for a week or more to give investigators time to develop new leads. An interim report is likely this week.

Members predicted privately that still "more names" will be brought into the hearings before they finally end.

More than a score of past and former government officials already have heard their names brought out during the hearings. Most of them have denied accusations made by Chambers or Miss Bentley or both. Others have stood on their constitutional rights and refused to answer questions.

BORDERLINE ANEMIA*
CAN ADD YEARS TO YOUR LOOK$!
Is your face too pale and worn-looking? Are you losing the sparkle and ambition of youth? Often such signs are caused not by age, but by faded, weak red blood cells. You may have a Borderline Anemia, due to a ferro-nutritional blood deficiency.
Medical studies show that up to 68% of women—many men and children—have this Borderline Anemia.
If you are a victim of this Borderline Anemia, you need Ironized Yeast Tablets! They are specially formulated to help build up faded, puny red blood cells to healthy redness and size, and thus permit your color and energy to come surging back. Of course, continuing tiredness and pallor may come from other causes—see your doctor regularly. But in this Borderline Anemia, take Ironized Yeast Tablets. Take them to reclaim your vitality, your healthy color, your enjoyment of life!
*Due to a ferro-nutritional blood deficiency, a condition for which Ironized Yeast is specially formulated.
